LONDON, JAN.15-(AP)-A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THE BRITISH CONSULATE IN TIENTSIN WAS UNDAMAGED BY THE COMMUNIST ARMY WHICH CAPTURED THE CITY.

NONE OF SEVERAL CABLES RECEIVED FROM THE CHINESE CITY TODAY REPORTED ANY CASUALTIES AMONG BRITONS WHO REMAINED IN THE CITY, HE SAID.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID HE HAD NO COMMENT ON A NANKING REPORT SAYING BRITAIN REFUSED ITS GOOD OFFICES FOR POSSIBLE ARRANGEMENT OF PEACE TALKS BETWEEN THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT AND THE CONQUERING COMMUNISTS.

NIGHT LEAD CHINESE

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN 15-(AP)-PRESENT U.S. FOREIGN POLICY OFFICIALS HAVE DECIDED THAT THIS COUNTRY SHOULD STICK BY ITS CURRENT "HANDS OFF" POLICY IN CHINA.

THAT IS WHAT STATE DEPARTMENT ADVISERS ARE EXPECTED TO RECOMMEND TO DEAN ACHESON WHEN--ASSUMING HIS CONFIRMATION BY THE SENATE--HE TAKES OVER AS SECRETARY OF STATE NEXT WEEK.

MOREOVER, DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES WILL BE SURPRISED IF ACHESON SEEKS TO CHANGE THE POLICY. FOR ONE THING IT APPEARS TO REPRESENT THE CONCLUSIONS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND THE OUTGOING UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, ROBERT A.LOVETT. ALSO, EVENTS ARE MOVING SO FAST IN CHINA NOW THAT IT IS DIFFICULT AS A PRACTICAL MATTER TO SEE HOW U.S. POLICY COULD BE CHANGED.

THE LATEST EVIDENCE OF AMERICA'S ALOOFNESS CAME TODAY WITH WORD THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD POLITELY BUT FIRMLY TURNED ASIDE A BID BY THE GOVERNMENT OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK FOR INTERVENTION BY THE GREAT POWERS TO TRY TO MAKE PEACE IN CHINA.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS DID NOT CHALLENGE REPORTS TO THIS EFFECT FROM NANKING. BOUND TO SECRECY AT THE REQUEST OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, THEY SAID MERELY "NO COMMENT."

BRITAIN FOLLOWED THE AMERICAN LEAD IN REJECTING THE REPORTEDLY

SOMEWHAT HAZY MEDIATION BID. PRESUMABLY FRANCE WILL ALSO. RUSSIA'S REACTION WAS NOT DISCLOSED ALTHOUGH THE WESTERN POWERS ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE TRIED TO SOUND OUT MOSCOW IN ADVANCE.

OBVIOUSLY THE UNITED STATES HOPES THAT ALL FOUR OF THE GREAT POWERS WILL HOLD ALOOF FROM THE CHINESE STRUGGLE. SOME OFFICIALS HERE FEEL THERE IS A RUSSIAN RELUCTANCE TO VENTURE INTO THE MAZE OF CHINESE POLITICS.

THE FAILURE OF CHIANG'S NEW YEAR'S PEACE STATEMENT (NEVER VERY OPTIMISTICALLY REGARDED HERE) TO GET ANY FAVORABLE REACTION FROM THE COMMUNISTS, AND NOW THEIR VIRTUAL DEMAND FOR CHIANG'S UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER, OFFER LITTLE HOPE THAT A NEGOTIATED PEACE IS POSSIBLE. ON THE CONTRARY, AUTHORITIES HERE SEEM CONVINCED THAT COMMUNIST DOMINATION OF CHINA IS ONLY A QUESTION OF TIME.

JAN 1949

A13WX.

AMERICAN POLICY WITH RESPECT TO CHINA AND THE FAR EAST RECENTLY HAS MOVED ALONG THREE LINES AND PRESUMABLY WILL CONTINUE THAT WAY:

1. TO AVOID RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY OF CHIANG'S RECENT OR FUTURE MANEUVERS, WHETHER HE MAKES PEACE, SURRENDERS OR FIGHTS ON.

2. TO AVOID ANY PROVOCATIVE ACTION WHICH WOULD NEEDLESSLY PREJUDICE WHATEVER KIND OF GOVERNMENT NEXT EMERGES IN CHINA.

3. TO DISCOVER MEANS OF PREVENTING THE SPREAD OF COMMUNISM IN OTHER AREAS OF ASIA AND OF COUNTERING ANY UPSET TO AMERICAN INTERESTS IN THE WESTERN PACIFIC IF THE COMMUNISTS GET CONTROL OF CHINA.

AMERICAN SUPPORT AGAINST THE DUTCH OF THE NON-COMMUNIST INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT WAS PART OF THIS LAST POLICY POINT. ANOTHER IS THE CONTINUING REVIEW OF THE AMERICAN MILITARY POSITION IN JAPAN AND THE WESTERN PACIFIC.

REPORTS FROM LONDON TODAY THAT BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER SCHUMAN HAD STUDIED THE POSSIBILITY OF FORMING A BROAD ANTI-COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION FOR SOUTHEAST ASIA WERE RECEIVED HERE SOMEWHAT CAUTIOUSLY AS PERHAPS INDICATING ANOTHER POSSIBLE LINE OF ACTION.

HOWEVER, AVAILABLE OFFICIALS SAID PRIVATELY THEY HAD NOT HEARD OF ANY CONCRETE PLAN FOR SUCH A LEAGUE AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS EXPECTED TO HOLD STRONGLY TO THE LINE THE UNITED STATES SHOULD NOT TAKE ON GREATER RESPONSIBILITIES THAN IT CAN EFFECTIVELY CARRY JAN AT THE MOMENT WASHINGTON'S CONCERN IS CENTERED ON COMPLETING THE STILL 1949 INCOMPLETE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY ARRANGEMENT FOR THE PROTECTION OF WESTERN EUROPE.

CHINESE (3RD)
BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON,JAN.15-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN AND POSSIBLY FRANCE WERE REPORTED TODAY TO HAVE TURNED ASIDE A CHINESE GOVERNMENT MOVE AIMED AT EFFORTS BY THOSE NATIONS AND RUSSIA TO END THE CIVIL WAR.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, HAVING BEEN REQUESTED BY THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT TO KEEP SILENT, WOULD SAY ONLY "NO COMMENT."

NO AUTHORITY HERE IN POSITION TO KNOW, HOWEVER, WOULD DENY REPORTS, WHICH CAME LAST NIGHT FROM NANKING, THAT THIS COUNTRY ALONG WITH BRITAIN, HAS SIDESTEPPED.

THESE REPORTS LEFT THE POSITION OF RUSSIA UNCERTAIN AND THAT OF FRANCE SOMEWHAT UNCLEAR. WHAT HAD HAPPENED WAS THIS:

THE CHINESE FOREIGN OFFICE IN NANKING RECENTLY ASKED THE AMBASSADORS OF THE FOUR GREAT POWERS TO DETERMINE THE ATTITUDES OF THEIR GOVERNMENTS ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN CHINA--CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S UNSUCCESSFUL NEW YEAR'S PEACE BID AND VARIOUS COUNTER MOVES BY CHINESE COMMUNIST LEADERS.

(THE LATEST OF THESE COUNTER MOVES CAME LAST NIGHT WHEN MAO TZE-TUNG REJECTED CHIANG'S PROPOSALS COMPLETELY AND LAID DOWN AN EIGHT POINT COUNTER PLAN WHICH SUBSTANTIALLY DEMANDED THE UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF CHIANG'S GOVERNMENT.)

THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S NOTE TO EACH OF THE FOUR POWERS, SO FAR AS COULD BE LEARNED HERE, DID NOT SPECIFICALLY REQUEST MEDIATION BUT MADE CLEAR THAT THE CHINESE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN ANYTHING THE GREAT POWERS COULD DO ALONG THAT LINE. IT WAS NOT CLEAR WHETHER THEY WERE BIDDING FOR A JOINT EFFORT OR WHETHER THEY WERE READY TO ACCEPT THE PEACEMAKING EFFORTS OF ANY ONE POWER.

THE UNITED STATES CONSULTED WITH BRITAIN AND FRANCE AND THERE WAS APPARENTLY WELL-FOUNDED SPECULATION HERE THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALSO HOPED TO GET SOME CLUE EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY AS TO THE SOVIET ATTITUDE.

AT ANY RATE, THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN FINALLY INFORMED THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IN NANKING YESTERDAY THAT THERE WAS NOTHING WHICH THEY COULD USEFULLY DO IN THE WAY OF PROVIDING ADVICE OR COUNSEL AT THE PRESENT STATE OF DEVELOPMENT OF THE CHINESE WAR.

THEIR NOTES ARE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE REFLECTED THE ATTITUDE HERE THAT THE DETERMINATION OF THE FATE OF CHINA IS NOW IN THE HANDS OF THE CHINESE SOLELY AND ANY EFFORT OF OUTSIDE NATIONS TO TRY TO PUT OVER THEIR OWN SOLUTION WOULD END BY RAISING RESENTMENT ON ONE SIDE OR THE OTHER.

THE FRENCH POSITION WAS BELIEVED HERE TO HAVE FOLLOWED THT OF BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES BUT WAS NOT SO SPECIFICALLY REPORTED.

THERE WAS NO CLUE AT ALL AS TO THE RUSSIAN POSITION.

(220) TIENTSIN
WASHINGTON,JAN.15-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS REPORTED FROM TIENTSIN TODAY THAT ALL AMERICANS APPEARED TO BE SAFE THERE AS CHINESE COMMUNISTS OCCUPIED THE CITY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT RELEASED THE TWO LATEST REPORTS FROM CONSUL GENERAL ROBERT L.SMYTH, WHO SAID SEVERAL INSTANCES OF COMMUNIST ACTION HAD INDICATED TO HIM THAT "CONDUCT OF OCCUPYING TROOPS IS EXEMPLARY."

HE ALSO ADVISED THE DEPARTMENT THAT A COMMUNIST PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER HAD TALKED TO JAMES T.IVY, AN ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION OFFICIAL, AND ASSURED HIM THAT AMERICANS AND AMERICAN PROPERTY "WOULD BE GIVEN FULL PROTECTION."

SMYTH AND HIS STAFF APPARENTLY WERE DESTINED TO BECOME THE SECOND CONSULAR GROUP TO BE CAUGHT IN THE CHINESE COMMUNIST ADVANCE. TWO MONTHS AGO THE STATE DEPARTMENT LOST DIRECT CONTACT WITH CONSUL GENERAL ANGUS WARD AT MUKDEN WHEN THE COMMUNISTS, HAVING OVERRUN THE CITY, SILENCED HIS RADIO.

SO FAR AS IS KNOWN HERE, HOWEVER, WARD AND THE PEOPLE WITH HIM HAVE SUFFERED NO HARM.

SMYTH'S REPORT OF GOOD CONDUCT ON THE PART OF THE COMMUNIST TROOPS IS IN LINE WITH REPORTS WHICH THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS RECEIVED ON COMMUNIST ACTIVITY IN OTHER CITIES PREVIOUSLY OVERRUN. IT SUGGESTS A DELIBERATE POLICY OF TRYING TO WIN OVER THE CONQUERED POPULATION WITH GOOD TREATMENT.

SMYTH SAID THAT ALL MEMBERS OF THE CONSULATE STAFF WERE SAFE AND THAT CONSULAR OFFICES HAD NOT BEEN BADLY DAMAGED, ONLY WINDOW AND DOOR GLASS HAVING BEEN SMASHED BY EXPLOSIONS.

APPARENTLY THE GARRISON EITHER SURRENDERED OR SOUGHT DISGUISE IN CIVILIAN CLOTHING. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF ANY NATIONALIST RETREAT FROM THE CITY. Do Working (Ch-Tientsin) XXX CONCESSION

WFTU (600)

BY RICHARD TOMPKINS

LONDON, JAN.15-(AP)-THE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS, TORN WITH DISSENSION OVER COMMUNISM, FACES THE CRISIS OF ITS SHORT LIFE MONDAY AT A MEETING OF ITS EXECUTIVE BUREAU IN PARIS.

EAST-WEST POLITICAL DIFFERENCES IN THE FEDERATION HAVE REACHED THE POINT OF AN OPEN SPLIT. IT EXPECTED TO RESULT IN THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE BRITISH TRADE UNION CONGRESS, (TUC) PROBABLY THE AMERICAN CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS (CIO) AND EUROPEAN NON-COMMUNIST UNIONS.

THE TUC WILL BRING THE CONFLICT TO A HEAD WHEN IT FORMALLY PRESENTS ITS PROPOSAL THAT UNLESS THE WFTU SUSPENDS ACTIVITIES FOR A YEAR, AFTER WHICH ITS CONSTITUTION MIGHT BE RE-EXAMINED, THE BRITISH UNIONS WILL WALK OUT.

SOVIET TRADE UNIONS, COMMANDING A MAJORITY VOTE WITHIN THE WFTU BECAUSE OF THEIR LARGE SIZE, ARE EXPECTED TO REJECT THE PROPOSAL. THIS EVENTUALLY MIGHT RESULT IN THE FEDERATION BECOMING AN ALL-COMMUNIST ORGANIZATION.

JAMES CAREY, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE CIO, WHO IS LEAVING LONDON FOR PARIS SUNDAY HAS INDICATED THE TUC WILL HAVE THE FULL SUPPORT OF THE CIO. HE SAID THE CIO WILL NOT TAKE ANY POSITION "SHORT OF THE TUC," THOUGH THE CIO'S ACTION WILL BE INDEPENDENT. THE CIO'S FINAL POSITION WILL BE DETERMINED WHEN CAREY MEETS OTHER MEMBERS OF HIS DELEGATION IN PARIS.

THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR (AFL) IS SEEN CAMPING ON THE DOORSTEP, WAITING TO FURTHER ITS PLAN FOR A NEW INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF "FREE" TRADE UNIONS. THE AFL NEVER HAS BEEN A MEMBER OF THE WFTU.

CAREY HAS BEEN IN LONDON SEVERAL DAYS CONFERRING WITH ARTHUR DEAKIN, GENERAL SECRETARY OF BRITAIN'S BIG TRANSPORT AND GENERAL WORKERS UNION AND PRESIDENT OF THE WFTU. DEAKIN SERVED NOTICE SEVERAL MONTHS AGO THAT THE TUC WOULD DEMAND SUSPENSION OF THE WORLD FEDERATION FOR ONE YEAR.

THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE CIO DELEGATION, EN ROUTE ON THE LINER QUEEN MARY, ARE EMIL MAZEY, SECRETARY OF THE UNITED AUTOMOBILE WORKERS, REPRESENTING WALTER REUTHER, UAW PRESIDENT; L.S. BUCKMASTER, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED RUBBER WORKERS, AND DAVID J. MCDONALD, SECRETARY-TREASURER OF TH UNITED STEEL WORKERS. ELMER COPE, ASSISTANT GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE WFTU AND CIO REPRESENTATIVE IN EUROPE, IS ANOTHER MEMBER ALREADY HERE.

DEAKIN, WHO WILL HEAD THE BRITISH DELEGATION, SAID RECENTLY THE WFTU HAD BEEN TURNED INTO A "COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA PLATFORM" AND AN INSTRUMENT OF SOVIET POLICY.

BEFORE THE WFTU CAME INTO BEING IN 1945 SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES WANTED DECISIONS OF THE FEDERATION TO BE BINDING ON ALL AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS, WITH 60,000,000 MEMBERS.

SIR WALTER (NOW LORD) CITRINE OF BRITAIN, WHO BECAME THE FIRST PRESIDENT, RESISTED THIS POLICY. HE WAS BACKED BY PHILIP MURRAY, HEAD OF THE CIO AND THE LATE SIDNEY HILLMAN. SUCH DECISIONS, THEY SAID, MIGHT INVOLVE INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ACTION AND WOULD BE EMBARRASSING AND IMPOSSIBLE TO OPERATE.

THE CLEAVAGE HAS WIDENED SINCE, THE RUSSIANS REFUSING TO ACCEPT A FREE GERMAN TRADE UNION MOVEMENT AND BLOCKING DISCUSSIONS OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM. A TRADES UNION MARSHALL PLAN COMMITTEE WAS ESTABLISHED OUTSIDE THE FEDERATION.

DEAKIN'S DENUNCIATION OF THE WFTU WAS FOLLOWED BY THE CIO'S AUTHORIZATION TO ITS EXECUTIVE BOARD, AT ITS PORTLAND, ORE., CONVENTION LAST NOVEMBER, TO TAKE ANY ACTION IT DEEMED NECESSARY.

THE EUROPEAN NEWS-LETTER OF THE AFL HAS CALLED FOR DISCUSSIONS AMONG THE FREE TRADE UNIONS OF THE WORLD WITH THE OBJECT OF ESTABLISHING A NEW INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION.

"THE PAST YEAR ENDED ONCE AND FOR ALL ANY ILLUSIONS ABOUT THE WFTU," SAID THE NEWS-LETTER. "THE LEADERS OF FREE LABOR MUST NOW DETERMINE WHERE THEY GO FROM HERE AND WHETHER THEY GO AT ALL. THAT REQUIRES ABOVE ANYTHING ELSE THE INTERMENT OF THE WFTU CORPSE, WHICH STILL BLOCKS THE ROAD. ITS BURIAL WILL PERMIT FREE LABOR TO FACE THE NEW TASKS AHEAD."

THE MANCHESTER GUARDIAN SAID "IT MAY BE THAT DESIRE TO COMBINE AGAINST THE COMINFORM WILL IN THE END UNITE THE CIO AND THE A. F. OF L."

BUTCHERS ARE SERIOUSLY CONCERNED BY DECLINING SUPPLIES OF MEAT, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

MINISTRY OF FOOD OFFICIALS DECLINED TO SPECULATE ON A POSSIBLE CUT IN THE RATION-- EACH BRITON NOW GETS ONE SHILLING'S (20 CENTS) WORTH OF MEAT A WEEK. BUT ONE SPOKESMAN DISPUTED A CLAIM BY THE MEAT TRADES JOURNAL THAT THE MINISTRY WAS "HARD PRESSED" TO MEET PRESENT RATION REQUIREMENTS.

THE TRADE WEEKLY SAID THERE WAS "LITTLE DOUBT" THAT A RATION CUT WAS IN PROSPECT THIS SPRING.

THE MINISTRY OF FOOD SPOKESMAN CONCEDED THERE WAS A SERIOUS DROP IN ARGENTINE MEAT SHIPMENTS LATE LAST YEAR BUT DECLARED THAT "MEAT FROM THE ARGENTINE IS NOW ARRIVING IN THE NORMAL WAY."

PRECEDE DUESSELDORF DAY (430)

BY RICHARD KASISCHKE

BERLIN, JAN.15-(AP)-RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED NEWSPAPERS SOUGHT TODAY TO WHIP UP MASS PROTESTS BY THE GERMANS AGAINST THE WESTERN ALLIES ON THE ISSUE OF THE WESTERN POWERS' CONTROL OF THE RUHR.

THE COMMUNIST-DIRECTED GERMAN PEOPLE'S CONGRESS OF THE SOVIET ZONE CALLED MEETINGS TO CONDEMN WHAT IT DESCRIBED AS THE "RUHR DICTATE AND THE ALLIED OCCUPATION STATUTE."

THE RUHR STATUTE PROVIDES FOR CONTROL OF THE IRON AND COAL PRODUCING CENTER BY AN AUTHORITY COMPOSED OF SIX WESTERN POWERS--THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG--AND GERMANY WHEN SHE HAS A GOVERNMENT. IT ALSO IS DESIGNED TO PREVENT THE RUHR FROM BEING USED FOR THE REARMING OF GERMANY. RUSSIA HAS ASKED THAT SOVIET AUTHORITIES BE ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE IN MANAGEMENT OF THE RUHR.

TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU, OFFICIAL SOVIET ARMY NEWSPAPER HERE, CONDEMNED THE STATUTE AND THE ARREST BY THE BRITISH OF MAX REIMANN, WESTERN GERMANY'S NO.1 COMMUNIST. REIMANN WAS PICKED UP TWO DAYS AGO ON A CHARGE OF THREATENING GERMAN POLITICIANS WHO COOPERATE WITH THE WESTERN ALLIES UNDER THE RUHR STATUTE.

DECLARING THAT "GREAT INDIGNATION" HAD BEEN AROUSED BY REIMANN'S ARREST, TAEGLICHE RUNDSCHAU SAID: "THE GERMAN PEOPLE WILL NOT LET ITSELF BE GAGGED."

THE NEWSPAPER SAID THE ONLY CASE THE BRITISH HAD AGAINST REIMANN WAS THAT HE OPPOSED THE "THEFT OF THE RUHR" BY THE ALLIED STATUTE. IT ADDED:

"AND THE GERMAN MASSES REALIZE IT IS ONLY BECAUSE REIMANN FIGHTS AGAINST EVERY ENSLAVEMENT OF THE GERMAN WORKING PEOPLE THAT HE SHOULD NOW BE SILENCED."

THE NEUES DEUTSCHLAND, OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED SOCIALIST UNITY PARTY, SAID: "EVERY DEMOCRATIC GERMAN, EVERY ONE WHO LOVES HIS HOMELAND, STANDS WITH MAX REIMANN ON THIS QUESTION."

MEANWHILE, BRITISH AUTHORITIES IN DUESSELDORF ANNOUNCED THE ARREST OF TWO OTHER TOP COMMUNISTS IN CONNECTION WITH A JAN.2 COMMUNIST RALLY WHICH PROTESTED AGAINST THE RUHR STATUTE.

PAUL SALEMKA, COMMUNIST PARTY SECRETARY IN THE RUHR, HAS BEEN CHARGED WITH "ORGANIZING A PUBLIC POLITICAL MEETING WITHOUT PERMISSION OF THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT," A BRITISH ANNOUNCEMENT SAID. THIS ALSO WAS THE CHARGE PLACED AGAINST HUGO PAUL, COMMUNIST CHAIRMAN IN THE RUHR.

GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY SAID DETAILS OF THE ALLIED MILITARY SECURITY BOARD, AS PROVIDED IN THE RUHR STATUTE, WILL BE MADE PUBLIC MONDAY. THE AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR MADE HIS ANNOUNCEMENT AFTER CONFERENCES WITH FRENCH AND BRITISH MILITARY OFFICIALS AT THEIR REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING IN FRANKFURT. THE BOARD IS TO HAVE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF DISARMAMENT AND DEMILITARIZATION.

THE AMERICAN-BRITISH AIRLIFT SUPPLYING SOVIET BLOCKADED WESTERN BERLIN AVERAGED JUST UNDER 6,000 TONS DAILY THIS WEEK, A NEW RECORD SINCE THE SOVIET BLOCKADE WAS IMPOSED LAST JUNE.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THEY BELIEVED THE WEATHER PROBLEM HAD BEEN CONQUERED. AIRLIFT CREWS FLEW IN 41,540 TONS OF FOOD, COAL AND OTHER NECESSITIES IN THE WEEK THAT ENDED AT NOON TODAY. THE OLD MARK WAS 41,287 TONS FOR THE LAST WEEK IN DECEMBER.

SINCE THE AIRLIFT BEGAN WESTERN BERLIN HAS RECEIVED 817,379 TONS OF GOODS ON 109,861 FLIGHTS. THERE ARE VARIOUS ESTIMATES AS TO MINIMUM NEEDS. THE USUALLY ACCEPTED FIGURE IS 4,000 TONS OF SUPPLIES DAILY.

DORTMUND, GERMANY, JAN.15-(AP)-FOUR AMERICAN G.I'S ARE DOING A MONTH'S TRAINING WITH BRITISH TROOPS IN THIS RUHR CITY AND THINK IT'S GREAT -- EVEN TO THE TEA AND BUNS.

THE FOUR, AN OFFICER AND THREE SERGEANTS, ARE PART OF A TRADE-AND-LEARN PROGRAM ADOPTED BY THE U.S. AND BRITISH ARMIES IN GERMANY. WHILE THE AMERICANS LIVE, WORK AND STUDY WITH THE BRITONS, THEIR OPPOSITE NUMBERS IN THE EMPIRE ARMY SPEND TIME AT AN AMERICAN BASE.

WHILE THE PROGRAM IS NOT ALTOGETHER NEW, IT LAGGED FOR NEARLY A YEAR AND WAS ONLY RECENTLY REVIVED.

FIRST LT. DONALD I. ABBOT OF (1315 WEST FIFTH ST.) CHARLOTTE, N.C., IS ENTHUIASTIC ABOUT THE PLAN.

"UP HERE WE LIVE WITH THE BRITISH TROOPS. AND WE LEARN THEIR METHODS OF OPERATION. ACTUALLY, THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE TWO ARMIES IS NOT GREAT. WE ARE REACHING A FAR BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF EACH OTHER."

ABBOT, A VETERAN OF SIX YEARS IN THE ARMY, WAS CHOSEN FROM AMONG SOME 100 YOUNG OFFICERS OF THE FIRST U.S. INFANTRY DIVISION. NOW HE IS, TO ALL PURPOSES, A MEMBER OF THE FIRST BATTALION, ROYAL SCOTS FUSILIERS, AT DORTMUND.

WITH HIM ARE THREE WAR-WISE COMBAT VETERANS.

FIRST SGT. WILLIAM F. CODY OF (1413 E.AIRLINE AVE.) ASHEVILLE, N.C., WENT INTO GUADALCANAL WITH THE 25TH DIVISION AND LATER MADE THE LONG TREK UP THE PACIFIC TO JAPAN.

CODY GRINNED: "THEY HAVE REALLY SHOWED US A FINE TIME HERE. WE FEEL THAT WE FIT IN VERY WELL, AND WE ARE LEARNING THAT WE HAVE PLENTY OF COMMON GROUND."

SGT. ZELBERT WHITLEY OF (ROUTE 6) YAKIMA, WASH., IS ANOTHER ENTHUSIAST.

THE BRITISH ARMY FOOD? "WELL, LET'S NOT TALK ABOUT THAT," WHITLEY SAID. "THE TEA IS OKAY. THE POINT IS, WE ARE LEARNING SOMETHING WHICH IS REALLY A HELP."

JAN 1949

B25 (G)

SGT. EUGENE J.TOUGHIOO, (HOMETOWN UNAVAILABLE) A 31-YEAR-OLD VETERAN OF EUROPEAN WARFARE, NOTED ONE BIG DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN ARMIES.

"THE DISCIPLINE HERE IS MUCH BETTER," HE SAID. "THAT GOES ESPECIALLY FOR NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS. UP HERE A SERGEANT REALLY SWINGS SOME WEIGHT AND HE IS RESPECTED FOR HIS POSITION. I CAN'T SAY THAT GOES IN OUR OWN ARMY."

SO FAR, ABBOT AND HIS MEN HAVE BEEN ASSIGNED TO A MORTAR PLATOON, ACCOMPANIED A SIGNAL CORPS UNIT ON A FIELD PROBLEM, DONE DUTY IN THE MORTAR TRANSPORT ORGANIZATION, AND OBSARVD OFFICE ROUTINE.

THE AMERICAN CONTINGENT IS CALLED ON TO GIVE LECTURES TO BRITISH TROOPS ON THE ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF THE AMERICAN ARMY, FURTHER IRONING OUT WRINKLES OF DIFFERENCE IN ROUTINE.

ON ONLY ONE POINT DO THE FOUR ADMIT DEFEAT.

"NONE OF US ARE GOING TO BE ABLE TO LEARN TO PLAY BAGPIPES," SAID WHITLEY. "THAT IS JUST A LITTLE TOO TOUGH TO TACKLE."

TOGLIATTI CHOSE BOLOGNA TO DELIVER A MAJOR ATTACK ON THE WESTERN POWERS AND THE ANTI-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER ALCIDE DE GASPERI. HE CALLED HIS SPEECH "ITALY ADRIFT".

HE CLAIMED THAT RUSSIA WAS NOT AN AGGRESSOR NATION "BECAUSE THE WORKING CLASSES DO NOT DESIRE TO WAGE WAR TO SPREAD THEIR OWN SOCIAL IDEAS."

THE ITALIAN COMMUNIST LEADER DECLARED THAT WAR IS NOT INEVITABLE. HE SAID THAT COLLABORATION WAS POSSIBLE "AMONG ALL DEMOCRATIC STATES AND BETWEEN GREAT POWERS RESPECTING INTERNATIONAL PACTS UNTIL THEY HAVE BEEN UNILATERALLY VIOLATED."

REFERRING TO THE PROPOSED INCLUSION OF ITALY IN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN AND ATLANTIC ALLIANCES, TOGLIATTI DECLARED:

"THIS IS THE ROAD LEADING TO FASCISM."

HE SAID THAT DE GASPERI'S GOVERNMENT WAS "TOO PAPIST, TOO CLERICAL, TO BE SINCERELY DEMOCRATIC" AND CLAIMED THAT ITALY IS "PROFOUNDLY DIVIDED NOT SO MUCH IN A POLITICAL SENSE AS THROUGH RESTRICTIONS PLACED AGAINST DEBATE AND THE EXCHANGE OF IDEAS."

TURNING TO AGITATION ON ITALY'S LABOR FRONT, TOGLIATTI SAID THAT TODAY'S TRIKES WERE DIRECTED AGAINST LAYOFFS IN INDUSTRY AND FOR HIGHER WAGES.

THE NEW PREMIER SUCCEEDS HASAN SAKA WHO RESIGNED YESTERDAY UNDER HARSH CRITICISM FROM ALL SIDES OVER HIS FAILURE TO LOWER THE COST OF LIVING.

APPOINTMENT OF THE ELDERLY GUNALTAY CAME AS A SURPRISE TO TURKISH POLITICAL CIRCLES. HIS NAME HAD NOT BEEN MENTIONED AMONG THOSE WHO MIGHT BE CHOSEN TO SUCCEED SAKA.

IN FACT, EARLY TODAY SAKA ANNOUNCED THAT HE HAD AGREED TO INONU'S REQUEST TO CONTINUE IN OFFICE FOR TWO OR THREE DAYS UNTIL A SUCCESSOR COULD BE FOUND. THIS WAS TAKEN AS AN INDICATION THAT INONU HAD NOT YET MADE HIS CHOICE.

PROMINENTLY MENTIONED THEN WAS HILMI URAN, VICE-CHAIRMAN AND MOST INFLUENTIAL MEMBER OF THE PEOPLE'S PARTY FROM WHOSE RANKS GUNALTAY WAS FINALLY CHOSEN.

THERE IS NO INDICATION HERE THAT THE NEW PRIME MINISTER WILL DEPART FROM THE POLICY OF FRIENDSHIP FOR AMERICA SHOWN BY HIS PREDECESSOR.

ANKARA, TURKEY, JAN.15-(AP)-PREMIER HASAN SAKA HAS AGREED, AT PRESIDENT ISMET INONU'S REQUEST, TO REMAIN IN OFFICE TWO OR THREE DAYS UNTIL A NEW CABINET CAN BE FORMED.

SAKA RESIGNED YESTERDAY OVER CRITICISM THAT HE HAD FAILED TO REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING AS PLEDGED. HE WAS ONE OF THE MORE LIBERAL TURKISH LEADERS. HIS REPUBLICAN PEOPLE'S PARTY AND MANY OF HIS CABINET QUIT HIM, FORCING HIS RESIGNATION.

POLITICIANS SAID TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY WILL REMAIN UNCHANGED. SOME THOUGHT FOREIGN MINISTER NECMEDDIN SADAK MIGHT BECOME PREMIER BUT MOST SIGNS POINTED TO HILMI URAN, VICE CHAIRMAN AND VIRTUAL DICTATOR OF THE DOMINANT PEOPLE'S PARTY. SADAK HAS SAID FREQUENTLY HE WOULD NOT ACCEPT THE PREMIERSHIP AND IS EXPECTED TO BE FOREIGN MINISTER IN ALMOST ANY CABINET.

SECOND LEAD GREEK

ATHENS, JAN. 15-(AP)-THE PALACE ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THAT KING PAUL HAS ACCEPTED THE RESIGNATION OF PREMIER THEMISTOKLES SOPHOULIS, WHO IS 88 AND ILL.

THERE HAS BEEN A WEEK LONG DISPUTE IN THE CABINET OVER SOCIAL MEASURES, OVER BROADENING OF THE GOVERNMENT'S BASE, AND OVER APPOINTMENT OF A SUPREME COMMANDER FOR THE FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNIST REBELS. SOPHOULIS HAS BEEN PREMIER, HEADING A CABINET OF POPULISTS AND LIBERALS SINCE SEPT. 1947.

THE RESIGNATION MEANS THAT BOTH GREECE AND TURKEY, WHICH RECEIVE AMERICAN DOLLARS TO FIGHT COMMUNISM, ARE WITHOUT GOVERNMENTS. THE TURKISH GOVERNMENT FELL YESTERDAY BECAUSE OF THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

XA328PES

UNDER THE SO-CALLED TRUMAN DOCTRINE TURKEY HAS RECEIVED ABOUT $150,000,000 OF AMERICAN AID, LARGE QUANTITIES OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND THE SERVICES OF AMERICAN MILITARY ADVISERS. TURKEY IS ALSO A PARTICIPANT IN THE MARSHALL PLAN.

TURKEY CONTROLS THE DARDANELLES, THE STRATEGIC STRAITS SEPARATING EUROPE FROM ASIA MINOR, THROUGH WHICH ALL SHIPPING TO RUSSIA'S BLACK SEA PORTS MUST PASS. TURKEY ALSO HAS A COMMON FRONTIER WITH RUSSIA IN THE CAUCASUS AND SITS SQUARELY IN THE WAY OF ANY RUSSIAN MOVE TO EXPAND SOUTHWARD TO THE ARABIAN OIL-FIELDS OR THE SUEZ CANAL.

FOR THIS REASON THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS VITAL THE MAINTENANCE OF A STRONG AND FRIENDLY TURKEY.

HOWEVER, THE VAST MILITARY EXPENDITURES WHICH THIS ENTAILS HAVE BEEN PUTTING A SEVERE STRAIN ON THE TURKISH ECONOMY, ALREADY DISLOCATED BY WORLD WAR II.

ALMOST ALL AMERICAN AID AND MORE THAN HALF OF THE REVENUES RAISED INTERNALLY GO TO SUPPORT THE TURKISH ARMED FORCES.

JAN 15 1949

THE MAINTENANCE OF A HUGE ARMY AND THE DIVERSION OF INDUSTRY AND AGRICULTURE TO SERVICE AND SUPPLY IT CUT INTO THE PEACEFUL PRODUCTION OF THE COUNTRY AND ARE PRIME CAUSES OF INFLATION.

MOREOVER, WHILE EXPENSES ARE INCREASING, REVENUE IS DECLINING BECAUSE TURKEY LOST A GREAT PART OF HER FOREIGN MARKET FOR TOBACCO-THE CHIEF CROP-DURING THE WAR.

OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT THERE IS LITTLE CHANCE OF A BALANCED TURKISH ECONOMY SO LONG AS THE COLD WAR BETWEEN EAST AND WEST CONTINUES. UNTIL FEAR AND HATRED OF RUSSIA ARE REMOVED AND IT IS POSSIBLE TO DEMOBILIZE AND DEVOTE THE COUNTRY'S ENERGIES TO PEACEFUL PRODUCTION THEY SAY THE PRESENT SITUATION WILL CONTINUE, NECESSITATING AMERICAN MILITARY AND ECONOMIC AID IF TURKEY IS TO CONTINUE INDEPENDENT AND REMAIN AN AMERICAN ALLY.

ALTHOUGH THE RESIGNATION OF 88-YEAR-OLD THEMISTOKLES SOPHOULIS AS PREMIER OF GREECE OCCURRED AT APPROXIMATELY THE SAME TIME, EXPERTS IN EUROPEAN CAPITALS AND WASHINGTON CONSIDER THIS TO BE MERELY A CO-INCIDENCE.

EFFORTS HAVE BEEN UNDERWAY IN ATHENS FOR MANY MONTHS TO BROADEN THE BASE OF THE GREEK GOVERNMENT. THESE MOVES HAVE HAD THE SUPPORT OF THE UNITED STATES.

JAN 1949

THE FEELING HAS BEEN THAT ALL SHADES OF POLITICAL OPINION SHOULD BE REPRESENTED IN THE GREEK CABINET TO OBTAIN TRUE NATIONAL UNITY IN THE FIGHT AGAINST THE COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS. A FEW DAYS AGO LEADERS OF PARTIES OTHER THAN SOPHOULIS' LIBERAL AND CONSTANTINE TSALDARIS' POPULIST (ROYALIST) PARTIES HAD DECLARED THAT UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS THIS WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

SOPHOULIS, WHO IS ILL, THEN ISSUED A STATEMENT FROM HIS BED, SAYING THAT UNLESS FULL POWER WERE GIVEN HIM TO "CLEAN CORRUPTION FROM THE GOVERNMENT," SUPPRESS WHAT HE CALLED THE POLITICO-ECONOMIC OLIGARCHY, AND APPOINT A GENERALISSIMO TO TAKE SUPREME COMMAND AGAINST THE GUERRILLAS, HE WOULD RESIGN.

HIS DEMAND FOR A SUPREME COMMANDER HAS BEEN THE SUBJECT OF CONSIDERABLE SPECULATION.

MONDAY IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT GEN. ALEXANDER PAPAGOS, GREEK HERO OF THE RESISTANCE AGAINST ITALY IN WORLD WAR II, HAD BEEN APPOINTED TO HIS POST. THE NEXT DAY THE WAR MINISTRY SAID THAT THE APPOINTMENT HAD BEEN DELAYED BECAUSE PAPAGOS INSISTED ON AUTHORITY TO ACT INDEPENDENTLY OF THE SUPREME WAR COUNCIL WHICH HAS BRITISH AND AT SCRANTON, PA., JUDGE WATSON SAID TODAY. "THE RUSSIAN STORY OBVIOUSLY IS ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE WAY THEY TWIST THE NEWS TO SUIT THEMSELVES.

"BUT IF THEY WANT TO UNDERSTAND MY REMARKS AS A PERSONAL INJURY TO THEIR FORM OF GOVERNMENT, THAT IS PERFECTLY ALL RIGHT WITH ME."

THE JURIST EXPLAINED THAT HIS REMARKS WERE MADE IN THE HOPE THEY WOULD IMPRESS ON THE NEW CITIZENS THE SERIOUSNESS OF DEFENDING THEIR NEW COUNTRY AND TO MAKE THEM UNDERSTAND THE PRIVILEGES OF CITIZENSHIP IN A FREE COUNTRY.

"I AM INTERESTED IN SEEING THAT ALL AMERICANS REALIZE THE ABSOLUTE NECESSITY OF PROTECTING, BY FORCE IF NECESSARY, OUR WAY OF LIFE," JUDGE WATSON SAID.

"THERE IS NOTHING NEW IN THAT," HE SAID, ADDING, "HISTORY SHOWS IT HAS BEEN NECESSARY MORE THAN ONCE TO BEAR ARMS IN DEFENSE OF WHAT WE BELIEVE IS RIGHT. THOSE BELIEFS INCLUDE FREEDOM THAT THE PEOPLE OF RUSSIA WILL NEVER KNOW UNDER THEIR PRESENT LEADERSHIP."

Haifa, Palestine, Jan 15-(AP)-Two Jews on trial at Acre as leaders of an illegal terrorist organization are running for seats in the first parliament of Israel.

They are Nathan Friedman-Yellin and Matityahu Shmuelewitz, arrested soon after members of the Stern gang killed Count Folke Bernadotte, U. N. mediator for Palestine, in Jerusalem last September. They head the list of candidates for the"fighters for the freedom of Israel."

Their trial has been in progress a month. It is nearing its end after receiving testimony from 50 witnesses. The prosecution and defense have been given a week to sum up, starting tomorrow.

Lt. Col. Aharon Hoter-Yishai, the prosecutor, said he will start a three day speech Sunday.

This first big political trial has placed a heavy drain on the Israel treasury. The expense for witnesses and security police and troops around the old Acre schoolhouse has been a heavy drain. Various political leaders have used the trial and their hosts as witnesses to propound campaign arguments for the coming election.

Friedman-Yellin and Shmuelewitz face 20 years in prison if convicted on the first charge of being leaders in a terror outfit. The second charge of being members carries five year terms. The prosecution will demand the maximum penalties, it was learned.

The verdict is expected at the start of next week, just before the election. Should the accused be elected, the state council (Parliament) would have to decide at once whether both should be released. The Israeli constitution provides that they should remain free as long as their terms in the state council run.

JAN 1949

Immediately after the trial, 25 other suspects, members of the Stern gang, are to be brought before the military court.

The government arrested 335 suspects after the Bernadotte murder. Since then, 180 have been released on their declarations that they had no connection with the Sternists. Eighty escaped from Jaffa prison three months ago and still are at large and 27 others are in Acre and refuse to give their names of identify themselves.

TEL AVIV--FIRST ADD MIGHT LEAD ISRAEL X X X X THE EGYPTIANS.

ALTHOUGH THERE IS STILL CONSIDERABLE CENSORSHIP TO PREVENT PREMATURE DISCLOSURES THAT MIGHT IMPAIR CHANCES OF AN AGREEMENT, CORRESPONDENTS ARE NOW PERMITTED TO DISCLOSE THAT THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH LEBANON HAVE BEEN UNDERWAY FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.

THEY HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED WITH HENRI VIZIER, DEPUTY TO ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE, AS GO-BETWEEN.

THE DISCUSSIONS, WHICH WERE HALTED TEMPORARILY LAST WEEK-REPORTEDLY BECAUSE OF BRITISH PRESSURE ON ARAB STATES-DEAL WITH THE MUTUAL EXCHANGE OF TERRITORY THAT ISRAEL AND LEBANON HOLD ON EACH OTHER'S SIDE OF THE BORDER.

IT IS ASSUMED HERE THAT SINCE THIS NEGOTIATION IS BEING UNDERTAKEN, LEBANON HAS GIVEN ITS ASSURANCE OF WILLINGNESS TO ENTER GENERAL ARMISTICE TALKS.

DY758PES

THE WITHDRAWAL ORDER TO THE EGYPTIANS ACTUALLY WAS JUST A GESTURE. JEWISH TROOPS HAD DRIVEN THEM BACK, MILE AFTER MILE, SINCE LAUNCHING THEIR OCT. 15 OFFENSIVE AND WERE HAMMERING AT EGYPTIAN BORDER POSITIONS WHEN CEASE FIRE ORDERS CAME LAST WEEK.

THE FIRST POINT UP FOR DISCUSSION AT THE RHODES CONFERENCE WAS DISPOSED OF AT A 15-MINUTE MEETING YESTERDAY. THE DELEGATES APPROVED A PLEDGE THAT NEITHER SIDE WOULD START A NEW MILITARY OFFENSIVE AND THAT EACH WOULD RESPECT THE NATIONAL SECURITY OF THE OTHER WHILE THE ARMISTICE TALKS WERE ON.

SPECIFIC TOPICS TO BE TAKEN UP UNDER POINT NO. 2 INCLUDE THE QUESTION OF WHAT IS TO BE DONE ABOUT THE FALUJA POCKET, WHERE A 3,000-MAN EGYPTIAN BRIGADE IS TRAPPED BY JEWISH SIEGE LINES. PREVIOUS EFFORTS TO SETTLE THAT CASE FELL THROUGH.

DELINEATION OF ARMISTICE LINES AND REDUCTION OF FORCES ALSO ARE MATTERS FOR DISPOSITION BEFORE THE CONFERENCE GETS DOWN TO DRAFTING AND INITIALING AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT.

THE ISRAELI DELEGATION, HEADED BY WALTER EYTAN, CAME EMPOWERED TO SIGN AN ARMISTICE IN THE NAME OF THE TEL AVIV GOVERNMENT. COL. MOHAMED IBRAHIM SEIF EDDINE'S EGYPTIAN DELEGATION IS AUTHORIZED ONLY TO INITIAL SUCH A PACT AND THEN SUBMIT IT TO CAIRO FOR SIGNATURE.

ISRAELI SOLDIERS, INCLUDING TWO GIRLS, FLEW IN YESTERDAY WITH FULL EQUIPMENT TO INSTALL A RADIO RECEIVER AND TRANSMITTER TO KEEP EYTAN'S GROUP IN DIRECT TOUCH WITH TEL AVIV.

THE PRECISE ROLE OF ABDEL MONIEM MUSTAFA, FORMER DIRECTOR OF POLITICAL AFFAIRS FOR THE ARAB LEAGUE, CAUSED SOME SPECULATION AMONG CONFERENCE OBSERVERS.

A SPOKESMAN SAID HE IS AN ADVISER TO THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATION AND HEAD OF THE EGYPTIAN FOREIGN OFFICE'S MIDDLE EAST DIVISION. HE DOES NOT ATTEND SESSIONS AND IS RARELY SEEN WITH THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATES.

THE BROADCAST ACKNOWLEDGED GUERRILLAS IN EXTREME WESTERN JAVA WERE REPULSED IN AN ATTACK ON PANDEGLANG, 41 MILES SOUTHWEST OF BATAVIA.

THE NATIVE LEADERS AT THE CONFERENCE HERE GENERALLY SEEM SYMPATHETIC WITH THE REPUBLICANS' CAUSE, BUT WILLING TO STRING ALONG WITH THE DUTCH. THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, JAN 15-(AP)-A NETHERLANDS SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY AN AMERICAN PLAN FOR SOLVING THE INDONESIAN QUESTION WOULD NOT WORK OUT.

HE COMMENTED ON A PROPOSAL WHICH WAS PRIVATELY CIRCULATED AMONG DELEGATES AT THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IN NEW YORK YESTERDAY.

THE MAIN IDEA CALLED FOR AN IMMEDIATE STOP TO FIGHTING, RELEASE OF POLITICAL - PRISONERS HELD BY THE DUTCH, GRADUAL WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY, A TEMPORARY GOVERNMENT AND ELECTIONS TO CHOOSE A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY PRIOR TO ESTABLISHMENT OF A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

THE NETHERLANDS SPOKESMAN SAID, "IT IS MORE FAR REACHING THAN ANYTHING THE U.N. HAS EVER ASKED OF ANY GOVERNMENT."

THE U.S. PROPOSAL, HE SAID, "DOES NOT TAKE INTO ACCOUNT PROMISES MADE BY THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT."

THE DUTCH HAVE PROPOSED SETTING UP A TEMORARY GOVERNMENT WITHIN A MONTH, ELECTIONS LATE THIS YEAR, AND TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY TO A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA SOMETIME IN 1950. LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 15-(AP)-AN INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY THERE NEVER WILL BE REAL PEACE IN THE ISLANDS UNLESS DUTCH SOLDIERS ARE WITHDRAWN QUICKLY FROM INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY.

BY QUICKLY, THIS SPOKESMAN SAID, HE MEANS WITHIN A WEEK.

INDONESIAN AND NETHERLANDS REPRESENTATIVES ARE STUDYING A ROUGH PLAN FOR A SETTLEMENT REPORTED DRAWN UP BY THE UNITED STATES AND BACKED BY CHINA, NORWAY AND EGYPT SO FAR.

THE PLAN WAS SAID TO HAVE BEEN EXAMINED WITH INTEREST BY BRITISH DELEGATES LATE YESTERDAY WHILE THE SECURITY COUNCIL HEARD ANOTHER ROUND OF SPEECHES IN THE INDONESIAN CASE. THE COUNCIL ADJOURNED UNTIL 3 P.M. (EST) MONDAY, WITH NO INDICATION WHETHER A RESOLUTION WOULD BE PLACED BEFORE IT AT THAT TIME.

THE UNITED STATES PLAN WAS SAID TO CONTAIN THESE MAIN POINTS:

1. THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIAN FORCES TO DISCONTINUE IMMEDIATELY ALL MILITARY ACTION.

2. THE DUTCH TO RELEASE IMMEDIATELY ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS ARRESTED SINCE THE LATEST MILITARY ACTION BEGAN LAST MONTH.

3. THE PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM TERRITORY OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA UNDER SUPERVISION OF A COMMISSION ON INDONESIA. THIS COMMISSION WOULD IN EFFECT BE A STRONGER VERSION OF THE PRESENT COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES, MADE UP OF THE U.S., BELGIUM AND AUSTRALIA.

4. ESTABLISHMENT OF A TEMPORARY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY MARCH 15, 1949.

5. ELECTIONS BY OCT. 1, 1949 TO CHOOSE A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY, OUT OF WHICH WOULD COME THE GOVERNMENT OF THE U.S. OF INDONESIA.

6. TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY BY THE NETHERLANDS TO THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA NOT LATER THAN APRIL 1, 1950. ALL DUTCH FORCES WOULD BE OUT OF INDONESIA BEFORE THAT DATE.

DR. J.H. VAN ROYEN OF THE NETHERLANDS TOLD THE COUNCIL HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT AGREE TO A COUNCIL ORDER TO WITHDRAW ITS TROOPS FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY, BECAUSE THERE MIGHT BE A DANGER OF RENEWAL OF DISORDERS.

VAN ROYEN SAID HE HOPED THE TEMPORARY GOVERNMENT WOULD BE INSTITUTED WITHIN ONE MONTH; THAT ELECTIONS UNDER U.N. SUPERVISION WOULD BE HELD IN THE THIRD QUARTER OF THIS YEAR; AND THAT THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY TO A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WOULD BE COMPLETED BY JAN. 1, 1950.

INDONESIAN LEADERS HAVE CONSISTENTLY OBJECTED TO THE DUTCH PLANS, DECLARING THE DUTCH ARE TRYING TO SET UP A U.S. OF INDONESIA WITH THEIR OWN "PUPPETS" IN CONTROL.

WASHINGTON,JAN.15-(AP)-DEMOCRATIC LEADERS SHOOK UP THEIR SIDE OF THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TODAY, CHOOSING FIVE LAWYERS AND FORMER JUDGES AS MEMBERS.

THE ACTION SWEPT TWO HOLD-OVER MEMBERS OFF THE COMMITTEE--REPRESENTATIVES RANKIN (D-MISS) AND HEBERT (D-LA).

ONE DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN TOLD REPORTERS THE MOVE WAS DESIGNED TO PUT THE COMMITTEE'S OPERATIONS "ON A JUDICIAL BASIS" AND "IN THE HANDS OF MEN WHO KNOW LAW AND ARE TRAINED IN FOLLOWING THE RULES OF EVIDENCE AND COURT PROCEDURE."

THE COMMITTEE HAS STIRRED A STORM OF CONTROVERSY IN THE PAST OVER ITS HEARING METHODS AND SOME OF ITS ACCUSATIONS.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES, CONSISTING OF THE PARTY'S WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE MEMBERS AND ACTING IN CLOSE COOPERATION WITH THE HOUSE LEADERSHIP, PICKED THESE FIVE MEN:

JOHN S.WOOD OF GEORGIA--A FORMER CIRCUIT JUDGE AND ONE TIME PROSECUTOR. WOOD, A HOLDOVER ON THE COMMITTEE, IS SCHEDULED TO BECOME CHAIRMAN.

FRANCIS E. WALTER OF PENNSYLVANIA--A FORMER COUNTY SOLICITOR AND NOW CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

BURR P.HARRISON OF VIRGINIA--A FORMER COMMONWEALTHS' ATTORNEY AND CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE.

JOHN C.MCSWEENEY OF OHIO--A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FROM 1923 TO 1929 AND A PROMINENT ATTORNEY.

MORGAN MOULDER OF MISSOURI--A FRESHMAN HOUSE MEMBER WHO LEFT A CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP TO RUN FOR CONGRESS.

THE COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES CLEARED THE WAY FOR REVAMPING THE GROUP BY PASSING TWO RESOLUTIONS.

ONE PREVENTS THE CHAIRMAN OF A REGULAR HOUSE COMMITTEE FROM SERVING ON ANY OTHER HOUSE COMMITTEE AND THE OTHER LIMITS MEMBERSHIP ON THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE TO LAWYERS. RANKIN IS DUE TO BECOME CHAIRMAN OF THE VETERANS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE. HEBERT IS A FORMER NEWSPAPERMAN.

BOTH RESOLUTIONS ARE SUBJECT TO RATIFICATION BY A CAUCUS OF HOUSE DEMOCRATS MONDAY, AND THEN TO APPROVAL BY THE HOUSE ITSELF ON TUESDAY. SUCH APPROVAL USUALLY IS ONLY A FORMALITY.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION THAT THE DEMOCRATIC MANEUVER WILL BE FOLLOWED BY REPUBLICAN LEADERS IN SELECTING THEIR MEMBERS ON THE COMMITTEE.

REP.ARENDS OF ILLINOIS, THE REPUBLICAN WHIP, COMMENTED:

"IT LOOKS LIKE THE DEMOCRATS ARE RUNNING A PURGE, AND ANY ONE WHO

WOOD WILL BE THE ONLY HOLDOVER OF PRESENT DEMOCRATIC MEMBERS.

REPS.RANKIN (MISS) AND HEBERT (LA) WERE DROPPED FROM THE COMMITTEE BECAUSE OF THE NEW ALL-LAWYERS POLICY AND ANOTHER RESOLUTION BARRING A CHAIRMAN OF A MAJOR COMMITTEE FROM SERVING ON ANY OTHER REGULAR HOUSE COMMITTEE.

RANKIN THUS LOST OUT BECAUSE HE IS SLATED TO BECOME CHAIRMAN OF THE VETERANS' AFFAIRS COMMITTEE. HEBERT, A FORMER NEWSPAPERMAN, CAN'T QUALIFY BECAUSE HE ISN'T A MEMBER OF THE BAR.

RANKIN TOLD A REPORTER HIS REMOVAL "WILL NOT IN ANY WAY WEAKEN MY SUPPORT" OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE HOUSE FLOOR. HE SAID THE COMMITTEE'S MEMBERS ARE "VERY FINE, UPSTANDING, PATRIOTIC AMERICANS" WHO WILL HAVE HIS SUPPORT AT ALL TIMES.

THE TWO NEW POLICIES WERE ADOPTED BY THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES TODAY. CHAIRMAN DOUGHTON (NC) ANNOUNCED THIS ACTION.

THE NEW POLICIES AND THE COMMITTEE SETUP ARE SUBJECT TO APPROVAL OF A DEMOCRATIC PARTY CAUCUS MONDAY AND TO HOUSE APPROVAL TUESDAY, BUT NO UPSET IN PLANS IS EXPECTED.

REPUBLICANS HAVE NOT YET FILLED THEIR TWO VACANCIES ON THE COMMITTEE.

REP.PETERSON (FLA), THE FOURTH DEMOCRAT ON THE GROUP LAST YEAR, HAS RESIGNED FROM THE COMMITTEE. HE HAS SAID DUTIES ON THE PUBLIC LANDS COMMITTEE ARE TOO HEAVY FOR HIM TO TAKE PART IN OTHER EXTENSIVE INVESTIGATIONS. PETERSON SAID:

"I DO NOT WANT MY RESIGNATION TO BE REGARDED AS A CRITICISM OF THE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE. ALTHOUGH I THINK IT HAS BEEN A LITTLE TOO PRECIPITATE IN SOME OF ITS PUBLIC STATEMENTS.

HOWEVER, SOME SORT OF COMMITTEE, PERHAPS A JOINT COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS, IS NEEDED TO DO THE WORK IT HAS BEEN DOING."

HEBERT TOLD REPORTERS HE WOULD HAVE NO COMMENT UNTIL AFTER THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS. RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE CAUCUS USUALLY ARE APPROVED BY THE HOUSE.

AMS BUDGET-ATOMIC

BY ELTON C.FAY

WASHINGTON

(ADVANC)WHERE(.15-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES TODAY STEPPED UP ITS DRIVE TO PUT ATOMIC POWER TO MORE CONVENTIONAL USE BY NAMING A TOP-FLIGHT SCIENTIST, DR.LAWRENCE R.HAFSTAD, TO HEAD A [redacted] MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR PROGRAM.

THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION ANNOUNCED SELECTION OF DR.HAFSTAD TO CARRY OUT A PROGRAM OF DESIGNING AND DEVELOPING NUCLEAR REACTORS FOR THE PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF ATOMIC ENERGY FOR POWER, FOR PROPULSION OF SHIPS AND AIRCRAFT, FOR THE PRODUCTION OF ISOTOPES (RADIO-ACTIVUK ELEMENTS) AND FOR RESEARCH ON REACTORS THEMSELVES.

THE REACTOR

OF SHIPS AND AIRCRAFT, FOR THE PRODUCTION OF ISOTOPES (RADIO-ACTIVE ELEMENTS) AND FOR RESEARCH ON REACTORS THEMSELVES.

THE REACTOR DEVELOPMENT DIVISION WHICH DR.HAFSTAD WILL HEAD WAS CREATED BY THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION LAST FALL. HE IS THE FIRST DIRECTOR.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF DR.HAFSTAD'S APPOINTMENT FOLLOWED CLOSELY THE DISCLOSURE THAT THE COMMISSION IS SEEKING A SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN FEDERAL FUNDS DURING THE 12 MONTHS BEGINNING JULY 1 FOR DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC POWER PLANTS.

THE SPLITTING OF URANIUM, A FEAT FROM WHICH THE UNITED STATES DEVELOPED THE ATOMIC BOMB DURING WORLD WAR II, WAS DEMONSTRATED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THIS COUNTRY IN 1939 BY DR.HAFSTAD AND TWO COLLEAGUES, DR.RICHARD ROBERTS AND DR.MERLE TUVE, A COMMISSION STATEMENT SAID. THAT DEMONSTRATION CAME AFTER REPORTS HAD BEEN RECEIVED THAT GERMAN SCIENTISTS HAD SUCCEEDED IN SPLITTING ATOMIC NUCLEI.

DR.HAFSTAD IS NOW EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT'S RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT BOARD. HE FORMERLY WORKED ON SUCH PROJECTS AS THE PROXIMITY FUSE AND GUIDED MISSILES FOR THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY APPLIED PHYSICS LABORATORY.

THE PRESIDENTIAL BUDGET WHICH WENT TO CONGRESS ON JANUARY 10 CARRIED AN ITEM OF $[redacted] (M) FOR REACTOR DEVELOPMENT.

(A REACTOR IS THE SO-CALLED "ATOMIC PILE" OF FISSIONABLE MATERIAL WHICH PRODUCES, AMONG OTHER THINGS, HEAT TO RUN CONVENTIONAL POWER PLANTS. IT IS THE "COAL PILE" OF A POWER PLANT BUT ONE WHICH DOES NOT BURN UP.)

A166WX

THE BUDGET REQUEST FOR THE NEXT FISCAL YEAR IS AN INCREASE OF MORE THAN $[redacted] (M) OVER THE CURRENT YEAR AND OF MORE THAN $[redacted] (M) OVER THE PREVIOUS FISCAL YEAR.

THE COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY SAID THAT "IT IS PRINCIPALLY THROUGH THE DEVELOPMENT OF REACTORS THAT THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION EXPECTS IN COMING YEARS TO DEVELOP A MEANS FOR UTILIZING THE ENERGY RELEASED BY NUCLEAR FISSION."

66,000,000

HOW LONG THE "COMING YEARS" WILL PROVE TO BE IS A MATTER OF WIDE SPECULATION. DAVID E.LILIENTHAL, COMMISSION CHAIRMAN, HAS POINTED TO THE DIFFICULTY OF PREDICTING AN EXACT DATE WHEN ATOMIC POWER WILL LEAVE THE EXPERIMENTAL LABORATORY AND ENTER THE COMMERCIAL POWER FIELD. HE SAID THE BEST ESTIMATE RUNS SOMETHING LIKE THIS:

PERHAPS IN THE NEXT THREE YEARS THERE WILL BE AN EXPERIMENTAL

PLANT THAT WILL PRODUCE ELECTRICAL POWER; IN 10 YEARS PERHAPS A "PRETTY GOOD WORKING PLANT BUT NOT COMMERCIALLY COMPETITIVE WITH OTHER SOURCES OF ENERGY" SUCH AS WATER POWER OR COAL-PRODUCED POWER; WITHIN 20 YEARS "A SIZABLE PORTION OF ELECTRICITY MAY BE DERIVED FROM ATOMIC PLANTS;" IN A DECADE AFTER THAT A "VERY SIZABLE PORTION" OF THE NATION'S POWER WILL COME FROM ATOMIC ENERGY.

BUT, ATOMIC EXPERTS POINT OUT, A HOST OF HIGHLY COMPLEX TECHNICAL PROBLEMS HAVE CONFRONTED THE RESEARCHERS AS THEY MOVE INTO THE POWER DEVELOPMENT FIELD.

ONE OF THE FIRST OF THEM HAS BEEN TROUBLE IN THE FIELD OF METALLURGY. UNDER THE BOMBARDMENT OF NEUTRONS FROM NUCLEAR FISSION STRANGE AND HITHERTO UNDREAMED OF THINGS HAPPEN TO COMMON METALS. THUS METALS MUST BE DEVELOPED CAPABLE OF WITHSTANDING NOT ONLY THE INTENSE HEAT OF THE ATOMIC FURNACE BUT THE CURIOUS TRANSMUTATION OF THE VERY BASIC STRUCTURE OF THE METALS THAT COMES FROM NUCLEAR BOMBARDMENT.

OFFICIALS SAY THAT SOME TIME SOON INVITATIONS TO JOIN THE ALLIANCE WILL GO OUT TO SEVERAL OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA. SWEDEN NORMALLY WOULD RECEIVE ONE OF THOSE INVITATIONS. SO WOULD NORWAY AND DENMARK, AS WELL AS SUCH COUNTRIES AS IRELAND AND PORTUGAL.

SEVERAL WAYS OF LINKING SCANDINAVIA WITH THE ATLANTIC TREATY HAVE BEEN CONSIDERED BY WESTERN AUTHORITIES--INCLUDING A POSSIBLE SEPARATE ORGANIZATION, WITH ONE MEMBER ALSO SIGNING THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

SWEDEN'S LATEST STAND APPARENTLY WOULD BAR ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENT.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS EXPERTS OF ALL THREE NORTHERN GOVERNMENTS--SWEDEN, NORWAY AND DENMARK--ARE DUE TO MEET WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK, ACCORDING TO DISPATCHES FROM LONDON, FOR WHAT MAY BE THE DECISIVE DISCUSSION OF THEIR FUTURE MOVES.

MILITARY AID (430)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN.15-(AP)-OFFICIALS EXPRESSED HOPE TODAY THAT A NEW "ALLIES ONLY" LABEL ON AMERICAN ARMS WILL COAX SWEDEN OFF THE NEUTRALITY FENCE IN THE COLD WAR AGAINST RUSSIA.

STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL MCDERMOTT TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE YESTERDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES CANNOT SPARE MILITARY EQUIPMENT FOR NATIONS UNWILLING TO ENTER A DEFENSE ALLIANCE AGAINST COMMUNIST EXPANSION.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT WAS AIMED STRAIGHT AT SWEDEN, WHERE PRESS REPORTS HAVE TAKEN THE OPPOSITE TACK. SWEDEN HAS SUGGESTED THAT HER NORTHERN NEIGHBORS COLD-SHOULDER WESTERN ALLIANCE BIDS AND JOIN HER INSTEAD IN A POLICY OF STRICT NEUTRALITY.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOLLOWED UP MCDERMOTT'S STATEMENT WITH AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT LAST SUMMER SWEDEN RECEIVED 30 P-51 FIGHTER PLANES WHICH ARE NO LONGER IN OPERATING CONDITION BUT WHICH CAN BE USED TO REPLACE PARTS IN PLANES THE SWEDES ALREADY OWN.

STOCKHOLM REPORTS SAID EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT SWEDEN HAD URGED NORWAY AND DENMARK TO SPURN THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC MILITARY ALLIANCE FOR AN IRON-CLAD SCANDINAVIAN MILITARY PACT. IN ANY CASE, SWEDEN INDICATED, SHE WOULD REMAIN ALOOF FROM THE TREATY BEING NEGOTIATED BY THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND FIVE EUROPEAN NATIONS.

BUT EVEN THE SCANDINAVIAN ALLIANCE PLAN WAS REGARDED BY DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES HERE AS A LONG STEP IN SWEDISH POLICY, WHICH ONCE CALLED FOR STRICT NO-ALLIANCE NEUTRALITY.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS REPORTEDLY FEEL THAT IN TODAY'S DIVIDED WORLD SUCH A PURELY SCANDINAVIAN DEFENSIVE ARRANGEMENT WOULD NOT WORK.

THE POLICY OF THE WESTERN POWERS HAS BEEN TO BLOCK SOVIET AGGRESSION BY ALIGNING FRIENDLY NATIONS IN CRITICAL AREAS OF THE WORLD INTO A DEFENSIVE BARRIER AGAINST COMMUNISM.

TOWARD THAT END, THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS, LUXEMBOURG AND CANADA NOW ARE PUTTING THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC REGIONAL SECURITY SYSTEM.

THE PROJECT IS EXPECTED TO BE ONE OF THE FIRST IMPORTANT MATTERS TAKEN UP BY DEAN ACHESON NEXT WEEK, FOLLOWING HIS EXPECTED SENATE CONFIRMATION AS SECRETARY OF STATE.

WASHINGTON, JAN 15-(AP)-PROJECTED CANCELLATION BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION OF A RULING CALLING FOR SHIPMENT IN AMERICAN VESSELS OF 50 PERCENT OF BULK MARSHALL PLAN CARGO MAY BE FURTHER DELAYED, IT WAS INDICATED TODAY.

ECA ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G. HOFFMAN ORDERED THE RULE ABANDONED AS OF JANUARY 1. THEN, IN RESPONSE TO PROTESTS FROM THE MARITIME COMMISSION, HE EXTENDED THE DEADLINE TO FEBRUARY 1.

A SHARP LETTER REQUESTING ANOTHER DELAY WAS SENT HOFFMAN FRIDAY BY CHAIRMAN JOHNSON (D-COLO) OF THE SENATE COMMERCE COMMITTEE.

TODAY AN ECA SPOKESMAN DISCLOSED THAT HOFFMAN HAS CALLED A MEETING ON TUESDAY (10:30 A.M. EST) OF STEAMSHIP OPERATORS AND MARITIME UNION SPOKESMEN TO DISCUSS THE PROBLEM. FOUR STEAMSHIP LINE ASSOCIATIONS AND THE AFL AND CIO MARITIME UNIONS WILL BE REPRESENTED, THE SPOKESMAN SAID.

WHEN ASKED WHETHER THE MEETING WOULD WEIGH A NEW POSTPONEMENT, THE SPOKESMAN SAID IT WOULD CONSIDER "THE WHOLE SHIPPING PROBLEM."

SENATOR JOHNSON'S LETTER CALLED HOFFMAN'S ACTION "ARBITRARY" AND POSSIBLY "A STEP IN THE WRONG DIRECTION."

THE MARSHALL PLAN ACT REQUIRES THAT AT LEAST HALF OF ALL BULK CARGOES SUCH AS GRAIN, COAL AND OIL ORIGINATING IN THIS COUNTRY MUST BE CARRIED IN AMERICAN FLAG VESSELS IF U.S. SHIPS ARE AVAILABLE AT "MARKET RATES." MACHINERY AND OTHER RECOVERY ITEMS ARE NOT INVOLVED.

IN DECIDING TO ABANDON THE PRACTICE, HOFFMAN SAID AMERICAN RATES ARE SUBSTANTIALLY HIGHER THAN THOSE OF FOREIGN LINES. IF ECA USES THEM, HE SAID, FREIGHT COSTS EAT DEEPLY INTO THE FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR RECOVERY.

HIS DECISION HAS BEEN ATTACKED BY MARITIME COMMISSIONER CHRISTIAN KELLEMS AS A "FANTASTIC" STEP TOWARD "SELLING OUT THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE."

(ADVANCE) WASHINGTON, JAN 15-(AP)-THE OLD MASTERS IN EUROPE DIDN'T KNOW SEVERAL CENTURIES AGO THEY WERE GOING TO HELP CLOTHE THE CHILDREN OF A WAR-WRECKED GERMANY.

BUT THEIR PAINTINGS HAVE BROUGHT IN A FUND OF ABOUT $190,000 FOR THE BENEFIT OF CHILDREN IN THE U.S. ZONE OF GERMANY, ARMY SECRETARY ROYALL DISCLOSED TODAY.

THE FUND HAS COME FROM THE TOUR THROUGH THE UNITED STATES OF PART OF THE FAMOUS PAINTINGS WHICH WERE BROUGHT ERE IN 1945 FOR SAFEKEEPING AFTER BEING DISCOVERED IN A SALT MINE BY ADVANCING AMERICAN ARMY FORCES. MORE THAN 200 WORKS OF SUCH MASTERS AS REMBRANDT, RUBENS AND BOTTICELLIS WERE SHIPPED TO THE NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART HERE, TO BE RETURNED WHEN GERMAN FACILITIES ARE READY TO RECEIVE THEM BACK.

MEANTIME, INTEREST IN THE PAINTINGS BECAME SO WIDESPREAD THAT THE ARMY AND THE NATIONAL GALLERY DECIDED TO PICK SOME OF THOSE SUBSTANTIAL ENOUGH FOR LONG RAIL TRIPS AND SEND THEM ON A NATIONWIDE TOUR.

THE MONEY RECEIVED FROM THESE EXHIBITS WILL GO FOR CLOTHING, BEDDING, VACCINATION AND OTHER AID TO THE GERMAN CHILDREN IN THE AMERICAN ZONE.

WASHINGTON,JAN 15-(AP)-A DRIVE TO RESTORE SOME OF THE PROPOSED 24 VETERANS HOSPITALS ELIMINATED FROM THE BUDGET GOT UNDER WAY TODAY, BUT RECEIVED NO ENCOURAGEMENT FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN.

SENATOR KERR (D-OKLA) TOLD REPORTERS AFTER A WHITE HOUSE VISIT THAT HE URGED THE PRESIDENT TO RESTORE THE PROPOSED HOSPITAL FOR NORMAN, OKLA., AND INCREASE THE SIZE OF ONE PLANNED FOR OKLAHOMA CITY TO 1,000 BEDS FROM THE 500-BED CAPACITY ALLOWED BY THE BUDGET.

A REPORTER RECALLED TO SENATOR KERR THAT MR.TRUMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THURSDAY THAT THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION RECOMMENDED THE HOSPITAL PROGRAM CUTBACK AND HE STANDS BEHIND THAT RECOMMENDATION.

"HE REAFFIRMED THAT POSITION TO ME" KERR REPLIED.

THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION RECOMMENDED ELIMINATION OF 24 PROPOSED HOSPITALS AND REDUCTIONS IN THE SIZE OF OTHERS ON THE GROUND THEY WOULD DUPLICATE FACILITIES ALREADY AVAILABLE.

KERR SAID THE PROPOSED OKLAHOMA PROJECTS WOULD NOT DUPLICATE ANY EXISTING FACILITIES.

"WE FEEL," HE SAID, "THERE IS A PRESSING NEED THAT CAN ONLY BE MET BY BUILDING THE HOSPITAL AT NORMAN AND INCREASING THE SIZE OF THAT PLANNED FOR OKLAHOMA CITY."

KERR SMILED AS HE TOLD REPORTERS:

"WE HAVE NO CONTROVERSY WITH THE GENERAL CONCLUSION OF THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION. ITS THE SPECIFIC APPLICATION OF IT WITH WHICH WE ARE CONCERNED."

THE SENATOR ALSO DISCUSSED WITH MR.TRUMAN PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS FOR THE ARKANSAS AND RED RIVERS IN OKLAHOMA. THEY TALKED PARTICUQARLY ABOUT THE EUFAULA PROJECT ON THE CANADIAN RIVER, A TRIBUTARY OF THE ARKANSAS, WHICH WAS NOT INCLUDED IN THE BUDGET.

THE FINAL SECTION OF THE PROPOSED BILL SAID:

"NOTHING IN THIS ACT SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO REQUIRE OR ESTABLISH MILITARY OR CIVILIAN CENSORSHIP OR IN ANY WAY TO LIMIT OR INFRINGE UPON FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AS GUARANTEED BY THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES."

CLARK SAID THE CHANGES ARE NEEDED "TO PROTECT AND IMPROVE THE INTERNAL SECURITY OF THE NATION," IN AN ERA OF "SWIFT AND MORE DEVASTATING WEAPONS OF MODERN WARFARE, COUPLED WITH THE TREACHEROUS OPERATIONS OF THOSE WHO WOULD WEAKEN OUR COUNTRY INTERNALLY, PRELIMINARY TO AND IN CONJUNCTION WITH EXTERNAL ATTACK.

NOTING THAT WARTIME ESPIONAGE IS A "CAPITAL OFFENSE," AND THEREFORE DOES NOT FALL UNDER THE THREE-YEAR STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS, CLARK SAID SUCH ACTS MAY NOT BE TRACKED DOWN UNTIL "THE RECORDS OF THE ENEMY ARE ACCESSIBLE."

HE THEREFORE RECOMMENDED SETTING ASIDE THE TIME-LIMIT IN SPY CASES, ADDING THAT IT WOULD ENABLE THE GOVERNMENT TO DELAY ARRESTS "FOR STRATEGICAL PURPOSES, PENDING THE DETECTION AND APPREHENSION OF OTHER OFFENDERS."

BUT HE NOTED THAT UNDER THE CONSTITUTION NO SUCH CHANGE AUTHORIZED NOW COULD APPLY TO OFFENSES COMMITTED PREVIOUSLY.

HE SAID WIRE-TAPPING SHOULD BE LEGALIZED BY THE FBI AND ARMY, NAVY AND AIR FORCE INTELLIGENCE IN ESPIONAGE CASES "UNDER RULES AND REGULATIONS PRESCRIBED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL," SO THAT EVIDENCE SO OBTAINED MAY BE PRESENTED IN COURT.

WHEN WIRES ARE TAPPED NOW, THE RESULTING EVIDENCE HAS NO STANDING IN COURT, BECAUSE CONGRESS HAS NEVER LEGALIZED THE PRACTICE.

U.N.-COLD WAR

BY FRANCIS W.CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 15-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS IS DIGGING IN FOR AT LEAST TWO MORE YEARS OF THE COLD WAR BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

THIS IS THE CONCENSUS OF PRIVATE TALKS WITH U.N. DELEGATES AND LEADERS WHO CAME BACK FROM THE PARIS MEETING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY SOMEWHAT DISCOURAGED.

NO RESPONSIBLE LEADER HERE WANTS TO TALK ABOUT THE U.N. FUTURE ON THE RECORD--EXCEPT IN GENERAL TERMS. BUT THE CONVERSATIONS ARE GOING ON IN OFFICES AND IN THE LUXURIOUS LOUNGE WHERE DELEGATES AND SECRETARIAT PEOPLE MEET.

MOST AUTHORITIES SAY THAT IF RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES COULD AGREE ON A WORLD SETTLEMENT, IT WOULD BE A SHOT IN THE ARM FOR THE U.N.

IN THE ABSENCE OF SUCH AGREEMENT, THEY ADD, THE [illegible] HAS TO STRUGGLE ALONG AS BEST IT CAN.

THE BEST OUTLOOK BY THESE FORWARD-THINKING OFFICIALS IS THAT THE COLD WAR WILL KEEP UP ITS HOT PACE FOR FULLY TWO MORE YEARS.

DURING THAT TWO-YEAR PERIOD, THESE LEADERS SAY THE U.N. CAN TACKLE ONLY THOSE PROJECTS WHICH DO NOT TOUCH ON THE EAST-WEST DISAGREEMENT. THESE ARE EXTREMELY FEW. THE U.N. LEADERS PLAN TO SEEK THEM OUT AND DO WHAT THEY CAN.

NO ONE AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS EVEN HAS HINTED THAT HE EXPECTS WAR AT ANY TIME.

POSSIBILITY OF WAR IN THE NEAR FUTURE IS SHRUGGED OFF BY U.N. LEADERS AND DELEGATES WITH THE REPEATED COMMENT THAT NO ONE WANTS WAR; THAT NO ONE IS PREPARED FOR WAR, AND THAT THERE IS NO NEED FOR WAR.

THE U.N. HAS ITS OWN SYSTEM FOR FEELING THE PULSE OF THE AVERAGE MAN TO SEE WHETHER IT BEATS FAST OR SLOW FOR THE U.N.

ONE OFFICIAL CLOSE TO THIS SURVEY SAID THE REACTION OF PEOPLE IN THE UNITED STATES NOW IS ONE OF CYNICAL DISCOURAGEMENT.

HE SAID U.S. CITIZENS WERE DOWNCAST BY THE RECORD OF THE PARIS ASSEMBLY, WHERE MUCH TIME WAS SPENT IN TALKING AND NO PROGRESS WAS MADE TOWARD SOLVING THE WORLD'S PROBLEMS.

BUT HE INDICATED THAT THE U.S. CITIZENS CERTAINLY HAVE NOT WRITTEN OFF THE U.N. THEY STILL ARE STRINGING ALONG IN THE HOPE IT WILL SUCCEED FINALLY.

A150

AN OFFICIAL OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE UNITED NATIONS SAID IN NEW YORK THAT AVERAGE INTEREST IN THE U.N. HAS PICKED UP A BIT. HE SAID THERE IS A MARKED INCREASE IN U.N. INTEREST AMONG THE COLLEGE STUDENTS.

TRYGVE LIE, U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL, IS WORKING CONSTANTLY BEHIND THE SCENES TO SMOOTH OVER THE VARIOUS ROUGH SPOTS ON THE GLOBE.

LIE HAS SAID TIME AND AGAIN THE SECRETARY-GENERAL SHOULD BE MORE THAN AN INTERNATIONAL CHIEF CLERK. DELEGATES SAY THE PRESTIGE OF THE OFFICE HAS GROWN THROUGH THE CAUTIOUS MOVES OF THE FORMER NORWEGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER.

LIE HAS NOW REACHED THE POINT WHERE HE CAN CALL IN VARIOUS DELEGATES AND USE HIS PERSUASIVE POWERS IN AN EFFORT TO CALM A DANGEROUS SITUATION. HE HAS DONE THAT IN THE PALESTINE DIFFICULTIES RECENTLY BETWEEN ISRAEL AND BRITAIN. HE INTENDS TO KEEP TRYING.

ISRAEL

BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.15-(AP)-ISRAEL'S CHANCES OF GAINING ADMISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS APPEARED BRIGHTER TODAY AFTER CUBA RECOGNIZED THE TEL AVIV REGIME.

ISRAEL SPOKESMEN WOULD NOT COMMENT OFFICIALLY ON THE UNEXPECTED DEVELOPMENT BUT THEY MADE IT PLAIN THEY WERE ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT IT.

THE CUBAN GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT IN HAVANA IT HAD RECOGNIZED ISRAEL. TWENTY-TWO COUNTRIES NOW HAVE RECOGNIZED THE NEW STATE. CANADA EXTENDED RECOGNITION DEC.24 AND THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC DEC.29.

THE CUBAN MOVE MAY BE THE FIRST BREAK IN THE SOLID BLOCK OF 13 VOTES IN THE U.N. FOR THE ARABS. CUBA VOTED WITH THE ARABS AGAINST THE U.N. PARTITION PLAN NOV.29, 1947, AND VOTED CONSISTENTLY WITH THE ARABS IN ALL BALLOTS OF THE LONG PALESTINE DEBATE IN THE PARIS GENERAL ASSEMBLY LAST FALL.

THE SECURITY COUNCIL REFUSED TO APPROVE THE ISRAELI APPLICATION AT A MEETING IN PARIS LAST MONTH. ISRAEL'S BID LACKED TWO VOTES OF THE NECESSARY SEVEN. THE ISRAELI DELEGATION HAD FEARED IT WOULD LOSE A VOTE WHEN CUBA REPLACED COLOMBIA, WHICH VOTED FOR ISRAEL, AT THE END OF COLOMBIA'S TERM DEC.31.

DR. ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ, CUBAN DELEGATE TO THE COUNCIL, SAID TODAY HE HAS NOT RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS ON HIS COUNTRY'S ATTITUDE WHEN THE COUNCIL AGAIN TAKES UP THE APPLICATION. HOWEVER, ISRAELI SOURCES HERE WERE HOPEFUL CUBA'S RECOGNITION MEANT A FAVORABLE VOTE FOR ISRAEL WHEN THE COUNCIL VOTES AGAIN.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION TODAY WHEN ISRAEL'S BID WOULD COME UP AGAIN BUT IT IS EXPECTED A VOTE WILL BE TAKEN BEFORE THE APRIL MEETING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

ON THE BASIS OF THE RECORD, THE LINE-UP IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL ON THE ISRAELI APPLICATION IS THIS:

FOR: THE UNITED STATES, SOVIET RUSSIA, THE SOVIET UKRAINE, ARGENTINA. (WITH CUBA EXPECTED BY OBSERVERS TO JOIN THE FAVORABLE COLUMN).

ABSTAINING: BRITAIN, FRANCE, CHINA, CANADA.

BELGIUM ABSTAINED LAST MONTH BUT HAS SINCE BEEN REPLACED BY NORWAY. NORWAY ALSO HAS NOT ANNOUNCED HER POSITION IN THE COUNCIL ON THE APPLICATION.

CANADIAN SOURCES INDICATED CANADA HAS NOT CHANGED HER POSITION IN THE "ABSTENTION" COLUMN BECAUSE OF RECOGNITION. THEY SAID RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL AND A VOTE TO ADMIT HER TO THE U.N. "ARE TWO DIFFERENT THINGS." AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES HAVE SAID CANADA WOULD MAKE UP HER MIND ON THE BASIS OF ISRAEL'S ACTIONS BETWEEN NOW AND THE APRIL ASSEMBLY.

TO GAIN ADMISSION TO THE U.N., A NATION MUST ESCAPE A VETO AND OBTAIN SEVEN VOTES IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL. THEN IT MUST GET THE TWO-THIRD VOTE OF THOSE PRESENT AND VOTING IN THE ASSEMBLY WHEN ITS APPLICATION COMES UP.

THESE ARE A FEW EXAMPLES OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE U.N. AND ITS VARIOUS UNITS FURNISH TO MEMBER COUNTRIES AT THEIR REQUEST. A SURVEY OF THIS ASSISTANCE IS GIVEN IN A BOOKLET ENTITLED "TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT," PUBLISHED TODAY BY THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS.

THE IMPORTANCE WHICH U.N. ATTACHES TO INTERNATIONAL MEASURES FOR THE BENEFIT OF 1,500,000,000 (B) PEOPLE IN UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES IS REFLECTED IN THE WORK OF VARIOUS SPECIALIZED AGENCIES.

LAST DEC. 4 THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING IN PARIS ADOPTED A RESOLUTION INSTRUCTING THE SECRETARY-GENERAL TO PROVIDE ON THE REQUEST OF GOVERNMENTS CERTAIN FACILITIES FOR TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE IN THE FIELDS OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT HERETOFORE NOT COVERED. AN APPROPRIATION OF $288,000 WAS PROVIDED FOR THIS WORK IN 1949.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL DECIDES HOW THIS FUND SHALL BE SPENT TO SEND ADVISORY TECHNICAL MISSIONS TO UNDER-DEVELOPED AREAS, TO SET UP FELLOWSHIPS FOR EXPERTS FROM THESE AREAS IN ADVANCED COUNTRIES AND INSTITUTIONS, AND TO FINANCE VISITS BY EXPERTS WHO TRAIN LOCAL PERSONNEL IN UNDER-DEVELOPED AREAS.

FAO, AT THE REQUEST OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, IS MAINTAINING IN CHINA SEVERAL FORMER UNRRA TECHNICIANS ADVISING THE GOVERNMENT ON SUCH MATTERS AS LIVESTOCK REHABILITATION AND DISEASE CONTROL, THE PRODUCTION AND UTILIZATION OF FARM IMPLEMENTS, THE MANUFACTURE AND USE OF FERTILIZERS, CROP PRODUCTION AND ALLIED FIELDS, AND FLOOD CONTROL.

ALSO IN CHINA A HEALTH MISSION IS ASSISTING THE GOVERNMENT IN EMERGENCY PUBLIC HEALTH MEASURES.

THE COAL COMMITTEE OF THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR EUROPE (ECE), BESIDE MAKING COAL ALLOCATIONS, IS WORKING ON INCREASING COAL PRODUCTION. THE ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR ASIA AND THE FAR EAST (ECAFE) HAS SET UP A WORKING PARTY ON INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT FOR THAT REGION.

THE UNITED NATIONS EDUCATIONAL, SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATION (UNESCO) IS WORKING ON EDUCATIONAL AND SCIENTIFIC RECONSTRUCTION, ESTABLISHING YOUTH SERVICE CAMPS TO EDUCATE WAR-HANDICAPPED CHILDREN, AND SERVE AS A CLEARING HOUSE FOR EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION.

THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION (ILO) HAS SENT OUT MISSIONS TO ASSIST IN DRAFTING SOCIAL AND LABOR LEGISLATION AND FURNISH OTHER TECHNICAL ADVICE IN SUCH COUNTRIES AS BOLIVIA, ALGIERS, CHINA, GREECE, ROMANIA, CUBA, VENEZUELA, TURKEY, GREAT BRITAIN, ECUADOR, CHILE, MOROCCO, CANADA AND EVEN THE UNITED STATES.

THE TIMES, IN A STORY FROM WASHINGTON BY JAMES RESTON FOLLOWING A SERIES OF INTERVIEWS, QUOTES HEIDRICH AS SAYING THAT CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS UNDER "COMPLETE DOMINATION" OF MOSCOW.

THE DIPLOMAT, ACCORDING TO THE NEWSPAPER, SAID STALIN "SEEMS TO BE DEVELOPING CZECHOSLOVAKIA PRIMARILY AS A SOURCE OF ECONOMIC RECONSTRUCTION IN RUSSIA, AS A SOURCE OF MILITARY SUPPLIES AND AS A STRATEGIC TERRITORY THAT MUST BE DENIED TO THE WESTERN POWERS, RATHER THAN AS A BASE FOR ATTACK ON THE WEST."

THE TIMES SAID HEIDRICH BELIEVES THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT IS DETERMINED TO CREATE A NEW FORM OF "MERCANTILE COLONIALISM" IN ITS RELATIONS WITH EASTERN EUROPE.

PURPOSES OF THE PLAN, HEIDRICH IS QUOTED AS SAYING, ARE TO BOLSTER RUSSIA'S OWN ECONOMIC WEAKNESS, COUNTERACT THE EFFECTS OF THE MARSHALL PLAN AND REBUILT RUSSIA'S STRENGTH AT THE EXPENSE OF OTHER NATIONS.

THE U.S. ATTORNEY SAID HIS RECORDS SHOWED NO ADDRESSES FOR THESE MEN, BUT THAT ALL WERE LISTED AS BRITISH SUBJECTS. THEY WILL BE SUBPOENAED TO TESTIFY BEFORE A FEDERAL GRAND JURY NEXT TUESDAY, MODARELLI SAID.

THE PLANE HAD BEEN WATCHED BY CUSTOMS AGENTS SINCE DEC. 29, WHEN AN ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO EXPORT IT WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION, MODARELLI REPORTED.

EIGHT DAYS AGO, GOVERNMENT AGENTS SEIZED ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF FIVE MILITARY PLANES, IN CRATES AWAITING SHIPMENT AT A NEWARK PIER. MODARELLI SAID THEY WERE AN ILLEGAL ARMS SHIPMENT ALSO BELIEVED BOUND FOR EGYPT.

HE SAID THERE WAS NO DEFINITE INFORMATION LINKING YESTERDAY'S PLANE SEIZURE WITH LAST WEEK'S INCIDENT, BUT THAT HE WOULD ASK A FEDERAL GRAND JURY INVESTIGATION OF BOTH CASES.

CHINA TROOPS QUIT PENGPU DEFENSE POST

Nanking, China, Jan. 16 (AP)—Chinese Nationalist troops abandoned their Pengpu outpost to the Communists today, retreating 73 miles to a thinly manned line only 30 miles north of this capital.

Pengpu had been hopelessly outflanked for a month, but its abandonment without a fight was a sharp reflection on sagging Government morale. There was no indication that the Communists had yet moved in.

At the same time, the Communists were credibly reported to have set a deadline of less than three days for surrender of Peiping, besieged metropolis of the north. There were intimations that the Peiping command might yield to the demand.

Former Anchor Of Line

The Government military spokesman in Nanking confirmed the retreat from Pengpu, former railhead and anchor of the Hwai River line. Hwaiyuan, 12 miles west, and Linhwaikan, 18 miles east, also were reported abandoned.

The Government headquarters had pulled back to Chuhsien, 30 miles north of Nanking, on December 17, after Communists bypassed Pengpu in 50-mile-deep penetrations on both sides. Since then, that front has been idle, and there were no new reports of fighting today.

Government troops of the 6th Army Group and the 96th Army were still entraining today from points south of Pengpu in a rapid movement.

Estimate 60,000 On Line

Reliable estimates said the new defense line, based on Chuhsien on the rim of the Yangtze river valley, would be defended by only some 60,000 troops.

Gen. Liu Tze, commander on that front, has been in Nanking since Saturday, leading to renewed speculation that his troops would be reassigned to Gen. Tang En-po, commanding the Nanking-Shanghai defenses on the south bank of the Yangtze.

Month-old estimates place Tang's south-bank forces at 80,000 regulars.

Addressing some of these troops in a review Sunday at the Sun Yat-sen Memorial near Nanking, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek appealed to them to fight on and "wipe out past humiliations."

No Mention Of Peace Terms

No mention was made of the peace terms which the Communists set Friday in a broadcast that amounted to a demand for unconditional surrender.

The Executive Yuan, high policy-making body of the Chiang Government, met in special session this morning, but a member said the Communist terms were not discussed because "additional reactions" were wanted.

Instead, the Executive Yuan voted to suspend sale of gold and to float a bond issue of 2,000,000 taels of gold, (the tael is about 1 1-3 ounces, so such an issue at the American gold price of $35 an ounce would be about $93,000,000.)

Gold sales recently have bolstered the currency. Suspension was expected to result in immediate new inflation.

Flushed with their easy conquest of Tientsin on Saturday, the Communists in the north were reported to have set a deadline earlier than Wednesday, January 19, for surrender of Peiping.

Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent in Peiping, said this word came from "sources too well connected to be ignored."

The Government's northern commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi, issued a statement that it was unfortunate fighting had occurred for Tientsin at a time the whole nation was looking forward to peace.

Speculate On Concessions

Ping Min Jih Pao, Peiping newspaper owned by Fu, appealed editorially to the Communists to cease firing and conceded they were victorious in North China. This paper said also that Fu had agreed to let a peace delegation headed by a former mayor enter the Communist lines if it thought it could accomplish anything.

Foreign military circles in Nanking interpreted all this as signifying that Fu was willing to surrender Peiping if the Communists would give him some minor concessions.

These observers speculated that the concession Fu most wanted was permission to withdraw some of his garrison of 125,000 men northwest to his old stamping-grounds in Suiyuan province.

Despite this strong peace talk, however, the Peiping garrison was going ahead with construction of a third emergency airfield inside the walls. The other two already have been damaged by red artillery.

The new field would knock down part of the compound wall and some outbuildings of the British consulate. The embassy in Nanking was supporting consulate objections to this action, due to begin in a day or two.

CHIANG REPLY IS SUGGESTED

Talk Of Terms Reported At Informal Dinner

Nanking, Monday, Jan. 17 (AP)—An informal dinner meeting of high Chinese officials with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek last night was reported to have resulted in a decision to formulate a counter proposal to the Communist peace demands.

The reliable sources which gave this information indicated nothing was expected to happen for several days and that Chiang might change his mind, as he is said to have done several times already.

However, the circumstances of the meeting were deemed significant.

Chiang Expresses Gloom

Here is the story: At the dinner in Chiang's home, talk turned to the harsh Communist peace conditions, with Chiang expressing gloom.

Two satellite party leaders, Carsun Chang, of the Democratic Socialist party, and Tso Shun-shen, of the Young China party, spoke up, insisting that some sort of reply would have to be made to the Communists if only to show the Government's sincerity in desiring peace..

Their views were tacitly accepted by Chiang and the others, but it was decided to sound out various groups and individuals before formulating a reply.

Hint Party Seeks Help

The boldness of the minority leaders in having their say was taken as a hint that Chiang's dominant Kuomintang (Nationalist party) was looking for help in its dire difficulties.

Others present were said to include three Cabinet ministers, Chang Chun, Chang Chih-chung, Wu Teh-chen; Wang Shi-chieh, former Foreign Minister, and Shao Li-tze, elder statesman. Most of these have been classified as peace advocates, Shao being particularly insistent that the Communist conditions still leave room for negotiations.

No mention was made of Premier Sun Fo being present. Some political dopesters took this as a hint that a new Cabinet might be in the offing.

Deadline for Peiping Surrender

PEIPING, Jan. 16 (AP).—A deadline for the surrender of besieged Peiping has been set by Communist commanders, reliable sources reported today. They hinted that the deadline was some time before next Wednesday. They declined to be more specific.

Surrender of Peiping, now in its thirty-fourth day of siege, recently was demanded by General Lin Piao, commander of the Red forces which have swept down from Manchuria. He did not set a time limit.

For weeks there has been talk that General Fu T(column 5) tionalist commander [illegible] N. China, was dickering for a local surrender. Yesterday Fu's newspaper commented that a peace agreement in the Peiping area would be designed solely to spare the city and should not be termed surrender or a revolt against Chiang Kai-shek's government.

Peiping is the largest city in North China still held by Nationalists.

Local Chinese authorities are going ahead with plans to cut off part of the old British Embassy compound for use in building a third air strip within the city. The British Embassy at Nanking has protested futilely.

The Nationalists have built two air strips within this ancient capital to receive supplies. Communists promptly brought both under artillery fire. So local authorities are building a third.

Tientsin's Fall in Soviet Press

MOSCOW, Jan. 16 (AP).—The Soviet press announced briefly but prominently today the fall of Tientsin. It was the first military news concerning China that Soviet papers had published in three weeks.

Harriman Flying to U. S.

Surrender Choice Faced By Peiping

Peiping, Monday, Jan. 17 (AP)—The situation at this Communist-encircled ancient capital is approaching a climax.

Within the next few days, a decision has to be made to either surrender Peiping or expose the city to threatened Communist attack, an attack which would have only one result—Communist conquest.

The decision to send peace delegates to the Communists' area suggests that the report the Communists set a deadline for the city's surrender is only too well founded.

Gen Fu Tso-yi, the Government commander in North China, is providing the peace delegates with transportation and escort to the Nationalist perimeter.

Tientsin As Precedent

From the precedent the Communists established at Tientsin, there is no reason to believe they will be satisfied with anything short of unconditional surrender. Tientsin, North China's commercial hub 70 miles to the southeast, was captured Saturday.

Fu had hoped Nanking would work out a national peace, and thereby have saved him from any personal loss of face. But the conditions which leader, Mao Tse-tung, offered Nanking has delayed prospects for such a solution.

[Because Moosa's dispatches are censored, the fact he was permitted to use the phrase "delayed prospects" for a national peace may be significant.]

Face-Saving

Shanghai, Jan. 16 (AP)—Chinese newspapers figured out a face-saving way today for Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek to leave Nanking.

They said, without any confirmation, that in a few days he would make his annual visit to pay New Year's homage at the tombs of his ancestors in Fengwa, 250 miles southeast of Nanking, and then might continue on south to Fukien province "for a rest."

HOUSE FLY IS REPORTED IMMUNE TO DDT SPRAY

GENEVA, Switzerland, Jan. 16—(AP) The World Health organization is experimenting with new insecticides in the hope they will be more effective against all types of house flies than DDT.

Dr. Paul W. Bierstein of Shenandoah, Pa., public health engineer of WHO, said reports from all over the world indicate the house fly can no longer be exterminated by the chemical.

Bierstein said experience shows the chemical never killed certain strains of hard-shelled flies, which are equally as dangerous germ carriers as the soft-shelled varieties. While DDT campaigns have nearly eradicated soft-shelled flies, the others have reproduced in enormous numbers, he said.

The expert said his organization is experimenting with three new insecticides which it will use in rotation in the hope of preventing any strain from becoming immune, and to stop the propagation of those which are naturally immune. He emphasized that DDT still is effective against mosquitoes.

Re[illegible]etain Rome News Chief

[illegible]E, Jan. 16 (AP).—An employee of the Telepress News Agency said today its Rome chief, Gino Bardi, of Brooklyn, was taken from a train outside Vienna while en route from Prague and was detained by the Russians for several days. The employee, Luciano Pilotto, said the Russians questioned Mr. Bardi's travel permits, but finally allowed him to proceed to Rome.

New Army Rules Make It Tougher For Soldiers to Marry Germans

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 16 —(AP) The Army made it much tougher today for Americans to marry Germans.

In an attempt to check the tide of some 15,000 German-American weddings since the war, the Army:

1. Forbade marriage in Germany by enlisted soldiers under the rank of sergeant, except in special circumstances.

2. Required at least a six months wait between application and the altar. They used to have to wait only three months.

There was no official explanation for the new rules, which reverse the recent trend of encouraging German-American fraternization.

From Army officers and chaplains who refused to be quoted by name, however, came these possible explanations:

In the first place, many Army authorities suspect too many frauleins are using marriage only as an escape from the hard life of occupied Germany to the United States.

Army headquarters said there was no exact count of the number of German girls who have got free rides to the United States by marrying an American. But they estimated on the basis of war bride shipments that there must have been about 15,000. The ban on U. S.-German weddings was lifted only two years ago.

Some officers suggested, also, that there might be a desire to "protect" the youthful draftees expected to start arriving in Germany soon as a result of the new military draft.

Under the new rules announced today, enlisted soldiers below the first three grades "normally will not be permitted to marry while they are in the European command." Formerly they had the same right to marry as sergeants and officers.

To obtain special permission to marry, a low ranking enlisted man must prove "adequate financial background" to support his bride and an established home for her in the United States. Even then, the Army said only that permission "may" be granted.

American Troops In Germany Testing Speed In War Games

—RICHARD O'REGAN

Frankfurt, Germany, Monday, Jan. 17 (AP)—Sixteen thousand American troops in Germany went on the march this morning against a mythical "aggressor" army.

At 5 A.M., G.M.T. (midnight, E.S.T.) they began the first winter maneuvers to be held by Gen. Lucius D. Clay's occupation army.

They were mobilized after imaginary reports were received of supposed "troop concentrations" on the borders of the United States zone.

Test Of Operations In Cold

The soldiers were summoned before dawn from their bunks in hundreds of widely scattered military posts. Thousands of trucks and jeeps now are rolling toward the Rhine River from all parts of the American zone.

The maneuvers were called by Clay to test the soldiers' ability to operate in cold weather. High officers' maneuvers also are designed to test the speed with which American troops can move into a fighting position. The games will last several days.

There will be no shot fired—not even blanks. The troops have orders: Not to destroy crops nor enter orchards, not to dig foxholes nor cut trees, not to enter German [illegible] and always to respect the rights of the German civilian."

The "enemy" always will be a mythical one—not even a GI in a foreign uniform. Only the umpires will know which is the better fighting force—the American or the "aggressor."

There are two stages. In the first, the area west of the Rhine River—the area of France and Luxembourg—is called the "aggressor land."

The crack United States 1st Infantry Division plus units of the United States constabulary, has the task of defending the Rhine River crossing places.

Advance In Second Phase

In the second phase of the maneuvers the Army will assume it is advancing eastward. It will assume it has made crossings of the Rhine at Main, Worms and Mannheim and established bridgeheads in "aggressor" territory.

Then it will advance in a northeasterly direction — toward the present borders of the Russian zone —theoretically in pursuit of the "withdrawing aggressor."

After a certain advance, the American troops will disband and return to their posts.

GERMAN RED SAYS U. S., BRITAIN SEEK 'COOLIES'

DUESSELDORF, Germany, Jan. 16 (AP)—Max Reimann, Western Germany's No. 1 Communist, said today that United States and British policies would turn the Germans into a race of "coolies." The two countries are aiming at "the complete destruction of Western Germany," he said.

Herr Reimann, now facing trial for an earlier inflammatory speech, delivered his oratorical blast before a crowd of 1,500 at Wuppertal.

He said he was not worried about his appearance before a British military court Tuesday. He has been charged with threatening German politicals who cooperate with the Western Allies under the statute for control of the Ruhr.

Western Germany's anti-Communist political leaders "are more worried about my trial than I am because the trial will prove by whose orders these men are acting," Herr Reimann said, adding:

"I am not accused because I attacked the British Military Government but because I pointed out to German politicians where their policies were leading."

Georgian Gets Medal For Service With AMG

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 16 (AP). Jack Bennett, of Macon, Ga., was awarded a medal "for exceptional performance of duty" today as he ended three years of service as director of finance for the United States military government in Germany.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, military governor, presented the "Civil Medal for Exceptional Service Overseas" on behalf of Kenneth C. Royall, Secretary of the Army.

The citation praised Bennett's "full realization of the importance of the financial stabilization of Germany, his great initiative and determination of purpose, his keen foresight in financial matters and his unselfish devotion to duty."

After visits in northern Germany, Holland and Rome, Bennett will sail for the United States February 3 to return to his post with the United States Treasury Department.

Polish Catholics Install New Archbishop Feb. 2

WARSAW, Jan. 16 (AP).—High Roman Catholic dignitaries have been summoned to the town of Gniezno, in western Poland, for ceremonies on Feb. 2 at which Bishop Stefan Wyszynski will become Primate of Poland.

At that time Bishop Wyszynski will become Archbishop of Gniezno and Warsaw, a post which traditionally carries with it the title of Primate of Poland. He is forty-seven years old and has been Bishop of Lublin since 1945.

Bishop Wyszynski recently was named by the Vatican as successor to August Cardinal Hlond, who died last October. Catholics here expect he will be made a Cardinal at the next Consistory.

He is expected to follow closely the line of his predecessor in taking a firm stand against what the Church terms restrictive measures against religious activities. The government recently reiterated its stand that it will allow full religious freedom but will deal harshly with Catholic clergymen who interfere in affairs of state.

Cominform Scores U.S., Britain On Reaction

Bucharest, Romania, Jan. 16 (AP). The Cominform (Communist Information Bureau) Bulletin said today the United States and Britain are the centers of world reaction.

The publication's editorial added that both countries are trying to get out of their present crisis by staging a crusade against the Soviet Union.

Most of the articles in the issue were dedicated to the approaching twenty-fifth anniversary of Lenin's death. The editorial said Lenin had shown the true road to socialism, had fought deviations and had shown that imperialism is the last stage of decadent capitalism.

The Bulletin said the Communist-led Socialist Unity party in the Soviet zone of Germany will be transformed into a "new type party."

Two Get Order of Lenin

State Control Minister and Byelo-Russian Leader Honored

MOSCOW, Jan. 16 (AP). — Two Russian Communist leaders have received awards of the Order of Lenin, the Soviet press announced today.

Lev Z. Mekhlis, Minister of State Control, received the award on his sixtieth birthday for "serious services" to the Soviet state and the Communist party. He formerly was head of the Army political department.

P. K. Ponomarenko, former premier and party leader in Byelo-Russia, received the award in connection with the thirtieth anniversary of the White Russian Republic. Mr. Ponomarenka now is one of the secretaries of the Communist party of the Soviet Union.

GREEK KING SETS CABINET DEADLINE

Dictatorship Hint Seen In His Ultimatum To Ten Parties

Athens, Jan. 16 (AP)—King Paul today gave Greece's ten political parties 24 hours in which to form a new coalition government.

If they fail, he said, "I shall be compelled to find for our people some other solution."

He gave no hint of what he meant.

One old guard leader, declining to be quoted, said the King might have dictatorship in mind, and threatened to fight any such attempt.

In making his demand, King Paul rejected a proposal of four veteran leaders to form a coalition government of their parties, which together would control a majority in Parliament.

Follows Upset In Turkey

Sick and aged, Themistokles Sophoulis, Liberal leader, resigned as Premier yesterday, marking the fall of the second government in two days supported by the United States in the fight against communism. Turkey's Government toppled Friday in a fight over the high cost of living. Shemsettin Gunaltay, elderly scholar-politician who is little known outside Turkey, is attempting to form a new cabinet there under the dominant People's party banner.

King Paul's reception of their plans surprised the four leaders, whose parties were presented as the elite of the Greek political world. The Sophoulis Cabinet fell after a week of arguing about broadening the Government's base and appointment of a new commander in chief to fight the Communist rebels.

The Four Paul Turned Down

The men the King turned down are Constantin Tsaldaris, Populist leader who was vice premier in Sophoulis's Cabinet; George Papandreou, Social Democrat; Sophocles Venizelos, head of the Venizelos Liberal party, and Panayotis Kanellopoulos, head of the National Unionist (Navy) party.

They were among nine leaders who met with the King today, believing they had the solution of his cabinet difficulties. Instead, King Paul told them what he wanted, and gave them only a few minutes to speak their views.

Said one leader later: "Whatever the developments may be, deviation from parliamentary and constitutional institutions should positively be excluded."

Parliamentary circles said in case a government dominated by the King is rejected by Parliament, the King has the right to dissolve the Parliament and call new parliamentary elections within 40 days. The hitch is that in present disturbed conditions, they believe it is impossible to hold an election. Greece is plagued by guerrilla warfare being waged by Communist insurgents.

TURKEY GETS NEW CABINET

Premier Includes Post For Clearing American Aid

Ankara, Jan. 16 (AP)—Turkey's new Prime Minister Shemsettin Gunaltay, tonight presented his new Cabinet to President Ismet Inonu.

It was more liberal than had been expected, with all extreme Rightists ignored.

Gunaltay, elderly historian and staunch People's party man, kept all but four members of former Premier Hasan Saka's Cabinet. Saka's failure to lower the cost of living caused the downfall of his Cabinet.

Gunaltay created a new post—Minister of State—to serve as a clearing agency for the American aid program and named Nurallah Esat Sumer, one of Turkey's leading financial experts, to fill it.

Expert Turns Down Post

Kazim Gulek, 42-year-old American-educated expert, was asked to take this new post earlier but rejected it. Gulek is probably the Cabinet Minister best known to the American colony here. He was Minister of Communications under Saka, but has now been dropped entirely from the Cabinet.

Notable among those retained from the former Cabinet were Necmeddin Sadak, Foreign Minister, and Nihat Erim, former Minister of Public Works who now will become vice premier. Erim, a protégé of President Inonu, is only 44.

Cemil Sait Barlas was named Minister of Economy and for the first time this post was combined with that of Minister of Commerce. Barlas will have the job of trying to lead Turkey out of the economic plight which led to the downfall of the Saka Cabinet.

Resented By Rightists

Spokesmen for extreme rightists expressed deep resentment over the composition of the Cabinet, but political sources predicted that the liberals and centerists in the party were strong enough to carry on.

Rightists take the view that Turkey's citizens are still so inexperienced in democratic practices that they should be controlled, with a heavy hand if necessary. Liberals and most centrists, on the other hand, prefer to rule in co-operation with the people.

President Inonu is expected to approve the Cabinet list quickly and it is believed the National Assembly will ratify it tomorrow.

RIOTING SPREADS IN SOUTH AFRICA

Zulu-Indian Fighting Flares In Towns And Rural Areas

Durban, South Africa, Jan. 16 (AP)—Machine-gun and rifle fire crackled today in South Africa's spreading race rioting.

Bloody fighting between Zulu and Indian inhabitants seemed waning in Durban, where it started Thursday, but spread into neighboring towns and rural areas.

Bombing In Johannesburg

Violence flared tonight in Johannesburg, largest city of South Africa, 310 miles northwest of Durban. A bomb was hurled from a passing car at a shop owned by an Indian. Windows were blown in but Indian owners of the shop were in a back room and escaped injury.

The civil guard was alerted and police stood by to forestall any outbreak of rioting similar to that which has occurred in Durban. No rioting has occurred thus far in Johannesburg, but natives have been protsting that Indian shopkeepers have been overcharging them.

Durban police counted 85 bodies in their first tally of the dead. One was a European (white) and the rest were Indians and natives. There were 870 Indians and natives injured, of whom 558 were hospitalized. Bodies still were being brought into the city.

To Photograph Every Corpse

Police said it was hard to get casualty figures because much of the fighting took place in open country near Durban. The Cato Manor area, where thousands of natives and Indians live in shacks, was the scene of particularly bitter rioting.

Estimates of the total death toll have ranged from 100 to as high as 500. Because of the difficulty in locating families of the dead, the police decided to have every corpse photographed.

Many cases were reported of Indian women raped and mutilated by Zulu mobs. The Indians were infuriated by these reports and cried for vengeance.

Orgy Of Killing, Arson, Looting

Zulu King Cyprian called on his people to stop the killing and return to their homes. Chanting their ancient battle cries, they have been on an orgy of killing, arson, looting and rape for three terrifying days.

The police said 25,000 Indians have been driven from their homes here, and the fate of hundreds of them is unknown. The rioting started after a native boy was injured in a fight with an Indian peddler.

Reinforced troops, striving to stem the spread of rioting, opened fire with light machine guns and rifles today at the town of New Germany, about 15 miles from Durban, killing four African blacks.

White Population Barricaded

The white population at Pineville, 17 miles from here, was barricaded in homes and hotels. Telephone reports told of a "serious" situation there, but Zulu warriors cut telephone lines to the town and there was no further word.

Trouble also spread to Pietermaritzburg, Natal's capital, during the night.

Indians and Zulus shot it out 20 miles from Durban, near the Government's native reserve at Umbumbula. At Camperdown, 48 miles from here, police said trouble was "just starting," with raids on Indian shops.

Mostly the offensive has rested with South African blacks, the police said, but bands of Indians formed to take revenge. Forty Indians armed with clubs and iron bars searched out a Zulu hidden in tall grass on the outskirts of Durban and beat him to death.

F. C. Erasmus, Defense Minister, said 2,000 uniformed men were on duty here to restore order in this battered city, and that all people in the Transvaal and Free State have been alerted. Hundreds of extra troops and police have been ferried in by the South African Air Force for deployment here and in menaced areas around the city.

Wide sections of Durban have been wrecked by battling mobs, some of which burned down entire business and residential streets.

Deep Resentment In India

Dispatches from India said the rioting has caused deep resentment there, although the New Delhi Government awaited further details before issuing any official statement. One official was quoted as saying the riots are "the inevitable result of racial hatred and that has been created particularly by the present South African Government."

The Hindustan Times of New Delhi blames the Nationalist Government of Prime Minister Daniel Malan and "his henchmen's pursuance of a divide-and-rule policy to counteract attempts to form a united non-European front." Mohandas K. Gandhi's son, Devadas, edits the paper.

Most Indians involved in the fighting are South African nationals, which may be a reason for the New Delhi Government's official silence.

In Berlin the Soviet-controlled news agency ADN described the riots as the result of "fostered race hatred" for which it blamed the Malan Government, which has a policy of segregation of the colored population and elimination of legislative representation for Africans and Indians.

White Europeans mostly have been unmolested in the fighting, although official reports said one white man was killed and eleven were injured between flare-ups. Zulus in the streets greet white police with the usual respectful salutes.

'Nasty,' Says Nehru

New Delhi, India, Jan. 16 (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said tonight the Indian Government is studying the situation in South Africa. Asked for comments on the rioting, Nehru said: "It is nasty."

PROGRESS IS MADE AT RHODES PARLEY

Jews, Egyptians Reach Accord on Highly Controversial Issue

RHODES, Jan. 16—(AP) A United Nations spokesman said tonight the Israelis and Egyptians had reached agreement on one of the most controversial points in their current armistice negotiations.

The spokesman disclosed also that Dr. Ralph Bunche, the acting United Nations mediator, had launched a general peace offensive in the Middle East. He said, however, that other Arab states will not be invited to take part in the talks here.

Details Not Revealed

The spokesman refused to divulge the point on which the Israelis and Arabs had reached agreement. The chief subjects on which agreement is sought are the fate of the Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluja pocket, the withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Negev, and a reduction in the armed strength of both sides in Palestine.

The spokesman said a full meeting with both the Israeli and Egyptian delegations present would not be called until agreement is reached on these issues. This would amount to a successful end to the conference, since the only other items on the agenda are the routine drafting and initialing of an armistice.

The spokesman disclosed that Constantine Stavropoulos, legal adviser to Bunche, had been sent as a special emissary to Beirut, Damascus and Amman.

His purpose was to follow up Bunche's armistice overtures of last December. The spokesman said Stavropoulos explored developments since Bunche's trip of last December aimed at implementing the Nov. 16 order of the security council—"in effect armistice negotiations."

Stavropoulos returned to Rhodes tonight and went into immediate conference with Bunche.

Earlier, Bunche said Lebanon had signified a willingness to accept a Palestine armistice on condition that all Israeli troops are withdrawn from Lebanese soil. Israeli-Lebanese armistice talks are in progress now.

A Tel Aviv dispatch said the Israeli army released four of 15 villages it had been holding inside Lebanon.

All these developments added up to evidence of a further break in the Arab front against negotiating with Israel. That front crumbled when Egypt sent a delegation here for armistice talks with the Israelis.

Mediator Calls Lebanon Willing To Accept Truce

L. S. CHAKALES

Rhodes, Jan. 16 (AP)—Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, said today Lebanon had signified a willingness to accept a Palestine armistice on condition that all Israeli troops are withdrawn from Lebanese soil.

Bunche said he approached Riad El Solph, Lebanese Premier, in Paris last month on the question of an armistice. Within an hour, Bunche said, the Premier handed him a note accepting the Security Council's November 16 resolution calling for an armistice on condition the Jews withdraw their troops from Lebanon. The note was in El Solh's own handwriting.

Constantine Stavropoulos, legal adviser to Bunche, returned tonight from a trip to Beirut and Amman and went into conference with the acting mediator.

Talks At Critical Point

Meanwhile, Israeli - Egyptian negotiations have reached the most difficult issues on the agenda—boundary demarcation and the withdrawal of forces in Palestine's southern Negeb desert.

That is the issue on which all the cease-fires and temporary truces since October have been wrecked. At stake are the probable frontiers of Israel in the Negeb—an area the young Jewish state hopes to transform into a rich farming region by modern irrigation methods. There also are reported to be oil and minerals there.

Israeli forces launched their first Negeb offensive against the Egyptians in mid-October. A short time later other Israeli units opened a drive in Galilee. Both operations resulted in Israeli victories.

The Jews gained control of all northern Palestine in the Galilee drive. According to United Nations observers that operation resulted in an advance by Israeli forces across the Lebanese frontier.

Bunche and the Egyptian and Israeli delegations ignored all three Sabbaths—Moslem Friday, Jewish Saturday and Christian Sunday—in wrestling with the Negeb problems.

Reports "No Fireworks"

The mediator said he was trying to arrange a maximum of informal agreements before bringing the issue into open meeting. He said:

"It is not spectacular but it saves a lot of time and hard feelings. We have met with reasonable success in working out agreements before formal sessions. There have been no fireworks to date and the spirit on both sides has been very good.

"We still have the most difficult hurdles to take. I have confidence if we keep persistently at it the chances of success are good. Both delegations came here to see an armistice concluded. We hope such an agreement will end the possibility of all fighting in the southern sections of Palestine."

Air Of Optimism Prevails

Bunche conferred separately today with the heads of the Israeli and Egyptian delegations. Details of the conversations were not revealed, but they purportedly concerned Jewish and Egyptian proposals about the Negeb boundaries and the withdrawal of troops.

Basically the Jews want to retain all the Negeb area which they have taken in two offensives since October 14. The Egyptians want the situation restored as it was before that date.

5 INDONESIANS HELD, U.N. TOLD

Premier Reported Among Group Under Guard On Island

Batavia, Java, Jan. 16 (AP)—The United Nations Good Offices Committee said today five captured Indonesian republican leaders were being held under close guard by the Dutch on an isolated section of Bangka Island.

Premier Mohamed Hatta is among those held. The Security Council has ordered Netherlands authorities to free republican officials, captured last December 19. The Island of Bangka is off the east coast of Sumatra.

The Belgian, American and Australian members of the committee visited the republican leaders yesterday. They said they found them detained in a single bedroom of a large building on a hill near the Town of Muntok.

Kept In Wired Area

The committee reported to the Security Council:

"They (the republicans) are permitted limited access to the roof under guard. All windows are enclosed by wire netting as is the area around the door. Guards are on duty in sentry boxes immediately outside."

The republicans are not permitted to leave the wired area, the committee said: "Up to two days before the visit of the committee, when some additional furniture was installed, there were only two chairs and two tables."

Nine Released, Dutch Say

On December 28, the Security Council at a meeting in Paris gave the Dutch 24 hours in which to release captured republican leaders. The resolution did not say what would happen if the deadline was not met.

On January 7, J. H. Van Royen, Netherlands delegate, told the council in a session at Lake Success, N.Y., that the Dutch had released nine republican leaders from custody. Five of them were granted complete freedom, he said.

The four others are confined to Bangka but "enjoy complete liberty" there, Van Royen said. He listed them as President Soekarno, Premier Hatta, former Premier Sutan Sjahrir and Foreign Minister Hadji Agoes Salim.

The Good-Offices Committee's report identified those held with Hatta as Mohammed Rum, chairman of the Republican delegation to Batavia; Ali Sastroamidjojo, Education Minister; Air Commodore Curiadarma and Assaat, chairman of the Parliamentary Working Committee. No mention was made of Soekarno, Sjahrir and Salim.

Refused To Sign Pledge

On January 10, the committee said, Netherlands officials asked the Republicans to "sign a pledge to refrain from political activities and assured them if they gave such a pledge they would be given freedom to move about Bangka, and their families would be permitted to join them."

"None gave this pledge," the committee added.

The committee said no political proposals were made to the republican leaders other than the "request" to sign the pledge. The republicans were permitted to write unsealed letters to their families but were permitted no other communication with the outside world, the committee said.

The republicans, the report continued, expressed concern over indications by the Dutch that "the high representative of the (Netherlands) crown no longer recognized either the legal existence of the Republic or the official status of its servants."

Committee members said they "assured the group that so far as the Security Council and the committee were concerned the republic still was a party to the dispute."

Radio, Papers Allowed

The captured Indonesians have been kept "generally informed" as to the progress of events and the activities of the Security Council, the committee said. They are allowed to listen to the radio and are given copies of Bangka Indonesian newspapers and Batavia Dutch language magazines and newspapers. "The later are somewhat delayed," the committee said.

The republicans have not received documents either from the republican delegation or the committee, the report added.

The Dutch reported that native heads of the Netherlands-sponsored federal Indonesian states would seek the help of republican leaders, including Soekarno and Hatta, in forming an interim government.

A Netherlands communiqué said an informal association of Federalist executives in a session at Batavia appointed a committee to reach "prominent persons" connected with former Republican areas of Java and Sumatra.

The committee will submit its findings to the association, "which will then further decide upon its attitude toward continuation of consultations," the communiqué added.

Briton Pledges Malaya Self-Government Later

Singapore, Jan. 16 (AP)—Malcolm MacDonald, British Commissioner General for southeast Asia, said today Britain "looks forward to the day when Malayans may take their place beside other self-governing peoples in the British Commonwealth."

"That is a promise," he declared in a radio address. "We shall not break it. But just as we shall not run away from our promises, so also we shall not run away from our responsibilities in Malaya."

The British accorded Malaya partial self government last February.

MacDonald said the British, with local consent, assumed "the weighty duties of internal administration and external relations. In partnership and friendship with you we shall stay as long as you and we think it is necessary for the fulfilment of our tasks." AP

Tel Aviv Reports New Efforts To Reach Armistice

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 16 (AP)—The Israeli Army today released four of fifteen villages it had been holding inside Lebanon, and Lebanese forces moved out of one village in northwestern Galilee.

The action came as a reliable source reported that Israel, already discussing armistice terms with Lebanon and Egypt, had begun similar talks with Trans-Jordan.

The withdrawals, not yet disclosed officially to the public here, are connected with peace talks which informants said started last night between Jewish and Lebanese representatives at a secret meeting on the border between the two countries.

"Evidence Of Good Faith"

Release of the villages was described as "an evidence of good faith" in the new negotiations, through which it is expected the Jews eventually will withdraw from Lebanese territory.

The Jews have not yet agreed to the immediate release of all their holdings inside Lebanon. Military sources said Israel wanted to retain a small "security zone" along the frontier for a while longer.

It was understood here that if suitable progress is made during the Israeli-Lebanese negotiations—and indications appear that there is a basis for actual agreement—the United Nations may invite Lebanon to the Rhodes peace talks.

Word leaked out yesterday that Israel and Lebanon were having armistice talks "somewhere on the Lebanon frontier," in addition to the negotiations at Rhodes between the Jews and Egyptians.

Other Talks Reported

In regard to the talks with Trans-Jordan, the informant said that contrary to popular belief Trans-Jordan's appeal to Britain which brought British troops to Aqaba did not halt peace talks between the two countries. The Israeli Foreign Offiice, however, refused to confirm or deny the statement.

A Damascus dispatch reported a United Nations emissary had told Khaled Azen, Syria's foreign minister, that, in event of an Israeli-Egyptian armistice agreement, the peace plan would be submitted to all Arab countries by the United Nations with a request for approval. The dispatch said Khaled Azem replied that such a request would be considered on its merits.

[The dispatch identified the emissary as Constantine Stavropoulos, a legal adviser to Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine. It said he also had visited Beirut, in Lebanon, and Amman, Trans-Jordan.]

Egypt Floats A Loan For Holy Land Troops

Cairo, Jan. 16 (AP)—Premier Ibrahim Adbel Hadi Pasha tonight asked the Egyptian people to contribute to a national loan of approximately $124,000,000 to help defray expenses of the Egyptian forces in Palestine.

A statement issued by the Premier said the Government would pay 2½ per cent interest. The Government plans to pay off half the loan in ten to twenty years and the remainder in twenty to thirty years, the statement said.

Siam to Join Asian Conference

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 16—(AP)—The Foreign Ministry said today that Siam had decided to attend the international conference in New Delhi on the Indonesian Question. The conference opens Thursday. Siam earlier declined the invitation stating that she was pledged to full support of the United Nations Security Council in the matter. Her acceptance brings to eighteen the number of countries that will attend the conference.

FLOUR SUPPLIES TO CHINA STOP

Northern Ports Cut Off; Surplus Chokes Those In South

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—The fighting around Tientsin has choked off all American-financed flour and wheat shipments to China.

It has become "physically impossible" to unload supplies at Taku Bar, the major North China port serving Tientsin and Peiping, the Economic Co-operation Administration announced today. Tientsin fell Saturday to the Communists.

Ports farther south already have become clogged or oversupplied; therefore, the ECA reported: "Further flour shipments to China are not being made at this time, and some ships now afloat are scheduled for diversion."

Korea May Get Some

Korea may get some of the shipments, a spokesman said.

The shutoff probably means the collapse of food rationing in Communist-menaced Peiping unless an overland supply system can be organized quickly, said Harlan Cleveland, director of the ECA China program.

The cutoff was decided before the actual fall of Tientsin. However, it has been ECA policy to halt supplies to areas which fall to Communists anyway.

The ECA has been supporting ration programs in seven Chinese cities—the first complete rationing systems ever operated successfully in China. More than three-fourths of the flour so distributed has been used in Peiping and Tientsin—about 28,000 tons a month out of 36,000.

Lighters Commandeered

The Communists entered the Tangku harbor area on December 14. Defending forces of the Nationalist Government commandered all available lighters, leaving none for the unloading of food.

The flow of ECA-financed flour and wheat was diverted to more southerly ports, mainly to Tsingtao. That city now has a stockpile of about 40,000 tons, ECA reported. This "taxes to the full the receiving and warehousing capacity of Tsingtao," it said.

"Other shipments originally destined for North China have been diverted to Shanghai," the announcement said.

"The resulting stockpiles of supplies were, therefore, in danger of becoming larger than was reasonable in view of consumption levels, and it was this factor which prompted the adjustment in the program."

Depends On Rice Primarily

Shanghai, like most of the other rationed cities, depends on American help primarily for rice rather than flour. Cleveland indicated that some of the funds earmarked for wheat and flour may be shifted to rice for Shanghai, Canton, Nanking, Tsingtao and Swatow.

The wheat and flour program for the year ending April 2 call for deliveries totaling $26,700,000. Much of it already has been committed.

A limited amount of deliveries may be held back until after April 2.

The Agriculture Department is barred by law from making new contracts after that date for China delivery.

The ECA statement did not mention wheat specifically as having been cut off, but Cleveland said it was included.

PLAN TO ARM WEST EUROPE FACES ATTACK

Some Senators Wonder If Russia Will Use It As Excuse For War

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—Wary lawmakers raised serious questions for the first time today ahead of President Truman's expected request for funds to rearm western Europe. For one thing they wonder if Russia would use it as an excuse for war.

Senator Capehart (R., Ind.), who recently called the bipartisan foreign policy "dead," says he and others are going to "look over very carefully" any proposal to furnish war equipment to foreign countries.

"We'll have to know a lot more about what is planned before we can make up our minds how to vote," the Indiana Senator said.

"For instance, it occurs to me that if we furnish arms to western European nations, it certainly is going to be regarded as an unfriendly act by Moscow. Russia might or might not use it as provocation for war, but it is something to think about."

Doubt Plan Will Pay Off

Some other Senators who said they don't want to take a public position yet voiced doubts that the probable cost—estimated at about $1,000,000,000 to begin with—will pay off in results.

The fear of Communist infiltration into armies and governments of the western nations also is a factor in the thinking of this group of lawmakers.

Just now these Senators are holding their fire to see the final form of the proposed North Atlantic Security Pact between the United States, Canada and a non-Communist European group.

A lot of the steam was taken out of potential opposition to this proposed treaty when Senator Taft (R., Ohio) came out with a general indorsement of the idea.

Latin-American Plan Backed

Taft said he thinks it probably would be all right for this country to agree with the Western European bloc on the same basis with which it co-operates with Latin-American countries.

In effect, this is that an attack on one shall be considered an attack on all. But each country reserves to itself the right to decided what it will do about such an attack.

Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.), chief Republican backer of the bipartisan foreign policy, is known to have urged Administration leaders to stick to the general form of the Latin American agreement to avoid possible serious opposition in Congress. AP

Ex-House Prober Sells His Story

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—Robert E. Stripling said today he has sold newspaper publication rights to his account of the ten years he worked for the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Representative Klein (D., N.Y.) immediately called for an investigation by the House Rules Committee.

Stripling recently resigned as chief investigator for the committee.

Klein said he will introduce legislation tomorrow calling for the investigation. He said there has been "public notice" that Stripling has contracted for publication of the manuscript.

To Check On Contract

Klein said that it is reasonable to inquire whether any confidential material from committee files was removed for Stripling's benefit; or whether any committee employé helped prepare the manuscript.

Stripling said that no committee material not already made public in hearings would be used; that his contract so specifies.

By the terms of the proposed bill a House committee would be empowered to determine the terms of the contract for the publication of the manuscript and "the circumstances under which it was prepared."

AMVETS TO SEEK FEDERAL BONUS

Proposed Payments to World War II Vets Would Cost 40 Billions

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16—(AP) AMVETS said today they are going to ask Congress for an immediate World War II veterans bonus they think might cost $40,000,000,000.

By other estimates the payments conceivably could reach $67,500,000,000.

The World War II veterans organization said it will carry its proposal to Congress later this month.

A membership by-mail referendum "overwhelmingly favored immediate payment of a federal bonus in government bonds maturing six years hence," it said.

A similar bill (H.R. 914) prepared by the Veterans of Foreign Wars already has been introduced by Rep. Rankin (D-Miss).

Nine states are paying bonuses totaling $1,540,256,000 to 4,750,000 World War II veterans. Six others have approved plans to pay $452,000,000 to 956,000 ex-GIs, but have not yet started distributing it. In two additional states bonus proposals totaling $640,000,000 have cleared the first hurdles but have not yet gained final approval.

The V.F.W. bill calls for adjusted service compensation at the rate of $3 a day for domestic service and $4 a day for foreign service. Minimum payments in the two categories would be $100 and $500, maximums $3,500 and $4,500 plus $500 additional for each injured veteran who was awarded a wound chevron.

The AMVET plan is similar but would place the maximum payment at $4,500.

PROBE FINDS ERRORS COST U.S. HEAVILY

Washington, Jan. 16 (AP)—Investigating senators reported today that the Government sold a surplus ship as scrap for $65,750 without knowing it contained more than $200,000 worth of lead ballast.

They said a typist's mistake cost the Government $41,000 in another ship sale. And they "assumed" that valuable lead ballast went for nothing in an indeterminate number of sales.

The $65,750 purchaser was identified by the Senate investigating subcommittee as Consolidated Builders, Inc., of Portland, Ore., a subsidiary of industries headed by Henry J. Kaiser.

Lead Was Put In Tanks

The vessel was the steamship Leonard Wood, sold by the Maritime Commission last year after wartime operation by both the Army and Navy. The Navy had put 662.92 net tons of pig lead in double bottom fuel tanks to "give the vessel greater stability."

Records of this valuable metal were lost and the ship was sold "where is, as is."

Senators spent months trying to place blame for the mistake. They reported:

"No explanation could be given for the loss of these important ballast records by either the Army, the Navy or the Maritime Commission."

Should Have Made Check

They added that commission disposal officials should have made a routine check with the Navy for lead in view of other data available.

William W. Smith, retired navy rear admiral who is chairman of the Maritime Commission, declined to comment on the report, which he said he has not seen.

Smith said, however, that the commission furnished the committee full details on the transaction at a secret hearing several months ago. He said steps had been taken prior to the hearing to prevent a repetition of such sales.

Provision Inserted

All sales contracts now carry a provision requiring that any metal ballast be returned, he said.

Justice Department attorneys now are studying a commission proposal that they try to recover the value of the metal, fixed by the commission at $232,926, but senators said the buyer insisted the ship was bought "where is, as is."

They said the buyer sold the salvaged lead for $206,831.

Following up this line, Senators said they found that another steamship, the Joseph T. Dickman, sold for $67,100 to the Kaiser Company, Inc., of Oakland, Cal., contained 112 tons of lead ballast salvaged for $41,736.

Stenographer Blamed

In this sale, the senators said an unidentified Maritime Commission stenographer listed the lead ballast by error at five tons.

"It would appear that this single stenographic error cost the Government over $41,000, the value of the additional ballast found aboard the vessel," the report added.

The investigators added that 59 other ships contained smaller amounts of lead ballast and "in no case was the value of the lead ballast considered in fixing the sales price."

Disclosed For First Time

However, they added, some of their lead possibly was removed earlier by the Navy and "no adequate record made of the removal." They added it could be assumed that "most of the valuable lead ballast was inadvertently disposed of" with the ships' sale. The total value of the lead originally placed in the 61 ships was figured at $511,754 by the committee.

These Government losses were disclosed for the first time in a 32-page final report on Senate investigations filed today by the group headed by Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.).

The investigating group also declared:

1. That the Maritime Commission, the Federal ship agency, has between $40,000,000 and $60,000,000 of uncollected accounts and claims. The subcommittee said there is a backlog of $16,000,000 unsecured claims "not even billed" and "additional accounts which have not even been analyzed, on which there is probably due the commission between $25,000,000 and $50,000,000."

2. That shipping lines which chartered Government-owned vessels "were in arrears over $10,000,000" on March 31 last although these charges are required to be paid in advance monthly. Most of these fees since have been collected, the report added.

Blamed For Loss Of Lives

3. That two Naval Reserve flyers forced down in Lake Erie last May "lost their lives because of entirely inadequate search-and-rescue procedures then in effect at the United States Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile, Mich." The subcommittee found that navy officers responsible for these operations had been allowed to conduct the investigation of the deaths and defects in rescue operations. It criticized this procedure.

4. That Government agencies paid over $1,000,000 for storage space in Baltimore at the time a surplus Government building, which could have been used, was sold for $508,000.

5. That Air Force officers failed promptly to explain retention of 86,000 acres of land at Camp Beale, Cal., formerly used as a winter grazing land for sheep and cattle. The land first was listed for sale as surplus and then retained by the Air Force as a target and bombing range. Senators upheld the decision of the Air Force to retain it but criticized officers for failing to explain the reasons to interested California civilians.

Corrections Cited

The investigating group reported its inquiries had produced corrections in four instances:

1. It said the Air Force had greatly strengthened its investigative methods as the result of the sensational hearings of former Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Myers, wartime Air Force procurement officer. Myers is serving a prison sentence for conviction of attempting to get a business associate to give false testimony at the Senate hearings.

2. It said a "number of delinquencies" in the Government's export control program had been eliminated.

3. It found that the system of checking loyalty of Government employés and officials had been improved and speeded.

4. It said that Ilse Koch, formerly associated with the notorious Buchenwald German concentration camp, probably will face a new trial in German courts. She was sentenced to life imprisonment but a review of her trial by army officers caused a reduction to four years. This brought a storm of protest in this country and the Senate inquiry.

Not Always Fortunate On Bids, Says Kaiser

San Francisco, Jan. 16 (AP)—Henry J. Kaiser said today there is considerable hazard in bidding on Government surplus ships for scrap.

Advised of a Senate subcommittee's report that a Kaiser subsidiary had bought for $65,750 a surplus ship containing lead ballast worth more than $200,000 Kaiser said:

"We bid on some 500 or more ships for scrap, together with twelve to fifteen other bidders," Kaiser said. "All bids were competitive.

"There is a certain amount of hazard in bidding on such ships. Sometimes we are unfortunate and sometimes fortunate.

Concrete Sometimes Used

"We are unfortunate when we discover that the hull is filled with concrete and it has to be taken out at an enormous expense.

"Nothing is guaranteed in the purchase of such ships. All are sold on a 'where is, as is' basis. Therefore, you never know whether you are getting something that is going to cost you more than you pay."

Told that Justice Department attorneys are studying a Maritime Commission proposal that they try to recover the value of the lead, Kaiser said all bids his organization made were determined by advertisements and specifications."

ATOMIC 'MYTH' HELD PERILOUS

Lilienthal Warns U.S. Not To Be Lulled Into Carelessness

Rochester, N.Y., Jan. 16 (AP)—The chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission warned today that reliance on the atomic bomb or "any other form of power and force" was "dangerous" to the future security of the United States and the peace of the world.

David E. Lienthal said embracement of "the myth of the atomic bomb" would lull Americans into relaxing when "we need to be eternally vigilant."

Lilienthal addressed an Eastman Theater audience under sponsorship of the University of Rochester and Temple B'rith Kodesh, which is celebrating its one hundredth anniversary.

Decries Too Much Reliance

"It is in the spirit of the American people that our great strength is found," he declared.

Asserting that there were people who had been "bewitched by the atomic bomb," Lillienthal said such persons believed the "real power of America is to be found in the possession of this incredibly powerful instrument of war."

Lilienthal said he would be perhaps "the last one" to underestimate the destructive power of the atomic bomb, either the ones the world has seen in action, or those which the commission on which I serve has developed and is in the process of developing."

May Tend To Relax

But, he added, "nothing could be more misleading" or "more dangerous to the security of our nation or the peace of the world" than the "myth" that the atomic weapon or any other form of power and force constitutes the true source of American strength.

Lilienthal said "if we embrace this myth of the atomic bomb we will drift into the belief . . . that we Americans are safe in the world . . . because we have this devastating weapon. . . ."

He added:

"We will then tend to relax when we need to be eternally vigilant, constantly alert. We will come to believe that for our nation to be secure in a troubled world all we need is this powerful weapon.

Strength Of Spirit Needed

"The myth will cause us to fall into an even deeper pit of error. We will grow forgetful of the true sources of America's strength.

"We will be misled into believing that America can be strong by military force alone, when in truth the foundation of our strength and amazing vitality is not in material things but rather in the spirit of this nation, in the faiths we cherish."

Lilienthal asserted that America needed "strength of the spirit" to carry the burdens of world leadership.

Bowles Hails Acheson As 'a Great Liberal'

Tells CIO Convention He Would Help America 'Beat Communism'

HARTFORD, Jan. 16—(AP) Hailing the appointment of Dean Acheson as Secretary of State, Governor Bowles today described him as a "great liberal" who would help America "beat communism."

Speaking at the 11th annual convention of the State CIO in the Hotel Bond, Governor Bowles told the 306 delegates, Mr. Acheson "understands people and communism."

Have Understanding of Russians

"Communism can only be beaten," Governor Bowles said," by a thorough understanding of people in it and the insecurity and fears of the people living in it. Acheson and President Truman have that understanding. We must banish the fears and hatreds of people.

He praised labor for "its part in winning the election which was a fight for "principles and not for a man."

Confessing the results of the national election were a surprise he declared it is now up to that "liberal Congress in Washington to go down the line for the things they were elected on."

Although he praised labor for the election victory Governor Bowes pointed out today's social program is not "just labor's. It is a people's program."

State 'TVA' Urged

He said labor had done right in recognizing that labor was not alone in the fight to get ahead. "Your organization has done a great deal to bring greater understanding between labor, the farmer and business. No one group can progress at the expense of another. Labor knows that."

Emil Rieve, general president of the Textile Workers Union of America, called for a river power development program in Connecticut at the convention session.

Mr. Rieve declared "power costs are higher in New England than they are in most other parts of the country. They are higher for industry and they are higher for individuals."

Citing figures, he said 15,000 kilowatt hours of electricity cost $361 in Hartford compared to $205 in Chattanooga, Tenn.

"According to the American Public Power association," he declared, "the Connecticut river valley has undeveloped water-power resources of two billion kilowatt hours a year, not including the Housatonic."

He suggested that Governor Bowles invite the governors of the other New England states to a meeting to discus the power problem.

He pointed out that the proposed St. Lawrence seaway project would not help New England as most of its power would be claimed by New York.

John J. Driscoll, secretary-treasurer of the State CIO council, struck out at news reports that the AFL and CIO state organizations would not "unite in concerted action against anti-labor legislation. We have had differences during the last year on various issues but on labor legislation we will work together. "We will take the initiative concerning united action on this point."

Mitchell Sviridoff, president of the organization, repeated the intention with the statement "we shall certainly strive to continue unified action on state legislative matters with the A.F.L., as with the railroad brotherhoods and other bona fide labor organizations. Concerted action behind a labor legislative program is the only hope of its adoption."

Officers Elected

Elections were held all day with all officers elected without opposition.

Mr. Sviridoff of New Haven was reelected president and Mr. Driscoll was reelected for the eleventh year as secretary-treasurr.

Vice presidents elected were: Henry Kullas, TWUA, of Norwich; James Simoneli, Brewery Workers, of Bridgeport; Daniel J. Gallagher, TWUA, of Hartford; Thomas Rogenski, UE, of Torrington; Eva Hudak, Shipworkers, of Torrington; and Steve Rose, URW, of Naugatuck.

Also Harold Bernard, Shipworkers, of Bridgeport; Maurice Meade, Shipworkers, of Ansonia; Jeremiah Driscoll, UAW, of Hartford; Rose Hess, Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, of New Haven; Joseph P. Falcone, Shipworkers, of Waterbury; Anthony Miller, UAW, of Meriden; and William Fernadez, URW, of Naugatuck.

Trustees elected were, Myron Dmyterko, UAW, Wanda Pilot, Greater Hartford Industrial Union Council; and Samuel Capoli, United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers.

University To Honor Japanese Clergyman

Delaware, Ohio, Jan. 16 (AP)—A Japanese Methodist minister, who lost his wife in the atomic-bomb explosion at Hiroshima, will get an honorary doctor of laws degree from Ohio Wesleyan University Wednesday.

He is the Rev. Dr. Takuo Matsumoto, 60, president of the Methodist girls' school in Hiroshima.

Dr. Matsumoto also was a victim of the bomb. He spent more than a year in the hospital recovering from burns.

Author of books and articles on the Bible and Christianity, Dr. Matsumoto was brought to the United States by the Methodist Church. He now is on a lecture tour.

Party Leaders Accused Of Working To Overthrow Government

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—Twelve high Communist party leaders, including party chairman William Z. Foster go on trial tomorrow accused of working for forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

Federal authorities said it would be the first such trial of Communist party officials in this country.

John F. X. McGohey, United States District Attorney, expects the federal court trial to last at least two months.

Each man was indicted on two charges. Maximum penalty on each charge would be ten years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

New Postponement Sought

Defense attorneys already have tried an array of unsuccessful moves to get a new postponement of the case. They have announced they will challenge the jury panel tomorrow on the ground it is composed of the "rich, propertied and well-to-do."

Another possible source of delay is a medical report on Foster to be opened tomorrow by Judge Harold Medina, scheduled to preside at the trial. Foster has a heart ailment.

Judge Medina granted one postponement last November because of Foster's condition. McGohey has announced he will seek to proceed without Foster if the doctors hold that the party chairman cannot stand trial now. However, the defense lawyers plan to argue that all twelve men must be tried together.

Indicted Last July

The twelve officials were indicted last July 20 by a Federal Grand Jury which spent eighteen months investigating alleged subversive activities and Communist espionage.

The only other indictment it returned was against Alger Hiss, former State Department official charged with perjury to conceal evidence of espionage.

The Communist leaders were indicted under the Smith Act, a defense measure passed in 1940 and aimed at persons teaching or advocating overthrow of the Government by violence.

They are specifically accused of conspiring to organize a party advocating forcible overthrow of the Government.

Defendants besides Foster are:

EUGENE DENNIS, general secretary of the party.

JOHN WILLIAMSON, party trade union secretary.

JACOB STACHEL, educational secretary.

GILBERT GREEN, of Chicago, district chairman of the Communist party there.

HENRY WINSTON, party educational secretary.

BENJAMIN DAVIS, New York city councilman.

JOHN GATES, editor of the Daily Worker, Communist newspaper.

Liberties Union Critical

The American Civil Liberties Union has declared it considers the trial "an unwarranted use of the only peace-time sedition law in American history since 1798."

The union asserted it is wholly opposed to Communist philosophy. But it criticized the Government's decision to prosecute on the ground the case "rests solely on the utterances and publications of the Communist party. Not a single overt act of any sort is charged."

Statement By Defendant

Eugene Dennis, one of the accused, speaking on behalf of the twelve defendants, tonight said that "people everywhere will view this trial as but another chapter in the struggle of world democratic forces against desperate reaction."

He said "millions in our land and elsewhere, irrespective of political views, will support us in this great democratic struggle. We face the bar of history with the utmost confidence."

Dennis said "We shall prove in the court room and before public opinion that it is not the Communists who advocate force and violence but the men of the trusts, the war mongers, the labor haters, the lynchers who preach—and practice—force and violence."

The trial, he said, is "America's great heresy trial."

MACARTHUR SMITH TARGET

Marine General Says War Reports Ignored Corps

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—Gen. Holland M. Smith says in his war memoirs that Gen. Douglas MacArthur failed to publicize the contribution of the Marine Corps to the Pacific campaign.

Portions of his book, "Coral and Brass," coming out tomorrow were published before in magazine form. In the full text new issues, including the award of a medal to James Roosevelt are discussed by the retired Marine commander who led the landing forces in the invasions of Tarawa, Makin, Saipan and Iwo Jima.

"Silent Treatment"

Although Marines were active in the recapture of the Philippines, Smith says, "you can search MacArthur's communiqués describing the Philippines fighting and you will be unable to find a single reference to the Marines."

In 1941 and 1942, Smith declares, MacArthur's communiqués also failed to mention the role of the Marines in the defense of Bataan and Corregidor. The Marine General adds:

"After a period of the MacArthur silent treatment, the Navy Department became somewhat nettled to read of the exploits and presence of virtually every army and Philippine unit, while seeing nothing of the Marine regiment on Corregidor.

"Finally, after tactful representations had fallen on deaf ears, the Navy in Washington began issuing its own communiqués in simple justice to the Marines who were silently sharing the perils and privations of Bataan and Corregidor beside much-publicized army comrades."

Present As Observer

Smith, in his book, recalls that James Roosevelt, son of the late President and then a lieutenant-colonel, was at Makin as a Marine observer attached to the Army. He continues:

"Back in Honolulu, Richardson (Lieut.-Gen. Robert C. Richardson, former army commander in the Central Pacific), without any reference to me, let alone the Marine Corps, decorated young Roosevelt with the Silver Star for his part in the Makin operations, which consisted of being present.

"Had the matter been referred to me—a courtesy which should have been extended to the commanding general—I would have strongly disapproved the recommendation. Jimmy Roosevelt proved himself a competent and courageous Marine on many occasions; but I always wondered how he felt about that decoration." ADD

Benes Is Quoted: Believed Stalin

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—Dr. Eduard Benés, the late President of Czechoslovakia, wrote that "my greatest mistake was to refuse to believe to the very last that even Stalin lied to me cynically," his former secretary said today.

The secretary, Dr. Edouard Taborsky, arrived aboard the liner Gripsholm to lecture at the University of Texas.

Taborsky, who served as Czech Minister to Sweden from 1945 to last June, said he accompanied Benés to Moscow in 1943 and 1945 for talks with Stalin. Benés died last September 3.

Benés, he said, "believed in Stalin's word and Stalin made a strong impression on Benés. At first Benés felt Czechoslovakia and Russia could live peacefully together.

"Stalin spoke so friendly and so realistically that there was an atmosphere of general understanding."

Then, Taborsky said, Benés "began to suspect the motives of Russia in 1945 when the Russians began to give open support to the Czech Communists."

Taborsky said that last August 24, while in Stockholm, he received the following message from Benés:

"For a long time I believed that Gottwald (President Klement Gottwald of Czechoslovakia), at least, did not lie to me. But now I see that they all lie, without exception.

"It is a common matter with all Communists, especially the Russian ones.

"My greatest mistake was to refuse to believe to the very last that even Stalin lied to me cynically, both in 1935 and later, and that his assurances to me . . . were an international deceit."

LONDON, MONDAY, JAN. 17-(AP)-THREE-NATION TALKS OPENING TODAY ARE EXPECTED TO DETERMINE WHETHER BRITAIN HAS BEEN ABLE TO WIN OVER FRANCE FROM HER RELUCTANCE TO GIVE THE GERMANS WIDER POWERS FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DELEGATES OF THOSE TWO COUNTRIES AND THE UNITED STATES WILL MEET AT THE FOREIGN OFFICE TO TRY TO REACH AGREEMENT ON AN OCCUPATION STATUTE FOR WESTERN GERMANY--WHICH WILL BE THE EQUIVALENT OF AN INTERIM PEACE TREATY.

THE CONFEREES MUST DEAL WITH DIFFERENCES WHICH AROSE AMONG THE THREE WESTERN MILITARY GOVERNORS FOR GERMANY IN THEIR EFFORTS TO DRAW UP SUCH A STATUTE. THESE DIFFERENCES CROPPED UP BECAUSE THE AMERICANS AND BRITISH FAVOR GIVING THE GERMANS CONSIDERABLE LEEWAY. THE FRENCH ARE FOR LIMITING GERMAN AUTHORITY FOR FEAR OF A NEW AGGRESSION.

THE OCCUPATION STATUTE WOULD SET FORTH RIGHTS THE OCCUPYING POWERS WILL KEEP WHEN THE WEST GERMAN FEDERAL GOVERNMENT COMES INTO BEING IN THE SPRING.

TWO BIG DISAGREEMENTS, AS REPORTED BY INFORMED SOURCES, ARE:

OCCUPATION COSTS--FRANCE WANTS THEM COLLECTED FROM STATE GOVERNMENTS, THE OTHER TWO FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, WHOSE POWERS FRANCE ALSO SEEKS TO LIMIT.

AN ALLIED COURT TO ARBITRATE DISPUTES UNDER THE STATUTE--THE U.S. WANTS TO PUT A GERMAN AND A NEUTRAL ON THE COURT. FRANCE DISAGREES, AND BRITAIN IS SEEKING A COMPROMISE.

NANKING, CHINA, JAN. 16-(AP)-CHINESE NATIONALIST FORCES REGROUPED TODAY IN FINAL DEFENSIVE POSITIONS 30 MILES NORTH OF NANKING AT THE END OF A GENERAL 70-MILE RETREAT.

A GOVERNMENT MILITARY SPOKESMAN CONFIRMED THE EVACUATION OF PENGPU, FORMER ANCHOR OF THE HWAI RIVER DEFENSE LINE 100 MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING. TWO OTHER CITIES FLANKING PENGPU WERE ALSO REPORTED ABANDONED BY CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S TROOPS. THEY WERE HUAIYUAN AND LINHWAIKUAN. THERE WAS NO CONFIRMATION.

ONLY SKELETON GARRISONS WERE IN THE THREE CITIES.
FINAL WITHDRAWAL FROM THE HWAI RIVER LINE OPENED A FREE AVENUE TO THE NUMERICALLY SUPERIOR COMMUNIST ARMIES TO THE NORTHERN FRINGE OF NANKING'S FINAL DEFENSE LINE ON THE YANGTZE RIVER.
THE NEW GOVERNMENT DEFENSE LINE NORTH OF THE YANGTZE WILL BE MANNED BY ONLY SOME 60,000 TROOPS.
CHIANG, ADDRESSING TROOPS MASSED IN REVIEW IN NANKING, APPEALED TO THEM TO "STAND AS ONE MAN IN A SUPREME EFFORT" TO "WIPE OUT PAST HUMILIATIONS."
IT WAS GENERALLY AGREED A NEW HUMILIATION WAS IN THE MAKINR IN PEIPING, ONLY MAJOR CITY REMAINING IN NATIONALIST HANDS IN NORTH CHINA. MILITARY OBSERVERS HERE EXPRESSED BELIEF GENERAL FU TSO-YI, NORTH CHINA COMMANDER, WOULD ORDER HIS 125,000 MEN IN PEIPING TO QUIT IF THE COMMUNISTS WILL LET HIM WITHDRAW WITH SOME OF HIS TROOPS.
IT IS KNOWN GENERAL FU WOULD LIKE TO GET BACK TO HIS OLD STAMPING GROUND IN SUIYUAN PROVINCE. SUIYUAN IS IN INNER MONGOLIA, BEYOND THE SWEEP OF RED ARMIES.
PEIPING IS ENCIRCLED BY COMMUNISTS, ESTIMATED TO BE 90,000 STRONG. RED REINFORCEMENTS WERE REPORTED ON THE WAY FROM NEWLY CAPTURED TIENTSIN. OTHER COMMUNIST COLUMNS MOVED ON TANGKU, TIENTSIN'S OCEAN PORT HELD BY 10,000 DEMORALIZED NATIONALIST TROOPS.
THE NATIONALIST CABINET MET IN NANKING TODAY, BUT AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT SAID COMMUNIST PEACE TERMS WERE NOT DISCUSSED.

ONE BELIEF IS THAT THEY HAVE SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES IN MIND -- NOTABLY TWO AIRFIELDS IN THE CITY, AND FU'S HEADQUARTERS. ANOTHER BELIEF IS THAT THEY ARE MERELY TRYING TO GIVE THE CITY AN UNMISTAKABLE HINT OF WHAT THEY COULD DO IF THEY OPEN UP WITH ALL THE GUNS THEY HAVE AROUND THE CITY.
ON SUNDAY, THEY DROPPED PROBABLY A DOZEN SHELLS INTO THE CITY. ONE EXPLODED AMONG A GROUP OF CHILDREN. ALL WERE WOUNDED, SOME FATALLY.
THERE IS NO QUESTION THAT THE ENTIRE CHINESE POPULATION OF PEIPING IS DEVOUTLY HOPING FOR PEACE BY THE CHINESE NEW YEAR, WHICH STARTS JAN. 29, AND PREFERABLY WITHOUT ANY PROLOGUE [illegible] BATTLE SUCH AS TIENTSIN ENDURED.
TRUSTWORTHY REPORTS SAY THE LAST RESISTANCE BY ISOLATED POCKETS OF NATIONALISTS WHICH FAILED TO RECEIVE SURRENDER ORDERS HAD ENDED AT TIENTSIN AT 4:30 P.M. SATURDAY. LONG BEFORE, HOWEVER, THE REDS WERE IN EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF THAT CITY.
MANY OF THE EXPLOSIONS WHICH PEIPING RESIDENTS HEAR, AND WHICH SOME THINK ARE RED SHELLS LANDING, ARE NOT THAT AT ALL. IT IS SIMPLY THE 10-DAY-OLD BLASTING OF ONE OF THE MOST STUBBORN THINGS EVER CONSTRUCTED BY THE JAPANESE -- A REINFORCED CONCRETE AIR RAID SHELTER FROM AMERICAN BOMBS.
THE JAPANESE PUT THE SHELTER ON THE NORTHERN SIDE OF THE LEGATION QUARTER, WHERE A NEW AIR STRIP NOW IS BEING BUILT. AUTHORITIES CANNOT USE HEAVY CHARGES WITHOUT DAMAGING NEARBY BUILDINGS, INCLUDING THE BRITISH AND ITALIAN EMBASSIES AND THE GRAND HOTEL DE PEKIN.

AMERICAN MILITARY POLICY IN THE PHILIPPINES HAS BEEN GEARED TO RETRENCHMENTS DECIDED UPON IN LATE 1946. ON FILIPINO INSISTENCE ALL BASES IN METROPOLITAN AREAS WERE TO BE ABANDONED. BY MARCH OF THIS YEAR, THAT CONDITION WILL HAVE BEEN FULFILLED.

tel aviv, israel, jan. 16--(ap)--most citizens of israel are convinced their present provisional government will win the coming elections. as a result, there isn't much excitement as the campaign draws to a close.

the voting, for 101 members of an assembly to draw up the new state's constitution, will take place jan. 25. the assembly also is expected to set up a new government, taking the "provisional" out of the title.

the main challenge to the government, which is a united front with prime minister david ben-gurion's mildly leftist labor party (mapai) in a position of leadership, comes from the far right freedom movement which menachem beign forged from his former underground army, irgun zvai leumi.

some observers thought the pre-election campaign would turn into a real fight but so far there have been no demonstrations, no violence and only scant interest. billboards put up by the various municipalities are thoroughly plastered with party lists.

the list entitled "fighters" bears a large portrait of the late abraham stern, founder of the extremist stern gang, now outlawed. sternists, now claiming to be a political party, have put up a list headed by the name of nathan friedman-yellin, now on trial in acre on charges of terrorism.

handbills ~~xxxxxxxx~~ advertising the various lists frequently are strewn from balconies in theaters by men in uniform. there is no particular significance to this, since most of the population is in uniform.

leaflets also are distributed in synagogues, urging support for ~~xxxxxxx~~ religious bloc candidates.

the main point od debate at campaign meetings is foreign policy. mapai, with ben-gurion and foreign minister moshe shertok as the chief speakers, defend their policy of forging a state as nearly as possible within the framework of united nations approval and of offering peace to the arabs.

beigin's movement, with the little, rumple-haired leader as his own principal talker, urged a policy of driving arabs out of the whole of palestine. that, he says, is the best guarantee of lasting peace

THIS VIEW IS LIKELY TO BE COMMUNICATED QUICKLY TO DEAN ACHESON, THE PROSPECTIVE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE. IT REMAINS TO BE SEEN WHETHER ACHESON WILL FOLLOW THE COURSE SET BY HIS PREDECESSOR, GEORGE C. MARSHALL, IN DIRECTING THAT NEGOTIATIONS FOLLOW THAT LINE.

A32WX Washn Addn Congress

ACHESON APPARENTLY WILL BE IN POSITION TO TAKE OVER AS SECRETARY BY MIDWEEK. HIS NOMINATION COMES BEFORE THE SENATE TUESDAY WITH EVERY INDICATION OF QUICK APPROVAL.

TAFT'S APPROVAL OF THE PRINCIPLE OF A SECURITY PACT PATTERNED AFTER THE LATIN AMERICAN AGREEMENT APPARENTLY MAKES IT UNLIKELY THAT REPUBLICAN CRITICS OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S FOREIGN POLICIES CAN ORGANIZE ANY REALLY FORMIDABLE OPPOSITION TO SUCH A TREATY IN THE SENATE.

BUT WHILE HE HASN'T SAID SO, THERE ARE SIGNS THAT TAFT IS NOT HAPPY ABOUT THE PROSPECT THAT SUCH A TREATY WOULD BE FOLLOWED UP BY A MOVE TO PROVIDE AMERICAN ARMS ON ANY LARGE SCALE.

THE OHIO SENATOR IS REPORTED TO SHARE THE FEAR THAT SUCH A MOVE MIGHT BE SEIZED UPON BY RUSSIA AS AN EXCUSE FOR CONVERTING THE "COLD" WAR INTO A REAL ONE.

CRITICS OF THE ARMS PROGRAM HAVE SUGGESTED THAT IT WOULD TAKE ABOUT TWO YEARS TO MAKE AND TRANSPORT ANY APPRECIABLE AMOUNT OF ARMS--BEARING IN MIND THAT THIS COUNTRY IS PULLING HARD AT ITS BOOTSTRAPS TO GET ITS OWN MILITARY MACHINE BACK INTO FIRST CLASS SHAPE.

ANY LONG RANGE REARMAMENT PROGRAM WOULD COST A LOT OF MONEY, THEY SAY.

SANDWICHED IN WITH MILITARY EXPENDITURES AT HOME--THEY WOULD PUSH SPENDING TO NEW RECORD PEACETIME FIGURES.

SO, IF ORGANIZED OPPOSITION DEVELOPS TO THE REARMAMENT PROPOSALS, IT MAY TAKE THE FORM OF DEMANDS THAT THE MONEY BE SPENT, INSTEAD, ON BUILDING UP THIS COUNTRY'S MILITARY STRENGTH IN THE AIR AND ATOMIC FIELDS.

U.N.- Indonesian

By George Palmer

Lake Success, Jan. 16--(ap)--A spokesman for the American delegation said today the report that high-ranking Indonesian officials are held under close guard probably will result in new demands on the Dutch to release all republican political prisoners.

The United Nations good offices committee for Indonesia, reporting to the security council on its visit to Bangka Island yesterday, said five leaders of the far eastern republic interned there are held under close guard in a single room. The release of republican leaders has been demanded by virtually all members of the 11-nation council.

Meanwhile, council delegates were reported drafting formal replies today to an American suggestion for creating a United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950.

Some delegations were understood to have forwarded the U.S. proposal to their governments for official decisions. They were expected to have their answers ready when the council resumes debate on the Indonesian question at 3 P.M. (EST) tomorrow.

JAN

The U.S. plan, offered as an exploratory proposition and NOT as a formal proposal, stipulates that establishment of a new Indonesian federation be preceded by a progressive withdrawal of all Dutch military forces.

Dutch troops opened a "police action" offensive against Indonesia on Dec. 18. They swept through republican territory and interned various high-ranking Indonesian political leaders.

J. H. Van Royen, Netherlands deleg[illegible], informed the council Jan. 7 the fighting had ended and that five of the [illegible] leaders taken into custody had been set free. He said republican premi[illegible]ohammed Hatta, and three others still were held on the island of Bang[illegible]ff Sumatra.

Van Royen told the council Friday his government would NOT free any prisoners whose release "might at this moment still endanger public safety."

Arab sources said Egypt would go along with the general plan suggested by the U.S. although it does NOT feel the plan goes far enough. The Egyptians were said to feel the plan should take a more positive position for the quick withdrawal of Dutch troops.

The U.S. suggested that an interim federal government be set up in Indonesia NOT later than March 15, 1949. Elections for a constituent assembly would be held by Oct. 1, 1949, and the Dutch would transfer sovereignty to the United States of Indonesia NOT later than April 1, 1950.

Van Royen told the council his government would "like to see this transfer (of sovereignty) effected on Jan. 1, 1950" -- three months earlier than the date suggested in the U.S. plan.

ISRAELIS AND EGYPTIANS AGREE ON PLAN TO FREE FORCE IN FALUJA POCKET

Settlement In Rhodes Parley Raises Hopes For Armistice

Rhodes, Jan. 17 (AP)—Israel and Egypt agreed today on a formula for the release of 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja. It was believed the Egyptians would be allowed to march out of the pocket immediately.

The Faluja pocket constituted one of the thorniest problems involved in the talks on a southern Palestine armistice. Settlement of the point raised hopes that a full Israeli-Egyptian armistice agreement could be reached soon.

An informed source said the Israeli delegation had made a major concession. The formula was submitted to the Israeli Government for approval. That approval came during the afternoon, it was said.

Trapped By Offensive

The Egyptian brigade was hemmed in a Faluja when the Jews launched their Negeb offensive last October. The town is 28 miles southeast of Tel Aviv in the portion of Palestine assigned the Arabs under the United Nations partition plan.

Egyptian and Israeli delegates met together today for seven minutes. A communiqué issued after the meeting said agreement had been reached on one of the four points under discussion.

"Three remaining points will be considered at a meeting which will be called by the Acting Mediator (Dr. Ralph J. Bunche) in agreement with heads of the two delegations," the communiqué said. "The chairman expressed appreciation of the continuing progress of the negotiations."

Border Problem Remains

The other three points awaiting agreement are withdrawal of troops from the Negeb desert area, the reduction of opposing armies to peacetime size, and the fixing of Israel's borders in southern Palestine.

There were indications that progress may have been made in discussion of some of these.

En route to today's meeting the heads of the Egyptian and Israeli delegations spoke briefly in a hallway. The greetings were cordial.

This was in sharp contrast to their attitude at the start of the Rhodes discussions. Then they passed one another without sign of recognition.

Seeks General Agreement

Bunche now is said to be trying for a general agreement to restore peace in the Holy Land. The mediator's hand was seen in talks now in progress elsewhere designed to bring Trans-Jordan, Lebanon and other Arab states into armistice agreements with Israel.

Dr. Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation, said his country wants an armistice throughout the Middle East, but does not want other Arab states to join Egypt in the discussions here. He said the presence of others would only complicate the talks.

For example, Israel's differences with Trans-Jordan are not the same as those with Egypt, he said.

Eytan emphasized that the conversations are "armistice" talks, not "peace" discussions. The distinction he made was viewed as an Israeli reservation in event a subsequent peace conference proves unsatisfactory to the Jewish state.

full meeting of the delegations is being held tonight. He had announced yesterday that such a meeting would not be called until agreement was reached on the outstanding points at issue.

"Peace Offensive" Seen

Bunche, meanwhile, is reported launching a peace offensive in all the Arab states at war with Israel.

Dr. Walter Eytan, head of the Israeli delegation, said today that Israel wants an armistice throughout the Middle East, but does not want any other Arab states to join in the Rhodes talks.

Talking With Trans-Jordan

[Tel Aviv said Israel, which has been discussing an armistice with Lebanon as well as Egypt, now has begun similar talks with Trans-Jordan.]

The chief subject in which agreement is sought are the fate of the Egyptain troops trapped in the Faluja pocket, the withdrawal of Israeli forces from the Negeb, and a reduction in the armed strength of both sides in Palestine.

A usually reliable source said the Jews have agreed to release the Egyptian brigade at Faluja. Such action, however, would not be taken until complete armistice terms had been agreed on, he added.

If true, this would be a major concession on the part of the Jews. Observers said it is likely virtually all concessions here will have to be made by Israel.

Bunche said yesterday Lebanon has signified a willingness to accept an armistice on condition that all Israeli troops are withdrawn from Lebanese soil.

[A Tel Aviv dispatch said the Israeli Army released four of fifteen villages it had been holding inside Lebanon.]

Emissary Is Sent

Commenting on the peace offensive, the United Nations spokesman said Constantine Stavropolous, legal adviser to Bunche, had been sent as a special emissary to Beirut, Damascus and Amman to follow up the mediator's armistice overtures of last December.

The spokesman said Stavropolous explored developments since Bunche's trip of last December aimed at implementing the November 16 order of the Security Council to "start armistice negotiations." Stavrapolous returned to Rhodes last night and immediately conferred with Bunche.

[A Damascus dispatch reported Stavropolous had told Syria's Foreign Minister Khaled Azem that, in event of an Israeli-Egyptian armistice, the peace plan will be submitted to all Arab countries by the United Nations, with a request for approval. The dispatch said Khaled Azem replied that such a request would be considered on its merits.]

Would "Complicate Things"

Eytan declared that the presence of other Arab states at the Rhodes conference would only complicate matters.

"We want to do only one thing at the time," Eytan said, when asked if Israel would object to Trans-Jordan's taking part in Rhodes talks, if such a request came from Amman.

Israel's differences with Trans-Jordan, he said, are not the same as those with Egypt.

"We are negotiating with Egypt under the sponsorship of the Security Council resolution," he said. "This is not the case with Trans-Jordan."

Not "Peace" Talks

Eytan insisted that the present conversations could be regarded purely as "armistice" talks and not "peace talks." This attitude is viewed as a reservation on the part of the Israeli delegation, in case the subsequent peace conference proves unsatisfactory to them.

Israel, Egypt Nearer Armistice Agreement

Rhodes, Jan. 17 (AP)—A United Nations spokesman indicated today Israel and Egypt have reached agreement on the most important issues which blocked an armistice.

RUSSIA HEDGES STORY ON CHINA MEDIATION

LONDON, Tuesday, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Soviet monitor in London distributed today and then withdrew a story saying that Russia had refused a request by the Chinese Government to mediate in the civil war with the Communists.

The spokesman said that a "correction" would be filed at 4 A. M., Greenwich Mean Time (11 P. M., E. S. T., Monday). He said he did not know the nature of the correction.

The monitor had distributed a broadcast dispatch from Tass, the official Soviet news agency, saying that Russia had refused to mediate because of a policy of "non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries.

Tass said that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky gave Russia's reply to the Chinese Ambassador in Moscow yesterday.

Tass said that the Chinese Foreign Ministry, in making the request on Jan. 8, told the Soviet Ambassador in Nanking that the same proposal had been put to the United States, Great Britain and France.

Tass reported that Mr. Vishinsky's reply, handed to Chinese Ambassador P. S. Foo, said:

"The Soviet Government, which adheres invariably to the principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries, considers it inexpedient to undertake the mediation mentioned in the memorandum in question."

Tass concluded:

"The Soviet Government's reply points out that restoration of unity in China as a democratic, peace-loving state is a matter for the Chinese people themselves, and that this unity could be achieved most rapidly by means of direct negotiations between the parties without direct foreign interference in the internal affairs of China."

Russia Turns Down Mediation Request

LONDON, (Tuesday), Jan. 18. — (AP) Russia announced today she had turned down a request of the Chinese nationalist government to mediate in the civil war with the communists.

This was disclosed in a broadcast Moscow dispatch by the official Soviet news agency Tass, which said the refusal to mediate was based on a policy of "non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries."

Tass said Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky gave Russia's reply to the Chinese ambassador in Moscow yesterday.

MOVEMENT GROWS FOR BEVIN OUSTER

LONDON, Jan. 17. — (AP) A growing movement within the Labor party to force Ernest Bevin's resignation as foreign secretary was reported today as the British cabinet debated his controversial Palestine policy.

There were conflicting accounts as to the amount of cabinet backing Bevin had. It seems certain, however, that Prime Minister Attlee personally will back him to the hilt.

Sources within the party said at least three cabinet ministers — Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps, Air Minister Arthur Henderson and Health Minister Aneurin Bevan—have expressed opposition to various aspects of the foreign secretary's views on the Middle East.

'Rebels' Plan' Moves

A group of Labor Party "rebels" met privately today to coordinate the strategy they intend to use both in the House of Commons and at their party meeting Wednesday. Most prominent among them was 41-year-old Richard H. S. Crossman. He is assistant editor of the New Statesman and Nation, a magazine which usually represents views to the left of the main body of the party.

Laborite informants said at least 50 to 60 labor members of parliament will call for Bevin's resignation because of the way he has handled the Palestine question. Bevin also has been sharply criticized by conservative and liberal leaders and by a large number of British newspapers.

Dissatisfaction with his policy came to a head 10 days ago when the Israelis shot down five British planes near the Palestine-Egyptian border.

Will Ask Probe

One laborite has said he will ask for a public inquiry into the circumstances behind the death of one of the pilots. A Tel Aviv dispatch said two other pilots, captured by the Israelis following the clash, will be freed within a few days.

Both Attlee and Bevin have promised to attend the meeting Wednesday of the parliamentary labor party, consisting of laborite members of the House of Commons. Both are expected to speak strongly in defense of Britain's role in the Middle East.

Parliament meets tomorrow. The government almost certainly will face a hostile all-party alliance on the Palestine question during the first few days of the session.

Bevin is expected to make a statement tomorrow on the loss of the five British planes. If he does not volunteer one, the conservative party probably will ask for one.

Delegate Of CIO Calls WFTU A 'Corpse'

Paris, Jan. 17 (AP)—James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, told fellow members of the World Federation of Trade Unions today their organization is a "corpse."

"The only thing left for us to do is to bury it," he said in a strongly worded statement quoted by persons who attended the opening session of the WFTU's executive board today.

Split Is Anticipated

French members said Carey evidently was preparing for the East-West split in the WFTU generally anticipated sometime later today. The executive board of the WFTU is controlled by unions from Soviet-bloc nations.

Vincent Tewson, delegate from the British Trades Union Congress, formally presented a resolution urging that the WFTU declare itself nonoperative during 1949. The idea is to give the world's political atmosphere time to clear.

Tewson's proposal evoked a series of antagonistic questions from Vassily Kuznetzov, delegate from Russian unions.

"No Possible Solution"

Arthur Deakin, another representative of the British TUC, declared there was "no possible solution" for the East-West gap in the WFTU in six months or even in twelve months.

Carey seconded Deakin and Tewson by recalling that the CIO had wanted to quit the WFTU last May, but had postponed its walkout when there seemed to be an agreement from eastern and western unions not to attempt to subvert the organization to any particular political ideology.

"This agreement has not been respected by the eastern union," Carey was quoted as saying. "We now have the same situation as before."

Division Is Denied

Carey said the CIO and the TUC have been accused of dividing the world-wide labor organization.

"It is not we who can divide an organization which has been divided by the Communists themselves for a long time," said Carey.

The executive group recessed for lunch without reaching a vote on Tewson's resolution for a one-year moratorium.

Both Deakin and Carey have said they wanted to keep the WFTU on the shelf for a year because it has been favoring Soviet policy.

Threaten To Pull Out

Seven nations are represented on the executive board—Russia, the United States, Britain, France, China, Holland and Italy. The Chinese, French and Italian unions in the WFTU are controlled by Communist elements or by persons who generally vote with the Russians.

Both the CIO and the TUC leaders assert they will pull out of the WFTU if the one-year moratorium is defeated. If this happens, other non-Communist grups in the WFTU are expected to follow suit and join in the formation of a non-Communist world labor federation.

Menuhin Asks P trillo's Help

Calls on Him to Back Furtwaengler—Vienna Symphony Also Supports Conductor.

Rome, Jan. 17 (A. P.).—Yehudi Menuhin called on James C. Petrillo today to help him keep the Chicago Symphony Orchestra from voiding German Conductor Wilhelm Furtwaengler's contract.

Just before leaving for a recital in Bolonga, the violinist wired the president of the American Federation of Musicians (A. F. of L.), asking him to come out for Furtwaengler "on behalf of the good and upright rank and file of American musicians."

Several prominent musicians have announced they will not play with the Chicago Symphony if it hires Furthwaengler because of his alleged Nazi sympathies. Menuhin has contended the conductor's record is clear. Furtwaenglar has been under criticism because he stayed in Germany during the war and several times conducted in the presence of Adolf Hitler. Dutch Express 'Deep Regrets' Over Treatment Of Indonesians

The Hague, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Netherlands Government announced "deep regrets" today for conditions under which captive Indonesian Republican leaders have been held on the Island of Bangka.

The Foreign Office said "strong action" would be taken against those responsible.

The United Nations Good Offices Committee in the East Indies reported Mohamed Hatta, Indonesian Republican Premier, and four others were confined in a single room which, for many days, was furnished with only two chairs and two tables.

Conflict With Instructions

The Dutch previously had told the Security Council that only four leaders were held on Bangka, and that they enjoyed complete freedom of the island.

The Foreign Office's communiqué said that "with deep regrets the Dutch Government has learned about housing and treatment of the Republican leaders on Bangka."

New information, it said, "proved that the treatment took place in a manner which must be considered in conflict with instructions given by the Dutch Government."

It announced two high placed officials have been sent by plane to Bangka to report back to The Hague "so that given instructions will be complied with promptly and completely." Bangka is situated off the east coast of Sumatra.

Identity Confusion

The communiqué did not clear up confusion concerning identity of the Republicans held on Bangka. The Dutch have told the Security Council that Republican President Soekarno, Sutan Sjahrir, former Premier, and Hadji Agoes Salim, Foreign Minister, were with Hatta. The Good Offices Committee, which visited the island Saturday, listed five captives but did not mention Soekarno, Sjahrir or Salim.

A Batavia dispatch said a Dutch navy flying boat was standing by there to carry a group of non-Republican Indonesians to Bangka to discuss with the captive leaders Dutch proposals for a United States of Indonesia.

A War Ministry spokesman denied reports that Holland plans to recall 40,000 army men from Indonesia. Dutch military personnel there now number about 85,000.

On the contrary, he said, two additional independent units, each of 13,000 men, are scheduled to go to Indonesia this year.

ALLIES CREATE SECURITY UNIT TO 'WATCH' GERMANS

BERLIN, Jan. 17—(AP) The three western powers announced today the creation of a far-flung security organization to keep close watch on the Germans "for many years."

The idea is to see that the Germans do not repeat history and develop a new secret war potential as they did after World War I.

Establishmet of the military security board was announced in London, Paris, Washington and Berlin. It is designed to take over the demilitarization functions of the inoperative Allied Control council which the Russians wrecked by withdrawal.

The board consists of Maj. Gen. James P. Hodges, Air Forces bombing expert, for the United States; Maj. Gen. J. H. Westropp, deputy chief of staff in Germany, for Great Britain, and Brig. Gen. Etienne Paskiewicz, an engineer, for France.

Reds Not Invited

Hodges told a news conference the organization was set up only for western Germany. He said the Russians were not invited, but added: "I assume if and when the situation is favorable, the Russians will be invited to join."

The board will police all walks of German life. Since disarmament of Germany is "practically accomplished," the board said, the job is one of watching what happens in the future.

Creation of the board was ordered at a conference in London attended by the U. S., Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. Details were worked out by the military governors of the three large powers.

The policing force of inspectors assigned to the baord will see to it that Germany does not rearm in the military, industrial or scientific fields. An official summary of the directive setting up the board said:

"The inspectors x x x will be empowered to make inspections of plants and establishments. If the board deems it advisable they may make these inspections without giving prior notice."

Study School System

The board will delve even into the German school system. Germans will not be allowed to develop aviation knowledge, and former German militarists will be forbidden from serving in foreign armies, where it can be prevented.

Hodges said the policing force will remain here even after the occupation of Germany ends. This will be done by mutual arrangement with whatever German government is created.

The board will have regional offices in addition to a headquarters staff that may include as many as 200 persons. Strength of the field group is undetermined, but it may run into the thousands.

The personnel will be mostly civilian—technical experts supervised by military men. The costs will be borne separately by each of the three western governments and subsequently paid by the Germans as occupation expenses.

Members of the board will try to avoid dealing with political matters, such as rabble-rousing militaristic speeches. Hodges said problems of that sort would be parcelled out to some other agency within the military government.

"The board will use every source of information available," Hodges said. This was interpreted as an open invitation to Germans to report any violations they may stumble upon.

Meantime, British authorities disclosed that 20 Germans had been arrested on charges of stealing airlift gasoline from the Gatow airport and peddling it in the black market. Another 14 Germans, accused of the theft of airlift food, will be tried Thursday.

3 Powers Create Unit To Watch Germany

Berlin, Jan. 17 (AP)—Creation of a permanent security police force to see that Germany remains disarmed was announced today by the United States, Great Britain and France.

The tri-power force, called a military security board, is designed to take over the demilitarization functions of the inoperative Allied Control Council, from which the Russians withdrew.

It consists of inspectors and enforcement boards, which will see that Germany does not rearm in the military, industrial or scientific fields.

Ordered By Conference

The board's creation was ordered by the six-nation London conference; details were worked out by the three military governors. The six nations are the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

An official summary of the directive creating the board and defining its duties said, in part:

"It will assume responsibility for a certain number of the activities of the control council. Its role is twofold. It must first of all harmonize and complete the legislative and regulatory work begun in the field of security. For this purpose it will base its review on previously established quadripartite laws and directives.

Inspections Authorized

". . . The inspectors of the board will be empowered to make inspections of plants and establishments. If the board deems it advisable they may make these inspections without giving prior notice to the management of the plant.

"In the field of personnel, it will prevent the resurgence of military organizations and the militaristic spirit; in the field of industry, it will insure the implementation of such prohibitive and restrictive measures within certain industries as may be agreed upon by the occupying powers for security reasons; in the field of scientific research, it will make sure that no activity is directed toward war objectives."

Three Special Divisions

The announcement said the security board will report to the military governors in the three Western zones. There will be subcommittees and three special divisions—military, industrial and scientific. Inspectors will be attached to each division for field work.

"This new organization, continuing the quadripartite effort, interrupted previously, is in no way designed to restrict unnecessarily the peaceful economic and scientific development of Germany, but constitutes an essential safeguard for all nations concerned."

Text of Security Board Directive

BERLIN, Jan. 17 (AP)—The text of the three-power directive setting up a Military Security Board for Western Germany:

Part I
TERMS OF REFERENCE

[1]

In accordance with the terms of the London Agreement, a Military Security Board for the western zones of Germany will be set up by the military governors in order to ensure the maintenance of disarmament and demilitarization in the interests of security.

JAN [2] 1949

The board's responsibilities will cover the whole field of disarmament and demilitarization, taking into consideration the laws and directives which have been agreed already on a quadripartite basis. In particular the board will advise the military governors on the maintenance and enforcement of disarmament and demilitarization restrictions.

It will carry out the appropriate inspections and will recommend to the military governors measures necessary to:

(a) Prevent the revival of military organizations and of the militaristic spirit,

(b) Ensure that there shall be no manufacture or import of any arms, war materials or any other materials or equipment which are or may be prohibited,

(c) Present the infringement by Germans of restrictions in respect of certain industries,

(d) Ensure that any military buildings, structures, laboratories, and all shipyards, or factories capable of producing armaments which may be retained are used for peaceful purposes only,

(e) Ensure that scientific research is not directed to warlike ends,

(f) Ensure that in connection with the construction and operation of merchant shipping and the operation of civil airlines, no war potential is created.

In carrying out its task, the board will:

(a) Study the existing laws and directives, both quadripartite and zonal, and make recommendations if they require additions or amendments and where advisable produce uniformity throughout the three zones.

(b) Recommend to the military governors any laws or regulations to be enacted which may be necessary for the completion of disarmament, or for the prohibition or limitation of specified military, industrial, scientific research or other activities.

(c) Ensure the implementation of the regulations by inspection and ensure that the statistics necessary for the board are maintained by Germans. The reports of inspections will be presented to the military governors, together with the observations of the board.

(d) Advise the military governors on revisions, which may be necessary from time to time, of the prohibitions of and limitations on capacity or production imposed upon German industry.

(e) Collect, centralize and keep up-to-date full documentation on the elements which might reconstitute a war potential in military, industrial and scientific fields.

Part II
CONSTITUTION AND FUNCTIONING

[4]

The Military Security Board will be made up of the following elements:

(a) A commission,

(b) A committee of deputies,

(c) A secretariat,

(d) Three divisions: Military, industrial and scientific research,

(e) Inspection groups.

SECURITY IN THE RUHR

The board will establish such machinery and liaison for cooperation with the international authority of the Ruhr as may be found necessary.

THE COMMISSION

(a) The commission will consist of three officers, of general or equivalent rank (or their deputies appointed by them) representing the respective military governor.

(b) In principle, it will meet once a month, or as necessary, for the ordinary sessions, under the chairmanship of one of the members in rotation, to examine the work undertaken by the board, to prepare and present its recommendations to the military governors, to decide on any special missions of inspection to be carried out in the zones, to take all necessary measures to facilitate the functioning of the board and all its implementing services.

(c) Each member of the commission may be assisted at the meetings by his deputy, a chief secretary, or any other experts that he may deem necessary, either from the board or from outside the board.

(d) The commission will hold extraordinary meetings at the request of one of its members.

(e) The majority rule will govern the decisions of the commission, provided that the minority member may refer the question to the military governors, this to have a suspensory effect until the decision has been rendered.

[7]

COMMITTEE OF DEPUTIES

The deputies to the commission will form a permanent committee at the headquarters of the board in order to direct its business. In particular, they will coordinate the work of the divisions and provide a chairman (of the nationality of the chairman of the commission for the month) at joint meetings of two or more divisions.

SECRETARIAT

(a) The secretariat will be composed of three chief secretaries, one for each national element.

The duty secretaryship will be rotated among the chief secretariats so that the nationality of the duty secretary will correspond to that of the chairman of the commission. A permanent integrated staff of secretaries, clerks, interpreters and other personnel will be provided as necessary, each power contributing a reasonably proportionate share of the personnel required.

(b) The secretariat will be in charge of the administrative functioning of the board, and will be responsible for ensuring liaison between the elements of the board and outside agencies, for administrative arrangements for all meetings, for the performance of secretarial functions at all meetings of any element of the board, for the drawing up of minutes and reports, for the handling of correspondence, for arranging for and notifying the proper authorities of scheduled inspections, for distributing documents and keeping of archives.

(c) The secretariat will have a tripartite integrated information section which will be responsible for the centralization and keeping up to date of the information collected by the board.

DIVISIONS

(a) There will be three divisions:

Military, industrial and scientific research.

Within each division, each power [United States, United Kingdom and French] will establish and maintain its national element. These divisions will operate on a coordinated basis as indicated in the organizational chart attached. While the internal organization of the national elements need not be identical, they should in general parallel each other in their functions and capabilities.

(b) Any specialist sections or working parties deemed necessary for the study of particular problems may be established within the divisions. Such sections or parties may be integrated, all three powers supplying members without obligation to maintain equality either in qualifications or numbers.

(c) Within the scope of the terms of reference, each division, or any national element thereof, will be responsible, each in its own sphere or as specified by the commission for the preparation of any necessary regulating measures and recommendations for the implementation and control thereof, which are to be submitted to the commission, recommendations of national elements shall be tripartitely considered and resolved, insofar as it is possible, within the divisions before being presented to the commission.

(d) Divisional meetings will take place at the headquarters of the board. Chairmanship will be rotated among the chiefs of the national elements thereof, so that the nationality of the division chairmen will correspond to that of the chairman of the commission.

The chiefs of the national elements may be assisted by any members of their elements whom they deem necessary, or by experts temporarily attached for duty to that element or from outside.

(e) Resolution of matters of joint interest to two or more divisions shall normally be accomplished through the medium of informal lateral-co-ordination, however, joint divisional meetings may be arranged by the committee of deputies upon the request of any national element.

During the period when existing organizations responsible for the control of industry and of scientific research are maintained in their present form, certain functions of the board may, with the agreement of each Military Governor, be performed by personnel regularly assigned to full-time duty with the board or temporarily attached for such duty. As these organizations of each representative military government, whose work is associated with that of the board phase out, the proper divisions of the board will be expanded to assume the necessary controls to prevent the resurgence of German military, industrial or scientific war potential.

INSPECTION GROUPS

(a) The divisions will organize, instruct and dispatch inspectors and/or integrated tripartite inspection groups formed from personnel assigned or attached to the board as often as necessary in order to verify in the three zones the conditions of execution of the measures ordered by the military governors. The commission may order any special inspections it deems necessary.

(b) Administrative arrangements for these inspections will be made by the Secretariat.

(c) Inspection groups shall have free access at any time to inspect without prior notice for the purposes set forth in Paragraph 2 hereof, any place installation or activity, except that the local Military Government shall be given reasonable advance notice of such intended visits.

The creation of the board implies that disarmament and demilitarization are matters of tripartite responsibility. Until the system of control at Land levels is changed, and as long as unilateral control continues in the Land, the regional commissioner (or his equivalent) in each Land will act as the agent of the military governors for disarmament and demilitarization. For this purpose he will report to the military governors through the board and will receive his instructions through the same channel. He will provide such information as may be requested, and will be responsible for the continuous observation of the execution of prescribed security measures. He will give full facilities for visits by the inspection groups referred to in Paragraph 10 above. If he is succeeded by a Tripartite Control Commission, his function will be transferred to that commission. When and if Military Government is no longer adequately represented at Land level, the board will establish such tripartite agencies as it deems necessary to ensure control in the Lands.

NOMINATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD

The members of the board and experts will be appointed by the respective military governors, and accredited to the board by the corresponding member of the commission.

[13]

RULES OF PROCEDURE

The Committee of Deputies will establish routine and procedure for the board.

GI Wedding Permits Stopped

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 17 (AP). The United States Army today withdrew all permits for the marriage of GI's and German frauleins.

This new step in an effort to check a flood of such marriages drew a howl of protest from soldiers whom the order hit.

Officially the Army was silent about its reasons. Officers and chaplains, however, said the action would protect youthful draftees due in Germany soon. They said there is a suspicion that some German girls may have had ulterior motives in planning marriage with Americans. A free ticket out of Germany might be one such motive, they said.

15,000 Married In Two Years

There have been 15,000 marriages between American soldiers and German girls since the post-war marriage ban was lifted two years ago. More than half of the bridegrooms were enlisted men, army records showed.

The Army yesterday clamped down restrictions forbidding enlisted men below the rank of sergeant to marry in Germany, except in special cases.

Today's cancellation of marriage permits already issued means that the applications will have to be renewed for review in light of yesterday's orders. Mostly it will mean, too, that a GI affected by the order will have to postpone wedding bells until he gets home or has got past the rank of corporal.

JAN 1949

The rules require notice of "intention to marry" at least nine months before the applicant soldier is due to leave Germany. This restriction may be waived in cases of those who now have less than nine months to stay.

The soldier then must wait at least six months before getting married, prove that he has enough money to send his bride to America and support her there, and meet other requirements. The old waiting period was three months.

Officers, sergeants and civilians attached to the Army are not much affected by the new rules. About the only difference for them is the six-month waiting period, instead of three. They also must file new applications.

Corporal Balbomero Felix, of San Francisco, said the rule changes "will stop a lot of young fellows from marrying girls they really haven't known long enough." He has a German fiancée. He said he expects he can meet all requirements, but even if he fails "I still would agree with the idea of the new rules."

He was a minority.

"I think it's a dirty trick," said Private Everitt J. Kelly, of Central Falls, R.I. He said he returned to Germany to marry a girl he has known since 1946.

Private Maroon Tarsha, of Toledo, Ohio, called it "unfair favoritism."

"I don't see why a sergeant should have any more right to marry than I have," he said. ADD

U. S. TROOPS IN GERMANY START MOCK WARFARE

DARMSTADT, Germany, Jan. 17 —(AP) American troops were strung out tonight along the gloomy German countryside, poised to move out tomorrow in mock defense of the Rhine.

From all parts of the American occupation zone, about 16,000 first division troops rolled toward positions via convoy to launch "exercise snowdrop."

Training of the troops, many of them green, would provide them with battle know-how against any attempt to bridge the Rhine.

Commanding officers reported the troops, while generally inexperienced, were taking hold satisfactorily in this winter test.

Sometime tonight or in the predawn hours, company commanders will get their orders to move out in the mythical fight against troops from "aggressor land," the territory west of the Rhine.

Movements, battle tactics and general conduct of the maneuvers are being watched by umpires who will rule on efficiency.

previous permissions for American-German marriages. Officers said hundreds of G. I.'s might be affected.

"It's a pretty dirty trick—that's all I have to say," said one private who was all set to get hitched in a few weeks. Army authorities took a different view. They said too many German girls have been getting married—thus getting into the United States—without proving their motive is simply unselfish love.

Yesterday the Army announced restrictions forbidding marriage in Germany by enlisted soldiers under the rank of sergeant—except in special cases. Now, every application previously filed must be reviewed. Would-be husbands must file an "intention to marry" at least nine months before they are due to leave Germany. No G. I. will be permitted to delay his departure because he wants to marry or has hope of getting his German girl friend an immigration visa.

In all G. I. marriages, the new rules provide a six-month, instead of the previous three-month, waiting period. JAN 1949 ADD

Help Sent from Berlin

BERLIN, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra sent a telegram today to the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in defense of Wilhelm Furtwaengler, conductor.

The telegram said: "We are astonished about the negative attitude against Dr. Furtwaengler's appearance in Chicago. The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra may from its own experience judge more strictly than people outside the activities of Dr. Furtwaengler in the long years of our cooperation. We know well how much many colleagues of our orchestra and other German artists were indebted to Dr. Furtwaengler in the years from 1933 to 1945."

CZECHS DOOM ARMY MAJOR

Death Sentence Set For Alleged Plot With Alien

A.J. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 17 (AP)—An army major was sentenced to death and two other officers to prison terms by a military court today on charges they plotted with a foreign power's agent against the republic.

The sentences were announced as Prague pondered the identity of generals reported arrested in a blow at their attempt to overthrow the Communist Government of President Klement Gottwald.

An official statement was promised on the arrests. But early tonight the full story still had no confirmation except that in official quarters it was said the plot had not progressed far.

One Name Mentioned

The name of only one general, Josef Kuttlwassr, once commander of troops in Moravia, was mentioned. It was admitted he has been under arrest for some time.

The death sentence was delivered today upon Major Ladislav Cihal. He was accused of being the head of an anti-state group which contacted "an agent of a foreign power" whom he furnished with industrial and economic information "which had been kept secret in the interests of the state." AP

Russ, Poles Boost Trade 35 Per Cent

JAN 1949

Moscow, Jan. 17 (AP)—Russia and Poland have agreed to increase their already heavy trade by more than one third.

A communiqué published in the Soviet press today said the two nations have decided to boost by 35 per cent this year trade under the five-year $1,000,000,000 trade pact signed last January.

The new agreement would raise this year's trade between Russia and Poland to about $269,000,000.

During this year the Soviet Union will deliver to Poland cotton, iron, chrome ore, manganese, automobiles, tractors, agricultural machinery, petroleum products, chemicals and other goods.

Poland in turn will send to Russia coal, railway trains, metals, textiles, sugar and other goods.

This is one of a series of trade agreements the Soviet Union has negotiated with nations of central and eastern Europe this year, seeking increased trading with them. ADD

GREEKS OFFER PREMIER PLAN

4 Ex-Leaders Suggest Diomedes Be Named To Post

Athens, Jan. 17 (AP)—Four former premiers suggested tonight that the Greek governmental crisis be solved by naming Alexander Diomedes, retired banker and old-time Liberal party leader, Premier.

Meanwhile, King Paul extended until 7 P.M. tomorrow his ultimatum to Greece's ten political parties to form a coalition Cabinet.

It was understood that Diomedes had been approached and had signified his willingness to serve under certain conditions. A former Finance Minister, he would succeed Themistokles Sophoulis, who stepped down because of age and sickness.

Broad As Possible

The four ex-premiers who recommended Diomedes were Constantin Tsaldaris, Populist (Royalist) party leader; Sophocles Venizelos, Liberal; George Papandreou, Social-Democrat-Republican, and Panayotis Kahellopoulous, Union-Republican.

Sources close to Tsaldaris said he advised the King in a conference today that the new premier should be empowered to form a coalition cabinet on as broad a base as possible in case he is unable to set up a national government.

The King's original ultimatum to the party heads expired at noon today.

The King kept secret what further action he had in mind, but one party leader said he believed Paul was thinking of dictatorship would be fought vigorously.

40 Guerrillas Captured

The political stalemate developed as an alternative. This, he said, as national troops waged punishing attacks on Communist-led guerrillas they had driven from the battered Macedonian industrial town of Naoussa. The general staff said part of the rebel force was ambushed near Messovounon, 12 miles west of Naoussa, in a battle that still was continuing. The communiqué said the nationals also were fighting another group of guerrillas near Komnini, 15 miles west of Naoussa.

Casualties were not reported. The general staff said 40 guerrillas have been captured in the Peloponnesus area. AP

Greek Leaders Fail To Form New Regime

JAN 1949

Athens, Jan. 17 (AP)—Greece, beset by long and costly guerrilla warfare, is without a government today despite the expiration of King Paul's ultimatum to political parties to form a new regime.

The King told leaders of ten political parties yesterday that if they failed to form a new government within 24 hours he would be "compelled to find for our people some other solution."

There was no indication what steps the King intended to take. One old guard leader said the King might have dictatorship in mind. He threatened to fight any such attempt.

Tsaldaris Meets King

Constantin Tsaldaris, Populist leader, met with the King today to convey the views of four collaborating parties who proposed to establish a coalition government. Paul blocked this proposal earlier. Sources close to the four said they were not prepared to accede to the King's demands.

Other leaders submitted memorandums to the King instead of calling on him personally.

Tsaldaris told newsmen on leaving the Palace today that the King had reserved his decision.

Guerrilla Group Ambushed

Meanwhile, Government forces were reported waging continuing actions today against Communist-backed guerrilla bands forced out of Naoussa two days ago.

A general staff communiqué said one guerrilla group was ambushed near Messovounon, about 12 miles west of Naoussa. Another battle was reported near Komnini, 15 miles west of Naoussa.

No casualties were reported. Forty guerrillas were reported captured in the Peloponnesus area.

Cites Atrocities

Emmanuel Papadoyannis, Reconstruction Minister, said after a visit to Naoussa that the extent of "atrocities and massacres committed by the Communists exceeds human imagination."

He said all public buildings, factories and large houses had been blown up or burned.

Guerrillas took the industrial city from a 400-man garrison and held it briefly last week. The city is 90 miles west of Salonika and had a prewar population of 12,000.

New Turk Cabinet List Submitted

Gunaltay, elderly historian and strong People's party man, presented a slate more liberal than had been anticipated.

Extreme Rightists expressed displeasure that they were ignored.

There were only four changes from the Cabinet of former Premier Hasan Saka, who resigned last Friday due to his failure to lower the cost of living.

New Post Created

Gunaltay created a new post—Minister of State—which will serve as a clearing house for American recovery program aid. He nominated for minister, Nurallah Esat Sumer, one of Turkey's top financial experts.

Cemil Sait Barlas was named to head the Ministry of Economy, with which is now combined the Commerce Ministry. He will have to find a solution to Turkey's pressing economic problems.

Slow-Downs Called Off

ROME, Jan. 17 (AP)—Communist labor leaders backed down today and called off a slowdown strike in Milan's bigg t factories.

The Communist-led Milan Chamber of Commerce said it wanted to give further study to labor action against industrial employment and layoffs.

In Rome the Italian Gas Workers Federation ordered a progressive strike beginning with a one-hour layoff tomorrow and increasing to a full shutdown Saturday. This strike was called by the Communist-directed Confederation of Labor.

Chinese Mass For Defense Of Nanking

Nanking, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Chinese Government today massed about 150,000 troops on a 300-mile front in what neutral military observers describe as a hopeless effort to defend Nanking.

Communist armies with a total strength of more than 300,000 troops already are poised north of the Hwai River, 105 miles to the northwest, for a descent to the Yangtze River valley.

Meanwhile, it was learned authoritatively that the Chinese Navy last night evacuated the Government garrison from Tangku, ocean port for the North China commercial center of Tientsin.

Large Ships Awaited

Tientsin, 27 miles west of Tangku, fell to the Reds Saturday.

It was learned that all available craft were mustered to transport the Tangku garrison and miscellaneous units totaling about 35,000 troops beyond Taku Bar and out of Red artillery range.

The troops were reported aboard small craft awaiting larger ships which will take them to Nationalist ports to the south.

Earlier, Nationalist evacuation of Pengpu was officially announced.

Outflanked For Month

The Government's final abandonment of Pengpu and evacuation of towns on Pengpu's flanks have yielded to the Reds necessary river-crossing areas.

Pengpu, anchor of the erstwhile Hwai River defense line, has been outflanker by the Reds for a month.

Nationalist headquarters were pulled back to Chuhsien, 30 miles northwest of Nanking, as early as December 17. Troops have been following since. The movement has been marked by occasional Red raids on the 70-mile stretch of railroad between Chuhsien and Pengpu.

Realization of the Government's weak military position is spurring active appeals by the public and official bodies for Government action to make peace with the Communists.

[In North China, a delegation of prominent Chinese prepared to leave besieged Peiping today to talk peace with the Communists.

[The delegation's mission to Red lines was marred, however, when two Communist shells struck the home of former Mayor Ho Sze-yuan, who was to have been a member of the eleven-member delegation. One of his two daughters was killed. Other members of the household were wounded. Ho was hospitalized for shock treatment.

Peace-Move Leader

[Ho was wartime governor of Stantung province and fought the Japanese there as a guerrilla chieftain. He is a leader of the peace movement in Peiping.

[The delegation's move, with Gen. Fu Tso-yi providing vehicles and escort to the Nationalist perimeter, indicated that the Communists have set a deadline for Peiping's surrender.

[The peace delegation will try to see Red Gen. Yeh Chien-ying, chief of the Communist military control committee in the Peiping area and a party leader. Yeh was a member of Gen. George Marshall's truce headquarters committee when the United States sought to mediate the civil war in 1946.

Members of China's Legislative Yuan and the National Assembly in Nanking have again appealed for swift Government efforts to obtain an "honorable peace."

Discussions are proceeding in official circles seeking a new approach to the Communists, with counter-proposals which are intended to soften the Red terms—terms which amount to virtual unconditional surrender.

No Decision Reached

The Kuomintang (governing party) Central Political Council reached no decision at its meeting this morning, but most members recommended an effort to get a cease-fire agreement before entering into active negotiations.

Well-informed military quarters reported no major movement of Communist columns across the Hwai River.

Small Red forces that infiltrated previously across the river are now advancing into the area vacated by the Nationalist 6th Army Group as this group completes its 70-mile withdrawal from the Hwai to new positions 30 miles north of Nanking.

Reds Deploy For Drive

The main body of Communist troops in Central China is reported deploying for a general offensive to the north bank of the Yangtze.

Red General Liu Po-cheng's columns are said to be moving into assembly areas in the Mengcheng area. Gen. Chen Yi's Communist forces are reported moving toward the Hungtze Lake region. Those two areas are 50 miles northwest and 80 miles northeast of Pengpu, respectively.

CHINESE ABANDON IMPORTANT PORT

Tangku Falls to Reds; Early Loss of Peiping Seen by Observers

NANKING, Jan. 17. — (AP) The Chinese nationalists fled by sea from the northern port of Tangku today amid indications that Peiping was destined quickly to surrender or fall to the encircling communists.

In central China, the government deployed troops estimated at 150,000 along a 300-mile Yangtze river front for the defense of Nanking and Shanghai.

Foreign military observers said the effort looked hopeless and that 60,000 of the troops were in what looked like suicidal positions some 30 miles north of Nanking.

Port Is Abandoned

It was learned authoritatively that Tangku, port for communist-conquered Tientsin 27 miles to the west, was abandoned during the night.

The Chinese navy used small craft of all sorts to move the 35,000-man garrison across Taku bar and out to sea where they awaited arrival of larger transports for the flight south.

(The communists shortly afterward broadcast that they had taken Tangku after the nationalists fled.

(The broadcast concluded: "The liberation of Peiping and all North China is at hand.")

Spencer Moosa, AP correspondent in Peiping, reported that a committee of prominent citizens was going out Monday to meet the communists and seek peace. He said an escort and transportation across the narrow no-mans-land outside the walls were provided by the government's commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi.

Moosa reported later, however, the delegation failed to leave Monday as scheduled because of the bombing of the home of Ho Sze-yuan, former Peiping mayor and a leader of the delegation. Ho and two other members of his family were injured and one of his daughters, Lu Mei (Shantung Flower) was killed.

Ho expressed belief a time bomb on the roof of his home exploded, rather than the house being hit by communist artillery fire as at first reported.

The unofficial explanation for the peace mission's failure to leave, Moosa reported, was the Reds messaged it would be a waste of time if the delegation merely intended to try to bargain.

Moosa reported about 50 red shells had burst in the city since Monday morning. Two emergency airstrips were among the targets.

Peiping Faces Crisis

Writing through censorship, Moosa reported that the situation at Peiping was "approaching a climax" and that within the next few days a decision must be made either to surrender or meet a certainly-victorious communist assault. The city has been surrounded for 35 days.

(The communists broadcast that they had restored the Peiping power plant in the western suburbs and were supplying electricity to the government-held city. Moosa, however, mentioned use of kerosene lanterns, so it was uncertain whether the reds actually were furnishing light to their enemy.)

On the central China front before Nanking, small communist forces were reported moving southward from the Hawai river, 100 miles north of Nanking, towards the new government defense line only 30 miles north of the capital.

Best available reports, however, said the main bodies of possibly 300,000 reds were grouping near Mengcheng and Hungtze lake, 50 and 60 miles northwest and northwest of the Hwai river.

(Without giving locations, the communist radio confirmed this, saying, "preparations for striking across the Yangtze are actively under way in the vast central plain area between the Yellow and Yangtze rivers.")

To meet the red challenge, the government had some 60,000 troops north of the Yangtze, with that broad, unbridged stream at heir backs. Some 90,000 were strung out on the south bank from Shanghai westward through Nanking to Wuhu, 60 miles southwest of Nanking.

Japan to Send Rail Cars to Soviet

TOKYO, Jan. 17 (AP)—Japan soon will ship the first batch of thirty railroad freight cars to Russia from Osaka. The cars are being loaded aboard a Russian ship that arrived at the seaport today. Japan is building freight cars and locomotives for export.

Indonese To Seek Economic Sanctions

New Delhi, India, Jan. 17 (AP)—Indonesian Republican delegates to the Asian conference here next Thursday on the Dutch-Indonesian dispute will recommend the use of economic sanctions against the Dutch, a Republican spokesman said today.

The Dutch, in what they termed police action, have taken over important Republican centers in Indonesia and detained Republican leaders.

About twenty Asian and Pacific nations are expected to be represented at the conference, called by Indian Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, to consider what steps, if any, should be taken as a result of the Dutch action.

Race Warfare In S. Africa Continues

Durban, Union of South Africa, Jan. 17 (AP)—South Africa's bloody racial warfare showed signs of spreading today even as Government leaders set up machinery to control the wild Zulu-Indian rioting.

The air still rang with shots in Durban where police fired on native looters last night but police said later the murderous feud was under control here.

More than 100 were reported killed here in the street fighting that begin last Thursday after a native boy was injured in a fight with an Indian peddler.

Death Count Varies

Lieut. Col. T. C. Van Booven, police commissioner for Natal, said the dead number 111, with 1,184 admitted to hospitals for treatment and at least 25,000 Indians in refugee camps. Ambulance officials said they dealt with 6,000 cases, many of them minor. Nearly 400 persons—most of them natives—have been arrested.

P. R. Mather, secretary of the South African Indian Organization, estimated the death toll at 300. Other estimates, one by a Durban Member of Parliament, ran as high as 500.

Latest Flareup

The latest flareup was reported in Johannesburg, largest city in South Africa.

Troops and police stood by to quell additional violence after a bomb was hurled from a passing car at an Indian shop. No one was hurt.

An emergency meeting of high officials took place in Durban. It was attended by Mayor L. L. Boyd, Minister of Justice C. R. Swart and Minister of Defense F. C. Erasmus.

Boyd assured citizens that reinforcements of 2,000 troops would remain to restore order.

Stories of the rape and multilation of Indian women by mobs chanting Zulu battle cries have spread. Murder, arson and looting also have been included in the wild orgy.

Zulu King Cyprian called on his people to stop the killing and return to their homes.

Words Not Heeded

But his words went unheeded in many parts of Natal, the province in which Zululand is situated.

Troops fired on African blacks with machineguns in New Germany, 17 miles from here, yesterday, killing four.

White people barricaded themselves in homes and hotels in Pinesville, also 17 miles away, when the Zulus went on the rampage.

The fighting between Indians and Zulus spread to Pietermaritzburg, Natal's capital.

"The orgy of unbridled violence of the last three days has shocked the civilized world," Dr. G. M. Naiker, president of the Natal Indian Congress, said in a broadcast.

The riots are the worst in South Africa's history and mark the first time Indians and Zulus have engaged in an orgy of killing.

Economic dissatisfaction has been blamed. The main foodstuffs of the blacks have been in short supply and they have claimed Indian merchants were gouging and forcing tie-in deals on them.

RACE FEUD CURBED IN SOUTH AFRICA, SITUATION TENSE

DURBAN, Union of South Africa, Jan. 17. — (AP) City officials were faced today with a serious refugee problem growing out of the bitter native-Indian rioting here.

Police backed by 2,000 troops apparently have gotten the murderous race fued under control. There was some shooting during the night when police fired on native looters, but there was no renewal of the frenzied mob killings which began here last Thursday.

More than 100 persons were reported killed in the rioting, touched off when a native boy was injured in a fight with an Indian.

Now Durban has 25,000 Indian refugees on its hands. A majority of them were said to have homes to return to but may be afraid to do so. The situation has created problems of sanitation and food and water supply.

Warfare Spreads

While Durban itself was quieter, the ugly warfare showed signs of spreading to other cities and rural areas.

A flareup was reported in Johannesburg, largest city in South Africa, 310 miles northwest of here. Police and troops stood by there to quell any violence after a bomb was hurled from a passing car at an Indian shop. Windows were blown in but no one was hurt.

Other incidents were reported in the province of Natal. In one of them two natives were killed and three others were injured. They had been attacked by a carload of Indians.

Ex-Officers Planning New Blow, Burma Says

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Government said today former Burmese army officers, joined with forces from an outlawed private army, are planning a new blow aimed at overthrowing the regime of Premier Thakin Nu next Friday.

An official statement said former officers of the Burma Rifles, who eluded capture last August when a number of other army units were charged with disloyalty and disarmed, have been wooing members of the uderground People's Volunteer Organizations.

The P.V.O.'s, said to number 50,000 men, are made up of forces from the private army of the assassinated Nationalist, U Aung San.

The Government said the former officers have been contacting the P.V.O.'s in upper Burma. The nature of the expected blow was not revealed.

Justice Black wrote the majority opinion in the 5-4 decision. He was sharply critical of the handling of Klapprott's case, saying:

"It is clear that for 4½ years this petitioner was held in prison on charges that the Government was unable to sustain. No other conclusion can be drawn except that this long imprisonment was wrongful."

Justice Reed, dissenting, declared that any suggestion that Klapprott's trials "have been carried on in a way contrary to concepts of justice as understood in the United States and in a manner incompatible with the pattern of American justice falls flat in view of the simple facts."

The effect of the decision is to give Klapprott a new hearing on the issue of whether his citizenship should be taken from him

Native Of Germany

In the court's split, Justice Rutledge wrote an opinion concurring with the majority and Justice Murphy joined in it. Justices Reed and Frankfurter wrote dissenting opinions, Chief Justice Vinson and Justice Jackson agreed with Reed's dissenting opinion.

Klapprott, a native of Germany, was admitted to this country in 1933. The United States District Court in Newark canceled his certificate of naturalization in 1942 on the ground that he had lied when he said he renounced allegiance to the German Reich.

Four and a half years later, Klapprott asked the District Court to set aside its judgment of denaturalization. The District Court refused to do so and was upheld by the United States Circuit Court in Philadelphia.

In appealing to the Supreme Court, Klapprott contended that he could not answer the Government's complaint against him in the Newark court in 1942 because FBI agents took him to New York city one week before expiration of the time to file an answer.

Draft Conviction Upset

In New York he was convicted of conspiring to violate the Selective Service Act. He was sentenced to five years' imprisonment, but the Supreme Court later reversed the conviction and that sentence was set aside.

In today's decision, Black and the court majority held that Klapprott had not had a hearing in which to defend his right to citizenship.

"Inadequate Facts"

The court majority also said there was strong indication that the Federal Government had proceeded in the case "on inadequate facts."

"Petitioner (Klapprott) is entitled to a fair trial," Black wrote. "He has not had it. The Government makes no claim that he has."

The case was sent back to the United States District Court in Newark for a hearing.

Other Rulings Returned

In addition to passing on the Klapport case, the Supreme Court today:

Ruled unanimously that the Wisconsin Employment Relations Board exceeded its powers by conducting a collective bargaining election among employés of the La Crosse Telephone Company. It said the company was engaged in interstate commerce and in a field where the National Labor Relations Board has jurisdiction.

Agreed to review a National Labor Relations Board ruling that officials of the CIO United Steelworkers must file non-Communist oaths before the board requires the Inland Steel Company to bargain on pension plans.

Reversed a 1930 decision and ruled 6-3 that Federal estate taxes can be levied on a trust fund if the person creating the trust kept a life-time right to the income.

Ruling Against Ex-Bund Chief Upset

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—On grounds that there had not been a fair trial, the Supreme Court today set aside a lower-court judg-

Dulles Critical Of Truman's Arms And Foreign Aid Budgets

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—John Foster Dulles said today war fears are dwindling, and he believes "we are exaggerating the percentage of our national income" needed for national defense.

Commenting on President Truman's budget of $15,000,000,000 in military expenditures and another $6,000,000,000 in foreign aid during fiscal 1950, Dulles said:

"I think there is a risk of war, but I think the risk is not so great that we should seriously jeopardize our own economic health . . . by saddling ourselves with such vast armament."

They Can't Go On, He Says

Dulles, who was generally regarded as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's pre-election choice as Secretary of State, expressed his views in a copyrighted interview published by United States News and World Report, a weekly news magazine. He was recently appointed by President Truman to act as chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations General Assembly in Paris when Secretary of State Marshall returned to this country.

Dulles gave a flat "no" reply when asked if he believes the present huge military expenditures can go on indefinitely.

He went on:

"I think our armament is exaggerated by the fact that there is not sufficient unification between the different branches of our (armed) services.

Notes Armed Service Rivalry

"It seems as though the rivalry were such that each branch wants to be strong enough so that if there is a war it can win it alone without help from anybody."

Dulles said there is "less fear of war" than there was last year, but he commented.

"Of course, there is always a risk. You have a tense situation like a dry autmun in the woods when any fool can start a fire by carelessly throwing a cigarette away.

"It is entirely possible, however, to have better relations with Russia, and I think it is probable."

In this connection, Dulles said the United States and Russia could agree except for the Soviet crusade to spread communism.

What The Russian People Want

"There is no doubt that the Russian people want to have improved relations with the United States," he said.

"I don't think the leaders are interested in better relations because of the fact that fear is one of their stocks in trade. Their own internal power largely rests upon frightening the Russian people into believing there is danger from the United States."

ROYALL TO VISIT JAPAN

Will Take Detroit Banker Along to Work on Inflation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall will leave the United States next week on an economic and financial survey of Japan, it was learned tonight.

Secretary Royall told reporters that his party, which will include Joseph Dodge, a Detroit banker, would leave Washington on Jan. 28 on a special Air Force Constellation plane.

Mr. Dodge will remain in Japan to help Gen. Douglas MacArthur combat inflation and work out markets for Japan's goods.

Secretary Royall will visit Korea briefly and return by way of Guam and Hawaii. The trip will take seventeen days, he said.

TOBACCO PURCHASES LEAD ECA AID GRANTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—Heavy tobacco purchases for Western Germany accounted for more than half of $11,534,000 in new Marshall Plan aid grants approved today by the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Of the total allotments to four European nations, Western Germany and China, $6,615,000 is earmarked for tobacco purchases. United States sources will supply $3,615,000 worth, while $3,000,000 will come from Latin America.

China receives $1,671,000 to buy rice in the United States. The allotment attained significance in the light of ECA action over the weekend in cutting off all shipments of wheat and flour to China. However, it was pointed out, in the area of South China not now threatened by the Communists rice is the principal food. Communist-held North China is where wheat and flour are the prime foodstuffs.

With the new totals, cumulative dollar commitments under the Marshall Plan stand at $4,372,794,000. Today's authorizations also include:

United Kingdom, $1,955,000 for textile products; Greece, $1,403,000 for a variety of recovery commodities including newsprint, pulp and paper products, lumber and sawmill products, leather and leather products, mules and non-metallic minerals; Austria, $304,000 for lanolin and yellow grease; and France and French overseas possessions, $37,000 for various recovery commodities.

Three Flyers In Raid On Tokyo Are Buried

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Three flyers who participated in the first bombing raid on Tokyo were buried today in Arlington National Cemetery.

Two pilots, Lieut. William G. Farrow, of Alliance, Ohio, and Darlington, S.C., and Lieut. Dean E. Hallmark, of Dallas, Texas, were executed by the Japanese at Kiangwan, China, and their bodies cremated. The third flyer, Lieut. Robert J. Meder, of Lakewood, Ohio, died in a Japanese prison camp at Nanking December 11, 1943, and also was cremated by the Japanese.

The three were reported missing in action after the raid on Tokyo in April, 1942. They were captured by the Japanese in occupied China and imprisoned. Lieutenants Farrow and Hallmark were tried and sentenced to death. They were shot by a Japanese firing squad October 15, 1942.

ACTION ON NON-RED OATHS

Supreme Court to Review NLRB Ruling in Steel Pension Case

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—The Supreme Court today agreed to review a National Labor Relations Board ruling that officials of the United Steelworkers of America, CIO, must file non-Communist oaths before the board requires the Inland Steel Company to bargain on pension plans.

The board's ruling was upheld by the United States Circuit Court in Chicago. The union then appealed to the Supreme Court on the ground that the non-Communist oath requirement deprives unions of freedom of thought, speech and assembly in violation of the Constitution.

The Supreme Court earlier agreed to rule on constitutionality of the section of the Taft-Hartley Act on non-Communist oaths. The court will hear argument on this case, filed by the American Communications Association, CIO, on Jan. 31. It specified today that argument in the United Steelworkers case will be heard immediately afterward.

The Circuit Court in Chicago also upheld a board ruling that the Inland Steel Company must bargain with the union on retirement and pension plans if the union officials file non-Communist affidavits. The company has asked the Supreme Court to review the pension part of the board's ruling.

No Americans Injured

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Since the occupation of Tientsin by Chinese Communist forces no Americans have been killed or injured, the State Department said today.

Michael J. McDermott, press officer, said the "conduct of the occupying forces seems to be correct." Eighty-three Americans, including the consular staff, were listed in Tientsin and vicinity. They were under shell fire during the fighting for the city.

No Americans Injured

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 (AP)—A report to the State Department today said no Americans or Europeans have been injured or molested in any way in the race rioting at Durban. The report, sent yesterday afternoon by the American Consulate at Durban, said also: "The situation has eased considerably and appears to be well in hand."

BLOOM CHIDES CHIANG

Washington, Jan. 17 (A. P.).—Representative Bloom (D.-N. Y.) said today that "Chiang Kai-shek and the gang with him" will have to be "kicked out" before China can be defended against the Communist menace.

Bloom becomes chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee this week. He said that he wants to help China but "first they've got to show me it is helping the Chinese and not the Communists."

Bloom has billed for the week of January 23 the first big hearings of the new Congress, centering on the vast and costly cold war with Russia. Economic help for western Europe will get attention first.

LODGE URGES NATION BOOST ITALIAN QUOTA

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17 — (AP) A measure to make available to Italians immigration quotas not used during the war years was proposed today by Representative John Davis Lodge (R.-Conn.).

Mr. Lodge, who with his wife recently returned from a tour of Europe, cited progress made by Italians since the war in reestablishing their war-torn country under a democratic government.

He said, however, that overcrowding still plagues Italy and urged that this country show its friendliness by opening its doors to a limited extent.

Czechs In D.C. Planning Anti-Red Organization

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Refugee political leaders from Czechoslovakia are planning within the next three weeks to forge here a new link in the chain of anti-Communist organizations bound together in the cold war against Russia.

The work of Czech leaders already here has been dramatized now by the arrival of a top Prague Foreign Office official, Arnost Heidrich. He has given a lengthy report on communism in his country to the State Department and is expected to play an important part in the proposed new organization.

On Unofficial Basis

Everything is kept on an unofficial and informal basis, but it is becoming apparent that the anti-Communist organizations are being developed and gaining strength with the tacit—if not the express—approval of the State Department.

Peter Zinkl, former deputy Prime Minister of Czechoslovakia, who escaped to this country late last summer, is chairman of a preparatory committee that expects to announce in a day or so plans for a meeting here by early February to form the "Council of Free Czechoslovakia."

The purposes of the organization will be to provide assistance to Czech refugees in the Western countries, to keep in touch with non-Communist elements in Czechoslovakia and, in general, to work for the restoration of a democratic nation.

In Red Grasp, He Says

Heidrich has reported to the State Department that the Communist party now has Czechoslovakia completely within its grasp. He said Russia is now working to convert that country and Poland into industrial centers, from which Russia can draw production for its own reconstruction and future growth.

At the same time, Heidrich told officials here that he found no evidence of aggressive war preparations on the part of Soviet forces in Czechoslovakia. It was his estimate that the Russians were not planning a military movement against the West with Czechoslovakia as the jumping-off place.

BUSINESS AID FOR VETERANS

Barkley Offers Bill For Fund Of $500,000,000

JAN — 1949

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Senator Barkley (D., Ky.) today introduced a bill to help American war veterans go into business.

It is virtually identical with one introduced last year by Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) who, with twenty other senators, joined Barkley in sponsoring the new bill.

It proposes a corporation capitalized at $500,000,000 and self-liquidating. The money would be used to aid qualified veterans to get into business both here and in foreign countries. The program would last twenty years.

Parity For Milk Provided

Milk price supports at not less than 90 per cent of parity are provided in a bill introduced by Senator Wiley (R., Wis.). That's the figure now but next year milk will be subject to flexible supports of 60 to 90 per cent of parity. There is a similar bill in the House.

An education-aid bill may be approved in the Senate Labor Committee tomorrow, Senator Hill (D., Ala.) said. It would provide payments to help poorer states maintain minimum educational standards. It calls for a $300,000,000 appropriation.

But in the House, Representative Scrivner (R., Kan.) proposed a measure to return to the states one per cent of personal and corporation taxes collected from them. This would go for educational purposes. He said it would meet their needs without a "bureaucracy" or "fear of Federal controls."

Would Cut Car Payments

Another Republican, Representative Talle, of Iowa, proposed to cut the minimum down payment on car purchases from the present 33 1-3 per cent to 25 per cent and allow payments to stretch over 24 months.

Schoolteachers would be permitted to deduct the cost of special courses in figuring their income tax under a bill by Representative Peterson (D., Fla.). He would make it "business expense," saying they often have to take extra work to hold their jobs.

A limitation on the share of the contributions the United States would make in international organizations was proposed by Senators Bridges (R., N.H.) and Byrd (D., Va.). It would be held to 50 per cent of the total.

Aims To End Gas Tax

A bill to do away with the Federal gasoline tax of 1½ cents a gallons was introduced by Representative Forand (D., R.I.). This tax brings in $500,000,000 a year.

Veterans unable to adapt themselves to steady jobs as a result of military service would be given permanent and total disability ratings under a bill by Representative Hoeven (R., Iowa).

A bill by Senator O'Conor (D., Md.) would require that when goods purchased by the Government are transported by water half of them must go in United States ships. It is aimed at the plan of the Economic Co-operation Administration to drop such a requirement unless United States flagships are available at competitive rates.

Best 'Anti-Red' Defense Cited By Senator

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—Senator O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.), plugging for President Truman's anti-inflation program, said today a strong American economy is the best weapon against communism.

O'Mahoney is slated to be chairman of the Senate-House Economic Committee. That group will soon start hearings on Mr. Truman's program and recommend what Congress should do about it. The committee's report is due March 15.

"The most effective place to battle communism is right here in the United States," O'Mahoney said. "The way to do it is to keep our own economy so strong it will prove that ours is the best system and at the same time stifle the Communist doctrine."

JAN 1949

Linked To Foreign Policy

O'Mahoney added that success of American foreign policy in the cold war against communism abroad depends on a healthy economy in this country.

Legislation covering Mr. Truman's anti-inflation program is expected to be delivered to the capitol this week.

There has been some talk that the whole program might be lumped into an omnibus bill, but O'Mahoney discounted that. He said that even if it were, Congress would want to break it into separate measures.

He said the joint economic committee would probably get together for an organizational meeting shortly after the inauguration.

Plans To Hear Advisers

The tentative plan is to start hearings on the anti-inflation program with testimony from members of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. Mr. Truman based his economic report on their recommendations.

O'Mahoney and other administration stalwarts expect the controversy to center again on the President's request for standby authority to restore price and wage controls on a limited scale.

O'Mahoney said that just granting that power would probably eliminate any necessity for using the authority.

Would Extend Rent Controls

Mr. Truman's progam also calls for at least a two-year extension of rent controls. A Senate banking subcommittee has already been set up to handle that legislation; hearings may begin in the next couple of weeks. The present rent law expires March 31.

Other sections of the President's program include:

Extension of export controls, continuance of the program of voluntary industry agreements to distribute scarce materials equitably, authority to regulate speculation in the commodity markets and extension of consumer credit controls.

549 DP'S ARRIVE, 41 TO LIVE IN STATE

BOSTON, Jan. 17—(AP) Some 549 displaced persons—including an eight-year-old Polish girl whose appendix was removed at sea—arrived here today aboard the S. S. Marine Flasher.

Little Dwora Mazurek, first down the gangplank, was taken to Beth Israel hospital for treatment.

The Hebrew Immigrant Aid society, through which the family of four was sponsored by Bessie Friedland of New York city, quartered the child's parents and sister in a hotel.

The girl's father, Szaja, 41, and mother, Chenia, 31, are farmers. The other member of the family is Dwora's three-year-old brother, Chana. The family later will join a cousin, Aaron Kothch of New York city.

Greeted by Governors

Governor Paul A. Dever and representatives of Maryland Gov. Preston Lane greeted the displaced persons, the second such group to arrive here.

The Maryland governor was represented by Louis J. O'Donnell, Judge William F. Laukaites, chairman of the Maryland Commission on Displaced Persons, and Major David Finger of the commission.

The Maryland group welcomed 43 displaced persons from the Ukraine who will take up farming in Maryland.

Representatives of more than a dozen volunteer agencies also were on hand to greet the arrivals and assist them through customs and help them to a speedy reunion with their families and sponsors.

Storms delayed the vessel on its trip from Bremerhaven, Germany. Aboard were 257 males, 197 females and 95 children under 10 years of age. Sixty-four are headed for New England destinations—41 to Connecticut and 23 to Massachusetts.

SEEK TO POISON MINDS OF JURORS, ATTORNEYS SAY

JAN 1949

Judge Scoffs at 'Intimidation' Charge; Refuses to Dismiss Cops

OTHER PROTESTS FILED

Delaying Tactics Use Up Entire Day; Crowds March Before Courthouse

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 (AP)—The nation's 12 top communists went on trial today and spent all of the first day charging they were being subjected to a "police trial" in an atmosphere of martial law.

They are accused of working for the forcible overthrow of the government.

For six hours from the time the case was called in federal court at 10:43 a.m. (EST) until adjournment, defense counsel hurled accusation after accusation at the way the case was beng handled.

Protest Police Guard

The communists' heaviest guns were levelled at the police detail of 400 men assigned to the courthouse at Foley Square and the surrounding neighborhood. It was the largest such detail ever called to a court case here.

Presence of the police, the defense charged, constituted an "armed mob in uniform," and turned the neighborhood into an "armed camp." They said the purpose was to "poison the minds of the prospective jurors" and intimidate them and their clients.

To the latter charge, Judge Harold R. Medina, declared:

"That's the most absurd thing Ive ever heard of. You gentlemen don't act as though you're intimidated."

Defense counsel entered motion after motion to have the detail dismissed. Medina denied each one.

They vainly sought to have the court postpone the proceedings for 90 days, grant a bill of particulars and that Medina disqualify himself on grounds of prejudice.

While the legal battle was being fought in the courtroom, many persons who had been lolling on park benches in the warm sunshine outside the building got up and began marching up and down.

Soon the line had about 300 persons, all parading silently. None carried placards or signs. They marched for about an hour and then broke up into little groups.

Assistant Chief Inspector Frank Fristensky, Jr., said the reason for the large police detail was that the "Daily Worker (communist party paper) has been building this thing up for days."

"We are in charge of protecting life and property, keeping the streets clear for unobstructed use of pedestrians and to keep vehicular traffic moving," he said.

The trial, first such proceeding against Communist Party members in the history of the United States, got underway at 10:43 a.m. (EST). The defense moved for a 90-day postponement of the oft-delayed case. Judge Medina denied the motion. Then the battle over the police started.

Court Denies Pleas

In all, defense counsel presented three motions to the court, the last that Medina disqualify himself on the grounds of prejudice.

This, too, Medina refused to grant.

The defendants, who compose the national board of the American Communist party, are specifically charged with conspiracy to organize a party advocating overthrow of the government by force and violence.

They were indicted by a federal grand jury last July 20 during a lengthy investigation of alleged subversive activities and communist espionage. The defendants, all free in $5,000 bail each, face a possible maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and $10,000 fine.

The trial was postponed last November because William Z. Foster, 67, national chairman of the party, was suffering from a heart ailment.

He was the only defendant absent today. His counsel, Louis F. McCabe, told the court Foster was not present because of his health.

"I did not want to run the risk of instructing him to be present," McCabe said.

List of Defendants

Besides Foster, the other defendants are:

Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the American Communist Party.

John Gates, editor of the Daily Worker, communist newspaper.

Robert G. Thompson, New York state Communisty Party chairman.

John Williamson, the party's labor secretary.

Jack Stachel, national education director.

Henry Winston, national organizing secretary.

Irving Potash, manager of the CIO Furriers Joint Council.

Gilbert Green of Chicago, Illinois state chairman of the party.

Gus Hall of Cleveland, Ohio state chairman.

JAN 1949

Thirty minutes before the trial got underway, some 150 persons milled in the courthouse corridors waiting to get inside. Less than half of them, however, were able to get seats.

After a roll-call of the defendants, U. S. Attorney John F. X. McGohey moved to proceed with the conspiracy indictment against the 11 defendants present.

Judge Medina did not rule immediately on this motion.

Lengthy Argument Over Cops

The argument over the police detail was lengthy.

George W. Crockett, Jr., defense attorney from Detroit, asserted that "an atmosphere here prevails which is no different than that at the Scottsboro trial."

He said a "rough count" indicated that there were more police than spectators in the square outside the court house.

Richard F. Gladstein, another defense attorney, told the court that "never in my experience have I seen what I have seen here."

"I am aware that trigger happy men are included among those police and I am aware that hundreds of prospective jurors came to this building and saw something they have never seen before," he said, adding:

"There are hundreds of jurors there whose minds already have been poisoned, having witnessed the spectacle that exists only when martial law is declared. But no martial law has been declared in Foley square."

Free Communists, Rights Unit Asks

Washington, Jan. 17 (AP)—The American Civil Rights Congress today stormily demanded release of Communist party leaders on trial in New York, and for tomorrow scheduled a mass descent on the Capitol in a "freedom crusade."

More than 500 delegates from all sections of the nation packed into Laborer's Hall in a Negro section of Washington to hear hours of oratory and adopt a program for civil-rights reforms.

The congress has been listed by Tom C. Clark, Attorney General, as a subversive organization.

Billed as a legislative conference to "see that civil-rights election promises are kept," today's session was climaxed by adoption of a resolution demanding dismissal of proceedings against the twelve Communist party leaders who went on trial today.

Representative Vito Marcantonio (ALP, N.Y.) hailed by the chair as "the greatest living congressman," branded the trial as "the Nazi orgy in Foley square."

It brought to a head, he told the delegates, a studied plan of the "Wall Street war interests" to crush the rights of political minorities. It was part of a conspiracy to throw the nation into another war, he charged.

Others speaking in support of the resolution were Paul Robeson, Negro singer; the Rev. Kenneth R. Forbes, and Arnold Johnson, representing Carl Winter, one of those on trial.

U.S. EX-OFFICER GETS 25 YEARS FOR TREASON

Also Fined $10,000 After Pleading Guilty In Brooklyn Court

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 17 (AP)—A 27-year-old former Air Force officer was sentenced to 25 years' imprisonment today and fined $10,000 after pleading guilty to charges of treason.

The former lieutenant, Martin Monti, of Florissant, Mo., could have been sentenced to death under the indictment which charged him with giving himself up to the Germans and broadcasting for them.

Monti was sentenced by Judge Robert A. Inch in Brooklyn Federal Court after admitting the truth of charges in the indictment, handed up by a Federal grand jury last October 14.

Court Confession Required

He took the stand after Inch ruled he could not accept the guilty plea unless Monti made a confession in open court or after two witnesses had testified to treasonable overt acts committed by him.

Monti's trial was the first treason case in the metropolitan New York area since the end of the war. Several Government witnesses were flown from Europe to testify.

The indictment against Monti charged the following:

He gave himself and his plane up to the Germans in Italy between October 13, 1944, and May 8, 1945, after going absent without leave in Karachi, India.

Became SS Officer

Then he volunteered his services to the Nazis, was released as a prisoner of war and broadcast for the Germans from Berlin as Martin Withaupt.

Subsequently he became an officer in the SS (Elite Guard) but made his way to Italy after the Nazi capitulation and joined the American 5th Army.

Later United States military authorities returned him to the United States and he was court-martialed for the theft of the plane and desertion. A fifteen-year prison sentence was remitted and he was allowed to re-enlist as a private.

However, he was arrested last January on the treason charges when he was discharged.

Stole Reconnaissance Plane

On the stand today, Monti admitted he had gone a.w.o.l. in Karachi, hitched airplane rides to Naples where he stole an army photo reconnaissance plane and flew to Milan where he gave himself and the plane up to the Germans.

At the time of his arrest, his father, Martin A. Monti, Jr., said his son told him during a visit to St. Louis that the Nazis threatened him while he was a prisoner and "I let them think I had become a Nazi. After all, they had the guns."

Twenty-four persons have been indicted for treason to date, half of them for broadcasting anti-American propaganda. Fourteen have been convicted, two died in Germany, and the cases against three have been dropped.

The only death sentence issued thus far was against Tomoye Kawakita, who established a wartime factory in Tokyo and mistreated American prisoners working there.

M'Arthur Denies Smith Charges On Marines

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 16 (AP)—Retired Marine Corps General Holland M. Smith says—and Gen. Douglas MacArthur denies—that MacArthur failed to publicize the contribution of the Marine Corps to the Pacific campaign.

Smith made the comment in his war memoirs.

In Tokyo, MacArthur called the statement "incredible" and said Smith was "badly misinformed, to say the least."

Portions of Smith's book, "Coral and Brass," have appeared partially before in magazine form. However, in the full text the leatherneck General—now retired—raises new issues.

Smith wrote that James Roosevelt, son of the late President, was decorated for his part in the operations at Makin Island "without any references to me." Smith led the landing forces in the invasions of Tarawa, Makin, Saipan and Iwo Jima.

Holds Smith Misinformed

Smith said Roosevelt's part at Makin "consisted of being present." In Los Angeles, Roosevelt was not available for comment.

However, General MacArthur had quite a bit to say at his Allied headquarters office in Tokyo.

"General Smith's statements that Marines were active in the recapture of the Philippines and that I neglected to mention them in my communiqués seem incredible," said MacArthur.

"There were no Marine ground units whatsoever engaged in the recapture of the Philippines. The only ground forces involved were the 6th and 8th armies, neither of which possessed Marine units."

"It was shortly thereafter relieved from my command over my protest," said MacArthur. "It was a magnificent unit as, indeed, were all other Marine units with which I have had any professional contact, and my reports as to its conduct during its service under me were completely laudatory and fully publicized."

He added that General Smith "has been badly misinformed, to say the least."

Smith wrote that although the Marines were active in the recapture of the Philippines "you can search MacArthur's communiqués describing the Philippines fighting and you will be unable to find a single reference to the Marines."

Dutch Aide Raps U.S. Proposals On Indonesia

Lake Success, Jan. 17 (AP) — An official Dutch spokesman in New York declared last night that a suggested American plan to settle the Indonesian problem was "unparalleled interference."

The United States plan, suggested informally, calls for establishment of a sovereign United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950. It also would broaden the present United Nations Good Offices Committee into a United Nations Commission for Indonesia with power to supervise transfer of authority from the Netherlands to the federation.

The Dutch spokesman said the plan was "completely unacceptable" to his Government. He said it "threatens to create conflict between the Security Council and the Netherlands" and "is in conflict with the United Nations Charter itself."

Plan Is Studied

He added, however, that the plan is being studied both in The Hague and Batavia.

A spokesman for the American delegation predicted that new demands for the release of Indonesian political prisoners held by the Dutch would result from a report Indonesian leaders are still held.

A spokesman for a delegation represented on the Security Council said a new report from the Good Offices Committee might result in stronger Council action.

The Security Council is scheduled to resume debate on Indonesia today.

JAN 1949

The Good Offices Committee reported to the Council yesterday that five high leaders of the republic, including Premier Mohamed Hatta, are held in a single room on Bangka Island of Sumatra. The committee members visited the island Saturday.

Dr. J. H. van Royen, Netherlands delegate, reiterated on Friday Dutch Government announcements it would not set free any political prisoners whose release "might at this moment still endanger public security."

American Plan

Several delegations were believed to have drafted new resolutions in hopes of settling the Far Eastern dispute. One delegation spokesman said he believed certain new proposals had been framed, based on the United States' suggestion.

The American plan would call for the progressive withdrawal of Dutch troops prior to establishment of a new Indonesian federation.

It envisages creation of an interim federal government not later than March 15, 1949. Elections for a Constituent Assembly would be held by October 1, 1949, and the Dutch would transfer sovereignty to the United States of Indonesia not later than April 1, 1950.

Van Royen told the Council Friday the Netherlands would like to see such a transfer of sovereignty on January 1, 1950—three months earlier than the date suggested by the United States.

LONDON, JAN.17-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE TODAY OPENED A CONFERENCE TO DECIDE JUST WHAT CONTROLS THEY WILL KEEP OVER WESTERN GERMANY UNTIL A PEACE SETTLEMENT HAS BEEN REACHED.

THE BIG ISSUE BOILED DOWN TO JUST THIS: HOW GREAT A VOICE WILL THE GERMANS BE GIVEN IN GOVERNING THEIR OWN AFFAIRS?

THERE WAS A COMPANION QUESTION OF ALMOST EQUAL IMPORTANCE: TO WHAT DEGREE WILL THE WESTERN POWERS PERMIT THE GERMANS TO CENTRALIZE AUTHORITY?

UP UNTIL NOW, AT LEAST, THE DIVISION HAS BEEN CLEARCUT.

THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE STOOD TOGETHER IN FAVOR OF GIVING THE PROJECTED WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT BROAD POWERS OF CENTRAL ADMINISTRATION OVER THE GERMAN STATES-- PARTICULARLY ON FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

THIS STAND WAS TAKEN ON THE THEORY IT WOULD HELP SPEED EFFECTIVE USE OF GERMANY'S INDUSTRIAL CAPACITY IN EUROPE'S RECOVERY.

BY CONTRAST, FRANCE HAS HELD OUT FOR DECENTRALIZATION OF GERMANY AFFAIRS. IT HAS URGED, FOR EXAMPLE, COLLECTION OF OCCUPATION COSTS FROM THE INDIVIDUAL STATES RATHER THAN FROM THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

THE STAND OF FRANCE, THRICE INVADED BY GERMANY IN A CENTURY, HAS BEEN BASED ON THE ARGUMENT GERMANY SHOULD BE KEPT DECENTRALIZED TO PREVENT REBIRTH OF ITS MILITARY MIGHT.

THE DIFFERENCES WERE DISCUSSED LAST WEEK AT A CONFERENCE HERE BETWEEN BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTER ROBERT SCHUMAN.

JUST HOW FAR THEY CAME TOWARD REACHING AN AGREEMENT MAY DEVELOP SOON. DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAY THE CONFERENCE MAY LAST FROM THREE DAYS TO A WEEK.

THIRD LEAD CHINESE (250)

LONDON, TUESDAY, JAN.18-(AP)-RUSSIA ANNOUNCED TODAY SHE HAD TURNED DOWN A REQUEST OF THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT TO MEDIATE IN THE CIVIL WAR WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED IN A BROADCAST MOSCOW DISPATCH BY THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY TASS, WHICH SAID THE REQUEST HAD BEEN MADE BY THE U.S. AND BRITAIN ALSO HAD A POLICY OF "NON-INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER COUNTRIES."

JAN 1949

TASS ALSO DISTRIBUTED A NANKING DISPATCH QUOTING PASS REPORTS THERE TO THE EFFECT THAT "IT BECAME KNOWN" THE U.S. AND BRITAIN ALSO HAD TURNED DOWN A CHINESE GOVERNMENT REQUEST TO HELP MEDIATE THE CIVIL WAR.

TASS SAID SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY GAVE RUSSIA'S REPLY TO THE CHINESE AMBASSADOR IN MOSCOW YESTERDAY.

TASS SAID IN MAKING THE REQUEST ON JAN. 8 THE CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTRY TOLD THE UNITED STATES, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAD BEEN PUT TO THE SAME PROPOSAL HAD BEEN REFERRED TO IN THE ABOVE

MEMORANDUM."

TASS ADDED:

"IT WAS NOTED IN THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT'S REPLY THAT THE RESTORATION OF THE UNITY OF CHINA AS A DEMOCRATIC PEACE-LOVING STATE WAS THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S ACHIEVED BEST OF ALL THROUGH DIRECT NEGOTIATIONS OF PARTIES CONCERNED AND BY THE INTERNAL FORCES OF CHINA WITHOUT FOREIGN INTERFERENCE."

THE SOVIET MONITOR IN LONDON DISTRIBUTED THE TASS DISPATCH. AFTER IT WAS OUT FOR ABOUT AN HOUR IT ORDERED THE DISPATCH WITHDRAWN FOR "CORRECTION." THE CORRECTION, HOWEVER, MERELY CHANGED THE PHRASING OF THE DIRECT QUOTES BUT NOT THE SENSE OF THE DISPATCH.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE COMMENT IN WASHINGTON BUT IT WAS REPORTED THAT THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN AND PERHAPS FRANCE ALREADY HAD TURNED ASIDE THE MOVE OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT AIMED AT EFFORTS BY THOSE NATIONS AND RUSSIA TO END THE CIVIL WAR.

SO FAR AS IS KNOWN IN WASHINGTON, THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S NOTE DID NOT SPECIFICALLY REQUEST MEDIATION BUT SUGGESTED THAT THE CHINESE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN ANY ACTION THE GREAT POWERS COULD TAKE IN THAT DIRECTION.

WITHOUT A PRIOR INDICATION OF THE RUSSIAN ATTITUDE, THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN INFORMED THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT IN NANKING LAST FRIDAY THAT THERE WAS NOTHING THEY COULD DO IN THE WAY OF ADVICE OR COUNSEL AT THE PRESENT STAGE OF THE CIVIL STRIFE.

THE FRENCH WERE BELIEVED TO HAVE ASSUMED A SIMILAR ATTITUDE ALTHOUGH THERE WAS NO SPECIFIC REPORT TO THAT EFFECT.

THE AMERICAN-BRITISH NOTES WERE UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE EMPHASIZED THE ATTITUDE HERE THAT THE FATE OF CHINA NOW IS IN THE HANDS OF THE CHINESE AND THAT ANY ACTION FROM THE OUTSIDE MIGHT CAUSE RESENTMENT ON ONE SIDE OR THE OTHER.

THE GENERAL EXPECTATION IS THAT BEVIN WILL SEEK TO AVOID A FULL-SCALE DEBATE ON THE GROUNDS THAT IT MIGHT UPSET THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE TALKS NOW BEING CONDUCTED ON THE ISLAND OF RHODES.

LABOR PARTY SOURCES GAVE THIS ACCOUNT OF THE OPPOSITION THEY SAID BEVIN HAS BUMPED INTO WITHIN THE CABINET.

HE ALSO HAS BEEN CONCERNED BY SO-CALLED "EXCESSIVE" EGYPTIAN DEMANDS FOR DOLLAR AND GOLD SUPPLIES FROM BRITAIN. THOSE DEMANDS WERE MADE DURING CURRENT BRITISH-EGYPTIAN FINANCIAL TALKS IN CAIRO.

AIR MINISTER HENDERSON PROTESTED THAT HE WAS NOT CONSULTED BEFORE THE RAF RECONNAISSANCE OPERATIONS WERE UNDERTAKEN. BEVIN IS SAID TO HAVE GONE OVER HENDERSON'S HEAD TO DEFENSE MINISTER A.V. ALEXANDER WHO PERSONALLY ORDERED AIR PATROLS NEAR THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN BORDER.

HEALTH MINISTER BEVAN IS SAID TO BE CONCERNED ABOUT THE CONFLICTING ACCOUNTS GIVEN BY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN AS TO WHO THOUGHT OF THE RAF RECONNAISSANCE.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OPERATION LAST WEEK BUT SAID IT HAD "BECOME CLEAR" TO BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN THAT IT WAS NECESSARY TO DETERMINE HOW FAR INTO EGYPT ISRAELI FORCES HAD STABBED. THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, JAN 17-(AP)-THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT SAID TODAY IT DID NOT KNOW LEADERS OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WERE CONFINED UNDER GUARD IN A BUILDING ON BANGKA, AND ADDED THAT IT WAS SORRY ABOUT IT.

THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY WAS COMMENTING ON A STATEMENT BY THE UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE AT BATAVIA, JAVA. THE COMMITTEE SAID YESTERDAY FIVE CAPTURED INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARE HELD UNDER CLOSE GUARD IN A SINGLE BEDROOM OF A LARGE BUILDING ON BANGKA ISLAND, OFF SUMATRA. THEY ARE PERMITTED LIMITED ACCESS TO THE ROOF UNDER GUARD, BUT ALL WINDOWS ARE ENCLOSED BY WIRE NETTING AND SO IS THE AREA AROUND THE DOOR, THE COMMITTEE SAID.

THE DUTCH PREVIOUSLY HAD TOLD THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL NINE REPUBLICAN LEADERS HAD BEEN RELEASED FROM CUSTODY, AND FIVE OF THESE HAD COMPLETE FREEDOM. THE OTHER FOUR, THE COUNCIL WAS TOLD, WERE CONFINED TO BANGKA BUT ENJOYED THE FULL FREEDOM OF THE ISLAND.

"WITH DEEP REGRETS THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT HAS LEARNED ABOUT THE HOUSING AND TREATMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS ON BANGKA," THE FOREIGN MINISTRY STATEMENT SAID. IT ADDED THAT THIS TREATMENT WAS IN CONFLICT WITH INSTRUCTIONS AND "STRONG ACTION" WILL BE TAKEN AGAINST THOSE RESPONSIBLE.

THE MINISTRY ANNOUNCED TWO HIGH PLACED OFFICIALS HAVE LEFT BATAVIA FOR BANGKA TO REPORT ON THE SITUATION.

THE UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE IN THE EAST INDIES REPORTED MOHAMED HATTA, INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN PREMIER, AND FOUR OTHERS WERE CONFINED IN A SINGLE ROOM WHICH, FOR MANY DAYS, WAS FURNISHED WITH ONLY TWO CHAIRS AND TWO TABLES.

THE DUTCH PREVIOUSLY HAD TOLD THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT ONLY FOUR LEADERS WERE HELD ON BANGKA, AND THAT THEY ENJOYED COMPLETE FREEDOM OF THE ISLAND.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE'S COMMUNIQUE SAID THAT "WITH DEEP REGRETS THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT HAS LEARNED ABOUT HOUSING AND TREATMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS ON BANGKA."

NEW INFORMATION, IT SAID, "PROVED THAT THE TREATMENT TOOK PLACE IN A MANNER WHICH MUST BE CONSIDERED IN CONFLICT WITH INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN BY THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT."

IT ANNOUNCED TWO HIGH PLACED OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN SENT BY PLANE TO BANGKA TO REPORT BACK TO THE HAGUE "SO THAT GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS WILL BE COMPLIED WITH PROMPTLY AND COMPLETELY." BANGKA IS SITUATED OFF THE EAST COAST OF SUMATRA.

ANOTHER REASON WAS THE RESTRICTIONS GAVE BETTER PROTECTION TO THE YOUTHFUL DRAFTEES WHO WILL BE ARRIVING SOON.

UNOFFICIALLY, BUT IN OFFICIAL QUARTERS, IT WAS DENIED THAT THERE WAS A WIDE SPREAD PLOT BUT IT WAS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT A NUMBER OF ARMY OFFICERS AND CIVILIANS HAD BEEN DETAINED.

THESE QUARTERS WOULD NOT CONFIRM THE GOSSIP THAT SEETHED IN PRAGUE THAT EIGHT OR NINE GENERALS WERE LODGED IN PANKRAC PRISON, THAT A NUMBER OF OTHER OFFICERS HAD BEEN ARRESTED MORE THAN A WEEK AGO AFTER SECURITY POLICE SURROUNDED THE DEFENSE MINISTRY, AND THAT A NUMBER OF CIVILIANS LATER WERE ARRESTED.

PRAGUE IS ALWAYS FILLED WITH RUMORS. COMMUNIST LEADERS PROTEST BITTERLY THAT IT HAS BECOME AN IDEAL BATTLEGROUND IN THE COLD WAR. BUT THE ARRESTS STORY HAS PERSISTED. THE ONLY OFFICIAL TO ANSWER TO IT TODAY WAS THAT AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT WOULD BE ISSUED.

AMONG THOSE JAILED WAS GENERAL JOSEF KUTTLWASSR. THE SAME OFFICIAL QUARTERS SAID HE HAD BEEN UNDER ARREST FOR SOME TIME BUT THAT THE CHARGES HAVE NOT BEEN ANNOUNCED.

KUTTLWASSR WAS ONCE A HEAD OF THE MORAVIAN DISTRICT TROOPS. HE IS CREDITED BY MANY WITH BEING THE LEADER OF THE UPRISING THAT LIBERATED PRAGUE IN 1945, ALTHOUGH COMMUNISTS SAID HE WAS ONLY A LAST MINUTE HERO.

THE SCOPE OF THE PLOTTING WAS NOT LARGE, OFFICIAL QUARTERS INDICATED. BUT THE STORIES WHICH FED ON REPEATED GOSSIP SAID THAT THE OFFICER GROUP WAS PLANNING A REVOLT SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE AND THAT A MAJOR AMONG THEM TURNED STATE'S EVIDENCE.

ABSENCE OF AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT AND UNWILLINGNESS TO COMMENT HAVE FED THE GOSSIP AND POSSIBLY BUILT UP THE STORY. THE PRAGUE PRESS AND RADIO HAVE NOT BREATHED A SINGLE WORD ABOUT IT.

STUTTGART, GERMANY, JAN. 17-(AP)-CHARLES M.LAFOLLETTE, MILITARY DIRECTOR OF WUERTTEMBERG-BADEN, SAID TODAY HE SAW LITTLE LIKELIHOOD OF OTTO STRASSER'S "BLACK FROUT" MOVEMENT MAKING ANY HEADWAY IN GERMANY.
THE FORMER INDIANA CONGRESSMAN, ABOUT TO LEAVE FOR HOME AFTER A YEAR IN HIS PRESENT POST, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW HE BELIEVED THE "GREAT MASS" OF GERMANS WANT TO TRY DEMOCRACY.
STRASSER CALLS HIS MOVEMENT THE "LEGUE FOR THE REVIVAL OF GERMANY" AND SAYS IT IS NEITHER NAZI NOR COMMUNIST, BUT ALLIED CRITICS REGARD IT AS HAVING NATIONALIST TENDENCIES.
STRASSER, A ONE-TIME FOLLOWER OF ADOLF HITLER, BROKE WITH THE FUEHRER EARLY IN THE NAZI REGIME. HE IS PROMOTING HIS NEW MOVEMENT WITH A LETTER WRITING CAMPAIGN FROM CANADA, WHICH LAST WEEK REFUSED HIM AN EXIT PERMIT.
LAFOLLETTE SAID ONLY TWO THINGS COULD GIVE STRASSER'S "BLACK FRONT" ANY STRENGTH. THESE, HE SAID, ARE:
1. SUPPORT FROM CIRCLES WITH GREAT ECONOMIC POWER--"THE SAME CIRCLES THAT BAC ITLER."
2. FAILURE NITED STATES TO SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGE THE REAL DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS IN GERMANY.
"LET US ENCOURAGE THE MEN WHO WERE WILLING TO TAKE OFFICE AND WORK WITH THE ALLIES AT A TIME WHEN NOBODY KNEW WHAT THE FUTURE WOULD HOLD," SAID LAFOLLETTE.
"LET US GUARD AGAINST TURNING THE REINS OVER NOW TO THOSE WHO STOOD BY IN THE EARLY DAYS TO SEE WHICH WAY THE WIND WAS BLOWING, OR TO NAZIS WHO HAVE BECOME 'DENAZIFIED'."
LA FOLLETTE DECLINED TO CONFIRM OR DENY GERMAN PRESS REPORT THAT HE RESIGNED HIS POST BECAUSE OF DIFFERENCES WITH GENERAL LUCIUS D.CLAY AMERICAN MILITARY GOVERNOR.
THESE REPORTS HELD THAT LAFOLLETTE IMPOSED A CURFEW ON STUTTGART, AFTER A COST OF LIVING RIOT LAST FALL, ONLY BECAUSE OF ORDERS FROM A HIGHER LEVEL, WHILE BELIEVING HIMSELF THAT THE WHOLE POPULATION SHOULD NOT BE PENALIZED FOR THE ACTIONS OF A FEW.
"MY TERM EXPIRED IN DECEMBER," HE SAID, "AND I AM LEAVING.
"I HAVE BEEN AWAY FROM INDIANA FOR SIX YEARS NOW, FOUR IN WASHINGTON ONE IN NUERNBERG AND ONE HERE."
HE ALSO DECLINED COMMENT WHEN ASKED WHETHER, AS A RESULT OF HIS EXPERIENCE IN GERMANY, HE WOULD ADVOCATE ANY CHANGES IN AMERICAN OCCUPATION POLICY.
LAFOLLETTE AND HIS FAMILY ARE SAILING FROM BREMERHAVEN JAN. 19 AND ARE SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE IN NEW YORK ABOUT TEN DAYS LATER.

BELGRADE, YUGOSLAVIA, JAN 17-(AP)-YUGOSLAVIA ANNOUNCED TODAY SHE SIGNED AN ANNUAL TRADE AGREEMENT WITH POLAND YESTERDAY.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF RENEWAL OF THE ANNUAL PACT DID NOT REVEAL THE VOLUME NOR VALUE OF GOODS TO BE EXCHANGED UNDER THE AGREEMENT. IT DID NOT SAY HOW IT WOULD COMPARE WITH PREVIOUS YEARS.
(THIS IS THE THIRD TRADE AGREEMENT INVOLVING POLAND TO BE SIGNED WITHIN A WEEK. MOSCOW PAPERS ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT POLAND AND RUSSIA HAVE DECIDED TO BOOST BY 35 PER CENT IN 1949 THE EXCHANGE OF GOODS UNDER A FIVE-YEAR $1,000,000,000 (B) AGREEMENT SIGNED LAST JANUARY. THREE DAYS AGO POLAND AND BRITAIN SIGNED A FIVE-YEAR AGREEMENT CALLING FOR AN EXCHANGE OF GOODS WORTH $520,000,000 ON EACH SIDE).
THE YUGOSLAVIA-POLAND PACT FOLLOWED A MONTH OF NEGOTIATIONS AND RECENT REPORTS THAT THE TALKS WERE NOT GOING SO WELL.
YUGOSLAVIA WILL RECEIVE FROM POLAND VITALLY NEEDED INDUSTRIAL COKE ROLLED STEEL, ELECTRICAL AND TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT AND OTHER GOODS.
IN EXCHANGE SHE WILL EXPORT TO POLAND MINERALS, METALS, WOOD, TOBACCO AND OTHER ITEMS.
THE YUGOSLAVS ARE NOW DISCUSSING RENEWAL OF AN ANNUAL TRADE AGREEMENT WITH CZECHOSLOVAKIA.
YUGOSLAVIA RECENTLY CONCLUDED A TRADE AGREEMENT WITH THE SOVIET UNION WHICH WAS SLASHED TO ONE-EIGHTH THE SIZE OF THE 1948 AGREEMENT.
THIS, THE YUGOSLAVS SAID, WAS BECAUSE YUGOSLAVIA REFUSED TO AGREE TO EXCESSIVE DEMANDS ON THE PART OF THE RUSSIANS.
(IN MOSCOW, HOWEVER, THE RUSSIANS SAID THE DRASTIC TRADE CURTAILMENT WAS DUE TO HOSTILITY TOWARD RUSSIA BY PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S GOVERNMENT).

ATHENS,JAN.17-(AP)-GREEK POLITICAL LEADERS HELD HURRIED CONFERENCES TODAY IN AN EFFORT TO HATCH A NEW COALITION GOVERNMENT WITHIN THE 24-HOUR DEADLINE SET BY KING PAUL.
THE KING TOLD THE 10 POLITICAL PARTIES THAT IF THEY FAILED TO FORM A GOVERNMENT BY TODAY HE WOULD BE "COMPELLED TO FIND FOR OUR PEOPLE SOME OTHER SOLUTION."
ONE OLD GUARD LEADER SAID PAUL MIGHT HAVE DICTATORSHIP IN MIND AND THREATENED TO FIGHT ANY SUCH ATTEMPT.
IN MAKING HIS DEMAND THE KING BLOCKED A PROPOSAL OF FOUR VETERAN LEADERS TO FORM A COALITION GOVERNMENT OF THEIR PARTIES, WHICH TOGETHER CONTROL A PARLIAMENTARY MAJORITY.
SOURCES CLOSE TO THE FOUR SAID THEY WERE NOT ALL PREPARED TO ACCEDE TO THE KING'S DEMAND.

AGED, AILING THEMISTOKLES SOPHOULIS RESIGNED AS PREMIER SATURDAY AFTER A WEEK OF ARGUING ABOUT BROADENING THE GOVERNMENT'S BASE AND APPOINTMENT OF A NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF TO FIGHT THE COMMUNIST REBELS.
THEY WERE AMONG NINE PARTY LEADERS WHO SPOKE WITH THE KING YESTERDAY IN AN ATTEMPT TO SOLVE HIS CABINET DIFFICULTIES.
LATER IN A JOINT STATEMENT THE LEADERS DECIDED TO ASK THE KING TO EXPLAIN EXACTLY WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF ONE OR MORE PARTIES SHOULD DECIDE AGAINST JOINING A COALITION SUCH AS HE ASKED. THE LEADER OF ONE SMALL ARTY SAID HE WAS NOT PREPARED TO JOIN SUCH A GOVERNMENT, BUT WOULD SUPPORT IT.

THE RUSSIAN-POLISH TRADE PACT FOLLOWS CLOSELY ON SIGNING OF A TRADE TREATY LAST WEEK IN WARSAW BETWEEN POLAND AND BRITAIN.
AFTER THE BRITISH-POLISH AGREEMENT WAS SIGNED, SOME LONDON NEWSPAPERS EXPRESSED THE VIEW THE PACT WAS A SIGN POLAND WAS BREAKING AWAY FROM TIGHT ECONOMIC TIES WITH THE EASTERN EUROPEAN BLOC.
LONDON DIPLOMATIC INFORMANTS, ON THE OTHER HAND, WARNED AGAINST ATTACHING TOO MUCH IMPORTANCE TO THE PACT'S EFFECT ON THE "COLD WAR," ALTHOUGH THEY SAID POLAND'S RECEPTIVENESS TO THE BRITISH TREATY WAS ENCOURAGING.

"IT IS LEARNED FROM WELL-INFORMED CIRCLES THAT THE PEACE MOVEMENT IN PEIPING HAS DEVELOPED GREATLY DURING THEPAST THREE DAYS AND THE NEXT THREE MAY BE IMPORTANT TO ITS SUCCESS OR FAILURE," SAID FU'S NEWSPAPER.
"ACCORDING TO AUTHORITATIVE QUARTERS, PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ARE NOW UNDER WAY." (IT DID NOT CLARIFY WHETHER SUCH REPORTED NEGOTIATIONS WERE FOR NORTH CHINA OR TALKS WITH THE COMMUNISTS AIMED AT ENDING THE ENTIRE CONFLICT.)

PEIPING, JAN. 17-(AP)-A DELEGATION OF PROMINENT CHINESE PREPARED TO LEAVE THIS BESIEGED ANCIENT CAPITAL TODAY TO TALK PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS. THIS MAY BE THE CLIMAX OF THE CIVIL WAR IN NORTH CHINA.
THE DELEGATION'S MIESION TO RED LINES -- WITH TRANSPORTATION PROVIDED BY THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER -- WAS MARRED BY COMMUNIST SHELLFIRE, HOWEVER.

HIS HOME WAS HIT ABOUT 3 A.M. THE PEACE DELEGATION PLANNED TO LEAVE FOR DISCUSSIONS WITH THE COMMUNIST SOMETIME DURING THE DAY.

THE DELEGATION'S MOVE, WITH GEN. FU TSO-YI PROVIDING VEHICLES AND ESCORT TO THE NATIONALIST PERIMETER, INDICATED THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAVE SET A DEADLINE FOR PEIPING'S SURRENDER.

THERE IS NO REASON TO BELIEVE THAT THE COMMUNISTS WILL BE SATISFIED WITH ANYTHING SHORT OF UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER OF PEIPING, THE LARGEST CITY IN NORTH CHINA REMAINING IN NATIONALIST HANDS.

TIENTSIN, COMMERCIAL HUB OF NORTH CHINA ONLY 70 MILES SOUTHEAST OF HERE, WAS CAPTURED BY THE REDS SATURDAY.

THE PEACE DELEGATION WILL TRY TO SEE RED GEN. YEH CHIEN-YING, CHIEF OF THE COMMUNIST MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE IN THE PEIPING AREA AND A PARTY LEADER. YEH WAS A MEMBER OF GEN. GEORGE MARSHALL'S TRUCE HEADQUARTERS COMMITTEE WHEN THE U.S. SOUGHT TO MEDIATE THE CIVIL WAR IN 1946.

A CHINESE PRESS DISPATCH TO NANKING REPORTED THE DELEGATION WOULD CONFER WITH YEH AT THE HSIANGSHAN HOTEL, IN THE HILLS WEST OF PEIPING. A PROMINENT SCHOLAR, LIANG CHIU-SHU UI WAS REPORTED AMONG THE DELEGATES.

THE SHELLING OF EX-MAYOR HO'S RESIDENCE WAS A CONTINUATION OF SPORADIC ARTILLERY FIRE. ABOUT A DOZEN SHELLS DROPPED INTO THIS TREASURE TROVE OF CHINA SUNDAY--ONE EXPLODING AMONG A GROUP OF CHILDREN.

IN NANKING, A GOVERNMENT MILITARY SPOKESMAN CONFIRMED THAT PENGPU--100 MILES NORTHWEST OF CHINA'S CAPITAL--HAD BEEN ABANDONED TO THE REDS. THE CITY, ONETIME ANCHOR OF THE HASTILY ERECTED HUAI RIVER DEFENSE LINE, HAD BEEN HOPELESSLY OUTFLANKED FOR A MONTH.

GOVERNMENT HEADQUARTERS WERE PULLED BACK TO CHUHSIEN ON DEC. . CHUHSIEN IS ONLY -- MILES NORTHWEST OF NANKING, BUT SEPARATED ALSO BY THE BROAD YANGTZE RIVER. IT WAS RELIABLY ESTIMATED THAT THE NEW DEFENSE LINE AT CHUHSIEN WOULD BE DEFENDED BY ABOUT 60,000 TROOPS--FAR BELOW RED STRENGTH IN EAST-CENTRAL CHINA.)

THE SIXTH ARMY IS AUGMENTING NATIONALIST DIVISIONS STRETCHED THINLY FROM SHANGHAI WESTWARD TO WUHU, ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE ABOUT 50 MILES SOUTHWEST OF NANKING. NANKING ALSO IS, ON THE YANGTZE'S SOUTH BANK. Nanking add'd respectively.

SUPPORTING THOSE FORCES ARE NAVAL PATROLS ON THE RIVER AND THE CHINESE AIR FORCE, THE OPERATIONAL STRENGTH OF WHICH HAS BEEN REDUCED BY TRANSFERS TO FORMOSA.

SOME 60,000 TROOPS OF THIS TOTAL FORCE HOLD A DEFENSE LINE NORTH OF THE YANGTZE ANCHORED TO CHUHSIEN. FOREIGN MILITARY CIRCLES REFER TO THEIR DISPOSITIONS AS SUICIDAL.

THOSE NATIONALIST DIVISIONS NORTH OF THE RIVER ARE SAID TO BE CONFRONTED BY AN OVERWHELMING COMMUNIST FORCE, AND WITH AN UNFORDABLE AND UNBRIDGED RIVER AT THEIR BACK.

THE SHANGHAI-NANKING-WUHU FRONT IS LINKED AT WUHU TO GEN. PAI CHUNG-HSI'S CENTRAL CHINA DEFENSE ZONE. PAI HAS SOME 150,000 GOVERNMENT TROOPS UNDER HIS COMMAND AND HAS SHOWN LITTLE ENTHUSIASM FOR SENDING HIS TROOPS -- IN ADDITION TO SOME 125,000 ALREADY TRANSFERRED -- TO THE ASSISTANCE OF THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT.

GOVERNMENT FORCES SOUTH OF THE YANGTZE ALSO FACE THE POSSIBILITY THAT RED GEN. LIN PIAO MAY SOON LEAD HIS MANCHURIAN COLUMNS INTO CENTRAL AND SOUTH CHINA.

JAN 1949

WITH PEIPING NEAR SURRENDER AND NORTH CHINA OTHERWISE ABOUT CLEANED UP, LIN PIAO WILL HAVE AT LEAST SOME 300,000 WELL-EQUIPPED TROOPS FOR SUCH AN OPERATION.

NATIONALIST FORCES STATIONED IN WESTERN PROVINCES AT ISOLATED POINTS, SUCH AS BESIEGED TAIYUAN AND THOSE IN THE SIAN REGION, ARE REGARDED AS NOT BEING IN ANY POSITION TO ASSIST THE HARD-PRESSED GOVERNMENT IN HOLDING THE SHANGHAI-NANKING AREA.

LWARWUAPS NM

ON THE RIVER THERE WERE 24-HOUR PATROLS OF THE CHINESE NAVY. THE AIR FORCE ALSO WAS IN SUPPORT, BUT RECENT TRANSFERS TO THE SANCTUARY ISLAND OF FORMOSA HAVE CUT ITS STRENGTH. Nanking add'd re Nanking.

AT HANKOW, 300 MILES SOUTHWEST OF NANKING, GEN. PAI CHUNG-HSI HAS ABOUT 150,000 TROOPS, BUT HE HAS SHOWN NO ENTHUSIASM FOR SENDING THEM TO HELP NANKING. HE SENT 125,000 DURING NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER, AND 100,000 OF THEM WERE ALLOWED TO FALL INTO A TRAP WHERE THE COMMUNISTS DESTROYED THEM.

OTHER LARGE FORCES GIVING ALLEGIANCE TO THE NATIONALISTS ARE IN THE FAR WEST OR SURROUNDED BY THE COMMUNISTS BESIEGING TAIYUAN. NONE IS IN POSITION TO GIVE ANY ACTIVE AID TO NANKING.

HONG KONG,JAN.17-(AP)-BRITISH FIRMS WITH BRANCHES IN TIENTSIN ARE "SITTING TIGHT" TO SEE HOW WELL COMMUNISM AND CAPITALISM GET ALONG IN THAT NORTH CHINA CITY, CAPTURED BY THE REDS SATURDAY.

THE BRITISH HAVE MORE INTERESTS IN TIENTSIN THAN ANY OTHER NATION. APPARENTLY BRITISH BUSINESSMEN IN HONG KONG WANT TO CARRY ON UNDER COMMUNIST RULE OF THE CITY, IF POSSIBLE.

"WE WILL RESUME OUR SHIPPING SERVICE TO TIENTSIN JUST AS SOON AS WE HAVE ASSURANCES FROM LOCAL AUTHORITIES THAT LAW AND ORDER HAVE BEEN REESTABLISHED," SAID E.G.PRICE, HEAD OF ONE OF THE CROWN COLONY'S LARGEST SHIPPING COMPANIES.

PRICE ADDED THAT MATTERS OF MONEY EXCHANGE, CUSTOMS AND "OTHER FORMALITIES" WOULD HAVE TO BE CLARIFIED, HOWEVER, BEFORE BUSINESS COULD BE RESUMED.

HE SAID HIS COMPANY CURRENTLY IS LAYING OFF PART OF THE TIENTSIN STAFF, BUT ONLY BECAUSE IT HAS BEEN IMPOSSIBLE TO GET MONEY INTO THE CITY TO MEET THE PAYROLL. PRICE WOULDN'T SPECULATE AS TO HIS COMPANY'S FUTURE IN THE RED-HELD CITY.

THE HEADS OF OTHER BRITISH FIRMS IN HONG KONG VOICED A SIMILAR ATTITUDE.

SMITH-MACARTHUR (440)
TOKYO,JAN.17-(AP)-"INCREDIBLE" -- THAT'S WHAT GEN.DOUGLAS MAC ARTHUR SAYS ABOUT THE ASSERTION BY GEN.HOLLAND M. (HOWLIN' MAD) SMITH THAT MAC ARTHUR FAILED TO PUBLICIZE THE MARINES' CONTRIBUTION TO THE PACIFIC CAMPAIGN.

SMITH'S WAR MEMOIRS, COMING OUT TODAY IN A BOOK, "CORAL AND BRASS," HAVE APPEARED PARTIALLY BEFORE IN MAGAZINE FORM. HOWEVER, IN THE FULL TEXT THE LEATHERNECK GENERAL -- NOW RETIRED -- RAISES NEW ISSUES.

SMITH WROTE THAT JAMES ROOSEVELT, SON OF THE LATE PRESIDENT, WAS DECORATED FOR HIS PART IN THE OPERATIONS AT MAKIN ISLAND "WITHOUT ANY REFERENCE TO ME." SMITH LED THE LANDING FORCES IN THE INVASIONS OF TARAWA, MAKIN, SAIPAN AND IWO JIMA.

SMITH SAID ROOSEVELT'S PART AT MAKIN "CONSISTED OF BEING PRESENT." IN LOS ANGELES, ROOSEVELT WAS NOT AVAILABLE LAST NIGHT FOR COMMENT.

"GENERAL SMITH'S STATEMENTS THAT MARINES WERE ACTIVE 'IN THE RECAPTURE OF THE PHILIPPINES' AND THAT I NEGLECTED TO MENTION THEM IN MY COMMUNIQUES SEEM INCREDIBLE," SAID MACARTHUR IN A STATEMENT TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

"THERE WERE NO MARINE GROUND UNITS WHATSOEVER ENGAGED IN THE RECAPTURE OF THE PHILIPPINES. THE ONLY GROUND FORCES INVOLVED WERE THE SIXTH AND EIGHTH ARMIES, NEITHER OF WHICH POSSESSED MARINE UNITS."

MACARTHUR WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE ONLY MARINE GROUND UNIT UNDER HIS COMMAND WAS THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION TEMPORARILY ASSIGNED TO HIM IN AUSTRALIA AFTER THE GUADALCANAL CAMPAIGN AND WHICH HE USED IN THE NEW BRITAIN OPERATION.

"IT WAS SHORTLY THEREAFTER RELIEVED FROM MY COMMAND OVER MY PROTEST," SAID MACARTHUR. "IT WAS A MAGNIFICENT UNIT AS, INDEED, WERE ALL OTHER MARINE UNITS WITH WHICH I HAVE HAD ANY PROFESSIONAL CONTACT, AND MY REPORTS AS TO ITS CONDUCT DURING ITS SERVICE UNDER ME WERE COMPLETELY LAUDATORY AND FULLY PUBLICIZED."

HE ADDED THAT GENERAL SMITH "HAS BEEN BADLY MISINFORMED, TO SAY THE LEAST."

SMITH WROTE THAT ALTHOUGH THE MARINES WERE ACTIVE IN THE RECAPTURE OF THE PHILIPPINES "YOU CAN SEARCH MACARTHUR'S COMMUNIQUES DESCRIBING THE PHILIPPINES FIGHTING AND YOU WILL BE UNABLE TO FIND A SINGLE REFERENCE TO THE MARINES."

B15KX (SEG)
HE SAID ALSO THAT IN 1941 AND 1942 MACARTHUR'S COMMUNIQUES FAILED TO MENTION THE MARINES' PART IN THE DEFENSE OF BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR.

MACARTHUR DESCRIBED THIS AS "EQUALLY UNREALISTIC." HE SAID THE MARINE REGIMENT IN THE PHILIPPINES "WAS NOT ENGAGED IN THE BATAAN FIGHTING, HAVING BEEN STATIONED BY ME IN RESERVE ON CORREGIDOR AND HAVING NO OPPORTUNITY THEREFORE TO DEMONSTRATE ITS EFFICIENCY IN CLOSE COMBAT."

SMITH ASSERTED THE MARINES ON BATAAN GOT "THE MACARTHUR SILENT TREATMENT." HE WENT ON:

"FINALLY, AFTER TACTFUL REPRESENTATIONS HAD FALLEN ON DEAF EARS, THE NAVY IN WASHINGTON BEGAN ISSUING ITS OWN COMMUNIQUE IN SIMPLE JUSTICE TO THE MARINES WHO WERE SILENTLY SHARING THE PERILS AND PRIVATIONS OF BATAAN AND CORREGIDOR BESIDE MUCH-PUBLICIZED ARMY COMRADES."

REGARDING ROOSEVELT, SMITH SAID HE WOULD HAVE "STRONGLY DISAPPROVED THE RECOMMENDATION" FOR THE SILVER STAR MEDAL IN CONNECTION WITH THE MAKIN OPERATION. BUT SMITH DIDN'T CAST ANY REFLECTION UPON ROOSEVELT, ADDING:

"JIMMY ROOSEVELT PROVED HIMSELF A COMPETENT AND COURAGEOUS MARINE ON MANY OCCASIONS, BUT I HAVE ALWAYS WONDERED HOW HE FELT ABOUT THAT DECORATION."

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN. 17-(AP)-SWIFT PROGRESS IN ISRAELI ARMISTICE TALKS WITH LEBANON WAS INDICATED TODAY BY A RESHUFFLING OF MILITARY FORCES ALONG THE FRONTIER.
THE ISRAELI ARMY RELEASED FOUR OF 15 LEBANESE VILLAGES UNDER JEWISH OCCUPATION AND THE LEBANESE MOVED OUT OF ONE VILLAGE IN NORTHWESTERN GALILEE.
A RELIABLE SOURCE REPORTED MEANWHILE THAT ISRAEL HAD BEGUN ARMISTICE TALKS WITH TRANS-JORDAN, AS WELL AS WITH EGYPT AND LEBANON. JEWISH OFFICIALS DID NOT DENY THE REPORT, BUT REFUSED TO COMMENT ON IT.
ANOTHER INDICATION OF A WIDESPREAD MOVEMENT TO SETTLE THE HOLY LAND STRIFE CAME WITH AN ANNOUNCEMENT BY A UNITED NATIONS SPOKESMAN AT RHODES, SCENE OF THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN TALKS, THAT ACTING MEDIATOR RALPH BUNCHE HAD LAUNCHED A GENERAL MIDDLE EAST PEACE OFFENSIVE
THE JEWISH WITHDRAWAL FROM FOUR LEBANESE VILLAGES WERE NOT DISCLOSED OFFICIALLY TO THE ISRAELI PUBLIC YESTERDAY. RELEASE OF THE VILLAGES WAS DESCRIBED AS "AN EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH" IN THE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH WERE REPORTED TO HAVE BEGUN SATURDAY NIGHT.
MILITARY SOURCES SAID ISRAEL WANTED TO RETAIN A SMALL "SECURITY ZONE" ALONG THE LEBANESE FRONTIER FOR A WHILE. THIS WOULD EXPLAIN WHY ONLY FOUR OF THE 15 VILLAGES WERE EVACUATED. IF THE ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS ARE SUCCESSFUL, IT IS EXPECTED THE JEWS EVENTUALLY WILL WITHDRAW FROM ALL LEBANESE TERRITORY.
THE TALKS WITH TRANS-JORDAN HAD BEEN REPORTED BROKEN OFF AFTER KING ABDULLAH REQUESTED THAT BRITISH TROOPS BE SENT TO TRANS-JORDAN'S RED SEA PORT, AQABA.
A HIGH AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE SAID, HOWEVER:
"THE INVOCATION OF THE BRITISH-TRANS-JORDAN TREATY WHICH LED TO THE DISPATCH OF BRITISH TROOPS TO AQABA HAS NOT STOPPED CONVERSATIONS AND TALKS BETWEEN ISRAELI AND TRANS-JORDAN REPRESENTATIVES."

DURBAN, UNION OF SOUTH AFRICA, JAN. 17-(AP)-THOUSANDS OF INDIAN REFUGEES REFUSED TO RETURN TO THEIR HOMES TONIGHT FROM THE PROTECTED CAMPS TO WHICH THEY FLED DURING THE BITTER RACE RIOTING HERE.
FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THURSDAY IT WAS APPARENT THAT POLICE AND TROOPS HAD HALTED THE MURDEROUS NATIVE-INDIAN FEUDING. A CONSTANT PATROL OF POLICE, SOLDIERS AND SAILORS IS BEING MAINTAINED THROUGH THE STREETS.
THERE ARE ABOUT 1,400 REGULAR TROOPS IN DURBAN. SOME SHOOTING OCCURRED LAST NIGHT WHEN POLICE FIRED ON NATIVE LOOTERS, BUT EVEN THAT HAS DIED DOWN NOW.
CASUALTIES SUFFERED BY THE INDIANS AND THE NATIVE ZULUS IN THE FIGHTING STILL HAVE NOT BEEN DEFINITELY DETERMINED. POLICE SAID MORE THAN 100 PERSONS WERE KILLED IN THE RIOTING, TOUCHED OFF WHEN A NATIVE BOY WAS INJURED IN A FIGHT WITH AN INDIAN PEDDLER. P.R. PATHER, SECRETARY OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN INDIAN CONGRESS, ESTIMATED THE DEATH TOLL AT 300.
TREATMENT WAS GIVEN TO 1,184 NATIVES AND INDIANS AT KING EDWARD HOSPITAL. AMBULANCE OFFICIALS SAID THEY TOOK CARE OF 6,000 CASES BUT MANY OF THESE WERE MINOR.
MORE THAN 100 PERSONS APPEARED IN DURBAN MAGISTRATES COURTS THIS MORNING TO ANSWER CHARGES GROWING OUT OF THE RIOTING. THERE ARE MORE THAN 370 NATIVES AND INDIANS IN JAIL AWAITING TRIAL.
THE PROBLEM OF WHAT TO DO WITH THE INDIAN REFUGEES WORRIED CITY OFFICIALS. THE RED CROSS SAID THERE WERE AT LEAST 25,000 INDIANS IN THE 12 MAIN REFUGEE CAMPS IN DURBAN. AN INDIAN SOURCE ESTIMATED THERE WERE 40,000 INDIANS IN 46 CAMPS IN DURBAN AND THE SURROUNDING AREA.
A MAJORITY OF THE INDIANS HAVE HOMES TO RETURN TO, BUT THEY ARE AFRAID TO LEAVE THE CAMPS SET UP BY THE POLICE AND SOLDIERS. THE SITUATION HAS CREATED PROBLEMS OF SANITATION AND FOOD AND WATER SUPPLY.

"THE ORGY OF UNBRIDLED VIOLENCE OF THE LAST THREE DAYS HAS SHOCKED THE CONSCIENCE OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD. WE DEEPLY APPRECIATE THE ASSISTANCE WE HAVE RECEIVED FROM RESPONSIBLE AFRICAN (NATIVE) LEADERS."
NATIVE SPOKESMEN SAID THE RIOTING HAD AN UNDERLYING ECONOMIC ASPECT. THEY CLAIMED MANY INDIAN WHOLESALERS AND STOREKEEPERS HAD OVERCHARGED THE NEGROES AND FORCED TIE-IN DEALS ON THEM. ONE NATIVE SAID:
"THE INDIANS HAVE EXPLOITED US IN BUSINESS FAR TOO LONG, AS A RESULT OF WHICH WE HAVE SUFFERED GREAT FINANCIAL LOSS AND OUR WIVES AND CHILDREN HAVE BEEN GIVEN MUCH HUMILIATION."

BOTH ARE VICTIMS OF SOUTH AFRICA'S STRICT SEGREGATION LAWS. THE INDIANS FOUGHT WITH PASSIVE RESISTANCE THE ASIATIC LAND TENURE ACT WHICH RESTRICTED INDIANS' RIGHTS TO PURCHASE LAND IN CERTAIN AREAS. INDIANS HAVE GIVEN THE NATIVES SUPPORT IN THEIR FIGHT FOR GREATER

PEACE OFFENSIVE
BY JOHN SCALI JAN 1949
WASHINGTON,JAN.17-(AP)-GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THEY SUSPECT THAT A SUDDEN OUTBREAK OF COMMUNIST "PEACE" SPEECHES IN FRANCE AND ITALY IS A MOSCOW-DIRECTED PROPAGANDA MOVE TO WRECK THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE BEFORE IT TAKES SHAPE.
THESE OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, IT IS BARELY POSSIBLE THAT THE REMARKS REPRESENT A "TRIAL BALLOON" FLOATED BY MOSCOW TO SEE WHETHER THE UNITED STATES IS WILLING TO MAKE A DEAL.
IF THAT IS THE CASE, THEY SAID THE ANSWER IS "NO" UNTIL RUSSIA LIFTS THE BERLIN BLOCKADE AND SHOWS OTHER EVIDENCE OF WHAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT WOULD CONSIDER GOOD FAITH.
OVER THE WEEKEND, ITALY'S COMMUNIST BOSS PALMIRO TOGLIATTI AND MARCEL CACHIN, VETERAN FRENCH COMMUNIST, BOTH EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR COLLABORATION BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE U.S.BOTH RIDICULED THE IDEA THAT WAR IS INEVITABLE.
THESE APPARENTLY COORDINATED SPEECHES WERE SO MILD COMPARED TO THEIR PREVIOUS DENUNCIATIONS OF THE U.S.THAT OBSERVERS SPECULATED ON THE POSSIBILITY OF A NEW "PEACE OFFENSIVE" BY MOSCOW.
AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID, HOWEVER, THAT THE MOST LOGICAL INTERPRETATION THEY CAN GIVE TO THE SPEECHES IS THAT MOSCOW IS PURSUING ITS NEW YEAR TACTICS OF PICTURING THE WESTERN POWERS AS THE ONES WHO ARE REJECTING RUSSIA'S PEACEFUL OVERTURES.
BY REPEATEDLY STRESSING THE LINE THAT COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND CAPITALIST AMERICA CAN GET ALONG WITHOUT GOING TO WAR, THE COMMUNISTS HOPE TO:
1. FOOL THE WORLD INTO BELIEVING THE WESTERN POWERS ARE SPURING RUSSIA'S OFFER OF FRIENDSHIP AND INSTEAD CHOOSING THE ROAD TO WAR BY FORMING A WESTERN ALLIANCE.
2. CONVINCE SOME OF THE HESITATING SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES AND ITALY TO STAY OUT OF THE WESTERN ALLIANCE WHICH IS NOW IN THE FINAL STAGES OF DRAFTING.

THESE AMERICAN OFFICIALS PREDICT THAT THE RUSSIAN CAMPAIGN WOULD FAIL ON BOTH COUNTS.
THE EUROPEANS REALIZE BY NOW, THEY SAID, THAT WHILE RUSSIA TALKS "PEACE," COMMUNIST MINORITIES ARE TRYING TO SEIZE CONTROL OF ELECTED GOVERNMENTS IN FRANCE AND ITALY AND TRYING TO BLOCK EUROPEAN RECOVERY GENERALLY.
CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED HERE THAT ITALY NORWAY AND DENMARK EVENTUALLY WILL JOIN IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT. REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S., CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG ARE DRAFTING THIS ALLIANCE IN WASHINGTON.

ATLANTIC CITY,N.J., JAN 17-(AP)-HAROLD STASSEN PREDICTED TODAY ECONOMIC UNREST IN EUROPE THIS YEAR WILL REACH "UP TO THE POINT OF RIOTING IN POLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE UKRAINE AND EASTERN GERMANY."
STASSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, SAID "AS THE MONTHS GO BY, WE WILL SEE EITHER EXTREME CRUELTY IN RUSSIA OR THE YIELDING TO PRESSURE FOR MORE ECONOMIC FREEDOM."
IN AN ADDRESS TO THE 42ND ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL CANNERS ASSOCIATION, STASSEN SAID:
"I BELIEVE THE COMING YEAR WILL SEE ECONOMIC UNREST REACHING UP TO THE POINT OF RIOTING IN POLAND, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE UKRAINE AND EASTERN GERMANY.
"THE PEOPLE WERE TOLD THEY WOULD RECEIVE DIVIDENDS IN CONSUMER GOODS, WHICH THEY HAVE NOT RECEIVED."
STASSEN SAID THE UNITED STATES WITH ONE-SIXTEENTH OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION, PRODUCES ONE-THIRD OF THE WORLD'S GOODS. THIS IS POSSIBLE, HE SAID, BECAUSE AMERICANS BELIEVE IN ECONOMIC FREEDOM.

HE SAID:

"ECONOMIC FREEDOMS ARE INSEPARABLE FROM THE OTHER HUMAN FREEDOMS, AND IF WE LOSE THE ECONOMIC FREEDOMS, MEN WILL BECOMEE SLAVES ON THIS EARTH."

STASSEN SAID GOVERNMENT OPERATION OF INDUSTRY IN GREAT BRITAIN IS A FAILURE. HE SAID THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT "SHOULD HAVE CONCENTRATED ON THE IMPROVEMENT OF CAPITALISM, INSTEAD OF TAKING OVER INDUSTRY."

THE STORY WAS TOLD BY THE SECRETARY, DR.EDOUARD TABORSKY, AS HE ARRIVED YESTERDAY ON THE LINER GRIPSHOLM EN ROUTE TO LECTURE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS IN AUSTIN.

TABORSKY SAID HE ACCMPANIED BENES TO MOSCOW IN 1943 AND 1945 FOR CONFERENCES WITH PREMIER STALIN.

TABORSKY SAID BENES "BELIEVED IN STALIN'S WORD AND STALIN MADE A STRONG IMPRESSION ON BENES. AT FIRST, BENES THOUGHT CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND RUSSIA COULD LIVE PEACEFULLY TOGETHER. STALIN SPOKE SO FRIENDLY AND SO REALISTICALLY THAT THERE WAS AN ATMOSPHERE OF GENERAL UNDERSTANDING."

BENES "BEGAN TO SUSPECT THE MOTIVES OF RUSSIA IN 1945 WHEN THE RUSSIANS BEGAN TO GIVE OPEN SUPPORT TO THE CZECH COMMUNISTS," TABORSKY SAID.

TABORSKY SAID THAT LAST AUG.24 WHILE HE WAS IN STOCKHOLM HE RECEIVED THIS MESSAGE FROM BENES, ONLY A FEW DAYS BEFORE HIS DEATH:

"FOR A LONG TIME I BELIEVED THAT GOTTWALD (PRESIDENT KLEMENT GOTTWALD OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA), AT LEAST, DID NOT LIE TO ME. BUT NOW I SEE THAT THEY ALL LIE, WITHOUT EXCEPTION. IT IS A COMMON MATTER WITH ALL COMMUNISTS, ESPECIALLY THE RUSSIAN ONES.

NIGHT LEAD U.N.-INDONESIA

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 17-(AP)-THE NETHERLANDS SAID TODAY SUTAN SJAHRIR, FORMER PREMIER OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC, HAD AGREED TO MEET IN BATAVIA TOMORROW WITH DUTCH PREMIER WILLEM DREES.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE IN THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL BY J.H.VAN ROYEN, NETHERLANDS REPRESENTATIVE. VAN ROYEN TOLD NEWSMEN LATER THIS WAS INTENDED AS THE FIRST STEP TOWARD RENEWED DUTCH-INDONESIAN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

SJAHRIR WAS ONE OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARRESTED IN DECEMBER WHEN THE DUTCH LAUNCHED THEIR MILITARY ACTION WHICH QUICKLY OVERRAN REPUBLICAN TERRITORY. HE WAS REPORTED TO BE HELD IN SUMATRA ALONG WITH PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND FOREIGN MINISTER HADJI AGOES SALIM.

THE DUTCH STATEMENT CAME AS THE SECURITY COUNCIL ENDED GENERAL DEBATE ON THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM. GEN.A.G.L.MCNAUGHTON OF CANADA, THIS MONTH'S COUNCIL PRESIDENT, EXPRESSED HOPE THAT A FORMAL PROPOSAL WOULD BE READY WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON WHEN THE COUNCIL MEETS AGAIN.

INDONESIAN REPRESENTATIVE L.N.PALAR CONTINUED HIS INSISTENCE ON FIRM U.N. ACTION AGAINST THE DUTCH TO FORCE THEIR WITHDRAWAL TO LINES HELD BEFORE THE RECENT ATTACK.

AN INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN, COMMENTING ON THE DUTCH ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING SJAHRIR, EXPRESSED DOUBT ANY PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WERE EVEN BEING CONSIDERED BY THE INDONESIANS. THE SPOKESMAN SAID

SJAHRIR MAY HAVE BEEN DESIGNATED TO TALK WITH DREES MERELY TO GET INFORMATION.

MCNAUGHTON AGREED, MEANTIME, TO SEE WHAT ARRANGEMENTS COULD BE MADE TO BRING ANY DESIGNATED REPUBLICAN OFFICIALS TO LAKE SUCCESS TO CONFER WITH THE DELEGATION HERE.

INFORMED QUARTERS EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT SJAHRIR MIGHT BE DESIGNATED TO COME TO LAKE SUCCESS. IT WAS RECALLED HE APPEARED BEFORE THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN THE EARLY STAGES OF THE INDONESIAN DEBATE IN 1947.

CHARLES THAMBOE, ALTERNATE INDONESIAN DELEGATE, SAID THE DUTCH "ARE FEVERISHLY HUNTING FOR PUPPETS AND THE FACT THAT THEY ARE MAKING A PASS AT SJAHRIR SHOWS HOW LITTLE THEY KNOW OF THE INDONESIAN MENTALITY."

IN FACT, HE SAID, THE REPUBLICAN DELEGATION AT LAKE SUCCESS IS HOPING THAT PRESIDENT SOEKARNO WILL DESIGNATE SJAHRIR TO COME HERE.

INDIAN DELEGATE SIR RAMA RAU URGED THE COUNCIL TO TAKE SPEEDY ACTION SO THE ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA WILL KNOW THE COUNCIL'S ATTITUDE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER IT OPENS IN NEW DELHI JAN. 20.

HE TOLD THE COUNCIL THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT, IN CALLING THE CONFERENCE, NEVER INTENDED TO GO BEYOND THE FRAMEWORK OF THE U.N. CHARTER.

JESSUP ASSURED THE INDIAN DELEGATE THAT THE UNITED STATES LOOKS UPON THE ASIAN CONFERENCE "WITH SYMPATHETIC INTEREST." HE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THE CONFERENCE "WILL CONTRIBUTE ADDED SUPPORT TO THE EFFORTS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL TO BRING ABOUT A SATISFACTORY AND VIABLE PEACE IN INDONESIA."

Bevin Denies Britain Plans Any 'Aggressive Action' on Palestine

JAN 1949

BRITISH LEADER DELAYS DEBATE ON HOLY LAND ISSUE

Discussion Now Might Peril Truce Talks, He Tells Commons

CONCESSIONS MADE

Jews of Military Age Held at Cyprus Camp Will Be Released

LONDON, Jan. 18 — (AP) Foreign Secretary Bevin headed off a House of Commons showdown debate today on his Palestine policies with an assurance Britain plans no "aggressive action" to support her Arab allies.

He won from angry parliamentary critics a reluctant agreement to defer a full dress debate on the Middle East problem until next week. Then he will face challengers of every political hue, including a large bloc in his own labor party, who seem determined to unseat him.

A public discussion of the issue now, Bevin contended, might imperil Egyptian-Jewish armistice talks under way at Rhodes.

Rhodes Progress Reported

"We have been using all our influence in conjunction with the United States," Bevin said, "in the hope of arriving at a complete armistice between the Jews and the Arabs."

He reported "good progress" in those efforts.

Dispatches from Rhodes said the armistice talks seemed to be going smoothly as both sides grappled with issues which wrecked prior peace efforts—definition of Israel's boundaries and withdrawal of troops from the Negev desert.

Israel announced she would permit a United Nations convoy to deliver food, tobacco and medical supplies to 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja by encircling Israeli forces.

The government of Israel expressed regret over the shooting down of five British planes near the Palestine border Jan. 7, but still insisted it was Britain's fault.

Sir Oliver Franks, the British ambassador to the United States, conferred in Washington with Under Secretary of State Robert A. Lovett. He told reporters later he had "some feeling of optimism" over prospects for a Palestine settlement.

Agree to Release Jews

Bevin told the House that Britain has made a concession—agreement to release Jewish immigrants of military age from internment at Cyprus "as soon as the Jews provide transport for them."

These men were interned during Britain's Palestine mandate for trying to enter the Holy Land without certificates. Israel has complained that, since the mandate ended, Britain could claim no valid excuse for holding them further.

Bevin told a questioner he did not ask the Arabs for permission to release the refugees.

Winston Churchill, war time prime minister and one of Bevin's most bitter critics, agreed to defer a showdown.

He gave warning, however, that "we shall have to ask for a debate next week."

Churchill, who had made a prior request that Britain abandon a "sulky" attitude and recognize the state of Israel, renewed the demand today.

"The house," he added, "must not be prevented from discussing matters of real and burning interest by vague statements of great improvements that are on the way or that important, delicate discussions are going on."

Churchill noted that British troops have been sent to Aqaba, Red Sea port of the Arabian kingdom of Trans-Jordan, with which Britain has a military alliance.

Caustically he insisted on Bevin's promise that, "having gone to Aqaba, we do not scuttle from it under any threats of mere violence."

"I am almost too fat to scuttle anywhere," Bevin retorted.

Laborite Barnet Janner, longtime defender of Israel's cause, asked Bevin's pledge that no more troops would be shifted in the Middle East in a way which "would appear to encourage" the Arabs against the Jews.

"There would be no need to move any troops at all," Bevin answered, "if both sides keep the truce." He added, "I would be against either side that broke the truce."

Bevin Sees No 'Obligation' In Israel War

Other news of Palestine on Page 3.

London, Jan. 18 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Bevin said today Britain has "no obligations or intention to engage in any offensive or aggressive action" in the Middle East war over Palestine.

With this assurance, he asked the House of Commons not to press at this time for a full-scale discussion of the Labor Government's Middle East policy. He said a Palestine debate now might endanger the success of the Jewish-Egyptian peace talks on Rhodes.

Will Release Refugees

Bevin announced that Britain now is ready to release Jewish refugees of military age interned on the Island of Cyprus.

"We have been discussing the position of these immigrants with the parties concerned," he said. "The much more favorable situation that has now arisen has permitted us to send a message to the acting mediator announcing that we are prepared to allow these men to leave as soon as the Jews provide transport for them."

Fighting Ceased "On All Fronts"

He prefaced this announcement by stating that fighting in Palestine has ceased "on all fronts."

Winston Churchill, wartime Prime Minister who has urged the Government recognize the new Jewish state, described the plan to release the refugees as "not fitting in very well with the drastic military action" Bevin "has taken in other directions."

"Reinforcing Both Sides"

"Is he not reinforcing both sides at once?" Churchill asked.

This was an apparent reference to the dispatch of British troops to Aqaba, Red Sea port in southern Trans-Jordan.

Herbert Morrison, leader of the House, promised Churchill a full-dress debate on the Middle East policy next week.

At Trans-Jordan Request

Bevin said the British troops were sent to Aqaba at the request of Trans-Jordan. Britain has a mutual-assistance treaty with Trans-Jordan.

"We could not refuse," Bevin said, "and in the light of all the circumstances and the events at that moment, these troops were sent. But no troops have been sent to Palestine."

He said Britain was not obligated to ask the United Nations Security Council for permission to send forces to Aqaba. He added that "our future actions will be determined by our treaty obligations and United Nations' decisions.

Hopes For Truce

"We hope that the truce which now exists will be maintained and that no further question of military operations will arise."

Churchill, referring to his suggestion that Britain recognize Israel, asked Bevin to consider whether "a British representative to the de facto Government of Israel is not greatly needed at the present time."

Bevin replied: "In these questions of recognition it is not an easy matter, and we cannot take one side in an isolated way."

Refers To Indonesia

"There is another part of the world — Indonesia — where the whole question of de facto recognition has created very serious troubles."

Laborite Barnet Janner asked Bevin to promise that no more troops be sent to the Middle East in a way "which would appear to encourage an attitude toward Israel which is not the correct one." He also asked Bevin whether he would support negotiation of the Arab-Jewish dispute.

"Disturbing Effect"

Bevin replied he always had supported negotiations in Palestine. He added:

"There will be no need to move any troops at all if both sides keep the truce. . . . I would be against either side that broke the truce."

Facing critics who demanded a full statement on Britain's role in the Middle East, Bevin told the House of Commons:

"I am sure the House will agree with me that any discussion on these problems regarding Palestine and the Middle East may have a disturbing effect."

"Best Contribution"

Bevin said:

"The main objective of all concerned must be to secure a peaceful settlement of the whole Palestine question as soon as possible in the interests of both the contestants and of the stability of the Middle East.

"We think we can best contribute to this at the present stage by postponing discussion until the fighting has ceased. We sincerely trust that this overall truce will be maintained."

Churchill demanded a full debate on Palestine.

"Vague Statements" Hit

"The House must not be prevented from discussing matters of real and burning interest by vague statements of great improvements that are on the way and important delicate discussions that are going on," Churchill said.

Bevin's critics accused him of risking war, flouting the United Nations, endangering friendship with the United States and giving Russia a wedge in the Mediterranean.

The Government is expected to consent to or be forced into a general debate on its Palestine policy within two weeks.

PACT LIKELY WITH LEBANON

JAN 1949

Israeli Source Predicts Agreement Within Week

Haifa, Palestine, Jan. 18 (AP)—A reliable Jewish source said today Israel may sign an agreement with Lebanon this week.

The exchange of villages held by Israeli and Lebanese forces in northern Palestine recently gave rise to speculation that an armistice might be near.

Optimism In Peace Talks

Rhodes, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks slid easily today into the make-or-break issues of boundaries and withdrawal of troops from the Negeb.

Optimism still was evident. Agreement upon two previous issues helped to push the negotiations along.

Settlement of the Faluja pocket differences in favor of the Egyptians was viewed as solid evidence the Jews are seeking to wind up the discussions with an armistice as quickly as possible.

Convoy To Be Sent

The Egyptian 9th Brigade made up of about 3,000 men, has been besieged at Faluja since mid-October. Though terms of the settlement were not announced, Israel is believed to have agreed to release the troops soon.

It was announced in Tel Aviv that a United Nations convoy of food, tobacco and medical supplies will be sent from Egyptian-held Gaza Thursday to Faluja, and that the same convoy will take to Gaza about 250 wounded and sick Egyptians.

Private but unofficial sources in the Israeli capital said, too, that Israel and Trans-Jordan have scheduled armistice talks to start in the Jerusalem area soon, perhaps Thursday. Informal peace discussions have been carried on previously between the two.

Persuaded By Bunche

When Israel's representatives came to Rhodes, it was known they did not want to detach the Faluja pocket question from the matter of drawing Egyptian-Israeli boundaries and withdrawal of troops. They believed all were tied together.

Israel 'Regrets' RAF Incident

JAN 1949

Tel Aviv, Jan. 18 (AP)—Israel expressed regret today over the shooting down of five British planes near the Egyptian border January 7, but shunned the blame.

The Jewish state sent a memorandum to Secretary General Trygve Lie of the United Nations for transmission to the United Kingdom.

"Responsibility for the incident lies with those who ordered an operation which cannot but be regarded as illegitimate and ill-considered," the note said.

British Contention

[The British contended the planes were destroyed while flying over Egypt along the border. Egypt and Britain are allies. The Israelis asserted the British planes made incursions over Israeli teritory.]

The note, in part, said:

"The provisional Government of Israel regrets that any encounter should have taken place between Israeli forces and the Royal Air Force and that in the encounter a British pilot should have lost his life."

Supplies To Be Sent

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 18 (AP)—A United Nations convoy of food, tobacco and medical supplies will leave Gaza Thursday for the Faluja pocket, where Israeli troops have an Egyptian brigade trapped, it was announced today.

The same convoy will bring back about 250 wounded and sick, who will be allowed to bring their sidearms with them, the announcement said.

The convoy arrangements were made while final word was awaited from the armistice talks on Rhodes on whether the trapped brigade will be released. Dispatches from Rhodes reported an agreement on release of the troops has been reached by the Israelis and Egyptians.

Jews Are Held Ready To Free Faluja Force

Rhodes, Jan. 18 (AP)—Israel was believed today to have agreed to the immediate release of the Egyptian garrison at Faluja without waiting for conclusion of armistice negotiations with Egypt. The 9th Egyptian Brigade of about 3,000 men has been trapped at Faluja, southeast of Tel Aviv, since the Jews broke through the Egyptian line into the Negeb desert last October.

A communiqué last night merely announced an accord on "one of four points of Item 2 on the agenda."

Three Points Remain

The communiqué said the three remaining points would be considered "at a meeting which will be called by the acting mediator in agreement with the heads of the two delegations," Walter Eytan of Israel and Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Eddine of Egypt.

The points to be discussed include withdrawal of troops, arrangement of armistice lines and reduction of forces.

Release Was Demanded

Before the conference, the Egyptians had demanded release of the Faluja garrision as a condition to negotiation for an armistice. They had refused to acept a step-by-step release.

With Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, presiding, the negotiations are being conducted under Security Council resolutions of November 4 and 16. These called upon Jews and Arabs to withdraw from positions they have seized since October 14 and to negotiate an armistice. The Jews repeatedly have declared they will not give up the Negeb.

port that Israel and Trans-Jordan have scheduled armistice talks to start soon, perhaps on Thursday, in the Jerusalem area.

Informants said military representatives of Israel and Trans-Jordan will attempt to broaden the local Jerusalem truce. If the talks fail, it is believed that a United Nations conciliation commission, which is due in Jerusalem January 24, will try to mediate.

SWEDES OFFER DEFENSE PACT

Propose Alternative To Link With Atlantic Alliance

Stockholm, Jan. 18 (AP)—Oesten Unden, Swedish Foreign Minister, told Parliament today Sweden is prepared to consider a Scandinavian defense alliance as an alternative to taking part in a North Atlantic security pact.

The idea of such a regional defense bloc, taking in Norway and Denmark, received the immediate support from leaders of the two opposition parties, the Liberals and the Conservatives. Communists strongly opposed the project.

Unden said the entire problem of a military alliance had been discussed at a meeting of the three governments in Sweden January 6.

Strict Neutrality Policy

The ailiance proposed by Unden would follow traditional Swedish policy of strict neutrality in the quarrels of larger nations.

Unden pointed out, however, that it would involve Sweden in war in case either of the other two countries were attacked.

Unden said there is widespread opinion in both Norway and Denmark in favor of a larger security system, such as the proposed North Atlantic pact. This pact would embrace the United States, Great Britain and other Western European nations. Unden added that the Scandinavian line is strongly favored in Denmark.

A Swedish diplomatic source said last week Sweden is offering Norway and Denmark a full military alliance on the condition that the Scandinavian countries remain outside of any North Atlantic security alliance.

Would Win World Approval

Unden's statement to Parliament today was the first official announcement of the Scandinavian defense alliance proposal.

Unden said a Scandinavian alliance ultimately would win the approval of the world as a contribution toward the strengthening of international peace.

One provision for a Scandinavian pact, Unden said, would be considerable rearmament of Norway and Denmark. The alliance would be put in force, however, he said, before this rearmament program would be carried out.

Unden said such an alliance would mean that any warring nations would have to regard Norway, Sweden and Denmark as a military entity.

POPE PRAISES WORK OF ERP IN ITALY

Vatican City, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—Pope Pius praised the work of the European Recovery Program in Italy today, but said its ultimate aim should be "to facilitate the spiritual life of men." He spoke to James D. Zellerbach of San Francisco and sixty-one other Americans on the ERP staff here and their families. Zellerbach is leaving for the United States soon to report to Congress on the recovery program here.

"Your vast country, so rich in production and material wealth, has also shown its richness in designs and undertakings," the Pope said. "Those who give can understand the meaning of the phrase, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' Assuredly he who rewards a cup of cold water given in His name will amply recompense the generous people of the United States of America."

He added, "For complete success of any work of relief or reconstruction it is essential that you keep in mind the ultimate aim of such endeavors, which is not only to alleviate physical suffering and provide economic help, but by means of these to facilitate the spiritual life of men."

BIG 3 ZONAL MERGER TALKS BOGGED DOWN

Negotiations At Military Government Level

Reported Stalled

West counterblockades Soviet zone in Berlin.....Page 5

By J. W. GALLAGHER

Berlin, Jan. 18 (AP)—The merger of Big Three occupation zones into a western German trizonia is completely stalled, authoritative sources said tonight.

In fact, almost all major Big Three negotiations on the military government level in Germany are bogged down in disagreements among Britain, the United States and France.

The Western powers, who fought as one to take Germany apart, now are divided on putting her back together.

Six months of negotiation since the London conference agreed the western zones should have common economic, trade and military government policies have failed to produce any decisive results.

Jobholder Opposition

The merger committee appointed by the three military governors has produced few agreed papers. What few that have been agreed upon have not been passed by the military governors.

The committee is composed of Maj. Gen Nevil C. D. Brownjohn, deputy military governor for Britain; Joseph A. Panuch, special advisor for the United States, and Maurice Sabatier, Minister for France.

Authoritative sources attributed the failure to make any progress to these factors:

1. Resistance of military government jobholders of all three powers to any curtailing or merging of powers in their fields. It is obvious any merger should result in cuts in personnel and power.

Low Level Industry Controls

2. Big power reluctance to give any powers they hold exclusively in their zones into a common pool. Already any attempt to set up a combined headquarters with an integrated staff for all zones has been abandoned by the committee in the face of this resistance.

3. The resistance of France and Britain in particular to giving up their close low-level controls on German industry in favor of more general policy controls. These low-level posts afford quick access to information on new processes and improved systems of manufacture.

4. The fundamental difference between France on one side and Britain and the United States on the other as to how much power shall be given the Germans. France, favoring close supervision of all phases of German life, comes into direct opposition to United States views, in particular, favoring general loose supervision.

Government Concessions

5. The discovery by French and British negotiators within the last six months that if they refuse to agree in negotiations in Germany on the military government level they invariably are able to win further concessions in negotiations on a government level.

This latter development—that an appeal over the head of Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, wins approval in Washington—has resulted in the throwing up of virtually all German problems to governmental level.

The merger of the three western zones now appears possible only by direct negotiations between Washington, London and Paris.

BLOCKADE PUT ON RUSS ZONE

West Counters Soviet Action In Berlin Sectors

Berlin, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Western Allies clamped a counterblockade on the Russian zone of Berlin tonight.

The order came as the Russians tightened their blockade, disrupting crosstown traffic with a new policy of searching passengers in public vehicles crossing their zone line.

Men and women alike were subject to search under the Soviet order. Their pocketbooks, packages and suitcasses were seized if the passengers held no Soviet ration cards.

Germans Flee Russ Zone

The Allied counterblockade forbids shipments from the three Western sectors into the Russian zone without a permit. An American spokesman said shipment of scarce items would be halted entirely. These include radio transmitters, alloy steels, dyes and cutting tools.

The spokesman said the Allies had grown weary of seeing goods leave their zone headed for the Russian zone which then forbade the return shipment of their equivalent in raw materials. He said permits would be issued for noncritical supplies.

Germans, meanwhile, continued to flee the Soviet zone. The United States spokesman said 1,189 of them moved to the Allied sectors in the first two weeks of January.

Penalization On Grain

In another phase of the German situation, the American Military Government disclosed it will penalize German states which fail to meet allotted grain collection quotas. Its semi-monthly report said only half the grain requirements were collected up to the end of January, despite a record grain crop. Penalties will take the form of shortened rations of imported grain.

German anti-Communists and Communists both assailed the Western Allies' plan to keep a damper on Germany's chances to rearm.

The Communist press attacked the permanent military security board which will curb remilitarization, declaring it was an effort to stifle German commercial competition.

Allies Put Up Blockade On Soviet Berlin Zone

Berlin, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Western powers tonight placed a counterblockade on the Soviet sector of Berlin.

They directed that no shipments from the three Western sectors enter the Russian sector without a permit.

The shipment of scarce items, such as radio transmitters, alloy steels, dyes and cutting tools, will be halted entirely, an American spokesman said.

Retaliatory Action

"Less essential items may be exported to the Soviets at our discretion," he said.

The embargo is in retaliation for Soviet action in cutting off the shipment of goods to the three Western sectors.

The American official said: "There won't be any more one-way traffic where a generator manufactured in the Western sector goes to the Soviets and then raw matetrials coming back to the Western sectors are stopped by Soviet police.

Some Shipments To Move

"It is rather silly that finished products should be going to those who are imposing this blockade."

He said that "until now there has been a great dea lof traffic in these critical items" to the Soviet sector.

He added, however, that the action of the British, French and American commandants "will not bring an overall stoppage of traffic" from western Berlin to the Russian sector.

"It will not halt all shipments, but it will stop the movement of critical supplies," he said. "For other supplies Western sector factories will require a stamped invoice from the Allies."

Fraulein Deserted by G.I. Dies With 3 of Her Family

FRANKFURT, Jan. 18 (AP).—German police today linked the death of a Frankfurt family of four to an American soldier's desertion of his German fiancee.

A German mother, aged forty-seven; her twenty-seven-year-old daughter and the daughter's two children by a former husband, aged six and eight, were found dead of gas fumes in a Frankfurt apartment today when police forced open the door.

The German police said the tragedy apparently resulted when the soldier failed to keep a promise to marry the daughter.

Army authorities said the soldier had departed for the United States.

Letters found by the police indicated that the daughter, Liselotte Bengel, met the soldier a year and a half ago and that they became engaged.

Friends told police Liselotte sold her furniture and apartment to buy clothes for a wedding in the United States, while the soldier sought her exit permit. The mother, they asserted, mortgaged her bookshop to pay for Liselotte's dowry. On the day before they were scheduled to leave for the United States together, the soldier disappeared, the police said.

3 U. S. Airlift Flyers Are Injured In Crash

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 18 (AP). Three American flyers were injured tonight when their four-engine Berlin airlift plane crashed in flames 10 miles east of Fassberg, in the British occupation zone.

The United States Air Force reported the pilot was burned severely and the other two crewmen suffered lesser injuries. Names were withheld pending notification of their families.

The plane, an airlift "coal wagon," was returning from Berlin to Fassberg base when the crash occurred, the cause was not determined.

Up to January 12, 26 Americans and 7 Britons had been killed in airlift crashes.

Von Papen Applauded

Court Spectators Hail Him as He Appeals Conviction as Nazi

NUERNBERG, Jan. 18 (AP).—Franz von Papen was applauded by courtroom spectators today when the e:-diplomat appealed his eight-year sentence as a Nazi.

Hitler's former Ambassador to Turkey told the presiding judge that he eturned to Germany in 1945 after Turkey's break with the Third Reich because "as a German I belonged to Germany and I did not want to make use of the offers to stay abroad and save my skin."

TWO COMMUNISTS FINED IN GERMANY

JAN 1949

Convicted Of Agitation Against Allies In Ruhr

Duesseldorf, Germany, Jan. 18 (AP)—Two German Communist leaders, whose followers sought to portray them as martyrs, got off with light fines today for agitation against the Allies.

A British court imposed a $150 fine on Hugo Paul, chairman of Ruhr area Communists. Paul Salenka, his secretary, was fined $50.

Their trial was interrupted earlier in the day by a demonstration by Communists singing the Internationale in the British courthouse.

Max Reimann, western Germany's No. 1 Communist and boss of Paul and Salemka, won a postponement until January 27 of his trial for threatening German collaborators of the Allies. Defense counsel was given the added time to prepare his care.

Reimann said he expected to be convicted, but indicated he believed he would get off with a fine.

"People Will Pay It"

"The people will pay it—whatever it is," he said.

Reimann stayed in court for the start of his lieutenants's trial. At the noon recess, shouting Communists carried him from the courthouse on their shoulders. The police did not interfere, but refused to let him return to court after lunch.

Some British officials said a ban may be placed on all Communist meetings in the state of North Rhine-Westphalia, which embraces the Ruhr.

Red Ruhr Chief Cheered At Court

Dusseldorf, Germany, Jan. 18 (AP). German Communists made a carnival of propaganda today out of British prosecution of three party leaders for anti-Allied agitation.

Max Reimann, No. 2 Communist in western Germany, was carried on the shoulders of a cheering crowd of more than 600 after his trial was postponed until January 27 to allow time for defense counsel to prepare his case.

Two Plead Innocent

Two of Reimann's lieutenants in the Ruhr, Hugo Paul and Paul Salemka, pleaded innocent to a charge of illegally holding a political meeting without British permission January 2.

Heinkel Is Freed Of Nazi Charges

JAN 1949

Ansbach, Germany, Jan. 18 (AP)—Prof. Ernst Heinkel, formerly one of Germany's leading airplane constructors, today was cleared by a German de-Nazification court of appeal. In April, 1948, Heinkel had been classified as a Nazi follower.

The Ansbach court of appeal today found that Heinkel was a man with "democratic and social feelings." The court also found that Heinkel, despite his membership in the Nazi party since 1933, had "forbidden" ill-treatment of slave workers in all of his factories.

Protestants Back Hungarian Move

Budapest, Jan. 18 (AP)—Hungary's Evangelical Church today joined other Protestant church groups in the country in approving the recent arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungarian Catholic leader.

A statement signed by four Evangelical bishops said "only political catholicism has controversies with the state." It added that Cardinal Mindszenty, "whose activities would have been forbidden by every government," has been "a typical representative of this catholicism."

The Evangelical is the third largest church group in the country.

The Calvinist church group, second only to the Catholic, and leaders of the Baptist, Methodist, Adventist and Hungarian Free churches previously approved the action of the Communist-dominated Government in the Mindszenty case.

The Cardinal was jailed last month on charges of treason, plotting against the Government and black market money dealings.

Cardinal Mindszenty since his arrest has been held in seclusion, unable to answer the charges against him.

The statement by the Evangelical bishops said only "ignorance or political prejudice" could assert there is "persecution of religion in Hungary." It added that "priests are not hindered in fulfilling their tasks and they preach freely in packed churches."

Serbia Told Trade Shift Was Forced

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 18 (AP). Peter Stambolic, President of Serbia, said today trade restrictions by other members of the Soviet bloc in Eastern Europe have forced Yugoslavia to turn more to the West for needed goods.

Stambolic is a follower of Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia and head of Yugoslavia's biggest republic. Relations between Tito and the Soviet Union have been strained in recent months.

He told delegates to the Serbian Communist party congress that it was not Yugoslavia's fault that economic relations with other "peoples democracies" had deteriorated.

He added that no one had a right to attack Yugoslavia for dealing with capitalist countries since the Soviet Union, itself, is trading with "imperialistic countries who are not friendly to her."

Russia recently slashed her trade agreement with Yugoslavia to one eighth that of 1948.

SOPHOULIS TO SEEK NEW GREEK REGIME

ATHENS, Jan. 18. — (AP) -Themistokles Sophoulis, aging liberal who resigned as premier Saturday, is to try to form a broadened new Greek government to include all parties except the extreme right wingers.

King Paul I entrusted Sophoulis with the assignment today.

Alexander Diomedes, a retired banker, was appointed deputy minister, with responsibility for the whole economic field. He, like Sophoulis, is a liberal. He will supervise the economic ministries.

Sophoulis, 88 and suffering from a heart condition, had resigned in a cabinet dispute over social measures he sponsored and the naming of a generalissimo to take full command of the Greek army's anti-guerrilla campaign.

It is understood Gen. Alexander Papagos, who once declined the appointment, will be named generalissimo and will enjoy the powers and full authority he demanded as a condition to acceptance of the position.

Chiang Regime Set To Quit Nanking

Nanking, Jan. 18 (AP)—Nationalist North China was falling apart today, and foreign diplomats expected momentarily to be notified that the Nanking Government was being dispersed for safety reasons.

An order to this effect, an authoritative Foreign-Office source said, is being prepared. But, he added, that does not mean Nanking is being abandoned as the capital. It will remain as such as long as President Chiang Kai-shek stays here.

Neither, he said, will the Chinese Foreign Office ask foreign diplomats to pull out of the potential battleground. Instead, they will be told that the Chinese Government no longer can be responsible for the safety of those who choose to remain. Almost all embassies are expected to stay on.

Cheng Calls On Bevin

[In London, Chinese Ambassador Cheng Tien-hsi called on Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin today. Responsible diplomats reported Cheng told Bevin Chiang Kai-shek's Government soon will be moved out of Nanking.

[These sources said the visit was designed primarily to give Britain a chance—if she chooses—to pull out her diplomatic representatives at Nanking and to take emergency steps to safeguard, so far as possible, private business interests there.]

Loss Of Peiping Expected

Meanwhile, the old capital of Peiping, encircled by Red armies, is expected to fall or surrender momentarily. A newspaper published by Peiping's commander, Gen. Fu Tso-yi, hinted as much, dispatches from there said.

Nanking filled with more defending National troops as the Government pulled back its forces from north of the Yangtze.

There was some dissension in foreign quarters as National troops moved into the Nanking area. Foreign-owned and Chinese properties were seized as billets.

Americans Protest

Various foreign embassies, including the American, protested the seizures. One diplomat said the Chinese Foreign Office was co-operating excellently. Nevertheless, Chinese troops moved in and held the Standard Oil Company's Pukow installations.

On the Nanking side, an artillery unit started to move into another Standard Oil installation where a considerable stock of gasoline is stored, but prompt action of the Foreign Ministry halted the move.

The Government Foreign Office, as usual, had no comment on the reported plan of dispersing the National Government. But usually reliable sources said the notification will say that the Foreign Office itself is being moved southward—probably to Canton—while other National ministries are being scattered into areas well below the Yangtze River.

Defense Actions Continue

Despite mushrooming peace movements from dozens of official and semi-official organizations, preparations for the defense of Nanking continued. Only another change of mind by Chiang will prevent this capital from becoming another Tientsin.

Garrison Commander Tan Gen-Po, who has now absorbed the former East China command from Suchow's defender, Gen. Liu Shih, is willing to fight.

Evacuation of Nanking speeded up during the day as the Communications Ministry ordered a special train daily to carry Government workers to Shanghai.

Nanking Observers Hold Defense 'Exceedingly Weak'

Nanking, China, Jan. 18 (AP)—Observers said today Nanking may become another "Tientsin"—a prey to artillery fire and encirclement.

They watched the hasty defense preparations around the capital and found them "exceedingly weak."

Gen. Tang En-po, charged with defending the capital, is willing to fight. But observers note he has little left to fight with—even for a holding action.

He is believed to have 150,000 men to guard the Yangtze River line. The Communists can throw at him twice that number of men, mostly veterans fresh from wiping out some of Chiang Kai-shek's best troops on the Suchow front.

Dispersion Predicted

As if to underscore the gravity of Nanking's plight, diplomatic sources heard they would be notified soon that Government offices were being dispersed as a safety measure.

The notification is expected to say that the Foreign Office itself is being moved south, probably to Canton, one informed source said.

Diplomatic sources said it was unlikely there would be an announcement in Nanking of the move. They expect it to come in the form of notifications to each ambassador. The notifications are now being prepared, Foreign Office informants said.

Expected To Remain

Most foreign embassies already have decided—since the move has been in the wind for weeks—to reply that because of physical difficulties of moving at this late hour they will remain in Nanking.

They may yet, however, receive contrary instructions from their capitals. In that case they then would follow the Foreign Office or President Chiang Kai-shek southward.

One official emphasized the dispersal of the Government would not necessarily mean the capital was being moved. The capital will remain at Nanking as long as Chiang is here.

There is no sign from Chiang as to what he will do.

His forces north of the Yangtze, however, are still pulling back to the south to escape possible entrapment.

It was reported Government troops had withdrawn, from Kaoyu, a city on the Grand Canal 60 miles northeast of Nanking. It appeared the Nationalists are moving out of the entire Grand Canal area.

[Communist troops have been moving down the canal steadily for a number of weeks. They may make their first appearance in force on the Yangtze's north bank near the point where the canal empties into the Yangtze 35 miles east of Nanking.]

Seizures Protested

Nationalist troops pouring into Nanking were seizing both foreign and Chinese properties for billets. Various embassies, including the American, are protesting such seizures.

The soldiers arrived as more and more Government workers were pulling out. The Ministry of Communications ordered a special train daily to carry Government workers to Shanghai.

FALL OF PEIPING BELIEVED NEAR

Peiping, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—There were strong indications today that Peiping would surrender or fall to the Communists shortly.

National Commander Gen. Fu Tso-yi's own newspaper, Ping Min Jih Pao, hinted at the expected turn of events, asserting the National Government in Nanking had authorized Peiping officials to decide for themselves on peace or war.

Whatever the decision, the Communists made it plain that they would dictate terms. The Reds turned deaf ears to a proposed mission from Peiping to talk terms and reportedly said they wanted total surrender.

With Tientsin, ninety miles southeast, and Tangku, Tientsin's port, already in Communist hands, the ration-short Peiping populace had little choice.

Peiping Mission Behind Red Lines Asking For Peace

Peiping, Wednesday, Jan. 19 (AP). A peace mission of prominent Peiping citizens was behind Communist lines today.

The eleven-member delegation, bearing flags inscribed "Delegates of the North China Peace Promotion Committee," left this besieged city late Monday night. [Censorship apparently prevented reporting the development earlier.]

The delegates probably will return to Peiping sometime today. More than likely they will bring back a Communist demand for unconditional surrender.

The delegation was provided special passes by Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Government North China commander, who refused to grant passes to correspondents.

Three women are in the delegation. They are Madames Feng Lien-hsi and Lu Shi-jan, representing the Peiping Women's Association, and Miss Kang Tung-pi, daughter of the eminent scholar, Kang Yu-we, who tutored the Manchu emperor, Kuang Hsu.

Recruit Killed in Japan.

Sendai, Japan, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—Army recruit James W. Welch of Eden, Ala., was killed January 14 when the jeep he was driving plunged down a 150-foot slope thirty miles north of here, it was announced today.

Britain Offers Korean Recognition

Seoul, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—The Foreign Office of the Republic of Korea reported today that Britain has offered diplomatic recognition of the republic. The United States, China and the Philippines previously recognized the republic, founded last summer.

British Governors to Meet

SINGAPORE, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Governors of British territories in Southeast Asia will meet here Jan. 21-23 with British Commissioner Malcolm MacDonald. Mr. MacDonald's office said that the meeting was "one of a series at which questions of policy concerning the area will be discussed." J. J. Paskin, Assistant Under-Secretary of State of the British Colonial Office, also will attend. He is expected here Jan. 21 from Hong Kong.

Jap Doctor, Convicted Of War Crimes, Hanged

Pearl Harbor, Jan. 18 (AP)—Dr. Iwanami Hiroshi, convicted of performing medical experiments on captured United States airmen before they were executed, was hanged on Guam Monday, the Navy said today.

Hiroshi was a captain in the Japanese Navy and commander of the hospital on Truk, the old Japanese island fortress where the executions took place.

Discussion By Asians

New Delhi, India, Jan. 18 (AP)—Representatives of twenty Asiatic countries are gathering in India this week to consider what they could or should do about Dutch military action in Indonesia.

The Government announced tonight that nineteen nations had accepted India's invitation for an Asian conference, opening Thursday.

Economic sanctions, which would shut off the vital flow of rice to Dutch-held Indonesia, might prove to be one of their answers.

Hopes For Practical Steps

India's Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, who called the conference, said he hopes "practical and creative" steps will result. He has not said what these should be.

China, New Zealand, Siam and Nepal are represented by observers. India and fifteen other countries have delegates. They are Australia, the Phillipines, Burma, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Ceylon, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, trans-Jordan, Saudi Arabia, Yemen, Egypt and Ethiopia.

India said Turkey alone of the countries invited is not represented.

Some Western observers ask whether the Dutch action in Indonesia may have inspired something that will snowball into an Asiatic bloc.

Nehru said he has no thought of setting up a rival or parallel body to compete with any existing international organization. Other Indian officials said the sole objective is "to strengthen the hands of the United Nations Security Council" in dealing with the Dutch.

Racial Split Possible

Siam's Premier, Pibul Songgram, has said the meeting conceivably could cause a racial split among the United Nations.

"The world may become divided into three instead of two camps, and the cause of global peace and stability may suffer," he said.

Some Indians expressed concern on other grounds. They speculated whether the meeting might expose cleavages among Near East and Asian nations. Among the conferees are men whose countries have had clashing interests—supporters of nationalism and internationalism, of socialism and conservatism. The "White Australia" policy has angered many Asian neighbors.

India indicates she will try to keep conversations on a single topic—what business does a Western colonial power have waging a military action in the Orient?

Indonesian Conference

Batavia, Java, Jan. 18 (AP)—Premier William Drees, of the Netherlands, met Sutan Sjahrir, former Premier of the Indonesian Republic, for "informational talks" here today.

The meeting was the first between high Dutch and Republican figures since the Netherlands launched her military action a month ago to gain control of Republican territory.

Sjahrir and Dutch officials declined to discuss the subjects brought up, but described the conversations as clarifying.

Not Asked For Pledge

Sjahir said he had not been asked to sign a pledge to refrain from political activity. The United Nations good-offices committee said Sunday that a half dozen Republican leaders held by the Dutch on Bangka island, including Premier Mohammed Hatta, had refused to sign such pledges.

[The absence of a pledge in Sjahrir's case might indicate the Dutch were considering him to do the political spadework for getting the Indonesian Republic into their federal-interim regime for the islands.]

Committee Standing By

A spokesman said the good offices committee was standing by, waiting to offer its services, as requested by the Security Council, to facilitate communication between Republican leaders held by the Dutch and representatives in Batavia and Lake Success and to aid Republican officials who might wish to go to Lake Success.

So far, the spokesman said, such services have not been sought.

[A dispatch from New Delhi said India's Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, had received an appeal from S. P. Negara, of the fugitive Republican Government to urge Asiatic nations to intervene in the conflict. The letter said the Security Council is "impotent to do anything more than offer its good offices committee."]

Refugees Pose New Problem In S. Africa

Durban, South Africa, Jan. 18 (AP)—Authorities tackled the problem of thousands of refugees today after finally stamping out Durban's race war.

With 1,400 regular troops patrolling the streets, along with police and sailors, the situation was under control after five days of rioting by black natives and Indians.

But thousands of terrified Indian refugees refused to leave the camps where they were being protected and return to their homes. Huddled in hastily created concentration areas, they presented a problem of sanitation, food and water.

Death Estimates Vary

The authorities and Indian leaders disagreed on the number of casualties and refugees from the feuding. Police said more than 100 persons were killed. P. R. Rather, secretary of the South African Indian Congress, estimated the death toll at three times that.

Red Cross officials said at least 25,000 Indians were in twelve main refugee camps. Indian sources estimated 40,000 were in 46 camps in Durban and the surrounding area. Many no longer had homes to return to as a result of arson and destruction.

SENATE CONFIRMS ACHESON, 83 TO 6

New Secretary of State to Be Sworn In Tomorrow or Friday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 — (AP) Dean Acheson, 55-year-old lawyer-diplomat, won senate confirmation as the new secretary of state by an overwhelming 83 to 6 vote today.

Before the vote Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) served notice that confirmation does not necessarily mean approval of future developments in administration foreign policy. He praised Acheson, but said President Truman's foreign policies may be "impromptu and unpredicted."

But Chairman Connally (D-Tex), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, hailed the vote as a "ratification of our foreign policy of firmness and vigor." He called Acheson eminently qualified to handle the "gigantic" duties of the nation's No. 1 diplomatic post.

To Be Sworn in Soon

Acheson is expected to be sworn in Thursday or Friday as the fifth secretary of state the nation has had in five years. He succeeds ailing Gen. George C. Marshall, who resigned following a serious operation.

Six Republicans cast the only votes against Acheson. They were Senators Bridges (NH), Capehart (Ind), Jenner (Ind), Knowland (Calif), Langer (ND) and Wherry (Neb).

Wherry told his colleagues he was going to vote against confirmation because, he said, "it is common knowledge that Mr. Acheson has been an appeaser of Russia."

Other Republicans who had been lukewarm toward President Truman's choice for the all-important diplomatic role had apparently changed their minds, however, in the light of Acheson's own testimony last week.

In public and secret sessions of the Senate Foreign Committee Acheson had vigorously denied that he was an "appeaser" and had blasted communism as "fatal" to a free society and to human rights.

Favored by Vandenberg

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich), generally regarded as the Republican foreign policy spokesman, spoke out for Acheson but took occasion to make clear that he was giving no blanket endorsement to future handling of foreign affairs.

Vandenberg said he is convinced that Acheson will pursue "whatever policies are directed by the president of the United States." Then he told the senate that it cannot—through action on an appointment—"control foreign policy."

"Therefore," he said, "it should be made wholly obvious that we do not underwrite results in terms of foreign policy which will flow from our confirmation of this or any other nominee."

In dealing with contentions that Acheson might be "a softie toward communism," Vandenberg quoted Acheson's own testimony given to senators last week. At that time, Acheson declared:

"The things I read about myself as an appeaser are so incredible that it is difficult for me to believe that even disinterested malevolence could think them up."

Vandenberg went on to praise Acheson's "long and distinguished" career in public service and said he has always found him "reliable, helpful, cooperative and trustworthy." Thus, he said, Acheson is entitled to be "affirmatively recommended."

After stressing his belief that Acheson will follow the Truman line on foreign policy, Vandenberg commented that Acheson has demonstrated he has a rugged character, and the Michigan legislator added succinctly:

"When he fundamentally disagrees, he knows how to resign."

Wherry Critical

Senator Wherry, Republican floor leader, told the senate he still has "a grave doubt in my mind" as to Acheson's views toward Russia.

And Senator Capehart announced he was voting against Acheson because, he said, he recalled that during the election campaign last fall President Truman repeatedly attacked Wall Street interests.

Capehart said Acheson was a partner in a law firm which participated in obtaining U. S. loans "to communist - dominated governments." This was an evident reference to a $90,000,000 loan to red-ruled Poland, which was handled by Acheson's firm while he was under secretary of state in 1946. Acheson had left the firm at that time, however.

Capehart said he proposed to join in Mr. Truman's "crusade" against Wall Street by voting Acheson "right out of the government."

Senator Taylor (D-Idaho), vice presidential running mate of Henry A. Wallace on the progressive party ticket in the November election, told the senate he was voting for Acheson mainly because he is a civilian.

Parley Expected Soon On Cut In Reparations

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—The State Department announced today it expects to begin talks this month with Britain and France on the new proposal to let Germany keep some of the industrial plants now earmarked for reparations.

Foreign Aid Administrator Paul G. Hoffman submitted the proposals yesterday. They are reported to call for keeping at work in Germany some 150 steel and other plants.

Officials said the recommendations are considered to be reasonable and the United States will press the British and French to accept them.

Stiff Argument Expected

Press Officer Michael J. McDermott told State Department reporters that Hoffman's report does not recommend lifting the 10,700,000-ton ceiling on crude steel production by Germany, which the United States, Britain and France set in December, 1947.

A stiff argument is expected from the British and French. The American idea is that European recovery will be speeded if the plants are left in Germany.

Britain and France protested vigorously last fall before agreeing to hold up the dismantling of a limited number of plants until it was decided which should be kept in operation in Germany.

Objections Expected

Sixteen other wartime foes of the Nazis also share in reparations—and some are expected to object to any reduction of their share.

The issue has been under preliminary discussion for months, however, and for that reason officials say they expect negotiations to go more smoothly than if the Hoffman recommendations were a surprise.

Hoffman's proposals were those of a five-man advisory group headed by George M. Humphrey, Cleveland industrialist.

Opposes 'Smears,' New Prober Says

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—Representative John McSweeney (D., Ohio), assigned to the "new" House Un-American Activities Committee, called today for pushing the 1948 Communist spy hunt to a "logical conclusion."

"I will co-operate with other members who feel as I do about exposing our hidden enemies," he told a reporter, "but at the same time I will not permit innocent men and women to have their names and characters besmirched by unfounded and unsupported accusations."

The Ohioan was in the House in 1923-29 and in 1937-38. He is 58 years old and a lawyer.

Republican leaders said they had not yet filled their party's two vacancies on the un-American activities group. Republican holdovers are Nixon, of California, and Thomas, of New Jersey, who is ill in a Washington hospital and under Federal indictment on charges of falsifying pay-roll records of his office.

Minority Leader Martin (R., Mass.) told reporters Thomas has said he wants to remain on the committee, which he headed for the past two years during Republican control of Congress, but other Republicans said they might take a cue from the Democrats and fill the vacancies with lawyers. Nixon is a lawyer, but Thomas is not.

ECA Approves Grants Of $3,888,000 More

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Economic Co-Operation Administration today approved new foreign grants of $3,888,000 to three European nations and China, bringing to $4,376,682,000 total funds committed under the Marshall plan.

The Netherlands received the largest allotment, $3,782,000, to buy agricultural tractors in the United States.

The other allotments: Greece, $933,000 for a wide variety of industrial machinery and recovery commodities from the United States; Austria, $752,000 for petroleum products, agricultural and mechanical equipment, and China, $17,000 for technical services.

Previous grants to France were reduced by $657,000 and $939,000 was cut from prior allocations to Norway.

FUND IS ASKED FOR ROCKET TEST RANGE

$200,000,000 Requested In Air Force Guided-Missile Program

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—The Air Force asked Congress today for $200,000,000 to start a new test range for guided missiles which scientists say some day may be fired around the world.

Rocket war weapons haven't reached the global stage as yet, but W. Stuart Symington, Secretary of the Air Force, gave this pointed reminder in making the fund request:

"Certain other nations have availed themselves of the services of German scientists and technicians and are making vigorous efforts to produce guided missiles in inter-continental ranges."

Other Nation's Not Identified

He did not identify the "other nations" but Russia is known to be putting to use scores of German experts who helped pioneer the Buzz-bombs for Hitler's forces.

Symington also did not reveal where the Air Force plans to erect a longer test range than the ones currently used at Alamogordo and White Sands, New Mexico. He simply said it would be more than 150 miles long and would be used jointly by the armed services.

Defense officials, however, are believed to have their eyes on other spots in the Southwestern United States, or possibly even in Mexico.

They declined to identify the areas tentatively selected, but agreed the features of a good site include constant good weather, fairly flat country and few inhabitants.

Site Suggested

A few scientists believe such a site might be found along the Gulf of California between the Mexican mainland and the Lower California "finger."

In this sparsely settled area, range stations could be set up along the coast and the missiles fired down the gulf. Such an arrangement, however, would interfere with fishing in the waters and would require consent of the Mexican Government. There has been no indication that Mexico would agree to this.

It could not be learned whether the Air Force even has been considering the Gulf of California in its missile planning but the authority being sought from Congress would allow the range to be set up anywhere in the world.

Navy Contracts Largest Blimp

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP) — The Navy has ordered the world's largest blimp for patrol work along with 136 planes, 9 helicopters and other equipment.

This was disclosed today in response to questions about distribution of about $80,000,000 recently approved for aviation purchases by President Truman.

Navy officials said the blimp, which will cost $3,388,000, will be 324 feet long and 71 feet wide, with an 87-foot double-deck control car.

Smaller Than Dirigibles

The airship will be twice the size of those used on anti-submarine patrol during the war, but only about one seventh as large as the dirigibles Akron and Macon which were destroyed in crash landings.

The announced orders totaling $72,477,000 include:

One hundred twenty Chance Vought F4Z-5N Corsairs, a night fighter version of the latest model, costing $30,699,000.

Sixteen Lockheed TF-80C Shooting Star two-place jet trainers, costing $4,015,000.

Nine Bell HTL-3 helicopters, costing $634,000.

The orders also include $16,332,000 for plant facilities; $6,636,000 for electronic equipment; $9,800,000 for spare parts, and $1,003,000 for pilotless aircraft.

Marshall Lauds Staff's Ability

Washington, Jan. 18 (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall, Secretary of State, in a farewell message to State Department workers, today praised their ability and rejected "aspersions" which he said had been directed their way by "some public commentators and politicians."

The general did not identify the commentators or politicians in this note to Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary of State:

"As I will be out of the country at the time of my resignation and will not again be in the Department before that date, I wish you would convey to all the personnel my very real appreciation of the support they gave me during the last two rather trying years. Please say that I especially appreciated the loyalty and good will with which they met my requests and the long hours they gave to the work.

"I am familiar with large organizations and the complications necessarily involved in their work. In complete contrast to the aspersions of some public commentators and politicians, I found talent efficiency, energy and co-operation present in a large measure and completely at my disposal. It but remained for me to make the best of it."

DISPUTES MACARTHUR

La Jolla, Cal., Jan. 18 (A. P.).—Gen. Holland M. (Howlin' Mad) Smith said last night that Gen. MacArthur was not correct when he denied that Marines participated in recapture of the Philippines.

MacArthur told the Associated Press in Tokyo that the only ground forces involved were the Sixth and Eighth armies, neither of which, he said, possessed Marine units.

Smith, in an interview with the San Diego Union, said the bulk of the corps' artillery of the Fifth Amphibian Corps, commanded by Brig.-Gen. Thomas E. Bourke, U. S. M. MUNDT SAYS SOVIET EYES PHILIPPINES

Detroit, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—Senator Mundt (R.-S. D.) raises a question whether Soviet Russia has designs on the Philippine Islands. He brought it up at a lecture series talk here last night in which he discussed events in China and predicted future moves of Communism.

Russia, Mundt said, next will try for control in India and Pakistan and then, he added, with Asia Communist "what is to prevent Russia from going after the mandated islands and then the Philippine Islands?"

Mundt, former acting chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, repeated a charge that America has an ineffective foreign policy due to influence from "Communist agents."

"I am utterly dismayed," he said, "at the decision of our Government to give China to the Red wolf, but this is the work of those Communist agents who sold our State Department with a do-nothing policy."

Six Quaker Students Jailed in Draft Case

Ottuma, Iowa, Jan. 18 (A. P.).—Six students at Penn College in Oskaloosa, a small Quaker institution, are under Federal prison sentences of eighteen months each on charges of failing to register for the draft. A seventh pleaded not guilty.

The sentences were imposed yesterday by Judge Charles A. Dewey, who earlier told the youths: "I hate to do it, but I can't let you flagrantly defy the law of the land."

37 Finns Nearing U.S. In Flight To Freedom

Miami, Fla., Jan. 18 (AP)—Thirty-seven Finns who said they fled their homeland to escape Russian persecution are en route to Miama on the last leg of a four-month trip from Finland.

Walter F. Miller, district immigration director, said eighteen men, eleven women and eight children are due here in five or six days aboard the motor schooner Eva from Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic.

Miller said the Finns hope to make their homes in the United States but have no official documents.

He said he has asked immigration and naturalization headquarters in Washington for instructions and expects an answer in a day or so.

U.N. Studying Plan For Indonesia

Lake Success, Jan. 18 (AP)—United Nations delegates huddled in private meetings today, completing the final draft of a new resolution designed to end the strife in Indonesia.

The proposal reportedly would be sponsored jointly by the United States, China, Norway and Cuba. It is slated to be introduced in the eleven-nation Security Council when that body resumes debate on the Indonesian question tomorrow.

Based On U.S. Plan

The spokesman indicated the new proposal would be based on the general outline of an American suggestion urging the creation of an independent United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950. The plan stipulates that the establishment of such a federation be preceded by a progressive withdrawal of Netherlands troops.

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 18 (AP)—Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, postponed tonight for 24 hours a Security Council meeting on Indonesia. Informed sources said this step was taken because the United States plan for a settlement does not yet have enough backing to pass the Council.

AILING FOSTER GIVEN DELAY

11 Communists Face Trial; Chief Wins Severance

New York, Jan. 18 (AP)—William Z. Foster, aging and ailing head of American Communists, will be tried on conspiracy charges separately from eleven other indicted party leaders, a Federal judge ruled today.

At the same time Judge Harold R. Medina denied applications for a postponement of the trial of the eleven others, members of the party's national board.

Defense attorneys asked delays ranging from 15 to 90 days, contending they had not had enough time to prepare their case.

"I will not only not grant a 15-day or 30-day continuance," Medina said, "I will not grant any continuance."

Jurors To Return Thursday

Before he heard arguments on the postponement, Medina sent home a panel of 525 prospective jurors and directed them not to report back until Thursday morning.

Later, defense counsel applied to Federal Judge John C. Knox, chief of judges, to hear their petition that a judge not of the Southern Federal District of New York sit to hear their challenge of the Federal jury system and the way of picking panels in the district.

The defense counsel said the Communist party filed affidavits charging that the jury system in the Southern District "systematically excludes the poor, Negroes, Jews, women and members of minority parties."

Petition Rejected

Defense counsel were granted 10 minutes to go see Judge Knox. The attorneys, however, did not get in to see him.

Medina called them back into the courtroom after the 10-minute recess and said Knox had refused to consider the motion.

All twelve Communist leaders are charged with working for the forcible overthrow of the Government. Their trial opened yesterday. They are all free on $5,000 bail. They face ten years' imprisonment and a $10,000 fine each, if convicted.

The severance of Foster's case was granted by Medina on request of John F. X. McGohey, United States Attorney, who also asked that the trial of the others proceed.

Defense Attacks Separation

McGohey had indicated yesterday he would ask for a separate trial for Foster, 67, when the latter failed to appear in court along with the other defendants. Foster is suffering from a heart ailment.

When McGohey entered his motions today, defense counsel immediately launched a bitter attack against them. They contended the Government was acting in "unseemly" haste in asking for separate trials.

George W. Crockett, Jr., one of the defense attorneys, said Foster was "absolutely indispensable" to the defense of the other eleven.

"He has a fund of information as national chairman of the Communist party that no one else can have," Crockett said.

Unable To Appear

In arguing against the Government's motion that the trial proceed against the eleven without Foster, Louis McCabe, attorney for the national chairman, said he had had only a few short conferences with Foster in preparing the defense.

These talks were inadequate, he said, because Foster's failing health had caused curtailment of the conferences.

Answering defense charges of "unseemly" haste, McGohey said he had announced at a hearing November 15, 1948, when the case was adjourned because of Foster's condition, that he would move to sever the case against him should the defendant's condition not improve by January.

He said that the affidavits of four physicians, two of them court-appointed, who examined Foster earlier this month, meant that "in the foreseeable future Foster is not going to be able to come into this court."

Could Be Tried Promptly

Again referring to the charge of "unseemly" haste, he added:

"The very nature of the charge is such that it should be tried promptly as it could be tried, now after six months."

The twelve Communists were indicted last July by a Federal grand jury on the specific charges of conspiring to organize the Communist party to advocate the overthrow of the Government by force or violence.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JAN 19-(AP)-LONDON NEWSPAPERS SAID TODAY THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN WASHINGTON HAD LAID BEFORE THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT A PLAN FOR A MIDDLE EAST SETTLEMENT WHICH INCLUDED BRITISH RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL AND BACKING OF THE ISRAELI BID FOR UNITED NATIONS MEMBERSHIP.
THE NEWSPAPERS SAID BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS PRESENTED THE PROGRAM TO AMERICAN UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LOVETT IN WASHINGTON YESTERDAY.
THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY MAIL CALLED THE PROGRAM "THE TERMS UNDER WHICH THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT WOULD BE PREPARED TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL."
THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY GRAPHIC SAID BRITAIN WAS UNDERSTOOD TO HAVE SUGGESTED THE FOLLOWING POINTS:
1. A BRITISH-AMERICAN GURANTEE OF WHATEVER FRONTIERS THE ARABS AND JEWS AGREE ON.
2. NON-AGGRESSION TREATIES BETWEEN ISRAEL AND HER ARAB NEIGHBORS.
3. INTERNATIONAL GUARANTEES OF FREE ACCESS TO JERUSALEM.
4. BRITISH RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL.
5. U.S. AND BRITISH SUPPORT OF ISRAEL'S U.N. APPLICATION.

THE GRAPHIC SAID ALSO THE AMBASSADOR WAS "BELIEVED TO HAVE SUGGESTED A PLACE MIGHT BE FOUND" IN THE PROGRAM FOR GRANTING OF THE $100,000,000 (M) LOAN ISRAEL HAS ASKED OF THE UNITED STATES.
THE MAIL REPORTED SIR OLIVER TOLD LOVETT THE U.S. MUST MAKE A PLAIN STATEMENT THAT SHE INTENDS TO "BACK THE U.N. TO THE HILT AND CARRY OUT U.N. DECISIONS WITHOUT FEARS OR FAVOR."

LONDON,JAN.18-(AP)-THE BRITISH-AMERICAN AIRLIFT BUILT UP A 38-DAY SUPPLY OF FOOD IN BERLIN BY THE END OF LAST YEAR, THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID TONIGHT.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THIS IS A "SLIGHTLY BETTER" FOOD POSITION THAN EXISTED AT THE BEGINNING OF THE RUSSIAN BLOCKADE OF BERLIN LAST SPRING.
IN THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF THE BLOCKADE CARGO PLANES CARRIED 550,000 TONS OF SUPPLIES TO BERLINERS, AN AVERAGE OF 3,000 TONS A DAY. COAL ACCOUNTED FOR 320,000 TONS.
BECAUSE THE U.S. AIR FORCE HANDLES THE BULK OF THE COAL, THE AMERICAN SHARE IN THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF THE AIRLIFT WAS 72 PER CENT, THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID.
BRITISH AND AMERICAN AIRCRAFT SHARED AT THE RATE OF 42 AND 58 PER CENT, RESPECTIVELY, IN SUPPLYING FOOD. FLOUR AND STARCHY FOODSTUFFS MADE UP 60 PER CENT OF THE FOOD.
THE RATION LEVEL OF THE NORMAL BERLIN CONSUMER WAS RAISED DURING THE SIX MONTHS FROM 1,600 CALORIES DAILY TO 1,880 CALORIES. SINCE CERTAIN CLASSIFICATIONS OF WORKERS DOING HEAVY WORK GET HIGHER RATIONS THAN THE NORMAL CONSUMER, THE AVERAGE FOR THE WHOLE BERLIN POPULATION WAS 2,000 CALORIES DAILY, PLUS 100 CALORIES FROM OFF-RATION SOURCES. THIS COMPARES WITH APPROXIMATELY 2,400 CALORIES FOR THE AVERAGE IN THE COMBINED BRITISH-AMERICAN ZONES OF GERMANY OUTSIDE OF BERLIN.
THE OFF-RATION SOURCES INCLUDE THE BLACK MARKET, PRIVATE FARM CONTRACTS, AND PRIVATE GARDENS.

CLEMENT DAVIES, LEADER OF THE SMALL LIBERAL PARTY, ALSO HAS GIVEN NOTICE HE WILL ASK BEVIN TODAY TO GIVE ASSURANCES BRITISH FORCES WILL NOT BE ORDERED TO ENGAGE IN MILITARY OPERATIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE QUESTIONS ALREADY POSED BY MP'S FOR THIS WEEK INCLUDE SUCH SUBJECTS AS:

1. R.A.F. FLIGHTS OVER EMBATTLED TROOPS IN THE EGYPTIAN-PALESTINE BORDER AREA WHICH RESULTED IN THE LOSS OF FIVE BRITISH PLANES 11 DAYS AGO.

2. THE MOVEMENT OF BRITISH TROOPS TO THE TRANS-JORDAN PORT OF AQABA, NEAR THE SOUTHERN TIP OF THE HOLY LAND.

3. BRITAIN'S CHARGE ISRAEL GOT ARMS FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

CHURCHILL'S QUESTION WAS NOT MADE PUBLIC IN SPECIFIC TERMS.

DAVIES' QUESTION ASKED WHY BRITISH TROOPS WERE SENT TO AQABA AND "WHETHER THE PRIOR CONSENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL WAS OBTAINED."

THE HOUSE OF LORDS, WHICH ALSO RECONVENES TODAY, HAS A FOREIGN POLICY DEBATE SET FOR TOMORROW IN WHICH THE MIDDLE EAST ISSUE IS SURE TO BE RAISED.

THE REVOLT IN BEVIN'S OWN PARTY IS DUE TO COME TO A HEAD TOMORROW AT A MEETING OF LABOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT.

SOPHOULIS RESIGNED AS PREMIER SATURDAY IN QUARRELS OVER THE NUMBER OF PARTIES IN THE CABINET AND THE POLICIES OF THE ARMY COMMAND. THE ARMY IS FIGHTING COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

EARLIER THE KING HAD BEEN CONSIDERING A RECOMMENDATION OF FOUR FORMER PREMIERS THAT ALEXANDER DIOMEDES, A RETIRED BANKER AND LIKE SOPHOULIS, A LIBERAL, HEAD THE GREEK GOVERNMENT.

SOPHOULIS, VETERAN OF A HALF CENTURY OF TURBULENT GREEK POLITICS, ACCEPTED ONCE AGAIN. DIOMEDES ACCEPTED THE POST OF VICE PREMIER IN SUCH A GOVERNMENT, RESPONSIBLE FOR THE WHOLE ECONOMIC FIELD.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT WILL BE A BROAD COALITION OF ALL PARTIES EXCEPT THE EXTREME RIGHT WING.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD GEN.ALEXANDER PAPAGOS WILL BE NAMED SUPREME COMMANDER OF ALL GREEK GOVERNMENT FORCES UNDER THE CONDITIONS HE HAD DEMANDED--A FREE HAND INDEPENDENT OF THE BRITISH AND AMERICAN MILITARY MISSIONS.

THE KING'S OWN SOLUTION TO THE COUNTRY'S POLITICAL CRISIS IS THE APPOINTMENT OF A LEADER OF A NATIONAL GOVERNMENT COMPOSED OF ALL 10 GREEK POLITICAL PARTIES.

HE HAS ORDERED THE 10 PARTIES TO FORM A COALITION CABINET TODAY. THIS IS AN EXTENSION OF HIS PREVIOUS ULTIMATUM WHICH EXPIRED YESTERDAY.

GREECE HAS BEEN WITHOUT A GOVERNMENT SINCE SATURDAY WHEN PREMIER THEMISTOKLES SOPHOULIS RESIGNED AFTER A WEEK OF QUARRELING OVER INCREASING THE NUMBER OF PARTIES REPRESENTED IN HIS CABINET. MOSCOW, JAN 18-(AP)-THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED TODAY IT HAS REFUSED TO MEDIATE IN ANY PEACE TALKS BETWEEN THE CHINESE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AND CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID RUSSIA'S NEGATIVE ANSWER WAS GIVEN LATE YESTERDAY TO CHINA'S AMBASSADOR IN MOSCOW BY DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER ANDREI VISHINSKY.

THE OFFICIAL REASON FOR THE REFUSAL WAS THE U.S.S.R.'S DECLARED PRINCIPLE OF NON-INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF OTHER NATIONS.

THE NOTE SAID, THE REESTABLISHMENT OF UNITY IN CHINA AS A DEMOCRATIC AND PEACE-LOVING STATE, IS THE CHINESE PEOPLE'S OWN AFFAIR. THIS UNITY MIGHT BE ATTAINED MOST RAPIDLY BY MEANS OF DIRECT CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO SIDES WITHOUT FOREIGN INTERFERENCE.

THE MOSCOW PRESS PUBLISHED A TASS NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH FROM NANKING SAYING THAT THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAD LIKEWISE REFUSED TO TAKE PART IN MEDIATION. FRANCE, ALSO ASKED TO MEDIATE, HAD NOT MADE ITS REPLY KNOWN, THE DISPATCH SAID.

-DASH-

IN WASHINGTON, IT WAS POINTED OUT THAT, WITHOUT A PRIOR INDICATION OF THE RUSSIAN ATTITUDE, THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN INFORMED THE NANKING GOVERNMENT LAST THURSDAY THAT THERE WAS NOTHING THEY COULD DO IN THE WAY OF ADVICE OR COUNSEL AT THE PRESENT STAGE OF THE CIVIL WAR.

FRANCE WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE ASSUMED A SIMILAR ATTITUDE ALTHOUGH THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL FRENCH GOVERNMENT STATEMENT TO THAT EFFECT.

MANILA, JAN. 19-(AP)-THE PHILIPPINES REPUBLIC WANTS TO KNOW WHETHER THE UNITED STATES HAS CHANGED ITS MILITARY STRATEGY IN ASIA TO MEET THE COMMUNIST CHALLENGE.

HE DECLINED TO DISCUSS DETAILS OF THE TRIP UNTIL PRESIDENT TRUMAN "EXTENDS AN INVITATION" BUT HE SAID HE PROBABLY WOULD NOT GO UNTIL AFTER UNITED STATES CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES ARE ORGANIZED.

DEVELOPMENTS IN CHINA AND SOUTHEAST ASIA HAVE CHANGED THE PHILIPPINES STRATEGIC POSITION, SAID QUIRINO.

"THERE HAS BEEN SOME MODIFICATION OF UNITED STATES STRATEGY AS A RESULT," HE SAID.

QUIRINO SAID THAT HE WANTED TO DISCUSS THE SITUATION WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN SO THE PHILIPPINES CAN "KNOW HOW TO PLAY OUR ROLE PROPERLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMITMENTS OF THE UNITED STATES."

THE PRESIDENT REFLECTED THE GENERAL APPREHENSION WHICH IS PERCEPTIBLE HERE AS A RESULT OF COMMUNIST ACTIVITY ON THE CONTINENT. THIS FEELING IS MORE MARKED BY CONTRAST WITH THE COMPARATIVE COMPLACENCY IN JAPAN. THERE, HOWEVER, AMERICAN MILITARY OFFICIALS SAY PRIVATELY THAT CONTINUED RED SUCCESSES MIGHT REQUIRE A SUBSTANTIAL OVERHAUL OF AMERICAN PACIFIC DEFENSE PLANS.

PEARL HARBOR, JAN. 18 - (AP)-A LIE DETECTOR EXPERT SAID LAST NIGHT THAT DIVIDED POLICE JURISDICTION ON GUAM ALMOST ALLOWED THREE SUSPECTS IN THE RAPE-SLAYING OF MISS RUTH FARNSWORTH TO ESCAPE.

POLICE INSPECTOR AL RIEDEL OF BERKELEY, CALIF., JAN 19 1949 INTERVIEWED THAT PURE DUMB LUCK PLAYED A BIG PART IN THE SPEEDY LAND[illegible] OF THE THREE NEGROES, NOW CHARGED WITH THE RAPE-MURDER OF THE FORMER SAN FRANCISCO GIRL.

ONE OF THE THREE, RIEDEL SAID, HAD BEEN QUESTIONED AND CLEARED BY THE AIR FORCE CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION BEFORE HE GOT THERE OR BEFORE LT.CMDR.JAMES T.HACKETT, DEPUTY ISLAND POLICE CHIEF, HAD A CHANCE TO TALK WITH HIM.

IT WAS THREE WEEKS AFTER THE FORMER WAC WAS FOUND NEAR DEATH IN A JUNGLE ON DEC.11 BEFORE RIEDEL AND HACKETT QUESTIONED PVT.HERMAN T. DENNIS, 20, OF INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

HACKETT, A CHICAGO POLICE LIEUTENANT ON ACTIVE NAVY DUTY, HAD REFRAINED FROM PUSHING THE INVESTIGATION BECAUSE OF THE SEPARATE POLICE SQUADS OF AIR FORCE, MARINE, ENGINEERS AND CIVILIAN CONTRACTORS.

"BECAUSE OF THE PREVAILING ATTITUDE OF LETTING EACH SERVICE TAKE CARE OF ITS OWN, HACKETT DID NOT PUSH THE ISSUE," RIEDEL SAID.

THREE WEEKS LATER RIEDEL ARRIVED WITH HIS LIE DETECTOR. IT WAS NOT UNTIL THEN, RIEDEL WENT ON, THAT HACKETT GOT A CHANCE TO TALK TO DENNIS.

UNDER THE DETECTOR, DENNIS, RIEDEL ASSERTED, SHOWED A DEFINITE REACTION TO THE QUESTION OF WHETHER HE KNEW WHERE MISS FARNSWORTH'S CLOTHING WAS.

RIEDEL AND HACKETT SEARCHED A TRUCK USED BY A PRIVATE DENNIS, AND RIEDEL SAID THEY FOUND THE GIRL'S TORN AND BLOODSTAINED DRESS STUFFED BEHIND THE SEAT.

"THAT WAS THE LUCK," RIEDEL SAID. "IMAGINE, THREE WEEKS AFTER THE CRIME AND THEY HAD NOT TRIED TO GET RID OF THE DRESS."

RIEDEL SAID HE AND HACKETT SUBSEQUENTLY FOUND OUT THE DRIVER OF THE TRUCK WAS PVT.CALVIN DENNIS, 23, OF FREDERICK, MD., A HALF BROTHER OF HERMAN. PROCEEDING FROM THERE RIEDEL SAID THE INVESTIGATORS OBTAINED STATEMENTS FROM THE DENNIS PAIR IMPLICATING A THIRD MAN, S/SGT. ROBERT W.BURNS, 32, OF SPOKANE, WASH. RIEDEL SAID THAT BURNS DENIES ANY CONNECTION WITH THE CASE BUT THAT BOTH DENNIS YOUTHS SAY BURNS CARRIED MISS FARNSWORTH FROM THE CURIO SHOP IN WHICH SHE WAS SURPRISED ALONE.

RIEDEL SAID THE NAVY FULLY REALIZES THE FAULTS OF THE DIVIDED POLICE JURISDICTIONS ON GUAM. THAT IS WHY HACKETT IS THERE, TO REORGANIZE THE FORCE. BUT HE HAD BEEN THERE ONLY TWO WEEKS WHEN THE RAPE OCCURRED.

RIEDEL STOPPED HERE EN ROUTE HOME BY PLANE.

SJAHRIR SAID HE HAD NOT BEEN ASKED TO SIGN A PLEDGE TO REFRAIN FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITY.
THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE REPORTED SUNDAY THAT PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND FIVE OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS, HELD BY THE DUTCH AT BANGKA ISLAND, HAD REFUSED TO SIGN PLEDGES THAT THEY WOULD NOT ENGAGE IN POLITICS.
SJAHRIR, AUTHOR OF A PAMPHLET ON THE REPUBLIC'S CREED ENTITLED "OUR STRUGGLE", SAID HE WAS GLAD TO BE BACK IN BATAVIA. HE DECLINED FURTHER COMMENT, EXPLAINING HE HAD BEEN OUT OF TOUCH WITH MUCH THAT HAD BEEN HAPPENING.
UNITED NATIONS AND REPUBLICAN OFFICIALS IN BATAVIA WERE SURPRISED TO HEAR YESTERDAY'S ANNOUNCEMENT FROM LAKE SUCCESS THAT SJAHRIR HAD AGREED TO MEET WITH DREES.
PROFESSOR SUPOMO OF THE REPUBLICAN DELEGATION TO THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, STRESSED, HOWEVER, THAT SUCH TALKS "MEAN NOTHING DEFINITE" AND "ARE NOT IN ANY WAY ACTUAL NEGOTIATIONS." HE SAID THE DISCUSSION WOULD BE ONLY AN EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION.
SUPOMO LAST WEEK TALKED WITH DREES ON THAT BASIS. THAT MEETING WAS BETH THE DUTCH PRIME MINISTER'S ONLY CONTACT THUS FAR WITH THE REPUBLICANS.
A DUTCH SPOKESMAN SAID SJAHRIR WILL BE ALLOWED TO STAY AT HIS HOME IN BATAVIA.
INFORMED SOURCES WERE PREDICTED REPUBLICAN LEADERS WOULD NOT AGREE TO TAKE PART IN ANY NATIONAL GOVERNMENT IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE. THESE SOURCES SAID THE REPUBLICANS PROBABLY WOULD AWAIT THE OUTCOME OF THE ASIAN CONFERENCE AT NEW DELHI BEFORE COMMITTING THEMSELVES TO ANY COURSE OF ACTION.
ALTHOUGH THEY HAVE NO COMMUNICATION FACILITIES AND NO TERRITORY THE REPUBLICAN OFFICIALS STILL HAVE GREAT INFLUENCE AMONG THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE AND ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE UNITED NATIONS. NO OTHER LEADERS HAVE APPEARED TO TAKE THEIR PLACES AS ADMINISTRATORS IN THE DUTCH-SPIZED REPUBLICAN TERRITORY.
AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES REPORTED MEANWHILE THAT DREES IS EXPECTED TO LEAVE FOR THE HAGUE BEFORE THE END OF THIS WEEK BECAUSE OF "FAILING HEALTH." THE SOURCES ADDED THAT THE ILLNESS IS MERELY HURRYING HIS DEPARTURE AND THAT DREES CONSIDERS HIS TASK HERE ALMOST COMPLETED.
SJAHRIR, LEADER OF THE SOCIALIST PARTY IN THE REPUBLIC ALTHOUGH HE LIVED IN BATAVIA, HOLDS NO OFFICIAL POSITION IN THE GOVERNMENT. FOR THE PAST SEVERAL MONTHS HE HAS BEEN AN INFORMAL REPRESENTATIVE OF AND ADVISER TO PRESIDENT SOEKARNO.
A VETERAN NATIONALIST WHO HAS A REPUTATION AS A MODERATE, HE IS SAID TO HAVE THE CONFIDENCE OF BOTH THE REPUBLICANS AND DUTCH.

(350)GERMAN PLANTS

BY EDWARD E.BOMAR

WASHINGTON,JAN.18-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS BRACED TODAY FOR A STIFF ARGUMENT WITH THE BRITISH AND FRENCH OVER A PROPOSAL TO LET GERMANY KEEP SOME 150 PLANTS NOW EARMARKED FOR REPARATIONS.

WINNING THEIR CONSENT IS THE NEXT STEP FOR THE RECOMMENDATIONS SUBMITTED BY PAUL G.HOFFMAN, FOREIGN AID ADMINISTRATOR. THE IDEA IS TO CUT BACK THE DELIVERY OF REPARATIONS IN ORDER TO SPEED EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE PROTESTED VIGOROUSLY LAST FALL BEFORE AGREEING TO HOLD UP THE DISMANTLING OF A LIMITED NUMBER OF PLANTS--MAINLY STEEL MILLS--UNTIL IT WAS DECIDED DEFINITELY WHICH SHOULD BE KEPT IN OPERATION IN GERMANY. SIXTEEN OTHER WARTIME FOES OF THE NAZIS ALSO SHARE IN REPARATIONS--AND SOME ARE EXPECTED TO OBJECT TO CHANGES WHICH WOULD REDUCE THEIR SHARE.

THE ISSUE HAS BEEN UNDER PRELIMINARY DISCUSSION FOR MONTHS, HOWEVER, AND FOR THAT REASON OFFICIALS SAY THEY EXPECT NEGOTIATIONS TO GO MORE SMOOTHLY THAN IF THE HOFFMAN RECOMMENDATIONS WERE A SURPRISE.

HOFFMAN'S PROPOSALS, SUBMITTED YESTERDAY TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT WERE THOSE OF A FIVE-MAN ADVISORY GROUP HEADED BY GEORGE M.HUMPHREY, CLEVELAND INDUSTRIALIST. HOFFMAN ANNOUNCED HE ACCEPTED THEIR FINDINGS AND DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS SAID THE STATE DEPARTMENT LIKEWISE CONCURRED.

THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION PUT A SECRET LABEL ON THE REPORT BUT AUTHORITIES SAID THE RECOMMENDATIONS INCLUDED:

1. KEEPING AT WORK IN GERMANY SOME 150 STEEL, MACHINE TOOL, FERTILIZER AND OTHER PLANTS WHICH WERE SCHEDULED TO BE TORN DOWN AND SHIPPED TO OTHER COUNTRIES. THIS IS ABOUT HALF THE NUMBER WHICH HAD BEEN UNDER CONSIDERATION.

2. RETAINING THE PRESENT INTER-ALLIED ANNUAL CEILING OF 10,700,000 TONS ON GERMAN CRUDE STEEL PRODUCTION, WHILE PERMITTING AN INCREASE IN THE PRODUCTION CAPACITY BEYOND THE TOTAL WHICH HAD BEEN PLANNED. ONE REPORT SAID HOFFMAN PROPOSED TO AUTHORIZE CAPACITY--ALTHOUGH NOT ACTUAL PRODUCTION--OF 13,000,000 (?) TONS. PRESENT PRODUCTION IS LAGGING BELOW 7,000,000 TONS ANNUALLY.

CONGRESS DIRECTED HOFFMAN IN THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY ACT TO DETERMINE WHICH REPARATIONS PLANTS IN WESTERN GERMANY WOULD HELP GENERAL EUROPEAN RECOVERY IF KEPT IN OPERATION INSTEAD OF BEING SHIPPED OUT. THE SURVEY GROUP MADE ITS DETAILED REPORT AFTER VISITING THE GERMAN RUHR AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL AREAS LAST MONTH. CZECH (200)

WASHINGTON,JAN 18-(AP)-ARNOST HEIDRICH, EXILED CZECH DIPLOMAT, ESTIMATED TODAY THAT 93 PERCENT OF THE CZECHOSLOVAKIAN PEOPLE OPPOSE THE COMMUNIST REGIME THAT RULES THEM.

HEIDRICH, UNTIL RECENTLY SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE CZECH FOREIGN OFFICE, RULED OUT ANY CHANCE FOR A SUCCESSFUL REVOLT NOW, HOWEVER. "OPPOSITING IS IMPOSSIBLE EXCEPT FROM THE OUTSIDE, AND THROUGH A LIMITED UNDERGROUND," HE TOLD A REPORTER.

THE EXILED DIPLOMAT SAW EVIDENCE OF WIDESPREAD OPPOSITION WITHIN THE ARMY IN PRAGUE DISPATCHES REPORTING THAT A MAJOR WAS SENTENCED TO DEATH AND TWO OTHER ARMY OFFICERS TO PRISON TERMS YESTERDAY ON CHARGES THEY PLOTTED AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT.

HEIDRICH, 59, FOR 14 YEARS LEGAL AND POLITICAL ADVISER TO THE LATE PRESIDENT EDUARD BENES, HAS BEEN CONFERRING WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS AFTER FLEEING PRAGUE WITH HIS FAMILY.

"PROBABLY 93 PERCENT OF THE PEOPLE OPPOSE THE REGIME, AND IT IS ACTIVELY FAVORED BY A HARD CORE OF ABOUT TWO PERCENT," HEIDRICH SAID.

THE EXILED CZECHS IN THIS COUNTRY PLAN TO ANNOUNCE PROBABLY THIS WEEK THE FORMATION OF A CZECHOSLOVAK COUNCIL, HEIDRICH SAID, TO SERVE AS A RALLYING FORCE FOR THE ANTI-COMMUNISTS AND LAY THE GROUNDWORK EVENTUALLY TO REGAIN CONTROL.

(350) NIGHT LEAD ECA-SHIPPING

WASHINGTON, JAN.18-(AP)-FOREIGN AID CHIEF PAUL G.HOFFMAN TOLD AMERICAN SHIP OPERATORS TODAY THAT FOR THE NEXT 60 DAYS AT LEAST THEY WILL CONTINUE TO GET HALF OF ALL MARSHALL PLAN CARGOES.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THEN, HE SAID, IS UP TO CONGRESS.

HOFFMAN THUS STILLED TEMPORARILY A RISING DISPUTE WHICH FOLLOWED HIS ANNOUNCEMENT DECEMBER 6 THAT AFTER THE FIRST OF THE YEAR THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION WOULD ABANDON THE POLICY OF SPLITTING AID CARGOES 50-50 BETWEEN U.S. MERCHANT SHIPS AND FOREIGN OWNED VESSELS.

THIS ACTION STIRRED LOUD PROTESTS FROM AMERICAN SHIPPING INTERESTS AND ON DECEMBER 22 HOFFMAN POSTPONED THE EFFECTIVE DATE UNTIL FEBRUARY 1.

JAN 1949

FOLLOWING A MEETING TODAY WITH SENATOR MAGNUSON (D-WASH) AND TOP MARITIME LABOR-MANAGEMENT OFFICIALS, HOFFMAN ONCE AGAIN MOVED THE DATE BACK, THIS TIME UNTIL APRIL 1.

THE ECA BOSS SAID THE DELAY WOULD PERMIT CONGRESS TO "FULLY EXAMINE" THE SITUATION.

IN SETTING UP ECA LAST YEAR CONGRESS SPECIFIED THAT AT LEAST HALF OF THE MARSHALL PLAN SHIPMENTS FROM THIS COUNTRY SHOULD BE CARRIED IN AMERICAN VESSELS SO LONG AS THEY WERE AVAILABLE AT WORLD MARKET RATES. THE LAWMAKERS SET THIS RESTRICTION ONLY ON BULK CARGOES SUCH AS COAL, OIL, GRAIN ETC.

HOFFMAN STRESSED THE COST FACTOR IN HIS ORIGINAL STOP ORDER, SAYING IT WAS PROVING MORE EXPENSIVE TO TRANSPORT THESE ITEMS IN U.S. SHIPS THAN IN FOREIGN VESSELS WHICH HAVE LOWER OPERATING COSTS. ECA OFFICIALS NOW SAY THE COST DIFFERENTIAL BETWEEN AMERICAN AND FOREIGN FLAG SHIPS HAS DROPPED FROM A HIGH OF ABOUT $4 A TON TO ABOUT $2.

HOFFMAN SAID ANOTHER REASON FOR POSTPONING THE DISPUTED ORDER IS THAT THE FRENCH COAL STRIKE HAS BROUGHT INCREASED DEMANDS FOR AMERICAN SHIPS TO CARRY COAL FROM THIS COUNTRY TO EUROPE. COAL SHIPMENTS TO FRANCE ALONE HAVE BEEN BOOSTED FROM 350,000 TO 1,000,000 TONS A MONTH.

THE ECA CHIEF NOTED THAT CONGRESS ALREADY HAS BEEN AKSED TO MAKE THE 50-50 SPLIT MANDATORY UNDER A BILL INTRODUCED LAST WEEK BY REP. BLAND (D-VA). HEARINGS ON THIS MEASURE ARE SCHEDULED NEXT WEEK BEFORE THE HOUSE MARITIME COMMITTEE.

SENATOR MAGNUSON, ANOTHER STAUNCH SUPPORTER OF PLANS TO STRENGTHEN THE AMERICAN MERCHANT FLEET, TODAY INTRODUCED A SIMILAR BILL.

WASHINGTON, JAN 18-(AP)-JAMES ROOSEVELT, A MARINE VETERAN OF PACIFIC FIGHTING, DECLINED COMMENT TODAY ON MARINE GEN. HOLLAND M. SMITH'S CRITICISM OF THE AWARD OF THE SILVER STAR TO ROOSEVELT FOR HIS PART IN THE GILBERT ISLANDS CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE JAPANESE IN 1943.

AT THE SAME TIME, LT. GEN. ROBERT C. RICHARDSON, JR., RETIRED FORMER ARMY COMMANDER IN THE CENTRAL PACIFIC, TOLD A REPORTER HE HAD NOTHING TO WITH THE DECORATION OF THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S SON, AS SMITH HAS WRITTEN.

SMITH, NOW RETIRED, WAS COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE FLEET MARINE FORCE IN THE PACIFIC AND DIRECTED FIGHTING IN MAJOR OPERATIONS, INCLUDING TARAWA, MAKIN, IWO JIMA AND SAIPAN.

IN HIS WAR MEMOIRS, "CORAL AND BRASS," JUST PUBLISHED, SMITH MENTIONED THE SILVER STAR AWARD TO ROOSEVELT, THEN A LIEUTENANT COLONEL, WHO WAS AT MAKIN AS A MARINE OBSERVER ATTACHED TO THE ARMY. SMITH WROTE:

"BACK IN HONOLULU, RICHARDSON, WITHOUT ANY REFERENCE TO ME, LET ALONE THE MARINE CORPS, DECORATED YOUNG ROOSEVELT WITH THE SILVER STAR FOR HIS PART IN THE MAKIN OPERATIONS, WHICH CONSISTED OF BEING PRESENT.

"HAD THE MATTER BEEN REFERRED TO ME, A COURTESY WHICH SHOULD HAVE BEEN EXTENDED TO THE COMMANDING GENERAL, I WOULD HAVE STRONGLY DISAPPROVED THE RECOMMENDATION. JIMMY ROOSEVELT PROVED HIMSELF A COMPETENT AND COURAGEOUS MARINE ON MANY OCCASIONS, BUT I ALWAYS WONDERED HOW HE FELT ABOUT THAT DECORATION."

RICHARDSON SAID HE DID NOT DECORATE ROOSEVELT. HE SAID THE CITATION CAME FROM MAJ. GEN. RALPH SMITH, WHO LED 27TH ARMY DIVISION TROOPS IN THE CAPTURE OF MAKIN. HE SAID THIS WENT TO ADMIRAL CHESTER NIMITZ'S HEADQUARTERS, WAS PROCESSED THROUGH USUAL CHANNELS AND WAS APPROVED IN WASHINGTON.

LATER, RICHARDSON SAID, LT. GEN. DELOS C. EMMONS, THEN 4TH ARMY COMMANDER, PRESENTED THE AWARD TO ROOSEVELT IN SAN FRANCISCO AS A MATTER OF ROUTINE.

FOR NEARLY A MONTH, CLAY SAID, HE'S BEEN TRYING TO SEND BACK THE EXPENSIVE PRESENT OFFICIALLY GIVEN HIM BY THE GREEK CABINET FOR HIS PRETTY BRITISH WIFE, MARQUERITTA, WHOM HE MET AND MARRIED WHILE SERVING AS DEPUTY ECA CHIEF IN ATHENS.

"AT LONG LAST," HE TOLD A REPORTER, "I THINK I'VE GOT THE JOB DONE.

AN OFFICIAL DIPLOMATIC POUCH ADDRESSED TO GREEK FINANCE MINISTER DIMETRI HELMIS LEFT WASHINGTON YESTERDAY. IT CONTAINED THE BRACELET, CLAY SAID, AND A LETTER TELLING THE GREEK GOVERNMENT TO SELL IT AND CONTRIBUTE THE PROCEEDS TO GREEK CHARITY.

CLAY SAID HE HAD "NO IDEA" OF THE BRACELET'S VALUE WHEN IT WAS GIVEN HIM AT A STATE DINNER IN ATHENS DECEMBER 26.

"NEXT DAY, WHEN I FOUND WHAT IT HAD COST," HE EXPLAINED, "I TRIED TO RETURN IT THEN AND THERE. BUT THE OFFICIALS SAID: 'NO, THIS IS OUR GIFT TO YOU FOR YOUR BRIDE IN RECOGNITION OF YOUR OUTSTANDING WORK IN HELPING US WITH OUR ECONOMIC PROBLEMS.'"

WHILE THE CLAYS WERE EN ROUTE TO THE UNITED STATES, THE ATHENS PRESS CRITICIZED THE GIFT, DECLARING THAT THE GREEK TREASURY COULD ILL AFFORD TO FINANCE $2,000 GIFTS TO INDIVIDUALS.

NIGHT'S LEAD INDONESIAN SAID TONIGHT

Lake Success, Jan. 19—(ap)—An Indonesian spokesman hinted today the United States' plan for settling the Indonesian conflict is not completely satisfactory.

This development came as the U.S. and other delegations on the Security Council sought to draw up a final resolution on Indonesia in time for the Security Council meeting at 3 p.m. e.s.t. today.

Charles Thamboe, alternate delegate from Indonesia here, said that the United States resolution "is not everything that Indonesia had hoped for."

Thamboe told newsmen that the primary consideration must be the unconditional and immediate release of all leaders of the Indonesian republic now held by the Dutch. He said there also must be a rapid withdrawal of dutch troops from Indonesian territory.

JAN 1949

The U.S. plan, reported to be supported by China, Cuba and Norway, calls for release of Indonesian leaders and for progressiv withdrawal of dutch forces.

Thamboe said the Dutch also must desist from any form of reprisal against republican leaders and adherents throughout the entire areas of sumatra, java and madoera.

The Indonesian spokesman said guerrilla warfare is growing in the islands. He said unless there is a quick settlement there will be nothing of economic value left for the dutch "to extract any profit from their occupation."

Dutch spokesmen had nothing to say about the American plan COMMENT ON PRIOR TO IT'S ACTION JAN 1949 it is formally presented to the Council.

They said merely that developments are on the move in Indonesia.

SOURCES CLOSE TO THE NEGOTIATIONS SURROUNDING THE U.S. PLAN SAID IT DID NOT YET HAVE SEVEN SURE VOTES NECESSARY FOR PASSAGE.

AT THE SAME TIME, INDONESIAN AND DUTCH SOURCES INDICATED THEY WERE NOT COMPLETELY HAPPY ABOUT THE PLAN, WHICH CALLS FOR RELEASE OF INDONESIAN LEADERS AND FOR PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH FORCES.

GEN.MCNAUGHTON ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THAT HE DECIDED TO POSTPONE THE MEETING AFTER CONSULTING WITH SEVERAL COLLEAGUES.

THE UNITED STATES BACKED BY CUBA, NORWAY AND CHINA, WAS REPORTED IN INFORMED SOURCES TO BE WORKING FOR THE SUPPORT OF BRITAIN AND CANADA FOR THE RESOLUTION. EGYPT WAS SAID TO BE FAVORABLE. THESE SOURCES SAID FRANCE WOULD ABSTAIN. ARGENTINE, RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE WERE REPORTED LIKELY TO ABSTAIN IF THEY DID NOT VOTE AGAINST IT. SEVEN VOTES ARE NECESSARY FOR PASSAGE.

CHARLES THAMBOE, ALTERNATE DELEGATE FROM INDONESIA HERE, SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES RESOLUTION "IS NOT EVERYTHING THAT INDONESIA HAD HOPED FOR."

THAMBOE SAID THE DUTCH ALSO MUST DESIST FROM ANY FORM OF REPRISAL AGAINST REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND ADHERENTS THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE AREAS OF SUMATRA, JAVA AND MADOERA.

THE INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN SAID GUERRILLA WARFARE IS GROWING IN THE ISLANDS. HE SAID UNLESS THERE IS A QUICK SETTLEMENT THERE WILL BE NOTHING OF ECONOMIC VALUE LEFT FOR THE DUTCH "TO EXTRACT ANY PROFIT FROM THEIR OCCUPATION."

DUTCH SPOKESMEN HAD NO COMMENT ON THE AMERICAN PLAN PRIOR TO ITS FORMAL PRESENTATION TO THE COUNCIL.

THEY SAID MERELY THAT DEVELOPMENTS ARE ON THE MOVE IN INDONESIA.

Executive Yuan Calls For Truce, Peace Talks In China

Nanking, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Government today asked for a cease-fire order on both sides in the Chinese civil war and immediate peace negotiations.

A formal statement by the Government information office announced the move to halt the three-year war.

The statement said:

"The Executive Yuan, at a regular meeting, discussed at length the national situation and made the following statement:

" 'The Government, in deference to the general wishes of the people for an early realization of peace, hereby makes known its desire for both Government and Communist forces to cease fire unconditionally and immediately and for both sides to appoint delegates to start peace negotiations.' "

Chiang's View Awaited

The Executive Yuan constitutionally may negotiate for peace. But the Legislative Yuan must approve the proposals that the Executive Yuan voted today.

The Executive Yuan is composed of eleven ministries, four commissions and two administrative bodies. It is powerful but is at the beck and call of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang party, which, in turn, takes its orders from President Chiang Kai-shek.

Chiang's views on the action today is eagerly awaited in the capital. The Government announcement, however, was taken to mean that he had at least given tentative approval to the peace move.

Bitter Yuan Row Indicated

The bitterness of the struggle inside the Executive Yuan was hinted at by a report that Premier Sun Fo threatened to resign if a decision to negotiate was not made.

The group gaining the upper hand today includes members of the Executive Yuan who overcame confusion, panic and inertia as well as strong resistance when they forced the vote through without the visable approval of Chiang.

The opposing group is composed of Kuomintang diehards who, it is reported, seek to make Nanking a second Tientsin by remaining for a Communist attack before abandoning the city.

Some Fear Assassination

The gravity of the problem is shown by fears expressed by some peace-seeking officials that they will be assassinated by such elements.

They point to the situation in Peiping, where a bomb wounded a peace delegate, former Mayor Ho Sze-yuan, before he could leave to confer with the Reds on a cease-fire agreement.

A source arriving here from Peiping said an examination of the fragments showed that it was a standard Nationalist hand grenade. This source said that an investigation led to the conclusion that the bomb was planted by Kuomintang extremists in order to delay a negotiated peace in Peiping.

Peiping Mission Due Back

[At besieged Peiping, an eleven-member peace mission was expected back from the encircling lines of the Reds with an answer to their peace pleas. They went into the lines Monday under a truce flag.]

As the nation of 460,000,000 groped for a way to stop the civil war, foreign diplomats were informed that the Government would begin moving from Nanking to Canton on Friday.

An official announcement said the "government" was making known its "desire" for peace. It did not mention President Chiang Kai-Shek, who under the constitution must give final approval of any peace move.

Government to Move

The step came as Peiping's surrender in the north appeared to be hanging on new negotiations, as the Reds neared the Yangtze and as the government announced that on Friday the foreign office and some other ministries will move south. Most of them will go to Canton.

The U. S. joint advisory group also prepared to end by Saturday all functions in Nanking except for a token force of top officers, it was learned reliably. The rest of the group, which has been advising the government on defense measures for three years, will move to Shanghai.

(In Washington, Undersecretary of State Lovett said the question of whether to move the U. S. embassy was being worked out by American Ambassador John Leighton Stuart in consultation with diplomatic representatives of other nations in Nanking. He added that the State department also was taking up the matter with other governments here.

(The embassy staff totals 154, including dependents, with 84 other Americans listed as residents in the city, according to State department records. Washington officials said that if precedent is followed, the embassy staff might be split with some remaining in Nanking while others moved south with Chinese government officials.)

CHINESE CABINET PROPOSES TRUCE

Premier Threatens to Resign Unless Ministers Agree to Peace Talks

NANKING, Jan. 19 — (AP) The cabinet of Chiang Kai-shek's reeling government today proposed an immediate truce in the civil war and early peace talks, but apparently only after bitter debate.

So fiercely did the struggle rage over this second peace move in three weeks that Premier Sun Fo reportedly threatened to resign unless the ministers voted for negotiations with the communists.

General Wishes Of People

The official statement on the new peace move—first since Chiang on New Year's Day offered to negotiate on his own terms—said:

"The Executive Yuan at a regular meeting discussed at length the national situation and made the following statement:

" 'The Government in deference to the general wishes of the people for early realization of peace hereby makes known its desire for both the Government and Communist forces to cease fire unconditionally and immediately and for both sides to appoint delegates to start peace negotiations.' "

Some Fear Assassination

[Mao Tse-tung, head of the Chinese Communists, on January 14 laid down harsh terms for peace. He demanded as one condition that all powers be taken from "the reactionary Nanking Kuomintang Government." Whether this new Government move is acceptable to Mao is unknown.]

By all accounts leaking out from the closed Cabinet meeting, the peace advocates had to battle all the way with diehards of the Kuomintang (Chiang's party) who want to fight to the last.

Some of the peace advocates say they fear they may be assassinated by Kuomintang extremists. They say such elements tried to delay the Peiping peace talks by planting a hand grenade which wounded former Mayor Ho Sze-yuan, one of the delegates.

"Step In Right Direction"

Chiang Kai-shek was said to have favored the Cabinet step a week ago and named a committee of three to draft a proposal.

Then came the Communist broadcast of stiff peace terms, and the project collapsed because of the President's fury and the consternation it created among officials.

Diplomats in Nanking generally agreed the Cabinet's action was a "step in the right direction," but most of them seemed more immediately concerned with the southward movement of the ministries.

Weeks ago, most of them decided to remain here unless their governments told them to follow the ministries south.

They regard efforts of the Chinese to persuade diplomats to accompany a refugee regime as an attempt to keep the prestige of a legally recognized Government after it ceases to rule over most of China.

Now, however, some diplomats are reported concerned lest their refusal to move south may prompt the Government to remain in Nanking and make a futile last stand in the capital.

The diplomatic missions naturally want to avoid the chaos and looting that such a battle for Nanking might well bring on before a new regime with which they would have to deal—could take over.

[Reports reaching Hong Kong from Canton indicated the new refuge in South China may be none too safe. These reports said "bandits"—the usual term for Communists—had become active north of Canton. The Communists recently have stepped up guerrilla operations in that area.]

Pengpu Bridge Blown Up

On the front before Nanking, the Communists were reported beginning to move southward. One report said they had occupied Yangchow (Kiangtu) near the Yangtze only 43 miles northeast of Nanking.

On the dissolving Hwai River line, withdrawing Nationalist troops blew up the bridge across the river at Pengpu, abandoned anchor city 108 miles northwest of Nanking.

U.S. Unit In Nanking Winding Up Work

Nanking, Jan. 19 (AP)—Except for a token force of a few top officers, the United States joint advisory group will end its functions in Nanking this week. Only Maj. Gen. David G. Barr and Rear Admiral Francis Old with a handfull of assistants will remain.

The rest of the group, which advised the Chinese Government on national defense for nearly three years, is moving to Shanghai in preparation for eventual evacuation to the United States or Japan.

Headquarters of the air division moved to Shanghai several weeks ago.

Peiping Senses Peace Deal

PEIPING, Thursday, Jan. 20 (AP)—The siege of Peiping may be over soon, ending in a bloodless change-over.

This outcome, if it develops—and "there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip"—will not stem from the peace mission that returned last night from Communist lines.

It wil lcome from highly secret discussions that appear to have ironed out an understanding. The most important development has been a change in the attitude of a group of Nationalist generals, formerly opposed to a settlement.

The Chinese press appeared convinced that an understanding with the Communists had been reached.

Said The Peiping Daily News: "The situation in North China is facing a great change. The bridge to peace has now been constructed. The trend of developments will lead the two million inhabitants of Peiping to peaceful life."

Anti-Reds Walk Out Of WFTU, Condemn It

Paris, Jan. 19 (AP)—American, British and Dutch delegates to the World Federation of Trade Unions executive board walked out today. They said they would have nothing further to do with WFTU, which they charged had become a Communist propaganda agency.

The formal walkout came after a vote on a motion by the British Trades Union Council that WFTU activities be suspended for a year, pending reorganization.

When the motion finally was called to a vote after two days of bickering, the British, American and Dutch delegates voted in favor.

On the other side were the delegates of Russia, Italy, China and the French secretary-general.

They're "Out To Stay"

Said Arthur Deakin, British Trades Union Congress delegate, as he left, "this is the end, so far as we are concerned. We will take no further part in the organization." Deakin also was president of WFTU.

James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), said "that goes for me, too."

Others who left the hall were Everett Kupers, of Holland, and the Americans Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the United Automobile Workers; L. S. Buckmaster, vice president of the CIO, and David McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the United Steel Workers.

The American Federation of Labor never has belonged.

May Form Rival Group

The WFTU, organized in 1945 to represent 80,000,000 workers in Europe and America, began to split under East-West pressure when its Communist-dominated board refused last year to discuss labor's part in the Marshall plan.

Deakin is expected to take the lead now in proposing organization of a new non-Communist world labor organization. Vassily Kuznetsov, president of the All-Union Central Council of Trade Unions in Russia, has indicated the WFTU would continue, probably as a rival organization of Communist-dominated unions.

Ties Severed, Carey Says

Carey declared "as far as the CIO is concerned, the WFTU doesn't exist, and all you hear about it is just stench." He said his next move would be to report to the CIO on the breakup of the world group.

He declared flatly: "The CIO is not now affiliated with the WFTU or with any international group."

Louis Saillant, secretary general of the WFTU, said the executive bureau would continue to meet despite the walkout. Soviet Delegate Vassilly Kuznetsov said "the WFTU continues and will continue."

CIO QUITS WFTU IN DISPUTE OVER SOVIET INFLUENCE

CARL MARTMAN

PARIS, Jan. 19 — (AP) World labor split today over the issue of communism.

Unions from the United States, Britain and the Netherlands quit the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU). They said it had become a Communist propaganda agency.

The U. S. union affected is the Congress of Industrial Organizations (C.I.O.). The American Federation of Labor (A.F.L.) never joined the WFTU.

Vassily Kuznetsov, head of Soviet trade unions, said the WFTU would keep going. At a news conference, he called American labor leaders "reactionary." They "serve the interests of the bourgeoisie," he taunted.

Urge New Setup

The A.F.L. declared through its European representative that the time is ripe for free trade unions of the world to start a new international movement. The representative, Irving Brown, made his statement after the breakup.

Brown announced informal discussions which may lead to forming a new international labor organization will be held at Bern, Switzerland. Union leaders are to gather there Saturday in a meeting of the European Recovery Program Trade Union Advisory Council.

He emphasized that decisions to launch a new movement would have to come from the top bodies of the various national unions.

"A lot of them are meeting at the end of this month," he added.

Andre Laffond, secretary of the non-Communist workers' force movement in France, endorsed the idea of a new world labor organization.

Kuznetsov, learning of Brown's proposal, said such a movement would be "a docile organism in the hands of American monopolists and their English clerks."

He predicted an organization of that type would fight "the trade unions of the new democratic (Communist) countries and all other trade unions that refuse to support and consolidate capitalism."

Applications Pending

Kuznetsov said the WFTU has membership applications pending from unions in South Rhodesia, Malta, Tunisia, Chile, the Philippines, Siam and France.

The American, British and Dutch delegates filed from the room after a test vote. This was on the British trades union council's motion that the WFTU suspend all activities for a year, pending reorganization.

The British, American and Dutch delegates voted for the plan. The delegates of Russia, Italy and China and the French secretary-general took the other side.

"This is the end," said Arthur Deakin, British Trades Union Congress delegate. "We will take no further part in the organization."

Deakin, who was president of the WFTU, had contended the organization was Communist-ridden and should suspend activities until it cleaned house.

James B. Carey, secretary-treasurer of the C.I.O., said:

"As far as the C.I.O. is concerned, the WFTU doesn't exist, and all you hear about it is just stench. The C.I.O. is not now affiliated with the WFTU or with any international group."

David McDonald, secretary-treasurer of the United Steel Workers, said:

"I regret that the U.S.S.R., Italy and China did not accept the proposition on which the British, American and Dutch delegates voted in the affirmative. The leftist organizations in the WFTU seem to be determined to make that organization completely subservient to the cominform, and we could not subscribe to such a policy."

Britain Helping France Build Up Air Force

London, Jan. 19 (AP)—Thirty British Vampire jet fighter planes will be sent to France this year to help build up the French Air Force, an Air Ministry spokesman said today. The transfer was arranged by French and British service chiefs as part of the Western European Union defense program.

French factories later will be adapted to build Vampires, the announcement said.

Lidice Massacre Recalled By Death

Bristol, England, Jan. 19 (AP)—Flight Lieutenant Josef Horak, the Lidice flyer blamed by the Germans for the killing of Reinhard Heydrich, Nazi gauleiter, died today of aircrash injuries.

Horak, a native of Lidice, was believed by the Germans to have parachuted into Czechoslovakia for the attack on Heydrich.

The Nazis killed 28 of his relatives in Lidice before murdering every man in the village and then destroying it.

Horak died at Bristol Infirmary. His plane crashed at Horton on a flight from Arston Down.

Leftist newspapers have charged that the planes, which are now in Germany, will be used to strengthen Italy's air force in violation of the peace treaty. The ministry said none will be employed militarily.

U.S. Bid Rejecte By Furtwaengler

Geneva, Jan. 19 (AP)—Dr. Wilhelm Furtwaengler withdrew today from his engagement as guest conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

In a telegram to the board of the Chicago Orchestra Association, Dr. Furtwaengler repeated his protests against artists whom he said "perpetuate hatred indefinitely while all the world is longing for peace."

Not Based On Truth

The telegram said:

"The protest of American artists against my coming to Chicago is based on news which the official propaganda in Nazi Germany chose to publish about me, and not on truth.

"It is inconceivable that artists should perpetuate hatred indefinitely while all the world is longing for peace.

"In order to spare the Chicago orchestra further difficulties I withdraw herewith from the already concluded contract."

WAR COURT UPHELD IN DECISIONS ON GERMAN GENERALS

THOMAS A. REEDY

BERLIN, Jan. 19—(AP) Two major decisions of the Nuernberg war crimes trials were upheld today by Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

The American commander affirmed the sentances against a group of German generals convicted of excesses in the Balkans and leaders of Hitler's infamous "People's Courts."

The two cases were among 12 tried by U. S. judges only in the proceedings that followed the trial of top leaders of the Third Reich.

The convicted men had petitioned for modification of the sentences some ranging up to life imprisonment.

The principle involved in the case against the generals was: how many hostages may a commander order executed to curb sabotage by a civilian population, and under what conditions?

63,000 Hostages Slain

The court judged Field Marshall Wilhelm List and seven generals guilty of war crimes because 63,000 hostages were slain by German armies in Yugoslavia, Albania and Greece. Also in the convicted group was Gen. Lothar Rendulic, whose armies despoiled Norway. List drew life imprisonment, Rendulic 20 years.

The army will now forward the files on both cases to Washington, where the U. S. supreme court will decide whether it should review the defendants' appeals for civil court action.

In other Berlin developments:

1. The U. S. military government charged the Soviets ignored three official notes in 1948 demanding specific information on German soldier dead and prisoners of war.

2. Other military government officials proposed sending a group of German women leaders to the U. S. this month to study American women in relation to government and politics.

The notes to Moscow were made public by E. L. Glazier, civil administration executive, who said they showed bad faith by the U.S.S.R. In the proposal to repatriate all German prisoners by the first of this year.

The official host on the three-month tour will be the Carrie Chapman Catt memorial fund of New York. Cities to be visited include Washington, Syracuse, N. Y., Ithaca, N. Y., Boston, Hartford, Conn., Chicago and Ann Arbor, Mich.

German U. S. Tour Proposed

BERLIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Military Government officials proposed today sending a group of German women leaders to the United States this month to study women in relation to government and politics. The official host on the three-month tour will be the Carrie Chapman Catt Memorial Fund of New York. Cities to be visited would include Washington, Syracuse, N. Y.; Ithaca, N. Berlin Output Lags, Reds Charge

Berlin, Jan. 19 (AP)—The German Communist press today chastised the workers of Berlin's Russian sector for not laboring hard enough for the Communist two-year economic plan.

The Red press threatened to publish a blacklist of backsliders unless the situation improved.

The Communists admitted their two-year plan was encountering further difficulties in the hard-pressed Russian occupation zone.

Due To Counterblockade

It is to help overcome these difficulties—due in large part to the Allied counterblockade of eastern Germany—that the Communists are trying to get maximum deliveries from Berlin factories in order to spur lagging production throughout eastern Germany.

refugee movements have placed him in contact with Russians for two and a half years.

"It would have been an interesting trip," he told a reporter, "but in view of the international situation, the people back in America might place a wrong interpretation on it."

Warshall's job at this junction point of the American zone, the Russian zone and Czechoslovakia, concerns the influx of refugees, former prisoners of war, and others moving into the American zone. He constantly makes trips in and out of the Russian zone on trains carrying refugees.

Asked why the Russians made the offer, he said: "Well, we have worked together for a long time, and I guess they meant it as a friendly gesture."

BUDAPEST DETAILS CARDINAL CHARGES

ENDRE MARTON

Government Yellow Book Tells of Link With U. S. Envoy—Primate Held a Plotter

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Hungarian Government made public today a Yellow Book on the case of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, who is held in jail, to document its charge of espionage and treason against the Roman Catholic Primate.

The ninety-six-page book quotes the Cardinal as saying that he "wishes to accomplish a change of regime (in Hungary) with American help."

The book also said that the Cardinal had testified that Selden Chapin, United States Minister to Budapest, "often asked to give him concrete data on the Communists and Russian troops stationed in Hungary and on any facts relating to the Hungarian political and economic situation."

Prof. Jusztin Varanyai, Catholic leader jailed with Cardinal Mindszenty, is quoted in the book as saying that Mr. Chapin told Cardinal Mindszenty that it was the opinion of leading American politicians that monarchism could be restored in Hungary."

Link to Otto Charged

The Communist-dominated Hungarian Government has charged that Cardinal Mindszenty plotted to return to power Otto of Habsburg, pretender to the throne of Austria-Hungary.

The Yellow Book says that Cardinal Mindszenty in 1947 met secretly with Archduke Otto in America. The meeting, the book said, took place in a convent when the Cardinal went to America on the "pretext" of attending the Catholic Marian Congress in Ottawa.

[No comment was immediately available from Mr. Chapin or the State Department. Cardinal Mindszenty and ten other Catholic leaders have been held incomunicado since their arrest, unable to answer the charges against them.]

The Yellow Book refers to Cardinal Mindszenty's activities as part of a Monarchist conspiracy and a Royalist plot.

Reasons Are Set Forth

It states that he, himself, "described the reasons for his treacherous activities" in this fashion:

"My connections with the Western powers and with their representatives were determined by the political plan of accomplishing the withdrawal of the Russian occupation forces with the help of these powers, in the first place of the United States, which I visited to accomplish a change of regime with American help.

"I frequently addressed various letters, memoranda and reports to these powers on the situation in Hungary and urged them to intervene."

Concerning the meeting between Mindszenty and Hapsburg "which took place in secret in a nunnery," the book said Hapsburg gave the cardinal "detailed instructions" and disclosed his plan for a "union between Austria and Hungary which x x x could be a bastion of defense against materialism."

Hungarian 'Confession'

London, Jan. 19 (AP)—Hector McNeil, Minister of State, told the House of Commons today the British Government "profoundly disapproves" of the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, but plans no official protest to Hungary because there is no reason to believe such a step would lead to the Cardinal's release.

Gottwald Meets Bishops

PRAGUE, Jan. 19 (AP)—Communist President Klement Gottwald held a conference today with four Czech Bishops of the Roman Catholic church, but no announcement was made about what they discussed.

2,500 Children Sold In Japan

Tokyo, Jan. 19 (AP)—The newspaper Asahi reported today that 2,500 Japanese children have been sold into slavery by a broker in northeastern Japan.

Asahi said an investigation resulted from a mother's complaint that the employer of her 15-year-old daughter refused to return her ration card when the child ran away and returned home.

The Yamagata Prefecture Labor Standards Office discovered that the girl was sold for 2,500 yen (about $70 United States) to Manjiro Ino, 65, who posed as an insurance broker, Asahi reported.

Ino was alleged to have admitted selling his own daughter among 2,500 children sent to various so-called "farming" villages. Asahi reported that some of the children were put to work on farms but that most were used in small handicraft industries.

The Japanese Government also said it is investigating another wholesale child-sale ring in Fukushima prefecture.

Child slavery formerly was a common practice in Japan.

One-minute Session For Allied Council

Tokyo, Jan. 19 (A. P.).—The Allied Council for Japan went through the formality of its seventy-eighth regular session today. The meeting lasted less than one minute. The council was set up to advise Gen. MacArthur on occupation matters. It rarely discusses official or procedural matters.

Korea Deplores Jap Prestige In Indonesia

Seoul, Jan. 19 (AP)—A Korean Government spokesman today cautioned the Indonesian Republic about accepting the services of Japanese.

Kim Dong Sung, public information director, said in a statement that Koreans are anxious to see Indonesians become independent, but added:

"The presence of Japanese in that republic has shocked us, for we are well aware of the fact they are not modern Lafayettes. We have had bitter experiences with the Japanese during the past half century.

"They might be of some help to our good neighbor to throw off the Dutch forces today, but the price would be dear tomorrow."

The spokesman said it was "most unfortunate our friendly nation, Holland, had to resort to military operations in Indonesia."

Britain And Seoul Set Up Formal Ties

Seoul, Jan. 19 (AP)—Britain and the Republic of Korea formally established diplomatic relations today.

Koh Chang Il, Acting Korean Foreign Minister, received Vyvyan Holt, British consul general since May who has been named charge d'affaires.

Holt notified Koh that his Government recognized the republic as an independent, sovereign state. It was recognized previously by China, the Philippines and the United States.

Britain, China and the United States declared at the Cairo conference in 1943 that all Korea would become free and independent. However, North Korea is administered by a separate Government established by the Russians.

Sophoulis Tries Again To Form A Coalition

Athens, Jan. 19 (AP)—Ailing and aged Themistokles Sophoulis, who resigned as Premier Saturday, tried again today to form a coalition government.

King Paul I entrusted the 88-year-old politician with the assignment. He was urged to include all Greek parties in the Cabinet except extreme Rightists.

Alexander Diomedes, a retired banker, was appointed deputy minister to supervise the economic ministries.

GREEK IS EXECUTED

ATHENS, Jan. 19.—(AP) Michael Chryssicopoulos, son of the owner of one of the largest department stores in Greece, was executed today for evading military service. He was sentenced to death by a military tribunal for plotting to deceive the authorities. The court found he got a tuberculosis sufferer to answer the draft call in his name and so was exempted from duty by an army medical committee.

Naoussa Casualty Figures

ATHENS, Jan. 19 (AP)—The General Staff announced that 123 guerrillas were killed last week during the army's pursuit of a force that raided Naoussa, 90 miles west of Salonika. It said the Government lost 50 killed, 276 wounded and 240 missing during the battle for Naoussa and the pursuit.

Conolly At Malta

Valetta, Malta, Jan. 19 (AP)—Admiral Richard L. Conolly, commander of the United States naval forces in the Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean, arrived at Malta today aboard the cruiser Columbus. His visit coincided with high-level discussions at British headquarters attended by French naval officers. Spokesmen declined to comment.

Rhodes Parley Believed Near Success

L. S. CHAKALES

Rhodes, Jan. 19 (AP)—Secrecy today shrouded the armistice negotiations of Israel and Egypt, now at the critical stage. No word was forthcoming from the four separate meetings which the acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, held yesterday with each delegation.

It was presumed hard bargaining was going on, with Israel's future bounderies in the Negeb at stake. Bunche was trying to lead both sides into agreement on such questions as withdrawal and reduction of the armed forces in the Negeb.

Blocked Earlier Efforts

These questions have wrecked all peacemaking efforts since the United Nations Security Council last November sought to restore the truce and promote an armistice.

An atmosphere of optimism still prevailed, despite the difficulty of the negotiations. The cheer was traceable to four factors:

1. Israel's reported agreement to release soon the trapped Egyptian garrison at Faluja. There still was no official announcement of this agreement, which presumably was awaiting accord on other points.

The Israeli Government in Tel Aviv announced, however, that it was permitting a United Nations convoy from Gaza to bring food and medical supplies to the men and take 250 wounded and sick out.

2. Reports from Jewish sources at Haifa that Israel and Lebanon may sign an agreement this week. Israeli and Lebanese representatives have been reported negotiating for an armistice for several days.

3. Private reports from Tel Aviv that Trans-Jordan and Israel also may begin armistice talks tomorrow. Local military representatives of the two countries at Jerusalem would try to broaden their Jerusalem truce.

4. British Foreign Secretary Bevin's assertion in the House of Commons yesterday that Britain has no obligations or intention of engaging in aggressive or offensive action over Palestine.

This was encouraging the Arabs to make peace. The Jews' agreement regarding the Faluja pocket was seen as an indication of their earnestness in efforts to end the eight-month Palestine war.

Bunche Submits Draft Of Negeb Compromise

Rhodes, Jan. 19 (AP)—An authoritative source said tonight Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations head mediator, has submitted to Israel and Egypt the first draft of a compromise on the disputed Negeb.

The compromise brings together the divergent Israeli and Egyptian viewpoints on that strategic desert area of southern Palestine, the informant said. It also involves withdrawal and a reduction in the numbers of soldiers on both sides in that area, he added.

Full details of the compromise, however, were not available. Bunche pledged the Israeli and Egyptian delegations to secrecy.

Earlier, informants said Bunche had set this week end as the deadline for success or failure of the United Nations efforts to negotiate an armistice.

These informants said negotiations were at a make or break stage. Talks were progressing "smoothly without setbacks," but were admittedly slow because of a "multitude of details," they said.

Informants said Bunche and his chief assistants have made tentative plans to return to the United States in less than a week.

"This sort of conference should be finished within ten days or two weeks or it won't be finished at all," said high members of Bunche's staff.

Mediator's Duties To End

Bunche's duties as mediator in Palestine are scheduled to end with the conclusion of the armistice talks. The United Nations Conciliation Commission on Palestine, now in Geneva, will take over. The commission is due to arrive in Athens Saturday. Transfers of records from Bunche to the commission will follow.

Bunche is arranging an armistice. The commission has been instructed to seek peace. That is the chief distinction between them.

France was reported ready to give de facto recognition to Israel; British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin indicated yesterday Britain is also considering such a step.

Negotiations already are under way for a recognition agreement which would cover French interests in Israel and settle the question of citizenship rights. Francois Mitterand, spokesman for the French Cabinet, said the agreement would be concluded shortly.

ISRAEL DRAFTS LEBANON PACT

Agreement Reported Written In Border Village Talks

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 19 (AP). The first draft of an Israeli-Lebanese armistice agreement was written today at the Lebanese frontier village of Ras en Naqura, a reliable source said here.

The agreement was drawn up after conferences between representatives of the Lebanese Government and an Israeli delegation headed by Elias Sasson, expert on Near Eastern affairs in the Israeli Foreign Ministry, the informant said.

The Israeli and Lebanese delegations returned to their respective capitals to present the yet unsigned drafts for the approval of their home governments, the informant added.

They will meet again at Ras en Naqura for additional armistice talks at the end of this week or the beginning of next.

Sasson had been called home from the Egyptian-Israeli talks in Rhodes to undertake the negotiations with Lebanon, Israel's northern neighbor.

French Ready To Recognize Israel Regime

Paris, Jan., 19 (AP)—France is ready to extend de facto recognition to Israel, the Government announced today.

The announcement said recognition would follow negotiations now in progress, covering French interests in Israel and the question of citizenship rights.

INDONESIANS ASK AID AGAINST DUTCH

Appeal to 20 Nations in Orient for Arms, Ammunition

STEVEN V. DAVID

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 19—(AP) Indonesian republicans appealed to nations of the east today for arms and ammunition with which to fight the Dutch.

They submitted their request in an 8,000-word memorandum to representatives of 20 nations in the Orient, assembling to consider backing the Indonesians' hand against the Netherlands.

An Asian conference is to open here tomorrow under the leadership of India's Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru.

The memorandum also asked for money, textiles, medicines—"everything necessary for a government to function." Although beaten by Dutch arms, the Indonesian republicans are waging guerrilla warfare and have their own underground government.

Outline Program

They outlined a program of "direct aid" they want the other nations to give. They want all of them to search Dutch ships entering their harbors and seize military or semi-military equipment, and to follow India, Pakistan and Ceylon in closing their airfields to Dutch planes.

The Indonesians announced they have chosen India as their foreign affairs base—a sort of foreign office in exile.

A commission headed by A. A. Maramais, former finance minister, will be established here to coordinate relations with other governments, an official spokesman for the Indonesians announced.

The announcement came on the eve of meetings of 20 Asian countries here, called by India to back the republicans' hand. A strong group seeks to unite the 20 in a demand that the United Nations invoke economic sanctions against the Netherlands unless she quickly makes peace with the republicans and gives Indonesia self-rule.

BURMA FIGHT CONTINUES

Premier Reports on Clashes and Ministry Cancels India Trip

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 19 (AP) The Burmese Cabinet was called into session today to confer with Prime Minister Thakin Nu, after he returned from areas where Government troops have been fighting outbursts of violence.

A communiqué said that fighting between Army troops and Karen tribesmen, who seek an independent state continued in the rich Irrawaddy delta area.

Armed Karens burned Burmese-occupied villages and forced evacuation of the town of Pantanaw, fifty miles west of Rangoon, the communiqué said. Tension in Moulmein eased but farther south the coastal hamlet of Karopyi was burned by the Karens, making several hundreds homeless.

Foreign Minister Kyaw Nyein canceled arrangements to fly to the Asian conference on Indonesia at New Delhi, official sources said.

Drees to Leave for Home

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 19 (AP)—Netherlands Prime Minister William Drees, who has been surveying Indonesian conditions for two weeks, will leave for Holland tomorrow by plane.

He is returning ahead of schedule because of ill health, officials said. They added that he considered his mission almost completed.

Permission was given by the Indian Government for his plane to touch down in India en route. India has prohibited stopovers of regular Dutch commercial flights in protest against Dutch military action in Indonesia.

A Dutch spokesman announced that Indonesian Premier Mohammed Hatta and five other Republican leaders held on Banka Island, had now received freedom to move about the island. A United Nation's Good Offices Committee report that the Indonesian leaders had been closely confined brought a rebuke from the Netherlands Government at The Hague and an inquiry from Dutch military authorities why "original orders" for the treatment of captured Indonesian leaders had not been carried out.

Former Indonesian Premier Sutan Sjahrir, here for "orientation talks" with Dutch officials, said today, in an interview that the proposed American plan for settlement of the Indonesian problem was acceptable to him.

The plan which may go before the United Nations Security Council tomorrow calls for creating an independent United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950. It stipulates that the establishment of the new sovereign government be preceded by a progressive withdrawal of Dutch troops from Indonesia.

129 REPORTED DEAD IN [redacted] RIOTS

DURBAN, Union of South Africa, Jan. 19—(AP) Government officials tonight counted 129 dead in the race rioting between Indians and native Zulus.

There have been no new shootings or other attacks, officials said, but bodies still are being found. The rioting began last Thursday when a native boy was injured in a fight with an Indian.

The Natal Indian congress blamed police for the spread of the violence. The congress said in a statement that police "did not take adequate measures in the early stages of the disturbances."

100 MILLION LOAN TO JEWISH NATION ANNOUNCED BY U.S.

Action Seen as Evidence of American Faith in Israeli

PEACE EXPECTED

UN Mediator Offers First Draft of Truce Plan to Jews, Arabs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — (AP) The United States gave a powerful helping hand to the government of Israel tonight by granting it $100,000,000 in loans needed to develop the Jewish state.

The Export-Import bank made $35,000,000 available for immediate use and earmarked $65,000,000 more for the Israeli government to spend before Dec. 31.

The action was intended to serve as a concrete demonstration to the world that the American government believes that the Israeli nation is here to stay.

The credits were announced a few hours after Acting Secretary of State Lovett said the United States and Britain were trying to hammer out a common approach to the Palestine problem.

Jews, Arabs Confer

The loans came as Jews and Egyptians negotiated on the island of Rhodes for a truce to the Palestine fighting. They are the first credits the new Israel government has been able to obtain from any foreign government since it proclaimed its independence last May.

Jewish sources greeted the announcement joyfully for it gave promise of inducing many countries to grant full diplomatic recognition to Israel. Eliahu Epstein, Israeli diplomatic representative to the U. S. said at a new conference that the loan came at an important moment. "I believe we are now entering a more quiet period in the life of Israel and we will be able to devote ourselves to peaceful development," he said.

The $35,000,000 is to be spent for agricultural equipment, machinery and engineering and technical help needed to boost the output of Israel's farms.

The $65,000,000 is to pay for projects in communications, transportation, housing, manufacturing and public works.

Government officials said the granting of the loans might have these results:

1. Strengthen the hand of the present ruling regime in Israel. The Conservative Socialist party headed by David Ben-Gurion, prior to the Jan. 25 elections.
2. Help the truce negotiations between Jews and Arabs by showing the Arabs the American government does not intend to abandon its long-standing support of Israel.
3. Possibly persuade the British to review their Palestine policy with a view to granting recognition to the Israel government.

BRITISH OFFER TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL DENIED

Lovett Says Franks Did Not

Submit Plan to Alter Status of Tel Aviv.

NO ATTEMPT AT BARGAINING

Under-Secretary Explains Report That U. S. Was Asked to Guarantee Peace.

Washington, Jan. 19 (A. P.).—Under-Secretary of State Lovett denied today that Britain had offered to recognize Israel if the United States would accept a British plan for guaranteeing peace in the Middle East. Lovett told a news conference that he and the British Ambassador, Sir Oliver Franks, had talked over the possibility that Britain would grant diplomatic recognition to the new State, but he emphasized that there was no attempt at bargaining on that point.

Sir Oliver merely indicated, he said, that Britain was considering recognizing Israel, as British Foreign Minister Bevin made plain yesterday to the House of Commons. The report of the British offer came from a governmental spokesman in London. The British embassy here termed it "absolute nonsense," and Lovett said that the embassy is correct.

Lovett said that both Britain and the United States were interested in establishing political, social and economic stability in the Middle East. It is a hopeful sign, he added, that the truce talks between Israelis and Egyptians are going on on the island of Rhodes.

Answering questions, Lovett said that the United States has made no decision about recognizing Transjordan, the Arab country with which Britain has a military agreement.

Worst Defeat Ever For U.S. Looms In China, Representative Judd Says

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—Representative Judd (R., Minn.) said today that if the Communists win control of China "it will be recognized within a few years as the greatest defeat the United States ever suffered in our 170 years of independent existence."

"In simple words, it will be far more serious than Pearl Harbor," Judd said. "That we could repair. This we cannot."

The Minnesotan, a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said he could see no change in State Department policy toward China even though Communist armies are sweeping forward.

"It Is Not Too Late"

In spite of Communist successes, Judd said, "it would not be too late even now to save the Nationalist forces of China if our policy with China was changed to one of active aid."

"It has been the policy of Secretary of State Marshall not to aid our ally, but to force a coalition Government upon it—which is the equivalent of turning China over to Soviet control," he said.

Congress last year, in adopting its foreign aid program, accepted an amendment by Judd earmarking $125,000,000 as military aid to China.

Few Supplies Delivered

Commenting on this, Judd said: "The impression has been given out that nearly all of this has been used up. Actually, only a few million dollars of military supplies ever reached China—and that only late last year.

"Only three ships left these shores with such military supplies. That was in late November. As far as I know, only two actually have arrived there.

"Perhaps contracts have been let for most of the $125,000,000. But contract authorizations are not any good to the Chinese armies if the goods never reach them. The State Department alone is responsible for this."

"Apparent Coalition"

Judd said that if the Chinese Communists finally win control of all China they will set up "an apparent coalition government."

Actually, he said, it will be "under the complete control of the Communists."

"What would then follow," Judd continued, "is that for a few months this fake coalition government would be well behaved, hoping thereby to get the active support of the United States.

"They would attempt to have the United States recognize that government and thus give Russia a second seat on the United Nations Security Council.

Similar To Tito Aid

"The next move would then be to get our economic aid for 'the poor suffering Chinese' in the same manner that we aided Tito with UNRRA.

"When that situation arises, I will then oppose any aid to China—since the United States has enough enemies without building up more of them.

"And when the Congress eventually is asked to pour billions of dollars into added defenses for Alaska, Japan and the Philippines, then the American people will understand what it means to the United States to lose China."

CHIANG NOTIFIES U. S. OF HIS PLAN TO QUIT NANKING

Washington Hears Move to Canton Is On—Embassy Invited to Follow.

Washington, Jan. 19 (A. P.).—The Chinese Government was reported today to have notified the American Government that it is moving from Nanking to Canton, in South China. The United States embassy at Nanking was invited to follow the government.

Under-Secretary of State Lovett told a news conference that the State Department received a message from the embassy this morning, but he did not say what was in it. He had been asked about reports that the Chinese might move to Canton, and he went on to make clear that in such a situation the American Ambassador, John Leighton Stuart, would consult with diplomats of other nations. Lovett also said the State Department would take up the question with other governments here.

From other informants it learned that this morning's message told of the Chinese Government's notice that it is moving from Communist-threatened Nanking, and consultations among the foreign diplomats there are believed to be already under way.

There was no immediate indication here, however, as to whether the United States would accept the Chinese Government's suggestion that the embassy go to Canton. One possibility was that part of the embassy staff might go and part might remain in Nanking, where the United States has a large diplomatic establishment.

ECA Mission To Study Europe's Need Of Metals

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Economic Co-operation Administration today announced it is sending a mission to determine Europe's "irreducible needs" for aluminum and lead under the Marshall plan.

Deputy ECA Administrator Howard Bruce repeated, in the announcement, his December 14 statement that shipments of scrap aluminum and lead from Europe to the United States have "greatly increased" since ECA began shipment of those scarce metals to Europe under the recovery program.

Inquiry May Last Weeks

His original statement on the scrap-metal shipments—that abnormally large quantities were entering this country for sale at "high prices"—touched off a controversy. Britain, Belgium and the Netherlands denied any improper sales. They were the three countries he had named.

A recheck of ECA's cargo figures was begun at once. Today's statement indicated that much investigation remains to be done, possibly extending over "some weeks."

"One Conclusion Is Clear"

Bruce's new statement did not mention "high prices" and conceded that the scarcity of aluminum and lead in this country could have stimulated scrap exports from Europe.

But he declared that the timing of the jump in European exports "certainly suggests the possibility that ECA financed shipments to Europe may have contributed to the increased Western movement."

"One conclusion is clear," Bruce said. "In co-operation with the European governments, we should determine the irreducible needs of the participating countries for Western Hemisphere metals for uses for which secondary scrap cannot be substituted.

Purpose Of Mission

"Having agreed upon this and having provided ECA financing if necessary for these needs, we should encourage in every way the continued shipment to this country of all of the secondary metals which can be gathered up that cannot be used in the participating countries.

"We are sending a mission to Europe for the purpose of making this determination."

AIRLIFT FLIERS TO GET SPECIAL ARMY AWARD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19—(AP) The men helping feed Berlin by air will get a miniature gold-colored transport plane to wear on their occupation medal, it was announced today.

Officially designated as the "Berlin Air-Lift Clasp" the little plane may be worn by any Air Force or Army men who had been helping the air lift for 90 days since June 26, when it began.

ARMED FORCES FILLED, DRAFT MAY BE 'OUT'

Indications Are Nobody Will Be Called In Next 18 Months

Washington, Jan. 19 (AP) — The armed forces have filled their quotas of men—and there are indications that nobody will be drafted in the next eighteen months.

There's one "if" in this outlook. If voluntary enlistments do not provide enough men to replace those who leave the service, then the draft is expected to be revived.

James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, released figures today showing 1,621,000 men under arms as of December 31. That is all the armed services will be able to pay through the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, at which time the present selective service law expires.

Strength Set At 1,621,000

In his budget message to Congress, President Truman set the strength of the armed forces at 1,616,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1. His figures did not include about 5,000 cadets and midshipmen at the Military and Naval academies.

Forrestal included the cadets and middies to make up the 1,621,000 total now in uniform.

The total breaks down as follows:

Army, 675,000 (2,000 below the budget ceiling).

Navy, 447,000 (5,800 over the ceiling).

Marines, 88,000 (2,200 over the ceiling).

To Continue Recruiting

Draft calls already have been withheld for February and March. Recruiting in recent months has been more than sufficient to keep the armed services at maximum strength.

The services will continue to recruit men, a defense official said, to replace those going out. He declined to say how many are expected to leave the service monthly but agreed that recruiting would be smaller.

The Army already has taken steps to cut down its recruits by eliminating two-year enlistments and by refusing to accept married men in certain grades. Regular enlistments must be for three years.

6,798 Drafted In December

Today's figures showed that 6,798 men were drafted into the Army in December. The draft call was for 15,000. There was no immediate explanation as to why fewer men were drafted than had been called for. Defense officials said the Army had not asked the Selective Service Boards to hold back. Kenneth C. Royall, Secretary of the Army, announced a suspension of the drafting machinery in army camps during the Christmas holidays.

A call for 10,000 draftees was issued for January. If this number is delivered to the Army, it will have to cut down its recruiting further so as to hold its total strength to the President's 677,000 ceiling.

Secretary Forrestal's announcement said the recruiting and strength figures have been regrouped and are not exactly comparable with previously released statistics. The figures hereafter will be issued in the same form, it was added.

Giant Windmills Top Atom As U. S. Power Prospect

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 — (AP) Giant windmills—as high as the Washington monument—look like a better bet for new industrial power than atomic energy, a researcher for the Federal Power commission said today.

Percy H. Thomas also declared that such windmills—which he says are theoretically practical — offer the possibiilty of furnishing cheaper electric power than existing hydro-electric or steam plants.

They could be mainly used, he said in an interview before he addressed the Washington Society of Engineers, as auxiliaries to existing power sources — and as the sole source of power in places remote from normal facilities.

Low Cost Power

"Wind power is more attractive than atomic energy for furnishing low-cost utility power for several reasons," he said.

"In the first place, the wind is delivered free at the point of generating the power. A windmill requires no precious raw material such as uranium.

"Less complicated apparatus is involved in a big windmill than is required for an atomic energy reactor. Once your windmill was erected, operation would be simple, requiring only a small supervisory force.

"Moreover, there would be no threat to the health of workers."

Thomas estimated that a 500-feet-high windmill, having an operating capacity of 7,500,000 watts—"sufficient to furnish power for an average industrilized of 50,000 persons"—could be erect at a cost of about $652,500, at pre-war cost levels.

Already Designed

He told the society he has worked out the design of a windmill that would have twin three-bladed "wind wheels" poised atop a 500-foot steel tower.

The design calls for full-capacity operation when the wind is blowing 28 miles an hour.

The idea would be, he said, to tie a network of windmills into a power system that also employed steam or hydro-electric units.

In periods when the wind was blowing right, the mills could do their stuff. In periods of wind-calm, the system could draw upon stored water of the hydro system.

ECA ACTS TO END SCRAP METAL ROW

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration today moved to end a Marshall Plan controversy over heavy European shipment of scrap aluminum and lead into this country while the United States financed supplies of the scarce virgin metals for Europe.

Howard Bruce, ECA deputy administrator, announced that a mission will be sent to Europe to decide the "irreducible needs" of the countries involved—primarily Britain, Belgium and the Netherlands.

Simultaneously it was disclosed that Bruce, retired Baltimore banker and corporation director, has filed a resignation effective Jan. 31. But Administrator Paul G. Hoffman has asked him to remain until June 30.

Houston Resigns

Another high ECA official, information director Bryan Houston, left the recovery agency today. He resigned to become vice president of a New York advertising agency, the agency was not named; neither was Houston's successor at ECA.

Both men set deadlines on their service when they entered and have stayed beyond.

In at least two major respects, Bruce's statement on metals conciliated the British, Dutch, and Belgian governments. They denied his original charges that abnormally large shipments of scrap were entering this country for sale at "high prices" while ECA gave dollars to finance cargoes of the virgin metals for the three nations.

Today's statement left out the "high price" accusation. And it said that intensive investigation for a month indicates that much of the incoming metal did not come directly from the countries named but was "transferred" through them from other points.

Imports Much Larger

Bruce said, however, recent rechecked export and import statistics showing that American imports of the scrap—which formerly were insignificant—assumed importance in June, 1948, "about the time when ECA-financed shipments began."

"The timing of the greatly increased movement of aluminum and lead from Europe to this country certainly suggests the ECA-financed shipments to Europe may have contributed to the increased western movement," Bruce said.

"On the other hand it is possible that the explanation may lie in the tight supply of these metals in the United States which naturally stimulated the purchases from Europe."

Bruce gave the opinion that Marshall Plan shipments themselves intensified the shortage here; that Marshall Plan dollars improved Europe's ability to buy virgin metal; and that the greater scarcity of virgin metal here stimulated scrap purchases overseas."

The personnel of the mission and its departure time have not been fixed. Bruce said it may require "some weeks" to finish the study.

His announcement, however, left the dispute exactly where it was—ECA will investigate whether Europe needs as much aluminum and lead as ECA has been sending. Planned shipments already have been cut by 35,400 tons because of the counter-shipments of scrap to the United States.

GERMAN GUEST ARTIST IS OUT

Dr. Furtwaenger Won't Conduct Chicago Symphony

Chicago, Jan. 19 (AP)—Edward L. Ryerson, president of the Chicago Orchestral Association, announced today Dr. Wilhelm Furtwaengler, German conductor, will not appear as guest conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Earlier today, Dr. Furtwaengler said at Geneva, Switzerland, he had withdrawn from his engagement with the Chicago orchestra. He repeated his protests against artists who, he said, "perpetuate hatred indefinitely while all the world is longing for peace."

Several artists have said they would not appear with Furtwaengler because of his work with the Berlin orchestra during the Nazi regime.

Cleared By Four Nations

Ryerson said it would be "unfair to ask such a distinguished musician to appear under adverse circumstances. . . .

He declared negotiations to bring Furtwaengler to Chicago were started after the association's board of trustees "carefully investigated his record and learned that the combined military authorities of the United States, Great Britain, France and Russia prior to July 1, 1947, gave a decision clearing Dr. Furtwaengler of all Nazi affiliations."

Ryerson declared in a statement that he knew the decision to hire Furtwaengler "would create some opposition and controversy," but that the "attitude of tolerance has not as yet been realized and accepted by many people, including even some outstanding artists."

Some Opposing Artists

Arturo Toscanini, Lily Pons, Vladimir Horowitz and other noted figures in the musical world were among those who protested the plans to hire Furtwaengler.

Ryerson's statement related Furtwaengler's work in Germany, where he was director of the state opera during the Nazi regime.

"The tension between him (Furtwaengler) and the German Government became acute in the year 1944 and he was warned by Hitler that any further intervention on his part in support of a non-Ayran would be considered an act of treason," Ryerson said. "In early 1945 he escaped arrest by the Gestapo by fleeing to Switzerland."

Marines Sail to 'Attack' Joint Forces on Kodiak

By The Associated Press.

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 19—A Navy amphibious attack force carrying 2,000 marines sailed today to invade Kodiak Island, Alaska. Striking and covering forces will depart Jan. 29.

The simulated attack will be opposed by Army, Navy and Air Force units based in Alaska in an operation, Feb. 9-16, designed to test clothing, food and combat equipment developed for fighting in frigid regions.

More than thirty ships and 16,000 men of the First Task Fleet, including the carriers Boxer and Bairoko, will take part. The combined forces will then turn south for a simulated attack on San Francisco to be opposed by planes and submarines of the Western Sea Frontier Command.

Vice Admiral Gerald F. Bogan will bring the First Task Fleet into San Francisco Bay for a visit Feb. 25-27.

COMMUNISTS AIM BLAST AT JURIES

Selection System Rules Out Minorities, Court Told

New York, Jan. 19 (AP)—Attorneys for eleven high Communist officials used presiding Judge Harold R. Medina's own words today in attacking the New York method of Federal jury selection.

The defendants contend that the method of choosing juries here discriminates in favor of the wealthy and against persons of low-income and minority groups.

Richard F. Gladstein, a defense lawyer, said Judge Medina had argued for a more democratic jury-picking method when he was a practicing attorney a few years ago.

However, the judge merely asked, "Does the fact that I fought for a democratic jury system then disqualify me now?"

Refuses To Disqualify Self

Soon afterward he denied the defense motion that he disqualify himself and his colleagues in the Southern district of New York from hearing their verbal assault on the jury system.

This ruling came after he had listened to half a day of argument on the point.

The Communist leaders went on trial Monday on charges they worked for the forcible overthrow of the United States Government.

After Judge Medina had denied the motion to disqualify himself and his fellow judges, the defense attorneys said they planned an elaborate presentation to bolster their motion for throwing out the jury panel.

Judge's Comment Quoted

They said they would call the jury clerk, court officials and even Judge John C. Knox, senior judge in the district, for questioning about how prospective jurors are selected.

In arguing on the disqualification motion, Gladstein read this statement which he said was made about the jury system by Medina as a practicing lawyer:

"This exclusion (of certain classes of persons) was systematic, intentional and deliberate. The officials of the division of jurors denied this as such officials uniformly do in these cases."

Holds Jury System "Captured"

Gladstein maintained that "here in this courthouse the jury system has been captured by Wall Street and Park Avenue—captured by court attachés with the silent acquiescence . . . of every judge in this court."

Harry Sacher, another defense lawyer, said 350,000 Negro men and women and hundreds of thousands of labor-union members were systematically eliminated from consideration in drawing up lists of prospective Federal court jurors.

Louis F. McCabe, also a defense attorney, said Medina once had taken part in "a vigorous, prolonged attack on the blue-ribbon jury system of New York."

"You were looked upon as the starry-eyed reformer shocked at this unjust jury system," he declared.

DUTCH WEIGHING PROPOSAL TO UN

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 19—(AP) A confidential Dutch proposal giving the basis on which Holland would accept Security Council action in Indonesia was reported circulating tonight among council delegates.

The Netherlands delegation to the United Nations would not comment nor would it deny that such a document was in circulation.

Informed sources said the Dutch plan is similar to a revised American resolution which is slated to come before the Security Council tomorrow at 3 p.m. E. S. T.

These sources, who would not be identified, said both the Dutch and the American plans soft-pedal at this time the issue of Dutch troops withdrawals from Indonesian territory.

The United States, which is said to be preparing the resolution jointly with China, Norway and Cuba, was reported to have decided to emphasize the immediate suspension of hostilities by both the Dutch and Indonesian forces.

The original American plan, it was said, had called for progressive withdrawal of Dutch troops from Indonesian territory. This was reported revised to meet objections from some delegates who feared that the Netherlands would ignore a council order for withdrawal of troops.

Informed sources said the apparent decision of the U. S. and other delegations sponsoring the resolution to put it up tomorrow indicated the U. S. believed it had enough backing to put the measure through the council.

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (600)

BY ALEX SINGLETON

LONDON, JAN.19-(AP)-BRITAIN WAS REPORTED RELIABLY TODAY TO BE READY TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL IF THE JEWS GUARANTEE FIRMLY TO AVOID FURTHER TROUBLE WITH THEIR ARAB NEIGHBORS.

A GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID THE BRITISH ALSO WANT THE UNITED STATES TO ENTER INTO A BRITISH-AMERICAN ARRANGEMENT TO BLOCK ANY ISRAELI ATTEMPT AT EXPANSION, BUT THIS ANGLE WAS DENIED IN WASHINGTON.

THE REPORTS DEVELOPED AS PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE ASSUMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR SENDING RAF RECONNAISSANCE PLANES OVER THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN BORDER AREA, WHERE JEWISH FORCES SHOT DOWN FIVE JAN.7.

PRESSED BY CONSERVATIVE LEADER WINSTON CHURCHILL TO "SAY SOMETHING ON THIS" IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, ATTLEE RESPONDED:

"THE ACTION TAKEN IS THE ACTION OF THE GOVERNMENT. THE GOVERNMENT IS RESPONSIBLE AND I AM RESPONSIBLE AND THE GOVERNMENT IS PREPARED TO ANSWER FOR IT."

JAN 1949

CHURCHILL HAD DEMANDED TO KNOW WHETHER INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE FLIGHTS HAD COME FROM THE FOREIGN OFFICE, HEADED BY ERNEST BEVIN. AIR MINISTER ARTHUR HENDERSON SAID HE ISSUED THE ORDERS HIMSELF.

HENDERSON SAID THE RAF CARRIED OUT 20 SCOUTING FLIGHTS OVER PALESTINE IN THE PAST TWO MONTHS AS PART OF RAF'S TRAINING PROGRAM INVOLVING SUCH FLIGHTS OVER THE WHOLE MIDDLE EAST, BUT THAT THE PALESTINE FLIGHTS NOW HAVE BEEN STOPPED.

"INFORMATION REGARDING BREACHES OF THE TRUCE BY EITHER SIDE WAS A MATTER OF IMPORTANCE FOR THE (UNITED NATIONS) MEDIATOR," HE SAID. "SINCE THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S TRUCE IN JUNE XXX THESE FLIGHTS HAVE CONTINUED WITH KNOWLEDGE OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR."

HENDERSON SAID THE IDEA WAS TO LEARN HOW FAR THE JEWS HAD DRIVEN INTO EGYPT. HE SAID THE INFORMATION OBTAINED "WAS MADE AVAILABLE TO THE U.S.GOVERNMENT."

AGAIN CHALLENGING TEL AVIV DECLARATIONS THAT THE RAF PLANES SHOT DOWN HAD CROSSED THE PALESTINE BORDER, HENDERSON SAID TWO PILOTS IN THE HANDS OF THE JEWS WERE CAPTURED BY ISRAELI FORCES ABOUT 10 MILES INSIDE EGYPT.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIR OLIVER FRANKS TALKED OVER PALESTINE MATTERS WITH ROBERT LOVETT, U.S.UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE, IN WASHINGTON YESTERDAY. REPORTS ON THEIR DISCUSSIONS HAVE REACHED LONDON WITH THE TAG "TOP SECRET."

JAN 1949

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE WOULD GO NO FURTHER THAN TO SAY FRANKS AND LOVETT HAD MET. A SPOKESMAN REJECTED AS UNSUPPORTED PUBLISHED REPORTS THAT FRANKS HAD SUBMITTED A DETAILED PLAN FOR ENDING THE STRIFE IN PALESTINE.

BOTH LOVETT AND THE BRITISH EMBASSY IN WASHINGTON DENIED THAT BRITAIN HAS OFFERED TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL IF THE UNITED STATES WILL ACCEPT A BRITISH PLAN FOR GUARANTEEING PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

B129

LOVETT TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE HE AND FRANKS HAVE TALKED OVER THE POSSIBILITY THAT BRITAIN WOULD GRANT DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL, BUT THAT THERE WAS NO ATTEMPT AT BARGAINING ON THAT POINT. HE SAID THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR MERELY INDICATED BRITAIN IS CONSIDERING EXTENDING RECOGNITION, AS BEVIN INDICATED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY. THE BRITISH EMBASSY DECLARED NONSENSE A REPORT THAT A NEW PLAN HAD BEEN ADVANCED.

AT LEAST PART OF THE OFFICIAL RELUCTANCE TO TALK NOLCAN BE ATTRIBUTED

AT LEAST PART OF THE OFFICIAL RELUCTANCE TO TALK NOW CAN BE ATTRIBUTED TO THE CURRENT ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS AT RHODES. BEVINS HAD INVOKED THESE TALKS TO HOLD OFF A FULL FLEDGED PALESTINE DEBATE IN COMMONS UNTIL NEXT WEEK.

BEVIN SEEMED TO BE PLAYING FOR TIME. HE AVOIDED A MEETING OF HIS LABOR PARTY COLLEAGUES IN THE COMMONS TODAY, WHEN A PARTY SHOWDOWN HAD BEEN EXPECTED ON HIS POLICIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST. INSTEAD, THE LABORITES DISCUSSED THE PROSPECTS OF INCREASED TRADE WITH COMMUNIST NATIONS OF EASTERN EUROPE.

BRITAIN'S DECISION TO FREE THE 10,000 OR 11,000 JEWS HELD IN CYRPUS DETENTION CAMPS DREW ATTENTION AT THE ARAB OFFICE IN LONDON. THE ARAB OFFICE DECLARED IN A STATEMENT THE BAN ON ARMS SHIPMENTS TO ARAB STATES SHOULD END.

"THERE IS NOT THE SLIGHTEST DOUBT," IT SAID, "THAT THE ENTRY INTO PALESTINE OF THE JEWS FROM CYPRUS WILL CONSSTITUTE AN ACCRETION OF THE MILITARY STRENGTH OF THE JEWISH ARMED FORCES."

BEVIN SAID YESTERDAY THE INTERNEES WILL BE TURNED LOOSE AS FAST AS THE JEWS CAN PROVIDE TRANSPORTATION FOR THEM.

LONDON,JAN. 19-(AP)-THE DERBYSHIRE CHILDREN'S COMMITTEE APPROVED TODAY PROPOSALS TO SEND THE CHILDREN OF BRITISH GIRLS AND NEGRO AMERICAN SOLDIERS TO THE UNITED STATES FOR ADOPTION.

THE SUGGESTION WAS FIRST MADE BY THE SOMERSET COUNTY COUNCIL, WHICH ASKS AMENDMENT OF BRITISH LAWS TO ENABLE AMERICAN NEGRO FAMILES TO ADOPT CHILDREN NOT RELATED TO THEM.

MOST OF THE CHILDREN ARE ABOUT FIVE YEARS OLD. AS THEY START GOING TO SCHOOLS THEY ARE CREATING SOCIAL PROBLEMS IN MANY BRITISH COMMUNITIES WHERE AMERICAN NEGRO SOLDIERS WERE STATIONED.

ABOURT 45 CHILDREN OF NEGRO AMERICAN TROOPS ARE KNOWN TO BE IN SOMERSET COUNTY. THERE HAS BEEN NO SURVEY OF THE GENERAL SITUATION BUT OFFICIALS OF THE LEAGUE FOR COLORED PEOPLES HERE ESTIMATED THERE ARE ABOUT 700 SUCH CHILDREN IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

THE LEAGUE HAS NUMEROUS LETTERS FROM AMERICANS OFFERING TO ADOPT THEM.

"THERE IS NO GENERAL SCHEME TO SEND THESE CHILDREN TO THE UNITED STATES, AND THERE CANNOT BE UNDER THE PRESENT BRITISH ADOPTION LAWS," A HOME OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID.

"STATUTES PROVIDE THAT ONLY RELATIVES OF THE CHILDREN CONCERNED MAY ADOPT THEM IF THEY ARE TO BE SENT OUT OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH.
"FATHERS OF THESE CHILDREN, IF THEY RECOGNIZE PATERNITY, COULD TAKE THEM TO AMERICA, BUT IN MOST CASES THEY APPARENTLY ARE UNWILLING TO DO SO. IN OTHER CASES PATERNITY HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED."
THE CHILDREN ARE BRITISH SUBJECTS.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE
BY ARTHUR GAVSHON
LONDON, JAN.19-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID TODAY BRITAIN WILL RECOGNIZE ISRAEL IF THE UNITED STATES JOINS IN A BRITISH PLAN TO GUARANTEE PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
BRITAIN IS SAID TO HAVE MADE NEW AND DRASTIC CHANGES IN HER HOLY LAND POLICY IN THE MIDDLE EAST PLAN WHICH SHE IS PROPOSING TO THE UNITED STATES.
THE SOURCE SAID THE OFFER TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL WAS MADE IN A SERIES OF TOP-SECRET WASHINGTON TALKS BETWEEN THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, SIR OLIVER FRANKS, AND U.S. UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE ROBERT LOVETT.
AFTER LOVETT DENIED IN WASHINGTON THAT SUCH AN OFFER WAS MADE, THE SOURCE WAS ASKED IF HE STOOD BY HIS REPORT. HE REPLIED THAT HE DID, BUT ADDED THIS QUALIFICATION:
WHILE NO ACTUAL BARGAINING IS TAKING PLACE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN IN A SEARCH FOR A PALESTINE SETTLEMENT, EACH COUNTRY HAS THE SAME BROAD OBJECTIVE--THE ESTABLISHMENT OF MIDDLE EAST SECURITY. BRITAIN WOULD RECOGNIZE ISRAEL IF THE UNITED STATES STOOD READY WITH HER TO UNDERWRITE THE GENERAL SECURITY OF THE REGION. THUS FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AND HIS ADVISERS ARE ANXIOUS TO PERSUADE THE UNITED STATES, WITH ITS INFLUENCE OVER THE ISRAELIS, TO JOIN IN PLEDGING MIDDLE EAST PEACE.
THE DEVELOPMENT COINCIDED WITH A MEETING OF LABOR PARTY MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT WITH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN. BEVIN'S CRIFICS SHOWED UP IN FORCE TO ASSAIL HIS HANDLING OF THE HOLY LAND SITUATION--BUT THE FOREIGN SECRETARY HIMSELF FAILED TO SHOW UP.
THE CLOSED CAUCUS OF THE 392 LABOR MEMBERS WAS TO TAKE UP BEVIN'S POLICY IN THE LIGHT OF HIS STATEMENT YESTERDAY--A STATEMENT LARGELY CONCILIATORY TO THE FOREIGN SECRETARY'S CRITICS ON THE MIDDLE EAST SITUATION.
AS IT TURNED OUT, PALESTINE WAS NOT DISCUSSED AT ALL AT THE PARTY MEETING, ONE MEMBER SAID. THE MEETING WAS TAKEN UP BY A REPORT BY HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, ON TRADE PROSPECTS IN EASTERN EUROPE.
THE GOVERNMENT SOURCE SAID BRITISH FOREIGN POLICY PLANNERS ARE INSISTING THAT RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL BE GRANTED QUICKLY AS PART OF THE OVERALL OBJECTIVE OF RESTORING MIDDLE EAST STABILITY, REGARDED AS VITAL TO BRITAIN. LONDON AND WASHINGTON BOTH ARE STUDYING HOW BEST TO ACHIEVE THIS, HE SAID.
ONE IDEA BEING ENTERTAINED, THE SOURCE SAID, IS A JOINT GUARANTEE BY BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES OF THE TERRITORY OF BOTH ISRAEL AND HER ARAB NEIGHBORS. THE QUESTION OF JUST WHAT TERRITORY ISRAEL SHALL ENCOMPASS REMAINS UP IN THE AIR.
THE UNITED STATES FAVORS RETENTION BY ISRAEL OF THE TERRITORY ALLOTTED UNDER THE NOVEMBER, 1947, UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN, WHICH INCLUDES THE DISPUTED NEGEV DESERT AREA. BRITAIN HAS FAVORED THE PLAN OF THE ASSASSINATED PALESTINE MEDIATOR, COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, WHICH WOULD TAKE THE NEGEV FROM ISRAEL AND GIVE HER WESTERN GALILEE IN EXCHANGE. ISRAEL HOLDS BOTH THE NEGEV AND WESTERN GALILEE NOW.
DISPATCHES FROM DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENTS IN WASHINGTON SAID THE BRITISH PROPOSAL INCLUDED BRITISH RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL AND BACKING FOR THE ISRAELI BID TO BE ADMITTED TO THE UNITED NATIONS.
NEITHER FRANKS NOR THE STATE DEPARTMENT REVEALED THE DETAILS OF THE MEETING BUT SIR OLIVER SAID AFTERWARD HE HAD "SOME FEELING OF OPTIMISM" OVER PROSPECTS OF A PALESTINE SETTLEMENT.
THESE REPORTS, ADDED TO FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN'S STATEMENT IN COMMONS YESTERDAY THAT JEWISH INTERNEES ON CYPRUS WILL BE FREED AND HIS STRONG ENDORSEMENT OF ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND EGYPT, INDICATED BASIC REVISIONS HAD BEEN MADE IN BRITAIN'S HOLY LAND POLICY.
BEVIN ALSO CALMED FEARS IN BRITAIN AND ELSEWHERE BY STATING THAT BRITAIN HAD NO AGGRESSIVE INTENTIONS IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY GRAPHIC SAID THE BRITISH PLAN PRESENTED TO LOVETT ALSO INCLUDED A BRITISH AND AMERICAN GUARANTEE OF WHATEVER BORDERS THE ARABS AND JEWS AGREE ON; NON-AGGRESSION TREATIES BETWEEN ISRAEL AND HER ARAB NEIGHBORS, AND INTERNATIONAL GUARANTEES OF FREE ACCESS TO JERUSALEM.
THERE WERE REPORTS SOME OF THE GRUMBLING OVER THE GOVERNMENT'S PALESTINE POLICY MAY BACKFIRE. LONDON NEWSPAPERS SAID RICHARD H.S. CROSSMAN, LEFT-WING LABORITE WHO HAS LED AN INCIPIENT REVOLT AGAINST BEVIN, FACES EXPULSION FROM THE PARTY.
MANY OBSERVERS FELT BEVIN'S STATEMENT YESTERDAY MIGHT ALLAY SOME OF THE INTRA-PARTY DISCONTENT.
CROSSMAN LED A REVOLT AGAINST BEVIN'S FOREIGN POLICY IN 1946 ON THE ISSUE OF RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA. HE MUSTERED ABOUT 100 ANTI-BEVIN VOTES OR ABSTENTIONS AMONG THE LABOR MEMBERS.
THE LABOR GOVERNMENT, PRESSED FOR A GENERAL DEBATE ON PALESTINE, MANAGED TO GAIN A WEEK'S POSTPONEMENT ON THE PLEA THAT IT DID NOT WANT TO HAMPER THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN NEGOTIATIONS AT RHODES.

HENDERSON SAID THE RAF CARRIED OUT 20 RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS OVER PALESTINE IN THE PAST TWO MONTHS, BUT THAT THESE HAVE NOW STOPPED. RESULTS OF THE STUDY WERE TURNED OVER TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE FLIGHTS CONTINUED "WITH THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR," HE SAID. FIVE BRITISH PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN BY ISRAELI FORCES TWO WEEKS AGO.
HENDERSON SAID RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS HAVE BEEN CARRIED OUT SINCE THE END OF THE WAR OVER THE WHOLE MIDDLE EAST AREA AS PART OF THE RAF TRAINING PROGRAM.

LONDON, JAN 19-(AP)-U.S. AIR FORCES HEADQUARTERS HERE DISCLOSED TODAY THAT A NEW GROUP OF 30 SUPERFORTRESSES WILL COME TO BRITAIN EARLY NEXT MONTH AND OCCUPY A NEW FIELD NOW BEING READIED FOR THEM.

THIS DOES NOT MEAN EXPANSION BEYOND THE 90 B29S KEPT HERE ON TRAINING MISSIONS, HOWEVER.

MAJ. THOMAS CORRIGAN OF THIRD U.S. AIR DIVISION HEADQUARTERS SAID SCAMPTON AIR BASE, JUST VACATED BY THE 301ST BOMB GROUP OF 30 PLANES WILL NO LONGER BE USED FOR THE B-29'S.

FOUR WEATHER PLANES--ALL SUPERFORTRESSES--WHICH HAVE OPERATED FROM THE RAF BASE AT WADDINGTON ALSO WILL BE MOVED TO THE NEW FIELD AT SCULTHORPE, ABOUT TWO MILES FROM FAKENHAM, NORFOLK.

THE MOVES, WHICH CORRIGAN SAID HAVE BEEN PLANNED EVER SINCE THE FIRST SUPERFORTS BEGAN COMING HERE LAST JULY, WILL GRUP ALL THE AMERICAN BOMBERS AT THREE FIELDS IN WESTERN NORFOLK.

ONE GROUP OF 30 PLANES WILL CONTINUE AT MARHAM AND ANOTHER GROUP AT LAKENHEATH, ABOUT 10 MILES TO THE SOUTH. SCULTHORPE IS ABOUT 15 MILES NORTH OF MARHAM.

SCAMTON AND WADDINGTON, THE BASES BEING VACATED, ARE WELL TO THE NORTH, ACROSS AN ARM OF THE SEA IN LINCOLNSHIRE.

WITH THE DEPARTURE OF THE 301ST GROUP, WHOSE LAST 10 PLANES LEFT FOR SALINA, KAS., AIR BASE THIS MORNING, SUPERFORTRESS STRENGTH IS DOWN TO 60 PLANES IN BRITAIN.

THE GROUPS ALL STAY THREE MONTHS AND THEN ARE REPLACED BY NEW GROUPS ASSIGNED TO TEMPORARY DUTY FOR THE SAME LENGTH OF TIME.

SCULTHORPE, THE NEW FIELD, WAS USED BY FREE FRENCH LIGHT BOMBERS DURING THE WAR BUT WAS CLOSED BEFORE THE END OF THE HOSTILITIES. IT WAS ENLARGED RECENTLY.

EQUIPMENT AND HIGH TEST GASOLINE ALREADY IS BEING MOVED THERE AND BETTER QUARTERS FOR THE MEN HAVE BEEN BUILT.

(ADVANCE) (WX) MINNEAPOLIS, JAN.19-(AP)-WORLD BANK PRESIDENT JOHN J. MC CLOY TONIGHT URGED MARSHALL PLAN GOVERNMENTS TO PUT THEIR FINANCIAL HOUSES IN ORDER NOW AGAINST THE DAY WHEN AMERICAN AID STOPS IN 1952.

MC CLOY SAID EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS SHOULD STOP DELAYING FINANCIAL STEPS WHICH, HE SAID, ARE NEEDED TO CUSHION THE IMPACT TO COME WITH THE END OF UNITED STATES HELP.

IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE FOREIGN POLICY ASSOCIATION, HE SAID:

"THERE IS A NEED TO CORRECT A TENDENCY TO FEEL THAT 1952 IS A LONG WAY OFF AND THAT, THEREFORE, A RELATIVELY LONG PERIOD REMAINS IN WHICH TO MAKE THE ADJUSTMENT WHICH IT IS RECOGNIZED MUST SOME DAY BE MADE."

MC CLOY ALSO TOLD THE ASSOCIATION, A PRIVATE ORGANIZATION INTERESTED IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, THAT EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS SHOULD:

1. SEE TO IT THAT THEIR CITIZENS KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THE SERIOUS FINANCIAL CONDITIONS IN THEIR COUNTRIES;

2. PUT INTO EFFECT AND ENFORCE "AN APPROPRIATE SYSTEM OF TAXES";

3. TRY TO IMPROVE THEIR ECONOMIC SITUATION BY BOOSTING THEIR EXPORTS TO THIS COUNTRY.

EXCEPT IN A FEW AREAS ABROAD, MC CLOY SAID, THE PURPOSE OF THE MARSHALL PLAN HAS BEEN MUCH MORE WIDELY DISCUSSED IN THE U.S.THAN IN EUROPE. HE ADDED:

"IT IS NOT SUFFICIENT THAT THE ECONOMISTS OR EVEN THE POLITICIANS (IN EUROPE) SHOULD KNOW THESE REALITIES. IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THE WORKERS SHOULD KNOW AND UNDERSTAND THEM."

AS FOR NEED FOR A SYSTEM OF TAXATION ABROAD, HE SAID "CERTAINLY IT IS TRUE THAT NATIONS WHICH DO NOT IMPOSE A FAIR SYSTEM OF TAXATION UPON THEIR CITIZENS CANNOT IN THE LONG RUN RELY UPON THE TAX COLLECTIONS OF OTHER NATIONS TO DO SO."

CALLING FOR INCREASED EXPORTS TO THIS COUNTRY, MC CLOY SAID "IT IS A MISTAKE TO UNDERRATE THE EXTENT OF AMERICAN DEMAND. SUSTAINED EFFORT, GOOD QUALITY, REASONABLE PRICES, WILL FIND A RESPONSE IN THE AMERICAN MARKET."

HE SAID THE WORLD BANK'S ROLE UNDER THE PLAN IS TO "SUPPLEMENT" FUNDS BY LOANS NEEDED FOR LONGER-TERM PROJECTS THAN THE MARSHALL PLAN PROVIDES. THE BANK'S PRIMARY INTEREST, HE SAID, WILL BE TO HELP UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES AND THE COLONIAL AREAS.

GEN.LUCIUS D.CLAY MADE A SWIFT TOUR OF HEADQUARTERS AND TROOP AREAS. HIS DEPUTY, LT.GEN.CLARENCE HUEBNER, WAS WITH HIM.

THE SIMULATED COUNTERATTACK COVERED THE FIRST PHASE OF "EXERCISE SNOWDROP," CARRIED OUT IN MILD, MISTY WEATHER. THE MAKE-BELIEVE ENEMY DROPPED PARACHUTE TROOPS INTO THREE AREAS OF THE EAST SIDE OF THE RHINE. COMBAT TEAMS MOVED UP AND QUICKLY WIPED THEM OUT.

OBSERVERS SAY THE GAMES ARE GIVING FIRST DIVISION TROOPS AND CONSTABULARY FORCES FIRST-HAND KNOWLEDGE WHICH WOULD EQUIP THEM TO DEAL WITH ANY POSSIBLE ATTACK. THE RHINE IS THE MAIN LINE OF DEFENSE IN GERMANY.

OFFICERS SAID ANY ATTACKING FORCE FROM THE EAST WOULD FOLLOW THE GENERAL TERRAIN NOW USED BY THE MANEUVERING TROOPS.

THE FIRST DIVISION, WHILE STRUNG OUT THIN ON A 50-MILE FRONT, IS 18,000 MEN STRONG. IT IS THE FIRST TIME SUCH STRENGTH HAS BEEN ALLOTTED TO A U.S. ARMY DIVISION. THREE TANK REGIMENTS AND UNITS NOW IN BERLIN ARE NOT PARTICIPATING IN THE MANEUVERS.

THE TROOPS WERE GIVEN A 20-HOUR BREAK AFTER THE CLOSE OF THE FIRST PHASE. THEY ARE BUSY REGROUPING FOR THE START OF THE NEXT PHASE, PURSUIT OF A FLEEING ENEMY.

GERMANS WATCHED THE COLUMNS OF MOTORIZED TROOPS ROLL TO THE FRONT. THE FRANKFURT NEWSPAPER ABENDPOST PUBLISHED A CARTOON SHOWING A LINE OF JEEPS PASSING A TRAFFIC SIGN READING "DEATH IS SO PERMANENT." THE CARTOON WAS LABELLED "WINTER MANEUVERS, 1949."

JEEP DRIVERS LIKE CPL. WALLACE B. MORRIS, 4132 20TH AVE., MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., THINK THE MANEUVERS ARE NEEDED BY NEW TROOPS HERE. "AFTER WE GET A FEW OF THESE UNDER OUR BELT WE'LL BE A LOT BETTER OFF," HE COMMENTED.

Bucharest, Romania, Jan 19-(AP)-Theodore J. Umbeck, the american oil man, was sentenced to three years in absentia today on a count of misdirecting funds.

Umbeck was formerly representative of American shareholders and an executive of Romano-Americana Oil company, which once was a subsidiary of standard Oil of New Jersey. The court said he gave the company's funds "another direction."

JAN 1949

Alexandru Erenia, Romanian manager of the concern, was sentenced to six months for complicity. Another charge is pending against Umbeck in another similar case.

(Oil companies like other businesses were nationalized when the communists took over Romania.)

MOSCOW, JAN.19-(AP)-RUSSIA IS INCREASING HER TRADE WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES.
THE LATEST AGREEMENT STEPPING UP THE EXCHANGE OF GOODS IS A SOVIET-BULGARIAN PACT SIGNED YESTERDAY AND MADE PUBLIC TODAY. UNDER IT, RUSSIAN-BULGARIAN TRADE WILL BE STEPPED UP 20 PERCENT THIS YEAR OVER 1948.
OTHER RECENT AGREEMENTS CALL FOR INCREASING TRADE WITH POLAND IN 1949 BY 35 PER CENT, AND WITH CZECHOSLOVAKIA BY MORE THAN 45 PERCENT.
A ROMANIAN TRADE DELEGATION IS NOW IN MOSCOW AND TALKS ARE SAID TO BE PROGRESSING SATISFACTORILY. AN INCREASE IN TRADE WITH ROMANIA ALSO IS EXPECTED.

JAN 1949

AN AGREEMENT REACHED WITH HUNGARY LATE LAST YEAR CALLS FOR "TREBLING" TRADE BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS.
INFORMED SOURCES HERE PREDICT THAT A NUMBER OF TRADE DELEGATIONS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES WILL COME TO MOSCOW THIS YEAR. DENMARK IS SUPPOSED TO BE SENDING A GROUP IN LATE SPRING OR EARLY SUMMER. OTHERS WHO MAY COME ARE HOLLAND, BELGIUM, LUXEMBOURG, ICELAND AND BRITAIN.
THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA HAVE NO OVERALL TRADE AGREEMENT, ALTHOUGH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF BUSINESS IS DONE BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES ANNUALLY.
THE SOVIET REACHED A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT AGREEMENTS LAST YEAR.
AN AGREEMENT WITH ITALY IN DECEMBER CALLING FOR A LARGE VOLUME OF TRADE WAS ONE OF THE SOVIET'S BIGGEST DEALS. RUSSIA ALSO REACHED WHAT W DLHESCRIBED AS "SA
VWHAT WAS DESCRIBED AS "SATISFACTORY" ARRANGEMENTS WITH NORWAY AND FINLAND. EARLIER IN THE YEAR A FOUR-YEAR AGREEMENT WAS REACHED WITH SWITZERLAND, THE FIRST PACT OF THIS KIND BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES.
ONLY WITH YUGOSLAVIA HAS BUSINESS DECREASAD RECANTLY. RUSSIA

SAYS THIS IS BECAUSE OF TH "UNFRIENDLY ATTITUDE" OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S REGIME.

RUSSIA HAS A LONG TERM TRADE AGREEMENT WITH SWEDEN AND THERE MAX BE SOME NEW ACTIVITY ON IT THIS YEAR.

A FRENCH TRADE DELEGATION WAS EXPECTED HERE LAST YEAR, BUT THE PROJECT COLLAPSED AFTER FRANCE EXPELLED SOME SOVIET CITIZENS.

RUSSIA ALSO DID SOME BUSINESS LAST YEAR WITH INDIA AND EGYPT. INDIA EXCHANGED TEA FOR SOVIET WHEAT AND WHEAT WAS SENT TO EGYPT INRETURN FOR COTTON.

RUSSIA ALSO IS TRADING WITH COUNTRIES IN SOUTH AMERICA, AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND AND OTHER NATIONS.

THE SOVIET HAS TRADE REPRESENTATIVES IN THE UNITED STATES AND AMERICAN BUSINESSMEN ARE STATIONED IN MOSCOW. THERE ARE OTHER AMERICANS WHO COME HERE FOR SPECIAL BUSINESS DEALS.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD CHINESE

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

NANKING, THURSDAY, JAN. 20-(AP)-MANY OBSERVERS TODAY VIEWED THE EXECUTIVE YUAN'S REQUEST FOR A CEASEFIRE IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR AS ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF GOVERNMENTAL DOUBLETALK--UNLESS IT IS IMPLEMENTED BY A DIRECT ORDER FROM PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

THERE WAS A DISTINCT POSSIBILITY THAT SUCH AN ORDER MAY BE FORTHCOMING FROM THE SPECIAL SESSION OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNING PARTY) CENTRAL POLITICAL COUNCIL, WHICH NOW IS IN SESSION TO DEBATE THE ISSUES OF PEACE.

CHIANG WAS SCHEDULED TO PRESIDE AT THE SESSION.

THE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION OFFICE SAID, AT 10 A. M. (9 P. M. WEDNESDAY, EASTERN STANDARD TIME) THAT NO CEASEFIRE ORDER HAS YET BEEN ISSUED TO NATIONALIST TROOPS, AND THAT NO SUCH ORDER HAS BEEN DEVELOPED BEYOND THE EXECUTIVE YUAN'S RESOLUTION, WHICH IS WITHOUT EITHER MEANING OR EFFECT UNTIL IMPLEMENTED BY CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

AT THAT HOUR, NO REACTION WAS YET AVAILABLE FROM CHIANG HIMSELF.

TTER DEBATE.

INCREASING PRESSURE IS BEING FELT BY THE EMBASSIES TO FOLLOW THE GOVERNMENT SOUTHWARD. DIPLOMATIC SOURCES HAD HEARD EARLIER THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S MOVE WOULD THUS BE REPORTED.

HOWEVER, MOST EMBASSIES HAVE ALREADY DECIDED TO REMAIN IN NANKING.

(COMMUNIST PEACE TERMS, BROADCAST LAST FRIDAY AS A STATEMENT BY CHAIRMAN MAO TSE-TUNG, AMOUNT TO UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER. THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL REACTION BY THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT.)

OBSERVERS SAID EARLIER THAT, IF THE CIVIL WAR CONTINUES, NANKING MAY BECOME ANOTHER "TIENTSIN"--PREY TO ARTILLERY FIRE AND ENCIRCLEMENT.

THEY WATCHED, ETC--SECOND GRAF BJT.

"EVERYONE HERE IS FRANTIC TO KNOW WHAT IS HAPPENING IN NANKING. IS THERE PEACE? IF SO PLEASE TELL THE COMMUNISTS HERE BECAUSE THEY ARE STILL DROPPING SHELLS INTO PEIPING AND IT IS NOT FUN."

(PREVIOUSLY SEVERAL MINISTRIES WERE REPORTED TO HAVE MOVED SOME OF THEIR PERSONNEL FROM THE COMMUNIST THREATENED CAPITAL.)

LAST WEEK CHIANG NAMED A COMMITTEE OF THREE TO DRAFT A CEASE FIRE ORDER. SHORTLY AFTERWARD COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG ISSUED A RADIO ULTIMATUM CALLING FOR TOTAL SURRENDER OF THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. MAO'S TERMS UPSET PLANS IN NANKING AT THAT TIME.

THE COMMITTEE WHICH CHIANG NAMED, AND WHICH PRESUMABLY OBTAINED THE EXECUTIVE YUAN'S APPROVAL OF ITS PROPOSAL, WAS COMPOSED OF MINISTERS WITHOUT PORTFOLIO CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, CHANG CHUN AND CHEN LI-FU.

CHANG CHIH-CHUNG WAS THE GOVERNMENT MEMBER OF U.S. GEN. GEORGE C. MARSHALL'S TRUCE HEADQUARTERS IN 1946 AND HAS BEEN PROMINENTLY MENTIONED AMONG THOSE FAVORING PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. CHANG CHUN IS A FORMER PREMIER AND REGARDED AS A MODERATE KUOMINTANG MEMBER WHILE CHEN LI-FU IS COMMONLY REGARDED AS AN EXTREME RIGHT WING KUOMINTANG MEMBER PREVIOUSLY FAVORING A LAST DITCH STAND AGAINST THE REDS.

MANY FOREIGN DIPLOMATS SAID THE GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN PUTTING PRESSURE ON THEM TO FOLLOW IT SOUTHWARD. THE GOVERNMENT, THESE SOURCES SAID, FELT ITS REFUGEE REGIME WOULD GAIN WORLD PRESTIGE IF THE FOREIGN EMBASSIES WENT ALONG. HOWEVER, MOST OF THE EMBASSIES WANTED TO STAY HERE.

ON THE FIGHTING FRONT -- WHERE THERE WAS VERY LITTLE FIGHTING -- THE COMMAND OF NATIONALIST GEN. TAN GEN-PO, NANKING AND SHANGHAI GARRISON COMMANDER, WAS EXTENDED TO THE HANGCHOW REGION.

COMMUNIST FORCES FROM THE NORTH WERE EXPECTED TO START THEIR ASSAULT ON THE YANGTZE RIVER FRONT SOON. THE REDS REPORTEDLY WERE MOVING SOME OF THEIR TROOPS SOUTH FROM TIENTSIN BY RAIL.

THE AUTHORITATIVE MILITARY NEWS AGENCY IN NANKING ANNOUNCED LATE IN THE DAY THAT T.V. SOONG, CHIANG'S BROTHER-IN-LAW, HAD BEEN RELIEVED AS PACIFICATION ("BANDIT" SUPPRESSION) HEADQUARTERS COMMANDER AT CANTON BY GEN. YU HAN-MOW. SOONG HELD THE POST CONCURRENTLY WITH THE GOVERNORSHIP OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE.

THE NEWSPAPER HU PEI JIH PAO WENT EVEN FURTHER, REPORTING:

"IT IS BELIEVED A PEACE SETTLEMENT HAS ALREADY BEEN AGREED UPON AT LEAST IN PRINCIPLE."

THERE WAS A FAIR AMOUNT OF SHELLING DURING THE NIGHT. MOST RESIDENTS HAD ONLY FITFUL SLEEP.

EVEN LOUDER BLASTS CAME FROM THE NORTHERN SIDE OF LEGATION QUARTERS WHERE DYNAMITERS ARE STILL TRYING TO REDUCE A JAPANESE-BUILT AIR RAID SHELTER--THE MAIN OBSTRUCTION ON THE SITE OF A NEW AIRSTRIP UNDER CONSTRUCTION. THE DYNAMITERS MADE LITTLE HEADWAY.

PICK AND SHOVEL GANGS WERE BUSY LEVELING THE NEW FIELD, WHICH WILL BE THE THIRD INSIDE PEIPING'S WALLS. (COMMERCIAL AIR LINES SUSPENDED SERVICE TO THE CITY BECAUSE THE LARGEST FIELD WAS DAMAGEDY SHELLFIRE, IT W

THE MANEUVERS ARE SWIRLING ACROSS SOME OF THE SAME TERRAIN WHICH WAS WON IN THE BITTER CAMPAIGN OF 1945. SOME 10,000 AIR FORCE OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN ARE ENGAGED IN THE THREE-DAY TEST, WHICH ENDS TOMORROW NIGHT.
THEIR JOB IS TO PREVENT A THEORETICAL ENEMY ATTEMPT TO NEUTRALIZE OKINAWA BY BOMBS, OR TO PUT ITS MAJOR AIRSTRIPS OUT OF OPERATION WITH PARATROOP LANDINGS.
AMERICAN BOMBERS OF THE FIFTH AIR FORCE, IN JAPAN, AND THE 20TH AIR FORCE, ON GUAM, WILL MAKE SIMILATED BOMBING RUNS. THE DEFENDERS INCLUDE MORE THAN 50 JET AND BLACK WIDOW NIGHT FIGHTERS OF THE 13TH AIR FORCE.
THE PROBLEM PRESUMES ALSO THAT "ATTACKING" SUPERFORTRESSES WILL BE ABLE TO CONVOY TRANSPORTS OF PARATROOPERS.
OKINAWA HAS ASSUMED A WARTIME ATMOSPHERE, INCLUDING BLACKOUTS, AIR RAID SIRENS AND STRICT SECURITY REGULATIONS.
MANEUVER RESULTS WILL BE STUDIED CLOSELY FOR POSSIBLE ALTERATIONS OF DEFENSIVE STRATEGY, SAID LT. COL. EDWARD HERBES OF SAN ANTONIO, TEX., 13TH AIR FORCE OPERATIONS OFFICER.

REPRESENTED IN THE MEETING ARE INDIA, AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, AUSTRALIA, IRAN, CEYLON, PAKISTAN, THE PHILIPPINES, EGYPT, SYRIA, ETHIOPIA, SAUDI-ARABIA, YEMEN, IRAQ, LEBANON, TRANS-JORDAN, NEW ZEALAND, CHINA, NEPAL AND SIAM.

INDONESIANS ARE NOT REPRESENTED FORMALLY, BUT WILL HAVE A LOT TO SAY. THEY WILL PRESENT THEIR VIEWS OFFICIALLY IN A MEMORANDUM, AND THROUGH OTHER DELEGATIONS.

NEHRU AND OTHER INDIAN SPOKESMEN HAVE SAID REPEATEDLY THEY ARE NOT TRYING TO WELD AN ASIAN BLOC TO OPPOSE WESTERN COUNTRIES. THEIR SOLE OBJECTIVE, THEY INSIST, IS TO SUPPORT THE UNITED NATIONS EFFORTS TO RESTORE PEACE IN BEATEN-UP INDONESIA.

DUTCH DIPLOMATS HERE WERE SILENT ABOUT THE MEETING. U.S. AMBASSADOR LOY HENDERSON SAID "ANY REGIONAL CONFERENCE WHICH INTENDS TO SUPPORT THE UNITED NATIONS WILL BE OF GREAT HELP TO THE WORLD."

-DASH-

IN BATAVIA, FORMER REPUBLICAN PREMIER SUTAN SJAHRIR SAID IN AN INTERVIEW HE HOPES THE INDIAN CONFERENCE WILL "NOT BE A MERE DEMONSTRATION, BUT CAN BRING FORTH SOMETHING CONCRETE."

SJAHRIR, DESCRIBING THE IMPRISONMENT OF REPUBLICAN PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, GAVE A CLUE TO PART OF WHAT THE INDONESIANS MAY TELL THE INDIAN SESSION IN A MEMORANDUM.

HE SAID THAT WHEN HE LEFT PRABAT IN NORTH SUMATRA FOR HIS MEETING WITH DUTCH PREMIER WILLIAM DREES YESTERDAY, SOEKARNO AND FOREIGN MINISTER AGUS SALIM WERE BEHIND BARBED WIRE BARRICADES PATROLLED BY DUTCH SOLDIERS. HE SAID THEY WERE CONFINED TO A WIRED-IN HOUSE AND YARD.

A DUTCH SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED THAT THE REPUBLICAN PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND FIVE OTHER INDONESIAN LEADERS HAVE BEEN RELEASED FROM THE SINGLE ROOM IN WHICH THEY WERE HELD CAPTIVE, AND NOW HAVE FREEDOM OF THE ISLAND OF BANGKA.

DREES PLANS TO LEAVE BATAVIA TOMORROW TO RETURN TO HOLLAND AFTER TWO WEEKS OF STUDY OF INDONESIAN PROBLEMS. HE IS CUTTING SHORT HIS STAY BECAUSE OF ILLNESS, BUT SAID HIS MISSION WAS ABOUT COMPLETED.

NEW DELHI, JAN. 19-(AP)-DR. TRAN VAN LUAN, VIET-NAM REPRESENTATIVE IN BURMA, SAID TONIGHT HE IS APPEALING TO THE ASIAN CONFERENCE TO TAKE AN INTEREST IN THE VIET-NAM STRUGGLE FOR INDEPENDENCE.

THE VIET-NAMESE ARE BATTLING FRENCH COLONIAL RULE OF INDOCHINA.

LUAN, WHO ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW HE IS SUBMITTING A MEMORANDUM TO THE CONFERENCE STRESSING THESE POINTS: REGRET THAT THE VIET-NAM REPUBLIC WAS NOT OFFICIALLY INVITED; AN APPEAL TO THE ASIAN NATIONS TO GIVE THE VIET-NAM REPUBLIC RECOGNITION; SUGGESTIONS FOR A PERMANENT COMMITTEE TO GUARD ASIAN MUTUAL INTERESTS; PLEDGES OF VIET-NAM SUPPORT FOR INDONESIAN FREEDOM.

BY STEVEN V. DAVID
NEW DELHI, JAN.19-(AP)-DELEGATES FROM 19 COUNTRIES WILL MEET HERE TOMORROW TO SEEK A SOLUTION TO THE STRIFE BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND NATIVE REPUBLICANS ON THE ISLANDS OF JAVA AND SUMATRA IN INDONESIA.
THE ASIAN CONFERENCE WAS CALLED UNDER THE REGIONAL COOPERATION PROVISIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER BY PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA.
NEITHER THE DUTCH NOR THE INDONESIANS HAVE BEEN ASKED TO THE ~~CONFERENCE~~, HOWEVER, WILL SUBMIT A MEMORANDAM OUTLINING THEIR VIEWS. DUTCH REPRESENTATIVES HERE REMAINED SILENT.
NEHRU, BITTER OVER WHAT THE DUTCH CALLED POLICE ACTION AGAINST THE REPUBLICANS LAST MONTH, ISSUED THE CALL FOR THE CONFERENCE LESS THAN THREE WEEKS AGO. INVITATIONS WENT TO A SCORE OF ASIAN AND MIDDLE EASTERN COUNTRIES. ONLY TURKEY REJECTED THE BID.
(AS DELEGATES GATHERED, THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM WAS UNDER STUDY, TOO, BY THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL AT LAKE SUCCESS. - COUNCIL MEETING ON THE SUBJECT, ORIGINALLY SCHEDULED FOR TODAY, WAS DELAYED UNTIL TOMORROW.
(A PROPOSED AMERICAN PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT CALLS FOR PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS AND CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY APRIL, 1950.)
THE ANNOUNCED PURPOSE OF THE CONFERENCE HERE IS TO STRENGTHEN THE HAND OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL IN DEALING WITH THE PROBLEM.
MOST OBSERVERS LOOKED PARTICULARLY FOR ONE RESOLUTION: A RECOMMENDATION TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT ECONOMIC SANCTIONS BE IMPOSED AGAINST THE DUTCH IF THEY DECLINE TO COOPERATE IN PROMPT SETTING UP OF AN INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.
NEHRU WILL ADDRESS THE OPENING SESSION OF THE NEW DELHI TALKS, TO BE HELD IN THE CHAMBER OF THE COUNCIL OF STATE. THE WALNUT-PANELLED CHAMBER WAS THE MEETING PLACE FOR THE UPPER HOUSE OF THE LEGISLATURE DURING BRITISH RULE.
CLOSED SESSIONS AFTER THE INITIAL OPEN MEETING WILL BE IN HYDERABAD HOUSE, A WHITE STONE BUILDING ERECTED BY THE NIZAM OF HYDERABAD BUT NEVER OCCUPIED BY HIM.
A CONFERENCE PROGRAM WILL BE DRAFTED AT A PRELIMINARY MEETING IN NEHRU'S HOUSE TONIGHT.
FIFTEEN COUNTRIES WILL BE REPRESENTED BY DELEGATES: AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, AUSTRALIA, IRAN, CEYLON, PAKISTAN, THE PHILIPPINES, EGYPT, SYRIA, ETHIOPIA, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN, IRAQ, LEBANON AND INDIA.
OBSERVERS WILL BE PRESENT FROM NEW ZEALAND, CHINA, NEPAL AND SIAM.
THERE ARE REPORTS THAT VIET-NAM, THE INDOCHINA NATIONALISTS, MIGHT SEND AN UNOFFICIAL OBSERVER.
THE CONFERENCE WAS NEHRU'S PERSONAL IDEA. HE HAS LONG ADVOCATED CLOSER SOUTHEAST ASIA COOPERATION.

B84 (Q)
HE INDICATED AN INTEREST IN INTER-ASIAN CONSULTATION ON COLONIAL AREAS MONTHS BEFORE THE DUTCH ACTION PROMPTED THE SUMMONING OF THE CONFERENCE.
NEHRU AND OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HAVE TAKEN PAINS TO MAKE IT CLEAR THAT FORMATION OF AN ASIAN BLOC IS NOT CONTEMPLATED.
NEHRU SAID RECENTLY THAT THE CONFERENCE IS NOT INTENDED TO SUPERSEDE THE ACTIVITIES OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, BUT ONLY TO LEND THE COUNCIL SUPPORT ON THE BASIS OF "A UNITED UNDERSTANDING AMONG OURSELVES."
THE UNITED STATES VIEW WAS EXPRESSED BY AMBASSADOR LOY HENDERSON, WHO SAID "ANY REGIONAL CONFERENCE WHICH INTENDS SUPPORT TO THE UNITED NATIONS WILL BE OF GREAT HELP TO THE WORLD."
A REPUBLICAN SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED, MEANWHILE, THAT NEW DELHI WILL BE THE HEADQUARTERS FOR THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN FOREIGN SERVICE, HEADED BY A.A. MARAMIS, REPUBLICAN FINANCE MINISTER.

Dr. Soemitro, deputy leader of the Indonesia republican delegation to the U. N., said his regime is appealing to the nations represented here for joint or individual direct aid. He said money, textiles, arms or ammunition--"everything necessary for a government to function"--are needed.

His group also asked the 19 nations to suspend at once the flight privileges of all Dutch planes. India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Iraq and Saudi Arabia already have done so. The republicans urged the nations also to search Dutch vessels to see if military or semi-military goods are aboard.

Satakopan 1830 apr rm 1310

SJAHRIR SAID THE MERE PASSING OF A RESOLUTION BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL WOULD BE OF NO VALUE UNLESS THERE WAS A GUARANTEE THAT THE PLAN WOULD BE PUT INTO EFFECT.

HE SAID HE WAS ESPECIALLY INTERESTED IN THE ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA WHICH OPENS TOMORROW AT ALLAHABAD, INDIA, ATTENDED BY 20 NATIONS' REPRESENTATIVES.

"I HOPE IT WILL NOT BE A MERE DEMONSTRATION BUT CAN BRING FORTH SOMETHING CONCRETE," SJAHRIR SAID. HE DECLARED HE HAD ALWAYS ADVOCATED A CONCERTED ASIAN EFFORT TO SETTLE ASIAN PROBLEMS

SJAHRIR TALKED WITH DREES BRIEFLY YESTERDAY YESTERDAY. THE INDONESIAN WAS ALLOWED TO COME FROM PRADAT IN NORTH SUMATRA WHERE HE WAS A PRISONER OF THE DUTCH.

B43 (SEG)

HE SAID WHEN HE LEFT PRADAT, INDONESIAN PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND FOREIGN MINISTER AGUS SALIM WERE STILL HELD BEHIND BARBED WIRE BARRICADES. THEY WERE CONFINED TO A HOUSE AND YARD ENCIRCLED BY A WIRE FENCE AND GUARDED BY TROOPS, HE SAID.

SJAHRIR HIMSELF HAS BEEN GIVEN FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT, AND HAS NOT BEEN REQUIRED TO PLEDGE TO REFRAIN FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITY. HE IS A SOCIALIST AND A NATIONALIST BUT COOPERATED WITH NETHERLANDS INDIES AUTHORITIES IN GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE WAR, AND AT THE SAME TIME HAS THE CONFIDENCE OF INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS. HE BECAME PRIME MINISTER OF THE REPUBLIC IN 1945 WHEN THE DUTCH WERE NEGOTIATING FOR A UNITED INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT.

NEGOTIATIONS ALREADY ARE UNDER WAY FOR A RECOGNITION AGREEMENT WHICH WOULD COVER FRENCH INTERESTS IN ISRAEL AND SETTLE THE QUESTION O CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS. FRANCOIS MITTERAND, SPOKESMAN FOR THE FRENCH CABINET, SAID THE AGREEMENT WOULD BE CONCLUDED SHORTLY.

ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND LEBANON, ANOTHER ARAB STATE UPON HER BORDER, WILL START SOON AMONG HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE TWO COUNTRIES, A TEL AVIV DISPATCH SAID. Rhodes said to be shortly.

IT REPORTED ELIAHU SASSOON OF ISRAEL'S FOREIGN OFFICE IS EN ROUTE TO THE LEBANESE FRONTIER VILLAGE OF RAS EN NAQURA TO MEET LEBANESE REPRESENTATIVES. AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN ALSO IS REPORTED TO BE IN THE MAKING.

THE JEWISH DELEGATION WAS REINFORCED TODAY BY COL. YIGAL YADIN, OPERATIONS CHIEF OF ISRAEL. HE FLEW HERE IN STORMY WEATHER LAST NIGHT FROM TEL AVIV, LANDING WITH ONLY A FEW OUNCES OF GASOLINE IN THE PLANE'S FUEL TANKS.

SECRECY MASKED THE BICKERING ON THE ISSUES INVOLVED. IN THE PAST THESE ISSUES HAVE EXPLODED EFFORTS TO RESTORE PEACE TO THE HOLY LAND.

THE RIVAL DELEGATIONS SEEK AGREEMENT ON HOW MUCH OF THE NEGEV ISRAEL SHALL CONTROL. THE JEWS DREAM OF DEVELOPING THE SOUTHERN DESERT AREA INTO FERTILE, WELL-IRRIGATED LAND AND TAPPING ITS REPUTED OIL AND MINERAL RESOURCES. WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM BATTLE AREAS AND REDUCTION OF ARMIES POSE PRACTICAL PROBLEMS FOR THE NEGOTIATORS.

A RELIABLE SOURCE IN TEL AVIV SAID THE FIRST DRAFT OF AN ISRAELI-LEBANESE ARMISTICE AGREEMENT HAD BEEN DRAWN UP IN RAS EN NAQURA, A LEBANESE FRONTIER VILLAGE. ELIAHU SASSOON OF ISRAEL'S FOREIGN OFFICE HEADED THE ISRAELI DELEGATION WHICH MET WITH REPRESENTATIVE OF LEBANON.

THE UNSIGNED DRAFT WAS RETURNED TO THE HOME GOVERNMENTS IN BEIRUT AND TEL AVIV FOR THEIR CONSIDERATION. ADDITIONAL ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS ARE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW.

NIGHT LEAD RUSSIAN

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, JAN. 19-(AP)-UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT TODAY CHALLENGED A BUDDING RUSSIAN PEACE OFFENSIVE WITH THE DECLARATION THAT ACTIONS--NOT WORDS--ARE WHAT COUNT IN ENDING THE COLD WAR.

HE SUGGESTED THE SOVIETS SHOULD COOPERATE IN SOLVING THE BERLIN CRISIS AND COMPLETING AN AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY IF THEY ARE SINCERE IN SAYING THEY WANT TO IMPROVE RELATIONS BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.

LOVETT TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT AMERICAN OFFICIALS ARE VERY MUCH INTERESTED IN ASSERTIONS BY VARIOUS COMMUNIST LEADERS ABROAD THAT SUCH AN IMPROVEMENT IS POSSIBLE AND THAT THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION PARTICULARLY CAN GET ALONG IN PEACE.

OTHER OFFICIALS SAID THE RECENT OUTCROPPING OF SUCH STATEMENTS INDICATES THAT COMMUNIST LEADERS--NOTABLY MARCEL CACHIN IN FRANCE AND PALMIRO TOGLIATTI IN ITALY--EVIDENTLY HAVE RECEIVED SOME SECRET DIRECTIVE FROM MOSCOW, AIMED AT STARTING A NEW PEACE MANEUVER.

LOVETT'S INSISTANCE ON WHAT HE CALLED PROOF OF MOSCOW'S GOOD FAITH INDICATED THE STATE DEPARTMENT IS HIGHLY SKEPTICAL ABOUT THIS LATEST SOVIET MOVE.

ACTUALLY, POLICY MAKING OFFICIALS HERE SAY PRIVATELY THEY CAN REGARD IT ONLY AS A PROPAGANDA OPERATION--UNLESS AND UNTIL IT IS TRANSLATED INTO DEEDS.

AS PROPAGANDA, THEY SAY, IT MAY BE DESIGNED TO OBSTRUCT THE WESTERN POWER'S INCREASING UNITY BY MAKING PEOPLE FEEL THAT EVERYTHING IS GOING TO WORK OUT ALL RIGHT AFTER ALL, WITHOUT ANY FURTHER GREAT EFFORT BEING NECESSARY.

IN ADDITION, AUTHORITIES WHO RECALL THAT THE RUSSIAN GRAB OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA SPED CONGRESSIONAL ACTION LAST YEAR ON THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, SAY THE RUSSIANS MAY NOW FEEL THAT IF THEY EASE UP CONGRESS MAY DELAY ACTION ON NEW PROJECTS COMING UP IN THE WEEKS AHEAD, PARTICULARLY THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT AND MILITARY AID TO NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES.

LIKELY NEW SOVIET PEACE OFFENSIVE:
1. LAST THURSDAY COMMUNIST LEADER MARCEL CACHIN, IN A HEAVILY APPLAUDED SPEECH TO THE FRENCH ASSEMBLY, SAID HE BELIEVED BETTER RELATIONS BETWEEN EAST AND WEST WERE POSSIBLE AND THAT COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND CAPITALIST AMERICA COULD CO-EXIST PEACEFULLY. FRENCH COMMUNIST PUBLICATIONS GAVE HIS TALK SPECIAL ATTENTION.

A16WX
2. CACHIN THEN WENT TO ITALY WHERE HE AND PALMIRO TOGLIATTI BOTH HAMMERED THE SAME THEME IN SPEECHES OVER THE WEEK-END. PERHAPS MORE IMPORTANTLY, THEY KEPT THEIR CRITICISM OF THE UNITED STATES TO A MINIMUM.

3. THE SOVIET EMBASSY INFORMATION BULLETIN HERE PUBLISHED NEW YEAR'S GREETING "TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES". THIS STATEMENT BY BORIS IZAKOV, A RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERMAN, STRESSED THE IDEA THAT "THERE ARE NO BARRIERS TO THE GOOD WILL OF PEOPLES ASPIRING TOWARD A COMMON AIM (OF PEACE)."

WHILE IZAKOV'S NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS LED OFF THE MAGAZINE SEVERAL OTHER ARTICLES IN THE SAME ISSUE CONTAINED THE USUAL COMMUNIST ATTACKS ON THE UNITED STATES OR ON AMERICAN POLICIES ON SPECIFIC ISSUES. THESE ARTICLES INCLUDED ONE HEADLINED "MACARTHUR'S STRIKE BAN RAPPED BY AMBASSADOR PANYUSHKIN." ANOTHER SAID "TACTICS OF WEST IN BERLIN AVOID AGREEMENT."

IN ADDITION TO THE SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENTS REPORTS HAVE REACHED WASHINGTON THAT RUMORS ARE CIRCULATING IN WESTERN GERMANY THAT RUSSIA AND THE WESTERN POWERS MAY REACH A GERMAN SETTLEMENT IN THE SPRING.

AUTHORITIES HERE BELIEVE THESE RUMORS ARE BEING SPREAD BY SOVIET AGENTS IN AN EFFORT TO DISRUPT PLANS FOR UNIFICATION OF WESTERN GERMANY.

VARIOUS SOVIET MANEUVERS FROM TIME TO TIME HAVE PROVOKED QUESTIONS AT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEWS CONFERENCES AS TO WHETHER HE WOULD BE WILLING TO TALK THINGS OVER WITH GENERALISSIMO STALIN. MR.TRUMAN'S OFT-REPEATED REPLY HAS BEEN THE SAME--THAT HE WOULD ALWAYS BE WILLING TO SEE STALIN IN WASHINGTON.

THE FACT IS THAT MR.TRUMAN'S PRESENT ADVISERS ON RUSSIAN AFFAIRS,--WITH THE EXPERIENCE OF THE YALTA, TEHERAN AND POTTSDAM AGREEMENTS BEHIND THEM--HAVE LONG EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT ANY FURTHER GENERAL AGREEMENT WITH THE SOVIET UNION WOULD SIMPLY CLEAR THE WAY FOR NEW DISPUTES AFTER A BRIEF PERIOD OF RENEWED HIGH HOPES FOR PEACE. THEY CONTEND THAT A SETTLEMENT CAN BE MADE ONLY BY THE SLOW PROCESS OF WORKING OUT SOLUTIONS TO SPECIFIC PROBLEMS SUCH AS THOSE NOW EXISTING OVER BERLIN AND THE AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE TREATY.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G. HOFFMAN HAS ASKED BRUCE TO REMAIN UNTIL JUNE 30.

HOUSTON, FORMER VICE PRESIDENT OF THE PEPSI COLA CORPORATION, IS LEAVING WITHIN A DAY OR TWO TO BECOME VICE PRESIDENT OF A NEW YORK ADVERTISING FIRM. NO SUCCESSOR HAS BEEN CHOSEN. OFFICIALS DECLINED TO GIVE THE NAME OF THE ADVERTISING FIRM.

BRUCE SENT A RESIGNATION LETTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN NOVEMBER, IT WAS LEARNED. IN IT, HE REMINDED THE PRESIDENT OF THE AGREEMENT THAT HE COULD LEAVE AFTER THE FIRST OF THE YEAR.

BRUCE RECENTLY CHARGED THAT THREE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES--BRITAIN, BELGIUM AND THE NETHERLANDS--HAVE BEEN SHIPPING MORE THAN NORMAL QUANTITIES OF LEAD AND ALUMINUM TO THE UNITED STATES FOR SALE HERE AT HIGH PRICES WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY GETTING LEAD AND ALUMINUM WITH ECA FUNDS.

THE COUNTRIES DENIED ANY EXTRAORDINARY SHIPMENTS OF METALS IN THE FORM IN WHICH THEY WERE BEING SHIPPED TO EUROPE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN.

AN INVESTIGATION WAS ORDERED. IT IS STILL NOT COMPLETE. MEANTIME, ALUMINUM AND LEAD SHIPMENTS TO EUROPE HAVE BEEN CUT SHARPLY.

BRUCE SAID IN NEW YORK THAT HIS RESIGNATION HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE CHARGES HE MADE.

JUNKETS (250)
WASHINGTON,JAN.19-(AP)-EUROPE AND THE FAR EAST ARE LIKELY TO SEE FEWER UNITED STATES CONGRESSMEN IN THE NEXT TWO YEARS THAN IN THE PAST, UNLESS THE LEGISLATORS PAY THEIR OWN WAY.

HOUSE SPEAKER RAYBURN (D-TEX) TOLD NEWSMEN "I THINK WE'LL HAVE FEWER TRAVELING COMMITTEES IN THIS CONGRESS."

THERE WERE REPORTS THAT CHAIRMEN OF HOUSE COMMITTEES HAVE BEEN TOLD TO GO SLOW ON APPROVING "JUNKETS," PARTICULARLY THOSE WHICH SEND MEMBERS OUT OF THE COUNTRY.

WHILE EACH COMMITTEE MAKES ITS OWN DECISION ON SUCH MATTERS, THE HOUSE ITSELF MUST APPROVE THE BILL, AS MUST THE SENATE IN THE CASE OF ITS COMMITTEES.

AN AIDE TO THE SPEAKER SAID THE RECORDS SHOW THAT AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER AT LEAST 160 SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES WERE OUT OF THE COUNTRY ON "OFFICIAL BUSINESS" DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS.

MOST OF THEM WENT TO EUROPE TO STUDY SUCH THINGS AS THE NEED FOR FOREIGN AID, THE BERLIN AIRLIFT AND THE MORALE OF OCCUPATION TROOPS. OTHERS WENT TO CANADA AND ALASKA TO LOOK INTO THE NEWSPRINT SITUATION.

DURING THE LATE SUMMER AND EARLY FALL THE ORIENT AND THE PACIFIC ISLANDS HAD THEIR SHARE OF VISITING CONGRESSMEN, TOO.

NOBODY EVER HAS FIGURED UP THE TOTAL COST OF CONGRESSIONAL TRAVELS IN THE LAST FEW YEARS, BUT THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WERE APPROPRIATED TO FOOT THE BILL.

BESIDES LEAVING NATIVE SHORES, MANY HOUSE COMMITTEES TRAVELED WIDELY IN THE UNITED STATES.

IF RAYBURN HAS HIS WAY, ALL THIS HAS COME TO AN END. HENCEFORTH SUCH TRIPS AS THERE MAY BE REPORTEDLY WILL BE LIMITED BY A HARD AND FAST REQUIREMENT THAT MOST OF THE TIME AWAY FROM WASHINGTON MUST BE SPENT ON ESSENTIAL COMMITTEE WORK.

3. POSSIBLY PERSUADE THE BRITISH TO REVIEW THEIR PALESTINE POLICY WITH A VIEW TO GRANTING RECOGNITION TO THE ISRAEL GOVERNMENT.
AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE, LOVETT EMPHATICALLY DENIED A REPORT FROM A BRITISH GOVERNMENT SOURCE IN LONDON THAT THE BRITISH HAD OFFERED TO END THEIR DIPLOMATIC BOYCOTT OF ISRAEL IF THE UNITED STATES WOULD CONSENT TO JOIN IN A BRITISH PLAN FOR GUARANTEEING PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.
LOVETT SAID BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES HAVE THE SAME OBJECTIVE IN PALESTINE--RESTORATION OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL STABILITY AND FUTURE SECURITY.
BUT, UNDER QUESTIONING, HE DECLINED TO DIVULGE THE STEPS THAT WOULD GO INTO A COMMON BRITISH-AMERICAN POLICY IN THIS AREA.
LOVETT SAID HE WANTED TO EMPHASIZE THE UNITED STATES HAD MADE NO ATTEMPT WHATEVER TO REACH A "DEAL" WITH THE BRITISH IN ORDER TO GET THEM TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL.
A LONDON SOURCE HAD REPORTED THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, SIR OLIVER FRANKS, HAD OFFERED SUCH A "BARGAIN" TO LOVETT.
COMMENTING ON THIS, LOVETT SAID THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR MERELY TOLD HIM WHAT BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN HAD TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY, THAT RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL WAS UNDER CONSIDERATION.
TOLD OF LOVETT'S REMARKS, THE LONDON SOURCE OF THE ORIGINAL REPORT SAID HE WAS STANDING BY THE REPORT, WITH THIS QUALIFICATION.
ALTHOUGH NO ACTUAL BARGAINING IS GOING ON BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ON A PALESTINE SETTLEMENT, BRITAIN WOULD RECOGNIZE ISRAEL IF THE UNITED STATES STOOD READY TO HELP UNDERWRITE THE GENERAL SECURITY OF THE MIDDLE EAST.

WASHINGTON,JAN.19-(AP)-THE BRITISH EMBASSY DESCRIBED AS "ABSOLUTE NONSENSE" TODAY REPORTS PUBLISHED IN LONDON THAT BRITAIN HAS PROPOSED TO THE UNITED STATES A NEW PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT OF THE PALESTINE CRISIS.
THE REPORTS SAID SIR OLIVER FRANKS, THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR, PRESENTED THE PLAN TO UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT IN A MEETING AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT YESTERDAY.
ASKED ABOUT THEM, AN EMBASSY SPOKESMAN DECLARED THAT AS REGARDS THE SPECIFIC REPORT OF THE PRESENTATION OF A NEW PLAN "THERE IS NOT A WORD OF TRUTH IN IT." HE SAID THAT MOST OF THE SUBJECTS SUPPOSED TO HAVE BEEN COVERED IN FRANKS' PRESENTATION TO LOVETT YESTERDAY ACTUALLY WERE EITHER TOUCHED UPON VERY LIGHTLY OR NOT AT ALL.
CHIEF AMONG THESE TOPICS, ACCORDING TO THE LONDON STORIES, WAS THE QUESTION OF BRITISH RECOGNITION OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL.
THE EMBASSY SPOKESMAN DESCRIBED THIS AS ONE OF THE MANY SUBJECTS UNDER CONTINUOUS DISCUSSION BETWEEN LONDON AND WASHINGTON BUT NOT A MATTER WHICH IS THE OBJECT OF ANY NEW SET OF PROPOSALS.

THESE SOURCES, FAMILIAR WITH THE COUNCIL MOVES, SAID THE UNITED STATES COULD COUNT DEFINITELY ON THE SUPPORT OF CHINA, NORWAY AND CUBA. THESE SOURCES SAID EGYPT WOULD VOTE FOR THE AMERICAN PLAN ALSO, BUT THAT THE EGYPTIANS WOULD PREFER STRONGER ACTION TO FORCE DUTCH TROOPS OUT OF INDONESIA.

THE U.S. PLAN CALLS FOR PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF THE DUTCH SOLDIERS FROM INDONESIAN TERRITORY.

THE U.S. WAS SAID TO BE SEEKING THE SUPPORT OF BRITAIN AND CANADA TO MAKE THE NECESSARY SEVEN VOTES.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SPECULATED THAT ARGENTINA, FRANCE, RUSSIA, AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE WOULD ABSTAIN, IF THEY DID NOT VOTE AGAINST IT. FRANCE AND RUSSIA WERE NOT EXPECTED AT THIS TIME TO CAST A VETO.

INDONESIAN AND DUTCH SOURCES SHOWED A LACK OF ENTHUSIASM FOR THE U.S. PLAN.

CHARLES THAMBOE, INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN AND ALTERNATE DELEGATE, SAID THE U.S. PLAN IS LESS THAN INDONESIA HOPED FOR.
HE SAID THE FIRST CONSIDERATION MUST BE THE RELEASE OF INDONESIAN LEADERS, IMMEDIATELY AND UNCONDITIONALLY.

HE CALLED NEXT FOR THE RAPID WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM INDONESIAN TERRITORY.

THE DUTCH DELEGATION HAD NO COMMENT ON THE RESOLUTION UNTIL IT ACTUALLY IS BEFORE THE COUNCIL BUT INFORMED DUTCH SOURCES INDICATED THERE WERE SEVERAL POINTS WITH WHICH THE DUTCH MIGHT ARGUE.

Truman Pledges Global Crusade For Peace, Scornfully Denounces Communism as 'Breeder of War'

EAST-WEST FIGHT IS KEYNOTE OF INAUGURAL TALK

Must Raise Living Standards of 'Free Peoples,' He Declares

RED ATTACK CHEERED

130,000 See President Take Oath as 32nd Chief Executive

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—Harry S. Truman came into his own as 32nd president of the United States today—and solemnly called for a great crusade to save the world from communism by easing the suffering of poverty-ridden millions.

In his inaugural address, he urged the United States and other nations with technical know-how to join in raising the standards of living of the world's "free peoples." Guarantees—presumably government guarantees—to private investors who will do their part were a salient point in the vast program he outlined.

Lashes at Communism

In blunt and scornful tones, the President lashed out against communism as a "false philosophy" and a breeder of war. The nation, he said, is entering a period that will be "eventful, perhaps decisive, for us and for all the world."

Standing under sparkling, sunny skies, Mr. Truman took the oath for a new, four-year term at 12:29 p.m. E.S.T., before an estimated crowd of 130,000 spectators massed on the Capitol plaza.

A few minutes earlier, Senator Alben W. Barkley, 71-year-old Kentuckian who was born in a log cabin, had been sworn in as vice president.

Promptly at 12:30 p.m., while batteries of radio microphones carried his words out across the country and to foreign lands, the one-time Missouri farm boy who became President launched into a fighting speech against communism and for "peace, plenty and freedom."

The great throng volleyed applause as Mr. Truman, pitting the blessings of democracy against the evils of red Marxism, declared with outthrust jaw:

"The American people stand firm in the faith which has inspired this nation from the beginning. From this faith we will not be moved."

Television cameras caught the dramatic spectacle for the first time in history. Networks beamed the scene to video listeners throughout the east and as far west as the Mississippi river.

Wearing a cutaway coat, grey-striped trousers and grey four-in-hand tie, the 64-year-old President took the brief oath under a glistening white eight-columned portico on the East side of the capitol, directly under the great dome and the green-bronzed statue of freedom at its top. He took off his overcoat and white silk scarf a moment before the ceremony, and stood bareheaded in the cold wind, facing southeast toward the sun.

Red Attack Cheered

Crackling bursts of applause greeted the President's indictment of communism — undoubtedly his strongest pronouncement on foreign policy since he took over the White House upon the death of Franklin D. Roosevelt, April 12, 1945.

Each time he spoke the word "communism," his voice was loaded with angry scorn.

"Communism," he said, "holds that the world is so widely divided into opposing classes that war is inevitable."

"Democracy holds that free nations can settle differences justly and maintain lasting peace."

Then he went on to propose a four-point program of action, pledging:

1. "Unfaultering support" to the United Nations.

2. Continued aid for world economic recovery.

3. Support—including military aid—to bolster freedom-loving nations "against aggression."

4. A "bold new program" to help the world's needy areas.

This last point was the new element in his speech. More than half the world's people are miserable, poverty stricken, diesase ridden, he said.

Must Aid Needy, He Says

Though the material resources of the United States is limited, it and other nations can pool their "technical knowledge" and work through the United Nations to help free peoples raise their living standards.

The aim, he said, should be to help those people "produce more food, more clothing, more materials for housing, and more mechanical power to lighten their burdens."

He spoke of guarantees to investors who put their money in such undertakings. But there must be guarantees also, he said, "in the interest of the people whose resources and whose labor go into these developments."

For, he said, "the old imperialism—exploitation for foreign profit—has no place in our plans."

Mr. Truman announced that he would soon send to the Senate the North Atlantic security treaty, now being drafted with several nations. The purpose of such pacts, he said, "is to provide unmistakable proof of the joint determination of the free countries to resist armed attack from any quarter."

Spectacular Air Show

After the President concluded his 21-minute address, the skies came alive with the darting dragonflies of war—lightning fast jet fighter planes and swift giant bombers forming an "air umbrella" over jam-packed Washington.

From Captol Hill, the scene shifted through downtown Washington to the White House as Mr. Truman rode in triumph at the head of his inaugural parade.

The roar from an estimated million throats drowned out the thunder of planes as the spry little man from Missouri, smiling and waving rode along densely-crowded Pennsylvania Avenue to the reviewing stand fronting the White House.

The greatest parade in Washington's long history—more than 40 floats, 40 bands and 40,000 marchers—followed him in a three-hour procession of music and fanfare, glittering color and gorgeous girls.

The crowd loved it, and so did Mr. T. Once the solemn ceremony of the oath-taking was over, the President chatted gaily with friends and he seemed a completly happy man, forgetful for the moment of the heavy burden of his task in the four years ahead.

The Chief Executive repeated the traditional words of the inaugural pledge, administered by Chief Justice Fred Vinson, in firm and confident tones:

"I, Harry S. Truman, do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of the president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

It was the same oath taken by the nation's first president, George Washington, when the father of his country stood on a balcony at Federal Hall at the foot of New York's Wall Street, April 30, 1789, and took over the guidance of the 13 colonies from British rule while a Spanish man-o-war boomed a 15-gun salute in the harbor.

It was the same oath, too, that Thomas Jefferson took for the first inauguration in the new national capital city of Washington, March 4, 1801, when he walked across muddy fields from his boarding house to the then unfinished capitol.

Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic churchmen offered prayers at today's inauguration ceremony.

The invocation was by the Rev. Edward Hughes Pruden, pastor of the First Baptist Church which Mr. Truman attends here.

After Vice President Barkley had taken the oath, Rabbi Samuel Thurman of St. Louis, his white hair flying in the wind, stepped forward and gave a prayer for the president.

In benediction, after the president's address, came a prayer from the Most Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, archbishap of Washington.

President Truman stood square-shouldered, with his left hand resting on two Bibles, his right hand upraised, as he took the oath.

He stood before a battery of radio microphones, with the great spread-eagle seal of the United States shining in the sun immediately below.

Scores of youngsters perched in the branches of the towering winter-stripped elm trees in capitol park to witness the scene. Loudspeakers installed at vantage points carried the President's words to the million-odd spectators in downtown Washington.

Many of his countrymen cried out the familiar "Hi, Harry," as the President, riding with Vice President Barkley in an open limousine, rolled slowly from the inauguration ceremonies to the White House. He was flanked by buddies of his old World War I fighting outfit, who knew him as "Captain Harry" in the Meuse-Argonne days when he commanded Battery D of the field artillery.

Much earlier, at 7 a.m., the President had sat down to breakfast with these old war comrades—a menu of Missouri ham and hominy grits—and had told them with a twinkle:

"After one o'clock, or 25 minutes thereafter, I don't give a damn what you do, but I want you to stay sober up until then."

The President looked fresh and vigorous despite the fact that he had only four and one-half hours sleep after the inaugural eve gala last night.

Right off the bat, he squelched any idea of his old war buddies calling him "Mr. President." One of them did, and Mr. Truman broke in:

"We'll have none of that here. I'm Captain Harry."

Text of Address

Washington, Jan. 20 (A. P.).—The text of President Truman's inaugural address today follows:

Mr. Vice-President, Mr. Chief Justice, and fellow citizens:

I accept with humility the honor which the American people have conferred upon me. I accept it with a deep resolve to do all that I can for the welfare of this nation and for the peace of the world.

In performing the duties of my office, I need the help and prayers of every one of you. I ask for your encouragement and your support. The tasks we face are difficult, and we can accomplish them only if we work together.

Each Period Has Had Special Challenges

Each period of our national history has had its special challenges. Those that confront us now are as momentous as any in the past. Today marks the beginning not only of a new administration, but of a period that will be eventful, perhaps decisive, for us and for the world.

It may be our lot to experience, and in large measure to bring about, a major turning point in the long history of the human race. The first half of this century has been marked by unprecendented and brutal attacks on the rights of man, and by the two most frightful wars in history. The supreme need of our time is for men to learn to live together in peace and harmony.

The peoples of the earth face the future with grave uncertainty, composed almost equally of great hopes and great fears. In this time of doubt, they look to the United States as never before for good will, strength, and wise leadership.

It is fitting, therefore, that we take this occasion to proclaim to the world the essential principles of the faith by which we live, and to declare our aims to all peoples.

The American people stand firm in the faith which has inspired this nation from the beginning. We believe that all men have a right to equal justice under law and equal opportunity to share in the common good. We believe that all men have the right to freedom of thought and expression. We believe that all men are created equal because they are created in the image of God.

From this faith we will not be moved.

U. S. Opposes Regime Of False Philosophy

The American people desire, and are determined to work for, a world in which all nations and all peoples are free to govern themselves as they see fit and to achieve a decent and satisfying life. Above all else, our people desire, and are determined to work for, peace on earth—a just and lasting peace—based on genuine agreement freely arrived at by equals.

In the pursuit of these aims, the United States and other likeminded nations find themselves directly opposed by a regime with contrary aims and a totally different concept of life.

That regime adheres to a false philosophy which purports to offer freedom, security, and greater opportunity to mankind. Misled by this philosophy, many peoples have sacrificed their liberties only to learn to their sorrow that deceit and mockery, poverty and tyranny, are their reward.

That false philosophy is Communism.

Tenets of Communism; Those of Democracy

Communism is based on the belief that man is so weak and inadequate that he is unable to govern himself, and therefore requires the rule of strong masters.

Democracy is based on the conviction that man has the moral and intellectual capacity, as well as the inalienable right, to govern himself with reason and justice.

Communism subjects the individual to arrest without lawful cause, punishment without trial, and forced labor as the chattel of the state. It decrees what information he shall receive, what art he shall produce, what leaders he shall follow, and what thoughts he shall think.

Democracy maintains that government is established for the benefit of the individual, and is charged with the responsibility of protecting the rights of the individual and his freedom in the exercise of his abilities.

Communism maintains that social wrongs can be corrected only by violence.

Democracy has proved that social justice can be achieved through peaceful change.

Communism holds that the world is so deeply divided into opposing classes that war is inevitable.

Democracy holds that free nations can settle differences justly and maintain lasting peace.

Differences Concern Peoples Everywhere

These differences between Communism and democracy do not concern the United States alone. People everywhere are coming to realize that what is involved is material well-being, human dignity, and the right to believe in and worship God.

I state these differences, not to draw issues of belief as such, but because the actions resulting from the Communist philosophy are a threat to the efforts of free nations to bring about world recovery and lasting peace.

Since the end of hostilities, the United States has invested its substance and its energy in a great constructive effort to restore peace, stability, and freedom to the world.

We have sought no territory and we have imposed our will on none. We have asked for no privileges we would not extend to others.

We have constantly and vigorously supported the United Nations and related agencies as a means of applying democratic principles to international relations. We have consistently advocated and relied upon peaceful settlement of disputes among nations.

We have made every effort to secure agreement on effective international control of our most powerful weapon, and we have worked steadily for the limitation and control of all armaments.

We have encouraged, by precept and example, the expansion of world trade on a sound and fair basis.

Prepared to Build Even Stronger Structure

Almost a year ago, in company with sixteen free nations of Europe, we launched the greatest co-operative economic program in history. The purpose of that unprecedented effort is to invigorate and strengthen democracy in Europe, so that the free people of that continent can resume their rightful place in the forefront of civilization and can contribute once more to the security and welfare of the world.

Our efforts have brought new hopes to all mankind. We have beaten back despair and defeatism. We have saved a number of countries from losing their liberty. Hundreds of millions of people all over the world now agree with us, that we need not have war—that we can have peace.

The initiative is ours.

We are moving on with other nations to build an even stronger structure of international order and justice. We shall have as our partners countries which, no longer solely concerned with the problem of national survival, are now working to improve the standards of living of all their people. We are now ready to undertake new projects to strengthen the free world.

Four Major Courses Of Action Emphasized

In the coming years our program for peace and freedom will emphasize four major courses of action.

FIRST, we will continue to give unfaltering support to the United Nations and related agencies, and we will continue to search for ways to strengthen their authority and increase their effectiveness. We believe that the United Nations will be strengthened by the new nations which are being formed in lands now advancing toward self-government under democratic principles.

SECOND, we will continue our programs for world economic recovery.

This means, first of all, that we must keep our full weight behind the European Recovery Program. We are confident of the success of this major venture in world recovery. We believe that our partners in this effort will achieve the status of self-supporting nations once again.

In addition, we must carry out our plans for reducing the barriers to world trade and increasing its volume. Economic recovery and peace itself depend on increased world trade.

THIRD, we will strengthen freedom-loving nations against the dangers of aggression.

We are now working out with a number of countries a joint agreement designed to strengthen the security of the North Atlantic area. Such an agreement would take the form of a collective defense arrangement within the terms of the United Nations Charter.

We have already established such a defense pact for the Western Hemisphere by the treaty of Rio de Janeiro.

Proof of Determination To Resist Armed Attack

The primary purpose of these agreements is to provide unmistakable proof of the joint determination of the free countries to resist armed attack from any quarter. Each country participating in these arrangements must contribute all it can to the common defense.

If we can make it sufficiently clear, in advance, that any armed attack affecting our national security would be met with overwhelming force, the armed attack might never occur.

I hope soon to send to the Senate a treaty respecting the North Atlantic security plan.

In addition, we will provide military advice and equipment to free nations which will cooperate with us in the maintenance of peace and security.

FOURTH, we must embark on a bold new program for making the benefits of our scientific advances and industrial progress available for the improvement and growth of under-developed areas.

More than half the people of the world are living in conditions approaching misery. Their food is inadequate. They are victims of disease. Their economic life is primitive and stagnant. Their poverty is a handicap and a threat both to them and to more prosperous areas.

For the first time in history, humanity possesses the knowledge and the skill to relieve the suffering of these people.

U. S. Is Pre-eminent In Necessary Technics

The United States is pre-eminent among nations in the development of industrial and scientific technics. The material resources which we can afford to use for the assistance of other peoples are limited. But our imponderable resources in technical knowledge are constantly growing and are inexhaustible.

I believe that we should make available to peace-loving people the benefits of our store of technical knowledge in order to help them realize their aspirations for a better life. And, in co-operation with other nations, we should foster capital investment in areas needing development.

Our aim should be to help the free peoples of the world, through their own efforts, to produce more food, more clothing, more materials for housing and more mechanical power to lighten their burdens.

We invite other countries to pool their technological resources in this undertaking. Their contributions will be warmly welcomed. This should be a co-operative enterprise in which all nations work together through the United Nations and its specialized agencies wherever practicable. It must be a worldwide effort for the achievement of peace, plenty, and freedom.

With the co-operation of business, private capital, agriculture, and labor in this country, this program can greatly increase the industrial activity in other nations and can raise substantially their standards of living.

Old Imperialism Has No Place in Our Plans

Such new economic developments must be devised and controlled to benefit the peoples of the areas in which they are established. Guaranties to the investor must be balanced by guaranties in the interest of the people whose resources and whose labor go into these developments.

The old imperialism—exploitation for foreign profit—has no place in our plans. What we envisage is a program of development based on the concepts of democratic fair-dealing.

All countries, including our own, will greatly benefit from a constructive program for the better use of the world's human and natural resources. Experience shows that our commerce with other countries expands as they progress industrially and economically.

Greater production is the key to prosperity and peace. And the key to greater production is a wider and more vigorous application of modern scientific and technical knowledge.

Only by helping the least fortunate of its members to help themselves can the human family achieve the decent, satisfying life that is the right of all people.

Democracy alone can supply the vitalizing force to stir the peoples of the world into triumphant action, not only against their human oppressors, but also against their ancient enemies—hunger, misery and despair.

Slowly but Surely Weaving World Fabric

On the basis of these four major courses of action we hope to help create the conditions that will lead eventually to personal freedom and happiness for all mankind.

If we are to be successful in carrying out these policies, it is clear that we must have continued prosperity in this country and we must keep ourselves strong.

Slowly but surely we are weaving a world fabric of international security and growing prosperity.

We are aided by all who wish to live in freedom from fear—even by those who live today in fear under their own governments.

We are aided by all who want relief from the lies of propaganda—who desire truth and sincerity.

We are aided by all who desire self-government and a voice in deciding their own affairs.

We are aided by all who long for economic security—for the security and abundance that men in free societies can enjoy.

We are aided by all who desire freedom of speech, freedom of religion and freedom to live their own lives for useful ends.

Allies Are the Millions Who Hunger and Thirst

Our allies are the millions who hunger and thirst after righteousness.

In due time, as our stability becomes manifest, as more and more nations come to know the benefits of democracy and to participate in growing abundance, I believe that those countries which now oppose us will abandon their delusions and join with the free nations of the world in a just settlement of international differences.

Events have brought our American democracy to new influence and new responsibilities. They will test our courage, our devotion to duty, and our concept of liberty.

But I say to all men, what we have achieved in liberty, we will surpass in greater liberty.

Steadfast in our faith in the Almighty, we will advance toward a world where man's freedom is secure.

To that end we will devote our strength, our resources, and our firmness of resolve. With God's help, the future of mankind will be assured in a world of justice, harmony and peace.

LEADERS DIFFER ON TRUMAN PLAN TO INSURE PEACE

Practical Phases of 'Global Crusade' Questioned by G.O.P. Senators

HUGE COST CITED

Byrd Is Critical While Most Other Democrats Praise Proposal

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 — (AP) Democrats and Republicans alike apparently agreed today with President Truman's estimate that the nation is entering a period which will be "eventful, perhaps decisive for us and for all the world."

But the lawmakers differed as to whether his call for a vast new development program in backward areas of the globe provided the solution to the still unresolved problem of universal peace.

Senator Byrd (D-Va), for example said government guarantees of private investments for such purposes would "not be wise or practical."

But Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) declared: "This plan will preserve the system of private property if we handle it in harmony with the president's concept, as repeatedly set forth in his messages and speeches."

GOP Opinions Vary

Even the Republicans varied in their interpretation.

Senator Brewster (R-Me) said it was a "very strong speech" with "no signs of appeasement. Now it is a question of practical application of the principles on which we could substantially agree."

But Senator Watkins (R-Utah) said the president's statement "was so vague that it might be fairly said he is contemplating foreign investments without profit. I would be against that."

Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance Committee said he thinks the plan is "all right," but he added that he has some doubts it will work out as expected.

"I think we'll find that a man who has money to invest will put it where he thinks it will bring a profit," George said.

Other typical comment:

Senator Capehart (R-Ind): "I'm not certain what President Truman was talking about, but it sounds a lot like my substitute for the Marshall Plan. That was to promote international trade and commerce by developing private trade instead of socialism and communism.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee: "The president's message dealing with foreign relations is a continuation of the policies which he has already announced. It will appeal to the American people."

Senator Maybank (D-SC): "I especially liked the president's statement against communism, hunger and need. As a member of the appropriations committee, I'll cooperate in every way I can."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), former appropriations committee chairman: "I think we better make sure of the success of the ECA program before branching out on something that might bankrupt the country."

Objectives O. K., Baldwin Says

Senator Baldwin (R-Conn)—"It was a fine statement of objectives. We'll come next to how we are going to implement them.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich)—"He spoke in such generalities that it is difficult to say exactly what he has in mind. x x x We must be careful of trying to buy peace with taxpayers' dollars."

Senator Kerr (D-Okla)—"I like the declaration of this nation's purpose through the United Nations organization to achieve peace. I think the way he said it gives new hopes to hundreds of millions of people who were listening for just those words—the people throughout the world who want peace."

Senator Ecton (R-Mont) — "The President expressed hope for the future, not only for us but for the whole world."

Rep. Javits (R-NY) — "I consider the President's proposal for extension of technological, or know-how, help to other democratic nations represents one of the most fruitful concepts for the future development of the world and for resisting Communistic influences."

Rep. O'Toole (D-NY) — "It augurs well for the future."

Senator Wherry (R-Neb), minority floor leader—"His proposals are on such a colossal financial scale, that deficit spending on the part of the United States would be inevitable and would threaten, if not destroy, our national solvency."

Rep. Vito Marcantonio (ALP-NY) "A reaffirmation of a policy that will lead to bone-busting war."

Rep. Douglas (D-Calif) — "The speech was very much to the point. It was focused on a goal which not only we, but the people of the world desire—peace. It stressed again the fact that we must remain economically strong, and was in no sense controversial."

Rep. Vorys (R-Ohio)—"I was particularly impressed with the way he built up the importance of exporting ideas rather than materials."

New Plan for Private Investment In Foreign Areas Urged by Truman

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP) President Truman today urged the United States to do global battle against poverty by throwing its industrial know-how and money into a "bold new program" to raise the world's standard of living.

In controversy-packed paragraphs of his inaugural address the President hinted at government guarantees for private industry to "foster capital investment in areas needing development."

He urged a world pool of technological knowledge, with other countries contributing as well as the United States. Half the people of the earth dwell in poverty, he said, while America's store of technological knowledge is growing and "inexhaustible."

Senators Disagree on Plan

"We are ready to undertake new projects to strengthen the free world," Mr. Truman declared.

It was uncertain whether Congress was ready—prominent senators quickly split on his guarantee proposal.

But the President made it clear he will ask them to approve a strengthening of foreign investment, and he replied in advance to the expected Soviet charge of "dollar imperialism."

"The old imperialism—exploitation for foreign profit—has no place in our plans," Mr. Truman said.

"What we envisage is a program of development based on the concepts of democratic fair-dealing."

The program should be launched in cooperation with other countries, he declared, and the new economic developments must be "devised and controlled to benefit the peoples."

Balanced Guarantees Urged

"Guarantees to the investor must be balanced by guarantees in the interest of the people whose resources and whose labor go into these developments."

The address promptly arroused speculation whether Mr. Truman would ask a Federal guarantee for investors against losses due to seizure, expropriation, civil strife and other hazards of an unsettled world. Some business leaders have so urged.

It was plain in any case that the President wants something broader than the guarantee—now available under the European Recovery program—that this government will pay dollars for the foreign-currency earnings of companies entering the foreign field.

Congress provided $300,000,000 for such guarantees last spring, but only about $1,000,000 has been used. Economic Cooperation Administrator Paul G. Hoffman has declared that the guarantee machinery "will have to be strengthened" to stimulate investment.

Taft Withholds Opinion

The President obviously has in mind a way to strengthen it, perhaps a plan to be revealed when Congress considers the new $4,300,000,000 second-year appropriation for the Marshall plan.

Congressional comment was divided. Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) called the address "a proclomation of economic freedom." Senator Byrd (D-Va) objected that government guarantees "would not be wise or practical."

Right down the middle, for the moment was the view of Senator Taft (R-O), the Republican policy leader. He told reporters he saw "nothing particularly revolutionary" at first glance in the President's "very general" proposals, but said he would study them further before taking a stand.

they could recognize dignitaries, and dignitaries hoping that people could recognize dignitaries.

There were the same attempts at comedy.

Senator Magnuson (D-Wash), hatless, came down the steps with Senator McMahon (D-Conn).

"We have only one hat between us," cracked Magnuson. "He gets to wear it down the steps, and I get to wear it up."

And, as at any small town party, there was great confusion as to how to dress.

Most of the cabinet wore high hats. But the new secretary of state Dean Acheson, wore a homburg.

Congressmen showed up mostly in their working clothes. But Rep. Boykin (D-Ala) appeared in top hat, frock coat with a fancy tie, striped pants and spats.

Even the diplomatic corps seemed puzzled. Five of them wore hats with feathers on them, similar to Templar. One wore a turban. And Panyushkin showed up in a uniform and cap that made him look like a theater doorman.

Red Envoy Maintains Poker Face As Truman Lashes at Communism

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20—(AP) Alexander Panyushkin, the Soviet ambassador to the United States, has one of the world's finest poker faces.

President Truman lashed out at communism in his inaugural address today. But if it had any effect on Panyushkin, seated 20 feet behind Mr. Truman, he didn't show it.

Communism was wrong, said Mr. Truman, when it decided that wrongs can be corrected by violence.

"Democracy has proved," he continued, "that social justice can be achieved through peaceful change."

I was no more than 10 feet from Panyushkin when Mr. Truman made his statements, and the Soviet ambassador's face displayed no more emotion than if Mr. Truman were discussing the weather, which was windy but nice.

In all fairness, one other thing should be pointed out here.

It was hard to hear. If Panyushkin is slow on his English, it's possible that he sat through it all with only the vaguest notions of what Mr. Truman was saying.

When reporters asked the Russian ambassador afterward if he had any comment he said he did not.

As for the inaugural itself, it was quite a show.

Maybe you can best visualize it, if you think of your own country seat Fourth of July speech-making, and then multiply it by 1,000.

More people, more solemnity, more big shots, more confusion.

But otherwise, it was much the same. There were people hoping

Speech Warlike, Asserts Wallace

New York, Jan. 20 (AP)—Henry Wallace said tonight President Truman's inaugural address asked the nation to prepare for "a war against almost half of the people of the globe."

The former Progressive party presidential candidate issued a statement that the President's address "comes closer to a declaration of war than the inaugural address of any peacetime President in our history."

Russ Agree To Austrian Peace Talks

London, Jan. 20 (AP)—Russia has agreed to resume Big Four talks on an Austrian peace treaty on February 7, a Foreign Office spokesman announced today.

With Russia's acceptance, each of the Big Four powers has now agreed to send deputy foreign ministers to London to renew long deadlocked efforts to conclude an Austrian peace treaty.

DEFICIT IN BRITISH TRADE CUT IN 1948

London, Jan. 20 (A. P.)—Great Britain cut its visible foreign trade deficit £165,000,000 ($660,000,000) last year by exporting a new high record amount of goods, the Board of Trade announced today.

Exports during the year totaled £1,583,300,000 ($6,332,200,000), or triple the 1938 figure.

Imports amounted to £2,079,500,000 ($8,318,000,000), a peacetime record. Re-exports during the year were £64,500,000 ($258,000,000).

The visible adverse trade balance for the year, the Board of Trade said, was £432,000,000 ($1,728,000,000), compared with £597,000,000 ($2,388,000,000) in 1947.

Total exports rose in each quarter of 1948, continuing a trend started at the beginning of 1947, and "consequently the excess of imports fell substantially during the second half of the year," the report said.

GI Husbands Still Wolves, British Author Reports

London, Jan. 20 (AP)—British author Beverley Nichols reports that many British GI brides are unhappy because their American husbands are still wolves.

He said he got that impression while on a visit to the United States. Nichols, whose books and newspaper columns have taken him into many a lively debate, reported his observations to the magazine Woman's Own.

"American husbands give a somewhat loose interpretation to the word fidelity," he wrote.

Calls Americans Foreigners

And he warned British girls, "if you marry an American you marry a foreigner, just as much as if you were marrying a Spaniard or a Greek."

"British girls who lived in cities that were filled with American troops during the war will probably agree that the American male is not notoriously under-sexed," Nichols said. "In the war days this didn't seem to matter so much. There was a certain charm in so much virility, in the wolf with his easy grin.

"But the charm is apt to wear thin when, having crossed the water, you discover that the wolf is still a wolf."

No Hedge Around Home

One British girl to whom he talked, he said, also was a little unhappy in the new world because there was no hedge, not even a fence, around her home.

He said he got the impression the only door the Americans close is the bathroom door.

But one British GI bride telephoned him at Salt Lake City, "I'm the happiest girl in the world."

Briton Calls GI's 'Wolves'; Brides Call Briton Plenty

New York, Jan. 20 (AP)—Are GI husbands wolves?

"Yes," says Beverley Nichols, British author.

"No," cry British wives of American GI's in New York city.

In London, Nichols said many British wives of GI's are unhappy because their husbands are still wolves. He'd got that impression while on a visit to the United States.

Just "Foreigners"

"American husbands give a somewhat loose interpretation to the word fidelity," he warned British girls. "If you marry an American you marry a foreigner, just as much as if you were marrying a Spaniard or a Greek."

"How utterly ridiculous," chorus the British wives here.

Mrs. James Sullivan, secretary of the English Speaking Union, said Nichols's statement was "utterly untrue."

"War-brides clubs all over the country are disbanding because the homesick gals are finding contentment with their GI husbands and need no longer get together to commisreate over 'misunderstanding' mothers-in-law and so forth," she says.

He's Wrong, They Say

A young lady answering the phone at British Information Service was equally positive that GI's were not wolves. She's married to a GI and is perfectly content with her husband, she said.

Mrs. Albert J. Zaloom, of Brooklyn, also was emphatic that Nichols was wrong.

"It was an unfortunate statement to make," she said.

Mrs. Charles A. Anderson, of St. Albans, Queens, New York, said Nichols "didn't know what he was talking about. My husband . . . certainly is not a wolf!"

Mrs. George T. Brazee, of Mount Vernon, N.Y., was "astounded that such a prominent author would make such an irresponsible statement."

New World Labor Unit To Form

Paris, Jan. 20 (AP)—World labor will unite in a new movement to replace the Communist-led World Federation of Trade Unions, the dean of French labor leaders indicated today.

He is Leon Jouhaux, president of the non-Communist Worker's Force. British, Dutch and American union leaders walked out of the WFTU yesterday. Other non-Communist groups are expected to follow.

Remaining Bloc

The remaining bloc of the WFTU—the Russian, French, Italian and Chinese delegates who refused to recognize the legality of the Western walkout—continued to meet.

Louis Saillant, WFTU secretary general, announced that the membership applications of unions in the following areas had been given approval: Chile, Southern Rhodesia, Malta, Siam, Philippines and Tunisia.

Salvador O'Campo, of Chile, presented the case of the Chilean General Federation of Labor for admission.

Communist Parliament Named For East Berlin

Berlin, Jan. 20 (AP)—The hand-picked Communist government of eastern Berlin appointed a rump city parliament today as a substitute for an elected body which had been promised.

Fritz Ebert, the Soviet-backed "mayor," revived two favorite demands of the Russian propaganda machine in an address:

1. Withdrawal of all occupation troops.

2. Establishment of a government for all Germany.

Parliament Called Phony

Whether these themes had any immediate significance was not discernible. Ebert submitted a written program for his government and the rump parliament approved it promptly.

Western Berliners, who elected a city assembly last December, called the new Communist parliament "ersatz," the German word for phony.

Communists named their rump

parliament a "bloc presidium and working committee." Anti-Communists said it obviously was designed to give some pretense of support for the separate government the Communists set up by a show of hands in a theater last November.

At the time Ebert promised "genuinely democratic" elections would be held soon in the Russian sector of the city to choose a parliament.

Erich Geske, a deputy mayor in the rump government, said the time is not yet ripe for the promised elections. Instead "members" were named from the Communist party and satellite organizations.

Meanwhile, the Russian press accused the Western Allies of "again sabotaging" efforts to obtain a solution of blockaded Berlin's currency dispute, which centers on a Russian demand that the Soviet-sponsored mark become the city's only legal money.

The Red army newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau, said the Western powers were seeking to prolong tension here to cover up their activities in western Germany.

Counterproposals Made

American officials said the United States, Britain and France have made counterproposals on a United Nations plan for settlement of the currency issue and that they consider the plan is still being negotiated.

In Bern, Switzerland, members of the currency committee declined comment on the progress of their work. Economic experts of six neutral members of the Security Council, Argentina, Belgium, Canada, China, Colombia and Syria, are on the committee.

The French Foreign Office announced in Paris last night that Western nations had not found acceptable the proposals of a special United Nations group for settling the dispute.

Western Power Retaliation

The French said the United States has offered a counterproposal and France and Britain submitted "several objections" to the draft plan, which was not made public Russia, the French Foreign Office said, was willing to accept the proposals as a "basis for discussion."

The Western powers announced they will no longer carry Russian-licensed newspapers through the mails handled at western Berlin post offices. This was in retaliation for a similar ban by the Russians on Western-licensed newspapers, imposed last September.

However, the barriers were lifted slightly between eastern and western zones of Germany to allow an expanded mail service. A new exchange agreement provides that letters and personal postcards weighing up to 3.6 ounces can now be sent. Previously there was a weight limit of 1.8 ounces. Restrictions on printed matter and commercial papers also were liberalized.

New 'Assembly' Named By Reds For E. Berlin

Berlin, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Communist rump government in the eastern sector of Berlin announced today the establishment of a separate city parliament—named by appointment rather than by elections, which had been promised.

The new "parliament" is designed to give an appearance of popular support for the hand-picked separate government which the Communists set up November 30. It would rival the elected City Assembly chosen in the western Berlin elections December 5. The elections were boycotted by the Communists after the Russians refused to let their sector take part.

Election Was Promised

The hand-picked Communist "mayor," Friedrich Ebert, promised months ago that "genuinely democratic" elections would be held soon to choose a parliament for the Russian sector.

The appointed parliament is called by the Communists a "bloc presidium and working committee" as a substitute for an elected body. The western Berliners immediately termed it "ersatz." Members were selected from the ranks of Communists and their splinter party adherents.

Erich Geske, a deputy mayor in the rump government, tsaid the time is not yet ripe for the promised elections and the substitute parliament would "give the Berlin population the opportunity to pronounce its opinions."

Newspapers Banned

The three Western powers today ordered Russian-controlled newspapers thrown out of the mails in western Berlin post offices. This was retaliation for the Communist ban on mail privileges against Western-licensed newspapers, in effect since September.

The order coincided with another Communist press attack, accusing the Western Allies of "again sabotaging" efforts to solve the Berlin blockade—imposed by the Russians.

The official Red Army organ seized upon the West's rejection of currency proposals by a special United Nations group to intensify its propaganda against the Allies.

No Peace Offensive

This propaganda has been so strong here—and the general Soviet attitude on the Berlin blockade so unrelenting—that any evidence of a possible Communist "peace offensive" elsewhere in Europe was drowned out.

Neither by word nor deed have the Russians shown any softening toward the West here. In fact, attacks against the Allies by the Russian-controlled press and German Communist spokesmen have been extremely heated the past week.

Grievances Listed

Their major targets have been the six-nation Ruhr control statute, the forthcoming western Germany occupation statute, the Military Security Board set up by the West to guard against German remilitarization, and the British prosecution of western German Communist leaders.

Bizonal Production Climbs To 78 Per Cent

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP). Industrial production in the British and American zones of Germany in December climbed to 78 per cent of the 1936 level, Anglo-American officials reported tonight. They said 1936 was considered a normal prewar year.

This was the sixth consecutive month that a new postwar record was set in the bizonal area, said officials of the bipartite commerce and industry group.

December production rose three index points over November and 27 over June. Motor-vehicle production set the December pace with a ten per cent gain.

East-West Germany Mail Service Expanded

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP). The barriers dividing eastern and western Germnay opened slightly today to permit an expanded mail service.

A new exchange agreement provides that letters and personal postcards weighing up to 3.6 ounces, instead of the previous 1.8 ounces, will be permitted to be sent to eastern Germany for residents of the Soviet zone and eastern Berlin.

Two new classes of material may also be sent: Printed matter and commercial papers up to 1 pound 2 ounces, and braille matter up to 15 pounds.

East German Clergy Is Put Under Censor

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP). Russian-drilled German police have clamped a tight censorship on German Protestant and Catholic clergy in eastern Germany, the Frankfurter Rundschau reported today.

All telephone conversations and the entire correspondence of the churchmen are said to be subject to interception by the German "People's Police."

The newspaper also reported the arrest of 40 functionaries of the conservative Christian Democratic party and the liberal Democratic party by German police and the Soviet secret police (NKVD) throughout the Soviet zone.

"Reactionary and subversive" activities were given as the reason for the arrests, the paper said.

3 Planes Collide; 2 Pilots Die

Neubiberg, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP). Three American fighter planes collided in the air over Southern Germany today, killing two of the pilots.

A third pilot, Lieut. Donald S. Holloway, of Donna, Texas, parachuted to safety. He sustained shock and minor bruises but was declared out of danger.

Crash In Formation

The United States Air Force said the three F-47 planes—a modernized version of the P-47 Thunderbolt—collided while on a formation flight. It was not immediately known how the accident occurred, but an Air Force spokesman said the planes apparently locked wings.

The collision took place 10 miles south of Neubiberg, where the planes were based.

Names of the pilots were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

'Enemy' Retreats In War Games

Darmstadt, Germany, Jan. 20 (AP). An imaginary "enemy" retreating eastward was the objective of United States 1st Division troops in Germany today.

These forces, some 16,000 strong, moved into position during the night to enter phase two of "Exercise Snowdrop," winter maneuver now beging carried on in drizzling Phane one was completed yesterday when troops "surrounded and destroyed" mock enemy forces which bridged the Rhine from the West.

Many Inexperienced

The 1st Division troops, many of them inexperienced, were successful in the initial phase when combat teams wiped out the "enemy" along a 50-mile front in the United States zone.

Taking part in the exercise are the headquarters of the 1st and 2d Constabulary brigades, the headquarters of the 2d Armored Division and 1st Division troops minus their regimental tank companies.

Dr. Stoughton Named To Wittenberg Post

Springfield, Ohio, Jan. 20 (A. P.).—Dr. Clarence C. Stoughton, 53, of Staten Island, N. Y., today was elected the first lay-president of Wittenberg College in its 104-year history. He has informed the directors he will give his answer within two weeks.

Italy to Use U. S. Planes for Tourists

Rome, Jan 20 (A. P.).—Italy's defense ministry said today that most of the 200 surplus American Army transport planes assigned recently to this country will be used for tourist service.

Leftist newspapers have charged that the planes will be used to strengthen Italy's air force in violation of the peace treaty.

Vatican Assails Yellow Book

Vatican City, Jan. 20 (A. P.).—The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano said today the Hungarian Government's yellow book on the recent arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty is a "monumentally ridiculous invention."

"The first brief revelations confirm its perfidy, or fear," the article said. The comment, based on press dispatches about the book, added the alleged "confession is not to be trusted after Cardinal Mindszenty's announcement not to believe any confession that might be attributed to him."

Death Sentence Of Papp Commuted

Budapest, Jan. 20 (A. P.).—Hungary's Supreme Court of Justice reduced today the death sentence of Dr. Simon Papp, managing director of the Hungarian subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company (N. J.) to life in jail. Papp was sentenced to death on December 9 by a People's Court of Justice. He was charged with sabotage.

At that time the court said that Papp got instructions "from several members of the American commercial mission in Budapest" to reduce the production of oil wells under the post-war Government.

Karpenision Battle Going On

ATHENS, Jan. 20 (AP)—Greek Army troops and Communist-led guerrillas were engaged tonight in a new battle in mountainous central Greece. The fighting was going on near Karpenision (Karpenissi) 125 miles northwest of Athens.

Front advices said reinforced Army units broke up two rebel assaults, the first coming before dawn and the second this afternoon. The guerrillas blew up two bridges, two and seven miles east of Karpenision, respectively, in an attempt to prevent additional Army troops from reaching the battle zone.

Greek Coalition Cabinet Sworn In

Athens, Jan. 20 (AP)—A new coalition Cabinet, formed by Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, was sworn in today.

Alexander Diomedes, former governor of the National Bank and a veteran liberal, serves as vice premier in the new Cabinet, formed yesterday by the 88-year-old Sophoulis.

Constantin Tsaldaris, Greek Populist leader, remains as Foreign Minister.

Panayotis Kanellopoulos, head of the National Unionist (Navy) party, enters the Cabinet as War Minister.

The ailing Sophoulis resigned as Premier Saturday. King Paul appointed him to form a new government.

Reports On Homes

Although unusually open about the grain production, the administration gave only percentage figures on industrial production. It disclosed, however, that more than 1,600,000 houses had been built or restored in rural localities in the last three years.

Industrial production last year was 27 per cent above 1947, the report said. But it admitted that production quotas had not been filled in several lines, including passenger automobiles, Diesel locomotives, chemical equipment, textile machines, railway ties and certain types of agricultural machinery.

In summing up economic achievements for the year, the administration said the purchasing power of the ruble and the average real wage of workers doubled over 1947.

Cites New Ruble

It cited the issuance of the new ruble, abolition of rationing and lower prices introduced for consumer goods. It said 56 per cent more bread was sold in 1948 than in 1947.

The report claimed an upsurge in railway transport of 27 per cent in freight hauled compared with 1947.

It said steel production was 28 per cent higher, coal 14 per cent, oil 13 per cent, electric power 16 per cent, steam locomotives 53 per cent, railway cars 45 per cent, trucks 43 per cent, automobiles 110 per cent, tractors 104 per cent, timber 33 per cent, and cotton cloth 24 per cent.

"In brief," he said, "Soviet discoveries of uranium in Central Asia within the last decade, while in no sense approaching the great significance of the African and Canadian deposits, appears to provide a possible basis for the development of atomic power in that area.

Other Possibilities Seen

"It must be stressed that all of the Central Asiatic deposits are found within a radius of 250 miles from the important hydroelectric plants of the Tashkent area, which produced 882,000,000 kilowatt-hours of energy in 1943. Labor, transportation and climatic conditions are also favorable there.

"Possibilities for the discovery of significant Uranium deposits associated with pegmatites [granite] in the region between Lake Baikal and the Aldan gold fields [in Siberia] and in the Ukraine, also exist."

In an analysis of available Russian literature on the subject, Shimkin said Russian research on radioactive minerals began in 1900.

By 1914, he said, there were indications that there were no fruitful possibilities in the Caucusus or Transcaucas areas and "in the Urals no indication of deposits of sufficient size for commercial exploitation could be found."

But he said two areas "appeared promising" at that time. One was Tyuya Muyan in the Fergana Valley of Russian Central Asia; the other was the northwest slopes of the Khamar-Daban Range especially near Slyudyanka and along the Trans-Siberian Railroad between Baikal and Kultuk.

Here's how thinngs panned out later:

of the Central Asiatic sites," he wrote, "it should be noted that, according to the Soviet prospecting plan for 1940, search for uranium and radium was to be concentrated in that area."

Later Studies Negative

At Slyudyanka, which seemed to show some promise of producing finds in the early days, said Shimkin, later studies produced mostly negative results—with only one sector revealing a productive area.

But he added:

"Despite the seemingly negative picture [there] the widespread development of formations closely resembling [geologically] the productive sector of this deposit from the Sayan Range northeastward to the Aldan gold fields cannot be ignored."

He said a Russian writer in 1940 had attached great importance to certain kinds of geological deposits in parts of the Ukraine.

"He emphasized," said Shimkin, "the likelihood of large, unexpected discoveries of 'uranium' . . . and other minerals in these areas."

Full Recognition Of Israel Due From U.S.

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—Full American diplomatic recognition of Israel appears certain sometime next week as a follow-up to a $100,000,000 loan to the new Jewish nation.

The American Government took a big step toward this objective yesterday by granting the loan to the provisional Israeli Government —$35,000,000 immediately and $65,000,000 more during the year.

President Truman last May 14—a few minutes after the new state was proclaimed—recognized it as a de facto government, meaning that the United States regards it as in fact the ruling authority there. Last October 24 he announced he had ordered quick handling of loan applications from Israel. Full recognition is called de jure.

Reflects Confidence

The loan approval makes American money available to develop Israel's agriculture and industry. Also, coming six days before elections are held in the Jewish state, it reflects United States confidence in Israel's future.

Government officials said that barring an election upset the State Department will extend full diplomatic recognition to Israel shortly after the January 25 elections.

Only a totally unexpected victory by the Communists or extreme Left-wing Socialists could cause the State Department to stop or delay its plans to broaden the limited de facto recognition.

Ben Gurion Favored

The present Conservative Socialist party headed by David Ben Gurion is heavily favored to win a majority of the 120 seats in the Israeli Parliament. Government officials said his chances for victory undoubtedly have increased since the loan was announced.

The $35,000,000 is to be used immediately to buy tractors, plows and other equipment needed to step up the output of Israeli farms. This increased food yield is required to feed the growing number of immigrants.

The remaining $65,000,000 will be given the Israelis after they submit specific projects calling for American financing. This portion of the credit is available until December 31. The whole amount carries a 3½ per cent interest rate; it is repayable in fifteen years.

British Reaction

The American credits to Israel, coming in the midst of truce negotiations between Jews and Arabs, made a change in British policy toward Israel more likely but not certain.

Government officials shied away from predicting Britain's eventual course, except to repeat Under Secretary Lovett's statement that both Britain and the United States are trying to achieve the same objective in the Middle East—economic and social stability, plus security.

Lovett spiked reports of an impending "deal" whereby the British would recognize Israel in return for American participation in a British plan to defend the Middle East.

But reports of another possible "deal" cropped up almost immediately after Lovett's denial. Rumors circulated that Britain would agree to recognize Israel if the United States in turn would recognize the Kingdom of Trans-Jordan, the British-sponsored Arab nation which is now urging other Arab states to make peace with the Jews.

Soviet Output Up 18% Over Best Prewar Year

Moscow, Jan. 20 (AP)—The Central Statistical Administration announced today that Soviet industrial production in 1948 rose eighteen per cent over the best prewar year of 1940.

Pravda, Communist party newspaper, hailed the report as showing the "immeasurable superiority of the Soviet system over the decaying system of capitalism."

The report said Russia's total harvest of grain crops last year was more than 4,000,000,000 bushels, "almost" equal to the highest grain output before the war.

Harvard Researcher Notes Soviet Uranium Discoveries

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—Russian discoveries of uranium in Central Asia in the past ten years might be sufficient for developing atomic power there, a Harvard researcher said today.

D. B. Shimkin, of Harvard's Russian research center, also declared that possibilities exist for discovery of "significant uranimum deposits" associated with a certain kind of granite in an area of Siberia, and also in the Ukraine.

"Contrary to popular impressions," Shimkin said in Science, journal of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, "a fair amount of authentic information has been published on the uranium resources of the Soviet Union. Because of widespread interest in this subject I believe it worthwhile to summarize the pertinent facts."

Certain veins of ore containing uranium oxide were found in the Gyuya area—with the uranium oxide content ranging from 0.6 per cent to approximately 50 per cent.

In addition, by 1936, according to one writer, the quantity of radium extracted from the Tyuya Muyun ores and from radioactive waters "was enough to meet the needs of the Soviet Union."

Another In Fergana

In 1923, discovery of another uranium deposit in the Fergana Valley was reported. It was described as a uranium-vanadium deposit, similar geologically to the carnotite deposits in Colorado and Utah.

Later, said Shimkin, other finds of uranium-vanadium ores in Central Asia were reported.

ISRAELIS TALK TO LEBANESE

Communication With Trans-Jordan Also Reported

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 20 (AP)—Moshe Shertok, Foreign Minister, told the State Council today that Israel and Lebanon were negotiating but had not yet reached the decisive stage of straight armistice talks.

He said also that Israel and Trans-Jordan were in communication but no official armistice negotiations have started.

This was the first official statement on armistice reports current here for the last few days. Preliminary talks were said to have taken place between Israeli and Lebanese representatives along the Lebanese-Israeli frontier.

Too Early For Prediction

Overshadowing the entire picture was the Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks on Rhodes called by the United Nations.

Shertok told the council it was too early to predict the outcome of this conference.

"The Rhodes negotiations are proceeding clause by clause, but partial agreement reached on every paragraph will not be enforced unless total agreement is reached," he said.

"Meanwhile, there is a three-cornered agreement between the representatives of Israel and Egypt and the acting mediator that temporary and conditional agreements regarding the various clauses not be published before total definite all-around agreement is achieved at Rhodes."

Israeli Position Reiterated

Sources close to the Israeli Foreign Office said Jewish delegates at Rhodes may raise the question soon of how long an Egyptian-Israeli armistice will be permitted to last.

In connection with the Trans-Jordan talks, informed sources said they were being held on a far broader basis than a mere cease-fire or truce arrangement, and were being shrouded with secrecy to avoid any embarrassment on the part of King Abdullah with Britain.

Shertok reiterated the Israeli position that dispatch of British troops to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba "constituted a threat to Israeli's territorial integrity." He said the present situation cannot justify any request by Trans-Jordan for implementation of the Anglo-Trans-Jordan treaty.

Food To Trapped Troops

Shertok said he welcomed the action of Ernest Bevin, British Foreign Secretary, in agreeing to release Jews of military age still held on Cyprus. He said it would put an end to the "tragic episode of pain and suffering of over 10,000 of our brethern."

Meanwhile, a United Nations convoy took 40 tons of food today to the 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluja pocket and brought out 250 sick and wounded men.

Pat 'Has King Over Barrel' In Chess Tilt

Seattle, Jan. 20 (AP)—King County Deputy Sheriff Pat Bliss thinks he's about ready to announce a victory over King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan—at chess.

The game has been going on for four years, ever since Pat heard the King was a chess enthusiast and issued a challenge. The King replied by accepting and including his first move.

After 21 moves each, Pat thinks he "has the king over a barrel now." Maybe it's because the king, busy with a war, delegated one of his court members, Ali Rhui, to supervise the game temporarily.

The opponents have never permitted the heat of combat to interfere with a growing friendship. The king sent Pat a set of beautiful ivory chessmen.

Pat sent the king some hybrid sweet corn and other kinds of seed.

hammed Hatta and other Republican leaders were restored to power as a functioning government. The Dutch have the Republican leaders in custody.]

Dutch sources in Batavia said that Republican leaders would get "almost complete freedom" once talks began between them and leaders of the Dutch-sponsored Federal states in Indonesia about an all-Indonesia Government. Final arrangements for these talks have not been announced.

A Dutch spokesman said that the Republican leaders would not be permitted to go to Jogjakarta, former capital of the Indonesian Republicans, but he expected that they would be allowed to leave the country for Lake Success or New Delhi.

Resolution Said to Be Ready

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 20 (AP)—A four-power resolution for settlement of the Indonesian problem was reported completed tonight after nearly a week of intensive study among delegates to the United Nations Security Council.

Informed sources said that the British had agreed to support the resolution, and this decision apparently insured its passage—perhaps tomorrow.

The Council postponed today's meeting until 3 P. M. tomorrow because the British delegation had not received instructions. An authoritative source said that these instructions had been received late tonight and that the resolution was now ready for the Council.

The United States, China, Norway and Cuba are sponsoring the resolution. Canada and Egypt were said to favor it. The proposal would need seven votes for passage provided that no one of the Big Five cast a veto.

Joint Proposal Due At U.N. On Indonesia

Lake Success, Jan. 20 (AP)—The United States, China, Cuba and Norway were reported ready today

the republic was launched in mid-December.

The paper also suggested that the interim government be set up by March 15, a constituent assembly elected by Oct. 1 and a complete transfer of power be made to the new government by next Jan. 1.

Conference leaders who stressed the idea of a regional Asian organization said such a body is needed to represent what Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India referred to as "half the circumference of the globe and the greater part of its population."

Precedent for such an organization exists in the regional arrangements now found in the western hemisphere and western Europe, the delegates were told. In his speech of welcome, Nehru said:

Colonialism Assailed

"We need today because the freedom of a sister country (the Indonesian republic) has been imperilled. The dying colonialism of a past age has raised its head again and challenged all the forces that are struggling to build up a new structure of the world.

"That challenge has a deeper significance than might appear on the surface, for it is a challenge to a newly awakened Asia which had so long suffered under various forms of colonialism. x x x

"The United Nations organization, a symbol of the one world that has become the ideal of men of thought and good will, has been flouted and its expressed will set at naught. If this challenge is not met effectively, then indeed the consequences will affect not merely Indonesia, but Asia and the entire world."

Nehru spoke of the need for "machinery by which members of the present conference could implement decisions."

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, representing the Philippines, suggested the establishment of a small permanent secretariat to provide information and means of consultation.

It is to be hoped, Romulo added, "that out of such a method of cooperation in nuclear form we shall be able to evolve a potent permanent organization of Asian states" functioning as a regional body of the United Nations.

Independence For Indonesia Is Demanded At Asian Parley

S.Y. DAVID

New Delhi, India, Jan. 20 (AP)—Speakers representing various Asian countries unanimously demanded today the establishment of Indonesian independence.

Many of them also indicated that their twenty-nation conference here might develop into a vast regional organization similar to the Pan American Union. Such a body, it was said, could be set up within the framework of the United Nations.

The conference was called to protest Dutch military action against the young Indonesian Republic. Delegates selected a committee to prepare a resolution to the United Nations Security Council dealing with the setting up of an interim Indonesian government. Australia, Pakistan, Ceylon and India were named to the committee.

Troop Withdrawal Urged

India submitted a paper proposing that all fighting on Java and Sumatra be stopped, Republican leaders freed and Netherlands troops withdrawn to positions held before the Dutch operation against the Republic was launched in mid-December.

The paper also suggested that the interim government be set up by March 15, a constituent assembly elected by October 1 and a complete transfer of power be made to the new Government by next January 1.

Conference leaders who emphasized the idea of a regional Asian organization said such a body is needed to represent what Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India referred to as "half the circumference of the globe and the greater part of its population."

Dutch Premier Urges the World To Curb Its Interest in Indonesia

Drees, Reporting Progress as He Leaves for The Hague, Says Talks Would Be Speeded if Wide Concern Subsided

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 20 (AP)—Dutch Premier Willem Drees said today that talks in Indonesia on forming a national government would be "more fruitful if international interest in this problem would somewhat subside."

Mr. Drees said on leaving for The Hague that during the last two weeks of conferences between Dutch and native leaders, "a number of steps have been taken in the right direction."

"First of all," he said, "positive promises were made regarding the interim government. * * * Furthermore, contacts were established and an atmosphere created which may lead to new consultation between all concerned."

The Premier, who has been surveying conditions in Indonesia for the last two weeks, is returning to the Netherlands ahead of schedule because of ill health, officials said.

[In Singapore a spokesman for the native Indonesian Republicans said that they would negotiate with the Dutch only if President Sukarno, Premier Moto lay before the Security Council a joint proposal on Indonesia.

Consultations continued this morning on the final terms of the resolution, but the four sponsors expressed confidence they would have a draft in the hands of the Council when it meets at 3 P.M. (E.S.T.).

The proposal was based upon a working paper circulated by the United States last week calling for creation of an independent United States of Indonesia by April 1, 1950.

A Modified Plan

Informed quarters said, however, the original draft had been modified considerably to meet objections raised by Britain and others who felt no strong action should be taken against the Netherlands.

It still was not known whether

Asian Conference May Form Vast Regional Bloc in UN

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 20—(AP) Speakers representing various Asian countries unanimously demanded today the establishment of Indonesian independence.

Ask End to Fighting

India submitted a paper proposing that all fighting on Java and Sumatra be stopped, Republican leaders freed and Netherlands troops withdrawn to positions held before the Dutch operations against

Nehru spoke of the need for "machinery by which members of the present conference could implement decisions."

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, representing the Phillippines, suggested the establishment of a small permanent secretariat to provide information and means of consultation.

Permanent Organization

It is to be hoped, Romulo added, "that out of such a method of cooperation in nuclear form we shall be able to evolve a potent permanent organization of Asian states" functioning as a regional body of the United Nations.

The recommendations concerning an Indonesian interim government were agreed upon at a private night meeting which followed the public opening session, held in the walnut paneled chamber of the Indian assembly building.

Although Nehru asked the delegates not to let other conflicts distract their attention from the Indonesian question, Nazim el Kudsi, Syrian representative, said the Palestine situation was as dangerous as the Dutch aggression on Java and Sumatra.

Dutch Envoy Attends

A. T. Lamping, Dutch Ambassador, attended the opening session with other members of the diplomatic corps. He was seated next to Loy Henderson, United States Ambassador. The Indonesian Republic was represented by Dr. D. Soemitro and Dr. Soedarsono.

ASIATICS ASK U.N. ACTION IN INDIES

New Delhi, Jan. 20 (A. P.).—A twenty-nation Asian Conference on Indonesia agreed tonight to draw up recommendations to the United Nations Security Council on setting up an interim government in Indonesia. The conference was called by Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru who termed Dutch action and policies in Indonesia "a challenge to new awakened Asia."

Representatives of Australia, Pakistan, Ceylon and India were named to a committee which will draft the recommendations, the working paper for the meeting prepared by India, proposing fighting be stopped, Republican leaders freed and Dutch forces withdrawn.

Nehru said the conference's mediate objective should be restoration of conditions existing before the Dutch attack on the Republic.

The United Nations announced at Lake Success that today's scheduled Security Council session on Indonesia had been postponed until 3 P. M. tomorrow. Informed observers said this meant that the United States, China, Cuba and Norway were not yet ready to put before the council a resolution for settling the Indonesian problem.

CHINA PEACE PROSPECT DIM

Reds Silent; Kuomintang Leaders Indorse Truce Proposal

Nanking, China, Jan. 20 (AP)—China's Nationalist party leadership indorsed a cease-fire resolution today, but governmental double-talk and Communist silence made peace prospects as dim as ever.

On the war fronts, the Communists maintained their close siege of Peiping and were edging steadily south of the old Hwai River line 100 miles north of Nanking.

Principal civil-war activity, however, was the hastened flight of Government departments and officials southward from Nanking—a movement which was difficult to reconcile with talk of a negotiated peace.

Chiang Absent From Meeting

The Kuomintang (Nationalist party) Central Political Council indorsed Wednesday's resolution of the Executive Yuan (Cabinet) urging a cease-fire and negotiations with the dominant Communists.

Although the political council is a party and not a governmental body, no important step ever is taken without its approval.

However, President Chiang Kai-shek did not attend the meeting, and it is upon his personal decision that any concrete action will depend.

Silent Since January 14

Asked what the next step in the Nationalist "peace offensive" might be, Shen Chang-huan, Government spokesman, replied:

"So far as the Government is concerned there will not be one until the Communists have expressed their desires for a similar halt in hostilities.

"Then, and only then, the national Government will consider ordering a cease-fire and sending a delegation to discuss negotiations."

The Communists have been silent since January 14, when they broadcast peace terms amounting to a demand for unconditional surrender of the Government.

Knowledge "Presumed"

Pressed for a statement on Chiang's attitude, the spokesman said "it may be presumed" that Chiang knew of the cease-fire resolution before it was adopted.

"The resolution indicates the stand of the Government," the spokesman said. "I think both the President and the Executive Yuan are part of the Government."

If national officials plan no more action toward peace than thus far taken, then the cause appears to have advanced little since Chiang's New Year statement calling for peace on his own terms—obviously unacceptable to the Communists.

While both the Executive Yuan and the Kuomintang council were meeting, most Government officials were busy obeying Government orders to move south—mainly to Canton.

Diplomats Await Orders

"If they are really sincere in believing negotiated peace is possible, why are they spending great sums to move Government offices away from Nanking?" asked one foreign diplomat.

A survey of the diplomatic corps found most still "awaiting instructions" from home whether to follow the Government or stay in Nanking. The Government offered the diplomats free transportation to Canton, but its lastest declarations on the desirability of peace seemed likely to delay if not prevent entirely such a move by any of them.

The Chinese foreign office spokesman meanwhile confirmed that United States, Britain, France and Russia had declined a government plea that they attempt to initiate mediation with the communists.

From isolated Peiping, Associated Press Correspondent Spencer Moosa reported a local agreement "in principle" for surrender of that old northern capital and the northwestern city of Kweisui, but said no action had been taken.

Communists Edge South

NANKING, Jan. 20 (AP)—On the war fronts, the Communists maintained their close siege of Peiping and were edging steadily south of the old Huai River line 100 miles north of Nanking.

Principal civil war activity, however, was the hastened flight of Government departments and officials southward from Nanking—a movement that was difficult to reconcile with talk of a negotiated peace.

[The Chinese Communist radio, heard in San Francisco, reported Thursday that the body of Gen. Chiu Ching-chuan, commander of the Government's Second Army Group, had been found southwest of Suchow, where, apparently, he had died in battle some time ago.]

Malay Reds Kill Twelve In Ambush

Singapore, Jan. 20 (AP)—A band of men believed to be Communists ambushed a truck loaded with thirteen members of a security registration team last night and killed twelve of them, including four British soldiers.

The ambush occurred a few miles from Kuala Lumpur on the Kuala Lumpur-Bentong highway.

Burma's Cabinet Resigns To Form Smaller Group

RANGOON, Burma, Jan. 20 (AP)—Burma's twenty-one-man Cabinet, beset by problems from ten months of civil war, resigned today to permit the formation of a more compact Government.

Premier Thakin Nu handed the resignations to President Sao Shwe Thaik. It was announced that Thakin Nu would set up a new Cabinet, greatly reduced in numbers.

Financial troubles resulting from the civil warfare influenced the decision, the announcement said. The Cabinet, predominantly Socialist in membership, was formed last Sept. 14 to succeed the caretaker government of Burma, which gained independence from Britain a year ago. It has been preparing to hold general elections.

The Cabinet was increased from the original eighteen Ministers to twenty-one with the intention of putting down an insurrection by Communists, mutinous troops and others. Karen and Mon rebels have since taken the field against the Government.

POLE DEPORTED DESPITE PLEAS OF PHYSICIAN

Father Of Truman Doctor Declares Man Will Be Killed On Return

Kansas City, Jan. 20 (AP)—The father of President Truman's physician failed to save from deportation to Poland a man he says faces certain death if he falls in the hands of the Russians.

And today the long trip back to Poland began for 26-year-old Henry Dankowski who says he was forced by the Communists to stand and watch his sister face the firing squad in Poland. He left for New York by plane.

Dr. James W. Graham, Federal physician here and father of Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, the President's physician, had written immigration and naturalization authorities in Washington and to both Missouri's senators, seeking to halt the deportation order.

Fears He Will Be Executed

"If he is deported and falls in the hands of the Russians, the sentence will be death by degrees in some uranium mine or by the firing squad," Dr. Graham said.

He had offered Dankowski a job and a home here, but immigration authorities here say Dr. Graham has heard only one of several stories which Dankowski has told about himself.

Dr. Graham became interested in Dankowski through his duties as Federal physician in caring for Government prisoners.

Dankowski has told this story:

His group successfully backed two anti-Communist candidates in a city election called by the Communists for Brest, Poland.

Says 2 Women Were Shot

The night of February 17, 1940, Dankowski and his sister were arrested. When they refused to talk the Russians took his sister, Genia, three other girls and four men, including Dankowski from their cells.

Two women were lined up in a courtyard and shot while the men watched. Dankowski was knocked down and clubbed with a pistol when he sought to help his sister even though he was handcuffed.

On April 20, 1940, he was sent to Siberia for slave labor. When Russia, the United States and Great Britain became allies, Dankowski was released. He made his way to England and joined the Polish army in exile.

Transfer Called Illegal

Later he transferred to the American Army as an interpreter. Dankowski claims the transfer was legal. Immigration authorities say it was entirely unofficial.

After being wounded in the Battle of the Bulge, he later went absent without leave, he says, because he wanted to help his people.

He was arrested and sentenced to 34 months by a court martial and served 32 months at Fort Leavenworth's military prison.

In hearings before the immigration board his army sentence was remitted on the grounds he had not been a legal member of the Army and his deportation was ordered on a charge of illegal entry into the United States.

PLANS PERFECTED FOR INDUSTRIAL WARTIME SET-UP

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 — (AP) An executive of the National Security Resources board declared today his office is developing complete mobilization plans for all industries in the event of war.

Edward V. Hickey, acting director of the office of production of the NSRB, said the plan is one of two being arranged "for the quick expansion and conversion of industry x x x for all out mobilization."

He addressed the national conference of the Society for Advancement of Management.

Speed Mobilization Plans

Hickey said his office had developed a product assignment list that puts the thousands of manufactured products in specific industry divisions. On the basis of the lists, mobilization plans are being prepared for specific industries.

"Thus we shall have integrated plans to assure maximum wartime production if the defense of the nation demands it," Hickey said.

He declared that "phantom" pool orders for "more than $750,000,000 worth of tools have been distributed.

"All that will be necessary if there is an M-Day will be for a government agency such as the reconstruction finance corporation to send out telegrams authorizing execution of the orders, "Hickey said. "With those letters serving as legal 'letters of intent' from the government, the manufacturers would be able to go to their local banks immediately and obtain whatever financing may be necessary for their expanded operations."

Hickey said the second part of the plan "calls for action that would cut across many industries." The plan, Hickey said would be an extension to other commodities of the controlled materials plan used in World War II to allocate steel, copper and aluminum.

The NSRB's office of production also is ready for legal problems involved in speedy mobilization. Hickey said his office "has prepared stand-by emergency legislation for consideration in peacetime."

"The proposed legislation," Hickey stated, "as now drafted contains 20 titles, among them such things as emergency contracting authority, creation and powers of government corporations, defense facilities, priorities and allocations, plant seizure, exemption from anti-trust laws, authority to requisition, import and export control, censorship of communications, price and wage stabilization, renegotiation of contracts, employment controls and settlement of labor disputes."

Use Of Draft Law May Be Finished

Washington, Jan. 20 (AP)—The present draft law may never be used again if enlistments continue high enough to keep the Army at its present strength.

That indication was seen yesterday in figures announced by Secretary of Defense Forrestal. He said the armed forces on December 31 had reached the full quota set by President Truman as his goal for the year ending June 30, 1950—which also is the date the draft law dies.

Mr. Truman called in his budget message to Congress for 1,616,000 men in uniform by that date. Forrestal said present strength totals 1,621,000—including 5,000 West Point and Annapolis cadets omitted from the President's figure.

February and March draft calls already have been stopped by the Army. And the heavy flow of volunteers—attributed partly to the draft—has been slowed by a new ban on two-year enlistments. Recruits now must volunteer for three years.

Steady Recruiting Seen

Officials said they do not know how many men will be leaving the Army, Navy and Air Force as a result of expiring enlistments. But recruiting was expected to keep up easily with that loss.

Noting that possibility in his budget message, Mr. Truman asked Congress to keep the draft law on the books anyhow. He said it was serving to boost recruiting, and would be needed if voluntary enlistments dropped.

ARCTIC FLEET FACED BY 'WILLIWAW' GALES

EN ROUTE TO KODIAK ISLAND, Jan. 20 (AP)—Hundred-mile-an-hour "williwaw" gales, whipped into whirlwinds by blasts from the Arctic, face 18,000 men and forty ships now heading toward Alaska for "the battle of Kodiak Island."

The Weather Bureau says that a williwaw, a cold downslope wind, is a name first applied in the Magellan Straits.

"Williwaws and wet, cold weather conditions are known to occur in the Kodiak area," Rear Admiral Peter K. Fischler said today. "We expect to be miserable. That's why we're going where we are.

"The Navy has learned to fight, and fight well, in almost every other climate in the world but we have not had occasion to gain much experience in extremely nasty conditions prevalent in Alaskan sector in winter time."

Admiral Fischler is in command of a force which will "attack" Kodiak about Feb. 15. He left San Diego Jan. 18 with five ships, carrying 1,500 Marines, who will attempt the landings.

This amphibious unit is part of "Operation Icicle." Remainder of the force will leave West Coast ports about Feb. 1.

NIGHT LEAD AUSTRIAN (160)

LONDON, JAN.20-(AP)-ALL THE BIG FOUR POWERS NOW HAVE AGREED TO RESUME TALKS HERE FEB.7 ON A TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE FOR AUSTRIA, A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID TODAY.

THE SPOKESMAN ANNOUNCED SOVIET AMBASSADOR GEORGI N. ZARUBIN DELIVERED RUSSIA'S ASSENT YESTERDAY. THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE AGREED PREVIOUSLY ON THE DATE. IT WAS PROPOSED CHRISTMAS EVE BY SAMUEL REBER OF THE UNITED STATES AS CHAIRMAN OF THE NEXT MEETING OF DEPUTIES OF THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS.

THE TALKS, CONDUCTED BY THE DEPUTIES, WERE BROKEN OFF HERE LAST MAY AFTER A LONG DEADLOCK OVER RUSSIAN AND YUGOSLAV CLAIMS UPON AUSTRIA. MAJOR ISSUES WERE DEFINITION OF GERMAN ASSETS IN EASTERN AUSTRIA CLAIMED BY RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAV'S DEMAND, WHICH RUSSIA BACKED, FOR SOUTHERN CARINTHIAN TERRITORY. THE BREAK SINCE BETWEEN MOSCOW AND BELGRADE MAY AFFECT FURTHER NEGOTIATION OVER THE YUGOSLAV CLAIM.

AUSTRIA APPEALED LAST FALL FOR RENEWAL OF THE TALKS. ABSORBED BY GERMANY IN 1938, SHE HAS FUNCTIONED SINCE THE WAR UNDER A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT HEADED BY DR. KARL RENNER.

LONDON, JAN 20-(AP)-BRITISH AUTHOR BEVERLEY NICHOLS REPORTS THAT MANY BRITISH GI BRIDES ARE UNHAPPY BECAUSE THEIR AMERICAN HUSBANDS ARE STILL WOLVES.

HE SAID HE GOT THAT IMPRESSION WHILE ON A VISIT TO THE UNITED STATES. NICHOLS, WHOSE BOOKS AND NEWSPAPER COLUMNS HAVE TAKEN HIM INTO MANY A LIVELY DEBATE, REPORTED HIS OBSERVATIONS TO THE WIDELY READ MAGAZINE, WOMAN'S OWN.

"AMERICAN HUSBANDS GIVE A SOMEWHAT LOOSE INTERPRETATION TO THE WORD FIDELITY," HE WROTE. AND HE WARNED BRITISH GIRLS, "IF YOU MARRY AN AMERICAN YOU MARRY A FOREIGNER, JUST AS MUCH AS IF YOU WERE MARRYING A SPANIARD OR A GREEK."

"BRITISH GIRLS WHO LIVED IN CITIES THAT WERE FILLED WITH AMERICAN TROOPS DURING THE WAR WILL PROBABLY AGREE THAT THE AMERICAN MALE IS NOT NOTORIOUSLY UNDER-SEXED," NICHOLS SAID. "IN THE WAR DAYS THIS DIDN'T SEEM TO MATTER SO MUCH. THERE WAS A CERTAIN CHARM IN SO MUCH VIRILITY, IN THE WOLF WITH HIS EASY GRIN.

"BUT THE CHARM IS APT TO WEAR THIN, WHEN HAVING CROSSED THE WATER, YOU DISCOVER THAT THE WOLF IS STILL A WOLF."

ONE BRITISH GIRL TO WHOM HE TALKED, HE SAID, ALSO WAS A LITTLE UNHAPPY IN THE NEW WORLD BECAUSE THERE WAS NO HEDGE, NOT EVEN A FENCE, AROUND HER HOME. HE SAID HE GOT THE IMPRESSION THE ONLY DOOR THE AMERICANS CLOSE IS THE BATHROOM DOOR.

NIGHT LEAD WFTU (380)

BY CARL HARTMAN

PARIS, JAN.20-(AP)-SECRETARY-TREASURER JAMES B. CAREY OF THE CONGRESS OF INDUSTRIAL ORGANIZATIONS SAID TODAY HE IS WILLING TO MEET REPRESENTATIVES OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR TO DISCUSS A NEW WORLD LABOR MOVEMENT.

THE AFL NEVER JOINED THE WORLD FEDERATION OF TRADE UNIONS, FROM WHICH CAREY WALKED OUT YESTERDAY. BRITISH AND DUTCH UNIONS ALSO QUIT THEN, CHARGING THE WFTU IS DOMINATED BY COMMUNISTS.

IRVING BROWN, AFL EUROPEAN REPRESENTATIVE, FOLLOWED THE SPLIT WITH AN URGENT CALL FOR FORMATION OF A NEW MOVEMENT. LEON JOUHAUX, LEADER OF A NON-COMMUNIST FRENCH UNION CALLED "WORKERS' FORCE," INDICATED HE WOULD BACK A NEW GROUPING.

DIRECTOR GENERAL DAVID MORSE OF THE INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATION ANNOUNCED IN PRAGUE THE ILO PLANS TO CONTINUE ITS PRESENT CONSTITUTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH THE WFTU. ANY CHANGE COULD HAVE TO COME AFTER DEBATE BY THE 60 MEMBER GOVERNMENTS OF THE ILO, HE SAID. HE SAID MEMBERSHIP FOR ANY NEW ORGANIZATION ALSO WOULD HAVE TO BE THE SUBJECT OF FUTURE DISCUSSION.

CAREY TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE:

"THE CIO WILL STAND WITH EUROPEAN AND OTHER UNIONS TO ESTABLISH THE KINL OF WORLD LABOR FEDERATION WE ALL HOPED WOULD GROW OUT OF THE WFTU. WE WILL NOT INTRODUCE AN AMERICAN PLAN, BUT WILL JOIN WITH THE BRITISH TRADES UNION CONGRESS AND OTHERS IN COMPOSING A PLAN.

"EUROPEAN AND OTHER TRADE UNIONISTS NEED HAVE NO FEARS THAT THE CIO IS INTERESTED IN DOMINATING ANY WORLD LABOR BODY. OF COURSE WE WOULD NOT ACCEPT AN INFERIOR POSITION. WE WOULD WORK WITH THE AFL AND OTHERS ON A PARTNERSHIP BASIS."

CAREY AND MANY OTHER WESTERN EUROPEAN LABOR LEADERS ARE GOING TO BERN, SWITZERLAND, THIS WEEKEND FOR A MEETING OF THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM'S TRADE UNION ADVISORY COUNCIL.

CAREY, BROWN AND JOUHAUX SAID THERE WOULD BE NO OFFICIAL DISCUSSION OF A NEW MOVEMENT AT BERN.

CAREY AND BROWN AGREED THAT NO IMPRESSION SHOULD BE GIVEN THAT A NEW WORLD LABOR BODY WILL BE CONNECTED WITH ERP. IT IS IMPORTANT, BOTH SAID, THAT UNIONS FROM NON-EUROPEAN COUNTRIES BE INCLUDED FROM THE BEGINNING.

CAREY EMPHASIZED THAT THE BRITISH, DUTCH AND AMERICAN WALK-OUT FROM THE WFTU REPRESENTED UNIONS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES AS WELL. ONLY SEVEN NATIONAL UNIONS WERE REPRESENTED ON THE WFTU EXECUTIVE BUREAU, WHERE THE SPLIT TOOK PLACE. THE RUSSIAN-LED RUMP BODY, WHICH WESTERNERS NOW CALL THE "RED INTERNATIONAL," CONTINUED TO SIT HERE TODAY.

"THIS WILL EFFECTIVELY ISOLATE THE COMMUNISTS," CAREY SAID.

PARIS, JAN 20-(AP)-REPRESENTATIVES OF FIVE NATIONS ANNOUNCED TODAY THEY HAVE FAILED IN EFFORTS TO DRAFT A PLAN FOR EUROPEAN UNION.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE DISAGREED ON THE PROPOSED FRAMEWORK AND THE EXTENT OF AUTHORITY.

THE FRENCH WANTED A EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT, AS WELL AS A COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS. THE BRITISH OPPOSED THE PARLIAMENT AS "JUST ANOTHER TALKING SHOP." BRITISH FEARS HAVE BEEN EXPRESSED THAT A STRONG EUROPEAN UNION MIGHT TRY TO TAKE OVER THE AUTHORITY OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS.

FAILURE OF THE UNION TALKS WAS ANNOUNCED BY A STUDY GROUP OF DELEGATES FROM THE COUNTRIES INVOLVED: FRANCE, BRITAIN, BELGIUM, HOLLAND AND LUXEMBOURG.

THIS STUDY GROUP HAS BEEN TRYING TO CREATE SOME FORMAL BODY TO BRING CLOSER POLITICAL COOPERATION IN WESTERN EUROPE. THE COMMITTEE WAS SET UP AT BRUSSELS LAST OCTOBER AT FRENCH INSISTENCE. THE GROUP'S REPORT ON ITS INABILITY TO AGREE WILL BE TURNED OVER TO A MEETING OF THE NATIONS' FOREIGN MINISTERS AT LONDON JAN 26.

FRENCH SOURCES SAID BRITISH DELEGATE HUGH DALTON PRESENTED NEW PROPOSALS THAT UPSET A TENTATIVE AGREEMENT, REACHED LAST MONTH, PROVIDING FOR BOTH A PARLIAMENT AND A COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS.

THESE SOURCES SAID THE BRITISH PROPOSED TO REDUCE THE ASSEMBLY TO THE "RIDICULOUS" ROLE OF A THREE WEEKS' ANNUAL CONFERENCE, AUTHORIZED TO DISCUSS ONLY MATTERS SUBMITTED BY THE COUNCIL.

TODAY THE BRITISH DELEGATION WAS SAID TO HAVE TOLD THE COMMITTEE THEY WOULD STAND ON THIS PROPOSAL.

THE FRENCH SAID THEY AND THE BENELUX REPRESENTATIVES SUPPORTED THE COMPROMISE.

ESSEN, GERMANY, JAN 21-(AP)-BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THERE IS INCREASING TENSION BETWEEN THEM AND GERMANS WHO INSIST THAT RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA ARE THE ONLY ONES THUS FAR TO BENEFIT FROM THE PROGRAM OF DISMANTLING THE KRUPP WORKS FOR REPARATIONS.

GERMAN OFFICIALS OF KRUPP, WHICH ARMED GERMANY FOR A CENTURY, SAID THEY WILL HENCEFORTH PROTEST WHENEVER PSSIBLE AGAINST FURTHER REMOVALS OF KRUPP MACHINERY NOT SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR ARMAMENT MANUFACTURE.

TECHNICIANS OF THE KRUPP WORKS CONTEND THAT THE VAST, WAR-BLASTED PLANT IN THE CENTER OF ESSEN CAN BE CONVERTED ALMOST ENTIRELY TO PEACETIME PRODUCTION. OF THE 222 BOMB-SCARRED WORKSHOPS, 73 HAVE BEEN ORDERED RAZED FOR SCRAP IRON; 22 ARE LISTED AS DOUBTFUL, THEIR RETENTION DEPENDING UPON REMOVAL OF HEAVY INSTALLATIONS WHICH HAD BEEN USED IN MAKING ARMAMENTS. JUST 127 OF THE SHOPS ARE TO BE LEFT UNCHANGED.

ONLY ONE LARGE-SCALE REPARATIONS PROJECT HAS BEEN COMPLETED HERE. THIS INVOLVED THE BORBECK UNIT, A STEEL PLANT COMPLETE FROM BLAST FURNACE TO ROLLING MILL. THE PLANT WAS TORN DOWN AND SHIPPED OFF TO THE RUSSIANS FOR REPARATIONS.

GERMAN STEEL EXPERTS SAY THE BORBECK PLANT COST THE EQUIVALENT OF $48,000,000 ORIGINALLY; THAT DISMANTLING IT COST ABOUT $10,000,000, AND THAT IN ITS DISMANTLED FORM IT HAS A VALUE TO THE RUSSIANS OF ONLY $4,000,000. THE EXPERTS SAY THE HUGE OVENS, FOR EXAMPLE, WILL BE IN TOO POOR CONDITION EVER TO PRODUCE STEEL AGAIN.

THE ONLY OTHER COUNTRY TO RECEIVE REPARATIONS FROM THE KRUPP WORKS THUS FAR IS YUGOSLAVIA, WHICH RECENTLY GOT A 15,000-TON STEEL PRESS, LARGEST OF ITS KIND IN EUROPE. GERMAN ENGINEERS RIDICULE THE ALLIED VIEW THAT THIS PRESS CAN BE OF MAJOR USE TO YUGOSLAVIA'S TINY STEEL INDUSTRY. THEY SAY ITS ONLY VALUE NOW IN YUGOSLAVIA IS AS JUNK.

ONE OF THE 15 BRITISH REPARATIONS OFFICERS DETAILED TO THE KRUPP WORKS COMMENTED:
"THIS WHOLE DISMANTLING THING SHOULD HAVE BEEN FINISHED BEFORE WE STARTED TALKING TO THE GERMANS ABOUT HAVING A SHARE IN EUROPEAN RECOVERY. NOW THEY'RE SHOUTING THEIR HEADS OFF."

RHODES, JAN 20-(AP)-ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TWO ARAB NEIGHBORS--EGYPT AND LEBANON--ARE REPORTED IN A DECISIVE STAGE.
AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE IN RHODES SAID LAST NIGHT DR. RALPH BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, HAS SUBMITTED TO ISRAEL AND EGYPT THE FIRST DRAFT OF A COMPROMISE ON THE DISPUTED NEGEV DESERT.
A RELIABLE SOURCE IN TEL AVIV SAID THE FIRST DRAFT OF AN ISRAELI-LEBANESE AGREEMENT WAS WRITTEN YESTERDAY AT THE LEBANESE FRONTIER VILLAGE OF RAS EN NAQURA.
THE RHODES INFORMANT SAID THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN COMPROMISE BRINGS TOGETHER THE CONFLICTING VIEWPOINTS OF THE TWO NATIONS ON THE STRATEGIC SOUTHERN PALESTINE DESERT. HE SAID IT ALSO INVOLVES TROOP WITHDRAWALS AND A REDUCTION IN THE NUMBERS OF SOLDIERS ON BOTH SIDES IN THAT AREA.
COMPLETE DETAILS OF THE COMPROMISE WERE NOT AVAILABLE. BUNCHE HAS PLEDGED BOTH THE ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN DELEGATIONS TO SECRECY.
THE ISRAELI-LEBANESE AGREEMENT WAS DRAWN UP BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES OF THE TWO GOVERNMENTS, THE TEL AVIV INFORMANT SAID. HE SAID THE DELEGATIONS RETURNED TO THEIR RESPECTIVE CAPITALS TO PRESENT THE YET UNSIGNED DRAFTS FOR THE APPROVAL OF THEIR HOME GOVERNMENTS.
ELIAS SASSOON, EXPERT ON NEAR EASTERN AFFAIRS IN THE ISRAELI

FOREIGN MINISTRY, HAD BEEN CALLED HOME FROM THE EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI TALKS IN RHODES TO HEAD THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH LEBANON.

EARLIER A RELIABLE SOURCE IN NAHARIYA, PALESTINE, SAID A LEBANESE-ISRAELI AGREEMENT HAD BEEN SIGNED YESTERDAY.

THERE HAS BEEN NO INFORMATION OF ANY PROGRESS IN REPORTED TALKS BETWEEN ISRAEL AND TRANS-JORDAN.

THE TEL AVIV INFORMANT SAID ISRAELI AND LEBANESE DELEGATIONS WILL MEET AGAIN AT RAS EN NAQURA FOR ADDITIONAL ARMISTICE TALKS AROUND THE END OF THE WEEK.

RHODES INFORMANTS SAID BUNCHE HAD SET THIS WEEKEND AS THE DEADLINE FOR SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF THE U.N. EFFORTS TO NEGOTIATE AN ARMISTICE BETWEEN ISRAEL AND EGYPT IN PALESTINE. THE SOURCES SAID THE TALKS WERE PROGRESSING "SMOOTHLY WITHOUT SETBACKS," BUT WERE BEING RETARDED BY A "MULTITUDE OF DETAILS."

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (280)

BY ERIC GOTTGETREU

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.20-(AP)-A UNITED NATIONS CONVOY TOOK 40 TONS OF FOOD TODAY TO THE 3,000 EGYPTIAN TROOPS TRAPPED IN THE FALUJA POCKET AND BROUGHT OUT 250 SICK AND WOUNDED MEN.

THE AMBULANCES AND WHITE-FLAGGED JEEPS WERE DIRECTED BY RADIO FROM U.N. HEADQUARTERS AT RHODES, WHERE EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE TALKS ARE PROCEEDING.

THE CONVOY PASSED WITHOUT INCIDENT FROM ARAB-HELD GAZA, ON THE MEDITERRANEAN, THROUGH ISRAEL-HELD TERRITORY OF THE NEGEV TO FALUJA, WHERE THE EGYPTIANS HAVE BEEN TRAPPED THREE MONTHS. ISRAELI SAPPERS, WORKING IN RAIN, HAD CLEARED EXPLOSIVES FROM A MINED STRIP OF THE 18-MILE ROUTE.

RELIEF OF THE GARRISON WAS ONE OF THE IMPORTANT FINAL STEPS TO CONCLUDING AN ARMISTICE AGREEMENT.

PROGRESS WAS INDICATED ANEW IN THE LEBANON-ISRAEL ARMISTICE TALKS. A USUALLY RELIABLE JEWISH SOURCE SAID AN AGREEMENT HAD BEEN REACHED BETWEEN LEBANESE AND ISRAELI SENIOR ARMY OFFICERS AND DIPLOMATIC PERSONNEL. THE TWO PARTIES ARE NOW AWAITING THE OUTCOME OF THE RHODES TALKS BEFORE AFFIXING THEIR SIGNATURES, THIS INFORMANT SAID.

(A BAGHDAD DISPATCH SAID SIR HENRY MACK, BRITISH AMBASSADOR, IS FLYING TO LONDON FOR CONSULTATIONS WITH THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE. HE IS EXPECTED TO CONFER ON THE ENTIRE MIDDLE EAST SITUATION, WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO IRAQ'S POSITION. BAGHDAD POLITICAL CIRCLES ARE INDIGNANT OVER FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT JEWISH INTERNEES ON CYPRUS WILL BE RELEASED TO GO TO ISRAEL.

(BRITAIN'S DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER, HERBERT MORRISON, ANNOUNCED IN LONDON THE HOUSE OF COMMONS WILL DEBATE BEVIN'S PALESTINE POLICY NEXT WEDNESDAY.)

THE U.N. CONVOY TO FALUJA INCLUDED 20 AMBULANCES WITH THE SIGN OF THE RED CRESCENT, THE ARABIAN RED CROSS, SEVEN JEEPS AND THE PROVISION TRUCKS.

TWO U.N. DOCTORS EXAMINED THE SICK AND WOUNDED EGYPTIANS BEFORE THEY WERE TAKEN BACK TO EGYPTIAN TERRITORY.

EGYPTIANS CAPTURED BY THE JEWS BEFORE THE CEASE FIRE SAID THE TRAPPED MEN HAD KEPT ALIVE ON PROVISIONS THEY HAD FOUND IN THE VILLAGE. BUT TODAY'S SUPPLIES WERE BADLY NEEDED. THE PRISONERS SAID TWO OR THREE CAMEL CARAVANS HAD SLIPPED THROUGH ISRAELI LINES, BRINGING THE GARRISON FOOD AND AMMUNITION. THE CAMELS, TOO, WERE EATEN LATER, BY THE TROOPS.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN.20-(AP)-ISRAEL'S NEGOTIATIONS WITH LEBANON WERE RECESSED LAST NIGHT AMID SIGNS THAT AGREEMENT WAS IN SIGHT FOR A PEACEFUL REALIGNMENT OF THE FRONTIER.

A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE ISRAELI FOREIGN OFFICE SAID FAVORABLE PROGRESS HAD BEEN MADE AND TALKS WHICH "MAY BE FINAL" WOULD BE HELD THIS WEEKEND. IT WAS POSSIBLE THAT AFTER THE TALKS, THE LEBANESE DELEGATES WOULD BE INVITED TO RHODES FOR EVEN BROADER PEACE TALKS. THE EGYPTIANS AND ISRAELIS NOW ARE NEGOTIATING AT RHODES FOR AN ARMISTICE IN THEIR WAR IN PALESTINE.

A RELIEF CONVOY UNDER UNITED NATIONS AUSPICES PASSED THROUGH ISRAELI TERRITORY FROM GAZA TO FALUJA, WHERE 3,000 EGYPTIAN TROOPS HAVE BEEN TRAPPED FOR SEVERAL WEEKS. THE TRUCKS TOOK IN 40 TONS OF FOOD AND TOOK OUT 250 SICK AND WOUNDED EGYPTIANS FOR TRANSFER HOME.

HAIFA, ISRAEL, JAN 20-(AP)-SENIOR ARMY OFFICERS AND DIPLOMATIC PERSONNEL OF ISRAEL AND LEBANON HAVE INITIALED AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS, A RELIABLE JEWISH SOURCE SAID TODAY.

THE TWO COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATING ON A PEACEFUL REALIGNMENT OF THEIR FRONTIER.

ACTUAL SIGNING OF THE AGREEMENT, THIS SOURCE SAID, HAS BEEN HELD UP AT LEBANON'S REQUEST PENDING THE CONCLUSION OF CURRENT PEACE TALKS AT RHODES.

THE LEBANESE DELEGATION LEFT FOR BEIRUT BUT THE TWO GOVERNMENTS STILL ARE KEEPING CONTACT, IT WAS LEARNED.

BY MARC PURDUE JAN 1949

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN. 20-(AP)-A 20-NATION ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA AGREED TONIGHT TO DRAW UP RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL ON SETTING UP AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT IN INDONESIA.

THE CONFERENCE WAS CALLED BY PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA WHO TERMED DUTCH ACTION AND POLICIES IN INDONESIA "A CHALLENGE TO NEWLY AWAKENED ASIA."

REPRESENTATIVE OF AUSTRALIA, PAKISTAN, CEYLON AND INDIA WERE NAMED TO A COMMITTEE WHICH WILL DRAFT THE CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS.

THE REASON FOR THE CONFERENCE IS RECENT DUTCH MILITARY MOVES AGAINST INDONESIAN NATIVE REPUBLICANS ON THE RICH ISLANDS OF JAVA AND SUMATRA. THE DUTCH CALLED IT "POLICE ACTION."

A WORKING PAPER FOR THE MEETING, PREPARED BY INDIA, PROPOSES ALL FIGHTING BE STOPPED, REPUBLICAN LEADERS FREED AND DUTCH TROOPS WITHDRAWN. IT ALSO SUGGESTS AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT BE SET UP BY MARCH 15, A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY ELECTED BY OCT. 1 AND COMPLETE TRANSFER OF POWER TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT BY NEXT JAN. 1.

NEHRU SAID THE CONFERENCE'S IMMEDIATE OBJECTIVE SHOULD BE RESTORATION OF CONDITIONS EXISTING BEFORE THE DUTCH ATTACK ON THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

[illegible]

THEN, HE DECLARED, THE REPUBLIC WOULD BE ABLE TO NEGOTIATE WITH THE DUTCH AS A FREE GOVERNMENT.

HE SAID THE NEXT STEP SHOULD BE "ELIMINATION OF COLONIALISM," ADDING THAT "ASIA WILL NO LONGER BROOK ANY INTERFERENCE WITH HER FREEDOM."

[illegible]

THERE WERE NUMEROUS INDICATIONS THAT THE CONFERENCE MIGHT RESULT IN A REGIONAL ORGANIZATION OF ASIATIC NATIONS. NEHRU, BRIG.GEN. CARLOS P.ROMULO OF THE PHILIPPINES, AND A NUMBER OF OTHERS SPOKE OF THE NEED FOR SUCH AN ORGANIZATION TO DEAL WITH PROBLEMS AFFECTING THE REGION. NEHRU SAID A PRECEDENT FOR SUCH A REGIONAL GROUP EXISTS IN THE INTER-AMERICAN AND THE EUROPEAN REGIONAL AGREEMENTS.

ROMULO SPOKE OF NEED FOR A "SMALL PERMANENT SECRETARIAT." HE SAID HE HOPED ASIATIC NATIONS AT THE CONFERENCE COULD EVOLVE A POTENT PERMANENT ORGANIZATION FUNCTIONING AS A REGIONAL BODY WITHIN THE UNITED NATIONS.

NAZIM EL KUDSI OF SYRIA SAID THE PALESTINE SITUATION IS NO LESS DANGEROUS THAN TH ONE IN INDONESIA.

[illegible]

NEHRU SAID THE CONFERENCE, REPRESENTING "HALF THE CIRCUMFERENCE OF THE GLOBE AND THE GREATER PART OF ITS POPULATION," WAS VIEWED BY THE INDIAN GOVERNMENT AS HAVING THREE AIMS:

1. RESTORATION OF PEACE IN INDONESIA AND EARLY ESTABLISHMENT OF INDONESIAN INDEPENDENCE.
2. TO DECIDE ON A RECOMMENDATION OF ACTION TO THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL IN THE EVENT EITHER PARTY TO THE DISPUTE FAILED TO CARRY OUT THE COUNCIL'S INSTRUCTIONS.
3. TO DEVISE MACHINERY BY WHICH MEMBERS OF THE CONFERENCE COULD IMPLEMENT THEIR DECISIONS.

THE INDIAN LEADER SAID THAT IF THE DUTCH PROGRAM IS NOT CHECKED, YEARS OF BITTER STRIFE AND A WIDESPREAD CONFLICT WILL RESULT.

NEHRU STRESSED SEVERAL TIMES IN HIS ADDRESS THE INTENTION TO AIM THE CONFERENCE TOWARDS ELIMINATION OF COLONIALISM. HE SAID INDIA BELIEVED COLONIALISM TO BE "THE NEGATION OF DEMOCRACY AND SEED OF CONFLICT."

HE URGED, HOWEVER, THAT THE CONFERENCE FIX ITS ATTENTION ON THE INDONESIAN ISSUE AND NOT PERMIT ITSELF TO BE DISTRACTED BY OTHER WORLD ISSUES DEMANDING THE ATTENTION OF GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED HERE.

THIS WAS INTERPRETED AS A PLEA NOT TO INTRODUCE SUCH SUBJECTS AS THE VIETNAM-FRENCH CONFLICT OR THE MIDDLE EAST FIGHTING, AS HAS BEEN HINTED SOME DELEGATES PLANNED TO DO.

THE FIRST CONFERENCE SESSION, OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, WAS HELD IN THE WALNUT PANELED CHAMBER OF THE INDIAN ASSEMBLY BUILDING.

DUTCH AMBASSADOR A. T. LAMPING ATTENDED THE SESSION WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS AND WAS SEATED NEXT TO U.S. AMBASSADOR LOY HENDERSON.

THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WAS REPRESENTED BY DR. D. SOEMITRO AND DR. SOEDARSONO, REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVE IN NEW DELHI.

THE NEW ZEALAND AND ETHIOPIAN REPRESENTATIVES WERE THE ONLY ONES NOT PRESENT AT THE OPENING SESSION. REPRESENTED WERE INDIA, AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, AUSTRALIA, IRAN, CEYLON, PAKISTAN, THE PHILIPPINES, EGYPT, SYRIA, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN, IRAQ, LEBANON, TRANS-JORDAN, CHINA, NEPAL AND SIAM.

CONFERENCE MEETINGS FOLLOWING THE OPENING SESSION WILL BE CLOSED AND HELD AT HYDERABAD HOUSE, THE NEW DELHI PALACE OF THE NIZAM OF HYDERABAD.

THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS ON THE EVE OF THE CONFERENCE APPEALED TO THE NATIONS OF THE EAST FOR ARMS AND AMMUNITION TO FIGHT THE DUTCH.

brig. gen. carlos [illegible]o, representing the philippines,

GREETING THE DELEGATES, NEHRU SAID "WE MEET TODAY BECAUSE THE FREEDOM OF A SISTER COUNTRY HAS BEEN IMPERILLED, DYING COLONIALISM OF A PAST AGE HAS RAISED ITS HEAD AGAIN AND CHALLENGED ALL THE FORCES THAT ARE STRUGGLING TO BUILD UP A NEW STRUCTURE OF THE WORLD.

"THAT CHALLENGE HAS A DEEPER SIGNIFICANCE THAN MIGHT APPEAR ON THE SURFACE, FOR IT IS A CHALLENGE TO A NEWLY AWAKENED ASIA WHICH HAD SO LONG SUFFERED UNDER VARIOUS FORMS OF COLONIALISM X X X. "IF THIS CHALLENGE IS NOT MET EFFECTIVELY, THEN INDEED THE CONSEQUENCES WILL AFFECT NOT MERELY INDONESIA BUT ASIA AND THE ENTIRE WORLD."

THE FORMAL OPENING LASTED TWO AND A QUARTER HOURS. THE CONFERENCE WILL CONVENE AGAIN TONIGHT IN CLOSED SESSION.

NAZIM EL KUDSI OF SYRIA TOLD THE CONFERENCE IT MUST STRIVE FOR PEACE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD AND ASSERTED THAT THE PALESTINE SITUATION IS NO LESS DANGEROUS THAN THE DUTCH AGGRESSION IN INDONESIA.

MOUAFFAK EL ALOUSSEY OF SAUDI ARABIA TOLD THE CONFERENCE HIS COUNTRY, GREATLY CONCERNED OVER INDONESIA, HAD AS A FIRST STEP HALTED DUTCH AIR TRAFFIC OVER THE REALM AND WAS EAGER TO FIND A JUST, PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT.

MOHAMMED ISA NEKLEH OF YEMEN SAID HE HOPED THE CONFERENCE WOULD LAY THE GROUNDWORK FOR A FUTURE ASIAN COOPERATION OF ALL REGIONAL PROBLEMS.

A NUMBER OF OTHER DELEGATES CITED THE PANAMERICAN UNION AS A REGIONAL ORGANIZATION WHICH DOES NOT THREATEN ANY PART OF THE WORLD.

J.W. BURTON, AUSTRALIAN DELEGATE, SAID "OUR ATTITUDE IS THAT A MISTAKE HAS BEEN MADE WHICH HAS COST LIVES AND BROUGHT ABOUT SUFFERING NOT ONLY FOR INDONESIA BUT ALSO FOR THE NETHERLANDS, WHICH ALREADY HAS SUFFERED A GREAT DEAL."

BURTON SAID THE CONFERENCE'S ONE OBJECTIVE SHOULD BE TO FIND A WAY TO RESTORE PEACE TO INDONESIA, THEREBY BOLSTERING THE PRESTIGE OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

NIGHT LEAD ASIAN

BY STEVEN V.DAVID

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN 20-(AP)-SPEAKERS REPRESENTING VARIOUS ASIAN COUNTRIES UNANIMOUSLY DEMANDED TODAY THE ESTABLISHMENT OF INDONESIAN INDEPENDENCE.

MANY OF THEM ALSO INDICATED THAT THEIR 20-NATION CONFERENCE HERE MIGHT DEVELOP INTO A VAST REGIONAL ORGANIZATION SIMILAR TO THE PAN AMERICAN UNION. SUCH A BODY, IT WAS SAID, COULD BE SET UP WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE CONFERENCE WAS CALLED TO PROTEST DUTCH MILITARY ACTION AGAINST THE YOUNG INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. DELEGATES SELECTED A COMMITTEE TO PREPARE A RESOLUTION TO THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL DEALING WITH THE SETTING UP OF AN INTERIM INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT. AUSTRALIA, PAKISTAN, CEYLON AND INDIA WERE NAMED TO THE COMMITTEE.

INDIA SUBMITTED A PAPER PROPOSING THAT ALL FIGHTING ON JAVA AND SUMATRA BE STOPPED, REPUBLICAN LEADERS FREED AND NETHERLANDS TROOPS WITHDRAWN TO POSITIONS HELD BEFORE THE DUTCH OPERATION AGAINST THE REPUBLIC WAS LAUNCHED IN MID-DECEMBER.

THE PAPER ALSO SUGGESTED THAT THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT BE SET UP BY MARCH 15, A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY ELECTED BY OCT. 1 AND A COMPLETE TRANSFER OF POWER BE MADE TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT BY NEXT JAN 1.

CONFERENCE LEADERS WHO STRESSED THE IDEA OF A REGIONAL ASIAN ORGANIZATION SAID SUCH A BODY IS NEEDED TO REPRESENT WHAT PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA REFERRED TO AS "HALF THE CIRCUMFERENCE OF THE GLOBE AND THE GREATER PART OF ITS POPULATION."

PRECEDENT FOR SUCH AN ORGANIZATION EXISTS IN THE REGIONAL ARRANGEMENTS NOW FOUND IN THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE AND WESTERN EUROPE, THE DELEGATES WERE TOLD. IN HIS SPEECH OF WELCOME, NEHRU SAID:

"WE NEED TODAY BECAUSE THE FREEDOM OF A SISTER COUNTRY (THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC) HAS BEEN IMPERILLED. THE DYING COLONIALISM OF A PAST AGE HAS RAISED ITS HEAD AGAIN AND CHALLENGED ALL THE FORCES THAT ARE STRUGGLING TO BUILD UP A NEW STRUCTURE OF THE WORLD.

"THAT CHALLENGE HAS A DEEPER SIGNIFIANCE THAN MIGHT APPEAR ON THE SURFACE, FOR IT IS A CHALLENGE TO A NEWLY AWAKENED ASIA WHICH HAD SO LONG SUFFERED UNDER VARIOUS FORMS OF COLONIALISM. X X X

"THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION, A SYMBOL OF THE ONE WORLD THAT HAS BECOME THE IDEAL OF MEN OF THOUGHT AND GOOD WILL, HAS BEEN FLOUTED AND ITS EXPRESSED WILL SET AT NAUGHT. IF THIS CHALLENGE IS NOT MET EFFECTIVELY, THEN INDEED THE CONSEQUENCES WILL AFFECT NOT MERELY INDONESIA, BUT ASIA AND THE ENTIRE WORLD."

NEHRU SPOKE OF THE NEED FOR "MACHINERY BY WHICH MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT CONFERENCE COULD IMPLEMENT DECISIONS."

BRIG.GEN. CARLOS P.ROMULO, REPRESENTING THE PHILIPPINES, SUGGESTED THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SMALL PERMANENT SECRETARIAT TO PROVIDE INFORMATION AND MEANS OF CONSULTATION.

IT IS TO BE HOPED, ROMULO ADDED, "THAT OUT OF SUCH A METHOD OF COOPERATION IN NUCLEAR FORM WE SHALL BE able TO EVOLVE A POTENT PERMANENT ORGANIZATION OF ASIAN STATES" FUNCTIONING AS A REGIONAL BODY OF THE UNITED NATIONS.

THE RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING AN INDONESIAN INTERIM GOVERNMENT WERE AGREED UPON AT A PRIVATE NIGHT MEETING WHICH FOLLOWED THE PUBLIC OPENING SESSION, HELD IN THE WALNUT PANELED CHAMBER OF THE INDIAN ASSEMBLY BUILDING.

SEVERAL ADDRESSES WERE SURPRISINGLY MODERATE. ZAFRULLAH KHAN OF PAKISTAN NOTED THAT THE DUTCH HAD MADE MANY CONTRIBUTIONS TO CULTURE AND DEMOCRACY.

J.W. BURTON OF AUSTRALIA SAID THE CONFERENCE SHOULD FIND A WAY BY WHICH PEACE MIGHT BE RESTORED TO INDONESIA, THEREBY REMEDYING THE PRESTIGE OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

"OUR ATTITUDE IS THAT A MISTAKE HAS BEEN MADE WHICH HAS COST LIVES AND BROUGHT ABOUT SUFFERING, NOT ONLY FOR INDONESIA BUT ALSO FOR THE NETHERLANDS, WHICH HAS ALREADY SUFFERED A GREAT DEAL," HE SAID.

ALTHOUGH NEHRU ASKED THE DELEGATES NOT TO LET OTHER CONFLICTS DISTRACT THEIR ATTENTION FROM THE INDONESIAN QUESTION, SYRIAN REPRESENTATIVE NAZIM EL KUDSI SAID THE PALESTINE SITUATION WAS AS DANGEROUS AS THE DUTCH AGGRESSION ON JAVA AND SUMATRA.

DUTCH AMBASSADOR A.T. LAMPING ATTENDED THE OPENING SESSION WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS. HE WAS SEATED NEXT TO U.S. AMBASSADOR LOY HENDERSON. THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC WAS REPRESENTED BY DR. D. SOEMITRO AND DR. SOEDARSONO.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM NEW ZEALAND AND ETHIOPIA WERE THE ONLY ONES NOT PRESENT WHEN THE CONFERENCE WAS CALLED TO ORDER. REPRESENTED WERE INDIA, AFGHANISTAN, BURMA, AUSTRALIA, IRAN, CEYLON, PAKISTAN, THE PHILIPPINES, EGYPT, SYRIA, SAUDI ARABIA, YEMEN, IRAQ, LEBANON, TRANSJORDAN, CHINA, NEPAL AND SIAM.

THE NIGHT SESSION OF THE FULL CONFERENCE LASTED LESS THAN TWO HOURS. ANOTHER CLOSED MEETING WILL BE HELD TOMORROW. AN INDIAN GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID THE CONFERENCE IS EXPECTED TO END SATURDAY.

THE SPOKESMAN SAID THERE WAS NO SIGNIFICANCE TO THE FACT THE COMMITTEE TO DRAFT A RESOLUTION ON INDONESIA FOR THE SECURITY COUNCIL CONSISTS OF FOUR MEMBERS OF THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH.

HE SAID THE RESOLUTION WILL INCLUDE FIVE POINTS:

1--RESTORATION OF FULL LIBERTY OF ACTION TO THE REPUBLICAN REGIME.

2--RETURN TO THAT GOVERNMENT OF TERRITORIES IT HELD BEFORE DEC. 18 AND WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM THOSE TERRITORIES.

3--FORMATION OF AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT FOR ALL INDONESIA.

4--PROVISIONS FOR ELECTION OF A CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY AND TRANSFER OF POWER TO A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

5--CREATION BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL OF A COMMISSION OR OTHER BODY WITH POWERS TO GIVE EFFECT TO THE RECOMMENDATIONS.

(DASH)

DUTCH PREMIER WILLIAM DREES SAID TALKS ON FORMING A NATIONAL INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT WOULD BE "MORE FRUITFUL IF INTERNATIONAL INTEREST IN THIS PROBLEM WOULD SOMEWHAT SUBSIDE." HE MADE THE STATEMENT IN BATAVIA, JAVA, BEFORE LEAVING FOR THE HAGUE. HE HAS CONDUCTED A TWO-WEEK SURVEY OF CONDITIONS IN THE EAST INDIES.

DUTCH SOURCES IN BATAVIA SAID CAPTURED INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN LEADERS WILL BE ALLOWED "ALMOST COMPLETE FREEDOM," ONCE TALKS BEGIN BETWEEN THEM AND LEADERS OF THE DUTCH-SPONSORED FEDERAL STATES IN THE EAST INDIES ABOUT AN ALL-INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT.

DR. ZAIRIN ZAIN, DEPUTY REPUBLICAN REPRESENTATIVE IN SINGAPORE, SAID THE REPUBLICANS WOULD NEGOTIATE WITH THE DUTCH ONLY IF PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARE RESTORED TO POWER AS A FUNCTIONING GOVERNMENT.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE ASIAN CONFERENCE BEGAN SETTING UP MACHINERY TODAY WHICH MIGHT ENFORCE ITS DECISIONS FOR OBTAINING QUICK SETTLEMENT OF THE INDONESIAN CONFLICT.

A COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER TODAY'S CLOSED SESSION SAID THE 20-NATION CONFERENCE DISCUSSED MEANS OF CONSULTATION AMONG THE GOVERNMENTS REPRESENTED AFTER THE CONFERENCE ADJOURNS."

THE DRAFTING COMMITTEE WHICH THE CONFERENCE NAMED LAST NIGHT TO PREPARE THE TEXT OF RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS NOT YET REPORTED. IT IS EXPECTED TO COMPLETE ITS TASK BY THE NEXT MEETING TOMORROW MORNING.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THE CONFERENCE CONTINUED DISCUSSION OF RECOMMENDATIONS TO BE MADE TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL FOR "ENERGETIC ACTION BY THE COUNCIL" IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER PROVISIONS "SO AS TO ENSURE SPEEDY AND SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT OF THE INDONESIAN DISPUTE."

THUS FAR IN THE CONFERENCE DELIBERATIONS THERE HAS BEEN NO INDICATION OF SERIOUS DISAGREEMENT OVER THE GENERAL LINE OF THE SETTLEMENT PROPOSALS EMBODIED IN THE INDONESIAN MEMORANDUM AND THE WORKING PAPER OF INDIA PRESENTED AS A BASIS OF DISCUSSIONS.

THE DRAFTING COMMITTEE WHICH MEETS AGAIN THIS AFTERNOON APPARENTLY IS ENGAGED IN SETTLING DETAILS.

A "KAREN NATIONAL UNION" IS DEMANDING FORMATION OF AN INDEPENDENT SOVEREIGN STATE OUTSIDE THE BURMA UNION. A KAREN SPOKESMAN DECLARED RECENTLY THAT KARENS HAD A MAJORITY THROUGHOUT LOWER BURMA FROM TOUNGOO TO RANGOON.

OLD HATREDS BETWEEN KARENS AND BURMESE WERE REKINDLED IN 1942 WHEN A BURMESE "INDEPENDENCE" ARMY LED BY THE LATE U AUNG SAN MASSACRED HUNDREDS OF KAREN MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN INSIDE A BAPTIST CHURCH AT MYUANGMYA, IN THE RICE GROWING IRRAWADDY RIVER DELTA, AFTER ROUNDING UP THE KARENS' ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

rangoon, burma, jan. 20-(ap)-burma's cabinet resigned today.

the resignations came after an emergency session called by premier thakin nu to discuss the serious situation arising from 10 months of civil war.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT INDICATED THAKIN NU WILL FORM A NEW AND SMALLER CABINET.

THE WORSENING FINANCIAL SITUATION OF THE NATION BECAUSE OF THE FIGHTING WITH COMMUNIST INSURGENTS WAS A FACTOR IN THE FALL OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THE RESIGNING CABINET WAS FORMED BY THAKIN NU LAST SEPTEMBER FOLLOWING THE RESIGNATION OF A "CARETAKER GOVERNMENT."

SAO SHWE THAIK HAS BEEN PRESIDENT OF BURMA SINCE IT BECAME AN INDEPENDENT NATION A YEAR AGO AFTER MORE THAN A CENTURY OF BRITISH RULE.

THE 41-YEAR OLD THAKIN NU ALSO HEADED THE ORIGINAL CABINET UNDER SAO SHWE THAIK.

THE "CARETAKER GOVERNMENT" WAS PREDOMINANTLY SOCIALIST.

GROWING MENACE TO THE COUNTRY'S SECURITY AROSE FROM RED AND WHITE FLAG COMMUNISTS, MUTINYING MEMBERS OF THE BURMA ARMY AND OTHER ANTI-GOVERNMENT GROUPS. COMMUNISTS SPILLING INTO THE COUNTRY FROM CHINA WERE BELIEVED TO BE AMONG THE ORIGINAL LEADERS OF THE LONG UNREST.

IT WAS AUTHORITATIVELY STATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT, WHICH IS PREPARING TO HOLD THE FIRST GENERAL ELECTIONS SINCE INDEPENDENCE, FACES FOUR ISSUES:

THESE WERE SAID TO BE:

1. A WIDENING BREACH IN RELATIONS BETWEEN THE BURMESE AND KAREN TRIBESMEN WHICH HAS SET OFF A WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER AMONG BOTH COMMUNITIES IN THE IRRAWADDY RIVER DELTA AND THE SOUTHEAST COASTAL AREA.
2. AN ECONOMY DRIVE TO STABILIZE THE COUNTRY'S FINANCES.
3. A POSSIBLE NATIONWIDE STRIKE BY CIVIL SERVANTS RESENTFUL OF REDUCED INCOMES THROUGH CUTS IN COST OF LIVING ALLOWANCES.
4. POSSIBLE RECONCILIATION WITH ONE REBEL GROUP LED BY FORMER EDUCATION MINISTER BO PO KUN (WHITE BAND PVO'S).

VFIRST LEAD CHINA (220)

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

NANKING, JAN. 20-(AP)-THE GOVERNMENT TONIGHT OFFERED TO HALT HOSTILITIES AND TALK PEACE IN CHINA'S CIVIL WAR BUT LEFT TO THE COMMUNISTS THE NEXT MOVE.

IN NORTH CHINA A SEPARATE PEACE AGREEMENT SUITABLE TO BOTH SIDES REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN REACHED BUT NOT PUT INTO EFFECT. THIS AGREEMENT WOULD COVER ONLY THAT PART OF NORTH CHINA STILL IN GOVERNMENT HANDS.

THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY'S POWERFUL CENTRAL POLITICAL COUNCIL TODAY APPROVED THE CABINET'S RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A CEASE FIRE ORDER AND THE BEGINNING OF PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK HAS NOT SPOKEN. BUT GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN, SHEN CHANG-HUAN, OBVIOUSLY SPEAKING WITH CHIANG'S KNOWLEDGE AND APPROVAL, MADE IT PLAIN THE GOVERNMENT CONSIDERS ITS RESPONSIBILITY FOR PEACE ENDED FOR THE TIME BEING AND THAT IT IS NOW UP TO THE COMMUNISTS.

SAID SHEN:

"THERE WILL BE NO MORE PEACE OVERTURES UNTIL THE COMMUNISTS HAVE EXPRESSED THEIR DESIRES FOR A SIMILAR HALT IN HOSTILITIES. THEN AND THEN ONLY WILL THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT CONSIDER ORDERING CEASE FIRE AND SENDING A DELEGATION TO DISCUSS NEGOTIATIONS."

CHIANG MAY OVERRIDE BOTH THE EXECUTIVE YUAN AND THE KUOMINTANG.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE REMAINED SILENT SINCE THEIR TOUGH LEADER, MAO TZE-TUNG, LAST WEEK TOLD THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT IF IT WANTED PEACE TO PUT DOWN ITS GUNS.

A MEMBER OF THE GOVERNMENT PARTY'S POLITICAL COUNCIL SAID ITS MEMBERSHIP APPROVED AT A HECTIC MEETING TODAY THE EXECUTIVE YUAN'S PREVIOUS EFFORTS TO BRING ABOUT A TRUCE.

THE PARTY COUNCIL HAS NO GOVERNMENTAL POWERS BUT NO IMPORTANT STEPS ARE TAKEN WITHOUT ITS APPROVAL.

(FROM PEIPING, SPENCER MOOSA, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT, GOT THROUGH A DISPATCH SAYING TERMS AGREEABLE IN PRINCIPLE TO BOTH SIDES HAD BEEN REACHED THERE. HE QUOTED A MEMBER OF A PEACE DELEGATION TO THE COMMUNISTS AS SAYING THE TERMS CALL FOR THE SURRENDER OF PEIPING AND ALL NORTH CHINA. MOOSA CAUTIONED THESE TERMS HAD NOT BEEN PUT INTO EFFECT.

(UNDER THE PEIPING TERMS, SAID MOOSA'S SOURCE, PEIPING AND KWEISUI IN SUIYUAN PROVINCE, WOULD BE HANDED OVER TO THE REDS. THE NATIONALIST COMMANDER IN THE NORTH, GEN. FU TSO-YI, WOULD STEP DOWN AND BE REMOVED FROM THE COMMUNIST "WAR CRIMINALS" LIST. MOOSA WARNED THE DEAL HAD NOT BEEN COMPLETED AND MIGHT YET SLIP, BUT THE NATIONALIST POSITION IN NORTH CHINA SEEMED HOPELESS.)

CHIANG WAS INVITED TO PRESIDE OVER THE KUOMINTANG POLITICAL COUNCIL MEETING BUT DID NOT ATTEND. THE RIGHT WING CLIQUE TRIED TO BLOCK THE MOVE FOR A NEGOTIATED PEACE.

THE GOVERNMENT PREPARED TO SHIFT AT LEAST SOME OF ITS MINISTRIES TO CANTON TOMORROW.

PREMIER SUN FO WON THE SUPPORT OF A MAJORITY OF THE COUNCIL MEMBERS AND THE CABINET FOR A QUICK END TO THE WAR WHICH VIRTUALLY HAS BROUGHT THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT TO ITS KNEES.

OBSERVERS TOOK CHIANG'S ABSENCE AND SILENCE TO MEAN THAT HE WAS LETTING PARTY MEMBERS SWEAT OVER THE TRUCE PROBLEM AND THEN WILL COME TO HIS OWN DECISION WHEN HE GETS READY.

SOME FOREIGN OBSERVERS CONSIDERED THE COUNCIL MEETING AND THE EXECUTIVE YUAN'S PEACE EFFORTS AS SOME MORE CHINESE POLITICAL DOUBLE-TALK WHILE THE GOVERNMENT SOUGHT TO RISE FROM THE FLOOR AND FIGHT ON.

THE COMMUNISTS HAVE DEMANDED TOTAL SURRENDER.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND SOME OTHER MINISTRIES WILL MOVE SOUTHWARD TOMORROW. MOST OF THEM WILL GO TO CANTON, ALTHOUGH OTHER MINISTRIES ARE BEING SCATTERED TO DIFFERENT CITIES.

SHANGHAI REPORTED MIXED REACTIONS THERE TO THE PEACE MOVES. SOME QUARTERS WERE JUBILANT. OTHERS DEPRESSED. RICE RIOTS BROKE OUT IN SEVERAL SECTIONS OF THE CITY OF 6,000,000 AS THE GOLD YUAN'S VALUE HIT A NEW LOW OF 330 TO THE U.S. DOLLAR. SIX MONTHS AGO FOUR GOLD YUAN WERE EXCHANGED FOR $1.

ON THE FIGHTING FRONT ITSELF THERE WAS LITTLE TO REPORT, EXCEPT THAT PEIPING STILL SHUDDERED BEFORE OCCASIONAL RED SHELLS WHISTLING INTO THE ANCIENT CITY OF CULTURE.

PRECEDE PEIPING.
SHANGHAI, THURSDAY, JAN 20-(AP)-GENERAL PEACE TERMS WHICH MAY END THE WAR IN NORTH CHINA, AND TURN PEIPING OVER TO THE REDS, HAVE BEEN ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE BY BOTH SIDES BUT NOT YET IMPLEMENTED.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA MANAGED TO OBTAIN TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT. HE GOT THEM OUT OF PEIPING SECRETLY IN A MESSAGE TO THE SHANGHAI BUREAU--BUT HE WARNED: "REMEMBER, IN CHINA THINGS NEVER QUITE WORK OUT AS PLANNED. THERE MIGHT BE SOME MODIFICATIONS."
THE TERMS, AS RELAYED BY MOOSA, PROVIDE FOR TURNING OVER BOTH PEIPING AND KWEISUI TO THE REDS AND REMOVAL OF THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER, GEN. FU TSO-YI, FROM THE COMMUNISTS' "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST.

KWEISUI IS A NATIONALIST OUTPOST IN SUIYUAN PROVINCE, GENERAL FU'S OLD DOMAIN AS A WARLORD--AN AREA TO WHICH HE HAD BEEN EXPECTED ONCE TO WITHDRAW.
ACCORDING TO MOOSA'S INFORMATION, THE FIRST STEP IN ENDING THE SIX-WEEK-OLD SIEGE OF PEIPING IS THE APPOINTMENT OF PRESENT DEPUTY COMMANDER TENG PAO-SHAN AS COMMANDER OF ALL NATIONALIST TROOPS IN PEIPING, REPLACING FU.
THE SECOND STEP, MOOSA WENT ON, WILL BE THE RENAMING OF THE PEIPING GARRISON AS "THE ARMY OF DEMOCRATIC SELF DEFENSE." THE ARMY WILL "OSTENSIBLY NOT BE UNDER THE DIRECT COMMAND OF THE COMMUNISTS."
MOOSA CALLED THIS A PURELY "FACE SAVING DEVICE," AND A COMMUNIST "CONCESSION."
THE VETERAN CORRESPONDENT MESSAGED THAT THE THIRD STEP WILL BE THE SURRENDER BY GENERAL FU OF KWEISUI TO THE REDS.

MOOSA SAID THE FOURTH STEP WOULD BE ISSUANCE OF A PROCLAMATION BY FU ANNOUNCING HIS RESIGNATION AND THE APPOINTMENT OF TENG AS HIS SUCCESSOR.
IT WAS CONSIDERED LIKELY THAT A GROUP OF DELEGATES REPRESENTING THE PEOPLE WOULD BE CHOSEN TO DISCLOSE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT, MOOSA ADDED. HE SAID THERE REMAINED THE QUESTION OF HOW TO TREAT NATIONALIST GENERALS AFTER TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT ARE MADE PUBLIC.
HIGH RANKING OFFICERS, HE MESSAGED, PROBABLY WILL REMAIN TO SERVE IN THE NEW ARMY OR RESIGN--WITHOUT ANY PUNISHMENT.

MOOSA SAID THE TERMS CALLED ALSO FOR THE REDS TO MARCH INTO PEIPING WHILE THE GARRISON MARCHES OUT FOR REORGANIZATION. HE SAID THE PLAN IS TO GO INTO EFFECT "SOMETIME BETWEEN TODAY AND SATURDAY, BECAUSE THE REDS WANT TO BE IN PEIPING ONE WEEK AHEAD OF THE CHINESE NEW YEAR JAN. 29 TO STAGE A COMBINATION NEW YEAR AND VICTORY CELEBRATION."
MOOSA EMPHASIZED "THIS IS THE PLAN AS OF NOW. IT LOOKS AS THOUGH IT WOULD STAND UP, BUT I CANNOT BE SURE."

SHANGHAI,FRIDAY, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT TODAY ANNOUNCED IT WAS STORING UP A THREE-MONTH SUPPLY OF FOOD AGAINST A POSSIBLE SIEGE BY THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.
A CORDON OF CHINESE SOLDIERS AND POLICE WAS THROWN ABOUT SHANGHAI'S FINANCIAL DISTRICT TODAY WHILE TRUCKS CARRIED HEAVY BOXES FROM THE BANK OF CHINA TO A TANK-LANDING SHIP WAITING AT THE WHARF.
ALTHOUGH NO STATEMENT COULD BE OBTAINED, IT APPEARED OBVIOUS GOLD AND SILVER BULLION BELONGING TO THE GOVERNMENT WAS BEING TRANSFERRED TO THE SHIP, PROBABLY FOR SHIPMENT TO FORMOSA.

BY SPENCER MOOSA
PEIPING, FRIIDAY, JAN.21-(AP)-AIR DROPS OF FLOUR AND RICE CONTINUED TODAY AS NEW PILLBOXES WERE PREPARED FOR THE DEFENSE OF PEIPING.
LARGE NUMBERS OF CHINESE ALSO WORKED ON A NEW AIRFIELD ON THE NORTHERN SIDE OF THE LEGATION QUARTERS IN THE CENTRAL PART OF THE CITY.
IN THE BACKGROUND, TECHNICAL DETAILS WERE REPORTED BEING ARRANGED FOR THE TURNING OVER OF PEIPING TO THE COMMUNISTS. THIS EVENT ORIGINALLY WAS SCHEDULED FOR SATURDAY, AND IT STILL MAY OCCUR OVER THE WEEKEND.
THIS WAS PEIPING, WHICH TODAY ENTERED ITS 39TH DAY OF SIEGE. DEVELOPMENTS IN NANKING AROUSED HIGH HOPES OF AN EARLY NATIONAL SETTLEMENT OF THE CIVIL WAR, WHICH COULD THROW CHINA WIDE OPEN TO TRADE AND TRAVEL AND NOT CUT PEIPING OFF FROM THE NATIONALIST AREAS OF CHINA.
THE PUBLIC, HOWEVER, WENT ABOUT ITS BUSINESS QUIETLY, WITH NO OUTWARD SHOW OF EMOTION.
LU MEI, DAUGHTER OF FORMER MAYOR HO SZE-YUAN, WHO HAS BEEN LABORING FOR A POLITICAL SETTLEMENT, WAS BURIED WEDNESDAY. SHE WAS KILLED AND HER FATHER INJURED BY EXPLOSIONS IN THEIR HOME.
(PEACE ADVOCATES IN NANKING HAD ASSERTED NATIONALIST EXTREMISTS LEFT THE BOMB IN HO'S HOME TO HALK HIS PEACE EFFORTS.)
IN HONOR OF HER FATHER, FIVE PROVINCES OF THE NORTH CHINA COUNCIL SENT REPRESENTATIVES TO THE FUNERAL AND NAMED HER "FLOWER OF PEACE." HER NAME MEANT "FLOWER OF SHANTUNG."
IT WAS AT FIRST REPORTED SHE WAS KILLED BY A RED SHELL. BUT LATER IT WAS HINTED THAT TWO BOMBS WERE PLACED ON THE ROOF OF HO'S HOME IN AN EFFORT TO ASSASINATE HIM FOR TOO MUCH EFFORT TOWARD A LOCALIZED PEACE.
MEANTIME, REPORTS STRENGTHENED THE BELIEF A PEACE PLAN WAS AFOOT BASED UPON THE RESIGNATION OF GEN. FU TSO-YI AS COMMANDER IN NORTH CHINA.
HE WOULD BE REPLACED BY HIS DEPUTY COMMANDER, AND WOULD WITHDRAW HIS ARMY FROM PEIPING TO PERMIT THE REDS TO ENTER AND REORGANIZE THE NATIONALIST ARMY--BUT NOT OSTENSIBLY UNDER DIRECT COMMAND OF THE REDS.
GENERAL FU ALSO WOULD SURRENDER KWEISUI, CAPITAL OF SUIYUAN PROVINCE IN INNER MONGOLIA. (INNER MONGOLIA IS FU'S OLD STAMPING GROUND.)
IN RETURN, FU WOULD BE REMOVED FROM THE COMMUNIST LIST OF "WAR CRIMINALS."
IT IS KNOWN THIS PLAN HAS BEEN ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE FOR EXECUTION BY SATURDAY. BUT THERE HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLE QUESTION ALL ALONG WHETHER IT COULD BE CARRIED THROUGH BECAUSE OF TOO MUCH MISTRUST ON THE PART OF THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT PARTY) GENERALS, BOTH TOWARD THE REDS AND FU.
THERE ALSO WAS THE BELIEF THAT GENERAL GU HIMSELF MIGHT AT THE LAST MOMENT REFUSE TO MAKE A LOCALIZED SETTLEMENT, PREFERRING TO HOLD OUT IN HOPES THAT NANKING WOULD MAKE A NATION-WIDE AGREEMENT.

TSINGTAO,NORTH CHINA,JAN.21-(AP)-TWELVE U.S. NAVY SHIPS, INCLUDING A CARRIER, ARRIVED TODAY.

THERE HAVE BEEN RECURRENT REPORTS HERE THAT U.S. MARINES STATIONED IN TSINGTAO WOULD SHIFT FROM SHORE BASES TO BILLETS ABOARD SHIPS.

(IN SHANGHAI, U.S. NAVY SOURCES SAID THE ARRIVAL OF THE FLOTILLA AT THE TSINGTAO BASE WAS NOT UNUSUAL, INASMUCH AS NAVAL MANEUVERS IN FAR EASTERN WATERS HAVE BEEN GOING ON FOR SOME TIME.)

SHANTUNG UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS WERE NOTIFIED EARLY THIS MONTH THAT 3,000 MARINES QUARTERED IN THE UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS WOULD BE WITHDRAWN JAN.25, BUT THE NAVAL COMMAND SAID LATER THIS NOTIFICATION WAS A MISTAKE.

BATAVIA, JAVA, JAN.21-(FRIDAY)-(AP)-TWO REPRESENTATIVES OF NON-REPUBLICAN INDONESIAN LEADERS FLEW TO THE ISLAND OF BANGKA TODAY TO TRY TO SEE REPUBLICAN PREMIER MOHAMED HATTA AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS HELD BY THE DUTCH.

THEY EXPECT TO CONTINUE ON TO PRAPAT IN NORTHERN SUMATRA WHERE PRESIDENT SOEKARNO OF THE REPUBLIC IS A CAPTIVE.

MAKING THE TRIP ARE PREMIER DJUMHANA OF THE WEST JAVA STATE OF PASUNDAN AND DR.ATENG, REPRESENTING THE STATE OF EAST JAVA.

LEADERS OF THE DUTCH-SPONSORED MEETING OF FEDERAL STATES HERE HAD ANNOUNCED EARLIER IN THE WEEK THEY HOPED TO ARRANGE A CONFERENCE WITH SEVEN "PROMINENT PERSONS" OF THE REPUBLIC TO DISCUSS FORMATION OF A NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.

THE DUTCH SAID OFFICIALLY TODAY THAT HATTA AND FIVE OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS HELD ON BANGKA HAVE BEEN GIVEN THE RUN OF THE ISLAND. THEY QUOTED HATTA AS SAYING HE HAD BEEN TREATED SATISFACTORILY AND THAT HIS ONLY OBJECTION WAS THAT HE AND THE OTHER REPUBLICANS WERE ISOLATED.

NIGHT LEAD U.N.-INDONESIA (300)

BY FRANCIS W. CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.20-(AP)-THE SECURITY COUNCIL POSTPONED TODAY UNTIL 3 P.M. TOMORROW ITS MEETING ON INDONESIA. INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE BRITISH AND FRENCH DELEGATIONS HAVE NOT RECEIVED FINAL INSTRUCTIONS ON A REVISED AMERICAN PLAN FOR SETTLING THE PROBLEM.

IT WAS THE SECOND DELAY THIS WEEK. DELEGATES HAVE SAID THEY ARE TRYING TO IRON OUT DIFFERENCES IN CLOSED CONFERENCES INSTEAD OF PUTTING UP A RESOLUTION THAT WOULD NOT BE ACCEPTABLE TO A MAJORITY.

SOURCES CLOSE TO THE SITUATION SAID THE BRITISH HOLD A KEY VOTE ON THIS REVISED PROPOSAL. THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, NORWAY AND CUBA ARE REPORTED SPONSORING IT. CANADA AND EGYPT WERE SAID TO FAVOR IT. THE PROPOSAL WOULD NEED SEVEN VOTES FOR PASSAGE, PROVIDED NO ONE OF THE BIG FIVE CASTS A VETO.

THESE SOURCES SAID RUSSIA, THE SOVIET UKRAINE, FRANCE AND ARGENTINA LIKELY WOULD ABSTAIN.

THE MAIN CHANGE IN THE JOINT PROPOSAL WAS SAID TO CONCERN THE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM INDONESIAN TERRITORY.

THE ORIGINAL AMERICAN PLAN CALLED FOR THE COUNCIL TO SET UP A COMMISSION ON INDONESIA WHICH WOULD SUPERVISE THE PROGRESSIVE WITHDRAWAL OF THE DUTCH FROM INDONESIAN TERRITORY. THE NEW PROPOSAL WAS SAID TO PROVIDE THAT THE COMMISSION WOULD RECOMMEND THE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS. IT DOES NOT HAVE THE WEIGHT OF A DEFINITE COUNCIL ORDER.

DUTCH SPOKESMEN HAVE SAID HOLLAND WOULD NOT ACCEPT AN ORDER TO WITHDRAW.

INDONESIAN SPOKESMEN HAVE INSISTED THAT WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS IS A FIRST REQUIREMENT FOR A SETTLEMENT.

THE REVISED JOINT PLAN WAS REPORTED TO CALL FOR A CEASE FIRE ON BOTH THE DUTCH AND INDONESIAN SIDES. THE EFFECT OF THIS WOULD BE A CALL ON THE DUTCH TO STOP THEIR MILITARY ACTION, WHICH ALREADY HAS PRACTICALLY HALTED, AND A CALL ON THE INDONESIANS TO STOP GUERRILLA ACTIVITY.

INDONESIAN SPOKESMEN SAID GUERRILLA ACTION IS GROWING DAILY.

THE RESOLUTION ALSO IS SAID TO CALL FOR THE RELEASE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND FOR STEPS LEADING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA NOT LATER THAN JULY 1, 1950.

THIS PLAN WOULD PROVIDE THAT THE COUNCIL CREATE THE COMMISSION ON INDONESIA OUT OF THE PRESENT GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE, WHICH IS MADE UP OF THE U.S. BELGIUM AND AUSTRALIA.

THE U.N. ANNOUNCEMENT MEANT, INFORMED OBSERVERS SAID, THAT THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, CUBA, AND NORWAY WERE NOT YET READY TO PUT BEFORE THE COUNCIL A RESOLUTION FOR SETTLING THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM.

THE COUNCIL WAS SCHEDULED TO MEET YESTERDAY BUT WAS POSTPONED BECAUSE, INFORMED SOURCES SAID, THE U.S. AND THE OTHER SPONSORS DID NOT HAVE ENOUGH VOTES TO OBTAIN APPROVAL OF THE RESOLUTION. THE SITUATION HAS NOT CHANGED DESPITE ALMOST CONTINUOUS CCONSULTATIONS.

EARLIER THE FOUR SPONSORS HAD EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THEY WOULD HAVE A DRAFT FOR THE COUNCIL.

LATER IN THE NEWS CONFERENCE HE AMPLIFIED HIS REMARKS TO WARN PEOPLE AGAINST GETTING THEIR HOPES UP.

NIGHT LEAD COMMUNISTS (350)

NEW YORK, JAN. 20-(AP)-A DEFENSE ATTORNEY FOR 11 HIGH U.S. COMMUNISTS MOVED TODAY TO PUT NEW YORK FEDERAL JUDGES--AND POSSIBLY THE TRIAL JUDGE HIMSELF--ON THE WITNESS STAND.

GEORGE W.CROCKETT, DETROIT NEGRO, ANNOUNCED IN COURT A PLAN TO CALL THE JUDGES AS A PART OF THE DEFENSE ATTACK ON THE METHODS BY WHICH FEDERAL JURIES ARE SELECTED HERE.

THE 11 COMMUNISTS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE, WENT ON TRIAL MONDAY ON CHARGES OF WORKING FOR THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

PRESIDING JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA CHARACTERIZED THE NEW DEFENSE PLAN

AS AN "EXTRAORDINARY" MANEUVER AND SAID HE WOULD HAVE TO STUDY THE LAW TO DETERMINE IF SUCH A THING WERE POSSIBLE.

U.S. ATTORNEY JOHN F.X.MCGOHEY SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THE LAW PERMITTED IT. HOWEVER, HE INDICATED THAT SUCH PROCEDURE, IF FOUND TO BE PROPER, MIGHT DISQUALIFY JUDGE MEDINA FROM FURTHER CONNECTION WITH THE TRIAL.

ALL OF TODAY'S SESSION WAS OCCUPIED WITH THE DEFENSE DENUNCIATIONS OF THE JURY SYSTEM. ATTORNEYS FOR THE COMMUNISTS MAINTAIN IT DISCRIMINATES AGAINST NEGROES, POOR PERSONS, LABOR GROUPS, WOMEN AND OTHERS.

THE SESSION BEGAN WITH A PROSECUTION MOTION BEFORE THE COURT SEEKING TO THROW OUT ONE PART OF THE DEFENSE ATTACK ON THE JURY-PICKING SYSTEM.

IT ENDED WITH THE SAME MOTION STILL TO BE ACTED UPON, ALTHOUGH MEDINA INDICATED HE WOULD SIDE WITH THE GOVERNMENT ATTORNEYS ON IT.

IN SEEKING TO PUT THE JUDGES ON THE STAND, DEFENSE ATTORNEYS SAY THEY ARE TRYING TO ESTABLISH THAT CERTAIN GROUPS ARE EXCLUDED IN SELECTION OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS HERE.

AT A NEWS CONFERENCE AFTER ADJOURNMENT FOR THE DAY, CROCKETT SAID IT HAD NOT YET BEEN DETERMINED WHETHER MEDINA WOULD BE CALLED, BUT HE INSISTED THE DEFENSE HAS "SUFFICIENT LEGAL BASIS FOR DOING SO."

A SHORT WHILE LATER DEFENSE LAWYERS OBTAINED 50 BLANK SUBPOENAS BUT WOULDN'T SAY UPON WHOM THEY WOULD BE SERVED.

JUDGE MEDINA CONTINUALLY PRODDED THE DEFENSE LAWYERS TODAY WITH SUCH REMARKS AS "I WISH YOU'D GET DOWN TO IT" AND "GO AHEAD AND CALL YOUR WITNESSES AND START PROVING IT."

AS THE SESSION ENDED, THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS SAID WITNESSES TO SUPPORT THEIR ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE JURY-PICKING METHOD WOULD BE CALLED BEGINNING TOMORROW MORNING.

FIRST LEAD COMMUNISTS

NEW YORK, JAN 20-(AP)-A DEFENSE LAWYER IN THE TRIAL OF 11 AMERICAN COMMUNIST LEADERS TODAY SAID HE WOULD CALL AS WITNESSES ALL FEDERAL JUDGES IN THIS DISTRICT TO TRY TO SUPPORT HIS ATTACK ON THE JURY SYSTEM HERE.

GEORGE CROCKETT, DETROIT NEGRO ATTORNEY, SAID JUDGE HAROLD R. MEDINA, PRESIDING AT THE TRIAL, WOULD BE INCLUDED IN THE CALL. MEDINA IMMEDIATELY ASKED THE LAWYER TO PRESENT A MEMORANDUM OF LAW TO SUPPORT HIS RIGHT TO ASK A PRESIDING JUDGE TO TESTIFY.

THE DEFENSE HAS A MOTION BEFORE THE COURT ASSAILING THE NEW YORK METHOD OF PICKING FEDERAL GRAND JURIES AND TRIAL JURIES AS UNDEMOCRATIC.

THE 11 COMMUNIST OFFICIALS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE, ARE CHARGED WITH SEEKING THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

CROCKETT TODAY RENEWED HIS ARGUMENT THAT 350,000 NEGROES IN TE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK HAD BEEN EXCLUDED IN SELECTION OF JURIES.

IN HIS REMARKS THE NEGRO ATTORNEY APOLOGIZED FOR AN "EMOTIONAL OUTBURST OF YESTERDAY" IN WHICH HE SOBBED WHILE MAKING A SIMILAR COMPLAINT ABOUT ALLEGED EXCLUSIONG OF NEGROES.

"YOU CERTAINLY WEPT, AND WEPT PROFUSELY," SAID JUDGE MEDINA.

"I MAKE NO OBJECTION TO IT BUT IT IS GENERALLY BETTER FOR COUNSEL TO REFRAIN FROM WEEPING IN THE COURTROOM."

"THANK YOU, YOUR HONOR," SAID CROCKETT. "I APPRECIATE YOUR PERMISSION TO WEEP."

"IN MODERATION, OF COURSE." THE JUDGE CAUTIONED.

AS IN THE THREE PREVIOUS DAYS OF THE TRIAL, MEDINA PUNCTUATED THE LONG STATEMENTS OF THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS TODAY WITH SUCH REMARKS AS "I WISH YOU'D GET DOWN TO IT" AND "GO AHEAD AND CALL YOUR WITNESSES AND START PROVING IT."

AMONG THE JURISTS THE DEFENSE PLANS TO CALL ARE JUDGE JOHN C.KNOX, SENIOR FEDERAL JUDGE IN THIS DISTRICT.

MEDINA, AT THE OPENING OF TODAY'S SESSION, CONTINUED TO RESERVE DECISION ON A PROSECUTION MOTION TO THROW OUT ONE PART OF THE DEFENSE JURY ATTACK.

THAT PART IS AN ATTEMPT TO VOID THE CONSPIRACY INDICTMENT ON THE GROUND IT WAS VOTED BY A GRAND JURY FROM WHICH MEMBERS OF MINORITY GROUPS WERE EXCLUDED.

MORE ARGUMENT WAS SCHEDULED TODAY (10:30 A.M., EST) IN THE DEFENSE LAWYERS' TWIN ATTACK ON THE PANEL OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS DRAWN FOR THE TRIAL.

THE DEFENSE LOST A FIGHT YESTERDAY TO HAVE A JUDGE BROUGHT IN FROM OUTSIDE THE DISTRICT TO HEAR THE MOVES TO PREVENT A TRIAL UNDER THE PRESENT SETUP.

JUDGE MEDINA REFUSED TO DISQUALIFY HIMSELF OR THE OTHER JUDGES OF THE DISTRICT AS PREJUDICED IN FAVOR OF THE JURY SYSTEM. THE COMMUNISTS' LAWYERS CHARGED THAT JUDGE KNOX "FATHERED" THE JURY SYSTEM WHICH THEY CONTEND IS "ILLEGAL" AND EXCLUDES PERSONS OF LOW INCOME, NEGROES, JEWS AND MEMBERS OF OTHER MINORITY GROUPS.

THE CROWD OF SPECTATORS HAS DWINDLED DURING THE LENGTHY ARGUMENTS THAT STARTED MONDAY, AND MOST OF THE GUARD OF 400-ODD POLICE AND FEDERAL AGENTS HAS BEEN WITHDRAWN.

THE DEFENDANTS WERE INDICTED LAST JULY, ALONG WITH COMMUNIST NATIONAL CHAIRMAN WILLIAM Z. FOSTER, ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRACY TO ORGANIZE A PARTY ADVOCATING OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT BY FORCE AND VIOLENCE. TRIAL OF FOSTER, WHO IS ILL, WAS SEPARATED FROM THAT OF THE OTHERS.

(ADVANCE) (WX) NEW YORK,JAN 20-(AP)-A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL INDICATED TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES MAY BE GROWING "INCREASINGLY VULNERABLE" TO ATOMIC ATTACK.

DECLARING THAT "THE NEED FOR GREATER SECURITY IS BECOMING IMPERATIVE," DARIO G.BAROZZI, AN OFFICIAL OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY RESOURCES BOARD, TOLD A MEETING OF ENGINEERS:

TODAY, NO LOCATION IN THIS COUNTRY CAN BE CONSIDERED SECURE SIMPLY BY VIRTUE OF ITS DISTANCE FROM A POTENTIAL ENEMY.

BAROZZI, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF INDUSTRIAL DISPERSI N ON THE NSRB, SAID IN A SPEECH REPARED FOR THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS THAT ANY ATTACK ON THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WOULD BE SUDDEN "AND OF SUCH MAGNITUDE THAT GENERAL DESTRUCTION IN THE AREAS AFFECTED" WOULD RESULT.

AND, HE ADDED, ANY INDUSTRY "LESS THAN THREE MILES FROM A POTENTIAL TARGET CENTER FOR AN ATOMIC BOMB IS SERIOUSLY VULNERABLE."

HE NOTED THAT THE TREND OF THE NATION'S POPULATION HAS BEEN TOWARD THE CITIES, WITH ABOUT 6[illegible] PER CENT OF ALL AMERICANS CURRENTLY LIVING IN LESS THAN THREE PER CENT OF THE NATION'S TOTAL LAND AREA.

"ARE WE NOT VULNERABLE?" HE ASKED. "ARE WE NOT BECOMING INCREASINGLY VULNERABLE?"

BAROZZI URGED LARGE-SCALE DISPERSION OF INDUSTRIAL PLANTS. HE SAID THIS OFFERED ADVANTAGES BEYOND SECURITY FROM ATOMIC ATTACK, BUT HE STRESSED THAT SAFETY IN CASE OF WAR SHOULD BE REASON ENOUGH.

DISPERSION IS LIFE AND PROPERTY INSURANCE IN THE ATOMIC AGE," HE DECLARED.

"PRESENT PEACETIME CONSUMPTION OF PETROLEUM PRODUCTS IS GREATER THAN DURING THE HEIGHT OF WORLD WAR TWO," DR.WEIDLEIN TOLD THE PHILADELPHIA SECTION OF THE AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY LAST NIGHT.

FOR A POSSIBLE THIRD WORLD WAR THE STRATEGIC NEEDS "MUST BE ESTIMATED AT A RATE NEARLY DOUBLE THAT OF THE PAST CONFLICT," HE ADDED.

"NO WELL-INFORMED, RESPONSIBLE TECHNICAL MAN, WHETHER IN PETROLEUM, GEOLOGICAL, CHEMICAL OR GOVERNMENTAL CIRCLES, BELIEVES THAT OUR COUNTRY CAN LONG CONTINUE TO MEET THE INCREASING DEMAND FOR LIQUID FUEL FROM UNITED STATES PETROLEUM OR EVEN FROM WESTERN HEMISPHERE SOURCES," HE DECLARED. "IF THERE IS ANOTHER WAR, THE LIQUID PROBLEM WILL BE IMMEDIATE AND ACUTE."

BY CONTRAST, DR.WEIDLEIN SAID THE VAST COAL RESOURCES SHOULD MEET ALL REQUIREMENTS FOR HEAT, LIGHT, POWER AND TRANSPORTATION FOR MORE THAN 1,000 YEARS AT THE PRESENT RATE OF CONSUMPTION.

WASHINGTON, JAN.20-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE HAVE MADE COUNTER-PROPOSALS ON A UNITED NATIONS PLAN FOR SETTLEMENT OF THE CURRENCY ISSUE IN BLOCKADED BERLIN.

THEY CONSIDER THE PLAN AS STILL BEING NEGOTIATED, IN SPITE OF COMMUNIST COMPLAINTS IN BERLIN THAT THE WEST HAS REJECTED IT.

THAT WAS THE RESPONSE MADE HERE TO A REPORT FROM BERLIN QUOTING RUSSIAN RED ARMY ORGAN AS ACCUSING THE WESTERN ALLIES OF "AGAIN SABOTAGING" EFFORTS TO OBTAIN A SOLUTION OF THE CURRENCY DISPUTE.

WHAT WESTERN DIPLOMATS FEAR, IT WAS SAID HERE, IS THAT THIS LATEST SOVIET PROPAGANDA ATTACK ON THE WESTERN POWERS MAY BE A COVER FOR A RUSSIAN REJECTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS PLAN.

THE SETTLEMENT PROPOSAL HAD BEEN MADE BY A COMMITTEE OF UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC EXPERTS LAST DECEMBER 23. THE AMERICAN-BRITISH-FRENCH-RESPONSE WAS GIVEN TO THE EXPERTS COMMITTEE AT SESSIONS IN GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, BEGINNING LAST FRIDAY.

IT WAS UNDERSTOOD HERE THAT THE RUSSIAN REACTION WAS EXPRESSED TO THE COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS ABOUT THE SAME TIME.

UNDER THE COMMITTEE'S RULES, NEITHER THE RUSSIANS NOR THE WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES WERE SUPPOSED TO BE TOLD ABOUT THE COMMENTS OF THE OTHER. THE AGREED PROCEDURE WAS FOR THE U.N. EXPERTS TO USE THE COMMENTS CONFIDENTIALLY AS A MEANS OF TRYING TO WORK OUT A GENERALLY ACCEPTABLE SOLUTION.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE TOOK THE POSITION THAT THE COMMITTEE PROPOSALS (WHICH HAVE NEVER BEEN MADE PUBLIC) WERE UNACCEPTABLE IN THE FORM IN WHICH THEY WERE ORIGINALLY PRESENTED AND THAT VARIOUS CHANGES SHOULD BE MADE. OFFICIALS HERE SAID THAT THIS WAS NOT IN ANY SENSE A REJECTION.

IN SUBSTANCE, IT WAS UNDERSTOOD, THE WESTERN POWERS INSISTED THAT NO UNIFIED CURRENCY OPERATION IN BERLIN WOULD BE POSSIBLE UNTIL THE SOVIET ADMINISTRATION LIFTED VARIOUS RESTRICTIONS ON TRADE AND TRAVEL BETWEEN THE EASTERN AND WESTERN ZONES OF THE CITY.

MUCH OF SUCCESS OF EXERCISE WILL DEPEND UPON CO-ORDINATION, IN STORM AND FOG, OF THESE WIDELY DIVERSE FORCES:

1. ATTACK VESSELS, INCLUDING TRANSPORTS, CARGO SHIPS, AND LANDING CRAFT.
2. DESTROYERS AND OTHER VESSELS WHICH WILL FERRET OUT AND DESTROY LURKING "ENEMY" SUBMARINES.
3. AIRCRAFT, INCLUDING NEW NAVY JET PLANES, WHICH WILL PROVIDE AIR COVER FROM CARRIERS.
4. CRUISERS AND DESTROYERS, WHICH WILL REDUCE BEACH DEFENSES.
5. VARIOUS VESSELS WHICH WILL FIRE ROCKETS AT SHORE INSTALLATIONS.
6. UNDERWATER DEMOLITION TEAMS AND OTHER BEACH RECONNAISSANCE UNITS WHICH WILL BE SENT ASHORE PRIOR TO THE ASSAULTS.

SHIPS AND MEN WILL USE LIVE AMMUNITION. FOLLOWING THE KODIAK EXERCISE, THE ENTIRE GROUP WILL MERGE INTO AN "OVERSEAS EXPEDITIONARY FORCE" WHICH WILL SIMULATE AN ATTACK ON SAN FRANCISCO.

LONDON, JAN 20-(AP)-VISCOUNT ELIBANK, A BRITISH BUSINESSMAN WITH SOME SOUTH AFRICAN INVESTMENTS, SUGGESTED TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATE DEVALUE THE DOLLAR AGAIN TO BAIL OUT THE WORLD'S GOLD MINING INDUSTRIES.

JAN 1949

GOLD STOCKS HAVE DECLINED IN THE LONDON MARKET RECENTLY BECAUSE OF RISING PRODUCTION COSTS AND LOWERED PROFITS.

ELIBANK SAID IN A LETTER PUBLISHED IN THE DAILY TELEGRAPH THAT DEVALUATION --WHICH WOULD MEAN A HIGHER DOLLAR PRICE FOR GOLD-- WOULD HELP THE UNITED STATES AS WELL AS FOREIGN GOLD MINERS.

GOLD PRODUCERS LIKE SOUTH AFRICA, CANADA, AUSTRALIA AND INDIA, HE SAID, "HAVE BEEN HARD HIT BY THE EXISTING LOW PRICE AND ARE FINDING IT ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE, EXCEPT IN THE HIGHER GRADE MINES, TO MAKE ENDS MEET."

"THESE COUNTRIES ARE GRADUALLY DESCENDING INTO DIFFICULTIES OVER DOLLAR CURRENCY AND ONE BY ONE ARE BEGINNING TO IMPOSE IMPORT RESTRICTIONS ON GOODS FROM THE UNITED STATES IN ORDER TO SAVE DOLLARS X X X," HE SAID.

THESE COUNTRIES HAVE BEEN GOOD MARKETS FOR AMERICAN GOODS AND

TOBACCO, HE SAID, BUT "THEIR DECLINE AS MARKETS FOR AMERICAN GOODS WILL BE MUCH FELT IN THE UNITED STATES AND MUST HAVE CONSIDERABLE EFFECT ON THE UNITED STATES ECONOMY."

THE DAILY TELEGRAPH'S FINANCIAL EDITOR DISCUSSING GOLD DEVALUATION RECENTLY, SAID DEVALUATION OF THE DOLLAR WOULD AMOUNT TO AN AMERICAN SUBSIDY TO THE SOUTH AFRICAN GOLD MINING INDUSTRY.

JAN 1949

THE BRITISH TREASURY DECLINED COMMENT.

THE DOLLAR WAS DEVALUED IN 1933, RAISING THE PRICE OF GOLD FROM $20.67 PER FINE OUNCE (TROY) TO $35. SINCE THEN GOLD HAS FLOWED HEAVILY TO THE UNITED STATES UNTIL IT NOW OWNS MOST OF THE WORLD'S MONETARY GOLD WHICH IS STORED IN FORT KNOX, KY., VAULTS.

(ADVANCE) PRAGUE, JAN.21-(AP)-CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S HIGH-PRICED FREE MARKETS MAY YET STRENGTHEN HER CURRENCY VALUATION BY CLEANING THE POCKETS OF HER CITIZENS OF EXCESS CASH.

WITH SEVERAL OTHER AIDS, THE GOVERNMENT FIGURED TO MAKE A DRASTIC REDUCTION IN THE 70 BILLION CROWNS (ABOUT $1,400,000,000) IN CIRCULATION AROUND THE END OF THE YEAR. THAT AMOUNT OF MONEY OUT IN BANK NOTES SPELLED INFLATION.

SOME FOREIGN OBSERVERS HERE THOUGHT THE PROJECT WOULD WORK OUT.

CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAS REFUSED STUBBORNLY TO DEVALUE OR REVALUE HER CURRENCY, ALTHOUGH FINANCE MINISTRY OFFICIALS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT A SINGLE AMERICAN GREENBACK WOULD BRING AT TIMES UP TO 700 CZECHOSLOVAK CROWNS. THE OFFICIAL VALUE IS 49.75 CROWNS. THE BLACK MARKET VALUE WAS THUS AT TIMES AS HIGH AS 14 TIMES THE OFFICIAL VALUE. IT WAS INSISTED, HOWEVER, THAT ACTUAL BLACK MARKET CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS WERE COMPARATIVELY LOW.

HOWEVER, THE CROWN LOOKED BAD ON SWISS AND OTHER FOREIGN MARKETS AND IT HAD ITS EFFECT ON TRADE.

THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, BY SELLING SCARCE GOODS OF ADMITTEDLY GOOD QUALITY FOR HIGH PRICES "OFF THE RATION," HOPED AT ONCE TO DRAIN OFF A LOT OF HOARDED MONEY, KILL THE BLACK MARKET IN CLOTHING BY STIFF COMPETITION, GIVE WORKING MEN AND WOMEN A FAIRLY LIBERAL RATION ALLOWANCE FOR CLOTHING AT LOWER PRICES, FREEZE OUT ULTIMATELY PRIVATE SHOP-

KEEPERS, AND GRADUALLY TAKE THE COUNTRY ENTIRELY OFF FOOD AND CLOTHING RATIONS.

IF THEY CAN SAVE THE CROWN IN THE PROCESS, IF THEY CAN INCREASE PRODUCTION BY INCENTIVE BONUSES AND IF THEY CAN FEED THEIR EXPORT MARKET, THE CZECHOSLOVAK GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE BROUGHT OFF A NOTABLE PIECE OF WORK IN THE MODERN HISTORY OF PLANNED ECONOMY.

OTHER AIDS IN SHRINKING CURRENCY CIRCULATION INCLUDED PUTTING THE COUNTRY ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS.

BUT THE FREE MARKETS PROMISED THE BIGGEST, QUICKEST SLASH INTO BANK NOTE CIRCULATION.

JAN 1949

PEOPLE CAME TO LOOK, PRICE, AND TO BUY SO THAT MILLIONS OF CROWNS FLOWED INTO THE GOVERNMENT COFFERS OVER THE COUNTERS OF THE GOVERNMENT SHOPS THAT SOLD "OFF THE RATION."

MOST PEOPLE BOUGHT BECAUSE THEY HAD ACCRUED CASH WITH WHICH THEY HADN'T BEEN ABLE TO BUY SHIRTS OR SHEETS OR SHOES SINCE THE WAR. BUT SOME PEOPLE SPENT THEIR MONEY BECAUSE THEY FELT THAT A SUIT ON THEIR BACK WAS BETTER THAN A BANK NOTE OF WHOSE VALUE THEY COULDN'T BE CERTAIN.

JAN 1949

IN ANY CASE, SHIRTS AT 12 DOLLARS, TOWELS AT FIVE DOLLARS, TROUSERS AT 48 DOLLARS, A METER OF SUITING MATERIAL AT 80 TO 100 DOLLARS, APPEARED TO SELL FREELY ENOUGH. SHOPS SELLING MOTORCYCLES OFF RATION WERE THRONGED. GASOLINE SOLD AT FIVE DOLLARS A GALLON OFF RATION--AND PUMP DEALERS SAID THEY WERE DOING ALL RIGHT.

THE WORKERS WERE STILL ABLE TO GET ON RATION TICKETS WORKING CLOTHES AND EVEN STUFF OF FAIRLY GOOD QUALITY AT PRICES 30 TO 90 PER CENT HIGHER THAN BEFORE THE END OF THE YEAR, BUT STILL WAY UNDER THE FREE MARKET PRICES.

THE FREE MARKETS HAD ANOTHER BENEFIT FOR THE GOVERNMENT. THEY CAME AT THE OUTSET OF THE NEW FIVE-YEAR PLAN AND SHOWED THAT THERE WERE THINGS TO BE BOUGHT IF ONE HAD THE MONEY FOR THEM.

SOME OF THE STOCKS HAD BEEN HELD BACK FOR THE SHOW AT GOVERNMENT ORDER. SOME HAD BEEN HOARDED BY PRIVATE INTERESTS AND WERE CONFISCATED.

BY HARVEY HUDSON

(ADVANCE)..PARIS, JAN.18-(AP)-POST-WAR EUROPE IS BECOMING AN ECONOMIC WONDERLAND AS EACH COUNTRY TRIES TO OUTDO ITS NEIGHBOR IN EXPORTS.

GOOD PILSEN BEER CAN BE BOUGHT IN PARIS, BUT NOT A DROP IS TO BE HAD IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA. AN AMERICAN IN PARIS--WITH DOLLARS TO SPEND--CAN GET A FRENCH CAR IN A FEW DAYS; A FRENCHMAN MUST WAIT FOR MONTHS OR YEARS.

COUNTRIES WHICH ARE UNABLE TO FEED AND CLOTHE THEMSELVES ARE TURNING OUT LUXURIES. THE LUXURIES AREN'T SOLD AT HOME, BUT ARE SENT ABROAD TO EARN CURRENCIES WHICH CAN BE USED TO BUY NECESSITIES. MANY ITEMS ARE SCARCEST IN THE COUNTRIES WHERE THEY WERE MADE.

THIS STORY--FANCIFUL BUT ILLUSTRATIVE--IS GOING THE ROUNDS IN EUROPE:

AT A FRENCH DIPLOMATIC RECEPTION, THE HOST APOLOGETICALLY OFFERED HIS GUESTS ENGLISH CHEDDAR CHEESE. HE EXPLAINED THAT ALL THE FRENCH CAMEMBERT, WHICH HE WOULD HAVE PREFERRED TO SERVE, WAS GOING FOR EXPORT.

A FEW DAYS LATER, ONE OF THE GUESTS AT THE FRENCH RECEPTION WAS ATTENDING A SIMILAR AFFAIR IN ENGLAND. THERE THE HOST SERVED FRENCH CAMEMBERT, APOLOGIZING BECAUSE ALL OF THE ENGLISH CHEDDAR WAS BEING EXPORTED.

ACTUALLY THE SITUATION HAS NOT QUITE PROGRESSED TO THAT STATE OF ABSURDITY.

MANY OF THE EXPORTS COVER ITEMS VITALLY NEEDED AT HOME. NORWAY AND SWEDEN ARE EXPORTING PREFABRICATED HOUSES DESPITE A TERRIFIC HOUSING SHORTAGE AMONG SWEDES AND NORWEGIANS. FRANCE IS EXPORTING STEEL AND RAILWAY CARS ALTHOUGH SHE CANNOT SATISFY HOME DEMAND.

SUCH NECESSITIES MAY BE SENT ABROAD FOR ONE OF THESE REASONS: DESPERATE NEED FOR FOREIGN CURRENCIES TO BUY OTHER THINGS EVEN MORE URGENTLY NEEDED; THE DESIRE TO BUILD UP MARKETS AND STEADY CUSTOMERS NOW RATHER THAN WAIT UNTIL EVERY COUNTRY HAS SURPLUSES; OR AS AN EXPRESSION OF THE SPIRIT OF ECONOMIC COOPERATION THAT IS SLOWLY TAKING HOLD IN EUROPE IN THIS TROUBLED POST-WAR PERIOD.

THE VOLUME OF NECESSITIES THAT CAN BE EXPORTED IS STRINGENTLY LIMITED. SUFFICIENT SUPPLIES SIMPLY AREN'T AVAILABLE AND TOO GREAT A PROPORATION OF EXPORTS WOULD CAUSE TOO MUCH GRUMBLING AT HOME. THAT WOULD LEAD TO POLITICAL INSTABILITY, WHICH NO GOVERNMENT WANTS TO INVITE.

THAT LEAVES THE LUXURY ITEM AS THE IDEAL EXPORT. THE IDEAL BUYER IS A RICH COUNTRY WHICH CAN AFFORD THE LUXURIES, AND CAN OFFER NECESSITIES IN RETURN. THAT IS WHY THE UNITED STATES IS A PRIME TARGET FOR THE LUXURY EXPORTS.

SOME LUXURIES ARE BOUGHT FOR BAIT--IN THE HOPE THAT THE CURRENCIES TRAPPED WITH THE BAIT WILL MORE THAN PAY FOR THE LUXURY IMPORTS.

THE PILSEN BEER FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA IS FOUND IN PARIS IN THE COLORFUL SIDEWALK CAFES HAUNTED BY FOREIGN TOURISTS. IT IS TOO EXPENSIVE FOR THE NEIGHBORHOOD BISTROS OF THE FRENCH WORKERS.

ALMOST ALL COUNTRIES SEEK TO EXPORT THEIR BEST BEERS--FRANCE, THE NETHERLANDS, DENMARK, NORWAY, SWEDEN, CZECHOSLOVAKIA. ALSO SWEDEN SENDS ABROAD ITS BEST SCHNAPPS, FRANCE ITS FINE COGNACS AND CHAMPAGNES. PORTUGAL ITS BEST PORT WINE. ALMOST ALL COUNTRIES SEEK TO SELL ABROAD THEIR FINEST HANDMADE TEXTILE ITEMS.

THE DRIVE TO EXPORT LUXURY ITEMS LED ONE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC PLANNER TO ASK:

"HOW LONG CAN WE SUPPORT OURSELVES BY SELLING EACH OTHER LUXURIES?"

MANY ITEMS BESIDES LUXURIES ARE BEING SOLD ABROAD, HOWEVER. LIVESTOCK GROWING IS ONE OF DENMARK'S BIGGEST INDUSTRIES, YET DENMARK RATIONS MEAT. ALL POSSIBLE IS EXPORTED. HOLLAND EXPORTS BUTTER AND CHEESE ALTHOUGH THE DUTCH GET MUCH LESS THAN THEY WOULD LIKE FOR THEMSELVES.

NORWAY AND SWEDEN PRODUCE A SIZEABLE SHARE OF THE WORLD'S SUPPLY OF NEWSPRINT. NEWSPAPERS IN THOSE COUNTRIES ARE ON A STRICT RATION--WITH ABOUT A THIRD OF PRE-WAR CONSUMPTION OR LESS.

DENMARK, THE NETHERLANDS, NORWAY AND ENGLAND ALL EXPORT CHOCOLATE ALTHOUGH THE RESIDENTS OF THOSE COUNTRIES GET LITTLE. ENGLISH TEXTILES --STRICTLY RATIONED AT HOME--ARE SOLD FREELY IN PARIS.

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON, JAN.21-(AP)-THE ADMINTRATION HOPES TO PRESENT TO CONGRES BY MID-FEBRUARY ITS BETAILED THREE-POINT PROGRAM FOR GUARDING WESTERN EUROPE'S DEMOCRACIES AGAINST AGGRESSION.

THIS IS IN LINE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURATION DAY PROMISE TO DISCLOSE SOON HIS PLAN TO "STRENGTHEN THE SECURITY OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA."

IF ALL GOES WELL, PRESIDENT TRUMAN PLANS TO GIVE CONGRESS A PROGRAM CALLING FOR:

1. UNITED STATES PARTICIPATION IN AN UNPRECEDENTED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE WITH CANADA AND AT LEAST FIVE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES--BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

2. APPROPRIATION BY CONGRESS OF ABOUT $1,000,000,000 (B) TO BUY LATE-MODEL ARMS AND EQUIPMENT NEEDED BY ARMY, NAVY AIR FORCES OF WESTERN EUROPE.

3. PERMISSION TO SEND AMERICAN MILITARY MISSIONS TO ANY COUNTRY IN THE WORLD WHICH THE ADMINISTRATION BELIEVES NEEDS AMERICAN "ADVICE."

THE ADMINISTRATION NOW HAS THE RIGHT TO SEND SUCH MISSIONS ONLY TO LATIN AMERICA, GREECE, TURKEY, AND IRAN.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAY THE NEGOTIATIONS TO WRITE THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT ARE NEARING A SUCCESSFUL CONCLUSION. THE TALKS BEGAN LAST JULY.

THE BROAD OUTLINES OF THE ALLIANCE, PLUS SOME OF THE DETAILED ARTICLES ALREADY HAVE BEEN DRAFTED, THEY SAID. IN ADDITION, NUMEROUS "WORKING PAPERS" SUGGESTING THE FORM THE COMPLETE ALLIANCE SHOULD TAKE HAVE BEEN WRITTEN, AND ARE BEING STUDIED BY THE NEGOTIATORS.

PROGRESS IN DECIDING ON THE FINAL DRAFT MAY BE RELATIVELY SLOW BECAUSE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S NEED TO KEEP :9,$43''89,-))3-$34' !7))6 $,194.3$ 91 $.0945-,5 $3;3)90.3,5'.

JAN 1949

BECAUSE OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S NEED TO KEEP CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS FULLY INFORMED OF IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS.

TOP STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS FEEL THIS DELAY IS WELL COMPENSATED FOR BY THE BIPARTISAN SUPPORT THE ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM TO HELP WESTERN EUROPE IS EXPECTED TO GET.

BARRING UNEXPECTED SET-BACKS, THE MID-FEBRUARY TARGET DATE FOR SUBMITTING THE PROGRAM TO CONGRESS SHOULD BE REALIZED.

GENERALLY, THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WILL PLEDGE EACH MEMBER NATION TO COME TO THE HELP OF PARTICIPATING GOVERNMENTS IN THE EVENT OF AGGRESSION.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WORKING ON THE ALLIANCE SAY HOWEVER, CONGRESS WILL RETAIN ITS CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT OF DECLARING WAR.

THE SELF-HELP FEATURES OF THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY WILL BE AN INTEGRAL PART OF THE MILITARY AID PROGRAM.

IN RETURN FOR AMERICAN WEAPONS, EACH COUNTRY MUST COMMIT ITSELF

TO CONTRIBUTE WHATEVER INDUSTRY, RESOURCES AND MANPOWER IT HAS TOWARD THE COMMON OBJECTIVE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS SUMMED UP THE OBJECTIVE IN THIS STATEMENT:

"IF WE CAN MAKE IT SUFFICIENTLY CLEAR, IN ADVANCE, THAT ANY ARMED ATTACK AFFECTING OUR NATIONAL SECURITY WOULD BE MET WITH OVER-WHELMING FORCE, THE ARMED ATTACK MIGHT NEVER OCCUR."

ONE OF THE BIG QUESTIONS AS YET UNANSWERED IS HOW LONG THE MILITARY AID PROGRAM FOR WESTERN EUROPE SHOULD RUN. ALL ESTIMATES THUS FAR SPEAK OF APPROXIMATELY $1,000,000,000 (B) AS BEING NEC-ESSARY FOR THE "FIRST YEAR," INDICATING FUTURE APPROPRIATIONS MAY BE NECESSARY.

THE BEST GUESS IS THAT AT LEAST THREE YEARS WILL BE NEEDED TO PUT EUROPE'S MILITARY FORCES ON THEIR OWN FEET. SOME GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS HOWEVER, SHY AWAY FROM ESTIMATING HOW LONG THE PROGRAM WILL TAKE. THEY WOULD RATHER FOLLOW THE ADMINISTRATION'S EXAMPLE IN HELPING GREECE AND TURKEY MILITARILY BY ASKING FOR APPROPRIATIONS ANNUALLY, DEPENDING ON CONDITIONS, WITHOUT SPECIFYING HOW LONG THE JOB WILL TAKE.

Chiang Retires as China's Leader, Successor Agrees to Send Envoys To Discuss Peace Terms with Reds

LI TAKES REINS OF NATION AFTER PRESIDENT FLEES

Generalissimo, in Final Message, Leaves Door Open for Return (N)

ORIGINAL REVISED

First Statement Held Up 12 Hours as Leaders Make Changes

H. R. MIENS

NANKING, (Saturday,) Jan. 22 (AP)—President Chiang Kai-Shek retired from his historic role as China's leader yesterday and his successor reportedly agreed to send peace delegates to meet the communists.

Vice president Li Tsung-Jen, thrust into leadership of stricken China when Chiang relinquished his 22-year command of the government, was in constant consultation with his top advisers.

One of these advisers said Li had agreed to send the delegates, but no decision was reached on those to go.

The communist radio suggested yesterday delegates be sent to meet the reds.

Li Acceptable to Reds

(There was no further mention of this broadcast, which was not heard in San Francisco. Whether it was made after the announcement of Chiang's retirement was not immediately known. If it was, it seemed clear Li was acceptable to the communists.)

It was expected three prominent peace advocates in Nanking—former premier Chang Chun, Gen. Chang Chih-Chung, and Shao Litze—would be asked to serve as delegates.

When Chiang flew away from Nanking late yesterday he left behind a statement so ambiguous officials of his crumbling regime held it up until midnight. They revised it after conferring with Chiang by telephone at his ancestral home in Fenghwa, 210 miles southeast of Nanking.

As finally released, the official translation in English said:

"With the hope that hostilities may be brought to an end and the people's suffering relieved, I have decided to retire.

"As from Jan. 21, vice president Li Tsung-Jen will exercise the duties and powers of president in accordance with article 49 of the constitution, which provides 'in the event the president for any reason is unable to perform his functions, his duties and powers shall be exercised by the vice prescident."

The text of nearly 400 words continued with a review of Chiang's devotion to the government and wishes for a lasting peace.

Chiang May Return

During the afternoon and night hours that the statement was withheld from publication, reliable sources declared the Chinese original avoided use of such words as "retire" and "resign" and insisted the 62-year-old Chinese strong man since 1927 had purposely left the door open for a possible comeback attempt.

The English version that was released was agreed upon only after prolonged debate among the remaining top figures of the government. Finally former Premier Chang Chun telephoned Chiang at Fenghwa and the generalissimo shouted corrections over the line.

Even then, skeptics commented Chiang had "decided" to retire; that he had not said he actually had retired.

Shadowy though it might appear, the possibility that the old leader some day might return remained a definite factor in the calculations of officials remaining in this communist-menaced capital.

Asked whether a surrender deal might now be tried with the ascendant communists or what would happen next, one high official replied:

"Frankly, we don't know. It all depends on what we are able to do now. If the government under Li is able to make a settlement with the communists, there will be no reason for the generalissimo to return. If not—who knows what will happen?"

Step Towards Peace

In any case, Chiang's departure is an important step towards peace. The almost-victorious communists have refused to deal with him on any terms except total surrender and have put him No. 1 on their list of "war criminals."

(The communist radio, heard in Shanghai and San Francisco shortly after Chiang's departure, started a statement that the government's Jan. 19 truce proposal was "utterly unreasonable and hypocritical." It suddenly broke off, sent a "rub-out" signal and resumed on a different subject. It appeared that the Reds might just have heard the news and decided to keep quiet until they could determine what it meant.)

No sooner had Vice President Li taken over than he accepted the resignation of T. V. Soong, Chiang Kai-shek's millionaire brother-in-law, as governor of Kwangtung province. He appointed the cantonese war hero Gen. Hsueh Yueh as governor.

Soong was reported leaving immediately by air for Canton, seat of Kwangtung province, and intending to proceed to the United States.

Madame Chiang, Soong's sister, is in New York, where she declined comment. She flew to Washington Dec. 1 in a vain attempt to get large American aid to help her husband stave off communist victory.

Offer Resignations

Premier Sun Fo and his entire cabinet also immediately tendered their resignations to the acting president but were asked to remain. This is the usual courtesy when a new administration takes over.

There was no direct word from Li, but it was learned reliably that he agreed to become acting president only after a long and bitter argument with Chiang.

The 58-year-old Li was said to have accepted only after receiving assurances that the official seal and other full evidences of authority be handed over to him. Li was elected vice president last April over the strong opposition of Chiang, who had favored Sun Fo.

With Chiang gone, anything can happen in Nanking. Throughout the career of the aging strong man (he was 62 last October), only his personal influence has been able to keep down the bitter internal rivalries of his followers.

These divisions persist and now center on the peace issue itself.

The die-hards know they are on the communist "war criminals" list for punishment, and therefore are still unable to consider anything but bitter resistance. This would subject Nanking to siege and might well end in sacking of the city.

Even though Chiang's departure leaves his capital in its traditional foggy state, his fearful subordinates may behave unpredictably in his absence.

Those who have been saying his continued presence was the only real barrier to peace will have a chance to see how their theory works out.

Actually, the halfway measure of his flight is only a variation on Chiang's oldest political trick.

Under various titles he has headed the government since 1927. Many times during that period he has given up one job or another and walked out on his quarreling followers.

Threatened To Quit

He many times has threatened to quit, but he never has finally and formally done so. His followers, tied to him but not to each other, always have been forced to beg him tearfully to return. Always before he has done so.

The technique this time was the same, but in more dramatic circumstances, and with the difference that the communists are victors on the battlefields.

There is every possibility that this time the generalissimo has walked out for the last time.

His departure, and even his suicide, has been incorrectly rumored for days past. When he did leave, it was suddenly.

The big four-engined plane that has sat for the past fortnight on a strip near his home was still there. Chiang conferred with Li Tsung-Jen, issued his farewell statement to the Kuomintang (national party) Central Political council, and hopped off at 2 p.m. in a two-engine plane. His destination was given as Hangchow, but he went instead to Fenghwa.

Move Was Predicted

This face-saving "out" had been predicted by the Chinese press as long ago as last Sunday.

Every year at the Chinese new year (Jan. 29 this year) Chiang goes to "sweep the tombs of his ancestors" at Fenghwa. The press was quick to note that Fenghwa was away from the battle areas and on the route to Canton and the island of Formosa, each of which has been mentioned as his possible final refuge.

While many government departments have been moving to both places, Govenor Soong's resignation raised some doubts of the government's ultimate intentions.

It was learned reliably that Soong, in coming to Nanking to resign, said he had failed to stamp out the "bandits" (a euphenism for communist guerrillas) in Kwangtung province. Soong was quoted as saying these "bandits" now totalled more than 200,000—a movement much greater than had been suspected and casting doubts on Canton's security.

Vice President Li Gets Full Power To Seek Peace (AP) JAN 1949

Other news of China on Page 3

Nanking, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Chiang Kai-shek handed his duties over to Vice President Li Tsung-jen today and flew to his ancestral home at Fenghwa, whence he may pass into political oblivion.

Li, accepting the acting presidency, faces the immediate problem of settling with the Communists, whose armies have steadily defeated Chiang since last fall and now threaten to conquer all China.

Chiang's arrival at Fenghwa, 210 miles southeast of this Red-menaced capital, was reported by Chiang himself in a telephone call to Cabinet Minister Chang Chun.

Chang Chun said the Generalissimo telephoned in response to inquiries of officials who were seeking the meaning of ambiguous phrases in a farewell statement that the Generalissimo left behind.

He Did Not Resign

Officially, Chiang, who had threatened to quit many times in his stormy career of more than a score of years as Government chief, did not resign or retire. He just flew away.

Behind, he left a statement saying he acted "to lessen the hardships of my people," an informed source said.

[A reliable Chinese correspondent reported from Canton to Shanghai tonight that Gen. Hsueh Yueh had succeeded T. V. Soong as governor of Kwangtung province, of which Canton is the seat.

Chiang's Brother-In-Law

[Hsueh was a hero of the war against the Japanese and in 1947 headed the Chinese Government's Military Affairs Department.

[No details of the reported change in governors were available.]

[The Communist radio said the Nanking Government's proposal of January 19 for a truce and peace negotiations was "utterly unreasonable and hypocritical." It then broke off, sent a "rub-out" signal and resumed on an entirely different subject, which it numbered "item one."

No Reason Is Given

[No reason was given, but it was possible that the Communists had just heard of Chiang's departure and decided to hold up their statement.

[The strange broadcast was heard in both Shanghai and San Francisco.]

Li, in an acceptance statement, said he took on the presidential duties "in the hope the people will give me their full support."

Departure Is Secret

As is his annual custom, Chiang flew south to "sweep the tombs" of his ancestors. But many felt that he would not be back if Li succeeded in dealing with the Communists.

The Generalissimo's departure was secret. He left behind his luxuriously appointed $500,000 airplane and hopped into a smaller twin-engined ship.

High officials poled over Chiang's statement. It has not yet been released. The chief of the Judicial Yuan was looking it over for "constitutional points."

There were indications that his original statement in Chinese was being revised to allow its presentation to the public in the most favorable light.

Cabinet Quits: Report

It was reliably reported that Premier Sun Fo visited Li and submitted the Cabinet's resignation en bloc. It was unknown whether Li accepted.

An official announcement gave no reason for Chiang's departure but said in "accordance with the constitution Li Tsung-jen will act for the President during his absence."

Chiang and Madame Chiang, who is now in the United States, usually pay a visit to his native home just before the Chinese New Year (January 29).

Li Assured Of Authority

This gave Chiang an opportunity to leave Nanking without making a clear break, which many factions are seeking as a prelude to peace with the Reds.

Official sources said they were certain his departure was intended as a move to permit the peace group to seek a negotiated settlement of the civil war under the leadership of Li.

It was learned reliably that Li agreed to take over the presidential duties only after receiving assurances that the official seal and other implements of authority would be given to him.

Step Toward Peace

Whatever the purposes of Chiang's departure, it is an important step toward peace for China.

Many officials, including some high military leaders, have hesitated to campaign actively for an end of hostilities and a negotiated conclusion of the civil war because they feared Chiang's anger.

Text of Chiang's Final Message

NANKING, Jan. 21—(AP) The following is the official translation of President Chiang Kai-shek's farewell message:

"Since I issued my new year message urging the restoration of peace, the entire nation, with one accord, echoed its unreserved support.

However, although more than two weeks have elapsed, the warfare has not drawn to a close and the ultimate aim of achieving peace has not been realized. Consequently, the end to the peoples' suffering still is not in sight.

With the hope that hostilities may be brought to an end and the peoples' sufferings be relieved, I have decided to retire.

As from Jan. 21, vice president Li Tsung-Jen will exercise the duties and powers of president in accordance with article 49 of the constitution, which provides "in the event the president, for any reason, is unable to perform his functions his duties and powers shall be exercised by the vice president."

Asks Cooperation

I hope the entire nation, including both the military and civilian populations, as well as the various government departments and agencies, will unreservedly and with one heart support Vice President Li Tsung-Jen in order that lasting peace may be achieved.

I have devoted my entire life to the work of the peoples' revolution, observing strictly the three principles of the people.

From the fifteenth year of the republic, when we set out from Canton on the northern punitive expedition, to the time when national unity was achieved, I never for a moment failed to consider it my sacred duty to implement the principles of nationalism and to give effect to the principle of democracy and the improvement of the livelihood of the people.

Peace Necessary

At the same time I have always realized it was absolutely necessary to secure peace for the country before a sound foundation can be laid for improvement of the nation's political and economic life. That is why for more than 20 years, while I was sometimes forced to resort to military measures in dealing with domestic affairs, I have always been prepared to make personal sacrifices and concessions.

The only exception was the war of resistance against Japanese aggression, in which case I was determined to fight to the bitter end. This is the record, well borne out by the facts.

My earnest prayer will have been answered if the Communist party henceforth comes to the full realization of the grave situation confronting the country, orders a cease-fire, and agrees to commence peace talks with the government. Thus the people will be spared their intense sufferings and the spiritual and material resources of the nation will be preserved and territorial integrity and political sovereignty will be maintained.

Thus, also the continuity of the nation's history, culture and social order will be perpetuated and the peoples' livelihood and freedom safeguarded."

Chiang May Close 22 Years Of Strong Rule

Nanking, Jan. 21 (AP)—The hasty exit of ex-President Chiang Kai-shek from his National Government today may close a glittering era grown suddenly threadbare.

As he stepped offstage, after 22 years of strong-man rule, Chinese Communist troops were almost literally pounding at Nanking's gates—the Communists he had driven so confidently into the northwest fourteen years ago.

And in China's great cities, war-born inflation was stealing the livelihood of millions. H. MILLS

First Year Of Sixth Term

The decision of the 62-year-old warrior came in the first year of his six-year term as China's first constitutional President.

It came after his last remaining supporters—many of whom marched with him in the October revolution of 1911—told him it was in the interest of China's people to end the civil war.

When Chiang was elected constitutional President by the National Assembly last spring, there were warnings that the Government he controlled was losing both the military and the economic war. Eleven days before his April 18 election, he conceded to the Assembly that things were not going well, "although China still is solvent."

Reds Take Offensive

Communist armies were taking the offensive then, after driving Nationalist troops in Manchuria into isolated strongholds. They were pushing into Central Asia.

The "autumn offensives" of the Reds cost President Chiang the cream of his armies and the support of many of his followers.

Chiang surrounded himself with trusted but frequently incompetent military, economic and political leaders. Young and well-trained generals were given minor commands.

During the last few months, he personally assumed direction of the war against the Communists—with disastrous results.

Disorganization became general in Nanking and Shanghai. Only United States food rushed in saved dangerous situations in both cities after rice riots had threatened anarchy.

It seemed the end of a long road for the stern-faced man who had helped overthrow the dynasty of Manchu Emperors in 1911.

Generalissimo Chiang was born Oct. 30, 1886—or 1888 [there is some dispute about the date], in the East China Province of Chekiang. He was one of the many military leaders trained in Japan who joined Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Kuomintang revolution against the Imperial Peiping Government.

He became the strong right arm of Dr. Sun, was Commander in Chief of the revolutionary forces, and subdued the war lords who resisted Dr. Sun's Nationalist Government.

After Dr. Sun's death in 1925 he became in fact the Nationalist leader of China, a post that he maintained either as military leader, as head of the Kuomintang, as chairman of the National Government, or as its President.

In 1926 he began the famous northern punitive expedition against the war lords of South China. This was to bring China her greatest measure of unification in 1928. In that year he became President.

In 1927, however, he broke with the Communists when he reached the Yangtze. He drove them into the hills, captured Nanking and Shanghai from the war lords and set up his new Government.

Once again the Generalissimo held the whip hand over the Communists. That was in 1934 when he drove the Communists into the bleak northwest province of Shensi.

And it was from there that they slowly, at first, and then with a mighty rush came back.

Li Is High On Reds' 'Criminal' List; Long Has Urged Reforms In China (D)

Nanking, Jan. 21 (AP)—China's new Acting President, Li Tsung-jen, reported as a "peacemaker" choice to succeed Chiang Kai-shek as early as last November, is high on the Chinese Communists' list of "war criminals."

Informed sources said December 17 that Li had sent an emissary to the dissident Marshal Li Chi-shen, who was leading non-Communist opposition to Chiang in Hong Kong. The marshal long has advocated peace with the Reds.

Reds Publish List

But shortly afterward the Reds made public their list of "war criminals" and threatened to punish them.

Li is a famous name in China's military history. The Acting President, one of China's ablest commanders in the war with Japan, later headed Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Peiping headquarters in the civil warfare against the Reds.

It was Li's own threat of revolt, incidentally, that brought a united Chinese front against Japanese aggression. Li and Gen. Pai Chung-hsi announced flatly that they had had enough of the Nanking policy of nonresistance to Japan. They said they would start a revolt.

Many Factions United

The revolt threat faded before Nanking conciliation moves, but it gave a powerful boost to anti-Japanese sentiment throughout the country, uniting many opposing factions in that stand.

His announced candidacy for the office of Vice President last spring stirred a bitter fight in Government party circles with supporters of Sun Fo.

Then Li withdrew, abruptly, saying he wouldn't serve even if he were elected, and President Chiang personally urged him to get back into the race. He did, and was promptly elected by the Assembly.

New Party Threat Seen

Foreign observers said that if he had not been, he probably would have started a new political party—with the support of China's military.

A professional army man, the 59-year-old Li's star has risen more or less steadily since his graduation from Kweilin Military Academy in his youth.

He was commander in chief of Chinese forces in Anhwei, Shantung and Kiangsu provinces in 1937-38, and served as chairman of Anhwei's provincial government in 1938.

Earned Own Education

As a boy, he worked on a farm, worked to educate himself and became a teacher before entering the military academy.

Before his rise to prominence in the National Government, he was best known as military overlord of Kwangsi province — introducing education and economic reforms and striving to make the province self-sufficient.

Friends have called him a liberal, enemies have called him a Communist. Those who know him best say he has merely grown increasingly impatient with China's Nationalist Government.

Advocated Reforms

He proposed to fight communism by putting into practice a government land redistribution program. He also urged a housecleaning of the Kuomintang (Government party) from top to bottom.

[Reporting Li's election as Vice President last May, John Roderick, Associated Press correspondent, noted that there were "assertions during the campaign that if elected Li would drive Chiang into exile within a few months." Roderick added that most observers thought this charge was fantastic.]

Failure to Aid China Hit By Anti-Truman Forces

Congress Critics Blame U.S. for Defeat of Chiang, White House Silent

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21—(AP) American officials kept a close—but silent—watch today on China where Chiang Kai-shek's sudden flight from Nanking served to multiply the confusion in that strife-torn country.

While congressional critics of the Truman administration lambasted it for failing to give Chiang more aid against the communists, both the White House and State department withheld comment for the time being.

The U. S. has been giving limited aid to Chiang's regime. Authoritative quarters indicated there has been no change in this country's attitude that as long as a non-communist government exists there and as long as the funds voted by congress last, the United States will continue its assistance program.

What happens when either or both these conditions change remains to be seen. The question of this country's attitude in the event all China falls under communist control is a major unknown in American foreign policy.

Problem for Acheson

The Chinese crisis was expected to receive priority attention from Dean Acheson who took over his new State department duties immediately after being sworn in as Secretary Marshall's successor this morning.

Paul G. Hoffman, the foreign aid boss, was reported to be seeking an early conference with Acheson to go over present prospects and future plans. Hoffman's Economic Cooperation Administration is supervising the handling of the $275,000,000 grant which congress appropriated last year for economic help to China.

This fund is due to run out April 2. Although ECA suspended a $70,000,000 program of industrial projects, it has approved grants totalling $198,000,000 for rice, grain, cotton, oil and other supplies China needs.

Congress also approved a $125,000,000 military aid fund, but Chiang's government has about used that up.

Hoffman, who made a personal survey in China last month, has spoken of a unified program of economic, political and military aid as the only solution to the China problem. However, he has not mentioned any specific sum for possible future assistance, nor has the administration.

Because of the inauguration holiday few lawmakers were available for comment on the latest China developments.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee told a reporter:

Hope for Unity

"I'm hopeful that the retirement of Chiang will unify and strengthen the nationalist forces and result in some stabilization of Chinese affairs."

Senator Saltonstall (R-Mass), also was cautiously hopeful. He said:

"I have had the utmost respect for Chiang's efforts in carrying forward what he believed to be the best interests of China. I'm sorry he felt he had to resign.

"I think his resignation should be accepted in the spirit he probably made it—for the best interests of China and for ultimate peace. Peace must be obtained before China can recover."

Rep. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis), a member of the House Foreign Affairs committee, criticized the administration's handling of the China problem.

"Mr. Truman said in his address yesterday we were going to lick communism all over the world, but he ignored the communists in China," Smith asserted. "He talks one way, but has done little to change the deteriorating Chinese situation."

Senator Wherry (R-Neb), the G.O.P. floor leader, also was critical of the way foreign policies had been carried out.

"I think the situation is unchanged as far as our dealings with China are concerned," he said. "I think the State department has been dealing with the left-wingers in China right along. That has been the main trouble there."

Senator Bridges (R-NH)—"The fall of Chiang Kai-shek today apparently forbodes communist domination of China. Our government cannot escape part of the responsibility for today's development, and what its ultimate effect may be.

"It has persisted in its refusal to realistically regard China's plight and even when aid was authorized by the Congress delayed its delivery to the point where its effectiveness was lost.

"We all know Chiang's government had severe weaknesses, but our government could have been a strengthening influence had it been willing to act in time."

Chinese Reds May Seek Role in Japan Occupation

TOKYO, Jan. 21 (AP).—The Chinese Communists hinted today they may demand a part in the occupation of Japan. "With the nation-wide victory of the Chinese people almost within reach," said a Communist broadcast heard in Tokyo, "a new development has arisen between Chinese and Japanese people. A new China which has won liberty by itself will observe loyally the Potsdam declaration and will assist in Japan's democratization and prevent the re-emergence of reactionary forces."

The Potsdam declaration was the basis of Japan's surrender in 1945.

The Chinese Communist statement might be construed as a bid to take over the Chinese government's mission to Tokyo, when and if a Communist regime is established in China.

MISSION AREA IN PEIPING HIT

Two Shells Explode At U.S. Methodist Compound

Peiping, Saturday, Jan. 22 (AP)—Two small artillery shells exploded at noon yesterday in the compound of the United States Methodist Mission here while this ancient capital of China was awaiting word of a truce. S, MOOSA

The windows of several houses were shattered, but there was no other damage, and there were no casualties. The mission is a quarter of a mile from the legation quarter.

One shell burst 20 feet from the home of the Rev. Edward J. Aeschliman, Rochester, N.Y. Mrs. Aeschliman was in the kitchen preparing lunch. Although the kitchen caught the main force of the blast, she was unhurt.

Reds Reinforce Positions

Meanwhile, it was learned the Communists have reinforced their positions around Peiping with an estimated 60,000 more troops.

There were rumors they would attack within the next 48 hours unless an agreement reached at secret meetings here are carried out. The rumors may be baseless, but they created a great deal of uneasiness.

Both Chinese and foreign circles are convinced big events are in the offing — either a peaceful changeover or an attack.

It is believed the Communists won't wait much longer if they feel the Nationalist forces in Peiping are to be redisposed for reorganization.

Fu Would Quit Command

[One of the Communist terms previously reported was that Gen. Fu Tso-yi, commander in North China, would give up his command. His troops then would be marched out of the city to allow the Communists to take over.]

Hsui Hui-tung, chairman of the Peiping City Council, predicted a peaceful settlement within a few days. The independent newspaper Shih Chieh Wang Pao said "peace will come within a couple of days." The newspaper said peace talks had reached a decisive stage.

Japan Rounds Up 200 Child Slaves

Tokyo, Jan. 21 (AP)—More than 200 children sold into bondage on farms have been rounded up and returned to their parents, the Kyodo News Agency reported tonight.

It said most of the children, all under 15, came from poverty-stricken areas in north, central and northwest Honshu, Japan's main island. The action was taken by the Tochigi Prefecture labor office.

Meanwhile, the Japanese Government, spurred on by occupation authorities, was pushing a general inquiry into the child-slavery question.

The procurator's office in Fukushima Prefecture, one of the largest sources of such labor thus uncovered, said ten "slave brokers" had been indicted on charges of selling children at prices ranging from 20 to 2,000 yen (about 7 cents to $7) each.

The procurator (equivalent to a United States district attorney) said some persons had sold their children for 50 pounds of sweet potatoes, but that prices for 15-year-old girls ranged as high as 6,000 yen (about $20).

Authorities said most of the deals were arranged on a false adoption or foster-home basis. Child-labor laws do not cover domestic help, and this is an apparent loophole for using purchased children on farms.

NORTH KOREA ARMY REVOLT IS REPORTED

Anti-Communist Action Under Way Two Days, Seoul Hears

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Information Minister of South Korea said today he had reliable reports that an army revolt against the North Korean Communist regime had been in progress for two days at the border town of Haeju.

The minister, Kim Don Sung, said fires were observed and gunfire broke out the night of January 19 and were continuing. Haeju is near the west coast just north of the thirty-eighth parallel which separates the American-sponsored south republic from the Soviet-sponsored northern government. Each regime claims sovereignty over the whole country.

Kim said his information was that the Communist army at Haeju was in three factions; one in revolt, one loyal and one awaiting the outcome.

Extent Is Not Known

He had no word on how extensive the outbreak might be or on possibilities of it spreading.

It has been the general opinion in the south that the Communists were in firm control in the north, but some recent dissent has been noted.

There have been reports that the United Nations recognition of the south's republic made a strong impression on many northerners.

In addition, Kim related that a month ago a courier came from a northern army unit commander with an offer to lead the force into the southern camp.

Kim said the courier was told the men would be welcome individually but not as a unit. He did not say how large a unit was involved.

Infiltration Reported

United States Army headquarters, meanwhile, received reports that 100 northern women, all trained pistol shots, had infiltrated into the south.

Disguished as refugees, these women were said to have been assigned to check on pro and anti-Communist sentiments at Inchon, Seoul's port, and to circulate petitions objecting to United Nations' recognition of the southern republic.

Still other reports said a woman Communist had been leading a guerrilla band of 100 to 200 in sporadic raids in the extreme south ever since the Communist-led rebellion of last October was broken.

North Korea Army Revolt Is Reported

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 21 (AP)—Fires and gunfire at the North Korean border town of Haeju indicate a revolt in the North Korean Army against the Communist regime, the South Korean Information Director reported late today.

The director, Kim Dong Sung, said the outbreak began the night of January 19 and was continuing.

Kim said he had information which he believed to be reliable that the forces involved included a revolting element, a pro-Communist body and a third group that was standing aside to see who won before joining.

Near West Coast

Haeju is near the West Coast, just north of the thirty-eighth parallel which has divided Korea since American and Russian forces liberated the country from Japan in 1945.

Kim had no information on the numbers involved in the outbreak and conceded it was difficult to assess the possibility of such a movement spreading through the Soviet-sponsored northern regime.

It has been the consensus in the South that the Reds were firmly in control throughout the North.

Alliance Offered

However, Kim said the commander of one Northern army unit sent a courier south a month ago asking if his force could join the American-sponsored Republic's army.

Kim said the courier was told that Northern troops could come across the border individually if they surrendered their weapons, but that they would not be acceptable as a unit. He did not say how many men were affected.

Girl Experts Reported

Meanwhile, reports reaching American Army headquarters in Seoul said 100 Communist women pistol experts had infiltrated from the North into the South.

The reports said they were Korean women Communist workers, specially trained in markmanship, and that they crossed the border disguised as refugees to accomplish these tasks:

1. Solicit signatures to a petition objecting to United Nations recognition of the Republic of (South) Korea; and

2. Canvass homes at Inchon, port city near Seoul, to determine whether families are pro or anti Communist.

Philippines Senator Fined For Contempt

Manila, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Philippines Supreme Court today fined Senator Vicente Sotto $500 for contempt in a dispute involving freedom of the press.

Sotto also was ordered to show cause within fifteen days why he should not be disbarred. Sotto had called the court "incompetent and narrow-minded" for sentencing a newsman, Angel Parazo, to 30 days in jail for refusing to divulge the source of a "leak" on Government bar examinations.

The court decision today also said Sotto had threatened to introduce a Senate bill to cut the court from eleven to seven members.

Foreign-Press Views Of Truman Stand

London, Jan. 21 (AP)—The European press, both Communist and non-Communist, generally agreed today that President Truman's inaugural address foreshadows an all-out offensive against communism.

The London Times said American policy now "may well be to extend the conflict between Russia and the United States to other parts of the globe. . . ."

The Communist press of Europe, although concentrating on eulogies to Soviet communism on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Lenin's death, made room for angry answers.

Says He Heads Crusade

"For the first time President Truman, laying aside sentimental generalities, has attacked communism as a doctrine," said the Communist L'Humanite in Paris. It said the President "publicly takes a place at the head of a crusade—political, military, economic and even religious" to oppose communism.

The independent Rome paper, Momento, hailed the address as "open and absolute condemnation of communism," but suggested it might "have been opportune, before making the speech, to send a dozen divisions and a hundred or so air squadrons to Europe."

Largely Ignored In Russia

The speech was largely ignored by the Russian press, which usually waits a day or so after such an event before it presents a report to Russian readers. Pravda and Izvestia in Moscow devoted their space to hailing Lenin and his works.

In Prague, the official organ of the Communist party also skipped a report on the speech, but the rest of the press in Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia condemned it as advocating a United States effort to rule the world.

Catholic Daily's Comment

"La Libre Belgique," Roman Catholic Brussels daily, said the President's words show he does not intend to bargain with communism nor with the men who represent it.

"Taegliche Rundschau," the official Soviet paper in Berlin, called for a Communist ideological offensive to speed up "the inevitable downfall of capitalism."

The victory, it said, "must be gained by fighting."

On an inside page, however, the paper recalled Stalin's statement to Harold Stassen two years ago that communism and capitalism can live together in the same world.

The anti-Communist papers in Berlin praised the speech as a "program for peace and reconstruction of Europe."

In Bonn, Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of the West German Constitutional Assembly, said the speech means the United States is "ready to carry through its great task of protecting freedom to the last dot."

Official British View

The only official comment came from the British Foreign Office. A spokesman said the President's advocacy of development of backward areas "is very much in line with what we have been seeking to do."

The Manchester Guardian also seized upon that angle as the foremost thought expressed in the address.

"The American economic policy which he propounds would be designed not to dominate and exploit the backward lands but to lift them, as much by American technical skill and experience as by investment of capital, to a standard of living nearer to the American level," it said.

Guardian's Comment

Noting that communism counts on advancing through an American depression and "increasing misery of the peoples left behind in the march of civilization," the Guardian said:

"He (President Truman) offers a plan which may help to falsify both expectations at once."

Robert G. Menzies, opposition leader in the Australian Parliament, said in a speech at Sydney that every democratic country must play a full part in President Truman's plan for a world-wide new deal. The Sydney Morning Herald said that the President's speech "cannot fail to add immensely to his stature nationally and internaticnally."

'Pravda' Gives Inauguration 2 Paragraphs

Soviet Press Omits Truman Talk; Demonstration for Civil Rights Mentioned

MOSCOW, Jan. 21 (AP).—"Pravda" today devoted two paragraphs to a Tass dispatch from Washington on President Truman's inauguration.

The story in the official Communist paper mentioned that Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin was present.

The President's speech has not been published or commented on so far. Neither "Izvestia," government newspaper, nor "Trud," the Soviet trade union newspaper, carried any news of the inauguration.

A Washington dispatch in "Trud" told of 5,000 persons demonstrating for civil rights. Other dispatches from the United States reported the trial of Communist leaders.

The text of Mr. Truman's address was heard here clearly in Russian last night over the Voice of America broadcast.

BRITISH SHIFT ON ISRAEL SEEN

Recognition Of Trans-Jordan Next Week By U.S. Likely

E. CURTIS (N)

London, Jan. 21 (AP)—Informed sources said tonight Britain is ready to recognize the Jewish state of Israel and the United States to recognize Arab Trans-Jordan.

Such a move, intended to ease Middle East tension over the Palestine situation, involves a major revision of British policy. It would be a minor shift by the United States.

United States Government officials in Washington said the United States is likely to recognize Trans-Jordan next week, at the same time full (de jure) recognition is given Israel. They said, however, the United States is acting independently. They said there was no British-American bargaining over whether Washington would recognize the British-supported Trans-Jordan in return for British recognition of Israel.

Will Debate Palestine Policy

However, action by both Britain and the United States as forecast here would bring closer together their policies in an area where both have strategic military and oil interests.

Informed sources said Britain may grant Israel de facto recognition Monday. This would recognize the existence of the state of Israel, without giving full recognition to the Government in power.

Some British informants said recognition might strengthen conservative elements in Israel's first general election Tuesday.

Wednesday the House of Commons is scheduled to debate Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's Palestine policy, criticized by a strong bloc in Bevin's own labor party as well as by conservative members of Parliament. The demand for the debate grew out of the shooting down of five British scouting planes by Israeli forces in the Palestine-Egyptian border area January 7. ACCE

Recognition Is Forecast (D)

London, Jan. 21 (A. P.).—Diplomatic quarters here predicted today that Britain would recognize Israel and the United States simultaneously recognize the Arab state of Trans-Jordan within a few days. This would be a move to iron out differences between the two big Powers on Middle Eastern affairs and to promote peace between Israelis and Arabs. ACCE

Europe Defense Line 'Chosen'

London, Jan. 21 (AP)—British Press Association reported tonight the five Brussels treaty powers have chosen a line stretching from Holland to Switzerland for the defense of western Europe.

Official sources declined to confirm or deny the report.

Starr Busmann, secretary general of the five-nation accord, said it was "highly speculative."

North Atlantic Pact

Members of the Western European Alliance include Britain, France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

In the projected North Atlantic Pact these five nations would be joined by the United States and Canada.

Press Association said that in an emergency the defense line would be defended by a highly mobile force drawn from the elite troops of all five countries operating under an Allied commander.

"Behind the defense line the armies and air forces of the five countries would operate on their own territory against localized attacks by airborne or other troops," the report said.

British Suggest Marshall Statue

London, Jan. 21 (AP)—The British Weekly, a Protestant church publication, suggested today that Britain erect a monument to Gen. George C. Marshall, former United States Secretary of State.

"There should be a place in England for a statue to commemorate and honor the forethought and vision and statesmanship" of Marshall "from whose vision and action and wisdom the resuscitation of Western Europe has begun," the paper said.

It suggested a statue be erected in St. James Square, in the heart of London's dignified West End near St. James Palace.

The paper said it thought the statue should be put up "now, not waiting for the hour when death comes" to Marshall.

The weekly is published on behalf of all major Protestant denominations in Britain, except the Church of England.

GERMAN EXPORT WATCHED

U. S. and Britain Bar 'Unfair' Competition With Others

LONDON, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Foreign Office disclosed today that Britain and the United States were investigating methods for preventing low cost production in Germany from undercutting sales by countries against which she waged war.

A spokesman, answering questions at a news conference, said the inquiry was designed to prevent "unfair" competition in export markets from occupied Germany.

Coincident with the questions came an announcement that Harold Wilson, President of the Board of Trade, would meet representatives of the shipbuilding and engineering unions Feb. 2 to discuss growing German competition to British export trades.

The Foreign Office spokesman said it was difficult to distinguish between "fair" and "unfair" competition under the present "abnormal conditions" in Germany because of subsidies from the occupation powers that kept wages lower than in Britain.

Americans, Czechs Exchange (N) Shots In Frontier Incident

G. BRIA

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 21 (AP). United States troops and Czechoslovak guards were disclosed today to have exchanged fire in a frontier incident.

United States Army headquarters announced no Americans were wounded. American officials said they did not know whether any Czechs were hit. They accused the Czechs of firing first.

The clash occurred last night near Schirnding, directly opposite the Czechoslovak border town of Eger, 75 miles northeast of Nuernberg. The American zone of occupation in Germany borders Czechoslovakia, a Communist state since last February.

20 To 200 Shots Fired

Estimates of the number of shots fired ranged from 20 to 200. Each side brought up an armored vehicle, but the Army said the clash was limited to small-arms fire.

The incident was touched off when a German truck, possibly loaded with smuggled ball bearings and machine tools, tried to crash the border into Czechoslovakia.

First German border police and the occupants of the truck engaged in a gun fight. Two of the persons in the truck were wounded in that exchange. Thirty minutes later American constabulary troops reached the scene and "were fired upon from the Czech side of the border," the Army announcement said. The Americans fired back.

U.S. Conducting Inquiry

United States constabulary headquarters indicated that negotiations over the incident now are going on at a governmental level. The Americans are conducting an investigation.

A Prague dispatch said the Czechoslovak Foreign Ministry and the United States Embassy also have sent investigators to the border. The embassy investigation is being conducted by Capt. Arthur White, of Atlanta. White formerly was attached to the United States 1st Division, which advanced into Czechoslovakia in the closing stages of the war.

One source in the Czechoslovak Foreign Ministry said that so far the incident was not regarded in Prague as being of an alarming nature. Joseph E. Jacobs, the new American Ambassador, and his top aides were in consultation late this afternoon.

Czechs Guard Truck

American officials in Frankfurt said the German police had been tipped that the truck was coming through and were waiting for it. The truck used a narrow country lane, not the authorized border crossing point. It bore Munich registration plates.

After crashing through the road block of the German police, the truck hit a tree just inside the Czechoslovak border. The police said the occupants were Germans.

The truck still was at the same place tonight, guarded by a detail of Czechs. The occupants are in Czechoslovak custody. A small number of American constabulary troopers also remained at the border. They are in possession of the keys for the truck and have samples of its contents.

Period Of Strained Relations

Army officials said recently that attempts would be made to seal the border holes through which German goods are smuggled. They estimated that each year about $2,000,000 worth of German materials are being slipped out of the western occupation zones.

The shooting incident climaxed a period of strained relations between the Americans and the Czechoslovaks. Two months ago the Army announced the arrest of twenty persons in the smashing of a spy ring operating for the Czechs in the American and British zones of Germany.

Two weeks ago the Army disclosed that two American soldiers, Recruits Clarence R. Hill, of Jackson, Miss., and George R. Jones, of Owensboro, Ky., were in the custody of Czechoslovak police. They still have not been released.

Yanks Return Czech Fire At Border (D)

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 21 (AP). United States Army headquarters said today Czechoslovak border guards fired on American constabulary troops yesterday. The Americans returned the fire, the Army said.

The Americans were investigating a border-crashing incident.

No American casualty was reported.

The incident occurred 30 minutes after German border police and the occupants of a truck which crashed through their roadblock had engaged in another gun duel. The truck driver was wounded in that fight, the Army's report said.

American Patrol

An American constabulary patrol then went to the scene to investigate and was fired on by Czechoslovak border guards, the Army said. The American zone of occupation in Germany borders on Czechoslovakia, a Communist State since last February.

The truck which crashed the border carried ball bearings and machine tools. United States Army officers estimated recently about $2,000,000 a year worth of German materials are being smuggled from Germany.

The incident occurred at Schernding near Azberg.

Try To Negotiate

The announcement said that by last night the Czechoslovaks had withdrawn all but ten guards from the scene and the constabulary had taken away all but a platoon of troopers. The original American patrol included an M-8 armored car. There was no indication whether the car had a part in the skirmish.

The announcement said the Americans at 3 A.M. today were trying to negotiate with the Czechoslovaks to leave the truck at the scene for an investigation. The Czechs at that time had possession of the truck. The Americans had the keys and samples of its contents.

Whether there were Czech casualties was not known.

Second Casualty

Headquarters indicated negotiations currently are going on at Government levels.

A spokesman estimated about twenty small-arms shots were fired by United States troops in the skirmish. Other sources said about 200 shots were fired in all.

The nationality of the truck driver and occupants has not been established. The Army late in the day said a second occupant of the truck also was wounded in the exchange of fire with the German police.

Official Inquiry

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Foreign Ministry and United States Embassy sent investigators to the border today to look into the skirmish between Czech border guards and United States constabulary in Germany.

Both groups declined comment.

Statement Due

Capt. Arthur White, of Atlanta, Ga., a member of the embassy staff, was sent as United States investigator. The Foreign Ministry sent a commission.

A source within the Ministry said the incident was not regarded as serious. It was known that United States Ambassador Joseph E. Jacobs had talked with the Foreign Office and that a formal statement is being prepared.

Strasser's Hitler Book Banned

Berlin, Jan. 21 (AP)—United States authorities today banned ex-Nazi Otto Strasser's book "Hitler and I" from the American zone of Germany as "hostile to the interests of military government."

Strasser himself has been termed a dangerous nationalist by United States Commander Gen. Lucius D. Clay. The former Nazi leader is now in Canada. He has been refused permission to return here.

At the same time, American Military Government information-control offices announced they had arranged to keep a closer watch on United States zone German publishers to combat an increasing tendency toward militarism, nationalism and anti-Semitism in German publications.

REFUGEE DECRIES MINDZENTY TRIAL

Charges Hungary Seeks Wedge Between Catholics, Protestants

Paris, Jan. 21 (AP)—Communists in Hungary are trying to use the trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty as a "wedge they would like to drive between the Protestant and Catholic churches," a Hungarian refugee said today.

Antoine Radvanszky, who was representative of the Hungarian Lutheran Church at the Assembly of the World Council of Churches in Amsterdam last August, said recent statements from churchmen in Hungary attacking Mindszenty "were ordered in advance by the Communist regime."

Declaration Is Cited

He referred especially to a declaration the Hungarian Government released January 18 branding Mindszenty as a "typical representative of political Catholicism." The statement said "only political Catholicism gets into conflict with the state."

"It is highly characteristic," Radvanszky said, "that the statement of the Lutheran bishops of Hungary was issued in Budapest by a Government spokesman."

Radvanszky said the Communists had offered his old friend, Lutheran Bishop Lajos Ordass, release from a two-year prison sentence if he indorsed the proclamation, but that Ordass refused.

Dutch Ban 'Iron Curtain'

Amsterdam, Jan 21 (A. P.).—The American film, "The Iron Curtain," was banned today in the Netherlands by the Governmental Board of Film Censors. No reason was given.

FRENCH RED SEES HOPE FOR EAST, WEST ACCORD

FLORENCE, Italy, Jan. 21—(AP) Marcel Cachin, veteran French communist editor and politician, said again today the "possibility exists for agreement between the United States and Russia."

The 80-year-old editor of the French communist newspaper "Humanite" has made repeated "peace is possible" talks on his current tour of Italy. At the same time he has stressed the importance of close cooperation between French and Italian communists.

Tonight, in a Florence theater, he declared, "'tis said an accord is impossible between capitalist and socialist systems." But on the other hand, he added, "Stalin has spoken again in favor of international peace and affirming that another war is not inevitable."

Cachin, who said he was not speaking as an envoy of the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) concluded:

"If the American and Russian people fought the war together, it is even more probable they can construct the peace together."

REDS STRUCK OUT AT HOME PLATE

Rome, Jan. 21 (A. P.).—Strike activity is expected to simmer down in Naples, at least temporarily. The Communist-dominated Chamber of Labor, dispatches reported, is not in position to issue any strike calls at the moment. Its employees, demanding more pay, are on strike.

GREEK GENERAL ASKS FREE HAND

Papagos Calls Upon Troops To Crush 3-Year-Old Rebellion

Athens, Jan. 21 (AP)—Greece's newly appointed generalissimo, Gen. Alexander Papagos, called upon government military forces tonight to devote all their energies to crushing a three-year old rebellion.

In an order of the day, Papagos, hero of the Greek-Italian fighting of 1940-41, asked his troops to be faithful to the idea of one Greek nation.

Orders Positions Held

Papagos accepted his appointment from the new coalition government of Premier Themistokles Sophoulis on condition that he have a free hand in directing warfare against the guerrillas.

His order of the day came as the Communist-led rebels were pressing their campaign in northern Greece and at Leonidion, a town on the east coast of the Peloponnesus.

"Every section that is unable to advance will have to hold its position and will choose to be killed instead of withdrawing," he said.

Fate Of Town Unknown

The Greek general staff said the fate of the town of Karpensi, in the northern mountains, 125 miles northwest of Athens, was unknown. Radio contact with Government garrison defending the town against a guerrilla attack has been broken. The attack began yesterday.

An authoritative source said three units of the Greek fleet were dispatched to Leonidion in an attempt to drive off a guerrilla force of 2,000 which entered the Peloponnesus town early today. The general staff said the rebels had been engaged by National forces at daylight and were being pursued eastward.

Town Repulses Rebel Attacks, Athens Says

Athens, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Greek Army said today that strong guerrilla forces which attacked Karpenisi yesterday tried desperately all night to penetrate the town but failed. The town is 125 miles northwest of Athens.

Contact with the town's garrison has failed but this apparently was due to a breakdown of radio facilities, the communiqué said.

Plan to Strengthen Czech Crown

Prague, Jan. 21 (A. P.).—Czechoslovakia's high-priced free markets may yet strengthen her currency valuation by cleaning the pockets of her citizens of excess cash.

With several other aids, the Government figured to make a drastic reduction in the seventy billion crowns (about $1,400,000,000) in circulation around the end of the year.

Czechoslovakia has refused to devalue or revalue her currency, although Finance Ministry officials acknowledged that a single American greenback would bring at times up to 700 Czechoslovak crowns. The official value is 49.75 crowns. The black market value was thus at times as high as fourteen times the official value.

TITO HITS BACK AT RED CHARGES

O. CARUTHERS

Tito said his Yugoslav Communist party is defending the interests of small countries throughout the world.

P. N. Pospelov, a member of the U.S.S.R. Communist Central committee and editor of Pravda, referred to the Tito-Russian break in a speech Friday night at Moscow's observance of the 25th anniversary of Lenin's death.

Party Is Stronger

(A Tass dispatch from Moscow quoted Pospelov: "In the bourgeois camp there is considerable jubilation on the occasion of the secession from Marxism of Tito's nationalist group, which has broken with the internationalist united front of the communist parties. This jubilation was premature. The united anti-emperialist camp has rallied and become stronger. The watchfulness of the communist parties toward nationalism has increased.")

Tito spoke before the second congress of the communist party of Serbia, one of the areas of Yugoslavia.

"Especially important in Socialist countries is (the provision) that they respect the basic principle of the equality of small countries with big ones," he said.

"Every diversion from this Marxist principle brings harm to all progressive elements in the world who are fighting against imperialist enslavers and fighting amidst danger for the independence of small nations against imperialist powers.

Continue Fight

"We are defending such principles of Marxism and Leninism and, because of that, our fight is going beyond the border of our country.

"Defending such an attitude, we are defending the interests of our country, which is building socialism and taking care of specific conditions. We defend Marxism-Leninism from the revisionists who started to infiltrate x x x in an unprincipled fight against us on the part of some leaders of the communist party."

Tito said radio Moscow was not alone in attacking Yugoslavia. He said radio stations in other "people's democracies" (communist nations) joined in the propaganda.

The propaganda, he said, compares with "the most embittered campaign against the Soviet union" after the communists first took power in Russia.

Tito Defiant In Declaration

"The difference is that the Soviet Union had against it only the propaganda of international reaction," he said, "while we, on the other hand, have against us both the propaganda of international reaction and that of the people's democracies, plus the Moscow radio.

"All these unfriendly (Communist) attacks have been hidden by the slogan that: 'This strengthens the interests of the workers' movement.'"

Tito declared defiantly that his followers will "persevere on our way and build socialism in our country and we will build it despite all obstacles." He said that "only weaklings, semi-Marxists and waverers" believe that the split in the Cominform since last June could be settled by the simple elimination of him and his lieutenants.

Mindszenty Tortured, Policeman Declares

Vienna, Austria, Jan. 21 (AP)—The American-sponsored newspaper Wiener Kurier published today what it said was an eyewitness account of the questioning by Hungarian police of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty. It said the primate "confessed" only after collapsing from five days of almost uninterrupted questioning which broke down his resistance.

The newspaper said its informant was a Hungarian police official who had been on active duty in Budapest until last Saturday. It quoted him as saying the Cardinal was given "refreshment pills" so that he could remain on his feet for the questioning for days at a time.

Aide Beaten

The informant said he was present at the examination. He said the Cardinal offered heroic resistance for four days, during which he was confronted by his assistants, who had been beaten by police. He said the Cardinal's secretary, Dr. Ondras Zakar, was brought in showing effects of torture and that Zakar told Mindszenty: "I confess now to whatever they want."

On the fifth day, his resistance broken by the pills and the grilling, the Cardinal signed a statement which the Government published in its recent "Yellow Book" detailing charges against the Cardinal, the informant added.

Pills Cause Thirst

Hungary arrested the Cardinal December 26 on charges of treason and black market money dealings.

The pills, said the informant, caused an almost paralyzing headache and a torturing thirst and resulted finally in almost complete numbness.

Chile Would Protest

Vatican City, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Gabriel Gonzales Videla of Chile has promised Pope Pius XII to "support any move which may be before a competent international organization" protesting the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary, a Vatican source said today.

2 MINISTERS QUIT CABINET IN POLAND

L. ALLEN (N)

WARSAW, Jan. 21—(AP) Two ardent communists replaced today two Polish cabinet ministers repeatedly accused of straying from the international line of the Cominform.

The government announced Wladyslaw Gomulka, first vice premier, and Edward B. Osubka-Morawski, minister of public administration since 1947, had resigned.

Reds Appointed

By appointment of President Boleslaw Bierut:

Brig. Gen. Aleksander Zawadzki, 49, becomes vice premier.

Wladyslaw Wolski, 47, takes over the public administration ministery, which is similar to the U. S. Department of the Interior.

With this news at hand, Poland's controlled press and radio gave little heed to the inauguration of President Truman. Broadcasts dismissed the inauguration in a sentence. A typical newspaper headline said: "Truman asks continuation of present policies of the United States."

The shakeup eliminated the two most powerful figures in Poland who might be lukewarm to cominform aims. It is part of a purge, dipping deep into government agencies and factories, to root out any suspected of thinking along capitalist lines. It means only tested believers in Marxist-Leninist theories will have a major part in running the country.

Cominform Delegate

Zawadzki was active in communist youth work before the war. He fought in defense of Stalingrad. He was a Polish delegate to the last session of the Cominform, the Communist International Information bureau. He recently resigned the governorship of Upper Silesia to become secretary of the communist-led United Workers' party.

Volski has been an advisor to Beirut on internal affairs. He had been a vice minister under Osubka-Morawski. He directed the expulsion of Germans from Poland after the war. One of the first government figures to call himself a communist, he has acted as government spokesman on such thorny issues as the conflict between Warsaw and the Roman Catholic church.

Adhere To Communist Line

The official press agency said Gomulka will take a job as vice president of the Supreme National Control Chamber, which keeps a check on the nation's finances.

Osubka-Morawski, 39, may resume work as a lawyer or in an export co-operative organization. The announcement of his resignation gave no hint of his plans.

Of 21 members of the Cabinet, twelve belong to the Communist-led Workers party. Five belong to the Peasant party, three to the Democratic and one to the Labor party. These nine, however, consistently adhere to the Communist line.

Lukewarm Reds Removed From Polish Cabinet (D)

Warsaw, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Boleslaw Bierut named two ardent Communists to high Cabinet posts today, replacing men often accused of "nationalistic deviation" from the Cominform line.

An official announcement said Wladyslaw Gomulka, First Vice Premier and Minister for Western Territories since 1945, had been "freed" of those jobs.

The announcement added that former Premier Edward Osubka Morowski, Minister of Public Administration since 1947, had resigned.

Zawadzki And Wolski Picked

Bierut gave Gomulka's Vice Premiership to Aleksander Zawadzki, 49, a Polish delegate at the last Cominform session.

Bierut's long-time adviser on internal affairs, Wladyslaw Wolski, 47, was appointed to the Ministry of Public Administration, similar to the American Department of Interior.

The official press agency bulletin said Gomulka will take the post of Vice President of the Supreme National Control Chamber, which is similar to the job of Comptroller General. In this post he would keep check on the nation's finances.

Once Backed Tito

Gomulka once supported the nationalistic position of Premier Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia, who is in the Comunist doghouse This stand is officially labelled by the Communists as "nationalistic deviation."

However, Gomulka later publicly expressed his regret that he had strayed from the official line of the Communist International Information Bureau.

Osubka Morawski, while Premier from 1944 to 1947, opposed fusion of his Socialist party with the Communists, and was branded by his own party as a nationalistic rightist.

Ousted By Socialists

The Socialists ousted him last September from their executive committee for failing to understand true Marxist-Leninist Socialism and leaning to "bourgeois parliamentary democracy."

The removal of these two from top Cabinet posts eliminates the most powerful political figures in the nation who might be lukewarm to the overall Cominform policy.

It means that only tried and true believers in Marxist-Leninist tenets will have a voice in the running of the country.

The purge is not confined to high places, but is dipping down into Government agencies and factories to root out any suspected of thinking along capitalistic lines.

Pospelov Says U.S. Couldn't Prevent Communist Gain

Moscow, Jan. 21 (AP)—The editor of the official Communist newspaper Pravda tonight cited the situation in China as an example of the failure of the plans of "American reactionaries."

Speaking in the Bolshoi Theater to a gathering of the nation's leaders on the twenty-fifth anniversary of Lenin's death, P. S. Pospelov discussed the Chinese Civil War at length.

He said America had sent immense help to the Kuomintang (Nationalists) without preventing the "armies of popular liberation" from winning large parts of China.

He quoted Lenin to the effect that Asiatic peoples would be decisive for the fate of the world's population.

Gives China As Example

"The example of China," he stated, "shows particularly clearly hundreds of millions of subjugated toilers of the East being taught and educated for revolutionary struggle by capitalism itself."

Pospelov, who also is a member of the Central Committee of the Communist party, bitterly attacked "Anglo-American war-mongers," "imperialists" and the Marshall plan. At the same time he quoted from Prime Minister Stalin's reply to Henry A. Wallace that co-operation is possible between capitalism and socialism.

But, he declared, "the Twentieth Century will not be the century of Wall Street but the century of the triumph of the great idea of Lenin."

Praises Party And Allies

The editor, in his hour-long address, which was broadcast throughout the nation and will be printed in all Moscow papers tomorrow, said that Communist parties and their allies around the world now number 18,000,000. He pictured them as a disciplined, determined army marching to inevitable victory inspired by Lenin and Stalin.

The press all but ignored President Truman's inaugural address.

Huge portraits of the founder of the Soviet state were published in newspapers. Pravda marked the occasion by printing, for the first time, a letter in which Lenin charged Leon Trotsky, a Communist rival, with "opportunism" and co-operation with "social chauvinists."

Prints Only 2 Paragraphs

This official Communist newspaper printed but two paragraphs on President Truman's inaugural address. Its brief Tass news agency dispatch from Washington mentioned that Alexander S. Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, attended the ceremony.

The Soviet newspapers carried other American news. A Washington dispatch in Trud, the Soviet Trade Union newspaper, referred to 5,000 persons demonstrating for civil rights. Other newspapers played up dispatches from New York on the trial of American Communist leaders.

The text of the President's speech, broadcast in the Russian language by the Voice of America, was heard clearly in Moscow.

All over the U.S.S.R., party leaders held meetings dedicated to Lenin's memory. Tomorrow is a full holiday and all flags will fly at half-mast.

Candles were lit in hundreds of churches in memory of the revolutionary leader (whose creed said religion is the opiate of people).

His embalmed body lies in state in a red and black marble tomb in Moscow's Red Square. Millions have viewed it in the last 25 years. Soviet scientists, who performed the embalming, have said the body might be preserved for centuries.

REDS ASK VISAS FOR 4 DELEGATES TO WHEAT PARLEY

MOSCOW, Jan. 21 (AP)—The United States embassy said today the Soviet ministry of foreign affairs has applied for visas for members of a Russian delegation to the international wheat conference opening in Washington next week.

The Russians did not attend the last international wheat conference. This time they are sending four representatives.

Visas Granted

The embassy said the delegation will be headed by Sergei A. Borisov and that all visas have been granted.

The wheat conference is being held under the auspices of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization.

Foreign economic observers here expressed the view Soviet attendance and participation indicate heightened interest by the U.S.S.R. in the international wheat market, since the Soviet Union is now a large grain exporter.

Seek Stable Market

The wheat conference is a body designed to bring order into the international wheat market.

The last conference was held in Washington from Jan. 28 to March

6, 1948. A five-year-pact was signed by delegates from 36 countries, including the United States, fixing a $2 price ceiling on exports from the U. S., Canada and Australia and putting an international "floor" under prices to prevent any collapse after another world surplus appears. Neither Russia nor Argentina attended this session, but both will be represented at the forthcoming meeting.

The U. S. congress refused to approve American exports under last year's agreement, and Great Britain subsequently withdrew.

N.Y. Times To Have Writer In Moscow

Moscow, Jan. 21 (AP)—The New York Times, which has had no correspondent in Moscow since the Spring of 1947, is to be represented here again.

An entrance visa has been granted to Harrison E. Salisbury as a Times correspondent, the press section of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs announced today.

Andrew Steiger, who until recently represented the American organization, McGraw-Hill World News, in Moscow, was authorized a few days ago to represent the Overseas News Agency here. Steiger simultaneously released his accreditation to McGraw-Hill.

Salisbury's accreditation brings to eight the American correspondents in Moscow. Others are Eddy Gilmore and Thomas P. Whitney, Associated Press; Henry Shapiro, United Press; Joseph Newman, New York Herald Tribune; Edmund Stevens, Christian Science Monitor; Steiger, Overseas News, and Anna Louise Strong, Allied Labor News.

Rhodes, Jan. 21 (AP)—Israel and Egypt have become snagged on the thorny question of determining Negeb boundaries in their armistice talks.

A United Nations spokesman said both sides disagreed over important points concerning boundaries to be observed in southern Palestine. He added, however, that they were in accord on a number of other points in the boundary matter. INSERT

Details of the talks were still under blackout. Dr. Ralph Bunche, the acting United Nations mediator, saw both delegations twice yesterday.

Boundary Tops Issues

The United Nations spokesman said that once the complex boundary question is thrashed out, the issue of withdrawing and reducing forces would be solved easily.

There was no indication when the next joint meeting will be held. Unofficially it is known that the calling of the next meeting will indicate armistice terms have been reached.

The spokesman pointed out that while present talks will be restricted to Egyptian-Israeli disputes, any other Arab state is free to come here and negotiate an armistice under Bunche.

Deny Plane Order

Meanwhile, Bunche flatly denied press reports quoting British Air Minister Arthur Henderson as saying British planes were sent over the Egyptian frontier at the mediator's request.

Bunche declared he had no knowledge of the flight, in which five RAF planes were shot down by the Israelis.

Israeli Tells Of Talks With Two Arab States

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 21 (AP)—Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok says Israel is negotiating with both Lebanon and Trans-Jordan but the talks have not yet reached a decisive stage.

Shertok's statement to the State Council yesterday was the first official comment on armistice reports current here for the past few days. Preliminary talks were said to have taken place between Israeli and Lebanese representatives along the Lebanese-Israeli frontier.

In connection with the Trans-Jordan talks, informants said they were being conducted on a far broader basis than a mere cease-fire or truce arrangement. They said they have been shrouded in secrecy to avoid any embarrassment on the part of King Abdullah with Britain.

Shertok reiterated Israel's stand that dispatch of British troops to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba "constituted a threat to Israel's territorial integrity." He said the present situation cannot justify any request by Trans-Jordan for implementation of the British-Trans-Jordan treaty.

Bevin Act Hailed

The Israeli Minister added that he welcomed British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's action in agreeing to release Jews of military age still held on Cyprus.

Meanwhile, preparations were made for Israel's first elections. Balloting takes place January 25.

The Governments of the United States and Israel will publish advertisements in today's newspapers here warning American citizens in Israel that they will lose their American citizenship if they vote in the elections.

Nationality Act

The advertisements call attention to section 401 (E) of the American Nationality Act of 1940 which provides that American nationality is forfeited by "voting in a political election in a foreign state."

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion told a cheering crowd in Jerusalem last night that the Holy City is and will remain a part of Israel.

Diplomacy Hit 'Stamp' Snag, D.C. Reports

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 21 (AP)—A story going the rounds among high officials here is that postage-stamp economy in Washington delayed for weeks an important statement of President Truman on Israel.

No high official will say the story is true. But all agree they heard the story and that it goes this way:

President Truman sent a letter replying to greetings of Israel's provisional President, Dr. Chaim Weizmann, on Mr. Truman's re-election. The letter was said to have promised that the President would carry out all his campaign pledges regarding Israel, including an American loan, complete de jure recognition of Israel as soon as she holds elections and support of Israel's territorial claims to all she was given by United Nations partition.

The letter was posted immediately after Mr. Truman's election, but reached Weizmann only this week. A clerk had put a 5-cent stamp on the envelope and it came by slow-boat mail.

Arabs Pray for Abdullah

JERUSALEM, Jan. 21 (AP).—Moslems of Jerusalem prayed today in the Mosque of Aqsa for "our great King Abdullah." Abdullah is the King of Trans-Jordan, and some Palestine Arabs are urging him to link Arab parts of the Holy Land to his kingdom.

The prayers were said on the occasion of a formal reception for Sheik Husam Eddin Jaralla as the new Mufti of Palestine. A large crowd of Moslem worshippers heard the head of the mosque ask Allah to "protect, help and keep Abdullah and give him victory."

The prayers will be repeated each Friday in all Jerusalem's mosques. They are in answer to criticisms that Abdullah could not, for religious reasons, become King of Arab Palestine.

Asian Conference To Ask U.N. To Speed Indonesian Action

S. DAVID

New Delhi, India, Jan. 21 (AP)—The Asian conference plans to ask for United Nations enforcement of a speedy settlement of the Indonesian conflict.

Delegates said today the conference's recommendations presumably will call for the imposition of economic sanctions if either the Netherlands or the Indonesian Republic fail to co-operate.

The twenty-nation conference favors the establishment of a free United States of Indonesia. It was called to protest Dutch military operations against the republic.

Approach Under Discussion

General agreement has been obtained thus far on the general line of the conference's settlement proposals. Still under discussion is the exact type of approach the conference will make to the United Nations Security Council.

Three major resolutions are expected to emerge from the conference, delegates said. They will:

1. Detail the steps to be taken to establish a free United States of Indonesia, including restoration of full liberty of action to the Republican regime and the formation of an interim government for all Indonesia.

2. Recommend enforcement action to be taken by the Security Council if other means of settling the dispute prove unsuccessful. Presumably recommendations for economic sanctions will be included in this resolution.

3. Provide for similar enforcement action by the nations represented here and for the establishment of machinery whereby the conference nations may consult on the implementation of their decisions.

Would Wipe Out Gains

The conference favors the return to the Indonesian Republican Government of territories it held before December 18 and the withdrawal of Dutch troops from those territories, delegates said. This would wipe out military gains scored by the Dutch in their recent military operations on Java and Sumatra.

The conference also wants provision made for the election of a constituent assembly and for the transfer of power to a United States of Indonesia. The Security Council is expected to be asked to create a commission or other body with powers to give effect to the recommendations.

Indonesian Republicans submitted a note stating that their Government still claims to represent all of the islands of Java, Sumatra and Madoera.

D. Soemitro, Republican representative, said the note was a clarification of a memorandum submitted earlier. In asking for a withdrawal of the Dutch to the December 18 lines, the Republicans were not waiving their claim to represent territories beyond those lines on the three islands, he explained. add

ACHESON TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

New Secretary of State Faces Job of Clarifying Truman Aims

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Graying, mustached Dean Acheson, 55-year-old lawyer and diplomat, became Secretary of State in a solemn White House ceremony today, and immediately faced swelling demands here and abroad for clarification of President Truman's new program to raise world living standards.

Mr. Truman himself was reported to have given a new idea of what he thinks can be accomplished through the program by saying that if living standards in Asiatic countries could be raised two percent U. S. production could not catch up with the demand for 100 years. Whether he included communist-ridden, crisis-struck China in his estimate, reportedly given at a breakfast with congressmen, was not disclosed.

Vandenberg Asks Aims

In the forefront of those who want to know precisely what the Truman administration is planning came Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) whose final attitude could prove of considerable importance to the administration in getting any needed lgislation through the Senate.

After a senate Republican Policy committee meeting, Vandenberg issued a statement saying he could not pass judgement on much of Mr. Truman's "new aid programs until I know concretely what he had in mind."

"I suggest, however, that we perfect existing plans before starting new ones," the Republican foreign policy leader said. "The president himself says there are limits to our resources. I underscore that warning."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), who told reporters the Policy committee took no decision on Mr. Truman's proposal to build up backward areas of the world, raised the question "where are they going to get the money?" He suggested that before embarking on "new ventures" the government should check up on European recovery and "see now the aid to foreign nations is being handled."

In New York, United Nations authorities wondered whether Mr. Truman intends to funnel future American aid to non-European areas of the world through UN channels. And from London came word that the European press, communist and non-communist, generally interpreted Mr. Truman's inauguration speech yesterday as broadening the cold war to new areas of the world.

Four Main Courses

It was in that speech that Mr. Truman laid down the four main courses of action which he now looks to Acheson to translate into specific and detailed plans. The fourth of his courses was his "bold new program" for developing backward areas of the world to raise living standards.

He emphasized the use of private capital, and one question Washington was asking today was what protection and incentive the administration would propose to offset risks of foreign investments.

Against this background of foreign policy developments, Acheson went into the president's oval office in the White House at 11 a.m., E.S.T., today to take hi soath of office as successor to Secretary of State George C. Marshall. He had resigned as Undersecretary of State only 18 months ago and in the interim has been practicing law here.

He was surrounded by his wife and other members of his family, by congressional leaders and cabinet colleagues and top State Department officials when he took his place in front of Mr. Truman's desk. Mr. Truman stood, quiet and intent, behind the desk and chief justice Fred Vinson stood facing Acheson, holding a bible.

Acheson raised his right hand and placed his left on the Bible. Then he took the oath to uphold and defend the constitution and faithfully discharge the duties of his high office—the no. 1 cabinet post. Mr. Truman stepped briskly around the desk and shook Acheson's hand.

Confers With Lovett

Within half an hour, the new foreign policy director left the White House for the State department where he had, during the afternoon, a lengthy conference with Undersecretary Lovett.

Acheson faced a busy schedule on his first hour in office just catching up with today's developments such as American recognition of enw regimes in Venezuela and El Salvador and plans to do the same with Transjordan and Israel next week.

The Acheson-Lovett conference also undoubtedly touched on the China situation where Chiang Kai-Shek's sudden flight from Nanking posted new problems to be worked into the overall foreign policy picture.

Foreign Policy Comments By Vandenberg

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) said today the Administration should "perfect" existing foreign policy programs "before starting new ones."

The GOP foreign policy leader noted in a statement that President Truman in his inaugural message yesterday said there are limits to American resources.

Vandenberg added bluntly: "I underscore that warning."

Stores Of Knowledge

The President's reference to the limits on American material resources was in connection with his proposal for a "bold new program" of American aid in development of backward areas of the world. Mr. Truman said at the same time that America's scientific and technical knowledge, needed for such developments, were inexhaustible.

Vandenberg's cautionary stand on new programs came after a meeting of the Senate Republican policy committee.

Other members had disclosed that the committee discussed the President's proposal, but said that no official party stand was taken.

Vandenberg said the President's "strong declaration" that democracy, not communism, is the world's hope for peace and progress "is a sturdy concept which his countrymen will approve."

Needs More Time

Vandenberg also said he cannot pass judgment on the President's new foreign-aid programs "until I know more concretely what he has in mind."

"I suggest, however," he said, "that we perfect existing plans before starting new ones."

The Michigan Senator commented that the Economic Co-operation Administration already is studying efforts to increase foreign production and diminish costs. He adde dthat industrial leaders have suggested that small "task forces" be sent abroad.

Vandenberg Resolution

Vandenberg said that Mr. Truman's proposal for a North Atlantic Security Pact, under the United Nations regional arrangements provision, follows closely the lines of the Vandenberg resolution which was passed by the Senate last May.

That resolution recommended regional security pacts under the United Nations Charter.

Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) told reporters there was "plenty of talk" about the President's proposal at the Republican policy committee meeting, but no decisions.

Truman Anti-Red European Plan Due Shortly

Washington, Jan. 21 (AP)—A detailed Administration program for guarding western Europe against Communist aggression may be presented to Congress within a month.

Officials said legislation backing up President Truman's promise yesterday of a plan to "strengthen the security of the North Atlantic area" should be in the lawmakers' hands by mid-February.

They said Mr. Truman hopes by then to give Congress a program calling for:

1. A North Atlantic alliance joining the United States with Canada and at least five key European countries — Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

2. An outlay of around $1,000,000,000 to supply late-model arms and equipment to this nation's western European allies.

May Seek Military Missions

The President also may request permission to send military missions to any friendly country in the world seeking American "advice." Such a plan was listed by Secretary of Defense Forrestal as a "top priority" project a few months ago, but there have been recent reports that more important proposals have since been placed ahead of it.

The Administration now may send such missions only to Latin America, Greece, Turkey and Iran.

The aim of the proposed alliance was summed up this way by Mr. Truman yesterday:

"If we can make it sufficiently clear in advance that any armed attack affecting our national security would be met with overwhelming force, the armed attack might never occur."

Pledges Expected

The pact is expected to pledge each member nation to go to the help of any other member attacked by an outsider. But officials have stressed that Congress would keep its constitutional right to declare war.

The military aid program is expected to be based on the self-help features of the Marshall plan for European recovery: in return for American weapons, each European country would be asked to contribute resources and manpower toward the common objective of strength and security.

GUILTY ON ISRAEL PLANES

One of 3 Held Changes Plea, Admits Plot to Export Craft

MIAMI, Jan. 21 (AP)—Charles T. Winters, 36, pleaded guilty today in Federal Court to a charge of conspiring to export war planes to Palestine.

Winters, of Miami and Puerto Rico, was one of nine men indicted on the charge. He withdrew a previous plea of innocence.

Assistant District Attorney Fred Botts told the court that three men were in cusody, three others in Palestine, and three had not been apprehended.

Winters will be sentenced Feb. 4. His $10,000 bond was continued.

The other two men in custody will enter pleas in other Federal districts. One, Abraham Levin of North Hollywood, Calif., will plead guilty there, and Irvin Schindler of Miami Beach is to be arraigned Tuesday in New York, Mr. Botts said.

The group is charged with exporting three Flying Fortresses and a Constellation to Czechoslovakia for use against the Arabs.

The others are Adolph W. Schwimmer, Bridgeport, Conn.; Leon Gardner, North Hollywood; William Sosnow, New York City; Michael Kane, California; Leonard Burns, San Francisco, and Ervin L. Johnson, believed a non-existent person.

Navy Unit May Meet Gales

En Route to Kodiak Island, Jan. 21 (AP)—The first taste of weather in which the "Battle of Kodiak Island" will be fought next month may be experienced by the Navy's assault force this week end.

"Heavy gales which lashed Honolulu last Saturday are moving northeastward, to threaten the line of the convoy," Lieut (j.g.) L. P. Halloran, staff aerologist for the assault force, said yesterday.

"We can expect a gale of about 38 knots to cross our path about January 23," he said. "This wind may whip up heavy seas 12 to 15 feet high.

Fear "Williwaw" Gales

"Although these conditions aren't likely to endanger the operation, they will give men an inkling of what to expect off Alaska."

The closer this convoy of five ships and 1,500 Marines approaches Kodiak, the greater will be the danger of running into "Williwaw" gales ranging from 90 to 120 miles per hour. Cold winds pour down from the mountains in this area with force sufficient to scatter men like tumbleweeds.

"The North Pacific is one of the stormiest areas in the world," said Navy Weatherman Halloran, "and February is the coldest and stormiest month of the year."

Spearhead Of Force

This amphibious assault group, which left San Diego, Cal., last Tuesday, is the spearhead of a total force of 40-odd ships and 18,000 men which will take part in "Operation Icicle" at Kodiak. The remainder will leave San Diego and Long Beach, Cal., about February 1.

"The only predictable thing about Kodiak weather at this time of the year," said Halloran, "is that it is unpredictable. It can change from clear to fog, rain, snow and gales and back again all in fifteen minutes.

"Temperatures may range, judging from the past, from 10 to 45 degrees above zero. The average is around freezing. Five to six minutes in water there is all man can stand. Sometimes the shock of tumbling into water on the beaches will knock men unconscious and they drown unless rescued immediately.

Can't Stay In Water

"Underwater demolition teams making preinvasion reconnaissance are clothed in rubber suits, but even they can't remain in water more than 30 minutes."

Halloran couldn't say definitely whether Williwaws would be encountered, "but this is the season for them. They come and go. They last anywhere from an hour or so to as long as three days."

broadcasting station sending out radiation which discloses its location.

One of the newest uses of a tracer is in "tagging" various batches of oil in a single pipeline. A tracer is inserted into the pipeline ahead of each batch of oil. The batches can then be accurately separated when the tracer signals its appearance through an instrument known as a Geiger counter. This use of tracers was developed by the California Research Corp., Richmond, Calif., Dr. Hull said.

Also speaking today was Dr. Lyle T. Alexander of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Aids Farmers

By placing radioactive or tracer phosphate in phosphate fertilizer, he said, it can be determined how the plant makes use of it. Results of experiments conducted last year show how better use of fertilizer can be made.

Dr. Alexander said "there is no evidence" of effect of radioactive materials used as plant stimulants. He said that experiments of this nature will be continued this year, however.

Other speakers today were Dr. Wallace D. Armstrong and Dr. Howard L. Horns, both of the University of Minnesota, who spoke on applications of atomic energy to medicine.

The conference, sponsored by the University of Minnesota and the Atomic Information Problems committee of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, concludes tomorrow noon.

Commercial Atom Plants Seen Within 10 Years by Scientist

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 21—(AP) "Useful experimental demonstrations" of peacetime atomic power can be expected within five, and possibly three years, an atomic scientist said today.

He said the demonstrations "should include a stationary plant and also one for ship use."

The scientist is Dr. H. L. Hull, director of the Remote Control division of the Argonne National Laboratory, Chicago. He spoke today during a conference on atomic energy information. Attending are representatives of about 20 newspapers and news services.

"At the end of 10 years, you should expect to see these experimental power plants being productized and made commercial," he said. "After 20 years, you should expect to find atomic power becoming a factor in our economy."

Describes Uses

Dr. Hull spoke on induistrial applications of atomic energy, describing use of radioactive substances in such fields as metallurgy, petroleum, lubrication, rubber and rayon.

He mentioned use of the radioactive materials as "tracers." He compared a tracer to a miniature

Clark Pledges War on Reds

But He Tells Democratic Women Leaders There Will Be No 'Witch Hunts.'

Washington, Jan. 21 (A. P.).—Attorney-General Clark said today, "We don't want even one Communist in Government service. Neither do we want them operating in our country outside the Government."

Clark was addressing the women's division of the Democratic National Committee. President Truman and Secretary of Labor Tobin were among the other speakers. Mr. Truman made only a few informal remarks.

Clark said the Communists and other subversive forces "seek to undermine our democratic institutions." He added: "The Department of Justice is ever watchful of this potential danger threatening the personal liberty and security of every American citizen as well as the safety of the nation."

But he added that "the department has not gone, nor will it go, on a 'witch hunt'" against Communists.

Tobin told the women that permanent progressive labor legislation depends on telling Congress and the people "what was wrong with the Taft-Hartley act."

If that is not effectively done, he said:

"Then at some future date, another 'had enough' Congress may repeal the new national labor relations act and enact another Taft-Hartley act."

The Secretary mentioned what he called the major effects of the Taft-Hartley act. His list included removal of the Conciliation Service from his department, impairment of the effectiveness of fact-finding boards, the ban on political contributions by labor organizations, outlawing of the closed shop and the requirement of elections before union shop contracts can be obtained, the use of injunctions, the ban on peaceful picketing in certain situations, limitations on the dues checkoff, contract terminations procedures and welfare funds, and provisions denying economic strikers the right to vote in collective bargaining elections if they have been replaced by other workers.

THE PRESIDENT'S TALK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21 (AP)—Following is the text of President Truman's extemporaneous remarks to the women's division of the Democratic National Committee today:

Mr. Chairman of the Democratic committee, Mrs. Tillett and Mrs. Edwards of the women's division of the Democratic National Committee, ladies and gentlemen:

I didn't get any tickets to this performance. After I had arrived here, I was informed that this was the only program during this week where tickets were not necessary.

I do appreciate most highly, ladies and gentlemen, what the women's division of the Democratic National Committee has done in organizing this meeting, and in presenting me with myself.

Nobody, of course, can understand what he looks like to other people. He can only see one side of himself, and if he looks in the mirror he is not right sure whether that is true or not, because he thinks he's better looking than that.

But I am sure that the family will highly appreciate this gift (a bust of the President given to the family) and they will also highly appreciate the fact that they don't have to leave it in the White House, because nearly everything that is given to a President is given to him in his official capacity as President of the United States, and he has no right to claim it as his own personal property.

And besides, the Constitution won't let him accept a gift from any foreign power or from anybody that may have business with the Government—which is perfectly right and proper and ethical.

But, since this bronze has been given by the women of the Democratic committee to the family of the President, we are going to have a pretty hard time leaving it in the White House.

I went down to the Capitol this morning, to have breakfast with the Missouri delegation. In spite of the fact that I got to bed at 3 o'clock and got up at 5:30, I made it down there in time.

And Mr. Cannon, in introducing me, made the statement that he was introducing the most powerful man in the world, who is now President of the United States.

And I explained to the Congressman that I didn't think that was quite true because I couldn't get my wife and daughter up to come with me!

So you see, you can be perfectly sure that this wonderful gift will remain in the family.

I do want to thank you most sincerely for this cordial expression of your kindness and admiration for your President. I hope that it will not be necessary at some future date to have it destroyed, as I have seen done with public men who have been awarded things of this kind while they were yet alive. I hope that you will always feel like I should have had this in the beginning and shall continue to have it in the future. Thank you.

U.S. GIVES U.N. INDONESIA PLAN (N)

Russia Denounces Resolution On Independence In 1950

E. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 21 (AP)—A watered-down resolution calling for Indonesian independence by July 1, 1950, was placed before the Security Council today by the United States and three other countries.

The proposal immediately drew fire from Russia's Jakob A. Malik, who accused the United States of making a deal with the Netherlands to protect American monopolies in Indonesia.

The resolution, which Cuba, China and Norway joined the United States in sponsoring, calls on the Dutch and the Indonesians to halt immediately all fighting in the Indies and demands immediate release of republican leaders held prisoner by the Dutch. It also sets up a timetable for establishing a United States of Indonesia.

Opportunity To Intervene

Several Security Council delegates said privately it is the best document that can be drawn now to obtain the necessary seven votes to pass the Council.

However, Malik jumped on all sections. He said it was a hypocritical document dictated by a "policy of trading and dealing between the United States and the Netherlands."

Malik said the plan would give the United States a greater opportunity to intervene in the affairs of the Indonesians, "shield Dutch aggression" and take care of "American monopolies which have invested many hundreds of millions of dollars in Indonesia."

He demanded the immediate removal of Dutch troops from Indonesian territory.

Adjourn Until Tuesday

The Council adjourned until 3 P.M. Tuesday to give the Dutch, the Indonesians and several Council members an opportunity to study the four-power draft and consult their governments.

The sponsors still predicted after the Council session that the resolution would pass the Council.

Several delegates said they expected Russia to abstain on the final vote instead of casting a veto. Malik would not tip his hand at this stage.

The resolution has been in the mills for several days.

Withdrawal Issue

Informants who have kept in touch with the resolution from the time it was a United States idea said it had been revised to take out a positive declaration for withdrawal of Dutch troops from Indonesian Republican territory.

As finally presented, the resolution provides that a proposed United Nations commission for Indonesia recommend the extent to which the Dutch troops shall progressively withdraw from Republican areas and then supervise such transfers.

The plan calls for formation of the commission out of the present Good Offices Committee of the Security Council, made up of the United States, Belgium and Australia.

Would End Raids

It calls upon the Netherlands to discontinue immediately all military operations and upon the Republic of Indonesia to order a halt to the growing guerrilla warfare in the islands.

It calls for the Netherlands to release immediately President Soekarno and other Republican leaders seized when the Dutch began their latest military action a month ago. Informed sources said this left the way open for restoration of the old Indonesian Republican Government, a move opposed by the Dutch.

U.S. Economic Plan May Be Keyed To U.N.

JAN 1949

Lake Success, Jan. 21 (AP)—President Truman's "bold new program" to aid under-developed countries swung the spotlight on the coming session of the United Nations Economic and Social Council.

Some observers here expressed belief today the President in his inaugural address may have said in effect there will be no Marshall plan or Truman doctrine for Asia, Latin America, the Middle East and other parts of the world. Their view was that he intends to funnel future aid through United Nations agencies.

Session Due February 7

The United Nations Economic and Social Council meets here February 7. United Nations officials are wondering whether Mr. Truman will advance concrete proposals in connection with the program of technical assistance which he envisaged yesterday to resist communism.

In his address the President called upon other countries to cooperate in extending financial aid and technical assistance through the United Nations.

Items On Agenda

If he has a program ready along this line, the Economic and Social Council would be a convenient place to disclose it. The Council now has several items on its agenda regarding the kind of assistance which the President advocated.

These include:

1. A request from the General Assembly to consider the whole problem of economic development of underdeveloped countries.

2. A report from the Secretary-General on technical assistance now being given to underdeveloped countries and consideration of future action. aud

JAN 1949

THE CIVIL WAR BATTLEFIELDS REMAINED VIRTUALLY SILENT. IN CENTRAL CHINA THE COMMUNISTS WERE SLOWLY MOVING SOUTH FROM THE GOVERNMENT'S OLD HWAI RIVER LINE, 100 MILES NORTH OF NANKING.

EFFORTS TO MAKE A SEPARATE SURRENDER OF PEIPING TO THE COMMUNISTS IN THE NORTH WERE STILL IN PROGRESS.

AP CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA REPORTED FROM PEIPING THAT ALL EXCEPT A FEW DETAILS HAD BEEN SETTLED BUT NO DATE FOR THE CHANGE-OVER HAD BEEN FIXED.

WITH THE PRESIDENT OUT OF THE WAY, EVEN TEMPORARILY, IT IS BELIEVED HERE THOSE WHO ARE CAMPAIGNING FOR A SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR WILL FIND LITTLE OPPOSITION FROM THE "BITTER-ENDERS" WHO HAVE ADVOCATED A FIGHT TO THE END.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE INDICATION WHAT STEPS WOULD BE FORTHCOMING AS A RESULT OF CHIANG'S DEPARTURE.

A71FX aud-Nanking (Day) xxx anger.

ONE OFFICIAL, ASKED TO CLARIFY LI'S STATUS, SAID:

"FRANKLY WE DO NOT KNOW--IT ALL DEPENDS ON WHAT WE ARE ABLE TO DO NOW. IF THE GOVERNMENT UNDER LI IS ABLE TO MAKE A SETTLEMENT WITH THE COMMUNISTS THERE WILL BE NO REASON FOR THE GENERALISSIMO TO RETURN. IF NOT--WHO KNOWS WHAT WILL HAPPEN?"

MOST OFFICIALS, BOTH CHINESE AND FOREIGN, REGARD CHIANG'S DEPARTURE AS HIS RETIREMENT--BUT ADMITTED THAT, AS IN THE PAST, HE WAS HOLDING OPEN THE DOOR FOR HIS RETURN IF HE HIMSELF DEEMED IT NECESSARY.

A RELIABLE SOURCE SAID THAT CHIANG'S STATEMENT AVOIDED THE USE OF THE WORD "RESIGNATION" IN HIS STATEMENT, YET TO BE RELEASED AND DISTRIBUTED AMONG THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

INSTEAD, THIS SOURCE SAID, CHIANG REFERRED TO HIS LEAVING THE CAPITAL AS A "WITHDRAWAL FROM DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES I HAVE HELD FOR 20 YEARS."

CHIANG ADDED, ACCORDING TO THIS INFORMANT, THAT HE HOPED THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE ABLE TO ATTAIN PEACE IF HE WAS NOT HERE.

MOST OBSERVERS FEEL THAT NOW ALMOST ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN.

CHIANG, IN EFFECT, IS LEAVING BEHIND, ALMOST LEADERLESS, A GROUP OF MEN WHO HAVE RULED CHINA FOR THE PAST 22 YEARS. HIS OWN PERSONAL INFLUENCE HAS ALWAYS OVERCOME THEIR OFTEN BITTER INTERNAL RIVALRIES.

THESE STILL PERSIST AND CENTER ON THE ISSUE OF PEACE ITSELF.

THE DIEHARDS KNOW THEY ARE ON THE COMMUNIST "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST AFTER THE GENERALISSIMO HIMSELF; THEREFORE THEY ARE UNABLE TO CONSIDER ANYTHING BUT BITTER RESISTANCE WHICH WOULD SUBJECT NANKING TO LONG SIEGE AND MIGHT WELL COLLAPSE IN VIOLENCE AND LOOTING.

THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN SAYING CHIANG'S CONTINUED PRESENCE HERE IS THE ONLY REAL DETERRENT TO PEACE NOW HAVE A CHANCE TO SEE HOW THEIR THEORY WILL WORK OUT.

ACTUALLY, OBSERVERS SAID, THE HALFWAY MEASURE OF HIS FLIGHT TODAY REPRESENTS HIS OLDEST POLITICAL TRICK. MANY TIMES IN THE PAST CHIANG HAS WALKED OUT FROM A SCENE OF DISAGREEMENT AMONG HIS FOLLOWERS -- NEVER FINALLY, FORMALLY QUITTING BUT THREATENING TO -- AND ALWAYS

AS LONG AS CHIANG STAYS IN NANKING, HOWEVER, THIS ANXIOUS CITY REMAINS THE CAPITAL OF WHAT REMAINS OF NATIONALIST CHINA.

(IN NORTH CHINA, THE DETAILS FOR THE SURRENDER OF PEIPING APPEARED TO BE WORKED OUT AND AWAITED ONLY THE FINAL APPROVAL OF GEN. FU TSO-YI, THE COMMANDER IN THE NORTH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA WROTE FROM PEIPING THAT "IT IS KNOWN THIS PLAN HAS BEEN ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE FOR EXECUTION BY SATURDAY."

(MOOSA SAID THE PLAN STILL MIGHT BE DISRUPTED BY GOVERNMENT GENERALS THERE WHO DISTRUST BOTH FU AND THE REDS, OR POSSIBLY BY FU HIMSELF, WHO MIGHT PREFER TO WAIT FOR A GENERAL PEACE WORKED OUT BY NANKING.

(IN BRIEF, THE PLAN CALLS FOR FU TO GIVE UP PEIPING AND KWEISUI, THE CAPITAL OF SUIYUAN PROVINCE IN INNER MONGOLIA, HIS OLD STAMPING GROUND. IN RETURN HE WOULD BE REMOVED FROM THE RED "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST.)

MOST OF THE DIPLOMATS IN NANKING WERE STILL AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS FROM THEIR HOME OFFICES AS TO WHETHER TO FOLLOW THE FOREIGN MINISTRY SOUTH OR TO STAY HERE.

THE CAPITAL ALSO FACED THE PROSPECT OF A LIGHT AND WATER SHORTAGE. BOTH THE WATER AND LIGHT SYSTEMS DEPEND ON COAL. NEWSPAPERS SAY THE CITY HAS ONLY A TWO-DAY COAL SUPPLY.

NANKING, SATURDAY, JAN. 22-(AP)-AN OFFICIAL ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S FAREWELL STATEMENT, ISSUED EARLY TODAY, QUOTED HIM AS SAYING:

"I HAVE DECIDED TO RETIRE."

JAN 1949

CHIANG, FOR 22 YEARS CHIEF OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, SUDDENLY FLEW FROM NANKING FRIDAY AFTERNOON TO HIS ANCESTRAL HOME IN FENGHWA, 210 MILES SOUTHEAST.

HE DESIGNATED VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN AS ACTING PRESIDENT, LEAVING LI TO DEAL WITH THE PROBLEM OF PEACE OR CONTINUED CIVIL WAR WITH DOMINANT COMMUNISTS.

CHIANG'S FAREWELL STATEMENT WAS AMBIGUOUS ON THE QUESTION OF WHETHER HE WAS ACTUALLY STEPPING OUT OF THE PRESIDENCY OR ME A

WHETHER HE WAS ACTUALLY STEPPING OUT OF THE PRESIDENCY OR MERELY GOING AWAY IN EXPECTATION OF RETURN.

THE "BRAIN TRUSTS" OF HIS GOVERNMENT AND OF ACTING PRESIDENT LI PUZZLED OVER IT FOR MANY HOURS, AND REVISED IT AFTER A TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH CHIANG IN FENGHWA.

FINALLY, SHORTLY AFTER MIDNIGHT, THEY RELEASED THE TRANSLATION.

(THE FULL ENGLISH-LANGUAGE TEXT APPARENTLY STILL WAS NOT AVAILABLE, SINCE HAROLD MILKS' DISPATCH GAVE ONLY THE SINGLE QUOTATION. PREVIOUSLY MILKS HAD QUOTED RELIABLE AUTHORITIES THAT THE STATEMENT AVOIDED USE OF THE WORDS "RETIRE" OR "RESIGN," BUT MERELY SPOKE OF "WITHDRAWAL."

CHIANG CAREER-IN-BRIEF

NANKING, JAN. 21-(AP)-HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CAREER OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK, RETIRING -- AT LEAST TEMPORARILY -- AS CHINA'S CIVIL AND MILITARY CHIEF:

1907--AT 19, ENROLLED IN THE TOKYO MILITARY ACADEMY; CAME UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF SUN YAT-SEN, WHO WAS TO BECOME THE FATHER OF THE CHINESE REPUBLIC.

1911--DISTINGUISHED AS A YOUNG OFFICER IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WARS, WHICH BEGAN IN 1911 AND WERE TO CONTINUE MORE THAN TWO DECADES.

1920-22 ABANDONED SOLDIERING FOR A BRIEF INTERLUDE AS A SHANGHAI BROKER, THEN RETURNED TO UNIFORM. SUBSEQUENTLY SET UP MILITARY ACADEMY UNDER THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT ESTABLISHED BY SUN AT CANTON.

1926--CHIANG'S ARMIES, A YEAR AFTER SUN'S DEATH, SEIZED THE BIG YANGTZE VALLEY CITIES TO OPEN A LONG CAMPAIGN AGAINST WAR LORDS.

1930--CONVERTED TO CHRISTIANITY AND BAPTIZED INTO THE METHODIST FAITH; UNIFIED 20 OF CHINA'S 28 PROVINCES UNDER HIS NANKING GOVERNMENT.

1931--JAPAN SHATTERED WORLD PEACE, ADVANCING INTO CHINA'S NORTH-EASTERN PROVINCES. SAID CHIANG, "CHINA IS NOT READY" TO FIGHT; "GIVE ME 10 MORE YEARS."

1934--COMPLETED HIS NINE-YEAR STRUGGLE TO DRIVE COMMUNISTS INTO THE FAR NORTHWEST PROVINCES.

1936--SENT "YOUNG MARSHAL" CHANG HSUEH-LIANG TO CLEAN UP THE LAST RED STRONGHOLD, SHENSI PROVINCE; BUT CHANG WAS CONVERTED TO THE RED VIEW THAT CHINA MUST FIGHT JAPAN.

DEC. 8, 1936--CHIANG FLEW TO SIAN TO REBUKE THE YOUNG MARSHAL--BUT WAS HIMSELF SEIZED AND KEPT CAPTIVE. HE WAS RELEASED CHRISTMAS DAY, WITH THE QUESTION OF BATTLING JAPAN STILL UNRESOLVED.

JULY 7, 1937--JAPAN'S ATTACK NEAR PEIPING LAUNCHED THE FULL-SCALE WAR. SEVERAL TIMES IN THE NEXT FEW YEARS JAPAN MADE PEACE OVERTURES, BUT "THERE WILL BE NO PEACE WHILE A SINGLE JAPANESE SOLDIER REMAINS ON CHINESE SOIL," CHIANG PROCLAIMED.

SEPT. 13, 1943--GENERALISSIMO CHIANG BECAME PRESIDENT, A POST HE HAS HELD EVER SINCE. (HE WAS ALSO PREMIER FOR A TIME, BUT RESIGNED THAT OFFICE IN THE SPRING OF 1945--REMAINING BOTH PRESIDENT AND MILITARY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.)

NIGHT LEAD LI (400)

NANKING, SATURDAY, JAN 22-(AP)-LI TSUNG-JEN AS ACTING PRESIDENT OF CHINA WILL FIND THE JOB FAR LESS LONELY THAN THE VICE-PRESIDENCY, WHERE HE SAT IN THE SEMI-INSOLATION FOR THE PAST EIGHT MONTHS.

THE 59-YEAR-OLD GENERAL LI WAS NEAR AN OPEN BREAK WITH CHIANG KAI-SHEK DURING THOSE MONTHS.

CHIANG HAD OPPOSED LI'S CANDIDACY FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY. WHEN LI WON IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY LAST SPRING, HE WITHDREW TO HIS MODEST HOME ON A BUMPY, NARROW STREET OF NANKING.

THERE, WELL REMOVED FROM THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE AND RESIDENCE, HE

JAN 1949

SPENT MOST OF HIS TIME.

LI CONFERRED WITH OLD ASSOCIATES AND FRIENDS, BUT DECLINED TO SPEAK OUT ON CHINA'S INTERNAL SITUATION, SAYING "THOSE MATTERS ARE IN THE HANDS OF THE PRESIDENT."

LI'S ABLE WIFE, WHO IS WIDELY CREDITED WITH DIRECTING HIS ELECTION CAMPAIGN, LEFT NANKING MORE THAN TWO MONTHS AGO FOR SOUTH CHINA. SHE NOW IS BELIEVED AT KWEILIN, LI'S BIRTHPLACE, WITH THEIR SON AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY.

A LARGE REFRIGERATOR AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD EFFECTS, PROMINENTLY MARKED "LI TSUNG-JEN, KWEILIN," WERE DELIVERED AT THE NANKING AIR FIELD FOR REMOVAL TWO WEEKS AGO.

LI ALWAYS HAS BEEN INDEPENDENT, AND EVEN BEFORE HE GOT POLITICAL ASPIRATIONS HE HAD DEFIED CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

THAT WAS IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE WAR WITH JAPAN, WHEN GENERAL LI AND GEN. PAI CHUNG-HSI, NOW GOVERNMENT COMMANDER IN CENTRAL CHINA, GREW TIRED OF NANKING'S POLICY OF NON-RESISTANCE.

THEY ANNOUNCED THEY WOULD REVOLT UNLESS CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE INVADERS BEGAN AN ACTIVE STAND HELPED TO SOLIDIFY CHINA'S WILL TO RESIST. THE FLAREUP WAS SMOOTHED OVER, BUT LI'S GENERAL LI THEN MADE GOOD, AND WAS ONE OF THE FEW GENERALS WHO FOUGHT WITH ANY SUCCESS AGAINST THE JAPANESE.

A100KX

AFTER THE WAR, CHIANG SENT HIM TO COMMAND HIS PEIPING HEADQUARTERS IN THE CIVIL WAR WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

IN JANUARY OF 1948, HE ANNOUNCED HIS CANDIDACY FOR VICE PRESIDENT. HE CALLED FOR BROAD REFORMS.

FRIENDS CALLED HIM A TRUE LIBERAL. HIS ENEMIES SAID HE WAS A COMMUNIST.

IN ONE OF HIS SPEECHES DURING THE CAMPAIGN HE SAID THAT CHINA MUST IMPROVE RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA "AS A MATTER OF PRACTICAL NECESSITY."

AT THE SAME TIME, HE STRESSED THAT CHINA SHOULD STRENGTHEN ITS FRIENDSHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES.

IN APRIL, MUCH TO THE SURPRISE OF MANY CHINESE WHO THOUGHT THE CARDS WERE STACKED AGAINST HIM, LI WON THE VICE PRESIDENCY IN THE BALLOTING IN THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

HE EASILY DEFEATED SUN FO, THE PRESENT PREMIER, WHO WAS BACKED BY CHIANG.

SINCE THEN, HE OFTEN HAS BEEN REPORTED TRYING TO WORK OUT A PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS. THIS HAS BROUGHT DENIALS FROM HIM.

NOW HE HAS A CHANCE TO SEE WHAT HE CAN DO.

BY FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, SATURDAY, JAN. 22-(AP)-THIS GREAT COMMERCIAL CITY, WHOSE FIRM SUPPORT TWO DECADES AGO HELPED ESTABLISH CHIANG KAI-SHEK AS CHINA'S LEADER, TODAY TOOK HIS VAGUE "RETIREMENT" WITH COMPLETE CALM.

TH

E FACT THAT CHIANG LONG SINCE HAD LOST THE SUPPORT OF PUBLIC OPINION WAS PROVED IN SHANGHAI'S GENERAL APATHY REGARDING HIS RETIREMENT---WHETHER IT BE TEMPORARY OR FINAL.

NONE OF THE THREE-ENGLISH-LANGUAGE NEWSPAPERS---TWO OF THEM CONSIDERED GOVERNMENT MOUTHPIECES--BOTHERED TO MAKE OVER THEIR EDITORIAL PAGES AND SO CARRIED NO COMMENT ON HIS DEPARTURE.

ONLY A FEW CHINESE-LANGUAGE NEWSPAPERS, MOST OF WHICH ARE GOVERNMENT OR KUOMINTANG-CONTROLLED, COMMENTED.

EVEN THESE SPOKE WITH CAUTIOUS RESTRAINT, AS THOUGH THEY WERE NOT SURE JUST WHAT CHIANG WAS DONG AND DID NOT WANT TO GO TOO FAR IN DRAWING CONCLUSIONS.

THERE SEEMED TO BE A GENERAL FEELING CHIANG PROBABLY WON'T RETURN TO THE PRESIDENCY, BUT THAT HE HIMSELF HASN'T YET IN HIS OWN MIND SURRENDERED THE OFFICE HE HELD SO LONG AND PROBABLY EXPECTS TO RETURN TO NANKING.

IT IS FELT, 8923;34, THAT WHILE HE HAS "QUIT" BEFORE AND ALWAYS HAS

IT IS FELT, HOWEVER, THAT WHILE HE HAS "QUIT" BEFORE AND ALWAYS HAS BEEN INVITED TO RETURN, THIS TIME THE SITUATION IS MORE THAN SUCH ORIENTAL POLITICAL MANEUVERING CAN SURMOUNT. IN OTHER WORDS, HE IS OUT --- AND OUT FOR GOOD.

THE SIMULTANEOUS REPLACEMENT OF HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW, T. V. SOONG, AS GOVERNOR OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, GIVES CHIANG'S "RETIREMENT" AN UNFLATTERING FLAVOR. THE TWO TOGETHER WOULD APPEAR TO ADD UP TO A HOUSE-CLEANING OF THE "BIG FAMILY CLIQUE."

A70

THIS NAME HAS OFTEN BEEN APPLIED TO CHIANG AND HIS IN-LAWS. IT INCLUDES THE CHIANGS, THE SOONGS AND THE KUNGS.

THE SOONG FAMILY IS HEADED BY T. V. SOONG, FORMER PREMIER AND CONSIDERED ONE OF THE WEALTHIEST MEN IN THE ORIENT. HE IS THE BROTHER OF MADAM CHIANG, ONE OF THE THREE SOONG SISTERS.

H. H. KUNG IS ANOTHER OF CHIINA'S ENORMOUSLY WEALTHY MEN. HE IS MARRIED TO ANOTHER OF THE SOONG SISTERS. KUNG ONCE WAS MINISTER OF FINANCE, BUT HAS NOT BEEN IN THE GOVERNMENT FOR A LONG TIME.

KUNG AND MADAM CHIANG NOW ARE IN THE UNITED STATES. IT IS REPORTED HERE SOONG ALSO WILL HEAD FOR THE UNITED STATES SOON.

FOR SEVERAL DAYS THE SHANGHAI DISTRICT COURT HAS BEEN ORDERING KUNG'S SON, DAVID, TO APPEAR AND ANSWER CHARGES OF COMMODITY HOARRDING DURING THE ECONOMIC REFORM PERIOD OF LAST AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER.

YOUNG KUNG, WHO HEADS THE LARGEST KUNG COMPANY, THE YANGTZE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, HAS NOT APPEARED. REPORTS IN SHANGHAI ARE THAT HE HAS GONE ABROAD.

MOST SHANGHAI OBSERVERS BELIEVE THAT UNLESS SOME PROGRESS TOWARD PEACE WITH THE REDS IS MADE QUICKLY, CHIANG WILL TRY TO RETURN.

THEY THINK, HOWEVER, HE WON'T BE ABLE TO DO IT, EVEN IF VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN FAILS.

IT IS FELT IN THIS LARGEST CITY OF ALL CHINA THAT THERE ISN'T ANY REAL PUBLIC DEMAND FOR CHIANG IN CHINA ANY MORE -- AND THAT THERE HASN'T BEEN FOR A LONG TIME.

SHANGHAI, JAN. 21-(AP)-A RELIABLE CHINESE CORRESPONDENT REPORTED FROM CANTON TONIGHHT THAT GEN.HSUEH YUEH HAD SUCCEEDED T.V.SOONG AS GOVERNOR OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, OF WHICH CANTON IS THE SEAT.

HSUEH WAS A HERO OF THE WAR AGAINST THE JAPANESE AND IN 1947 HEADED THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S MILITARY AFFAIRS DEPARTMENT.

UNDATED CHINESE REDS (660)
BY ~~SCHULER~~ ALLMAN (AP STAFF WRITER) BY SCHUYLER
(FX) THE NEXT RULER OF CHINA'S 450,000,000 PEOPLE WELL MAY BE COMMUNIST MAO TSE-TUNG, WHO SPEAKS SOFTLY--AND STRIKES RUTHLESSLY.
THIS 55-YEAR-OLD SON OF A PEASANT IS THE LEADER OF THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS, WHOSE ARMIES FLOW IN A RED TIDE ACROSS THE MAP OF CHINA. HE IS ONE OF 12 MEN WHO FOUNDED CHINA'S COMMUNIST PARTY IN 1921.
MAO'S ARMIES HAVE FORCED PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK, THE RED LEADER'S ANCIENT ENEMY, INTO RETIREMENT. VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN IS LEFT TO TRY TO ARRANGE A PEACE.
THAT MUST BE A SOURCE OF GREAT SATISFACTION TO MAO. WHEN HE BROKE WITH CHIANG IN THE 1930'S HE DECLARED HE HAD BEEN BETRAYED AND VOWED HE NEVER WOULD REST UNTIL ALL CHINA BECAME COMMUNIST.
RED CHINA--LIKE RUSSIA--HAS ITS POLITBUREAU, A SELECT CLIQUE OF POWERFUL PARTY LEADERS WHO CHART THE COURSE OF COMMUNIST POLICY.
BUT WHEN RED CHINA SPEAKS, IT SPEAKS THROUGH THE MOUTH OF MAO TSE-TUNG, AND NO OTHER.
FOR ALL THE OUTSIDE WORLD CAN SEE, THE POLITBUREAUCRATS ARE SOLIDLY BEHIND MAO. MOST OF THEM ARE OLD COMMUNISTS, LITTLE KNOWN OUTSIDE CHINA, WHO MADE THE LONG MARCH WITH MAO INTO NORTH CHINA IN THE MIDDLE THIRTIES WITH CHINAG'S ARMIES IN PURSUIT.
THEY SUFFERED WITH MAO THROUGH ALL THAT 6,000-MILE MARCH.
WHEN THEY REACHED YENAN, IN BLEAK NORTH SHENSI PROVINCE, THEY HELPED HIM BUILD A RED CAPITAL AND REORGANIZE THE PARTY.
IN THE RUMORS OF DIVISION AND RIVALRY WITHIN THE COMMUNIST COMMAND, IT HAS BEEN SAID THAT GEN. LIN PIAO, THE COMMANDER OF THE TRIUMPHANT RED ARMIES IN MANCHURIA, MIGHT RISE AND RIVAL MAO.
THERE IS NO EVIDENCE OF IT IN THE OCEANS OF COMMUNIST PROPAGANDA THAT WASH THE AIR LANES. IT IS MAO, THE LEADER OF A MARCHING REVOLUTION, WHO GETS THE GREATEST SHARE OF PRAISE.
IN THIS CONNECTION, IT ALSO SHOULD BE REMEMBERED THAT GENERAL LIN IS AN OLD BUDDY OF MAO. LIN MADE THE MARCH ALONG WITH HIS LEADER.
IT IS GENERAL LIN WHO NOW BESIEGES PEIPING WHILE 160 MILES TO THE SOUTHWEST MAO IS SUPPOSED TO BE CONFERRING AT SHIHKIACHWANG ON A COALITION GOVERNMENT WITH NON-COMMUNIST DISSIDENTS FROM HONG KONG.
OUT OF THIS CONFERENCE, OR THE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE CRUMBLING REGIME IN NANKING, MAY COME A NON-COMMUNIST HEAD OF A COALITION GOVERNMENT, BUT IT WILL BE MAO WHO RUNS THE SHOW.

A120FX JAN 1949
MAO LEFT NO DOUBT OF THIS IN HIS BROADCAST OF TOUGH TERMS FOR PEACE ONLY LAST WEEK.
MAO DECLARED THAT A COALITION GOVERNMENT OF "DEMOCRATIC ELEMENTS" --MEANING ONE PREDOMINANTLY COMMUNIST--MUST SUPPLANT THE "REACTIONARY KUOMINTANG (NATIONALIST PARTY)" REGIME OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK.
BY DEMANDING A PURGE OF THE KUOMINTANG REGIME IT SEEMS UNLIKELY HE WOULD BE WILLING TO RETAIN ANY OF THE GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS NOW IN NANKING--MOST OF WHOM HAVE BEEN PUT ON THE REDS' "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST.
AN EXCEPTION MIGHT BE GENERAL CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, THE GOVERNMENT COMMANDER IN NORTHWEST CHINA, WHO NOW IS BEING MENTIONED AS A MEMBER OF A PEACE DELEGATION TO GO FROM NANKING TO MEET THE REDS.
GEN. CHOU EN-LAI, CHINA'S NO. 2 COMMUNIST AND MOST OFTEN MENTIONED AS MAO'S EVENTUAL SUCCESSOR, WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SENT AN APPEAL LAST JULY TO GENERAL CHANG NOT TO SEND HIS NORTHWEST ARMIES INTO THE CIVIL WAR.
ACTUALLY, CHANG HAD FEW SOLDIERS AT HIS COMMAND, BUT HE TOOK NO PART IN THE CIVIL WAR AND BECAME ONE OF THE EARLY ADVOCATES OF PEACE. JAN 1949
OFTEN MENTIONED AS A NON-COMMUNIST FIGUREHEAD FOR ANY FUTURE RED STATE IN CHINA IS MARSHAL LI CHI-SHEN, WHO NOW IS SUPPOSED TO BE CONFERRING WITH MAO AT SHIHKIACHWANG.
LIKE MAO, MARSHAL LI ONCE FOUGHT SIDE BY SIDE WITH CHIANG, THEN BROKE WITH HIM AND FLED TO HONG KONG. HE SAYS HE IS NO COMMUNIST BUT WILL WORK WITH THE REDS IN ESTABLISHING A "DEMOCRATIC REGIME."
THE EXPECTED "COALITION GOVERNMENT" MIGHT WELL COME OUT OF THE SHIHKIACHWANG CONFERENCES, LEAVING PEACE ELEMENTS IN NANKING TO GET ABOARD THE BEST WAY THEY CAN.
MAO IS IN NO MOOD TO TEMPORIZE WITH NANKING. HE HAS HIS ARMIES OF EAST AND CENTRAL CHINA READY TO STRIKE IN OVERWHELMING FORCE SHOULD THE GOVERNMENT FAIL TO KNUCKLE TO HIS TERMS.
THE GOVERNMENT HE ESTABLISHES WILL BE A FRIEND OF RUSSIA, DESPITE ALL THE GABBLE ABOUT MAO'S BEING IN MOSCOW'S DOGHOUSE. MAO HAS SAID HIMSELF IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT RED CHINA HAVE CLOSE TIES WITH THE U.S.S.R.

IT IS TRUE MAO FELL OUT WITH THE RUSSIANS OVER A PROGRAM FOR COMMUNIZING CHINA. HE MADE THE BASE OF HIS REVOLUTION THE PEASANT INSTEAD OF THE WORKING CLASS.
HIS AIMS STILL WERE ORTHODOX MARXIAN, HOWEVER. HE SIMPLY REALIZED THERE WAS NO LARGE PROLETARIAT IN CHINA AND HE WAS FORCED TO USE THE PEASANT AS THE STRAW FOR HIS RED BRICKS.

A121FX
MAO BY ALL ACCOUNTS STILL HOLDS THAT VIEW, EVEN THOUGH HIS RUTHLESS LIQUIDATION OF THE RICHER PEASANTS IN HIS "LAND REFORM" BROUGHT ON SUCH RESISTANCE IN NORTH CHINA THAT LAST YEAR HE WAS FORCED TO MODIFY HIS PROGRAM.
NOW HE ALLOWS SOME CAPITALISTS AND RICH PEASANTS TO EXIST IN THE PROVINCES HE RULES, BUT HE LOOKS TO THE DAY WHEN THERE IS ESTABLISHED IN CHINA A DICTATORSHIP OF THE PROLETARIAT.
AS FURTHER EVIDENCE OF HIS ORTHODOXY, THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS SIDED WITH THE COMINFORM IN ITS DISPUTE WITH MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA.
WHEN A "COALITION" RULE COMES TO CHINA, IT WILL BE STRICTLY ON THE COMMUNIST PLAN AND THAT PLAN WILL BE RUN BY MAO.

IN A BROADCAST TO THE KARENS, THE UNION PRESIDENT SAID HE HAD A SOLEMN PROMISE THAT THEIR WISHES WOULD BE MET AND HE ASKED THEM TO "BEHAVE IN AN ORDERLY FASHION."
BA U GYI ADMITTED THERE WAS LACK OF GOOD WILL ON BOTH SIDES AND THAT THE QUESTION HAS BECOME ONE OF "FRIGHTFUL PROPORTIONS," BUT HE ADDED THAT THE FIRST STEP TOWARD RESTORING ORDER WOULD BE THE WITHDRAWAL OF UNITS OF THE KAREN NATIONAL DEFENSE ORGANIZATION NOW GUARDING KAREN AREAS IN RANGOON, WHICH THENCEFORTH WOULD BE UNDER GOVERNMENT PROTECTION.

THIS PROJECT WAS ANNOUNCED SEVERAL MONTHS AGO BY THE SOVIET-CONTROLLED PRESS BUT DELAYED APPARENTLY FOR DISMANTLING OF SALVAGEABLE MATERIALS.

THE RUSSIANS ALREADY HAVE TAKEN THE BEST OF THESE--THE FINE ITALIAN AND BAVARIAN MARBLES--FOR USE IN BUILDING SOVIET ARMY WAR MEMORIALS HERE. THE CHANCELLERY RUIN IS IN THE SOVIET SECTOR OF THE CITY.

THE RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PRESS SAID THE DEBRIS WOULD BE USED TO FILL THE CAVITY IN THE FORMER CHANCELLERY GARDEN WHICH ONCE WAS HITLER'S PRIVATE AIR RAID SHELTER IN WHICH THE FUEHRER AND EVA BRAUN ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE DIED. THE RUSSIANS BLEW UP THE SHELTER IN DECEMBER 1947.

PRECEDE ESSEN DAY RUHR (B42)
BY DANIEL DE LUCE (180)

DUESSELDORF, GERMANY, JAN. 21-(AP)-BRITISH MAJ. GEN. W.H.A. BISHOP ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT THE DISMANTLING PROGRAM IN RUHR INDUSTRIES IS LESS THAN HALF COMPLETED, ALTHOUGH 200,000 TONS OF MACHINERY HAVE BEEN REMOVED SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

HE SAID 50 PER CENT OF THE MACHINERY TAKEN FROM FACTORIES HAS BEEN SENT TO VICTOR NATIONS AS REPARATIONS AND THE REMAINDER IS AWAITING SHIPMENT.

BISHOP IS ACTING REGIONAL COMMISSIONER FOR NORTH RHINE-WESTPHALIA, WHICH INCLUDES THE RUHR. HE SAID 2,000 GERMANS ARE NOW WORKING UNDER HIS MILITARY GOVERNMENT ON DISMANTLING. EIGHT HUNDRED ARE ENGAGED IN PACKING REPARATIONS MACHINERY.

HE DESCRIBED THE DISMANTLING PROGRAM AS "PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY," DESPITE RECENT DIFFICULTIES AT THE BOCHUMER VEREIN STEEL WORKS, WHERE SOME GERMAN WORKMEN QUIT. THE BOCHUMER VEREIN REMOVALS ARE BEING CARRIED OUT NOW BY A SMALL TEAM OF 31 GERMANS, HE ADDED.

BISHOP SCOFFED AT A BRITISH PRESS REPORT THAT GERMANS HAD ATTEMPTED TO REBUILD A TANK FACTORY IN THE KRUPP WORKS AT ESSEN RECENTLY. IT WAS EXPLAINED AT HIS NEWS CONFERENCE HERE THAT THE KRUPP RUMOR GREW OUT OF REPAIRS TO A SMALL PART OF A FACTORY BASEMENT TO BE USED AS A WASHROOM FOR GERMAN DISMANTLERS.

VALLETTA, MALTA, JAN. 21--(AP)--U.S. MARINES [illegible] ISLAND WILL LAND ON MALTA, [illegible] BRITAIN'S STRONG MEDITERRANEAN BASE, TOMORROW. AND THEY'LL DO IT AGAIN THE NEXT DAY AND THE NEXT.

THE LANDINGS -- ENTIRELY PEACEFUL -- WILL BE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ROUTINE SHORE TRAINING AND EXERCISE. THE MARINES ARE ATTACHED TO THE AIRCRAFT CARRIER PHILLIPINES SEA AND THREE DESTROYERS NOW IN MALTESE WATERS.

NAVAL HEADQUARTERS, WHICH SAID LOCAL AUTHORITIES HAD APPROVED THE IDEA, SAID THIS WILL BE THE FIRST TIME NON-BRITISH FORCES HAVE LANDED FOR SUCH PURPOSES ON THE ISLAND.

THE EXERCISES ARE SCHEDULED FOR JAN. 22-27 AND MAY BE REPEATED FROM TIME TO TIME IN THE FUTURE, THE NAVY SAID.

GOMULKA, IN ADDITION TO BEING VICE PREMIER, HAD SERVED SINCE 1945 AS MINISTER FOR WESTERN TERRITORIES, FORMERLY GERMAN LAND. PARLIAMENT, HOWEVER, RECENTLY MERGED THAT MINISTRY WITH THE GENERAL STATE ADMINISTRATION AND RELIEVED HIM OF THE OFFICE.

IT WAS GOMULKA'S "NATIONALISTIC DEVIATION" AND SUPPORT FOR THE STAND OF PREMIER MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA AGAINST THE COMINFORM WHICH PRECIPITATED A SPLIT IN THE POLISH COMMUNIST PARTY LAST SEPTEMBER. GOMULKA LATER PUBLICLY RECANTED AND EXPRESSED REGRET.

OSUBKA-MORAWSKI, PREMIER FROM 1944 TO 1947, WAS ACCUSED BY MEMBERS OF HIS OWN SOCIALIST PARTY OF BEING NATIONALISTIC AND RIGHTIST. THEY OUSTED HIM FROM THEIR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE LAST SEPTEMBER, IN PREPARATION FOR THEIR MERGER WITH THE COMMUNISTS IN THE WORKERS' PARTY.

THEY DECLARED HE HAD, AS PREMIER, PURSUED POLICIES WHICH COULD HAVE "FACILITATED PENTRATION OF AGENTS OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISM" INTO THE STATE MACHINERY. JAN

WARSAW, POLAND, JAN.21-(AP)-POLAND IS CUTTING HER TRADE WITH YUGOSLAVIA FOR 1949 BY MORE THAN 81 PER CENT FROM THE PREVIOUS TRADE PACT FOR 1947-48.

TRYBUNA LUDU, COMMUNIST PARTY NEWSPAPER, GIVING DETAILS OF AN AGREEMENT RECENTLY SIGNED IN BELGRADE, SAID PLANS FOR THE CURRENT YEAR CALL FOR $12,000,000 IN TRADE, COMPARED WITH $66,000,000 FROM MAY, 1947, THROUGH 1948. BOTH PACTS PROVIDED FOR AN EQUAL AMOUNT OF BUSINESS ON EACH SIDE, OR $6,000,000 EACH FOR 1949.

AN EDITORIAL IN THE PAPER SAID YUGOSLAV PREMIER MARSHAL TITO'S REGIME IS INDULGING IN "INCREASINGLY STRONG ATTACKS AGAINST THE SOVIET UNION AND THE PEOPLES' DEMOCRATIC COUNTRIES AND INCREASINGLY IS CLEARLY FLIRTING WITH IMPERIALISM." IT ADDED THAT SUCH POLICIES CAN ONLY RESULT IN THE "SHRINKING OF ECONOMIC COOPERATION" WITH THE "PEOPLES' DEMOCRACIES."

(RUSSIA AND YUGOSLAVIA SIGNED A TRADE PACT LAST MONTH IN MOSCOW WHEREBY BUSINESS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES THIS YEAR WAS CUT SEVEN EIGHTS IN CONTRAST WITH LAST YEAR'S FIGURE. TASS, OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY, SAID THE CUT WAS MADE BECAUSE OF "THE UNFRIENDLY POLICY OF THE YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT IN RELATIONS WITH THE SOVIET UNION.")

THIRD NIGHT LEAD LENIN

MOSCOW, JAN.21-(AP)-A SOVIET LEADER, SPEAKING IN THE PRESENCE OF PRIME MINISTER STALIN, SAID TONIGHT THAT THE COLONIAL LIBERATION MOVEMENT IS A SIGN OF CAPITALISM'S DECLINE THAT WILL BRING "COMPLETE TRIUMPH" OF COMMUNISM IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY.

P.N. POSPELOV, EDITOR OF PRAVADA, THE OFFICIAL COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, SUMMED UP THE SOVIET VIEW OF WORLD EVENTS IN A SPEECH MARKING THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF LENIN.

POSPELOV SAID THE COMMUNISTS HAVE MORE THAN 24 MILLION MEMBERS AROUND THE WORLD - SIX MILLION IN RUSSIA AND 18 MILLION ELSEWHERE.

(THE SPEECH FOLLOWED BY ONE DAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS IN WHICH HE DENOUNCED COMMUNISM AS A "FALSE PHILOSOPHY")

"THE GROWTH OF THE NATIONAL LIBERATION MOVEMENT IN THE COLONIES AND SEMI-COLONIES (OF THE WESTERN POWERS) ARE EXPRESSIONS OF THE GENERAL CRISIS OF CAPITALISM," HE SAID.

"CAPITALISM IS DECAYING X X X NO FORCE EXISTS WHICH CAN PREVENT ITS DOWNFALL."

SPEAKING IN THE BOLSHOI THEATRE TO THE HIGHEST LEADERS OF THE SOVIET UNION, POSPELOV DISCUSSED THE CHINESE CIVIL WAR AND SAID THE SITUATION THERE WAS AN EXAMPLE OF THE FAILURE OF THE PLANS OF "AMERICAN REACTIONARIES."

HE SAID AMERICA THIRD GRAF SECOND NIGHT LEAD.

MCGRAW-HILL CLOSED ITS MOSCOW BUREAU, CITING DIFFICULTIES IN OBTAINING THE INDUSTRIAL AND TECHNICAL INFORMATION IN WHICH IT SPECIALIZES. STEIGER HAS BEEN IN THE SOVIET UNION, OFF AND ON, SINCE 1933, AND MARRIED A RUSSIAN. HE IS 42 AND WAS EDUCATED AT CARNEGIE TECH, THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO AND COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY. add Moscow-(NY Times) xxx Labor News

A PREVIOUS MCGRAW-HILL CORRESPONDENT, ROBERT MAGIDOFF, WAS OUSTED FROM RUSSIA LAST APRIL ON CHARGES THAT HE HAD ENGAGED IN ESPIONAGE--ACCUSATIONS THAT HE AND THE U.S. EMBASSY DENIED. MAGIDOFF EXPRESSED BELIEF HIS EXPULSION WAS FOR INTERNAL PROPAGANDA PURPOSES.

THE LAST NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT IN MOSCOW WAS DREW MIDDLETON. AFTER HE LEFT RUSSIA TO TAKE HOME LEAVE IN THE UNITED STATES THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DID NOT GIVE HIM A VISA FOR RE-ENTRY.

LAST DEC. 26 THE TIMES PRINTED AN OPEN LETTER TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN FROM EDWIN L.JAMES, MANAGING EDITOR OF THE TIMES. IN THIS LETTER JAMES SUGGESTED WAYS IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES AND THE SOVIET UNION MIGHT HAVE BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF EACH OTHER. HE SAID RUSSIAN ACTION ENABLING THE TIMES TO MAINTAIN A NEWS BUREAU IN MOSCOW WOULD BE A STEP TOWARD BETTER UNDERSTANDING.

SALISBURY, 40, WAS IN MOSCOW IN 1944 AS A CORRESPONDENT OF THE UNITED PRESS. HE FORMERLY WORKED FOR THE UNITED PRESS IN ST. PAUL, CHICAGO, WASHINGTON, NEW YORK AND LONDON, AND FOR A TIME WAS FOREIGN NEWS EDITOR OF THAT PRESS ASSOCIATION. HIS HOME IS IN MAMARONECK, N.Y.

UNDATED RUSSIAN (500)
BY BEN BASSETT
AP FOREIGN NEWS EDITOR

SOVIET ACTION TO ADMIT A NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT TO MOSCOW MAY BE ANOTHER STRAW IN THE WIND IN WHAT SOME QUARTERS CONSIDER A "PEACE OFFENSIVE" BY THE SOVIET UNION, OR AT LEAST A NEW PROPAGANDA OFFENSIVE DESIGNED TO CONVINCE THE REST OF THE WORLD THAT IT CAN GET ALONG WITH STALIN.

THE TIMES HAS HAD NO CORRESPONDENT IN MOSCOW FOR NEARLY TWO YEARS. IN THE SPRING OF 1947 CORRESPONDENT DREW MIDDLETON CAME TO THE UNITED STATES ON LEAVE. THE SOVIET UNION PAID NO HEED TO REQUESTS FOR A VISA ENTITLING HIM TO RETURN TO MOSCOW. NOW, A MOSCOW DISPATCH REPORTS A VISA HAS BEEN GRANTED A TIMES MAN--NOT MIDDLETON BUT HARRISON E. SALISBURY, WHO IS KNOWN TO THE RUSSIANS SINCE HE WORKED AT MOSCOW IN 1944 AS A CORRESPONDENT OF THE UNITED PRESS.

THERE HAVE BEEN OTHER HAPPENINGS RECENTLY WHICH COULD BE VIEWED AS A RUSSIAN EFFORT TO GET ON BETTER TERMS WITH THE WEST--BUT BOTH AMERICAN AND BRITISH OFFICIALS HAVE TAKEN THE VIEW THAT ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS, AND HAVE POINTED OUT THAT THE BERLIN BLOCKADE STILL IS ON.

LAST WEEK THE VETERAN FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADER, MARCEL CACHIN, PLEADED IN THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR AN EAST-WEST UNDERSTANDING. THE MODERATE TONE OF HIS SPEECH SURPRISED SOME OF HIS FELLOW LEGISLATORS, FOR FRANCE HAS BEEN A SPEARHEAD IN COMMUNIST EFFORTS TO CONTROL EUROPE.

TWO DAYS LATER PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, ITALY'S NO. 1 COMMUNIST, FOLLOWED UP CACHIN'S SPEECH WITH AN ADDRESS AT BOLOGNA. TOGLIATTI CALLED FOR BIG POWER COLLABORATION AND MADE AN OFFER OF COOPERATION AT HOME.

THEN BRITAIN AND POLAND, ONE OF THE SOVIET UNION'S FOLLOWERS, SIGNED A FIVE-YEAR TRADE AGREEMENT, CALLING FOR $65,000,000 TRADE EACH WAY. THE SOVIET UNION HAS BEEN MAKING MUCH OF ITS TRADE RELATIONS BOTH WITH EUROPEAN COUNTRIES AND THE WEST. THE UNITED STATES, WHILE IT HAS CUT OFF SHIPMENT OF WAR POTENTIALS TO RUSSIA, IS STILL A BIG BUYER OF RUSSIAN GOODS, FROM FURS TO MANGANESE. RELATIVELY FREE TRADE COULD, OF COURSE, BE A LONG STEPPING STONE TOWARD RECONCILIATION.

IF THE SOVIET UNION HAS STEPPED UP ITS EFFORTS AT HARMONY, HOWEVER, THE REACTION IN WASHINGTON AND LONDON SO FAR HAS NOT BEEN FAVORABLE. IN LONDON AN OFFICIAL IN A POSITION TO KNOW THE VIEWS OF FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN ASKED:

A9

"HOW CAN THEY EXPECT US TO FALL FOR THEIR 'PEACE' LINE WHILE THEIR POLICIES IN BERLIN, IN GREECE, IN THE FAR EAST GO ON AND ON?"

IN WASHINGTON, UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE LOVETT SAID THE UNITED STATES WOULD WELCOME PROOF IN ACTION OF THE INTENT BEHIND RECENT DECLARATIONS OF COMMUNIST LEADERS FOR BETTER RELATIONS. PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL SPEECH LEFT LITTLE DOUBT OF HIS FIRM ATTITUDE TOWARD THE "FALSE PHILOSOPHY" OF COMMUNISM, AS HE CALLED IT.

TO ALL SUGGESTIONS FOR A TRUMAN-STALIN CONFERENCE, THE PRESIDENT HAS SAID HE WILL NOT GO TO STALIN, THAT STALIN MUST COME TO WASHINGTON. STALIN SO FAR HAS SHOWN NO INDICATIONS OF DOING THAT, ALTHOUGH THE POSSIBILITY CANNOT BE RULED OUT SINCE THE RUSSIANS COULD PICTURE SUCH A MOVE AS AN EFFORT BY STALIN TO COME MORE THAN HALF WAY IN FULFILLING HIS FREQUENT DECLARATIONS OF PEACEFUL INTENTIONS.

THE UNITED STATES EMBASSY IN MOSCOW SAID LAST (FRI) NIGHT A RUSSIAN DELEGATION WILL ATTEND THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT CONFERENCE OPENING IN WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK. THE U.S.S.R. DID NOT SEND REPRESENTATIVES TO LAST YEAR'S CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON.

WHILE NO REASON WAS GIVEN FOR THE CHANGE IN RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE, SOME FOREIGN ECONOMIC OBSERVERS IN MOSCOW EXPRESSED THE VIEW IT WAS BECAUSE THE SOVIET UNION IS NOW A LARGE GRAIN EXPORTER.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (280)

RHODES, JAN. 21-(AP)-ACTING U.N. MEDIATOR RALPH C.BUNCHE BROUGHT THE HEADS OF THE EGYPTIAN AND ISRAELI DELEGATIONS TOGETHER TONIGHT FOR A SHOW-DOWN ON THE ARMISTICE TALKS.

"I DON'T KNOW HOW LONG IT (THE MEETING) WILL LAST," HE SAID.

HIS ACTION INDICATED THAT A BREAK ONE WAY OR ANOTHER MAY BE EXPECTED SHORTLY IN THE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH HAVE STALLED IN A DISPUTE OVER FINAL DEMARCATION OF ISRAEL-EGYPT BOUNDARIES.

THE MEETING, WHICH BEGAN AT 11 P.M. RHODES TIME (4 P.M. EST) IS REGARDED HERE AS THE FINAL STEP IN THE NEGOTIATION OF THE ARMISTICE.

TONIGHT'S MEETING FOLLOWS LONG TALKS THIS AFTERNOON WITH THE HEADS OF THE OPPOSING DELEGATIONS AND A MIDNIGHT CONFERENCE LAST NIGHT WHICH DID NOT BREAK UNTIL 3 A.M. TODAY.

THE MEDIATOR GAVE CORRESPONDENTS TO UNDERSTAND TONIGHT THAT BOTH SIDES HAD VERY NEARLY EXHAUSTED THEIR ARGUMENTS AND THAT SOME FINAL DECISION EITHER OF AGREEMENT OR A COMPLETE BREAK-UP OF THE TALKS MAY BE EXPECTED SHORTLY.

BUNCHE AND BRIG. GEN. WILLIAM E.RILEY, CHIEF U.N. OBSERVER WHO SITS IN ON ALL TALKS, INDICATED THEY PLANNED TO KEEP THE MEETING GOING ALL NIGHT IF NECESSARY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT.

UNOFFICIALLY IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE JEWS WERE HOLDING OUT FOR CONTROL OF BEERSHEBA, CITY IN THE NEGEV AWARDED TO THE ARABS BY THE ORIGINAL U.N. PARTITION PLAN OF 1947 BUT WHICH ISRAELI FORCES HAVE OCCUPIED. THEY ALSO DEMAND CONTROL OF THE MAIN INLAND HIGHWAY SYSTEM OF THE NEGEV.

AS FAR AS CAN BE LEARNED HERE NO MENTION OF THESE ARMISTICE TALKS BETWEEN JEWS AND EGYPTIANS HAS APPEARED IN THE EGYPTIAN PRESS.

MEANWHILE THE COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE EGYPTIAN BRIGADE TRAPPED IN THE FALUJAH POCKET SENT HIS THANKS TO BUNCHE FOR THE U.N.'S EVACUATION OF SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

HE WENT TO HIS WAITING LIMOUSINE THROUGH A STEADY, COLD RAIN. WEATHERWISE IT WAS A DAY WHICH CONTRASTED GRIMLY WITH THE BRILLIANT SUNSHINE THAT FAVORED MR.TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL PROCESSION YESTERDAY.

THE PRESIDENT HAD BEGUN HIS DAY WITH THE CONGRESSIONAL BREAKFAST, GIVEN BY THE MISSOURI DELEGATION AT THE CAPITOL.

ACCORDING TO CONGRESS MEMBERS WHO WERE PRESENT AT THE BREAKFAST, MR.TRUMAN SAID THAT LONG-TIME PROSPERITY IN THIS COUNTRY WOULD BE THE RESULT OF A RISE IN ASIATIC LIVING STANDARDS. EVIDENTLY HE MEANT THAT AS LIVING STANDARDS WENT UP, THE DEMAND FOR GOODS FROM THE UNITED STATES WOULD BE GREATLY INCREASED.

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE WAS FURTHER QUOTED AS SAYING HE REALIZED HIS RESPONSIBILITY ON NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS BUT THAT CONGRESS HAS AN EQUAL RESPONSIBILITY. HE APPEALED FOR TEAMWORK IN STRIVING FOR PEACE AND SAID THAT IF EVERYBODY JOINS IN THE EFFORT THERE WILL BE NO NECESSITY FOR ANOTHER WAR.

A WAR, HE WAS REPORTED TO HAVE SAID, MIGHT SET THE UNITED STATES BACK A CENTURY IN PROGRESS.

IF BY TEAMWORK MR.TRUMAN HAD IN MIND A BI-PARTISAN APPROACH TO THE NATION'S FOREIGN POLICY ISSUES IN THE YEARS AHEAD, HE POSSIBLY FOUND A SYMBOL OF IT IN HIS OWN OFFICE AT THE TIME OF ACHESON'S INDUCTION.

A7WX. add. Washn-(acheson) xxx pictures

ON HAND WERE CONGRESSIONAL FOREIGN POLICY LEADERS OF BOTH PARTIES. THEY INCLUDED SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX) AND REP.BLOO (D-NY), THE CHAIRMEN OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE FOREIGN COMMITTEES, AND SENATOR VANDENBERG AND REP.EATON (R-NJ), THE RESPECTIVE REPUBLICAN MINORITY LEADERS OF THE TWO COMMITTEES.

AT LEAST SOME BI-PARTISAN SUPPORT SEEMED ASSURED FOR VARIOUS FOREIGN POLICY LEGISLATION WHICH MR. TRUMAN AND SECRETARY ACHESON EXPECT TO SEND CONGRESS WITHIN THE NEXT TWO MONTHS.

VANDENBERG SAID IN HIS STATEMENT TODAY, FOR EXAMPLE, THAT THE PRESIDENT'S DECLARATION YESTERDAY THAT "DEMOCRACY, NOT COMMUNISM, IS THE WORLD'S HOPE FOR PEACE AND PROGRESS IS A STURDY CONCEPT WHICH HIS COUNTRYMEN WILL APPROVE."

"HIS PROGRAM REGARDING THE UNITED NATIONS AND UN REGIONAL ARRANGEMENTS," THE SENATOR CONTINUED, "IS IN LINE WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S OFFICIAL PAPER LAST WEEK AND ACCURATELY REFLECTS S. RES. 239 WHICH THE SENATE PASSED LAST MAY BY A VOTE OF 64 TO 4."

THE RESOLUTION VANDENBERG REFERRED TO IS THE SO-CALLED "VANDENBERG RESOLUTION" WHICH RECORDED THE SENATE AS FAVORING THE STRENGTHENING OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE ASSOCIATION OF THE UNITED STATES FOR DEFENSE PURPOSES WITH OTHER COUNTRIES HAVING SIMILAR SECURITY INTERESTS.

VANDENBERG'S STATEMENT TODAY WAS AUTHORITATIVELY INTERPRETED TO MEAN THAT HE WAS GLAD MR. TRUMAN SPECIFIED THAT THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC REGIONAL DEFENSE TREATY MUST BE KEPT WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER. THAT ALSO IS THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S FREQUENTLY ANNOUNCED POSITION.

ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL TO MAKE AMERICAN INDUSTRIAL AND SCIENTIFIC SKILLS AVAILABLE TO OTHER COUNTRIES FOR THEIR DEVELOPMENT, VANDENBERG SAID HE UNDERSTOOD THIS SUBJECT WAS ALREADY UNDER STUDY BY THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION. FROM OTHER SOURCES IT WAS LEARNED THAT THE ECONOMIC DIVISION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT ALSO HAS BEEN STUDYING MOVES ALONG THIS LINE.

ACCORDING TO OFFICIALS FAMILIAR WITH THE WORK SO FAR DONE THE INTENTION IS TO SEND MISSIONS OF AMERICAN ENGINEERS AND OTHER TECHNICIANS ABROAD TO FIND OUT WHAT TYPES OF DEVELOPMENT ARE POSSIBLE IN EACH INTERESTED COUNTRY. AMERICAN, BRITISH, FRENCH OR OTHER PRIVATE CAPITAL, DEPENDING ON WHAT SORT OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION DEVELOPS, MIGHT THEN BE INTERESTED IN FINANCING THE PROJECTS.

A63WX

WHERE PRIVATE MONEY WAS NOT AVAILABLE, AUTHORITIES HERE SAID, FUNDS MIGHT BE OBTAINED FROM THE WORLD BANK OR THE U.S. EXPORT-IMPORT BANK. THE PRINCIPAL FIELDS NOW SEEN FOR MAJOR DEVELOPMENT ALONG THE LINES THE PRESIDENT OUTLINED ARE LATIN AMERICA AND ASIA--PRESUMABLY SOUTHWEST ASIA--SINCE THE SITUATION IN CHINA IS AND MAY REMAIN FOR SOME TIME HIGHLY UNSTABLE.

MR. TRUMAN PLACED STRESS ON USING UNITED NATIONS AGENCIES IN HIS WORLD DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM, WHEREVER POSSIBLE, AND OFFICIALS SAID BY THIS HE HAD IN MIND SUCH AGENCIES AS THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL, SCHEDULED TO MEET AT LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., FEB. 7, AND VARIOUS OTHER TECHNICAL ORGANIZATIONS CONCERNED WITH ECONOMIC BETTERMAN AND TRADE DEVELOPMENT.

MIGHT LEAD TRANS-JORDAN (300)

BY JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON, JAN 21-(AP)-AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF ARAB TRANS-JORDAN MAY BE ANNOUNCED NEXT WEEK ABOUT THE SAME TIME THE STATE DEPARTMENT GIVES ISRAEL FULL DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES TOLD A REPORTER TODAY THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS JUST ABOUT DECIDED TO TAKE BOTH STEPS AFTER THE ISRAELI ELECTIONS NEXT TUESDAY.

BUT, THESE OFFICIALS CLAIMED THEY KNOW NOTHING ABOUT REPORTS THAT BRITAIN ALSO PLANS TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL NEXT WEEK AS PART OF A CHANGE IN ITS PALESTINE POLICY.

LONDON DISPATCHES SAID THE LABOR GOVERNMENT WAS PREPARING TO RELAX ITS LONG-STANDING OPPOSITION TO THE JEWISH STATE IN RETURN FOR AMERICAN RECOGNITION TO BRITISH-SUPPORTED TRANS-JORDAN.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS WOULD SAY ONLY "NO COMMENT" WHEN QUESTIONED ABOUT POSSIBLE SIMULTANEOUS BRITISH-AMERICAN RECOGNITION MOVES.

THESE STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS VIGOROUSLY DENIED AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF TRANS-JORDAN WAS PART OF A "DEAL" REACHED WITH THE BRITISH. THEY SAID SUCH A MOVE HAS BEEN UNDER CONSIDERATION FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS.

TRANS-JORDAN, A FORMER BRITISH MANDATE, IS AN ARAB KINGDOM OF SOME 400,000 INHABITANTS. KING ABDULLAH HAS RULED THE COUNTRY SINCE JUNE OF 1946.

UNDER THE 1946 TREATY WITH ABDULLAH BRITAIN SUPPLIES THE "ARAB LEGION", TRANS-JORDAN'S ARMY, WITH BRITISH OFFICERS, MONEY AND ARMS.

WHEN THE BRITISH GAVE UP THEIR PALESTINE MANDATE LAST YEAR, ABDULLAH'S FORCES JOINED OTHER ARAB ARMIES IN INVADING PALESTINE. SINCE THEN, ABDULLAH HAS MADE IT KNOWN HE WANTS TO INCORPORATE THE SOUTHERN, OR ARAB PART OF PALESTINE, INTO TRANS-JORDAN.

ALTHOUGH OTHER ARAB COUNTRIES HAVE OBJECTED JEWISH LEADERS HAVE INDICATED BUT LITTLE OPPOSITION TO THE MOVE SINCE THE TERRITORY ABDULLAH WOULD TAKE WAS ALLOTTED TO THE ARABS UNDER THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN.

NIGHT LEAD COMMUNISTS (370)
NEW YORK, JAN. 21-(AP)-COUNSEL FOR 11 TOP U.S. COMMUNISTS TODAY SUBPOENAED MEMBERS OF THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY WHICH INDICTED THEIR CLIENTS--TO TRY TO PROVE THAT NEW YORK'S JURY-PICKING SYSTEM IS DISCRIMINATORY.

THE SUBPOENAING OF THE FORMER GRAND JURORS IS PART OF THE COMMUNIST COUNSEL'S PLAN TO TRY TO PROVE THAT THE METHOD OF SELECTING JURORS IN THE NEW YORK FEDERAL DISTRICT DISCRIMINATES AGAINST THE POOR AND IN FAVOR OF THE RICH.

IT IS ON THIS GROUND OF DISCRIMINATION THAT THE DEFENSE IS SEEKING TO HAVE THE CONSPIRACY INDICTMENT AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS AND THE PANEL OF TRIAL JURORS THROWN OUT.

THE DEFENSE ALSO HAD ANNOUNCED ITS INTENTION TO CALL ALL FEDERAL JUDGES HERE--INCLUDING THE TRIAL JUDGE HIMSELF--TO TESTIFY ABOUT THE JURY SYSTEM.

HOWEVER, THE TRIAL JUDGE, HAROLD R.MEDINA, INFORMED THE LAWYERS:

"I SIMPLY WILL NOT TESTIFY. I HAVE NO INTENTION OF BEING DISQUALIFIED BY BEING CALLED AS A WITNESS X X X."

"YOU HAVE BEEN TRYING TO GET ME OUT OF THIS CASE ON VARIOUS GROUNDS AND I SEE NO MERIT IN THIS GROUND. IT IS RATHER CLEAR TO ME YOU WANT ME OUT OF THIS CASE."

HERBERT ALLEN, AN INVESTMENT BANKER, WAS THE FIRST WITNESS. THE DEFENSE PUT QUESTIONS TO HIM INTENDING TO SHOW HIS FINANCIAL STATUS.

MEDINA OVERRULED MANY OF THE QUESTIONS.

HARRY SACHER, A DEFENSE LAWYER, ASSERTED THAT IF QUESTIONS COULD NOT BE ASKED ABOUT THE WITNESS'S ECONOMIC HOLDINGS THEN THE HEARING "IS JUST A SHAM DESIGNED TO PREVENT PROOF THAT THIS SYSTEM IS JUST WHAT WE SAY IT IS."

ALLEN DREW A ROUND OF LAUGHTER WHEN HE REPLIED TO A QUESTION SEEKING TO DETERMINE WHETHER HIS NAME WAS ON THE ALUMNI LIST OF ANY COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.

TURNING TO HIS QUESTIONER, DEFENSE ATTORNEY RICHARD J.GLADSTEIN, ALLEN SAID:

"I HAVE NOT HAD THE ADVANTAGE OF AN EDUCATION SUCH AS YOU HAD. I HAD TO WORK MY WAY UP."

STILL TO BE ACTED UPON IS A PROSECUTION MOTION THAT A DEFENSE ATTACK ON THE METHOD OF PICKING THE GRAND JURY BE THROWN OUT.

SUBSTANTIATION OF THE DEFENSE CLAIM WOULD VOID THE INDICTMENT AGAINST THE COMMUNIST LEADERS ON THE GROUND IT WAS RETURNED BY A GRAND JURY THAT EXCLUDED MINORITY GROUPS.

THE 11 COMMUNISTS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE, ARE CHARGED SPECIFICALLY WITH WORKING FOR THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THE TRIAL OF WILLIAM Z.FOSTER, HEAD OF THE U.S. PARTY AND SIMILARLY CHARGED, WAS SEVERED FROM THE OTHERS TUESDAY BECAUSE HE IS SUFFERING FROM A HEART AILMENT.

IT WAS NOT DETERMINED HOW MANY PRE-TRIAL WITNESSES THE DEFENSE INTENDS TO CALL BUT THEY OBTAINED 50 BLANK SUBPOENA FORMS LAST NIGHT FROM THE COURT CLERK FOR SUMMONING WITNESSES.

AFTER THE ISSUANCE OF THE GRAND JURY SUBPOENAS THREE MORE TRIAL PANEL MEMBERS WERE CALLED BY THE DEFENSE AND THEN MEDINA GRANTED A REQUEST BY GLADSTEIN THAT THE TRIAL BE ADJOURNED UNTIL NEXT WEDNESDAY. GLADSTEIN EXPLAINED HE HAD A CASE DUE IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS IN SAN FRANCISCO TUESDAY.

MOST OF THE QUESTIONS PUT TO THE THREE OTHER WITNESSES ALSO HAD TO DO WITH THEIR FINANCIAL STATUS, AND AGAIN MEDINA OVERRULED A LARGE PART OF THEM.

WHEN GEORGE R.ASHLEY, VICE-PRESIDENT OF A FLOOR COVERING FIRM, WAS ASKED ABOUT HIS INCOME, MEDINA TOLD THE DEFENSE COUNSEL:

"MY INCLINATION AT THE MOMENT IS TO PERMIT QUESTIONS AS TO BELOW OR OVER $5,000. WHERE DO YOU SAY I SHOULD DRAW THE LINE?"

DEFENSE COUNSEL ABRAHAM J.ISSERMAN REPLIED:

"THE DIVIDING LINE YOU HAVE SUGGESTED IS AN ARTIFICIAL ONE AND NOT TRULY INDICATIVE. IT IS OUR CONTENTION THAT IT IS OUR RIGHT TO FIX THE LINE. I AM TRYING TO ESTABLISH THE ECONOMIC STATUS OF THE INDIVIDUAL---NOT TO THE LAST DOLLAR BUT TRYING TO FIX IT WITHIN A RANGE."

LOUIS F.MCCABE, ANOTHER DEFENSE LAWYER, SAID HE DID NOT AGREE THAT ANY FIGURE COULD BE FIXED AS A DIVIDING LINE. HE SAID THERE WERE THOSE WITH INCOME BELOW $5,000 WHOSE INTEREST "IS WITH THE PRIVILEGED AND THE RICH."

THE OTHER WITNESSES WERE ANTHONY ANABLE, A DIRECTOR OF PERSONNEL AND PUBLIC RELATIONS FOR A CHEMICAL ENGINEERING FIRM, AND DONALD S. ASHBROOK, PRESIDENT OF A FABRICS FIRM.

BASES-PAY (450)
BY NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON, JAN 21-(AP)-FIVE GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS HAVE ASKED THE SUPREME COURT TO RECONSIDER ITS RECENT DECISION APPLYING THE WAGE-HOUR LAW TO U.S. MILITARY BASES ON FOREIGN SOIL.

THEY SAY THE DECISION, IF PERMITTED TO STAND, WILL HAMPER THE NATION'S FOREIGN POLICIES AND DEFENSE PLANS AND COST THE GOVERNMENT MANY HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY KENNETH ROYALL TOLD THE COURT ITS RULING MAY EVEN CAUSE FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS TO CANCEL AGREEMENTS PERMITTING MAINTENANCE OF U.S. BASES. HE SAID IT MIGHT HAMPER THE USE OF SECRET BASES THE U.S. IS BUILDING ON FOREIGN SOIL.

ROYALL SAID THE DECISION PROBABLY ALSO WILL REQUIRE APPLYING THE WAGE-HOUR LAW'S 40-CENT MINIMUM WAGE AND OVERTIME PROVISIONS TO WORKERS IN OCCUPIED AREAS IN EUROPE AND JAPAN.

"IT IS HOPED," THE ARMY SECRETARY SAID, "THE COURT MAY BE INDUCED TO SET ASIDE THE INITIAL DECISION UPON A FULL CONSIDERATION OF THE GRAVE AND FAR-REACHING IMPLICATIONS THAT STEM FROM THIS DECISION."

A MEMORANDUM FILED WITH THE COURT BY THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ASKING FOR RECONSIDERATION OF THE DEC. 6 DECISION WAS JOINED BY THE STATE, ARMY, NAVY AND LABOR DEPARTMENTS.

THAT DECISION SAID THAT WORKERS AT THE U.S. MILITARY BASE IN BERMUDA, OBTAINED FROM GREAT BRITAIN IN 1941 ON A 99-YEAR LEASE, ARE ENTITLED TO THE PROTECTION OF THE WAGE-HOUR LAW.

THE COURT RULED THE BERMUDA BASE IS A "POSSESSION" OF THIS COUNTRY SO FAR AS THE WAGE-HOUR LAW IS CONCERNED. IT SAID WORKMEN THERE MUST GET THE 40-CENT PAY MINIMUM AND OVERTIME RATES AFTER 40 HOURS A WEEK AS THE WAGE-HOUR LAW REQUIRES.

ROYALL SAID TWO ASPECTS OF THE DECISION "MAY BE EXPECTED TO RENDER EXTREMELY DIFFICULT, IF NOT IMPOSSIBLE IN SOME INSTANCES, THE X X X IMPLEMENTING OF DEFENSES OF THIS COUNTRY AT STRATEGIC GLOBAL SITES ON FOREIGN SOIL."

THE ARMY SECRETARY SAID THE COURT RULED THAT (1) FOREIGN WORKMEN EMPLOYED AT SUCH BASES MUST BE PAID THE MINIMUM WAGE AND OVERTIME PAY, AND (2) THE BASES ARE "POSSESSIONS" OF THE UNITED STATES IN SPITE OF FOREIGN SOVEREIGNTY.

MANY SUCH GOVERNMENTS HAVE THEIR OWN PAY STANDARDS WHICH, WHEN EXCEEDED, "SERIOUSLY DISRUPT THE LOCAL ECONOMY," THE MEMORANDUM TO THE COURT SAID.

A84WX

ROYAL SAID THE DECISION IS BOUND TO BRING "VIGOROUS OPPOSITION" FROM FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS TO LEASING ANY NEW BASE SITES AND, AS FOR PRESENT BASES IN OTHER COUNTRIES:

"IT WOULD NOT BE UNEXPECTED IF SOME OF THE FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS INVOLVED WERE TO COMPEL THE CURTAILMENT OR ABANDONMENT OF SUCH PROJECTS."

INCREASED LABOR COSTS WILL APPLY IMMEDIATELY, ROYALL SAID, TO BASES COSTING MORE THAN $240,000,000 (M) NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN THE PHILIPPINES, NEWFOUNDLAND, OKINAWA, ICELAND, GREECE, BERMUDA AND CANADA.

THE COST INCREASE FOR THIS GOVERNMENT ON CONSTRUCTION, HE ESTIMATED, "WILL DOUBTLESS RUN INTO THE HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS."

ROYALL SAID THERE ARE A NUMBER OF SECRET BASES UNDER CONSTRUCTION ON FOREIGN SOIL, TOO, AND APPLICATION OF THE WAGE-HOUR LAW TO THEM MAY MEAN LAWSUITS DISCLOSING THEIR EXTENT AND PURPOSE.

THE SPEAKER WAS JAMES C.O'BRIEN, DIRECTOR OF THE MANPOWER DIVISION OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY RESOURCES BOARD, WASHINGTON.

HE SAID A MANPOWER PROBLEM IN EVENT OF WAR "IS ONE OF SHIFTING EMPLOYED WORKERS FROM PEACETIME ACTIVITIES TO ESSENTIAL WAR PRODUCTION.

"CONTRARY TO OUR WORLD WAR TWO EXPERIENCE, WHERE WE HAD A RESERVOIR OF SKILLS TO ADD TO THE WORKING FORCE, OUR MAIN SOURCE OF ADDITIONAL WORKERS NOW WOULD HAVE TO COME FROM HOUSEWIVES, RETIRED WORKERS, INSTITUTIONAL POPULATIONS, IMPORTED FOREIGN LABOR, AND SIMILAR GROUPS.

"IN THE LAST ANALYSIS OUR MANPOWER PLANNING MUST RELY UPON THE VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION OF MANAGEMENT AND LABOR IN A TOTAL WAR EFFORT. OUR JOB IN MANPOWER PLANNING SHOULD BE TO FACILITATE RATHER THAN TO CONTROL THIS EFFORT.

STASSEN, WHO HELPED TO WRITE THE PRESENT UN CHARTER, URGED AN AMENDING CONVENTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS WITHIN TWO YEARS.

IN AN ADDRESS TO THE SPRINGFIELD TOWNSHIP REPUBLICAN ASSOCIATION IN SUBURBAN FLOURTOWN, STASSEN ASSERTED, "THIS AMENDING CONVENTION WOULDN'T SOLVE THE RUSSIAN PROBLEM. WE CAN ONLY HOPE FOR A CHANGE IN RUSSIA'S ATTITUDE FOR PEACE."

HE CITED THE INDONESIAN CRISIS AS AN EXAMPLE WHERE A WORLD POLICE FORCE COULD HAVE SETTLED THE DIFFERENCES INVOLVED.

FORT MEADE,MD.,JAN 21-(AP)-A NEGRO PRIVATE TESTIFIED FROM A WHEEL CHAIR TODAY AT THE GENERAL COURT MARTIAL OF AN ARMY DOCTOR THAT HIS FEET WERE AMPUTATED BECAUSE OF NEGLECT AT A DISCIPLINARY BARRACKS IN GERMANY.

PVT.JOSEPH SUGGS, A PATIENT AT WALTER REED HOSPITAL, WASHINGTON, AND TWO FORMER ENLISTED MEN HAVE BEEN CALLED TO TESTIFY AT TRIALS OF FOUR OFFICERS CHARGED WITH NEGLECT OF DUTY.

THE PRESENT COURT OF EIGHT OFFICERS IS HEARING THE CHARGES AGAINST CAPT.JOEL G.HOLMES, JR. OF (CARVEL HALL APARTMENTS) PHILADELPHIA. HOLMES WAS MEDICAL OFFICER AT THE WURZBURG, GERMANY, DISCIPLINARY CENTER WHERE THE ALLEGED MISTREATMENT OF PRISONERS OCCURRED IN 1947.

AWAITING HEARINGS ARE COL.HAROLD H.MCCLUNE, OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, FORMER COMMANDER OF THE CENTER; LIEUT.COL.GEORGE E.PINARD OF WESSINGTON, SPRINGS, S.D., PRISON OFFICER; AND CAPT.SAMUEL H.WOLFORD OF CLEAR SPRINGS, MD., OFFICER IN CHARGE OF THE STOCKAGE AND SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELLS.

THE ARMY STARTED INVESTIGATION LAST SEPTEMBER OF REPORTS THAT PRISONERS AT WURZBURG WERE KEPT IN UNHEATED DETENTION CELLS AND THAT AT LEAST ONE SUFFERED FROZEN FEET.

SUGGS, WHOSE HOME IS ON A FARM IN EASTERN ARKANSAS, TESTIFIED HE WAS PLACED IN AN UNHEATED SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELL WITH ONLY TWO BLANKETS WHICH DID NOT COVER HIS BODY. HE SAID WHEN HE LEFT THE CELL HE WAS ABLE TO PUT ON SHOES ONLY AFTER SLITTING THEM WITH A RAZOR.

THE NEGRO PRIVATE TOLD THE COURT THAT HE WASN'T EXAMINED BY A DOCTOR UNTIL TWO DAYS AFTER HIS RELEASE. THEN HE WAS FLOWN TO THE UNITED STATES WHERE HIS FEET AND THE LOWER PART OF ONE LEG WERE AMPUTATED.

DEFENSE COUNSEL FOR HOLMES CONTENDED SUGGS HAD BEEN TREATED FOR "TRENCH FEET" BEFORE HIS CONFINEMENT.

SUGGS WAS SENTENCED TO THE MILITARY PRISON FOR SIX MONTHS AS THE AFTERMATH OF AN ACCIDENT WHILE DRIVING AN ARMY TRUCK. LIEUT.COL. W.C.FITZHUGH, THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, DECLARED THAT SUGGS WAS SENTENCED ILLEGALLY AND THE CHARGES SUBSEQUENTLY VOIDED AND THE CONVICTION REMITTED.

CONDITIONS IN THE SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELLS ALSO WERE DESCRIBED BY FORMER PRIVATE CHARLES E.COLLINS OF TAMPA, FLA. COLLINS SAID HE WAS DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED FROM THE ARMY LAST YEAR.

"WHEN THE GUYS COMPLAINED OF BEING COLD AND HUNGRY," HE TESTIFIED, "THEY WOULD BANG ON THE DOORS TO ATTRACT THE ATTENTION OF GUARDS WHO WOULD CUSS THEM AND TELL THEM TO GO BACK TO SLEEP."

HE SAID CAPT.HOLMES ACCUSED HIM OF "GOLDBRICKING" WHEN HE COMPLAINED OF A PAIN IN HIS SIDE. IT TURNED OUT TO BE A DOUBLE HERNIA, HE SAID, AND HE HAD TO BE OPERATED ON WHEN HE RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES.

COLLINS SAID HE WAS NOT GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO WASH HIMSELF FOR 12 DAYS WHILE IN SOLITARY.

COL.MCCLUNE, A VETERAN OF 30 YEARS SERVICE, WAS RECALLED TO ACTIVE DUTY JUST FOR THE TRIAL. HE WAS RETIRED IN 1947 WITH DEOCRATIONS OF THE SILVER STAR, BRONZE STAR AND PURPLE HEART.

THE TWO FORMER ENLISTED MEN ALSO CALLED AS WITNESSES ARE HENRY W. MCELROY OF THE BRONX, N.Y., AND LOUIS HENDERSON, A NEGRO FROM DUMFRIES, VA.

JAN 1949

THE RESOLUTION NEXT SETS UP A SERIES OF DEADLINES FOR TRANSITION TO A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA. THESE ARE:

1. ESTABLISHMENT OF A TEMPORARY (INTERIM) FEDERAL GOVERNMENT NOT LATER THAN MARCH 15, 1949.
2. ELECTIONS BY OCT. 1, 1949, FOR AN INDONESIAN CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY.
3. THE TRANSFER OF SOVEREIGNTY OVER INDONESIA BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NETHERLANDS TO THEUNITED STATES OF INDONESIA AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE AND AT LEAST BY JULY 1, 1950.

A218 add - Success (Indonesia - Dutch) xxx Dutch.

THE RESOLUTION SAID REPUBLICAN LEADERS SHOULD BE RELEASED TO ASSIST IN RESTORING ORDER AND "IN ORDER TO EXERCISE THEIR APPROPRIATE FUNCTION IN FULL FREEDOM, INCLUDING ADMINISTRATION OF THE CITY OF JOGJAKARTA." JOGJAKARTA, THE REPUBLICAN CAPITAL CITY, WAS SEIZED FROM THE REPUBLICANS BY DUTCH AIRBORNE TROOPS AT THE OPENING OF THE MILITARY ACTION.

IN ADDITION, THE RESOLUTION DIRECTS THE DUTCH TO GIVE REPUBLICAN AUTHORITIES "SUCH FACILITIES AS MAY REASONABLY BE REQUIRED FOR ITS EFFECTIVE FUNCTIONS IN JOGJAKARTA AND FOR COMMUNICATIONS AND CONSULTATION WITH ALL PERSONS IN INDONESIA."

THE INDONESIAN CONFLICT WAS REFERRED TO THE UNITED NATIONS IN 1947. AFTER LONG DEBATE, THE SECURITY COUNCIL CREATED THE COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES. THIS COMMITTEE OBTAINED A TRUCE IN THE FIGHTING A YEAR AGO BUT WAS UNABLE TO PUT OVER A FINAL SETTLEMENT. THE DUTCH RESUMED MILITARY ACTION LAST MONTH. THE SECURITY COUNCIL LATE IN DECEMBER ORDERED CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES BUT THE DUTCH DID NOT REPORT THEY WERE ENDED UNTIL SEVERAL DAYS AFTER THE ORDER WAS GIVEN.

DR.ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ, CUBA'S DELEGATE, OPENED THE CASE FOR THE RESOLUTION.

JAN 1949

HE SAID HE WAS NOT FULLY SATISFIED WITH THE RESOLUTION'S PROVISIONS ON TROOP WITHDRAWALS, WHICH WOULD BE MADE ON THE RECOMMENDATION OF A PROPOSED U.N. COMMISSION ON INDONESIA. BUT, HE SAID, CUBA HAD AGREED TO ACCEPT AND SPONSOR THE PROPOSAL AS A COMPROMISE.

DR.T.F.TSIANG, CHINA, SAID THE PROPOSALS IN THE RESOLUTION FOR QUICK RESTORATION OF THE CIVIL ADMINISTRATION OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC AND FOR WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH FORCES FROM INDONESIAN TERRITORY ARE THE MOST PRACTICAL AT THIS TIME. HE SAID CHINA DESIRED A SMOOTH AND PEACEFUL TRANSITION OF INDONESIA FROM COLONIAL STATUS TO NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE.

JAN 1949

DR.PHILIP C.JESSUP, UNITED STATES, SAID THE PLAN OFFERED A GOOD BASIS FOR PERMANENT PEACE IN INDONESIA. HE CALLED IT A "FUNDAMENTALLY SOUND ANSWER" TO THE SITUATION FACING THE COUNCIL AND EXPRESSED THE HOPE IT WOULD RECEIVE THE FULL SUPPORT OF BOTH PARTIES.

IN A STATEMENT TO NEWSMEN, CHARLES THAMBOE, INDONESIAN ALTERNATE DELEGATE, SAID THE WATERING-DOWN OF THE ORIGINAL U.S. PLAN TO "PLACATE PRO-DUTCH ELEMENTS IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL RENDER ITS POPULAR ACCEPTANCE IN THE REPUBLIC MUCH MORE DIFFICULT."

HE SAID DECISION ON THE PROPOSAL COULD BE MADE ONLY BY THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT WHEN IT IS FREE TO FUNCTION.

THAMBOE SAID FORMER PREMIER SUTAN SJAHRIR AND ANOTHER INDONESIAN LEADER, DR.LAIMENA, ARE BEING SENT TO REPORT TO THE COUNCIL ON EVENTS IN INDONESIA.

THE DUTCH REPRESENTATIVE, J.H.VAN ROYEN, SAID HE HAD SENT THE RESOLUTION TO THE HAGUE FOR INSTRUCTIONS.

FINN MOE, NORWAY, THE FOURTH SPONSOR, DID NOT SPEAK. INFORMED SOURCES SAID HE HAD DECIDED TO HOLD HIS SPEECH UNTIL OTHER DELEGATES HAD EXPRESSED THEMSELVES SO HE COULD ANSWER THEIR STATEMENTS.

MALIK WAS PARTICULARLY CAUSTIC ABOUT THE SECTION OF THE RESOLUTION CREATING A U.N. COMMISSION ON INDONESIA OUT OF THE PRESENT GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE MADE UP OF THE UNITED STATES, BELGIUM AND AUSTRALIA. HE SAID THIS WOULD MEAN ONLY A CHANGE OF LABELS AND WOULD GIVE THE UNITED STATES A GREATER OPPORTUNITY TO INTERVENE IN INDONESIAN AFFAIRS.

"THE PROPOSAL FOR CREATION OF SUCH A COMMISSION CANNOT BE ACCEPTED BY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT," MALIK SAID.

MALIK SAID A STUDY OF THE RESOLUTION AND OF DUTCH DECLARATIONS SHOWED THE STATEMENTS ALMOST COINCIDE AND THAT THERE HAD BEEN A LENGTHY AND DRAWN-OUT "DEAL" BY THE "AGGRESSOR" IDENTIFIED BY HIM AS THE DUTCH AND BY HIS "PROTECTORS," NAMED BY MALIK AS THE "ANGLO-AMERICAN MAJORITY" IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

LEAD DAY U.N.-INDONESIA

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 21-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES ASKED THE SECURITY COUNCIL TODAY TO ADOPT A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN DESIGNED TO BRING INDEPENDENCE TO INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1950.

U.S. DELEGATE PHILIP C.JESSUP SPOKE IN SUPPORT OF A RESOLUTION INTRODUCED BY THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, CUBA AND NORWAY. HE EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THE NEW PLAN OFFEREDA GOOD BASIS FOR PERMANENT PEACE IN INDONESIA.

"THE TIME HAS PASSED FOR A PIECE-MEAL APPROEACH," JESSUP SAID.

AS A PRELIMINARY MOVE, HE SAID, IT IS NECESSARY FOR THE COUNCIL TO RE-ESTABLISH THE POSITION OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC TO THE POINT WHERE IT CAN RESUME NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE DUTCH.

THIS WAS A REFERENCE TO A PROVISION OF THE FOUR-POWER PROPOSAL WHICH CALLED FOR THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF PRESIDENT SOEKARNO AND OTHER REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARRESTED BY THE DUTCH IN THEIR MILITARY ACTION LAST MONTH.

"WE DO NOT BELIEVE THE COUNCIL CAN PUT ITS SEAL OF APPROVAL ON THE RESULTS OF THE RECENT MILITARY ACTION," JESSUP SAID. "THE PROBLEM BEFORE US IS NOT WHETHER THE (DUTCH) TROOPS SHOULD BE WITHDRAWN; THE REAL PROBLEM IS THE METHOD AND TIMING OF WITHDRAWAL X X X."

HE APPEALED TO BOTH DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO SUPPORT THE FOUR-POWER RESOLUTION.

DR. T.F.TSIANG, CHINESE DELEGATE AND ONE OF THE SPONSORS OF THE RESOLUTION, SAID THAT THE RESOLUTION CALLED FOR QUICK RESTORATION OF THE CIVIL ADMINISTRATION OF THE REPUBLIC AND FOR RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE DUTCH ARMED FORCES FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY.

TSIANG SAID THE PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION IN REGARD TO THOSE TWO MATTERS ARE "THE MOST PRACTICAL AND AT THE SAME TIME, CONSISTENT WITH THE PRINCIPLES OF THE CHARTER."

HE SAID THE RESOLUTION DID NOT PRESUME TO PASS JUDGMENT ON LOCAL CONDITIONS BUT THAT THE RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE RATE OF WITHDRAWAL OF THE DUTCH ARMY WERE LEFT TO THE COUNCIL REPRESENTATIVES ON THE SPOT.

"THE CORE OF THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM," HE SAID, "IS THE TRANSITION FROM COLONIAL STATUS TO NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE. THE LONG PROTRACTED NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE NETHERLANDS AND THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, THE ARDUOUS EFFORTS MADE BY THE COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES DURING THE PAST YEAR AND THE NUMEROUS SESSIONS WHICH THE SECURITY COUNCIL ITSELF HAS DEVOTED TO THE PROBLEM ALL ATTEST TO THE UNIVERSAL DESIRE FOR THIS TRANSITION TO BE SMOOTH AND PEACEFUL."

HE SAID THE CHINESE DELEGATION DESIRED A SMOOTH AND PEACEFUL TRANSITION ABOVE EVERYTHING ELSE AND THAT WAS THE MOTIVATING REASON WHY THE DELEGATION JOINED IN SPONSORING THE RESOLUTION.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER JAKOB A.MALIK DELIVERED A SCATHING ATTACK ON THE RESOLUTION WHICH HE SAID WAS STRONGLY PRO-DUTCH AND FAILED TO "TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE INTERESTS OF THE INDONESIANS."

HE SAID THE PROPOSAL WOULD GIVE THE UNITED STATES BETTER MEANS FOR INTERVENING IN THE AFFAIRS OF THE INDONESIANS, WOULD SHIELD THE "DUTCH AGGRESSORS" AND PROTECT AMERICAN "MONOPOLIES WHICH HAVE INVESTED MANY HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN INDONESIA."

"THE PROPOSAL FOR THE CREATION OF SUCH A COMMISSION CANNOT BE ACCEPTED BY THE SOVIET UNION," MALIK SAID, REFERRING TO THE PLAN TO CHANGE THE GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE INTO A U.N. COMMISSION.

HE CALLED THE RESOLUTION AN ATTEMPT TO LEGALIZE THE OCCUPATION OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC BY DUTCH TROOPS.

IN A STATEMENT TO THE PRESS, INDONESIAN ALTERNATE DELEGATE CHARLES THAMBOE SAID THE WATERING-DOWN OF THE ORIGINAL U.S. PLAN TO "PLACATE PRO-DUTCH ELEMENTS IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL WILL RENDER ITS POPULAR ACCEPTANCE IN THE REPUBLIC MUCH MORE DIFFICULT."

"OWING TO THE RUPTURE OF COMMUNICATIONS BETWEEN THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION HERE AND OUR GOVERNMENT IN JOGJAKARTA," THAMBOE SAID, "WE ARE NOT IN A POSITION TO MAKE A DECISION BY OURSELVES.

"THAT CAN ONLY BE DONE BY OUR GOVERNMENT WHEN IT IS FREE TO FUNCTION AND, WHAT IS MORE VITAL, WHEN IT IS IN POSSESSION OF THE WISHES OF THE PEOPLE AS EXPRESSED THROUGH THEIR REPRESENTATIVES."

THAMBOE SAID THE DELEGATION HAD RECEIVED WORD FROM PREMIER MOHAMMED HATTA THAT FORMER PERMIER SUTAN SJAHRIR AND ANOTHER INDONESIAN LEADER--DR. LAIMENA--ARE BEING SENT HERE TO REPORT ON RECENT EVENTS IN INDONESIA.

J.H.VAN ROYEN, NETHERLANDS REPRESENTATIVE, SAID HE HAD CABLED THE TEXT OF THE RESOLUTION TO THE HAGUE AND WAS AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS.

HE SAID THE DUTCH GOVERNMENT ALSO WOULD STUDY THE REMARKS OF THE SPONSORS MADE BEFORE THE COUNCIL TODAY.

THE QUESTION IS: WILL THE U.S. LAY BEFORE THE COUNCIL A NEW PROGRAM TO GO INTO THESE AND OTHER SIMILAR ACTIVITIES ON A MAJOR SCALE?

AMERICAN DELEGATION OFFICIALS PROFESSED TO BE AS MUCH IN THE DARK AS ANYBODY ELSE AS TO WHAT CONCRETE MOVES COULD BE EXPECTED.

THEY WERE HESITANT TO INTERPRET JUST WHAT MR. TRUMAN MEANT WHEN HE SAID HELPING NEEDY NATIONS "SHOULD BE A COOPERATIVE ENTERPRISE IN WHICH ALL NATIONS WORK TOGETHER THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS." THEY PREFERRED TO WAIT AND SEE WHAT POSITIVE ACTION WOULD RESULT.

Peiping Yields to Reds; Chiang Successor Seeks Modified Peace Terms

COMMUNISTS TAKE OVER PEIPING; 5-MAN PEACE GROUP NAMED FOR CHINA

General Fu's Troops Start Agreed March Out Of City; Nationalist Regime Trying To End War At Almost Any Price

Nanking, China, Jan. 22 (AP)—Peiping made its long-expected separate surrender deal with the Communists tonight even as the rickety Chinese Government sought a nation-wide peace at almost any price.

Gen. Fu Tso-yi's North China headquarters announced a cease-fire had ended the 40-day Communist siege of Peiping and that some units of Fu's 125,000-man army already had begun an agreed march out of the city.

Terms previously reported included removal of Fu's name from the Communists' "war criminals" list.

No Consideration For Nanking

The Communists had treated Peiping gingerly, declaring they did not want to destroy that intellectual and spiritual center of China. A more practical reason probably was that they wanted it intact for their capital.

No such consideration was shown toward Nanking. Despite the departure of President Chiang Kai-shek—at least partly meeting one of their demands—the Communists gave no indication they would make concessions to the frenzied pleas of Chiang's political heirs.

[The Communists are in position militarily to enforce a flat surrender on their own terms. A Communist broadcast heard in San Francisco said Chiang's retirement was an American-instigated stunt and "all indications" were that Nanking "has no desire for genuine, democratic peace."]

With Chiang in reluctant retirement and all North China gone—except for isolated Tsingtao and Taiyuan—the disintegrating Nationalist regime was trying frantically to end the civil war on some terms short of total surrender.

Five Named To Negotiate

Acting President Li Tsung-jen appointed a five-man delegation to try to negotiate with the Communists, and his cohorts poured out a series of statements and telegrams.

All evidently were designed either to gain a settlement or—barring optomistic possibility—to damn the Communists with the public for continuing the three-year war.

Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow, was named chairman of the peace delegation. Members are Gen. Chang Chih-chung, Gen. Huang Shao-hsiung, Peng Chao-hsien, and Chung Tien-hsing.

Chang is a Cabinet Minister and commander of five northwest provinces. He and Shao are longtime peace advocates. The others are minor figures but none is on the Communists' war-criminals list.

Typical Chinese Tea Party

Li, announcing their selection after a typical Chinese tea party, said they were to negotiate peace "at a suitable place to be agreed upon by both sides."

The acting president said he was ready to accept the Communists' eight broadcast terms of January 14 as a "basis" for negotiation. Since these terms amounted to an ultimatum for unconditional surrender, it was evident that the Government was not ready to accept them as they stood.

Li said he was ready to withdraw from the Government whenever peace was achieved.

Chairman Shao issued a statement inviting the Communists to set the time and place for a meeting. He also addressed a message to Marshal Li Chi-shen and Shen Chung-ju, urging their aid.

Li Issues Promise

No relation to the acting president, Marshal Li, onetime right-hand man to Chiang Kai-shek, and Shen, head of the Government-outlawed Democratic League, are non-Communists but bitterly anti-Government. Both went from Hong Kong to Communist territory three weeks ago to try to form a coalition of their own with the China Reds.

Acting President Li issued a promise to abolish or suspend quickly "all decrees interferring with the people's freedom and contrary to the people's democracy."

Gen. Tang En-po, commanding the Nanking-Shanghai defense area, evidently saw things differently. He immediately announced that martial law would continue unchanged and threatened punishment of all "rumor mongers" and other disturbers of the peace.

Conferences Resumed

Although Chiang flew away Friday afternoon to his ancestral home at Fengwa, 210 miles southeast of Nanking, Li did not take over the acting presidency formally until Friday shortly before noon.

Li took charge in a brief, closed ceremony in the President's office, attended only by the inner cabinet. Premier Sun Fo at that time again tendered the cabinet resignation, but Li again asked all to stay.

Following the tea party and announcement of the peace delegation, Li resumed conferences with Sun Fo and Chang Chih-chung. These meetings, dealing with the knotty problem of just how to contact the Communists, were expected to continue over Sunday.

Any decisions taken are expected to require formal indorsement by the Kuomintang (National party) Central Political Council, which does not meet until Monday.

Peiping Surrenders To Reds; Li Sets Up Peace Mission

Nanking, Jan. 22 (AP)—Peiping agreed to surrender to the Communists tonight as the tottering Chinese Government named five delegates to attempt a nation-wide settlement with the victorious Reds.

The Communists gave no indication they would deal nationally on any terms but total surrender, however.

Gen. Fu Tso-yi's North China Government headquarters announced a Peiping cease-fire had been agreed upon and a liaison office would take charge during a transition period before the Communists moved into the famous old northern capital.

Last Hold In North

Peiping was the Government's last important holding in the North except for besieged and impotent Taiyuan.

Meanwhile, the political heirs to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek were trying to put the Communists in the position of full responsibility for any continuance of the civil war.

[The Communist radio hinted strongly that negotiators would not be welcome, saying "Chiang Kai-shek's 'retirement' and Li Tsung-jen's taking over the bogus presidency is all at the prompting of the American Government, which supported Li Tsung-jen for Vice President with this very purpose in mind."

Still Hope For Peace

[The broadcast concluded: "All indications are that the Kuomintang's reactionary Nanking Government has no desire for genuine, democratic peace."

[The Communists did leave the peace door slightly ajar, however, for their hardboiled broadcast quoted "liberated area newspapers" rather than the Communist leadership. This, the official line could be changed without loss of face if the Communists should decide it was to their advantage.]

The Government announced its delegates were ready to start negotiations "at a suitable place to be agreed upon by both sides," but how to establish contact was a problem still occupying Acting President Li.

Shao Heads Mission

Heading the delegation will be Shao Li-tze, a veteran advocate of peace between the Nationalists and the Reds.

Appointment of the peace mission came a few hours after Li assumed the powers of Chiang Kai-shek, who retired yesterday after 22 years at the helm of Nationalist China.

Li's intention to send a peace delegation was announced earlier in the day at a tea party of Government officials.

Served With Marshall

Appointed with Shao were Chang Chih-chung, Government commander in Northwest China, and three relatively minor officials, Huang Shao-hsiung, Peng Chao-hsien and Chung Tien-hsing.

Chang was one of General Marshall's committee of three which tried to reach a settlement in the civil war shortly after Japan's surrender. Chang has been an outspoken proponent of peace.

A Government spokesman said the Executive Yuan (Cabinet) approved the peace statement as a formal resolution.

Simple Ceremony

Li quietly assumed presidential powers at a simple ceremony which lasted only a few minutes.

The tea was a characteristic manner for Li to greet his associates. Both Li and Premier Sun Fo told officials that the Government definitely would send delegates "to Yenan"—referring to the Communist old capital, but meaning delegates would be sent to Red leaders.

Then Li and Sun Fo resumed sessions with top officials. Informed sources reported they were trying to determine exactly how and when contact could be opened with the Red high command. It was expected these meetings would continue over Sunday.

Meeting Closed To Public

Chinese leaders—seeking to ac-

custom themselves to acting without a nod from Chiang Kai-shek—conferred almost endlessly on means of opening direct talks with the Reds.

Li assumed the President's duties at the executive offices. The meeting was closed to the public, but attended by the Cabinet, whom Li again asked to remain at their posts.

Nanking and Shanghai were quiet without any indication that Chiang's departure would produce any violent reaction.

Resting At Ancestral Home

Chiang was resting at his ancestral home in Fenghwa, 210 miles southeast of Nanking.

He left a farewell statement which was so ambiguous that those he left behind could not figure out its meaning.

Chinese sources said the original version made no mention of "retirement" or "resignation," but left the door open for his return should events prove favorable.

Chang Chun then got Chiang on the telephone, and the statement was changed at the Generalissimo's suggestion so that in the official English translation it read like this:

"With the hope that hostilities may be brought to an end and the people's suffering relieved, I have decided to retire."

Chiang May Try Comeback

The statement then said that Vice President Li would exercise the powers of the President in accordance with China's constitution."

[There was no mention of any hope or expectation of a return. Observers in Shanghai predicted that unless some progress toward peace with the Reds is made quickly, Chiang will try to come back.

May Release Prisoners

[They asserted, however, that this time it won't work. This time, say these observers, there is no real public demand for Chiang.]

Li, who campaigned on a platform of broad reforms for China when he ran for the vice presidency, was reported considering releasing all political prisoners as one of his first official acts.

One source said any act of amnesty probably would include freedom for Chang Hsueh-liang, the "young marshal" who kidnapped Chiang in 1936. The young marshal is held on Formosa. His brother, Chang Hsueh-shih, deserted Chiang in 1946 for failing to release the young marshal.

China's Millions Hope Peace Will Come Now

Shanghai, Jan. 22 (AP)—The interest of China's millions turned quickly today from President Chiang Kai-shek's indecisive "retirement" and centered again on the big question: Will there be peace?

From the dock coolie on the Whangpoo River to the peasant farmer at the edge of Shanghai . . . bank clerks, lawyers and doctors in the city's skyscrapers . . . you heard: "Can they make peace now?"

Nobody, except politicians at the municipal buildings and Chinese at the garrison headquarters, seemed to give a hoot that Chiang had flown away after 22 years at the nation's helm.

Paper Yuan Loses Value

They discussed Chiang's highly qualified retirement only as it influenced the chance for peace.

The man who was a magnet for 100,000 cheering Shanghai Chinese at the victory celebration in Racecourse Park when Japan surrendered in 1945, drew neither tears nor cheers today from the same people as he headed for limbo.

Even the money market was indifferent. The paper Yuan currency continued to lose value at about the same pace during Saturday morning trading.

Hopes For Peace Growing

The hope for peace, badly bruised lately, still grows stronger. It seemed to take on new vigor. However, Shanghai observers expressed belief it would be some time before remnants of the Nationalist Government and the Communists can reach a basis of understanding upon which a discussion can hope to succeed.

They feel that several more people have to take airplane rides out of Nanking before Vice President Li Tsung-jen will have a government with which the Reds will be willing to deal.

There is no joy here over the fact that one more hurdle has been cleared away for a Communist China. There is plenty of apprehension about what's ahead.

But the Chinese appeared tired of—and no longer place hope in—the regime that has brought inflation, misery, fear and war. Too many Chinese feel that what's ahead couldn't be any worse.

Senator Recommends 'Hands Off' In China

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—A member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee recommended today that the United States maintain a "hands-off" policy in China pending clarification of the confused military situation there.

"The Chinese civil war is a Chinese affair," Senator Thomas (D., Utah) said. "It can be settled only by China in China.

"We must keep our hands off unless it is definitely established that external aggression is interfering with China's territorial integrity. Otherwise, we should let people of all nations determine their own government."

Judd Calls Situation Confused

Thomas, who once wrote a book on Chinese political thought, was asked whether he believes the successful drive of the Communists does constitute external aggression. He said he does not know.

"I simply say that we should carry out our foreign relations from a standpoint of taking care of America and American interests," he said. "We should do whatever that implies."

Representative Judd (R., Minn.), a physician and former medical missionary in China, said the situation in China is too confused for anyone in this country to predict with any accuracy what may happen. He added, however:

"I think Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek will come out of this with his stature less impaired than anyone else. He has yielded to public opinion before, and each time it has been a mistake.

"In 1946, he issued cease-fire orders four times when the Communists asked to negotiate. All the Communists will accept now, since they are top dog, is complete surrender."

EMPHASIS PUT ON DEFENSES BY EAST, WEST

New Actions Do Little To Allay Concern Over War Possibility

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—The cold war between Russian and the Western powers grew icier today, with both sides apparently bent on building up their defenses.

In London, responsible diplomatic sources said the five-nation western European alliance has agreed on a common defense line stretching from the Dutch seacoast to the Swiss mountains.

From one after another of Russia's satellite states came reports the rulers of Communist eastern Europe are tightening their anti-capitalistic front, even amid apparent hints of a Communist "peace offensive."

The actions from East and West—hard on the unsuccessful efforts of the United Nations to settle international problems—did little to allay world concern over the possibility of a third World War.

Number Of Developments

They came amid a number of developments reflecting that concern.

In Copenhagen, Government leaders from Denmark, Norway and Sweden met to discuss a common Scandinavian defense policy.

All three expect bids to enter the North Atlantic defense pact with the partners of the western European alliance—Britain, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Sweden, a neutral in the world's two biggest wars, has been backing off from such an agreement. Her Scandinavian neighbors have looked upon it with greater favor.

In Moscow, Editor P. N. Poskelov, of the Communist paper Pravda, boasted last night that membership of the foreign Communist and "united workers" parties now numbers 18,000,000—36 times as many as twenty years ago.

Possibility Of Agreement

Poskelov said also that Western "jubilation" over the break between Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito and the rest of the Soviet bloc was premature.

"The anti-imperialist camp has rallied and become stronger; the watchfulness of the Communist parties toward nationalism has increased," he said.

In Rome, French Communist Leader Marcel Cachin drummed on the argument war isn't inevitable. He said there is always the possibility of an agreement.

He struck a not which has been increasingly followed recently in the Communist line—particularly since their forces turned their attention from the West to the Orient.

Only a few days earlier at Bologna, Italy, Italian Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti quoted Prime Minister Stalin as saying a new conflict could not be waged "because the ruins of war are still too heavy."

Developments In Poland

The conservative Italian newspaper Il Messaggero speculated on the possibility Stalin is seeking a pause in international tension. The newspaper Il Giornale D'Italia wondered whether his policy now is aimed at gaining time "to digest the Chinese rice."

In Poland, it was announced that two top-ranking officials, the first Vice Premier and the Minister of Public Administration, have been "freed" from their posts.

In Romania, "people's councils" have been set up to control labor and industry.

From Czechoslovakia came reports that more than 300 persons are under arrest as a result of an attempted military coup.

In London next week, the Foreign Ministers of the Western European Alliance will meet to review their plan for military, economic and political co-operation reached at Brussels almost a year ago.

One Sign Of Less Tension

The discussions are expected to center chiefly on defense plans. Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, former chief of the British imperial general staff and chairman of the alliance's military committee, reported personally to Prime Minister Attlee Thursday on their development.

Diplomatic sources here said that the plans were so drafted that they could be widened quickly to include American and Canadian participation. The United States has had observers at nearly all of the alliance military committee's meetings.

Europe Alliance May Build New 'Maginot Line'

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—The five-nation Western European alliance has agreed to maintain a defense line stretching from the Dutch seacoast to the Swiss mountains, responsible diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said the strategy was planned against the possibility of a shooting war with Russia.

No Official Comment

The British Foreign Office and officials of other alliance countries here declined to comment officially on the report.

Under terms of the agreement, details of which are still to be worked out, each of the five countries would maintain mobile, on-the-ready military units that would move to the defense line in event of attack.

The western European alliance is made up of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. The alliance was formalized in a pact signed at Brussels early last year.

Montgomery Sees Attlee

Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, former chief of Britain's Imperial General Staff and now head of the alliance military committee, reported to Prime Minister Attlee this week on the progress of the committee's planning.

Presumably the plans will be discussed in detail when the alliance's five Foreign Ministers meet here next Thursday.

Far East Considered

Some officials said the Ministers also may consider extending their agreement to include joint defense of their interests in the Far East.

While drafting defense plans, the alliance also has been arranging a North Atlantic defense pact with the United States and Canada.

With America and Canada included in the agreement, the defense line probably would embrace a network of airbases outside continental Europe.

Paper Fears Mindszenty Faces Trial By Will-Destroying Drug

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Tablet, a British Catholic weekly, declares Hungarian Communists plan to administer a will-destroying drug to Josef Cardinal Mindszenty before his trial on charges of high treason.

The magazine printed an article it said was drawn up on instructions of the Hungarian cardinal primate before his arrest. The article is entitled "Trial by Actedron." The weekly says actedron—unknown to western medical men, at least under that name—is the will-destroying drug. The article is to be read from the pulpits of all Catholic churches tomorrow in the dioceses of Shrewsbury and Birmingham.

Two Trials Cited

The article says it is essential "to draw the attention of Hungarian and foreign public opinion to the methods of the Communist police and the utter defenselessness of the victims."

The article cites two previous Hungarian trials, one of a priest. It says both defendants denied indictments against them but after some time in their cells appeared listless in court and accepted the charges made.

"Behind the full confessions, the self-accusations and brokenly hanging heads," the article says, "lurks the dread weapon of Communist tyranny against which there is no defense—actedron.

"Today in the Soviet-occupied countries it is common knowledge that any person arrested by the political police is starved for a few days. Then for a week or two the prisoner receives salted fish but no water.

Then Is Given A Drink

"When the unfortunate prisoner is on the verge of dying of thirst," the article continues, "when he has lost his power of taste and is in a state of collapse, he is given a drink.

"It make no difference whether it is water or soup; the prisoner no longer tastes anything and he does not notice that a small tablet has been dissolved in this liquid—a tablet of the potent nerve-destroying actedron.

"Actedron destroys the nerve centers; it does not kill, only paralyzes."

The article says the drug at first gives immense strength and raises the prisoner's self-confidence.

"He does not feel hunger," it continues, "his courage is superhuman.

"Next day the reaction sets in. It begins with a strong headache and vertigo. Then a steadily increasing sense of uncertainty overcomes him.

Like "Hypnotic Trance"

"Then the prisoner begins to feel frightened. Finally he becomes semi-conscious. He is paralyzed as though he were in a hypnotic trance. Neither his judgment nor his memory functions any more. He has the impression of having a deadly vacuum in his head.

"He has an urge blindly to obey the slightest orders and is psychologically incapable of saying no to anything.

"The victims are led to the trial in this condition."

The article asks:

"Is it likely that the cardinal prince primate will be spared the actedron cure?

"By no other means can the agents of Moscow justify their actions. Already it has been reported that the Hungarian radio will broadcast the trial of Cardinal Mindszenty. Moscow must prove by a 'full confession' of the prince primate that international 'black reaction' is headed by three cardinals—Van Roey (of Belgium), Spellman (of the United States) and Mindszenty—who have organized a 'world conspiracy' against democracy and the peace of the peoples."

One Defense Noted

The article declares "against actedron there is only one defense." This, it says, is to warn public opinion.

"However many 'full confessions' Moscow may produce," the article continued, "however many radio stations broadcast the Mindszenty trial, its victims will no longer be their old selves but wrecks whose nerves have been destroyed by potent drugs who can be ordered to make any number of confessions and who are no longer masters of themselves."

The weekly says it consulted doctors concerning actedron "but it seems it is not known by that name" in Britain. The weekly says the doctors pointed out actedron is likely to be a proprietary name.

The weekly says a drug often used in Soviet and east European political trials is evipan, which it says is popularly known as the "truth drug." It says actedron is in a different category.

The weekly says "the effect of actedron is to overpower the will, to break down its resistance, and to make the mind receptive of whatever the administrator of the drug wishes to plant there, so that this technique is more comparable to hypnotism."

Aid Costing Each American $40, Britons Told

London, Jan. 22 (AP)—Does Britain's "man in the street" know what he is getting out of the European Recovery Program?

Does he know why each American is shelling out an average of $40 a year to help Europe out?

To give him the answer in ABC language, the British Government has published a "popular account" of E.R.P.

Self-Help Expected

It is part of a program to let the public know that Americans expect Europeans to "help themselves" by working harder and co-operating with each other, not by reaching for a handout.

Entitled "Getting on Together," the popular guide to E.R.P. gives for 3 pence (about 5 cents) an easy-reading account of E.R.P.'s history and aims illustrated with photographs and charts. American officials in London say it is the best job of "selling" E.R.P. to the people that has been done in any of the nineteen countries and territories receiving aid.

"It's Up To Us"

"It's up to us," the publication concludes as it reports "a good start" has been made in getting the nineteen E.R.P. nations to co-operate for common recovery.

"Getting on together" gives this picture of what Britain would be like today if E.R.P. had not come to the rescue:

No cotton goods in the shops.

One and a half million persons unemployed.

Fewer shoes.

Sugar, bacon, cheese rations cut one third.

Less gasoline, fewer movies, newspapers, books.

Foreign Workers Aid French Reconstruction

Paris, Jan. 22 (AP)—France has more than 150,000 foreign workers helping in its reconstruction and most of them are former enemies.

They include about 60,000 Germans, prisoners of war who voluntarily chose to stay in France as free workers; 85,000 Italians; and 50,000 Belgians who live on the frontier and cross into France daily to work.

Hoarded Gold Worries Economists Of France

Paris, Jan. 22 (AP)—An estimated 6,000 tons of gold is being hoarded by Frenchmen. It is worth about 15 billion dollars.

By contrast, the government has issued about three billion dollars in paper money against only a couple hundred tons of gold it holds.

Some French economists believe financial stability can only be achieved by somehow getting this gold out of hiding, and that this can only be done by restoring confidence in the government.

Patton's Widow Arrives in Reich

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP).—Mrs. George S. Patton, Jr., widow of the Third Army commander, arrived in Frankfurt by plane today, but declined to discuss her visit.

She was met at Rhine-Main Airport by her son, Lt. George S. Patton, 3d, who is stationed at Augsberg.

Asked if she planned to visit the grave of her famed husband, victim of an automobile accident in December, 1945, she replied: "I'm sorry," and declined to talk further.

General Patton is buried in a U. S. Army cemetery in Luxembourg.

Border Fight Link Seen With Smuggling Reports

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP). Secret agents moved today against a massive smuggling ring reputed to include American service men and civilian employés.

The United States Air Force said the smugglers have done a "multi-million-dollar" business in precious metals, currency, precision instruments, ball bearings and other valuables.

Months of secret inquiry preluded the international crackdown by Air Force and Army criminal investigation agents, and civil police of France, Italy and other countries.

Blazing gunfire Thursday night between United States troops and Czech guards on the border near Schirnding, Germany, apparently is connected with the crackdown. German police firing on a smuggler's truck as it sped to the border were shot at by the Czech border patrol. United States troops rushed to the scene and exchanged more shots with the Czechs. The case has been sent to high diplomatic levels to be threshed out.

Air Force Explanation

Air Force spokesmen said traps were set—and sprung—on smugglers at exit roads along the west German frontier. There was no indication how many arrests resulted, but the spokesman said the smuggling plot has wide ramifications.

One man alone reaped a harvest of $40,000 from his illegal traffic, the anouncement asserted. Just a week ago Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor, said $200,000,000 of goods had been smuggled from the Allied zone annually. This is about a third the value of lawful exports.

This is how the smugglers worked it, as the Air Force explained things:

Drivers received $500 a trip to transport contraband in automobiles equipped with secret compartments and carrying false-bottomed luggage. Sometimes they earned bonuses by bringing back "rare silks and illegal currencies."

"Fooled The Czechs"

Contact men recruited runners for the traffic.

Most of the smuggled goods went to Milan, Italy, but this was by no means the only point.

"Most of the cars involved are reported to be of American manufacture, although some of the members of the ring are from Belgium and other countries," said an Air Force statement.

In the gun fight near Schirnding 30 United States soldiers wished they were a battalion, so they pretended they were a battalion and "fooled the Czechs," their leader said.

No Americans Wounded

Lieut. Francis A. Richer, 24, of Jackson, Mich., said his little band faced possibly 200 Czechs.

Richer, two years out of West Point, said that after the shooting stopped:

"I had the men walk past a lighted place in full view of the Czechs, then circle around and come back as though they were new men.

"I kept the men loading and cocking their weapons as though we had a lot of gun power.

"Then, when I got my field kitchen set up I made the men march through the coffee line four times each.

"The next day a Czech major who took part in the negotiations insisted we had a whole battalion."

Richter reported the Czechs had been shooting waist high with light machine guns.

No Americans were wounded. The Czechs said there were no casualties on their side, but that two men in the truck were injured seriously by the first burst of fire from the German police.

German guards said the truck carried bearings worth $70,000.

Smugglers Hunted At U.S. Zone's Exits

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP). The United States Air Force said today an international ring has smuggled millions of dollars worth of valuables from Germany.

Agents have been stationed at points of exit from the American zone of Germany to combat the illicit traffic, an announcement said.

The contraband was said to be "illegal gold, silver, currencies, precision instruments, ball bearings" and other scarce items. It has been going mainly to France, Italy, Switzerland and to other countries.

Yanks Describe Czech-Border Shooting

Schirnding, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—United States soldiers told today how they exchanged shots with Czech border guards.

The blazing skirmish of Thursday has gone to diplomatic levels for settlement.

Six constabulary troopers said they "hit the dirt" when from 120 to 150 shots from the Czech side of the border whistled by them at waist level. They said they fired 48 shots in return.

No Americans Hit

No Americans were hit. Czech officials said all Czechs also escaped injury, but some American soldiers said they thought they saw some Czechs fall.

While American and Czech diplomats from Prague visited the scene, soldiers engaged in the action gave this account of the gunplay:

German border guards were tipped that a truck was going to try to cross into Czechoslovakia with an illegal load of ball bearings from Schweinfurt.

Six guards were posted near an earthwork border barrier on a little-used raod.

Truck Challenged

A truck hove into view and they challenged it. The driver continued on and the German guards fired 80 shots into it. Both occupants were believed fatally wounded.

The driver tried to swerve around the barrier and smashed the truck into a tree. The truck halted with its tail end just 3 feet inside the Czech frontier.

Czech guards heard the shooting and themselves opened fire. The German guards fired 40 shots in return.

Six American constabulary troopers patrolling in jeeps drove up and immediately encountered bullets from the Czech forces.

Began Shooting

They dived for the ground and began shooting across the border with rifles.

Later they found bullets imbedded at waist level in trees near them. They said the Czechs were using submachine guns.

Lieut. Francis A. Richter, of Jackson, Mich., arrived within twenty minutes with a platoon of eighteen men as reinforcements. The firing still was going on.

When the shooting quieted, Richter went forward with armed guards and negotiated a truce with the Czech commander.

Withdrawal Agreement

They agreed to withdraw their troops from the immediate vicinity except for three enlisted men from each side to guard the truck.

Richter's reinforcements had brought up an armored car, 37 mm. cannon, 50 caliber machine gun and three 30 caliber machine guns, but they were not used.

The Czechs also had an armored car at the scene. At one point it drove up to the earth barrier and pointed its muzzle along the road into the American zone, but it did fire.

Estimate On Number

American soldiers estimated today that from 100 to 200 Czechs were engaged in the skirmish.

They said the Czechs by yesterday brought up the equivalent of a regiment to a point a mile or so from the border.

German guards estimated that the truck carried bearings worth 200,000 deutschemarks ($70,000).

Czech officials said during the truce negotiations the truck driver and his colleague were dying of their wounds.

The truck, covered by a lightly falling snow, still was unmoved tonight. Its disposition awaits the outcome of talks between American and Czech diplomats.

Von Papen Claims Support Of Earle

Nuernberg, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—Former Diplomat Franz von Papen, appealing a de-Nazification sentence, presented in his defense today an affidavit he said was signed by George H. Earle, former United States diplomat in the Balkans.

The affidavit, dated January 4 of this year, credited von Papen with keeping Turkey neutral in World War II and with making peace efforts. Von Papen was acquitted of war crimes charges by the international military tribunal but a German de-Nazification court sentenced him last February to eight years at hard labor.

Von Papen Quotes Earle

Von Papen quoted Earle, who also is a former Pennsylvania governor, as writing:

"In 1943 and again in 1944, Franz von Papen made strong efforts to secure peace through me as special emissary of President Roosevelt.

"His successful efforts to keep Turkey neutral probably prevented:

"1. An ultimate occupation of Turkey by the Russians.

"2. The active participation of Bulgaria in the war.

"3. A smashing attack by Turkey and Germany against Cairo, which, coupled with Rommel's attacks, could have taken Cairo."

Two Other Affidavits

"By influencing Turkey to remain neutral, I feel strongly he shortened the war and saved hundreds of thousands of Allied and German lives."

Two other affidavits from high Turkish officials supported von Papen as a non-Nazi. These were attributed to former Premier Sukru Saracoblu and Ambassador Numan Menemencioglu in Paris.

Both said they were authorized by the Turkish Government to declare that van Papen had never followed a Nazi line while he was Ambassador to Turkey.

Clay Blames Reds For Reich Division

BERLIN, Jan. 22 (AP). — Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American Military Governor, blamed the Russians for the division of Germany and its dual currency in a special report distributed today.

Reviewing the economic revival in Western Germany since last June's currency reform, Clay stated the separate action was forced on the Western occupation powers when "it became increasingly apparent the USSR had no intention of permitting the administration of the four zones of Germany as an economic entity as agreed at the Potsdam conference."

He said the Russians alone were to blame for failure to reach a four-power agreement for a new uniform German currency.

B-29's To Join Jets In Bavaria Maneuvers

Wiesbaden, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP). The United States Air Force announced today joint training maneuvers would be conducted this week by a B-29 bombardment squadron and jet fighters from Fuerstenfeldbruck.

The B-29 squadron, part of the 22d Bomb Group now training at Lake Heath, England, will make simulated high-altitude bombing attacks on several Bavarian cities. The B-29s arrived yesterday. Planes of the 36th Jet Fighter Squadron, stationed at Fuerstenfeldbruck, will make interceptor flights. The bombardment squadron, under command of Lieut. Col. John Grable, of Eldorado, Ill., also will operate out of Fuerstenfeldbruck.

U.S. Flyers In Europe Get Shots To Fight Flu

Wiesbaden, Germany, Jan. 22 (AP)—All United States Air Force personnel in Europe is being given preventive serum to combat the influenza epidemic, the Air Force said today.

Officials said no epidemic exists now among Air Force personnel, but that the shots are being given since crews flying on Operation Vittles to Berlin and other flights risk the chance of contracting the disease and of transmitting it.

The epidemic, which swept through France, is described as a mild type of the ailment.

60 ARRESTED AS U.S. SPIES

Four Church Figures Included Among Czech Seizures

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 22 (AP)—New mass arrests of persons accused of plotting against Czechoslovakia's Communist Government were revealed today, with 60 reported held in Bratislava on charges of spying for United States intelligence services.

Three nuns and the head of a Franciscan monastery were listed among the 60, along with various Slovak business and professional men.

The arrest of the four church figures came after signs had developed of a slackening of the feud between the Government and the Catholic Church. The press and radio, both controlled by the Government, dropped their campaign against the church this week.

Gen. Josef Kuttlwassr and a number of other army officers and civilians were arrested early this month on charges of preparing a putsch.

Midnight Shooting Mystery

Persons who have seen the exercise yard at the Pankrac prison say at least sixteen generals and 300 other officers are in the circle line-up during walking exercise periods.

The roundup at Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, was one of the largest in a series of continuing arrests throughout the country which, by official figures, would indicate that a high proportion of the people spend much of their time trying to overthrow the government.

There has not been, however, an official statement promised last Monday on the arrest of General Kuttlwassr and the others. The general, one of those in Pankrac prison, was a leader of the Prague uprising in 1945 that finally ousted German troops. Identity of other high officers held was veiled in official silence "for security reasons."

Rumors were fed by the mystery of a midnight shooting which awoke diplomats in the fashionable Dejvice section of Prague two weeks ago. A dozen shots were clearly audible in the area, where the United States and Russian ambassadors have their villas.

Czech Press And Radio Silent

In the area was reputed to live a Czechoslovak army major blamed for revealing the generals' plot against the state. He was said to have been in the plot, then tipped the hand of the plotters. The whisperers in Prague said the major had been assassinated by others in the deal who are still free.

But diplomatic circles, as well as foreign newsmen—who were criticized for sending the stories abroad—were stumped in attempts to get a clear picture of the case. The Czech press and radio were silent about it.

The charges made against the group arrested in Bratislava were the first in weeks alleging contacts with American circles.

Soldier Sentenced To Life

A Czechoslovak press bureau account said a Slovak political refugee named Josef Vican organized the spy network from Austria and passed secret information to the Americans.

Dozens of microfilms, directives of a foreign information bureau, a radio transmitter and secret reports were declared found. The press bureau said most of these under arrest had been tried for anti-state activities in 1946 and released.

A private in the Czech army, Vit Placek, was sentenced here yesterday to life imprisonment. He was charged with passing highly secret information about the army to agents of a foreign espionage organization." Witnesses said he spent the fees in high living at night clubs.

Seizure Another In A Series Of Mass Arrests

Prague, Jan. 22 (AP)—Czechoslovak security police were reported today to be holding 60 persons at Bratislava on charges of spying for American intelligence services in Austria.

This was one of the larger hauls in a series of mass arrests made recently throughout Czechoslovakia.

Thus far the official statement promised last Monday on the arrest of Gen. Josef Kuttlewassr and a number of other army officers and civilians has not been issued. That group was picked up early in January on charges of plotting to overthrow Czechoslovakia's Communist Government.

Led 1945 Uprising

Kuttlwasr was one of the leaders of the Prague uprising in 1945 that finally drove out the Germans. He is in Pankrac Prison, and it is known that his lawyer saw him there four days ago.

Officials maintained silence "for security reasons" on the identity of the eight or nine generals who were reported to have been arrested with Kuttlwassr, or in a separate roundup.

The Ministry of Information said it was unable to either confirm or deny the reports. It added that it hoped to issue a statement next week.

Without the promised official statement, the rumors about the number and identity of the arrested officers and civilians grew. They were fed by the mystery of the midnight shots—a dozen at least—which two weeks ago woke up diplomats in the fashionable Dejvice section of Prague.

Whispers Of Assassination

A Czechoslovak army major blamed for revealing the plot was said to be living in the same area. He was rumored to have been in on the plot and then to have tipped the hands of the plotters. Today it was whispered about that the major had been assassinated by others in the plot who still are free.

Czechoslovak newspapers and radio stations made no mention of the matter.

Persons who have seen the yard at the Pankrac Prison have reported that at least sixteen generals and 300 officers were noted in the circle lineup during the daily walking exercise period. Those reports could not be confirmed.

First Such Reports In Weeks

Charges against the persons held in Bratislava were the first in weeks to allege that contacts had been made with American circles.

A Czechoslovak Press Bureau account said a Slovak political refugee named Josef Vican organized the spy network from Austria and passed secret information to the Americans.

Dozens of microfilms, directives of a foreign information central bureau, a radio transmitter and secret reports were found, it was declared. Most of those under arrest had been tried for anti-state activities in 1946 and later released, the press bureau said.

U. S. Fleet Units At Sicilian Port

ROME, Jan. 22 (AP).—The arrival of two aircraft carriers and 26 other units of the U. S. Mediterranean Fleet was announced today in dispatches from Augusta, Sicilian port. Vice Adm. Forrest Sherman was aboard his flagship, the cruiser Albany.

The carriers Philippine Sea and Midway, 6 destroyers, one submarine and smaller warships made up the fleet.

Students Stage Protest Over Ship Transfer

Rome, Jan. 22 (AP)—Several thousand students shouting Venduto (sold out) marched on the Foreign Office today in protest against the projected delivery of Italian warships to Russia as reparations.

About 50 rushed into the large courtyard of the Foreign Office before police closed the door.

A large crowd also was reported to have demonstrated before the Soviet Embassy.

As the crowd rushed the entrance to the ministry, a man in civilian clothes fired a single shot, then disappeared into the courtyard.

Afterward a group of students pummeled an elderly man, who was said to have commented against the demonstrators.

Vatican Warns Of Hungary's Aims

Vatican City, Jan. 22 (A. P.).—The Vatican radio declared today the trial of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, may be converted into a "trial against Catholicism."

It based its announcement on information it said had been received that the Hungarian Government has asked neighboring Communist states to supply information on "Vatican interference in internal affairs."

U.S. OBSERVER SHOT DOWN BY GREEK REBELS

His Native Pilot Also Believed Killed On Unarmed Flight

Athens, Jan. 22 (AP)—Lieut. Col. Selden R. Edner, of San Jose, Cal., an American air observer, and his Greek pilot have been shot down by Communist-led guerrillas and both are believed to have been killed.

The Greek air staff and the United States embassy announced the incident today.

[The Yugoslav news agency Tanjug said the guerrillas reported the American was found dead in the plane Friday and they are protesting to the Security Council that he took part in a strafing-bombing mission. The guerrillas, perhaps confused by the fact the oak leaves of a major and lieutenant colonel are similar, identified him as a major.]

Unarmed Observation Flight

Henry F. Grady, United States Ambassador, said Edner was making an unarmed observation flight over the Karpenisi battle area north of Athens when the plane crashed in hilly country. Grady notified Mrs. Edner, who lives in Athens.

[The guerrilla version, as carried by Tanjug, said the guerrillas have documents proving "American officers not infrequently take part in military missions." It said that: "Thus, on January 21, a plane, which was machine gunning and bombing noncombatant inhabitants was shot down in the town of Karpenisi, which had been liberated by the Democratic (Greek Communist) Army."]

A Nationalist communiqué announced that the beseiged garrison at Karpenisi, 125 miles north of Athens, has fought through encircling Communist rebel lines.

Radio Contact Severed

An unconfirmed report said two thirds of the garrison had linked up with Nationalist forces sent to relieve them. Although the communiqué did not mention this, high military circles said they believed the Communists have seized Karpenisi and will have to be driven out.

[The Markos radio heard in Athens said that Karpenisi is in guerrilla hands. The broadcast said the rebels are determined to keep it. Nikos Zachariadis, chief of the outlawed Communist party, called on guerrillas to "hold Karpenisi and make the occupation complete."]

Two thousand guerrillas surrounded the important agricultural center Thursday and cut eastern approaches to harass reinforcements. Even radio contact with the town has been severed, and there is no word of conditions inside it.

Veteran Of World War II

The general staff announced 100 guerrillas were killed and 50 captured in an ambush on the heights of Mt. Parnon in the Peloponnesus last night. The guerrillas had attacked nearby Leonidion before running into the trap, the general staff said.

Edner was assigned here as an observer with the United States Army group air detachment under the Greek aid program. The embassy said he was on duty unarmed when the plane crashed in the hills near Karpenisi.

He was a veteran of European fighting in World War II, in which he won citations for bravery and achievement. He was a prisoner of war in Germany between March, 1944, and April, 1945.

Yank Believed Crash Victim In Greece

Athens, Jan. 22 (AP)—An American Army officer was believed killed yesterday in a plane crash near the rebel-beleaguered town of Karpensi, the United States Embassy said today.

The Embassy said Lieut. Col. Selden R. Ender, 30, of San Jose, Cal., was a passenger in a Greek training plane which made a forced landing in the mountains near Karpensi.

Unconfirmed reports indicated Edner was killed in the crash.

Two-Day Attack

It was not known whether the plane crashed because of mechanical failure or was hit by ground fire. Karpensi, 125 miles northwest of Athens, has been under attack by 2,000 rebels for over two days.

The Embassy said Edner was the only American passenger aboard the plane. He served as pilot in Europe during the war and flew 150 missions over France and Germany.

His wife, who is living in Athens, has been notified of the accident.

Probe Conducted

An American public relations officer said the Greek pilot of the plane also was believed killed. Other Greek airmen saw the plane go down. American and Greek authorities are conducting an investigation.

Edner was born in Fergus Falls, Minn., and was a graduate of San José State College. He was attached as American air officer to the 2d Greek Army.

During the war he received high military awards including the air medal with three clusters, the British and American Distinguished Flying crosses and the British Star. He was a prisoner in Germany from March, 1944, to April, 1945.

'Reds' Picketing Defense Talks In Denmark

Copenhagen, Jan. 22 (AP)—Communists today picketed the opening conference on a Scandinavian defense alliance.

Twenty-three young Communists paraded before Christiandborg Castle, where Government leaders of Sweden, Norway and Denmark met. They carried posters with such slogans as "No Scandinavian War Bloc" and "We Won't Pay for Our Freedom with Dollars."

Police watched but did not interfere.

Differences Noted

Thirty-three top-ranking politicians from the three countries, including the three Prime Ministers, will try to solve the problems connected with establishment of a common defense system.

Before entering the hall, Prime Minister Hans Hedtoft, of Denmark, said there were certain differences of opinion among the delegations.

Alliance Terms

Sweden has offered an outright alliance to Norway and Denmark on the condition, according to reliable reports, that it be independent of any link with the western European union of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg and their projected North Atlantic Pact with the United States and Canada. According to these reports Sweden has proposed to help the other two Scandinavian countries rearm. Sweden recently reaffirmed her traditional neutrality in big-power politics.

Views Of Norway

On the other hand, Norway is understood to have favored joining the North Atlantic Pact when representatives of the three nations discussed the question at an earlier conference in Oslo.

Denmark attempted a compromise by which the Scandinavian alliance would remain nominally aloof from the Western powers but lean on them for aid in rearmament. This plan suffered a blow when the United States officials frowned on any such arms commitments.

The conference is expected to continue through tomorrow.

Serbs Told Russ May 'Pressure' Slavs

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Jan. 22 (AP). The Serbian Communist party was told yesterday the Soviet Union and countries it controls may be expected to increase economic pressure this year on Yugoslavia.

[Russia and Poland both have cut trade with Yugoslavia by four fifths. The Russian-run Cominform accused Premier Marshall Tito last year of leaving the party line and being hateful to Russia. Tito accused Russia yesterday of the very same things.]

Blagoje Neshkovic, Vice Premier of Serbia and member of the Yugoslav Politiburo, ended the Serbian Communist Party Congress by saying some Cominform countries already have revoked investment treaties with Yugoslavia. He said the Cominform campaign to liquidate the present Government has failed.

"Contrary to predictions of the Cominform, socialism is being built up in our country and capitalist elements are being pushed aside systematically," he told the Serb Communist Party Congress.

ISRAEL AND EGYPT HELD NEAR CLIMAX IN ARMISTICE TALK

U.S. Chronicles

By The Associated Press.

RHODES, Jan. 22—The next thirty-six hours will see the end of the Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks, either in success of failure, an authoritative source said tonight.

As the deadlock that has hamstrung the meetings dragged into its third day, a source close to the Israeli delegation said that his country might modify its position "because Israel wants this conference to succeed so she can deal with the other Arab states." Apparently this is known to the Egyptians.

The deadlock has hinged, conference circles said, on an Israeli refusal to evacuate territory taken in two recent offensives.

The strain of the almost uninterrupted conferences of the past three days is beginning to tell on Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations Mediator for Palestine, who spent the afternoon "writing." A spokesman refused to say what he was writing, but he indicated that it was a revision of drafts of compromises offered to break the stalemate over boundaries, particularly in the Negeb, desert area in the south.

The Israelis have kept insisting that these talks were for "armistice," not "peace." Some sources said that the Israelis might make concessions with the reservation that they would be reconsidered at a peace table. This might be a long way off, and the long-range solution for peace still seems remote. (AP)

ISRAEL READY FOR ELECTION

3,000 U.S. Citizens May Vote Illegally Tuesday

U.S. Lorry

Tel Aviv, Palestine, Jan. 22 (AP)—Perhaps as many as 3,000 United States citizens may vote illegally in Israel's first elections Tuesday, January 25. This is the estimate coming from opposing political camps tonight.

Close to 8,000 American citizens have been residents of Palestine for a long time. There also are American volunteers in the Israel Army.

Paid advertisements appeared in the Hebrew press this week under the name of James MacDonald, special representative of President Truman in the Jewish state, warning Americans that they could lose United States citizenship if they vote in the Israeli elections. That is American law. But, other than this official warning, it is hard to see what action might be taken.

Citizenship Not Required

The balloting will be secret. Israeli citizenship is not required of voters here in the early prase of statehood. It is necessary only to have an identity card showing that the would-be voter was in Israel November 8, the date of the first census.

The situation recalls another American warning here. That was a year ago, when the United States consulate in Jerusalem announced that American passports would be taken up from any American citizens found volunteering or serving in the Israel armed forces.

Many came here to fight in the Israeli air force. The best available information to date is that no passports have been collected from these Americans. Checking would be difficult, since it could hardly be expected that the Israeli Government or army would co-operate in action against its volunteer soldiers.

Campaigning Stepped Up

With the election only three days away, campaigning has grown louder but still without any public disturbance. This Sabbath (Saturday) there were close to 400 political rallies in the Jewish state.

In Tel Aviv's main street, passers-by could take their choice. With one ear they could listen to David Ben Gurion, Prime Minister, leader of the moderatly leftist Mapai, and with the other to speakers for the "Fighters" party, which is run by Government-outlawed Sternists. Their loudspeakers were on opposite sides of the street.

The election is to pick 120 members of a constituent assembly. That assembly will form a new "regular" government replacing the present "provisional" Government.

Actually the new government is expected to be of nearly the same composition as at present, with Ben Gurion again the strongest single party but falling short of a majority so that a coalition or united-front government may again be necessary.

Conference Calls On U.N. To Halt Dutch Troop Rule

S. DAVID

New Delhi, India, Jan. 22 (AP)—Asian nations demanded in conference today that the United Nations call a halt on Dutch military rule of Indonesia.

The Asian conference called for immediate end of Dutch military action in the Indonesian islands and swift steps to give the people self-rule. The member nations agreed to leave behind them a foundation on which they could build a permanent Oriental bloc, and to reconvene if they do not like the way the United Nations handles the problem of Indonesia.

The resolutions, adopted in closed session today, will be entered in conference records at tomorrow's final meeting, which will be open.

Officially, the conference stopped short of a spoken call for economic sanctions to back up United Nations orders to the Netherlands. Delegates said they did not want to seem to threaten the world body but that their desires were clear anyway.

Refer To Article 39

Obliquely, they phrased a resolution which referred to Article 39, which does not deal with sanctions but does mention the article under which sanctions may be imposed.

One resolution called the Dutch conquest of Republican areas of Indonesia in December a "flagrant breach of the United Nations Charter." It said the Security Council had "properly seized" the case.

Specifically the conference demanded that:

1. The Dutch release at once all political prisoners seized in the action, including Republican President Soekarno.

2. The Indonesian Republican Government be restored to power March 15 in the areas it held in Java, Sumatra and Madoera before Dutch troops toppled it.

3. Jogjakarta be restored to the Republicans as their capital.

4. Republicans have full permission to move about their own and other areas of Indonesia.

Call For Troop Withdrawal

5. The Dutch complete by March 15 the withdrawal of their troops from conquered areas, and that this be supervised by an outside agency.

6. That Dutch-imposed trade restrictions be removed, and the Republicans have free access to communication with all the world.

7. That a timetable for granting self-rule to a United States of Indonesia, the same as that now pending before the United Nations Security Council, be met by January 1, 1950.

This calls for Holland to establish an Indonesian interim government by March 15; free election of an Indonesian constitutent assembly by October 1, and transfer of complete sovereignty to an Indonesian Government by next January 1.

The conference wound up with a demand that the Council use its powers to compel compliance with its orders if United Nations observers find violations.

Regional Setup Suggested

To back up their resolution, the conferees agreed to ask participating governments to explore feasibility of a regional organization of Asian nations, created within the United Nations framework, and to urge internation consultations through diplomatic and United Nations representatives to keep track of what happens in Indonesia.

The conference pledged its support to the Security Council if it applies the recommended measures.

[A Tass news agency dispatch from Moscow contended the Asian conference had become "a preparation for creation of an alliance" similar to the western European union and the organization of American states. It went on: "Such purposes by no means contribute toward a correct solution of the Indonesian problem in the spirit of international democratic principles."]

Dutch Admit Unrest

The development here coincided with official Dutch acknowledgement of growing unrest in Indonesia. The Dutch army at Batavia, Java, announced it has taken over law enforcement in the federal state of Pasundan, West Java. The territorial commandant, Maj. Gen. E. Engels, reported peace and security "have deteriorated more than they have progressed" in that area. (AP)

Asian Parley Demands Release Of Indonesians

S. DAVID

New Delhi, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Asian conference called today for immediate release by the Dutch of captured Indonesian Republican leaders and the restoration of the Republican Government's freedom of action.

The twenty-nation conference adopted resolutions suggesting steps to be taken by the United Nations Security Council to settle the Indonesian dispuate.

Called Breach Of Charter

Dutch military operations, launched last month against the republic, were described as a "flagrant breach of the the United Nations Charter" which "endangers the peace of Southeast Asia and the world."

The resolutions will be formally entered in the conference record in a final session tomorrow.

They recommend that the nations represented here continue consulting among themselves on the Indonesian issue and explore the possibility of establishing a regional organization within the framework of the United Nations similar to the Pan American Union.

Urge U.S. Of Indonesia

No mention was made of the imposition of economic sanctions against the Dutch. However, informants said this should not be taken as an indication of a weakening of the conference's determination to press for the establishment of a free United States of Indonesia with considerable Republican participation.

In its specific recommendations on Indonesia, the conference also suggested that:

1. Dutch authorities return the former republican capital of Jogjakarta to the republican regime and withdraw Netherlands troops from there immediately.

2. Areas in Java, Sumatra and Madoera held by the republic before the Dutch began their operations last month be restored to the republic by March 15.

3. An interim Indonesian Government composed of representatives of the republic together with representatives of other East Indies territories be established by March 15, but no further regional governments be formed. The Dutch have been sponsoring the establishment of federal states in the islands.

4. The interim government have control over its armed forces and Dutch troops be withdrawn from all Indonesia on a date specified by a United Nations body or the interim government. Pending that date, Dutch troops should not be used to maintain law and order without a request from the interim government.

The conference further recommended that constituent assembly elections be held in Indonesia by October 1 and sovereignty transferred to the Indonesian Government by next January 1.

Dutch In Java Face Spread Of Trouble

Batavia, Java, Jan. 22 (AP)—Trouble for the Dutch was reported in both West and East Java today.

The Dutch Army was ordered to step in and enforce order in the Federal state of Pasoendan in West Java, where the Dutch commander said recent actions have endangered security.

Reports from the other end of the island, on which the Dutch recently overran Indonesian Republican forces, indicated other trouble.

Seven Incidents In East Java

The reports said unrest is growing, not only in Republican areas but also on the far end of the island, which the Dutch took over during their first police action in 1947.

The Dutch-language newspaper Nieuwsgier reported seven incidents in East Java. One report said seven employés of the Soerabaja Naval Base were killed when a truck in which they were riding was ambushed.

The paper also said the manager of a sugar factory was killed 50 miles east of Malang; a Dutch planter was slain and three planters kidnapped in other scattered incidents.

Rebels Assaulting Burma Town

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 22 (AP)—The Burmese Army announced today that rebel Karen nationalists have been launching assaults on the Irrawaddy delta town of Pantanaw for two days.

Planes are dropping food to the defenders of Pantanaw, 45 miles northwest of Rangoon, the communiqué said. The Karen tribesmen placed the town under siege last week.

Large-scale encounters between rebel units and army troops were reported elsewhere in the delta area. A statement said five villages were burned by rebels, who lost 50 killed in clashes with Government forces. Losses on the Government side were listed as one killed and six injured.

The Karens, one of a group of tribes in Burma, want to establish a separate state of Karenistan.

Rebel Attack Halts Train In South Johore

Singapore, Jan. 22 (AP)—Red rebels, hurling grenades, forced back the Singapore-Kuala Lumpur mail train in South Johore today.

The insurgent attack on a pilot train preceding the mail forced the train to return to Kulai for two hours.

Troops scoured the area without success and the mail train went on its way.

Meanwhile C. H. F. Pierrepont, manager of the Sedenak rubber estate, escaped uninjured after a second attempt on his life. Shots were exchanged during the night near his bungalow. The first attempt was a road ambush last June.

Jap Reds Predict Election Gains

Tokyo, Jan. 22 (AP)—Japanese Communists predicted today they would gain strength tomorrow in the third general election under Allied occupation.

They said they would get 12 seats of the 466 in the lower house of the Diet and would poll about 2,000,000 votes. This would be a gain of eight seats—a figure conceded by most of their opponents.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's ultraconservative Liberal Democratic party was expected to pick up between 50 and 60 additional seats in the House—which would give the party between 200 and 210 seats.

Light Vote Foreseen

Both Conservatives and the Communists were expected to gain largely at the expense of the disorganized Social Democratic party.

Despite prospects of good weather, most Japanese observers predicted a relatively light vote to select representatives from among the 1,365 candidates. Eligible to vote are 41,760,000 Japanese, including more than 21,000,000 women.

Acheson Plans Shakeup Of Diplomats, Change Of Top Policy Advisers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP).—President Truman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson are expected to shake up top American diplomatic representation abroad in the near future. Several ambassadors will be replaced, some because they insist on retiring.

Likewise, diplomatic authorities here expect that in taking over as Secretary of State, Acheson will make some changes among his top policy advisers, probably in advance of any general reorganization of the State Department along lines which Acheson himself has already worked out.

Five major diplomatic posts now figure in speculation about possible changes. They are:

Moscow—Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith, who has been Ambassador to the Soviet Union since March, 1946, is now in this country. He has been trying to resign for almost a year. State Department officials now do not expect he will return to his post although President Truman has delayed accepting his resignation, pending selection of a successor.

Nanking—Ambassador John Leighton Stuart, former Yen Ching University president, has been Ambassador to China since July, 1946, when Gen. George C. Marshall enlisted his aid in the futile effort to try to end the Chinese civil war. At 72, Stuart is reported to have expressed a desire to get back into educational work and as soon as the situation in China itself permits he may be released.

Paris—Jefferson Caffery, who has held the French diplomatic assignment since 1944, is now 62 years old and there is increasing talk among State Department officials that he will soon be permitted to retire. There has been considerable speculation that the Paris post might go to a labor leader, the name most frequently mentioned in this connection being that of George M. Harrison, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks (AFL). Harrison, however, is reported to be uninterested in any diplomatic position.

Buenos Aires—James Bruce, Baltimore businessman, is reported pressing President Truman and the State Department to let him leave the Argentine post, where officials say he has done a good job. Bruce was given the assignment in July, 1947, with the understanding that he would not be tied up in diplomatic service for a long period.

The Hague—Herman B. Baruch, 76-year-old brother of the famous financier and government adviser, Bernard M. Baruch, has held the Netherlands post since March 13, 1947. Prior to that he had served as Ambassador to Portugal. Officials here said that his retirement is an early prospect.

Another post which may be involved in the rearrangement of diplomatic assignments is the Ambassadorship to Denmark. Josiah Marvel, Jr., has held that position since February, 1947, and authorities here understand that a change is in prospect for him.

All ambassadors and other top government personnel submit resignations to the President at the beginning of a new term. Some are just formalities. Some, as in the case of General Smith and Ambassador Bruce, are reported to be in effect strongly worded requests to the Chief Executive to be allowed to leave Government service.

The problem of finding replacements for such men is one of the tasks awaiting joint action by President Truman, Secretary Acheson and John E. Peurifoy, Assistant Secretary of State, who is in charge of personnel both in the State Department and abroad.

Probabilities For Moscow

Persons who have figured in speculation for the prospective Moscow vacancy include Charles E. Bohlen, present counselor of the State Department and a Russian policy expert; George Kennan, chief of the State Department's policy-planning staff and also a Russian expert, and George V. Allen, Assistant Secretary of State.

Allen is now running the State Department's public-affairs division but previously made a good record in dealing firmly with the Soviets at the time they were bringing pressure on Iran where he was Ambassador.

Some, however, believe that Mr. Truman and Acheson may select a complete newcomer to diplomacy for the Moscow post.

Likely Department Changes

In shakeups inside the department, at least two top jobs may be filled fairly soon by Acheson. Paul Daniels, chief of the Office of International affairs, is expected to go out of the department to an important ambassadorship in Latin America.

Joseph C. Satterthwaite, who has been director of the office of Near Eastern and African Affairs (including Palestine) for only a few months, is nevertheless slated for reassignment abroad fairly soon because of the law limiting service of foreign-service officers in the State Department to a period of four years at a time. Satterthwaite has been on duty here since 1945.

Long-Term Pact Hinted To Buy Foreign Output

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP).—High officials, it was learned today, are prepared to recommend that this country promote industrial development abroad by offering long-term agreements to buy part of the foreign output of vital materials.

Subject to Congressional approval, this stockpile-building measure is suggested to go along with President Truman's "bold new program" of overseas development of backward areas.

NIGHT

SPOKE OF GUARANTEES

The President's inaugural address Thursday spoke of "guarantees" to help "foster capital investment in areas needing development." He has not elaborated, yet. Congressional leaders expect to get more information when they meet with Mr. Truman Monday.

Without knowing exactly what Mr. Truman wants, Speaker Sam Rayburn (D., Tex.) predicted today the House would pass any legislation needed.

But some officials and legislators shy away from anything which smacks of a Government guarantee to private companies against financial losses which may result from a venture into foreign expansion.

ASSURANCES NEEDED

Certain of them feel, however, that American and foreign investors could be encouraged to put money and equipment into mines and mills in "undeveloped" areas if they were assured of a market for some years ahead.

The proposal now being discussed would authorize a Government agency, perhaps the Treasury's Bureau of Federal Supply, to sign long-term commitments for the purchase of certain amounts of needed materials each year, for stockpiling or for resale to industry.

The buying agreements would contain "escalator" clauses, under which the price would rise in case of unavoidable increases in costs of production.

FAVORED BY HOFFMAN

This, it is felt, might eliminate a major obstacle to foreign investment—the chance that a company, after risking millions to start a foreign project, might lose its government contracts in a year or so.

Marshall Plan Administrator Paul G. Hoffman is known to be among those favoring such a plan. His agency, the Economic Cooperation Administration, has limited funds and authority to help in the launching of overseas projects which will return strategic materials to this country.

No agency, however, has authority to make long-term commitments, even though the Government's $2,500,000,000 stockpiling program for the purchase of lead, copper, tin, manganese and other strategic materials is lagging far behind schedule.

JAN 1949

Could Aid Recovery Plan

Hoffman has indicated he would recommend such legislation. He believes, however, that a permanent Government agency should handle the program, since ECA has only 3½ years of life remaining.

The program could give an added lift to the European Recovery Program, since many of the richest underdeveloped mineral resources are in the colonies of Britain, Belgium, France, Holland and other Marshall-plan countries. However, Mr. Truman made it plain he was thinking in global terms, presumably including Latin America, Australia and the Far East.

So far only $18,000,000 worth of rubber, sisal fiber and industrial diamonds have been purchased by ECA, all from British sources.

The Inter-American Economic and Social Council, made up of representatives of the 21 nations in the Western Hemisphere, indorsing Mr. Truman's global-development plan, called it a "new and bold" policy. The council said most of the Latin American countries "stand uppermost" among the underdeveloped areas to which Mr. Truman referred.

The council's main job is to lay the groundwork for economic cooperation among the American nations.

No Global RFC

Rayburn was confident the House would approve whatever Mr. Truman wanted to help the world get "on its feet."

"I think if we can pass lend-lease and United Nations, we can certainly do this," he said.

The speaker did not visualize the President's program as any worldwide Reconstruction Finance Corporation, offering loans on a global scale, but as a means to interest private capital in aiding backward areas.

On the other side of the political fence, Senator Taft (R., Ohio) has made it plain he doubts the feasibility of Mr. Truman's "bold new program" to share the free world's technical skill and capital. He said last night the proposal "overpromises these nations."

Gives Currency Assurance

The Government's present powers to foster foreign investment are small.

The ECA can sign a guaranty contract with an American company undertaking to convert into dollars the firm's foreign-currency earnings. It does not guarantee that there will be earnings; it simply gives assurance that the company will not be left with a currency which it cannot use. ECA has $300,000,000 for this purpose, but industry has shown little interest. Only $1,000,000 or less has been committed.

The agency also is authorized to lend up to 5 per cent of its foreign-currency funds—the money put up by European governments in amounts equal to American dollar grants—to firms launching foreign operations. Mining companies have shown "real interest," ECA officials report, but none has actually taken up the offer.

RUSSIA PLANS DELEGATION TO WHEAT PARLEY

Argentina Also Will Join Washington Talks Starting Wednesday

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—The hope of President Truman that both Russia and Argentina might join other nations in discussing the world's food problem was apparently bearing fruit today.

Both countries have signified their intention to attend the International Wheat Agreement Conference here, beginning Wednesday.

Sixty-one nations have been invited, 38 already have accepted.

Mr. Truman invited the Russians and the Argentines last November to join the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. Neither did so.

Russia Asks For Visas

He said then:

"I think that if we could discuss with the Russians our mutual interest in agriculture, it would not be so difficult to discuss our differences in other fields."

The United States Embassy in Moscow announced that Russia has asked for visas for a Soviet delegation to the wheat talks.

Argentina announced last week that the Perón Government will be represented by Juan Scarpati, economic counselor at the Embassy in Washington .

The wheat meeting is open to all the United Nations. Its objective will be to divide up the world market among the major wheat exporting countries and to devise a system of maximum and minimum prices for the bread grain that would protect both growers and consumers.

Has President's Backing

Heretofore, both Russian and Argentina have followed an independent line by negotiating a series of direct agreements with a number of countries covering the sale of their exports for the purchase of various imports.

In his recent budget message to Congress, President Truman said that "if the international wheat agreement is successfully renegotiated, I shall recommend its ratification and the enactment of the necessary legislation to fulfill its provisions."

In talking to the fourth annual gathering of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization here last fall, Mr. Truman said:

"National emotions too often rise and fall with changes in commodity prices. We are counting on the Food and Agriculture Organization to remove some of the instability from farm production and farm prices around the world and thus to relieve some of the causes of international friction."

Would Replace Old Pact

The decision to call the impending conference was made by an eleven nation preparatory committee six weeks ago.

The new proposed pact would replace the old 36-nation agreement negotiated last March. That pact did not become effective principally because the United States Congress failed to act on it.

That agreement, which had the backing of President Truman, would have covered a five-year period. It would have divided the world wheat market among all the major exporters, except Russia and Argentina.

Under the plan the United States, Australia and Canada would have sold 500,000,000 bushels yearly for five years to thirty-three importing coutries. The United States would have been assured of an annual market for 185,000,000 bushels. Of the remainder, Canada would have furnished 230,000,000 bushels annually and Australia 85,000,000.

The price ranged from a ceiling of $2 a bushel to a minimum of $1.50 a bushel in the first year, declining 10 cents yearly to $1.10 in the fifth year. (A00)

CIO Asks Deferment For Merchant Seamen

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—The CIO today asked the Selective Service System to order a blanket deferment from the draft for "active skilled merchant seamen."

Philip Murray, CIO president, in a letter to Major Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, said that over twenty per cent of licensed officers and merchant seamen are within the draft age.

To draft these men, he said, would delay shipping, delivery of military supplies overseas, and Marshal-Plan shipments.

The draft itself is at a halt because the armed services' ranks are filled.

SOVIET U.N. GROUP ANTI-U.S. AS EVER

Shows No Signs Of Knowing About Peace Offensive

P. Carpenter

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 22 (AP)—The Russian delegation to the United Nations shows no signs of knowing about a new Soviet peace offensive. It's just as anti-American as ever.

This is regarded in United Nations circles as significant, since the United Nations in the past often has been the place for Russian trial balloons.

Jakob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, smiled this week when asked about reports of a peace offensive.

"Peace offensive?" he inquired. "I know of no peace offensive. Our policy of peaceful relations and co-operation with other nations is the same."

Later Malik went from the delegates' lounge into the chamber of the Security Council. There he unleashed a blistering attack on the United States. He accused the United States of making a deal with the Netherlands to protect American monopoly in Indonesia.

U.S. Delegation Skeptical

The United States delegation is skeptical, too. Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate, who returned this week from a two-month sick leave, said he always welcomed such developments and moves toward peace—but he had doubts how far this reported move would go.

Austin said frankly it would not be wise for the world to get its hopes up on the basis of what has appeared so far.

Relations in the United Nations between the Russians and the Americans are correct, as always. They say hello when they meet here, but that is as far as their exchange of views goes away from the Council tables.

The United Nations now is the only major forum in the world where Americans and Russians sit at the same table and talk. If the Russians are ready to talk peace, other delegates here say they want to see more signs of it than they have seen so far.

New U.N. Bid By Israel Seen

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 22 (AP)—Israel is expected to renew her demands for admission to the United Nations within the next week or ten days if Middle East armistice talks are successful.

Informed quarters said today Aubrey S. Eban, Israeli representative, already has approached some delegates, including the United States, as to the timing of the new move.

Seven Votes Expected

It is now believed Israel's membership bid will get the seven Security Council votes needed to send the application on to the Assembly which meets here April 5. If it gets past the Security Council, there was little doubt it would get the necessary two-thirds majority in the Assembly.

In Paris last December, the application received five affirmative votes—the United States, Russia, Colombia, Argentina and the Soviet Ukraine. Syria voted against the application and the other five Council members abstained.

Three Members Changed

The abstaining members were France, Britain, China, Belgium and Canada. Since then, Syria, Colombia and Belgium have been replaced by Egypt, Cuba and Norway.

Israel's chances of admittance now look better for several reasons. Cuba, at one time a vigorous opponent of the Palestine partition plan, recently recognized Israel. Official quarters have indicated Britain and France were about ready to announce recognition.

~~NIGHT LEAD PEIPING~~

BY SPENCER MOOSA

PEIPING, SUNDAY, JAN. 23-(AP)-THE PEACEFUL SURRENDER OF PEIPING TO THE COMMUNISTS WAS ARRANGED YESTERDAY IN A DEAL WHICH MAY SET THE PATTERN FOR PEACE ELSEWHERE IN CHINA.

ALREADY SOME NATIONALIST TROOPS HAVE MARCHED OUT OF PEIPING FOR "REORGANIZATION."

A NEW LIAISON OFFICE FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF PEIPING DURING A TRANSITION PERIOD IS EXPECTED TO INCLUDE GEN. FU TSO-YI, THE GOVERNMENT'S COMMANDER IN NORTH CHINA, AND GEN. YEH CHIEN-YING, THE RED ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF.

ON THE SURFACE, THIS TRANSITIONAL AGREEMENT PRESENTS FEATURES ALMOST TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

THE POLITICAL CONTROL OF PEIPING CHANGES, BUT YET POSTAL AND COMMUNICATION SERVICES WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD WILL BE MAINTAINED. FOREIGNERS ARE GUARANTEED THE SAFETY OF THEIR LIVES AND PROPERTY. FREEDOM OF RELIGION IS PERMITTED FOR EVERYONE.

UNLESS PRESENT INDICATIONS ARE FALSE, EVEN THE AIR LINK WITH THE OUTSIDE WORLD WILL BE ALLOWED.

IT IS STRONGLY RUMORED THAT RED GENERAL YEH, THE PROSPECTIVE RULER OF PEIPING, ALREADY IS IN TOWN, BUT THIS IS DOUBTFUL UNTIL SOME TIME LATE TODAY.

THE AGREEMENT WITH THE COMMUNISTS IS A MASTERPIECE IN FACE-SAVING. THERE IS NO MENTION ANYWHERE OF SURRENDER, ONLY THE SUBTLE IMPLICATION IN THE CLAUSE PROVIDING FOR TROOPS TO BE MOVED OUT OF THE CITY FOR "REORGANIZATION", A GOOD WORD.

FUTURE AGREEMENTS TO FOLLOW THE ONE ANNOUNCED LAST NIGHT WILL DOUBTLESS GIVE A BETTER IDEA OF WHAT IS IN STORE.

NATIONALIST OFFICIALS STRONGLY HINT THE AGREEMENT HAD NANKING'S APPROVAL, AND THIS IS QUITE PROBABLE. IN FACT, PEIPING MIGHT BE THE GUINEA PIG FOR NANKING, SHANGHAI AND OTHER CITIES.

IT IS BELIEVED GENERAL FU MAY MAKE A TRIP OUT OF TOWN TO ARRANGE A LOCAL PEACE AT LONG-BESIEGED TAIYUAN, TATUNG IN SHANSI PROVINCE AND KWEISUI, CAPITAL OF SUIYUAN IN FU'S OLD TERRITORY OF INNER MONGOLIA.

THE AIR FIELD IN THE LEGATION QUARTER HAS BEEN A BUSY PLACE FOR THE LAST TWO DAYS. AMONG THOSE WHO ARE REPORTED TO HAVE LEFT IS GEN. CHENG KAI-MIN, VICE-MINISTER OF NATIONAL DEFENSE AND HEAD OF THE NATIONALIST SECRET POLICE, AND HIS BROTHER, GEN. CHENG TING-FANG, A DIVISION COMMANDER AND AN OPPONENT OF ANY COMPROMISE WITH THE REDS.

THE CEASE-FIRE BECAME EFFECTIVE AT 10 A.M. YESTERDAY, ENDING 40 DAYS OF SIEGE.

JAN 1949

UNDER THE AGREEMENT, ALL OF FU'S TROOPS INSIDE THE CITY ARE TO BE MOVED OUT FOR REORGANIZATION.

THE AGREEMENT, A FATEFUL PAGE IN PEIPING'S FATEFUL HISTORY, WAS READ TO NEWSMEN BY MAJ.GEN. YEN YU-WEN, SPOKESMAN FOR FU'S HEADQUARTERS.

GEN.YEN WAS FAR FROM GLUM. HE SMILED BROADLY AND SEEMED TO BE IN THE BEST OF SPIRITS.

THE PREAMBLE SAID THE AGREEMENT WAS DESIGNED TO SHORTEN THE CIVIL WAR, SATISFY A PUBLIC DESIRE FOR PEACE, PROTECT THE FOUNDATION OF INDUSTRY AND COMMERCE AND THE REMAINING RELICS OF AN ANCIENT CIVILIZATION AND TO PREVENT THE VITALITY OF THE COUNTRY FROM SINKING ANY FURTHER.

IT SAID THAT FOR THESE PURPOSES AND "TO BRING FORTH AN EARLY REALIZATION OF A NATION-WIDE AND THOROUGH PEACE, BOTH SIDES HAVING CONSULTED EACH OTHER HAVE AGREED TO PUBLISH THE FOLLOWING POINTS."

THERE WERE THESE 13 POINTS TO THE AGREEMENT:

1. BOTH SIDES HAVE CEASED FIRE AT 10 A.M. JAN.22.
2. A LIAISON OFFICE TO BE ESTABLISHED BY BOTH SIDES TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL MILITARY AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS DURING A TRANSITION PERIOD.

SECOND LEAD NORTH CHINA

PEIPING, JAN 22 (AP)-A LOCALIZED PEACE FOR PEIPING WAS ANNOUNCED TONIGHT BY GEN.FU TSO-YI'S NORTH CHINA HEADQUARTERS.

A CEASE-FIRE EFFECTIVE AT 10 A.M., WAS EMBODIED IN A 13-POINT AGREEMENT WITH THE BESIEGING COMMUNISTS, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID.

IT SAID THE AGREEMENT PROVIDED FOR CREATION OF A LIAISON OFFICE REPRESENTING BOTH SIDES TO HANDLE ALL MILITARY AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS DURING AN UNSPECIFIED TRANSITIONAL PERIOD WHILE THE REDS TAKE OVER.

THUS ENDED A 40-DAY SIEGE OF THIS GREAT OLD NORTHERN CAPITAL, WHICH BOTH SIDES HAD BEEN OBVIOUSLY RELUCTANT TO SUBJECT TO THE DESTRUCTION OF BATTLE.

THE HEADQUARTERS SPOKESMAN ACKNOWLEDGED IN RESPONSE TO REPORTERS' QUESTIONS THAT SOME NATIONALIST TROOPS ALREADY HAD MOVED OUT OF PEIPING.

IN REPLY TO ANOTHER QUESTION, HE SAID THAT "IN PRINCIPLE" COMMUNIST TROOPS WOULD NOT MOVE INTO PEIPING--BUT HE DID NOT APPEAR POSITIVE ON THIS POINT.

THE 13-POINT AGREEMENT AS ANNOUNCED BY THE SPOKESMAN INCLUDED:

1. BOTH SIDES TO HAVE CEASED FIRE AT 10 A.M. TODAY, JAN. 22.
2. A LIAISON OFFICE TO BE ESTABLISHED BY BOTH SIDES AND BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL MILITARY AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS DURING THE TRANSITION PERIOD.
3. UNITS SMALLER THAN AN ARMY GROUP TO BEGIN MOVING OUTSIDE PEIPING FROM JAN. 22, KEEPING THEIR ORIGINAL ORGANIZATIONS AND DESIGNATIONS BUT TO BE REORGANIZED WITHIN ONE MONTH.
4. A NECESSARY NUMBER OF TROOPS TO BE RETAINED INSIDE THE CITY TO HELP POLICE MAINTAIN PUBLIC ORDER.

(OTHER POINTS APPARENTLY WERE DELAYED IN ERRATIC RADIO TRANSMISSION FROM PEIPING.)

GATE GUARDS, STANDING LAZILY IN THE BRIGHT SUNSHINE, DENIED THERE HAD BEEN ANY UNUSUAL TROOP MOVEMENTS -- OR ANY IMPENDING. SIGNAL CORPSMEN STILL STRUNG WIRES AND WORK ON A NEW AIRSTRIP NEAR THE LEGATION QUARTER PROCEEDED.

AS IF TO BELIE RUMORS OF PEACE, THE SOUND OF OCCASIONAL GUNFIRE RUMBLED THROUGH THE CITY FROM THE SUBURBS.

PEIPING'S STORES WERE FILLED WITH SHOPPERS MAKING PURCHASES FOR CELEBRATION OF THE CHINESE NEW YEAR, WHICH STARTS JAN. 29. ALL COMPLAINED OF HIGH PRICES.

EARLIER IN THE DAY, THERE WERE STRONG REPORTS OF A CHANGEOVER BY WHICH THE REDS WOULD GAIN THE CITY ANY MINUTE.

(CHINESE PRESS DISPATCHES TO NANKING REPORTED THAT FU'S ARMIES ALREADY ARE MOVING OUT OF PEIPING IN COMPLIANCE WITH TERMS FOR SURRENDER OF THE BIG CITY.

(THE NEWSPAPER MEI JIH WAN PAO REPORTED THAT THE COMMUNISTS HAD WITHDRAWN TO A DISTANCE 10 MILES FROM PEIPING TO PERMIT THE NATIONALISTS TO DEPART.

(A DISPATCH TELEPHONED TO THAT PAPER FROM PEIPING SAID FU WAS PREPARING TO RESIGN, AND THAT THE REDS WOULD ENTER THE CITY SUNDAY OR MONDAY. IT SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S 16TH ARMY AND FOURTH CAVALRY DIVISION ALREADY HAD LEFT FOR POINTS SOUTH OF PEIPING.

(THE NATIONALIST 101ST ARMY AND THE NEW THIRD ARMY, THE DISPATCH WENT ON, ARE PREPARING TO WITHDRAW FOR INCORPORATION INTO THE "PEOPLES' SELF PRESERVATION ARMY.")

NITE LEAD SHANGHAI (250)

BY FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, SUNDAY, JAN.23-(AP)-SURRENDER AT PEIPING AND THE SELECTION AT NANKING OF A FIVE-MAN PEACE DELEGATION LIFTED HOPES TODAY IN THIS LARGEST CITY IN ALL CHINA FOR AN EARLY END TO CIVIL WAR.

HOPES WERE NOT DAMPENED BY A RED BROADCAST DESCRIBING CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S RETIREMENT IN FAVOR OF VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN AN ACTION PROMPTED BY AMERICA.

THE DEPARTURE OF CHIANG SEEMED TO BE FADING RAPIDLY FROM PUBLIC CONSCIOUSNESS DESPITE HIS 22 YEARS AS CHINA'S LEADER.

SHANGHAI NEWSPAPERS HARDLY MENTIONED HIM ON FRONT PAGES. THEY WERE MAINLY CONCERNED WITH LI'S EFFORTS TO ARRANGE FOR PEACE.

THE COMMUNIST BLAST AT CHIANG'S RETIREMENT WAS NOT TAKEN TOO SERIOUSLY IN SHANGHAI. ANTI-FOREIGNISM HAS ALWAYS BEEN A STRONG FORCE IN CHINESE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS AND THE REDS HAVE BEEN HITTING HARD AT THE ANTI-AMERICAN ANGLE.

SOME, INDEED, SAY CHIANG'S LOSS OF PUBLIC FOLLOWING IN THE PAST FEW YEARS WAS DUE LARGELY TO THE FACT THAT HE COULD NOT PUT A STRONG ANTI-FOREIGN CAST ON HIS CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS.

FROM PEIPING, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA SENT A DISPATCH SAYING THE AGREEMENT THERE DOUBTLESS WOULD SET THE PATTERN FOR PEACE ELSEWHERE IN CHINA.

THAT WAS THE SUBJECT OF CONSIDERABLE INTEREST IN SHANGHAI, WHICH WITH NANKING AWAITS THE NEXT MOVE FROM THE REDS.

FROM CANTON, CORRESPONDENT F. K. WU REPORTED CONSIDERABLE GLOOM AT THE PROSPECT OF COMMUNISM SPREADING TO SOUTH CHINA.

WU SAID MANY WERE ESPECIALLY WORRIED AT THE POSSIBILITY OF THE COMMUNISTS UPSETTING THE SOCIAL AND FAMILY SYSTEMS.

HE SAID CHIANG'S RETIREMENT RECEIVED LITTLE EDITORIAL ATTENTION IN CANTON NEWSPAPERS, WHICH GENERALLY WERE APATHETIC.

MANY OF THE GOVERNMENT OFFICES HAVE MOVED FROM NANKING TO CANTON.

SAN FRANCISCO,JAN 22 (AP)-THE CHINESE COMMUNIST RADIO CHARGED TODAY THAT "CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S 'RETIREMENT' AND LI TSUNG-JEN'S TAKING OVER THE BOGUS PRESIDENCY IS ALL AT THE PROMPTING OF THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT."

THE BROADCAST, HEARD BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IN SAN FRANCISCO, WAS THE FIRST CHINESE RED REACTION TO CHIANG'S WITHDRAWAL FROM NANKING YESTERDAY. CHIANG WENT SOUTH, LEAVING LI AS ACTING PRESIDENT.

"LIBERATED AREAS NEWSPAPERS NOTED THE PREDICTION BY FOREIGN NEWS AGENCIES AT NANKING THAT CHIANG KAI SHEK'S FAILURE TO ANNOUNCE A FORMAL RESIGNATION IS DESIGNED TO LEAVE THE WAY OPEN FOR HIS RETURN LATER.

(KX) IN THEIR BLOODLESS CONQUEST OF PEIPING THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS ARE GAINING A PRIZE OF POLITICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL PROPORTIONS FAR OUT-WEIGHING ITS NEGLIGIBLE MILITARY VALUE.

THEY HAVE TAKEN A CITY WHICH, FOR CENTURIES, WAS THE SYMBOL OF CHINA'S GOVERNMENT--IT'S ANCIENT CAPITAL.

TO MOST EDUCATED CHINESE, AS WELL AS TO THE COUNTLESS WESTERNERS WHO HAVE FALLEN IN LOVE WITH IT, THE OLD MANCHU CAPITAL IS THE EPITOME OF ALL THAT IS BEST IN CHINA'S LONG CIVILIZATION.

TO MILLIONS OF ILLITERATE CHINESE IT IS STILL THE TRADITIONAL CAPITAL, WHEN ORDERS CAME FOR MANY CENTURIES BIDDING "TREMBLE AND OBEY."

IT IS A VIRTUAL MUSEUM OF ARCHITECTURAL AND HISTORICAL TREASURES, THE CHOSEN HOME OF SCHOLARS AND PHILOSOPHERS.

FAMED IN THE WEST SINCE THE JOURNEYS OF MARCO POLO, ITS RELATIONSHIP TO CHINA IS COMPARABLE TO THOSE OF ATHENS AND ROME TO EUROPEAN CULTURE.

ALL ALONG, PEIPING SUSTAINED A CALM, UNREASONING CONFIDENCE THAT, SOMEHOW, IT WOULD COME THROUGH THE LATEST OF THE MANY TRIBULATIONS IT HAS SURVIVED DOWN THREE MILLENIUMS OF RECORDED TIME.

AFTER ALL, THE JAPANESE HAD SPARED IT, EVEN THOUGH THEY STARTED WORLD WAR II OUTSIDE ITS GATES IN 1937; AND SIMILAR FORBEARANCE HAD BEEN SHOWN BY MOST CONQUERORS DATING BACK TO MEDIEVAL DAYS.

SITUATED ON A SANDY PLAIN, BREATHING THE RARE, WINELIKE ATMOSPHERE OF NORTH CHINA, PEIPING WAS KNOWN AS LONG AGO AS 2,000 B.C. AS YUCHOW.

B26KX

FOR CENTURIES IT WAS A CRUDE PLACE, OFTEN SACKED AND DESTROYED BUT ALWAYS REBUILT.

BY THE TENTH CENTURY IT WAS THE SEAT OF A STRONG KINGDOM AND, IN THE 13TH CENTURY, THE GREAT KUBLAI KHAN, GRANDSON OF GENGHIS KHAN, MADE IT HIS ROYAL RESIDENCE AND SEAT OF THE MONGOL GOVERNMENT, WHICH, IN TIME, WAS ABSORBED INTO THE CHINESE CIVILIZATION.

SHORTLY THEREAFTER IT BECAME THE CAPITAL OF ALL CHINA, A POSITION

MAINTAINED WITH FEW INTERRUPTIONS UNTIL THE TIME OF THE REPUBLIC.

IT WAS DESIGNATED PEKING, MEANING "NORTHERN CAPITAL," TO DISTINGUISH IT FROM ITS RIVAL NANKING, OR "SOUTHERN CAPITAL." WITH NANKING AS THE REPUBLIC'S CHOSEN SEAT, PEKING WAS CHANGED TO PEIPING, OR "NORTHERN PEACE." MANY OLDTIMERS IGNORE THIS MODERNISM AND STICK STUBBORNLY TO PEKING.

THE CITY CONSISTS OF THE SO-CALLED INNER CITY AND THE OUTER CITY, ALSO KNOWN AS THE TARTAR CITY. TOGETHER THEY COVER 25 SQUARE MILES, BOTH ENCLOSED BY MASSIVE BRICK WALLS.

THE INNER CITY'S WALLS ARE 37 FEET HIGH, THE OUTER CITY'S 21 FEET, BOTH IN FAIRLY GOOD REPAIR, TOUGH BRUSH-GROWN ON TOP.

WITHIN THE INNER CITY IS THE OLD "FORBIDDEN CITY," THE FORMER IMPERIAL QUARTERS, ALSO SURROUNDED BY WALLS, PINKISH-PURPLE IN COLOR.

DISPATCHES DURING THE COMMUNIST SIEGE QUOTED RESIDENTS AS BEING PRACTICALLY IN TEARS BECAUSE SOLDIERS QUARTERED IN THE OLD PALACE AND OTHER FINE BUILDINGS WERE DESTROYING WOODWORK TO FEED THEIR FIRES.

DEMOLITION OF SOME FINE OLD BUILDINGS AND CUTTING OF SOME CENTURIES-OLD CRYPTOMERIA TREES IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF EMERGENCY AIRSTRIPS CAUSED ANGUISHED PROTESTS.

THE COMMUNISTS ALSO CAUSED SOME NEIGHBORING DESTRUCTION BY SPORADIC SHELLING OF THE EMERGENCY STRIPS, BUT IN THE MAIN THEY CAPITALIZED SHREWDLY ON THE PUBLIC'S OBVIOUS PREFERENCE TO SURRENDER PEIPING RATHER THAN RISK ITS DESTRUCTION IN BATTLE.

NOW THE COMMUNISTS ARE GETTING A CITY THAT IS A "GOING CONCERN" AND WHOSE 2,000,000 POPULATION MAY BE INCLINED TOWARDS GRATITUDE.

IT COULD MAKE THEM A USEFUL CAPITAL, REGARDLESS OF HOW THE NANKING GOVERNMENT'S PEACE OVERTURES TURN OUT.

LONDON, JAN.22-(AP)-WESTERN DEFENSE TALK, VARIOUS NEWS FROM THE SOVIET BLOC AND HINTS OF A POSSIBLE COMMUNIST PEACE OFFENSIVE SHOWED CONFLICTING CURRENTS TONIGHT IN THE TREND OF EAST-WEST RELATIONS.

RESPONSIBLE DIPLOMATIC SOURCES IN LONDON SAID THE FIVE-NATION WESTERN EUROPEAN ALLIANCE HAS AGREED ON A COMMON DEFENSE LINE STRETCHING FROM THE DUTCH SEA COAST TO SWITZERLAND. SCANDINAVIANS TALKED OVER A COMMON DEFENSE POLICY IN COPENHAGEN.

SOVIET RUSSIA'S INDICATION OF HER INTENTION TO ATTEND THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT CONFERENCE OPENING IN WASHINGTON WEDNESDAY MIGHT BE ANOTHER STRAW IN THE WIND OF AN EFFORT TO CONVINCE THE WORLD OF HER PEACEFUL AIMS. RUSSIA PASSED UP THE 1947 CONFERENCE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN SAID LAST NOVEMBER "I THINK THAT IF WE COULD DISCUSS WITH THE RUSSIANS OUR MUTUAL INTEREST IN AGRICULTURE, IT WOULD NOT BE DIFFICULT TO DISCUSS OUR DIFFERENCES IN OTHER FIELDS."

OTHER FACTORS WHICH INTERESTED OBSERVERS WERE RUSSIA'S DECISION TO ADMIT A NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT TO MOSCOW, WHERE THE PAPER HAD NOT BEEN REPRESENTED FOR ALMOST A YEAR, AND RECENT SPEECHES BY LEADING COMMUNISTS OF FRANCE AND ITALY ON THE THEME WAR WAS NOT INEVITABLE.

THERE HAS BEEN A SERIES OF TRADE AGREEMENTS RECENTLY BETWEEN SOVIET SATELLITES AND WESTERN NATIONS. DIPLOMATS IN LONDON, HOWEVER, SAID THESE PROBABLY RESULTED FROM ECONOMIC NECESSITY RATHER THAN FROM A CHANGE IN SOVIET POLICY.

FROM ONE AFTER ANOTHER OF THE SATELLITES CAME REPORTS THAT THE COMMUNIST RULERS OF EASTERN EUROPE ARE TIGHTENING THEIR ANTI-CAPITALIST FRONT.

PALESTINE INTERPRETIVE

BY EDWARD CURTIS AND ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON, JAN.22-(AP)-BRITISH RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL, EXPECTED SOON, APPEARS TO BE PART OF ANGLO-AMERICAN STRATEGY TO BAR RUSSIA FROM THE MIDDLE EAST.

BRITAIN PLANS FORMALLY TO ACKNOWLEDGE--PERHAPS MONDAY--THAT THE JEWISH STATE EXISTS. IT WILL END A THREE-YEAR CHAPTER OF BITTER, OFTEN BLOODY, BRITISH-JEWISH RELATIONS. IT WILL BRING CLOSE TOGETHER AMERICAN AND BRITISH POLICIES IN THAT VITAL AREA.

THE UNITED STATES IS EXPECTED AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME TO GIVE RECOGNITION TO KING ABDULLAH OF TRANS-JORDAN. HIS ARAB LEGION TROOPS FOUGHT AGAINST THE JEWS IN PALESTINE.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH DIPLOMATS SAY THAT, WITHOUT PEACE, THE MIDDLE EAST SOON MIGHT BECOME A FIELD OF EXTENDED COMMUNIST ACTIVITY. SMALL COMMUNIST CELLS ALREADY ARE ACTIVE IN MOST OF THE ARAB COUNTRIES. THERE IS A COMMUNIST PARTY IN ISRAEL.

THESE GROUPS HAVE BEEN ABLE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE OFTEN OPPOSING MIDDLE EAST POLICIES OF BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES.

BRITISH RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL WOULD BE A MAJOR TURNABOUT IN POLICY. PAST BRITISH POLICY HAS BEEN BASED ON FRIENDSHIP WITH THE ARAB NATIONS. THEIR SPRAWLING COUNTRIES, MUCH OF THEM DESERTS, LINK THE MEDITERRANEAN TO THE FAR EAST. THE SUEZ CANAL, BRITAIN'S TRADE ROUTE TO THE EAST, IS CUT THROUGH EGYPT.

ALWAYS STRATEGICALLY IMPORTANT TO BRITAIN, THE AREA NOW HAS BEEN DEVELOPED INTO ONE OF THE WORLD'S GREAT OIL RESERVOIRS.

BRITISH AND AMERICAN CONCERNS HOLD THE BIGGEST PART OF THE ARAB OIL CONCESSIONS. SMALLER SHARES ARE HELD BY FRANCE AND THE NETHERLANDS.

WHILE BRITAIN HAS BEEN PREOCCUPIED WITH THE ARABS, THE UNITED STATES BECAME INTERESTED IN THE ZIONIST CAUSE. THE JEWS WANTED A HOME, A STATE OF THEIR OWN. THEY WANTED IT IN PALESTINE.

BRITAIN GAVE UP HER LEAGUE OF NATIONS MANDATE IN PALESTINE LAST SPRING, DECLARING NO SOLUTION ACCEPTABLE TO BOTH THE JEWS AND ARABS WAS POSSIBLE. THE UNITED NATIONS VOTED FOR PARTITION. THE ARABS REFUSED TO ACCEPT IT. THE WAR IN PALESTINE BEGAN.

ARAB LEADERS CRIED OUT THAT 40,000,000 ARABS COULD NOT BE BEATEN BY A COMPARATIVE HANDFUL OF FEWER THAN 1,000,000 JEWS.

WHEN THE ARAB REVERSES BEGAN, THE ARAB LEADERS DECLARED BRITAIN

HAD DESERTED THEM. THE JEWS CONTENDED, MEANWHILE, THAT THE BRITISH WERE ACTIVELY HELPING THE ARABS IN THE WAR.

A140

THE JEWS USED THEIR EDUCATION AND DETERMINATION TO BUILD QUICKLY A SMALL BUT HARDHITTING FORCE. THE ARABS BICKERED AMONG THEMSELVES. THEIR ARMIES WERE RECRUITED FROM COUNTRIES WHERE ILLITERACY WAS THE RULE, NOT THE EXCEPTION.

THE JEWS WERE FIGHTING FOR A STATE. THE ARABS WERE FIGHTING BECAUSE THEIR LEADERS ORDERED THEM TO.

AGAINST THEIR LOSSES IN THE FIELD, THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS BEGAN TO FACE INCREASING UNREST AT HOME. THE SEVEN-NATION ARAB LEAGUE BEGAN TO FALL APART.

THE ARABS SHUT OFF AN OIL PIPELINE FROM THE IRAQ FIELDS TO HAIFA, ISRAEL. THE FIGHTING ALSO BLOCKED PROPOSED CONSTRUCTION OF NEW PIPELINES FROM SAUDI ARABIA AND IRANIAN OIL FIELDS TO THE MEDITERRANEAN COAST.

THE ARABS AIMED AT PUTTING PRESSURE ON BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES. THE OIL WAS NEEDED FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY.

SLOWLY, THE TWO COUNTRIES BEGAN WORKING TOWARD A COMMON POLICY.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN, OFTEN TERMED PERSONALLY EMBITTERED FOR THE VIOLENCE OF SOME JEWISH GROUPS, MOVED CLOSER TO THE UNITED STATES POSITION. HE ALSO SOUGHT TO BRING THE AMERICAN POSITION CLOSER TO HIS.

HIS ENTIRE PALESTINE POLICY CAME UNDER FIRE IN PARLIAMENT.

CRITICS SAID BEVIN'S REFUSAL TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL HAD NEEDLESSLY COST BRITISH LIVES AND BROUGHT BRITAIN NEAR OPEN WAR WITH THE JEWS.

FROM TOP LEVEL TALKS IN WASHINGTON AND IN LONDON, A NEW POLICY EMERGED. DIPLOMATS OF BOTH COUNTRIES IN THE MIDDLE EAST BEGAN A CAMPAIGN TO RESTORE PEACE.

MANY LEADING BRITONS HAVE EXPRESSED HOPE THAT BRITISH RECOGNITION WILL BE USED BY MODERATE ELEMENTS IN ISRAEL TO RESTORE ANGLO-JEWISH FRIENDSHIP.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN 22-(AP)-A TRUCE BETWEEN CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT AND THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH APPEARED TO BE DEVELOPING TODAY.

PRESIDENT KLEMENT GOTTWALD AND THREE CHURCH BISHOPS HELD A MYSTERY CONFERENCE EARLY THIS WEEK. NEITHER SIDE WOULD TALK ABOUT IT. BUT THE PEACE PROSPECTS WERE BORNE OUT BY TWO THINGS:

A BITTER CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE CHURCH HIERARCHY IN THE PRESS AND ON THE RADIO, BOTH CONTROLLED BY THE GOVERNMENT, HAS DIED OUT AS QUICKLY AS IT APPEARED.

THE CATHOLIC PEOPLE'S PARTY, WHICH NOW SUBORDINATES THE "CATHOLIC" EMPHASIS IT USED TO GIVE ITS NAME, IS PREPARING TO INCREASE ITS MEMBERSHIP SLIGHTLY. IT IS ONE OF THE PARTIES STILL PERMITTED MEMBERSHIP IN THE NOMINAL NATIONAL FRONT CAOLITION.

THE PARTY HAS TWO MINISTERS IN THE CABINET. ONE OF THEM IS THE REV. JOSEF PKOJHAR, HEALTH MINISTER, A CATHOLIC PRIEST. HE WAS REWARDED WITH THE POLITICAL POST FOR FOLLOWING COMMUNIST PATHS POLITICALLY.

THE BISHOPS'S CONFERENCE STRIPPED HIM OF HIS RIGHTS AS A PRIEST ON THE GROUND THAT PRIESTS SHOULD NOT TAKE PART IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY. THE GOVERNMENT INSISTED ON KEEPING AND DEFENDING PLOJHAR.

THE FEUD WAS FED BY CONVICTION OF A NUMBER OF MEMBERS OF HOLY ORDERS ON CHARGES OF PLOTTING AGAINST THE STATE AND HELPING PLOTTERS ESCAPE THE COUNTRY.

THE PRESS AND RADIO CAMPAIGN, WHICH WAS TURNED ON AND OFF WITH ALL THE EVIDENCE OF PLANNED MANEUVERING, CHARGED ARCHBISHOP JOSEF BERAN AND OTHER HIGH CLERGYMEN WERE HIDING ENEMIES OF THE STATE.

THE CAMPAIGN RESEMBLED THAT IN COMMUNIST-RULED HUNGARY--LIKE CZECHOSLOVAKIA PREDOMINATELY CATHOLIC--WHICH PRECEDED THE ARREST OF JOSEF CARDINAL MINDSZENTY LAST MONTH.

BUT IT APPEARED THERE WOULD BE NO MINDSZENTY CASE HERE.

SECURITY POLICE ANNOUNCED VICAN HAD BEEN AN OFFICIAL OF THE GERMAN OCCUPATION GOVERNMENT UNDER DR. JOSEPH TISO, WHO WAS HANGED IN 1947 FOR TREASON. THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID OTHERS IN THE GROUP WERE MEMBERS OF THE OLD TISO OR HLINKA GUARD, A FASCIST ORGANIZATION THAT COOPERATED WITH THE GERMANS.

A JESUIT PRIEST, PROFESSOR KOLAKOVIC, WAS DECLARED IMPLICATED. THE POLICE SAID HE WAS "A MEMBER OF THE VATICAN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE."

THE LIST OF DEFENDANTS INCLUDED TEACHERS, A DOCTOR, LAWYERS, BUSINESS MEN, TECHNICAL ENGINEERS, FARMERS AND 10 STATE OFFICIALS OF SLOVAKIA.

HITLER GAVE SLOVAKIA THE STATUS OF AN INDIVIDUAL STATE AND MUCH OF THE FEELING OF INDEPENDENCE HAS REMAINED.

THE LABOR NEWSPAPER PRACE DREW UP THIS COMMENT:

"THESE ENEMIES OF THE STATE COULD FIND NO SYMPATHY AMONG THE PEOPLE WITH THEIR AIM TO OVERTHROW THE REGIME, SO THEY WENT OVER TO THE DESPICABLE TRADE OF SELLING THEIR COUNTRY FOR PAY."

REPORTS FROM AUSTRIAN BORDER REGIONS SAID NORMAL FORCES OF CZECH BORDER GUARDS HAVE BEEN REINFORCED BY MILITARY UNITS RECENTLY. GUARDS ALSO WERE SAID TO HAVE BEEN INCREASED ON THE BORDER OF THE U.S. OCCUPATION ZONE OF GERMANY.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, JAN. 22-(AP)-THE AUSTRIAN PRESS AGENCY REPORTED FROM PRAGUE TODAY THAT BETWEEN 200 AND 400 CZECH OFFICERS WERE ARRESTED BY POLICE LAST MONTH ON CHARGES OF ATTEMPTING TO OVERTHROW CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT.

THE AGENCY QUOTED RELIABLE SOURCES WHICH WERE NOT FURTHER DESCRIBED.

IT SAID THE ARRESTED OFFICERS INCLUDED A NUMBER OF GENERALS, AMONG THEM GEN. KAREL KUTLVASCER WHO WAS DESCRIBED AS "COMMANDER OF CZECH LIBERATION FORCES" IN PRAGUE IN 1945.

NIGHT LEAD SCANDINAVIAN (190)

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, JAN. 22-(AP)-A SCANDINAVIAN DEFENSE ALLIANCE IS EXPECTED TO RESULT FROM TALKS HERE BY LEADERS OF DENMARK, NORWAY AND SWEDEN, A DANISH DELEGATE SAID TONIGHT.

THIRTY-THREE TOP POLITICAL LEADERS, INCLUDING PREMIERS OF THE THREE COUNTRIES, MET IN CHRISTIANBORG CASTLE TO DISCUSS A COMMON DEFENSE SYSTEM. OUTSIDE, COMMUNISTS MARCHED AND PICKETED, BEARING BANNERS WITH SUCH SLOGANS AS "NO SCANDINAVIAN WAR BLOC" AND WE WON'T PAY FOR OUR FREEDOM WITH DOLLARS."

"IT IS A SIMPLE NECESSITY THAT THE THREE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES STICK CLOSELY TOGETHER," THE DANISH SPOKESMAN SAID, "AND IT WOULD BE A DISASTER IF IT CAME TO A SPLIT NOW.

"THERE ARE STILL SOME DIFFERENCES OF OPINION BETWEEN SWEDEN AND NORWAY, WHICH REMAINS TO BE STRAIGHTENED OUT. SWEDEN WANTS A PACT BASED ON NEUTRALITY, WHILE NORWAY ADVOCATES AN ALLIANCE WHICH WOULD RECEIVE WEAPONS AND CERTAIN GUARANTEES FROM THE WESTERN POWERS.

"THE PRIME MINISTERS WILL MEET LATER TONIGHT IN AN EFFORT TO DRAFT A NOTE TO THE ATLANTIC UNION MEMBERS. THEY WILL TRY TO WORK OUT TOGETHER THE DIFFERENT VIEWS AND PRESENT THEM TO THE WESTERN POWERS IN THE NAME OF SCANDINAVIA."

ATHENS, JAN 22-(AP)-GREECE'S NEW GENERALISSIMO, GEN.ALEXANDER PAPAGOS HAS CALLED ON HIS TROOPS TO STAMP OUT THE REBELS--OR DIE TRYING.

IN AN ORDER OF THE DAY--ISSUED AS THE COMMUNIST-LED GUERRILLAS WERE PRESSING THEIR CAMPAIGN IN NORTHERN GREECE AND IN THE PELOPONNESUS--PAPAGOS SAID:

"EVERY SECTION THAT IS UNABLE TO ADVANCE WILL HAVE TO HOLD ITS POSITION AND WILL CHOOSE TO BE KILLED INSTEAD OF WITHDRAWING."

PAPAGOS, HERO OF THE GREEK-ITALIAN FIGHTING OF 1940-41 ASKED HIS TROOPS TO BE FAITHFUL TO THE IDEA OF ONE GREEK NATION.

THE GENERALISSIMO ACCEPTED HIS APPOINTMENT FROM THE NEW COALITION GOVERNMENT OF PREMIER THEMISTOKLES SOPHOULIS ON CONDITION HE HAVE A FREE HAND IN DIRECTING WARFARE AGAINST THE REBELS.

EVEN AS PAPAGOS' ORDER WENT OUT, A GENERAL STAFF COMMUNIQUE SAID THE BELEAGUERED GARRISON AT KARPENSI IN THE NORTHERN MOUNTAINS, HAD SUCCEEDED IN BREAKING THROUGH ENEMY LINES. CLASHES BETWEEN RELIEF FORCES AND THE REBEL ATTACKERS WERE CONTINUING, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

DETAILS WERE MISSING ABOUT THE SITUATION INSIDE KARPENSI, WHICH HAS BEEN UNDER HEAVY REBEL ATTACK SINCE THURSDAY. RADIO CONTACT WITH THE GOVERNMENT GARRISON DEFENDING THE TOWN HAD BEEN BROKEN. KARPENSI LIES 125 MILES NORTHWEST OF ATHENS.

THE HAGUE, THE NETHERLANDS, JAN. 22-(AP)-DR. D.U.STIKKER, DUTCH FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID "CHAOS" WILL RESULT IF THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL ADOPTS A FOUR-POWER RESOLUTION FOR SETTLING THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM.

THE RESOLUTION WAS OFFERED YESTERDAY BY THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, CUBA AND NORWAY. IT CALLS ON THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO HALT IMMEDIATELY ALL FIGHTING IN INDONESIA, DEMANDS IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS HELD BY THE DUTCH, AND SETS UP A TIME TABLE FOR ESTABLISHING A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

THE FOREIGN MINISTE TOLD THE FOREIGN PRESS ASSOCIATION AT ITS ANNUAL DINNER THAT ADOPTION OF SUCH A RESOLUTION WOULD MEAN "CHAOS IN INDONESIA AND SUBSEQUENTLY CHAOS IN THE NETHERLANDS."

HE REFERRED TO THE "CONSTANTLY INCREASING ROLE OF THE UNITED STATES" IN THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM AND ASKED WHETHER THE U.S. "INTENDS TO TAKE OVER FROM THE NETHERLANDS, IN THE PERIOD UNTIL THE FORMATION OF A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA, RESPONSIBILITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF LAW AND ORDER."

HE ADDED HE BELIEVES SUCH WAS NOT THE INTENTION OF THE U.S. IN INTRODUCING THE RESOLUTION.

STIKKER CONTENDED THE AMERICAN MEMBER WOULD HOLD THE BALANCE OF POWER IN A PROPOSED U.N. COMMISSION FOR INDONESIA BUT ADDED THE U.S. MEMBER WOULD HAVE "NO POLICE AT HIS DISPOSAL TO SEE THAT THE COMMISSION'S DECISIONS WILL BE CARRIED OUT."

HE SAID THAT CARRYING OUT THE PROPOSAL WOULD STALL THE PRESENT DIRECT CONVERSATIONS BETWEEN ALL POLITICAL GROUPS, INCLUDING REPUBLICANS, ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ALL-INDONESIAN INTERIM GOVERNMENT.

STIKKER SHARPLY ATTACKED THE WORLD PRESS, PARTICULARLY THE AMERICAN PRESS, FOR THE WAY IN WHICH HE SAID IT HAS DEALT WITH INDONESIA. THE NETHERLANDS, HE SAID, IS ENTITLED TO MORE CONFIDENCE THAT IT HAS RECENTLY RECEIVED.

STRESSING WHAT HE CALLED THE DUTCH SHARE IN RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEFENDING AND ESTABLISHING DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS IN EUROPE AND ASIA, STIKKER SAID THERE CAN BE NO DISAGREEMENT AMONG DEMOCRATIC NATIONS AS TO THEIR ULTIMATE AIMS. HE ADDED THAT UNFORTUNATELY THERE IS CONSIDERABLE DIFFERENCE OF OPINION AS TO THE BEST WAY TO DEAL WITH THIS PROBLEM AS IT IS PRESENTED IN SOUTHEAST ASIA.

THE FOREIGN MINISTER SAID THE NETHERLANDS HAS A PRACTICABLE PLAN TO MAKE DEMOCRACY WORK IN INDONESIA AND ASKED WHY IT IS HINDERED IN PUTTING THIS PLAN INTO EFFECT. HE ASKED IF THIS HINDRANCE IS BECAUSE DUTCH SINCERITY IS DOUBTED AND ADDED THAT THEIR RECORD DOES NOT JUSTIFY SUCH A DOUBT.

"IS IT BECAUSE OUR COMPETENCE IS DOUBTED?" HE ASKED. "WE USED TO BE PRAISED AS SUCCESSFUL AND PROGRESSIVE PIONEERS."

HE SAID HE IS INCLINED TO LOOK FOR A CONFUSION OF WORDS AND IDEAS ABOUT DEMOCRACY AND SAID THERE IS A GAP BETWEEN THE WORDS AND REALITIES IN THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA.

STIKKER SAID THE NETHERLANDS WILL FULFILL ITS PLEDGES AND IMPLEMENT PROMISES. IT WILL CREATE A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA AND A UNION BETWEEN IT AND THE NETHERLANDS, HE ADDED.

HE CONCLUDED BY REFERRING TO NEXT WEEK'S MEETING WITH HIS COLLEAGUES OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION IN LONDON. THESE MEETINGS, HE SAID, HAVE SHOWED IN THE PAST THAT "OUR COURSES OF ACTION FOLLOW PARALLEL LINES AND LEAD TO HARMONY."

RUSSIAN
BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, JAN.22-(AP)-PRAVDA'S EDITOR, IN THE PRESENCE OF PREMIER STALIN, DECLARED LAST NIGHT THAT THIS IS THE CENTURY OF COMMUNISM, NOT OF WALL STREET.

AT THE SAME TIME P.N. POSPELOV, THE EDITOR WHO ADDRESSED SOVIET LEADERS ON THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF LENIN, DECLARED SOVIET RUSSIA HAS AN "UNSHAKEABLE WILL FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION." HE REMINDED HIS AUDIENCE OF STALIN'S ASSERTION THAT PEACE IS POSSIBLE BETWEEN THE DIFFERING SYSTEMS, BUT BITTERLY ATTACKED "ANGLO-AMERICAN WARMONGERS."

(POSPELOV'S SPEECH APPEARED TO BE THE LATEST DEVELOPMENT IN THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR IN WHICH THERE HAVE BEEN SIGNS OF A SOVIET DRIVE TO CONVINCE THE WORLD SHE WANTS PEACE. HE SPOKE JUST A DAY AFTER PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS CALLED COMMUNISM A "FALSE PHILOSOPHY" AND PREDICTED ITS FOLLOWERS IN DUE TIME WOULD RECOGNIZE DEMOCRACY'S STRENGTH, "ABANDON THEIR DELUSIONS" AND JOIN WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD IN AN INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT.)

POSPELOV CITED CHINA AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE FAILURE OF PLANS OF "AMERICAN REACTIONARIES" AND SAID THE COMMUNISTS THERE WERE "WINNING DECISIVE VICTORIES."

HE SAID LENIN ONCE WROTE THAT THE "ISSUE OF THE STRUGGLE DEPENDS IN THE END ON THE FACT THAT RUSSIA, INDIA, CHINA AND OTHERS CONSTITUTE THE OVERWHELMING MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION."

"AND PRECISELY THIS MAJORITY OF THE POPULATION IS BEING DRAWN WITH EXTRAORDINARY SPEED IN THE COURSE OF THE LAST YEARS INTO A STRUGGLE FOR THEIR LIBERATION," SAID THE DITOR.

CONCLUDING THAT THERE ARE 24,000,000 COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS AROUND THE WORLD, POSPELOV DECLARED: "THE TWENTIETH CENTURY WILL BE A CENTURY OF THE COMPLETE TRIUMPH OF LENIN, THE TRIUMPH OF THE GREAT IDEOLOGY OF EQUALITY AND FRIENDSHIP AMONG THE PEOPLES."

CITING INDONESIA, MALAYA AND INDOCHINA, HE DECLARED "THE GROWTH OF NATIONAL LIBERATION MOVEMENTS IN COLONIES AND SEMI-COLONIES ARE IMPRESSIONS OF THE GENERAL CRISIS OF CAPITALISM. CAPITALISM IS DECAYING X X X NO FORCE EXISTS WHICH CAN PREVENT ITS DOWNFALL."

AT THE SAME TIME, HE DECLARED THE COUNTRIES OF WESTERN EUROPE WHICH "FELL UNDER THE HEAVY YOKE OF THE ENSLAVING MARSHALL PLAN" WERE STRUGGLING WITH A BURDEN OF GROWING UNEMPLOYMENT, AND RISING PRICES.

CHINA, HE SAID, WAS AN "EXAMPLE OF HOW HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF SUBJUGATED TOILERS OF THE EAST ARE BEING TAUGHT AND EDUCATED FOR THE REVOLUTIONARY STRUGGLE BY CAPITALISM ITSELF. IS IT NOT AMERICAN CAPITALISM WHICH IS ASSISTING IN FANNING THE CIVIL WAR IN CHINA, DISPATCHING TO THE AID OF CHINESE REACTIONARIES AN ENORMOUS AMOUNT OF MODERN ARMAMENTS?

"NOTWITHSTANDING THIS FACT, THE PEOPLES LIBERATION ARMY OF CHINA HAS LIBERATED FROM THE YOKE OF THE REACTIONARIES A CONSIDERABLE PART OF CHINA'S TERRITORY, IS WINNING DECISIVE VICTORIES WHILE THE "FAR-SEEING POLICY' OF AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS IN CHINA REMAINS HANGING IN THE AIR."

HE SAID STALIN'S FOREIGN POLICY WAS "DIRECTED TOWARD A CONSISTENT STRUGGLE AGAINST THE FORCES OF AGGRESSION, AGAINST THE INSTIGATORS OF A NEW WAR, TOWARD EXPOSURE OF THE EXPANSIONIST POLICY OF ANGLO-AMERICAN IMPERIALISTS."

THIS "CONSISTENT, PEACEFUL" POLICY, HE SAID, FLOWED FROM RUSSIA'S "UNSHAKEABLE WILL FOR INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ON A BASIS OF RECIPROCITY, STRICT OBSERVANCE OF CONTRACTED OBLIGATIONS."

POSPELOV, WHO IS A MEMBER OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, AS WELL AS EDITOR OF ITS OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER, SPOKE FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR TO THE DISTINGUISHED GATHERING IN THE BOLSHOI THEATER.

AT ONE POINT, REFERRING TO MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA, HE SAID THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE JUBILATION AMONG THE "IMPERIALISTS" AT "THE SECESSION FROM MARXISM OF TITO'S NATIONALIST GROUP". BUT HE SAID THE CELEBRATION WAS PREMATURE.

TITO, IN A SPEECH TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF SERBIA IN BELGRADE LAST NIGHT, ACCUSED RUSSIA HERSELF OF DEVIATING FROM THE MARXIST PARTY LINE.

(HE SAID THE EQUALITY OF SMALL COUNTRIES WITH BIG ONES WAS AN IMPORTANT MARXIST PRINCIPLE, AND "EVERY DIVERSION FROM THIS MARXIST PRINCIPLE BRINGS GREAT HARM TO ALL PROGRESSIVE ELEMENTS IN THE WORLD WHO ARE FIGHTING AGAINST IMPERIALIST ENSLAVERS." HE SAID ANTI-YUGOSLAV PROPAGANDA ON THE MOSCOW RADIO WAS "ENEMY PROPAGANDA AND CONTRA-REVOLUTIONARY PROPAGANDA.")

A SERIES OF OTHER DEVELOPMENTS FITTED IN WITH POSPELOV'S SPEECH STRESSING RUSSIA'S PEACEFUL INTENTIONS BUT HER BELIEF IN THE ULTIMATE TRIUMPH OF COMMUNISM.

THE FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY ANNOUNCED THAT THE NEW YORK TIMES IS TO BE REPRESENTED HERE BY A CORRESPONDENT FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE SPRING OF 1947. AN ENTRANCE VISA HAS BEEN GRANTED TO HARRISON E. SALISBURY AS TIMES CORRESPONDENT.

A26

EDWIN L. JAMES, TIMES MANAGING EDITOR, IN AN OPEN LETTER TO PRIME MINISTER STALIN RECENTLY SUGGESTED THAT ENABLING THE TIMES TO MAINTAIN A NEWS BUREAU IN MOSCOW AS ONE WAY TO A BETTER U.S.-SOVIET UNDERSTANDING.)

THE U.S. EMBASSY ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT RUSSIA HAS ASKED FOR VISAS FOR A SOVIET DELEGATION TO THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT CONFERENCE OPENING IN WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK. THE RUSSIANS DID NOT ATTEND THE LAST WHEAT CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON IN JANUARY-MARCH, 1948. THE SOVIET IS NOW A LARGE GRAIN EXPORTER AND THE CONFERENCE, UNDER AUSPICES OF THE U.N. FOOD AND AGRICULTURAL ORGANIZATION, WILL SEEK TO REGULATE THE INTERNATIONAL WHEAT MARKET.

(MARCEL CACHIN, VETERAN FRENCH COMMUNIST EDITOR AND LEADER, STARTED REPORTS OF A NEW RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE TO MAKE THE WORLD BELIEVE IT CAN GET ALONG WITH STALIN BY A SPEECH LAST WEEK IN WHICH HE URGED AN EAST-WEST UNDERSTANDING. SPEAKING AT FLORENCE, ITALY, LAST NIGHT, HE DECLARED "THE POSSIBILITY EXISTS FOR AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA."

("IF THE AMERICAN AND RUSSIAN PEOPLE FOUGHT THE WAR TOGETHER, IT IS EVEN MORE PROBABLE THEY CAN CONSTRUCT THE PEACE TOGETHER," HE SAID.)

MOSCOW, JAN. 22-(AP)-A TASS DISPATCH GIVING THE FIRST SOVIET COMMENTARY ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL SPEECH DESCRIBED IT TODAY AS AN "ENRAGED ATTACK" ON COMMUNISM.

ALL PAPERS PUBLISHED PROMINENTLY THE DISPATCH OF THE OFFICIAL NEWS AGENCY WHICH SAID THE PRESIDENT SPOKE CONTRARY TO THE REAL SITUATION WHEN HE DESCRIBED COMMUNISM AS "PREACHING WAR."

JAN 1949

THE DISPATCH ENUMERATED THE FOUR MAIN POINTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY. COMING TO THE FOURTH POINT, WHICH SUGGESTED A NEW PROGRAM OF AID OF POORLY DEVELOPED COUNTRIES, TASS SAID THIS WAS A PLAN TO SECURE THE "MAXIMUM POSSIBILITIES FOR PENETRATION BY AMERICAN CAPITAL INTO BACKWARD NATIONS.

JR521AES

MOSCOW, JAN. 22-(AP)-A TASS DISPATCH TODAY SAID THE ASIAN CONFERENCE IN NEW DELHI IS ATTEMPTING SOMETHING ELSE BESIDES A REAL SOLUTION OF THE INDONESIAN QUESTION.

"THE GENERAL IMPRESSION" IS THAT THE CONFERENCE IS "A PREPARATION FOR CREATION OF AN ALLIANCE" SIMILAR TO THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION AND THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES, SAID THE DISPATCH.

"SUCH PURPOSES BY NO MEANS CONTRIBUTE TOWARD A CORRECT SOLUTION OF THE INDONESIAN PROBLEM IN THE SPIRIT OF INTERNATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES."

TASS SAID SPECIAL SIGNIFICANCE WAS ATTACHED TO THE ADDRESSES OF INDIAN PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU AND THE REPRESENTATIVES OF YEMEN, IRAQ AND EGYPT FAVORING CREATION OF AN APPARATUS FOR MUTUAL CONSULTATIONS AND COORDINATED ACTION.

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE

BY L.S.CHAKALES

RHODES, JAN.22-(AP)-EGYPTIAN AND ISRAELI ARMISTICE NEGOTIATORS CONFERRED AGAIN TODAY WITH ACTING PALESTINE MEDIATOR RALPH J.BUNCHE IN TALKS WHICH MAY SPELL SUCCESS OR FAILURE FOR THE PEACE TALKS.

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THE JEWS ARE INSISTING ON HOLDING THE MAIN ROAD NETWORK AND MOST OF THE NEGEV DESERT OF SOUTHERN PALESTINE. THEY ALSO DEMANDED BEERSHEBA, ARAB TOWN ALLOTTED TO THE ARABS UNDER PARTITION, IT WAS SAID.

THE ARMISTICE TALKS BECAME DEADLOCKED OVER BOUNDARIES OF THE NEGEV --SCENE OF RECENT JEWISH VICTORIES OVER THE EGYPTIANS. BUNCHE MET THE TWO DELEGATIONS UNTIL 2:30 A.M. AND THEN CALLED THEM INTO ANOTHER MEETING BEFORE NOON. NO CONCLUSIONS WERE ANNOUNCED.

BUNCHE'S ACTION INDICATED A DECISIVE BREAK IN THE CONFERENCE MAY BE EXPECTED SOON. THE SESSION IS REGARDED AS THE FINAL STEP IN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN SNAGGED IN A BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

THE SESSION BEGAN AT 11 P.M. (4 P.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME). BUNCHE AND BRIG. GEN. WILLIAM E. RILEY, CHIEF U.N. OBSERVER WHO SITS IN ON ALL TALKS, INDICATED THEY PLANNED TO KEEP THE MEETING GOING ALL NIGHT IF NECESSARY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT.

BUNCHE INDICATED TO NEWSMEN THAT BOTH SIDES, WHO HAVE BEEN IN ALMOST CONTINUAL CONFERENCE THE PAST TWO DAYS, HAD ABOUT RUN OUT OF ARGUMENTS AND THAT SOME FINAL DECISION EITHER OF AGREEMENT OR COMPLETE BREAK-UP OF THE TALKS MAY BE EXPECTED SHORTLY.

THE CONFERENCE BEGAN HERE JAN. 13.

IT WAS LEARNED UNOFFICIALLY THAT THE JEWS WERE HOLDING OUT FOR CONTR OF BEERSHEBA, AN ARAB TOWN IN THE NEGEV AWARDED TO THE ARABS BY THE ORIGINAL U.N. PARTITION PLAN OF 1947, BUT WHICH THE ISRAELIS OCCUPIED IN OCTOBER. THEY ALSO DEMAND CONTROL OF THE MAIN INLAND HIGHWAY SYSTEM OF THE NEGEV.

ISRAEL HAS ALSO HAD TALKS WITH TRANS-JORDAN AND LEBANON.

MEANTIME THE COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE EGYPTIAN BRIGADE TRAPPED IN THE FALUJA POCKET SENT HIS THANKS TO BUNCHE FOR THE U.N.'S EVACUATION OF THE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED. THE JEWS AGREED TO THE MOVE IN THE NEGOTIATIONS HERE.

TWO BRITISH PILOTS SHOT DOWN ON THE EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI FRONT JAN. 7 BOARDED THE ITALIAN STEAMER CAMPEDOGLIO AT HAIFA FOR CYPRUS YESTERDAY. THEY WERE ESCORTED ABOARD THE SHIP BY SENIOR ISRAELI AIR FORCE OFFICERS, WHOSE PRISONERS THEY HAD BEEN SINCE THE INCIDENT IN WHICH FIVE RAF PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN.

JEWISH MILITARY EXPERTS WORKED UNTIL 4 A.M. YESTERDAY IN AN EFFORT TO REACH A SOLUTION TO THE BEERSHEBA DEADLOCK, IT WAS REPORTED.

THE JEWS ARE RELUCTANT TO GIVE UP THEIR HOLD ON THE CITY WHICH CONTROLS THE ROAD NORTH TO JERUSALEM, WEST TO GAZA AND SOUTH TO THE EGYPTIAN BORDER.

THIS IS THE MAIN INNER HIGHWAY RUNNING NORTH AND SOUTH IN THE NEGEV. THE ONLY COMPARABLE HIGHWAY IS THE COASTAL ROAD THROUGH GAZA. BOTH THE JEWS AND EGYPTIANS WOULD LIKE CONTROL OVER BOTH HIGHWAYS FOR STRATEGIC REASONS.

ONE SOLUTION WHICH MAY BE OFFERED IS FOR THE JEWS TO RETAIN THE INNER COMMUNICATION LINE THROUGH BEERSHEBA, WHILE THE ARABS HOLD THE COASTAL ROAD THROUGH GAZA.

DR. AHMED MOUSSA, LEGAL ADVISER TO THE EGYPTIAN DELEGATION, WAS REPORTED WORKING ON AN EGYPTIAN MILITARY RECOMMENDATION FOR A COMPROMISE.

INFORMANTS SAID BUNCHE HAS THROWN OUT THE OCT. 14 LINES OF DEMARCATION AND ASKED BOTH SIDES TO TAKE A "REALISTIC APPROACH" TO THE PROBLEM. IN EFFECT THIS MEANS HE NO LONGER IS STANDING ON HIS REQUEST TO THE JEWS TO GIVE UP ALL THEIR NEGEV GAINS SINCE OCT. 14.

JR626AES

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID TEL AVIV'S DELEGATION IS INSISTING THAT ISRAELI TROOPS HOLD THE MAIN ROAD NETWORK OF THE NEGEV, THE SOUTHERN PALESTINE DESERT ASSIGNED TO ISRAEL UNDER THE U.N. PARTITION PLAN. IT WAS LEARNED UNOFFICIALLY THAT THE JEWS ALSO DEMAND CONTINUED CONTROL OF BEERSHEBA, THE ARAB CITY ADJOINING JEWISH NEGEV TERRITORY, WHICH THEY OCCUPIED IN OCTOBER.

BEERSHEBA CONTROLS ROADS NORTH TO JERUSALEM, WEST TO GAZA AND SOUTH TO THE EGYPTIAN BORDER. THIS IS THE MAIN HIGHWAY SYSTEM IN THE NEGEV. THE ONLY COMPARABLE ROUTE IS THE COASTAL ROAD THROUGH GAZA, WHICH THE EGYPTIANS HOLD.

DESPITE THE DISAGREEMENTS, HOPE WAS STILL EXPRESSED THAT THE CONFERENCE, NOW NINE DAYS OLD, WILL WIND UP IN SUCCESS.

USUALLY WELL INFORMED SOURCES SAID BUNCHE HAS THROWN OVERBOARD THE LINES HELD BY ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN FORCES OCT. 14 AS A BASIS FOR DRAWING DEMARCATION BORDERS AND IS ASKING BOTH DELEGATIONS TO "TAKE A REALISTIC APPROACH" TO THE PROBLEM.

THIS MEANS THERE MAY BE RECOGNITION FOR JEWISH GAINS IN THE NEGEV OFFENSIVES SINCE THAT DATE, THOUGH THE SECURITY COUNCIL ORDERED THAT THE FORCES WITHDRAW TO OCT. 14 LINES.

TROUBLE ALSO WAS REPORTED FROM EAST JAVA. EARLIER DELEGATES HAD SAID THE CONFERENCE'S RECOMMENDATIONS PRESUMABLY WOULD CALL FOR IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS IF EITHER HOLLAND OR THE REPUBLIC FAILED TO COOPERATE.

TODAY'S INFORMANT SAID THE CONFERENCE DOES NOT WISH TO APPEAR TO THREATEN THE SECURITY COUNCIL BY AN OUTRIGHT RECOMMENDATION FOR SANCTIONS OR BY STATING ANY INTENTION TO IMPOSE SANCTIONS ON ITS OWN SHOULD THE COUNCIL FAIL TO ACT.

THE DELEGATE SAID THE MAIN RESOLUTION WOULD MENTION U.N. ARTICLE 39 WHICH DEALS WITH THE EXISTENCE OF A BREACH OF PEACE AND AGGRESSION. HE SAID 39 REFERS TO ARTICLE 41 DEALING WITH ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AND 42 DEALING WITH THE USE OF FORCE TO IMPLEMENT THE COUNCIL'S DECISIONS.

THE INFORMANT SAID THAT IF THE COUNCIL SHOULD FAIL TO TAKE EFFECTIVE ACTION IN THE INDONESIAN MATTER IT MIGHT BE NECESSARY TO HOLD A SECOND ASIAN CONFERENCE TO CONSIDER THE PROBLEM FURTHER.

ONE SOURCE SAID THE DRAFTING COMMITTEE MAY HAVE DECIDED TO MODERATE ITS SANCTIONS RECOMMENDATION ON ADVICE FROM LAKE SUCCESS THAT FRANCE WOULD BE ALMOST CERTAIN TO VETO ANY SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION PENALIZING THE DUTCH. (Add Australia (Dep. - Indonesia) xxx Jan. 1 (David)

HE SAID IT IS STILL POSSIBLE THE CONFERENCE WOULD AGREE AMONG ITS OWN MEMBERS TO IMPOSE SANCTIONS, IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL PROVES INEFFECTIVE.

ONE DELEGATE SAID THE CONFERENCE IN CLOSED SESSION THIS MORNING UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE FIRST RESOLUTION SUBMITTED BY THE DRAFTING COMMITTEE DEALING WITH RECOMMENDATIONS FOR SECURITY COUNCIL ACTION ON INDONESIA.

HE SAID A SECOND RESOLUTION AIMED AT ENABLING CONFERENCE MEMBERS TO GIVE FORCE TO THEIR DECISIONS, AND A THIRD FOR TAKING THE QUESTION UP WITH THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IF THE COUNCIL FAILS TO ACT, WILL BE SUBMITTED AT ANOTHER SESSION THIS AFTERNOON.

A SPOKESMAN FOR THE CONFERENCE SAID A PLENARY SESSION WILL BE HELD SUNDAY WHICH IS EXPECTED TO WIND UP THE BUSINESS AT HAND.

TOKYO, JAN.22-(AP)-TWO JAPANESE WHO SURRENDERED ON IWO JIMA AFTER HIDING IN THAT ISLAND'S CAVES NEARLY FOUR YEARS, WERE BROUGHT TO TOKYO BY PLANE TONIGHT.

AFTER A TEN-DAY STOP-OVER ON GUAM, THE TWO LOOKED HUSKY AND HEALTHY. THEY WERE CLAD IN U.S. ARMY CLOTHING AND SMOKED AMERICAN CIGARETTES.

"IT'S LIKE A DREAM," EXCLAIMED RIKIO MATSUDO, 37. MITSUFUKU YAMAKAGE, 24, ADDED, "WE ARE EAGER TO MEET OUR FAMILIES."

BOTH WERE MEMBERS OF A NAVAL ANTIAIRCRAFT UNIT.

WHEN THE AMERICANS CONQUERED IWO JIMA IN MARCH, 1945, THE TWO JAPANESE HID IN CAVES. FOR THE NEXT 46 MONTHS THEY SUBSISTED ON WEEDS, SAND CRABS AND REFUSE FROM AMERICAN GARBAGE CANS. THE LATTER THEY DESCRIBED AS "LUXURIES."

FINALLY THEY CAME ACROSS AN OLD AMERICAN MAGAZINE SHOWING A PICTURE OF OCCUPATION TROOPS AND JAPANESE STUDENTS IN A ROWBOAT ON LAKE SHINOBAZU IN TOKYO'S UENO PARK.

THIS, THEY SAID, FINALLY CONVINCED THEM JAPAN HAD BEEN DEFEATED, BUT THEY HELD OUT A LITTLE LONGER. FINALLY, THEY SAID, LACK OF DRINKING WATER CAUSED THEM TO SURRENDER AT AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS ON JAN.6.

ADMITTEDLY SCARED STIFF AT THE TIME, THEY SAID THEY HAD "NO TROUBLE AT ALL" WITH THE AMERICANS AND HAVE BRIGHTENED UP CONSIDERABLY SINCE. THEY STILL SNAP TO ATTENTION AUTOMATICALLY WHEN SPOKEN TO.

ETHRIDGE

WASHINGTON, JAN. 22-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN WAS REPORTED TONIGHT TO HAVE ASKED MARK ETHRIDGE, LOUISVILLE (KY.) PUBLISHER, TO SERVE ON A UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES WHO DISCLOSED THIS SAID THEY DID NOT KNOW WHETHER ETHRIDGE HAD CONSENTED TO SERVE.

WHITE HOUSE OFFICIALS WERE NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE FOR COMMENT.

ETHRIDGE WAS REPORTED TO BE EN ROUTE TO WASHINGTON FROM LOUISVILLE. HE IS PUBLISHER OF THE LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL.

OFFICIALS HERE SAID HE WAS PARTICULARLY WELL QUALIFIED FOR THE ASSIGNMENT IN PALESTINE PEACE-MAKING BECAUSE OF HIS EXPERIENCE IN SERVING TWO YEARS AGO AS A MEMBER OF THE U.N. BALKANS COMMISSION, THAT GROUP INVESTIGATED SUPPORT GIVEN GREEK COMMUNIST FORCES BY ALBANIA, YUGOSLAVIA AND BULGARIA.

THE PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION WAS ESTABLISHED IN A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING IN PARIS LAST MONTH. THE OTHER MEMBERS ARE TURKEY AND FRANCE.

THE FIRST AMERICAN NAMED TO THE GROUP WAS JOSEPH B.KEENAN, WHO WAS THE CHIEF PROSECUTOR FOR THE ALLIED WAR CRIMES TRIBUNAL IN TOKYO. KEENAN WAS NAMED TO THE COMMISSION SHORTLY AFTER IT WAS CREATED, BUT RESIGNED IN A FEW WEEKS.

THE WHITE HOUSE SAID IN ANNOUNCING HIS RESIGNATION ON JAN.14 THAT PERSONAL AFFAIRS MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO ACCEPT THE ASSIGNMENT.

THE TASK OF THE NEW AGENCY IS, IN GENERAL, TO TAKE OVER THE KIND OF WORK WHICH THE U.N. MEDIATOR, DR.RALPH BUNCHE, IS NOW DOING IN BRINGING ISRAELI AND EGYPTIAN NEGOTIATORS TOGETHER AT RHODES.

BUNCHE, AN AMERICAN WHO BECAME ACTING MEDIATOR AFTER THE ASSASSINATION OF SWEDISH COUNT FOLKE BERNADOTTE, IS UNDERSTOOD TO BE ANXIOUS TO BE RELIEVED.

TRUMAN-ECONOMIC

WASHINGTON, JAN.22-(AP)-CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS MAY ASK PRESIDENT TRUMAN MONDAY TO BLUEPRINT FOR THEM HIS PLAN TO GUARANTEE AMERICAN PRIVATE INVESTMENTS ABROAD.

SENATOR LUCAS OF ILLINOIS, THE DEMOCRATIC LEADER, TOLD REPORTERS HE EXPECTS TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURAL MESSAGE PROPOSAL WHEN HE AND OTHER LAWMAKERS GO OVER THE LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM WITH MR.TRUMAN NEXT WEEK.

"IT LOOKS TO ME AS THOUGH THE PRESIDENT IS PROPOSING A LONG-RANGE PLAN," LUCAS SAID. "I DON'T KNOW YET WHETHER IT WILL REQUIRE ANY LEGISLATION IN THIS SESSION OF CONGRESS."

LUCAS AGREED WITH SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) THAT THE LIMITATIONS OF THIS NATION'S RESOURCES MUST BE KEPT IN MIND IN ANY NEW VENTURE TOWARD HELPING THE WORLD LIFT ITS STANDARD OF LIVING.

VANDENBERG, NOTING YESTERDAY THAT MR.TRUMAN HIMSELF HAD SAID THERE ARE LIMITS TO AMERICAN RESOURCES, DECLARED: "I UNDERSCORE THAT WARNING."

THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE GAVE THE LAWMAKERS A HINT OF WHAT HE HAS IN HIS MIND WHEN HE SPOKE TO THE MISSOURI CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION YESTERDAY.

IF THE STANDARD OF LIVING FOR ASIATIC PEOPLES COULD BE RAISED EVEN 2 PER CENT, HE SAID, AMERICAN FACTORIES WOULD BE BUSY FOR THE NEXT 100 YEARS TURNING OUT PRODUCTS NEEDED IN THE FAR EAST.

THE TRUMAN PLAN THUS WAS CALCULATED TO APPEAL TO AMERICAN BUSINESS MEN WHO MIGHT BE SEEKING TO PUT THEIR MONEY INTO PROJECTS ABROAD BUT WHO NOW FIND THE ROAD BLOCKED BY FINANCIAL UNCERTAINTIES.

THERE WAS SOME TENDENCY IN CONGRESS, HOWEVER, TO REGARD THE PROGRAM AS POSSIBLY A PROPOSAL TO CONTINUE THE MARSHALL PLAN IN ANOTHER GUISE.

CONGRESS HAS BEEN OPERATING ON THE THEORY THAT FOUR YEARS OF MARSHALL PLAN AID SHOULD PUT WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS ON THEIR FEET. BUT THESE NATIONS ALREADY HAVE MADE IT CLEAR THAT DESPITE AMERICAN HELP THEY WON'T BE SOLVENT BY 1952.

SENATOR BRIDGES (R-NH) SAID THAT SO FAR AS HE IS CONCERNED, CONGRESS OUGHT TO TAKE STOCK OF HOW THE EUROPEAN AID PROGRAM IS WORKING BEFORE APPROVING ANY NEW VENTURES.

TAFT (130)

WASHINGTON, JAN.22-(AP)-SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) HAS TAKEN A CHILLY VIEW OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM," MEANWHILE MAKING IT CLEAR HE STILL SOLIDLY OPPOSES MOST OF THE OLD ONES.

IN A RADIO BROADCAST LAST NIGHT (MUTUAL'S "MEET THE PRESS") THE OHIOAN, A LONG-TIME FOE OF THE ADMINISTRATION--

1. VOICED DOUBT ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURATION DAY PROPOSAL TO HELP UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES BY SHARING AMERICAN TECHNICAL AND PRODUCTIVE SKILLS AND ENCOURAGING PRIVATE INVESTMENT TO IMPROVE SUCH AREAS. TAFT SAID THE PROGRAM "OVER-PROMISES THESE NATIONS."

2. PROMISED TO FIGHT THE PRESIDENT'S $4,000,000,000 (B) TAX INCREASE, AND SEEK INSTEAD A $3,000,000,000 CUT IN THE NEW BUDGET. EVERY ITEM ON THE BUDGET, HE SAID, COULD BE REDUCED FROM 10 TO 20 PER CENT.

3. EXPRESSED THE BELIEF MR.TRUMAN HAS ENDED THE BIPARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY. "THE PRESIDENT APPARENTLY IS NOT GOING TO CONSULT REPUBLICANS AS MUCH AS IN THE PAST," HE SAID.

TAFT BLAMED REPUBLICAN LOSSES IN THE LAST ELECTION ON HIS PARTY'S FAILURE TO EXPLAIN TO THE PEOPLE JUST WHAT THE 80TH CONGRESS STOOD FOR. HE SAID MANY OF THE ATTACKS MR.TRUMAN MADE ON THE REPUBLICAN-DOMINATED CONGRESS COULD HAVE BEEN ANSWERED.

(220) HODGES

WASHINGTON, JAN. 22-(AP)-A SOLDIER WHOSE TROUBLE WITH FRESHMAN MATHEMATICS AT WEST POINT INTERRUPTED HIS MILITARY CAREER, SOON WILL RETIRE FROM THE SERVICE--A GENERAL.

WHEN COURTNEY H.HODGES LEFT THE MILITARY ACADEMY AFTER ONE YEAR'S SERVICE, HE ENTERED THE RANKS AS AN ENLISTED MAN.

AND ON JAN. 31, AFTER 43 YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SERVICE HE IS GOING TO STEP DOWN AS COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE FIRST ARMY. HE IS 62.

A NATIVE OF PERRY, GA., HODGES COMMANDED THE FIRST ARMY DURING WORLD WAR II WHEN IT MADE THE FIRST LANDINGS ON NORMANDY BEACH, BROKE THROUGH AT ST.LO AND WHEN PARIS WAS LIBERATED.

WHAT THE ARMY TODAY CALLED "DIFFICULTIES WITH MATHEMATICS."

HE AT ONCE ENLISTED AS A PRIVATE IN THE 17TH INFANTRY AT FORT MC-PHERSON, NEAR ATLANTA, GA. AFTER THREE YEARS IN THE RANKS, HE WON A COMMISSION THROUGH A COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION AND WAS MADE A SECOND LIEUTENANT IN INFANTRY IN 1909.

HE SAW DUTY IN THE FIRST WORLD WAR AS A CAPTAIN, WON SUBSEQUENT PROMOTIONS AND IN 1941 BECAME MAJOR GENERAL.

HE WENT OVERSEAS IN 1944 AS DEPUTY COMMANDER TO GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, THEN COMMANDING THE FIRST ARMY. HE SUCCEEDED BRADLEY AS FIRST ARMY COMMANDER WHEN THE FORMER TOOK OVER THE 12TH ARMY GROUP.

GEN.HODGES IS HOLDER OF THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS, THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL AND OTHER DECORATIONS.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE OF HIS PLANS AFTER RETIREMENT.

BOTH AGREED THAT REPEAL OF THE DRAFT MIGHT INCREASE PRESSURE ON CONGRESS FOR A PERMANENT UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING LAW.

REP.HAVENNER (D-CALIF) TOLD REPORTERS HE HAS NOT HEARD REPEAL SUGGESTED BY ANY HOUSE MEMBERS EVEN THOUGH THE ARMY IS KEEPING UP TO FULL STRENGTH WITH VOLUNTEERS. THERE HAVE BEEN NO ACTUAL DRAFT CALLS FOR SEVERAL MONTHS.

REP.BISHOP (R-ILL) SAID HE WOULD OPPOSE REPEAL OF THE DRAFT.

"IF WE REPEALED THE DRAFT, THE MILITARY WOULD IMMEDIATELY DEMAND UMT," HE SAID.

HAVENNER AND BISHOP, BOTH MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE LAST YEAR, VOTED AGAINST THE DRAFT LAW.

REP.VINSON (D-GA) CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE THIS YEAR, HAS SAID THE GROUP WILL NOT CONSIDER EITHER UMT OR DRAFT REPEAL THIS YEAR. THE DRAFT LAW EXPIRES JUNE 24, 1950.

THE "MISSION OF AMERICA," STASSEN SAID, IS TO "EXPORT, EVERYDAY, THE IDEAS OF THE IMPORTANCE OF THE FREEDOM OF MEN."

NEW YORK, JAN. 22-(AP)-MEMBERS OF A RECENT FEDERAL SPY-HUNTING GRAND JURY WERE UNDER SUBPOENA TODAY TO TESTIFY IN THE BATTLE OF 11 TOP U.S. COMMUNISTS AGAINST THE FEDERAL JURY-PICKING SYSTEM IN NEW YORK.

IT WAS THIS SAME GRAND JURY WHICH INDICTED THE 11 COMMUNISTS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE, AND WHICH RETURNED PERJURY INDICTMENTS AGAINST ALGER HISS IN ITS PROBE OF ESPIONAGE AND SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES.

HISS, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, WAS INDICTED AFTER HE DENIED HE PASSED GOVERNMENT INFORMATION ON TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, SELF-CONFESSED SOVIET COURIER.

THE SUBPOENAS WERE ISSUED BY COUNSEL FOR THE COMMUNISTS YESTERDAY AS PART OF THEIR FIGHT TO PROVE THAT THE METHOD OF SELECTING FEDERAL JURIES HERE DISCRIMINATES AGAINST MINORITY GROUPS AND THE POOR. BECAUSE OF THE ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION, THEY CLAIM THE INDICTMENT AGAINST THEIR CLIENTS AND THE PANEL OF TRIAL JURORS SHOULD BE THROWN OUT.

QUESTIONING OF THE FORMER GRAND JURORS, HOWEVER, CANNOT TAKE PLACE BEFORE WEDNESDAY, JAN. 26, THE NEXT TIME THE TRIAL OF THE 11 WILL RESUME.

FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R. MEDINA SET THE DATE FOR RESUMPTION ON REQUEST OF DEFENSE COUNSEL RICHARD J. GLADSTEIN.

GLADSTEIN EXPLAINED HE HAD TO BE IN SAN FRANCISCO NEXT TUESDAY TO APPEAR IN A CASE IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS.

THE ADJOURNMENT WAS GRANTED AFTER THE DEFENSE CALLED FOUR PROSPECTIVE TRIAL JURORS TO THE STAND AS PART OF THEIR CHALLENGE OF THE JURY-SELECTING METHODS.

QUESTIONS PUT TO THE FOUR SOUGHT TO SHOW THEIR FINANCIAL STATUS. MEDINA OVERRULED MANY OF THE QUESTIONS OVER HEATED OBJECTIONS FROM DEFENSE ATTORNEYS.

EARLIER MEDINA HAD QUASHED A DEFENSE MOVE TO CALL HIM TO THE WITNESS STAND TO TESTIFY ABOUT THE JURY SYSTEM.

THE LEGION COMMANDER SAID THE ENLISTED MAN'S PAY NOW STARTS AT $75 A MONTH, COMPARED WITH $50 BASIC COMBAT PAY DURING THE WAR.

"WHAT'S THE BIG PAY FOR?" BROWN ASKED. "IS IT FOR FIGHTING DUTY? NO. IT'S FOR PEACE-TIME DUTIES--GUARD DUTY, AND FOR K-P."

NIGHT LEAD (300)

MINNEAPOLIS, JAN 22-(AP)-DELEGATES TO AN ATOMIC ENERGY INFORMATION CONFERENCE CONCLUDED TODAY THAT BOTH SCIENTISTS AND NEWSPAPERMEN COULD DO A BETTER JOB IN TELLING THE STORY OF THE "ATOMIC AGE."

THE THREE-DAY CONFERENCE WAS ATTENDED BY ABOUT 20 NEWSPAPERMEN "STUDENTS" AND A NUMBER OF ATOMIC SCIENTISTS WHO SOUGHT TO EXPWAIN DEVELOPMENTS IN THE ATOMIC ENERGY FIELD.

PURPOSE OF THE MEETING WAS TO AID NEWSPAPERMEN IN MORE CLEARLY PRESENTING THE SUBJECT TO THEIR READERS.

DR.J.W.BUCHTA, CHAIRMAN OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS, AND DR.H.L.HULL OF THE ARGONNE NATIONAL LABORATORY, CHICAGO, WERE AMONG THE SCIENTISTS WHO SUGGESTED THAT NEWSPAPER WRITERS DOUBLE-CHECK THEIR STORIES TO MAKE CERTAIN THEY HAD TOLD THEM CORRECTLY. BUCHTA AND HULL SAID MANY SCIENTISTS WERE RELUCTANT TO GIVE INFORMATION FOR FEAR IT MIGHT BE DISTORTED IN PRINT.

JAN 1949

GIDEON SEYMOUR, EXECUTIVE EDITOR OF THE MINNEAPOLIS STAR AND TRIBUNE, JOINED OTHER NEWSPAPERMEN IN SUGGESTING THAT BECAUSE ONE SCIENTIFIC STORY IN 99 IS "BAD," THE SCIENTIST "SHOULDN'T 'FREEZE UP'" WHEN ASKED FOR ANOTHER STORY. SEYMOUR IS CHAIRMAN OF THE ATOMIC INFORMATION PROBLEMS COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS, WHICH WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA SPONSORED THE CONFERENCE.

DR.KIRK STEPHENSON, LIASON DIRECTOR OF THE ARGONNE NATIONAL LABORATORY, SAID THERE IS A NEED FOR NEWSPAPERS TO "BREAK DOWN THE HYSTERIA" WHICH HE SAID SURROUNDS ATOMIC ENERGY.

OF SECURITY REGULATIONS, SEYMOUR SAID NEWSPAPERS SHOULD BE THE JUDGE OF WHETHER PUBLICATION OF ATOMIC INFORMATION WOULD BE IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST.

ALSO SPEAKING TODAY WAS DR.QUINCY WRIGHT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO AND PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION.

HE SAID HE SAW LITTLE HOPE OF FURTHER PROGRESS TOWARD INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY UNTIL A POLITICAL CHANGE OCCURS IN RUSSIA. HE SAID THE PRESENT RUSSIAN THEORY OF GOVERNMENT PRECLUDES POSSIBILITY OF INTERNATIONAL INSPECTION OF ATOMIC PLANTS--NECESSARY FOR EFFECTIVE WORLD CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

MINNEAPOLIS, JAN 22-(AP)-POSSIBILITY OF FURTHER PROGRESS TOWARD INTERNATIONAL CONTROL OF ATOMIC ENERGY RESTS LARGELY ON A POLITICAL CHANGE IN RUSSIA, A PROMINENT POLITICAL SCIENTIST SAID TODAY.

HE IS DR.QUINCY WRIGHT, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION AND UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PROFESSOR.

HE SAID HE DID NOT BELIEVE MUCH COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED UNTIL THE BASIC ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL THEORY OF THE SOVIET UNION WAS ALTERED. HE SAID THIS THEORY PRECLUDES FOREIGN INTERVENTION IN RUSSIA-- NECESSARY FOR EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL REGULATION OF ATOMIC PLANTS.

DR.WRIGHT SPOKE DURING FINAL SESSIONS OF A THREE DAY NEWSPAPERMEN'S CONFERENCE ON ATOMIC ENERGY INFORMATION. THE CONFERENCE WAS SPONSORED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA AND THE ATOMIC INFORMATION PROBLEMS COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF NEWSPAPER EDITORS.

HE SAID THAT A FACTOR HOLDING UP A MORE CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE BY RUSSIA IS LACK OF "PUBLIC PRESSURE" WITHIN THE COUNTRY.

"THE RUSSIAN PEOPLE DO NOT HAVE AN AWARENESS OF DSTRUCTIVENESS OF THE ATOMIC BOMB," DR.WRIGHT SAID. HE ADDED THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, WHICH KNOWS MORE ABOUT THE BOMB'S POSSIBILITIES, THINKS IT HAS "STRONGER NERVES" THAN THE REST OF THE WORLD.

HE SAID THAT A CHANGE IN THE RUSSIAN "TYRANNY" MAY COME WITH DEATH OF STALIN, POINTING OUT THAT TYRANNY RARELY IS EXTENDED FROM ONE MAN TO ANOTHER.

THE CONFERENCE, ATTENDED BY ABOUT 20 REPRESENTATIVES OF NEWSPAPERS AND NEWS SERVICES WS FIRST OF ITS KIND. PURPOSE WAS TO AID NEWS-

HARRISBURG,PA.,JAN.22-(AP)-A FEDERAL JURY HAS DENIED A $500,000 DAMAGE SUIT CLAIM BROUGHT AGAINST A HARRISBURG BOOK PUBLISHING FIRM BY A U.S. ARMY COLONEL.

A JURY OF SEVEN MEN AND FIVE WOMEN RETURNED THE VERDICT IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT HERE TUESDAY. COL.JAMES A.KILIAN, FORMER COMMANDER OF THE LICHFIELD, ENGLAND, ARMY REPLACEMENT CENTER, SOUGHT DAMAGES FROM STACKPOLE SONS, INC.

IN HIS SUIT, KILIAN CHARGED DEFAMATION OF CHARACTER AS A RESULT OF PUBLICATION OF A STORY OF THE LICHFIELD BASE WHICH APPEARED IN THE BOOK, "THE PURPLE TESTAMENT," PRINTED BY THE STACKPOLE FIRM.

KILIAN WAS FOUND GUILTY BY AN ARMY COURT MARTIAL IN 1946 OF PERMITTING "CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENT" WHILE COMMANDER AT LICHFIELD. HE WAS FINED $500 AT THAT TIME.

WILLIAM S.BAILEY, HARRISBURG ATTORNEY FOR THE STACKPOLE FIRM, TOLD THE JURY THE STORY IN QUESTION WAS A "PERFECTLY PROPER THING TO PUBLISH" AND ADDED IT IS "SUBSTANTIALLY TRUE."

BUT LEWIS WEINSTOCK, PHILADELPHIA, COUNSEL FOR KILIAN, DESCRIBED THE STORY AS "LITERALLY FALSE."

WEINSTOCK SAID THE AUTHOR OF THE STORY, JOSEPH O'CONNELL, WAS NEVER AT LICHFIELD AND "WROTE WHAT HE HEARD."

IN HIS CHARGE TO THE JURY, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE JOHN W.MURPHY SAID THE PRINCIPAL QUESTION UP FOR DECISION WAS WHETHER THE REPORT OF CONDITIONS AT LICHFIELD DEPICTED IN THE STORY WAS ACCURATE. IF IT WAS, HE SAID, THE PLAINTIFF WAS NOT ENTITLED TO DAMAGES.

SEATTLE, JAN. 22-(AP)-THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON BOARD OF REGENTS DISMISSED THREE LONG-TIME PROFESSORS TODAY AS THE AFTERMATH OF A CONTROVERSY OVER ASSERTED PRESENT OR FORMER COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP.

THE THREE DISMISSED WERE ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR RALPH GUNDLACH AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR HERBERT J.PHILLIPS.

THE REGENTS' ORDER, FAR-REACHING IN IMPORTANCE IN EDUCATIONAL CIRCLES, WAS ANNOUNCED [redacted] Following AN AFTERNOON SESSION IN AN OPEN MEETING.

SIX ACCUSED PROFESSORS, FIVE OF WHOM HAVE SERVED ON THE WASHINGTON FACULTY MORE THAN 20 YEARS, WERE GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY TO APPEAR.

THE BOARD OF SEVEN REGENTS VOTED AGAINST THE DISMISSAL OF PROFESSOR HAROLD L. EBY, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR MELVILLE JACOBS AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GARLAND ETHEL ON THE CONDITION THAT THEY SIGN AFFIDAVITS SAYING THEY ARE NOT NOW MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

ANOTHER CONDITION WAS THAT THE THREE BE PLACED ON PROBATION FOR TWO YEARS.

THE REGENTS HAD BEEN IN EXECUTIVE SESSION APPROXIMATELY THREE HOURS.

THE THREE DISMISSALS WILL BE EFFECTIVE FEB. 1.

PRESIDENT RAYMOND B. ALLEN HAD RECOMMENDED DISMISSAL OF PROFESSORS PHILLIPS, BUTTERWORTH AND GUNDLACH. A FACULTY COMMITTEE ON TENURE OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM HAD RECOMMENDED DISMISSAL OF ONLY GUNDLACH. SEVEN OF THE ELEVEN MEMBERS FAVORED FIRING HIM. DR. ALLEN HAD REFERRED TO GUNDLACH'S "AMBIGUOUS RELATIONSHIP" WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY.

EIGHT COMMITTEE MEMBERS WERE AGAINST DISMISSAL OF PHILLIPS AND BUTTERWORTH; THREE FAVORED DISMISSAL. IN THE CASE OF ETHEL, JACOBS AND EBY, ALL OF WHOM ADMITTED THEY ONCE HAD BEEN COMMUNISTIC PARTY MEMBERS AND HAVE SINCE LEFT IT, ALL ELEVEN TENURE MEMBERS OPPOSED DISMISSAL.

THE WASHINGTON PRESIDENT, TRANSMITTING HIS RECOMMENDATION ON THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS, SAID:

"THIS APPROACH TO A SOLUTION OF THIS PROBLEM OS, SO FAR AS I AM AWARE, UNIQUE IN EDUCATIONAL HISTORY. IT IS OF INTEREST AND CONCERN IN HIGHER EDUCATIONAL CIRCLES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY. THIS IS A GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON TO BEAR."

PROFESSOR PHILLIPS, WHO HAS TAUGHT SUMMERS AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN NEW YORK, HAS BEEN ON THE WASHINGTON FACULTY SINCE 1920.

PROFESSOR EBY HAS BEEN AT WASHINGTON 23 YEARS; PROFESSORS GUNDLACH AND ETHEL 22 YEARS, AND BUTTERWORTH 19 YEARS.

PROFESSORS EBY, ETHEL AND BUTTERWORTH HAD BEEN IN THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT. PROFESSOR PHILLIPS' FIELD WAS PHILOSOPHY; JACOBS' ANTHROPOLOGY AND GUNDLACH PSYCHOLOGY.

THE CONTROVERSY BECAME PUBLIC LAST SUMMER WHEN THE STATE LEGISLATURE'S COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES (THE CANWELL COMMITTEE) CONDUCTED HEARINGS IN SEATTLE. THE COMMITTEE QUESTIONED MANY WITNESSES, INCLUDING THE SIX PROFESSORS.

AS AN OUTCOME, THE UNIVERSITY RAISED FORMAL CHARGES AGAINST THE SIX WITH THE TENURE COMMITTEE.

PHILLIPS WAS THE ONLY ACCUSED FACULTY MEMBER TO MAKE A STATEMENT AFTER THE HEARING. HE ADMITTED MEMBERSHIP IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND SAID THE TENURE COMMITTEE "HAS FOUND THAT SUCH A MEMBERSHIP DOES NOT JUSTIFY OUR DISMISSAL."

"SUCH AN ACQUITTAL WAS ALL THE MORE IMPRESSIVE IN THAT IT CAME FROM A GROUP OF PEOPLE WHO WENT OUT OF THEIR WAY," HE TOLD THE REGENTS, "TO CONVINCE YOU XXX THAT THEY REPUDIATE OUR VIEWS OF AFFILIATION."

EIGHT MEMBERS OF THE TENURE COMMITTEE INCLUDED AN INDICTMENT OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THEIR REPORT. THEY SAID CONTENTION THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY IN THIS COUNTRY IS NOT CONTROLLED FROM RUSSIA IS "INSUBSTANTIAL."

THE ULTIMATE FACT," SAID THEIR REPORT, "IS THAT AMERICAN COMMUNISTS DEFEND AND FOLLOW THE RUSSIAN AND WORLD COMMUNIST PROGRAM IN ALMOST EVERY DETAIL." JAN 1949

WITH PROFESSORS

SEATTLE, JAN. 22-(AP)- THREE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PROFESSORS, DISMISSED ON CHARGES OF FORMER COMMUNIST AFFILIATION, TONIGHT CRITICIZED THE ACTION OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS AS A BLOW TO CIVIL LIBERTIES.

A JOINT STATEMENT ISSUED BY PROFESSORS HERBERT J.PHILLIPS AND JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH ASSERTED THE ACTION "CANNOT AND WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO STAND."

IN A SEPARATE STATEMENT, PROFESSOR RALPH GUNDLACH DECLARED HIS DISMISSAL WAS DUE TO THE "GUILT BY ASSOCIATION" DOCTRINE. AND HE CHARGED THE REGENTS "MADE A MISTAKE THAT WILL SERIOUSLY AFFECT THE REPUTATION OF THE UNIVERSITY."

TH STATEMENT BY PHILLIPS AND BUTTERWORTH SAID IN PART:

"(THE ACTION) REPRESENTS A MOST SERIOUS BLOW TO ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND TRADITIONAL CIVIL LIBERTIES. WE HAVE APPEALED TO THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS. WE ALSO APPEAL TO ALL PEOPLE WHO SUPPORT THE TRADITIONAL AMERICAN WAY OF LIFE. X X X

"WE URGE THAT THE REGENTS ACT WITH JUDICIAL CAUTION AND AT LEAST TAKE TIME TO READ THE MORE THAN 3,000 PAGES OF TESTIMONY. THIS THEY REFUSED TO DO.

"BY THE ACTION TODAY, THEY SUBSTANTIATED OUR CONVICTION THAT WE WOULD BE PREJUDGED. NOT ONLY WERE WE DISCHARGED BECAUSE OF OUR POLITICAL BELIEF X X X BUT THREE OF OUR COLLEAGUES X X X WERE PLACED ON HUMILIATING PROBATION.

"THUS THE UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION HAS ENTERED INTO THE FIELD OF DIRECT CONTROL OF IDEAS AND HAS ASSERTED THE RIGHT TO CENSOR LAWFUL OFF-CAMPUS POLITICAL ACTIVITY OF FACULTY MEMBERS."

GUNDLACH'S STATEMENT SAID "SOME PERSONS WHO ARE OPPOSED TO THESE ACTIVITIES AND VIEWS ATTACK THEM, NOT BY REASON BUT BY NAME CALLING, SUCH AS RADICAL OR COMMUNISTIC. DISMISSAL OF A FACULTY MEMBER ON SUCH GROUNDS WILL UNDERMINE THE STANDING OF A UNIVERSITY BOTH AMONG THE TEACHING PROFESSION AND THE STUDENTS."

PROFESSOR HAROLD EBY AND ASSISTANT PROFESSOR GARLAND ETHEL, WHO WERE SPARED DISMISSAL PROVIDING THEY SIGN AFFIDAVITS THAT THEY ARE NOT NOW MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY, SAID THEY "WERE GRATIFIED BY THE DECISION AND WILLING TO SIGN THE AFFIDAVITS."

CHINA REDS THRUST TOWARD NANKING

Communists Hit Peace Offensive Of Government

Demand Regime Patterned After 'Friend Russia'

BY HAROLD K. MILKS

Nanking, China, Jan. 23 (AP)—Strong Chinese Communist columns thrust suddenly southward today in an unopposed drive for the Yangtze River facing Nanking.

The Government hastily abandoned Chuhsien, defense headquarters 30 miles north of Nanking.

The victorious and confident Reds either intend to seize the Government capital, scorning frantic pleas for a negotiated settlement, or are putting on pressure in anticipation of stopping the civil war on their own terms.

The Communist radio broadcast a long statement by non-Communists led by Marshal Li Chi-shen, indorsing the Communist demands for Government surrender and calling for a coalition "united under the leadership of the Communist party."

"Peace Offensive" Derided

This manifesto derided "the hypocritical peace offensive" of the present Government and urged creation of a Chinese regime emulating "our friend and neighbor, the Soviet Union."

Despite these adverse military and political developments, Nanking leaders persisted in predicting the Communists would accept their request for negotiation. One unconfirmed progovernment report said that, even while the Communists were hurling bombast at the Government, they had privately named Peiping as the site of a peace conference and had designated Chou En-lai, No. 2 Communist, as chief negotiator.

Defense Forces Retreat

Peiping surrendered to the Reds Saturday. The last of its 125,000-man Nationalist garrison was due to be gone by midnight Sunday.

As the Communists marched down within 50 miles of Nanking, it was evident there was little if any fighting. The government's second-rate defense forces withdrew rapidly before contacts were established. Numbers of government troops from north of the river appeared in Nanking.

The strategy of the tottering government appeared to be to withdraw everything to the south bank except a few small "holding" forces.

It was generally believed that—regardless of the status of peace talks, the government would collapse as soon as the Reds reached the Yangtze's north bank.

Reds Seize Pengpu

In any case, neutral military observers forecast that the Communists could cross the broad river, even against opposition, within one week to one month.

The Communist radio announced occupation of Pengpu, former Government headquarters 108 miles northwest of Peiping, and Hofei, capital of Anhwei Province, 87 miles west of Nanking.

Pro-Government accounts conceded that Red Gen. Chen Yi had sent five columns (about 75,000 men) down the railway to within 50 miles north of Nanking, and that another force was racing down the Grand Canal about 50 miles northeast of this fearful, rumor-mad capital.

These Red forces included not only fast light infantry but heavy artillery capable of shelling Nanking from across the river.

Second Army On Move

The bulk of the second Red Army in the area, under either Liu Po-cheng or Chen Keng, was reported on the move at unspecified points down the Peiping Hankow railway toward Hankow, river bastion 300 miles southwest of Nanking.

Hankow is defended by Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, who has failed to come to the aid of Nanking but whose armies of more than 100,000 are widely scattered north of the Yangtze.

There was distinct lull in the Government's peace efforts over Sunday, as Shao Li-tze, chairman of the Government's would-be peace delegation, went to Shanghai.

Parade Honors Chiang

Shao, former ambassador to Moscow, sought to consult leaders of the Democratic League, which the Government long ago outlawed for seeking peace, and also was reported attempting to get the aid of Mme. Sun Yat-sen. Mme. Sun, sister-in-law of the departed Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, has tremendous prestige as the widow of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, revered "father" of the republic. She long has refused to participate in politics.

The broadcast named Li, one time chief supporter of Generalissimo Chiang, and 54 other anti-Government men from the Democratic League and other dissident organizations.

Heed Communist Appeal

It said they had come separately into Communist territory in response to a Communist appeal for convoking "a new political consultative conference including all democratic groups" to "speed up the overthrow of the traitorous, dictatorial rule of Nanking and realize a people's democratic coalition government."

Praising the Communist army and predicting total victory soon, the statement repeatedly attacked "American imperialism" and said present Nanking peace efforts were "political plots" intended to drag out the Government's existence and "make a final desperate struggle south of the Yangtze."

The statement insisted, "the revolution must be carried through to the very end. There is no posibility for compromise or conciliation between the revolution and the counter-revolution."

Hails Soviet As Example

It warned against infiltration by even "the germs of counter-revolution" within the ranks of a new regime.

The statement concluded:

"Look at our friend and neighbor, the Soviet Union: after only 32 years of construction, it has become the strongest fortress of peace in the whole world. We people of China surpass the people of the Soviet Union in number, and have in addition favorable geographic conditions.

"We dare to believe that after we have smashed the reactionary government we can in a shorter time construct a peaceful, democratic, free new China, a people's democratic republic. A bright perspective shines before us. We should exert our efforts in unison."

55 Non-Communist Leaders Call For Nanking To Yield

JAN 1949

Nanking, China, Jan. 23 (AP)—Fifty-five non-Communist anti-Government figures led by Marshal Li Chi-shen tonight indorsed the Communist demand for Government surrender.

"We must relentlessly smash the hyprocritical peace offensive instigated by Chiang Kai-shek and American imperialism," declared a long statement broadcast by the Communist radio in the name of the non-Communist group.

Kravchenko Suit Slated In France

JACQUES ARMANDY

Paris, Jan. 23 (AP)—A French courtroom will be the stage tomorrow for an expected clash of the conflicting ideologies of East and West—another skirmish in the cold war.

The occasion will be the first hearing in the trial of a libel suit filed by Victor Andreievitch Kravchenko, author of the book "I Chose Freedom," against the pro-Communist weekly paper, Les Lettres Francaises.

Two articles alleged to be libelous, one signed by "Sim Thomas" and the other by Andre Wurmser, questioned Kravchenko's veracity and made other accusations of a personal nature against him.

Ex-Wie, Girl Friend To Testify

The trial is scheduled to last three weeks, with hearings each Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Eighty-eight witnesses have been listed.

For the defense, fifteen Soviet citizens have been granted permission to leave the U.S.S.R. and testify against Kravchenko. Among these are his former wife Zina, whom he married when a student and divorced six months later, and a one-time girl friend named Irina.

On Kravchenko's side, 30 witnesses, all Russians, will tell the court why they do not want to go back to Soviet Russia. Some will come from the United States zone in Germany, others from Belgium, and others from Austrian displaced persons camps. Some escaped from the Soviet zone and Kravchenko's agent said there will be "a hero of the Red Army," whose identity has been carefully kept secret for security reasons.

Quit Job With Mission

Kravchenko told his life story in the book and explained why he decided to fight the Soviet regime. He was attacked by the Communist press throughout the world immediately after he quit his job with the Soviet purchasing mission in the United States. He now is a United States citizen.

Kravchenko said he decided to counterattack when Les Lettres Francaises published the two articles and that he filed the suit for political reasons.

The Communist party is strong and well organized in France.

About 600,000 copies of his book have been sold in France in two years and 5,000 a day have been sold since the trial was announced.

The identity of Sim Thomas, the name used to sign one of the articles, has never been disclosed. According to Joe Nordmann, the paper's lawyer, Thomas is "an American journalist who would be immediately tried in his own country for Un-American activities if he was known to be the author of the article."

SPEAKERS ASSERT SOVIET PEACE AIM

Togliatti And Cachin Charg U.S. Prepares For War

F PRUTTO

Rome, Jan. 23 (AP)—Palmiro Togliatti, Italian Communist chief, and Marcel Cachin, French Communist leader, declared today Soviet Russia wants and needs peace.

Addressing a Communist rally here, they accused the United States of preparing for a new war and called upon "the peoples of the world to save the imperiled peace."

The speeches amplified earlier remarks made by both men which had been interpreted in some quarters as signaling the launching of a "peace offensive" by Russia or at least a new propaganda line designed to convince the rest of the globe that it can get along with Prime Minister Stalin.

Greatest In Current Drive

Today's demonstration was the greatest in Italy thus far in the current Communist drive which has coupled expressions of hope for peace with sweeping attacks on the Western powers.

Both men objected to describing that drive as a "peace offensive." Togliatti declared: "Our adversaries must always speak of peace in terms of war."

Togliatti and the 80-year-old head of the Communists in the French Parliament attacked United States foreign policy, the European Reconstruction Program, President Truman's inaugural address and American industry.

Western Powers Unimpressed

If the two men actually are giving voice to a Russian attempt to ease the cold war and get on better terms with the West, the reaction in Washington and London thus far has not been favorable.

American and British officials have taken the view that actions speak louder than words. They have pointed out that there has been no change in Soviet policy in Berlin, Greece or the Orient.

At his inauguration last Thursday President Truman called Communism a "false philosophy" and predicted its followers in due time would recognize the strength of democracy, "abandon their delusions" and join with the rest of the world in an international settlement.

Friday night, Pravda's editor, in the presence of Stalin, declared that Soviet Russia has an "unshakable will for international co-operation." The editor, N. N. Pospelow, addressed Soviet leaders in Moscow on the 25th anniversary of the death of Lenin. He recalled Stalin's assertion that peace is possible between differing systems but bitterly attacked what he described as "Anglo-American warmongers."

Togliatti and Cachin spoke in a similar vein yesterday. Togliatti was cheered when he declared:

"The people do not want war, and Comrade Stalin does not want war.

"The Marshall plan is politics provoking a new war. The policy of the American industrialists is for war, but they cannot go to war because they know they would be beaten by the will for peace of the people."

Cachin asserted that "the great industry of the United States with its press and radio, is trying to incite the whole world against Russia." He added:

"For those who suggest war with Russia, we say we have not forgotten the 17,000,000 Russian soldiers who were sacrificed.

"The Soviet is preparing no aggression. She needs peace. But the United States is spending $40,000,000,000 preparing war for tomorrow.

An estimated 8,000 persons packed the theater where the two men spoke. Ten thousand others stood outside listening to a broadcast of the addresses. They were ringed by carabineri and motorized police.

Berlin last year to see Ruth Riecki, his German girl, and their 2-year-old baby. He was arrested and jailed, escaped from the army stockade the week before Christmas and was nabbed.

Choice Between Ruth And Ursula

When Lada arrived in Berlin he said he had come to see his sweetheart. But it soon developed he had two German girl friends. First he chose Ursula Schmidt, 21, German actress and singer. Then he changed his mind and asked the United States consul for visas to take Ruth and his baby to the United States. He changed his mind several times subsequently in expressing his preference.

Finally, Ursula announced December 18 she was through with Lada. She said "there is no doubt that he came here to get me" but that she had written him it would be best "if we part."

They Say He Can't Be Trusted

Lada is now awaiting trial on charges of illegal entry, jailbreak and illegal possession of currency. An American court here has refused to release Lada on bail, saying he couldn't be trusted.

Robert Donihi, Lada's attorney also said today that Stanley Lada, the paratrooper's brother, is asking New Jersey congressmen to "determine why Lada as an American citizen is not being given a trial by jury." Lada is a native of Newark, N.J.

Among them were a bank official and a woman physician, the announcement said.

Agents of the Air Force, which started an intensive drive to smash the ring yesterday, have seized in the homes of the prisoners precision instruments, ball bearings, watches, cameras and small quantities of gold, silver and platinum as well as various currencies, the announcement said.

Soldiers, Airmen Included

The prisoners were not identified by name, nor was their nationality given, except for the statement that they are Europeans. The agents said they believed they have the ringleaders, but expect to arrest some smaller fry when the evidence has been sifted.

Announcing the start of the operation yesterday, the Air Force said the ring included American soldiers, airmen and military government employés.

Today's announcement said the agents are "not particularly concerned at this time with known United States military and civilian personnel involved in the smuggling as they will be 'available' when the present phase of operations have been completed."

Traps Set At Exit Roads

The ring was described yesterday as a "multi-million-dollar" gang. The Army has had reports that as much as $200,000,000 a year worth of German goods was being smuggled out of the country.

Working with the Air Force agents are Army criminal-investigation agents and civilian police of other countries. They set traps at exit roads along the frontier.

Further along the famous Ringstrasse—the broad avenue that circles the original Inner City—is the tree-lined section running between the Parliament building and the Burg theater. For years it was known as "Franzensring", after Emperor Franz Josef I. When the empire collapsed Nov. 12, 1918, it became "The Ring of Nov. 12". In a few years it was renamed "Dr. Ignatz Seipelring" in honor of Austria's outstanding chancellor of the pre-Anschluss period. With the arrival of the Nazis, it became known as "Buerckelring" for the first Austrian Gauleiter, Joseph Buerckel. In 1945, with Buerckel and the Nazis out, it reverted to "Dr. Ignatz Seipelring".

The Viennese have little hope that it won't be changed again soon. Seipel was prelate of the Catholic church—and the Russian Kommandantura is on that particular section of the Ringstrasse.

Other post-war changes have found "Adolf Hitler Platz" again given its original name of "Rathausplatz", and "Schwarzenbergplatz" renamed "Stalinplatz."

other emigrés and authorities outside Czechoslovakia. At the same time he was boasting to those who had anti-Communist sentiments in Slovakia that he was backed by American interests.]

The persons now under arrest are only the first to be rounded up, the police statement said. A radio transmitter, tiny film, original spying orders and other material was reported found. Ten state officials, eleven university students, a Catholic priest and three nuns were among those arrested and accused.

In one letter made public, Vican was said to have written:

"I am in connection both with an intelligence department and with an operation department of the American Army. It is very important for me to prove especially that I have influence in Slovakia and that I can operate in Slovakia."

Estimate Soviet Strength

Another letter addressed to "the chief of Catholic Action" in Nitra declared that "the Americans are very sober in estimating the strength of the Soviet Union and consider it strong opposition."

Another letter said, "the Americans are starting to prepare for war very seriously."

Vican urged his contacts, in a letter to "use all your influence and get the maximum quantity of finances."

To Count On Stronghold

In the letter to the Catholic Action society, the police statement said Vican wrote:

"It is necessary to count with the fact that the Americans will have Slovakia as their central European stronghold, from which they could interfere efficiently with movements of the Soviet southward and northward."

Vican has been identified by police as a former Slovakian Government official under Father Tiso when Hitler made Slovakia an independent state.

Slovakia Pictured As U.S. Base For Blocking Russia

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 23 (AP)—Spy ring letters made public by police today pictured Slovakia as "a central European stronghold for American troops to interfere efficiently with the moves of the Soviet Union." They also said "the Americans are starting to prepare very seriously for a war."

The letters were published in connection with the arrest of three score persons in Slovakia on charges of plotting against the Government.

A police statement said the letters were written by Josef Vican, a Slovak who flew to Austria, and that they proved he and the persons arrested in Slovakia were working with the American intelligence units in Austria.

[The language of the letters made public, however, indicated another picture. They showed that Vican—if he wrote the letters—was trying to whip up money and a following in Slovakia with which to impress

Berlin, Jan. 23 (AP)—Edward J. Lada, the former paratrooper who cracked the Soviet blockade to enter Berlin, appealed to President Truman today to "let me out of jail for one hour to marry my girl."

"As one war veteran to another I ask only that I be allowed to marry my girl and to legitimatize my daughter," Lada said in a letter to Mr. Truman.

Streets in Vienna Changed by Events

JAN 23

VIENNA. (AP)—Vienna is known as a city of tradition, with binding ties to its glorious past—but you'd never know it by the street signs.

A good example of what current events do to Vienna's nomenclature is the little park which stands before the famous Votive church. For many years it was called, naturally enough, "Votive Platz". Then came the end of world war one and the name was changed to "Freiheits Platz" (Liberty Place). Then came the Nazis and it was changed to "Hermann Goering Platz". Then came the end of world war two and it was changed to "Roosevelt Platz".

Bishops Concerned Over Hungary Rift

BUDAPEST, Hungary. (AP)—The bench of Hungary's Roman Catholic bishops expressed deep concern yesterday over strained relations between the church and state.

A pastoral letter was read in the country's Catholic churches admonishing Catholics to be faithful to their church and country, and to abstain from subversive activities.

The church in Hungary does "not give up the doctrine, laws and divine rights of the church, and she could not do so without the assent of the Holy See (The Vatican)," the letter said.

The Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, now is in jail awaiting trial on charges of treason, espionage, black market dealings and other accusations.

EGYPT'S STAND SNARLS TALKS

Israel Is Reported Refusing To Restore Oct. 14 Negeb Line

Rhodes, Monday, Jan. 24 (AP)—A source close to the Israeli delegation said early today the Egyptian-Israeli armistice talks could be considered at an end unless Egypt alters her stand on the Negeb.

There were unofficial reports that the Jews had decided to abandon the talks because of Egyptian insistence that the Negeb boundaries of last October 14 be restored. That was before the Jews launched two successful offensives in the southern Palestine desert.

The source close to the Israeli delegation said Israel had not yet decided to quit the armistice negotiations, but added, "We will not agree to the lines of October 14."

No Move For Break

A member of the staff of Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, said last night the "situation is extremely difficult," but said as yet no move had been made by either side to break off the talks. One Jewish source said the only way the conference could be saved was for the United States to exert pressure on Egypt directly or indirectly through Britain.

Bunche was working hard for success of the negotiations. He conferred again with the chiefs of the Israeli and Egyptian delegations separately last night.

[Dispatches from Tel Aviv quoted United Nations sources as saying the evacuation of 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja in southern Palestine by Israeli forces was postponed suddenly Sunday. Israel regarded the release of the troops as a major concession to the Egyptians.]

Admits Critical Point

Bunche himself made little secret yesterday that the talks had taken a critical turn.

"As long as we have meetings there is always hope," he said when asked how serious the new snag was. ADD

Asian Bloc Asks UN to End Dutch Indonesian Rule

Polite 'Or Else' Flavor Attached To Resolutions

BY MARC PURDUE

NEW DELHI, India. (AP)—The Asian conference yesterday demanded "overdue" action by the United Nations to end Dutch rule and military action in Indonesia.

Fifteen nations backed the resolutions, which had a polite but unmistakable "or else" flavor. Four others were represented by observers who had no vote, but who gave no indication of disagreement at yesterday's closing session.

Action 'Overdue'

Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, prime minister of India and conference president, sent the resolutions to Lake Success with an accompanying letter declaring bluntly:

"The conference has asked me to point out with respect that effective action by the (security) council to bring this situation to an end is overdue."

The "or else" implication seemed clear in two resolutions. One called for a close watch on what the United Nations does about Indonesia now. The other set up a foundation on which could be built an "Asian bloc" within the UN.

Nations of the west always become unhappy at mention of possibility of an Asian bloc which might become embarrassing in international horse trading. Asia has more than half the world's population and vast wealth, both actual and potential.

In their meeting here, the 19 nations showed they can, at least when western colonialism is involved, damp down their own discords and present a united front to an outsider—in this case, the Dutch.

Some other things stood out boldly:

1. India, with her newly-won freedom from British crown rule, intends to take over where Japan was knocked out as the leader of the East, and nobody has challenged this lead.

2. India, as leader, is determined to unite the eastern countries possibly as a formally organized bloc to insist that all Asia rid herself of foreign rule, and that the other countries think it's a good idea. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine delegate to the UN, said he believed that to all intents and purposes, an Asian bloc actually was born at the conference.

Indonesia made it clear its leaders are not too pleased by the way the conference handled things, but are not too displeased.

Wanted Economic Sanctions

They wanted the other countries to wade in swinging, sending arms and ammunition to Indonesian guerrillas fighting the Dutch; clamp down their own economic sanctions against Dutch-held areas of Indonesia, and to demand that the United Nations do likewise.

However, D. Soemitro, Indonesian spokesman, said the joint resolution now pending in the Security Council for solution of the Indonesian problem "is now meaningless" and overshadowed by what the Asian countries did here. The joint resolution, originally sponsored by the United States and now somewhat watered down, is due to come up for consideration Tuesday. It calls for an independent Indonesia by July, 1950. A declaration for withdrawal of troops has been taken out.

Indonesians To Press Fight

The conference demanded many of the same things that the joint resolution does, but included also many of the Indonesians' own demands.

Reviewing it all, Soemitro said: "The Indonesian people are quite prepared to continue the struggle against Dutch imperialism" until an acceptable solution is reached.

In 80 minutes of speechmaking and voting, the conference made formal the demands it had phrased in closed session yesterday.

It called for these steps:

1. Immediate return of Jogjakarta, capital of the Indonesian republic which the Dutch crushed militarily, and withdrawal of Dutch troops from republican areas of Java, Sumatra and Madoera by March 15.

Interim Regime Sought

2. Immediate release of all Indonesian political prisoners, including republican governmental officials interned by the Netherlands forces.

3. A March 15 deadline for restoring to the Republic all territory seized in the December military offensive.

4. An interim government for all Indonesia, to include republican leaders, also by March 15, the interim government to control its own armed forces.

5. Complete sovereignty for Indonesia by January 1, 1950, following a free election of a constituent assembly.

The resolutions accused the Dutch of a "flagrant breach" of the United Nations Charter and "defiance" of United Nations orders. It said the matter had become a "danger to peace," calling for swift, effective United Nations action.

The resolution, by indirection, put across the idea it wants the United Nations to impose economic sanctions if the Dutch do not agree, asking the Security Council to use its "wide powers" to enforce an Indonesian solution.

Nehru Asks Co-Operation

Nehru, who had said before the meeting he was not thinking in terms of an Asian bloc, told the closed meeting in a speech that perhaps it was incorrect to say the group had concluded its work.

"I hope that close co-operation has come to stay among the nations in this conference," he added.

"We hope the Security Council realizes the strong feeling that lies behind it," the Indian Prime Minister emphasized." ADD

NEW DELHI, India, Jan. 23 (AP)—The text of a resolution on Indonesia adopted by the nineteen-nation Asian conference follows:

This conference of representatives of Governments of Afghanistan, Australia, Burma, Ceylon, Egypt, Ethiopia, India, Iran, Iraq, Lebanon, Pakistan, the Philippines, Saudi Arabia, Syria and Yemen [China, Nepal, New Zealand and Siam had observers present];

Affirming their support of purposes and principles of the United Nations and the obligation of all member states to accept and carry out decisions of the Security Council in accordance with the Charter;

Having considered the situation in Indonesia in the light of all available data and in particular reports submitted by the Good Offices Committee of the Security Council;

Being of the opinion that Dutch military action launched on 18 December 1948 constitutes a flagrant breach of the Charter of the United Nations and defiance of the efforts of the Security Council and its Good Offices Committee to bring about a peaceful settlement;

Noting that Netherlands authorities have failed to give full effect to resolutions of the Security Council adopted after that date;

Finding that this action is directed against the very existence of the Republican Government which the Security Council and several member governments of the United Nations, including the Netherlands Government itself have recognized;

Considers of the danger to the peace of Southeast Asia and of the world through continuance of hostilities in Indonesia;

Recognizing that the people of Indonesia are entitled according to the principles of the [United Nations] Charter to independence and the exercise of full sovereign rights;

Recognizing further that the maintenance of international peace and security and the development of friendly relations among nations based on the principle of equal rights and self-determination of peoples constitute the high and steadfast purpose of the United Nations;

Firmly convinced that the Security Council is properly seized of the Indonesian question as a breach of peace and an act of aggression under Article 39 of the United Nations Charter;

RECOMMENDS to the Security Council of the United Nations:

[A]

(1) That members of the Republican Government, other Republican leaders and all political prisoners in Indonesia be immediately restored to complete freedom.

(2) That the Republican Government be enabled to function freely and to this end:

i. The Residency of Jogjakarta be handed back immediately to the Republic and the Netherlands authorities refrain from taking any action that may interfere with effective functioning of the Government of the Republic. That Government should also have facilities for communication and freedom of consultation throughout Indonesia;

ii. Such areas of the islands of Java, Sumatra and Madura as were held by the Government of the Republic on 18 December, 1948 be restored to the Republic not later than 15 March, 1949;

iii. Dutch forces be withdrawn (a) immediately from the Residency of Jogjakarta and (b) progressively from the rest of Republican territory mentioned in ii, such withdrawal to be effected in states and under conditions to be prescribed by the Good Offices Committee or any other body to be appointed by the Security Council and to be completed not later than 15 March, 1949;

iv. All restrictions imposed by Netherlands authorities on the trade of the Republic to be immediately removed;

v. Pending formation of the Interim Government referred to in (3) the Republican Government to be afforded all facilities for communication with the outside world.

(3) That an Interim Government composed of representatives of the Republic and representatives of territories of Indonesia other than those under authority of the Republic, commanding the confidence of the Indonesian people, be formed not later than 15 March, 1949 with the approval and assistance of the Good Offices Committee or any other body that may be appointed by the Security Council. Pending the result of deliberations of the Constituent Assembly referred to in (6) below no new regional governments shall be formed or recognized.

(4) That subject to provisions of (5) such Interim Government shall enjoy full powers of government, including control over its armed forces. To insure this all Dutch troops shall be withdrawn from the whole of Indonesia on a date to be determined by the Good Offices Committee or any other body appointed by the Security Council. Pending such withdrawal Dutch forces shall not be used for maintenance of law and order except at the request of the Interim Government and with the approval of the Good Offices Committee or any other body that may be appointed by the Security Council.

(5) That the Interim Government shall have such freedom in external affairs as may be determined in consultation with the Interim Government and Netherlands authorities by the Good Offices Committee or any other body that may be appointed by the Security Council.

(6) That elections for a Constituent Assembly of Indonesia be completed by 1 October, 1949.

(7) That power over the whole of Indonesia be completely transferred by 1 January, 1950 to the United States of Indonesia, whose relationship with the Netherlands shall be settled by negotiation between the Governments of the United States of Indonesia and the Netherlands.

(8) That the Good Offices Committee or any other body appointed by the Security Council be given authority to secure application of the foregoing recommendations under supervision of the Security Council, to whom it may report as frequently as necessary.

[B]

That in event either party to the dispute does not comply with recommendations of the Security Council the Council shall take effective action under the wide powers conferred on it by the Charter to enforce the said recommendations. Member states of the United Nations represented at the conference pledge their full support to the Council in application of any of these measures.

[C]

That the Security Council be pleased to report, for consideration by the United Nations General Assembly at its adjourned session commencing in April, 1949, the measures taken or recommended by the Council for solution of the Indonesian problem and the action taken by the parties concerned giving effect to these measures.

Approval

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 23 (AP)—Action taken at the Asian conference has "strengthened the hand" of the Security Council for dealing with the Indonesian question, a source close to the American delegation said today.

The conference in New Delhi demanded "overdue" action by the United Nations to end Dutch rule and military action in the far eastern republic.

The United States source said it was significant that the Asian conference had channeled all its effort through the United Nations. He indicated that a bloc of countries with as much potential power as those which met in New Delhi could have taken more drastic action.

Already Assailed By Dutch

"They showed a great deal of moderation," this source said. He added that certain delegations now might feel inclined to offer amendments to the joint resolution on which debate will be resumed when the Security Council reconvenes at 3 P.M. Tuesday.

The four-power proposal now before the Council already has been assailed by the Dutch Foreign Office. Sponsored jointly by the United States, China, Norway and Cuba, it calls on the Dutch and Indonesians to stop all fighting immediately. It also demands the immediate release of Indonesian leaders held by the Dutch and sets up a timetable for creating a United States of Indonesia by July 1, 1950.

The proposal represents a watered-down version of a previous plan for bringing peace to Indonesia. It was toned down in the hope that the new version would get the seven votes needed for passage in the eleven-nation council.

Strong Amendments Opposed

Although the action taken in New Delhi might encourage the sponsoring of amendments on Tuesday, a United States spokesman indicated that strong amendments would run the danger of making the resolution unpalatable. Such action, he said, might drive away Council votes.

There were indications that the action of the Asian conference might cause certain delegations to demand a super-strong resolution. One United Nations source said, however, that a very strong proposal would not get the needed affirmative votes.

Before the Council adjourned on Friday, Jacob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, attacked the resolution for failing to take into account the interests of the Indonesians. He claims the proposal is pro-Dutch.

Philip C. Jessup, United States delegate, spoke in support of the resolution and expressed confidence that it offered a good basis for permanent peace in Indonesia.

Press Photographers Boycott Danish Queen

Copenhagen, Jan. 23 (AP)—Danish and foreign press photographers clamped a boycott on Queen Ingrid today.

The Danish queen, attending a reception at Copenhagen's Town Hall on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Girl Scout movement in Denmark, let it be known she wished the cameramen to take her picture outside the Town Hall. Inside, the announcement said, the Girl Scouts had arranged for a private photographer to do all the shutter-snapping.

The press photographers refused to take any pictures at all and picketed the Town Hall in protest.

Acheson Begins Study of Foreign Policy as First Job

BY JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson is reported to have undertaken an intensive review of the whole range of American foreign policy as his first major task in the state department.

This project is expected to lead him possibly this week into conferences with top officials on the next major move in U. S. diplomacy. His talks may include foreign aid administrator Paul Hoffman, defense Secretary Forrestal, congressional leaders and others.

At the moment, some of Acheson's advisers concede that probably the hottest trouble spot is China. Because of the American aid problem this likely will shape us as a major subject in Acheson's investigation both in and outside the state department. However, there is no prospect of any quick, important development in the American policy toward China.

FIGHT COMMUNISM

The problem is complicated by the fact that the apparent disintegration of the Nationalist government may mean such a rapid development of Communist China as to raise the danger of Communism's spread even beyond China's borders.

Authorities said yesterday that this leads directly into the problem of action by the western powers to oppose the growth of Communist influence in southeast Asian lands.

A major part of this project apparently is President Truman's new program for developing backward areas of the world in order to raise their living standards. The basic argument the United States is now making thru its diplomatic and propaganda agencies in all those regions is that Western democracy can do a better job for the native peoples than Communism.

SITUATION CONFUSED

On China itself, authorities here declared the situation is very confused and probably will be for some time. They predicted that during this period of uncertainty American policy will continue to be one of "noninvolvement."

If and when China emerges from transition under either a coalition or Communist regime the United States will then determine precisely what it will do.

Authorities here include the possibility that this government will leave the way open to trade and even recognition for some kind of workable political relationship with a Chinese Communist administration if it comes to be the actual government of China.

In the broader picture of Asiatic politics, American policies in Indonesia favoring the native republican movement against the Dutch appeared generally in line with those adopted at the conference of Asiatic leaders in India.

HAVE FAITH IN U.S.

There appears to be growing confidence here that the United States is once more recovering its position of symbolizing freedom and a better life to the millions in undeveloped areas of that part of the world.

At the same time state department authorities seem to feel that United States has weathered the worst of its crisis with the Dutch and that the split between The Hague and Washington over Indonesia will not disrupt negotiations now in the final stages for a North Atlantic security pact. This is a major line of development in United States policy toward Western Europe with which Acheson and Forrestal are particularly concerned.

A further problem which Acheson inherits is what to do with the Mediterranean area. There seems to be no doubt that if the western powers succeed in establishing a reasonably long period of peace in Palestine, the eastern Mediterranean nations will once more revive the project for a regional defense organization with American and British backing.

HOOVER GROUP STUDIES SHIFT FOR DEFENSE

Commission Would Reduce Armed Unit Heads To Under Secretaries

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Hoover Commission is working on drastic recommendations to heighten the power of the Secretary of Defense and reduce the heads of the Army, Navy and Air Force to "under secretaries," it was learned today.

This would involve shifting the trio's authority to the defense chief and cut off their direct contact with the President.

Officially Off Record

The findings still are tentative and officially off the record. They were reported in part by persons familiar with views of some members of the 12-man governmental reform body headed by former President Hoover.

The proposals go far beyond the recommendations of the commission's own "task force" studying the National Military Establishment where service rivalries often burst forth. The task force last month found the defense structure soundly built but "not yet working well." It asked some tightening.

Hearings To Be Held

Meanwhile, in the House tomorrow, hearings will begin on President Truman's urgent request for permanent powers to reorganize Government, subject to congressional veto.

The Executive Expenditures Committee will take up the proposal which follows a suggestion of Hoover himself that the Chief Executive have such authority to increase efficiency and cut costs.

The hearings are separate from the work of the Hoover Commission itself, which is concerned with proposing the actual changes that the conflicts in spending and "jurisdiction" can make for costly duplication of effort at a time when military costs bulk large in the nation's record peacetime budget.

Such perils were considered by the "task force" in its report of December 16. This report, a study intended merely to assist the commission, found the defense system cumbersome and "enormously" costly. The task force was headed by Ferdinand Eberstadt, New York investment banker and former chairman of the Army-Navy Munitions Board.

Idea Of "Demoting"

The Eberstadt Committee weighed the idea of "demoting" the

The Hoover body, officially named the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, is due to make its general report to Congress within two weeks.

Given Long Debate

Whether the details of its military plans will be made public was not known. It has given long debate to the defense establishment however, and is reported to have reach tentative agreement on these recommendations:

1. Focus supreme authority in the Secretary of Defense, including greater power over the crucial question of budgets for the three fighting arms.

2. Create four under secretaries. There would be one each for the Army, Navy and Air Force. The fourth would be a "general manager" to relieve the secretary of administrative burdens and act in his absence.

Would Delegate Authority

3. Let the authority now held directly by the Army, Air and Navy heads be vested instead in the Secretary of Defense. He in turn would delegate it to the service undersecretaries.

4. By the foregoing change, remove from the Army, Navy and Air heads the right to appeal to the President from decisions of the Defense Secretary.

The proposals all go in the direction of centralizing authority—and toward the commission's goal of reducing the number of agencies reporting to the President to fifteen or sixteen, instead of more than 50.

Inside Rivalries Eyed

Members of the Hoover group are said to feel that the present "merger" law provides no center of authority strong enough to integrate defense policy in the face of bitter inside rivalries.

They are understood to feel, also, three service secretaries to under secretary rank, but decided against it. It was feared among other things, that top-caliber men might decline to fill under secretary positions; that their effectiveness would be limited, and that the "ceremonial" tasks of the Defense Secretary would be increased.

The committee nevertheless urged that the Secretary of Defense be granted more direct control because, it said, his present "difficulties lie in vague authority."

It also recommended steps to assure a "fuller measure of teamwork" among the military offices and services.

U.S. WORKERS PLAN SUIT ON LOYALTY RULE

Defense Group To Seek Voiding Of Order, Halt Of Probe

JAN 1949

Cleveland, Jan. 23 (AP)—The newly organized Federal Employés Defense Committee announced today it would file suit in Washington to have President Truman's loyalty order declared unconstitutional.

Government workers throughout the nation will be asked to join the committee's fight, said Bertram A. Washington, president of the Cleveland branch of the National Alliance of Postal Workers, a score of whose members face discharge here on disloyalty grounds.

Washington, one of 29 Cleveland postal clerks fighting the disloyalty charges, was a principal organizer of the new committee.

Rogge Issues Statement

An injunction suit to restrain enforcement of the loyalty order and to test its legality will be filed in the District of Columbia's United States Court, Washington said. The New York law firm headed by O. John Rogge, former Assistant United States Attorney General, has been retained to file the suit.

Rogge, in a statement, emphasized that the case "has nothing to do with communism or whether the Communist party or any other group is subversive or not."

"The sole issue," Rogge's statement said, "is the failure of the Government in its search for disloyal employés, to provide adequate safeguards for the individuals against malicious gossip, racial and religious prejudices and anonymous informants.

Accused "Assumed Guilty"

"In operation, the order reverses the whole American concept of justice by assuming the accused is guilty until he proves himself innocent. It denies the accused the right to confront his accuser and examine the witnesses against him.

"It deprives Government employés and people who want to be Government employés of their constitutional rights of free speech, free assembly, free thought and free association."

The proposed legal action also will challenge Attorney General Tom Clark's authority under the presidential order to brand certain organizations as subversive, Washington said.

On this point Rogge claimed the order gave the Attorney General "the extraordinary and dangerous power to decide, without benefit of judicial process of review, what organizations are subversive and a political sin to join."

2,000,000 Checked

"It makes past membership in organizations which were perfectly legal at the time punishable by dismissal," Rogge added.

Last September 10 the FBI said 2,110,521 of investigated employés were beyond suspicion and need not undergo full investigation. At that time the FBI had finished 86 per cent of the 6,344 full investigations with the result that 619 persons resigned during checking and 4,758 cases were turned over to the Civil Service Commission for decision.

'AXIS SALLY' GOES ON TRIAL

Treason Case Opens Today In Washington District Court

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—"Axis Sally" goes on trial for her life in United States District Court here tomorrow.

The jury must decide:

Did "Axis Sally" commit treason—a crime carrying a maximum penalty of death—by broadcasting for the Nazis during the last war? A ten-count indictment alleges that she did.

Or did she work for the welfare of this country and give many American mothers and fathers the first word that their sons were in German prisons and hospitals? Her attorney says that will be her contention.

She's 48 And Silver-Haired

In the indictment she is "Mildred E. Sisk, also known as Mildred Elizabeth Gillars," a native of Portland, Maine. But to GI's who heard her broadcasts "Axis Sally" is her only name.

She is 48 and silver-haired, not the young and beautiful woman soldiers imagined they were listening to.

When she was flown back from Germany last August 21 she carried flowers she said friends in the French zone had given her. They had faded. Time has not been kind to "Axis Sally," either.

In her few brief court appearances since being brought back from Germany, she has seemed tired.

Two-Month Trial Forecast

James J. Laughlin, who has figured in many of Washington's most publicized criminal trials, is the chief defense counsel. Opposing Laughlin will be John M. Kelley, Jr., an experienced government prosecutor who tries cases with a minimum of pyrotechnics.

Laughlin said today that he believes the trial can be finished "within two months."

As in other treason trials in this country since the end of World War II, witnesses will be brought from Germany to testify for the Government. The only witness from Germany so far identified by the Justice Department is Hans von Richter. He is described as a high official of the German radio.

Von Richter testified in the trials in Boston of Douglas Chandler and Robert Henry Best, both convicted of treason for their broadcasts over the Nazi radio. They received life sentences.

She's "Violently Anti-Communist"

Laughlin said the question of "Axis Sally's" American citizenship "may be raised." He added, however, that she insists she still has her citizenship.

The attorney described her as "violently anti-Communist." He hinted that this may figure in the trial as an explanation of why she went to work for the German radio before this country's entry into the war.

"Axis Sally" told interviewers upon her return from Germany that "I am an actress." She said she had played at a Washington theater fifteen or sixteen years ago.

In 1915, Federal officials say, she was given a passport to travel in France to study. A further passport was granted by American authorities in Algiers. From there she is believed to have gone to Germany in 1934.

CONGRESSMAN FIGHTS ENTRY OF GIESEKING

Klein Charges Pianist Aims To Carry On German Propaganda

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—Representative Klein (D., N.Y.) declared today that Walter Gieseking, German pianist, came to this country "to carry on German propaganda."

Gieseking arrived in New York yesterday for a scheduled recital in Carnegie Hall tomorrow night. He said in an inerview he never joined the Nazi party and avoided "all possibility" of being forced to join.

Klein said in a statement:

"I can find no excuse for Government officials willing to help bring our national enemies into this country for a repetition of the dreary 'poor Germany' campaigns of the 1920's.

To Continue Opposition

"I shall continue to oppose granting visas to Nazis and Nazi sympathizers."

He said he is giving his views to the Immigration and Naturalization service which, he added, will hold a hearing in New York tomorrow on Gieseking.

Klein said also that he is "asking the Attorney General to force Gieseking to register as a foreign agent . . . if he is allowed to enter the United States."

Act Restricts Issuance

The socalled McCormack Act prohibits the issuance of a visa to an alien seeking to enter the country for the purpose of engaging in activities which will endanger the public safety of the nation, he said.

The congressman added that he protested the issuance of a visa to Gieseking by the American consul at Paris and advised him the musician had been under investigation by the Committee on Un-American Activities in 1934.

"A resolution will be introduced," he said, "to open up the sealed files (of the committee) and produce the Gieseking report."

3 PROFESSORS AT SEATTLE DECRY FIRING

'Blow To Academic Freedom' Charged; Red Issue Up At Oregon State

JAN 1949

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 23 (AP)—Dismissal of three University of Washington faculty members accused of past or present membership in the Communist party was protested today by the ousted men as "a blow to academic freedom and civil liberties."

The Washington Board of Regents, acting yesterday after long study of Communist activities at the university, also placed on probation three other faculty members, allowing them to stay, provided they sign affidavits stating they no longer are members of the Communist party.

Three Fired Outright

Fired outright from the faculty were:

HERBERT J. PHILLIPS, assistant professor of philosophy. He has been on the Washington faculty since 1920 and taught summers at Columbia University. During a hearing last summer he admitted membership in the Communist party.

RALPH GUNDLACH, associate professor of psychology, on the faculty for 22 years. Raymond B. Allen, university president, referred to Gundlach's "ambiguous relationship" with the Communist party in recommending his discharge.

JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH, associate professor in the English department. He has been at Washington for nineteen years.

Trio Put On Probation

Placed on probation for two years were Harold L. Eby, professor of English; Garland Ethel, assistant professor of English, and Melville Jacobs, associate professor of anthropology, all three of whom have admitted they once were members of the Communist party.

Eby and Ethel said they "were gratified by the decision and willing to sign affidavits" that they are not members of the Communist party now.

Jacobs, who declined comment yesterday, issued a statement today that "I will do whatever is required by the regents' decision."

The Washington president, transmitting recommendations to the regents, said:

"This approach to a solution of this problem is, so far as I am aware, unique in education history. It is of interest and concern in higher educational circles throughout the country. This is a grave responsibility for the University of Washington to bear."

Statements Of Protest Issued

Phillips and Butterworth issued a statement saying the action of the regents "cannot and will not be permitted to stand." Gundlach came out with a separate statement arguing that the dismissals were based on the "guilt of association" doctrine. He thought this was a mistake.

The Phillips-Butterworth statement dealt largely with the argument that such actions "represent a most serious blow to academic freedom." They expressed the opinion that it was contrary to what they call "traditional civil liberties."

They said they had appealed to the American Association of University Professors. The dismissals are effective on February 1.

While the regents were taking action at Washington to eliminate what they regard as Communist influence from the faculty, a student leader at Oregon State College charged that Communist-minded people were doing their best to spread the Communist doctrine there.

Thomas House, of Portland, president of the Associated Students, said "communism is a real factor on the (Oregon State) campus," and "certain people are on this campus for the sole purpose of converting students to the cause of communism."

Dr. A. L. Strand, Oregon State College president, observed that, "while we probably have less of this sort of activity (Communist) than the average campus, we undoubtedly have some. Hence, it is gratifying to see the responsible student leaders recognizing the situation and thus taking steps to guard against it.

Fears Students Are Misled

"My chief concern is that a number of sincere, well-meaning students—some with admirable religious purposes in championing what they think are worthy causes—have been misled by the few active and persistent pro-Soviet advocates, and are thus used by the later to their own detriment."

House made his charges after a meeting, organized by a group which calls itself the "Young Progressives of America," had objected to the editorial policies of the student publication.

House, writing in the student paper, Barometer, said Communist propagandists "appeal to the religious side, the workingman's side, or anything possible to gain an opening wedge, or break, through which they pour a saturated solution of high-powered cure-all that later is admitted to be communism."

CONGRESS TO GET WAR-ORPHAN BILL

Admission Of Any Number For Adoption Proposed

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—Two Republicans announced today that they will sponsor legislation to admit to this country for adoption an unlimited number of war orphans under 16 years old.

Senator Ives and Representative Javits, both of New York, said they plan to introduce identical bills in the Senate and House Tuesday.

In Interests Of U.S.

They said in a statement:

"We consider this not only a humanitarian measure but in the best interests of the United States because it can bring to us a valuable addition to our youth, thoroughly integrated into our society by being placed within family groups.

"To provide a haven for these war orphans is in accordance with the finest traditions of America and should appeal to the hearts of thousands of Americans."

The legislation provides for direct adoption by United States citizens, or for their care by a United States nonprofit organization which would arrange for adoption.

Will Request Assurance

The measure specifies that:

"Foster parents are to be suitable persons financially and legally able to adopt, rear and educate the orphan immigrant. . . . In both the case of an individual and an organization, assurances are to be given that the orphan will not become a public charge."

Ives and Javits estimated that "thousands" of orphans could be brought to this country under their measure. They expressed belief "there is a good chance for favorable action" on the bill at this session.

U.S. May Bar 37 Baltic Refugees

Miami, Fla., Jan. 23 (AP)—Thirty-seven Baltic refugees who sailed the Atlantic to escape "Russian persecution" may not be allowed to remain in the United States, immigration officials said today.

Walter F. Miller, district director of immigration and naturalization, said the Esthonian and Finnish men, women and children who traveled 6,100 miles from Sweden to Miami, would be held for a board of special inquiry.

Later, he said, they probably will be sent to Ellis Island, New York, to be held in quarantine.

Miller said Esthonian and Finnish immigrant quotas were filled up for "several years to come" and expressed doubt whether the present visaless group would be admitted.

The Baltic refugees arrived in Miami Friday night. They said they sailed from Helsingborg, Sweden, on August 9, 1948, and crossed the Atlantic by way of Denmark, England, the Maderia Islands, and Ciudad Trujillo, Dominion Republic.

Miller quoted the ship's captain as saying the group pooled their financial resources to outfit the 95-foot, 64-ton two-masted auxiliary schooner "Eeva" for the trip.

Veterans Award Medal To Airlift

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Army-Navy Union, a veterans' organization, announced tonight its annual aviation medal will be awarded to the Berlin airlift for having demonstrated "the superiority of Americanism over communism."

The presentation will be made to Maj. Gen. Edward F. Witsell, Army Adjutant General, at the Pentagon tomorrow morning, for forwarding to Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor in Germany.

Wheat Tumbles; Bread Prices Up

Washington, Jan. 23 (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today the retail price of bread has failed to respond to a rapid fall in the price of wheat.

It said the price of wheat dropped about 30 per cent between January and October, 1948. Present prices are not much different from those of October.

The retail price of flour dropped 15 per cent in this same period, the department added.

But the retail price of bread, it said, rose 0.7 per cent.

These price developments, the agency said, differ from the general rule. Over a period of years, the price farmers get for their wheat has tended to move in the same direction as the retail price of flour and bread.

MADAME BALABANOFF, A NATIVE OF RUSSIA WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT WHEN THE CONGRESS CONVENED. OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVES OF THE REPUBLICAN AND CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES ARE ATTENDING.

"IF THERE HAS EVER BEEN A MOMENT IN WHICH OUR COMRADES SHOULD NOT PULL OUT OF THE GOVERNMENT, THIS IS ONE," MADAME BALABANOFF TOLD THE 2,000 DELEGATES.

THERE HAVE BEEN REPORTS SARAGAT PLANS TO LEAVE THE CABINET.

THE CONGRESS DECIDED TO CHANGE THE PARTY'S EMBLEM FROM A BOOK WITH A HAMMER AND SICKLE AND THREE ARROWS TO A RISING SUN. THE HAMMER AND SICKLE, TRADITIONAL EMBLEM OF THE COMMUNISTS, WILL APPEAR NO LONGER ON PSLI BANNERS.

A TELEGRAM WAS RECEIVED FROM NORMAN THOMAS ON BEHALF OF THE UNITED STATES SOCIALIST PARTY DESCRIBING THE CONGRESS AS "MOST IMPORTANT FOR THE FUTURE OF EUROPEAN AND WORLD SOCIALISM."

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 23-(AP)-A LEADER OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK PEOPLE'S PARTY SAID TODAY IT WOULD WORK WITH GOVERNMENT LEADERS "AND NOT IN THE INTERESTS OF THE WESTERN COUNTRIES OR THE VATICAN."

ALOIS PETR, MINISTER OF TRANSPORT, MADE THE STATEMENT AT A DISTRICT MEETING OF THE PARTY, WHICH CALLED ITSELF THE CATHOLIC PEOPLE'S PARTY BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS CAME TO POWER LAST FEBRUARY.

PETR SAID THE VISIT OF THREE ROMAN CATHOLIC BISHOPS WITH PRESIDENT KLEMENT GOTTWALD LAST WEEK WAS A SIGN OF PEACE BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

"IF RELATIONS BETWEEN THE CHURCH AND STATE HAVE NOT BEEN OF THE BEST IT WAS NOT THE FAULT OF THE GOVERNMENT OR THE PEOPLE'S PARTY," HE SAID. "BUT THE RECENT VISIT OF THE BISHOPS TO THE PRESIDENT BRINGS HOPE THAT DIFFERENCES WILL BE SETTLED.

"IN ANY CASE THE PEOPLE'S PARTY WILL GO ALONG WITH THE INTERESTS OF THE NATION AND GOVERNMENT AND NOT IN THE INTERESTS OF THE WESTERN COUNTRIES OR THE VATICAN."

THE PARTY IS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NATIONAL FRONT COALITION. IT HAS ANOTHER MINISTER IN THE CABINET BESIDE PETR. HE IS THE REV. JOSEF PROJHAR, HEALTH MINISTER, A CATHOLIC PRIEST WHO WAS STRIPPED OF HIS RIGHTS AS A PRIEST BY A BISHOP'S CONFERENCE ON TH GROUNDS PRIESTS SHOULD NOT TAKE PART IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY.

OTHER SPEAKERS TODAY STRESSED THE ROLE THE PARTY MUST PLAY IN THE COUNTRY'S FIVE-YEAR PLAN AND INSISTED IT MUST WORK ALONG WITH OTHERS IN THE NATIONAL FRONT.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 23-(AP)--A RUMOR PRINTED IN A BERLIN NEWSPAPER (TAGESSPIEGEL--AMERICAN LICENSED) THAT PRESIDENT KLEMENT GOTTWALD OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA HAD BEEN SHOT AND WOUNDED WAS DENIED TODAY BY THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE. THE FOREIGN PRESS SECTION OF THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION DISTRIBUTED THE DENIAL.

A MINISTRY ATTACHE SAID A MEMBER OF THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE STAFF WHO DENIED THE RUMOR DECLARED HE WAS JUST THEN TAKING IN THE MORNING PAPERS TO MR. GOTTWALD. THE PRESIDENT YESTERDAY GREETED A GROUP FROM THE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' UNION, WHICH IS PREPARING THE WINTER ACADEMIC GAMES. HE CONFERRED ALSO WITH YOUNG MINERS WHO SENT A DELEGATION TO SEE HIM.

WASHINGTON, JAN.23-(AP)-A REFUGEE CZECHOSLOVAK DIPLOMAT SAID TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS WOULD MAKE A GREAT MISTAKE TO FALL INTO THE TRAP OF A RUSSIAN PEACE OFFENSIVE. HE SAID THAT IS THE GREATEST FEAR NOW OF EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

THE REFUGEE, DR.EDWARD TABORSKY, SAID THAT EASTERN EUROPEANS "AND ESPECIALLY THE CZECHS KNOW THAT IF THE UNITED STATES CONTINUES STRONG, A SOLUTION BETWEEN EAST AND WEST MAY BE FOUND WITHOUT WAR BECAUSE THE RUSSIANS MAY BE DEFEATED POLITICALLY.

"THIS IS WHAT EASTERN EUROPE LIVES FOR, THE MOMENT IT AWAITS," HE ~~ADDED.~~ TOLD A REPORTER IN AN INTERVIEW.

TABORSKY WAS SECRETARY TO THE LATE PRESIDENT EDWARD BENES OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA FROM 1939 TO 1945. LATER HE WAS CZECH MINISTER TO SWEDEN. HE RESIGNED THAT POST LAST JUNE WHEN BENES QUIT AFTER THE COMMUNISTS HAD TAKEN OVER CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

TABORSKY, 38, ARRIVED IN THE U.S. FROM SWEDEN LAST WEEKEND. HE SAID HE IS EN ROUTE TO AUSTIN, TEX., FOR FOUR MONTHS OF LECTURES ON EUROPEAN POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS AND THE CONFLICT BETWEEN "DEMOCRACY VS. TOTALITARIANISM."

NEXT SUMMER, HE SAID, HE WILL LECTURE AT OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY IN COLUMBUS. HE HAS REPORTED TO STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SINCE HIS ARRIVAL HERE.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S STRONG INAUGURATION SPEECH DEALING WITH COMMUNISM WILL BE WELL RECEIVED BY EASTERN EUROPEAN POEPLES, TABORSKY SAID.

HE SAID THE GREATEST FEAR IN EASTERN EUROPE TODAY IS THAT "WHEN STALIN BEGINS TO SMILE AGAIN THE WEST WILL SAY 'HE STRETCHES OUT HIS HAND TO US, LET US TAKE IT'." HE ADDED THAT THE RUSSIANS ARE QUITE CAPABLE OF CHANGING THEIR TACTICS AT ANY MOMENT.

THE EX-DIPLOMAT SAID THE LAST MESSAGE HE RECEIVED FROM BENES, BEFORE BENES' DEATH LAST SEPTEMBER, CONTAINED A WARNING AGAINST THE ILLUSION OF COMMUNIST COOPERATION.

TABORSKY GAVE THIS TRANSLATION OF A PART OF WHAT HE SAID WAS THE MESSAGE BENES SENT HIM LAST AUGUST:

"BUT EVEN MORE DANGEROUS THAN THE COMMUNISTS ARE THE FIERLINGERITES (FOLLOWERS OF A LOCAL COMMUNIST COLLABORATOR) THE FELLOW TRAVELERS OF THE COMMUNISTS. THESE ARE THE TROJAN HORSES OF DEMOCRACY.

"THE FRONTAL ATTACK WHICH THE COMMUNISTS ARE LAUNCHING AGAINST DEMOCRACY IS LESS PERILOUS THAN THE SAPPING OF DEMOCRACY FROM WITHIN DONE BY THESE LACKEYS OF COMMUNISM X X X

"THE COMMUNISTS WOULD NEVER WIN THEIR TRICKY GAME BY THEIR OWN FORCE IF THEY HAD NO SUPPORT OF THOSE COWARDLY OPPORTUNISTS AND BLIND DREAMERS."

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK, JAN 23-(AP)-DIFFERENCES BETWEEN NORWAY, SWEDEN AND DENMARK ON A COMMON DEFENSE SYSTEM FORCED DELEGATES TONIGHT TO EXTEND THE SCANDINAVIAN CONFERENCE ANOTHER DAY.

DANISH PREMIER HANS HEDTOFT TOLD NEWSMEN THE IMPASSE WAS PRODUCED BY "DIFFERING VIEWS OF THE PRESENT INTERNATIONAL SITUATION." HE SAID IT IS "THE WISH OF ALL THREE NATIONS TO ESTABLISH" A DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

EARLIER IT WAS REPORTED THAT SWEDEN HAD OFFERED TO ENTER INTO SUCH A PACT UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS. THE SWEDES ARE SAID TO WANT THE PACT BASED ON NEUTRALITY AND NOT LINKED WITH THE FIVE-NATION WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION OR THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

NORWAY REPORTEDLY FAVORS A TYPE OF PACT WHICH WOULD ENABLE THE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES TO RECEIVE WEAPONS AND CERTAIN GUARANTEES FROM THE WESTERN POWERS.

BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG MAKE UP THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION. UNDER THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE NOW BEING NEGOTIATED IN WASHINGTON THE MEMBERS OF THE UNION WOULD BE LINKED WITH THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

THE CONFERENCE HERE IS BEING ATTENDED BY 33 TOP RANKING SCANDINAVIAN OFFICIALS INCLUDING THE PREMIERS OF THE THREE COUNTRIES. IT OPENED SATURDAY AND HAD BEEN EXPECTED TO ADJOURN BY TONIGHT.

HEDTOFT SAID THE CONFERENCE PROBABLY WOULD END TOMORROW. HE ADDED THAT HE STILL WAS HOPING FOR A POSITIVE OUTCOME FROM THE TALKS. OTHER MEMBERS OF THE DANISH DELEGATION DID NOT SHARE THE PREMIER'S OPTIMISM, HOWEVER.

ATHENS, JAN.23-(AP)-THE GENERAL STAFF ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT TWO GREEK ARMY COMMANDO GROUPS HAVE WIPED OUT THE COMMUNIST GUERRILLA BATTALION WHICH ATTACKED LEONIDI TWO DAYS AGO.

THE BATTLE TOOK PLACE ON THE EAST COAST OF THE PELOPONNESUS 75 MILES SOUTHWEST OF ATHENS. THE REBELS WERE DEFEATED WHEN THE COMMANDOS ENCIRCLED AGHIOS VASSILIAS A FEW MILES WEST OF LEONIDI, THE ARMY SAID.

ACCORDING TO THE GENERAL STAFF THE REBELS LOST 120 KILLED AND 65 CAPTURED. SEVEN COMMANDOS WERE WOUNDED.

TO THE NORTH, ON THE GREEK MAINLAND, AN ARMY RELIEF COLUMN CAPTURED SEVERAL HEIGHTS HELD BY THE REBELS IN THE VICINITY OF KARPENISI. THAT ACTION WAS BEING FOUGHT 125 MILES NORTHWEST OF ATHENS.

(A REBEL BROADCAST SAID 598 GREEK ARMY TROOPS HAD BEEN KILLED, WOUNDED OR CAPTURED IN THE BATTLE FOR KARPENISI. THE REPORT, RELAYED TO LONDON BY THE YUGOSLAV NEWS AGENCY TANJUG, SAID THE TOWN NOW IS UNDER REBEL CONTROL AND "COMPLETE ORDER AND PEACE REIGNS.")

IT WAS NOT ANNOUNCED WHETHER THE BESIEGED ARMY GARRISON AT KARPENISI HAD ABANDONED THE TOWN, ALTHOUGH SOME HIGH MILITARY CIRCLES HERE THOUGHT KARPENISI WAS IN REBEL HANDS. THE GENERAL STAFF ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT THE BESIEGED TROOPS HAD FOUGHT THROUGH REBEL LINES.

AN AUTHORITATIVE GREEK SOURCE SAID THE YUGOSLAV RADIO HAS ANNOUNCED THAT GUERRILLA CAPTAIN MARKOS VAFIADES WILL PROTEST TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONCERNING THE PRESENCE OF AN AMERICAN ARMY OFFICER ON A GREEK MILITARY PLANE.

THE REPORT FOLLOWED A U.S.EMBASSY ANNOUNCEMENT THAT AN UNARMED AMERICAN OBSERVER, LT.COL.SELDEN R.EDNER OF SAN JOSE, CALIF., WAS BELIEVED KILLED IN THE FORCED LANDING OF A GREEK PLANE NEAR KARPENISI TWO DAYS AGO. THE GREEKS ANNOUNCED THE PLANE WAS SHOT DOWN BY GUERRILLA ANTIAIRCRAFT.

THERE STILL WAS NO CONFIRMATION OF REPORTS THAT EDNER HAD BEEN KILLED. GREEK NEWSPAPERS, HOWEVER, QUOTED A REBEL BROADCAST AS SAYING THAT EDNER AND THE GREEK PILOT OF THE PLANE WERE INJURED IN THE FORCED LANDING AND BOTH DIES FROM INJURIES SOON AFTER.

"UP TO NOW, DESPITE THE FACT THAT MILITARY LAW HAS BEEN PROCLAIMED THROUGHOUT GREECE, THE CENSORSHIP LAW HAS NOT FULLY BEEN ENFORCED ACCORDING TO PROVISIONS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

"GREECE IS ENTERING A PERIOD OF DECISIVE STRUGGLE. WE HAVE THOUGHT IT NECESSARY TO PROTECT THE FIGHTING ARMY AND TO ENFORCE CERTAIN SECURITY MEASURES PROVIDED UNDER EMERGENCY MEASURES OF THE CONSTITUTION."

THE CENSORSHIP ORDER WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY BY GENERALISSIMO ALEXANDER PAPAGOS, NEW GREEK COMMANDER IN CHIEF. IT WAS APPROVED BY THE CABINET.

(THERE WAS NO OFFICIAL COMMENT IN LONDON ON THE SPECULATION THAT BRITAIN MIGHT BE STRENGTHENING EGYPT'S HAND. QUALIFIED BRITISH SOURCES SAID THEY HAD NOT HEARD ANYTHING DIRECTLY ABOUT IT AND ADDED "IT WOULD SEEM BEST, HOWEVER, TO TREAT IT WITH A GOOD DEAL OF SKEPTICISM".)

AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID THE PRESENT STALEMATE COULD NOT CONTINUE LONG, AND THEY HOPED FOR A BREAK BY TOMORROW MORNING. SO MUCH IS AT STAKE, THEY ADDED, THAT COMPROMISE EFFORTS MIGHT CONTINUE A DAY OR TWO LONGER, EVEN IF THEY SEEMED HOPELESS ON THEIR FACE.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN. 23-(AP)-A UNITED NATIONS SOURCE SAID EVACUATION OF 3,000 EGYPTIAN TROOPS TRAPPED AT FALUJA, IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE, BY ENCIRCLING ISRAELI FORCES WAS POSTPONED SUDDENLY TODAY.

(THIS COINCIDED WITH REPORTS FROM RHODES OF AN UNEXPECTED STALEMATE IN EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI ARMISTICE TALKS.)

THE INFORMANT SAID THE EVACUATION HAD BEEN SCHEDULED FOR TOMORROW NIGHT UNDER UNITED NATIONS SUPERVISION, BUT WAS POSTPONED INDEFINITELY ON ORDERS FROM U.N. TRUCE OFFICIALS AT RHODES.

OFFICIAL ISRAELI QUARTERS HERE EMPHASIZED THAT ISRAEL HAD AGREED TO RELEASE THE TRAPPED EGYPTIANS WITH THE EXPECTATION THAT AGREEMENT WOULD BE REACHED IN THE RHODES DISCUSSIONS BY MONDAY.

JERUSALEM, JAN. 23-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION WILL FIND OUT RIGHT AWAY HOW GOOD IT IS AT PEACE MAKING.

HOW CAN ABDULLAH BEY TELL, MILITARY GOVERNOR OF ARAB JERUSALEM, REACH THE COMMISSION'S MEETING PLACE WITHOUT (A) GOING THROUGH THE JEWISH SECTION OR (B) USING A BEATEN UP OLD DIRT ROAD THAT SEEMS TO BE THE ONLY ALTERNATIVE ROUTE? HE SAYS HE WON'T GO AT ALL UNTIL HE CAN TRAVEL A SUITABLE ROAD, AND THAT'S THE COMMISSION'S PROBLEM NO. 1.

THE ANSWERS HAD BETTER BE FAST AND GOOD, BECAUSE THIS HAS BECOME A SERIOUS PROBLEM OF PROTOCOL MATCHED ONLY BY THE QUESTION OF WHERE THE COMMISSION CAN LIVE AND STILL KEEP BOTH SIDES TO THE DISPUTE HAPPY.

PABLO DE AZCARATE Y FLORES, THE COMMISSION'S SECRETARY, ARRIVED TODAY. COMMISSION MEMBERS ARE EXPECTED TOMORROW. THE COMMISSION, ESTABLISHED IN PARIS LAST YEAR, IS MADE UP OF FRANCE, TURKEY AND THE UNITED STATES.

ALREADY THE COMMISSION HAS ANNOUNCED IT WILL WORK IN GOVERNMENT HOUSE AND THE ARAB COLLEGE, IN THE NEUTRAL ZONE BETWEEN ARAB AND JEWISH SECTIONS.

THE JEWS CAN REACH THESE WORKING QUARTERS OVER A SURFACED ROAD. TO GO THERE THE ARABS MUST EXPERIENCE 25 MINUTES OF HARD JEEP TRAVEL. WHEN THE ROUTE IS MUDDY, IT TAKES AN HOUR ON FOOT.

ABDULLAH BEY HAD PROMISED TO BUILD A ROAD IN TIME FOR COMMISSION MEETINGS IF THE UNITED NATIONS WOULD GIVE HIM $50,000. THE U.N. DIDN'T.

ABDULLAH BEY SAYS NOW HE WON'T GO TO GOVERNMENT HOUSE UNTIL HE CAN TRAVEL A SUITABLE ROAD. NOR WILL HE TRAVEL THROUGH THE JEWISH SECTOR, EVEN IF AN ARRANGEMENT IS MADE.

AND THERE THE MATTER RESTS.

THE COMMISSION ORIGINALLY PLANNED TO LIVE WHERE IT WORKS. IT CHANGED ITS MIND AND PLANS NOW TO STAY AT THE AMERICAN SCHOOL, WHICH IS THE U.N. HEADQUARTERS IN THE ARAB SECTOR. THE JEWS WANT THE U.N. GROUP TO STAY AT THE KING DAVID HOTEL, ON THEIR SIDE OF THE LINE.

THE PROBLEM ALSO WILL REQUIRE A LOT OF FAST FOOTWORK.

THERE IS MUCH SPECULATION AND DISAPPOINTMENT HERE OVER THE DELAY IN APPOINTMENT OF THE UNITED STATES COMMISSION MEMBER. FOREIGNERS AND THE ARABS SAY IT IS EXTRAORDINARY THAT THE U.S., WITH SUCH AN IMPORTANT ROLE TO PLAY, SHOULD TAKE SO LONG TO FILL THE VACANCY CAUSED BY RESIGNATION OF JOSEPH B.KEENAN.

(THE JOB WAS REPORTED OFFERED YESTERDAY TO MARK ETHRIDGE, PUBLISHER OF THE LOUISVILLE, KY., COURIER-JOURNAL.

THE GUNFIRE WAS REPORTED BY THE ARABS IN A BROADCAST AND THE ISRAELIS IN AN ARMY COMMUNIQUE.

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN 23-(AP)-THE ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA ASSERTED TODAY THE DUTCH COMMITTED A "FLAGRANT BREACH" OF THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER BY RECENT MILITARY MOVES ON JAVA AND SUMATRA.

THE CONFERENCE OF 19 NATIONS, REPRESENTING MORE THAN HALF OF THE WORLD'S POPULATION AND ONE-THIRD OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEMBERSHIP, RECOMMENDED THE FOLLOWING STEPS TO THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL:

1. IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM JOGJAKARTA, INDONESIAN NATIVE REPUBLICAN CAPITAL, AND WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM REMAINING REPUBLICAN TERRITORY BY MARCH 15.

2. IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS IN INDONESIA.

JAN 1949

3. RESTORATION TO THE REPUBLIC BY MARCH 15 OF ALL AREAS OF JAVA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA HELD BY THE REPUBLIC BEFORE THE DUTCH-TERMED "POLICE ACTION" BEGAN LAST MONTH.

4. ELECTION OF AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT COMPOSED OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER INDONESIAN TERRITORIES BY MARCH 15, WITH TRANSFER OF COMPLETE SOVEREIGNITY BY NEXT JAN. 1; THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL ITS OWN ARMED FORCES.

THE RESOLUTION SAID IT WAS ADOPTED IN THE NAME OF 15 NATIONS REPRESENTED. OBSERVERS WERE PRESENT FROM FOUR OTHER NATIONS.

JAN 1949

THE RESOLUTION REFERRED TO DUTCH "DEFIANCE" OF UNITED NATIONS ATTEMPTS TO BRING ABOUT A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT AND SAID THERE IS A "DANGER TO PEACE X X X THROUGH CONTINUANCE OF HOSTILITIES IN INDONESIA."

COMMENTING ON THE ACTION OF THE CONFERENCE, A REPUBLICAN SPOKESMAN SAID HIS GOVERNMENT WOULD CONTINUE GUERRILLA EFFORTS AGAINST THE DUTCH UNLESS A SOLUTION SATISFACTORY TO THE REPUBLICANS IS REACHED.

PRIME MINISTER PANDIT JAWAHARLAL NEHRU OF INDIA, WHO CALLED THE CONFERENCE, SAID IN A LETTER TO THE UNITED NATIONS ACCOMPANYING THE RESOLUTION THAT "EFFECTIVE Z ACTION BY THE COUNCIL TO END THE INDONESIAN DISPUTE IS "OVERDUE" AND SHOULD NOT BE "FURTHER DELAYED."

ADDRESSING THE FINAL SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE, NEHRU SAID HE HOPED "CLOSE COOPERATION HAS COME TO STAY" AMONG THE NATIONS REPRESENTED.

NEHRU SAID THE NEW DELHI MEETINGS REPRESENTED ONLY THE BEGINNING OF THE TASK AND THE CONCLUSION OF THE FIRST STAGE.

THERE HAD BEEN SOME FEELING, HE SAID, THE CONFERENCE SHOULD DISCUSS OTHER ISSUES, IN ADDITION TO INDONESIA, BUT "IT WAS VITAL WE CONCENTRATE ON THIS ONE PROBLEM."

"WE HAVE TAKEN GREAT CARE TO SAY SOMETHING DEFINITELY PRACTICAL AND FEASIBLE," HE SAID, "AND WE HOPE THE SECURITY COUNCIL REALIZES THE STRONG FEELING THAT LIES BEHIND IT."

JAN 1949

NEHRU SAID THE CONFERENCE ACTION ON INDONESIA, BECAUSE IT CAME FROM SUCH A LARGE NUMBER OF NATIONS, MUST NECESSARILY BEAR CONSIDERABLE WEIGHT.

"WE HAVE NOT MET HERE IN HOSTILITY," HE SAID -- "NOT EVEN TO THE NETHERLANDS WHO HAVE DONE INJUSTICE TO INDONESIA."

BRIG.GEN.CARLOS P.ROMULO, REPRESENTING THE PHILIPPINES, SAID THE CONFERENCE HAD PRODUCED A NEW POLITICAL FACTOR OF GREAT WEIGHT WHICH IS BOUND TO BECOME IMPORTANT IN FUTURE WORLD COUNCILS.

HE WARNED AGAINST ANY COMPLACENCY SINCE AN INDONESIAN SETTLEMENT HAS NOT YET BEEN REACHED.

ROMULO SAID THE NATIONS REPRESENTED IN THE CONFERENCE COMPRISE MORE THAN ONE-HALF THE WORLD'S POPULATION, HALF OF THE GLOBE AND ONE-THIRD OF THE UNITED NATIONS MEMBERSHIP.

"THAT IS A MASSIVE POLITICAL FACT," HE SAID, "AND IT MUST COUNT HEAVILY IN FUTURE CONSIDERATION OF ANY PROBLEM OR FORMULATION OF ANYOMAVO HEAVILY IN FUTURE CONSIDERATION OF ANY PROBLEM OR FORMULATION OF ANY POLICY AFFECTING PEACE, FREEDOM AND PROSPERITY OF MANKIND."

ROMULO SAID "POLITICAL COOPERATION AMONG NATIONS OF ASIA HAS PASSED FROM DREAM TO REALITY."

HE SAID HE THOUGHT THE MEETINGS HAD ADVANCED THE CAUSE OF INDONESIAN FREEDOM. HE URGED THE CONFERENCE NATIONS TO FOLLOW UP THEIR DECISIONS AND EXERCISE VIGILANCE AGAINST "NEW DANGERS TO THE PEACE, INDEPENDENCE OR SECURITY OF OUR PART OF THE WORLD."

ROMULO SAID HE HOPED THE 19 NATIONS WOULD CONTINUE COOPERATIVE ACTION "HELPING ASIA ACHIEVE ITS RIGHTFUL PLACE IN THE NEW WORLD WHICH WE ARE STRIVING TO BUILD THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS."

D.SOEMITRO, A SPOKESMAN FOR THE INDONESIAN REPUBLICANS, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT IS "PREPARED TO CONTINUE THE STRUGGLE AGAINST DUTCH IMPERIALISM" UNLESS A SOLUTION IS REACHED FOLLOWING CONDITIONS LAID DOWN BY THE REPUBLICANS PREVIOUSLY. THESE INCLUDED THE FREEING OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS, WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS TO THEIR PREVIOUS LINES AND CREATION OF A FREE INDONESIA.

SOEMITRO SAID THE REPUBLICANS WANTED THE NATIONS IN ATTENDANCE AT THE CONFERENCE TO TAKE STEPS "EITHER JOINTLY OR INDIVIDUALLY -- AND IT SEEMS NOW TO BE INDIVIDUALLY" TO FORCE THE DUTCH TO COMPLY WITH CONFERENCE RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL.

THESE RECOMMENDATIONS, FORWARDED TO LAKE SUCCESS LAST NIGHT, URGED ENERGETIC COUNCIL ACTION AIMED AT SECURING COMPLETE FREEDOM FOR INDONESIA BY THE START OF NEXT YEAR.

SOEMITRO SAID A RESOLUTION NOW BEFORE THE COUNCIL, INTRODUCED BY THE UNITED STATES AND THREE OTHER COUNTRIES, "IS NOW MEANINGLESS."

THE COUNCIL IS DUE TO TAKE UP THIS WATERED-DOWN RESOLUTION NEXT TUESDAY. IT CALLS FOR AN INDEPENDENT INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1950. THE RESOLUTION WAS REVISED TO TAKE OUT A POSITIVE DECLARATION FOR WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS.

(GUERRILLA FIGHTERS FOR THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA HAVE PLEDGED TO WAGE A CEASELESS WAR ON THE DUTCH UNTIL THE NETHERLANDS WITHDRAWS ITS TROOPS, WHICH CRUSHED THE REPUBLICAN MOVEMENT IN DECEMBER.)

DREES DECLINED TO SPECULATE ON THE ROLE OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS IN THE FUTURE INDONESIA. THE NETHERLANDS HAS PROMISED ULTIMATELY TO CREATE A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA WHICH WOULD HAVE EQUAL PARTNERSHIP WITH HOLLAND UNDER THE DUTCH CROWN. IN THAT FEDERATION, DREES SAID, THE INDONESIANS WOULD HAVE TO DECIDE FOR THEMSELVES WHICH LEADERS THEY PREFER.

THE PREMIER SAID HE WAS "VERY RELATIVELY SATISFIED" WITH HIS DISCUSSIONS WITH INDONESIAN LEADERS ON HIS TRIP. HE ADDED HE COULD NOT SAY HE WAS SATISFIED IN A MORE GENERAL SENSE, ALTHOUGH HE FELT HIS VISIT HAD CONTRIBUTED TOWARD MUTUAL UNDERSTANDING.

HE SAID HE WAS PLEASED BY THE DECISION OF NON-REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO TRY TO REACH AN AGREEMENT WITH THE REPUBLICANS.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK, WHO FLEW AWAY FROM NANKING FRIDAY, WAS REPORTED THE GUEST OF HONOR AT A LANTERN PARADE IN HIS NATIVE VILLAGE OF CHIKOW, SEVEN MILES FROM FENGHWA AND 210 MILES SOUTHEAST OF NANKING.

THE ADVISERS OF ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN, WHOM CHIANG LEFT TO DO THE BEST HE COULD TO END THE THREE-YEAR CIVIL WAR, LISTENED IN VAIN FOR SOME DIRECT COMMUNIST RADIO REPLY TO THEIR URGENT PEACE PLEAS.

ALL THEY WERE KNOWN TO HAVE HEARD WAS COMMUNIST MILITARY BULLETINS AND THE BELLIGERENT STATEMENT OF LI CHI-SHEN AND 54 OTHER ANTI-GOVERNMENT NON-COMMUNISTS, REITERATING, "THERE IS NO POSSIBILITY FOR COMPROMISE OR CONCILIATION." NANKING - XXX POLITICS

THIS GROUP, WHOSE STATEMENT MAY BE THE KEY CLUE TO THE FUTURE, WAS BELIEVED TO BE MEETING AT SHIHKIACHWANG, 172 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PEIPING. ITS MEMBERS HAD FILTERED INTO COMMUNIST TERRITORY INDIVIDUALLY OVER THE PAST THREE WEEKS, MOSTLY FROM THEIR HONG KONG EXILE.

NANKING, MONDAY, JAN. 24-(AP)-THE FALTERING CHINESE GOVERNMENT CONTINUED TODAY ITS EVACUATION OF THE CAPITAL AS COMMUNIST ARMIES WERE REPORTED SWEEPING UNOPPOSED TOWARD THE YANGTZE.

AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS THE REMOVAL OF GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES TO THE SOUTH CONTINUED "IN ORDER TO FIGHT ON IF COMMUNIST PEACE TERMS ARE TOO HARSH TO BE ACCEPTABLE."

"WHILE THE GOVERNMENT WANTS PEACE, WE MUST REMAIN IN A CONDITION TO CONTINUE THE WAR FROM SOUTH CHINA IF WE ARE UNABLE TO NEGOTIATE TERMS WITH THE COMMUNISTS WHICH ARE ACCEPTABLE," THE SOURCE ADDED.

IT WAS EXPLAINED THAT THE SEAT OF GOVERNMENT IS REMAINING IN NANKING, BUT MOST MINISTRIES ARE LEAVING BEHIND ONLY A HANDFUL OF PERSONNEL INCLUDING THE MINISTERS THEMSELVES.

EARLIER, NATIONALIST FORCES QUICKLY ABANDONED CHUHSIEN, DEFENSE HEADQUARTERS ONLY 30 MILES NORTH OF NANKING.

LOCAL COMMUNIST TROOPS RACING AHEAD OF RED GEN. CHEN YI'S REGULAR COLUMNS WERE REPORTED OCCUPYING TOWNS AND VILLAGES AS RAPIDLY AS THE NATIONALISTS RETREAT SOUTHWARD. THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF FIGHTING.

OFFICIAL SOURCES DECLINED CONFIRMATION, BUT IT WAS CERTAIN THAT THE NATIONALISTS HAVE ABANDONED ANY INTENTION OF HOLDING A LINE NORTH OF THE YANGTZE ITSELF.

THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER YI SHIH PAO REPORTED GOVERNMENT TROOPS WITHDREW FROM SHAOPO AND HSIENNUMIAO, 25 AND 20 MILES NORTH OF CHINKIANG. CHINKIANG IS ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE, ABOUT 40 AIRLINE MILES EAST OF NANKING, WHICH ALSO IS ON THE BIG RIVER'S SOUTH BANK.

IT WAS REPORTED AS LIKELY THE REDS COULD REACH THE YANGTZE WHENEVER THEY DESIRE.

MOST OF THE GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL SEEMS TO BE HEADING FOR CANTON IN SOUTH CHINA, BUT THE MAJORITY MENTION THE BIG ISLAND OF FORMOSA AS THE POINT WHERE THEY EXPECT TO RESUME OFFICIAL ACTIVITIES.

(FROM COMMUNIST-CAPTURED PEIPING, AP CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA REPORTED THAT PLANS ARE UNDERWAY "TO EXTEND PEACE TO PARTS OF NORTH CHINA REMAINING IN NATIONALIST HANDS."

(MOOSA REPORTED THAT A REGIMENT OF REDS SLIPPED QUIETLY INTO PEIPING SUNDAY NIGHT -- "THE MOST UNOBTRUSIVE ARRIVAL OF CONQUERORS THE ANCIENT CAPITAL EVER EXPERIENCED." ALTHOUGH IN REDS HANDS, PEIPING'S COMMUNICATIONS REMAINED OPEN.)

NANKING, MONDAY, JAN. 24-(AP)-MAJOR GEN. DAVID BARR, HEAD OF THE JOINT U.S. MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IN CHINA, AND REAR ADM. FRANCIS OLDS ARE LEAVING NANKING TODAY FOR SHANGHAI AND TSINGTAO, RESPECTIVELY.

THERE IS A PERSISTENT REPORT THAT, WITH THE DEPARTURE OF THE TWO LEADERS, THE ADVISORY GROUP WILL CLOSE DOWN IN NANKING. OLDS HEADS THE NAVY DIVISION OF THE GROUP.

THERE ARE EQUALLY STRONG REPORTS IN SHANGHAI THAT THE ADVISORY GROUP, WHICH STILL HAS 475 OFFICERS AND MEN THERE, WILL BE CLOSED OUT BY THE END OF THIS WEEK WITH PRACTICALLY ALL PERSONNEL LEAVING CHINA.

GW728PPS

NANKING, CHINA, JAN. 23-(AP)-FIVE COLUMNS OF COMMUNIST TROOPS SWUNG SOUTHWARD TOWARD NANKING TODAY IN ANSWER TO GOVERNMENT PEACE TALK PROPOSALS.

AS THE RED TROOPS SUDDENLY SWUNG SOUTHWARD, NATIONALIST FORCES EVACUATED CHUNSIEN, ONLY 35 MILES NORTH OF NANKING. AYE PROCESSION OF RETREATING GOVERNMENT TROOPS STREAMED ACROSS THE YANGTZE RIVER INTO THE CAPITAL.

RED COLUMNS MARCHING SOUTHWARD DOWN THE RAIL LINE TOWARD THE YANGTZE AND NANKING WERE UNDER COMMAND OF GEN. CHEN YI. WHETHER CHEN INTENDED TO MAKE A DRIVE ON NANKING ITSELF OR MERELY SEIZE POSITIONS ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE AS A TRUMP CARD IN POSSIBLE NEGOTIATIONS WAS NOT CLEAR.

HIS COLUMNS INCLUDED THE MOST HEAVILY ARMED UNITS THE REDS HAVE BELOW THE YELLOW RIVER. AMONG THEM WERE ARTILLERY UNITS WHOSE GUNS ARE CAPABLE OF HURLING SHELLS ACROSS THE YANGTZE INTO NANKING, IN CASE A FIGHT DEVELOPS FOR THE CAPITAL.

CHEN YI'S LIGHTER AND FASTER MOVING INFANTRY MADE A PARALLEL DRIVE DOWN THE GRAND CANAL. IT APPEARED HIS STRATEGY WAS TO STRIKE THE YANGTZE AT TWO WELL SEPARATED POINTS. ONE WOULD BE NANKING AND THE OTHER OPPOSITE KIANGSU, CAPITAL OF CHINKIANG PROVINCE.

REPORTS FROM CENTRAL CHINA TOLD OF THE SIMULTANEOUS MARCH OF OTHER RED COLUMNS TOWARD POSITIONS FROM WHICH THEY COULD STRIKE AT SCATTERED NATIONALIST FORCES ABOVE HANKOW.

IT IS TOO EARLY TO TELL WHETHER THESE MOVES ARE INTENDED AS PRESSURE PRIOR TO OPENING OF POSSIBLE PEACE TALKS, OR WHETHER THE VICTORIOUS AND CONFIDENT RED GENERALS REALLY INTEND TO TAKE CHINA'S CAPITAL AND THE YANGTZE VALLEY BY FORCE.

DESPITE THESE MILITARY DEVELOPMENTS, GOVERNMENT LEADERS CONTINUED TO EXPRESS BELIEF THE COMMUNISTS WOULD ACCEPT THEIR OFFER TO NEGOTIATE A SETTLEMENT OF THE CIVIL WAR.

THERE WAS A DISTINCT LULL IN PEACE ACTIVITIES HERE SUNDAY AS THE NEWLY APPOINTED GOVERNMENT PEACE DELEGATION AWAITED SOME REPLY FROM THE COMMUNISTS TO THE GOVERNMENT'S OFFER TO SEND A DELEGATION ANY PLACE THE RED LEADERS WOULD MEET WITH THEM.

SHAO LI-TZE, HEAD OF THE PEACE DELEGATION, SAID HE WAS EXPECTING SOME WORD FROM THE COMMUNISTS MONDAY. HE PLANNED TO GO TO SHANGHAI RETURNING HERE TUESDAY. ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE DELEGATION, PENG CHAO HSIEN IS IN SHANGHAI NOW, REPORTEDLY CONFERRING WITH RIGHT WING GOVERNMENT SUPPORTERS. HUANG SHAO HSIUNG, A THIRD MEMBER OF THE FIVE MAN COMMITTEE, HAS NOT YET REACHED NANKING FROM HANKOW.

GOVERNMENT LEADERS SAID THAT WITH THE LOCAL PEACE SETTLEMENT IN PEIPING "WE HAVE LOST A POWERFUL BARGAINING POINT."

NANKING, JAN. 23-(AP)-CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S $500,000 LUXURY'S TRANSPORT PLANE TOOK OFF TODAY FROM NANKING'S INNER AIRFIELD. THE GOVERNMENT IS CONVERTING FORMOSA INTO AN ISLAND FORTRESS OFF THE COAST OF CENTRAL CHINA.

SHANGHAI, CHINA, JAN. 23-(AP)-FELLOW TOWNSMEN OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK ARRANGED A LANTERN PARADE AT CHIKOW TODAY IN HIS HONOR.

CHIANG ARRIVED IN HIS NATIVE CHIKOW YESTERDAY, LESS THAN 24 HOURS AFTER STEPPING DOWN FROM THE PRESIDENCY OF CHINA. HE SPENT HIS FIRST NIGHT AT HOME IN A HOUSE ADJOINING HIS MOTHER'S TOMB.

CHIANG WAS REPORTED PLANNING TO CELEBRATE THE CHINESE NEW YEAR, JANUARY 29, IN CHIKOW. BUT WHERE HE WILL GO AFTER THAT REMAINED A MATTER OF SPECULATION. THE SOUTHERN CITIES OF AMOY AND FOOCHOW HAVE BEEN PROMINENTLY MENTIONED, ALONG WITH THE ISLAND OF FORMOSA.

THE GENERALISSIMO'S ABRUPT DEPARTURE FROM THE CAPITAL HAS NOT EXCITED WIDESPREAD PUBLIC OR PRESS COMMENT IN SHANGHAI. CHINESE ARE MORE CONCERNED WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S NEWEST PEACE OVERTURES.

CHIANG (WITH NANKING)
BY J.M.HOGAN
ASSOCIATED PRESS STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

CHIKOW, CHINA, MONDAY, JAN. 24-(AP)-GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK PAUSED HERE SUNDAY ON HIS WAY TO POSSIBLE EXILE TO PRAY AND MEDITATE ALONE ON A QUIET, PINE-COVERED MOUNTAIN NEAR HIS MOTHER'S TOMB.

HE RETURNED TO HIS NATIVE VILLAGE, A SUBURB OF FENGHWA, FROM NANKING WHERE HE RETIRED FROM LEADERSHIP OF THE TOTTERING NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

ACCOMPANIED BY HIS ELDEST SON, CHIANG CHING-KUO, THE GENERALISSIMO WENT IMMEDIATELY TO THE MOUNTAIN RETREAT. HE ATTENDED CHURCH SERVICE AT THE CHIKOW VILLAGE SCHOOL CHAPEL SUNDAY MORNING.

IN THE AFTERNOON, CHIANG WALKED ALONE IN MEDITATION ALONG MOUNTAIN TRAILS. HE REFUSED TO SEE NEWSPAPERMEN. AN AIDE SAID THERE WAS LITTLE POSSIBILITY OF CHIANG SEEING ANYONE IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

TWO NATIONALIST LIEUTENANT GENERALS ARRIVED BY SPECIAL TRAIN, BUT EVEN THEY WERE REFUSED AN AUDIENCE WITH CHIANG.

IT APPEARS CHINA'S PRESIDENT WILL REMAIN HERE SOME TIME. AN ARMY TRUCK HAULED FUEL TO THE VILLAGE SCHOOL, WHERE THE 'GIMO'S STAFF IS LODGED. OTHER SUPPLIES INDICATED A STAY OF SEVERAL DAYS, AT LEAST.

COMMUNICATION EQUIPMENT ALSO IS BEING INSTALLED. AIDES PREDICTED HE WOULD REMAIN AT LEAST A WEEK, PERHAPS LONGER.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK WAS DESCRIBED AS IN GOOD SPIRITS AND CHEERFUL.

AIDES SAID CHIANG JUST WANTS TO BE ANOTHER CHINESE CITIZEN. THEY STRESSED THE POINT THAT HE NOW HOLDS ONLY ONE OFFICIAL OFFICE IN CHINA -- THE PRINCIPALSHIP OF THE VILLAGE SCHOOL, WHERE HE ATTENDED CHURCH SERVICES.

(HOWEVER, IT HAS BEEN STRESSED BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS IN NANKING THAT CHIANG HAD RETIRED -- NOT RESIGNED. VICE PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN WAS DESIGNATED AS "ACTING PRESIDENT.")

THE SIX-HOUR DRIVE OVER THE PEACEFUL COUNTRYSIDE FROM HANGCHOW CONTRASTED SHARPLY TO JITTERY, CROWDED NANKING AND SHANGHAI.

FENGHWA IS 210 MILES SOUTHEAST OF NANKING. THERE IS NO MILITARY ACTIVITY. EXCEPT FOR CHIANG'S PERSONAL GUARDS, THERE ARE VERY FEW SOLDIERS AROUND.

CANTON, CHINA, MONDAY, JAN.24-(AP)-FORMER PREMIER T.V.SOONG, BROTHER-IN-LAW OF PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK, ANNOUNCED IN A FAREWELL RADIO SPEECH SUNDAY NIGHT HIS RETIREMENT FROM PUBLIC LIFE.

SOONG RESIGNED THE GOVERNORSHIP OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE. HE SAID HE WOULD FLY TO HONG KONG WITHOUT AWAITING THE ARRIVAL OF HIS SUCCESSOR, GEN. HSUEH YUEH. HSUEH, APPOINTED BY ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN, IS DUE TUESDAY.

WITH SOONG'S DEPARTURE FOR HONG KONG, IT IS NOT EXPECTED THAT CHIANG WILL COME TO THIS BIG SOUTH CHINA CITY -- TO WHICH MANY NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT OFFICES HAVE BEEN MOVED FROM NANKING.

CHIANG FLEW FRIDAY TO HIS ANCESTRAL HOME 210 MILES SOUTHEAST OF NANKING.

CANTONESE LEADERS ARE CONTINUING TO PLAN MILITARY DEFENSES SOUTH OF THE YANGTZE RIVER -- PARTICULARLY IN KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, DESPITE THE STRONG NATIONAL SWING TOWARD PEACE.

HOWEVER, DEFENSE PLANS ARE STILL OBSTRUCTED BY THE HESITANCY OF GENERAL HSUEH TO ACCEPT THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNORSHIP AND THE RELUCTAN OF CHANG FA-KEUI TO BECOME ADMINISTRATOR OF HAINAN ISLAND, OFF THE COAST OF SOUTH CHINA.

SOME OBSERVERS FELT THAT UNLESS SOME SIGN OF UNITY IS ACHIEVED IN THE GOVERNMENT OF SOUTH CHINA, THE COMMUNISTS OR SOME OTHER POLITICA PARTY MAY ARISE SUDDENLY AND TAKE OVER.

JAN 1949

SOONG WAS NAMED ON THE COMMUNISTS' "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST. THE HARVARD-EDUCATED SOONG HAD BEEN A HIGH OFFICIAL IN THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT SINCE 1928. HE SERVED AT VARIOUS TIMES AS FINANCE MINISTER, CHIEF DELEGATE TO THE WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE IN LONDON (1933), MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND PREMIER.

SOONG WAS ONE OF THREE OFFICIALS CHOSEN TO ADMINISTER CHINA'S NEW GOLD YUAN CURRENCY LAST AUGUST. THE JOB CARRIED CABINET RANK. IN OCTOBER, A SHANGHAI NEWSPAPER CHARGED SOONG WITH PROFITING ON THE CURRENCY CHANGEOVER.

CHINA'S CONTROL YUAN (BUDGET BUREAU) FILED A BILL OF CENSURE AGAINST SOONG IN DECEMBER. IT ACCUSED HIM OF "SQUANDERING" PUBLIC FUNDS IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF AIR STRIPS IN KWANGTUNG PROVINCE.

IN HIS FAREWELL SPEECH, SOONG SAID HE HAD ACHIEVED MUCH PROGRESS FOR THE PROVINCE.

CANTONESE ARE FEARFUL THAT A COMMUNIST VICTORY WILL UPSET THE FAMILY SYSTEM UPON WHICH MOST CHINESE INSTITUTIONS REST.

CANTON HERETOFORE HAS CONSIDERED ITSELF PRETTY WELL OUT OF THE CIVIL WAR'S REACH, BUT HAS COME TO REALIZE THAT THE REDS DO NOT INTEND TO STOP AT THE YANGTZE RIVER.

THE SURRENDER OF PEIPING SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN MUCH MORE DISQUIETING TO CANTONESE THAN THE RETIREMENT OF GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

SPOKESMEN FOR MANY SMALL POLITICAL GROUPS CENTERED IN CANTON ARE NOW INSISTING (APPARENTLY WITHOUT EFFECT) THAT THEY BE INCLUDED IN ANY PEACE TALKS.

MEANWHILE, SEVERAL GOVERNMENT DELEGATES HAVE LEFT BY TRAIN FOR LOCHANG, IN THE NORTH OF CANTON'S KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, TO TRY TO PERSUADE GEN. HSUEH YUEH TO ACCEPT THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNORSHIP.

HSUEH WAS APPOINTED FRIDAY BY ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN TO SUCCEED T.V. SOONG, CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S BROTHER-IN-LAW.

SOONG IS WAITING IN CANTON TO HAND OVER THE JOB, BUT HSUEH EITHER DOES NOT WANT IT OR HAS NOT HEARD OF HIS APPOINTMENT.

HSUEH HAS BEEN IN RETIREMENT AT HIS HOME IN LOCHANG SINCE CHIANG KAI-SHEK REJECTED HIS PLAN FOR DEFENDING THE PENGPU AREA NORTH OF NANKING THREE MONTHS AGO.

A HERO OF THE WAR AGAINST THE JAPANESE, HSUEH WAS NOT POPULAR DURING HIS WARTIME GOVERNORSHIP OF HUNAN PROVINCE, AND SEEMS NONE TOO EAGER TO TAKE ON ANOTHER ADMINISTRATIVE TASK.

ANOTHER RELUCTANT APPOINTEE IS GEN. CHANG FA-KWEI, WHO IS SAID TO HAVE REFUSED THE COMMAND OF HAINAN ISLAND, SOUTHWEST OF CANTON. THAT BIG ISLAND LONG HAS BEEN DOMINATED BY DISSIDENTS WHO MAY OR MAY NOT BE COMMUNISTS.

PEIPING, MONDAY, JAN.24-(AP)-A REGIMENT OF CHINESE COMMUNIST TROOPS QUIETLY SLIPPED INTO THIS SURRENDERED METROPOLIS LAST NIGHT -- THE MOST UNOBTRUSIVE ARRIVAL OF CONQUERORS THE ANCIENT CAPITAL EVER EXPERIENCED.

AND PLANS WERE UNDERWAY TODAY TO EXTEND PEACE TO PARTS OF NORTH CHINA REMAINING IN NATIONALIST HANDS. GEN. TUNG CHI-WU, GOVERNOR OF SUIYAN PROVINCE, FLEW TO THE PROVINCIAL CAPITAL OF KWESUI CARRYING DOCUMENTS PRESUMABLY PROVIDING FOR THAT CITY'S SURRENDER.

PEIPING HAS BEEN SO CONCERNED WITH ITS OWN AFFAIRS DURING THE PAST FEW DAYS IT HAS PAID BUT SCANT ATTENTION TO PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S EXIT, WHICH MOST PEOPLE HAD BEEN EXPECTING.

CHIANG'S DEPARTURE FROM NANKING WAS REGARDED AS REMOVING THE LAST MAJOR OBSTACLE TO NATIONAL PEACE, WHICH MANY QUARTERS BELIEVE IS BOUND TO COME IN A MATTER OF WEEKS.

ALTHOUGH THE COMMUNISTS NOW CONTROL PEIPING, THE CITY'S COMMUNICATIONS WITH THE OUTSIDE ARE CONTINUING.

THE FIRST TRAIN FROM TIENTSIN SINCE BEFORE THE SIEGE STEAMED INTO PEIPING'S FRONT GATE STATION, CHIENMEN, SUNDAY.

MOST OF THE PASSENGERS WERE RAIL WORKERS.

IT IS INSISTENTLY REPORTED THAT GEN. YEH CHIEN-YING, DIRECTOR OF THE COMMUNIST MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE FOR THE PEIPING AREA, ARRIVED HERE SUNDAY BUT CONFIRMATION WAS LACKING.

THE NEW LIAISON OFFICER ORDERED SUSPENSION OF GOVERNMENT PERSONNEL TRAVELING IN AND OUT OF PEIPING BY COMMERCIAL AIRLINES. HOWEVER, BY AGREEMENT CHINESE AIR FORCE PLANES WERE USED TO REMOVE SENIOR STATE SECRET POLICE OFFICIALS AND OTHERS WHO THINK THEY WILL FIND THE POLITICAL CLIMATE IN THE SOUTH HEALTHIER.

THE LIAISON OFFICE, WHICH WAS CREATED UNDER TERMS OF THE LOCALIZED PEACE AGREEMENT SUNDAY, ALREADY IS BETTER KNOWN AS THE JOINT COMMITTEE. ITS COMPOSITION HAS NOT YET BEEN ANNOUNCED.

MEANWHILE, A HOLIDAY AIR IS PREVAILING IN PEIPING.

SUNDAY WAS THE FIRST FULL DAY OF PEACE SINCE THE SIEGE BEGAN DEC. 14. BAZAARS WERE CROWDED WITH SHOPPERS MAKING PURCHASES FOR THE CHINESE NEW YEAR, WHICH STARTS JAN. 29.

THE AMERICAN DOLLAR, WHICH EARLIER IN THE WEEK FETCHED 340 YUAN ON THE BLACK MARKET, WAS WORTH ONLY HALF THAT AMOUNT TODAY. FLOUR AND RICE COST 25 PER CENT LESS THAN THEY DID SATURDAY.

EVERYONE SEEMED IN A GOOD MOOD, PARTICULARLY BECAUSE OF THE DROP IN PRICES.

OUTSIDE THE CITY, THE DEFENSE WORKS ARE UNMANNED. GUARDS AT THE DIFFERENT GATES WERE NOT SO PLENTIFUL AS IN THE PAST, AND THEY CERTAINLY WERE IN A MUCH BETTER HUMOR.

THE MOST STRIKING THING ABOUT PEIPING ITSELF IS THE ABSENCE OF WORKERS ON THE NEW AIRFIELD, WHICH WAS BEING BUILT ON THE NORTH SIDE LEGATION QUARTER. THE SUSPENSION OF THE WORK THERE AVOIDS A DIPLOMATIC INCIDENT BETWEEN BRITAIN AND CHINA.

THE CHINESE HAD THREATENED TO SLICE OFF PART OF THE BRITISH EMBASSY COMPOUND ABUTTING INTO THE PROJECTED FIELD, AND WERE GOING AHEAD DESPITE BRITISH OBJECTIONS. THE ENDING OF THE SIEGE MAKES THE FIELD NO LONGER NECESSARY.

PEIPING, CHINA, JAN. 23-(AP)-LARGE NUMBERS OF CHINESE NATIONALIST TROOPS MARCHED OUT OF PEIPING TODAY AS NEW MASTERS TOOK OVER CONTROL OF THE CITY AFTER ITS SURRENDER TO COMMUNISTS.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 23-(AP)-THE QUESTION OF WHETHER GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK WILL SEEK REFUGE IN THE UNITED STATES, NOW THAT HIS NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT HAS VIRTUALLY COLLAPSED IN THE FACT OF COMMUNIST AGGRESSION, WENT UNANSWERED TONIGHT.

DREW PEARSON TONIGHT BROADCAST A REPORT THAT CHIANG, NOW AT HIS ANCESTRAL HOME IN CHINA SOUTHEAST OF NANKING, HAD BEEN OFFERED ASYLUM IN THE UNITED STATES BY THIS GOVERNMENT.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THROUGH MICHAEL J.MCDERMOTT, PRESS OFFICER, SAID HOWEVER:

"NO COMMUNICATION HAS BEEN EXCHANGED BETWEEN GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND THIS GOVERNMENT OVER HIS FUTURE PLANS."

MADAME CHIANG IS ALREADY IN THIS COUNTRY, IN THE NEW YORK AREA. SHE CAME HERE SEVERAL WEEKS AGO BY U.S. NAVY PLANE IN AN EFFORT TO SEEK FURTHER AMERICAN AID FOR HER EMBATTLED COUNTRY.

SHE APPARENTLY RECEIVED A NON-COMITTAL REPLY.

THE UNITED STATES HAS GRANTED POLITICAL ASYLUM IN THE PAST TO POLITICAL REFUGEES, NOTABLY IN THE CASE OF MANY VICTIMS OF NAZI PERSECUTION.

SINGAPORE, MONDAY, JAN. 24-(AP)-A CANADIAN SAID HERE TODAY HE AND TWO AMERICANS MAKING A YACHT TRIP WERE HELD FOR TWO MONTHS AT A DUTCH CONCENTRATION CAMP NEAR BATAVIA, JAVA, ON SHORT RATIONS.

THE CANADIAN, PHILIP STACEY, OF REGINA, SASK., IDENTIFIED THE AMERICANS AS ROBERT SMITH, 25, FORMER U.S. NAVY LIEUTENANT FROM PORTLAND ORE., AND FOSTER PINEO, JR., SNOHOMISH, WASHINGTON. THEY WERE REPORTED STILL BEING HELD AT CHASSE COMPLEX CAMP. STACEY TOLD THIS STORY:

HE WENT ABOARD PINEO'S YACHT, THE LUCKYBOOT, AT SINGAPORE WHEN IT STARTED FOR HAWAII LAST OCT. 19. A DAY'S SAILING OUT OF SINGAPORE A DUTCH GUNBOAT PULLED ALONGSIDE THE YACHT AND TOOK IT IN TOW TO TANDJOEPINANG, ON BINTAN ISLAND. THE YACHT WAS FLYING THE AMERICAN FLAG.

AFTER BEING HELD A WEEK BY GUARDS WITH FIXED BAYONETS, THE THREE WERE RELEASED WITHUT APOLOGY BY A DUTCH POLICE OFFICIAL. THE DUTCH

THOUGHT AT FIRST THEY WERE TRYING TO RESCUE THREE U.S. FLYERS THEN AWAITING TRIAL ON ARMS SMUGGLING CHARGES.

A MONSOON FORCED THE YACHT INTO WATERS OFF DUTCH BORNEO, WHERE ANOTHER DUTCH GUNBOAT TOOK IT IN TOW TO BANDJERMASIN. THERE THE AMERICANS AND THE CANADIAN WERE REARRESTED ON SUSPICION OF SMUGGLING. THEIR CRAFT WAS IMPOUNDED FOR TWO WEEKS, AND THE MEN WERE SENT ABOARD A DUTCH SHIP TO BATAVIA FOR DETENTION IN THE CONCENTRATION CAMP.

STACEY SAID BRITISH CONSULAR OFFICIALS HAD OBTAINED HIS RELEASE JAN. 18 AFTER AN AUSTRALIAN HAD BROUGHT THE CANADIAN'S PRESENCE TO THEIR ATTENTION. STACEY SAID THE U.S. CONSUL AT THAT TIME WAS STILL TRYING TO GET THE TWO AMERICANS RELEASED.

STACEY SAID OTHER EUROPEANS ARE BEING HELD INCOMMUNICADO AT THE CAMP. HE DESCRIBED RATIONS THERE AS CONSISTING OF A BOWL OF RICE AND GRAVY AT NOON AND FOUR OUNCES OF BREAD AND JAM AT NIGHT. HE LOST 20 POUNDS IN CONFINEMENT.

SEOUL, KOREA, JAN. 23-(AP)-THE SOUTH KOREAN GOVERNMENT WANTS TO GIVE THE BANTO HOTEL IN SEOUL TO THE UNITED STATES AS A FREE GIFT, BUT HIGH AMERICAN OFFICIALS INDICATED TODAY IT COULD NOT BE ACCEPTED.

THE UNITED STATES ALREADY HAS ACQUIRED THE 8-STORY BUILDING BY ALLOWING $3,000,000 FOR IT IN PARTIAL SETTLEMENT OF A $25,000,000 FOREIGN LIQUIDATION CORPORATION LOAN TO KOREA. IT HOUSES THE AMERICAN MILITARY AND DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS.

THE ASSEMBLY OF THE AMERICAN-SPONSORED REPUBLIC VOTED SATURDAY, 82 TO 26, TO MAKE THE GIFT IN APPRECIATION OF LIBERATION FROM JAPAN.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS POINTED OUT, HOWEVER, THAT THIS WOULD MERELY MEAN THE KOREAN GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE TO DIG UP $3,000,000 TO PAY THE FOREIGN LIQUIDATION CORPORATION. SINCE U.S. AID GRANTS ARE THE CHIEF SOURCE OF KOREAN DOLLAR CREDITS, THE "GIFT" WOULD BE ONLY A GESTURE.

FOURTH LEAD JAPANESE ELECTION (120)

BY RUSSELL BRINES

TOKYO, MONDAY, JAN.24-(AP)-JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WON 26 SEATS IN THE DIET SUNDAY, INCOMPLETE RETURNS FROM THE NATIONAL ELECTION SHOWED TODAY. THIS IS A GAIN OF 22 SEATS IN THE 466-MEMBER LAW-MAKING BODY.

IN A SURGE OF STRENGTH GREATER THAN THEIR OWN PARTY LEADERS HAD EXPECTED, THE COMMUNISTS WON SEATS IN ALL SEVEN TOKYO DISTRICTS, PICKED UP THREE SEATS IN INDUSTRIAL OSAKA AND MADE HEAVY INROADS IN THE TRADITIONALLY CONSERVATIVE COUNTRYSIDE.

DOMINATING THE ELECTION, HOWEVER, WAS PREMIER SHIGERU YOSHIDA'S ARCH-CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC-LIBERAL PARTY (CAPS D,L,P.) INCOMPLETE RETURNS REPORTED BY THE NEWSPAPER ASAHI AND KYODO NEWS AGENCY SHOWED 206 OF THE PARTY'S CANDIDATES WERE ELECTED.

BOTH YOSHIDA'S PARTY AND THE COMMUNISTS GAINED AT THE EXPENSE OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND MINOR GROUPS, INCLUDING INDEPENDENTS.

THE OTHERWISE, ETC -- 2ND GRAF SECOND (CORRECT) LEAD AND EDITING

THE OTHERWISE DOMINATNLY CONSERVATIVE RESULTS FOUND SANSO NOZAKA, MOSCOW-TRAINED COMMUNIST PARTY "BRAINS," CLINCHING A SEAT IN TOKYO'S FIRST DISTRICT WITH A BIG VOTE OF 49,848. HE BECAME THE THIRD OF THE FOUR COMMUNIST INCUMBENTS TO WIN.

THE SUCCESSFUL COMMUNISTS POLLED 319,909 VOTES.

PREMIER SHIGERU YOSHIDA'S ARCH-CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC-LIBERAL PARTY DOMINATED THE FIELD WITH AT LEAST 114 MEMBERS ELECTED. THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY, ALSO CONSERVATIVE, WAS SECOND WITH 32. A TOTAL OF 466 SEATS ARE AT STAKE.

FORMER PRIME MINISTER HITOSHI ASHIDA, WHO IS UNDER INDICTMENT FOR ALLEGED BRIBERY IN OFFICE, WAS REELECTED TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM KYOTO. HE WAS RELEASED FROM A PENITENTIARY ON BAIL IN TIME TO CAMPAIGN.

A SURPRISINGLY HEAVY VOTE OF AROUND 70 PER CENT OF THOSE ELIGIBLE WAS RECORDED.

KAZUYOSHI DOBASHI, HEAD OF THE COMMUNICATION WORKERS UNION AND WHO RECENTLY JOINED THE COMMUNIST PARTY OPENLY, HAD A COMFORTABLE LEAD IN TOKYO'S SEVENTH DISTRICT. YUICHI TOKUDA, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY, ALSO HAD A GOOD LEAD IN THE THIRD DISTRICT.

MRS. SHIZUE KATO, A SOCIAL DEMOCRAT WHO IS NOTED FOR HER BIRTH CONTROL ACTIVITIES, RAN STRONGLY IN THE SECOND DISTRICT.

ON THE BASIS OF RETURNS FROM 17 PREFECTURES, KYODO REPORTED THE VOTING APPARENTLY WAS HEAVIER THAN THE LAST DIET ELECTION, IN APRIL, 1947. THERE WERE REPORTS SUNDAY OF VOTER APATHY.

THERE WERE 1,365 CANDIDATES FOR THE 466 PARLIAMENTARY SEATS CONTESTED. ECONOMIC REHABILITATION OF JAPAN WAS THE ONLY ISSUE. BOTH RIGHTISTS AND LEFTISTS EXPRESSED OPPOSITION TO AMERICAN PLANS.

THE JAPANESE COMMUNIST PARTY APPARENTLY MADE CONSIDERABLE GAINS IN THE POPULAR VOTE, AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MIDDLE-OF-ROAD PARTIES, INCLUDING THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC.

A NEW COMMUNIST DIET MEMBER WAS ELECTED IN SHIMANE PREFECTURE, A FARMING DISTRICT. TWO OTHER INCUMBENT COMMUNISTS APPEARED CERTAIN OF REELECTION.

THE COMMUNISTS HELD FOUR SEATS IN THE PREVIOUS DIET. HOWEVER, THE MOST IMPORTANT INDICATION OF INCREASING COMMUNIST STRENGTH WAS THAT THEIR CANDIDATES WERE RUNNERS UP IN THREE FARMING DISTRICTS WHERE THE LEFTIST VOTE PREVIOUSLY WAS NEGLIGIBLE.

ONE PROMINENT VICTIM OF VOTER DISPLEASURE WAS MRS. HARUE YAMASHITA, DEMOCRAT, WHO ATTRACTED WIDESPREAD ATTENTION WITH HER CHARGE THAT FINANCE MINISTER MADE IMPROPER ADVANCES TO HER. THE MINISTER RESIGNED DURING THE RESULTING CLAMOR.

THE WOMAN LAWMAKER WAS DEFEATED IN FUKUSHIMA PREFECTURE, WHICH TURNED OUT FOUR OTHER INCUMBENTS.

INDICATIONS WERE THAT, DESPITE SNOW AND COLD IN THE NORTH, VOTING WAS HEAVY IN RURAL DISTRICTS AND LIGHT IN CITIES.

FOR EXAMPLE, IN GUNMA PREFECTURE, NORTH OF TOKYO, THREE HOURS BEFORE THE POLLS CLOSED AT 6 P.M., 65 PER CENT OF THE ELIGIBLES HAD VOTED, WHILE ONLY 37 PER CENT HAD VOTED IN TOKYO.

IN ALL PREVIOUS ELECTIONS, BOTH PRE-WAR AND UNDER THE OCCUPATION, RURAL REGIONS HAVE BEEN STRONGLY CONSERVATIVE.

ALL LEFTIST PARTIES MADE THEIR STRONGEST BIDS FOR THE FARMER VOTE THIS TIME, HOWEVER, AND RURAL UNREST HAS BEEN A NOTABLE FACTOR.

LEADING JAPANESE PAPERS SAID THE COMMUNIST PARTY, WITH FOUR SEATS IN THE OLD DIET, MIGHT GET A TOTAL OF 12 TO 15. THE COMMUNISTS THEMSELVES FORECAST 12 AND SAID THEY WOULD GET 2,000,000 VOTES.

THE HIGHLY CONSERVATIVE DEMOCRATIC AND DEMOCRATIC-LIBERAL PARTIES INSIST THEY WILL, TOGETHER CONTROL A MAJORITY AND ALREADY HAVE PUBLICLY DISCUSSED PLANS FOR A COALITION CABINET.

WH123PS

TOKYO, JAN. 23--(AP)--JAPANESE FINISHED VOTING AT 6 O'CLOCK TONIGHT (4 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME) IN A QUIET ELECTION OF A NEW HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

VOTING WAS COMPARATIVELY HEAVY IN RURAL AREAS AND LIGHT IN THE CITIES. IN THE PAST THE RURAL VOTE HAS BEEN PREDOMINATELY CONSERVATIVE. HOWEVER, LEFTIST PARTIES CONDUCTED THEIR STRONGEST CAMPAIGN IN FARM AREAS THIS TIME, EXPLOITING RURAL UNREST DEVELOPING FROM UNFAVORABLE ECONOMIC CONDITIONS.

BEFORE THE POLLS OPENED THE EXTREMELY CONSERVATIVE "DEMOCRATIC-LIBERAL" AND "DEMOCRATIC" PARTIES OPENLY DISCUSSED PLANS FOR A COALITION GOVERNMENT ON THE ASSUMPTION THEY WOULD CONTROL A MAJORITY OF THE 466 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT. NEWSPAPERS PREDICTED COMMUNISTS WOULD INCREASE THEIR HOLDING OF FOUR SEATS, BUT WOULD NOT GET MORE THAN 12 OR 15 AT THE MOST.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION FROM THE POLLS HOW THE VOTING WENT. TRENDS WILL NOT BE INDICATED BEFORE MONDAY.

Ottawa, Jan. 23--(AP)--Anthony Eden, former British foreign secretary, t~~aayXcaiiaX~~ en route to New Zealand, today called on Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and other top Canadian leaders.

Eden dined with External Affairs Minister L. B. Pearson. The Briton, who is now Winston Churchill's deputy in the Conservative Party leadership, said he and Pearson discussed world affairs. Later Eden took a walk in the Brisk winter weather with Viscount Alexander, Canadian governor general.

The former foreign secretary said Britain has a deep and enduring love for Canada which no exchange difficulties can alter. He was referring to trade difficulties created by Britain's dollar shortage.

(ADVANCE)-NEW YORK, JAN. 23-(AP)-ALGER HISS, IN A REPORT TO THE CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT FOR INTERNATIONAL PEACE MADE PUBLIC TODAY, SAID THE UNITED NATIONS REMAINS "THE ONE BEST HOPE" FOR PEACE.

HISS, PRESIDENT-ON-LEAVE OF THE ENDOWMENT, WAS INDICTED LAST DECEMBER ON PERJURY CHARGES BY A GRAND JURY INVESTIGATING SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES.

THE PERJURY INDICTMENT WAS RETURNED AFTER HISS, FORMER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, DENIED TURNING OVER SECRET GOVERNMENT DOCUMENTS TO WHITTAKER CHAMBERS, CONFESSED FORMER COMMUNIST SPY RING COURIER, BEFORE WORLD WAR 2.

HISS' REPORT, DATED LAST NOV. 18, WAS PART OF THE ENDOWMENT'S ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1948.

ASSERTING THAT THE PROBLEM OF PEACE TODAY ARE NOT PROBLEMS OF ORGANIZATION BUT OF "WILL AND MORAL PURPOSE," HISS SAID:

"NEVER WAS THERE A GREATER CHALLENGE TO THE MORAL PURPOSES OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD THAN THAT PRESENTED BY THE CRISES OF THIS POST-WAR PERIOD.

"APART FROM THEIR OMINOUS IMPLICATIONS OF THE DANGER OF A CATASTROPHIC WAR, THEY HAVE LED TO CONSIDERABLE CONFUSION OF THOUGHT IN ALL OF THOSE COUNTRIES IN WHICH FREEDOM OF THINKING REMAINS A SACRED RIGHT OF THE INDIVIDUAL."

THE PATHWAY TO PEACE IS SLOW, HE SAID, ADDING THAT IN A "SINGLE GENERATION WE MUST CROSS THE GREAT DIVIDE BETWEEN THE ERA OF POWER POLITICS WITH WAR AS A NATIONAL INSTRUMENT AND THAT OF A LASTING PEACE."

HISS SAID THAT WHILE MUCH OF THE ENDOWMENT'S WORK WAS DEVOTED LAST YEAR TO SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS, IT HAD KEPT CONSTANTLY IN TOUCH WITH AMERICA'S POLICIES DESIGNED TO STRENGTHEN PEACE.

THE ENDOWMENT, HE SAID, "HAS LOYALLY SUPPORTED THOSE POLICIES NOT BY ADVOCATING MEASURES OF APPEASEMENT WHICH BETRAY OUR FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND OUR CONCEPT OF THE RIGHTS OF THE INDIVIDUALS BUT BY SEEKING SOLUTIONS THROUGH WHICH THOSE RIGHTS MAY BE SAFEGUARDED WITHOUT RESORT TO WAR."

THE REPORT WAS SUBMITTED, SHORTLY BEFORE HISS' INDICTMENT, AT A BOARD MEETING LAST DEC. 13. AT THE MEETING, HISS OFFERED HIS RESIGNATION AS PRESIDENT OF THE ENDOWMENT. THE RESIGNATION WAS TABLED, HOWEVER, AND HE WAS GIVEN A THREE-MONTH LEAVE OF ABSENCE FROM HIS $20,000-A-YEAR JOB.

(ADVANCE)..WASHINGTON, JAN. 23-(AP)-SENATOR O'MAHONEY (D-WYO) SAID TONIGHT THE BEST WAY TO PREVENT ANOTHER WAR IS TO MOBILIZE AMERICA'S VAST NATURAL RESOURCES NOW FOR PEACE.

"MODERN WAR," HE SAID, "IS AN INDUSTRIAL EFFORT AS MUCH AS IT IS A MILITARY EFFORT. THE BEST PREVENTIVE OF CONFLICT, THEREFORE, IS TO MOBILIZE OUR RESOURCES FOR PEACE BEFORE WAR COMES, AND THEREBY DEMONSTRATE TO THE WORLD THAT THE CONSTRUCTIVE EFFORTS OF A PEACEFUL PEOPLE CAN WIN MORE FOR HUMANITY THAN WHEN NATURAL RESOURCES ARE DIVERTED TO DESTRUCTIVE PURPOSES."

O'MAHONEY SAID THE OBJECT OF THE COMMITTEE STUDY IS TO FIND MEANS BY WHICH PRIVATE CAPITAL CAN BE INVESTED TO BEST UTILIZE RAW MATERIALS AND SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE.

ELABORATING ON WHAT HE HAS IN MIND IN THE WAY OF NATURAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT, O'MAHONEY SAID THAT COAL AND OIL SHALE BEDS IN THIS COUNTRY "PROVIDE SOURCES OF LIQUID FUEL GREATER BY FAR THAN ALL THAT IS AVAILABLE FROM PETROLEUM." HE SAID OIL SHALE RESERVES FOUND IN THE UNITED STATES ALONE EXCEED THE VAST PETROLEUM RESERVES OF THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE WYOMING SENATOR ALSO SAID THE WESTERN STATES HAVE HUGE DEPOSITS OF ALUMINA CLAY, USED IN ALUMINUM, WHICH ARE SUFFICIENT TO MAKE THE UNITED STATES INDEPENDENT OF FOREIGN SUPPLIES.

(270) FIRST LEAD TRUMAN PROGRAM

WASHINGTON,JAN.23-(AP)-SENATOR MCMAHON (D-CONN), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE-HOUSE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMITTEE, HINTED TONIGHT THAT RUSSIA MAY HAVE ATOMIC WEAPONS WITHIN TWO OR THREE YEARS.

FOR THIS REASON, HE SAID ON A FORUM BROADCAST OVER WINX, IT IS IMPERATIVE THAT SOME SOLUTION BE FOUND TO THE CONFLICT OF IDEAS BETWEEN COMMUNIST RUSSIA AND THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONS TO AVOID A "BLOOD BATH THAT WOULD DESTROY CIVILIZATION."

THE FORUM, IN WHICH SENATORS CAPEHART (R-IND), HICKENLOOPER (R-IOWA) AND REP.MANSFIELD (D-MONT) PARTICIPATED, CENTERED ABOUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

ALL THREE EXPRESSED GREAT INTEREST IN THE "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" FOR WORLD PEACE AND PROSPERITY ADVANCED BY MR.TRUMAN.

IT WAS CAPEHART'S CONTENTION, HOWEVER, THAT IN VIEW OF PRESENT WORLD CONDITIONS THIS COUNTRY SHOULD DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO "KEEP OUR ATOMIC BOMB DRY."

MCMAHON AND HICKENLOOPER ARE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, WHILE MANSFIELD IS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

MCMAHON SAID THE UNITED STATES AND HER WESTERN ALLIES MUST "DEVISE WAYS AND MEANS TO GET BEHIND" RUSSIA'S "IRON CURTAIN," WHICH HE TERMED "AN ACT OF AGGRESSION AGAINST THE WORLD."

"WE'VE GOT ONLY TWO OR THREE YEARS IN WHICH TO DO IT," HE SAID, ADDING AFTER THAT THE RUSSIANS "PROBABLY WILL HAVE SOME WEAPONS" THAT MAY CHANGE THE COURSE OF COMMUNIST POLICY.

"THAT'S WHY WINSTON CHURCHILL KEEPS SAYING THAT THE WEST MUST COME TO AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE SOVIETS BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE," HE SAID.

CAPEHART SAID THERE HAS BEEN NO APPEASEMENT OF RUSSIA IN THE PAST 18 MONTHS--BUT THAT THE UNITED STATES HELPED BUILD RUSSIA "INTO A POWERFUL NATION." HE REFERRED TO THE UNITED STATES DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION OF THE SOVIET IN 1933 AS "UN UNPARDONABLE SIN."

"NOW WE ARE HAVING TO RECTIFY A MISTAKE ABOUT A NATION WHICH IS THREATENING WAR," CAPEHART SAID.

MCMAHON SAID THAT AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA DID NOT BUILT UP RUSSIAN STRENGTH AND THAT HE THOUGHT CAPEHART WAS "PRESSING THE FACTS."

HICKENLOOPER COMMENTED "WE CERTAINLY DID BUILD THEM UP WITH OUR TECHNOLOGY. WE ADDED MUCH TO THEIR STRENGTH."

MC MAHON DESCRIBED MR.TRUMAN'S INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM AS ANOTHER STEP IN SOLVING WORLD PROBLEMS.

BUT, MC MAHON SAID, "WE NEED TO SOLVE OUR RUSSIAN PROBLEMS IN THE NEXT TWO OR THREE YEARS SO WE WON'T HAVE TO BARGAIN WITH THEM WHEN THEY REACH AN EQUALITY OF WEAPONS WITH US." HE WAS OBVIOUSLY REFERRING, TOO, TO ATOMIC WEAPONS.

ALL FOUR SAID ON THE EXTEMPORANEOUS QUESTION AND ANSWER PROGRAM THAT THEY WANT TO HEAR MORE ABOUT MR.TRUMAN'S PLANS TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM HE OUTLINED AT HIS INAUGURATION.

GENERALLY, THEY BACKED THE IDEA OF THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT LINKING THE UNITED STATES WITH CANADA AND FIVE WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES IN A MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT.

THEY SAID THEY FAVORED CONTINUATION OF COLLABORATION WITH FREE COUNTRIES TO STOP SPREAD OF COMMUNISM. EXPRESSING A DESIRE FOR A LOOK AT THE NORTH ATLANTIC AGREEMENT BEFORE MAKING A COMMITMENT, THEY INDICATED IT WOULD PROBABLY BE SATISFACTORY IF IT FOLLOWS LINES OF THE RIO PACT LINKING WESTERN HEMISPHERE NATIONS IN MUTUAL AID PROPOSALS.

AS FOR EXTENDING AMERICAN ENGINEERING AND TECHNICAL KNOWLEDGE TO UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES, PROPOSED BY MR.TRUMAN, HICKENLOOPER AND CAPEHART CAUTIONED THAT SUCH U.S. AID HAD HELPED TO BUILD UP RUSSIA AS A WORLD POWER.

"IT WAS A MISTAKE TO RECOGNIZE RUSSIA IN 1933," CAPEHART SAID, ADDING THAT THE U.S. BEGAN THEN TO "BUILD RUSSIA UP." HICKENLOOPER SAID THAT RUSSIA WAS ABLE TO UNDERTAKE BIG INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENTS AND ENGINEERING PROJECTS, SUCH AS THE BIG DNIEPER RIVER DAM, ONLY WITH THE AID AND ADVICE OF U.S. ENGINEERING SKILL.

MANSFIELD SAID HE WANTED TO SEE A STEPPING-UP OF THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, IN CONNECTION WITH MR.TRUMAN'S PROGRAM.

"I WOULD LIKE TO SEE A REAL WORLD BANK CREATED TO IMPLEMENT HIS PROPOSALS," MANSFIELD SAID. "I THINK THAT AN INTERNATIONAL RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION ALONG LINES SUGGESTED BY MR.TRUMAN WOULD BE A BIG FORWARD STEP."

Britain, 6 Other Nations Move to Recognize Israel

TWO NATIONS RECOGNIZING ISRAEL STATE

ALEX SINGLETON

French Terms Accepted; British Cabinet Decides On Action

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—Israel tonight won a major victory in her battle for world recognition as a new nation.

Diplomatic opposition began to crumble when France recognized the Jewish state and the British Cabinet decided to take similar action within the next few days. Australia and New Zealand are expected to go along with Britain.

There were indications in Rome that Italian recognition also was under discussion.

Benelux Group May Act

Predictions were made that Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg soon would get on the bandwagon. Those three nations co-ordinate their foreign policies with Britain and France.

Soon the Arab nations may find themselves alone in their opposition to Israel, it was said.

The sudden flood of expected recognitions would remove most obstacles from Israel's application for membership in the United Nations. Britain, heretofore, has advocated delay in admitting the Jewish state.

French recognition was granted on the eve of Israel's first election. It also came at a time when Israeli-Egyptian armistice negotiations on Rhodes appeared to be tottering on the brink of final failure.

Recognized By 23 Nations

Twenty-three nations, including the United States and Russia, now have recognized Israel. The French action was taken in the form of de facto recognition—the type extended by the United States just after the British surrendered their mandate and quit Palestine.

It means recognition of Israel as an operating government, but falls short of de jure recognition which acknowledges a government as a legal authority and calls for an exchange of diplomatic representatives.

British recognition is expected to be the same type as that extended by the United States and France. It appears likely that the British step may come before the House of Commons begins its debate Wednesday on the Palestine policies of Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary.

Linked To Trans-Jordan Move

This would ease parliamentary pressure on Bevin who has been criticized by members of his own Labor party as well as by the Conservatives led by Winston Churchill.

The British action also is expected to come on or about the same time as the United States extends recognition to the Arab state of Trans-Jordan, a close ally of Britain. —ADD

Britain's Israel Recognition Is Reported Set

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—A Government source said the British Cabinet formally approached British recognition of Israel today.

The informant said Britain would announce her decision in a matter of days.

The announcement probably will be made by Foreign Secretary Bevin to the House of Commons.

Announcement Delayed

One of the things now holding it up, he said, is a desire to co-ordinate announcement of British recognition with similar announcements by the Australian and New Zealand governments.

Another delaying factor is understood to be that British diplomats probably are seeking to convince certain Arab governments that the Jewish state of Israel has become a reality whether they like it or not.

British recognition of Israel is expected to be on a de facto basis—that is, simple acceptance of the fact that the state exists.

Recognized By 23

The only other form of recognition would be de jure—that is, acceptance of the right of the government concerned to exist.

De jure recognition carries with it the establishment of full-scale and formal diplomatic relations. De facto recognition is usually accompanied by the appointment of a political representative.

Twenty-three countries have already announced their recognition of Israel. Among them are the United States, Russia and such dominions as South Africa and Canada. The French Government extended de facto recognition today.

All Under Brussels Pact

British recognition of the Jewish state eight months after it proclaimed its own existence, May 14, is expected to be accompanied or followed by similar Belgian, Dutch and Luxembourg announcements.

These four countries, with France, make up the Brussels alliance—a military and political friendship pact which obliges the partners to co-ordinate their foreign policies.

American recognition of Palestine's eastern border state of Trans-Jordan, ruled by King Abdullah, is expected to follow the British move.

Result Of D.C. Talks

This is one result of top-level British-American talks which have been going on in Washington the last few weeks, with the object of co-ordinating the two countries' mid-Eastern policies. —ADD

France Partially Recognizes Israel

Paris, Jan. 24 (AP)—The French Government extended de facto recognition today to Israel.

De facto recognition means that France acknowledges the Government of Israel to be the administration in fact. Full recognition is called de jure, and would include an exchange of fully accredited diplomatic representatives.

"Satisfactory Conclusion"

A communiqué said only that negotiations with Israeli delegates on the question had come to a satisfactory conclusion. It previously had been announced that the negotiations would concern certain French interests in Israel and the outline of citizenship status.

The communiqué said the French recognition does not prejudge any decision which might be reached with the approval of the United Nations concerning the boundaries of the Jewish state.

23d Nation To Recognize

Israeli officials said France is the twenty-third nation to accord recognition to the new Middle Eastern state, which came into being last May.

Two others of the Big Five powers—Russia and the United States—have recognized Israel. The British Cabinet is meeting in London today and some sources said British recognition would be announced after tomorrow's election in Israel, or perhaps sooner.

RHODES TALKS WAIT ORDERS

Delegates Consult Israeli And Egyptian Capitals

L.S. CHARLES

Rhodes, Jan. 24 (AP)—Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks were kept alive tonight by a decision to postpone discussions until Thursday to give each delegation time to consult with its capital.

Disagreements over the Negeb boundary issue brought the conference during the day to the brink of failure. One source said the negotiations had broken down, but the talks later were resumed.

"Keep Them Meeting"

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations acting mediator, is following a policy of keeping both sides talking.

He said: "As long as I can keep them meeting there is still hope."

While Bunche labored to avert a breakdown, Israel was bolstered by a major diplomatic triumph. France recognized the young Jewish state and the British cabinet decided to do likewise. An announcement of the British action is expected in a few days.

A number of other nations are expected to follow the French-British lead. Israel's prospects for membership in the United Nations now are much brighter.

Bunche will continue informal meetings from now until Thursday, but no major decisions will be taken until word is received from Cairo and Tel Aviv.

There was speculation that the delegates are going to the two capitals to learn what the American and British attitudes are now that the armistice talks have bogged down.

Some quarters expressed the belief that only the United States and Britain have the power to transform the conference here from failure to a success.

Neither the Israelis nor the Egyptians have shown signs of backing down on the Negev issue. The Egyptians insist that the boundaries in that desert area of southern Palestine be set according to positions occupied by both sides before the successful Jewish offensives of Oct. 15 and last month.

While the Jews apparently are willing to give up some territory won in their most recent offensive, they flatly refuse to retreat to positions held before Oct. 15.

Because of the deadlock the evacuation of about 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja has been postponed. The evacuation had been agreed on earlier.

Conference At Rhodes Stalls, Then Resumes

Rhodes, Jan. 24 (AP)—Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks in their final nervous stage were resumed today after a brief period in which it was feared the conference had been broken off in failure.

The resumption may be temporary, but the acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, labored to avert a breakdown over touchy Negeb boundary issues. A spokesman said the "immediate difficulties" facing the delegations had been solved, but he gave no indication that a successful conclusion could be expected.

This statement came after Bunche went into separate huddles with the Egyptian and the Israeli delegations. Before the meetings, a usually reliable informant had said the conference had broken down.

The discussions later were suspended until Thursday. The Egyptian and Israeli delegations are sending representatives to their respective capitals for consultation.

Bunche will continue informal meetings in the meantime, but no major decisions will be taken until word is received from Cairo and Tel Aviv.

Troop Movement Stopped

It also was learned here that the Israeli Government had blocked the evacuation of Egyptian troops trapped in the Faluja pocket in southern Palestine. The evacuation had been scheduled to begin today.

The source which reported the breaking off of negotiations said the Jews and Egyptians both refused to budge from their previously stated positions on boundaries to be set in the Negeb desert.

The Egyptians insist that the boundaries be set according to positions occupied by both sides before the successful Jewish offensive of October 15 and last month.

Some Concession Offered

The Jews, while apparently willing to give up some territory won in their most recent offensive, refuse flatly to retreat to positions held before October 15.

Bunche worked virtually all night, meeting individually with the chiefs of the two delegations.

Shortly after midnight, a member of the mediator's staff described the situation as "very sour."

Another indication of the sudden turn for the worse was a United Nations announcement in Tel Aviv that evacuation of about 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja had been suddenly postponed. The evacuation had been agreed on early in the Rhodes negotiations.

Ordered From Rhodes

The evacuation, scheduled to begin tonight under United Nations supervision, was postponed indefinitely on orders from United Nations officials at Rhodes.

Official Israeli quarters emphasized that the Jews had agreed to release the Egyptian troops and several hundred civilians at Faluja with the expectation that agreement would be reached in the armistice talks.

A Jewish observer at Rhodes said the only way to save the talks is for the United States to exert pressure on Egypt, directly or through Britain. This observer said the talks were finished if Egyptian policy is not changed.

[There were reports shortly before the Egyptians agreed to the armistice talks that the United States had exerted pressure on both sides.]

Concessions Demanded

Qualified informants said the Egyptian demands that the Jews give up positions won since October 14 had been made suddenly. The Israelis refused, contending they had made concessions and that the Egyptians had not.

While Bunche made no attempt to hide the seriousness of the stalemate, he said the parties are "close enough to settle the whole thing within an hour."

Israel to Hold First National Election Today

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 24.—(AP) The new Jewish state of Israel will hold its first national election tomorrow with foreign policy as a major issue.

Some 400,000 Israeli citizens—a tenth of them Arabs—are expected to participate. They will choose 120 members of a constituent assembly which will draft the state's constitution. The assembly also is expected to set up a new government.

21 Parties in Field

Twenty-one parties are in the field. There is a general belief that the present provisional government will win.

That government is a united front with Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's mildly leftist labor party (Mapai) in a position of leadership. The main challenge comes from the far right freedom movement which Menachem Beigin forged from his former underground army, Irgun Zvai Leumi.

Ben-Gurion and Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok have been the principal speakers for Mapai. They have stood for a policy of forging a state as nearly as possible within the framework of United Nations approval and of offering peace to the Arabs.

Beigin's movement [illegible] has urged a policy of driving [illegible] out of all Palestine.

In campaigning today rival political orators with loudspeakers and megaphones tried to out-shout each other in the streets.

The central elections committee said the results of the balloting will not be known before Friday.

The contending parties represent political ideologies all the way from right to left. One of the issues debated was whether Israel should cast her lot with the east or west, or steer a neutral course. Another was whether the government should sink its roots deeply into the Hebrew religion. Five religious parties pleading for orthodoxy.

MEASURE TO AID PALESTINE TOPS NEW BILLS FILED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—(AP) Senator Connally (D-Texas) introduced today legislation calling for a $16,000,000 appropriation to the United Nations to aid in establishing and maintaining peace in Palestine.

Connally is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

There was a marked drop in the number of bills offered. Most members of Congress have already offered the measures they brought with them for the start of the session.

Bills Entered In Senate

Among those introduced in the Senate were:

Salaries—By Judiciary Chairman McCarran (D-Nev), to increase the salary of the chief justice to $35,000, an increase of $9,500 and raise the salaries of all other federal judges by $5,000 which would give federal district judges $20,000 a year.

Housing — By Senator Thomas (D-Utah), to ease the financing of GI homes by authorizing the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to buy GI mortgages from lenders whose funds are exhausted; to extend from 25 to 30 years the repayment period; to increase the interest rate from 4 to 4 1-2 per cent.

Hospital financing—By Hill (D-Ala) and three colleagues, to increase the federal fund for aid to states in hospital construction from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000 a year and permit allocation of as much as 70 per cent of the cost of individual projects in communities of low income.

Defense—By Chairman Tydings (D-Md) of the Armed Service Committee, to authorize $200,000,000 to establish a long range proving ground at an unspecified location to test guided missiles and other weapons.

Transport—By McCarran (D-Nev) to provide for the regulation of non-scheduled air services; by Murray (D-Mont) to prohibit the sale of rubber tires by any except independent dealers.

Bills offered in the House included these:

Taxes—By Talle (R-Iowa), to end the high wartime excise tax rates and revert to prewar levies on jewelry, furs, toilet preparations, electric light bulbs, radio tubes, telephone and telegraph charges, admissions and transportation.

Delinquency—By Javits (R-NY), to authorize $50,000,000 worth of federal aid to states and local communities to combat juvenile delinquency. States and communities would have to match federal funds.

National Theater—By Javits (R-NY), to establish a national theater and a national opera and ballet.

O'Conor Urges Action To Save Rhodes Parley

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The State Department was urged by Senator O'Conor (D., Md.) today to try to prevent any interference with peace efforts in Palestine.

He said in a speech reminding the Senate that elections are to be held in Israel tomorrow:

"In view of the truce achieved between Arab powers . . . it would seem a most unfortunate moment for any action which would tend to disrupt the current conference.

"It would be most fruitful of good if our State Department would lend the good offices of this country toward the avoidance of any possible unfortunate intervention by any country at this time."

Palestine Unit Starts Investment Campaign

New York, Jan. 24 (AP)—Start of a nation-wide drive to gather investment capital for the economic development of Israel was announced yesterday by the Palestine Economic Corporation.

The drive will be led by former Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., who has been elected chairman of the board of the corporation.

The corporation has been carrying on banking and industrial development activities in Palestine.

BRITAIN SEEKS TO BUY B-29'S

Negotiations For Second-Hand Bombers Reported

London, Jan. 24 (AP) — Britain is negotiating with the United States for the purchase of 150 to 180 second-hand B-29 Superfortress bombers, responsible British and American informants said today. The aircraft are reported sought to increase the strength of the RAF's bomber command.

This country's lagging program of bomber output was given by informants as a main reason for talks said to be taking place between American and British Air Force leaders to clinch the B-29 deal.

Production cost of a B-29, best known United States bombers, ranges from $900,000 to $1,000,000.

Five Or Six Groups

Ther are 30 aircraft in an American bomber group. The 150 to 180 B-29's the British are reported seeking would make up five or six groups.

The outcome of the talks, according to the informants, is still unsettled. So, too, is the question of how dollar-short Britain would finance the project.

Under an agreement between the Royal Air Force and United States Air Force, British pilots and maintenance men have been trained in handling B-29's, while American pilots have learned to fly British heavy bombers.

Officials declined any immediate comment on reported negotiations for buying the planes.

Decision At Government Level

A qualified American informant said equipping the RAF with American bombers has been long debated. Purchase of any large numbers of planes involves decisions at government level, he added.

Such steps might open the way, the informant said, to something that has been discussed by many American and British military planners, unification of the RAF and USAF bomber commands.

Presumably, the idea would be for the United States to concentrate on the production of heavy bomber aircraft and for Britain to turn out mainly fighter planes, emphasizing production of jet-propelled craft.

Washington Offices Silent

In Washington, the State Department, the Air Force, and the British Embassy said they had not heard of any such negotiations.

Mystery Attends Battleship Swap

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—An Italian-British-Russian battleship swap seemed bogged down in mystery today.

The main question puzzling the Admiralty: Where is the 33-year-old Royal Sovereign, which the British loaned to Russia during the war?

The Admiralty said several weeks ago the Russians promised to hand over the Royal Sovereign at Rosyth, in Scotland, about January 21. At the same time the Russians were to take over the 23,000-ton Italian battleship, Giulio Cesare, under terms of the Italian peace treaty.

The transfers were to take place simultaneously. But the British have had no word from Russia about the Sovereign, which failed to appear at Rosyth. The Giulio Cesare, after being made ready for sea, is still in Augusta Bay, Sicily.

Russ London Aide Recalled For 'Talks'

London, Jan. 24 (AP)—Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin has been recalled to Moscow for high-level talks, an official Russian Embassy source said today.

The source declined to say what Zarubin would discuss. Diplomats said he would talk principally about the Big Four Austrian treaty conference due to begin here on or about February 7.

These informants said he also would discuss British-Soviet trade.

V. M. Pavlov, counselor of the Russian Embassy and Stalin's interpreter at Tehran and Potsdam, returned to Moscow last week. Russian sources declined to say why, but declared he would be back.

London, Tuesday, Jan. 25 (AP). The Soviet news agency Tass said today Russia and five other eastern European nations held an economic conference "this month in Moscow."

A broadcast Moscow dispatch said the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslavakia set up a "council for economic mutual assistance" to counter an alleged trade boycott by Western nations. Yugoslavia was not listed.

Anglo-Argentine Trade Talk Reported

London, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—A high diplomatic source said today Britain and Argentina have agreed to seek a five-year trade accord for more trade than was arranged under the Andes agreement.

The source said preliminary negotiations already have started in Buenos Aires, where British Ambassador Sir John Balfour saw Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia last Saturday.

British official sources refused to confirm or deny the report.

FUNDS TO BRITAIN ARE CUT

ECA Deletes $10,740,000, Meant Largely for Mill Machinery

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration today reduced recovery spending allotments to the United Kingdom by $10,740,000. This represented funds largely earmarked for the purchase of American industrial machinery.

At the same time, however, the ECA announced new authorizations of $7,649,000 to four European countries and China. An ECA official said the British reduction was "a routine programming adjustment."

As a result of the transactions, total Marshall Plan commitments to date stand at $4,370,066,000. Today's new authorizations were:

Austria, $2,507,000 for a variety of industrial recovery commodities; Italy, $2,912,000 for medicinal and pharmaceutical preparations; Greece, $2,000,000 for motor vehicle accessories, and Denmark, $21,000 for machine tools.

China receives $209,000 for nitrogenous fertilizer. Virtually all of the new procurement is from the United States.

Kravchenko Says Many Would Flee

ROBERT E. WILSON

Paris, Jan. 24 (AP)—Victor Kravchenko said today millions of men would like to flee Russia as he did.

The Russian author of "I Chose Freedom" made his statement at the start of the trial of his libel suit against the pro-Communist French weekly newspaper Les Lettres Francaises.

Even some of the defense witnesses brought here from Russia "think like I do," Kravchenko said, but they don't dare admit it for "each one of them has left hostages in the U.S.S.R."

Kravchenko wrote his book about life in Russia under Soviet rule after he had quit a Russian purchasing mission job in Washington four years ago.

Truth About Barbarism

"I will never give up my fight against the Soviet regime," he said in his address to the court. "I want to tell the world the dangers of this regime."

"I quit the Soviet to tell the truth about a regime that is not of truth but of barbarism," he said. "The Kremlin rulers reduced the Russian people to despair by imposing on them a reign of terror."

The trial wandered off into a confused argument over the actions of French Communists since the war, and the flight to Moscow of Maurice Thorez, French Communist leader, in 1939. There were boos and catcalls from spectators at the mention of Thorez.

The participants stayed on the libel issue long enough for Kravchenko to say: "I ask the judges to establish the defamation and provocation, and to make public the names of my defamers and those who inspired them."

Assigned By Kremlin

He is asking 1,000,000 francs ($3,000) damages for articles which the newspaper published about him and his book.

"The task of my adversaries—which is to smear me—was assigned by the Kremlin," Kravchenko said.

A long list of witnesses was called by both sides. The defense witnesses include fifteen Russians and a number of French Communists including Frederic Joliot-Curie, atomic scientist.

Claude Morgan, director of Les Lettres Francaises, declined to tell who wrote two articles for his paper which drew Kravchenko's suit.

"I take full responsibility," Morgan said.

DE GAULLE FORCES GET SETBACK IN ELECTION

GRENOBLE, France, Jan. 24—Gen. Charles De Gaulle's rightist followers suffered a serious setback and the communists registered a gain in municipal elections here yesterday, final returns showed today.

De Gaulle's Rally of the French People (RPF) lost two or three municipal council seats, although it polled about 200 more in popular vote than in 1947. The communists, running about 4,000 ahead of their 1947 total vote, gained one or two seas in the council. The division is yet to be determined under the preferential system used in counting the ballots.

Middle-of-the-road parties represented in the French government coalition ran about the same as last year, and probably will gain one seat in the council.

Observers attributed the RPF setback to the adverse effect on public opinion of the riots of six months ago when De Gaulle campaigned in Grenoble.

Franco Names New Archbishop

Madrid, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—Generalissimo Francisco Franco named a new Archbishop of Tarragona today. He is the Bishop of Oviedo, Benjamin de Arriba Castro, who succeeds the late Manuel Cardinal Arce Y Ochotorena.

Under an agreement with the Vatican, Franco proposed five candidates from which the Pope selected three, leaving the final choice to Franco. This arrangement replaced the ancient right of Spanish Kings to name Bishops and Archbishops.

AIRLIFT PLANE FALLS, KILLS 7

British Craft Taking Children And Sick From Berlin

Berlin, Tuesday, Jan. 25 (AP)—At least seven persons were killed and sixteen injured last night when a British airlift plane evacuating children and sick persons from Russian-blockaded Berlin crashed in the Soviet zone of Germany, the Royal Air Force said today.

The plane, a Dakota carrying 27 persons, was flying from the RAF Gatow airport here to Luebeck, in the British occupation zone.

RAF officials in Hamburg said it carried 24 passengers—five German children, fourteen German women and five German men—in addition to a crew of three.

Crash In Wooded Area

The Hamburg announcement said the plane had reported to its Luebeck base at 6.30 P.M., apparently just before the crash was said to have occurred, that it was making a visual approach to the field. No further messages were received.

Later the Russians reported it had crashed in wooded country in their zone, about 10 miles east of Luebeck.

The crash scene was in the northernmost corridor used by the airlift.

Reports to Air Force officials said the Russians were sending medical aid to the crash scene.

A German farmer reported one of the plane's two engines was on fire before the crash.

Negotiating For Mission

British authorities received information on the crash from the Russians by telephone. They were negotiating to send a mission to the crash scene.

Schoenberg, 2 miles east of the British zone border, was the scene of another British airlift accident only two months ago when a plane crew of three were killed. The navigator died in Schoenberg hospital several days after the accident. The Russians permitted a British army doctor and nurse, as well as the navigator's wife, to visit him.

Germans Seized Invasion Plan On 'D-Day'

JAMES C. DEVLIN

Heidelberg, Germany, Jan. 24 (AP)—The entire Normandy invasion plan was captured by the Germans the first day of the assault, but they failed to capitalize on it, Lieut. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner said today.

"Had that paper been recognized for its true value the entire outcome of the war might have been different," the chief of the American ground forces in Europe declared.

He said the document was sent back through normal German channels and did not reach Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt until 30 days later.

Captured At Omaha

By that time the Allies had a firm foothold on the French coast and the document was virtually valueless to the Germans.

The plan had been captured on the Omaha beachhead in the initial phase of the Normandy landing.

Huebner related the incident to stress the importance of speedy communications in combat.

He spoke at a critique conducted by officers who participated last week in American winter maneuvers in Germany.

Change In Setup

The maneuvers marked a change in the Army's setup here in that the constabulary now operates as a corps, with full participation in field maneuvers.

The 1st Division, strongest United States combat outfit in Germany, served as part of the corps, instead of as an independent unit.

Despite its corps status, the constabulary is expected to continue the chief operation it has conducted previously—the patrol of borders and highways.

Huebner announced that spring maneuvers would be held in Germany in April. The exact date and place will be kept secret to prevent commanders from making advance plans and reconnaissance.

Fit And Able

Huebner said last week's maneuvers along the Rhine River proved that American troops in Germany were fit and able to function under winter conditions. He said their winter clothing was the best he had ever seen.

Illness rates slumped during the maneuvers.

"The soldier in the field is a healthy soldier," said Huebner. "It is when he is in heated barracks that he catches colds."

ADD

But all the Army department would say officially is that it is checking and is unable to say at this time whether the report is true or not.

Dispatches from Heidelberg, Germany, credited the story to Lt. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner, chief of American ground forces in Europe.

Huebner said the Germans captured the allies' Normandy invasion plan in 1944 but muffed their opportunity by not getting it to their commander in time.

Here in Washington, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army chief of staff, said he recalled no such incident.

Furthermore, Bradley said he doubted if the overall invasion plan would have been taken ashore on D-Day.

He said he knew of no important papers that were captured during the early days of the invasion.

Bradley commanded the First U. S. Army, elements of which went ashore in France at Omaha and Utah beaches. Later he took command of a 12th Army Group composed of the First, Ninth and 15th armies.

Another Army officer, asking not to be quoted by name, said there were but few copies of the entire invasion plan made and that they were numbered and carefully guarded. He added that as far as he knew all had been accounted for.

The entire invasion plan was described as a good-sized document. On legal size paper, it was about a foot high. Only a few high ranking officers in the allied command wolud have seen it.

The overall plan when put to use would be broken down into plans for corps, armies and then divisions. There would also be coordinating plans for Army and Air Force in the overall documents.

U. S. Officers Skeptical of Claim Nazis Captured Invasion Plans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—(AP)—Reports that the Germans captured the allies' Normandy invasion plan in 1944 brought head-shakes of doubt from some high Army officers today.

GERMAN OFFICIALS TO VISIT WASHINGTON

BERLIN, Jan. 24 — (AP) Seven German officials are going to Washington to learn about U. S. government.

The U. S. military government said today the group will leave Wednesday for five months of practical experience in American public life.

When they return, said Dr. Edward P. Litchfield, "they may be able to advance inside Germany a relatively new idea: Public cooperation through decree."

The six men and a woman making the trip were chosen for their qualifications in civil or government work. Some were underground workers against the Nazis.

In Washington the Budget bureau will direct the visitors' study of various governmental operations. They will be exposed to the give-and-take spirit with which Americans are expected to do their jobs, Litchfield said.

SCANDINAVIA TALKS SNAGGED

Norway, Sweden And Denmark Fail To Agree On Pact

Copenhagen, Jan. 24 (AP)—Norway, Sweden and Denmark failed today to reach a final agreement on the formation of a Scandinavian defense alliance.

Another meeting of Government leaders from the three countries will be held in Oslo Saturday. A communiqué issued at the close of the three-day session here said the possibility for a common defense system still exists. The bulletin said:

"Under certain conditions it will be possible to agree on a mutually obliging but otherwise detached Scandinavian defense alliance."

No Link To Atlantic Pact

Apparently this meant there was no chance of securing agreement on a pact which would link the Scandinavian countries with the proposed North Atlantic alliance now being negotiated in Washington. The United States and Canada would take part in the North Atlantic alliance along with the members of the western European union—Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Informants said Sweden wants a Scandinavian pact based on neutrality and not tied in with the Western defense system. Norway, on the other hand, was pictured as favoring a type of alliance which would enable the three countries to secure weapons and certain guarantees from the Western powers.

Production Co-Ordination

The communiqué explained that the alliance which it was possible to negotiate would be "a regional security agreement within the scope of the United Nations Charter."

It would be neecssary, the bulletin added, to co-ordinate the defense plans of the armed forces and the production of military equipment in the three countries.

Supplies of arms and equipment from abroad would be needed to extend and maintain the Scandinavian defense forces, the communiqué said. It added that an investigation must be made to determine whether such supplies could be obtained "on moderate economic conditions."

Followed By Moscow

A Moscow dispatch said the Scandinavian conference was followed closely by Soviet newspapers. It also was a lively topic of conversation among foreign diplomats there.

Soviet commentators have made it plain that if the Scandinavian countrias accept military aid from the United States the Russians would regard such an action as being just about the same thing as joining the North Atlantic alliance.

Scandinavia Pact For Defense Is Stalled

Copenhagen, Denmark, Jan. 24 (AP) — Government leaders from Denmark, Norway and Sweden failed today to reach final agreement on formation of a Scandinavian defense alliance. They will try again.

A communiqué issued at the close of a three-day conference here said the possibility for a common-defense system still exists and the next meeting is to be held at Oslo on January 29.

"Certain Conditions"

"The Scandinavian people are determined to defend by all means available their freedom, their independence and their democracy against aggression," the communiqué said.

"Under certain conditions it will be possible to agree on a mutually obliging but otherwise detached Scandinavian defense alliance."

This seemed to mean that the three countries will not link up in the proposed North Atlantic Alliance now being negotiated. That would be a defense network made up of Britain, Belgium, Canada, France, Holland, Luxembourg and the United States.

No Explanation Given

There was no immediate hint as to what the "certain conditions" are. Sweden is known to be reluctant to enter any alliance which might compromise her traditional neutrality.

The communiqué said any alliance of the Scandinavian countries should be "a regional security agreement within the scope of the United Nations Charter" under which it would be necessary to co-ordinate the defense plans of the armed forces and the production of military equipment in the three countries.

Greeks Push Hunt For Rebels

Athens, Jan. 24 (AP)—The general staff said today that 85 Communist guerrillas were killed and 50 taken prisoner in skirmishes with Greek Army troops in the Peloponnesus area within the last 24 hours.

The communiqué said Government Commando troops killed 61 and captured 13 as they continued to hunt down rebels which three days ago attacked Leonidi on the east coast of the Peloponnesus. Leonidi is 75 miles southwest of Athens.

[The casualties claimed by the Nationalist forces presumably are in addition to the 120 guerrillas killed and 65 captured announced yesterday as the result of Greek Commando action against the guerrillas who took part in the Leonidi assault.]

Other Actions Reported

The general staff said 24 guerrillas were killed and 37 taken prisoner in other actions in the Peloponnesus.

Military activities in the vicinity of Karpenisi, 125 miles northwest of Athens, were slowed by snow and bad weather, the communiqué said.

An army relief column had been rushed there to help the besieged Karpenisi garrison. It was reported yesterday that the garrison had fought through the rebel lines.

GREEKS SEIZE 35 IN 'TERRORIST' PLOT

ATHENS, Jan. 24 — (AP) Thirty-five men and six women were arrested by Athens police today on charges of conspiring to assassinate three leading Greek officials and commit sabotage.

Police said those arrested were members of a Communist underground organization which planned to kill Minister of Public Order Constantine Rentis, former war minister George Stratos and King Paul's representative in the martial court. Authorities said the police seized a large amount of arms.

Snow and bad weather slowed military operations near Karpenisi, 125 miles northwest of Athens.

Pravda Suggests Help For Russia's Working Mothers

Moscow, Jan. 24 (AP)—A woman Communist leader today lamented the fact that women working in Soviet industry have to spend much of their time looking after their homes and children.

So, in an article in Pravda, Olga Kozlova gave a few hints on how the situation could be remedied. For instance:

Since the Russian birth rate is rising steadily, it would be a good idea to build up public kindergartens so working mothers would not have to take their children home and fuss over them right after work. They could devote more time to studying and improving their minds.

Some of her other ideas:

1. Better organization of the precooked dinner system, whereby the working wife can have a meal delivered at her door and only has to heat it.

2. Introduction of more mechanical washing machines to ease the housewife's laundry chores.

3. Speed up production of refrigerators.

Priest in Moscow To Return to U. S.

Moscow, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—The Rev. George Antonio Laberge, of Worcester, Mass., Catholic chaplain to the United States colony in Moscow, will leave tomorrow for a vacation at home.

Father Laberge, a native of Pawtucket, R. I., said he expects to return here late in March. He is the resident priest at the Church of St. Louis of the French. He is flying home by way of Helsinki.

Murderers of American Are Sentenced at Cairo

CAIRO, Jan. 24 (AP).—The Court of Assizes today sentenced the murderers of an American tourist to fifteen years at hard labor.

Victim Was Stoned to Death

Censorship in Cairo prevented transmission of further details in the case. There was nothing in the dispatch to identify the victim.

A Washington dispatch last July said the Egyptian government had promised to punish persons who stoned to death Stephen Haas, fifty-three, a Philadelphia realtor, who was attacked by a mob while visiting the Egyptian capital with his wife. Mrs. Haas was rescued. The State Department said Jefferson Patterson, American Charge d'Affaires at Cairo, protested to the Egyptian government and demanded stern action.

World Bank Group Arrives in India

New Delhi, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—A five-man World Bank mission headed by A. S. G. Hoar, assistant loan director, arrived today in connection with a possible application by India for a loan.

A Finance Ministry spokesman said India wants the loan for agricultural and railway development. The mission will study the economic and financial situation of India for six or eight miles.

GUERRILLAS STILL HARASS DUTCH IN INDONESIA AREAS

BATAVIA, Java, Jan. 24.—(AP) The Dutch army said today Indonesian republican snipers and saboteurs are harassing its long communications lines.

An official summary said the Indonesian republican army has been knocked out as an organized fighting force, but guerrillas still cause damage and turmoil particularly in east Java.

Mopping Up Drive Slows

Mopping up of guerrillas units has slowed since Dutch troops toppled the republican government in December and captured its top leaders, the report added.

It said progress is being made, however, toward restoring order.

The summary gave this picture;

"Unrest increased in several districts" of mountainous east Java. Small armed bands dart from hiding, snipe at passing automobiles, lay land mines and raid estates. They have blown up bridges and destroyed other installations useful to the Dutch.

On outskirts of Jogjakarta, the fallen republican capital, small gangs still operate. Others harrass vehicular traffic about Soerakarta, which was the republicans' second largest stronghold, but most of these gangs have been driven into the hills. Sniping and sabotage are sporadic in west Java.

Dutch progress has been hampered by rains and the raiders' tactics, but there has been headway, said this first official Netherlands review of the mop-up.

Communications Cut

Intensive Dutch patrol action has been established, it said. In central Java "there is no question any more of a co-ordinated command" directing the guerillas. "So far as they are still active they operate without mutual connection."

Meanwhile, it was reported that the guerrillas have cut communications lines so thoroughly around Benkoelen, in south Sumatra and Madioen, in central Java that the Dutch had to use air transport to supply outposts there. The Dutch did not confirm this report.

Two representatives of non-Republican states conferred with interned Republican leaders over the week end. The non-Republicans are angling for Republican participation in the Dutch-proposed plan for a United States of Indonesia.

Dutch Progress In Indonesia Claimed

Batavia, Java, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Dutch today claimed progress in mopping up scattered Republican Army units in Java and Sumatra. East Java still is a trouble spot, however, they said.

In their first summary of the military situation since the January 5 cease-fire order, the Dutch said mopping-up operations had spelled an end to the Republican force as "a centrally conducted fighting apparatus." Today's bulletin, however, told of much underground fighting, sabotage and sniping by scattered Indonesian groups.

Unrest In Mountains

It summarized the situation:

In East Java's mountains "unrest has increased in several districts." Republican remnants, scattered in the backwoods, were conducting forays on road traffic and raiding estates. Units are concentrating on sabotage, laying of mines and firing on cars.

It is taking longer to restore order in East Java, because the Republicans had time to blow up bridges and other installations before the Dutch advanced into the area.

Dutch forces are "patroling intensively" around Madioen, Kediri, Blitar and Djombang. The Republicans are disorganized, with no central command.

Order Being Restored

The Dutch said they are gradually restoring order around Jogjakarta, but "small gangs are still hiding" around the outskirts of the former Republican capital.

Snipers are still plaguing travelers around Soerakarta, second-ranking Republican city.

In West Java remnants are mainly indulging in sniping on road traffic and sabotage. Republican units still are roaming North Sumatra, but apparently causing little trouble.

Rains Hamper Dutch

Heavy rains are reported hampering the Dutch operations, but many Republicans around Djambi have given themselves up.

Unconfirmed reports said guerrillas around Benkoelen in South Sumatra and Madione in Central Java have so completely cut communication lines that the Dutch have had to resort to air transport to supply isolated forces.

Meanwhile, all Indonesia watched political developments at Lake Success, The Hague and in New Delhi, where the Asian Conference has been taking place.

Two Factions Confer

Two representatives from the Federal Indonesian States and members from the Republican delegation conferred over the week end at Prapat with Indonesian President Soekarno and with Premier Mohamed Hatta at Bangka Island.

A delegation from the Dutch-sponsored states sought to set up a policy for meeting with Republicans on the future national government. A reliable source said the conferees had brought back a conditional acceptance of the get-together proposal.

A meeting of the non-Republican groups has been called for Monday in Batavia to consider the terms growing out of the Hatta-Soekarno meeting.

Republican Regime Must Be Revived, Committee Says

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 24 (AP)—The United Nations Good Offices Committee told the Security Council today the war in Indonesia cannot be ended until the Republican Government is re-established.

In a special report to the eleven-national council, the committee said: "There is no authority on the Republican side to implement the Security Council's resolution directing both parties to cease hostilities."

Dutch troops overran the East Indies republic in a "police-action" offensive which began December 18. Two weeks ago the Netherlands Government announced hostilities had ended. Indonesian officials said, however, their scattered army was just starting to fight a guerrilla war of self-defense.

"Scorched-Earth" Policy

This guerrilla activity has increased to such an extent, the good offices committee report said, that "it is impossible for the Netherlands forces to cease fire, let alone cease hostilities."

Indonesian guerrilla fighters are carrying out a systematic "scorched earth" campaign which, the committee says, has resulted in this situation:

"The establishment of law and order has not yet been implemented in the former Republican-controlled territories; in many areas the Netherlands Army has not sufficient troops on the ground to combat immediately the tactics adopted by the republic; the Netherlands Army has not sufficient police or troops to adequately protect the civil population of the area; the situation is not yet stable enough for the intiation at present of a completely authoritative civil administration."

Assembly Appeal Planned

The Security Council resumes debate on Indonesia tomorrow. Delegates will continue discussion of a four-power resolution calling on the Dutch and Indonesians to stop fighting at once. It also demands immediate freedom for Indonesian political leaders imprisoned by Dutch authorities and the creation of a United States of Indonesia by July 1, 1950.

The proposal, sponsored by the United States, China, Norway and Cuba, already has been denounced by the Dutch and assailed by Russia. The United States has urged the Dutch and Indonesians to support it on grounds that it offers a good basis for permanent peace in Indonesian.

Pro-Indonesian spokesmen in the United Nations now are talking of the possibility of bringing the Indonesian question before the General Assembly. They say they will demand a full airing of the case before the 58-nation body if the Security Council fails to take strong action to end the dispute.

CHINA REDS REACH BANK OF YANGTZE

Advance Communist Patrols Move Up To Last Nanking Barrier

Nanking, China, Tuesday, Jan. 25 (AP)—Advance patrols of Chinese Communist armies have reached the north bank of the Yangtze—the last barrier before this tense capital.

The city awaited the arrival at the river barrier of the main body of the oncoming Communist columns—aware that there is nothing to stop them. Nanking is on the south bank of the big river, just across from Pukow, the rail terminal for points to the north.

Informed military sources said the Communists captured Liuho, 10 miles northeast of here, yesterday. Communist reconnaissance teams moved on southward to the banks of the Yangtze itself.

Mile And A Half Wide

Pukow was virtually deserted. Railway personnel fled the railhead, but the communications ministry reported its telegraph office there was functioning normally this morning.

Military sources said there is nothing to prevent the Communists from occupying Pukow. The Yangtze at that point is about a mile and a half in width.

Government planes yesterday dropped leaflets in unspecified Red areas, urging a cease fire.

The Chinese press quoted the leaflets as saying:

"If the Communists really are desirous of peace, they should immediately agree to a cease-fire agreement."

Arsenal Explosion

There was no reports of fighting. Reports to that effect last night appeared based solely on explosions from a burning arsenal south of Nanking. The explosions continued at a late hour.

There was no report of fighting. Reports to that effect last night appeared based solely on explosions from a burning arsenal south of Nanking. The explosions continued at a late hour.

Nanking observers were interested in a Peiping report that acting President Li Tsung-jen sent two emissaries there to talk peace, one of whom said Li thought the Peiping settlement might serve as a model for a general settlement.

"Thus far, it seems to represent little more than a hope," commented one informed source.

Two Kidnappers Of Chiang Free

Nanking, Jan. 24 (AP)—Acting President Li Tsung-jen today ordered young Marshal Chang Suehliang released from the villa where he is held near Hsintu, Formosa.

A special plane was sent to Hsintu, headquarters of the National Chinese Air Force, to bring the young marshal to Nanking. Marshal Chang, despite years of incarceration, is a power in China.

Li also ordered the release of Gen. Yang Hu-chen, former Shensi garrison commander, who with the young marshal kidnapped Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek in 1936 and forced him to form a united front with the Communists against Japan.

Li sent a plane to Chungking with instructions to obtain the release of General Yang, who was imprisoned twelve years ago.

Held By Chiang

What part, if any, the young marshal may play in peace talks is not known. He has been under house arrest on orders of Chiang since 1938.

Young Marshal Chang, son of "old marshal" Chang Tso-lin, whom he succeeded as commander in Manchuria in 1928, was born in 1898.

Originally the young marshal was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for insubordination. Since that time his brother, Chang Hsueh-shih, Red-named Governor of Liaoning Province and Mayor of Mukden, has charged that Chiang Kai-shek broke faith by his failure to release the famed prisoner.

Chiang's Troops Follow Him to Southern Haven

SHANGHAI, Jan. 24—(AP) "Personal troops" of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek streamed south out of the Shanghai-Nanking defenses today, vastly complicating government efforts to beg acceptable surrender terms from the Chinese communists.

Reliable sources in Nanking reported a short time later that acting President Li Tsung-jen had ordered 50,000 troops personally loyal to him to hasten to Nanking from the Hankow area 300 miles to the west.

Adding to the Chinese puzzle, highest sources disagreed anew on whether Chiang Kai-shek actually quit the government when he flew away Friday to his ancestral village of Chikow, 210 miles southeast of Nanking.

Shen Chang-kuan, information minister who used to be Chiang's private secretary, asserted at a Nanking tea party that Chiang had not resigned and was still president of China. He insisted Li Tsung-jen was merely acting president because Chiang was absent from the capital.

However, Li's personal representative in Shanghai, Kan Chieh-hou, held a press conference Monday night in which he repeatedly spoke of the 'resignation' of Chiang.

(All this could be typically Chinese quibbling, but when coupled with the peculiar troop movements it could signify a possible fatal disagreement inside the remaining government structure.)

Movement of undetermined thousands of nationalist units from the Shanghai, Nanking and Hangchow areas and from garrison points in between clogged the railways. Civilian trains sat on sidings for hours as the fully-equipped troops rolled south.

Troops Follow Chiang

The most reliable sources described these forces as the generalissimo's "personal troops" and said their initial destination was Chekiang province, where Chiang now sits beside the tombs of his ancestors in debatable retirement.

[This business of "personal troops" and individual rather than patriotic attachment goes back to China's long period of war-lord rule.

[Use of such terms now hints that the skeleton of the government may be rapidly becoming unjointed and raises a question whether a nation-wide surrender deal could be made to stick even if the Communists agreed. An attempt to make a stand in the south may be in the making.]

The Nanking dispatches said Acting President Li's call-up of his 50,000 followers could be either to defend Nanking in case the Communists attacked, or to try to prevent other troops in Nanking from disregarding any future cease-fire.

Peiping Investigated

[Li's men apparently had not yet arrived. How well they would heed the call was a question, since the Nanking Evening News said the Hankow commander had sent an agent north to find out how good Peiping's separate surrender of Saturday really was.]

Li, meanwhile, in a dramatic stroke ordered release of Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang and others held in kid-glove imprisonment by Chiang Kai-shek ever since the famous 1936 kidnapping.

Li sent a plane to Formpsa to return the so-called "young marshal" to Nanking.

Brother A Communist Mayor

[Chang Hsueh-liang kidnapped the Generalissimo at Sian in December, 1936, and freed him after forcing him to agree on an anti-Japanese front with the Communists. Chiang Kai-shek then arrested his kidnapper and has held him in house arrest ever since—an action the public always has regarded as not playing fair. The prisoner's brother is the Communist-appointed Mayor of Mukden.]

Li Tsung-jen's all-out attempt to get the Communists to negotiate was getting a cold shoulder from non-Communist groups in Shanghai.

It was authoritatively reported Li's emissary, Kan Chieh-hou, was refused aid by the Democratic League and by Mme. Sun Yat Sen.

Outlawed By Government

The Democratic League long has been outlawed by the Government, but Kan said his appeal amounted to legalization of the party.

Shao Li-tze and Gen. Chang Chih-chung, chiefs of a five-man peace mission named Saturday by the acting President, were in Shanghai to try to persuade the minority groups to help them.

Kan told a press conference the Government still was awaiting word from the Communists for a meeting time and place. He said talks should take place "possibly very soon," as the Government was ready to accept the Communists' eight-point surrender ultimatum of January 14 as a basis. ADD

Shanghai, Jan. 24 (AP)—Thousands of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's "personal troops" were following their "retired" leader south today, abandoning the Shanghai-Nanking defense area.

Immediately after news of this unexplained movement, Acting President Li Tsung-jen was reliably reported to be bringing 50,000 soldiers personally loyal to him into the Nanking sector from the Hankow front farther west.

Reds Are 30 Miles Away

The Communists, whom the disintegrating Chinese Government has been suing vainly for peace on almost any terms, reported, meanwhile, that yesterday their unopposed advance southward reached points only 30 miles north of Nanking.

The Reds presumably were still nearer today.

The telephone operator at Pukow, Nanking's railway station on the north bank of the Yangtze River, said: "Everyone is gone from here."

This apparently meant there were no Government troops left on the north bank to oppose the Communists.

Warlord Era Indicated

Dispatches from Nanking said the 50,000 troops that Acting President Li was bringing up were intended either to defend Nanking from the Reds or to prevent other Government troops from violating any cease-fire order.

[This strongly suggested the possibility of Government factions mutinying or fighting among themselves. It pointed to the possibility that what remains of Nationalist China is rapidly degenerating to the old days of rival warlords with personal armies.

[The movement of Chiang's "personal troops" southward could have several meanings, none of them favorable to the Nationalist cause. They might be intended for his personal defense, a last-ditch stand somewhere in the south, or for bargaining purposes with the Communists.

"Decided To Retire"

[Chiang flew away from Nanking Friday and went to his native village of Chilow, 210 miles southeast of Nanking, announcing that he had "decided to retire" and let Li try to make peace with the Reds.

[If actually retired, he would presumably have no need for troops, but a clue may be the Communist insistance that Chiang is a "war criminal" who will be punished if caught.]

Thousands of troops, moving with full equipment, were evacuating garrison points between Shanghai and Uanking, reports said.

Chiang Still President

Civilian trains packed with heavy New Year's holiday traffic have been sidetracked for long periods during the last 24 hours to permit troop movements.

The Government's director of information, Shen Chang-huan, said today that Chiang is still President of China.

His statement was made in reply to a question at a Nanking tea party for foreign diplomats to meet Acting President Li. Shen explained that under the Constitution Vice President Li is acting president because Chiang is absent and unable to perform his duties.

Ministries Leave

The Government continued the southward removal of its ministries, a spokesman said, "in order to fight on, if Communist peace terms are too harsh to be acceptable."

From their conquest of Manchuria last fall, the Communists have piled victory upon victory. Now virtually all of China north of the Yangtze is under Red control.

Peiping, the last major Nationalist stronghold in North China, surrendered Saturday with face-saving gestures.

Reds Quietly Enter Peiping

[Spencer Moose, Associated Press correspondent, reported from Peiping that a Red regiment slipped quietly into the city last night in "the most unobtrusive arrival of conquerors the ancient capital ever experienced."

[Moosa said plans are under way to extend "peace to parts of North China remaining in Nationalist hands"—meaning, Taiyuan, capital of Shansi province, and Kweisui, capital of Suyuan province.

[Communications from Peiping remained open today, and the first train into the city since the Red siege began December 14 arrived from Red-captured Tientsin, 90 miles to the southeast. Meanwhile, evacuation of Nationalist troops was completed.]

Peace Rebuff Seen

Rebuffing the Government's latest attempt to negotiate a settlement, the Red radio carried a statement purportedly made by non-Communists led by Marshal Li Chi-shen indorsing the Red demands for Government surrender.

The statement assailed the "hypocritical peace offensive" of the Nationalist Government under acting President Li.

It urged a coalition "united under the leadership of the Communist party"—a regime emulating "our friend and neighbor, the Soviet Union."

Acceptance Predicted

But some Nanking leaders predicted, nonetheless, that the Reds would accept the Government's request for negotiation.

The Government has named a five-man delegation to seek negotiations with the Reds. The chairman, Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow, was in Shangnai yesterday.

Few Officials Remain

Meanwhile only a shell of Government remained in Nanking. Officials said the seat of Government would remain there, but that most Government personnel are going south—many to Canton.

Reports from Chinkiang said the National Navy sank two old vessels at Kuachou, an inland port, in an effort to prevent a Communist junk fleet from coming down the Grand Canal into the Yangtze.

In Shanghai, it was apparent that Li was doing everything he could to make his Government acceptable to the Communists for peace talks.

Reds Voice Warning

But the Communist radio warned that the Reds do not intend to be jockeyed out of the fruits of victory by the peace offensive.

The Red radio said "the revolution must be carried through to the very end. There is no possibility for compromise or conciliation . . . if the imperialists, feudalists and bureaucratic capitalists are not swept away.

"Achievement gained by the peoples democratic revolution under the Communists was not lightly won.

United States Accused

"If anyone slovenly gives in by indulging the enemy so that the great revolutionary cause collapses on the threshold of victory, he becomes a criminal against the Chinese revolution, against the Chinese nation."

The broadcast accused the United States of having a hand in the peace move.

"As far back as when Chiang's troops began to collapse on the northern front, American imperialists launched conspirational activities employing the double-edged scheme of disrupting the Chinese revolution.

Opposition Fomented

"On one hand, they schemed to foment an opposition within the revolutionary camp, hoping to block or slow down the revolutionary advance.

"On the other hand, they incited the reactionary Nanking bloc to launch a peace offensive solely to win time for the remnants of counterrevolutionary forces to make a final struggle south of the Yangtze."

The Red statement may have been prepared before Li took office. ADD

PROTECTION IS ASKED BY CHINA'S EX-PREMIER

HONG KONG, Jan. 24.—(AP) China's former premier, T. V. Soong, who just announced his retirement as governor of Kwantung province, arrived here by plane today and asked for police protection.

Soong, the brother-in-law of Chiang Kai-shek, wore his military decorations and was accompanied by an entourage of 12.

He said he would remain in this British colony for some time, and did not plan to go to the United States.

Nationalist China, he told interviewers, faced a "bright future." He did not elaborate.

Soong is one of 45 high Chinese officials named by Chinese communists as "war criminals."

Burma Reports Rebel Attacks In Two Areas

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 24 (AP)—A Burmese military communiqué today reported scattered rebel attacks in north and south Burma. Incidents reported included:

Two hundred rebels ambushed a train carrying Government forces in Sagaing district opposite Mandalay. They killed three passengers and escaped with arms.

Rebels in south Burma assaulted a ferry boat plying between the delta towns of Pyapon and Maubin. Three rebels were reported killed when guards fired back at rebels attempting to draw alongside in a launch. The attackers were driven off.

Karen rebels burned down a village in the Maubin area.

CONSERVATIVES WIN IN JAPAN

WILLIAM JORDAN

Communists Increase Representation To 35 Seats

Tokyo, Jan. 24 (AP)—Conservatives won an overwhelming victory in Sunday's Diet election, while the Communists increased their representation from an insignificant four to 35 seats, complete unofficial returns showed.

Premier Shigeru Yoshida's Democrat-Liberal party — extremely conservative despite the name—captured 263 of the 466 seats in the House, a gain of more than 100.

This gave it the first majority any party has achieved since the surrender. It will permit single-party Cabinet organization instead of the previous uneasy coalitions.

MacArthur Hails Mandate

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, as occupation commander, issued a short statement hailing "so clear and decisive a mandate for the conservative philosophy of government."

The Communists were delighted over their rise to a position that must be reckoned with. They had predicted they would win only twelve seats and would get a 2,000,000 vote. In winning 35, they polled 3,274,000 votes.

The total vote was 31,736,000, about 5,000,000 more than in any previous election.

To Form 'Solid Opposition'

Sanzo Nozaka, the Communists' "brain" and Kyuichi Tokuda, secretary-general, both were re-elected. They said they intended to form a "solid opposition" in the new Diet.

Most of their gains were at the expense of the Socialist party, which they said was "dead." It retained 49 seats. The Conservative Democratic party won 70 seats.

Both Nozaka and Tokuda said they did not think the Communist victories in China's civil war had any bearing on the Japanese election, but Tokuda boasted to the crowd:

"Two years ago no one thought the Communist in China could win; but the Communist put forth their best efforts for the people and won. We shall do the same."

Both the conservatives and the Communists campaigned on economic questions, and the voters' turn to these political extremes was in a sense a rebuff to occupation attempts to push Japan into faster recovery.

Premier Yoshida, however, smilingly told a news conference the nine-point economic recovery program recently ordered by Washington was "the thing I have been trying to get the Japanese to do all the time."

Conservatives, Reds Win In Jap Vote

Tokyo, Jan. 24 (AP)—Complete unofficial returns tonight showed the Japanese voters turned to political extremes—right and left—in an impatient demand for economic stability.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida's arch-conservative Democratic Liberal party in yesterday's election gained 263 of the Diet's 466 seats, a jump of more than 100. This gave the Prime Minister's party a parliamentary working majority—the first since Japan's surrender.

Communists Advance

The Communists grabbed 35 seats, 31 more than they had; the Democrats, 70; Social Democrats, 49; Peoples Co-operative, 14; other parties, 23, and the Independents, 12.

Thus the Communists, heretofore almost a nonentity in Japanese politics, became a faction of consequence in an election that brought out about 70 per cent of the Japanese voters—about 5,000,000 more than any previous election.

Occupation Rebuff

In a sense the results were a rebuff to occupation attempts to push the Japanese into faster economic recovery.

Yoshida's party, which represents the big industrialists, consistently had sabotaged occupation economic controls.

The Communists, whose opposition has been more outspoken, gained considerably by playing upon the farmer and worker opposition to high taxes, full rice collection, wage ceilings and bans against strikes by Government employés. All these measures had been initiated by Gen. Douglas MacArthur except the taxes, which resulted from inflation.

The voting was conducted while the Communist tide was rolling so heavily across near-by China that President Chiang Kai-shek retired, at least temporarily.

The Japanese strengthened their native conservatism but left a sizable loophole for the Communists, who may pick up fifteen more seats when the politicians jockey for alignments after the Diet reconvenes. The voters also repudiated the vacillation of what passed for "middle of the road" politics.

Unofficial Returns

The final unofficial count gave these results:

Democratic Liberals 263 seats, 13,693,071 popular votes.

Social Democrats 49 seats, 4,380,524 votes.

Democrats 70 seats, 4,825,955 votes.

Communists 35 seats, 3,274,455 votes.

Independents 12 seats, 2,312,000 votes.

Peoples' Cooperative 14 seats, 1,110,598 votes.

Other parties 23 seats, 2,130,224 votes.

A total of 31,736,332 votes were tabulated. This is in contrast to 24,000,000 electors in 1946 and 27,000,000 who voted in the second national election in 1947.

M'Arthur Pleased

Tokyo, Jan. 24 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur hailed the results of Japan's Diet election yesterday as "a mandate for the conservative philosophy of government."

"Peoples of the world everywhere can take satisfaction in this enthusiastic and orderly Japanese election, which at a critical moment in Asiatic history has given so clear and decisive a mandate for the conservative philosophy of government," the occupation commander stated.

U.S. Forces To Give Up French Guiana Airfield

San Juan, Puerto Rico, Jan. 24 (AP)—The United States armed forces said today Rochambeau Field in French Guiana will be turned over to French representatives tomorrow.

The field, near Cayenne, capital of French Guiana, was built by the United States Army in 1943 and operated during the war as a United States military airbase. The Air Force said the seacoast field was important because of its strategic location in relation to the northeast coast of South America.

Axis Sally Jury Is Completed

Six Negroes Are Included in Group as Treason Trial Begins.

Washington, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—A jury of six men and six women was chosen today to try Axis Sally for treason. Six of the jurors are Negroes.

In addition to the twelve regular jurors, two alternates, one a man and one a women, were chosen. The alternates will hear the evidence, but will vote only in the event that one or more of the regular jurors become incapacitated.

The jury was completed five hours after the trial began and with surprising speed.

Early Selection Delay.

When the trial began today there were indications of considerable difficulty in selecting a jury.

Seven of 110 prospective jurors told Federal Judge Edward M. Curran they had a fixed opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, Mildred E. Gillars, 48. Others also stated reasons for which they were disqualified.

MAY, GARSSON CONVICTIONS UPHELD BY 2-1

3 Will Appeal Wartime Bribery Case To Supreme Court

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The Government's long fight to imprison former Representative Andrew J. May, of Kentucky, and the munitions-making Garsson brothers for wartime bribery advanced another step today.

The United States Court of Appeals in a 2-1 ruling upheld the July, 1947, convictions of the three men. Their attorneys immediately planned an appeal to the Supreme Court. Meanwhile, the three will continue free on bond, each under sentence of eight months to two years.

May, now 73, was House Military Committee chairman during the second World War and a leading figure in Congress. The Garsson brothers, Henry and Murray, built up a $70,000,000 munitions combine. Disclosure of their money payments to May was a postwar sensation.

A trial jury found May guilty of taking $53,634 in bribes from the brothers for his help in seeking wartime favors from the War Department for the Garsson projects.

3 Deny Any Wrong

The Government contended that the Garssons set May up in the lumber business in Kentucky, using the firm as a device to conceal payments. May said he paid back all the money the Garssons put in, or spent it on the firm of which he said he was only the manager. All three denied having done anything wrong, or having made anything on their relationships.

The Government contended May repaid the money only when the scheme was discovered by investigators.

The Garssons and three wartime associates also are charged in another case with conspiring to defraud the Government in renegotiation of war contracts.

Since the trial, May has been in semi-retirement at his home at Prestonsburg, Ky., and has been practicing law.

Convicted On 3 Counts

A veteran of eight straight terms in Congress, May was defeated in 1946 before his eleven-week trial began.

There were three counts on which May and the two Garssons were convicted. The first charged conspiracy to defraud the United States of May's services and to pay him the bribes. The other two charged May with accepting sums of money with the aid of the Garssons.

The split in the Appeals Court's decision today was on the technical wording of the indictment.

Judges E. Barrett Prettyman and Henry White Edgerton dismissed defense contentions that the indictment was faulty although they said "there is some force in apellants' argument."

Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens, in dissenting, said defects in the indictment were sufficient to reverse the convictions. He said the first count was essentially the same as the other two and amounted to an attempt to make the same crime "punishable twice."

Chief Judge Dissents

The majority said it was immaterial whether May was paid for handling legitimate complaints from the Garssons against the War Department or that the committee chairman wanted to help the Garssons do a better job making gunshells and other munitions for the war effort.

"A congressman cannot legally receive compensation from a private person for doing his duty," the majority opinion said.

May, Garssons's Convictions Upheld

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—The United States Court of Appeals today upheld the convictions of former Representative Andrew J. May, of Kentucky, and Henry and Murray Garsson on charges of bribery and conspiracy to defraud the Government during the war.

The appellate court decision was by a 2-to-1 vote. Judges E. Barrett Prettyman and Henry White Edgerton voted to uphold the District court verdict. Chief Judge Harold M. Stephens dissented.

Convicted In 1947

May, chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee in wartime, and the Garsson brothers, operators of a $78,000,000 munitions combine, were convicted by a Federal jury in July, 1947.

Each was sentenced to serve eight months to two years. They have been free on $2,000 bond each pending action on their appeal.

Charles J. Margiott, counsel for the Garssons, said in Lewisburg, Pa., that he would appeal today's decision to the United States Supreme Court.

$53,000 In Bribes

The trial jury found May guilty of taking $53,634.07 in bribes from the Garsson brothers as payment for using his congressional influence to get favors for the Garsson shell-making enterprises.

The Garssons were convicted of conspiring to defraud the United States of May's services through bribery.

The Government contended that the Garssons set May up in the lumber business, as head of the Cumberland Lumber Company in Kentucky, using that as a "blind" to conceal bribery payments.

Two-Hour Deliberation

The jury of seven men and five women required only an hour and 50 minutes to reach its verdict after a trial which lasted eleven weeks. Maximum penalty on the charges would have been six years in prison and $30,000 fine for each defendant.

The Appeals Court majority opinion was written by Judge Prettyman. Chief Judge Stephens dissented principally on the ground that he believed the indictment of May and the Garssons was improperly drawn. He said the Government should have tried the defandants either on a general conspiracy charge or under the statute relating to acceptance of money by a member of Congress for services to private citizens and companies.

Indictment Is Upheld

The majority opinion held, however, that the indictment "clearly and properly" charged one conspiracy embracing all three defendants. It held that May was properly tried at the same time under a statute concerning unauthorized acceptance of money by a member of Congress.

The majority decision, rejecting nine specific points raised by defense counsel, also brushed aside defense contentions that Trial Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut was unfair. The opinion said:

"We have read all portions of the record cited to indicate hostility or bias on the part of the trial judge. They not only failed to show bias, but affirmatively indicate that the trial judge was both impartial and temperate, and this under the stress of a long and bitterly-contested trial." — ADD

U. S. 'Detains' Gieseking, Canceling N. Y. Concert

NEW YORK, Jan. 24—(AP) Walter Gieseking, German pianist who played before Adolf Hitler, was picked up by immigration officers today shortly before his scheduled concert here tonight. He will leave the country voluntarily.

The concert at Carnegie Hall was to have opened a tour of the country. A hearing had been called to determine whether he would be excluded from the U. S.

Later, a crowd estimated at 5,000 persons milled around the hall while several groups picketed for a time against the canceled concert.

Police had to break up near-fights and scuffles.

About 50 unidentified pickets began to march past the hall's entrance about the time the cancellation was announced. Fifteen more stood outside the manager's office.

Members of the Jewish war veterans arrived later. They sang the "Star-Spangled Banner" as they picketed.

The Justice Department in Washington announced that Gieseking, who arrived in the country Saturday, agreed to leave after it called a hearing to see if he should be excluded from the U. S.

Gieseking, his agents said, immediately canceled tonight's concert and the American tour. They said he will fly to Paris tomorrow.

The pianist, who played in Germany throughout the Nazi regime, has denied that he ever was a Nazi.

Justice Department officials declined to discuss the nature of evidence they said might make Gieseking's presence in the U. S. undesirable. His projected tour raised objections from many groups.

The pianist, his agents said, was taken into custody this afternoon by immigration officials, and was being held by them tonight.

The American Jewish Congress and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, Jewish fraternal organization, both assailed the pianist's admission to the country, along with others.

Gieseking's action in cancelling his tour came less than a week after Dr. Wilhelm Furtwaengler withdrew from an engagement as guest conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Furtwaengler's proposed engagement was assailed by a number of artists, who said they would not appear with him. Furtwaengler protested against the artists, who, he said "perpetuate hatred indefinitely, while all the world is longing for peace."

Before Gieseking's detention today W. Frank Watkins, district director of the immigration service, said the pianist had been placed on "parole" in this country because of protests against his admission

At the same time Watkins said authorities planned "no interference" with the concert program but the musician would be subject to call from authorities as they investigated the merits of complaints against him.

There was no explanation from authorities as to why he subsequently was taken into custody.

The pianist's manager, Charles L. Wagner, and his associate manager, Edward W. Snowdon, previously told newsmen in New York the Gieseking had been "cleared of suspicion" of having given Nazi-sponsored concerts.

They said, too, that the local denazification board in Gieseking's home town of Wiesbaden, Germany, had refused to try him "because it was widely known that he was not a Nazi and that he studiously avoided all contacts with Nazis.

But the Justice Department said evidence had been uncovered indicating that his presence in this country might not be desirable.

Besides his Carnegie Hall recital, Gieseking had planned a concert tour of the United States.

The pianist had told New York reporters:

"The only appearance I made before Adolf Hitler was at a public concert in Berlin in 1936. I never played privately for any Nazi official, and I only met Goebbels once—at a reception for German pianists."

He said he played "a lot more concerts for allied soldiers than I did for Germans."

Several members of congress had protested Gieseking's admission to the country. Rep. Klein (D-NY) said in a statement last night that the musician came to this country to spread German propaganda.

And Rep. Dolliver (D-NY) said the granting of a visa to Gieseking was "a deliberate attempt by irresponsible state department officials to negate American foreign policy as set forth by President Truman."

The immigration service had tentatively arranged for a hearing for the pianist in New York City tomorrow to determine, the justice department said, "if he had any previous political connections in prewar Germany which would render him inadmissable to this country."

However, Gieseking, according to the department, agreed to leave New York for Europe by plane not later than 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

He arrived in New York on Saturday by trans-Atlantic plane on a visitor's visa issued by an American consul in Germany.

In response to inquiries, the state department here said the consul had been authorized by the department to issue the visa. A department official asserted that it had had protests against the visa based on charges that Gieseking had played at concerts attended by Hitler. However, this official said that there appeared to be nothing in existing statutes which would bar him from this country on that ground.

When Gieseking reached New York on Saturday, the Justice Department said, he was advised by the immigration service there that his admissability "was in doubt." He was then paroled to Charles Wagner, manager of his proposed concert tour.

The Justice Department said tonight that "sufficient evidence is now in hand to justify a hearing on the question of exclusion."

The proposed hearing, now off, was to have been held by a special board of inquiry in New York.

The Justice Department said Gieseking was not removed to Ellis Island after his detention late today. Declining to discuss his exact whereabouts, the department said the pianist "is in custody of the immigration service in New York City." — ADD

Washington U. Officials Oust Professors—They Plan to Appeal.

Seattle, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—The University of Washington's board of regents has fired three professors accused of former or present Communist party membership.

University President Raymond B. Allen described the action as "unique in educational history."

Three other professors were placed on two years' probation.

Dr. Allen, whose recommendations were borne out by the regents' decision, said he would lay the case before the American Association of University Professors.

The dismissals are effective February 1.

The decision was called "a blow to academic freedom and civil liberties" by the three discharged professors—Herbert J. Phillips, assistant professor of philosophy; Joseph Butterworth, assoicate professor in the English department, and Ralph Gundlach, associate professor of psychology.

Phillips and Butterworth said they had appealed to the A. A. U. P.

The other three are Harold L. Eby, professor of English; Garland Ethel, assistant professor of English, and Melville Jacobs, associated professor of anthropology. All have said they were once Communist party members. The board ruled they must sign affidavits that they are not party members now. They have indicated willingness to comply.

The accusations resulted from a hearing by the legislative un-American activities committee here last summer. All six were called before the committee.

Oregon State Accusation.

Corvallis, Ore, Jan. 24.—Students at Oregon State College are discussing today the charge of one of their leaders that "there are certain people on this campus for the sole purpose of converting students to the cause of Communism."

Thomas House of Portland wrote in the campus daily, Barometer, that "Communism is a real factor on this campus." He is president of the Associated Students. His column discussed the recent protests of the Young Progressives of America against the Barometer policies.

The college president, A. L. Strand, commented:

"While we probably have less of this sort of activity (Communist) than the average campus,

BILLION OUTLAY MAY BE ASKED FOR 'GLOBAL' PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24—(AP) High administration officials said today Congress may be asked for $1,000,000,000 to back up President Truman's "bold new program" to develop the world's backward areas.

This money would be available for loans by this government to foreign countries which join in a plan for coordinated development of their national resources.

Only In Planning Stage

The decision to seek this money is not definite. But it represents the thinking of high administration officials who are looking for a way to translate President Truman's plan into action.

Actually, such a "bold, new program" does not now exist in detail, although the idea has been much discussed. As a result of the President's inaugural address, however, the administration's planners have gone to work to try to draw up a plan.

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder disclosed today that work is now going forward on "a series of far-reaching programs involving financial assistance for other countries of the world." He gave no specific details.

Nor did a letter Snyder wrote to Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means Committee link these plans to Mr. Truman's call for a "bold new program."

Snyder wrote Doughton that "primary attention" is being given the new programs by the national advisory council on international monetary and financial problems. Snyder is chairman of the group, which includes also secretaries of state and commerce and of the federal reserve board and the export-import banks.

Other administration officials said one course being seriously weighed calls for joint action by four sources—this government, the World Bank, the foreign country to be helped and private American capital.

At this stage the emphasis is solely on loans which must be repaid. No provision has been made for grants such as are being extended by the United States to western Europe under the European Recovery Program.

The part to be played by private capital, the government, the World Bank and the participating country would be outlined in advance through a comprehensive survey of the area.

WANTS ECA TRADE SHARED EQUITABLY

Chicago, Jan. 24 (A. P.).—The Illinois Manufacturers Association will ask Marshall plan officials to work out a system to "distribute equitably" throughout the country the business created by foreign aid spending.

Directors of the association, appointing a committee to present the proposal to European recovery plan representatives in Washington on Friday, said: "So far, Illinois and Mid-Western manufacturing concerns, banking institutions and other enterprises received only a very small share of this business."

The association proposal asks that requests of European nations be publicized in advance throughout the country, giving data which will enable manufacturers, producers and traders in all parts of the United States to determine whether they want some of the business, and that in every feasible manner the nations seeking American aid be requested to distribute the business equitably throughout all sections of the country.

The association also asks that financial arrangements for payments to suppliers under procurement authorizations and letters of commitment be made through local banks; that transactions be carried out through private enterprise; that ECA take full cognizance of the needs of expanded American industries for overseas markets and that whenever offshore purchases are deemed advisable preference should be given to Latin-American countries.

CONGRESS RENEWS FEUD ON TARIFFS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24. — (AP) The old Democratic-Republican feud over tariffs was rekindled today as President Truman asked congress to junk the 1948 GOP tariff act and restore the full powers of the old reciprocal trade law.

Republicans wrote in curbs on the administration's rate-changing powers last year, and today they signalled a fight to keep the restrictions alive.

Under the old law, the administration had authority to slash tariff rates as much as 50 per cent when other countries made reductions favorable to American trade.

Brannan Joins In Plea

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan joined Mr. Truman in urging extension of the trade agreements program. Letters from the president and Brannan were read as the House Ways and Means Committee began formal hearings on the administration trade bill.

Rep. Reed of New York, ranking GOP member of the house group, opened the attack with a move to link Alger Hiss to the administration's foreign trade policies. Hiss, a former state department official, was a central figure in the recent congressional spy investigations.

Reed described Hiss as one of the chief "propagandists" for the old reciprocal trade program, and h asked Assistant Secretary of State Willard L. Thorp, a committee witness:

"When a man has a record of peddling information to enemies doesn't that give the people the right to fear this program?"

Thorp brushed off the question as "irrelevant." He said Hiss was not with the state department last year when congress revised the tariff act but was active with a group of prominent citizens against changes then being written into the law.

Rep. Dingell (D-Mich) remarked that no court has accused Hiss of any connections with a spy ring.

Truman Raps GOP Measure

Ways and Means Chairman Doughton (D-NC) read a letter from Mr. Truman criticizing the "hampering restrictions" of the GOP tariff measure and declaring they threaten trade negotiations with other countries in the next few months.

The 1948 Republican congress extended the trade act for only one year, with amendments calling for detailed studies on proposed rate reductions and requiring the president to make an explanation to congress if he lowered a tariff against the advice of the federal tariff commission.

The administration contended such curbs "hamstrung" the whole trade program. Thorp called the trade program one of the "fundamental elements of United States foreign economic policy."

Mr. Truman wrote:

"Unless nations can sell each other the products of their agriculture, labor and industry to the greatest possible extent, there can be no sure foundation for economic peace."

President Asks Doom Of '48 Trade Act

Washington, Jan. 24 (AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to repeal the 1948 Republican sponsored Tariff Act and to restore the old reciprocal-trade law without "hampering restrictions."

The President made the request in a letter to Chairman Doughton (D., N.C.) of the House Ways and Means Committee at the opening of hearings on the reciprocal trade program.

Mr. Truman said the "hampering restrictions" put in the reciprocal-trade law by the Eightieth Congress threatens the effectiveness of world-trade negotiations set for this spring.

President Truman complained about those changes during the campaign. He had asked for a three-year extension of the old law.

Under that law, the State Department could negotiate tariff cuts as much as 50 per cent when other countries agreed to make reductions favorable to American trade.

Importance Stressed

In his letter today, made public by Doughton, the President said:

"Negotiations will begin in April to extend the benefits of the general agreements on tariffs and trade to thirteen countries that did not participate in the original agreement.

"This general agreement, concluded in the autumn of 1947, is the most important and comprehensive trade agreement in history. Under it, the United States and 22 other nations agreed to reduce their tariffs, or to maintain low tariffs or none at all, on a wide variety of products.

"The products affected accounted in 1938 for over half of the world's international trade. . . .

Vital To Trade

"Unless nations can sell each other the products of their agriculture, labor and industry to the greatest possible extent, there can be no sure foundation for economic peace.

"Unless world trade is increased, the tremendous investment we are making toward economic recovery will be largely wasted. Unless trade restrictions are relaxed, the lot of the private trader in international trade will become increasingly difficult.

The President concluded: "the trade agreements program has proved itself to the people of the United States. It has just earned their overwhelming support. We must be in a position to press that program with vigor."

Hiss Case Cited

Soon after the hearings began with reading of the President's letter, Representative Reed (R., N.Y.) brought in the name of Alger Hiss.

Reed said Hiss testified last year before a Senate committee in support of the Administration's trade program and "sent out propaganda" for it.

Then Reed asked:

"When a man has a record of peddling information to enemies, doesn't that give the people the right to fear this program?"

During hearings by the House Un-American Activities Committee, Hiss was named by Whittaker Chambers as a Government official who turned secret papers over to a Red spy ring before the war. Hiss, no longer with the Government, has been indicted on a charge that he lied under oath when denying he let the Communists have such papers.

Requires Review

The GOP bill extended the Trade Act for only one year, and included a provision that the Federal Tariff Commission must review every tariff change proposed in trade pacts with foreign countries.

Moreover, it provided that the President must send a detailed explanation to Congress if he reduced a tariff rate after the commission said the reduction would injure the national economy.

The President's proposal is expected to run into stout resistance from GOP lawmakers. But the President apparently has sufficient backing to get the kind of trade act he wants.

Willard L. Thorp, Assistant Secretary of State for economic affairs, gave the committee the Administration's detailed views on the matter.

'Ducking', Frostbite Seen As Top Alaska Casualties

RALPH DIGHTON

En Route to Kodiak Island, Jan. 24 (AP)—Medical officers are prepared to handle casualties running as high as one out of every ten of the 18,000 sailors and Marines in "Operation Icicle."

"We don't actually expect casualties to run that high" said Dr. A. J. Fidler, Coronado, Cal., medical officer of the task force which will attack Kodiak. "But we are prepared for any eventuality.

Fear Frostbite, Cold

"By casualty we mean any injury or ailment, however slight.

"Leaving out fatalities, because we don't expect any, most severe casualties will come from frostbite and immersion. These classifications probably will run about one tenth of the total casualty figures in this group.

"Approximately five per cent will become exposure casualties," he said. "Another five or six per cent will suffer upper respiratory infections ranging anywhere from colds to pneumonia. Fractures, sprains, bruises and miscellaneous ailments will account for another two per cent.

Try New Treatments

"Allowing for some duplication where exposure leads to respiratory infection, we can arrive at a total figure of ten to eleven per cent."

Two main types of exposure will be immersion—such as the ducking men get when a boat is upset—and frostbite. Two comparatively new methods of treatment have been developed.

Immersion victims will be dunked in tubs containing water heated to 110 to 120 degrees. If they are unconscious, the temperature will be 120 degrees.

If they are conscious, the temperature will be lowered to 110 degrees.

Heretofore, immersion cases have been revived gradually in warm blankets. In frostbite, a drug known as heparin will be given intravenously. This prevents blood from clotting, which is a major factor in gangrene resulting from frostbite.

THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE KNOWN TO BE EXERTING HEAVY PRESSURE ON THE ARAB GOVERNMENTS BINGING ISRAEL. THE THREE BIG WESTERN POWERS NOW ARE SAID TO FEEL THAT THE PALESTINE WAR IS OVER; THAT THERE IS NOTHING FURTHER TO BE GAINED BY EITHER SIDE. THEY WANT STABILITY AND PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF TRANS-JORDAN, THE ARAB COUNTRIES DO NOT APPEAR LIKELY TO ACCEPT A CHANGE IN ISRAEL'S WORLD STATUS WITHOUT AN OUTCRY. BUT THEIR ECONOMIC LINKS WITH THE WESTERN WORLD MAY FORCE THEM TO DO SO. LONDON-PALESTINE-SINGLETON ~~XXX~~ BRITAIN

ISRAEL'S BID FOR U.N. MEMBERSHIP WAS TURNED DOWN LAST YEAR BY THE 11-NATION SECURITY COUNCIL. NOW THERE IS A CHANCE THAT THE JEWISH STATE MAY BE ADMITTED INTO THE U.N. LESS THAN A YEAR AFTER IT WAS PROCLAIMED IN TEL AVIV LAST MAY 14.

A FRENCH FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN IN PARIS SAID ISRAEL HAD ACCEPTED THE CONDITIONS FRANCE HAD ASKED IN RETURN FOR RECOGNITION.

HE WOULD NOT SPECIFY WHAT THE CONDITIONS WERE, BUT IT HAD BEEN AUTHORITATIVELY STATED THAT FRANCE WAS DEMANDING COMPENSATION FOR DAMAGE TO RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL BUILDINGS IN THE PALESTINE FIGHTING.

ISRAEL WAS REPORTED TO BE BALKING, HOWEVER, AT A DEMAND FOR SPECIAL RIGHTS FOR THOSE INSTITUTIONS.

MAURICE FISCHER, ISRAELI REPRESENTATIVE IN PARIS, SAID FRANCE'S RECOGNITION "WILL CONTRIBUTE IN A GREAT MEASURE TO HASTENING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A DEFINITIVE PEACE."

THE SUBJECT OF PALESTINE BOBBED UP AGAIN DURING TODAY'S QUESTION PERIOD IN THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LABORITE RAYMOND BLACKBURN DEMANDED TO KNOW WHETHER SPITFIRE FIGHTERS USED BY ISRAEL IN SHOOTING DOWN FIVE BRITISH PLANES NEAR THE PALESTINE-EGYPTIAN BORDER JAN.7 HAD BEEN SUPPLIED BY CZECHOSLOVAKIA "ON CAPITAL SUBSCRIBED BY AMERICANS JEWS."

SUPPLY MINISTER G.R.STRAUSS SAID HE COULD CONFIRM NOTHING OF THE SORT.

RESPONSIBLE SOURCES SAID ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE MOVE PROBABLY WOULD FOLLOW QUICKLY ISRAEL'S ELECTIONS TOMORROW. IT WAS POSSIBLE, HOWEVER THE CABINET WOULD ARRANGE AN EARLIER ANNOUNCEMENT.

IN ANY EVENT, IT WAS EXPECTED THE ANNOUNCEMENT WOULD COME BEFORE WEDNESDAY'S PALESTINE POLICY DEBATE IN COMMONS WHERE BEVIN FACES SHARP CRITICISM FROM MEMBERS OF HIS OWN LABOR PARTY AS WELL FROM CONSERVATIVES. LONDON (PALESTINE)-~~XXX~~ POLICIES.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID DE FACTO RECOGNITION -- ACKNOLEDGMENT OF THE EXISTENCE OF THE JEWISH STATE -- ALREADY HAS BEEN DECIDED UPON.

SEVERAL FACTORS COULD BE INVOLVED IN THE APPARENT UNCERTAINTY OVER THE TIMING OF THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY BEVIN MIGHT WANT SOME DEFINITE DEVELOPMENT IN ISRAEL'S AFFAIRS -- SUCH AS THE ELECTIONS -- AS A PEG UPON WHICH TO PIN THE ANNOUNCEMENT.

ANOTHER REASON MIGHT BE COMPLETION OF ARRANGEMENTS WITH THE UNITED STATES FOR ITS EXPECTED RECOGNITION OF TRANS-JORDAN. THE AMERICAN ANNOUNCEMENT IS EXPECTED AT THE SAME TIME OR SOON AFTER THE BRITISH MOVE ON ISRAEL.

BRITISH SOURCES SPECULATED THAT THE IMMEDIATE EFFECTS OF THE BRITISH ACTION MIGHT BE:

1. AN EASING OF TENSION IN THE MIDDLE EAST.

2. AID MODERATE ELEMENTS WITHIN ISRAEL IN TOMORROW'S ELECTIONS FOR THE FIRST FULL-FLEDGED GOVERNMENT OF THE EIGHT-MONTH-OLD JEWISH STATE.

3. TAKE SOME OF THE HEAT OFF BEVIN WHEN HE GOES BEFORE COMMONS WEDNESDAY.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD NORMANDY PLAN (110)

HEIDELBERG, GERMANY, JAN.24-(AP)-LT.GEN.CLARENCE R.HUEBNER, CHIEF OF AMERICAN GROUND FORCES IN EUROPE, SAID TODAY THE GERMANS CAPTURED THE ALLIES' NORMANDY INVASION PLAN IN 1944 BUT MUFFED THEIR OPPORTUNITY BY NOT GETTING IT TO THEIR COMMANDER IN TIME.

HUEBNER RELATED THE INCIDENT HERE TO STRESS THE IMPORTANCE OF SPEEDY COMMUNICATIONS IN COMBAT.

(IN WASHINGTON, GEN.OMAR N.BRADLEY, U.S. ARMY CHIEF-OF-STAFF, SAID HE RECALLED NO SUCH INCIDENT. BRADLEY, WHO COMMANDED THE U.S. FIRST ARMY WHICH PUT ELEMENTS ASHORE IN FRANCE AT OMAHA AND UTAH BEACHES, SAID HE KNEW OF NO IMPORTANT PAPERS CAPTURED EARLY IN THE INVASION. ANOTHER ARMY OFFICER SAID ONLY A FEW COPIES OF THE ENTIRE INVASION PLAN WERE MADE AND THAT THEY WERE NUMBERED AND CAREFULLY GUARDED.)

EXPLAINING THAT THE PLAN HAD BEEN CAPTURED ON THE OMAHA BEACHHEAD IN THE INITIAL PHASE OF THE NORMANDY LANDING, HUEBNER SAID: "HAD THAT PAPER BEEN RECOGNIZED FOR ITS TRUE VALUE THE ENTIRE OUTCOME OF THE WAR MIGHT HAVE BEEN DIFFERENT."

AS IT WAS, HE CONTINUED, THE GERMANS SENT THE DOCUMENT THROUGH NORMAL CHANNELS AND IT DID NOT REACH FIELD MARSHAL GERD VON RUNDSTEDT UNTIL 30 DAYS LATER. BY THAT TIME THE ALLIES HAD A FIRM FOOTHOLD ON THE FRENCH COAST AND THE DOCUMENT WAS VIRTUALLY VALUELESS TO THE GERMANS.

HUEBNER SPOKE AT A CRITIQUE CONDUCTED BY OFFICERS WHO PARTICIPATED LAST WEEK IN AMERICAN WINTER MANEUVERS IN GERMANY. HE SAID THE MANEUVERS ALONG THE RHINE RIVER PROVED THAT AMERICAN TROOPS IN GERMANY WERE FIT AND ABLE TO FUNCTION UNDER WINTER CONDITIONS.

IT WAS CONCEDED THAT COMMUNICATIONS TROUBLES DEVELOPED IN THE FIRST TWO DAYS OF THE MANEUVERS. THESE WERE DUE IN PART, OFFICERS SAID, TO NEW INEXPERIENCED PERSONNEL AND WORN EQUIPMENT. PLANS WERE ANNOUNCED FOR INTENSIFIED COMMUNICATIONS TRAINING AND THE REPLACEMENT OF EQUIPMENT, WHERE NEEDED.

SPRING MANEUVERS WILL BE HELD IN GERMANY IN APRIL, HUEBNER ANNOUNCED. THE EXACT DATE AND PLACE WILL BE KEPT SECRET TO PREVENT COMMANDERS FROM MAKING ADVANCE PLANS AND RECONNAISSANCE.

MOSCOW, TUESDAY, JAN. 25-(AP)-THE SOVIET UNION ANNOUNCED TODAY SHE AND FIVE OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS HAVE SET UP A COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC MUTUAL ASSISTANCE.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE SIX NATIONS HAD "ESTABLISHED" THAT THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND CERTAIN OTHER WESTERN NATIONS WERE "IN ESSENCE BOYCOTTING TRADE RELATIONS WITH THE COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLES DEMOCRACIES AND THE U.S.S.R."

"CONSIDERING THESE CIRCUMSTANCES," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, THE SIX NATIONS MET AND "DISCUSSED THE QUESTION OF ORGANIZATION OF BROADER ECONOMIC COOPERATION OF THE COUNTRIES OF THE PEOPLES DEMOCRACIES AND THE U.S.S.R."

THE SIX NATIONS ARE RUSSIA, BULGARIA, HUNGARY, POLAND, ROMANIA AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE DOOR WAS LEFT OPEN FOR OTHER COUNTRIES TO JOIN THE GROUP.

THE COUNCIL WAS CREATED IN MOSCOW THIS MONTH AT A MEETING OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIX NATIONS. THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT STATE SPECIFICALLY WHEN THE MEETING WAS HELD.

THE SIX COUNTRIES NAMED ALREADY HAVE EXTENSIVE TRADE RELATIONS WITH ONE ANOTHER AND DURING RECENT WEEKS THERE HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE STEPPING UP OF TRADE BETWEEN THE SOVIET AND THE OTHER FIVE.

THE INVITATION TO OTHER COUNTRIES TO JOIN THE GROUP WAS CONSIDERED OF SPECIAL INTEREST.

"THE CONFERENCE RECOGNIZED," THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID, "THAT THE COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC MUTUAL ASSISTANCE IS AN OPEN ORGANIZATION WHICH OTHER COUNTRIES OF EUROPE MAY ENTER -- COUNTRIES WHICH SHARE THE PRINCIPLES OF THE COUNCIL OF ECONOMIC MUTUAL ASSISTANCE AND WHICH WISH TO PARTICIPATE IN BROAD ECONOMIC COOPERATION WITH THE ABOVE MENTIONED NATIONS."

YUGOSLAVIA AND ALBANIA WERE NOT AMONG THE COUNTRIES WHOSE REPRESENTATIVES MET IN MOSCOW TO SET UP THE COUNCIL.

FINLAND, WHICH DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE MARSHALL PLAN, OBVIOUSLY CAN APPLY FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE NEW GROUP.

PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 24-(AP)-POLICE INTIMATED TODAY NEW ARRESTS MIGHT FOLLOW IN THEIR INVESTIGATION OF 60 SLOVAKS THEY HAVE ACCUSED OF WORKING WITH AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE UNITS.

AUTHORITIES YESTERDAY MADE PUBLIC LETTERS THEY SAID WERE SEIZED FROM THE ALLEGED SPY RING.

THE POLICE SAID THAT THE 60 PERSONS ARRESTED IN SLOVAKIA AND CHARGED WITH PLOTTING AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT ARE ONLY THE FIRST TO BE ROUNDED UP.

TEN STATE OFFICIALS, 11 UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, A CATHOLIC PRIEST AND THREE NUNS WERE AMONG THOSE ACCUSED. POLICE SAID THEY UNCOVERED SPYING ORDERS, A RADIO TRANSMITTER AND OTHER MATERIAL, IN ADDITION TO THE LETTERS.

(THE POLICE ACTION IN SLOVAKIA, A POLITICAL DIVISION OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA, APPARENTLY IS A CONTINUANCE OF COMMUNIST HOUSE-CLEANING TACTICS. A LITTLE MORE THAN A WEEK AGO SEVEN ANTI-GOVERNMENT LEADERS WERE SENTENCED TO PRISON FOR THEIR ACTIVITIES.)

THE LETTERS POLICE SAID, PROVED THAT THE ARRESTED GROUP WAS WORKING WITH AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE UNITS IN AUSTRIA AND WERE WRITTEN BY JOSEF VICAN, A SLOVAK WHO FLEW TO AUSTRIA.

THEY IDENTIFIED VICAN AS A FORMER SLOVAK GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WHEN HITLER MADE SLOVAKIA AN INDEPENDENT STATE.

VICAN WAS SAID TO HAVE WRITTEN IN ONE LETTER: "I AM IN CONNECTION WITH AN INTELLIGENCE DEPARTMENT AND WITH AN OPERATION DEPARTMENT OF THE AMERICAN ARMY."

ANOTHER LETTER QUOTES HIM AS SAYING: "THE AMERICANS ARE STARTING TO PREPARE FOR WAR VERY SERIOUSLY." IN ANOTHER LETTER TO A CATHOLIC ACTION GROUP HE IS SAID TO HAVE WRITTEN: "THE AMERICANS WILL HAVE SLOVAKIA AS THEIR CENTRAL EUROPEAN STRONGHOLD, FROM WHICH THEY COULD INTERFERE EFFICIENTLY WITH MOVEMENTS OF THE SOVIET."

MEANWHILE, ALOIS PETR, MINISTER OF TRANSPORT AND A LEADER OF THE CZECH PEOPLE'S PARTY, TOLD A DISTRICT MEETING OF THE PARTY THAT IT WILL WORK WITH THE GOVERNMENT "AND NOT IN THE INTERESTS OF THE WESTERN COUNTRIES OR THE VATICAN."

THE PARTY IS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NATIONAL FRONT COALITION. IT CALLED ITSELF THE CATHOLIC PEOPLE'S PARTY BEFORE THE COMMUNISTS TOOK OVER POWER IN A REVOLUTION LAST FEBRUARY.

HE ADDRESSED A PART OF HIS SPEECH TO THE ISRAELI SOLDIERS IN THE FIELD, SAYING THAT "EVEN IF YOU DIFFER IN YOUR VIEWS AND CAST YOUR VOTES FOR DIFFERENT PARTIES, YOUR OVERRIDING LOYALTY TO MILITARY DISCIPLINE WILL NOT THEREBY BE DISTURBED, NOR THE COMRADESHIP IN ARMS WHICH HAS DEVELOPED IN ISRAEL'S DEFENSE ARMY BE WEAKENED OR IMPAIRED."

AT WHAT PRICE TO MAKE PEACE WITH THE ARABS IS ANOTHER BIG ISSUE. SO IS THE QUESTION OF WHETHER TO WELCOME BACK ARABS WHO FLED THEIR HOMES DURING FIGHTING IN THE HOLY LAND. ALL PARTIES AGREE THAT FRIENDSHIP WITH THE ARABS IS NECESSARY, BUT THEY DISAGREE ON HOW TO GET IT.

SEVERAL PARTIES HAVE MADE AN ISSUE OF THE FUTURE OF JERUSALEM. THE UNITED NATIONS PARTITION PLAN CALLS FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF JERUSALEM AS AN INTERNATIONAL CITY. MOST JEWS WANT AT LEAST THE JEWISH SECTION TO BE INCORPORATED INTO ISRAEL. MANY OF THEM DEMAND THAT THE CAPITAL THEN BE SHIFTED FROM TEL AVIV TO JERUSALEM.

THE ELECTIONS COMMITTEE SAID IT WILL BE A SIMPLE TASK TO COUNT THE CIVILIAN VOTES, BUT IT WILL TAKE LONGER TO COUNT THE SOLDIER VOTE. FOR SECURITY REASONS, THE COMMITTEE SAID, THE CIVIL AND MILITARY VOTES WILL NOT BE ANNOUNCED SEPARATELY.

IT SEEMED LIKELY THAT JEWISH CANDIDATES FOR SOME OF THE 120 CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY SEATS AT STAKE WILL DRAW SUPPORT FROM ARAB VOTERS.

THE JEWISH COMMUNIST PARTY AND TWO LABOR PARTIES, MAPAI AND MAPAM, BOTH EXPECT TO PICK UP SOME ARAB SUPPORT. IN FACT, SOME JEWISH PARTIES INCLUDED ARAB CANDIDATES IN THEIR LISTS.

THREE PURELY ARAB ELECTION LISTS ARE IN THE RUNNING. TWO ARE WORKERS GROUPS HEADED BY MOSLEM LABOR LEADERS. THE THIRD IS THE ARAB DEMOCRATIC BLOC OF NAZARETH, LED BY A CHRISTIAN ARAB LAWYER.

WOMEN WILL BE ALLOWED TO VOTE. AMONG THE JEWISH POPULATION, WOMEN VOTERS MAY BE AS NUMEROUS AS THE MEN, BUT PROBABLY FEW ARAB WOMEN WILL VISIT THE POLLS BECAUSE OF ANCIENT TRADITIONS.

NIGHT LEAD U.N. COMMISSION (200)

JERUSALEM, JAN.24-(AP)-ARAB LEGIONNAIRES AND ISRAELI MILITARY POLICE WILL MOUNT GUARD TOGETHER AT THE FORMER GOVERNMENT HOUSE, THE HEADQUARTERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS CONCILIATION COMMISSION.

SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION, WHICH IS CHARGED WITH BRINGING PEACE TO THE HOLY LAND, ARRIVED THIS AFTERNOON. THE GROUP IS NOT EXPECTED TO START WORK UNTIL THE AMERICAN DELEGATION HEAD ARRIVES.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR A GUARD COMPOSED OF A SQUAD EACH OF THE ARAB LEGION AND ISRAELI POLICE WERE MADE UNDER AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN COL. ABDULLAH EL TEL OF THE LEGION, AND MOSHE DAYAN OF THE ISRAELI FORCES IN JERUSALEM. THE LEGION SQUAD ARRIVED LATE, SO ONLY THE ISRAELIS WERE ON HAND WHEN THE FIRST COMMISSIONERS DROVE UP TODAY.

THE ISRAELI GUARDS PRESENTED ARMS AS THE BLUE UNITED NATIONS FLAG WAS RAISED OVER THE FORMER HEADQUARTERS OF THE BRITISH MANDATORY GOVERNMENT.

THE ARAB LEGION SQUAD MARCHED UP A HALF HOUR LATER WHEN THE COMMISSIONERS WERE ALREADY INSIDE, BUT PABLO DE AZCARATE Y FLORES, COMMISSION SECRETARY, CAME OUT TO TAKE THEIR SALUTE AND SEE THEM PHOTOGRAPHED.

A LEGION SERGEANT SAID HE HAD ORDERS NOT TO HAVE HIS MEN PHOTOGRAPHED TOGETHER WITH ISRAELI TROOPS, BUT CAMERAMEN NEVERTHELESS GOT SHOTS OF THE LEGIONNAIRES IN THEIR REDCHECKED ARAB HEADDRESS MARCHING PAST ISRAELI SOLDIERS.

THE ARAB AND ISRAELI SQUADS HAVE THE SAME ARMS--10 MEN WITH FIVE RIFLES AND FIVE STEN GUNS.

NICOSIA, CYPRUS, JAN.24-(AP)-JEWISH ESCAPEES FROM BRITISH DETENTION CAMPS ON CYPRUS APPLIED FOR PERMISSION TO COME BACK INSIDE THE BARRIERS AS BRITAIN TODAY BEGAN TRANSFERRING CAMP INMATES TO ISRAEL.

BRITISH MILITARY AUTHORITIES SAID AN UNSPECIFIED NUMBER OF JEWS WHO ESCAPED IN PAST MONTHS WERE PERMITTED TO RE-ENTER AT THEIR OWN REQUEST SO THEY COULD QUALIFY FOR TRANSPORT TO ISRAEL.

AUTHORITIES SAID THOSE WHO RETURNED WILL BE SENT TO ISRAEL IN DUE COURSE.

THE FIRST BATCH OF 2,000 JEWS, OF THE APPROXIMATELY 10,000 HELD, WERE EMBARKED IN FAMAGUSTA HARBOR ABOARD THE ISRAEL STEAMER GALILA, SCHEDULED TO SAIL TODAY FOR HAIFA.

IT IS EXPECTED THE CAMPS WILL BE CLEARED WITHIN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

INMATES WERE CAPTURED BY THE BRITISH IN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS TO RUN A BRITISH BLOCKADE SET UP TO PREVENT WHAT THE BRITISH CALLED ILLEGAL IMMIGRATION INTO ISRAEL.

FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN TOLD THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST WEEK THE JEWS HELD ON CYPRUS WOULD BE RELEASED WHEN TRANSPORTATION BECAME AVAILABLE.

SECOND LEAD PALESTINE (120)

WASHINGTON, JAN.24-(AP)-SIR OLIVER FRANKS, BRITISH AMBASSADOR CONFERRED ON THE PALESTINE ISSUE TODAY WITH SECRETARY ACHESON AT THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

HE TOLD REPORTERS HE HAS NOT BEEN INFORMED THAT THE BRITISH CABINET VOTED TO GRANT DIPLOMATIC RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL AS REPORTED FROM LONDON. HE ADDED, "I AM JUST AS ANXIOUS AS YOU" TO GET INFORMATION.

FRANKS' TALK WITH ACHESON LASTED ABOUT HALF AN HOUR. THE AMBASSADOR DECLINED TO SAY WHAT IT COVERED EXCEPT TO SAY IT DEALT WITH PALESTINE.

LONDON ACCOUNTS OF THE BRITISH CABINET'S REPORTED ACTION ON ISRAEL SAID AMERICAN RECOGNITION OF THE ARAB STATE OF TRANS-JORDAN IS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW.

ASKED ABOUT THAT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT TOLD REPORTERS THE RECOGNITION OF TRANS JORDAN IS "STILL WHERE IT WAS"--UNDER CONSIDERATION.

-PRESIDENT TRUMAN FORMALLY ANNOUNCED TODAY THE APPOINTMENT OF MARK ETHRIDGE, LOUISVILLE PUBLISHER, TO THE UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION.

ETHRIDGE ARRIVED HERE YESTERDAY FROM LOUISVILLE. HE SAID HE HAD ACCEPTED THE APPOINTMENT AND PLANS TO LEAVE FOR PALESTINE IN ABOUT 10 DAYS FOR AN INDEFINITE STAY.

ETHRIDGE CONFERRED WITH SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON AND OTHER STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS TODAY ABOUT THE ASSIGNMENT.

IT WAS LEARNED SATURDAY NIGHT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD ASKED ETHRIDGE TO BECOME AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE ON THE U.N. GROUP. THE INVITATION WAS EXTENDED BY ACHESON AS ONE OF HIS FIRST OFFICIAL ACTIONS; AUTHORITIES HERE SAID ETHRIDGE WAS REQUESTED TO TAKE THE ASSIGNMENT AS A MATTER OF EXTREME URGENCY.

ETHRIDGE FORMERLY SERVED AS AMERICAN MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS BALKAN COMMISSION WHICH INVESTIGATED HELP GIVEN GREEK COMMUNIST TROOP BY YUGOSLAVIA, ALBANIA AND BULGARIA.

THE PUBLISHER OF THE LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL AND TIMES WOULD SUCCEED JOSEPH B.KEENAN ON THE COMMISSION. THE BODY WAS CREATED BY THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN PARIS EARLY LAST MONTH.

THE OTHER TWO MEMBERS OF THE U.N. PALESTINE COMMISSION ARE FRANCE AND TURKEY. THE COMMISSION'S TASK IS TO TAKE OVER THE PEACE-MAKING EFFORTS NOW BEING CONDUCTED BY THE U.N. ACTING MEDIATOR, DR.RALPH BUNCHE.

BY MARC PURDUE

NEW DELHI, INDIA, JAN. 24-(AP)-THE ASIAN CONFERENCE SPOKE SOFTLY BUT FIRMLY TO THE UNITED NATIONS YESTERDAY, DEMANDING SWIFT ACTION TO FREE THE EAST INDIES FROM DUTCH COLONIAL RULE.

OBSERVERS SAID THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CONFERENCE -- ATTENDED BY 15 NATIONS FROM 4 OTHERS -- WENT FAR BEYOND THE IMMEDIATE PROBLEM OF INDONESIA. IT MARKED THE BIRTH OF AN ASIAN BLOC REPRESENTING MORE THAN HALF THE WORLD'S POPULATION AND A THIRD OF THE U.N. MEMBERSHIP.

IT ALSO MARKED THE EMERGENCE OF INDIA, WHICH CALLED THE CONFERENCE, IN THE ROLE OF LEADER OF THE EAST, REPLACING KNOCKED-OUT JAPAN.

PRIME MINISTER JAWAHARLAL NEHRU, THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENT, SENT THE RESOLUTIONS TO LAKE SUCCESS WITH A NOTE SAYING ACTION WAS OVERDUE.

HERE ARE THE CONFERENCE'S RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM JOGJAKARTA, INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN CAPITAL, AND WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM REMAINING REPUBLICAN TERRITORY BY MARCH 15.

2. IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT LEADERS AND ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS IN INDONESIA.

3. RESTORATION TO THE REPUBLIC BY MARCH 15 OF ALL AREAS OF JAVA, SUMATRA AND MADOERA HELD BY THE REPUBLIC BEFORE THE DUTCH-TERMED "POLICE ACTION" BEGAN LAST MONTH.

4. ELECTION OF AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT COMPOSED OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND REPRESENTATIVES OF OTHER INDONESIAN TERRITORIES BY MARCH 15, WITH TRANSFER OF COMPLETE SOVEREIGNTY BY NEXT JAN. 1; THE INTERIM GOVERNMENT TO CONTROL ITS OWN ARMED FORCES.

INDONESIANS WANTED IMMEDIATE ASSISTANCE FROM THE ASIAN COUNTRIES IN THE FORM OF ARMS AND AMMUNITION FOR THE GUERRILLA FORCES NOW FIGHTING THE DUTCH. BUT THEIR LEADERS WERE NOT TOO DISPLEASED WITH THE CONFERENCE RESULT.

D.SOEMITRO, INDONESIAN SPOKESMAN, SAID THE JOINT RESOLUTION PENDING IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL "IS NOW MEANINGLESS"--OVERSHADOWED BY WHAT THE ASIAN COUNTRIES DID HERE.

PRIME MINISTER WILLIAM DREES, BACK IN HOLLAND AFTER A TWO-WEEK STUDY OF AFFAIRS IN INDONESIA, SAID HE EXPECTED INDONESIA WOULD HAVE AN INTERIM GOVERNMENT SOON. HE SAID THE TROUBLE CAN BE SETTLED "WHEN THE WORLD GIVES US A MOMENT'S REST."

JT 413AES

FIRST LEAD U.N.--INDONESIA (230)

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 24-(AP)-THA UNITED NATIONS GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE EXPRESSED GRAVE CONCERN TODAY OVER WHAT IT CALLED GROWING DISORDERS IN INDONESIA.

THE COMMITTEE SAID IN A SPECIAL REPORT TO THE SECURITY COUNCIL THAT GUERRILLA ACTIVITY HAD GROWN TO SUCH AN EXTENT THAT "IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THE NETHERLANDS FORCES TO CEASE FIRE, LET ALONE CEASE HOSTILITIES."

THE REPORT EXPRESSED THE BELIEF IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE TO GET COMPLIANCE WITH ANY SECURITY COUNCIL CEASE FIRE ORDER UNTIL SOME SORT OF GOVERNMENT IS ESTABLISHED FOR THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

"THERE IS NO AUTHORITY ON THE REPUBLICAN SIDE TO IMPLEMENT THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S RESOLUTION DIRECTING BOTH PARTIES TO CEASE HOSTILITIES," THE COMMITTEE SAID.

THE REPORT SAID THE REPUBLICAN GUERRILLAS WERE CARRYING OUT A SYSTEMATIC SCORCHED EARTH POLICY, WHICH HAS RESULTED IN THE FOLLOWING SITUATION:

1. "THE ESTABLISHMENT OF LAW AND ORDER HAS NOT YET BEEN IMPLEMENTED IN THE FORMER REPUBLICAN CONTROLLED TERRITORIES."

2. "IN MANY AREAS THE NETHERLANDS ARMY HAS NOT SUFFICIENT TROOPS ON THE GROUND TO COMBAT IMMEDIATELY THE TACTICS ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLIC."

3. "THE NETHERLANDS ARMY HAS NOT SUFFICIENT POLICE OR TROOPS TO ADEQUATELY PROTECT THE CIVIL POPULATION OF THE AREA."

4. "THE SITUATION IS NOT YET STABLE ENOUGH FOR THE INITIATION AT PRESENT OF A COMPLETELY AUTHORITATIVE CIVIL ADMINISTRATION."

MEANWHILE, A POSSIBILITY THAT THE INDONESIAN QUESTION WILL BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE NEXT U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY WAS SEEN FOLLOWING ACTION TAKEN BY THE ASIAN CONFERENCE.

THE GENERAL ATTITUDE OF PRO-INDONESIAN SPOKESMEN IN THE U.N. IS THAT IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL DOES NOT TAKE STRONG ACTION TO END THE DUTCH-INDONESIAN DISPUTE, AN EFFORT WILL BE MADE TO HAVE THE CASE DEBATED IN THE 58-NATION ASSEMBLY WHEN IT RECONVENES IN APRIL.

THE INDONESIAN CASE IS SCHEDULED TO BE DEBATED IN THE 11-NATION COUNCIL AT 3 P.M. (EST) TOMORROW WHEN DELEGATES RESUME CONSIDERATION OF A FOUR-POWER RESOLUTION SEEKING TO BRING PEACE TO THE FAR EASTERN REPUBLIC.

THIS PROPOSAL, SPONSORED BY THE U.S., CHINA, NORWAY AND CUBA, CALLS ON THE DUTCH AND INDONESIANS TO CEASE FIGHTING AT ONCE. IT ALSO DEMANDS IMMEDIATE FREEDOM FOR INTERNED INDONESIAN POLITICAL LEADERS AND SETS UP A TIME-TABLE FOR ESTABLISHING A UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1950.

THE ASIAN CONFERENCE, HELD IN NEW DELHI AND ATTENDED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF 19 NATIONS, DEMANDED "OVERDUE" ACTION BY THE U.N. TO END DUTCH RULE AND MILITARY ACTION IN INDONESIA.

A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE AMERICAN DELEGATION SAID THE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED IN NEW DELHI "STRENGTHENED THE HAND" OF THE COUNCIL FOR DEALING WITH THE CASE. THIS SOURCE SAID IT WAS SIGNIFICANT THAT THE ASIAN CONFERENCE HAD CHANNELLED ALL ITS EFFORT THROUGH THE U.N.

IT WAS BELIEVED THAT CERTAIN DELEGATIONS MIGHT WANT TO OFFER AMENDMENTS TO THE FOUR-POWER PROPOSAL AS A RESULT OF THE NEW DELHI DECISIONS. IT WAS POINTED OUT BY ONE DELEGATION SPOKESMAN, HOWEVER, THAT AMENDMENTS WOULD RUN THE RISK OF MAKING THE PROPOSAL UNPALATABLE AND THUS DRIVE AWAY COUNCIL VOTES.

CHARLES THAMBOE, ALTERNATE INDONESIAN DELEGATE TO THE U.N., SAID: "IF THE SECURITY COUNCIL DOES NOT RECOGNIZE DUTCH AGGRESSION AS AGGRESSION AND PRESCRIBE THE PROPER REMEDY, THEN THE MATTER MUST BE TAKEN UP IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY."

HE SAID IT WOULD BE IMPORTANT FOR NATIONS NOT REPRESENTED ON THE COUNCIL TO MAKE KNOWN THEIR FEELINGS IN THE CASE AND CHARGED THAT "UP UNTIL NOW THE INDONESIAN CASE HAS BEEN A POLITICAL FOOTBALL IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL."

"THE COUNCIL ALSO HAS SHOWN IT IS UNABLE TO EXACT OBEDIENCE FROM THE DUTCH," THAMBOE ADDED.

THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT HAS ASSAILED THE RESOLUTION NOW BEFORE THE COUNCIL. D.U. STIKKER, DUTCH FOREIGN MINISTER, SAID ITS ADOPTION WILL RESULT IN "CHAOS IN INDONESIA AND SUBSEQUENTLY CHAOS IN THE NETHERLANDS."

AT FRIDAY'S COUNCIL SESSION, THE U.S. DELEGATION URGED SUPPORT OF THE FOUR-POWER PROPOSAL BY BOTH INDONESIANS AND DUTCH AS A GOOD BASIS FOR PERMANENT PEACE IN INDONESIA. RUSSIA CHARGED THE PROPOSAL IS PRO-DUTCH AND FAILS TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE INTERESTS OF THE INDONESIANS.

SINGAPORE, JAN 24-(AP)-TWO AMERICAN YACHTSMEN HAVE BEEN HELD BY DUTCH AUTHORITIES AT A BATAVIA CONCENTRATION CAMP FOR TWO MONTHS ON SHORT RATIONS, A CANADIAN SAID HERE YESTERDAY.

THE CANADIAN, PHILIP STACEY OF REGINA, SASK., SAID HE WAS SAILING WITH THE AMERICANS WHEN THEIR YACHT, THE LUCKYBOOT, WAS PIKCED UP OFF DUTCH BORNEO AND ALL THREE WERE INTERNED BY THE DUTCH, ON SUSPICION OF SMUGGLING.

STACEY SAID HE WAS RELEASED JAN. 18 THROUGH INTERVENTION OF THE BRITISH CONSUL. HE SAID THE AMERICAN CONSUL WAS WORKING TO GET THE OTHERS RELEASED. THEY WERE IDENTIFIED AS ROBERT SMITH, 25, FORMER U.S. NAVY LIEUTENANT FROM PORTLAND, ORE., AND FOSTER PIENO, JR., SNOHOMISH, WASH.

STACEY SAID OTHER EUROPEANS ARE BEING HELD INCOMMUNICADO AT THE CAMP. HE DESCRIBED RATIONS THERE AS CONSISTING OF A BOWL OF RICE AND GRAVY AT NOON AND FOUR OUNCES OF BREAD AND JAM AT NIGHT. HE LOST 20 POUNDS IN CONFINEMENT, HE SAID.

TOKYO,JAN.24-(AP)-THE NETHERLANDS AMBASSADOR H. MOUW SAID IN A STATEMENT TODAY THAT HE WAS CONFIDENT THAT THE "UNDERSTANDING SHOWN RECENTLY BY THE 19 NATIONS WILL BRING DISCUSSIONS ON DETAILS TO A SUCCESSFUL END" IN THE FORMATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.

MOUW SAID THE SENTIMENT OF THE 19 ASIATIC NATIONS EXPRESSED AT THE NEW DELHI CONFERENCE "CONCUR IN GENERAL WITH THE ESTABLISHED POLICY OF THE NETHERLANDS GOVERNMENT."

HE DESCRIBED THIS POLICY AS:

1. ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INDONESIAN FEDERAL INTERIM GOVERNMENT IN FEBRUARY OF THIS YEAR.
2. THE HOLDING OF GENERAL ELECTIONS IN INDONESIA THIS FALL.
3. THE NETHERLANDS INTENTION TO TRANSFER ITS POWER TO THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA "BEFORE THE END OF 1950."

THE NEW DELHI CONFERENCE ASKED THE UNITED NATIONS SECURITY COUNCIL TO TRANSFER THE POWER OF THE NETHERLANDS BY JAN.1, 1950, AND TO LEAVE THE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE NETHERLANDS TO BE SETTLED BY NEGOTIATION.

MOUW MADE NO MENTION OF THE CONFERENCE REQUEST THAT THE DUTCH RETURN TO THE LINES THEY OCCUPIED ON DEC.18 AND TO RELEASE LEADERS OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

NANKING,TUESDAY,JAN 25-(AP)-USUALLY INFORMED DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID TODAY THERE "IS EVERY APPEARANCE" THAT THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS DECIDED TO ABANDON NANKING AND MOVE ITS MINISTRIES TO CANTON.

RED PATROLS ALREADY ARE ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE.

IN THE FEW INSTANCES THAT RESPONSIBLE CHINESE OFFICIALS COULD BE LOCATED, THEY DENIED THAT A FORMAL ORDER TO TRANSFER THE GOVERNMENT HAD YET BEEN ISSUED -- BUT THEY DECLINED TO SAY THIS FOR DIRECT ATTRIBUTION.

RUMORS SWEPT THE CITY THAT A DEFINITE ORDER CLOSED ALL OFFICES TODAY AND THAT ALL ARE GOING TO LEAVE FOR CANTON BY TOMORROW. NO CONFIRMATION WAS AVAILABLE.

RECORDS AND OFFICE PERSONNEL HAVE BEEN EVACUATING FOR MORE THAN TWO WEEKS.

WITH THE TENSE CITY AWAITING THE ARRIVAL OF THE MAIN BODY OF RED COLUMNS AT THE RIVER BARRIER TO NANKING, THERE WAS EVERY SIGN THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICES WERE PREPARED TO PULL OUT AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE.

ONLY A COOLIE ANSWERED THE TELEPHONE AT THE GOVERNMENT INFORMATION OFFICE. THE FOREIGN OFFICE SAID ALL RESPONSIBLE OFFICIALS WOULD BE "BACK SOON." ONE VICE MINISTER ASSERTED THEY WERE NOT PULLING OUT COMPLETELY.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAID THEY HAD HEARD NOTHING, BUT CONSIDERED THE GOVERNMENT EVACUATION ENTIRELY POSSIBLE. ONE SOURCE SAID THE EVACUATION CONFUSION REFLECTS THE STRUGGLE WITHIN THE GOVERNMENT -- WITH THE DIEHARDS INSISTING ON GOING, WHILE THOSE WHO THINK THEY HAVE A CHANCE TO SURVIVE IN FAVOR OF STAYING AND MAKING PEACE.

THE CITY WAS AWARE THERE IS NOTHING TO STOP THE REDS. NANKING IS ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE, ACROSS FROM PUKOW -- THE RAILHEAD FOR POINTS TO THE NORTH.

NANKING,JAN 24 (AP)-THE JOINT UNITED STATES MILITARY ADVISORY GROUPS IS QUITTING CHINA.

ESTABLISHED NEARLY THREE YEARS AGO TO TRAIN CHINA'S PEACETIME ARMED FORCES, IT FINALLY HAS BEEN THWARTED BY CIVIL WAR.

HE SAID THE MISSION HAD CEASED FUNCTIONING IN NANKING AND THAT ADVISORY TEAMS IN CANTON AND ON FORMOSA WOULD WITHDRAW TOMORROW.

ABOUT 475 OFFICERS AND MEN, THE LAST PERSONNEL IN CHINA, WILL SAIL FOR JAPAN THURSDAY OR FRIDAY, BARR SAID.

REAR ADM.FRANCIS P.OLD, DIRECTOR OF THE NAVAL PHASE OF THE MISSION, FLEW TO TSINGTAO SHORTLY BEFORE BARR LEFT. PART OF OLD'S STAFF WILL GET TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS WITH U.S.WESTERN PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS AT TSINGTAO.

CONCEIVED NEAR THE END OF THE JAPANESE WAR, THE ADVISORY GROUP WAS CREATED WHILE GENERAL MARSHALL WAS TRYING VAINLY TO MEDIATE THE CIVIL WAR IN 1946. IT GREW TO MORE THAN 1,000 OFFICERS AND MEN.

REQUIRED BY STRICT DIRECTIVES TO TAKE NO PART IN THE CIVIL WAR, THE ADVISORS LIMITED THEIR WORK TO COUNSELING THE DEFENSE MINISTRY ON MODERN ORGANIZATIONAL PROCEDURES.

IT WAS NOT UNTIL EARLY THIS YEAR THAT WASHINGTON PERMITTED THEM TO ASSIST CHINESE OFFICERS OPERATING A TRAINING CENTER FOR INFANTRY DIVISIONS ON FORMOSA.

THE GROUP STARTED WITH REMNANTS OF THE OLD CHINA THEATER COMMAND UNDER MAJ.GEN.ROBERT MCCLURE AS THE "NANKING HEADQUARTERS COMMAND."

IN 1946 IT BECAME THE U.S.MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IN CHINA," CALLED "MAGIC" FROM ITS INITIALS, AND HEADED BY MAJ.GEN.JOHN P.LUCAS. BARR SUCCEEDED LUCAS IN 1947.

ONLY LAST OCTOBER THE SEPARATE ARMY, NAVY AND AIR ADVISORS WERE MERGED INTO THE JOINT MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP (JUSMAG).

IT HAD SCARCELY COMPLETED ITS ORGANIZATIONAL CHARTS WHEN COMMUNIST VICTORIES RESULTED IN ORDERS TO SEND DEPENDENTS HOME.

THEN, AS CONDITIONS RAPIDLY DETERIORATED, THE ADVISORS THEMSELVES BEGAN TO RECEIVE ORDERS TO OTHER ASSIGNMENTS. NOW ALL ARE GOING.

PEIPING, TUESDAY, JAN. 25-(AP)-APPROVAL OF PEIPING'S FACE-SAVING SURRENDER TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS BY CHINA'S ACTING PRESIDENT, LI TSUNG-JEN, WAS DISCLOSED TODAY.

LI'S SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE TO PEIPING TOLD NEWSMEN THE ACTING PRESIDENT NOT ONLY HAD APPROVED THE LOCALIZED SETTLEMENT, BUT THOUGHT IT COULD WELL BE USED AS A MODEL FOR BRINGING PEACE TO OTHER AREAS.

(THIS WAS THE FIRST INDICATION THE PEIPING AGREEMENT, WHICH LIFTED A 40-DAY SIEGE OF THE ANCIENT CAPITAL, HAD LI TSUNG-JEN'S BLESSING. PEIPING SURRENDERED SATURDAY AFTER INTERMITTENT SHELLING.

(THERE WAS NO ELABORATION OF THE REMARKS BY LI TSUNG-JEN'S REPRESENTATIVE. THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT IN NANKING HAS APPOINTED A FIVE-MAN DELEGATION TO SUE FOR PHEACE WITH THE REDS, BUT THE COMMUNIST RADIO HAS CARRIED A STATEMENT REBUFFING THE EFFORT.)

POLITICAL SOURCES WHO PROFESS TO HAVE THEIR EARS CLOSE TO THE GROUND PREDICTED PEIPING WOULD BE THE SITE FOR NATIONAL PEACE TALKS.

THOSE SOURCES EXPRESSED BELIEF A POLITICAL CONSULTATION CONFERENCE WOULD BE CALLED LATER IN THE SPRING, AND THAT PEIPING WOULD BE PROCLAIMED CAPITAL OF CHINA.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID TODAY GEN. FU TSO-YI AND TWO OTHER NATIONALIST GENERALS WILL SERVE AS A JOINT COMMITTEE TO ADMINISTER THIS COMMUNIST-CAPTURED CITY.

FOUR COMMUNIST REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE HEADED BY GEN. YEH CHIENG-YING, CHIEF OF THE RED POLITICAL ORGANIZATION FOR THE PEIPING AREA.

FU IS THE GOVERNMENT'S NORTH CHINA COMMANDER. SERVING WITH HIM WILL BE HIS DEPUTY, GEN. TENG PAO-SHAN, WHO PLAYED AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN ACHIEVING A LOCALIZED PEACE SETTLEMENT, AND GEN. KUO TSUNG-SEN, CHIEF OF STAFF IN SHANSI PROVINCE.

THE APPOINTMENT OF GENERAL KUO WAS CONSIDERED SIGNIFICANT. IT WAS BELIEVED IT MIGHT BE A PRELUDE TO AN ATTEMPT TO APPLY THE PEIPING PEACE FORMULA TO TAIYUAN, SHANSI PROVINCE CAPITAL WHICH HAS BEEN UNDER RED SIEGE SINCE OCT. 4.

THE COMMUNISTS WANT TAIYUAN, AND ITS VALUABLE IINDUSTRIAL PLANTS, INTACT. THUS FAR, THEY HAVE NOT SHELLED A SINGLE PLANT ALTHOUGH ALL ARE WITHIN ARTILLERY RANGE.

MEANWHILE, CHINESE AIR FORCE PLANES -- NOW OPERATING FOR THE COMMUNISTS -- CONTINUE TO FLY IN AND OUT OF PEIPING.

OUTLAWED POLITICAL PARTIES ARE COMING OUT INTO THE OPEN.

PEIPING MEMBERS OF THE DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE AND THE K.M.T. REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE, HEADED BY MARSHAL LI CHI-SHEN, HAVE APPEALED TO THE JOINT COMMITTEE TO ORDER THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS.

MARSHAL LI IS REPORTED IN SHIHCHIACHUANG, COMMUNIST REGIONAL CAPITAL 170 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PEIPING, BUT HE PROBABLY WILL COME TO PEIPING SOON.

PEIPING, JAN. 24-(AP)-THE MARCH OF NATIONAL TROOPS FROM COMMUNIST CAPTURED PEIPING WAS COMPLETED TODAY.

A FEW TROOPS WERE LEFT TO GUARD RAILWAY STATIONS AND TO AUGMENT POLICE AS PROVIDED UNDER THE LOCAL PEACE AGREEMENT.

THE TROOPS ASSIGNED TO POLICE ARE BEING USED AS GUARDS FOR COMMUNIST OFFICIALS WHO ARE OPERATING SO QUIETLY IN THE BACKGROUND THEIR PRESENCE IS KNOWN TO VERY FEW.

CONTROL IS EXERCISED THROUGH A JOINT COMMITTEE CREATED UNDER THE PEACE AGREEMENT.

HSUE HTZE-CHEN, CHIEF OF STAFF OF RED GEN. YEH CHIEN-YING, IS ACTING AS THE SENIOR COMMUNIST REPRESENTATIVE IN THE ABSENCE OF HIS BOSS, WHO IS THE DIRECTOR OF THE RED MILITARY CONTROL COMMITTEE FOR PEIPING.

GEN. FU TSO-YI IS THE SENIOR NATIONALIST IN THIS AREA. HE IS KEEPING WELL IN THE BACKGROUND. THE NEWSPAPERS STILL CALL HIM THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF BUT OMIT FROM HIS TITLE THE PHRASE "OF BANDIT SUPPRESSION" -- A NATURAL OMISSION ALL THINGS CONSIDERED. THE NATIONALISTS ONCE REFERRED TO THE REDS ONLY AS "BANDITS."

THE JOINT COMMITTEE HAS BANNED FLIGHTS OF COMMERCIAL AIRPLANES IN AND OUT OF PEIPING AND HAS UNDER ITS DIRECTION A FEW PLANES BELONGING TO THE CHINESE AIRFORCE.

REGULAR TRAIN SERVICE BETWEEN PEIPING AND TIENTSIN IS EXPECTED TO BE RESUMED IN A FEW DAYS. IT IS NOW PRESUMABLY POSSIBLE TO TRAVEL FROM PEIPING TO HARBIN BY RAIL FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE DEFEAT OF JAPAN. THE RAIL LINE TO KALGAN HAS BEEN OPENED, TOO.

FOOD IS BEGINNING TO ARRIVE IN PEIPING FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE. FLOUR, A STAPLE IN NORTH CHINA, IS DROPPING IN PRICE.

BY STERLING F.GREEN

WASHINGTON,JAN.24-(AP)-FOREIGN AID CHIEF PAUL G.HOFFMAN SAID TODAY HE WILL CONSULT "VERY SOON", PERHAPS THIS WEEK, WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON ON THE FUTURE OF AMERICAN AID TO GRUMBLING CHINA.

HOFFMAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT HIS ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION WILL NOT ALTER ITS PRESENT $275,000,000 (M) CHINA PROGRAM UNLESS AND UNTIL THE STATE DEPARTMENT SETS A NEW POLICY COURSE.

THIS GOVERNMENT'S LINE OF ACTION, HE INDICATED, WILL DEPEND GREATLY ON THE OUTCOME OF SUCH PEACE NEGOTIATIONS AS MAY BE ARRANGED BETWEEN THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AND THE COMMUNISTS.

SEVERAL COURSES ARE OPEN, HE SAID, INCLUDING THESE THREE:

1. CONTINUE HELP TO THE NATIONALIST-CONTROLLED AREAS OF CHINA IF THE COUNTRY CONTINUES TO BE SPLIT BY COMMUNIST CONTROL IN THE NORTH AND NATIONALIST CONTROL IN THE SOUTH.

2. DEAL WITH A COMMUNIST OR PART-COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT, IF ONE IS SET UP, AND IF THE STATE DEPARTMENT SANCTIONS SUCH A PLAN.

3. CUT OFF AID ENTIRELY IF THE STATE DEPARTMENT ADOPTS THIS AS THE PROPER COURSE.

HOFFMAN SAID HE SUGGESTED AN EARLY CONSULTATION TO ACHESON WHEN THEY MET FRIDAY AT THE WHITE HOUSE, WHERE THE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE WAS SWORN INTO OFFICE. ACHESON AGREED THAT THE MEETING SHOULD BE HELD, HOFFMAN SAID.

ECA'S POLICY HAS BEEN TO CUT OFF HELP TO ANY GOVERNMENT WHICH GOES COMMUNIST; BUT THIS GAVE NO CLUE TO THE POLICY LINE IF A PART-COMMUNIST, PART-NATIONALIST "COALITION" SHOULD BE ERECTED.

IN CHINA'S CASE, THE FLOW OF GRAINS, COTTON, RICE, BREAD AND OIL WAS NOT BEEN CURTAILED EXCEPT AS THE FIGHTING HAS INTERFERED WITH SHIPMENTS. THE FLOW OF WHEAT AND FLOUR WAS CUT OFF WHEN PEIPING AND TIENTSIN WERE CUT OFF AND OTHER PORTS BECAME JAMMED WITH THE CARGOES.

EARLIER, ECA'S $70,000,000 (M) PROGRAM OF RAIL, HARBOR, POWER AND OTHER INDUSTRIAL RECONSTRUCTION WAS SUSPENDED PENDING A CLARIFICATION OF THE MILITARY SITUATION.

A DISCUSSION BETWEEN HOFFMAN AND SECRETARY ACHESON PRESUMABLY ALSO WOULD TOUCH ON THE QUESTION OF AID TO CHINA IN FISCAL 1950, STARTING ON JULY 1. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS PROPOSED A SPENDING FIGURE OF $355,000,000 (M) FOR CHINA, KOREA, GREECE AND TURKEY, WITHOUT FIXING THE SUM FOR ANY OF THOSE COUNTRIES.

MOST OF THE CURRENT $275,000,000 (M) APPROPRIATION HAS NOW BEEN COMMITTED. THE PROGRAM EXPIRES APRIL 2, MAKING IT PROBABLE THAT SOME "INTERIM" FUNDS WILL BE SOUGHT TO CONTINUE THE FLOW OF AID UNTIL MIDYEAR. THE $125,000,000 (M) GRANTED BY CONGRESS FOR MILITARY AID TO CHINA ALSO IS VIRTUALLY EXHAUSTED.

FOURTH LEAD JAPANESE ELECTION (120)

BY RUSSELL BRINES

TOKYO, MONDAY, JAN.24-(AP)-JAPANESE COMMUNISTS WON 26 SEATS IN THE DIET SUNDAY. INCOMPLETE RETURNS FROM THE NATIONAL ELECTION SHOWED TODAY. THIS IS A GAIN OF 22 SEATS IN THE 466-MEMBER LAW-MAKING BODY.

IN A SURGE OF STRENGTH GREATER THAN THEIR OWN PARTY LEADERS HAD EXPECTED, THE COMMUNISTS WON SEATS IN ALL SEVEN TOKYO DISTRICTS, PICKED UP THREE SEATS IN INDUSTRIAL OSAKA AND MADE HEAVY INROADS IN THE TRADITIONALLY CONSERVATIVE COUNTRYSIDE.

ATLANTA, JAN. 24-(AP)-JAPANESE ELECTION RESULTS INDICATE THE "COMMUNISTS ARE BECOMING A DECIDING FACTOR IN JAPANESE LIFE," LT. GEN.ROBERT L.EICHELBERGER SAID TODAY IN AN INTERVIEW.

THE FORMER COMMANDER OF THE EIGHTH ARMY IN JAPAN TOLD AN ATLANTA JOURNAL REPORTER THE ELECTION RETURNS SHOWING COMMUNIST GAINS "COULDN'T HAVE BEEN OTHERWISE."

"IT MUST BE REMEMBERED," HE SAID, "THAT IN OUR STARRY-EYED APPROACH AFTER THE WAR, ONE OF THE JOBS WE HAD TO DO WAS RELEASING POLITICAL PRISONERS.

"SINCE MOST OF THESE POLITICAL PRISONERS WERE COMMUNISTS, IT CERTAINLY SHOULD NOT BE SURPRISING THAT THEY ARE MOVING IN NOW."

BUT THE GENERAL, WHOSE PRINCIPAL JOB IN JAPAN WAS DISARMING THE MILITARY FORCES, WAS NOT GREATLY DISTURBED BY THE GENRAL JAPANESE VOTING TREND. HE CALLED IT "A BIT LEFT OF CENTER."

HE WAS ASKED ABOUT THE PROSPECTS OF U.S. OCCUPATION FORCES LEAVING JAPAN. HE REPLIED:

"WHEN I LEFT THERE (LAST SUMMER) I LEFT THEM APPROXIMATELY 18,000 PISTOLS--SOME OF WHICH WILL SHOOT. EVEN ONE CHINESE COMMUNIST DIVISION COULD CAPTURE JAPAN NOW.

"WE CERTAINLY CAN'T LEAVE THEM NOW."

THIS REPORT COVERS TANGANYIKA UNDER BRITISH ADMINISTRATION AND RUANDA-URUNDI UNDER BELGIAN ADMINISTRATION. ITS RECOMMENDATIONS OUTLINE A QUICKER TEMPO OF POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT FOR THE TWO EAST AFRICAN TERRITORIES, AS WELL AS HIGHER WAGES FOR LABOR AND EXPANDED EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES.

ALL TOLD, THE 12-NATION COUNCIL IS FACED WITH AN 11-POINT AGENDA. COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE: AUSTRALIA, BELGIUM, BRITAIN, CHINA, COSTA RICA, FRANCE, IRAQ, MEXICO, NEW ZEALAND, THE PHILIPPINES, RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.

THE COUNCIL ALSO HAS BEFORE IT FIVE REPORTS FROM THREE ADMINISTERING POWERS. THEY DEAL WITH THE BRITISH AND FRENCH CAMEROONS AND TOGOLAND, AND WESTERN SAMOA WHICH IS ADMINISTERED BY NEW ZEALAND.

IN TANGANYIKA AND RUANDA-URUNDI, THE U.N. MISSION CONCLUDED, AFRICAN LABOR RECEIVED TOO LITTLE IN BOTH TERRITORIES.

IT URGED THE ABOLITION OF PENAL SANCTIONS FOR BREACH OF LABOR CONTRACTS IN RUANDA-URUNDI. TWO MEMBERS OF THE MISSION THOUGHT BELGIUM, THE ADMINISTERING AUTHORITY, SHOULD CONSIDER ABOLISHING WHIPPING EXCEPT AS PART OF PRISON DISCIPLINE. TWO OTHER MEMBERS WANTED ALL FORMS OF WHIPPING ABOLISHED.

CHICAGO, JAN 25-(AP)-A FRENCH OFFICIAL WHO ONCE FAVORED BREAKING OFF THE STALEMATED DISCUSSIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SUGGESTED A NEW APPROACH TODAY FOR POSSIBLE INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT.

HE IS FRANCOIS DE ROSE, ACTING FRENCH REPRESENTATIVE ON THE UNAEC SINCE ITS INCEPTION. DE ROSE ORIGINALLY INTRODUCED THE RESOLUTION TO SUSPEND THE COMMISSION'S ACTIVITIES ON THE GROUND AN IMPASSE HAD BEEN REACHED WITH SOVIET RUSSIA. HOWEVER, THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY DIRECTED THE COMMISSION TO CONTINUE ITS WORK.

DE ROSE, IN AN ARTICLE IN THE BULLETIN OF THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, SAID:

"THE COMMISSION IN ITS PAST EXAMINATION OF THE PROBLEM, HAS MORE OR LESS WORKED UPWARDS FROM THE TECHNICAL EVIDENCE FURNISHED TO IT TO THE COMPLETE SET OF SAFEGUARDS X X X. THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES HAVE REJECTED THE RESULTS OF THIS PROCEDURE, AND OBJECTED TO THE PROCEDURE ITSELF. WOULD IT BE HELPFUL TO TRY THE ALTERNATIVE APPROACH OF WORKING DOWNWARDS FROM BROAD PRINCIPLES TO THE DETAILS OF APPLICATION?"

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS, FOR EXAMPLE, HAVE OBJECTED TO AIR SURVEYS. "WOULD IT NOT BE USEFUL TO ASK THEM WHETHER THEY AGREE THAT THERE CAN BE NO SECURITY IF NATIONS CAN PERMANENTLY SEAL OFF CERTAIN PARTS OF THEIR TERRITORIES FROM INTERNATIONAL INSPECTION?" HE ASKED.

THE WHOLE PHILOSOPHY OF THE MAJORITY PLAN, HE ADDED, COULD PROBABLY BE REDUCED TO MORE THAN FIVE OR SIX PRINCIPLES OF THIS KIND FOR WHICH THE EVIDENCE HAS BEEN GATHERED."

HOWEVER, HE SAID THE COMMISSION WOULD FACE "DIFFICULTIES" AND "RISKS" IN DISCUSSING PUBLICLY "THE DREADED POLITICAL PROBLEMS OF THE STAGES OF TRANSITION FROM NATIONAL TO INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AND OF THE PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATIONS OF DANGEROUS ACTIVITIES AND FACILITIES."

HE SAID THERE ALSO IS THE QUESTION OF "WHETHER THE SOVIET UNION IS REALLY HOPING AND WORKING FOR AN AGREEMENT OR WHETHER SHE SIMPLY WANTS TO KEEP THE DISCUSSIONS GOING."

NEW YORK, JAN. 24-(AP)-THE SILENT LONGING OF GERMAN KIDS FOR A FEW STICKS OF CHEWING GUM CREATED BERLIN'S "OPERATION LITTLE VITTLES," ITS FLIER-FOUNDER SAID TODAY.

LT.GAIL S.HALVORSEN OF GARLAND, UTAH, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE IDEA TO SUPPLEMENT THE BERLIN AIRLIFT BY DROPPING CANDIES TO GERMAN CHILDREN BY HANDKERCHIEF-PARACHUTE CAME TO HIM SOON AFTER HE ARRIVED IN THE GERMAN CAPITAL LAST JULY.

ON ONE OF HIS LEAVES, HE SAID, HE WAS TAKING PICTURES AT THE TEMPELHOF AIRDROME WHEN HE MET A GROUP OF GERMAN CHILDREN.

UNLIKE KIDS IN OTHER EUROPEAN AREAS HE HAD VISITED, HALVORSEN SAID, THESE DID NOT ASK HIM FOR CHOCOLATES OR GUM, BUT ONLY GAZED AT HIM IN SILENT YEARNING.

HALVORSEN, 28, SAID HE PASSED OUT THE FEW PIECES OF GUM HE HAD AND THEN PROMISED THE CHILDREN TO DROP MORE FROM HIS PLANE THE NEXT DAY.

THUS BEGAN "OPERATION LITTLE VITTLES." HALVORSEN SAID OTHER AIRMEN TOOK UP THE IDEA AND THAT UP TO THE PRESENT MORE THAN 90,000 "CANDY 'CHUTES"--HANDKERCHIEFS TIED TO THE SWEETS--HAVE BEEN DROPPED BY HIM AND OTHER AIRMEN FLYING THE AIRLIRFT.

HALVORSEN SAID BECAUSE OF HIS PART IN THE "OPERATION" HE HAS RECEIVED 30,000 INDIVIDUAL CONTRIBUTIONS AND LETTERS FROM THE UNITED STATES, INCLUDING TWO PROPOSALS OF MARRIAGE, ONE FROM OHIO AND THE OTHER FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

HE TURNED DOWN BOTH, HALVORSEN SAID, BECAUSE HIS "INTERESTS LAY ELSEWHERE."

AFTER THE START OF THE "OPERATION," THE GERMAN CHILDREN BEGAN CALLING HIM THE "CHOCOLATE FLIER," "THE GUM DROP KID," AND "WIGGLY WINGS," THE LATTER BECAUSE OF HIS PRACTICE OF WIGGLING HIS PLANE'S WINGS WHEN ABOUT TO RELEASE THE TINY PARACHUTES.

HE SAID HE EXPECTS TO LEAVE FOR BROOKLEY AIRFORCE BASE, MOBILE, ALA., IN A FEW DAYS FOR REASSIGNMENT.

ALTHOUGH HIS DUTIES WITH THE BERLIN AIRLIFT ARE OVER, HALVORSEN SAID, "OPERATION LITTLE VITTLES" WILL CONTINUE UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF CAPT.LAWRENCE L.CASKEY OF ENID, OKLA.

HILLSIDE,N.J., JAN 24-(AP)-LIEUT.GAIL S.HALVORSEN, ORIGINATOR OF OPERATION LITTLE VITTLES, TODAY MET THE GIRL WHO HAD ARRANGED TO COLLECT AND PACKAGE MUCH OF THE CANDY HE DROPPED TO THE CHILDREN OF BERLIN.

HALVORSEN, OF GARLAND, UTAH, WHO STARTED THE PLAN OF DROPPING CANDY-LADEN PARACHUTES, HAS COMPLETED HIS DUTIES WITH THE BERLIN AIR-LIFT AND STOPPED IN TO SEE DOROTHY GROEGER, TOP CONTRIBUTOR TO HIS PET PROJECT.

DOROTHY, AN INVALID SINCE 1945 WITH A RARE MUSCULAR AILMENT, GOT A FIRST HAND ACCOUNT FROM HALVORSEN OF WHAT BECAME OF THE MORE THAN 1,000 PACKAGES OF CANDY AND PARACHUTES SHE PREPARED AT HOME.

HALVORSEN SAID HE GOT THE IDEA FOR DROPPING CANDY WHILE TALKING TO SOME YOUNGSTERS AT TEMPELHOF AIR FORCE BASE IN BERLIN. UNLIKE KIDS IN OTHER EUROPEAN AREAS HE HAD VISITED, HALVORSEN SAID, THESE DID NOT ASK HIM FOR CHOCOLATES OR GUM, BUT ONLY LOOKED AT HIM IN SILENT YEARNING.

HALVORSEN SEARCHED HIS POCKETS AND CAME UP WITH SEVERAL STICKS OF GUM. WHEN ALL OF IT WAS PASSED OUT, HE PROMISED TO DO SOMETHING FOR THE OTHER KIDS THE NEXT DAY FROM HIS PLANE.

THAT WAS BACK IN JULY. SINCE THEN MORE THAN 90,000 TINY PARACHUTES CARRYING CANDY HAVE BEEN DROPPED BY HIM AND OTHER AIRMEN FLYING THE AIRLIFT.

HALVORSEN SAID HE HAS RECEIVED TWO MARRIAGE PROPOSALS BUT INSISTED "THERE'S A GAL IN SALT LAKE CITY WHO MUST BE SOLD THE IDEA OF MATRIMONY." HE SAID HER NAME IS HIS SECRET.

OPERATION LITTLE VITTLES, HE EXPLAINED, WILL BE CONTINUED BY HIS FRIEND, CAPT.LAWRENCE L.CASKEY OF ENID,OKLA. MISS GROEGER SAID SHE ALREADY HAS SHIPPED 125 PACKAGES TO THE NEW SUPERVISOR AND THERE WILL BE MORE COMING.

HALVORSEN SAID HE EXPECTS TO LEAVE FOR BROOKLEY AIRFORCE BASE, MOBILE,ALA., IN A FEW DAYS FOR REASSIGNMENT. HIS PARENTS, MR. AND MRS. BASIL HALVORSEN LIVE IN STOCKTON,CALIF.

NEW YORK, JAN. 24-(AP)-GERMAN CONCERT PIANIST WALTER GIESEKING, WHO ARRIVED HERE BY PLANE SATURDAY, HAS BEEN PLACED ON "PAROLE" BECAUSE OF PROTESTS MADE OVER HIS ADMISSION TO THIS COUNTRY, IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS SAID TODAY.

W. FRANK WATKINS, DISTRICT DIRECTOR OF THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE, SAID HOWEVER THAT AUTHORITIES PRESENTLY PLANNED "NO INTERFERENCE" WITH GIESEKING'S CONCERT PROGRAM HERE.

THE MUSICIAN, WHO PERFORMED IN GERMANY THROUGHOUT THE NAZI REGIME, IS SCHEDULED TO GIVE A RECITAL TONIGHT AT CARNEGIE HALL.

HIS ARRIVAL AND IMPENDING APPEARANCE BROUGHT PROTESTS FROM JEWISH LEADERS AND VETERANS AS WELL AS FROM THE MUSICIANS GROUP OF THE AMERICAN LABOR PARTY. SOME OBJECTORS INDICATED THEY PLANNED TO PICKET THE CONCERT HALL.

GIESEKING WAS PLACED ON PAROLE, WATKINS SAID, BECAUSE "SOMEONE QUESTIONED HIS RIGHT TO ENTER AND AN INVESTIGATION IS NOW NECESSARY."

UNDER THIS PROCEDURE, WATKINS ADDED, THE PIANIST IS SUBJECT TO THE CALL OF IMMIGRATION AUTHORITIES.

MEANWHILE, LEO PFEFFER, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF THE COMMISSION ON LAW AND SOCIAL ACTION OF THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS, SAID:

"WE OPPOSED GIESEKING'S ENTRY, WE STILL OPPOSE IT, AND PLAN TO CONTINUE OUR OPPOSITION TO HIS ADMISSION HERE."

FOLLOWING HIS ARRIVAL, THE MUSICIAN SAID HE HAD NEVER JOINED THE NAZI PARTY AND AVOIDED "ALL POSSIBILITY OF BEING FORCED TO JOIN."

WASHINGTON, JAN 24-(AP)-A JURY WAS SELECTED IN THE SURPRISINGLY SHORT TIME OF FIVE HOURS TODAY TO HEAR THE TREASON TRIAL OF MILDRED E. GILLARS, "AXIS SALLY" OF THE WARTIME NAZI RADIO.

SIX MEN AND SIX WOMEN WILL WEIGH THE CHARGES, WHICH CARRY A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF DEATH IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR.

SIX OF THE JURORS ARE NEGROES. TWO ALTERNATES, A MAN AND A WOMAN, WERE ALSO CHOSEN TO HEAR THE EVIDENCE AND TAKE OVER IF ANY OF THE REGULAR JURORS ARE INCAPACITATED.

SHE IS FAR FROM THE GLAMOROUS VISION CONJURED UP BY AMERICAN GI'S WHO LISTENED TO HER "HOME, SWEET, HOME" PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS AS THEY FOUGHT THEIR WAY THROUGH THE DUST AND MUD OF AFRICA AND EUROPE.

THE SILVER-HAIRED WOMAN APPEARED TODAY TO BE WEARY AND OLDER THAN HER YEARS.

SHE WORE A BLACK VELVET CAPE AND BLACK VELVET DRESS AS HER LONG-DELAYED TRIAL OPENED IN FEDERAL COURT.

THE LIGHTEST POSSIBLE SENTENCE ON CONVICTION IS FIVE YEARS IN PRISON IS FIVE YEARS IN PRISON, A $10,000 FINE, OR BOTH; WHILE THE HEA

THE LIGHTEST POSSIBLE SENTENCE ON CONVICTION IS FIVE YEARS IN PRISON A $10,000 FINE, OR BOTH; WHILE THE HEAVIEST IS DEATH.

FOUR MEN AND A WOMAN STOOD UP WHEN FEDERAL DISTRICT JUDGE EDWARD M. CURRAN ASKED THE JURY PANEL OF 110 WHETHER THEY WOULD OPPOSE THE DEATH PENALTY IF MISS GILLARS IS CONVINCED OF BETRAYING HER COUNTRY.

THESE FIVE WERE NOT CHOSEN FOR THE JURY.

MISS GILLARS WAS FOUND BY ARMY OFFICIALS MORE THAN TWO YEARS AGO, EKING OUT A DRAB EXISTENCE IN A BOMBED BERLIN CELLAR.

THE PROSECUTION CHARGES THAT THROUGH HER RADIO BERLIN PROGRAM OF NOSTALGIC SONGS AND HONEYED CAJOLINGS SHE SOUGHT TO MAKE AMERICAN FIGHTING MEN HOMESICK FOR THEIR LOVED ONES.

CONTRARY TO EXPECTATIONS, EARLY TRIAL PRELIMINARIES WENT BRISKLY. JAMES J. LAUGHLIN, CHIEF DEFENSE COUNSEL, WHO HAS APPEARED IN MANY OF WASHINGTON'S MORE SENSATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIALS, HAD TOLD NEWSMEN HE ANTICIPATED CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTY IN PICKING A JURY.

ASIDE FROM THE FIVE WHO OPPOSED THE DEATH PENALTY, SEVEN OTHERS TOLD THE COURT THEY HAD FIXED OPINIONS ABOUT THE CASE. OTHERS GAVE REASONS FOR WHICH THEY MIGHT BE DISQUALIFIED.

JUDGE CURRAN PUT A LONG LIST OF QUESTIONS TO THE PANEL AFTER TELLING THE GROUP SOLEMNLY THAT MISS GILLARS IS ENTITLED TO "A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL" TRIAL.

AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS WERE ASKED WHETHER THEY EVER OPPOSED THIS COUNTRY'S DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST GERMANY -- NONE STOOD UP -- OR EVER OPPOSED THE POLICIES OF THE LATE PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT OR WINSTON CHURCHILL, BRITAIN'S WARTIME PRIME MINISTER.

ABOUT ONE-THIRD OF THE GROUP AROSE WHEN ASKED IF THEY HAD RELATIVES IN THE ARMED SERVICES DURING WORLD WAR II. ONE WOMAN SAID HER HUSBAND, TWO BROTHERS AND EIGHT BROTHERS-IN-LAW WERE IN SERVICE. SHE WAS REMOVED BY A DEFENSE CHALLENGE.

CHIEF PROSECUTOR JOHN M. KELLEY, JR., WILL OUTLINE THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE IN AN OPENING STATEMENT TO THE JURY TOMORROW MORNING.

PF518PES

THE TREASON CHARGES AGAINST MISS GILLARS, A NATIVE OF PORTLAND, ME., GREW OUT OF THE GERMAN WARTIME PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS KNOWN TO GI'S AS THE "AXIS SALLY" PROGRAM. SHE ALSO IS REFERRED TO IN THE TEN-COUNT INDICTMENT AS MILDRED ELIZABETH SISK.

JUDGE CURRAN PUT A LONG LIST OF QUESTIONS TO PERSONS ON THE JURY LIST WHEN THE TRIAL OPENED. HE TOLD THEM THAT MISS GILLARS IS "ENTITLED TO A FAIR AND IMPARTIAL JURY AND THAT ANY PROSPECTIVE JUROR SHOULD SAY IF HE HAS A BIAS OR A PREJUDICE OR A FIXED OPINION."

SEVEN ON THE LIST--FOUR MEN AND THREE WOMEN--THEN SAID THEY HAD FIXED OPINIONS IN THE CASE.

PROSPECTIVE JURORS WERE ASKED AMONG OTHER THINGS, IF THEY SPEAK OR READ THE GERMAN LANGUAGE (3 DID); WHETHER THEY HAVE EVER BEEN IN GERMANY (ONE HAD); WHETHER THEY HAVE EVER BELONGED TO ANY ORGANIZATION REFERRING TO ITSELF AS GERMAN-AMERICAN OR LISTENED TO THE SHORT-WAVE GERMAN OR ITALIAN PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS DURING THE WAR.

THEY ALSO WERE ASKED WHETHER THEY OPPOSED THIS COUNTRY'S DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST GERMANY OR EVER BELONGED TO A LONG LIST OF JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS. SEVEN SAID THEY WERE JEWISH.

NONE AROSE WHEN ASKED WHETHER THEY OPPOSED THE POLICIES OF THE LATE PRESIDENT FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT OR WINSTON CHURCHILL, WARTIME BRITISH PRIME MINISTER.

FIVE PERSONS--FOUR MEN AND A WOMAN--STOOD UP WHEN JUDGE CURRAN ASKED IF ANYONE OPPOSED THE DEATH PENALTY. IF CONVICTED, MISS GILLARS FACES A POSSIBLE DEATH SENTENCE. THE MINIMUM PENALTY FOR TREASON IS FIVE YEARS IMPRISONMENT OR A $10,000 FINE, OR BOTH.

ABOUT A THIRD OF THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS STOOD WHEN ASKED IF THEY HAD RELATIVES IN THE ARMED SERVICES IN THE RECENT WAR. ONE WOMAN SAID HER HUSBAND, TWO BROTHERS, AND EIGHT BROTHERS-IN-LAW WERE IN SERVICE.

OTHER QUESTIONS INCLUDED WHETHER ANY OF THEM KNEW GEN.DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, GEN.DOUGLAS MAC ARTHUR OR HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR., FORMER SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

JOHN M.KELLEY,JR., THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, TOLD THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS THAT MISS GILLARS IS ACCUSED OF GIVING "AID AND COMFORT TO THIS COUNTRY'S PROSPECTIVE ENEMIES BY WILLINGLY AND KNOWINGLY ACCEPTING EMPLOYMENT FOR PAY FOR THE GERMAN RADIO."

HE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED TWO PROGRAMS--"MIDGE AT THE MIKE" AND "HOME SWEET HOME"--IN WHICH HE ALLEGED THE DEFENDANT "WOVE INTO HER REMARKS ESTABLISHED OFFICIAL GERMAN PROPAGANDA."

MISS GILLARS CAME INTO COURT WEARING A BLACK VELVET CAPE OVER A BLACK TAILORED DRESS. SHE TALKED ANIMATEDLY WITH HER ATTORNEYS WHILE TRIAL PRELIMINARIES WERE HANDLED. HER GRAY HAIR WAS STYLED IN A LONG BOB WHICH FELL TO HER SHOULDERS.

MRS.EDNA MAE HERRICK OF ASHTABULA, O., WHO IDENTIFIED HERSELF TO REPORTERS AS A SISTER OF MISS GILLARS, WAS PRESENT. MISS GILLARS GLANCED AND SMILED AT HER SEVERAL TIMES.

THE COURT ROOM OF JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAN WAS EQUIPPED WITH ABOUT 40 SETS OF EARPHONES IN ADVANCE OF THE TRIAL'S OPENING. THE UNOFFICIAL EXPLANATION WAS THAT THE PROSECUTORS PLAN TO PLAY NAZI PROPAGANDA RECORDS THAT COULD NOT BE HEARD CLEARLY WITHOUT THEM.

THE EARPHONES WERE FOR THE TRIAL JUDGE, OTHER COURT ATTACHES, JURORS AND NEWS REPORTERS.

IT WAS A BAD DAY FOR COURT FANS. NO ROOM WAS SET ASIDE FOR THEM. ALL SPACE WENT TO PROSPECTIVE JURORS, COURT OFFICIALS AND LAWYERS, AND REPORTERS COVERING THE TRIAL. AFTER THE JURY HAS BEEN CHOSEN A FEW SEATS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR THE CURIOUS ON A FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED BASIS.

A HUNDRED AND TEN RESIDENTS OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA WERE CALLED FOR JURY DUTY. MORE WILL BE SUMMONED IF PROSECUTING AND DEFENSE ATTORNEYS ARE UNABLE TO SELECT 14 JURORS FROM AMONG THEM. IN ADDITION TO THE 12 REGULAR JURORS, THERE WILL BE TWO ALTERNATES.

THIS IS A PRECAUTION FREQUENTLY TAKEN IN FEDERAL COURTS HERE IN TRIALS EXPECTED TO BE PROLONGED. IN THE EVENT A JUROR BECOMES ILL OR HAS TO LEAVE THE BOX FOR ANY OTHER REASON, AN ALTERNATE TAKES HIS PLACE WITHOUT ANY INTERRUPTION IN THE TRIAL.

JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, WHO HAS APPEARED IN MANY OF WASHINGTON'S WIDELY PUBLICIZED CRIMINAL TRIALS, IS CHIEF DEFENSE COUNSEL.

LAUGHLIN TOLD A REPORTER HE EXPECTS CONSIDERABLE DIFFICULTY IN SELECTING A JURY AND ESTIMATED THE TRIAL WILL LAST ABOUT TWO MONTHS.

THE CHIEF PROSECUTOR, JOHN M.KELLEY,JR., DECLINED TO PREDICT HOW LONG THE TRIAL MIGHT LAST; HOW MANY WITNESSES HE WILL CALL, OR TO SAY HOW MANY WITNESSES WILL BE BROUGHT FROM GERMANY.

SO FAR THE PROSECUTION HAS IDENTIFIED ONLY ONE OF ITS WITNESSES--HANS VON RICHTER, DESCRIBED AS A HIGH OFFICIAL OF THE GERMAN RADIO.

VON RICHTER TESTIFIED IN THE TRIALS IN BOSTON OF DOUGLAS CHANDLER AND ROBERT HENRY BEST, BOTH CONVICTED OF TREASON FOR THEIR WARTIME BROADCASTS OVER THE NAZI RADIO. CHANDLER AND BEST RECEIVED LIFE SENTENCES.

MISS GILLARS, A SELF-STYLED ACTRESS, HAS MADE SEVERAL BRIEF COURT APPEARANCES SINCE BEING FLOWN HERE FROM FRANKFURT, GERMANY, LAST AUG. 21.

IN HER LAST APPEARANCE, SEPT. 24, SHE STOOD MOTIONLESS FOR 12 MINUTES DURING THE READING OF THE INDICTMENT ACCUSING HER OF GIVING AID AND COMFORT TO THIS COUNTRY'S ENEMIES DURING THE WAR. THEN SHE WAS ASKED HOW SHE WISHED TO PLEAD.

"CERTAINLY NOT GUILTY," SHE REPLIED IN A LOW VOICE.

IN HER COURT APPEARANCES, "AXIS SALLY" SEEMS A TIRED, GRAYING WOMAN, NOT THE BEAUTIFUL YOUNG THING GI'S HAD ENVISIONED AS THEY LISTENED TO "AXIS SALLY" BROADCASTS FROM AFRICA TO FRANCE AND HOLLAND.

ARMY OFFICIALS FOUND HER IN BERLIN MORE THAN TWO YEARS AGO, LIVING IN CELLARS AND GRUBBING OUT A PRECARIOUS LIVING. SHE WAS RELEASED, BUT RE-ARRESTED WHEN THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TOOK OVER THE CASE.

THE INDICTMENT CHARGES SHE MADE BROADCASTS FOR THE NAZIS FROM DEC. 11, 1941 THROUGH MAY 8, 1945.

WASHINGTON, JAN 24-(AP)-TWO EDUCATION GROUPS SAID TODAY THEY WILL INVESTIGATE THE DISCHARGE OF THREE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PROFESSORS FOR ALLEGED COMMUNIST ACTIVITY.

ONE IS THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS.

THE OTHER IS THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION'S DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

THOSE DISCHARGED BY THE UNIVERSITY SATURDAY NIGHT WERE HERBERT J. PHILLIPS, JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH AND RALPH GUNDLACH.

DR. RALPH E. HIMSTEAD, GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE AAUP, TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HIS ORGANIZATION WILL TAKE UP THE CASE AT THE REQUEST OF ONE OF THE DISMISSED PROFESSORS.

HE SAID THE MATTER WILL BE REFERRED TO THE ASSOCIATION'S COMMITTEE ON ACADEMIC FREEDOM AND TENURE, HEADED BY WILLIAM T. LAPRADE, OF DUKE UNIVERSITY.

HIMSTEAD SAID THE CASE WILL BE STUDIED CAREFULLY AND IN DETAIL, WITH NO DECISION LIKELY FOR MONTHS.

THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION SAID DR. RALPH MCDONALD, SECRETARY OF ITS HIGHER EDUCATION DEPARTMENT, WILL SEEK FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE DISCHARGES IN SEATTLE THIS WEEK OR NEXT. MCDONALD IS GOING TO THE WEST COAST ON A ROUTINE FIELD TRIP.

HIMSTEAD NOTED THAT THE AAUP HAS NO LEGAL POWER.

WHEN IT FINDS A PROFESSOR'S DISCHARGE UNJUSTIFIED, IT FIRST USUALLY SEEKS TO HAVE HIM REINSTATED.

IF THE ASSOCIATION FINDS A UNIVERSITY'S ACTION UNJUSTIFIED, IT PLACES THE SCHOOL'S ADMINISTRATION --NOT THE FACULTY OR THE UNIVERSITY ITSELF, BUT ITS GOVERNING OFFICIALS -- ON A CENSURED LIST.

BECAUSE OF THE ASSOCIATION'S PRESTIGE, CENSURED SCHOOLS USUALLY ACT QUICKLY TO RESTORE THEMSELVES TO ITS GOOD GRACES.

THE AAUP COMMITTEE WILL STUDY TRANSCRIPTS OF HEARINGS CONDUCTED BY A WASHINGTON LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE AND BY A FACULTY COMMITTEE. IT MAY LATER CONDUCT AN INQUIRY AT SEATTLE IF IT DEEMS THAT NECESSARY.

MAY AND THE CARSSONSAND THE LATE JOSEPH FREEMAN WERE BROUGHT TO TRIAL IN THE WAR FRAUD CASE. FREEMAN, WHO DIED JUST A YEAR AGO IN CALIFORNIA, WAS ACQUITTED BY A DIRECTED VERDICT OF THE COURT ON THE CONSPIRACY CHARGES. WASH-MAY-CARSSONS-XXXTRIAL

MAY WAS A DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMAN FROM KENTUCKY FOR 16 YEARS BEFORE HE WAS DEFEATED IN THE 1946 ELECTIONS. MAY, NOW ABOUT 74, WAS A POWER IN CONGRESS ON ALL MATTERS AFFECTING THE MILITARY. AFTER HIS CONVICTION HE SAID IN A PLEA FOR MERCY OF THE COURT:

"I NEVER DID A THING IN CONGRESS THAT TODAY VEXES MY CONSCIENCE. I'M NOT GUILTY."

MAY AND THE GARSSONS ALL PROTESTED THEY HADN'T MADE "A SINGLE DIME" OUT OF THEIR RELATIONSHIPS.

HENRY GARSSON, 52, WAS THE SO-CALLED "BRAINS" OF THE BIG MUNITIONS COMBINE, WHICH OPERATED SEVERAL PLANTS AND HELD GOVERNMENT WARTIME CONTRACTS. ALTHOUGH MAY ALLEGEDLY RECEIVED AT LEAST $53,634 THROUGH THE CUMBERLAND LUMBER COMPANY, THE GOVERNMENT CONTENDED THE MONEY ACTUALLY CAME FROM THE GARSSONS THROUGH TWO OF THEIR COMPANIES, THE ERIE BASIN METAL PRODUCTS COMPANY, AND THE BATAVIA METAL PRODUCTS CO., BOTH IN ILLINOIS.

PROSECUTOR WILLIAM A.PAISLEY, WHO WON A MAIL FRAUD CONVICTION AGAINST MAYOR JAMES M.CURLEY OF BOSTON, ALSO A FORMER CONGRESSMAN, CONDUCTED THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE. HE IS A SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK.

WITNESSES AT THE TRIAL INCLUDED SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, GEN. DWIGHT D.EISENHOWER AND SECRETARY OF WAR PATTERSON.

PATTERSON AND EISENHOWER TESTIFIED THAT MAY CAME TO THEM SEEKING WARTIME FAVORS FOR THE GARSSONS OR THEIR FRIENDS. EISENHOWER SAID MAY TWICE SENT HIM LETTERS IN EUROPE ASKING HIM TO INTERVENE IN THE COURT MARTIAL OF MURRAY GARSSON'S SON, AN ARMY CAPTAIN.

ALTOGETHER, THE TESTIMONY OF MORE THAN 100 WITNESSES RUNNING TO 6.000 PAGES WENT INTO THE TRIAL RECORD.

AT THE CORE OF THE CASE WAS THE DISPUTED OWNERSHIP OF THE CUMBERLAND COMPANY, IN THE MOUNTAINS NEAR MAY'S KENTUCKY HOME. THE GARSSONS POURED ALMOST $50,000 INTO THE FIRM.

THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMED THE GARSSONS BOUGHT THE FIRM FOR MAY. MAY CLAIMED HE MERELY ACTED AS MANAGER OF THE COMPANY. HE ACKNOWLEDGED HE TOOK IN ALL THE MONEY THE GARSSONS SENT HIM FOR THE FIRM, BUT MAINTAINED THAT HE "PAID IT ALL BACK--EVERY CENT OF IT" OR SPENT IT ON THE FIRM.

MAY CONCEDED THAT HE REPRESENTED HIMSELF AS THE COMPANY'S OWNER. BUT HE SAID THIS WAS ONLY TO CONCEAL THE REAL OWNERSHIP FROM HIS FELLOW KENTUCKIANS. HE SAID THEY WOULD NOT HAVE WORKED FOR THE COMPANY IF THEY HAD KNOWN THAT THE OWNERS WERE "OUT-OF-STATE JEWS."

SEVERAL TIMES, THE DEFENSE INJECTED THE "RELIGIOUS DISCRIMINATION" ANGLE INTO THE TRIAL. ONE ASSERTION WAS THAT FEDERAL ORDNANCE OFFICIALS IN CHICAGO TURNED THUMBS DOWN ON GIVING CONTRACTS TO THE GARSSONS BECAUSE THEY WERE JEWS. PROSECUTION WITNESSES DENIED IT.

MAY AND THE GARSSONS SAID THEY WENT INTO THE TIMBER BUSINESS TO SUPPLY BADLY-NEEDED LUMBER TO GARSSON WAR FIRMS FOR CRATING GARSSON-MADE SHELLS FOR SHIPMENT OVERSEAS. BUT THE GOVERNMENT SAID THE CUMBERLAND FIRM NEVER SHIPPED "A SINGLE STICK" OF LUMBER TO THE GARSSONS.

THE DEFENSE PICTURED DR.HENRY M.GARSSON AS A "MUNITIONS GENIUS" WHO INVENTED A NUMBER OF METHODS FOR SPEEDING SHELL OUTPUT.

ON THE OTHER HAND, THE GOVERNMENT SPENT DAYS PARADING WARTIME ARMY LEADERS TO THE WITNESS STAND TO TELL OF MAY'S REQUESTS TO THEM FOR WARTIME FAVORS.

ONE WITNESS SAID MAY INSISTED ON GETTING "A NICE BIG CONTRACT" FOR THE GARSSONS. ANOTHER, LT.GEN.LEVIN CAMPBELL, WARTIME ORDNANCE CHIEF, SAID MAY EXERTED "PRESSURE" ON HIM TO HELP THE BROTHERS.

FOLO MAY-GARSSON (120)

LEWISBURG,PA.,JAN.24-(AP)-ATTY. CHARLES J.MARGIOTTI, COUNSEL FOR HENRY AND MURRAY GARSSON, SAID TODAY HE WOULD APPEAL TO THE U.S. SUPREME COURT FROM A DECISION OF A LOWER COURT UPHOLDING THEIR CONVICTIONS ON BRIBERY AND CONSPIRACY CHARGES.

AT WASHINGTON, THE U.S. COURT OF APPEALS UPHELD A DISTRICT COURT VERDICT IN THE CASE IN WHICH FORMER REP. ANDREW J.MAY OF KENTUCKY WAS A CO-DEFENDANT. THE THREE MEN RECEIVED SENTENCES OF FROM EIGHT MONTHS TO TWO YEARS.

MARGIOTTI, HERE IN CONNECTION WITH ANOTHER FEDERAL COURT CASE, SAID HE "WOULD MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO GET THE CASE BEFORE THE U.S. SUPREME COURT."

HE SAID HE WOULD SEEK A WRIT OF CERTIORARI, WHICH WOULD HAVE THE EFFECT OF ASKING THE HIGH COURT TO DIRECT THE LOWER COURT TO CERTIFY THE CASE TO THE SUPREME COURT.

FORT MEADE,MD.,JAN.24-(AP)-AN ARMY CHAPLAIN FLOWN HOME FROM GERMANY TESTIFIED TODAY HE HAD HEARD NO COMPLAINTS ABOUT MISTREATMENT AT A WURZBURG PRISON CAMP TWO WINTERS AGO.

"I NEVER SAW ANYTHING WHICH I FELT NEEDED CORRECTION," THE CHAPLAIN TESTIFIED. "NO PRISONER EVER COMPLAINED TO ME ABOUT INHUMANE OR ANY OTHER KIND OF MALTREATMENT IN THE COMPOUND."

SEVERAL SOLDIERS AND FORMER SOLDIERS HAVE TESTIFIED THAT THEY WERE MISTREATED IN THE SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELLS.

ANOTHER DEFENSE WITNESS TESTIFIED TODAY THAT PRISONERS IN THE SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELLS COULD KEEP THEIR FEET WARMER BY NOT WEARING HEAVY GI SHOES.

HE WAS DR.EDGAR I.ETIER (CQ), OF FORT WORTH, TEXAS, CAMP SURGEON AT WURZBURG AT THE TIME.

HE SAID THE MEN IN SOLITARY WERE DEPRIVED OF THEIR SHOES SO THEY COULD EXERCISE THEIR FEET BETTER TO KEEP THEM WARM WHEN THEY WERE WEARING ONLY THE HEAVY WOOL SOCKS THEY WERE ISSUED.

FORT MEADE, MD., JAN 25-(AP)-WITNESSES FOR OFFICERS DEFENDING THEMSELVES AGAINST NEGLECT OF DUTY CHARGES TESTIFIED YESTERDAY THAT THEY SAW NO SIGNS OF MISTREATMENT AT THE ARMY PRISON CAMP IN WURZBURG, GERMANY.

THE DEFENSE WITNESSES, ALL FORMER OFFICERS AT THE CAMP, TESTIFIED IN BEHALF OF CAPT. JOEL G.HOLMES, JR., OF PHILADELPHIA, WHO WAS MEDICAL OFFICER AT WURZBURG. HOLMES IS THE FIRST OF FOUR OFFICERS FACING COURT MARTIAL HERE ON THE CHARGES.

SEVERAL FORMER WURZBURG INMATES HAVE TESTIFIED THAT THEY WERE MISTREATED IN SOLITARY CELLS.

A CHAPLAIN FLOWN HERE FROM GERMANY SAID HE HAD NEVER SEEN ANYTHING "WHICH I FELT NEEDED CORRECTION." THE CHAPLAIN, MAJ. JOHN N.HUDSON, ADDED, "NO PRISONER EVER COMPLAINED TO ME ABOUT INHUMANE OR ANY OTHER KIND OF MALTREATMENT IN THE COMPOUND."

DR. EDGAR L.ETIER OF FORT WORTH, TEXAS, FORMER WURZBURG SURGEON, TESTIFIED THAT PRISONERS IN THE SOLITARY CELLS COULD KEEP THEIR FEET WARMER BY NOT WEARING HEAVY GI SHOES.

ONE OF THE CHIEF WITNESSES AGAINST HOLMES WAS A NEGRO SOLDIER WHO CHARGED FROM HIS WHEELCHAIR THAT BOTH HIS FEET HAD TO BE AMPUTATED AFTER THEY BECAME FROSTBITTEN IN A SOLITARY CELL. HE IS PVT. JOSEPH SUGGS, WHO IS LEARNING TO WALK AGAIN AT WALTER REED HOSPITAL IN WASHINGTON.

THE THREE OFFICERS AWAITING TRIAL ARE COL. HAROLD H.MCCLUNE (RET.) OF SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, WURZBURG COMMANDING OFFICER; LT. COL. GEORGE E.PINARD OF WESSINGTON SPRINGS, S.D., PRISON OFFICER, AND CAPT. SAMUEL H.WOLFORD OF CLEAR SPRING, MD., COMMANDING OFFICER OF THE PRISONER'S STOCKADE.

FORT MEADE, MD., JAN 24-(AP)-A FORMER ARMY SURGEON TESTIFIED TODAY THAT SOLITARY CONFINEMENT PRISONERS IN THE GUARD HOUSE COULD KEEP THEIR FEET WARMER WITHOUT THEIR GI SHOES ON.

DR.EDGAR L.ATIER OF FORT WORTH, TEXAS, GAVE THE TESTIMONY. HE WAS A DEFENSE WITNESS AT THE COURT MARTIAL TRIAL OF CAPT.JOEL G.HOLMES, JR., OF PHILADELPHIA.

HOLMES AND FOUR OTHER OFFICERS IN CHARGE OF AN ARMY PRISON CAMP AT WURZBURG, GERMANY, IN THE WINTER OF 1946-1947 FACE CHARGES THAT THEY NEGLECTED THEIR DUTY BY KEEPING PRISONERS IN UNHEATED DETENTION CELLS.

PVT.JOSEPH SUGGS OF WALTER REED HOSPITAL IN WASHINGTON, WHO LOST BOTH FEET AND THE LOWER PART OF ONE LEG AFTER HIS FEET FROZE, WAS THE MAIN WITNESS AGAINST HOLMES LAST WEEK.

DR.ATIER WAS SURGEON AT THE PRISON AND HE TESTIFIED TODAY THAT HEAVY GI SHOES WERE TAKEN AWAY FROM THE SOLITARY CONFINEMENT PRISONERS FOR TWO REASONS:

1. SO THEY COULDN'T USE THEM AGAINST THE GUARDS.
2. BECAUSE THEY COULD EXERCISE THEIR FEET BETTER WITHOUT THEM AND KEEP WARMER WEARING ONLY THE HEAVY WOOL SOCKS THEY WERE ISSUED.

DR.ATIER SAID IT WAS EXTREMELY COLD AT THE TIME SUGGS WAS CONFINED BUT HE DIDN'T KNOW OF ANY FROST-BITTEN FEET AMONG THE PRISONERS.

HE TESTIFIED THERE WAS A COAL SHORTAGE, MAKING IT DIFFICULT TO KEEP THE PRISON BARRACKS HEATED "BUT I BELIEVE THAT EVERYONE HAD ADEQUATE CLOTHING AND BLANKETS TO KEEP WARM."

DR.ATIER, SAID HE HAD NEVER SEEN PRISONERS BEING MARCHED NAKED TO THE LATRINE OR OBSERVED ICE IN LATRINE BUCKETS KEPT IN SOLITARY CONFINEMENT CELLS AS THE PROSECUTION CONTENDS.

HE DECLARED THAT THE POUND AND A HALF OF BREAD GIVEN DAILY TO SOLITARY CONFINEMENT PRISONERS SUPPLIED THEM WITH ONLY SLIGHTLY FEWER CALORIES THAN THE AVERAGE MEALS SERVED OTHER SOLDIERS.

"THEY ALWAYS," HE TESTIFIED, "HAD SUFFICIENT BREAD TO SUPPLY THEM WITH ENERGY ENOUGH TO PERFORM LIGHT EXERCISE AND KEEP THEMSELVES CLEAN."

(180) ECA-SHIPPING

WASHINGTON,JAN.24-(AP)-IF CONGRESS INSISTS THAT HALF THIS COUNTRY'S RECOVERY CARGOES MOVE IN AMERICAN SHIPS, MARSHALL PLAN OFFICIALS WILL SEEK ADDITIONAL FUNDS TO COVER THE EXTRA COST.

ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR PAUL G.HOFFMAN TOLD REPORTERS THAT ECA "WOULD HAVE TO ASK" SUCH A SHIPPING SUBSIDY IF THE PRESENT 50 PER CENT RULE IS MADE MANDATORY, AS PROPOSED IN HOUSE AND SENATE BILLS.

WEEKS AGO HOFFMAN ORDERED ABANDONMENT OF THE 50-50 RULE INSOFAR AS GRAIN, COAL, OIL AND OTHER ?7)(" CARGOES ARE CONCERNED

GRAIN, COAL, OIL AND OTHER "BULK" CARGOES ARE CONCERNED, BECAUSE OF THE HIGHER FREIGHT RATES CHARGED BY AMERICAN SHIPPING LINES.

THE ORDER, ORIGINALLY TO GO INTO EFFECT JANUARY 1, HAS BEEN TWICE POSTPONED AND NOW WILL BECOME EFFECTIVE APRIL 1. MEMBERS OF THE MARITIME COMMISSION, SOME LEGISLATORS, STEAMSHIP INTERESTS AND MARITIME UNIONS OPPOSED IT.

THE PRESENT LAW DIRECTS HOFFMAN TO SEE THAT AT LEAST HALF OF THE CARGOES ARE CARRIED IN U.S. VESSELS TO THE EXTENT THAT SUCH SHIPS ARE AVAILABLE AT "MARKET RATES".

HIS DECISION TO ABANDON THE PLAN WAS BASED, HE SAID, ON THE INCREASED AVAILABILITY OF LOWER-COST FOREIGN SHIPPING AND THE FACT THAT ANY EXTRA FUNDS PAID FOR AMERICAN VESSELS WOULD REDUCE, BY THE SAME AMOUNT, THE AID AVAILABLE FOR EUROPE.

WASHINGTON,JAN.24-(AP)-NEARLY 300,000,000 (M) PEOPLE IN THE WORLD STILL ARE DEPENDENT UPON RATIONING SYSTEMS FOR BREAD, THE UNITED NATIONS FOOD AND AGRICULTURE ORGANIZATION (FAO) REPORTED TONIGHT.

THIS CONDITION EXISTS, THE INTERNATIONAL AGENCY SAID, DESPITE A MARKED IMPROVEMENT IN WORLD BREAD GRAIN SUPPLIES AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR. WORLD PRODUCTION IN 1948 WAS SAID TO HAVE EXCEEDED THE PRE-WAR AVERAGE.

IT ALSO EXISTS AT A TIME WHEN SOME MAJOR WHEAT PRODUCING COUNTRIES--INCLUDING THE UNITED STATES--ARE CONCERNED OVER POSSIBLE NEW SURPLUSES, THE FAO SAID.

IN A REVIEW OF THE WORLD GRAIN SITUATION, THE FAO SAID LARGER STOCKS OF WHEAT ARE NEEDED TO PROTECT THE WORLD'S CONSUMERS AGAINST SHORTAGES.

MAJOR IMPORTING COUNTRIES WERE SAID TO BE CONCERNED OVER THE "PRESENT APPARENT BALANCE BETWEEN EXPORT SUPPLIES AND WORLD IMPORT NEEDS."

THE FAO REPORT CAME JUST PRIOR TO WEDNESDAY'S OPENING OF A WORLD CONFERENCE TO NEGOTIATE A NEW INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT DESIGNED TO STABILIZE WORLD SUPPLIES AND PRICES.

THE FAO SAID THAT IN THIS MARKETING YEAR, WORLD SUPPLIES OF GRAIN FOR EXPORT APPEAR TO BE ABOUT EQUAL TO QUANTITIES DESIRED FOR IMPORT, AND FOR WHICH FINANCING IS AVAILABLE.

THE FAO FORECAST CONTINUED HEAVY EXPORT DEMAND FOR U.S.GRAIN FOR THE NEXT SEVERAL YEARS.

BUT THE REPORT SAID THERE IS NEED FOR INTERNATIONAL ACTION TO REDUCE UNCERTAINITIES AS TO FUTURE SUPPLIES.

LONDON, JA".24-(AP)-BRITISH AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS TODAY OPENED EXPLORATORY TRADE TALKS WHICH WILL DETERMINE WHETHER BRITAIN WILL CONTINUE RESTRICTIONS ON THE IMPORTS OF VIRGINIA TOBACCO TO SAVE DOLLARS.

THE AMERICANS, REPRESENTING THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ARE ENDING A TOUR OF WESTERN EUROPE TO GET A LINE ON EXPORT PROSPECTS BEFORE DECIDING ON 1949 CROP QUOTAS FOR U.S. TOBACCO GROWERS. BRITAIN IMPORTS MORE AMERICAN TOBACCO THAN ANY OTHER COUNTRY.

AMERICAN NEGOTIATORS WANT A FIRM COMMITMENT ON BRITAIN'S IMPORT PLANS IN ORDER TO SET CROP QUOTAS THAT WILL KEEP STABLE PRICES.

BOTH BRITISH AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS DECLINED TO COMMENT PUBLICLY ON THE TALKS, EXPECTED TO LAST SEVERAL DAYS. ONE INFORMED BRITISH SOURCE, HOWEVER, SAID BRITAIN HOPES TO MAKE A LONG TERM DEAL FOR IMPORT OF AMERICAN TOBACCO AT "REASONABLE PRICES."

NEVERTHELESS, IT WAS NOT CERTAIN THAT ANY HARD AGREEMENT WOULD DEVELOP FROM THE TALKS. PRICES ARE DETERMINED BY TOBACCO AUCTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES AND IT WAS UNLIKELY THAT THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT WOULD UNDERTAKE TO GUARANTEE LONG TERM PRICES TO BRITAIN.

WHETHER BRITAIN WILL LIFT IMPORT RESTRICTIONS IN EFFECT SINCE 1947 DEPENDS LARGELY ON HOW MANY ERP (EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM) DOLLARS WILL BE SPENT FOR TOBACCO.

UP TO LAST NOVEMBER, BRITAIN SPENT $55,000,000 FROM ERP ON AMERICAN TOBACCO. LAST YEAR BRITAIN PURCHASED ABOUT 140 MILLION POUNDS (WEIGHT) OF AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPARED WITH PREVIOUS YEARLY PURCHASES RUNNING BETWEEN 200 MILLION AND 250 MILLION POUNDS.

Back U.S. Plan, Bevin Urges

London, Jan. 25 (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin urged the non-Communist nations of the world today to join with the United States in President Truman's plan to develop the backward areas of the world.

The Foreign Secretary compared the President's inaugural speech, in which the proposal was made, to the address of former Secretary of State George C. Marshall at Harvard in 1947, when the Marshall plan was born.

Speaking of the Marshall plan, Bevin chided Russia for her opposition to it and sought to calm any fear she might have that United States aid would be used to build a force to defeat the Soviet Union. Bevin addressed a meeting of the Foreign Press Association.

"Greatest Contribution"

"Argument is not the answer to communism," Bevin said. "A good standard of life and happiness is the greatest contribution we can make to answering communism."

Bevin asked anti-Communist countries to pool scientific resources and abilities, productivity and technical knowledge "to achieve higher living standards and higher happiness standards for undeveloped peoples." He said Britain is ready to do her part.

Bevin said it is his idea that the political transformation of backward parts of the world must be accompanied by economic development.

Urges Freer People

"Somehow the benefit of our civilization has not been reflected in raised standards for the masses of the world—it has merely made a few very wealthy," he said. "I want all these people to free themselves from disease, to eliminate unhappiness, to become better, freer people. That is why I warmly welcome President Truman's statement."

The Foreign Secretary criticized the Soviet Union.

"I think," said Bevin, "I can speak for the powers with responsibility for overseas territories, that they welcome Mr. Truman's statement and we shall throw into the pool all the knowledge, ability and resources we have at our command."

Colonial Conferences

Chief European nations with colonies are Britain, France, Belgium and the Netherlands. Britain, Belgium and France have already conferred on colonial problems.

Bevin said that if Western nations could form a single organiza tion not anxious to attack but ready to talk, other nations "would recognize its power and there is a reasonable chance of getting peace in the world."

He mentioned the proposed North Atlantic pact to link the power of the United States to the defense of western Europe and added:

"If only we could have devised this at the end of the war and given France the assurance to which she was entitled, the whole course of history might have been changed and the second World War might never have started."

Assumption Assailed

"I was extremely sorry," he said, "that the Russians could not see or seize the opportunity that the Marshall plan and the subsequent developments of a European group offered to the peace of the world.

"They seem to assume that all we were doing was trying to create a kind of barrier or a means in which we could build a force to defeat the Soviet Government.

"Now I assert with all the solemnity that I have in mind, that has never entered our heads."

Statement on Economics

LONDON, Jan. 25 (AP)—Following is the text of a communiqué, distributed by the Soviet news agency Tass, on the Moscow economic conference:

An economic conference of representatives of Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Rumania, the U.S.S.R. and Czechoslovakia was held this month in Moscow.

The conference ascertained the fact of considerable successes in the development of economic relations among the aforesaid countries, which found expression, first and foremost, in the major increase of the trade exchange.

Due to the establishment of the aforementioned economic relations and to the implementation of the policy of economic cooperation, the countries of the people's democracy and the U.S.S.R. had the opportunity of speeding up the restoration and development of their respective national economies.

The conference established further that the Governments of the United States of America, Britain, and of certain other countries of Western Europe had been as a matter of fact, boycotting trade relations with the countries of the people's democracy and with the U.S.S.R., since these countries did not consider it possible to submit to the Marshall Plan dictate, as this plan violated the sovereignty of countries and the interests of their national economies.

In view of the aforementioned circumstance the conference discussed the possibility of organizing broader economic cooperation among the countries of the people's democracy and the U.S.S.R.

The conference decided that in order to establish still broader economic cooperation among the countries of the people's democracy and the U.S.S.R. it was necessary to institute a Council for Economic Mutual Assistance, comprised of representatives of the countries taking part in the conference, on the basis of equal representation, and having as its task the exchange of experience in the economic field, the rendering of technical assistance to each other, and the rendering of mutual assistance in regard to raw materials, foodstuffs, machinery, equipment, etc.

The conference stated that the Council for Economic Mutual Assistance shall be an open organization, which may be joined by other countries of Europe that share the principles of the Council for Mutual Assistance with the desire to participate in broad economic cooperation with the aforementioned countries.

The Council for Economic Mutual Assistance shall pass decisions only upon the consent of the country concerned.

The council shall meet periodically, in the capitals of the signatory countries in turn, under the chairmanship of the representative of that country in whose capital the session takes place.

COMMUNIST ASSAILS BOOK

French Deputy Says Kravchenko, Volume Foments War

Paris, Jan. 25 (AP) — A French Communist deputy testified today he believed an anti-Soviet book by Victor Kravchenko "is preparing the way for another war."

The book is "I Chose Freedom." Kravchenko wrote the book about life in Russia under Soviet rule after he quit a Russian purchasing commission in Washington four years ago. He is suing the pro-Communist French weekly newspaper Les Lettres Francais for libel for its criticism of the book.

The Communist witness was Fernand Grenier, who is a member of the French Chamber of Deputies and vice chairman of the France-U.S.S.R. Association, a Communist front organization.

Doubts Authorship

Grenier testified he did not believe the book was written by a former Soviet citizen. He read a passage saying the Russian town of Askhabad had been renamed Stalinaead. He then produced maps.

"Askhabad is near the Caspian Sea," Grenier said, "and Stalinaead is near Afghanistan."

Attacking another section of the book, Grenier said:

"I was in Russia in 1933 and visited the Autostalin factory. I visited a Communist meeting and did not see that the workers had blood in their eyes for the Communist party."

Jumping to his feet, Kravchenko said what he wrote was exact and that his witnesses would bear him out.

German Communists Establish 'Little Politburo' Of Their Own

T. Reedy

Berlin, Jan. 25 (AP)—German Communists set up a "little Politburo" today to run their affairs.

A conference of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party announced that Cochairmen Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewohl and the hand-picked Lord Mayor of Eastern Berlin, Friedrich Ebert, would head the new Politburo, a copy of the one which rules Russia.

Under them will be a number of "little secretariats," to be chosen by the states of the Soviet occupation zone.

Move Foreshadowed

The move was foreshadowed a week ago when the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau) announced that the Socialist Unity party (SED) soon would take new form. The SED officials said the new form meant that the party would adopt the same machinery and ideological goals as Russian communism.

The SED newspaper, Neues Deutschland, heralded the reshaping of the party with a banner headline dedicating it to "Peace, German Unity and a Better Life."

Creation of the political bureau was the major opening gambit of the SED's first full-scale party rally since the open break between East and West.

By Soviet Order

The party came into being by Soviet order, forged from a merger of Social Democrats and Communists.

Introduction of the Politburo idea is viewed in Western quarters as a new sign of Russian dissatisfaction with the SED, which is something short of a success with Germans.

The Neue Zeitung, American-sponsored German-language newspaper, says the party will even have a new name under a Russian plan to Sovietize eastern Germany completely. This story, which said the new single-party system would be called "Socialist Front Germany," could not be confirmed among Allied sources.

INVASION PLAN IS IDENTIFIED

Data Nazis Seized Were 5th Corps Orders

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 25 (AP). United States Army officers today identified the document captured by the Germans on the Normandy invasion beachhead as the "operational plan" of the American 5th Corps.

The 100-page document was taken from the body of a young American officer on June 7, 1944, the day after the invasion. The investigating officers said they found from German sources that the document was in Hitler's hands five days later.

However, Hitler was represented as doing nothing about it because he was convinced the Normandy operation was just a feint to mask a greater invasion elsewhere along the Atlantic fortress.

Disclosed By Huebner

Lieut. Gen. Clayton Huebner, United States ground-force commander in Germany, yesterday disclosed that the invasion plan had been captured by the Germans. He added that had the paper "been recognized for its true value the entire outcome of the war might have been different."

Officers of the historical research division of the European command told a more complete story of the captured document at a news conference today.

They said their information was obtained through interrogation of German officers as part of the overall task of writing the history of the Normandy campaign.

Taken Near Vierville

The Germans said the document, carried in a briefcase, was taken from the dead American officer near Vierville by a German grenadier regiment which had launched a counterattack.

Maj. Gen. Guenther Blumentritt, chief of staff of Nazi Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt, was quoted as saying the document reached headquarters the next day and "proved this was the invasion."

He added, however, that Hitler remained convinced until two months later that a greater invasion was in the making.

The Germans apparently did make use of the document but with little effect.

"Slight Tactical Disadvantages"

Lieut. Gen. Max Pemsel, chief of staff of the 7th Army, was quoted as saying the Germans' possession of the plan "caused the Americans only a slight tactical disadvantage."

Major Daniel T. Murphy, of the Bronx, N.Y., called the captured document a "big leak" but said it did not prove as bad as an advertisement which appeared in an unidentified British newspaper shortly before the invasion.

Murphy said the ad—a notice to file claims for property damages—tipped off the German intelligence to troop movements on the British coast.

Bradley Doubts Nazis Seized D-Day Plan

JAN

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—Reports that the Germans captured the Allies' Normandy invasion plan in 1944 brought head-shakes of doubt from some high army officers today.

But all the Army Department would say officially is that it is checking and is unable to say at this time whether the report is true or not.

Dispatches from Heidelberg, Germany, credited the story to Lieut. Gen. Clarence R. Heubner, chief of American ground forces in Europe.

Doubts Of Bradley

Here in Washington, Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army chief of staff, said he recalled no such incident.

Furthermore, Bradley said he doubted if the overall invasion plan would have been taken ashore on D-day.

He said he knew of no important papers that were captured during the early days of the invasion.

Bradley commanded the 1st United States Army, elements of which went ashore in France at Omaha and Utah beaches. Later he took command of a 12th Army Group composed of the 1st, 9th and 15th armies.

Only Few Copies

Another army officer, asking not to be named, said there were but a few copies of the entire invasion plan made and that they were numbered and carefully guarded. He added that as far as he knew all had been accounted for.

The entire invasion plan was described as a good-sized document. On legal size paper, it was about a foot high. Only a few high-ranking officers in the Allied command would have seen it.

The overall plan when put to use would be broken down into plans for corps, armies and then divisions. There would also be coordinating plans for Army and Air Force in the overall documents.

REDS SOVIETIZE GERMAN FISHING

1948

BERLIN, Jan. 25 — (AP) The Communist program for Sovietizing the economy of Russian-occupied eastern Germany now has reached the fishing industry with "people's-owned" fishing fleet.

Large sections of the manufacturing industry of the Russian zone already have been lumped into "people's owned" trusts after private owners had been dispossessed. This process is still going on at an accelerated pace under the Communist two-year economic plan.

Big and middle-class land owners in the Russian zone were dispossessed three years ago. Their manor-houses are being torn down to provide building materials for peasants' cottages. Where small farmers who got slices of the parceled-out land couldn' make a go of it—and there are thousands of them—they appear to be likely candidates for collectivization.

And now comes the socialized fishing fleet.

This was announced in the official Socialist Unity (Communist) Party press here.

It reported that at the port of Sassnitz on the Baltic island of Ruegen, the first such fleet was established under the two-year plan.

It starts with twenty cutters, which are to be increased to 200. The other 180 are to be built in "people's-owned" shipyards which once were privately owned.

Russians Bar RAF Salvage Of Plane

JAN 1948

Berlin, Jan. 25 (AP)—A Royal Air Force official in Hamburg said the Russians tonight turned back an RAF salvage party bound for the scene of an airlift plane crash that killed six Germans and a British airman.

The Russians did admit a medical officer, a nurse and a WAAF sergeant to care for the two British flyers and sixteen other Germans injured.

Earlier the Russians had told the RAF they would waive all formalities to let a party through to care for the crash victims and salvage the plane wreckage. But the salvage contingent of two officers and nine airmen was refused admission. The Russians said only that their refusal was on "orders from Berlin."

It is possible the injured crew members may be evacuated by ambulance tomorrow.

Russian Warns Germans Of U.S.

R. FASISCHKE

JAN

Berlin, Jan. 25 (AP)—A Russian spokesman told German Communists today the United States will use Germans for "cannon fodder" in a new war.

The spokesman was Col. Sergei Tulpanov, chief of the Soviet military administration's political division. He addressed a conference of the Socialist Unity (Communist) party of the Soviet occupation zone.

He denounced the Western Allies and the European Recovery Program. German Communists speakers who followed him chimed in with the same tune.

"Little Politburo" Set Up

The German Communists opened their four-day conference by aping the Russians. They created their own "Little Politburo," copied from the Communist party organ which rules Russia. The German version will run Communist affairs in the eastern zone under the Russian occupation forces.

The top three men named to the Politburo were Wilhelm Pieck and Otto Grotewohl, cochairmen of the Socialist Unity party; Friedrich Ebert, Soviet-picked lord mayor of eastern Berlin.

Tulpanov accused the Western powers of "depriving the Germans of the right to build a sovereign and democratic state" by policing the industrial Ruhr area. The West has undertaken to make certain that the Ruhr never again becomes an arsenal of aggression.

"Certain circles of the American imperialists, who are the instigators of a new war, aim to transform the German people into a tool of their imperialistic policies . . . and make them cannon fodder for the future," he said.

Italian Leaders And Cachin Meet At Rome Parley

Rome, Jan. 25 (AP)—French and Italian Communist leaders called on their 5,000,000 party members today to unite in a vast international "peace front" bossed by Russia.

This followed Russia's latest move in the econimic sphere—a linking of the Cominform nations in an "Economic Council of Mutual Assistance" to counter the Marshall plan for European recovery.

Leaders of the Italian Communist party announced the "peace" call after a conference here with Marcel Cachin, veteran French Communist leader.

Worker Assistance Asked

JAN

A party communiqué said that the biggest Communist parties outside Russia have been asked to throw "all their force" into a front against the "propaganda of hate, calumny, warlike preparations and policies of oppression."

The communiqué ordered workers of France and Italy to "fulfill their tasks of fighters of the international front, which, under the leadership of the great Soviet Union, is checking the forces of oppression and war."

It was the latest development in Russia's new "peace" tactics aimed at portraying the Communists as lovers of peace and all who differ with them as advocates of war.

Function In West

The communiqué described Cachin as a "peace messenger" and his mission as underlining "the common interests of the French and Italian people."

Cachin said the Communists of both countries have "an essential function in western Europe—to defend the peace and assure an effective united Europe against all attempts at division and foreign interference."

Both the French and Italian Communist parties were represented in the cabinets of their governments after the war. Both were kicked out by anti-Communist forces.

The communiqué said Cachin's conference with Italian Communist leaders had emphasized the necessity for effective collaboration between the two groups.

Intriques And Maneuvers

"It appears necessary," the communiqué added, "to oppose with the people's accord . . . the intrigues and maneuvers of warmakers and to guarantee security and international collaboration."

The language of this declaration and others issued by Communist leaders recently gave rise to an interpretation in some quarters that Russia had launched a "peace offensive," or at least a new propaganda line aimed at convincing the non-Communist world it can get along with Russia.

Something along this line developed at Frankfurt today, when Max Reimann, western Germany's top Communist leader, called for "better relations" between the United States and Russia.

GREECE CREATES NEW WAR COUNCIL

JAN 1948

HELEN NAMAS

ATHENS, Greece, Jan. 25 — (AP) Greece junked her supreme defense council and placed her campaign against Communist-led guerrillas in the hands of a war council today.

The United States and Britain have non-voting representatives on the war council, as they did on the defense council. Their delegates have no vote and are empowered only to discuss problems and advise the Greeks.

Reasons for Change

Two main objectives underlie creation of the new agency. War Minister Panayotis Canellopoulos described them as:

1. To give the armed forces' new supreme commander, Generalissimo Alexander Papagos, a freer hand to fight guerrillas.

2. To give the war effort an overall directing agency which would be more flexible and effective than the defense council.

Papagos' original request for the change had caused concern among American officials and some Greek politicians. He had said he wanted to work independently for foreign missions, and could do so under the plan.

Canellopoulos said the war council will have authority "over the whole life of the nation" which the defense council lacked. Its job is to coordinate military, economic and social aspects of the war, he said. But problems of military strategy will be the generalissimo's responsibility.

Permanent Greek council members are Premier Themistokles Sophoulis, Deputy Premier Alexander Diomedes, Foreign Minister Constantin Tsaldaris, War Minister Cancellopoulos, Minister of State Sophocles Venizelos, Navy Minister Cherassimos Vassiliades, Air Minister Aristide Protoppadakis, Public Order Minister Constantine Rentis, and Generalissimo Papagos.

The non-voting allied members are the chief of the American aid mission in Greece, U. S. Ambassador Henry F. Grady; Lt. Gen. James A. Vanfleet, head of the U. S. army mission; and Maj. Gen. H. H. Down, Head of the British army mission. Their powers are about the same as when they served in the defense council, Cancellopoulos said.

Fighting in 20 inches of snow, Greek troops killed 12 guerrillas and captured 48 in the Peloponnesus, an army communique reported. Three other guerrillas were killed and three captured in a clash near Karpenisi, 125 miles northwest of Athens, with government losses of three dead and 17 wounded, the communique said.

The fate of Karpenisi, reported captured by the Communists Jan. 20, still has not been announced officially.

King Paul and Queen Frederika lunched aboard the U. S. cruiser Colombus. They were guests of Adm. Richard L. Conolly, commander of U. S. naval forces in the eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean. Conolly's fleet of eight ships is to remain here until Wednesday.

Greeks Establish New Council To Direct War

Athens, Jan. 25 (AP)—The new Greek Government established today a war council to direct the campaign against the Communist guerrillas.

It supplants the peacetime Defense Council. The War Council was proposed by Generalissimo Alexander Papagos, recently named supreme commander in the fight against the rebels. Papagos asked two weeks ago that the War Council be established to give him a free hand, independent of foreign missions.

JAN 1948

Concern Is Expressed

Officials of the United States, which has largely been financing the Greek Army campaign, and Greek politicians had expressed concern over the plan.

War Minister Panayotis Canellopoulos said today:

"The War Council will have supreme authority over all general questions—economic, social and military—relating to prosecution of the civil war. The Supreme Defense Council was a peacetime organization and had power to solve only questions of a military nature. The new council is designed especially to cope with every emergency arising from the rebellion.

Has Fewer Members

"The War Council will be more competent because it will have more authority over the whole life of the nation. It will be a body coordinating the military, economic and social aspects of the war. All relative questions will be decided by the council."

The new council will have fewer members than the old defense council. The essential difference is that it excludes the chiefs of staff of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

The new War Council will not consider problems of military strategy and tactics such as did the Defense Council.

Canellopoulos said Generalissimo Papagos will decide on tactics and strategy.

To Decide Appointments

The council will have authority to decide appointments or dismissals of the chiefs of staff of the three services and of lieutenant generals in accordance with any proposal made by Papagos.

The council will be composed of twelve permanent members, including Prime Minister Themistokles Sophoulis, Deputy Premier Alexander Diomedes, Foreign Minister Constantine Tsaldaris, War Minister Canellopoulos, Minister of State Sophocles Venizelos, Navy Minister Cherassimos Vassiliades, Air Minister Aristides Protoppadakis, Public Order Minister Constantine Rentis and Generalissimo Papagos.

Three Allied Members

The Allied members will be the chiefs of the American aid mission in Greece, United States Ambassador Henry F. Grady, Lieut. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, head of the United States Army mission, and Maj. Gen. H. H. Down, head of the British Army mission.

Canellopoulos said the Allied representatives on the council will have the same powers they had on the Supreme Defense Council. They will enter discussions and advise, but not vote, he said.

The War Council is to meet later this week.

YUGOSLAVS CHARGE SABOTAGE BY WEST

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Jan. 25.—(AP) Col. Gen. Svetozar, Vukmanovic, minister of mines, says "western imperialists" have increased their acts of sabotage against Yugoslavia since Marshal Tito's split with the cominform.

Vukmanovic spoke to a "Peoples Front" meeting at Zagreb yesterday. He said Anglo-American "imperialists" were sending "the toughest Ustachi and Chetnik criminals" across the border into Yugoslavia to organize counter-revolutionary bands.

Former collaborators with the German occupation forces, he said, were being abundantly assisted in secret plotting and in large and small acts of sabotage.

5 NATIONS JOIN RUSS AID UNIT

'Economic Council Of Mutual Assistance' Organized

E. GILMORE

Moscow, Jan. 25 (AP)—The new Economic Council of Mutual Assistance organized by Russia and five of her neighbors was viewed by foreign diplomats here today as the East's answer to the West's European Recovery Program.

Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland and Romania joined Russia in forming the council at a Moscow conference earlier this month.

The formation of the council was announced today, with the aim, "The exchange of experience in the economic field, the rendering of technical assistance to each other, and the rendering of mutual assistance in regard to raw materials, foodstuffs, machinery, equipment, etc."

Obviously Key Nation

Russia, with her vast resources, is obviously going to be the key nation in the council.

There is no indication, however, that Russia intends to send rubles into the economy of her associates as the United States has sent dollars to Western Europe to speed recovery. Two-way trade agreements have linked members of the Soviet bloc since the end of the war. Its cominform, a Communist political grouping of the bloc, has been gunning for the European Recovery Program since October, 1947. British diplomats said they do not expect any major shift in Eastern European trade policies to result from the formation of the new council.

"Other countries of Europe that share the principles of the council and wish to participate in broad economic co-operation with the aforementioned countries" may join, it was announced.

Boycotts Charged

Of the council's principles defined, one of the foremost was a declaration that the United States, Britain and "certain other countries of Western Europe" are boycotting the six nations in trade.

Another was that the Marshall plan interferred with the sovereignty of nations.

To become a member of the council then, an applying country must at least view the Marshall plan and the present economic policy of the United States and Britain as they are regarded by the council.

Diplomats speculate that Albania and Finland, the Soviet-occupied sector of Germany and the Soviet-occupied sector of Austria may apply.

Yugoslav Isolation

The fact Yugoslavia was not among the organizing nations was still another step in the isolation of Premier Marshal Tito's nation from other Eastern European countries in the last six months. Cut off politically by the Cominform's denunciation of Tito and his aides, Yugoslavia is now all but cut off economically.

The Soviet Union still has a trade agreement with Yugoslavia, but it was curtailed seven-eighths in 1949 because of what the Russians described as "the unfriendliness of the Yugoslav Government."

The announcement did not say that nations now members of the Marshall plan program would be barred from council membership. But it was obvious that any countries seeking to join the council first would be obliged to renounce Marshall plan aid.

Mikoyan's Role Important

The Soviet Minister of Foreign Trade, A. I. Mikoyan, is destined to play an important role in the council's work.

An Armenian, Mikoyan is regarded as one of the best economic thinkers in the Soviet Union. He has taken part in talks on all trade agreements which the Soviet Union has made with the other five members of the assistance council.

Nothing official was announced on when the council will hold its first business meeting or where, but there were indications this will be soon. Inasmuch as it was formed in Moscow, the first session may be held here. If alphabetical order was followed, the first would be held in Bulgaria.

1949 GILMORE

Moscow, Jan. 25 (AP)—Russia and five other eastern European nations have organized a "Council of Economic Mutual Assistance"—obviously as an answer to the Marshall plan.

A communiqué announcing the plan said the United States and Britain are "boycotting" the six nations economically because they do not belong to the Marshall plan.

Others May Join Later

In consideration of "these circumstances," representatives of the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland, Romania and Czechoslovakia met in Moscow this month. They "discussed the question of organization of broader economic co-operation of the countries of the peoples' democracies and the U.S.S.R."

[The council appears to be an attempt at an Eastern counterpart of the Organization for European Economic Co-operation, the planning body of the Marshall-plan nations. This interpretation was strengthened by a Tass dispatch received in London which said in addition to stimulating trade the council's job will be to give technical help and economic experience and give one another a hand "in regard to raw materials, foodstuffs, machinery and equipment."]

The council left the door open for other nations to join.

"The conference recognized," the announcement said, "that the Council of Economic Mutual Assistance is an open organization which other countries of Europe may enter—countries which share the principles of the Council of Economic Mutual Assistance and which wish to participate in broad economic co-operation with the above-mentioned nations."

Open To Finland

Finland, which did not participate in the Marshall plan, obviously can apply for membership in the new group.

The announcement did not bar Marshall-plan nations from the council. However, it was obvious that any seeking membership would have to renounce Marshall aid and embrace the principles of the council nations.

Yugoslavia and Albania did not have representatives in Moscow to set up the council.

The six countries in the council already have extensive trade relations among themselves and during recent weeks have signed many agreements to step up their trade even further.

Agreement Is Needed

Trade with Yugoslavia has dropped to twelve per cent recently. Russia has blamed the "unfriendly attitude" of Premier Marshal Tito's regime. AP

Rule" In Congo Charged

ow, Jan. 25 (AP)—Pravda, the nist party newspaper, said Americans are "bosses" in the Belgian Congo. The article by Yuri Zhukov, Pravda's Paris correspondent, said the United States actually is in control over uranium mines and sources of other strategic minerals in the Belgian colony and that all Belgium got in exchange was "chewing gum, cigarettes and egg powder."

Two Soviet Ministries Merged

MOSCOW, Jan. 25 (AP)—A Government decree today announced that the Ministries of Food and Delicatessen Goods have been merged. This joining of related departments into one larger Ministry continues an eight-month trend in Soviet administration. Vassili P. Zotov was named head of the new ministry.

BIG VOTE MARKS ISRAEL ELECTION

J. MARSLONG

Two Labor Parties Take Early Lead in Nation's First Balloting

JAN 1950

TEL AVIV, Israel, (Wednesday), Jan. 26—(AP)—The men and women of the new state of Israel chose the first Hebrew parliament in history yesterday in an election marked by quiet and solemnity.

A high number of voters participated. Miliary security prevented publication of specific figures which would include voters in uniform. However, preliminary estimates said as many as 400,000 might have cast ballots.

Labor Parties In Lead

The first returns—admittedly inconclusive—showed two powerful labor parties, one headed by Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, in the lead.

The polling places closed at midnight and the counting of votes began. Final figures may not be known for several days.

Many men and women in uniform took part in this phase of laying the groundwork for a new democratic republic on the eastern shores of the Mediterranean. Numerous Arabs cast ballots, including Christian women as well as veiled Moslem women.

They elected a constituent assembly of 120 members to draft a constitution and form a government to replace the present provisional regime.

A count from 37 villages, mostly Jewish but some Arab, gave Ben-Gurion's Mapai, a strong labor party, and Mapam, the United Workers Party, each 32.5 per cent of the vote. Mapai is considered moderately leftist and Mapam far left.

There was only a scattering of votes for the 19 other parties, including rightwing nationalists and communists.

While first returns indicated the two strong labor parties would have an important influence in the new parliament, it was too early to predict any outcome.

23 Parties In Election

There are 21 political parties entered in the election. The issues were explosive and the voting was heavy, but no disorders were reported. The people seemed in a holiday mood as they trooped to polling places in colorful groups.

Ben-Gurion campaigned for support of his program to form the state within the framework of United Nations approval, then settle down to peace with world recognition. His party has been the strongest in the country and the majority party in the provisional government.

Challenging him strongly is the freedom movement of Menachem Beigin, a rightist party born of the underground Irgun Zvai Leumi. Beignin's party demands that Israel carve out a border national homeland, even if that means a longer war. He wants it to include at least all of Palestine.

Many observers said Beigin's party may emerge from today's voting as the strongest opposition party.

Preliminary reports from across the country indicated the vote might exceed 400,000. Even at the front lines, soldiers were relieved in relays to march to polling places.

The campaign closed in flurries of oratory and handbills from the multiple parties, some of them collaborating. They represent practically every shade of political opinion under the sun.

Communists Have Ticket

A strong party is the far-left united workers party, Mapam. A Jewish Communist party had a ticket in the field. Five all-Arab lists of candidates were entered, to represent Israel's minority Moslem population.

A coalition of Jewish religious parties wants the state to derive its laws from the ancient Hebrew Scriptures. One party campaigned to insist that Jerusalem be added to Israel's territory and be made its capital. A woman's party had a slate of candidates.

All told, the voters are asked to pick the 120 Constituent Assembly members from 1,282 aspirants.

Israel Voting; Tally Is Due By Friday

ERIC GOTTGETREU

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 25 (AP)—Citizens of Israel voted today in the Jewish state's first elections.

It was a wartime election, with about 40,000 Arabs expected to participate. The returns were not expected to be announced before Friday because it will take that long to hear from all the outposts and truce lines where Israel's soldiers are voting. For security reasons it was unlikely the civilian vote would be announced separately.

Weizmann Votes

President Chaim Weizmann voted at Rehovoth, on the road to Jerusalem. Mrs. Weizmann cast her ballot before the President.

The 400,000 Israelis expected to vote today will choose 120 members of a constituent assembly which will draft the state's constitution, set up a government replacing the present provisional regime, chart a course of peace or war, and, in general, lay what is intended to be the permanent foundation of the new Jewish state.

French Recognition

A huge piece of that foundation fell into place when France and Italy announced recognition of the state, and the British Government decided to do so in a few days. Australia, New Zealand, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg were expected to follow. France was the twenty-third nation to recognize Israel.

Rhodes Delegates Seek Concessions

U.S. CHARGES

Rhodes, Jan. 25 (AP) — Peace makers are seeking concessions from Egypt and Israel to save their armistice talks from failure.

Emissaries from both sides left today to report to their governments on the stalemate.

Col. Ismail Sherrine, of the Egyptian delegation, headed for Cairo. Col. David Shaltiel, inspector general of the Israeli Army, and Reouvain Shiloah, special affairs director of the Foreign Office, returned to Tel Aviv.

Soon To Feed 600,000

While the negotiations remained snagged on the thorn of defining boundaries, reports from Jerusalem said the United Nations soon will be feeding the 600,000 or so Arab refugees from Palestine war areas.

Stanton Griffis, United Nations director of relief for Palestine, said "the refugee problem will settle itself" if the warring parties get together. He said labor is so scarce in the Middle East that the refugees quickly can become self-supporting after peace is restored.

But within two weeks, he said, 500,000 will be fed through his agency.

Commission Heads Delayed

Members of the Palestine Conciliation Commission, created by the United Nations to assume mediation functions now handled by Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, still awaited arrival in Jerusalem of enough members to begin functioning.

Hussein Yalchin, the Turkish member, was stalled at Beirut by bad flying weather.

The chief United States delegate, newly appointed Mark F. Ethridge, Jr., Louisville (Ky.) publisher, had not yet started.

France is the third member.

Despite their joy at finally reaching their destination some still voiced bitterness over their internment.

Resentment Voiced

"Although many things passed my life during the last eleven years," said a 21-year-old Jew, whose parents were killed by the Germans, "it will be hard to forget the last 23 months in prison here."

Britain has been holding Jews on Cyprus since 1946 when she set up an air and naval blockade of the Palestine coast to halt immigration to the Holy Land, held illegal under the mandatory power. There were about 12,000 immigrant Jews on Cyprus when Britain decided to begin releasing them.

Craft Intercepted

The British gave up their mandate last spring but continued to hold Jews of military age in the Cyprus detention camps. Last week Britain announced she was ready to release the internees.

The Theodor Herzl, carrying 2,400 uncertified Jewish immigrants, tried to reach Palestine in April, 1946. The vessel, which had many women and children aboard, was intercepted by a British destroyer. A violent fight ensued. Two of the refugees were killed in the fight and 26 wounded.

The ship was named for an Austrian Jew who founded political Zionism a half century ago.

Cyprus Refugees Greeted At Haifa

Haifa, Israel, Jan. 25 (AP)—Guns thundered a salute and crowds shouted a joyous welcome today to 1,500 Jews whose arrival in Haifa harbor brought a happy ending to a saga of tragedy and frustration.

These Jews were the first to sail from internment since the British decided recently to release refugees held on the Island of Cyprus. They were the same group who tried to reach Israel two years ago aboard the ill-fated ship Theodor Herzl. Then they were fired upon by a British destroyer and two of their number were killed.

It was a far different story today.

Flags Bedeck Port

Jewish naval craft, bedecked with flags, ushered in the group aboard the S.S. Galila.

With tears in their eyes, the refugees asked: "Are these all Jewish ships?"

More flags bedecked the port where two years ago the British imposed a curfew to deport refugees to internment on Cyprus.

Israeli officials came aboard to greet the travelers as detachments of troops and police paraded in front of the ship.

Haifa Guns Salute Cyprus Refugees

HAIFA, Israel, Jan. 25—(AP)—A thunderous salute greeted 1,500 Jews released from interment by the British and brought to Israel today in time to see their homeland's first election.

It was a happy ending to a grim story.

Two years ago, when Palestine was under British mandate, they tried to run a British blockade in the ill-fated ship Theodor Herzl. A British destroyer fired on them, and there was fierce hand-to-hand fighting with a boarding party from the destroyer. Two of the Jews were killed, 26 wounded, and all of the survivors were interned on Cyprus.

Today they sailed into Haifa harbor aboard the SS Galila, and many of them wept with joy. Guns fired a salute. Flag-decked Jewish naval craft sailed out to greet them.

Recognition For Israel

Rome, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Israeli consul in Rome, Arie Oran, announced today he was informed Italy is taking steps toward de facto recognition of Israel.

The announcement said:

"Mr. Arie Oran, Israel consul at Rome, was today informed at the Italian Foreign Office that instructions had been given to the Italian consul general at Jerusalem to approach the Israel Government for conversations leading to the de facto recognition of Israel by the Italian Government."

De facto recognition means recognition that a nation exists. It could be followed later by de jure, or full, recognition of legal existence.

Notes Announcing Decision to Move Government Are Recalled

JAN 1949

PEACE TALKS NEAR

Communists Broadcast Willingness to Open Par-

ley in Peiping

NANKING, (Wednesday), Jan. 26—(AP) There were indications today of dissension within what's left of the government at Nanking over abandonment of this capital city.

China's government appears to be changing its mind hourly.

One diplomatic source said there was serious conflict within government circles over whether to move, when and how.

JAN 1949

Peace Talk Proposal

While this was going on, the communists broadcast willingness to talk peace at Peiping—on their own terms though.

Yesterday the foreign office said notes were being distributed to diplomatic missions announcing a decision to move the seat of government southward. Canton was the indicated spot.

After nine notes were distributed, someone decided the memorandum was not sufficiently filled with qualifying phrases to completely bewilder the recipients.

So the notes were recalled with some blushes and an official source said a new memorandum was being prepared. It was expected to say about the same thing in a different language.

There was no immediate indication the communist decision would halt the swift abandonment of the capital. Frantic thousands of citizens jammed trains and railway stations, trying to get out.

Some sources said acting president Li Tsung-Jen probably soon would join the exodus to the south.

Official reaction to the Red offer was lacking. Li previously had accepted the Red terms, however, as a basis for opening peace talks. The communist terms call for the trial of "war criminals." And Li is on their list to be tried.

It was hoped that the communist officer would spare Nanking from bombardment. Powerful red forces were moving almost unopposed to the Yangtze.

Latest reports said the Reds already had seized Kuachou, on the north bank opposite Chekiang, 40 miles east of Nanking. From there they can harass shipping with artillery or small arms fire.

Deserted by Defenders

Pukow, across the Yangtze from Nanking, was all but deserted of government defenders. An estimated 150,000 Red troops were moving on that railway city.

With the main force only a few miles away, Red vanguards were expected to enter Pukow almost at any moment. Then Nanking will be within easy artillery range.

The Red radio, as heard in Nanking, said the communists were willing to talk peace at a conference in Peiping as soon as "the city is completely liberated."

(Associated Press Correspondent Spencer Moosa said in a dispatch from Peiping that the "new order" —meaning the communists—still was operating in the background "but this lessens none of its strength.")

The communists scratched from the nationalist list of five peace delegates the name of Peng Chao-hsien, minister of interior. They said Peng is a member of the extreme right wing of the kuomintang (Chiang Kai-shek's party.)

The Red broadcast emphasized that its "war criminal" list still is incomplete. Then it declared any negotiations must be based on communist leader Mao Tze-tung's eight-point program.

The first point on Mao's list is the trial of all "war criminals." Among these are president Chiang Kai-shek, who has retired to his ancestral home of Fengwha leaving vice president Li in charge.

Other points call for uprooting of the new constitution and the Kuomintang government confiscation of "bureaucratic" capital and the cancellation of treaties with the U. S. and other western powers.

Meanwhile, the foreign office sent official notices to the various embassies saying the government was moving south.

Gives No Destination

It gave no destination or timetable, but one official source said the movement would be completed about the middle of February. Canton, where many officials already are operating, was the likely site.

The notice was regarded as a new effort to persuade the diplomatic corps to follow the government. The embassies made no motions to move south when they were told Jan. 19 that a number of ministries were leaving Nanking.

Whether they would move now was a matter up to their governments. Many of them believe they should stay here to meet whatever regime arises. They also complain of lack of accommodations in Canton.

Many officials were predicting the government will be functioning in Canton before many more days pass. Only a handful of officials remain in Nanking now. Most official sources of information were closed.

Chinese Government Flees; Reds Ready To Discuss Peace

JAMES WHITE JAN 1949

Nanking, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Chinese Government headed southward today a few minutes after the Communists offered by radio to meet Nationalist peace envoys in Peiping.

A Foreign Office spokesman revealed the southward move without giving the Government's destination, which presumably will be Canton. Some ministries already have left for Canton.

The Government and Communist announcements both came as Red patrols arrived on the north banks of the Yangtze River not far from the capital.

Peace Offer Broadcast

Removal of the seat of the Government was expected to be completed by the middle of next month, an official spokesman said.

The peace offer was broadcast as the capital's populace poured out of the Red-periled city, which was raped in 1937 by the Japanese.

The note followed the failure of the Government to get the embassies to move southward when they were notified on January 19 that certain ministries would be moved to Canton.

The formal notice of the Government's move was regarded as a further effort in that direction. One official source said the timetable for completing the Government's move would run to about the middle of February.

Reject One Member

The Red radio broadcast its offer to meet the peace envoys of the Government as Communist patrols reached the opposite bank of the Yangtze River.

A radio spokesman for the Communists said the talks could be held in Peiping as soon as that ancient North China city, taken Saturday by the Reds, "is completely liberated."

He said Acting President Li Tsung-jen's five-man peace delegation was acceptable to the Communists except for one member, Peng Shao-hsien. Peng was identified by the Red broadcast as a member of the strong Rightist clique of the Kuomintang (Government) party.

Other members of the delegation are Shao Li-tze, Chang Chih-chung, Huang Shao-hsiung and Chung Tien-sin.

The Red spokesman listed "certain conditions" to which the Government must agree for the peace talks to be held. Among them were the eight points laid down by Communist leader, Mao Tze-tung, on January 14. Li already has said he would accept them—and they mean virtually total surrender.

The radio spokesman said the Communist "war-criminal" list, announced after Chiang Kai-shek's year-end statement, could not be considered complete. Chiang, now in at least temporary retirement, heads that list. It also includes Li and many other national leaders.

Hope To Spare City

The radio response to the Government's offer to send a delegation to talk peace stirred hopes that negotiations could be started soon enough to save Nanking from bombardment.

The capital was being feverishly evacuated by many Government officials and citizens.

The formal Foreign Office statement said:

"With reference to the transfer of the seat of the Government southward, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, in accordance with the decision of the Government has this evening, January 25, sent identical notes to foreign embassies and legations in Nanking."

Troops Called

Acting President Li Tsung-jen called to the Nanking area 50,000 of his troops from the west.

Chiang, sitting beside the tombs of his ancestors in Chikow, was still President, his chief spokesman said. His retirement, the spokesman pointed out, made Li only the Acting President because Chiang was not here.

That added to the confusion. Many thought now that Nationalist China, so hopeful of peace a few days ago, might be heading back to its old feudal days with war lords bickering and fighting for power and taxes.

Envoy Sent

Li sent a representative to Peiping, which the Communists now hold, to study the local surrender there.

In Shanghai, Li's representatives talked peace with leaders of the once-outlawed Democratic League. Earlier these same leaders had given them the cold shoulder.

Freedom was granted old political enemies of Chiang by the Acting President. Among those ordered released were Marshal Chang Hsueh-liang of Manchuria. He has been held on Formosa.

In the midst of the bustle the legislative Yuan held an informal meeting. Its president, Tung Kuan-hsien, told members that the next meeting would be held in February "not likely in Nanking."

Disorderly Session

The meeting got a little disorderly when members began to haggle over whether to run with the mob or linger on. Then the membership fell to belaboring the executive Yuan. They blamed it for a contradictory policy—proposing peace talks on one hand and speeding the Government's removal on the other.

Latest reports said the Communists had taken Kuachou, on the north bank of the river opposite the town of Chinkiang. From there the Reds could harass river shipping. More troops were nearing Pukow. From there they could shell the capital across the river.

Only Admiral Kwei Yung-chin's thin line of naval craft on the Yangtze stood between Nanking and the Reds.

North China Reds Get ECA Goods

JAN 1949

Shanghai, Jan. 25 (AP)—About $4,000,000 worth of American ECA goods were in Peiping and Tientsin when the two cities were captured by the Communists, Economic Cooperation Administration officials said today.

ECA offices there have been instructed tentatively to try to continue their program, the officials said. Rationing of the existing stocks of food and cotton piece goods is to proceed as long as they are "used in the interests of the Chinese people."

Co-Operation Promised

James T. Ivy, regional director for Tientsin, is reported to have been assured Communist co-operation for completion of his project, which is largely relief. The status of the Peiping office is not yet clear, since the Communists only captured the ancient city last week.

ECA Director Paul Hoffman said in Washington that future operations in Chinese Red areas will depend largely upon State Department decisions.

While that decision is pending, ECA officials here disclosed that millions of dollars worth of goods are either on the way to China, landed or actually under transfer to Chinese agencies.

Priest Missing In Peiping

Peiping, Jan. 25 (AP)—Catholic sources in this Communist-captured city today expressed fears for a priest, Severino Fontana, missing since he left for the western suburbs January 10. He belonged to the Stimatini Order of Verona, Italy. The Red siege was in progress when he left the city walls to visit a house in the suburbs.

Peiping Talks Before Siege

Peiping, Jan. 25 (AP)—The negotiations which turned Peiping over to the Communists were as singular as the siege itself.

The siege began January 12 with the Communist in control of the power plants but furnishing the city with power.

While illumination was erratic, power ran the pumps which provided part of the city with running water.

During the siege, the Communists lobbed in a few shells, but the city never had to go through a real bombardment.

The peace negotiations, at different levels, began well before the siege itself.

Communists Given Credentials

Communist delegates were inside Peiping by the tacit approval of Gen. Fu Tso-yi, the commander in the north. They were allowed to operate their own radio station, and communicate with other Communist stations.

These delegates were equipped with special passes by Fu. They also had resident cards and other credentials.

Gen. Teng Pao-shan, former commander in northern Shensi who was recently appointed deputy commander to Fu, made several hush-hush trips to Communist territory. He was one of the instruments in bringing peace.

Teng was the leading Nationalist representative in the final peace deal in which the word "surrender" never was used.

Prof. Chang Tung-sun, of Yenching University, who was secretary-general of the outlawed Democratic League, also played a big role.

He made several trips into Communist territory. Once he conferred with Gen. Lin Piao, commander of Communist forces from Manchuria, and Gen. Nieh Jung-cheng, Communist commander in North China.

Reds In China Eyed For Sign Of Dissension

E. BOMAR JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—American officials are keeping a sharp watch for signs that the Chinese Communists may be plagued by some of the same internal divisions that have weakened China for decades.

Signs of differences among the Communist leaders which have cropped up thus far have been inconclusive. But diplomatic authorities suspect they may become more definite as the Communists settle down to administer the vast area they already have overrun.

One current indication of possible disunity is a report which said a Japanese who escaped after working for the Communists in Manchuria found they were split into several major cliques. The report was in a radio broadcast recorded by United States Government monitors.

Report From Nanking

The broadcast originated in Nanking, the Nationalist capital, and for that reason was discounted for propaganda content, but it fitted into other reports and speculation of the same nature.

The Japanese, identified as Atsushi Yoshida, was quoted as saying that within the Communist organization there were such cliques as the "international faction," another loyal to Mao Tse-tung, the No. 1 Communist leader, the military group and a "native" faction. In Manchuria he said that the top local Communist leaders Lin Piao and Li Li-san are trying to disassociate themselves from the so-called Central Communist party of Mao.

Doubtful On Manchuria

American officials say they look for the Communists to stick together at least during the time when they are winning sweeping military successes.

Should a major break come, Manchuria is viewed as a probable source, with the extent of Soviet Russia's influence in this rich northeast area the issue. What is going on there now can hardly be more than guessed at here, since the State Department's reports are fragmentary.

Link To Russia

Officials noted Li Li-san was long a rival of Mao, the man who was instrumental in Li's expulsion from the Chinese Communist party in 1928. Later Li spent fifteen years in Moscow, and diplomatic authorities suspect he takes his cue from Russia rather than the Chinese Communist party.

All this fits into the idea the Communists may find it as difficult to incorporate Manchuria into a unified China as did the Nationalists before the Japanese seized it in 1931. Manchuria adjoins Russia's Far East, and the Soviets were granted special rights there by the 1945 Moscow treaty. They include keeping of Soviet forces in Dairen and Port Arthur and running the Manchurian railways.

Chinese Fears For Religion

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—A ranking Chinese churchman predicted today that religion is doomed in China if the Communists win control of the country.

The Most Rev. Paul Yu Pin, Catholic Archbishop of Nanking, made the statement as he left the White House after calling on President Truman.

The Archbishop said the Church already has been persecuted in North China, where the Communists are in control. If the Communists take over the country, he said, there may be a certain tolerance for the Church in the beginning.

But in the end, the Archbishop predicted, the Church will be wiped out. He is en route to China from Rome, where he visited Pope Pius. Representative McCormack (Mass.), House Democratic leader, accompanied him to the White House.

Sympathy Not Enough

The Archbishop said he did not discuss China's problems with Mr. Truman. But in response to a question as to whether the President had expressed sympathy for the plight of the Chinese people in the civil war, he replied:

"We have a lot of sympathy from the American people, but sympathy from our friends will not be enough."

The Archbishop made this indirect reference to a need for aid shortly after Representative Kennedy (D., Mass.) in a House speech blamed the State Department and the White House for what he said was the failure of American policy in the Orient.

Kennedy said the Administration dealt "a crippling blow" to the Chinese National Government by tying strings to American help against the Communists.

Coalition Proposals Scored

He blamed this on a policy of "continued insistence that aid would not be forthcoming" to China unless a coalition government was formed with the Communists. He added:

"This House must now assume the responsibility of preventing the onrushing tide of communism from engulfing all of Asia."

Meanwhile, the State Department reported that all Americans in Peiping apparently escaped injury when the Communists took over the city.

Michael J. McDermott, State Department press officer, said reports from the consul general there indicate no Americans were killed or injured in the fighting.

McDermott said the reports covered 193 Americans in Peiping and 4 in the near-by town of Tungchow.

He said there has been no recent word from 45 Americans living in Peiping's western suburbs, but they were reported safe and well after the Communists occupied those areas.

Tsiang Says Coalition Would Be Dictatorship

New York, Jan. 25 (AP)—A coalition government in China can be nothing "but a white-washed Communist dictatorship," Dr. T. F. Tsiang, China's chief delegate to the United Nations, declared tonight.

"In spite of temporary compromises for reasons of political tactics," Dr. Tsiang said, "the Chinese Communists, if successful, will no doubt impose a minority dictatorship in China. They will at first limit and later abolish all individual freedoms. Their philosophy is totalitarianism."

Dr. Tsiang spoke at a meeting of the American Bureau for Medical Aid to China, Inc. He described the present developments in China as "the greatest crisis the Chinese people have ever faced in all China's history."

Gen. MacArthur's Staff To Try One More Crime

Tokyo, Jan. 25 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters was granted permission today to start one more war crimes trial, although the deadline for opening such trials was January 1.

The Army Department in Washington authorized the legal section to proceed with the trial of Sergeant Suekatsu Matsuki, wanted on a charge of beheading a captured United States flyer.

An exception was made in Matsuki's case because he eluded attempts to arrest him for more than a year and was not seized until last December, shortly before the deadline.

STOLEN WIFE JOB FOR U.N.

Trusteeship Council Gets Plea From Bereft Husband

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 25 (AP)—The United Nations may have to decide soon whether it should help Jean Mouen get his wife back from another man in darkest Africa.

This issue has been placed before the Trusteeship Council by Mouen, a frontier guard in the French Cameroons, in a formal request for help.

Mouen told the Council his wife, Regine Ngo Bogmis, a member of a Cameroons tribe, was stolen by Henri Souisse, a French colonist while he was away fighting for France in the war.

Mouen said Souisse refused to give up the stolen bride and contended the local prosecutor shelved the case because of his poverty.

Mouen said he returned home from the army to find "my father dead, my huts in ruins and my whole fortune decimated."

His misery was complete, he said, when he found that "a Frenchman, in repayment for my having risked my life for his country, cruelly bereft me of all I had left, my wife."

"This, Mr. President, is the cruel injustice which is bringing me to my grave and on behalf of which I appeal to supreme justice and your powerful assistance," Mouen said.

The letter will be considered along with scores of other petitions from individuals and groups in the trust territories under the Council's supervision. All such letters are made public under the Council's rules.

New Indonesia Order Is Urged

Lake Success, Jan. 25 (AP)—Egypt urged the United Nations Security Council today to order immediate withdrawal of Dutch troops from territory formerly held by the Indonesian Republic.

India and the Philippines supported this stand. But no country went so far as to present a formal amendment to a resolution submitted last week to the Council by the United States, China, Norway and Cuba.

The Council adjourned at 6.28 P.M. until 11 A.M. Thursday, with the Indonesian delegate ready to make a statement. Some delegates said they expected the Council would vote Thursday on the proposal.

Expected To Be Approved

The four-power resolution was given a good chance by delegates to win council approval. Russia assailed the resolution last week but a reliable source now says Russia would not veto it.

The resolution proposes creation of a United Nations' commission on Indonesia which would recommend the withdrawal of Dutch soldiers as it felt necessary.

Mahmoud Bey Fawzi, Egyptian delegate, whose country was the only Security Council member to take part in the recent Asian conference in New Delhi, particularly attacked the resolution provisions on troop withdrawals.

He said Egypt believed the council should order this step, instead of leaving it to a mere recommendation of a proposed commission.

Appeasement Charged

Fawzi said the four-power resolution was marked by a spirit of appeasement toward the Netherlands.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, Britain, warned in effect that the four-power resolution would not get majority approval if it were changed along the lines suggested by Fawzi and by the Indian representative here, Sir Benegal Rama Rau.

STOCKPILING SPEEDUP MAY CAUSE PINCH

But Munitions Board Sees Few Shortages Among 68 Items

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP) — The Government has ordered a speedup in its $3,700,000,000 program of stockpiling war materials—with the result that some civilian products may be scarcer, the munitions board disclosed today.

Just what civilian goods will be affected by the stepped-up tempo of the layaway plan could not be learned, but an official doubted that it would be felt "too badly" by the nation's housewives. Civilian needs for lead, copper and zinc may be affected especially.

The main reason for the speedup, Chairman Donald F. Carpenter explained, was the decision to compete with civilians for the 68 critical items needed for the United States war chest.

Some Cuts Necessary

Previously, the board had tried not to buy materials badly needed for civilian reconversion. But it is felt now that the reconversion period is over and the stockpile purchases will not hurt much, officials said.

"While in some cases it may be necessary to cut into the supplies needed to fill civilian demand," Carpenter said, "this will mean only the deferment of a few requirements now so that the country will not be dangerously short of critical materials later, should there be a national emergency."

A high official, who declined to be quoted by name, said the increased buying was not due to any threat of war soon.

At Ten Times 1946 Rate

"The general feeling was that stockpiling should be given greater importance even though it gave some impact to the civilian economy," he said.

Buying at ten times the 1946 rate, the board has used up all the $525,000,000 voted by the last Congress and wants $310,000,000 more to finish out this fiscal year. If it gets this it expects to reach 39 per cent of the overall stockpile goal by July.

It has bought or contracted for half of the materials on its 1948-49 shopping list, and has various quantities of the remainder lined up. Adding $75,000,000 in cash obtained last year for contracts signed the year before, the board will have spent or obligated from July, 1948, to June, 1949, nearly $1,000,000,000.

Should Reach Goal In 1952

By July, 1950, the stockpile is planned to top the 60 per cent mark and the program should be completed by mid-1952, one year longer than originally planned, the official said.

No specific tonnages could be obtained on the grounds of "security."

Last year, however, the board issued a tonnage list of the most important materials. This showed it was planning to buy 30,000 tons of copper, 16,000 tons of lead and 16,000 of zinc. Also on that list was 1,000,000 pounds of pepper, the only foodstuff mentioned.

One of the difficulties the board has faced has been getting industry voluntarily to set aside so much of its production for the Government's needs. It was not considered good policy to mention compulsory legislation to get these materials but reports circulated in industry circles that this was being planned if producers did not agree voluntarily.

ECA ANNOUNCES PLAN TO HELP ERP NATIONS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Economic Cooperation Administration announced tonight a new system by which Marshall Plan countries could make direct payment for recovery goods in United States dollars.

Melville E. Locker, a spokesman for the ECA controller's office, said the policy shift would eliminate private banking fees in certain cases, speed up payments to suppliers and help the dollar balance of Marshall Plan nations.

Under the plan ECA will set up so-called "revolving fund" accounts for the nineteen nations participating in the European Recovery Program. The funds are payable through the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and will permit foreign nations to draw on the accounts to pay directly for United States goods and services.

Most of ECA's financing previously was done through letters of commitment issued to banks, which in turn authorized credits for specific amounts to nations getting aid. For this service the private banking firms received fees and interest charges.

Bruce Agrees To Remain On Job With ECA

Washington, Jan. 25 (AP)—President Truman has persuaded Howard Bruce to stay on his job as deputy administrator of the Economic Co-operation Administration.

Bruce had wanted to resign the end of this month. The White House said today he had agreed to remain at the President's request.

It was not announced how long he had agreed to stay.

GIESEKING LEAVES U. S., PROTESTING 'ROUGH' TACTICS

NEW YORK, Jan. 25. — (AP) Walter Gieseking, German concert pianist accused of association with Nazis, left by plane for Paris today after declaring "I'm disgusted."

He said at Idlewild Airport he had been "treated too roughly here."

His sudden departure, after cancellation of his entire American tour, was by agreement with the government which told him to leave or be interned at Ellis Island pending an exclusion hearing.

Concert Cancelled

The agreement to leave was reached with immigration officials late yesterday only a few hours before Gieseking was scheduled to appear in Carnegie Hall before a sell-out audience. Cancellation of the concert came too late to notify the 2,670 ticket holders, many of whom milled about the hall with hundreds of pickets. Police broke up several minor scuffles.

The pianist had been scheduled to play 30 to 40 concerts in this country.

Musicians, Jewish groups, congressmen and others had protested against Gieseking's playing in the United States. They contended he played for Hitler and collaborated with the Nazis during their entire term of power in Germany.

The bald, 53-year-old pianist denied he ever was a Nazi.

At the airport, Gieseking said

"it's not fit to print" when asked for comment on his quick return to Europe.

Glad to Go to France

"If I had not played the piano and I had joined the German army and killed 100 American soldiers I'd be a hero," he said. "I will be glad when I get to France. There is more freedom there."

The musician said angrily "I can make more money in Europe" after he was asked if he was disappointed at losing his American fees.

He added "this is the first time in my life I have not been treated as an artist should be treated."

Gieseking said he did not stay to fight the exclusion proceedings because "it would take two or three months" and "I did not want to go to Ellis Island. I'm disgusted."

After the pianist's departure, his New York manager, Charles L. Wagner, indicated Gieseking would seek a review of the matter to clear his name of any "Nazi taint."

Wagner said the musician told him "it is a pity that the pressure groups which activated the government into this action against me were prompted by outright lies."

Gieseking was blacklisted by American government officials in 1945 but the decision was reversed two years later.

Similarly, the state department issued him a visa and he arrived here from France Saturday but the Department of Justice moved against him yesterday. ADD

AXIS SALLY WEEPS AT TREASON TRIAL

ROGER GREENE

Counsel Says She Was Under 'Hypnotic Influence' of Nazi Official

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25. — (AP) Nazi Germany's "Axis Sally," 48-year-old Mildred E. Gillars, wept at her treason trial today as defense counsel contended that she came under the "hypnotic influence" of a German official in wartime Berlin.

If convicted, the Maine-born defendant faces a possible maximum penalty of death in the electric chair.

The government pictured her to the jury as a traitress who served Hitler's Germany by telling radio listeners that World War II was a conflict of "Jews against Gentiles."

"Under Hypnotic Spell"

Then Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin arose to describe Miss Gillars as basically a good woman who fell under the hypnotic spell of Dr. Max Otto Koischwitz after she went to Berlin.

Laughlin contended that Mr. Koischwitz swayed her to follow the Nazi viewpoint and that she lived in day-and-night fear of her life from the German Gestapo.

At that point, Miss Gillars daubed her eyes.

Dr. Koischwitz died in the fall of 1944. Laughlin said Koischwitz was in charge of Nazi propaganda broadcasts to the United States and to American troops overseas. Previously, Laughlin said, Koischwitz had been a professor at Hunter College, N. Y.

Although capital punishment is a possibility, the government made no specific demand for the death penalty. That is because the jury will pass only upon the guilt or innocence of the once glamorous but now fading defendant.

In federal court, the judge, not the jury, fixes the punishment upon conviction.

Sold U. S. for Gold, Is Charge

At the outset, the prosecution sketched Miss Gillars as a woman who betrayed her country for gold after a more or less obscure career that began when she was a stage-struck girl in her native Portland, Me.

But Defense Attorney James J. Laughlin painted the defendant in entirely different colors. He contended that Miss Gillars was a loyal American who "said no more and did no more than thousands and perhaps millions in this country did or said."

She firmly believed, Laughlin went on, that the United States should keep out of the war and that President Roosevelt was "deceiving the American people."

In a surprise move, defense attorneys agreed with the prosecution on a stipulation that Miss Gillars "is now and always has been" an American citizen. Proof of citizenship is required for a treason conviction.

Before the trial opened, it had been expected that the defendant would contend she was not a U. S. citizen during the war but rather was the widow of a German officer.

Underscoring what it calls the importance of Miss Gillars' role in the German war effort, the prosecution called as its first witness a former high official of the German radio, Adelbert Houben, to testify on the amount of her Nazi-paid salary.

Houben said only the top official of the German overseas radio got more pay than "Axis Sally." He said she averaged 2,000 to 3,000 marks a month—for her radio programs which were directed to American GI's and other allied troops. This would be roughly $800 to $1,200 according to the "official" rate of exchange but its buying power would depend on rationing conditions, etc.

Houben testified that he received 1,100 marks a month as overseas broadcast manager. He said the director-general of all overseas operations got 3,000 marks per month.

Houben said he first met Miss Gillars in the summer of 1941 when she became a free-lance announcer for the German radio. Subsequently he said, she directed "several items" on German overseas broadcasts, including a program called "Midge at the Mike"—directed at American women.

The witness further testified he could not recall any "Home, Sweet Home" program in which she did not appear. This was a feature in which Miss Gillars allegedly attempted to make American soldiers homesick and weaken their fighting morale by playing nostaligic back-home musical numbers.

Chief Prosecutor Kelley told the jurors that later on in the trial, which may take as long as two months, they will hear recordings of about 20 radio programs in which Miss Gillars worked for the Germans.

The 10-count indictment accuses her of giving "aid and comfort" to this country's enemies from early 1940 until Germany surrendered, May 8, 1945. She has pleaded innocent.

The question of a possible death sentence, emphasized in yesterday's selection of the jury, came up again as the trial got under way today.

This developed when one of the six women jurors, Mrs. Elizabeth Barker, a beauty shop operator, was dismissed from the jury box after she had told the court clerk she was opposed to capital punishment.

Asked by Judge Edward M. Curran why she did not speak out yesterday, before the jury was seated, Mrs. Barker explained that she had never served on a jury before and had "made a mistake."

An alternate, Henry G. Davis, Jr., took Mrs. Barker's place in the box, thus shifting the balance to seven men and five women jurors instead of the original six and six.

Big Nazi Pay Given Axis Sally

JAN 1949

First Witness Testifies Only Head of German Overseas Radio Drew More.

Washington, Jan. 25 (A. P.).—Only the top official of the German overseas radio got more pay than Axis Sally, a witness told a United States District Court jury here today.

Mildred E. Gillars, 48, is on trial on treason charges for making wartime broadcasts for the Nazi radio.

Adelbert Houben, a former official of the German radio, testified that Miss Gillars averaged 2,000 to 3,000 marks a month for her various radio programs. Houben, who was overseas broadcast manager, testified that he received 1,100 marks a month. Asked by John M. Kelley Jr., chief prosecutor, whether any one got more pay than Miss Gillars, the witness replied that the director general of all overseas operations received 3,000 marks a month.

Opposite Views Voiced.

Houben, a witness in two previous treason trials in this country, took the witness stand immediately after prosecution and defense attorneys had completed their opening statements to the jury. Kelley pictured Miss Gillars as a traitor, while her attorney, James J. Laughlin, described her as a loyal American.

Houben said he first met Miss Gillars in the summer of 1941 when she became a free lance announcer for the German radio. He said that she had charge of several items on German overseas programs. One of them, called "Midge at the Mike," was directed to American women. He mentioned, among other programs, one called "Home Sweet Home." Kelley asked him whether Miss Gillars always participated in this program. Houben said he did not recall any "Home, Sweet Home" program in which she did not appear.

Woman Juror Removed.

Prosecution and defense attorneys agreed by stipulation that the defendant is now and always has been an American citizen. Proof of citizenship is a requirement for a treason conviction.

Detroit Newspaper Challenges Police Order On Affidavits

JAN 1949

Detroit, Jan. 25 (AP)—A dispute over issuance of Detroit police press cards took a new turn tonight when the Detroit Free Press announced it would issue its own identification cards to its newsmen.

Basil L. Walters, executive editor of the Free Press and chairman of the American Society of Newspaper Editors world freedom of the press committee, announced the decision.

It was the latest development in the controversy which developed last Saturday when Harry S. Toy, Detroit police commissioner, said he would require applicants for police press cards to sign non-Communist affidavits.

Toy said he was acting in the interest of national defense.

Left Up To Employes

Toy's action was condemned Monday night at a membership meeting of the Newspaper Guild of Detroit (CIO).

The guild said it believed the "authorization and accrediting" of newspapermen "should remain in the hands of our editors and publishers."

The Free Press management said over the week end that it would leave to the individual employés the question of whether or not to sign the non-Communist clause in making application for a press card.

However, Walters said tonight:

"I am sure there are no Communists among our reporters and photographers. Free Press members can sign the affidavits as they see fit.

To Insist On Rights

"However, I wish to make it clear that we do not recognize Commissioner Toy's action as a licensing provision. We will still be the only judge of our reporters' and photographers' rights to represent us.

"And we will insist upon the rights of our reporters to have access at all times to public records.

"If Toy or any other public official attempts to restrict the freedom of the press, we will resort to the courts if necessary to maintain that freedom," Walters concluded.

Detroit's other dailies, the News and the Times, have made no objections to Toy's order.

News Guild Censures Police On Red-Oath Regulation

Detroit, Jan. 25 (AP)—The Newspaper Guild of Detroit (CIO) "censures the action and policy" of Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy in requiring non-Communist affidavits of newspaper men.

The Detroit Guild, a local of the American Newspaper Guild, denounced Toy's order in a resolution adopted at a general-membership meeting last night.

Last week the police commissioner announced that newspaper reporters and photographers would be required to sign the affidavits before receiving police press cards.

Toy said he was acting in the interest of national defense.

The guild local questioned the constitutionality of Toy's action under the freedom of the press guarantee.

The newsmen's union also took the position that the "authorization and accrediting" of newspaper men "should remain in the hands of our editors and publishers."

Two of Detroit's big daily papers, the News and Times, have made no objection to Toy's order. The Free Press has left it to "the conscience of the individual employé."

Publisher Asks Pledge Of Staff

Hammond, Ind., Jan. 25 (AP)—James S. de Laurier, publisher of the Hammond Times, announced today that he will sign and will ask members of his staff to sign non-Communist affidavits.

He made the announcement after Harry S. Toy, police commissioner of Detroit, said such affidavits would be required of newspaper men in that city. No such requirement is in effect in Hammond.

The Detroit local of the American Newspapers Guild (CIO) denounced Toy's order and questioned it under the constitutional guarantee of freedom of the press.

Moscow Assails Dismissals.

Moscow, Jan. 25 (A. P.).—The newspaper Komsomol Pravda asserted today that the dismissal of three University of Washington professors was a "repression of civil liberties."

The professors are Herbert J. Phillips, Joseph Butterworth and Ralph Gundlach. They were accused of former or present membership in the Communist party.

Komsomol Pravda, newspaper for Communist youths, commented: "The campaign of suppression of civil liberties, particularly freedom of education, continues in American universities. Professors Phillips, Butterworth and Gundlach were dismissed under the pretense that they formerly belonged to the Communist party."

Praises Firing of Professors

Hebert Draws Applause in the House as He Lauds University of Washington.

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 25 (A. P.).—Representative Hebert (D.-La.) brought applause from the House today as he commended the University of Washington for "accepting the challenge to Communism" by firing three professors.

The Louisianan voiced the hope that the House Committee on Un-American Activities would launch a vigorous drive "to ferret out to what extent our boys and girls are being led down the road to Communism by professors who are supposed to protect our American way of life."

The University of Washington last Saturday dismissed three professors accused of past or present membership in the Communist party. The university, Hebert said, set a decent example in meeting the challenge of infiltration of Communists into American institutions.

The Louisianan recently was dropped from the Un-American Activities Committee when the Democratic caucus adopted a rule that only lawyers could serve on the committee. Hebert is a former newspaper man.

IT COSTS NEARLY A MILLION DOLLARS TO PRODUCE A B-29. HOW WOULD DOLLAR-SHORT BRITAIN PAY FOR THE PLANES?
INFORMANTS SAID PART OF THE COST COULD BE COVERED BY ECA (THE MARSHALL PLAN). THE REST COULD BE COVERED BY A SORT OF PEACETIME LEND LEASE. THAT IS BY USING BRITISH LABOR TO MAINTAIN AND IMPROVE U.S. BASES IN BRITAIN.
UNDER AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE RAF AND U.S. AIR FORCE, BRITISH PILOTS AND MAINTENANCE MEN HAVE BEEN TRAINED IN HANDLING B-29S, AND AMERICAN PILOTS HAVE LEARNED TO FLY BRITISH HEAVY BOMBERS.
AN INFORMANT SAID IF THE SUPERFORTRESS DEAL GOES THROUGH IT MAY PAVE THE WAY FOR SOMETHING THAT HAS LONG BEEN DISCUSSED BY BRITISH AND AMERICAN MILITARY PLANNERS--UNIFICATION OF THE RAF AND USAF BOMBER COMMANDS. THEN, ACCORDING TO THE PLAN, BRITAIN WOULD CONCENTRATE ON THE PRODUCTION OF FIGHTER PLANES, ESPECIALLY JETS, AND THE U.S. WOULD CONCENTRATE ON HEAVY BOMBERS.

NIGHT LEAD AIRLIFT

BERLIN, JAN.25-(AP)-SIX GERMANS, INCLUDING TWO CHILDREN, AND A BRITISH FLIER WERE KILLED LAST NIGHT IN THE CRASH OF A BRITISH AIRLIFT PLANE REMOVING A GROUP OF BERLINERS TO THE WESTERN ZONES, THE BRITISH ANNOUNCED TODAY.

TWO BRITISH FLIERS AND 16 OTHER GERMANS WERE INJURED.

THE PLANE, A TWIN-ENGINED TRANSPORT CARRYING CHILDREN AND SICKLY PERSONS OUT OF BLOCKADED WESTERN BERLIN FOR THE WINTER, PLUNGED TO EARTH NEAR SCHOENBERG, IN THE RUSSIAN OCCUPATION ZONE. THE INJURED ARE IN THE SCHOENBERG HOSPITAL.

AN RAF OFFICIAL IN HAMBURG SAID THE RUSSIANS TURNED BACK TONIGHT AN AIR FORCE SALVAGE PARTY BOUND FOR THE CRASH SCENE. EARLIER THE RUSSIANS HAD TOLD THE RAF THEY WOULD WAIVE ALL FORMALITIES TO LET A PARTY THROUGH TO CARE FOR THE CRASH VICTIMS AND SALVAGE THE PLANE WRECKAGE. THIS GROUP WAS TO CONSIST OF A MEDICAL OFFICER, A NURSE, A WAAF SERGEANT, AN INTERPRETER, TWO OFFICERS AND NINE AIRMEN.

ALTHOUGH THE MEDICAL OFFICER WITH HIS AIDS WAS ADMITTED AND WAS EXPECTED TO REMAIN IN THE SOVIET ZONE INDEFINITELY, THE SALVAGE CONTINGENT WAS REFUSED ADMISSION. THE RUSSIANS SAID ONLY THAT THEIR REFUSAL WAS ON "ORDERS FROM BERLIN."

IT IS POSSIBLE THE INJURED CREW MEMBERS MAY BE EVACUATED BY AMBULANCE TOMORROW.

F.G.B.WATTS, CHIEF OF THE BRITISH TRAVEL OFFICE WHICH HANDLES THIS TRANSPORT, SAID THE BLOCKADE EVACUATION FLIGHTS CONTINUED NORMALLY TODAY. HE SAID ABOUT 45,000 GERMANS HAVE BEEN FLOWN OUT OF THE CITY UNDER THE PROGRAM.

"THIS IS THE FIRST ACCIDENT WE HAVE HAD," HE SAID.

BERLIN, JAN 25-(AP)-A BRITISH AIRLIFT PLAN LADEN WITH GERMAN CHILDREN AND SICKLY PERSONS LEAVING BLOCKADED BERLIN CRASHED IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE LAST NIGHT KILLING SEVEN PERSONS AND INJURING 18.

A BRITISH FLIER AND SIX GERMANS, TWO OF THEM CHILDREN, WERE KILLED. THE INJURED INCLUDED TWO OTHER BRITISH AIRMEN AND 16 GERMANS. ALL ARE IN THE SCHOENBERG HOSPITAL, NEAR WHICH THE PLANE CRASHED.

SOVIET AIR AUTHORITIES IN THE ALLIED AIR SAFETY CENTER HERE INFORMED THE BRITISH TODAY OF THE CASUALTIES.

IT WAS BELIEVED TO BE THE WORST CRASH IN THE HISTORY OF THE SEVEN-MONTH OLD BERLIN AIRLIFT.

THE 24 PASSENGERS WERE BEING FLOWN FROM BERLIN TO WESTERN GERMANY TO ESCAPE THE HARDSHIPS OF THE RUSSIAN-BLOCKADED CITY. A BRITISH CREW OF THREE WAS ABOARD.

BRITISH AUTHORITIES, WITH ONLY SCANT DETAILS FROM RUSSIAN AND GERMAN RESCUE TEAMS, AWAITED PERMISSION FROM THE RUSSIANS IN MECKLENBURG TO INVESTIGATE.

THE CRASH OCCURRED IN A WOODED AREA NEAR SCHOENBERG WHICH LIES JUST INSIDE THE RUSSIAN-BRITISH ZONE BORDER. IT IS ABOUT 10 MILES EAST OF THE RAF AIRLIFT BASE AT LUEBECK, WHICH WAS THE TRANSPORT'S DESTINATION.

JAN ˇ1949

THE LAST MESSAGE FROM THE PLANE SAID IT WAS FIVE MINUTES FROM LUEBECK.

THEN THE RUSSIANS REPORTED TO THE FOUR-POWER BERLIN AIR SAFETY CENTER THAT A DAKOTA (C-47) HAD CRASHED.

A GERMAN FARMER WAS SAID TO HAVE SEEN ONE OF ITS MOTORS AFIRE JUST BEFORE THE PLANE CRASHED.

BRITISH OFFICIALS SAID THEY EXPECTED TO GET A DETAILED REPORT OF T ACCIDENT FROM THE RUSSIANS LATER TODAY.

THOSE INJURED IN LAST NIGHT'S CRASH ARE BEING TREATED IN THE GERMAN DISTRICT HOSPITAL AT SCHOENBERG. THE HOSPITAL DIRECTOR SAID HE HAD "STRICT ORDERS FROM THE RUSSIANS NOT TO GIVE OUT ANY INFORMATION." ALL INQUIRIES WERE REFERRED TO THE RUSSIAN COMMANDANT IN SCHOENBERG, WHO WAS NOT IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE.

IT WAS THE FIRST ACCIDENT IN THE BERLIN EVACUATION PROGRAM. MORE THAN 45,000 WESTERN SECTOR CHILDREN AND SICK AND AGED ADULTS HA BEEN FLOWN OUT AND ARE BEING CARED FOR IN WESTERN GERMANY HOMES AND HOSPITALS.

THE VOLUNTARY PROGRAM IS SPONSORED BY THE GERMAN WELFARE AUTHORIT AND THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT. THE EVACUEES FLY FROM BERLIN IN CARGO PLANES WHICH OTHERWISE WOULD RETURN EMPTY.

BERLIN, JAN. 25-(AP)-THE TRIAL OF EDWARD J. LADA, BLOCKADE-BUSTIN AMERICAN ROMEO FROM NEWARK, N.J., WAS POSTPONED AGAIN TODAY TO GIVE HIS COUNSEL TIME TO PREPARE AN APPEAL TO THE U.S. SUPREME COURT.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY ROBERT M. DONIHI, OF NASHVILLE, TENN., SAID HE WANTED TO APPEAL TO THE HIGHEST COURT IN ORDER TO OBTAIN BAIL FOR HIS CLIENT.

THE AMERICAN COURT BEFORE WHICH LADA IS FACING TRIAL HERE HAS REFUSED TO GRANT HIM BAIL FROM AN ARMY JAIL ON THE GROUNDS HE CAN'T BE TRUSTED. THE DEFENDANT PREVIOUSLY HAD BROKEN JAIL HERE.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS SAID THEY STILL HOPED TO BRING THE FORME PARATROOPER TO TRIAL BEFORE THE END OF THIS WEEK.

HE IS CHARGED WITH ILLEGAL ENTRY INTO BERLIN, JAILBREAK AND ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF CURRENCY.

LADA'S TROUBLES BEGAN WHEN HE HITCH-HIKED FROM PARIS TO BERLIN, THROUGH THE RUSSIAN LAND BLOCKADE, TO VISIT HIS GERMAN GIRL AND THEIR TWO-YEAR-OLD BABY.

WITH MOSCOW (220)
BY A.I.GOLDBERG
PRAGUE, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, JAN. 25-(AP)-MOSCOW HAS GIVEN ITS BARTER BABY A NAME WITH THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ECONOMIC COUNCIL OF MUTUAL ASSISTANCE.
THERE IS NOW A GREATER EAST EUROPE CO-PROSPERITY SPHERE FOR THE COMINFORM AREA.
MUTUAL TRADE, CULTURE AND MILITARY AID PACTS BUILDING UP DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS NOW ARE SHIPPING CZECHOSLOVAKIA, POLAND, ROMANIA, BULGARIA AND HUNGARY CLOSER TO THE KREMLIN'S TRADE WINDS.
YUGOSLAVIA IS OUT OF THE PICTURE, AS A COUNTRY WHICH DEFIED THE COMINFORM.
A VETERAN ECONOMIC OBSERVER HERE COMMENTED:
"THE COUNCIL REPRESENTS NOTHING MORE THAN WHAT THEY'VE BEEN DOING FOR MONTHS. THEY'VE GIVEN A NAME TO THE TRADE PACTS THEY HAVE BEEN PROMOTING AMONG THEMSELVES. TRADE PACTS ARE A FINE THING, BUT FOR A COUNTRY LIKE CZECHOSLOVAKIA HOW WILL THEY GET THEM THE RAW MATERIALS NECESSARY TO KEEP THEIR PRODUCTION MACHINE GOING?"
THE OBSERVER SAID THIS WAS HOW GERMANY ONCE TRIED TO LINE UP CENTRA. EUROPE IN HER ECONOMIC GRASP.
THE ANNOUNCEMENT IS LOOKED UPON AS MOSCOW'S ATTEMPT TO SET UP A SORT OF FACADE OF HELP FOR ALL COUNTRIES WHICH STAYED OUT OF THE MARSHALL PLAN, EITHER OF THEIR OWN WILL OR BY ORDERS SUCH AS CZECHOSLOVAKIA AND POLAND RECEIVED FROM MOSCOW.
IF THIS IS TO BE A PATTERN OF NEW COMMUNIST EFFORTS, THEN THE ECONOMIC PLAN MIGHT BE FOLLOWED BY A CUSTOMS UNION, A COUNTERPART OF THE BENELUX ARRANGEMENT WHICH JOINS BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, AND FINALLY A MILITARY AND NAVAL COUNTERPART OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AGREEMENT.

JURAJ SLAVIK, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES, SAID TODAY FORMATION OF A PROJECTED COUNCIL OF FREE CZECHOSLOVAKIA WILL BE HELD UP UNTIL THEIR ARRIVAL, PROBABLY WITHIN THE NEXT WEEK OR TWO.
ALREADY IN THIS COUNTRY ARE A LARGE GROUP OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND OTHERS WHO FLED FROM THEIR HOMELAND WHEN THE COMMUNISTS SEIZED POWER LAST FEBRUARY. PETER ZENKL, FORMER MAYOR OF PRAGUE, HEADS A COMMITTEE MAKING ARRANGEMENTS FOR CREATION OF THE COUNCIL. IT WILL BE PATTERNED SOMEWHAT AFTER THE HISTORIC WORLD WAR I COUNCIL IN THIS COUNTRY WHICH SUBSEQUENTLY FORMED THE ORIGINAL POSTWAR GOVERNMENT OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA.
ANY IDEA OF A FULL FLEDGED GOVERNMENT IN EXILE HAS BEEN RULED OUT, HOWEVER, FOR THE TIME BEING, SLAVIK TOLD A REPORTER.
WITH THE ARRIVAL OF THE LATEST GROUP FROM EUROPE, ALL MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES SUPPRESSED BY THE COMMUNIST REGIME WILL BE REPRESENTED, SLAVIK SAID. THEY INCLUDE DR.HUBERT RIPKA, FORMER MINISTER OF FOREIGN TRADE, A NATIONAL SOCIALIST; AND VACLAV MEYER, FORMER MINISTER OF FOOD, A SOCIAL DEMOCRAT.
THE CATHOLIC PEOPLES PARTY IS REPRESENTED HERE ALREADY BY IVO DUCHACEK, FORMER CHAIRMAN OF THE PARLIAMENTARY FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE; AND THE SLOVAK DEMOCRATS BY THEIR PARTY CHAIRMAN, JOSEPH LETTRIH, WHO IS VICE CHAIRMAN OF ZENKL'S PREPARATORY COMMITTEE. ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE EGYPTIANS AT RHODES DRAGGED, HOWEVER, AND PREVENTED A SURE FOUNDATION OF PEACE BEING LAID. DISPATCHES FROM RHODES SAID THE TALKS WERE IN TEMPORARY LAPSE UNTIL THURSDAY, WHILE BOTH SIDES CONSULTED THEIR GOVERNMENTS ON THE TERRITORIAL STALEMATE OVER THE NEGEV DESERT. TEL AVIV-xxx ISRAEL

ABOUT 750 POLLING PLACES OPENED AT 6 A.M. AND REMAINED OPEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT.

CAMPAIGNING CAME TO A CLOSE LAST NIGHT IN A FLURRY OF HANDBILLS AND BROADCASTS BY THE 21 PARTIES IN THE RACE. THE MILDLY LEFTIST LABOR PARTY (MAPAI), HEADED BY PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION AND FOREIGN MINISTER MOSHE SHERTOK, WAS CONSIDERED BY MOST OBSERVERS TO BE IN A POSITION OF LEADERSHIP.

IN A CLOSING BROADCAST LAST NIGHT, BEN-GURION APPEALED TO ALL TO VOTE, ANNOUNCED THAT TODAY WOULD BE A PUBLIC HOLIDAY, AND PROMISED THAT ELECTIONS WOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO IMPAIR THE DISCIPLINE OF THE ARMED FORCES.

JAN

THE MAIN CHALLENGE TO THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT, A UNITED FRONT OF SEVERAL PARTIES, CAME FROM THE FREEDOM MOVEMENT WHICH MENACHEM BEIGIN ORGANIZED FROM HIS FORMER UNDERGROUND ARMY, IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, AND FROM THE FAR-LEFT UNITED WORKERS PARTY, MAPAM.

THERE ALSO IS A JEWISH COMMUNIST PARTY.

THERE ARE THREE ALL-ARAB LISTS OF CANDIDATES, AND A COALITION WHICH WANTS THE NEW STATE TO BE FOUNDED STRICTLY UPON HEBREW RELIGIOUS LINES, INCLUDING STRICT DIETARY LAWS, COMPULSORY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND STATE CONTROL OF RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

ONE PARTY HAS A ONE-PLANK PLATFORM TO INCORPORATE JERUSALEM IN THE NEW JEWISH STATE. THERE ALSO IS A WOMAN'S PARTY.

THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT, WHICH WAS PROCLAIMED MAY 15 LAST YEAR, HAS FOLLOWED A POLICY OF CARVING OUT AS LARGE A SHARE OF PALESTINE AS POSSIBLE FOR THE NEW STATE WHILE COOPERATING WITH THE UNITED NATIONS AS CLOSELY AS POSSIBLE. BEIGIN'S MOVEMENT HAS URGED A POLICY OF GREATER EXPANSION, AND SOME ELEMENTS WANT ISRAEL TO TAKE IN NOT ONLY ALL AREAS WITHIN THE PRESENT BORDERS OF PALESTINE BUT TRANS-JORDAN AS WELL.

ONE OF THE UNKNOWN QUANTITIES OF THE ELECTION IS HOW THE 100,000 IMMIGRANTS WHO HAVE SETTLED IN ISRAEL SINCE LAST MAY WILL VOTE.

JAN

ABOUT THE POLLING PLACES THERE WAS EXCITEMENT. IT WAS THE FIRST TIME MANY VOTERS HAD CAST BALLOTS AND A BIG DAY IN THEIR LIVES. AS EACH VOTER DROPPED HIS BALLOT INTO A BOX HIS IDENTITY CARD WAS STAMPED "VOTED IN CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS."

CITIZENSHIP IS NOT A REQUIREMENT, AND MANY FOREIGNERS WERE AMONG THE VOTERS. AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP, HOWEVER, WERE OFFICIALLY WARNED THEY MIGHT LOSE CITIZENSHIP UNDER U.S. LAWS IF THEY VOTED.

THE PEOPLE HAD REASON FOR THEIR FESTIVE ATTITUDE. MUCH OF IT SEEMED TO RESULT FROM NEWS OF THE PAST 24 HOURS THAT FRANCE HAD RECOGNIZED THE HEBREW STATE, BRITAIN WAS ABOUT TO DO SO, AND A GROUP OF OTHERS SEEMED LIKELY TO FOLLOW. TELAVIV(LONG) xxx ASPIRANTS.

PEOPLE HERE CONSIDER THAT IS A BETTER SIGN OF PEACE THAN ANYTHING HAPPENING IN THE STALEMATED TALKS WITH THE EGYPTIANS ON RHODES.

THERE WAS SPECULATION THAT THE DEVELOPMENTS MAY HAVE AIDED BEN-GURIAN'S PARTY.

A GUNSALUTE WAS FIRED AT HAIFA TO WELCOME 1,500 JEWS RELEASED FROM BRITISH INTERNMENT ON CYPRUS. HAIFA, ISRAEL, JAN. 25-(AP)-ISRAELI CITIZENS OF ALL RACES, CREEDS AND RELIGIONS ELECTED THEIR FIRST CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY TODAY ON A STATE-IMPOSED DAY-OF-REST)

FOR MANY THIS WAS A NEW EXPERIENCE, WHEN FOR THE THE FIRST TIME IN THEIR LIVES THEY WERE ASKED TO SELECT THEIR GOVERNMENT. JEWS AND ARABS MARKED THE CANDIDATES OF THEIR CHOICE FROM AMONG 21 PARTIES, FOUR OF THEM ARAB.

THE ELECTION PASSED WITHOUT INCIDENT. SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT OF THE ELIGIBLES HERE WERE REPORTED AS PARTICIPATING. HOWEVER, THE ARABS APPEARED ESPECIALLY ANXIOUS TO HAVE A HAND IN THE ELECTION, VOTING UP TO 100 PER CENT.

JAN

VEILED MOSLEM WOMEN WENT TO POLLING BOOTHS AT SPECIAL HAREM HOURS, WHEN NO MALES WERE PERMITTED INSIDE.

VOTING SEEMED TO BE A NEW EXPERIENCE ALSO FOR ARAB MEN.

HAJ HAMED IBRAHIM, A 65-YEAR-OLD ARAB, WHO HAS NEVER LEFT HIS NATIVE TOWN OF ACRE, SAID THAT "INSHALLAH (WITH GOD'S WILL) A GOOD GOVERNMENT MUST COME FORTH WHEN WE ALL ARE ASKED TO DETERMINE IT. EVEN THE RAIS (MINISTERS AND HEADS OF STATE) DEPEND NOW ON ME AND MY OLD WIFE--WHAT TIMES WE HAVE COME TO!"

WARRIORS OF THE DRUSES AND CIRCASSIANS, MOSTLY MOSLEM, VOTED IN THEIR CAMPS, AS THE ISRAELI SOLDIERS DID IN THEIRS. ON MOUNT CARMEL DRUSE VILLAGERS OF USIFIYA AND DALIAT EL CARMEL WENT ALONG WITH THEIR TATTOOED WOMEN TO THEIR VILLAGE CENTERS TO CAST THEIR BALLOTS.

DESPITE THE FOUR ARAB LISTS, ALL CONNECTED WITH JEWISH PARTIES, THE ARABS APPARENTLY VOTED MAINLY FOR JEWISH CANDIDATES. EVEN HERUTH, JEWISH PARTY FORMERLY THE EXTREMIST IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI, TRIED TO CAPTURE ARAB VOTES WITH PROPAGANDA.

A FEW PROPAGANDISTS WERE DRIVEN OFF BY NEUTRAL GUARDS IN HAIFA WHILE TRYING TO PUSH THEIR PARTY LISTS INTO THE HANDS OF WOMEN OUTSIDE VOTING BOOTHS.

"ARE THOSE ALL JEWISH SHIPS?" WAS A FREQUENT EXCLAMATION OF AMAZEMENT AMONG THOSE ABOARD.

THEY FOUND THE PORT GAY WITH FLAGS. A CURFEW WAS IMPOSED HERE TWO YEARS AGO TO PRESERVE ORDER WHILE THE BRITISH MOVED THE JEWS ABOARD SHIP FOR INTERNMENT BECAUSE THEY HAD ENTERED PALESTINE WITHOUT IMMIGRATION CERTIFICATES.

ISRAELI OFFICIALS BOARDED THE GALILA WHILE TROOPS AND POLICE PARADED ON THE DOCK. HAIFA-xxx greet THEM.

MANY OF THE IMMIGRANTS SPOKE BITTERLY OF THEIR INTERNMENT. A YOUTH WHOSE PARENTS WERE KILLED BY THE NAZIS SAID "IT WILL BE HARD TO FORGET THE LAST 23 MONTHS IN PRISON" ON CYPRUS.

BRITAIN RECENTLY ANNOUNCED WILLINGNESS TO RELEASE ALL JEWS FROM THE CYPRUS INTERNMENT CAMPS. ESTIMATES OF THE NUMBER VARY FROM 10,000 TO 12,000. THIS WAS THE FIRST GROUP TO LEAVE.

DETENTION OF JEWS SINCE THE BRITISH MANDATE ENDED LAST MAY HAD BEEN A SOURCE OF BITTER CONTROVERSY.

THE COUNCIL IS EXPECTED TO RESUME DEBATE THIS AFTERNOON (3 P.M. EST) ON A RESOLUTION BACKED BY THE UNITED STATES AND THREE OTHER COUNTRIES PROVIDING FOR THE CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1950.

THE DELEGATES ALSO HAD BEFORE THEM TWO OTHER IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS:

1. A RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE ASIAN CONFERENCE AT NEW DELHI LAST WEEK, ALSO PROVIDING FOR AN INDEPENDENT INDONESIA BUT CALLING FOR A COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY IN INDONESIA BY NEXT MARCH 15.

2. A REPORT FROM THE U.N. GOOD OFFICES COMMITTEE INFORMING THE COUNCIL THERE WAS LITTLE POSSIBILITY OF RESTORING PEACE IN INDONESIA UNTIL REPUBLICAN LEADERS WERE PERMITTED TO RESUME AUTHORITY AT JOGJAKARTA. THE REPORT SAID REPUBLICAN GUERRILLA ACTIVITIES WERE EXTENSIVE.

THE FOUR-POWER RESOLUTION PROVIDES FOR THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF REPUBLICAN LEADERS AND THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF A REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, BUT LEAVES THE QUESTION OF DUTCH TROOP WITHDRAWALS UP TO A COMMISSION TO BE CREATED.

NEW DELHI, JAN 25-(AP)-SEVEN U.S. ARMY MEN WHO WILL BE PART OF A UNITED NATIONS CORPS OF 40 TRUCE OBSERVERS IN KASHMIR RECEIVED PRE-LIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS TODAY FROM LT. GEN. MAURICE DELVOIE, U.N. MILITARY ADVISOR.

THE AMERICANS, WHO CAME HERE FROM JAPAN, ARE HEADED BY COL. ALEXANDER MCCONE OF SAN FRANCISCO AND WASHINGTON. AN ADDITIONAL GROUP OF NINE AMERICANS IS EXPECTED FROM TOKYO SHORTLY.

MCCONE SAID THE TRUCE OBSERVERS WOULD HEAD FOR THE NORTHERN PRINCELY STATE AS SOON AS THEY RECEIVED WINTER EQUIPMENT NEEDED IN THE MOUNTAINOUS TERRITORY.

AN INDIAN-PAKISTAN MILITARY CONFERENCE ON JAN. 15 AGREED ON PRO-CEDURE TO FOLLOW UP THE CEASE-FIRE.

FIGHTING DEVELOPED IN KASHMIR, WHOSE POPULATION IS MOSTLY MOSLEM, AFTER THE HINDU RULER ASSIGNED THE STATE TO INDIA.

UNDER A U.N.-SPONSORED AGREEMENT, THE PEOPLE OF KASHMIR ARE TO DECIDE WHETHER THEY WANT TO STAY WITH INDIA OR JOIN MOSLEM PAKISTAN.

BATAVIA, JAVA, JAN.25-(AP)-ROBERT CAMERON SMITH, 26, OF PORTLAND, ORE., SIGNED AS A CREWMAN TODAY ABOARD THE ISTHMIAN FREIGHTER STEEL WAYFARER AND THUS AVOIDED DEPORTATION THREATENED BY THE DUTCH. THE FREIGHTER IS BOUND FOR NORTH ATLANTIC PORTS VIA SINGAPORE.

FOSTER L.PINERO, 23, OF EVERETT, (OR SNOHOMISH), WASH., WAS NOT SO LUCKY AND HE CHOSE TO STAY ON AT THE CHASSE CAMP, INDONESIA'S ELLIS ISLAND. THE DUTCH HAD THREATENED TO DEPORT BOTH FOR ILLEGAL ENTRY UNLESS THEY LEFT.

SMITH, PINERO AND A CANADIAN, PHILIP STACEY OF REGINA, SASK., TRIED TO SAILA SMALL YACHT FROM SINGAPORE TO MANILA, BUT RAN OUT OF MONEY AND WERE FORCED TO SELL THEIR LEAKY CRAFT IN BORNEO. THEY WOUND UP IN BATAVIA, HUNTING MEANS TO GET BACK TO SINGAPORE.

DUTCH IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS SENT THEM TO THE IMMIGRATION CENTER, A FORMER PRISON CAMP, JAN.3. THE CANADIAN WAS LATER RELEASED AND RETURNED TO SINGAPORE. (STACEY SAID THE BRITISH CONSUL INTERVENED.)

A U.S. CONSULATE SPOKESMAN INSISTED PINERO IS NOT BEING HELD BY THE DUTCH.

BATAVIA, JAVA, JAN.25-(AP)-TWO AMERICAN YACHTSMEN, WHO SET SAIL WITH A CANADIAN FROM SINGAPORE FOR MANILA, WOULD UP BROKE IN BATAVIA, IT WAS LEARNED TODAY. THEY NOW ARE TRYING TO GET BACK TO THEIR HOME PORT.

THE TRIO SAID THEY SET OUT, LOOKING FOR ADVENTURE IN A SMALL SAILBOAT, BUT RAN OUT OF MONEY AND WERE FORCED TO SELL THEIR LEAKY CRAFT IN BORNEO.

DUTCH IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS TRANSHIPPED THEM TO INDONESIA'S "ELLIS ISLAND", A FORMER BATAVIA PRISON CAMP, WHERE THEY LANDED JAN. 3.

(IN SINGAPORE THE TRIO WAS IDENTIFIED AS PHILIP STACEY OF REGINA, SASK., ROBERT SMITH, FORMER U.('. NAVY LIEUTENANT FROM PORTLAND, ORE. AND FOSTER PIENO, JR., SNOHOMISH, WASH.)

A UNITED STATES CONSULAR SPOKESMAN SAID THE PARTY WAS RELEASED AFTER A COUPLE OF DAYS, BUT HUNG AROUND TRYING TO CATCH A RIDE TO SINGAPORE.

HE SAID THE DUTCH WARNED THAT IF THE TRIO DID NOT LEAVE UNDER THEIR OWN POWER, THEY WOULD BE DEPORTED FOR ILLEGAL ENTRY.

THE CANADIAN AND ONE AMERICAN GOT OUT OF TOWN. THE OTHER JAN AMERICAN IS REPORTED STILL TRYING.

--DASH--

STACY SAID IN SINGAPORE YESTERDAY HE AND THE TWO AMERICANS HAD BEEN HELD AT A BATAVIA CONCENTRATION CAMP FOR TWO MONTHS ON SHORT RATIONS, UNDER SUSPICION OF SMUGGLING.

STACY SAID HE WAS RELEASED JAN. 18 THROUGH INTERVENTION OF THE BRITISH CONSUL. HE SAID THE U.S. CONSUL WAS WORKING ON THE CASE.

WHILE NANKING LAY ALL BUT DEFENSELESS, A THIN LINE OF GOVERNMENT DESTROYERS AND GUNBOATS WAITED IN THE YANGTZE WITH ORDERS TO OPEN FIRE SHOULD THE REDS TRY TO CROSS BEFORE ANY PEACE AGREEMENT IS REACHED.

(THE FRAMEWORK FOR A NEW REGIME IN CHINA WAS BELIEVED BEING BUILT AT SHIHKIACHWANG, RED REGIONAL CAPITAL 170 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PEIPING.

(MOOSA SAID THERE WERE REPORTS IN PEIPING THAT GEN.YEH CHIEN-YING, THE COMMUNIST BOSS THERE, AND SEVERAL MEMBERS OF MINOR CHINESE PARTIES HAD GONE TO SHIHKIACHWANG FOR A "PREPARATORY POLITICAL CONSULTATIVE CONFERENCE." NANKING - XXX CLOSED.

(BOTH COMMUNIST LEADER MAO AND MARSHAL LI CHI-SHEN, CHIEF OF THE ANTI-CHIANG KAI-SHEK FORCES IN HONG KONG, HAVE BEEN REPORTED ATTENDING THE MEETING.

(MOOSA SAID THE SESSIONS ARE TO ARRANGE FOR A NATIONAL CONFERENCE WHICH IS EXPECTED TO BE HELD IN PEIPING THIS SPRING. OUT OF THIS MAY COME A COALITION REGIME.)

FJ406PCS

THE EXODUS WAS GENERAL. THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF WAS EXPECTED TO HIE FOR CANTON WITHIN HOURS, OR MINUTES.

FEAR-STRICKEN THOUSANDS CLOGGED STREETS DEMANDING TICKETS AND SPACE TO THE SOUTH. TRAINS WERE JAMMED. EVEN FOOT MOVEMENT AROUND THE RAIL STATIONS WAS NEXT TO IMPOSSIBLE.

ONE OFFICIAL SOURCE SAID THE GOVERNMENT WOULD LEAVE "VERY SOON." VARIOUS OFFICIALS SAID THEIR ORDERS WERE TO GET OUT "BY TOMORROW AT THE VERY LATEST." NANKING - XXX REDS.

THE MAIN COMMUNIST BODY HAD NOT REACHED THE OPPOSITE BANK OF THE MILE WIDE RIVER. BUT COMMUNIST SHELLS COULD COME SCREAMING INTO THE CAPITAL AT ANY MOMENT.

GOVERNMENT OFFICES, IN MANY CASES, WERE DESERTED EXCEPT FOR THE POOR COOLIES.

GENERAL PEACE TALK HERE, AT LEAST, WAS DEAD PUBLICLY. EVERYBODY SEEMED BENT ON SAVING HIS SKIN AND VALUABLES.

THE TREK SOUTH RESEMBLED, ON A MUCH LARGER SCALE, THE COMMUNIST FLIGHT TO THE NORTHWEST 14 YEARS AGO WHEN CHIANG KAI-SHEK DROVE THEM OUT.

TO THE CONFUSION AND TRAFFIC SNARL WAS ADDED HEAVY TROOP MOVEMENTS. CHIANG'S PERSONAL TROOPS WERE HEADING FOR HIS SIDE DOWN IN CHEKIANG PROVINCE.

ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN CALLED TO THE NANKING AREA 50,000 OF HIS TROOPS FROM THE WEST.
CHIANG, SITTING BESIDE THE TOMBS OF HIS ANCESTORS IN CHIKOW, WAS STILL PRESIDENT, HIS CHIEF SPOKESMAN SAID. HIS RETIREMENT, THE SPOKESMAN POINTED OUT, MADE LI ONLY THE ACTING PRESIDENT BECAUSE CHIANG WAS NOT HERE.
THAT ADDED TO THE CONFUSION. MANY THOUGHT NOW THAT NATIONALIST CHINA, SO HOPEFUL OF PEACE A FEW DAYS AGO, MIGHT BE HEADING BACK TO ITS OLD FEUDAL DAYS WITH WAR LORDS BICKERING AND FIGHTING FOR POWER AND TAXES.
THE COMMUNISTS, AT LEAST PUBLICLY, STILL HAD MADE NO MOVE TO MEET WITH LI'S PEACE EMMISSARIES.
THE ACTING PRESIDENT SENT ONE REPRESENTATIVE TO PEIPING, WHICH THE COMMUNISTS NOW HOLD, TO STUDY THE LOCAL SURRENDER THERE.
IN SHANGHAI, LI'S REPRESENTATIVES TALKED PEACE WITH LEADERS OF THE ONCE OUTLAWED DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE. EARLIER THESE SAME LEADERS HAD GIVEN THEM THE COLD SHOULDER.

JAN - 1949

THE GOVERNMENT PEACE EFFORTS SEEMED TO BE MAKING LITTLE PROGRESS.
FREEDOM WAS GRANTED OLD POLITICAL ENEMIES OF CHIANG BY THE ACTING PRESIDENT. AMONG THOSE ORDERED RELEASED WERE MARSHAL CHANG HSUEH-LIANG OF MANCHURIA. HE HAS BEEN HELD ON FORMOSA.
THE YOUNG MARSHAL AND HIS COLLABORATOR, GEN. YANG HU-CHEN, IN THE 1936 SIAN KIDNAPING OF CHIANG KAI-SHEK, HAD BEEN UNDER HOUSE ARREST. CHANG AND YANG, HELD AT CHUNGKING, WAS ORDERED FLOWN HERE.
MARSHAL CHANG'S BROTHER IS THE COMMUNIST APPOINTED MAYOR OF MUKDEN. THE FAMILY IS A POWER IN CHINESE POLITICS AND AMONG MILITARY LEADERS, ESPECIALLY IN MANCHURIA, WHICH IS NOW HELD BY THE COMMUNISTS.

WITH ITS LIFE AS A CAPITAL FAST RUNNING OUT, NANKING HAD A STRANGE EXPERIENCE. SOMEBODY FORGOT AND LEFT THE ELECTRICITY ON ALL DAY AT THE COAL SHY POWER PLANT. IT WAS A LUXURY NOT KNOWN HERE FOR WEEKS.
EVERY CONCEIVABLE MODE OF TRANSPORTATION--HORSECARDS, RICKSHAS, DROSHKIES, OPEN RAIL GONDOLAS, TRUCKS, PLANES AND RIVER JUNKS--WAS BEING PRESSED INTO SERVICE BY REFUGEES. EACH WAS OVERLOADED WITH FAMILY POSSESSIONS.
THE CLOSER THE REDS GOT TO THE CAPITAL THE FASTER PEOPLE WORKED TO GET OUT. UPPERMOST IN THE MINDS OF ALL WAS THE EVER PRESENT DREAD THAT THE REDS WOULD SHELL NANKING AS THEY DID PEIPING AND TIENTSIN.
IN THE FEVERISH EMPTYING OF THE CITY, MANY OFFICIALS PREDICTED THAT THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT -- IF IT HOLDS TOGETHER FOR THE MOVE -- WILL BE FUNCTIONING FROM CANTON SHORTLY.
MOVING WITH EVERYONE ELSE WAS THE FOREIGN OFFICE. A SURVEY OF FOREIGN DIPLOMATS SHOWED THAT NONE PLANNED TO GO TO CANTON. THEY FOUND IT IMPOSSIBLE TO GET TRANSPORT THERE AT THIS LATE HOUR.
IN THE MIDST OF THE BUSTLE THE LEGISLATIVE YUAN HELD AN INFORMAL MEETING. ITS PRESIDENT, TUNG KUAN-HSIEN, TOLD MEMBERS THAT THE NEXT MEETING WOULD BE HELD IN FEBRUARY "NOT LIKELY IN NANKING."

THE MEETING GOT A LITTLE DISORDERLY WHEN MEMBERS BEGAN TO HAGGLE OVER WHETHER TO RUN WITH THE MOB OR LINGER ON. THEN THE MEMBERSHIP FELL TO BELABORING THE EXECUTIVE YUAN. THEY BLAMED IT FOR A CONTRADICTORY POLICY -- PROPOSING PEACE TALKS ON ONE HAND AND SPEEDING THE GOVERNMENT'S REMOVAL ON THE OTHER.
LATEST REPORTS SAID THE COMMUNIST HAD TAKEN KUACHOU, ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE RIVER OPPOSITE THE TOWN OF CHEKIANG. FROM THERE THE REDS COULD HARRASS RIVER SHIPPING. MORE TROOPS WERE NEARING PUKOW. FROM THERE THEY COULD SHELL THE CAPITAL ACROSS THE RIVER.

ONLY ADM. KWEI YUNG-CHIN'S THIN LINE OF NAVAL CRAFT ON THE YANGTZE STOOD BETWEEN NANKING AND THE REDS.
TWO FOREIGN WARSHIPS, THE BRITISH SLOOP, BLACK SWAN, AND THE AMERICAN DESTROYER TRANSPORT, DAISHENKO, STOOD BY IN THE RIVER. THEIR EMBASSIES SAID BOTH VESSELS WERE THERE "JUST IN CASE THEY ARE NEEDED."
THERE HAS BEEN NO RECENT WORD FROM ACTING PRESIDENT LI WHO IS TRYING TO HOLD THE GOVERNMENT TOGETHER LONG ENOUGH TO EFFECT PEACE.
THIS MORNING THE GOVERNMENT'S INFORMATION OFFICE CONSISTED OF ONE COOLIE AND ONE PORTABLE TYPEWRITER. THIS AFTERNOON IT CONTAINED ONLY THE TYPEWRITER. THE COOLIE WAS IN THE BACK WITH HIS FRIENDS WHOOPING IT UP FOUR DAYS AHEAD OF THE NEW YEAR CELEBRATION, SCHEDULED FOR JAN. 29.
NONE OF THE CELEBRANTS APPEARED WORRIED OVER THE FUTURE. THEIR SUPERIORS HAD EITHER FLOWN SOUTHWARD OR HOPPED ABOARD THE CREAKING AND JAMMED TRAINS PULLING OUT OF THE STATIONS.
FOR MANY GOVERNMENT WORKERS IT WAS THEIR SECOND FLIGHT FROM NANKING. THEY WENT UPRIVER IN 1937 AHEAD OF THE ADVANCING JAPANESE. NANKING WAS RAPED AFTER THEY LEFT.

SECOND NIGHT LEAD NORTH CHINA
BY SPENCER MOOSA
PEIPING, WEDNESDAY, JAN. 26-(AP)-A PLANE LOAD OF AMERICAN MEDICAL SUPPLIES ARRIVED TODAY FOR FREE DISTRIBUTION IN THIS COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED CITY.
SENT FROM SHANGHAI BY THE U. S. ECONOMOC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, THE SUPPLIES WILL GO TO HOSPITALS AND CLINICS. THE PLANE, PILOTED BY CAPT. RAYMOND BOWES, OF BUFFALO, N. Y., WAS UNDER ECA CHARTER.
THIS CITY OF MORE THAN 2,000,000 SURRENDERED TO THE REDS SATURDAY AFTER A 40-DAY SIEGE. ARMS AND AMMUNITION OF NATIONALIST TROOPS ARE BEING PILED UP IN DEPOTS TO BE GIVEN THE COMMUNISTS. THE REDS STILL ARE RUNNING PEIPING BEHIND-THE-SCENES.
VARIOUS NATIONALIST ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE GOVERNMENT'S INFORMATION OFFICE, CONTINUE UNDER GOVERNMENT DIRECTORS. INFORMATION DIRECTOR J. C. SUN, IS IN A PLIGHT THAT'S TYPICAL. HE HASN'T RECEIVED ANY FUNDS TO PAY HIMSELF AND HIS STAFF.
THOSE OFFICIALS CONSEQUENTLY FACE A BLEAK CHINESE NEW YEAR, WHICH STARTS SATURDAY.
THE NEGOTIATIONS WHICH TURNED PEIPING OVER TO THE COMMUNISTS WERE AS SINGULAR AS THE SIEGE ITSELF.

THE SIEGE BEGAN JAN. 12 WITH THE REDS IN CONTROL OF THE POWER PLANTS BUT FURNISHING THE CITY WITH POWER.
WHILE ILLUMINATION WAS ERRATIC, POWER RAN THE PUMPS WHICH PROVIDED PART OF THE CITY WITH RUNNING WATER.
DURING THE SIEGE, THE REDS LOBBED IN A FEW SHELLS, BUT THE CITY NEVER HAD TO GO THROUGH A REAL BOMBARDMENT.
THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS, AT DIFFERENT LEVELS, BEGAN WELL BEFORE THE SIEGE ITSELF.
RED DELEGATES WERE INSIDE PEIPING BY THE TACIT APPROVAL OF GEN. FU TSO-YI, THE COMMANDER IN THE NORTH. THEY WERE ALLOWED TO OPERATE THEIR OWN RADIO STATION, AND COMMUNICATE WITH OTHER RED STATIONS.
THESE DELEGATES WERE EQUIPPED WITH SPECIAL PASSES BY FU. THEY ALSO HAD RESIDENT CARDS AND OTHER CREDENTIALS.

GEN.TENG PAO-SHAN, FORMER COMMANDER IN NORTHERN SHENSI WHO WAS RECENTLY APPOINTED DEPUTY COMMANDER TO FU, MADE SEVERAL HUSH-HUSH TRIPS TO RED TERRITORY. HE WAS ONE OF THE INSTRUMENTS IN BRINGING PEACE.

TENG WAS THE LEADING NATIONALIST REPRESENTATIVE IN THE FINAL PEACE DEAL IN WHICH THE WORD "SURRENDER" NEVER WAS USED.

PROF.CHANG TUNG-SUN OF YENCHING UNIVERSITY, WHO WAS SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE OUTLAWED DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE, ALSO PLAYED A BIG ROLE.

HE MADE SEVERAL TRIPS INTO RED TERRITORY. ONCE HE CONFERRED WITH GEN.LIN PIAO, COMMANDER OF COMMUNIST FORCES FROM MANCHURIA, AND GEN.NIEH JUNG-CHENG, RED COMMANDER IN NORTH CHINA.

CHANG WAS THERE FROM JAN. 7 TO JAN. 9. HE TOLD FRIENDS HE FOUND THE RED COMMANDERS READY TO CONCLUDE A PEACE WHICH WOULD SPARE FU'S FACE.

CHANG'S REPORT PLEASED FU, WHO ALL ALONG HAD BEEN ANXIOUS NOT TO LOSE FACE.

THE TERMS OF THE PEACE AGREEMENT, AS PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED, HAVE BEWILDERED A SECTION OF THE PUBLIC. THEY STILL DON'T REALIZE THE AGREEMENT REPRESENTED A NATIONALIST SURRENDER.

ONLY TODAY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS HEARD A CHINESE NEWSMAN PRAISE FU FOR NOT CAPITULATING.

(UNDER TERMS OF THE SURRENDER, FU IS A MEMBER OF A COMMITTEE WHICH WILL GOVERN PEIPING DURING A TRANSITION PERIOD--THAT IS, UNTIL THE REDS ARE READY TO TAKE FULL CONTROL.)

THE NEW ORDER IN PEIPING STILL IS OPERATING QUIETLY, AND IN THE BACKGROUND. BUT THIS LESSENS NONE OF ITS STRENGTH.

PEIPING, JAN.25AKAP)-INSIDE RED OCCUPIED PEIPING THE NEW ORDER IS STILL OPERATING QUIETLY IN THE BACKGROUND BUT THIS LESSENS NONE OF ITS STRENGTH.

MANY ORGANIZATIONS ARE CONFORMING WITH THE NEW REGIME WITHOUT SPECIFIC PROMPTING BUT SIMPLY BECAUSE OF SAGE APPRECIATION OF THE REALITIES. THE CITY WAS SURRENDERED TO THE REDS LATE LAST WEEK.

THE OFFICIAL NATIONALIST CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY ISSUED A NOTICE TO ITS SUBSCRIBERS IN THIS SENSE: "OUR DIRECTOR HAS FLED AND CONSEQUENTLY WE ARE UNABLE TO PUT OUT OUR REGULAR SERVICE (MEANING FROM NATIONALIST AREAS). HENCEFORTH WE SHALL COPY AND ISSUE BROADCASTS BY HSINHWA NEWS AGENCY (OFFICIAL COMMUNIST AGENCY."

THE KUOMINTANG (GOVERNMENT) PARTY OWNED NEWSPAPER PEI FANG JIH PAO, TODAY REFERRED TO THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AS THE "NANKING GOVERNMENT" AND EXPRESSED THE HOPE IT WOULD ACCEPT THE EIGHT CONDITIONS FOR PEACE ANNOUNCED BY COMMUNIST LEADER MAO TZE-TUNG.

COMMUNIST POSTERS HAVE APPEARED IN DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE CITY.

A TYPICAL ONE READS:

"LONG LIVE THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY. PRIVATE ENTERPRISE WILL BE PROTECTED BUT BUREAUCRATIC CAPITAL WILL BE CONFISCATED."

THE DIRECTOR OF THE COMMUNIST MILITARY COMMITTEE IN PEIPING, GEN. YEH CHIEN-YING, AND SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE SPLINTERED THIRD PARTIES ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE DEPARTED FOR SHIHCHIACHUANG, THE COMMUNIST REGIONAL CAPITAL 170 MILES SOUTHWEST OF PEIPING. THEY WILL ATTEND A "PREPARATORY POLITICAL CONSULTATIVE CONFERENCE" WHICH WILL ARRANGE FOR A NATIONAL PARTY CONFERENCE EXPECTED TO BE HELD IN PEIPING THIS SPRING.

SHANGHAI, JAN. 25-(AP)-U. S. RELIEF OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN TOLD TO GO AHEAD AND DISTRIBUTE $4,166,000 IN RELIEF SUPPLIES WHICH WERE IN TIENTSIN AND PEIPING WHEN THE REDS TOOK OVER, IT WAS ANNOUNCED TODAY.

ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS SAID THE STOCKS OF WHEAT, FLOUR AND COTTON WERE TO BE DISTRIBUTED AS USUAL AS LONG AS THEY "ARE USED IN THE INTERESTS OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE."

JAMES T. IVY, ECA REGIONAL DIRECTOR IN TIENTSIN, IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN ASSURED OF COMMUNIST CO-OPERATION FOR COMPLETING THE PROJECT.

AFTER THAT, IT WILL BE UP TO WASHINGTON TO DECIDE ON FUTURE POLICY. ECA HALTED ALL NEW SHIPMENTS TO NORTH CHINA LAST WEEK.

THE BULK OF THE SUPPLIES, ESTIMATED BY ECA OFFICIALS HERE AT $4,160,000, ARE IN TIENTSIN. ONLY 50 TONS OF FLOUR WERE BELIEVED IN PEIPING BECAUSE IT WAS CUT OFF BY THE FIGHTING LAST DECEMBER.

ECA SAID MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN GOODS ARE EITHER AFLOAT TO CHINA OR ALREADY HAVE BEEN LANDED.

DEVELOPMENTS POINTING TO THE EARLY EXTENSION OF COMMUNIST CONTROL TO MOST OF CHINA HAVE NOT INTERRUPTED DELIVERY OF ECA COMMODITIES TO CANTON AND SHANGHAI.

JAN 1949

(HARLAN CLEVELAND, ECA DIRECTOR OF CHINA AID, SAID IN WASHINGTON RATIONING TO THE CHINESE WOULD CONTINUE "AT LEAST AS LONG AS CURRENT SUPPLIES LAST." HE SAID "FUTURE DECISIONS ARE OBVIOUSLY POLITICAL AND MUST BE DETERMINED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND OTHER OFFICIALS.")

OFFICIALS ESTIMATED THAT OF AMOUNTS ALREADY AUTHORIZED FROM THE $275,000,000 ECA APPROPRIATION EXPIRING APRIL 3, THESE AMOUNTS REMAIN TO BE DELIVERED:

FOOD, $14,000,000; COTTON, $15,000,000; PETROLEUM, $16,000,000 AND FERTILIZER, $9,000,000.

A MAJOR PROGRAM OF ECA, THE $70,000,000 FOR RECONSTRUCTION, WAS SUSPENDED IN DECEMBER BECAUSE OF CHAOTIC INTERNAL CONDITIONS.

PUKOW, CHINA, JAN.25-(AP)-THERE ARE NO COMMUNIST TROOPS IN THIS RIVERFRONT TOWN AS THIS IS WRITTEN, BUT THERE APPEARS LITTLE TO PREVENT THEM FROM MARCHING IN.

FROM THIS RAILHEAD ON THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE, THEY WILL BE ABLE TO LOOK ACROSS THE MILE-WIDE RIVER AT THE HILLS AND BUILDINGS OF NANKING, CHINA'S CAPITAL.

(MILITARY SOURCES IN NANKING REPORTED RED PATROLS ALREADY HAD REACHED THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE. THESE, PRESUMABLY, ARE AT POINTS EAST AND WEST OF PUKOW.)

NATIONALIST FORCES STILL HOLD PUKOW ITSELF AND A STRETCH FOUR OR FIVE MILES NORTHWARD, ALONG THE TIENTSIN-PUKOW RAILROAD. BUT ALL MOVEMENT IS SOUTHWARD ACROSS THE YANGTZE.

JUNKS PACKED WITH RETREATING SOLDIERS MOVE STEADILY ACROSS TO NANKING, WHILE LONG LINES OF TROOPS AND REFUGEES WAIT PATIENTLY ON THE PUKOW SHORE FOR TRANSPORT. MANY OF THEM APPEAR NONE TOO WORRIED WHETHER THEY ARE TAKEN ACROSS THE RIVER BEFORE THE REDS ARRIVE.

THE LAST LOCOMOTIVES FROM THE TIENTSIN-PUKOW RAIL LINE WERE FERRIED ACROSS TO NANKING TODAY. WITH THEM WENT A FEW CARS WHICH APPEARED TO CONTAIN ONLY HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL BELONGINGS.

PUKOW ITSELF IS QUIET. THERE ARE A FEW SOLDIERS GLUMLY DIGGING SLIT TRENCHES ALONG THE RIVER BANK.

SOME NATIONALIST TROOPS REMAIN NORTH OF PUKOW, BUT THERE IS NO EVIDENCE THAT THEY ARE BEING SUPPORTED FROM HERE. WOUNDED ARE DRIFTING BACK FOR EVACUATION TO NANKING. THEY SAID THEY FOUGHT COMMUNISTS YESTERDAY SOUTH OF WUYI, ABOUT 15 MILES NORTHEAST OF HERE.

ANCHORED IN MIDSTREAM ARE THREE CHINESE WARSHIPS -- DESTROYER ESCORT

SIZE. A FEW HUNDRED YARDS UP THE RIVER ARE A DOZEN OLD ANCHORED BARGES. THEY ARE TARGETS FOR NATIONALIST ARTILLERY PRACTICE WHICH WAS ANNOUNCED FOR TODAY, BUT APPARENTLY CANCELLED BECAUSE OF CLOUDY WEATHER.

DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE COMMUNISTS ARE ONLY A FEW MILES AWAY, THERE HAS BEEN NO APPARENT ORGANIZED EFFORT TO REMOVE ALL SHIPPING TO THE SOUTHBANK. A NUMBER OF RIVER VESSELS ARE ANCHORED OFF PUKOW.

RESIDENTS OF PUKOW SHOW LITTLE EXCITEMENT AS THEY DISCUSS AMONG THEMSELVES HOW SOON COMMUNIST TROOPS WILL ARRIVE. MANY OF THEM SEEM MORE CONCERNED WITH SALVAGING ABANDONED OR UNGUARDED PROPERTY THAN IN THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

"I SHUDDER AT THE PROSPECT OF THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY TRYING TO REMAKE THE ECONOMIC LIFE OF CHINA IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE MARXIST FORMULA," DR. TSIANG SAID. "THE CHINESE PEOPLE WILL PAY THE PRICE IN THE FORM OF MASS STARVATION."

DR.TSIANG SAID THAT NOT ONCE IN ITS 30 YEARS OF EXISTENCE HAD THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS EVER DEVIATED FROM THE "INTERNATIONAL LINE DETERMINED BY MOSCOW," ADDING THEY HAD A "FANATICAL FAITH IN WORLD REVOLUTION."

JAN ~ 1949

JUST AS MOSCOW HAD LABELLED THE UNITED STATES ARCH-IMPERIALISTS, SO THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY PROPAGANDA "SINGLED OUT THE AMERICANS AS ARCH-IMPERIALISTS," HE SAID, "IN SPITE OF THE FACT THE UNITED STATES HAS NOT ASKED FOR A SINGLE PORT OR A SINGLE LINE OF CHINESE RAILWAY OR A SINGLE SQUARE MILE OF CHINESE TERRITORY."

HE SAID THE CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY WAS THE LEADER OF ALL THE COMMUNIST PARTIES OF ASIA, FROM KOREA TO INDONESIA.

REFERRING TO THE RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CHINESE CRISIS, DR.TSIANG SAID:

"I DO NOT WISH TO WHITEWASH THE LEADERS WHO HAVE OCCUPIED POSITIONS OF RESPONSIBILITY IN RECENT YEARS, BUT BEYOND INDIVIDUALS, AND MORE IMPORTANT THAN INDIVIDUALS, ARE CERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL CONDITIONS FOR WHICH NOBODY IN PARTICULAR AND EVERYBODY IN GENERAL IS RESPONSIBLE. THE MAIN UNDERLYING CONDITION IN ALL THAT IS HAPPENING IN CHINA TODAY IS THE LONG WAR WE FOUGHT AGAINST JAPAN."

HE ADDED, "WE ARE IN CHINA TODAY PAYING THE POLITICAL PRICE FOR THE LONG WAR AGAINST JAPAN."

DR.TSIANG SAID HIS PEOPLE WERE "FUNDAMENTALLY OPPOSED TO COMMUNISM." "IN SPITE OF THE PRESENT STRONG DESIRE FOR PEACE AND UNIVERSAL WEARINESS," HE SAID, "THERE WILL BE OPPOSITION TO THE PRACTICE OF COMMUNISM IN CHINA. HOW THIS OPPOSITION WILL CRYSTALLIZE, NOBODY CAN FORETELL...NOBODY CAN ARTIFICIALLY CALL FORTH A REAL ANTI-COMMUNIST MOVE."

JAN ~ 1949

DR.TSIANG SAID SOME RESPONSIBILITY MUST BE BORNE BY THE UNITED STATES. "YOU HAVE ADVANCED FROM ISOLATION TO THE CONCEPTION OF, NOT ONE WORLD, BUT HALF A WORLD," HE DECLARED. "YOU HAVE DONE EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO DAM THE TIDE OF COMMUNISM FROM THE PERSIAN GULF TO GREECE, ITALY, WESTERN GERMANY, WESTERN EUROPEAND THE BRITISH ISLES. BY BUILDING THAT DAM YOU HAVE FORCED THE FLOOD TO SURGE EASTWARD. YOU HAVE WRITTEN THE CONTINENT OF ASIA FROM YOUR CONSCIENCE."

DR.MAGNUS I.GREGERSEN, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN BUREAU FOR MEDICAL AID TO CHINA, INC., SAID THE ORGANIZATION WAS DETERMINED TO CONTINUE ITS ASSISTANCE TO THAT STRICKEN NATION, IF AT ALL POSSIBLE.

(400) CHINESE-AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, JAN 25-(AP)-ALL AMERICANS IN PEIPING ARE REPORTED TO HAVE ESCAPED INJURY WHEN THAT CITY FELL TO THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

MICHAEL J. MCDERMOTT, STATE DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID TODAY THAT REPORTS FROM THE CONSUL GENERAL THERE INDICATE THAT NO AMERICANS WERE EITHER KILLED OR INJURED IN THE COURSE OF THE FIGHTING OVER THE CITY.

"THIS INCLUDES ALL 193 AMERICANS IN THE CITY AND ALL FOUR IN THE TOWN OF TUNGCHOW, 12 MILES TO THE EAST," HE SAID.

"THERE HAVE BEEN NO RECENT REPORTS CONCERNING THE 45 AMERICANS LIVING IN THE WESTERN SUBURBS CHIEFLY AT YENCHING AND TSINGHAU UNIVERSITIES. BUT REPORTS RECEIVED FROM THEM AFTER THE COMMUNISTS HAD OCCUPIED THOSE AREAS WERE THAT ALL WERE SAFE AND WELL."

AT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION, OFFICIALS WERE CHECKING ON THE AMOUNT OF AMERICAN-FINANCED AID SUPPLIES THAT WERE IN TIENTSIN AND PEIPING WHEN THE COMMUNISTS TOOK OVER.

HARLAN CLEVELAND, ECA DIRECTOR OF CHINA AID, SAID THE CHECK IS BEING MADE THROUGH A COMPARISON OF SHIPPING RECORDS HERE WITH LATE REPORTS FROM ECA OFFICIALS IN THE ORIENT.

DISPATCHES FROM SHANGHAI PUT AT $4,000,000 (M) THE VALUE OF UNITED STATES WHEAT, FLOUR AND COTTON FABRIC STILL IN TIENTSIN AND PEIPING. AN ECA SPOKESMAN SAID THE FIGURE "APPEARS TO BE HIGH BUT THOSE ON THE SCENE SHOULD HAVE A BETTER IDEA THAN WE DO."

CLEVELAND TOLD A REPORTER THAT ECA PLANS TO CONTINUE RATIONING TO THE CHINESE POPULATION "AT LEAST AS LONG AS CURRENT SUPPLIES LAST." AFTER THAT, HE SAID, "FUTURE DECISIONS ARE OBVIOUSLY POLITICAL AND MUST BE DETERMINED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND OTHER OFFICIALS."

ECA LAST WEEK HALTED ALL NEW SHIPMENTS OF WHEAT AND FLOUR TO NORTH CHINA. THE OFFICIAL REASON GIVEN WAS "THE PHYSICAL INABILITY" OF LANDING THE SUPPLIES IN NORTH CHINA AND TRANSPORTING THEM INLAND TO POINTS OF USE.

JAN 1949

CLEVELAND SAID ECA'S ACTION IN CONTINUING THE FEEDING PROGRAM WITH SUPPLIES ALREADY ON THE SCENE IS IN LINE WITH PREVIOUS ANNOUNCED POLICY. USE OF THE COMMODITIES IN COMMUNIST AREAS, HE SAID, IS PERMITTED "ONLY UNDER THE STRICTEST OF REGULATIONS."

SUCH STIPULATIONS PROVIDE, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THAT ECA OFFICIALS MUST BE GIVEN FREEDOM TO INSPECT USE OF THE SUPPLIES AS WELL AS PUBLICIZE THE FACT THAT THEY COME FROM THE UNITED STATES.

ECA HAS HAD NO WORD FROM RICHIE DAVIS, THE AGENCY'S REPRESENTATIVE IN PEIPING, SINCE THE COMMUNISTS TOOK OVER THE ONE-TIME CHINESE CAPITAL. LACK OF COMMUNICATION, HOWEVER, WAS ATTRIBUTED BY WASHINGTON OFFICIALS TO "EXPECTED CONFUSION RESULTING FROM THE FALL OF THE CITY."

WHAT THE IMMEDIATE EFFECTS OF THE RUSSIAN MOVE MIGHT BE WERE NOT CLEAR. RUSSIA'S RECENT AGREEMENTS WITH THE EASTERN EUROPEAN SATELLITES CALLING FOR INCREASED TRADE OBVIOUSLY FIT INTO THE PLAN BUT THERE IS NO INDICATION OF OTHER DIRECTIONS IN WHICH THE NEW GROUP MIGHT LEAD.

IT FITS IN, HOWEVER, WITH A MOVE, LONG ANTICIPATED, BY THE KREMLIN TO WELD THE EASTERN EUROPEAN BLOC INTO A COORDINATED ECONOMIC UNIT IN OPPOSITION TO THE MARSHALL PLAN.

THE CHARGES OF A "BOYCOTT" BY THE WEST SEEM AIMED ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY AT THE UNITED STATES, SINCE BRITAIN AND OTHER WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS HAVE SIGNED RECENT LARGE SCALE TRADE AGREEMENTS WITH EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

THE AMERICAN POSITION HAS BEEN THAT IT IS WILLING TO TRADE WITH RUSSIA AND THE SATELLITE NATIONS BUT THAT NO GOODS WHICH COULD BE USED FOR WARLIKE PURPOSES SHOULD BE SENT BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN.

THE UNITED STATES FURTHER HAS INSISTED THAT NO GOODS WHICH COULD BE UTILIZED FOR MILITARY PURPOSES WHICH IT PROVIDES FOR MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS SHALL BE TRANS-SHIPPED TO EASTERN EUROPE.

TORONTO, JAN.25-(AP)-CANADA ALREADY HAS MADE PLANS FOR PUTTING PLANTS UNDERGROUND, H.J.CARMICHAEL, CHAIRMAN OF THE CANADIAN INDUSTRIAL DEFENCE BOARD, SAID TODAY IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY TO THE CANADIAN CONSTRUCTION ASSOCIATION.

HE ADVISED THAT THOUGHT BE GIVEN TO DISPERSAL OF INDUSTRIES AMONG SMALLER CENTERS AS A SAFEGUARD AGAINST THE "ATOM BOMB AND FAST-FLYING JET-PROPELLED BOMBERS."

CARMICHAEL SAID TWO SITES HAVE BEEN SURVEYED AND SELECTED FOR UNDERGROUND LOCATION OF PLANTS OF SUCH STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE THAT THEIR DESTRUCTION WOULD BE DISASTROUS.

"WITH THE VAST MAJORITY OF THE SURVEY WORK DEVELOPED AND THE NECESSARY TESTS MADE, THERE WILL BE A MINIMUM OF DELAY WHEN THE ACTUAL NEED ARISES, IN IMMEDIATELY STARTING THEIR CONSTRUCTION," HE ADDED.

JAN 1949

CARMICHAEL SAID A GREAT NUMBER OF DEFENCE PROBLEMS ARE BEING CONSIDERED, INCLUDING THAT OF STANDARDIZATION OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE ARMED FORCES WITH THAT OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN.

CHICAGO, JAN.25-(AP)-A FRENCH OFFICIAL WHO ONCE FAVORED BREAKING OFF THE STALEMATED DISCUSSIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SUGGESTED A NEW APPROACH TODAY FOR POSSIBLE INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT.

HE IS FRANCOIS DE ROSE, ACTING FRENCH REPRESENTATIVE ON THE UNAEC SINCE ITS INCEPTION. DE ROSE ORIGINALLY INTRODUCED THE RESOLUTION TO SUSPEND THE COMMISSION'S ACTIVITIES ON THE GROUND AN IMPASSE HAD BEEN REACHED WITH SOVIET RUSSIA. HOWEVER, THE UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY DIRECTED THE COMMISSION TO CONTINUE ITS WORK.

DE ROSE, IN AN ARTICLE IN THE BULLETIN OF THE ATOMIC SCIENTISTS, SAID:

"THE COMMISSION IN ITS PAST EXAMINATION OF THE PROBLEM, HAS MORE OR LESS WORKED UPWARDS FROM THE TECHNICAL EVIDENCE FURNISHED TO IT TO THE COMPLETE SET OF SAFEGUARDS X X X . THE SOVIET REPRESENTATIVES HAVE REJECTED THE RESULTS OF THIS PROCEDURE, AND OBJECTED TO THE PROCEDURE ITSELF. WOULD IT BE HELPFUL TO TRY THE ALTERNATIVE APPROACH OF WORKING DOWNWARDS FROM BROAD PRINCIPLES TO THE DETAILS OF APPLICATION?"

HE SAID THE RUSSIANS, FOR EXAMPLE, HAVE OBJECTED TO AIR SURVEYS. "WOULD IT NOT BE USEFUL TO ASK THEM WHETHER THEY AGREE THAT THERE CAN BE NO SECURITY IF NATIONS CAN PERMAMENTLY SEAL OFF CERTAIN PARTS OF THEIR TERRITORIES FROM INTERNATIONAL INSPECTION?" HE ASKED.

THE WHOLE PHILOSOPHY OF THE MAJORITY PLAN, HE ADDED "COULD PROBABLY BE REDUCED TO MORE THAN FIVE OR SIX PRINCIPLES OF THIS KIND FOR WHICH THE EVIDENCE HAS BEEN GATHERED."

HOWEVER, HE SAID THE COMMISSION WOULD FACE "DIFFICULTIES" AND "RISKS" IN DISCUSSING PUBLICLY "THE DREADED POLITICAL PROBLEMS OF THE STAGES OF TRANSITION FROM NATIONAL TO INTERNATIONAL CONTROL AND OF THE PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE GEOGRAPHICAL LOCATIONS OF DANGEROUS ACTIVITIES AND FACILITIES."

HE SAID THERE ALSO IS THE QUESTION OF "WHETHER THE SOVIET UNION IS REALLY HOPING AND WORKING FOR AN AGREEMENT OR WHETHER SHE SIMPLY WANTS TO KEEP THE DISCUSSIONS GOING."

AT A PRELIMINARY INQUIRY BEFORE AN IMMIGRATION SERVICE OFFICIAL HERE IN THE MORNING, FOES OF THE PIANIST'S ADMISSION REPORTEDLY CHARGED THAT HE HAD TRIED TO JOIN A NAZI PARTY AUXILIARY AND HAD FOLLOWED THE PARTY'S CULTURAL LINE.

IN THE AFTERNOON, AGENTS OF THE IMMIGRATION SERVICE INFORMED GIESEKING HE WOULD HAVE TO BE DETAINED PENDING A FULL HEARING UNLESS HE AGREED TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.

AMONG THE MUSICAL ARTISTS WHO HAD OPPOSED HIS U.S. APPEARANCES WERE TWO OTHER PROMINENT PIANISTS, ARTUR RUBINSTEIN AND VLADIMIR HOROWITZ. NEW YORK- GIESEKING XXXYESTERDAY.

RUBINSTEIN CANCELLED AN APPEARANCE WITH THE NATIONAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA IN WASHINGTON AFTER LEARNING GIESEKING WOULD BE ONE OF ITS SOLOISTS.

SIMILAR PROTESTS WERE MADE RECENTLY AGAINST DR.WILHELM FURTWAENGLER WHO THEN DROPPED A SCHEDULED ENGAGEMENT AS GUEST CONDUCTOR OF THE CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

THE NON-SECTARIAN ANTI-NAZI LEAGUE TERMED GIESEKING'S DECISION TO LEAVE "A CONFESSION OF GUILT." THE LEAGUE TODAY WIRED TWO HOUSE COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN IN WASHINGTON ASKING AN INVESTIGATION OF THE ARMY'S DECISION TO REMOVE GIESEKING FROM THE ARMY BLACKLIST IN GERMANY AND TO PERMIT HIM TO APPEAR BEFORE HIGH AMERICAN ARMY OFFICERS IN THE OCCUPATION FORCES.

FIRST LEAD GERMAN PIANIST

NEW YORK, JAN.25-(AP)-GERMAN PIANIST WALTER GIESEKING, HIS PROTESTED AMERICAN CONCERT TOUR CANCELLED, LEFT THIS COUNTRY BY PLANE FOR PARIS TODAY, COMPLAINING HE HAD BEEN TREATED "TOO ROUGHLY HERE."

THE BALD CONCERT PIANIST'S OPENING RECITAL AT CARNEGIE HALL WAS CANCELLED LAST NIGHT SEVERAL HOURS AFTER HE HAD BEEN PICKED UP BY IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS.

HIS ATTORNEY, IRVING J.KURZ, TOLD REPORTERS AT LAGUARDIA FIELD THAT GIESEKING LEFT VOLUNTARILY. A NUMBER OF JEWISH AND OTHER GROUPS OBJECTED TO HIS ADMISSION TO THIS COUNTRY BECAUSE HE PLAYED BEFORE HITLER AND IN GERMANY THROUGHOUT THE NAZI REGIME. GIESEKING DENIED HE EVER WAS A NAZI.

AFTER A 30-MINUTE IMMIGRATION HEARING AT THE AIRPORT, THE PIANIST WALKED 200 YARDS TO A PLANE.

A REPORTER ASKED, "HOW DO YOU FEEL ABOUT GOING BACK SO SOON?"

"IT'S NOT FIT TO PRINT," GIESEKING REPLIED. "IF I HAD NOT PLAYED THE PIANO AND I HAD JOINED THE GERMAN ARMY AND KILLED 100 AMERICAN SOLDIERS I'D BE A HERO. I WILL BE GLAD WHEN IGET TO FRANCE. THERE IS MORE FREEDOM THERE."

A REPORTER ASKED, "ARE YOU DISAPPOINTED YOU AREN'T GOING BACK WITH A POCKETFUL OF U.S. DOLLARS?"

GIESEKING REPLIED ANGRILY, "I CAN MAKE MORE MONEY IN EUROPE."

"MORE?" HE WAS ASKED.

"WELL, ENOUGH, ANYWAY," HE SAID.

ASKED WHY HE DID NOT STAY AND FIGHT THE EXCLUSION ORDER, GIESEKING SAID:

"IT WOULD TAKE TWO OR THREE MONTHS TO FIGHT IT AND I DID NOT WANT TO GO TO ELLIS ISLAND. I'M DISGUSTED."

STATING HE HAD BEEN "TREATED TOO ROUGHLY HERE," HE ADDED, "EVERYWHERE IN EUROPE THEY ASK FOR CONCERTS AND I GIVE THEM. THIS IS THE FIRST TIME IN MY LIFE I HAVE NOT BEEN TREATED AS AN ARTIST SHOULD BE TREATED."

THE CONCERT AND THE TOUR WERE CANCELLED AT THE PIANIST'S DIRECTION AFTER HIS SEIZURE, BUT A CROWD ESTIMATED AT 5,000 MILLED AROUND THE HALL LAST NIGHT AND POLICE HAD TO BREAK UP A NUMBER OF SCUFFLES. SEVERAL GROUPS PICKETED AGAINST THE CONCERT BEFORE THE CANCELLATION WAS ANNOUNCED.

LATER, A GROUP OF JEWISH WAR VETERANS ARRIVED AND PICKETED, SINGING THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

GIESEKING AGREED TO LEAVE THE U.S. AFTER A HEARING WAS CALLED TO DETERMINE WHETHER HE SHOULD BE EXCLUDED FROM THE COUNTRY, THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FIRST ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON. THE PIANIST ARRIVED IN THE U.S. LAST SATURDAY.

A SPOKESMAN FOR GIESEKING'S AGENTS IN NEW YORK SAID THE PIANIST DECIDED TO CANCEL HIS TOUR AND RETURN TO EUROPE IMMEDIATELY WHEN HE LEARNED THAT IMMIGRATION HEARINGS WOULD TAKE SEVERAL WEEKS.

THE HEARING, NOW CALLED OFF, HAD BEEN SCHEDULED TO DETERMINE WHETHER GIESEKING "HAD ANY PREVIOUS POLITICAL CONNECTIONS IN PREWAR GERMANY WHICH WOULD RENDER HIM INADMISSABLE TO THIS COUNTRY."

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT REPORTED DISCOVERY OF EVIDENCE INDICATING THAT GIESEKING'S PRESENCE IN THIS COUNTRY MIGHT NOT BE DESIRABLE. THE GOVERNMENT AGENTS DECLINED TO REVEAL THE NATURE OF THE EVIDENCE.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ALSO DECLINED TO EXPLAIN A SUDDEN SWITCH IN THE METHOD OF HANDLING THE CASE. A FEW HOURS BEFORE GIESEKING WAS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY, W.FRANK WATKINS, DISTRICT DIRECTOR OF THE U.S. IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE, SAID THE PIANIST HAD BEEN PLACED ON "PAROLE" BECAUSE OF PROTESTS AGAINST ADMITTING HIM. WATKINS SAID AT THAT TIME THAT "NO INTERFERENCE" WITH THE CONCERT PROGRAM WAS PLANNED, BUT THAT GIESEKING WOULD BE SUBJECT TO CALL BY INVESTIGATING AUTHORITIES.

CANCELLATION OF GIESEKING'S TOUR CAME LESS THAN A WEEK AFTER DR. WILHELM FURTWAENGLER DROPPED A SCHEDULED ENGAGEMENT AS GUEST CONDUCTOR OF THE CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA. A NUMBER OF ARTISTS, WHO SAID THEY WOULD NOT APPEAR WITH HIM, HAD PROTESTED THE ENGAGEMENT NEXT SUMMER, SAYING HE HAD CONDUCTED CONCERTS FOR THE NAZIS. SUPPORTERS OF FURTWAENGLER SAID HE NEVER HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN NAZI POLITICS.

AMONG THE GROUPS WHICH OPPOSED GIESEKING'S PROJECTED APPEARANCES IN THE UNITED STATES WERE THE AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS AND THE ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE OF B'NAI B'RITH, JEWISH FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION. SEVERAL MEMBERS OF CONGRESS PROTESTED HIS ADMISSION TO THE U.S.

DEFENDING THE PIANIST, HIS MANAGERS TOLD NEWSMEN IN NEW YORK THAT HE HAD BEEN "CLEARED OF SUSPICION" OF HAVING GIVEN CONCERTS SPONSORED BY THE NAZIS. THE AGENTS SAID THE LOCAL DE-NAZIFICATION BOARD IN HIS HOME TOWN HAD REFUSED TO TRY HIM "BECAUSE IT WAS WIDELY KNOWN THAT HE WAS NOT A NAZI AND THAT HE STUDIOUSLY AVOIDED ALL CONTACTS WITH NAZIS."

GIESEKING HAD TOLD NEWSMEN THAT HE PLAYED "A LOT MORE CONCERTS FOR ALLIED SOLDIERS THAN I DID FOR GERMANS." HE DECLARED "THE ONLY APPEARANCE I MADE BEFORE ADOLF HITLER WAS AT A PUBLIC CONCERT IN BERLIN IN 1936. I NEVER PLAYED PRIVATELY FOR ANY NAZI OFFICIAL." HE SAID HE NEVER JOINED THE NAZI PARTY AND AVOIDED "ALL POSSIBILITY OF BEING FORCED TO JOIN."

SIMILAR OPPOSITION WAS EXPRESSED TO THE FIRST POST-WAR CARNEGIE HALL RECITAL OF SINGER KIRSTEN FLAGSTAD ON APRIL 20, 1947. HOWEVER, SHE MADE HER APPEARANCE AND A CROWD OF NEARLY 3,000 PERSONS PASSED THROUGH PICKET LINES TO HEAR AND CHEER HER.

SHE WAS CRITICIZED FOR REMAINING IN NORWAY DURING THE NAZI OCCUPATION OF THE COUNTRY. SHE SAID SHE HAD RETURNED TO NORWAY TO BE WITH HER AILING HUSBAND AND SAID ON HER RETURN TO AMERICA "I WAS NEVER FRIENDLY WITH THE GERMANS."

CHICAGO,JAN.25-(AP)-THE FEDERAL COURT TODAY APPROVED TAKING OF TESTIMONY FROM A FORMER NAZI AGENT AS PART OF A LIBEL SUIT BROUGHT BY MRS.ELIZABETH DILLING STOKES, VETERAN CAMPAIGNER AGAINST COMMUNISM.

MRS.STOKES, AUTHOR OF "THE RED NETWORK", HAS SUED O.JOHN ROGGE, FORMER U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICIAL, FOR $500,000. SHE ALLEGES SHE WAS LIBELED IN A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE BASED ON INFORMATION GIVEN BY ROGGE.

ROGGE'S ATTORNEY, STANFORD CLINTON, TODAY TOLD JUDGE MICHAEL L. IGOE THAT THE FORMER NAZI AGENT WOULD GIVE TESTIMONY THAT MRS.STOKES HAD ATTENDED A NAZI FESTIVAL IN NEURENBURG, GERMANY, AND HAD CARICATURED MRS.FRANKLIN D.ROOSEVELT BEFORE A GROUP OF NAZI OFFICIALS.

CLINTON IDENTIFIED THE FORMER AGENT AS VIOLA BODENSCHATZ WHO LIVES IN NEW ALBANY, IND. THE LAWYER SAID SHE WAS SENTENCED IN 1942 TO SERVE FIVE YEARS IN PRISON FOR FAILING TO REGISTER AS A FOREIGN AGENT.

ROGGE'S COUNSEL TOLD THE COURT HE SOUGHT A DEPOSITION FROM THE WOMAN TO CONTROVERT A STATEMENT PREVIOUSLY MADE BY MRS.STOKES THAT SHE NEVER HAD KNOWN ULRICH VON GIENATH, PROPAGANDA AND CULTURAL ATTACHE AT THE GERMAN EMBASSY BEFORE THE WAR.

JUDGE IGOE ORDERED THAT THE DEPOSITION BE TAKEN IN NEW ALBANY ON FRIDAY. THE ORDER WAS OPPOSED BY ALBERT W.DILLING, MRS.STOKES FORMER HUSBAND AND HER ATTORNEY.

THE HEARING OF MRS.STOKES' SUIT HAS BEEN SET FOR MAY 2.

AXIS SALLY BOX

WASHINGTON,JAN.25-(AP)-ATTORNEYS IN THE "AXIS SALLY" TREASON TRIAL EXPLAINED TODAY WHY THE INDICTMENT REFERS TO THE DEFENDANT BY TWO NAMES.

THE INDICTMENT CALLS HER MILDRED E.SISK, ALSO KNOWN AS MILDRED ELIZABETH GILLARS.

JOHN M.KELLEY,JR., THE CHIEF PROSECUTOR, SAID HER FATHER'S NAME WAS SISK, BUT THAT SHE TOOK THE NAME OF HER STEPFATHER--GILLARS--AT THE AGE OF SEVEN.

JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, CHIEF DEFENSE COUNSEL, SAYS SHE PREFERS GILLARS TO SISK.

MD559AES

(THE "OFFICIAL" EXCHANGE RATE AT THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR WAS 40 U.S.CENTS TO ONE MARK. ON THAT BASIS MISS GILLARS' PAY WOULD HAVE BEEN $800 TO $1,200 A MONTH. MARKS ACTUALLY WERE OBTAINABLE AT MUCH LOWER RATES, HOWEVER, AND AFTER HOSTILITIES BEGAN THERE WAS NO DIRECT EXCHANGE TO ESTABLISH A REAL FIGURE.)

A RADIO PROPAGANDIST WHO FOLLOWED THE NAZI LINE IN A FASHION AIMED AT HURTING THE U.S. WAR EFFORT AND AT SPLITTING THE ALLIES.

AN ACTRESS STRANDED IN GERMANY AND UNDER PRESSURE, WHO STILL REJECTED MATERIAL THAT WOULD HURT AMERICA AND SAID NO MORE ON THE RADIO THAN THOUSANDS OF HER FELLOW CITIZENS WERE SAYING AT HOME.

THE LAWYERS SPOKE AFTER A WOMAN HAD BEEN REMOVED FROM THE JURY BOX BECAUSE OF HER OPPOSITION TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

THE JUROR, MRS.ELIZABETH BARKER, A BEAUTY SHOP OPERATOR, TOLD THE COURT CLERK OF HER OPPOSITION TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

IN THE ABSENCE OF THE OTHER JURORS, JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAN ASKED MRS.BARKER WHY SHE DID NOT SPEAK OUT YESTERDAY WHEN JURORS WERE ASKED IF THEY OPPOSED THE DEATH PENALTY.

SHE REPLIED THAT SHE "MADE A MISTAKE," EXPLAINING THAT HIS WAS THE FIRST JURY SHE HAD EVER SERVED ON.

JUDGE CURRAN EXCUSED HER FROM FURTHER DUTY IN THE "AXIS SALLY" TREASON TRIAL. AN ALTERNATE, HENRY G.DAVIS,JR., TOOK MRS.BARKER'S PLACE IN THE BOX. WASH'N-AXIS SALLY-XXX CONVICTION.

IN HIS OPENING STATEMENT, JOHN M.KELLEY,JR., THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, TOLD THE JURY IN DETAIL OF GERMAN RADIO PROPAGANDA PROGRAMS AND THE PART MILDRED E.GILLARS, 48, PLAYED IN THEM.

MISS GILLARS, A NATIVE OF PORTLAND,ME., BEGAN WORKING FOR THE GERMAN RADIO IN THE SPRING OF 1940 AND CONTINUED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE WAR.

KELLEY PARTICULARLY MENTIONED SEVERAL OF THE "AXIS SALLY" PROGRAMS, INCLUDING THOSE KNOWN AS "HOME, SWEET HOME," "MIDGE AT THE MIKE," AND "MEDICAL REPORTS."

IN HER BROADCASTS, KELLEY SAID, MISS GILLARS "EMPLOYED THE ELEMENTS OF GERMAN PROPAGANDA." HE SAID SHE SPOKE OF THE SACRIFICE OF WAR, MADE VIOLENT ATTACKS UPON THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND TOLD HER LISTENERS THAT IT WAS "A WAR OF JEWS AGAINST THE GENTILES."

"SHE MADE REPEATED ATTACKS AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF GREAT BRITAIN IN AN EFFORT TO DIVIDE THE ALLIES BY SOWING SEEDS OF DISSENSIO," KELLEY SAID.

JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, MISS GILLARS' CHIEF COUNSEL, CALLED THE DEFENDANT "A PRODUCT OF A BROKEN HOME" AND REVIEWED HER EARLY LIFE AND HER EFFORTS TO BECOME A DRAMATIC ACTRESS. BEFORE THIS COUNTRY ENTERED THE WAR, LAUGHLIN TOLD THE JURORS, MISS GILLARS SAID SHE FIRMLY BELIEVED THAT THIS COUNTRY SHOULD NOT GET INTO IT AND THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT "WAS DECEIVING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE."

"SHE SAID NO MORE AND DID NO MORE THAN THOUSANDS AND PERHAPS MILLIONS IN THIS COUNTRY DID OR SAID," LAUGHLIN SAID.

BECAUSE OF THESE BROADCASTS, LAUGHLIN ADDED, MISS GILLARS' PASSPORT WAS TAKEN AWAY FROM HER.

"SHE COULDN'T LEAVE (GERMANY) IF SHE WANTED TO," LAUGHLIN SAID. "SHE HAD NO PASSPORT AND SHE HAD NO MONEY."

HE SAID MISS GILLARS NEVER HAD ANY CONTACT WITH HITLER, GOERING, GOEBBELS "OR ANY OTHERS OF THAT UNHOLY LOT."

HE SAID THAT SHE ALWAYS MADE IT PLAIN TO GERMAN RADIO OFFICIALS THAT SHE WOULD "ENTER INTO NOTHING HURTFUL TO THIS COUNTRY BECAUSE SHE VALUED HER AMERICAN CITIZENSHIP HIGHLY."

ON MANY OCCASIONS, LAUGHLIN CONTINUED, MISS GILLARS REJECTED MATERIAL "BECAUSE OF EVIDENCE OF PROPAGANDA."

KELLEY TOLD THE JURORS THAT RECORDINGS OF ABOUT 20 RADIO PROGRAMS IN WHICH MISS GILLARS PARTICIPATED WILL BE PLAYED LATER IN THE TRIAL. LAUGHLIN SAID HE HOPED THE GOVERNMENT WOULD MAKE AVAILABLE TO THE DEFENSE ALL THE RECORDINGS IN THE HANDS OF THE PROSECUTION.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER KELLEY AND LAUGHLIN FINISHED THEIR STATEMENTS, KELLEY CALLED HIS FIRST WITNESS TO THE STAND--ADELBERT HOUBEN, FORMERLY A HIGH OFFICIAL OF THE GERMAN RADIO.

A JURY COMPOSED OF SIX WOMEN AND SIX MEN WAS CHOSEN WITH UNEXPECTED SPEED.

BY 3 P.M. YESTERDAY--FIVE HOURS AFTER THE TRIAL OPENED AND AFTER ONLY THREE HOURS OF ACTUAL COURT SESSIONS--THE 12 JURORS HAD BEEN SEATED AND TAKEN THEIR OATHS.

TWO ALTERNATES THEN WERE PICKED. THE ALTERNATES--A MAN AND A WOMAN--WILL LISTEN TO ALL THE EVIDENCE, BUT WILL OTHERWISE PARTICIPATE ONLY IF ONE OR MORE OF THE REGULAR JURORS SHOULD BECOME INCAPACITATED.

SIX OF THE REGULAR JURORS ARE NEGROES. THE TWO ALTERNATES ARE WHITE.

BEFORE ANY OF THE JURORS WERE SEATED, U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE EDWARD M.CURRAY ASKED MORE THAN 100 PROSPECTIVE MEMBERS OF THE PANEL A LONG LIST OF QUESTIONS SUGGESTED BY PROSECUTING AND DEFENSE ATTORNEYS.

THE QUESTIONS INDICATED THAT THE PROSECUTION WAS ANXIOUS TO KEEP OFF THE JURY ANYONE WHO EVER HAD BEEN CONNECTED WITH THE GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND OR ANY OTHER GERMAN-AMERICAN ORGANIZATION. OTHER QUESTIONS, PRESUMABLY SUGGESTED BY THE DEFENSE, DEALT WITH MEMBERSHIP IN VARIOUS JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS.

JAN 1949

LAUGHLIN USED UP ALL 20 OF HIS CHALLENGES IN REMOVING JURORS WHO HAD BEEN SEATED TENTATIVELY. KELLEY USED ONLY FOUR OF HIS, AND JUDGE CURRAN EXCUSED FOUR WHO SAID THEY HAD FIXED OPINIONS AS TO THE GUILT OR INNOCENCE OF THE DEFENDANT. THEY WERE NOT ASKED TO INDICATE WHICH WAY THEY FELT.

MISS GILLARS, 48 AND A NATIVE OF PORTLAND,ME., IS A SELF-STYLED ACTRESS.

IN A BRIEF STATEMENT TO THE PROSPECTIVE JURORS, KELLEY SAID THE GOVERNMENT WILL SHOW THAT MISS GILLARS IS AN AMERICAN CITIZEN--A REQUIREMENT FOR A TREASON CONVICTION--AND THAT SHE WAS EMPLOYED FOR PAY TO GIVE GERMAN PROPAGANDA BROADCASTS.

HER PROGRAMS, KELLEY SAID, WERE VARIOUSLY KNOWN AS "MIDGE AT THE MIKE," "HOME, SWEET HOME," "PRISONERS MESSAGES," AND "MEDICAL REPORT." GI'S FROM AFRICA TO GERMANY CALLED IT THE "AXIS SALLY" PROGRAM.

FORT MEADE, MD., JAN.25-(AP)-AN EX-SOLDIER TESTIFIED TODAY HE WAS ASSIGNED TO TREAT AMERICAN SOLDIERS AT AN ARMY PRISON CAMP DISPENSARY IN WURZBURG, GERMANY, ALTHOUGH HE HAD NO PREVIOUS MEDICAL TRAINING.

CALVIN C. PREATER, 24, OF MORRIS PLAINS, N.J., WAS A WITNESS AT THE COURT-MARTIAL OF AN OFFICER CHARGED WITH NEGLECT OF DUTY AT THE PRISON CAMP.

HE SAID HE WAS INSTRUCTED IN HIS DUTIES BY CAPT. JOEL G. HOLMES, JR., OF PHILADELPHIA, THE ARMY MEDICAL OFFICER WHO IS ON TRIAL. THREE OTHER OFFICERS FACE THE SAME CHARGE.

PREATER, HIMSELF A PRISONER, SAID HE WAS ASSIGNED TO THE STOCKADE DISPENSARY ALTHOUGH HE HAD NO PREVIOUS MEDICAL TRAINING.

HE TESTIFIED THAT ON ONE OCCASION HE TREATED PVT. JOSEPH SUGGS, A NEGRO SOLDIER WHO IS A CHIEF WITNESS AGAINST HOLMES. BOTH OF SUGGS FEET WERE AMPUTATED. HE TESTIFIED THEY WERE FROSTBITTEN IN A SOLITARY CONFINE MENT CELL AT WURZBURG.

PREATER SAID WHEN SUGGS CALLED FOR MEDICAL ATTENTION HE TOOK HIS TEMPERATURE AND PULSE. HE SAID HE THEN GAVE SUGGS SULFADIAZENE ALTHOUGH HE SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT EFFECT IT WOULD HAVE.

PREATER WAS DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED AFTER BEING CONVICTED BY A COURT-MARTIAL IN ENGLAND ON LARCENY CHARGES.

EARLIER, LT.WILLIAM CASE, THE PRISON'S MEDICAL DETACHMENT ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER, TESTIFIED THAT THE CAMP'S RECORDS WERE DESTROYED WHEN IT WAS DEACTIVIATED IN 1947.

WASHINGTON, JAN 25-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES EXPRESSED "FULL CONFIDENCE" TODAY IN ITS ENVOY TO HUNGARY WHO HAS BEEN LINKED BY THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT TO THE TREASON CASE AGAINST CARDINAL MINDSZENTY.

THE ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIMATE HAS BEEN ACCUSED IN HUNGARY OF ESPIONAGE AND TREASON AGAINST THAT COUNTRY'S COMMUNIST REGIME. THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT'S "YELLOW BOOK" LAST WEDNESDAY QUOTED THE CARDINAL AS SAYING THAT U.S. MINISTER SELDEN CHAPIN SOUGHT MILITARY AND OTHER INFORMATION FROM HIM.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID IN A STATEMENT IT HAS NOT YET RECEIVED COPIES OF THE 96-PAGE DOCUMENT ISSUED AT BUDAPEST, BUT DOES HAVE SUMMARIES RECEIVED BY TELEGRAPH.

"THESE INDICATE THAT THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT ENDEAVORS TO IMPUTE IMPROPER ACTIVITIES TO THE UNITED STATES MINISTER TO HUNGARY, SOLDEN CHAPIN," THE DEPARTMENT SAID.

"THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT CATEGORICALLY REJECTS SUCH ACCUSATIONS AGAINST MINISTER CHAPIN, IN WHOM IT HAS FULL CONFIDENCE."

THE CHARGES AGAINST CARDINAL MINDSZENTY WERE DENOUNCED BY ROBERT A. LOVETT, WHEN HE WAS ACTING SECRETARY OF STATE. LOVETT SAID THE CHARGES WERE A SICKENING SHAM AND OBVIOUSLY FALSE.

WASHINGTON, JAN 25-(AP)-W.AVERELL HARRIMAN, MARSHALL PLAN AMBASSADOR, SAID TODAY PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL TO HELP BUILD UP UNDER DEVELOPED AREAS OF THE WORLD "FITS IN" WITH PLANS WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES HAVE BEGUN FOR THEIR AFRICAN COLONIES.

"THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL, MADE IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS, WILL GIVE IMPETUS TO THEIR WORK," HARRIMAN TOLD REPORTERS AFTER A CALL ON MR. TRUMAN.

AT MEETINGS IN PARIS LAST FALL, GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM AND PORTUGAL LAID PLANS TO DEVELOP PRODUCTION OF METALS, FOOD AND OTHER MATERIALS IN AFRICA.

HARRIMAN SAID THE NETHERLANDS ALSO IS A MEMBER OF THIS GROUP, BUT THAT ITS RESPONSIBILITY FOR BUILDING UP TRADE IS PRIMARILY WITH THE EAST.

JAN 1949

HARRIMAN SAID THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSAL ALSO WILL STIMULATE THE WORK OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION.

ALONG THAT SAME LINE, ECA OFFICIALS SAID THAT ECONOMIC SURVEYS ALREADY UNDERWAY IN EIGHT FOREIGN COUNTRIES WOULD FIT INTO THE "TRUMAN PLAN."

THE RESULTS OF THESE STUDIES, THEY SAID, WILL HELP DETERMINE WHAT KIND OF OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE, IF ANY, THESE COUNTRIES NEED.

THE GLOBAL ASSISTANCE PLAN MEANS CONGRESS PERHAPS WILL BE ASKED FOR $1,000,000,000 (B) TO FINANCE IT, THE OFFICIALS SAID.

THE DETAILED SURVEYS IN THE EIGHT COUNTRIES WERE ARRANGED BEFORE PRESIDENT TRUMAN, LAST THURSDAY, PROCLAIMED HIS "BOLD, NEW PROGRAM" TO BETTER LIVING CONDITIONS IN UNDERDEVELOPED COUNTRIES.

OFFICIALS TOLD A REPORTER THE CONCLUSION REACHED IN THESE SURVEYS WOULD FORM PART OF THE ADMINISTRATION'S PLAN OF ACTION.

IF THE INVESTIGATORS REPORT CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE, AMERICAN TECHNICAL AND SCIENTIFIC KNOWLEDGE, BACKED UP BY MONEY FROM PRIVATE, GOVERNMENT AND WORLD BANK SOURCES, MAY BE FORTHCOMING TO PUT SPECIFIC PROJECTS INTO OPERATION.

PROSPECTS IN TURKEY, PERU, INDIA AND COLOMBIA ARE BEING LOOKED INTO AT PRESENT BY SEPARATE WORLD BANK MISSIONS, ON THE SCENE.

A UNITED NATIONS GROUP IS INVESTIGATING IN HAITI AND OTHER COM-

MISSIONS ARE EXAMINING THE INDUSTRIAL POSSIBILITIES IN BRAZIL, IRAN AND LIBERIA.

COMPREHENSIVE SURVEYS OF OTHER COUNTRIES WILL BE UNDERTAKEN LATER, SAID THE OFFICIALS, AFTER ADMINISTRATION PLANNERS PUT MR.TRUMAN'S WORDS INTO A SPECIFIC POLICY.

NO DETAILED PROGRAM FOR DOING THIS EXISTS NOW. BUT STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, AS A RESULT OF THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH, HAVE BEGUN TO DRAW UP A "PLAN OF ACTION" EMBODYING THE PRINCIPLES HE LAID DOWN.

ONE LIKELY COURSE OF ACTION BEING DISCUSSED BY TOP PLANNERS IS TO ASK CONGRESS FOR THE $1,000,000,000 (B) TO BE AVAILABLE TO THE U.S. EXPORT-IMPORT BANK. THE BANK WOULD MAKE LOANS TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES PROMISING TO JOIN IN A COORDINATED PLAN TO DEVELOP THEIR RESOURCES.

THESE GOVERNMENT LOANS WOULD BE EXTENDED, IF CONGRESS APPROVES THE PLAN, ONLY WHEN PRIVATE COMPANIES AND THE WORLD BANK CAN NOT FILL THE BILL.

THE ADMINISTRATION IS COUNTING HEAVILY ON PRIVATE ENTERPRISE TO DO MOST OF THE JOB ONCE THE ECONOMIC SURVEYS MAKE KNOWN THE FULL FACTS ABOUT INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES.

THE FOREIGN COUNTRY BEING ASSISTED WOULD BE A PARTNER TO THE PLAN FOR IMPROVING ITS ECONOMY. AS ITS CONTRIBUTION IT WOULD FURNISH MANPOWER, WHATEVER RAW MATERIALS IT HAD AVAILABLE AND PROMISE TO REPAY ANY CREDITS OVER A LONG PERIOD OF TIME.

TWO OF THE BIG QUESTIONS YET UNANSWERED ARE (1) HOW TO HELP COUNTRIES WHOSE FINANCIAL PLIGHT OFFERS SCANT CHANCE FOR REPAYING A LOAN AND (2) WHAT "GUARANTEES" CAN BE GIVEN PRIVATE AMERICAN BUSINESSES ASKED TO SINK THEIR MONEY INTO LARGE-SCALE DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST, AFRICA AND LATIN AMERICA.

UNDATED ECMA (430)
BY BEN BASSETT
AP FOREIGN NEWS EDITOR

JAN 1949

THE NEW TRADE ORGANIZATION SPONSORED BY THE SOVIET UNION IN EASTERN EUROPE IS AN ANSWER TO THE MARSHALL PLAN--BUT THE DIFFERENCES ARE STRIKING.

THERE IS NO INDICATION THAT THE SOVIET UNION, THROUGH THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL INTENDS TO PUMP RUBLES INTO THE ECONOMY OF HER ASSOCIATE NATIONS, IN THE MANNER THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS SENT DOLLARS INTO WESTERN EUROPE WITH THE HOPE OF RESTORING THE ECONOMY THERE. THERE IS, INDEED, NO INDICATION THAT THE SOVIET UNION WILL BE ON THE SHORT END OF TRADING WITH THE FIVE OTHER "ECMA" NATIONS--POLAND, BULGARIA, HUNGARY, ROMANIA AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

THE ECMA SETUP IS BEING HEADED BY PERHAPS THE ABLEST TRADER THE SOVIET UNION HAS--A.I.MIKOYAN, MINISTER OF TRADE AND A MEMBER OF THE POLITBURO. WESTERN BUSINESS MEN WHO HAVE DEALT WITH HIM SAY THEY NEVER MET ANYONE SHARPER. HE IS A CURLY-HAIRED ARMENIAN WHO HAS SEEN MOST OF THE TRADE DELEGATIONS THAT HAVE FLOCKED TO MOSCOW SINCE THE WAR.

SOME OF THE ECMA COUNTRIES, NOTABLY CZECHOSLOVAKIA WITH HER INDUSTRIAL KNOW-HOW, PRODUCE THINGS THAT THE SOVIET UNION VERY MUCH WANTS. ECMA THUS WILL BE FAR FROM A ONE-WAY STREET LEADING FROM THE SOVIET UNION INTO THE SATELLITE COUNTRIES. BUT TWO-WAY TRADE IS OF COURSE AN ESSENTIAL TO A REGION'S PROSPERITY, AND IF THE ASSOCIATED NATIONS MAKE THE PLAN ENCOURAGE THE EXCHANGE OF GOODS, THEY WILL STRENGTHEN THE BACKBONE OF THE EASTERN BLOC OF NATIONS.

IT IS NOTED THAT ALBANIA, THE POOREST NATION ECONOMICALLY OF COUNTRIES IN THE SOVIET BLOC, IS NOT INCLUDED IN THE ECMA SETUP. MOSCOW DISPATCHES, HOWEVER, SAY SHE MAY BE INVITED LATER. THERE IS LITTLE NEWS FROM ALBANIA--FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS ARE NOT WELCOME THERE--BUT THE EVIDENCE HAS BEEN THAT THE LITTLE COUNTRY IS IN A BAD WAY.

ALBANIA WAS UNDER MARSHAL TITO'S WING UNTIL THE COMINFORM DISOWNED THE YUGOSLAV PREMIER. YUGOSLAVIA WAS NOT MENTIONED IN THE COMMUNIQUE ANNOUNCING ECMA. THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED EARLIER THAT THEIR TRADE WITH TITO'S COUNTRY WAS BEING CUT 87 PER CENT THIS YEAR.

TITO, MEANTIME, IS PRESSING TOWARD FREER TRADE WITH THE WEST. AND IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT NONE OF THE ECMA COUNTRIES IS PLACING ALL ITS EGGS IN THE RUSSIAN BASKET. THEY ALL SEEM WILLING TO TRADE WITH THE WEST; POLAND ONLY LAST WEEK SIGNED A FIVE-YEAR TRADING AGREEMENT WITH BRITAIN.

IF PAST EXPERIENCE IS A GUIDE, MOSCOW'S PROPAGANDA TOM-TOMS SHORTLY WILL BE BEATING OUT A STORY OF ECONOMIC SUCCESSES IN THE ECMA COUNTRIES, WHILE THE SOVIET-SPONSORED COMINFORM CONTINUES ITS POLITICAL ATTACKS ON MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES. A DECLARATION OF WAR ON THE MARSHALL PLAN WAS ONE OF THE COMINFORM'S FIRST MOVES. IT WAS ANNOUNCED IN OCTOBER, 1947. FORMATION OF ECMA, COULD, IN PART, BE AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT THE COMINFORM HAS NOT SUCCEEDED IN ITS ASSIGNMENT TO DISCREDIT THE MARSHALL PLAN.

IN LONDON TODAY BRITISH DIPLOMATS SAID THEY DIDN'T EXPECT ANY MAJOR SHIFT IN EASTERN EUROPEAN TRADE POLICIES. A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN SAID: "WE ARE AWAITING WITH INTEREST TO SEE WHETHER ANY POLITICAL STRINGS ARE ATTACHED."

WASHINGTON, JAN 25-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES EXPECTS "SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES" IN WRITING A NEW INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY.

THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL WHEAT CONFERENCE WHICH STARTS WORK HERE TOMORROW AFTERNOON IS AIMED AT AN AGREEMENT TO STABILIZE WORLD WHEAT TRAFFIC.

JAN 1949

HOWEVER, UNUSUALLY LARGE WHEAT YIELDS DURING THE PAST YEAR AND PROSPECTS FOR GLOBAL GRAIN SURPLUSES THIS YEAR HAVE PROMPTED REPORTS THAT IMPORTING NATIONS WILL BE EXTREMELY CAREFUL ABOUT COMMITTING THEMSELVES TO ANYTHING BUT LOW PRICES.

GOVERNMENT GRAIN EXPERTS SAID THEY BELIEVE MOST WILL NOT WANT TO PAY MORE THAN $1.50 A BUSHEL MAXIMUM. THE CURREN PRICE OF WHEAT IN THE KANSAS CITY MARKET IS ABOVE $2.20 PER BUSHEL.

THEY SAID UNITED STATES AGREEMENT ON A MAXIMUM UNDER $2 PER BUSHEL IS HIGHLY IMPROBABLE.

JAN 1949

THE 1947 WHEAT ACCORD CALLED FOR A $2 MAXIMUM AND A $1.50 MINIMUM FOR THE FIRST YEAR, WITH THE MINIMUM DECLINING ANNUALLY TO $1.10 IN THE FIFTH YEAR.

AGRICULTURE SECRETARY CHARLES BRANNAN, HEAD OF THE U.S. DELEGATION, INDICATED RECENTLY THAT A RISE FROM THE PREVIOUS $2 MAXIMUM WILL BE CONSIDERED BECAUSE OF HIGHER PRODUCTION COSTS IN THE PAST YEAR.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY IN A FACT SHEET ON THE TALKS:

"CHANGES SINCE THE WINTER OF 1948 IN THE VOLUME OF WORLD WHEAT SUPPLIES AND ANTICIPATED SUPPLIES, WORLD PRICES, AND FLUCTUATIONS IN CURRENCIES HAVE CHANGED THE SUPPLY AND DEMAND FACTORS AND MAY HAVE A STRONG INFLUENCE ON GOVERNMENTS WITH RESPECT TO PRICES BID AND OFFERED AND GUARANTEES TO SELL OR BUY CERTAIN SPECIFIC QUANTITIES OF WHEAT."

BEVIN SUPPORTED ON ISRAEL STAND

A SINGLETON

Given 283 to 193 Vote of Confidence in House of Commons

JAN 1949

LONDON, Jan. 26 (AP) The House of Commons tonight voted confidence in Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's policy toward Israel.

With 50 labor members abstaining, the House of Commons voted 283 to 193 for adjournment of full dress debate on Palestine.

Said Prime Minister Attlee just before the ballot:

"A vote of adjournment in these circumstances is a vote of confidence in the government."

Before the vote was taken Attlee also said that Britain had "accepted in principle" the recognition of Israel. He added:

"The question of the time of doing it is now a matter of consultation."

It was the first major test the Labor government had faced on foreign policy.

Victory for Bevin

It was a victory for Bevin, who had said that recognition of Israel may contribute to a peace settlement, but that he had withheld that recognition for further international consultation.

Bevin said Britain was consulting with members of the British commonwealth and its western European pact allies on the time for such recognition.

"I am assuming that replies will be in the next few days when the final act will be taken," he said.

Winston Churchill, leader of the Conservative opposition, had called for immediate government recognition of Israel. He drew support from members of his party, liberals and some discontented laborites.

Attlee, in reply, said "It would have been ill advised to have rushed into recognition of Israel. Now, I believe it might contribute to peace and settlement."

Defends Policies

Bevin opened the debate with a belligerent defense of the Labor government's Palestine policies. He said these had been essential to safeguard the Middle East against the spread of communism.

He hinted that Britain might intervene if fighting flared again between Arabs and Jews in Palestine. He said Britain would find it "very ...difficult to stand by, indifferent and inactive," in the event of a renewal of Jew-Arab warfare in the truce-stilled Holy Land.

As to recognition, he said: "The state of Israel is now a fact and we (the Labor government) have not tried or done anything to undo it."

British sources had forecast that Britain would announce de facto recognition of the Jewish state today. Both Bevin and Attlee made clear some steps must come first.

From across the narrow well of the house separating conservatives and laborites a scowling Churchill cried out in protest against the refusal to go all the way now toward recognizing Israel.

Will Force Vote

Churchill served notice conservatives would force a record vote on the issue—the first major test the Labor government has faced on a question of foreign policy.

With a fat majority in control of the House of Commons the Labor government was certain of riding out a storm of protest—from inside its ranks as well as from the opposition—which has gathered over Palestine issues.

It was increasingly apparent from Bevin's own remarks as well as from their diplomatic sources that Bevin will accord de facto recognition soon. This is a step below de jure recognition— entailing the appointment of an ambassador and full diplomatic relations with the new state.

Britain Puts Off Israel Recognition For Talks

A. SINGLETON

London, Jan. 26 (AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today Britain is withholding recognition of Israel until she has discussed it with Commonwealth nations and her allies under the western European treaty.

Meanwhile, Bevin told the House of Commons, the Labor Government "is not going to be deterred an inch" from its policy toward Palestine.

If fighting between the Israelis and Arabs should break out again, Britain will find it "very difficult to stand by indifferent and inactive," Bevin said.

Replies Due Soon

The Foreign Secretary said he expects to have the replies from the Commonwealth countries and the Western European Allies within a few days. Allied with Britain in that pact are France, which already has recognized Israel, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

"We have felt that to plunge into recognition in the way that was suggested would not help us with the Arabs to contribute to a peace settlement," Bevin said.

"Now that the armistice talks are at last proceeding, the Government has considered whether the time has come when de facto recognition might contribute to peace and a settlement.

Trans-Jordan's Role

"I am glad to say that the United States Government has indicated that they intend to recognize the Government of Trans-Jordan and that is a very material factor."

Bevin said premature recognition would have been "misunderstood over a very wide area in the Commonwealth." He cited the Moslem populations in the Commonwealth allied by religion to the Palestine Arabs.

"South Africa and Canada have accorded recognition to Israel," he said. "New Zealand, India, Pakistan and Ceylon have not done so. And some of these governments have held strong views."

Foreign Minister Talks

Bevin said the recognition issue will be discussed with the foreign ministers of the Western European Union nations when they meet here tomorrow.

Meanwhile, he declared, Britain will continue her present policy toward the Middle East question, under which, he said, "we have steadily supported all the resolutions of the Security Council as regards both sides in the Palestine dispute."

Churchill's Reply

Winston Churchill, Conservative opposition leader, struck back at Bevin, saying:

"I do not feel any great confidence that the Foreign Secretary has not got a prejudice against the Jews in Palestine."

Churchill said Bevin's Labor Government always has been one or two and sometimes three steps behind events in the Holy Land.

"There never has been, in my belief, the slightest appreciation of the Palestine problems by the Foreign Secretary," Churchill said. "I am quite sure he will have to recognize the Israeli Government, and that cannot be long delayed."

Churchill said the British reconnaissance flights over the Israeli-Egyptian border exposed the planes to "the greatest danger." Five RAF planes were shot down by Israelis January 7.

In belligerent mood, Bevin declared Britain has "interests, obligations and responsibility in maintaining security and stability in the Middle East and it is the deliberate purpose of our policy to be faithful to those obligations and to that purpose."

"Working With U.S."

He said critics of the Government have pledged support of various solutions of the Palestine problem which were "incompatible with our obligations" and "not realizable in practice." Bevin declared the Labor Government is working closely with the United States to keep the Middle East from becoming "a second Balkan area torn by internal dissensions and the scene of international rivalry."

Leaving no doubt that he referred to the threat of Communism, Bevin said:

"The Middle East is buttressed in the north by Turkey and Greece.

"War Of Nerves"

"Turkey was one of the first countries subjected to a 'war of nerves and Greece had to suffer a civil war fostered from outside.

"All this affected the stability and security of the Mediterranean and Middle East itself.

"The aid and support which the United States and we have been able to give Turkey and Greece have been an important contribution to the stability and security of the whole area."

Bevin reviewed developments in Palestine after Britain took over the area under the 1917 mandate. Britain's objective throughout he said "was to persuade the Jews and Arabs to live together in one state as the mandate charged us to do."

JAN 1949

"Now A Fact"

He added:

"The state of Israel is now a fact and we have not tried or done anything to undo it.

"At the same time the tide of Arab nationalism has been running high. This has bitten deep into the ordinary Arab people and it will produce a very serious situation unless handled with very great care."

Bevin said he thinks the Arabs have "a cause that has got to be considered," and Britain owes them its gratitude for their help during the last war.

"Not Forgetting Friends"

"I do not think it is in the tradition of the British Army to forget their friends," he said, "and I am certainly not a Foreign Secretary who is going to make a start in that direction."

Ben-Gurion Bloc Ahead In Vote

ERIC GOTTGETREU

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 26 (AP)—Israeli voters appeared today to have stamped approval on the many-party government of their eight-month-old state.

With nearly half the vote counted in yesterday's election of the first Hebrew Parliament in history, Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's moderate left labor party, Mapai, was leading with 35.5 per cent of all votes cast. Twenty-one parties had put up candidates.

The returns were from 256 places, including all of Jerusalem and Haifa; many parts of Tel Aviv, and some 250 smaller towns and villages.

Cautious Policy

The result appeared to guarantee a continuity in the cautious foreign policy which brought the new-born nation through its first critical eight months while fighting off Arab League armies and balancing politically between East and West.

Another labor party, the left-wing Mapam, also represented in the present provisional cabinet, had 14.6 per cent of the vote. A bloc of five parties which stressed religious tradition as desirable for the foundations of the new state had 14.1 per cent.

Two other parties in the Cabinet, the General Zionists and the Progressives, who are in a liberal group of parties to the right of Mapai, had 5.4 and 4.8 per cent, respectively.

No Serious Challenge

Neither the right-wing Nationalist parties nor the Communists succeeded in seriously challenging the provisional regime on the basis of the present returns.

The Freedom Movement, headed by Menachem Beigin, former underground leader of Irgun Zvai Leumi, had received 9.2 per cent of all votes cast.

The Communist party received 2.5 per cent.

The election was to choose 120 members of a Constituent Assembly which will write a new constitution and continue as a parliament.

Percentage Figures

So far only percentage figures were being announced. The total vote was not expected to be announced until soldiers' ballots were received and included in the civilian figures. This may take several days.

The election was completely peaceful, and apparently most of the approximately 400,000 eligible voters went to the polls.

On the whole the splinter groups did not pull many votes. Some will not be represented at all—others by only one representative in the incoming assembly.

The percentage of the votes now known includes no army results. Technical difficulties in counting army votes may delay announcement of the final score until the week end.

JAN 1949

Observers forecast that outstanding army and Tel Aviv ballots will produce little change in the overall picture, but bring a slight improvement to both the Mapai and Mapam, and possibly help Beigin's group.

Rightist Party

The Rightist Nationalist "Fighters" party, headed by Nathan Friedmann-Yellin, former Stern group leader, scored 1.2 per cent of the vote, making the leader eligible for membership in Parliament if that body consents. Friedmann-Yellin is on trial in Acre on charges of terrorism brought after the September assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator for Palestine.

Two Arabs appeared assured of election to the Constituent Assembly. One is from the Arab Workers party and the other is a Communist.

First returns were from some of the Arab villages where men and women voted before going to their fields and other occupations. Moslem women in veils queued up at special voting hours for women when men were asked to leave the premises.

One 65-year-old Arab commented, "Inshallah (with God's will) a good government must come forth when we all are asked to determine it. Even the Rais (Ministers and heads of states) depend now on me and my old wife—what times we have come to!"

GERMAN LEADER ECHOES PLEA

Reimann Asks Better Relations Between United States and Soviet Union.

Rome, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—Communist leaders of France and Italy have told their 5,000,000 followers to join in a huge Russian-bossed peace front.

Members of the two largest Red parties outside Russia were ordered last night to throw all their force against "propaganda of hate and calumny, warlike preparations and policies of oppression."

Western Germany's No. 1 Communist also called for better relations between the United States and Russia.

These moves, the latest developments in Russia's so-called peace offensive, followed Moscow's announcement that the Soviet and her eastern European satellites had been linked in an Economic Council of Mutual Assistance to counter the European Recovery Program.

Move Follows Talks.

The call for a peace front was announced by the Italian Communist party after a conference with Marcel Cachin, French Communist leader. A communique ordered French and Italian Reds to "fulfill their tasks of fighters of the international front which, under the leadership of the great Soviet Union, is checking the forces of oppression and war."

The communique quoted Cachin as saying French and Italian Communists have "an essential function in western Europe—to defend peace and assure an effective united Europe against all attempts at division and foreign interference." ADD

CLAY DOUBTS 'PEACE' PUSH

T. Reedy

Sees No Evidence Russia Is Easing Cold War

Berlin, Jan. 26 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, United States military governor of Germany, said today he sees no evidence that Russia is easing off in the cold war.

The General made the statement at a news conference. Reporters had asked his reaction to recent comments by Communist leaders in France and Italy which were viewed in some circles as possibly denoting a Russian "peace offensive."

The German Socialist newspaper Social Democrat reported Russia has taken goods worth $7,000,000,000 from Germany as war reparations in the last three years. The paper told of sealed trains carrying the goods from Germany, and the seizure of rolling stock for use in Russia.

AMG Cracks Down On Germans

United States Military Government officials, meanwhile, started a crack down on Germans who work for the Russians, live in western Berlin, and fatten illegally off the airlift. They threatened to prosecute those who get ration cards on both sides of the line, and sell food surpluses in the black market. Food for the western sectors is flown in on the airlift.

The military government announced it was tightening its counterblockade of the Soviet section of Berlin. It listed nineteen additional manufactured items, ranging from synthetic fibers to piston rings, which are not to be exported to the Soviet zone. An Allied spokesman said the Soviet zone was short of the items.

Export Competition

Clay indicated at the news conference that German manufactured goods now compete with American goods in the export market. He was asked about complaints from the British—mostly in the British press—that German factories were underpricing the world market.

He said he knew of no unfair pricing permitted by the Joint Export-Import Agency but that some instances of unfairness may exist. "I know of no country that is exporting that isn't in competition with some other country," Clay said.

German exports exceeded $70,000,000 last month, Clay said, but they still must rise another $1,000,000,000 a year to balance the economy. Meanwhile, the United States is pouring further money into western Germany to keep it going.

REFUGEE SAYS SOVIET IS PREPARING FOR WAR

JAN — 1949

LONDON, Jan. 26—(AP) Gregory Tokaev, refugee Russian who said he was a lieutenant colonel on the Soviet staff in Berlin, declared tonight Russia is preparing for war.

He spoke at a forum of the British Institute for Political research, an organization for study of international problems.

Tokaev, who came to England last August, said "it is my firm conviction that the political bureau of the Soviet Communist party is making feverish preparations for the third world war."

He and the British foreign office declined to say how he left the Soviet zone.

NANKING, REDS TRADE CHARGE OF BAD FAITH

14 miles

Accusations Dim Peace Chances—Nationalists Try To Set Up Line

JAN — 1949

Nanking, China, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Chinese Government and the Communists accused each other of bad faith today. As peace prospects dimmed, the Nationalists hastily tried to establish a new defense line south of the Yangtze.

The Communist radio asserted Acting President Li Tsung-jen was trying to get a breathing spell while organizing further resistance. It called on him to show his good faith by immediately detaining leading war criminals.

[As heard and translated in Shanghai, the broadcast called on Li to "detain" Chiang Kai-shek and other "war criminals."]

Would Return To Power

It was reported on high authority that Chiang Kai-shek would return to power should the peace talks fizzle. This report came from sources so high they can be considered unimpeachable.

A Government spokesman accused the Communists of stalling. He called on them to name peace delegates now and select a place for a conference.

Almost as in answer to this—although there was no direct connection between the two statements—the Communist radio said the Nationalists were plotting to distort peace talks into "a false peace."

The Nationalists were accused of seeking "to preserve the strength of the Chiang Kai-shek reactionary bloc through fake negotiations."

Trying To Halt Transfer

A highly placed source, who talked to Acting President Li today, said Li was trying to halt the transfer of the Government to Canton.

The Foreign Office announced early today that all Government functions would cease in Nanking February 3 and the new capital of Government-held China would be set up at Canton, effective February 5.

This source said Wu Teh-chen, Foreign Minister, was behind the removal to Canton. Li was pictured as insisting the Government should stay in Nanking as long as the Communists are willing to negotiate.

[Since the removal to Canton already has been announced, Li seems to have no control over the Cabinet, despite his position as "Acting President." Chiang's friends in the Cabinet already have blocked some of Li's proposed measures.]

Hope For Cheaper Victory

Some diplomatic observers said both the Government and Communist charges of stalling were probably true. They believe both sides hope to improve their position with delays.

On the one hand, the Communists have the military power, but hope to get a victory cheaper through dickering.

On the other, the Government may believe a delay will help because a flight south would give it a better chance to survive.

The Government would like to have the diplomatic corps follow it to Canton. Some embassies are preparing to move. Others, including the United States Embassy, await instructions from their capitals.

Would Abandon Shanghai

Highly placed sources said if the "Red price for peace is too high," the Government would give up both Nanking and the great financial center of Shanghai and continue the fight farther south.

The first broadside in the Government-Communist battle of words came from the Government side.

An unnamed Government spokesman called on the Communists to "suggest a place where the talks can proceed" instead of saying Peiping would be the site when it was "completely liberated." ADD

Move Formally Announced

Nanking, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Government will move to Canton immediately.

The Chinese Foreign Office today formally notified embassies and legations of the decision. A spokesman said all Government offices here would be closed by February 3 and reopened in Canton by February 5.

Some embassies planned to follow. The United States Embassy awaited instructions from Washington. Others are expected to follow the United States' lead, except the Russian bloc, whose attitude is unknown.

Nanking Seeks Peace

The announcement came as Nanking city councilmen moved for a separate peace for the city. Councilmen voted to send a delegation to the Communists across the Yangtze River if Nationalist peace efforts fail.

One newspaper said Acting President Li Tsung-jen had given the Council his provisional approval of its plan.

There were reports that both Nanking and Shanghai would be surrendered to the Communists without a fight if peace talks on a national level collapsed.

Southern Defense Set Up

The new reports said a South China defense organization had been set up. Responsible sources said it would be led by Chiang Kai-shek, now in retirement in Fenghwa, his ancestral home in the South.

Hundreds of political prisoners were released from Nanking's Metropolitan Prison late in the day. The Executive Yuan approved their release in voting for Li's orders liberalizing the Government.

The Yuan, however, qualified its order by authorizing the release only of prisoners tried but not sentenced. That left most of the major political prisoners still in jail.

Abandon Yangtze Valley

Highly placed sources said the Government planned to abandon the whole Yangtze Valley and set up defense lines farther south if peace talks with the Communists fail. Both sides have said they were willing to talk peace—on Red terms.

These sources said that if the Communist peace price proves too high, Government troops would try to hold this line:

From a seacoast anchor at Hangchow, below Shanghai, southwestward along the Chientang River to Nanchang, thence northwestward to Wuchang on the Yangtze River.

Would Keep Rice Bowl

That would seek to save for Nationalist China its important Rice Bowl.

Should Li's peace efforts fail, these sources said, it was certain that Chiang would resume his leadership from headquarters in Canton.

Every military development on the Nationalist side since the fall of Pengpu has pointed toward abandonment of the Yangtze Valley as a line of defense in favor of other areas in the south.

Only Garrison To Stay

The Defense Ministry will be completely evacuated by Friday, leaving only a garrison headquarters in Nanking.

These sources said the latest national strategy—again emphasizing only in case peace negotiations are fruitless—will divide the remaining Nationalist territory into a southeast bloc (possibly commanded by General Li himself), a southwest bloc under the direction of Gen. Pai Chung-hsi and a northwest bloc, including the Mohammedan armies of Generals Ma Hung-kwei and Ma Pu-fang, who are cousins, and possibly under the command of Chiang's close supporter, Gen. Hu Tsung-nan.

Liberties Are Restored

Formosa, openly discussed here as Chiang's private fortress, would be included in the southeast command, these sources said.

Earlier, the Executive Yuan (Cabinet) approved three of Li's orders restoring civil liberties to China.

It voted removal of the ban on newspapers and magazines suspended for violating Communist suppression decrees; abolition of special criminal courts and codes and the release of political prisoners who have been tried but not sentenced.

Stock Mart Ban Is Lifted

The Executive Yuan also voted to reopen the Shanghai Stock Exchange. It referred the question of lifting martial law to the Ministry of National Defense.

A Shanghai effort of the Central Government to obtain participation of minor parties in peace overtures ended in failure.

Shao Li-tze, former Ambassador to Moscow, and Chang returned to Nanking after failing to enlist the support of the once outlawed Democratic League or of Mme. Sun Yat-sen, widow of China's liberator.

Peace Group To Meet

7 Billions Seen Taken By Reds In Germany

JAN 1949

Berlin, Jan. 26 (AP)—The German Socialist party press said today the Russians had taken goods worth $7,000,000,000 out of Germany for reparations in the last three years.

The party organ, Social Democrat, based its calculation upon German rail shipments to the Soviet Union in the past 39 months.

It said it learned from reliable sources that the Russians were now employing 900 German train crews solely for such traffic—at a time when, by Soviet admission, rail transport in the Russian occupation zone is in a bad way.

Some Goes By Ship

The newspaper reported that in 9 months about 17,350 goods-laden trains had gone from Germany to Russia, carrying average loads of 350 tons, or a total of about 11,000,000 tons.

In addition, probably as much cargo had gone to Russia by ship from Baltic Sea ports, the paper said.

The newspaper said the German crews were used to transport cargoes ranging from livestock to finished textiles, chemical products and metals. The shipments are transported in sealed trains. It claimed the Russians also had taken about 1,000 German locomotives and much additional railroad equipment.

Harder Work Urged

The official Soviet Army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau demanded that the Germans work harder to improve the efficiency of their railroad system in the Russian zone.

It complained that laggard service in deliveries to industries were a serious threat to the zone's two-year economic plan. Passenger traffic was in "a shameful condition," the Russian organ complained.

The Rundschau also hinted that some German railroad workers were guilty of sabotaging trains.

Von Papen Ruled No Major Nazi

D DONNE

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP). A German de-Nazification court freed Franz von Papen from an eight-year sentence and slashed his fine to 30,000 marks ($9,000) today.

The court ruled von Papen, the gray fox of Hitler's diplomacy and a notorious international figure since he was kicked out of the United States in 1915, was not a major Nazi offender after all.

It convicted him of being only an offender, the second category of nazism, reversing his conviction in 1947 as a major offender. It ruled that, aside from the 30,000 mark fine, his imprisonment since 1945 was enough punishment.

Estates To Be Return

All except 5,000 marks of von Papen's fortune, including estates in the British and French zones of Germany, had been confiscated under the 1947 conviction. These will be returned to him.

The new ruling barred von Papen from voting, from holding office, from joining a political party and from jobs moulding public opinion, such as speaking or writing.

Von Papen, now 69 and suffering from hardening of the arteries, said he hopes to take a long rest.

Von Papen was expelled as Germany's military attaché to the United States in World War I for "improper activities in military and naval matters."

Once chancellor of the German Republic and vice chancellor in Hitler's Government, he was most widely known as the diplomat who helped drag Austria into the Nazi orbit and served Hitler in World War II in Turkey.

Acquitted At Nuernberg

He was captured at a hunting lodge in the Ruhr by a detachment of the United States 9th Army April 11, 1945, and subsequently went to trial with Hermann Goering and other high German leaders on war crimes charges before the International Military Tribunal at Nuernberg.

He was acquitted, along with Hjalmar Schacht, former head of the Nazi banking system, and Hans Fritzsche, chief of the German radio propaganda service.

De-Nazification courts took up cases against all three.

Schacht was acquitted last September in a retrial after once being sentenced to eight years' imprisonment as a major Nazi offender. However, he is scheduled to face trial again next Monday.

Fritzsche is serving a nine-year term.

Peace Efforts Reported

George H. Earle, former special envoy on Balkan questions for President Roosevelt, said in an affidavit that von Papen "made strong efforts to secure peace" and that his "successful efforts to keep Turkey neutral probably prevented a smashing attack by Turkey and Germany against Cairo." The court said it was strongly influenced by this testimony.

Orhan Tahsin Guenden, Turkish consul in Frankfurt, issued a statement today saying Turkey had a treaty with Britain and that "even the most imaginative Nazi war lords would not be justified in expecting" Turkey's forces to join Germany in attacking British-defended Cairo.

"She was nonbelligerent," he said, "and not neutral."

Geiseking Affair Irks Berliners

Berlin, Jan. 26 (AP)—The hostile reception given the German pianist, Walter Gieseking, in New York drew criticism today from both Communist and anti-Communist newspapers here.

Gieseking was detained by immigration authorities on his arrival in the United States. Public protests against his record under the Nazis forced cancellation of a New York recital and an extensive American tour. He left the United States for Paris, complaining that he had been treated "too roughly."

"Right Of Hospitality"

The American-licensed Tagespiegel called the affair a "violation of Gieseking's right of hospitality" and expressed fear that it would damage "the many sincere efforts to bring about better understanding between Germany and America."

It added that "this sad spectacle" also would give new anti-American propaganda ammunition to the Communists and German nationalists.

Could Have Been Averted

The Russian-licensed National Zeitung asserted that while Gieseking was rejected by America, "many German scientists who develop new rockets and other war weapons are allowed to stay there because they are worth billions of dollars to the United States."

First GI's To Serve As Army Trial Judges

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP). For the first time in history American Army enlisted soldiers will serve as members of a military court. They will judge a murder trial of two United States soldiers February 1.

Pfc. Andrew D. Byrd, of Orlando, Fla., and Private Oscar Gannon, of Hanging Rock, Ohio, are the first soldiers to take advantage of new court-martial rules. These rules permit enlisted men to sit in judgment on fellow soldiers. Formerly all court members were officers.

Granting the request of Byrd and Gannon, United States Army headquarters said one third of their court members would be enlisted men. The defendants are accused of beating fatally one German man injuring another on New Year's Eve.

2 G. I.'s Atop Train Killed in Germany

Frankfurt, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—The bodies of two American soldiers were found near Wiesbaden yesterday, one atop a railroad passenger car and the other beside the tracks on the bank of the Rhine, it was disclosed today.

United States officials said an investigation indicated that the soldiers, apparently intoxicated, climbed on top of the car to avoid paying fares, and were struck by a low bridge. Identification was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

2 U.S. Soldiers In Germany Die As Plane Crashes

Stuttgart, Germany, Jan. 26 (AP). Two American soldiers were killed and three injured today when an army observation plane crashed into a group of soldiers.

The plane went out of control while attempting to land.

The injured included the pilot whose name was withheld. Names of those killed also were withheld pending notification of relatives.

Two who were struck and injured were identified as Private Paul Aremia, of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Private Edgar L. Sykes, Jr., of Turkey, N.C. None of the injured was in serious condition.

One Currency Proposed For Soviet Orbit

Moscow, Jan. 26 (AP)—Formation of the Economic Council of Mutual Aid under Soviet auspices has raised speculation whether a currency may be established which will be common to all the six nations associated in the organization.

The Soviet ruble would be a logical candidate for this currency. The same object might be attained by placing on a par with the ruble the individual currencies of Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania and Hungary.

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 26 (AP)—Little reaction is apparent among officials here to formation of the Russian-sponsored ECMA. It was noted that Finland, along with Albania, was not asked to participate, but the press so far has refrained from comment on Moscow dispatches citing the possibility that Finland might be invited to join.

RUSSIA, ROMANIA SIGN NEW TRADE AGREEMENT

LONDON, (Thursday), Jan. 27—(AP) Tass said today Russia and Romania had agreed on a 1949 trade turnover of two and a half times that of 1948—or almost $17,545,000.

JAN 1949

The two nations were among the organizers of the economic council of mutual aid (ECMA)—generally regarded as the cominform nations' reply to the European Recovery Program.

It was the first trade pact to be made public since those two nations and Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Poland announced formation of ECMA to counter an alleged trade boycott by the western nations.

POLES CHARGE U.S. HAMPERS EXPORTS

LARRY ALLEN

WARSAW, Jan. 26 — (AP) A Polish government spokesman said today trade discrimination by the United States caused a drop of 50 per cent in Polish exports last year from the 1947 total, estimated at $38,000,000.

Trade with France and Italy, particularly exports of Polish coal, could be increased considerably, the spokesman told a news conference, "If it were not for the pressure upon these countries by the U.S.A."

He was commenting on formation of the economic council of mutual aid (ECMA), set up by Soviet Russia, Poland and four other eastern European nations in Moscow earlier this month.

Expand Trade Pacts

The spokesman forecast that trade pacts linking the eastern European nations would be expanded into multilateral agreements under ECMA.

Poles also talked on treaty matters in Bucharest. A new Polish-Romanian pact is to be published Sunday.

Polish Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz told newsmen the Polish-Romanian pact would be mainly directed against German aggression.

No Policy Changes

Polish foreign minister Zygmunt Modzelewski said ECMA's formation will not change Poland's economic policy toward western countries.

Except for the statements by the Poles, eastern Europe was strangely quiet Wednesday about ECMA. Official silence prevailed among officials in Moscow and the capitals of other members of the council, Czechoslovakia, Romania Hungary and Bulgaria.

There was silence, too, in Belgrade, the seat of Premier Marshal Tito's Yugoslav government. Tito was not invited to the Moscow conference at which the council was formed. Russia does not like his brand of communism.

A Moscow dispatch said formation of the council under Soviet auspices had raised speculation whether a common currency may be established for all the member nations.

It's Treason In Spain Not To Back Franco

Barcelona, Spain, Jan. 26 (AP)—ose Antonio Giron, Labor Minister, said today dissenters in Spain had two choices—support of the Franco regime or to be charged with treason.

In a speech at near-by Tarras during a ceremony presenting fifteen low-cost homes to new tenants, he said noncollaboration with Franco amounts to "sabotage of the fatherland."

He said there is "only one choice: aiding us or treason.

Scandinavia Pact Doubted

JAN 1949

GUSTAV GUNNSSON

Stockholm, Jan. 26 (AP)—The Scandinavian military alliance project seemed doomed today.

"Only a miracle can prevent a rift straight through Scandinavia, with Norway joining the Atlantic pact, leaving Sweden in neutral isolation and Denmark at the crossroads," a Stockholm diplomat declared.

His pessimism was shared by most observers here. A "last attempt" conference in Oslo next week end will seek to reconcile differences between Sweden and Norway.

True Neutrality Is Issue

A meeting in Copenhagen of Denmark, Norway and Sweden ended Monday without agreement on the formation of a defense alliance.

The stumbling block was Sweden's insistence on true neutrality as the sole basis of her alliance offer and Norway's desire for some form of guarantees from the Western powers.

The diplomatic informant gave this summary of the controversy at the Copenhagen meeting:

Norway laid down her views on the projected alliance in a memorandum including three top-secret points, which, he said, all concerned the United States and all were unacceptable to Sweden.

Only Formally Neutral

Sweden made clear that she regarded a Scandinavian bloc as envisaged by Norway as neutral only formally, holding that it would be tied up with the Western powers.

Sweden held that this would forfeit the purpose of a Scandinavian alliance, which she said was to "alleviate tension in the North and keep war away from Scandinavia."

Norway and Denmark stressed the necessity of obtaining United States weapons and credits for their rearmament.

Swedes Also Need Aid

Sweden agreed that she also would need such aid. She stated, however, that there would be no alliance if Norway or Denmark entered into any commitments whatever with the United States in return for such aid.

Sweden specifically objected to any peacetime preparations to facilitate wartime co-operation with the Western powers, such as the construction of bases and airfields.

Such preparations, the Swedes contended, already amounted to outright military co-operation.

Sweden Is Emphatic

The Stockholm diplomat said the Swedes were emphatic on this point, "lest the Soviet Union should tell the Scandinavian countries 'you are an American-base area.'"

The informant said Sweden was "extremely anxious" that Norway should not enter the Atlantic Pact. This, in their opinion, "would put the United States border right at the middle of the Scandinavian Peninsula, and might engage Scandinavia in a war from its very first day."

Parliament Backs Stand

No essential modifications could be expected in Sweden's position, the source said, as her present course had the virtually unanimous backing of Parliament.

He said any hopes for a Scandinavian defense alliance now rested almost exclusively on the slim chance of a change of mind by Norway.

He said none of the Scandinavian countries had as yet received any draft of the Atlantic Pact.

Ventiris Returns To War On Rebels

Athens, Jan. 26 (AP)—Gen. Constantine Ventiris, whom the United States military mission once called "the best soldier in Greece," returned today to the geared-up war on Communist-led rebels.

Ventiris was appointed inspector general of the army and chief of operations. He had been forced out of the army more than a year ago in a political fight.

The announcement came as a general staff communiqué reported new victories against the rebels. Nationalists killed 38 guerrillas, captured 40 in scattered actions, and seized two mountain heights from enemy hands, the communiqué said.

The Royalist newspaper Vradiny reported more than half of the guerrilla forces of Markos Vafiades, Communist leader, in the Peloponnesus are suffering from frostbite and trying to avoid a fight. It quoted a captured guerrilla.

Ventiris's return to duty follows appointment of Gen. Alexander Papagos as generalissimo of national forces, with the promise of freedom from political interference.

Massacres Laid To Burmese Rebels

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 26 (AP)—An official statement said today armed Karens have carried out wholesale slaughter of Burmese villagers in the Irrawaddy delta area.

The statement said chaotic conditions prevail in the township of Pantanaw, where terror-stricken Burmese were fleeing from burning villages.

A Government spokesman said Burmese were retaliating in some Karen areas by burning down Karen villages. The situation was reported out of control in the Maubin area, where the Government said Karens continued a campaign of extinction against Burmese hamlets. Rebel forces damaged the sluice gates of the Hlawga dam, but the damage was repaired, the spokesman said.

The Karens seek independence from Burma.

Radio Broadcast Tells Li to Prove Sincerity of Overtures.

GOVERNMENT GOES TO CANTON

Embassies Informed Offices Will Move Next Week—U. S. Officials

Awaiting Instructions.

Shanghai, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—The Red radio today called upon acting Chinese President Li Tsung-jen to show his sincerity by detaining Chiang Kai-shek and other top "war criminals."

The broadcast asserted that Li was only pretending to accept the eight conditions which the Communists proposed last week for ending the civil war. The broadcast said that Li and Premier Sun Fo both were war criminals, but would be pardoned if they did their duty by detaining the Kuomintang leaders on the Red list.

The broadcast appeared to repeat the same war criminal list the Reds issued several weeks ago.

Purporting to substantiate its charge of insincerity against Li, the broadcast cited press dispatches of Sunday reporting upward of 200,000 Nationalist troops were moving to new defense lines south of the Yangtze.

Peiping Parley Seeking Peace

PEIPING, (Thursday), Jan. 27—(AP) A quiet attempt to settle China's civil war is being made in this communist-controlled city.

Among those working in the background to lay the basis for a national settlement—patterned after the localized peace here—is Liu Chung-Hua, special representative of acting President Li Tsung-Jen.

The idea is to lay the groundwork behind the scenes. Thus, when delegates of the nationalist government and the communists meet, the main points of an overall agreement will already have been decided.

Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, government north China commander, is supposed to have told Liu that he would like to be a bridge toward national peace. Amid face-saving gestures on both sides, Fu yielded this ancient capital to the reds last Saturday after a 40-day siege.

The communists are controlling the city behind the scenes, while Fu's troops disarm and leave. A joint committee of nationalists, including Fu, and communists was designated to administer Peiping.

Soong Fears Kidnappers; To Visit U.S.

Hong Kong, Jan. 26 (AP)—Friends said today T. V. Soong, rich brother-in-law of Chiang Kai-shek, feared kidnappers and planned to leave for America in two weeks.

The friends asked anonymity. Soong is a former Chinese ambassador to the United States.

In the United States he will support pleas of his sister, Madame Chiang, for aid in opposing Communists in China, the friends said.

Soong arrived here Thursday from Canton. He asked and was given police protection.

Since his arrival he has kept to his fashionable villa on Repulse Bay.

Policy On China Still Unchanged, Acheson Says

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheseon said today that American policy toward China remains unchanged.

He declined to comment directly on the Communist military sweep or other developments there.

Asked at his news conference about American policy, he said he could only reiterate strongly what President Truman, former Secretary Marshall and former Under Secretary Lovett had stated about there being no change.

Chinese Here Are Jittery

To a question whether the United States would grant recognition should a Communist government be set up, he replied that he could not speculate about that.

As for keeping the American Embassy staff in Nanking with the Communists approaching the city, he said he could say no more than had already been said by the State Department.

Meanwhile, some 500 Chinese officials in this country watched the fast-breaking events in their homeland with jittery concern.

Race Riot Breaks Out In Singapore

Singapore, Jan. 26 (AP)—A race riot broke out tonight between Malays and Indians.

Two Malays were injured and at least 100 Indians were made homeless. About 100 Malay troops set fire to four Indian shops.

Authorities said the trouble started over attention of an Indian to a Malay woman.

GI Killed, 5 Hurt As Troops Riot In N. Japan

JAN 9 1949

Tokyo, Jan. 26 (AP)—Eighth Army headquarters today was investigating a riot among United States occupation troops on Hokkaido Island Sunday, in which one soldier was killed and five wounded.

The incident occurred in an enlisted men's club at Camp Crawford. Military police of the 7th Infantry Division quelled the riot with gunfire. Four soldiers were shot, one fatally. A fifth was stabbed, and a sixth was cut when he dived through a window.

Division Leaving Soon

The Army reported that three of those shot were members of the veteran 11th Airborne Division, which is leaving Japan for the United States early next month. The division's commanding general already has departed.

The other gunshot victim was a member of the 7th, recently transferred from Korea to relieve the paratroopers.

Identities of those involved were withheld.

The Army said the riot apparently broke out when "several soldiers" began throwing empty cans, bottles and chairs. The club manager closed the place, but the soldiers refused to vacate. The manager summoned military police and three showed up.

Ignored MP's Orders

The Army said the soldiers ignored the MP's orders to leave. The police were crowded against a small stage. One was struck by a flying bottle. The Army said the MP's then opened fire with their revolvers.

Army sources in Tokyo expressed belief the trouble arose from the usual resentment of one unit at the boastfulness of another. The 11th Airborne Division boasts in its own published history that it is one of the "toughest" units in the American forces. The 7th also is known as a tough outfit.

However, there are few combat veterans in either unit now.

Tokyo, Jan. 26 (AP)—British Commonwealth occupation forces celebrated "Australia Day" today. It was a holiday for the Australians in Tokyo. Sports events were featured at their main base at Kure.

Japanese Reds Oppose Allied 'Austerity' Plan

TOKYO, Jan. 26 (AP).—The Japanese Communist party warned today it will "vigorously fight" the new economic measures ordered by Allied Headquarters.

The party won thirty-five seats in the House of Representatives in Sunday's election, a gain of thirty-one. A majority was won by Premier Shigeru Yoshida's conservative Liberal-Democratic party.

Communist Secretary-General Kyuichi Tokuda said the party will oppose reduction of pay rolls in government bureaus and private enterprises, also wage ceilings, low rice prices and increased taxes. These measures are part of a new "austerity" program directed by Washington last month.

The Communists have consistently opposed similar measures. Now their voice has gained strength. Communist candidates polled more than 3,000,000 votes Sunday, or about 9 per cent of those cast.

U. S. Flyer Saved By Filipinos

Manila, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—A United States Air Force pilot was rescued from his burning fighter plane today by Filipino farm workers after the plane crashed near Clark Field.

The Air Force withheld the pilot's name, pending notification of his relatives. Doctors said that he suffered leg burns, a probable broken leg and shock. He was a member of the Sixty-seventh Fighter Squadron.

Private Capital To Back 'Bold' Aid: Acheson

DIGHTOWER

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson declared today that "very great" reservoirs of private capital are available to back up President Truman's proposal for raising living standards throughout the world.

But he served notice that this capital could not be brought into use unless foreign nations create conditions under which investors may "fairly" employ their money.

And he said this relationship between private capital and foreign nations needing capital "is a two-way street."

Now Only A Broad Goal

Acheson made it clear to his first news conference since becoming Secretary of State that Mr. Truman's call for a bold new venture in international betterment stands now as only a broad goal and far from a completed plan.

He said:

No blueprints exists yet for carrying out Mr. Truman's program to raise living standards in backward areas of the world.

But, under orders from the President, the State Department is working on plans.

Defines Program's Goal

However, Acheson declared that "the primary purpose of the program" which Mr. Truman projected in his inauguration speech "is not to get modern plumbing installed throughout the world." It is, he added, to promote conditions which will increase the worth and freedom and dignity of individual people everywhere.

The new Secretary defined that as the purpose of the American system and of American life.

Acheson skipped over or brushed aside practically all questions having to do with details of the plan, explaining that there is in fact no plan as yet.

Up To Backward Areas

He classified as a technical detail the question whether the United States would guarantee private investments abroad. But he declared that the primary responsibility for getting capital into an undeveloped country would rest with that country—not with the American Government.

Mr. Truman spoke in his inaugural address of possible guarantees for capital invested in development of backward areas of the world, but did not go into details of what he had in mind.

Acheson said underdeveloped areas include the Far East, Southeast Asia, Africa and parts of South America.

Acheson said underdeveloped areas include the Far East, Southeast Asia, Africa and parts of South America.

Talks On Other Topics

On a variety of other topics, the new Secretary told the more than 200 reporters who attended his conference:

1. Russia's newly announced economic union among the eastern European satellite countries is a natural development of communism's unhappy opposition to the Marshall plan for European recovery.

2. Acheson intends to do everything he can to maintain the bipartisan foreign policy. He intends to consult Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) and John Foster Dulles, both Republican foreign policy leaders.

3. Acheson considers it obvious that the American Government is aware of a need to reassure western Europe that the United States is not building up the German Ruhr at the expense of other European countries.

4. Gen. Douglas MacArthur's statement that the recent Japanese elections represent a victory for the "conservative philosophy of government" brought from Acheson the dry remark that he had not thought much about it. He said he believed he would pass that question.

5. If the British Government has asked the United States Government to sell it 150 or more B-29 bombing airplanes, Acheson has not yet heard of the proposal.

Barrage Of Questions

Questions flew thick and fast at the new Secretary. They covered almost every possible subject.

He replied to many of them either by saying he would pass the inquiry for the time being because he didn't have the information. To others he simply reaffirmed previous statements by former Secretary Marshall, Under Secretary Lovett or President Truman.

He issued a 300-word statement on the negotiation of the proposed North Atlantic treaty. The purpose of that appeared to be mainly to declare his intention to carry the treaty through as rapidly and effectively as possible.

Hopes For Security Pact

After outlining that the United States believes "in the rule of law among nations as among men and that the United Nations must be strengthened in its task of maintaining international peace and security," Acheson declared in the statement:

"We believe that these principles and this common heritage can best be fortified and preserved and the general welfare of the people of the North Atlantic area advanced by an arrangement for co-operation in matters affecting their peace and security and common interests. I hope to be able very soon to speak more specifically about it."

Assails Communist Idea

Acheson opened his conference by saying that he had heard on the radio that he would be asked some questions about the fourth "major course of action" (the "bold new program") which Mr. Truman laid down in his inauguration speech. He said that he would just anticipate those questions and make a statement.

He then assailed the Communist idea of man as a cog in the state machine, declaring that is basically a "reactionary view" and an "attempt to crawl back into the cocoon of history."

The modern view, he asserted, is the concept of the worth and freedom and dignity of the individual.

HOFFMAN URGES 'COOPERATION' OF EUROPEAN NATIONS

NEW YORK, Jan. 26 (AP)—Paul G. Hoffman tonight called on European nations for more self-help and mutual cooperation if they expect American aid to continue.

Hoffman, the Economic Cooperation administrator, also asked Marshall Plan countries to set their financial houses in order. He made his remarks in a speech prepared for the Economic club of New York.

Denies Red Charges

The ECA chief predicted that Russia will assail his proposal as "an infringement of national sovereignty."

"But, I also know," he said, "that no country that has ever worked with us on a recovery program doubts that the intention and the result of our aid is just the reverse of imperialism and control."

Hoffman did not single out any specific nation in his review of the effects of Marshall Plan aid. He acknowledged that "a great deal of work has been done by the countries of Europe toward shaping up a common recovery program."

"But," he added, "t is our duty to the American people to insure that the enormous sums of money being collected from them in taxes for European recovery are used most efficiently to build up a structure which, when completed, will be unified and self-sustaining."

America must know, Hoffman said, whether European countries are collecting what they should from their taxpayers and whether they are spending that money wisely. He continued:

"Otherwise, we cannot ask American taxpayers to give up their own hard-earned dollars to help each country back on its feet. We must know the obstacles to recovery in each country and what steps are being taken for their elimination."

He said an accounting is necessary in the light of the fact that Marshall Plan help will stop in 1952 and the fact that the European countries predict they will have a $3,000,000,000 shortage even then in funds needed for essential foreign trade.

Hoffman said these countries must help themselves in this direction. He suggested they should strive to find new export markets and sources of raw materials.

U. S. NOT PLANNING RUHR OUTPUT RISE

Washington, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—Secretary of State Acheson said today that in proposing to keep in Germany a number of plants listed for reparations, the United States was not planning to increase the production of the Ruhr.

Acheson made the comment at his first news conference as Secretary of State.

He said the British and French Ambassadors had been asked to confer on a proposal by the Economic Co-operation Administration to keep in operation certain German plants that were earmarked for other European nations.

Acheson was told that dispatches had indicated that some Germans expected a great boom in the Ruhr steel area as a result of the ECA proposals. He noted that ECA Administrator Paul Hoffman did not propose any rise in actual steel production and only a very small increase in potential capacity.

Asked whether the State Department believed Western Europ nedd rassurance that Germany would not be built up at the expense of France, he replied, "You can be sure of that."

panded the discussion in talks with reporters.

In the summer of 1944, Taft said, the then Secretary of State, Edward R. Stettinius, asked department political officers for their ideas on what American policy should be in various areas of the world.

Dunn-Berle Dispute.

James C. Dunn, then director of the department's Office of European Affairs, presented a statement on Europe that dealt principally with civilian and military personnel, Taft related. He added that Berle objected vigorously to the Dunn statement, throw of the United States Government.

Still before the court, as the session began, was a defense motion challenging the system of selecting Federal jurors in New York city.

Judge Medina warned at the outset that presentation of evidence on this motion "had better come pretty fast because the shortening

Tells of Anglo-Soviet War Scare

JAN 1949

Charles P. Taft Says Berle Saw Danger in 1944 of Middle East Conflict.

Washington, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—Charles P. Taft, brother of Senator Taft (R.-Ohio) and director of the State Department's wartime economic affairs, reported today that before the end of world war II there were some fears in the State Department that another war might develop—in a conflict between Russia and Great Britain.

In his State Department experience, he said, he never saw any evidence to justify a statement that Dean Acheson, now Secretary of States, favored the soft policy toward Russia. Acheson in 1944 was Assistant Secretary.

Warned of New War.

Taft said that in 1944 A A. Berle, then an Assistant State Secretary, submitted a paper to the department's policy committee saying there might be danger of a new war in the Middle East, in a possible conflict between Russia and Great Britain.

Berle said then, Taft related, that the proper position for the United States was as mediator to head off such a conflict.

In New York, Berle commented that such a paper was prepared but that what he had in mind was not a war but a major conflict of nat ionalistic interest between Soviet expansionists and the established British position in the Middle East.

Such a conflict did develop within two years after the paper was submitted, he said.

Taft first touched on inside operations of the State Department in wartime during testimony before the House Ways and Means Committee on the reciprocal trade program. Later he ex-whereupon Stettinius told Berle to prepare one of his own.

Taft said it was then Berle came up with the statement expressing fears of a British-Russian conflict, in the Middle East.

Taft did not give any details on what Berle said, but recalled that Stettinius set up a special committee to reconcile the differences between Berle and Dunn which Taft said had developed a very violent verbal fight.

Later, Taft said, this committee submitted a compromise which was a very innocuous summary of Berle's statement.

of this procedure is what I've been giving much thought."

"However," he added, "if you think I have been impatient, you are probably getting an erroneous impression."

The judge said later: "A study of the record has put in my mind the thought that a series of deliberate moves have been made to delay the case. I am reluctant to believe that any lawyer would do that. I'll put that thought from my mind for the present."

Ask Medina To Withdraw

Last week attorneys for the Communist leaders called as witnesses several men on the trial jury panel in an effort to prove their contention that discrimination exists in choosing prospective jurors.

They announced they also would put on the stand members of the grand jury which indicted the defendants.

Defense attorneys again asked today that Medina disqualify himself from hearing their challenge to the jury system. He had overruled such a motion last week and continued to preside today.

Bias Alleged

The defense maintains that Negroes, labor groups, women and low-income groups are largely excluded from Federal jury lists in this district.

Judge At Communists' Trial Warns Against Delays

JAN 1949

New York, Jan. 26 (AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina called today for shortening of the time-consuming preliminary maneuvers in the trial of eleven top United States Communists.

The trial resumed after an adjournment of four days. The officials of the American Communist party, all members of the party's National Committee, are charged with working for the forcible over-

The motion being argued by the defense lawyers seeks to void the grand-jury indictment and to throw out the panel of trial jurors.

Grand Juror Is Paid $3.70 As Witness For Communists

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—A mem ber of the Federal grand jury whic indicted eleven top United State Communists today demanded—an got—$3.70 for appearing as a wit ness for the defense.

The witness, D. Benjamin Brush of New Rochelle, N.Y., who de scribed himself as a Princeto graduate and a "free-lance engi neer" with an annual income in ex cess of $5.000 had been subpoenae by defense counsel along with othe members of the former spy-huntin grand jury.

He was called as a part of th defense effort to prove that th jury-picking system in the Ne York Federal district discriminate against the poor and in favor o the rich.

Not Given Subpoena Fee

The eleven Communists ar charged with working for the forci ble overthrow of the Government.

Brush objected to appearing a a defense witness because he hac not been given a subpoena fe when the document was handec him.

He testified, however, after Fed eral Judge Harold R. Medina told him: "Well, you came down here and here you are."

After testifying about his college education and answering questions about his financial status, Brush approached defense attorneys with a demand for a subpoena fee.

A hurried consultation followed and one of the defense counsel handed Brush the $2 fee and $1.70 for traveling expenses.

Defense counsel contends that the indictment against the Communists, all members of the American party's national committee, should be thrown out.

Parnell Thomas Named to Stay On Spy Inquiry

Republican Leaders Select Ex-Chairman, Now Under Indictment, and Nixon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (AP).—House Republican leaders today chose Representative J. Parnell Thomas, Republican, of New Jersey, to retain his membership on the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Republican leaders followed tradition in naming Mr. Thomas to continue in the House group, which he served as chairman during the last two years of headline-making investigations under the Republican-controlled Eightieth Congress.

With rare exceptions, holdovers are assigned to their old committees.

Mr. Thomas, who has been succeeded as chairman by Representative John S. Wood, Democrat, of Georgia, in the new Congress, has not been active in the House group's spy hunts since he was indicted by a Federal grand jury last Nov. 8, six days after he was re-elected for his seventh term in Congress.

The New Jersey legislator is scheduled to go on trial Feb. 7 on charges that he defrauded the government by accepting salary kick-backs from persons listed on his Congressional pay roll.

Mr. Thomas's selection by the Republican Committee on Committees is subject to approval by a party conference tomorrow.

Others chosen for Republican seats on the committee are Representative Richard M. Nixon, of California, who was a member last session; Francis Case, of South Dakota, and Harold H. Velde, of Illinois. Representative Velde, a freshman, is a former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent.

THOMAS IS CHOSEN BY G. O. P. CHIEFS

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—Representative J. Parnell Thomas (R.-N. J.), now under indictment on a charge of receiving kickbacks from his office pay roll, was chosen today by House Republican leaders to retain his membership on the Un-American Activities Committee.

Thomas's selection by the G. O. P. committee on committees is subject to approval of a party conference tomorrow.

Others chosen for Republican seats on the spy-hunting committee are Representatives Nixon of California, Case of South Dakota and Velde of Illinois.

Nixon was a member of the committee in the last Congress. Case is a veteran House member, but had not been on the committee. Velde, a former G man, is a freshman.

Thomas was chairman of the committee in the Eightieth Congress.

3 DISMISSALS STIR PROTEST

Seattle Professor Quits, Charging Ousters Were Irregular

Chicago, Jan. 26 (AP)—Dr. Thomas I. Cook quit today as professor of political science at the University of Washington at Seattle after the dismissal of three other faculty members in a controversy over asserted present or former Communist activity.

Three other University of Washington faculty members were placed on probation Saturday. They had been similarly accused.

"I resigned," Professor Cook told a news conference, "because of the conspicuous violation of the proper processes for deciding issues of freedom and tenure . . . at the university.

Three Exonerated

Cook has been a University of Washington faculty member for nine years. Currently, he is at the University of Chicago as a visting professor.

Cook said a faculty committee had recommended that only one of the six be dismissed. The committee exonerated three of the six and held that the accusations against the other two had not been proved.

Cook said the faculty committee's recommendations were ignored by the Board of Regents and by the university's president, Raymond B. Allen.

"In no sense," Cook said, is his resignation "motivated by sympathy for communism but rather for the due processes of established law."

Own Future Uncertain

These processes, Cook continued, are "vital to constitutional and democratic government, to the protection and stability of American institutions, and to the performance of the role of teacher and scholar within these institutions."

Cook said he had air mailed his letter of resignation to President Allen. As for his own future, Cook said that is "highly hypothetical."

Cook said he was not a member of any of the groups to which the dismissed faculty members are said to have belonged.

Axis Sally Was Threatened By Yanks, Germans Testify

JAN 6 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26—(AP) A witness at the "Axis Sally" treason trial testified today that American prisoners of war were hostile toward the woman who allegedly betrayed the U. S. for Nazi gold.

"They didn't like to have her there," said the witness, Inge Sylvia Doman, 32, former announcer for the German radio.

Miss Doman also testified that the defendant, Mildred E. Gillars, 48, related that on one occasion American soldiers who had been captured by the Germans "threatened" her when she attempted to interview them.

The Maine-born defendant is on trial in federal court, facing a possible maximum penalty of death in the electric chair if convicted.

Voice Identified

Earlier, a stiff-backed former Nazi radio man, Hans Von Richter, 38, definitely identified the voice of Miss Gillars as the voice in the "Axis Sally" broadcasts. Another witness has testified that the aim of such broadcasts was to convince U. S. soldiers they were "fighting on the wrong side."

Von Richter was asked specifically if he had seen Miss Gillars speaking into a microphone.

"Yes, many times," he said.

Chief Prosecutor John M. Kelly, Jr., drew Von Richter's attention to a stack of 20 recordings of German wartime broadcasts and asked if he could identify them.

The witness, a husky, Prussian-type, nodded. He said he had heard them replayed in this country and described them as selections from "Midge at the Mike," "Home, Sweet Home" and others of the "Axis Sally" propaganda programs.

"Was any one voice common to each record?" Kelley asked.

"Yes. It was Miss Gillars."

Witness Nervous

The witness, who said he served in the German consular service stationed in Cleveland, O., from 1935 to 1940, nervously chewed a wad of gum as he began to testify.

Judge Edward M. Curran told him sharply: "Quit chewing gum."

Von Richter stiffened. "I'm very sorry," he said, and handed the gum to a deputy marshal.

Following Von Richter on the stand, Miss Doman testified in perfect English that she saw Miss Gillars making live broadcasts over the Nazi radio "on one or two occasions—maybe three."

She said Miss Gillars acted as her own disc jockey and made introductory remarks in broadcasts beamed to U. S. troops overseas.

"She would use appeal in her voice," Miss Doman said.

The prosecution called on both Von Richter and Miss Doman to pin down the identity of Miss Gillars' "Axis Sally" voice because under American law, in treason trials, two witnesses are required to swear to the commission of an overt act against the United States.

Miss Doman said she was announcer for the "U.S.A. zone" of the German radio for 13 months.

Approximately twenty recordings of German broadcasts were handed to Von Richter. He said that he had heard them relayed in this country and described them as from Midge at the Mike, Home, Sweet Home and others of the Axis Sally radio programs.

Voice Recognized.

He testified that he was familiar with Miss Gillars's voice, both natural and phonographically recorded. He then was asked by John M. Kelley Jr., the chief prosecutor, whether he recognized any voices in listening to recordings of the Axis Sally programs. He said that he did.

"Was any one voice common to each record?" Kelley asked.

"Yes," he replied.

"Which voice was that?"

"It was Miss Gillars's."

The witness said that during part of his service with the German radio, he was assistant to Dr. Max Otto Koischwitz, who headed the U. S. A. zone." Koischwitz, who died in the fall of 1944, has been described by Miss Gillars's attorney, James J. Laughlin, as a person who exercised a hypnotic influence over her.

Rebuked by Judge.

When he took the stand, Von Richter nervously chewed gum.

"Quit chewing gum," Judge Edward M. Curran said sternly.

"I'm very sorry," Von Richter replied. He handed the gum to a deputy marshal.

In a review of his carer. Von Richter said that he was stationed in Cleveland from 1935 to 1940 in German consular service.

Inge Sylvia Dorman, announcer for some Axis Sally programs, was also on call to testify today.

Inge Sylvia Doman, an announcer for some of the Axis Sally broadcasts, testified that Miss Gillars put "appeal in her voice" in her wartime broadcasts.

The German woman also related that the Maine-born defendant told her of having difficulty in interviewing American prisoners of war. Miss Gillars told her, Miss Doman said, that on one occasion American soldiers threatened her.

"With words," she explained, answering a question.

Former Nazi Radio Official Testifies Miss Gillars Broadcast for Germans.

Washington, Jan. 26 (A. P.).—A former Nazi radio official today identified the voice of Mildred E. Gillars as that of the speaker in Axis Sally broadcasts.

The testimony, by Hans von Richter, was in preparation for playing to a United States District Court jury numerous recordings of those broadcasts. The Government relies heavily on the content of the programs to back up its treason charge against Miss Gillars. Von Richter, 38, was asked whether he had seen Miss Gillars, speaking into a microphone.

"Yes, many times," he said.

WORLD WHEAT PACT SOUGHT BY 50 NATIONS

JAN 27 1949

Secretary Brannan Welcomes Conference Opening In Washington

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—Some 50 nations opened a new drive today for a world wheat pact.

The goals:

1. To assure importing nations a dependable supply.
2. To give each exporting country a "fair share" of the world market.
3. To iron out ups and downs in prices.

The multilingual session marked the third time since the war that such a campaign had been launched but previous failure to push through a final agreement served to intensify the latest effort.

Welcomed By Brannan

Charles F. Brannan, Secretary of Agriculture, said in a welcoming address that the record reprecentation indicates "the growing realization of the need for international co-operation in solving specific economic problems."

He said the projected wheat agreement might serve as a model for later international pacts dealing with "other problems which now haunt consumers and producers."

The 45-year-old Agriculture Department chief was unanimously elected chairman of the conference which for the first time included the world's five major wheat exporters—Argentina, Australia, Canada, Russia and the United States.

Senate Failed To Ratify

Neither Argentina nor Russia took part in last year's meeting at which 39 nations worked out a stabilization agreement.

Although the United States took a leading role in that conference, the Senate failed to ratify the treaty submitted in the closing days of last summer's special session of the Eightieth Congress.

The major problem confronting the delegates is the scale of prices which would be guaranteed farmers for fitting their production schedules into a world pattern.

Under last year's agreement, for example, American farmers were assured a maximum price of about $2.11 a bushel, with a minimum of about $1.61 for the first year. Both the maximum and minimum figures would have dropped 10 cents per bushel each year of the proposed five-year agreement.

Wheat Prices Drop 30%

Since that time, however, wheat prices have dropped about 30 per cent. Consequently the importing nations probably won't want to tie themselves to the old scale.

Some observers predicted the new agreement might peg the top price for the first year or so somewhat below the market price in this country. The United States Government's price support program is holding domestic prices about 20 cents a bushel above the maximum figure set in last year's proposal.

President Truman anticipated this price possibility in his budget message to Congress, in which he asked for $56,000,000 to subsidize wheat exports.

Would Provide Subsidy

This would provide a subsidy of about 30 cents a bushel for this country's export allotment of 185,000,000 bushels. This payment would be designed to cover the difference between the domestic market price and the maximum treaty figure.

What stand the Soviet Union's delegation will take remained to be seen. Sergei A. Borisov, Deputy Minister of Foreign Trade, who heads the Russian group, said he had "no comment" today.

A British spokesman said his country—a major importing nation—is in favor of a price scale ranging from $1.80 to $1.30 for the first year.

OKINAWA AIR CLASH DENIED

Officials Dispute Report Of Firing On Soviet Planes

New York, Jan. 26 (AP)—The United Nations World, a magazine having no official relationship to the United Nations, said today United States forces have fired at Russian planes flying over Okinawa.

High United States Air Force officials promptly denied the story.

The magazine said Soviet planes on various occasions flew over United States bases on Okinawa, which are restricted areas.

Says Violations Persisted

"When these violations persisted the planes were fired on," the magazine said. "The clandestine flights continue with time-table regularity over Okinawa, where United States ack-ack personnel now has standing orders to fire on all 'unidentified planes' as soon as they appear on their radar screens."

The magazine said Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme Allied commander, and Gen. Kuzma Derevyenko, chief Soviet delegate to MacArthur's headquarters, agreed not to make an issue of the incidents. The Russian, however, was quoted as saying the planes were on legitimate missions "protecting Soviet shipping" in that area off the East China Coast.

Denial By Whitehead

[In Tokyo, Lieut. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, commander of Far East Air Forces, said "American forces in the Far East have not fired on any airplane since V-J Day." He declined all comment on whether Soviet planes had flown over Okinawa.]

Headquarters of the United States Air Force in Washington said Russian planes would have no legitimate business over Okinawa, and it knew of none having been there.

It denied existence of any standing orders to fire on unidentified planes in the area. It said only aircraft sent up on a missoin to intercept an unidentified plane would shoot, and then only on orders given specifically by the ground commander at that time.

The undersea craft will report March 12 to the commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet before being assigned to a submarine division.

Vet Pension Bill Action Slated Tomorrow

JAN 1949

Washington, Jan. 26 (AP)—A veterans pension proposal with a multi-billion-dollar price tag had the right of way today in the House Veterans Affairs Committee.

Chairman Rankin (R., Miss.) made it the first order of business for tomorrow, with Gen. John Thomas Taylor, national legislative commander of the American Legion, as the first witness.

The legislation, by estimate of Rankin and the American Legion, affects about 18,000,000 veterans of World Wars I and II.

Its impact upon the national pocketbook has not yet been officially estimated, but Veterans Administration figures show that there are more than 3,500,000 veterans who would reach the pension age within the next ten years.

Possible Cost

On the basis of the provisions, this could mean a possible bill of $3,000,000,000 to $5,000,000,000 a year by 1959, if all those veterans lived to the age of 60.

The bill was introduced by Rankin last week at the request of the American Legion. The Mississippian said it has the approval of other veterans organizations.

"I don't think there will be a dozen votes against it in both houses," he said.

Mrs. Edith Nourse Rogers (R., Mass.), ranking minority member on the committee, said "there has been a great interest" in the measure.

"I have a feeling something may be done," she added. "Certainly something should be done for veterans of pension age."

The bill provides both for non-service-connected disabilities and for old age.

Amounts Listed

On reaching 60, the veteran would receive $60 a month, whether disabled or not. At the age of 65, it would go to $90. That would be in addition to any disability payments he may have been receiving, or would later receive.

Disability rated at twenty per cent would entitle him to $20 additional a month; 40 per cent disability, $40 a month; 60 per cent, $60 a month; total disability, $90 a month.

In cases where a veteran required an attendant because of blindness, or any other disability making him entirely helpless, his pension would be $120 a month.

His disability need not have been incurred in line of service, and he would be eligible if he served 90 days during either of the last two wars.

3,403,400 Are 50 To 60

The Veterans Administration calculated there are about 3,403,400 veterans now between the ages of 50 and 60, and another 254,900 between 61 and 75.

At $60 a month for 3,500,000 veterans age 60, assuming the number of eligible veterans stays at that figure, estimates would place the yearly pension bill somewhere around $2,500,000,000. Disability pensions and increased payments at 65 possibly would add another billion or two.

Almost all those veterans now 50 and over served in World War I. The veterans of World War II, who are in the vast majority, would not come along until later.

Age Breakdown

This is the VA's age breakdown of veterans between 50 and 60:

Age 50	214,000	Age 56	294,800
Age 51	343,600	Age 57	240,900
Age 52	557,800	Age 58	214,800
Age 53	480,700	Age 59	182,500
Age 54	409,000	Age 60	153,700
Age 55	347,600

In the 61-65 age group, the 61-year-olds number 110,400, with the total falling off to 64,100 at 65.

WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-IF BRITAIN WANTS B-29S, THE UNITED STATES HAS A STOCKPILE OF ABOUT 1,500 OF THEM.

BUT OFFICIALS HERE SAID THEY KNOW NOTHING ABOUT PUBLISHED REPORTS FROM LONDON THAT THE BRITISH ARE NEGOTIATING FOR THE PURCHASE OF BETWEEN 150 AND 180 SUPERFORTRESSES. THAT INDICATED THAT EITHER THE NEGOTIATIONS STILL ARE IN A VERY EARLY DISCUSSION STAGE IN LONDON OR THAT BRITISH OFFICIALS ARE JUST SOUNDING OUT AMERICAN SENTIMENT ON SUCH A PLAN.

IN ALL, ABOUT 4,500 B-29S WERE BUILT BY THE BOEING AIRCRAFT COMPANY. EARLY IN THE PERIOD OF MASS PRODUCTION THE COST RAN ABOUT $1,000,000 PER PLANE. AS PRODUCTION MOUNTED, THE FIGURE DROPPED TO ABOUT $700,000, AIR FORCE OFFICIALS SAID.

NO SUPERFORTRESSES HAVE BEEN BUILT SINCE A SHORT TIME AFTER THE WAR'S END. THE B-50, SIMILAR IN APPEARANCE, BUT WITH CONSIDERABLY GREATER RANGE, SPEED AND BOMB-LOAD, IS TAKING ITS PLACE.

BOTH THE B-29S AND B-50S ARE RATED BY THE AIR FORCE AS MEDIUM BOMBERS. ONLY "HEAVY BOMBER" TYPES NOW IN OPERATION ARE THE SIX-ENGINE CONSOLIDATED VULTEE B-36S, WHICH WERE FIRST DELIVERED FOR OPERATIONAL USE LAST SUMMER.

THE TOTAL NUMBER OF B-29S NOW IN OPERATION, RESERVE OR STORAGE IS ABOUT 2,800. THE 1,500 WHICH ARE STOCKPILED ARE PRESERVED IN "COCOONS." ANOTHER 500, ALSO STORED, ARE MORE READILY AVAILABLE, AND ABOUT 400 MORE ARE IN THE "REPLACEMENT POOL," READY TO REPLACE OPERATING CRAFT LOST THROUGH WEAR OR ACCIDENT. THE ACTUAL OPERATING FLEET TOTALS ABOUT 500.

THERE WAS SPECULATION HERE OVER THE REASONS FOR BRITAIN'S REPORTED INTEREST IN ACQUIRING B-29S.

THE ROYAL AIR FORCE'S POSTWAR HEAVY BOMBER FORCE HAS BEEN BUILT AROUND THE WARTIME LANCASTER AND THE NEWER LINCOLN. THE LINCOLN IS AN IMPROVED LANCASTER, WITH GREATER RANGE, SPEED AND BOMB LOAD. THE LANCASTER, POWERED BY FOUR ENGINES, IS RATED AT A SPEED OF 275 MILES PER HOUR, 3,000 MILES RANGE, NORMAL BOMB LOAD OF EIGHT TONS--OR 11 TONS ON SHORTER MISSIONS.

THE AMERICAN B-29, COMPARES THIS WAY: SPEED OVER 300 MILES PER HOUR; RANGE OVER 4,600 MILES; BOMB LOAD 10 TONS.

THERE WAS A SUGGESTION HERE THAT BRITAIN MIGHT PREFER TO BUY ALREADY BUILT B-29S TO SUSTAIN OR INCREASE HER BOMBER FORCE WHILE SHE IS DEVELOPING SATISFACTORY JET-POWERED BOMBARDMENT AIRCRAFT. THIS WOULD SAVE TOOLING UP FOR PRODUCTION OF BOMBER TYPES WHICH MIGHT BE OUTMODED WITHIN A FEW YEARS.

FOR TARGETS ON THE EUROPEAN CONTINENT, THE RAF'S LANCASTERS AND LINCOLNS HAVE AMPLE RANGE. THE B-29S WERE DESIGNED FOR LONG RANGE ACTION IN THE PACIFIC. THE LINCOLNS' BOMB LOAD IS PRESUMABLY GREATER THAN THE B-29'S.

BERLIN, JAN.26-(AP)-GERMAN MANUFACTURING FOR EXPORT HAS REACHED THE POINT WHERE IT IS COMPETING IN SOME RESPECTS WITH THE UNITED STATES, GEN. LUCIUS D. CLAY SAID TODAY.

THE AMERICAN COMMANDER MADE THIS OBSERVATION IN A NEWS CONFERENCE IN ANSWER TO A REQUEST FOR COMMENT ABOUT A RISING TIDE OF PROTEST IN GREAT BRITAIN AGAINST GERMANS UNDERPRICING THE WORLD MARKET. THE BRITISH PROTEST, MOST OF IT IN THE NEWSPAPERS, CONTENDS THAT GERMAN LABOR IS CHEAPER AND THEREFORE GERMAN PRODUCTION IS A THREAT TO BRITISH LIVING STANDARD.

CLAY SAID HE PRESUMED THE JOINT EXPORT-IMPORT AGENCY HAS FIXED PRICES FAIRLY AND PROPERLY. BUT IN SOME INSTANCES PRICING MAY BE UNFAIR, THOUGH HE EMPHASIZED NONE WERE BROUGHT TO HIS ATTENTION.

THE FACTS, CLAY ASSERTED, IS THAT GERMAN PRODUCTION IS ON THE UPSWING AND MUST BE CONSIDERED HENCEFORTH A FACTOR IN THE WORLD MARKET.

"I EXPECT SOME GERMAN EXPORTS NOW ARE COMPETING WITH AMERICAN PRODUCTS," CLAY DECLARED.

HE SUGGESTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE U.S. STILL IS POURING A BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR INTO WESTERN GERMANY TO KEEP IT GOING. GERMAN EXPORTS TOPPED $70,000,000 (M) LAST MONTH, HE DISCLOSED. THIS WOULD BE ALMOST A BILLION-DOLLAR-A YEAR SCALE.

"IT STILL TAKES ANOTHER BILLION YEARLY IN EXPORT TO BALANCE THE ECONOMY," CLAY SAID. "AND ONLY BY EXPORTING CAN GERMANY RELIEVE THE AMERICAN TAXPAYER OF THE BURDEN HE NOW IS CARRYING."

AS FAR AS THE COMPETITIVE ANGLE IS CONCERNED, CLAY SAID:

"I KNOW OF NO COUNTRY THAT IS EXPORTING THAT ISN'T IN COMPETITION WITH SOME OTHER COUNTRY."

NUERNBERG, GERMANY, JAN 26-(AP)-FRANZ VON PAPEN, THE OLD FOX OF DIPLOMACY IN HITLER'S REICH, WAS SET FREE TODAY BY A GERMAN DENAZIFICATION COURT.

THE COURT REVERSED HIS PREVIOUS CONVICTION AS A MAJOR NAZI OFFENDER, THE WORST TYPE OF NAZI, UNDER WHICH HE WAS SERVING AN EIGHT YEAR SENTENCE IN A LABOR CAMP. IT CONVICTED HIM OF BEING ONLY AN OFFENDER, THE SECOND CATEGORY OF NAZISM.

VON PAPEN, HITLER'S FORMER AMBASSADOR TO AUSTRIA AND TURKEY, HAS BEEN IMPRISONED SINCE THE END OF THE WAR. THE COURT, IN ORDERING HIS IMMEDIATE RELEASE, HELD THIS WAS ENOUGH PUNISHMENT.

THE COURT ALSO REDUCED HIS FINE TO 30,000 DEUTSCHE MARKS $9,000). IN THE FIRST TRIAL IN APRIL, 1947, HIS ENTIRE FORTUNE EXCEPT 5,000 MARKS WAS CONFISCATED.

THE COURT'S RULING BARRED THE INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN DIPLOMAT FROM EVER HOLDING OFFICE, THE RIGHT TO VOTE, THE RIGHT TO JOIN A POLITICAL PARTY AND FROM JOBS INFLUENCING PUBLIC OPINION SUCH AS WRITING AND SPEAKING.

THIS WAS THE THIRD TRIAL FOR VON PAPEN, WHO IS 69. HE FIRST WAS TRIED BY THE NUERNBERG INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL IN 1945-46 AND WAS ACQUITTED OF WAR CRIMES. HE WAS IMMEDIATELY ARRESTED BY THE GERMANS FOR TRIAL BEFORE A DENAZIFICATION COURT. HE APPEALED THE SENTENCE IN THAT TRIAL ON JAN.18.

VON PAPEN WAS THE SECOND ALLEGED TOP NAZI TO BE FREED BY THE GERMANS.

HJALMAR SCHACHT, FORMER HEAD OF THE NAZI BANKING SYSTEM, WAS ACQUITTED LAST SEPTEMBER IN A RE-TRIAL AFTER ONCE BEING SENTENCED TO EIGHT YEARS IMPRISONMENT AS A MAJOR NAZI OFFENDER. HE IS SCHEDULED FOR ANOTHER TRIAL BEGINNING NEXT MONDAY.

HANS FRITZSCHE, ACQUITTED OF WAR CRIMES ALONG WITH VON PAPEN AND SCHACHT, IS STILL SERVING A NINE YEAR DENAZIFICATION SENTENCE GIVEN HIM BY A GERMAN COURT.

IN REDUCING VON PAPEN'S JUDGMENT TODAY, THE COURT SAID IT WAS STRONGLY INFLUENCED BY WRITTEN TESTIMONY FROM GEORGE H. EARLE, FORMER SPECIAL ENVOY ON BALKAN QUESTIONS FOR THE LATE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

EARLE'S AFFIDAVIT SAID VON PAPEN "MADE STRONG EFFORTS TO SECURE PEACE" AND THAT HIS "SUCCESSFUL EFFORTS TO KEEP TURKEY NEUTRAL PROBABLY PREVENTED A SMASHING ATTACK BY TURKEY AND GERMANY AGAINST CAIRO."

THE TURKISH CONSUL IN FRANKFURT, ORHAN TAHSIN GUENDEN, TODAY ISSUED A STATEMENT IN ANSWER TO EARLE'S CLAIM.

THE CONSUL SAID: "I HARDLY NEED TO REMIND THAT IN WORLD WAR TWO TURKEY WAS ALLIED WITH THE POWER THAT WAS DEFENDING EGYPT AGAINST THE LATE GERMAN FIELD MARSHAL ROMMEL. AN ATTACK BY TURKISH FORCES ON CAIRO

COUPLED WITH THE ATTACK OF THE GERMAN FIELD MARSHAL IS THEREFORE A THING WHICH EVEN THE MOST IMAGINATIVE NAZI WAR LORDS WOULD NOT BE JUSTIFIED IN EXPECTING.

"AS TO TURKEY'S BEING INFLUENCED TO REMAIN NEUTRAL, IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THAT SHE WAS NON-BELLIGERENT AND NOT NEUTRAL.

"THIS POLICY OF NON-BELLIGERENCE, WHICH SPARED THE MIDDLE EAST A DISASTER OF MAJOR PROPORTIONS, WAS INSPIRED BY FORESIGHT AND PRUDENCE RATHER THAN THE OVERTURES OF A WELL-MEANING FOREIGN DIPLOMAT."

Vienna, Jan. 26th - (AP) - The woman companion who witnessed the slaying of ECA Official Irving Ross insisted today she ~~xxx~~ NO longer recalls the killers were Russian soldiers.

JAN 1949

Miss Dana Superina, of Yugoslav descent, cleared none of the mystery surrounding the crime and her strange change of stories, although she spoke at length at a news conference.

Ross was killed and she was severely beaten by three uniformed men who attacked them as they were returning from a Saturday night party in the Soviet zone of Vienna last October. Austrian police reported Miss Superina told that night the assailants were Russian soldiers. Later, taken into Russian custody, she did NOT recognize the men's nationality, and she stuck to that declaration today.

She ~~insisted~~ the Russians never threatened her while questioning her about the case, and did NOT tell her to change her story. Now she could not recall that she ever said the assailants were Russians. No, she does NOT fear reprisals

SHE SAID

SHE SAID

, that the Russians treated her very well. They had declined to permit American investigators to talk to her until they had completed their own inquiry.

JAN 1949

"It seemed to be just a murderous assault with NO political motive", Miss Superina said.

She still is under treatment at the American hospital here, and bears ugly scars of the beating which fractured her jaw.

Ross, who was special assistant to Westmore Wilcox, chief of the Economic Cooperation Administration, lived in East Hardwick,Vt. He was a native of Waterbury, Conn.

HE SAID ANY BLOC HAD EXCLUSIVE AND ISOLATING TENDENCIES, BUT THE MOSCOW COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL NATIONS AND IS DESIGNED THROUGH MUTUAL ASSISTANCE TO SPEED ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND RECONSTRUCTION.

THE SPOKESMAN ADDED THAT THERE IS A "GROWING TENDENCY" AMONG NATIONS RECEIVING UNITED STATES RECOVERY AID TO "ENGAGE IN TRADE DISCRIMINATION AND EVEN TO BOYCOTT PEOPLES' DEMOCRACIES AND THE U.S.S.R." (THESE WERE SIMILAR TO THE WORDS USED BY MOSCOW ANNOUNCING ECMA. "PEOPLE'S DEMOCRACY" IS THE COMMUNIST TERM FOR A COMMUNIST-DOMINATED GOVERNMENT.)

ATHENS, JAN.26-(AP)-GEN.CONSTANTINE VENTIRIS, WHO WAS FORCED TO RETIRE FROM MILITARY SERVICE BY WRANGLING GREEK POLITICIANS MORE THAN A YEAR AGO, CAME BACK ON THE JOB TODAY IN A STEPPED-UP CAMPAIGN TO DEFEAT COMMUNIST GUERRILLAS.

HE HAS BEEN NAMED INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE ARMY AND CHIEF OF OPERATIONS.

BRITISH AND AMERICAN MILITARY MISSION HEADS HERE HAVE CALLED VENTIRIS "THE BEST SOLDIER IN GREECE."

HE DIRECTED THE ARMY'S GREATEST VICTORY OVER GUERRILLAS AT KONITSA IN DECEMBER, 1947. HOWEVER, TWO MONTHS LATER HE WAS SQUEEZED OUT OF THE ARMY BY LIBERAL POLITICIANS WHO ALLEGEDLY ASKED HIM TO DO THEM POLITICAL FAVORS BY SHIELDING CERTAIN JUNIOR OFFICERS FROM FRONT LINE FIGHTING.

THE REINSTATEMENT OF VENTIRIS IS ONE OF THE FIRST MAJOR MOVES SINCE GEN. ALEXANDER PAPAGOS WAS APPOINTED GENERALISSIMO WITH A FREE HAND FROM POLITICAL INTERFERENCE.

IT WAS ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT LT. GEN. GEORGE COSMAS WHO COMMANDED THE FIRST ARMY DURING THE ITALIAN-GREEK WAR, HAS BEEN APPOINTED CHIEF OF STAFF REPLACING GEN. DIMITRIOS YADZIS, WHO IS RETIRING.

NIGHT LEAD ELECTION (400)

BY JAMES M.LONG

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN. 26-(AP)-ISRAEL'S FIRST ELECTION APPEARED TODAY TO HAVE GIVEN LABOR A FIRM VOICE IN HER NEW GOVERNMENT.

PREMIER DAVID BEN-GURION'S MODERATELY LEFTIST LABOR PARTY, MAPAI, HAD RECEIVED 35 PER CENT OF THE TOTAL VOTE CAST, AT THE HALF-WAY POINT OF THE OFFICIAL COUNT.

MAPAI WAS RUNNING UP A VOTE MORE THAN TWICE AS LARGE AS THAT CAST FOR EITHER OF TWO OTHER CONTENDERS FIGHTING IT OUT FOR SECOND PLACE. THEY WERE THE UNITED LABOR PARTY, MAPAM, AND A BLOC OF FIVE PARTIES WHICH WANT THE COUNTRY TO BASE ITS LAWS ON ANCIENT JEWISH SCRIPTURES.

MILITANT RIGHT WING PARTIES AND COMMUNISTS TRAILED IN THE FIELD OF 21 PARTIES COMPETING FOR SEATS IN THE POWERFUL CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY. THE 120-MEMBER ASSEMBLY WILL FORM A GOVERNMENT TO SUCCEED THE PRESENT PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT AND WRITE A CONSTITUTION.

THE RETURNS INDICATED THAT ISRAEL'S NEW GOVERNMENT WILL BE COMPOSED AGAIN OF SEVERAL PARTIES FOLLOWING THE CAUTIOUS FOREIGN POLICY LAID DOWN IN THE LAST EIGHT MONTHS BY THE WHITE-HAIRED BEN-GURION.

NO PARTY WILL HAVE A CLEAR MAJORITY, AND WHETHER MAPAM WILL JOIN THE NEW REGIME IS AN UNANSWERED QUESTION. IT NOW HAS TWO CABINET SEATS.

BEN-GURION CAMPAIGNED ON THE ISSUE THAT ISRAEL SHOULD SETTLE DOWN WITHIN BOUNDARIES WORKED OUT WITH UNITED NATIONS APPROVAL, LIVE AT PEACE WITH ARAB NEIGHBORS, AND SEEK WORLD RECOGNITION. HE HAS KEPT FREE OF ENTANGLING ALLIANCES WITH EITHER THE WESTERN POWERS OR THE RUSSIAN BLOC.

(MAPAM HAS CONTENDED BEN-GURION'S PARTY LOOKED TOO MUCH TO THE WEST FOR INTERNATIONAL GUIDANCE. MAPAM DESCRIBES ITSELF AS HAVING CENTRIST POLICIES ON WORLD AFFAIRS, BALANCED BETWEEN EAST AND WEST.)

THE RELIGIOUS BLOC OF PARTIES HAD 13.4 PER CENT OF THE VOTE IN ITS SEE-SAW RACE WITH MAPAM FOR SECOND PLACE. LATEST FIGURES PLACED MAPAM THIRD WITH 12.4 PER CENT.

RIGHT WING PARTIES' SHOWING WAS SURPRISINGLY WEAK. COMMUNISTS WERE ABOUT AS WEAK AS EXPECTED, ALTHOUGH THEY WON SOME REPRESENTATION.

MENACHEM BEIGIN'S NATIONALIST FREEDOM MOVEMENT POLLED ONLY 11.2 PER CENT, AND RAN FOURTH.

THE FREEDOM FIGHTERS OF NATHAN FRIEDMAN-YELLIN, NOW ON TRIAL AS HEAD OF THE OUTLAWED STERN GANG, POLLED ONLY 1.2 PER CENT, BUT THIS MIGHT WIN HIM A SEAT IN THE ASSEMBLY.

JEWISH AND ARAB COMMUNIST PARTIES BETWEEN THEM POLLED LESS THAN THREE PER CENT. JAN 1949

OTHER RETURNS GAVE:

PROGRESSIVE PARTY, 6.8 PER CENT OF THE VOTE; GENERAL ZIONISTS (PARTY OF THE CENTER), 5.7 PER CENT; SEPHARDIC (ORIENTAL JEWS), 3.7 PER CENT; YEMENITE JEWS, 1 PER CENT. SPLINTER PARTIES MADE WEAKER SHOWINGS THAN THEY HAD EXPECTED.

THE GENERAL ZIONISTS SUPPORTED BEN-GURION'S FOREIGN POLICY STAUNCHLY.

ONLY PERCENTAGE FIGURES WERE RELEASED BY THE ELECTIONS COMMISSION, WHICH IS RESERVING ACTUAL VOTE TOTALS UNTIL THE COUNT IS COMPLETE.

THE SOLDIER-VOTE HAD NOT YET BEEN SAMPLED, BECAUSE OF TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES. OBSERVERS SAID THE TROOPS PROBABLY VOTED PRETTY MUCH THE WAY THE CIVILIANS DID.

AT LEAST TWO ARABS SEEMED CERTAIN OF SEATS IN THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY. ONE REPRESENTS THE ARABS' WORKERS PARTY, AND THE OTHER IS A COMMUNIST.

JS213PES

SOME OF THE ARAB VILLAGES OF WESTERN GALILEE CAST A HEAVY VOTE FOR THE ARAB DEMOCRATIC BLOC WHICH IS CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH BEN-SURION'S MAPAI PARTY.

THE HASHOMER HATZAIR COLLECTIVE SETTLEMENTS IN THE JORDAN VALLEY SHOWED A BIG MAJORITY, HOWEVER, FOR THE MAPAM LIST. THE HASHOMER HATZAIR MOVEMENT, A MAIN GROUP WITHIN THE MAPAM PARTY, FOUNDED THE VILLAGES. †EL AVIV - Elections - xxx comeTO:

SURPRISINGLY, THE BIG ARAB VILLAGE OF ABU GOSH, ON THE ROAD BETWEEN JERUSALEM AND TEL AVIV, VOTED 94.8 PER CENT FOR THE ARAB WORKERS PARTY, WHICH IS CLOSELY CONNECTED WITH MAPAI, 4.6 PER CENT FOR THE JEWISH FIGHTERS, AND THE REST FOR THE FREEDOM MOVEMENT OF MENACHEM BEIGIN, FORMER LEADER OF IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI. ABU GOSH FORMERLY WAS THE HEADQUARTERS OF A YOUNG SHEIK NAMED ABU GOSH WHO FOR SEVERAL YEARS WAS LEADER OF AN ARAB GROUP IN THE NOW-OUTLAWED STERN GANG. HE WAS ARRESTED BY THE GOVERNMENT A FEW MONTHS AGO AND NOW IS IN ACRE PRISON.

SO FAR THE COUNTING HAS YIELDED FEW VOTES FOR OTHER PARTIES, INCLUDING THE RIGHT-WING ATIONALIST GROUP WHICH EMBRACES THE REVISIONISTS, THE FREEDOM MOVEME T AND THE FIGHTERS.

IT ALSO WAS IMPOSSIBLE SO FAR TO ESTIMATE THE STRENGTH OF THE COMMUNISTS AND THE LIBERAL GROUP OF PARTIES, INCLUDING THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY WHICH STANDS SOMEWHAT TO THE RIGHT OF MAPAI. THE PROGRESSIVES INCLUDE MANY IMMIGRANTS FROM GERMANY AND OTHER PARTS OF CENTRAL EUROPE AND ARE HEADED BY JUSTICE MINISTER FLEIX ROSENBLUETH.

THE NEWLY FOUNDED SETTLEMENT OF RAMAT RAHIEL BETWEEN TEL AVIV AND JERUSALEM, VOTED 100 PER CENT FOR THE FREEDOM PARTY, HOWEVER, WHILE THE NEW SETTLEMENT OF LAHAKSHAMA VOTED 100 PER CENT FOR THE PROGRESSIVES.

ROME, JAN.26-(AP)-THE ITALIAN FOREIGN OFFICE SAYS ITALY HAS ALREADY GIVEN THE STATE OF ISRAEL DE FACTO RECOGNITION, AND THE ISRAEL CONSULATE HERE CLAIMS ITALY HAS NOT.

THE FOREIGN OFFICE WAS QUERIED TODAY ABOUT AN ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY BY THE CONSULATE THAT INSTRUCTIONS HAD BEEN GIVEN THE ITALIAN CONSUL IN ISRAEL TO BEGIN NEGOTIATIONS LOOKING TOWARD DE FACTO RECOGNITION OF THE JEWISH STATE. A SPOKESMAN SAID: JAN 1949

"WE KNOW NOTHING ABOUT THIS. WE CONSIDER THAT DE FACTO RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL WAS GRANTED WHEN WE OPENED A CONSULATE IN HAIFA LAST OCTOBER. THERE HAVE BEEN NO NEW STEPS. THERE WILL EVENTUALLY PROBABLY BE DE JURE (FULL LEGAL) RECOGNITION, BUT NOTHING IS BEING DONE NOW."

ASKED AGAIN ABOUT ITS ANNOUNCEMENT, THE ISRAEL CONSULATE SAID ITS POSITION HAD NOT CHANGED, AND REAFFIRMED THAT ITALY IS NOW TAKING STEPS TOWARD DE FACTO RECOGNITION--RECOGNITION OF THE EXISTENCE OF THE STATE.

CHURCHILL SAID THE BRITISH RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS OVER THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN BORDER EXPOSED THE PLANES TO "THE GREATEST DANGER." FIVE RAF PLANES WERE SHOT DOWN BY ISRAELIS JAN. 7.

"NOW POOR OLD BRITAIN FIND HERSELF SHOT DOWN IN AN AIR SKIRMISH; SNUBBED BY THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT; WITH MARKED LACK OF SUPPORT IN THE INTERNATIONAL BODIES WHOSE OPINIONS WE VALUE SO HIGHLY," THE WARTIME PRIME MINISTER SAID. LONDON-ISRAEL-xxx DIRECTION.

CHURCHILL SAID HE MUST PROTEST AGAINST A POLICY WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS MAKING BRITAIN "AT ONCE A MOCKERY AND THE SCAPEGOAT OF SO MANY STATES WHO HAVE NEVER MADE ANY POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION OF THEIR OWN" IN PALESTINE.

BRITAIN'S POLICY DOES NOT HELP THE ARABS BUT DEPRIVES BRITAIN OF THE FRUITS OF 25 YEARS OF WORK IN PALESTINE, HE SAID.

"EVERY OPPORTUNITY FOR OBTAINING A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT WAS THROWN AWAY IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE WAR," HE SAID.

CHURCHILL REMARKED THAT THE SOUTHERN PALESTINE DESERT OFFERS A "HOPE OF AFFORDING A REFUGE TO THE SURVIVORS OF THE JEWISH COMMUNITIES WHO HAVE BEEN MASSACRED IN SO MANY PARTS OF EUROPE," AND ADDED THAT "WE OUGHT NOT TO GRUDGE A FAIR SHARE OF THE DESERTS OF THE NEGEV TO THE JEWS."

JAN 1949

THE ISRAELIS AND EGYPTIANS HAVE BEEN DEADLOCKED ON BORDER QUESTIONS IN THEIR ARMISTICE DISCUSSIONS AT RHODES.

THE BRITISH STAND WAS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN LAID DOWN BY FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN AT A CAUCUS OF PARLIAMENT'S LABOR PARTY MEMBERS PRECEDING DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON THE PALESTINE QUESTION.

FOREIGN OFFICE OFFICIALS HAD SAID ONLY THAT BEVIN WOULD REFER TO THE QUESTION OF RECOGNITION IN THE DEBATE. PREVIOUSLY GOVERNMENT AND FOREIGN OFFICE SOURCES HAD SAID BRITISH RECOGNITION WOULD BE FORTHCOMING SOON, AND IN REPORTING THIS, HAD MENTIONED NO CONDITIONS.

AS BEVIN PREPARED TO DEFEND HIS HOLY LAND POLICY IT WAS RECALLED HE ONCE SAID HE WOULD STAKE HIS WHOLE CAREER ON IT.

IT HAD NOT BEEN EXPECTED THAT BEVIN WOULD ANNOUNCE FORMAL RECOGNITION IN TODAY'S DISCUSSION, BUT IT HAD BEEN THOUGHT HE MIGHT DISCLOSE PLANS FOR ACKNOWLEDGING ISRAEL'S EXISTENCE AS A STATE AS SOON AS BORDER PROBLEMS ARE SETTLED. THIS IS THE SAME TYPE OF RECOGNITION AS ACCORDED BY THE UNITED STATES, FALLING SHORT OF RECOGNIZING THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT AS A LEGALLY CONSTITUTED AUTHORITY.

A FORMAL COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER THE LABOR PARTY CAUCUS SAID ONLY:

"A GENERAL DISCUSSION TOOK PLACE ON THE SITUATION IN PALESTINE AND THE MIDDLE EAST. THE FOREIGN SECRETARY, MR. ERNEST BEVIN, OPENED THE DISCUSSION, AND THE PRIME MINISTER, MR. C.R. ATTLEE, REPLIED AT THE END."

WINSTON CHURCHILL, LEADER OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY, IS TO REPLY TO BEVIN'S SPEECH. THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY HAS ORDERED ALL ITS 202 HOUSE MEMBERS TO BE ON HAND OR RISK PENALTIES.

NEXT IN ORDER ON THE LIST OF SPEAKERS ARE CONSERVATIVE OLIVER STANLEY AND PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE, WHOSE LABOR PARTY HAS 392 OF THE 640 SEATS IN COMMONS.

BEFORE HE GOES TO COMMONS, BEVIN IS EXPECTED TO GIVE AN INFORMAL PREVIEW OF HIS ADDRESS TO A PRIVATE CAUCUS OF THE LABOR MEMBERS. HIS SUPPORTERS HOPE THIS WILL HELP SATISFY A SIZABLE GROUP WITHIN THE PARTY WHO HAVE BEEN OUTSPOKEN IN THEIR CRITICISM OF BEVIN'S POLICIES.

LABOR SUPPORTERS SAY THE GOVERNMENT'S ARGUMENT FOR INTRA-PARTY CONSUMPTION WILL PLAY UP THE REPORTED DECISION TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL.

THERE IS SOME DOUBT AS TO WHETHER BEVIN IS READY TO ANNOUNCE DE FACTO RECOGNITION--ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE EXISTENCE--OF THE JEWISH STATE.

GOVERNMENT SOURCES SAID THE CABINET DECIDED ON THE STEP MONDAY. BUT DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES REPORTED YESTERDAY BRITAIN IS WAITING TO FIND OUT THE ATTITUDES OF HER SISTER DOMINIONS AND ARAB ALLIES.
P403AES

BEVIN PUT IT THIS WAY:
"NOW THAT THE ARMISTICE TALKS ARE AT LAST PROCEEDING, THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT HAVE NOW CONSIDERED THAT THE TIME HAS COME WHEN DE FACTO RECOGNITION MAY CONTRIBUTE TO THE PEACE SETTLEMENT.
BUT HE MADE IT CLEAR SOME THINGS MUST BE DONE FIRST. THESE INCLUDE CONSULTATIONS WITH BRITISH PARTNERS IN THE COMMONWEALTH AND WITH ALLIES UNDER THE WESTERN EUROPEAN PACT--FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE FIVE COUNTRIES OPEN A TWO-DAY MEETING HERE TOMORROW. BEVIN SAID PALESTINE WILL BE DISCUSSED.
FRANCE, ALONG WITH TWO MEMBERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH, CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA, ARE AMONG 23 COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE ACCORDED ISRAEL DE FACTO RECOGNITION. LONDON - XXX NEW STATE.

CHURCHILL, WARTIME PRIME MINISTER, DECLARED THE LABOR GOVERNMENT IS ALWAYS ONE OR MORE STEPS BEHIND EVENTS IN PALESTINE AND BRITAIN IS MADE "AT ONCE A MOCKERY AND THE SCAPEGOAT OF SO MANY STATES WHO HAVE NEVER MADE ANY POSITIVE CONTRIBUTION OF THERE OWN."
"I DO NOT FEEL ANY GREAT CONFIDENCE THAT THE FOREIGN SECRETARY HAS NOT GOT A PREJUDICE AGAINST THE JEWS IN PALESTINE," THE STOCKY CONSERVATIVE SPOKESMAN SAID.
BEVIN SAID THE LABOR GOVERNMENT "IS NOT GOING TO BE DETERRED AN INCH" FROM ITS PALESTINE POLICY. HE SAID THAT UNDER THIS POLICY "WE HAVE STURDILY SUPPORTED ALL THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL AS REGARDS BOTH SIDES IN THE PALESTINE DISPUTE."
THE FOREIGN SECRETARY SAID HE EXPECTED REPLIES FROM OTHER CAPITALS IN A FEW DAYS ON THE RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL.
"WE HAVE FELT THAT TO PLUNGE INTO RECOGNITION IN THE WAY THAT WAS SUGGESTED WOULD NOT HELP US WITH THE ARABS TO CONTRIBUTE TO A PEACE SETTLEMENT," BEVIN SAID. "NOW THAT THE ARMISTICE TALKS ARE AT LAST PROCEEDING, THE GOVERNMENT HAVE CONSIDERED WHETHER THE TIME HAS COME WHEN DE FACTO RECOGNITION MIGHT CONTRIBUTE TO PEACE AND A SETTLEMENT.
"I AM GLAD TO SAY THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAVE INDICATED THAT THEY INTEND TO RECOGNIZE THE GOVERNMENT OF (ARAB) TRANS-JORDAN AND THAT IS A VERY MATERIAL FACTOR."

JAN 1949

PREMATURE RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL, BEVIN SAID, WOULD HAVE BEEN "MISUNDERSTOOD OVER A VERY WIDE AREA OF THE COMMONWEALTH." HE CITED MOSLEM POPULATIONS, ALLIED BY RELIGION TO PALESTINE ARABS, IN SUCH BRITISH DOMINIONS AS PAKISTAN, INDIA AND CEYLON.
"SOUTH AFRICA AND CANADA HAVE ACCORDED RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL," HE SAID. "NEW ZEALAND, INDIA, PAKISTAN AND CEYLON HAVE NOT DONE SO. AND SOME OF THESE GOVERNMENTS HAVE HELD STRONG VIEWS."
HE SAID BRITAIN HAS "INTERESTS, OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITY IN MAINTAINING SECURITY AND STABILITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND IT IS THE DELIBERATE PURPOSE OF OUR POLICY TO BE FAITHFUL TO THOSE OBLIGATIONS AND TO THAT PURPOSE."
HE SAID THE LABOR GOVERNMENT IS WORKING CLOSELY WITH THE UNITED STATES TO PREVENT THE MIDDLE EAST FROM BECOMING "A SECOND BALKAN AREA, TORN BY INTERNAL DISSENSIONS AND THE SCENE OF INTERNATIONAL RIVALRY."
OBVIOUSLY REFERRING TO COMMUNISM, BEVIN SAID TURKEY AND GREECE BUTTRESS THE MIDDLE EAST ON THE NORTH.
"THE AID AND SUPPORT WHICH THE UNITED STATES AND WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO GIVE TURKEY AND GREECE HAVE BEEN AN IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTION TO THE STABILITY AND SECURITY OF THE WHOLE AREA," HE SAID.

30.24- 597

HE SAID THAT, WHILE THE STATE OF ISRAEL IS NOW A FACT, THE TIDE OF ARAB NATIONALISM HAS BEEN RUNNING HIGH AND "IT WILL PRODUCE A VERY SERIOUS SITUATION UNLESS HANDLED WITH GREAT CARE."
CHURCHILL DECLARED THE LABOR GOVERNMENT'S POLICY DEPRIVES BRITAIN OF THE FRUITS OF 25 YEARS OF WORK IN PALESTINE, THAT "EVERY OPPORTUNITY FOR OBTAINING A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT WAS THROWN AWAY IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE WAR."
REFERRING TO BRITISH RECONNAISSANCE FLIGHTS OVER AN EGYPTIAN-ISRAELI FIGHTING ZONE JAN. 7 IN WHICH THE JEWS SHOT DOWN FIVE PLANES, CHURCHILL COMMENTED:
"NOW POOR OLD BRITAIN FINDS HERSELF SHOT DOWN IN AN AIR SKIRMISH; SNUBBED BY THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT, WITH MARKED LACK OF SUPPORT IN THE INTERNATIONAL BODIES WHOSE OPINIONS WE VALUE SO HIGHLY."

zaki pasha and another police officer were killed dec. 5 by a hand grenade during the rioting, as students attempted to march on government offices [redacted] shouting slogans about prosecution of the palestine war.

THE GOVERNMENT'S FIVE MAN PEACE DELEGATION WAS EXPECTED TO HOLD A CONFERENCE LATE TODAY. THEY WERE TO STUDY THE COMMUNIST RADIO REPLY TO THEIR PEACE NEGOTIATION REQUEST. MEMBERS SAID THEY HAD NO CONTACT WITH THE REDS OTHER THAN THE RADIO REPORT.

EARLIER THERE HAD BEEN EVIDENCE OF DISCORD IN THE GOVERNMENT. AFTER NOTIFYING NINE FOREIGN EMBASSIES THE GOVERNMENT WOULD MOVE TO THE SOUTH, THE NOTICES WERE HASTILY WITHDRAWN FOR REVISION. THEY HAD NOT BEEN REISSUED AT THE TIME CHANG REVEALED THE GOVERNMENT WOULD BE IN CANTON BY FEB. 5.

NONE OF THE EMBASSIES HAVE SIGNIFIED ANY INTENTION TO FOLLOW THE GOVERNMENT SOUTH.

A COMMUNIST BROADCAST, INFORMING THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT THAT PARTY LEADERS WOULD TALK PEACE WITH LI'S DELEGATION IF ONE MEMBER -- PENG SHAO-HSIEN -- WERE REMOVED, CAME AN HOUR BEFORE THE MOVE SOUTH WAS ANNOUNCED.

AMONG THEM WAS ABOLITION OF THE NEW CONSTITUTION AND THE KUOMINTANG GOVERNMENT, TRIAL OF WAR CRIMINALS, CONFISCATION OF "BUREAUCRATIC" CAPITAL AND THE CANCELLATION OF TREATIES WITH THE UNITED STATES AND OTHER WESTERN POWERS.

(THE COMMUNIST BROADCAST HEARD IN SHANGHAI POINTED TO FOREIGN PRESS REPORTS OF LAST SUNDAY THAT UP TO 200,000 NATIONALIST TROOPS WERE MOVING TO NEW DEFENSE LINES SOUTH OF THE YANGTZE.

(THE REDS THEN CALLED ON ACTING PRESIDENT LI TO "DETAIN" CHIANG AND OTHER LEADERS AS PROOF OF HIS SINCERITY. THEY SAID LI ALSO WAS ON THEIR "WAR CRIMINAL" LIST BUT WOULD BE PARDONED IF HE DID HIS DUTY.)

NANKING - XXX LIBERATED.

A STRONG DEFENSE LINE SOUTH OF THE YANGTZE ALREADY HAS BEEN PREPARED JUST IN CASE THE PEACE TALKS BLOW UP.

FOR SEVERAL DAYS LARGE NUMBERS OF THE TROOPS STILL REMAINING TO THE GOVERNMENT HAVE BEEN MOVING SOUTH. THE FLOW OF MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES TO THE NEW DEFENSE AREA HAS BEEN UNCEASING.

THE DEFENSE MINISTRY ITSELF IS MOVING SOUTH BY FRIDAY, LEAVING ONLY GARRISON HEADQUARTERS IN NANKING.

CONFIDENTIAL CHINESE SOURCES SAY THE NEW LINE WILL BE ANCHORED ON THE EAST COAST AT HANGCHOW, WHICH IS 100 MILES SOUTHWEST OF SHANGHAI AND ABOUT 150 MILES SOUTHEAST OF NANKING.

FROM THERE THE LINE WILL EXTEND NEARLY 300 MILES SOUTHWESTWARD ACROSS MOUNTAINOUS TERRAIN TO NANCHANG, CAPITAL OF KIANGSI PROVINCE.

FROM NANCHANG IT WOULD STRETCH 155 MILES NORTHWESTWARD TO WUCHANG, ON THE SOUTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE OPPOSITE THE CENTRAL CHINESE FORTRESS CITY OF HANKOW.

IN THE REAR OF THIS LINE IS THE ISLAND PROVINCE OF FORMOSA, OPENLY STYLED "GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S PRIVATE FORTRESS" IN NANKING.

MILITARY OBSERVERS BELIEVE THE NATIONALISTS CANNOT HOLD THIS LINE FOR MORE THAN A FEW MONTHS WITH THE FORCES NOW AVAILABLE.

(IT IS A NATURALLY STRONG POSITION, HOWEVER. THE JAPANESE HAD LITTLE LUCK PENETRATING THIS MOUNTAINOUS REGION AND WAS CONTENT FOR THE MOST PART WITH GARRISONING THE MORE IMPORTANT CITIES.

(FROM CANTON, CORRESPONDENT F.K.WU REPORTED THAT MILITARY AND POLITICAL LEADERS WERE A UNITED IN A DETERMINATION TO DEFEND THAT AREA SHOULD THE REDS REJECT PEACE TALKS AND INVADE SOUT CHINA.

(AMONG SUPPORTERS OF THE DEFENSE PLAN HE LISTED GEN.HSUEH

SHAO AND CHANG SOUGHT TO PERSUADE THIRD PARTY LEADERS TO ABANDON THEIR STAND OF NON-INVOLVEMENT IN THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT'S PEACE OFFENSIVE, WHICH THE COMMUNISTS HAVE AGREED TO TALK OVER IN PEIPING.

DR. KAN CHIEH-HOU, SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE OF LI, UNSUCCESSFULLY URGED MADAME SUN AND THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS TO COME TO NANKING IN AN ADVISORY CAPACITY. NANKING - XXX LIBERATOR.

THE CITY COUNCIL PEACE ACTION, PATTERNED AFTER THAT OF PEIPING, WHICH WENT OVER TO THE REDS ON SATURDAY IN A SEPARATE PEACE, FACED DIFFICULTIES. THE NATIONALIST ARMIES AND GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CAPITAL TO PERMIT MUNICIPAL AUTHORITIES TO NEGOTIATE ITS SURRENDER WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

JAN 1949

YUEH, GOVERNOR-DESIGNATE OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE, THE "TIGER OF CHANGSHA."
(HSUEH GOT THAT NAME OF HIS STAUNCH DEFENSE OF CHANGSHA, CAPITAL OF HUNAN PROVINCE, IN THE WAR WITH JAPAN. HE BEAT BACK THREE OFFENSIVES BEFORE THE JAPANESE FINALLY CAPTURED CHANGSHA IN JUNE OF 1944. THAT WAS DURING JAPAN'S BIG PUSH THAT ROLLED UP U.S. AIR BASES IN SOUTH CHINA.

(WU REPORTED THAT HSUEH GOT A "TREMENDOUS WELCOME" FROM WAITING CROWDS WHEN HIS TRAIN PULLED INTO CANTON FROM HIS HOME IN NORTHERN KWANGTUNG PROVINCE).

THE YANGTZE REMAINED QUIET. NANKING WAS TENSE BUT ORDERLY. FERRIES STILL RAN BETWEEN NANKING AND PUKOW, THE RAIL HEAD ON THE NORTH BANK.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY WITHIN THE CITY REMAINED INTENSE. JAN 1949

THE CITY COUNCIL VOTED TO NEGOTIATE FOR A LOCAL PEACE.

ACTING PRESIDENT LI, ONE PRESS REPORT SAID, APPROVED THE MOVE PROVIDED THE COUNCIL WAITED FOR DEFINITE STEPS TOWARD GENERAL PEACE TALKS.

WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE EXECUTIVE YUAN (CABINET), LI RELEASED HORDES OF POLITICAL PRISIONERS AND REMOVED BANS ON NEWSPAPERS AND MAGAZINES ACCUSED OF COMMUNIST SYMPATHIES.

THE YUAN DID NOT GO ALL THE WAY WITH LI. IT REFUSED TO RELEASE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS, AS HE HAD ASKED. IT TOOK NO ACTION ON HIS PROPOSALS TO SUSPEND THE SECRET POLICE AND SECRET ARRESTS OF CITIZENS.

(IN NORTH CHINA, ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT SPENCER MOOSA REPORTED FROM COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED PEIPING THAT "NATIONALIST QUARTERS ARE PULLING WIRES" TO END THE LONG SIEGE TO TAIYUAN, CAPITAL OF SHANSI PROVINCE WEST OF PEIPING.

(MOOSA SAID THE NATIONALISTS WERE TRYING TO GET WAR LORD GOV. YEN HSI-SHAN, FIERCE FOE OF COMMUNISM, TO RESIGN. THE REDS HAVEN'T BOMBARDED TAIYUAN FOR FEAR OF DAMAGING ITS LARGE INDUSTRIAL DISTRICT.)

THE GROWING MOVEMENT IN NATIONALIST CHINA TO ACHIEVE LOCALIZED PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS GAINED ITS FIRST MAJOR IMPETUS IN SHANGHAI TODAY.

A MEMBER OF THE GOVERNMENT'S LEGISLATIVE YUAN (LAWMAKING BODY) HAS BEGUN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN AMONG SHANGHAI COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL LEADERS FOR AN IMMEDIATE SETTLEMENT HERE SIMILAR TO THAT REACHED IN PEIPING LAST WEEK.

THE LAWMAKER IS CHANG CHIEN-HUA. HIS PROPOSAL IS RECEIVING SERIOUS CONSIDERATION, PARTICULARLY IN VIEW OF POSITIVE INDICATIONS THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT INTEND TO DEFEND THE LOWER YANGTZE RIVER VALLEY.

CHINESE PRESS DISPATCHES REPORTED, MEANWHILE, THE SURRENDER OF TWO MORE CITIES IN NORTH CHINA. CEASEFIRE AGREEMENTS WERE REPORTED AT KWEISUI, CAPITAL OF SUIYUAN PROVINCE, AND PAOTOU, WESTERN TERMINUS OF THE PEIPING-SUIYUAN RAILROAD.

ALSO WORKING IN THE BACKGROUND TO ATTEMPT A NATIONAL SETTLEMENT ARE GEN. TENG PAO-SHAN AND PROF. CHANG TUNG-SUN, SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE.

TENG IS FU'S DEPUTY. HE WAS ONE OF THE CHIEF FIGURES IN ARRANGING THE PEIPING SETTLEMENT.

MEANWHILE, EFFORTS ARE CONTINUING TOWARD AN EFFECTIVE CHANGEOVER OF SEVERAL POINTS IN NORTH CHINA STILL HELD BY THE NATIONALISTS. THIS WOULD BE PART OF AN OVER-ALL NORTH CHINA AGREEMENT OF WHICH THE PEIPING SETTLEMENT WAS THE FIRST PHASE.

NOW THAT A NATIONAL PEACE SEEMS IN THE OFFING, GENERAL FU APPARENTLY HAS CHANGED HIS MIND ABOUT RESIGNING AND GOING INTO RETIREMENT. HE PROBABLY WILL BE GIVEN AN ARMY COMMAND IF AND WHEN THE NEW GOVERNMENT TAKES SHAPE.

CHINESE NEWSPAPERS IN PEIPING ARE NOT PUBLISHING REPORTS OF THE COMMUNISTS NEW CHINA NEWS AGENCY, AS DISTRIBUTED BY THE PEIPING BRANCH OF THE NATIONALIST CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY.

THOSE REPORTS REFER TO COMMUNIST FORCES AS THE "PEOPLES' EMANCIPATION ARMY" AND TO NATIONALIST ARMIES AS "KUOMINTANG BANDIT FORCES."

SHANGHAI, JAN. 26-(AP)-U.S.CONSUL GENERAL JOHN M. CABOT TOLD A SHANGHAI LUNCHEON MEETING TODAY THAT COMMUNIST POLICY STATEMENTS INDICATED THE PARTY IN CHINA WAS "BLINDLY FOLLOWING ORDERS FROM MOSCOW."

HE CITED AS EVIDENCE THE CHINESE REDS' ENDORSEMENT OF THE EUROPEAN COMINFORM STATEMENT ON MARSHAL TITO.

CABOT SAID THE UNITED STATES DOES NOT BELIEVE THE CHINESE PEOPLE WANT TO BE RULED BY ORDERS FROM ANY FOREIGN CAPITAL.

CONCERNING A CHARGE BY THE CHINESE RED LEADER, MAO TZE-TUNG, THAT U.S. AID TO CHINA AMOUNTED TO IMPERIALISM, CABOT SAID THAT TO THE CONTRARY IT HAD BEEN GIVEN TO PREVENT DOMINATION BY "FOREIGN CAPITAL."

HE ADDED, "IF WE HAVE NOT FURNISHED MORE AID THIS HAS BEEN DUE TO OUR DOUBTS AS TO ITS EFFECTIVE USE RATHER THAN A LACK OF DESIRE TO HELP. WE HAVE NOT WANTED TO OFFEND CHINA'S SOVEREIGNTY BY TELLING THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HOW IT SHOULD RUN ITS OWN AFFAIRS."

CABOT SAID THE U.S. WAS NOT SEEKING IN CHINA ANY PRIVILEGED POSITION EITHER FROM THE CHINESE NATION OR ANY OTHER NATION.

THE REDS HAVE CHARGED U.S. TROOPS WERE ENCROACHING ON CHINA'S SOVEREIGNTY.

THE CONSUL GENERAL ASKED THAT THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS STATE THEIR POSITION ON THE OCCUPATION OF DAIREN AND PORT ARTHUR BY A "FOREIGN POWER." HE NOTED "HERE INDEED ARE FOREIGN TROOPS WHICH SEEM TO BE SETTLING DOWN FOR A LONG STAY ON CHINESE SOIL."

TOKYO, JAN. 26-(AP)-A MELLOWING, INFLUENTIAL MAN WHOM THE JAPANESE CALL "MAHKASSAH" CELEBRATED HIS BIRTHDAY TODAY.

GENERAL OF THE ARMY DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, SUPREME COMMANDER OF ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, WAS 69.

JAN 1949

BUT AGE SEEMS TO MAKE LITTLE IMPRESSION ON HIM. HIS TALL, SPARE FIGURE IS AS ERECT AS EVER, HIS HANDSHAKE FIRM, HIS BLUE EYES TWINKLE.

IT IS MACARTHUR'S 14TH CONSECUTIVE BIRTHDAY OUT OF THE UNITED STATES, HIS FOURTH IN JAPAN SINCE THE END OF THE WAR.

IT WAS A QUIET DAY FOR THE GENERAL, WITH BUSINESS AS USUAL. HE AROSE EARLY. HE WORKED AT HIS HOME IN THE AMERICAN EMBASSY UNTIL MID-MORNING. INFORMALLY, HE REVIEWED HIS HONOR GUARD WHICH HAD FORMED OUTSIDE THE EMBASSY COMPOUND. THEN HE WENT TO HIS OFFICE IN THE DAI ITI BUILDING.

MACARTHUR'S ARRIVAL AT HIS OFFICE, AND HIS DEPARTURE, STILL ARE BIG EVENTS IN TOKYO. SCORES OF JAPANESE AND AMERICANS CROWD THE SIDEWALKS TO WATCH HIM LEAVE HIS BLACK, FIVE-STARRED CADILLAC TO STRIDE BRISKLY INTO THE BUILDING.

ONE OF HIS AIDES SAID THERE WERE NO SPECIAL BIRTHDAY PLANS. THERE WOULD BE A BIRTHDAY CAKE.

THE GENERAL MADE IT AN OCCASION TO REPEAT THAT HE IS DETERMINED TO STAY IN JAPAN UNTIL HIS JOB IS FINISHED. HE SAID THAT ON HIS LAST TWO PREVIOUS BIRTHDAYS.

"CERTAINLY," HOUBEN REPLIED WHEN KELLEY ASKED HIM WHETHER MISS GILLARS INCLUDED PROPAGANDA IN HER OPENING AND CLOSING REMARKS IN BROADCASTING MESSAGES FROM AMERICAN PRISONERS OF WAR.

HOUBEN TESTIFIED THAT HE FIRST MET MISS GILLARS IN THE SUMMER OF 1941 WHEN SHE BECAME AN ANNOUNCER FOR THE NAZI RADIO.

"DID YOU APPROVE CLAIMS FOR THE SERVICE OF THIS DEFENDANT?" KELLEY ASKED. HE SAID HE DID. HE ADDED THAT SHE WAS PAID AN AVERAGE OF 2,000 TO 3,000 MARKS A MONTH AND THAT ONLY THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF ALL GERMAN OVERSEAS RADIO ACTIVITIES RECEIVED MORE. AT THE PRE-WAR RATE OF EXCHANGE 3,000 MARKS WERE WORTH $1,200.

IN ADDITION TO VARIOUS PROGRAMS--"HOME SWEET HOME," "MIDGE AT THE MIKE," AND PRISONER MESSAGES, AMONG OTHERS--HOUBEN SAID, MISS GILLARS ALSO PARTICIPATED IN SKETCHES AND DRAMATIC PLAYS. ONE WAS CALLED "VISION OF INVASION," AND STRESSED THE DANGERS OF INVADING GERMAN-HELD EUROPE.

"WHAT PART DID THE DEFENDANT PLAY?" KELLEY ASKED.

"SHE PLAYED THE PART OF AN AMERICAN MOTHER," HOUBEN ANSWERED.

"DID SOMEONE PLAY THE ROLE OF AN AMERICAN SON AND WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM?"

JAN 1949

"HE DIED ON A SINKING SHIP."

HOUBEN SAID THE MAIN PURPOSE OF GERMAN BROADCASTS TO AMERICAN TROOPS AND AMERICANS AT HOME WAS "TRYING TO CONVINCE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THAT THEY WERE FIGHTING ON THE WRONG SIDE AND THAT THEY SHOULD BE FIGHTING COMMUNISM."

"WE TRIED TO CONVINCE AMERICAN SOLDIERS THAT THEIR EFFORTS WOULD BE IN VAIN AND TO STOP FIGHTING," HE ADDED.

"WE TRIED TO TELL THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THAT PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

"WE TOLD THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THAT MR.ROOSEVELT HAD JEWISH ADVISERS.
"AND WE ALWAYS TRIED TO CONVINCE OUR LISTENERS THAT GERMANY WAS A MILITARY STRONGHOLD AND AGAINST RUSSIA."
IN OPENING ARGUMENTS YESTERDAY, KELLEY PICTURED MISS GILLARS AS A TRAITOR WHO SOLD OUT TO THE ENEMY. HER LAWYER, JAMES J.LAUGHLIN REPLIED THAT SHE WAS A PATRIOTIC AMERICAN WHO REFUSED TO BROADCAST WHAT SHE REGARDED AS ANTI-AMERICAN PROPAGANDA.

NIGHT LEAD ACHESON JAN 1949

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON DECLARED TODAY THE UNITED STATES MUST MARSHAL NEW RESERVES OF MILITARY AND ECONOMIC MIGHT IN THE WORLD STRUGGLE FOR FREEDOM AGAINST WHAT HE CALLED "REACTIONARY" COMMUNISM.
ACHESON, IN HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE AS CHIEF OF U.S. FOREIGN POLICY UNDER PRESIDENT TRUMAN, DISCUSSED TWO MAIN LINES OF ACTION:
1. HE SAID THAT A "VERY GREAT" RESERVOIR OF PRIVATE CAPITAL IS AVAILABLE TO FINANCE PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S NEW PROGRAM TO RAISE THE STANDARD OF LIVING IN BACKWARD AREAS OF THE WORLD. BUT HE SERVED NOTICE THAT COUNTRIES DESIRING SUCH HELP MUST CREATE CONDITIONS "ATTRACTIVE" TO PRIVATE INVESTMENT.
2. ON THE MILITARY FRONT OF THE COLD WAR, ACHESON ENDORSED THE PLANS WORKED OUT BY FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL AND RETIRING UNDERSECRETARY LOVETT FOR A MILITARY ALLIANCE WITH WESTERN EUROPE.
VIRTUALLY QUOTING FROM PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S INAUGURATION SPEECH, ACHESON DECLARED THAT "WE ARE CONVINCED THAT WE CAN BEST CONTRIBUTE TO THE MAINTENANCE OF PEACE BY JOINING WITH OTHER NATIONS IN MAKING IT ABSOLUTELY CLEAR IN ADVANCE THAT ANY ARMED ATTACK AFFECTING OUR NATIONAL SECURITY WOULD BE MET WITH OVERWHELMING FORCE."
HE FURTHER INDICATED FOR THE FIRST TIME OFFICIALLY THAT THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE AGREEMENT, IN NEGOTIATION FOR MANY MONTHS AMONG THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, IS ABOUT COMPLETED. HE SAID THAT HE HOPED "TO BE ABLE VERY SOON" TO TALK ABOUT IT IN SPECIFIC TERMS.
IN THE MAIN, ACHESON, WHO TOOK OFFICE ONLY LAST FRIDAY, WENT DOWN THE LINE WITH THE POLICIES ALREADY WELL LAID OUT BY HIS PREDECESSORS IN OFFICE AND BY HIS CHIEF, PRESIDENT TRUMAN. MOST OF WHAT HE SAID WHICH WAS NEW WAS CONCERNED WITH HIS HEAVY STRESS ON PRIVATE CAPITAL RATHER THAN ANY GREAT NEW OUTPOURING OF PUBLIC FUNDS TO CARRY THROUGH MR.TRUMAN'S PROGRAM FOR RAISING LIVING STANDARDS IN BACKWARD AREAS.
AND IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT ACHESON WAS THE ONE TO SAY THIS, BECAUSE HE ANNOUNCED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD CALLED ON THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO BLUEPRINT THE PROGRAM--OR AS HE PUT IT, TO COMPILE SUGGESTIONS IN COOPERATION WITH OTHER GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS AND SUBMIT THEM TO THE PRESIDENT. HE SAID THERE IS NO BLUEPRINT YET.
ON ESTABLISHED FOREIGN POLICY PRINCIPLES, ACHESON SPOKE OUT BRIEFLY FOR COOPERATION WITH REPUBLICAN LEADERS IN CONGRESS AND OUT, SUCH AS SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) AND JOHN FOSTER DULLES; HE PROMISED TO CARRY OUT THE "GOOD NEIGHBOR" POLICY TOWARD LATIN AMERICA; HE MAINTAINED THE HANDS OFF ATTITUDE TOWARD CHINA BY DECLINING TO GO BEYOND STATEMENTS ALREADY MADE BY THE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MARSHALL AND UNDERSECRETARY LOVETT; AND IN GENERAL HE INDICATED HIS INTENTION OF GOING FORWARD WITH MARSHALL'S PLANS ON CONTROLLED REVIVAL OF THE GERMAN ECONOMY.

A2WX
HE LAUGHINGLY SIDE-STEPPED ANY KIND OF POTENTIAL ARGUMENT WITH GENERAL DOUGLAS MACARTHUR WITH WHOM HE ONCE HAD A RUN IN IN THE EARLY DAYS OF THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION WHEN ACHESON WAS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE.
A REPORTER ASKED WHETHER ACHESON AGREED WITH MACARTHUR'S VIEW THAT THE RECENT JAPANESE ELECTIONS CONSTITUTED A VICTORY FOR "THE CONSERVATIVE PHILOSOPHY OF GOVERNMENT." ACHESON REPLIED THAT HE HAD NOT THOUGHT ABOUT THE MATTER. THEN AS REPORTERS WHO RECALLED THE OLD DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO MEN LAUGHED, ACHESON SAID HE THOUGHT HE WOULD PASS THAT ONE.
IN DISCUSSING THE PRESIDENT'S PROGRAM FOR IMPROVING WORLD LIVING CONDITIONS, THE NEW SECRETARY EMPHASIZED THE PROGRAM'S AIM IS TO ATTAIN FREEDOM AND DIGNITY AND FULLNESS OF LIFE FOR PEOPLES IN UNDERDEVELOPED LANDS. JAN 1949
BY CONTRAST, HE SAID, COMMUNISM VIEWS MAN AS SIMPLY A COG IN THE MACHINE OF THE STATE. HE SAID THAT IS NOT A MODERN IDEA BUT A "REACTIONARY VIEW--AN ATTEMPT TO CRAWL BACK INTO THE COCOON OF HISTORY."
WHEN PRESSED FOR DETAILS ABOUT HOW THE PROGRAM WOULD WORK, ACHESON DECLARED THE UNITED STATES IS WILLING TO WORK WITH OTHER NATIONS DIRECTLY OR THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS. HE MADE CLEAR THAT INCLUDES BOTH THE COUNTRIES WHICH HAVE RESOURCES OF CAPITAL AND TECHNICAL SKILLS TO EXPORT AND THOSE WHICH NEED ASSISTANCE IN THEIR DEVELOPMENT.
ACHESON SAID HE DID NOT WANT TO IMPOSE ANY LIMITATIONS ON THE PROGRAM AND HE WOULD NOT STATE WHETHER IT MIGHT INCLUDE OR EXCLUDE FRANCO SPAIN. AS FOR REGIONAL AREAS WHERE GREAT INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS MIGHT BE PROMOTED, ACHESON SAID THEY INCLUDED THE FAR EAST, SOUTHEAST ASIA, AFRICA, AND LARGE PARTS OF SOUTH AMERICA. ASKED WHAT COUNTRIES MIGHT BE SUITABLE FOR DEVELOPMENT, ACHESON SAID THAT INDIA, FOR EXAMPLE, OBVIOUSLY WOULD.

ACHESON "FAIR DEAL" TEXT
WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-THE TEXT OF SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON'S COMMENT ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" FOR WORLD BACKWARD AREAS FOLLOWS (ABOUT 800):
FIRST OF ALL, I HOPE THAT YOU ALL UNDERSTAND THE SETTING OF POINT 4 IN THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS. IT WAS ONE OF FOUR MAJOR COURSES OF ACTION WHICH THE PRESIDENT SAID WOULD BE CARRIED OUT BY HIS ADMINISTRATION OVER THE NEXT FOUR YEARS, FOR THE PURPOSE OF ACHIEVING THE GREAT OBJECTIVE WHICH HE TALKED ABOUT MAINLY IN THAT ADDRESS.
THAT OBJECTIVE WAS TO MAKE CLEAR IN OUR OWN COUNTRY AND TO ALL THE WORLD THE PURPOSE OF AMERICAN LIFE AND THE PURPOSE OF THE AMERICAN SYSTEM. THAT PURPOSE IS TO ENABLE THE INDIVIDUAL TO ATTAIN THE FREEDOM AND THE DIGNITY, THE FULLNESS OF LIFE, WHICH WOULD BE THE PURPOSE OFU2&£;34,.3,5 -,$ 9! -)))8!3 9, 5£8S E

FREEDOM AND THE DIGNITY, THE FULLNESS OF LIFE, WHICH WOULD BE THE PURPOSE OF ALL GOVERNMENT AND OF ALL LIFE ON THIS EARTH EXCEPT INSOFAR AS IT MAY BE A PREPARATION FOR SOME OTHER LIFE.
THE PRESIDENT WENT ON TO POINT OUT THAT THE OTHER THEORY -- OF

THE PLACE OF THE INDIVIDUAL IN SOCIETY -- WAS NOT A MODERN THEORY, WAS NOT A RADICAL OR A NEW VIEW, BUT WAS REACTIONARY IN THE EXTREME. IT IS A VIEW WHICH GOES BACK TO THE PERIOD BEFORE THE RENAISSANCE. IT IS A VIEW WHICH IS FOUNDED ON THE BASIC IDEA THAT STATUS IS THE GOVERNING FACTOR IN LIFE; THAT EVERY PERSON IS BORN INTO THE WORLD IN A POSITION AND THAT THAT PERSON BECOMES MERE COG IN A MACHINE.

THAT IS A BASICALLY REACTIONARY ATTITUDE AND PHILOSOPHY. IT IS NOT, AS I SAY, MODERN. IT IS AN ATTEMPT TO CRAWL BACK INTO THE COCOON OF HISTORY. THE AMERICAN VIEW OF LIFE IS ONE WHICH FLOWS DIRECTLY FROM THE RENAISSANCE AND IS ONE WHICH SAYS THAT THE WORTH AND DIGNITY AND FREEDOM OF THE INDIVIDUAL ARE THE OBJECTIVES OF GOVERNMENT.

THEN THE PRESIDENT WENT ON TO POINT OUT COURSES OF ACTION WHICH WE WERE GOING TO TAKE OVER THE NEXT FOUR YEARS TO TRY TO BRING ABOUT THAT PURPOSE OF LIFE, NOT ONLY IN THIS COUNTRY, BUT IN ANY OTHER COUNTRY WHICH WISHED OUR HELP AND ASSOCIATION IN THAT EFFORT. TO ME THE ESSENTIAL THING ABOUT IT IS THAT IT IS THE USE OF MATERIAL MEANS TO A NON-MATERIAL END.

IT IS NOT THAT WE BELIEVE THAT OTHER PEOPLE NEED OR WISH THINGS FOR THEIR OWN PURPOSE MERELY TO HAVE THESE MATERIAL OBJECTS. IT IS NOT THAT MATERIAL OBJECTS IN AND OF THEMSELVES MAKE A BETTER OR FULLER LIFE, BUT THEY ARE THE MEANS BY WHICH PEOPLE CAN OBTAIN FREEDOM, NOT ONLY FREEDOM FROM THE PRESSURE OF THESE OTHER HUMAN BEINGS WHO WOULD RESTRICT THEIR FREEDOM, BUT HELP IN THE ANCIENT STRUGGLE OF MAN TO EARN HIS LIVING AND GET HIS BREAD FROM THE SOIL. THAT IS THE PURPOSE; THAT IS THE OBJECTIVE OF THIS PROGRAM.

NOW, THE PRESIDENT WAS NOT ANNOUNCING A PROJECT TO BE COMPLETED WITHIN A FEW WEEKS OR MONTHS. HE WAS ANNOUNCING IN THIS, AS IN THE OTHER THREE RESPECTS, A LONG PROGRAM FOR HIS ADMINISTRATION. IT WAS A PROGRAM ON WHICH MUCH HAS BEEN DONE IN THE PAST AND ON WHICH MORE CAN BE DONE IN THE FUTURE.

THE PRESIDENT POINTED OUT THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS NO MONOPOLY OF SKILLS OR TECHNIQUES. OTHER COUNTRIES HAVE VAST RESERVOIRS OF SKILL. IN ALMOST EVERY COUNTRY THERE IS SOME NUCLEUS OF SKILL, SOME GROUP OF PEOPLE WHOSE TECHNICAL ABILITIES CAN BE EXPANDED WITH HELP FROM THE OUTSIDE. WITH ALL OF THOSE PEOPLE, THE PRESIDENT STATED, WE WISH TO WORK.

HE PARTICULARLY STATED THAT WE WISHED TO WORK THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS AND ALL THOSE AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS WHICH ARE ASSOCIATED WITH IT. HE POINTED OUT THAT INSOFAR AS HIS PROGRAM IS SUCCESSFUL AND INSOFAR AS PEOPLES IN LESS DEVELOPED AREAS ACQUIRE SKILLS, THEY MAY ALSO CREATE THE CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH CAPITAL MAY FLOW IN TO THOSE COUNTRIES.

HE DID NOT SAY THIS WAS TO BE GOVERNMENTAL CAPITAL AND INDEED, IF THE PROPER CONDITIONS ARE CREATED, THE RESERVOIRS OF PRIVATE CAPITAL ARE VERY GREAT INDEED. HE POINTED OUT THAT THESE MUST BE TWO-WAY OPERATIONS.

THERE IS ABROAD IN THE WORLD AN IDEA THAT THERE IS MAGIC IN INVESTMENT. THERE IS AN IDEA THAT IF EVERY COUNTRY CAN ONLY HAVE A STEEL MILL, THEN ALL IS WELL. THERE IS A FAILURE TO UNDERSTAND THAT IT IS A LONG AND DIFFICULT PROCESS TO DEVELOP THE SKILLS WHICH ARE NECESSARY TO OPERATE MANY OF THESE PLANTS. THERE IS SOMETIMES FAILURE TO UNDERSTAND THAT PLANTS SHOULD BE LOCATED WHERE THE NATURAL RESOURCES EXIST AND NOT ON PURELY NATIONALISTIC BASES.

THERE IS ALSO IN MANY PLACES A FAILURE TO UNDERSTAND THAT UNLESS THE CONDITIONS WHICH ARE CREATED BY WHICH INVESTORS MAY FAIRLY PUT THEIR MONEY INTO THAT COUNTRY, THEN THERE IS A GREAT IMPEDIMENT TO DEVELOPMENT. IT IS NO SOLUTION TO SAY, "WELL, THE PRIVATE INVESTORS WON'T DO IT. THEREFORE, GOVERNMENTS MUST." SO HE POINTED OUT THAT IT MUST BE A TWO-WAY STREET.

NOW, AS I SAY, MUCH HAS BEEN DONE IN THE PAST TO TRY TO MAKE TECHNOLOGICAL SKILL AND ADVICE AVAILABLE FROM THE UNITED STATES AND FROM OTHER COUNTRIES, THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS AND THROUGH MANY OF ITS ORGANIZATIONS. THOSE EFFORTS CAN BE BROUGHT TOGETHER AND INTENSIFIED. THE PRESIDENT POINTED OUT THAT WE ARE WILLING AND ANXIOUS TO WORK WITH EVERY COUNTRY THAT WISHES TO REALLY ENTER INTO A COOPERATIVE SYSTEM WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD TO THIS END AND WITH EVERY COUNTRY THAT WISHES TO HELP OTHER COUNTRIES TO DEVELOP.

NOW, THAT IS THE BROAD BACKGROUND OF THE INAUGURAL ADDRESS. I HAVE TALKED AT SOME LENGTH ABOUT THIS BECAUSE IT SEEMS TO ME IMPORTANT THAT IT BE PUT IN ITS SETTING OF AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY.

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON GOT A CHANCE TODAY TO SHED NEW LIGHT ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROPOSAL FOR RAISING LIVING STANDARDS IN BACKWARD AREAS OF THE WORLD.

HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE AS SECRETARY WAS SET FOR 11:30 A.M. (EST).

ACHESON WAS SWORN IN AS SECRETARY LAST FRIDAY AND HAS BEEN BONING UP ON AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY IN CONFERENCES WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS EVER SINCE.

DIPLOMATS LOOK TO HIM FOR INFORMATION ON TWO MAJOR SUBJECTS--THE WORLD BETTERMENT PROGRAM WHICH MR.TRUMAN ROUGHLY OUTLINED IN HIS INAUGURATION SPEECH AND THE PLANS FOR PROVIDING MILITARY SUPPORT TO THE NATIONS OF WESTERN EUROPE.

THE TRUMAN DOCTRINE FOR THE WORLD WILL HAVE TO BE DEVELOPED SLOWLY AND ON MANY FRONTS, IN THE OPINION OF STATE DEPARTMENT AUTHORITIES. IT SEEMS LIKELY THAT LATER THIS SESSION MR.TRUMAN MAY ASK CONGRESS FOR AN APPROPRIATION--RUNNING INTO TENS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS--TO FINANCE STUDIES OF RELATIVELY UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS OF ASIA, AFRICA AND OTHER REGIONS.

HE MAY ALSO PROPOSE LEGISLATION AUTHORIZING THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT TO WORK THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS AND DIRECTLY WITH OTHER COUNTRIES TO A GREATER EXTENT THAN IT HAS HERETOFORE TO PROMOTE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENTS ABROAD.

AT THE MOMENT, HOWEVER, ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS EVIDENTLY DO NOT EXPECT THAT ANY SIZEABLE DEMANDS WILL GO FROM THE WHITE HOUSE TO CONGRESS FOR GUARANTEES TO STIMULATE A GREAT OUTPOURING OF PRIVATE CAPITAL.

MD524AES

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-DEAN ACHESON DISCLOSED TODAY HE TOOK THE POSITION MONTHS AGO THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT ALONE CANNOT MEET ALL FOREIGN DEMANDS FOR CAPITAL.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE REFERRED TO THIS IN TELLING HIS NEWS CONFERENCE THAT PRIVATE INVESTMENTS MUST PLAY A MAJOR ROLE IN CARRYING OUT MR.TRUMAN'S "BOLD NEW PROGRAM" OF HELPING DEVELOP BACKWARD AREAS.

WITH THIS, ACHESON COUPLED THE ADVICE THAT U.S. INVESTORS WILL NOT RISK THEIR MONEY ABROAD UNLESS CONDITIONS ARE FAVORABLE.

ACHESON SAID HE DISCUSSED THE PROBLEM IN AN INTRODUCTION TO A BOOK SPONSORED BY THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN RELATIONS, "THE UNITED STATES IN WORLD AFFAIRS 1947-48." THE BOOK, BY JOHN C.CAMPBELL, WAS PUBLISHED LAST OCTOBER BY HARPER BROTHERS.

SPEAKING OF DEMANDS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD FOR SPEEDY INDUSTRIALIZATION, ACHESON WROTE IN HIS INTRODUCTION:

"TO SOME EXTENT THIS CRY FOR DEVELOPMENT RESTS UPON A BELIEF THAT HERE LIES A MAGIC WHICH CAN SUPERSEDE THE SLOWER PROCESSES OF TRADE, TRAINING AND SAVING. BUT, ASIDE FROM THIS, IN NEARLY ALL THESE AREAS, THERE IS INSISTENCE BOTH THAT FOREIGN AID IS NECESSARY AND THAT IT WILL BE RECEIVED UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH MAKE PRIVATE OWNERS OF CAPITAL HESITANT.

"THE PRESSURE IS FOR ADVANCES FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES. THESE IN CONSIDERABLE MEASURE HAVE BEEN FORTHCOMING AND MAY CONTINUE TO BE. BUT THE HOPE THAT THE DESIRES OF THESE COUNTRIES WILL BE MET IN THIS WAY ALONE AND IN SUFFICIENT MEASURE CANNOT BE FULFILLED."

THEIR OWN FUTURE, AS WELL AS CHINA'S FATE, HANGS IN THE BALANCE.

AMBASSADOR WELLINGTON KOO AND THE STAFFS OF CHINA'S EMBASSY, CONSULATES AND SPECIAL MISSIONS IN THE UNITED STATES STILL ARE BEING PAID BY THE SHAKY NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT.

WHILE DR.C.M.CHEN, EMBASSY COUNSELOR, TOLD A REPORTER "WE ARE CARRYING ON AS USUAL AND NO CHANGES ARE ANTICIPATED," SOME CHINESE POINTED OUT PRIVATELY THAT THE FALL OF THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT WOULD LEAVE THEM THIS PAINFUL CHOICE: RETURN TO UNCERTAINTY AT HOME OR ACCEPT THE UNHAPPY LOT OF THE EXILE.

WITH NANKING SEEKING PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS AND THE NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT FLEEING TO CANTON THEY HAVE NO ASSURANCES FOR THE FUTURE.

KOO'S STAFF NOW NUMBERS 32, ASIDE FROM CLERKS AND DEPENDENTS. THERE ARE IN ADDITION SPECIAL MILITARY, NAVAL, AIR AND PURCHASING MISSIONS, THE CHINESE DELEGATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN NINE AMERICAN CITIES. WASHINGTON - XXX CONCERN

CHINESE AND AMERICAN OFFICIALS SAID THERE IS NO EXACT TOTAL AVAILABLE, BUT THEY CALCULATED AT LEAST 500 PERSONS IN THIS COUNTRY ARE DIRECTLY DEPENDENT ON GENERALISSIMO CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S REGIME FOR THEIR CAREERS.

CHINESE OFFICIALS ARE SAID TO BE SURE THAT UNDER A COMMUNIST REGIME THEY COULD NOT HOPE TO KEEP OFFICIAL POSTS LONGER THAN A FEW MONTHS.

CHINA'S OFFICIAL REPRESENTATIVES HERE WERE VIRTUALLY STRANDED ONCE BEFORE. IN THE LATE '20S, WHEN CHIANG AND HIS NATIONALISTS WERE ON THE MARCH NORTHWARD TO TAKE OVER AN EARLIER, TOTTERING, NANKING GOVERNMENT, THE LEGATION'S FUNDS RAN OUT, LEAVING CHINA'S AFFAIRS IN THIS COUNTRY IN THE HANDS OF ONLY TWO MEN.

THIS TIME THERE APPEARS FAR LESS CHANCE OF A CRITICAL DOLLAR SHORTAGE FOR PAYING ACTUAL OPERATING EXPENSES.

THE BANK OF CHINA, A NANKING GOVERNMENT INSTITUTION WITH BRANCHES IN NEW YORK AND SAN FRANCISCO, IS CREDITED WITH SUBSTANTIAL RESOURCES.

CHINA ALSO HAS FAIRLY LARGE REAL ESTATE HOLDINGS IN THE CAPITAL, INCLUDING THE HISTORIC "TWIN OAKS" ESTATE OCCUPIED BY AMBASSADOR KOO, A MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE CHANCERY AND AN ANNEX.

THE BANK OF CHINA, OFFICIALS SAID, HOLDS TITLE TO A HANDSOME PARKSIDE RESIDENCE WHICH MADAME CHIANG KAI-SHEK LIVED IN AFTER HER RECENT VISIT AT THE HOME OF THE THEN SECRETARY OF STATE AND MRS. MARSHALL.

BUT ALL THIS GIVES ONLY SLIGHT REASSURANCE TO INDIVIDUAL OFFICIALS. SOME--MOSTLY DIPLOMATS--ALREADY HAVE BEEN PINCHED BY AN ECONOMY WAVE WHICH STARTED LAST FALL. THE MILITARY, NAVAL AND AIR STAFFS DRAW THEIR SALARIES AND EXPENSES FROM THE DEFENSE MINISTRY AND WERE NOT AFFECTED.

CHINA MAINTAINS CONSULATES IN NEW YORK, SAN FRANCISCO, CHICAGO, NEW ORLEANS, BOSTON, LOS ANGELES, HONOLULU, HOUSTON AND SEATTLE. THE U.N. STAFF HEADED BY T.F.TSIANG NUMBERS ABOUT 50 INCLUDING CLERKS, OFFICIALS SAID.

OTHER AGENCIES WHOSE FATE IS TIED UP WITH THAT OF NANKING INCLUDE THE BANKS OF CHINA AND CANTON, THE CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY AND THE UNIVERSAL TRADING COMPANY, WITH HEADQUARTERS IN NEW YORK.

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON SAID TODAY THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE IS THE BEST WAY TO PROTECT THE COMMON HERITAGE AND FREEDOM OF THE COUNTRIES JOINING IN IT.

AT HIS FIRST NEWS CONFERENCE SINCE HE TOOK OFFICE, ACHESON ADDED THAT THE SECURITY OF THIS COUNTRY IS "VITALLY AFFECTED BY THE SECURITY OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA."

THE UNITED STATES CURRENTLY IS NEGOTIATING WITH CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG TO SET UP A NORTH ATLANTIC PACT BACKED BY AMERICAN ARMS AND MILITARY ADVICE.

IN A STATEMENT READ TO REPORTERS, ACHESON SAID:

"WE NORTH ATLANTIC PEOPLES SHARE A COMMON FAITH IN FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS, IN THE DIGNITY AND WORTH OF THE HUMAN PERSON, IN THE PRINCIPLES OF DEMOCRACY, PERSONAL FREEDOM AND POLITICAL LIBERTY."

ACHESON SAID THE NORTH ATLANTIC COUNTRIES BELIEVE IN "RULE OF LAW" AMONG NATIONS AS AMONG MEN AND WANT TO HELP THE UNITED NATIONS TO MAINTAIN PEACE. HE ADDED:

"WE BELIEVE THAT THESE PRINCIPLES AND THIS COMMON HERITAGE CAN BEST BE FORTIFIED AND PRESERVED AND THE GENERAL WELFARE OF THE PEOPLE OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC AREA ADVANCED BY AN ARRANGEMENT FOR COOPERATION IN MATTERS AFFECTING THEIR PEACE AND SECURITY AND COMMON INTEREST."

ACHESON RECALLED, IN ANSWERING QUESTIONS, THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD PROMISED "MILITARY ADVICE AND EQUIPMENT TO FREE NATIONS WHICH WILL COOPERATE WITH US IN MAINTENANCE OF PEACE AND SECURITY."

HE GAVE THIS ANSWER WHEN ASKED ABOUT REPORTS THAT THE U.S. WOULD REFUSE ARMS AND SUPPLIES TO NEUTRAL COUNTRIES WHICH REFUSE TO ENTER COLLECTIVE DEFENSE ARRANGEMENTS WITH THIS COUNTRY.

JAN 1949

HE SAID WHAT HE LIKED ABOUT POINT FOUR OF THE PRESIDENT'S INAUGURATION ADDRESS WAS THAT IT PROPOSED USING A MATERIAL MEANS FOR A NON-MATERIAL END--THAT IS, RAISING LIVING STANDARDS IN ORDER TO PROMOTE POLITICAL IMPROVEMENTS AND GREATER LIBERTY.

ACHESON SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD NOT SENT ANY OFFICIAL NOTE TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS INVITING THEM TO POOL SKILLS WITH THE UNITED STATES FOR THE PURPOSE OF BUILDING UP UNDERDEVELOPED AREAS. BUT HE REMARKED THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS NO MONOPOLY ON SUCH SKILLS AND HOPES TO USE THEM IN COOPERATION WITH MANY OTHER COUNTRIES AND THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS. WASHN-XXX INDIVIDUAL.

THE EMPHASIS IN MUCH OF WHAT HE SAID WAS THAT IF OTHER COUNTRIES WANT AMERICAN HELP IN SURVEYING THEIR INDUSTRIAL POSSIBILITIES AND IN ATTRACTING PRIVATE CAPITAL INVESTMENTS, THEY MUST BE WILLING TO CREATE THE CONDITIONS "BY WHICH INVESTORS MAY FAIRLY PUT THEIR MONEY" IN SUCH ENTERPRISES.

AT ONE POINT, HE USED THE PHRASE, "IT'S A TWO-WAY STREET."

ASKED WHETHER THE NEW ECONOMIC PROGRAM INCLUDES SPAIN, ACHESON REPLIED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW WHAT COUNTRIES IT INCLUDES.

TO A QUESTION WHETHER IT MIGHT BE LIMITED TO MEMBERS OF THE UNITED NATIONS, HE REPLIED:

"I DO NOT WANT TO GIVE ANY IMPRESSION THAT THERE ARE ANY LIMITATIONS ON THIS OR ANYTHING NARROW ABOUT IT."

HE DID STATE FLATLY, HOWEVER, THAT WHAT CAN BE DONE IN ANY AREA DEPENDS ON THE DEGREE OF COOPERATION WHICH THE PEOPLE AND GOVERNMENT OF THAT AREA MAY GIVE.

IN RESPONSE TO AN INQUIRY, HE SAID THAT OBVIOUSLY INDIA WAS ONE OF THOSE REGIONS IN WHICH FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS OF THE KIND THE PRESIDENT HAD IN MIND WOULD BE POSSIBLE."

WAR STOCKPILE (300)

WASHINGTON, JAN.26-(AP)-A SPEEDUP OF THE GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM OF STOCKPILING WAR MATERIALS MAY CAUSE A SCARCITY IN SOME CIVILIAN PRODUCTS.

THE MUNITIONS BOARD OFFERED THAT WARNING AS IT ANNOUNCED THE INCREASED SPENDING YESTERDAY. IT SAID THE GOVERNMENT IS JUST TRYING TO CATCH UP ON ITS LAGGING $3,700,000,000 (B) LAYAWAY PROGRAM.

A HIGH OFFICIAL WHO DECLINED TO BE QUOTED BY NAME SAID IT DID NOT MEAN ANY NEW THREAT OF WAR.

THE LIST COVERS 68 CRITICAL ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE U.S. WAR CHEST. THEY INCLUDE LEAD, COPPER, ZINC, PEPPER, RUBBER, INDUSTRIAL RUBBER, SISAL, MANGANESE, AND CHROME.

THE HEAVY BUYING IN LEAD, COPPER AND ZINC MAY CAUSE SOME TEMPORARY DOMESTIC SHORTAGE, THE BOARD SAID, BUT IT WOULD NOT BE FELT "TOO BADLY."

THESE ITEMS WILL BE OBTAINED THROUGH A VOLUNTARY QUOTA ARRANGEMENT WITH PRODUCERS.

SOME MATERIALS SUCH AS RUBBER, INDUSTRIAL DIAMONDS AND SISAL HAVE BEEN DELIVERED OR CONTRACTED FOR FROM MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES COOPERATING WITH THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION. THE TOTAL RUNS TO ABOUT $25,000,000.

MANGANESE, COPPER, LEAD, ZINC, CHROME AND RUBBER MAY BE OBTAINED FROM COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE MARSHALL PLAN GROUP. MANGANESE AND CHROME ARE BEING BROUGHT IN RUSSIA AND OTHER EUROPEAN AND ASIATIC COUNTRIES. YUGOSLAVIA MAY HELP WITH COPPER AND LEAD.

THE PROGRAM SHOULD BE COMPLETED BY MID-1952, OR ONE YEAR LONGER THAN PLANNED, OFFICIALS SAID. HALF OF THE MATERIALS ON THE 1948-1949 LIST HAVE BEEN BOUGHT OR CONTRACTED FOR AT A COST OF $1,000,000,000.

CHAIRMAN DONALD F. CARPENTER SAID THE MUNITIONS BOARD HAS NOT TRIED IN THE PAST TO COMPETE WITH CIVILIANS FOR MATERIALS BADLY NEEDED FOR RECONVERSION.

JAN 1949

BUT HE SAID IT IS NOW FELT THAT THE RECONVERSION PERIOD IS OVER, AND THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD GET ALONG WITH ITS STOCKPILING PROGRAM SO THAT CRITICAL MATERIALS WOULD BE IN HAND "SHOULD THERE BE A NATIONAL EMERGENCY."

ALSO, INDUSTRY ITSELF HAS BEEN SLOW TO PROVIDE NEEDED MATERIALS. BUT HINTS THAT COMPULSORY LEGISLATION WAS BEING PLANNED, CARPENTER SAID, BROUGHT SEVERAL VOLUNTARY QUOTA OFFERS. HE SAID HE HOPED THAT THESE OFFERS MAY EXPAND TO SEVERAL OTHER INDUSTRIES.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 26-(AP)-TRYGVE LIE DISCLOSED TODAY U.N. ECONOMISTS HAVE BEGUN TALKS WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT ON PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM TO AID BACKWARD COUNTRIES.

THE U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL MADE IT CLEAR HE WAS ELATED OVER THE PRESIDENT'S PROMISE TO HANDLE THIS PROGRAM THROUGH THE WORLD ORGANIZATION "WHENEVER PRACTICAL."

HE ALSO INDICATED THE U.N. WAS LOSING NO TIME IN FOLLOWING UP MR. TRUMAN'S INAUGURAL DECLARATION. THE TALKS WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT SO FAR HAVE BEEN LARGELY OF AN EXPLORATORY NATURE. U.N. OFFICIALS EMPHASIZE THEY ARE READY TO COOPERATE IN WORKING OUT A PROGRAM.

LIE HAS SET UP WHAT HE CALLS A "TASK FORCE" TO SEE WHAT CAN BE DONE TO PUSH THE PROGRAM ALREADY UNDER WAY IN THE U.N. FOR GIVING TECHNICAL HELP TO UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HAS SET ASIDE $288,000 FOR THIS.

DAVID OWEN, ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL IN CHARGE OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS, HEADS THE GROUP PICKED BY LIE TO MAINTAIN LIAISON WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT.

"THERE CAN BE NO QUESTION," OWEN SAID, "THAT THE PROVISION OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO THE ECONOMICALLY UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES OFFERS ONE OF THE MOST PROMISING AND FRUITFUL FIELDS FOR FUTURE INTERNATIONAL ACTION."

LIE, REFERRING TO MR. TRUMAN'S FREQUENT MENTION OF THE U.N. AND ITS SPECIALIZED AGENCIES, SAID:

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 26-(AP)-TALKS NOW ARE IN PROGRESS BETWEEN U.N. ECONOMISTS AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT ON THE IMPLICATIONS OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM TO AID BACKWARD COUNTRIES.

THE DISCLOSURE WAS MADE TODAY BY DAVID OWEN, ASSISTANT SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE U.N. IN CHARGE OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS. HE SPOKE AT THE WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE HELD BY SECRETARY-GENERAL TRYGVE LIE.

LIE SAID HE WAS MOST HAPPY THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD ANNOUNCED PLANS TO WORK THROUGH THE U.N. AND ITS SPECIALIZED AGENCIES IN PROVIDING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRIES.

LIE ANNOUNCED HE HAD ESTABLISHED A "TASK FORCE" HEADED BY OWEN TO SEE WHAT COULD BE DONE TO ACCELERATE THE U.N. PROGRAM.

OWEN WILL BE ASSISTED BY DAVID WEINTRAUB AND ANSGAR ROSENBORG, TWO OF THE TOP U.N. ECONOMISTS.

OWEN SAID IT WAS "TOO EARLY TO KNOW THE PRECISE NATURE" OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM BUT ADDED:

"CONVERSATIONS ARE NOW GOING ON BETWEEN THE U.N. AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO CONSIDER WHAT THE POSSIBILITIES ARE."

(ADVANCE)..(WX) LOS ANGELES,JAN.26-(AP)-ERIC JOHNSTON TONIGHT PROPOSED A WORLD-WIDE INDUSTRIALIZATION PROGRAM TO CARRY OUT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PLAN FOR UNITED STATES AID TO UNDERDEVELOPED NATIONS.

JOHNSTON SUGGESTED THAT AMERICAN CAPITAL AND TECHNIQUE SHOULD TEAM UP IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE MANPOWER AND CAPITAL OF OTHER COUNTRIES TO FORM A WORLD ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION.

HE PROPOSED THAT SUCH A CORPORATION BE BACKED BY A GOVERNMENT FUND OF $1,000,000,000 (B) TO GUARANTEE AMERICAN INVESTORS AGAINST LOSS THROUGH ANY NATIONALIZATION OR CONFISCATION OF INDUSTRY. THE FUND WOULD NOT INSURE AGAINST NORMAL BUSINESS RISKS.

JOHNSON, PRESIDENT OF THE MOTION PICTURE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, OUTLINED HIS VIEWS IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR THE LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

HE SAID AN INDUSTRIALIZATION PROGRAM SIMILAR TO HIS SUGGESTION ALREADY IS WORKING IN SOME AREAS OF LATIN AMERICA. HE ADDED:

"WHAT I AM ADVOCATING IS NOT ONLY TO THE BENEFIT OF THE FREE DEMOCRATIC WORLD, BUT IS ALSO VITAL TO OUR ECONOMIC FUTURE AS A WORLD LEADER.

"THIS PROGRAM IS PARTNERSHIP AND NOT IMPERIALISM; IT IS COOPERATION AND NOT EXPLOITATION. IT IS THE 20TH CENTURY, DEMOCRATIC WAY OF RAISING THE LIVING STANDARDS OF PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.

"EVER SINCE THE WAR WE HAVE BEEN POURING OUT BILLIONS FOR RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION. THIS HAS BEEN NECESSARY, BUT WE ALL RECOGNIZE THAT IT IS TEMPORARY. WE CAN'T PURSUE THIS POLICY FOREVER. OUR RESOURCES ARE NOT INEXHAUSTIBLE. X X X

"WHAT WE NEED NOW IS A PERMANENT PROGRAM OF WORLD INDUSTRIALIZATION TO CREATE NEW WEALTH FOR A GREATER SHARING BY THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING OURSELVES; TO CREATE NEW JOBS; TO STIMULATE NEW TRADE AMONG NATIONS; AND TO ENABLE OTHER COUNTRIES NOT ONLY TO REGAIN THEIR FEET BUT TO MARCH STEADILY FORWARD."

JOHNSTON SAID THAT "IF WE EXPECT OTHER NATIONS TO BUY FROM US, THEY MUST HAVE MEANS TO BUY. INDUSTRIALIZED NATIONS ARE ALWAYS THE BEST CUSTOMERS OF ANY NATION."

HE SAID THAT WHILE ALL WORLD AREAS NEED SUCH INDUSTRIALIZATION, HE FEELS THE GREATEST IMMEDIATE NEEDS ARE IN SOUTH AMERICAN, THE MIDDLE EAST AND ASIA.

WASHINGTON,JAN.26-(AP)-REPRESENTATIVES OF 48 NATIONS GATHERED TODAY IN A CONFERENCE TO DRAFT PLANS FOR MAKING SURE THE WORLD GETS PLENTY OF WHEAT AT PRICES FAIR TO CONSUMERS AND FARMERS ALIKE.

HERE FOR THE FIRST SESSION (2 P.M. EST) ARE SPOKESMEN FOR THE WORLD'S FIVE MAJOR WHEAT-SELLING NATIONS--THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, ARGENTINA, AUSTRALIA AND SOVIET RUSSIA--AND MOST OF THE WHEAT-BUYING COUNTRIES.

THE CONFERENCE GOAL IS THE WRITING OF A NEW INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT AIMED PRINCIPALLY AT (1) ASSURING IMPORTING NATIONS A DEPENDABLE SUPPLY AT ALL TIMES; (2) DIVIDING THE WORLD MARKET FAIRLY AMONG EXPORTING COUNTRIES, AND (3) STABILIZING PRICES.

DELEGATES GATHERED AMIDST SPECULATION THAT IT MAY BE VERY DIFFICULT FOR THE CONFERENCE TO GET TOGETHER ON THE MATTER OF PRICES. THIS SPECULATION GREW OUT OF THE FACT THAT WORLD GRAIN SUPPLIES ARE IMPROVING AND PRICES ARE ON THE DOWNTREND FROM WARTIME PEAKS.

A SIMILAR AGREEMENT WAS NEGOTIATED LAST YEAR, WITH 39 NATIONS PARTICIPATING. BUT IT WAS NEVER PUT INTO EFFECT BECAUSE THE UNITED STATES--THE LARGEST WHEAT EXPORTER--DID NOT RATIFY IT.

THE AGREEMENT WAS SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE FOR APPROVAL AS A TREATY. BUT IT WAS PIGEONHOLED BY THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE IN THE REPUBLICAN 80TH CONGRESS.

SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN WILL HEAD A UNITED STATES DELEGATION OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND GRAIN EXPERTS. HE HAS SAID SUCH AN AGREEMENT IS ESSENTIAL IF THIS COUNTRY IS TO HOLD ITS SHARE OF THE WORLD MARKET.

OTHERWISE, HE SAID, IT WOULD BE NECESSARY TO CURTAIL WHEAT PRODUCTION SHARPLY FROM WARTIME AND POSTWAR LEVELS.

THE PREVIOUS AGREEMENT ASSURED THIS COUNTRY A MINIMUM FOREIGN MARKET FOR 185,000,000 BUSHELS ANNUALLY. THIS COMPARES WITH AN AVERAGE OF ABOUT 50,000,000 BUSHELS IN THE THIRTIES.

SPONSORS SAY A SUCCESSFUL WHEAT AGREEMENT COULD SET THE PATTERN FOR STABILIZING WORLD PRICES AND SUPPLIES OF OTHER FARM PRODUCTS MOVING EXTENSIVELY IN FOREIGN TRADE.

THE BIGGEST BARRIER TO A NEW AGREEMENT MAY BE EFFORTS OF WHEAT-EXPORTING COUNTRIES TO GET THE CONFERENCE TO ADOPT A SCHEDULE OF MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM PRICES WRITTEN INTO LAST YEAR'S AGREEMENT.

THAT SCHEDULE PROVIDED A MAXIMUM PRICE OF ABOUT $2.11 A BUSHEL FOR NO. 1 HARD WINTER WHEAT AT GULF PORTS, AND A MINIMUM OF ABOUT $1.61 FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF THE AGREEMENT. BOTH THE MAXIMUM AND MINIMUM PRICES WOULD HAVE DECLINED 10 CENTS A BUSHEL EACH SUCCEEDING YEAR OF THE FIVE-YEAR AGREEMENT.

NOW THAT WHEAT PRICES ARE ABOUT 30 PER CENT LOWER THAN WHEN THE OTHER AGREEMENT WAS DRAFTED, IMPORTING COUNTRIES MAY NOT WANT TO TIE THEMSELVES UP TO THE OLD SCHEDULE.

Li Said To Ask Communists To Name Negotiators At Once

Nanking, Friday, Jan. 28 (AP)—Well-informed sources said Acting President Li Tsung-jen today sent a direct appeal to Mao Tze-tung, Communist leader, to name peace negotiators at once.

These sources said there were no further details available immediately.

Li's appeal came at a moment when it began to appear a Chinese Government effort to make a surrender deal had broken down.

The apparent stalemate, with the Communists drawing ever nearer to Nanking, had turned the flight from this capital into a panic.

Informants said Li told Mao both the nationalists and the communists had been working for a "peoples' revolution" as envisioned by Dr. Sun Yat-sen, founder of the Chinese Republic.

They said an unofficial translation of Li's message continued:

"If we think that the revolution's aim is for the peoples' progress. . . then regardless of political differences under no circumstances should there be a continuance of war and the killings added to the peoples' sufferings.

"Both sides should abide by the peoples' wishes, find a political means to settle the dispute and take no further steps which will multiply our crimes a hundred times.

"What the whole country wanted, such as releasing political prisoners and restoring freedom to the press and people, has all been carried out without pretense.

(These measures were taken Wednesday).

"I hope you will confer with comrades and speedily plan for peace talks and appoint representatives to a designated place and start negotitaions. . . If we can meet in sincerity together I am sure we can reach an agreement."

Reds' Terms Severe

Li reiterated he had accepted as a basis for negotiations the eight points made by Mao as conditions for peace talks.

These include the trial of Chiang and other government leaders—including Li—as "war criminals," the uprooting of the present constitution and cancellation of treaties with the U. S. and other powers.

In reply to Red charges that the government's peace moves were an intrigue with a certain other country," meaning the United States, Li said:

"This point of view may arise from your personal observation. Since the war of resistance (with Japan) I have advocated a policy of friendliness in foreign affairs."

Li said China wanted to cooperate now and in the fuutre "with those who aid our country toward peace and reconstruction."

The communist radio Wednesday accused Li of stalling. It asked him to show his sincerity by "detaining" government leaders branded by the Reds as "war criminals." The Reds promised to take Li off the list if he complied.

Li made no mention of this in his message. He has, however, been reported opposing the movement of the government to Canton. This move is being pressed by Chiang's friends in the cabinet.

It was learned reliably, however, that J. Leighton Stuart, United States Ambassador, would stay in this Communist-menaced capital, on instructions from Washington.

A Diplomatic Reverse

Only a small party led by Minister Lewis Clark is due to join the Government in its transfer to Canton. (The Government has reported it expects to be functioning in Canton by February 5.)

All other diplomatic missions except the Soviet bloc are expected to follow the American example.

Reflecting the personal convictions of diplomats that the Government no longer represents the Chinese people, their decision to stay in N... is a profound diplomatic reverse for the Government.

Some Marines To Leave

In Shanghai the commander of the United States Western Pacific Fleet said some Marines soon would be withdrawn from China, but emphasized that enough would remain to meet any emergency.

Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger told a news conference the present numbers (about 3,000 at Tsingtao and 600 at Shanghai) were more than needed. The Admiral also confirmed previous reports that the Marines at Tsingtao "to some degree" were being withdrawn from shore billets to shipboard. He said navy port facilities in Shanghai also would be drastically reduced.

To Protect Americans

Badger reiterated that navy policy still was to maintain sufficient forces in China to protect Americans and—"in so far as able"—other foreigners.

Asked what he would do if a Communist government took control and demanded withdrawal of United States forces, Badger replied, "I'd probably withdraw them." He quickly amend... this by saying such a decision ...uld rest with the United States Government and "I'd do what my Government told me to do."

In Nanking, Chang Chih-chung, a leader of the Government's peace delegation, announced he was flying to Lanchow in the far northwest to discharge his official duties as commander there "during the lull in peace negotiations"

Insincerity Charged

Premier Sun Fo and Wu Te-chen, Foreign Minister, flew to Shanghai, ostensibly to seek the peace support of non-Government leaders.

Gen. Teng Wen-yi, official military spokesman, charged the Communists with "insincerity" about peace and told a news conference the Government was "fully prepared to resist any attack on the Yangtze cities."

This only enhanced the panicky exodus from Nanking. Streets were jammed with all sorts of conveyances headed for the railway station leading to Shanghai.

Soldiers Commandeer Train

Thousands stood scant chance of escaping, for rail congestion was so great that dozens of trains were reported stranded all along the 193-mile line to Shanghai. Some travelers who arrived from Shanghai said the trip took 48 hours.

The first group of departing Foreign Office workers was reported kicked out at Chinkiang, 42 miles east of Nanking, by soldiers who commandeered the train for their own flight.

Hearing this, hundreds of other Government employés were afraid to start, but were equally afraid to stay.

Latest military reports in Nanking said the Communist armies were deploying just north of the Yangtze from points 60 miles southwest to 35 miles northeast of Nanking.

Puts Force At 300,000

The Communists were said not to have appeared in strength on the north bank, and apparently had paused 3 or 4 miles short of Pukow, the north-bank railhead for Nanking.

The Government military spokesman insisted the Government had 300,000 troops in the Yangtze area, compared with 200,000 for the Communists. He added that the Nationalists had strong air and naval forces to prevent the Communists crossing the river.

This contrasted with word of other military leaders that only token resistance would be offered, plus obvious indications that the Government's best forces were headed south.

Air force sources said their planes no longer were patrolling the Yangtze and most had long since flown south.

30,000 Move Into Shaighai

[Approximately 30,000 Government troops moved into Shanghai, most of them from the north.

[They settled down in the western section of Shanghai and began roaming the streets.

[There was no explanation for the arrival of this large number. It was thought, however, they are part of a general movement southward toward Canton or Formosa.

[No preparations had been made for so many. They simply took over the Matchashed district on the western edge of Shanghai.

[Their commander apologized to Shanghai citizens who were discommoded, but explained no barracks had been provided.] #

Dissension Seen In Li's China Government

Nanking, Jan. 27 (AP)—Prospects of peace in China dimmed today as both Nationalists and Communists accused each other of stalling.

The Nationalists were reported reliably to be bolstering a new defense line below the Yangtze Valley.

The great commercial city of Shanghai and Nanking would be sacrificed, this source said, so that National troops, likely back under Chiang Kai-shek's wing, could fight on.

Li, Cabinet Split On Move

Added to the general confusion were indications of dissension in the Government of Acting President Li Tsung-jen. He assertedly wanted to keep the Government here. But the Cabinet, which he may not be able to control, has ordered it moved to Canton.

It was learned reliably that the United States Department of State had instructed Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart to remain in Nanking, sending only a small party headed by Minister Lewis Clark to Canton with the Government.

Others Await U.S. Cue

This policy was expected to have a decided effect on the majority of other Western power diplomats. They obviously were waiting on their cue from the United States before determining whether to move their entire missions to Canton.

A Government spokesman called on the Communists to show their sincerity by naming peace negotiators.

The Communist radio, in turn, called on Li to show his sincerity by arresting Chiang and other Kuomintang leaders named by the Reds as war criminals.

Liu Already In Peiping

Liu Chung-hua, Li's special representative, is in Peiping, reportedly drafting plans for negotiations.

Also working in the Peiping background in an attempt at a nationwide settlement are Prof. Chang Tung-sun, secretary of the Democratic League, and Gen. Teng Pao-shan.

There were separate local peace moves afoot in Shanghai and Nanking.

Soong Is Relieved

Gen. Hsueh Yueh today took over the governorship of Kwangtung province, of which Canton is the capital. He relieved T. V. Soong, rich brother-in-law of Chiang Kai-shek, who resigned and reportedly plans a trip to the United States.

There was little fighting anywhere today. One report said the Communists might shell the northern section of Nanking soon, but no shells had landed there.

In the South, behind the Nationalists' new defense line stretching from Hangchow southward to Nanchang and thence northwestward to Wuchang, lay a much larger portion of China than Chiang Kai-shek held at the end of the war with Japan.

Troops Take Official Train

Reports reached Nanking that the first train evacuating Foreign Office officials and their families was stopped at Chinkiang, a short distance from Nanking, by soldiers who took over the train for themselves, leaving the Chinese officials stranded on the platform.

The report caused other Chinese officials here to hesitate.

Traffic around Nanking stations today was paralyzed by mobs jamming the stations and trying to leave the city.

Reports Contradicted

In Nanking, Government Spokesman Gen. Teng Wen-yin contradicted reports of a new southern defense line by saying the Nationalists were "fully prepared to resist any attack on Yangtze River cities."

His statement conflicted with the word of other Chinese leaders that only a token resistance would be offered along the Yangtze.

Stronger Force Claimed

Teng asserted that the Government had 300,000 troops, a military superiority along the Yangtze, which some 100,000 Red troops have reached or are approaching at various points. He added that strong air and naval support was available to the National troops.

The Air Force said its planes were not flying over the Yangtze area, although there are about 50 fighters still available at the Nanking airport.

Artillery Fire Heard

The sound of light artillery fire was audible here this morning, but observers along the river front said it did not come from the north river banks.

Forces of Red Gen. Chen Yi were deploying along the Yangtze from an area north of the river opposite Wuhu to Icheng, 35 miles east of Nanking.

Reports reaching here said that approximately two brigades moving down the railroad toward Pukow in reconnaissance apparently halted before contacting Nationalist troops outside Pukow.

Could Control Link

At Icheng, which is the narrowest point on the Yangtze between Nanking and Shanghai, Communist field artillery on the north bank could control the river, railroad and highway links between the two cities.

The Government authorized seven delegates from the local Peace Promotion Association to fly to Peiping to attend peace talks with the Communists. The delegates, composed largely of university professors, will carry no authority to negotiate on behalf of the Government. They expect to leave within two days.

Some Marines To Be Kept In China

FRED HAMPSON

Shanghai, Jan. 27 (AP)—Vice Admiral Oscar C. Badger, United States Western Pacific commander, said today some Marines soon would be withdrawn from China but emphasized enough would be retained to meet any emergency.

He said the present number in China (about 3,000 at Tsingtao and 600 at Shanghai) were more than are needed.

Badger said the Tsingtao Marines "to some extent" are now being withdrawn from shore billets and placed on floating billets. He added, "It is foolish to maintain that many aboard ship. Those we don't need would be better off at Guam and other shore bases."

The Admiral did not say how much the Marine force in China would be reduced or whether the reduction would affect the 600 being kept aboard ship at Shanghai.

Sovereignty Question

He said the question of sovereignty also was being considered in moving the Marines from shore to ship billets. He pointed out that Marines afloat, under international law, do not infringe on the sovereignty of the host nation.

Admiral Badger emphasized, however, there had been no change in the Navy policy to maintain sufficient forces in China to serve as a "safeguard against uncontrolled violence, to afford protection to United States' nationals and in so far as they are able to the nationals of other foreign countries."

He said that United States Navy and Marine forces are taking no part in the Chinese civil war and would rigidly continue to follow a hands-off policy.

"I'd Withdraw"

Badger's attention was called to Chinese Communist charges of infringement of China's sovereignty by the United States forces at Tsingtao and elsewhere and was asked, "If the Communist Government took control of China and demanded withdrawal of our forces, what would you do?"

The Admiral snapped, "I'd probably withdraw them." But he quickly qualified his statement by saying that such a decision would rest with "my Government. I'd do what my Government told me to do."

He also amended his answer to say his decision also would be governed by the need of forces to safeguard against violence and to protect United States nationals.

Kidnapper of Chiang Expected In Shanghai

Shanghai, Friday, Jan. 28 (AP)—Friends of "Young Marshal" Chang Hsueh-liang said today this soldier who kidnapped Chiang Kai-shek in 1936, is expected to arrive here from imprisonment on Formosa within 48 hours.

Acting President Li Tsung-jen ordered his release earlier this week. He had been held in protective custody since the kidnapping, by which he tried to force Chiang to unite China to fight Japan.

Some sources hinted Chang even might be named as a peace delegate to confer with the Communists. He is the son of a former Manchurian warlord. A cousin of Chang is mayor of Communist-occupied Mukden.

Soviet Sees Long China Peace Talks

Moscow, Jan. 27 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Shanghai said today that peace talks in China might continue a long time.

The official Soviet news agency, in a lengthy commentary on the Chinese situation, said also that Chiang Kai-shek still has a hand in the Chinese Nationalist Government although his retirement from the presidency was announced last week.

Tass said that Chiang, before leaving for his ancestral home of Fengwha, designated a number of faithful followers to important Government posts.

"Temporary President"

"In circles personally connected with Chiang Kai-shek," Tass added, "it is being said he has not completely surrendered his duties and Li Tsung-jen is really only the temporary President."

Tass said the Chinese Government is moving from Nanking to Canton because Government armies are "running away" in front of the advances of "popular liberation forces."

The news agency said the "liberation forces" may seize Nanking, "while peace talks may continue a long time."

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—The State Department said today that the joint United States military advisory group is withdrawing from China because it is no longer able to perform its duties.

Michael McDermott, department press officer, said he did not know whether the mission actually had left China yet, but that it certainly was in process of doing so.

London Ponders Bevin's Future Despite Vote

London, Jan. 27 (AP)—Politicians and newspapers speculated generally today that Ernest Bevin's assignment as Foreign Secretary is under study at a Labor Cabinet inquest into his Palestine policy.

The Cabinet met this morning. Bevin was absent, but William Whiteley, the chief Government whip, was called in, possibly to report on the Labor revolt against Bevin in Parliament last night.

100 Laborites Abstain

The House indorsed Bevin's policy, but only by a margin of 90 votes, 283 to 193. The Labor Government has 393 seats, about 60 per cent of the 640 members.

Bevin's policy was approved after a sharp seven-hour debate. The vote was on a Conservative motion not to adjourn, and came after Prime Minister Attlee declared the question was one of "confidence in the Government."

Smallest Majority

The issue brought the first break in the previously solid Labor-Conservative lineup on international questions. The Government's majority wa sthe smallest on a major issue since it came into power in 1945.

Observers said 40 to 60 Labor members abstained. Another 50 to 70 were absent—but not necessarily because they were in opposition.

The pro-Government vote was entirely from Labor ranks. The Conservatives, Liberals and Liberal Nationals all were in opposition.

Israel Recognition Due

Closing the debate, Attlee told the House Britain "accepted in principle" the recognition of Israel, but was waiting until she has consulted the dominions and her Brussels allies.

Meanwhile, the Israeli Government appeared unlikely to change as a result of Tuesday's election of a 120-member constituent assembly. With about 60 per cent of the votes counted, the Labor party (Mapai) of Premier David Ben-Gurion was well ahead.

The religious bloc of orthodox parties was second, with thirteen per cent, and the Left-wing Labor party (Mapam) had twelve per cent.

Extremists Trailing

In fourth place was the Freedom Movement, the Right-wing party, which Menachem Begin forged out of Irgun Zvai Leumi, the underground striking force, which embittered many British. Communists were near the end of the parade, with 3.5 per cent.

The test on Bevin's policy followed criticism in the press and Parliament of the Government's sending troops to Aquaba, Trans-Jordan port near Israel, and the loss of five planes over the Israeli-Egyptian battle zone.

Winston Churchill accused Bevin of an "astounding mishandling" of the whole Middle Eastern problem. He demanded immediate recognition of Israeli.

Britain "Embarrassed"

Liberals, Conservatives and dissident Laborites accused the Foreign Secretary of embarrassing Britain before the world by throwing away Jewish friendship and wooing the Arabs to no avail.

Bevin retorted that he was "not going to be deterred an inch" from his policy, and said Britain would find it "very difficult to stand by indifferent and inactive" if the Jews and Arabs go to fighting again.

But, he said, "the state of Israel is now a fact" and Britain's recognition of the Jewish state might now contribute to Middle East peace.

Cairo Blames Jews 'If Talks Fail'

Cairo, Jan. 27 (AP)—Prime Minister Ibrahim Abdel Hadi Pasha was quoted today as saying if current Egyptian-Israeli talks at Rhodes fail it will not be the Egyptians' fault.

"Should they fail, the other side will be responsible," he told the magazine Mussawar.

"In such a case," he said, "the (United Nations) Security Council will have to decide what to do after this final experiment."

Talks To Resume

The Rhodes talks are scheduled to resume today. They were recessed Monday.

Hadi Pasha was quoted as saying that Egypt ordered a case-fire in respect to Security Council orders and entered negotiations with the Jews in compliance with Security Council decisions.

"Sanctions should be applied to the side which refuses to comply with Security Council decisions," he added.

In the same interview, the Premier was quoted as denying that Britain has supplied Egypt with war material.

Swiss Recognition Due

Bern, Switzerland, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Swiss Federal Council is expected to grand de facto recognition to Israel at a meeting tomorrow. Twenty-three nations have extended recognition to the Jewish state.

BARS TELLING ISRAEL POLICY

House Group Rejects Call on Acheson for Facts.

Washington, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—The House Foreign Affairs Committee and the State Department rejected tdoay a proposal for an airing of present United States views and policy toward Israel.

The committee turned down a resolution by Representative Jacob Javits (R.-N. Y.) which would have asked Secretary of State Acheson to answer seven questions, including these:

1. What does the department think now about continuing or lifting an embargo on arms shipments to Israel?

2. Has the United States asked Great Britain to explain the "recent presence of its military aircraft over the battle zone between Israeli and Egyptian forces on the border of Palestine and Egypt?"

Asks Department's Comment.

Javits's resolution was referred to the department for comment. The answer said that it would be inadvisable and unfortunate to go into such things at this time.

So, the committee voted today to send the resolution to the House floor with a recommendation that it be voted down. Chairman Sol Bloom said he planned to ask that this be done next Monday.

Javits also wanted to know:

1. What the department knows about whether Egypt or Trans-Jordan has invoked a mutual assistance treaty with Britain.

2. Whether this Government has asked the British to explain the movement, or proposed movement, of troops to the Trans-Jordan port of Aqaba, and the purposes of such a movement.

3. The department's opinion of whether the United Nations position on Palestine was infringed by Britain's sending planes over the fighting zone or troops to Aqaba.

4. What information the department has regarding British sales or shipment of arms to the Arab countries lined up against Israeli.

5. Whether, if theer were such shipments, they infringed upon U. N. efforts to solve the Palestinian situation.

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Truman declined to say today when the United States might grant full diplomatic recognition of Israel.

He told a news conference he would answer that question when he was ready to do so. He did not elaborate. Nor would he comment on prospects of recognition for the Arab state of Trans-Jordan.

Greek Rebels Broadcast New Peace Proposal

Demand End of Foreign Aid to Athens, Armistice and General Amnesty

LONDON, Jan. 27 (AP).—The radio of Greece's Communist guerrillas broadcast peace proposals today. It said the "government" of General Markos is ready to send representatives to Athens immediately if the Greek national government accepts the proposals.

The broadcast was heard in London by the Greek News Agency. It was repeated by Tanjug, the Yugoslav news agency.

The Communist rebels in Greece have made previous peace feelers. The latest one comes at a time when French and Italian Communist leaders are urging an end to the East-West cold war.

The rebels' broadcast was addressed to the Greek people, to soldiers, "to all honest officers of the Athens Government army and to all honest political factors in the country."

Lists Conditions

Vafiades's regime, the radio continued, wants 'speedy reestiblishment of peace." The broadcast listed these conditions:

1. "That all foreign military forces and foreign missions leave Greece. That all foreign intervention cease. That all treaties violating Greece's independence be annulled."

This abviously was aimed at American aid to Greece.

2. "That an armistice be declared immediately, (with) opposing armies to remain in their present positions."

The national Greek Government does not recognize Vafiades's regime and does not grant his forces the name of army. To Athens, the Communist guerrillas simply are rebels.

3. "That an unrestricted general amnesty for political prisoners be declared immediately."

4. "That all political and trade union freedoms be re-established and that real equality be guaranteed to national minorities."

5. "That negotiations be opened immediately with the aim of forming a government acceptable to both sides. And that the new government carry out the above proposals and hold general elections within two months for the people to decide whatever government and order they desire."

Notes Previous Rejection

Pointing out that the Athens Government rejected several peace offers last year, the broadcast said:

"This is folly on the part of the Athens Government, which carried out orders of Anglo-American imperialists which cost the lives of tens of thousands of its soldiers, while to the country it brought misery and bloodshed."

Charges have been made before the United Nations and by authorities in Athens that the Greek Communists are supported and encouraged by Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

5 Brussels Pact Ministers Meet In London

London, Jan. 27 (AP)—Foreign Ministers of the five-nation Brussels Alliance met here today.

Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin greeted the representatives of France, Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg in his office for the beginning of two days' consultation.

Communique Is Due

A Foreign Office spokesman said the only official word on the quarterly conference would come in a communiqué tomorrow night.

Reliable sources reported subjects to be discussed include the North Atlantic Pact, European unification, military co-operation and economic and financial affairs.

Bevin said in the House of Commons yesterday they also would talk over the possibility of British recognition of Israel.

B-29 MISSING WITH 15 MEN

Bomber On 3,000-Mile Hop From Africa To Britain

London, Jan. 27 (AP)—An American B-29 bomber with fifteen men aboard is missing on a 3,000-mile flight from Dakar, French West Africa, to its base in England, United States Air Force headquarters announced tonight.

Authorities said the plane "definitely is down somewhere." RAF and USAF planes were ordered into the search.

The B-29 left Dakar at 7.20 P.M. Wednesday and was due at Marham, England, its base, at 9.30 A.M. today, the Air Force said. It had a fuel supply for about twenty hours' flight, but would have exhausted this by mid-afternoon.

Message Unreadable

The last radioed report from the missing plane gave its position as 200 miles south of Casablanca, Morocco. The report gave no indication of trouble. Frankfurt flight control service later got a signal from the plane at 1 A.M., but could not read the transmission.

The crew of another B-29, which took off from Dakar and hour ahead of the missing plane, reported heavy weather between Africa and Spain after landing safely at Saint Eval, on the Cornish coast of England today.

A United States spokesman said B-29's stationed in England have been making the round trip to Africa "on regular training flights for the past month."

Headquarters of the 3d Division announced six B-29's would take off from Marham early tomorrow for Port Lyautey in the Azores to search for the craft.

British Battleship Due From Russia February 3

London, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Admiralty said tonight it had "found" its missing battleship Royal Sovereign. The man-o'-war was supposed to arrive here January 21 from Murmansk, Russia, but never showed up.

Today's announcement said the ship, one of those loaned to Russia in 1944, would arrive at Rosyth, Scotland, February 3 from Murmansk. The cause of the delay was not made public.

WEST'S BLOCKADE SLOWS RUSSIA'S GERMAN OUTPUT

BERLIN, Jan. 27 — (AP) A German Communist leader acknowledged today the western counter blockade is slowing production in Russian-held Germany.

In a pep-talk to a Socialist Unity (Communist) party conference, deputy chairman Walter Ulbricht said 1948 production though making some gains over the previous year fell short of targets from 15 to 25 per cent in the heavy industries.

Moscow-trained Ulbricht blamed the western allies' counter blockade for shutting off Ruhr coal, iron and steel and machine parts and chemicals.

The east German picture was in contrast to the showing of western Germany, which, aided by the European recovery program, has increased its industrial production to 78 per cent of the 1936 level.

Ulbricht, whose chief job is supervising the Soviet zone's two-year plan, said "widespread revision" of the plan was forced by the counter-blockade.

He said that in many cases private enterprises made better showings than the socialized industries. He pointed to figures on the second half of 1948 and complained that socialized enterprises in 12 major classifications had shown production gains of only one per cent.

Ulbricht charged management was guilty of "disinterest, sabotage and red tape."

He lectured both workers and management:

"Our people in the socialized industries must learn that these are their own properties they are working. They must get away from the capitalistic theories."

Italian Auto Output Rises.

Rome, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—Italian Automobile production increased 36 per cent and exports were up 33 per cent in 1948, compared with the yeaf before. The National Association of Automobile industries reported production of all types of motor vehicles totaled 59,765 units last year against 43,765 units the year before. Exports totaled 14,136 units in 1948 compared with 10,605 in 1947.

DINNYES BELIEVED IN EXILE

Ex-Premier of Hungary Said to Have Escaped to Austria

VIENNA, Jan. 27 (AP)—Usually reliable Hungarian sources said tonight that Lajor Dinnyes, Hungarian Premier until Dec. 9, was believed to have fled to the West. He has been missing from Budapest since Dec. 28.

M. Dinnyes was squeezed out by the Communist bosses of Hungary along with other officials from his Smallholders party on accusations that he had not been "careful enough toward double-dealers."

The Hungarians said the state police of that country had been investigating M. Dinnyes' disappearance. They were reported to believe M. Dinnyes had escaped to Austria. Austrian police said they were unaware of M. Dinnyes' whereabouts.

2 Dutch Newspapers Cleared

Amsterdam, Jan. 27 (AP)—Two of Holland's biggest newspapers—De Telegraff and De Courant-Het Nieuws Van De Dag—suspended since the war for alleged Nazi collaboration, will resume publication soon. A special court today acquitted them of most of the charges.

Swiss To Buy British Planes

Bern, Switzerland, Jan. 27 (AP)—A Swiss trade delegation to London has been authorized to buy some $11,500,000 worth of British planes and military equipment, it was reported today.

Czechs Hear Vishinsky Is 'Trouble Shooting'

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 27 (AP)—Rumors circulated today that Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Russian Deputy Foreign Minister, is "trouble shooting" in Czechoslovakia. The report could not be confirmed.

The story arose from tales of dissension in the Czechoslovak Government and the Communist party that controls it.

There were mutterings that Communist President Klement Gottwald had been veering into what Moscow might consider deviationist ways such as those which brought Cominform disgrace to Premier Marshal Tito.

U.S. Trails Russia In Geochemistry

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Russia got the jump on the world seventeen years ago in the important new science of geochemical prospecting, but American geochemists think they may have caught up with or even outdistanced the Soviet scientists in giving the pick-and-shovel prospector a new tool—the chemical kit.

They can't be sure, because Russia clamped a secrecy lid on geochemical research a year ago. Since January 1948 no new reports on Soviet work of this type have been available.

It's important from a security standpoint because the nation that maps its hidden ore deposits the most thoroughly is in the best position to use the resources in time of war.

Papers Translated

The United States Geological Survey has made public the translation of six Russian papers on geochemical research. The most important article, by Soviet geologist E. A. Sergeev, summarizes Russia's work up to 1940 in soil analysis as a method of prospecting for mineral ores.

Herbert E. Hawkes, director of the Geological Survey's 2½-year-old project for geochemical research declared:

"Our program got under way in 1946. In addition to laboratory work, we started digging through all the obscure journals in Government libraries, looking for papers on what other countries were doing about soil-analysis prospecting. We found to our complete amazement that the Russians were years ahead of us. They had started the work in 1932."

Swedish Progress

Some of the phases of prospecting research were under way in other countries, Hawke says. Sweden, for example, was making progress on the chemical analysis of vegetation as a clue to the soil's composition.

But most of the reporting on the subject was by the Russians. Hawke himself had learned to read Russian in order to translate the articles and to check the accuracy of translations by other persons.

Hawke says at least three commercial companies in the United States already are experimenting in geochemical prospecting. The Geological Survey project, he adds, is "barely reaching the stage where we are ready to give it a whirl in the field."

Egypt Finds Oil In Three New Wells

Cairo, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—The Ministry of Trade and Commerce announced today that three new oil wells have been brought in at Wadi Assal in the Sinai Desert at a depth of 3,910 feet.

Production of each well is estimated at between 3,400 and 6,000 barrels daily and potential full production, the ministry said, can reach 40,000 barrels daily for all three wells.

Russ Set Trade Quota For Romanians, Others

Moscow, Jan. 27 (AP)—Russia has set 1949 trade quotas for all of her five fellow members of the Economic Council of Mutual Aid.

The latest was fixed in an agreement with Romania, announced today. It calls for a turnover two and a half times that of 1948.

The total was set at 465,000,000 rubles (about $93,000,000), and calls for the "rendering of technical assistance to Romania in building enterprises and in producing new types of machinery needed by Romanian industry."

Reply To Marshall Plan

The giving of technical assistance was one of the purposes of the E.C.M.A., announced earlier this week as an answer to the Marshall plan.

In terms of percentage increases, here is how trade between the U.S.S.R. and the other five E.C.M.A. countries lines up for this year:

Bulgaria, an increase of 25 per cent; Poland, 35 per cent; Czechoslovakia, 45 per cent; Hungary, 300 per cent; Romania, 250 per cent.

Informed quarters said Russia now ready to consider mutual trade with almost any country with which it has relations, regardless of whether the country belongs to the E.C.M.A. structure.

Barter Arrangements

Russia had barter arrangements last year with Egypt and India, among other countries. Diplomats said she will broaden trading this year with countries of the Near, Middle and Far East and Pacific areas. In these regions, Russia has formal relations with Siam, India, Australia, New ealand, Egypt, Iran, Syria, Iraq, Turkey, Lebanon, Korea and the Mongolian Peoples' Republic.

Russia does some trading with Latin America and officials say she would like to do more. She has formal relations with Argentina, Venezuela, Cuba, Uruguay and the Dominican Republic.

First talks about new trade quotas are likely to come with European countries such as the Netherlands, Denmark, Belgium, Luxembourg, Iceland and Switzerland.

Indonesia Republic Pleased At New Delhi Parley Moves

Batavia, Java, Jan. 27 (AP)—Indonesian Republican circles voiced approval today of moves by the New Delhi conference of twenty countries and the United Nations to solve the crisis here.

The Dutch were silent officially. Privately they looked askance on the diplomatic moves.

Dr. Supomo, of the Republican delegation, said he believes the four-power resolution before the United Nations Security Council generally is acceptable to the scattered Republican Government. The resolution, sponsored by the United States, calls for gradual withdrawal of Dutch troops and establishment next year of the United States of Indonesia. The Asian proposal, while similar, is more far-reaching.

"Minimum Basis"

[A New Delhi dispatch said Sjafroeddin Prawiranegara, head of the emergency government of Indonesia, messaged Indian Prime Minister Nehru that his Government accepted the decisions of the Asian Conference although the actions did "not fully meet our expectations." He expressed hope the Security Council would accept the decision as "a minimum basis for solution."]

Supomo said the Security Council resolution does not say what is to become of Republican troops after a cease-fire. He said the Republic must have the apparatus to maintain order and that soldiers and officers must eventually be integrated into a federal army.

Held "Unsatisfactory"

Supomo said the action of the New Delhi Asian Conference was in line with Security Council moves and thus practical.

Dutch officials said any comment or announcements must come from the home Government at The Hague. Privately, Dutch quarters said the Security Council resolution is extremely unsatisfactory and cannot be implemented.

U.N. Puts Off Indonesia Action

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—At the Netherlands' request, the Security Council today postponed at least 24 hours a vote on a four-power proposal for settling the Indonesian conflict.

Dr. J. H. Van Royen, the Netherlands representative, told the Council he wanted 24 hours to consult his Government on amendments offered by delegates of the United States, China, Cuba and Norway. Those four are sponsoring the resolution.

Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, of Canada, Council president this month, said the request would be approved if no one objected.

Jessup Expresses Regret

No one spoke up but Dr. Philip C. Jessup, United States delegate, expressed regret that it was not possible to vote now on the resolution. Jessup has been pressing for action to end the fight between the Netherlands and the Indonesian Republic.

The Council adjourned until 3 P.M. tomorrow.

L. N. Palar, Republican representative before the Council, criticized the four-nation plan but did not specifically reject it. He urged the Council to accept the major parts of the plan approved by the nineteen-nation Asian conference on Indonesia in New Delhi last week. This would have called for immediate Dutch withdrawal from Jogjakarta and early withdrawal from other Republican areas.

Withdrawal Issue

Palar said it would be hard for the republic to accept a proposal which did not order a rapid withdrawal of Dutch troops.

The amendments made no major change in the resolution. One called on the Dutch to "facilitate" the return of Republican leaders to the Republican capital at Jogjakarta instead of merely "permitting" them to go back.

Another asked that leaders of other Indonesian groups outside the republic be invited to take part in negotiations with the Dutch instead of merely being "permitted" to do so. A third called on the Dutch to provide economic measures necessary for the functions of the Republican administration after it is restored.

Indonesia-Plan Group Firm Against Changes

Lake Success, Jan. 27 (AP)—The United States, China, Cuba and Norway were reported firm today against any big change in their plan for ending the Indonesian crisis.

Delegates of the four countries predicted their plan would win approval by the United Nations Security Council, which is expected to vote today.

Egypt, India and Australia were said in informed quarters to have pressed hard for major changes. They want to put into the four-power resolution ideas approved by the Asian conference on Indonesia in New Delhi, in which they took part.

Freedom By 1950

This would have the Council call for immediate withdrawal of Dutch troops from territory of the Indonesian Republic and for final freedom for Indonesia by January 1, 1950.

The four-power plan calls for the Council to create a commission on Indonesia which would recommend the withdrawal of Dutch troops as it saw necessary. It also envisions final freedom for a United States of Indonesia by July 1, 1950.

British Position

Delegates close to the long talks said that the British still were reluctant to agree to any fixed date for withdrawal of the Dutch soldiers. The British, with a key vote, approved the four-power resolution.

Four British dominions took part in the New Delhi conference. They were India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Australia. These four approved the New Delhi resolution and India and Australia have been working here with Egypt to get as much as possible of the New Delhi resolution into the final Security Council document. Egypt was the only member of the Security Council taking part in the New Delhi meeting.

Burma's Rail Cut Rangoon's Railway Link To Mandalay

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 27 (AP)—Rebel warfare increased on widening fronts today. Rangoon was isolated by cutting of the railway to Mandalay.

Rebels blew up a bridge on the Rangoon-Mandalay line, stopping the service which was the capital's last surface link with the rest of Burma.

A strong rebel force attacked the rail center of Toungoo, 180 miles from Rangoon, at dawn. Government motorized troops were rushed in. Rebels hold the near-by town of Tantabin, seized yesterday.

Resignations Delayed

Parliament will meet Monday in its final pre-election session. The Cabinet of 21 ministers, retiring to permit formation of a more compact government, will formally hand in their resignations then to President Sao Shwe Thaike. The resignations were delayed at his request when Premier Thakin Nu offered them recently.

The press is campaigning for a coalition government to meet the civil war crisis which has troubled Burma since she became independent from Britain a year ago.

Newspaper editors advise against holding elections, scheduled for March, because of the turmoil. The Myochit party, formerly led by the assassinated Premier U Saw, supports this viewpoint.

Full Attack Planned

In its manifesto, the party held the present Government responsible for the worsening internal situation and called for a national government.

Meanwhile, the Government announced preparations are underway for a full-scale attack on Karen rebels occupying the British-owned Mawchi mines, in the Karenni state on the Siam border.

The mines were occupied by the rebels in September when the 3,500,000 Karens rose in revolt. They are demanding a separate state of "Karenistan."

Six Villages Burned

Terror-stricken refugees pouring into Rangoon today told of attacks by Karens on the village of Hlegu, 26 miles north of Rangoon. Officials said Government forces, spearheaded by armored cars, hunted down the attackers and burned six Karen villages.

In addition to the blocking of rail and roadways to central Burma, rebels have paralyzed communications in the Burmese delta. The Government-controlled Inland Waterways Transport Board has suspended operations in the delta as a result of repeated attacks upon steamships carrying passengers and freight.

Burma Refugees Tell Of Town's Destruction

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 27 (AP)—Fleeing refugees today told of a Karen rebel attack on the village of Hlegu, 26 miles north of here, climaxed by a battle with Burmese military police in which both sides lost heavily.

The refugees said the Karens entered Hlegu Tuesday morning, after a night-long mortar attack, and put part of the village to the torch. Officials said Government forces hunted down the attackers and burned six Karen villages sheltering them.

Big Attack Planned

Meanwhile, it was officially announced today that preparations are being made for a full-scale attack on Karen rebels occupying the Mawchi mines in the Karenni state.

The mines, owned by British commercial interests, are 270 miles northeast of here. They were occupied by the rebels in September, when the Karen revolt originally broke out.

Campaign Of Frightfulness

The statement charged the rebels with conducting a "campaign of frightfulness" and slaying some 100 Government officials. It also indicated aerial bombing would be resorted to in order to get rid of the rebels occupying the mines.

There are some 3,500,000 Karens in Burma. Last year they demanded a separate state of "Karenistan."

War-Relief Office In Philippines Closes

Manila, Jan. 27 (AP)—The United States Philippine war-relief office closed today after distributing voluntary American contributions to some 8,000,000 Filipinos in a three-year program.

Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy, former high commisioner of the Philippines, headed the organization's board of directors.

Thorez Hails Jap Reds

Tokyo, Jan. 27 (AP)—Secretary General Maurice Thorez of the French Communist party cabled congratulations today to Japanese Reds for their showing in last Sunday's Diet elections. The Japanese Communists increased their membership in the 466-seat Diet from 4 to 35.

Panyushkin On Japan

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Russia today assailed new measures ordered by the United States to restore Japan's economy, and demanded that the steps be reviewed by all the wartime Pacific Allies.

Alexander S. Panyushkin, Soviet Ambassador, charged the United States with bypassing the eleven-nation Far Eastern Commission when the measures were ordered into effect last month.

After Panyushkin presented his demand at a closed door session of the commission, the State Department countered quickly with a defense of the order and the way it was put into effect. Officials noted the order had been on file with the commission for six weeks and that it was subject to review at any time.

Tighter Price Controls

There was no immediate action by the commission, although the matter could be considered at a later meeting.

The Soviet complaint was directed at an order issued by the State and Army departments to Gen. Douglas MacArthur to require the Japanese Government to tighten its price, wage and other controls. The stated object was to halt inflation and increase exports.

The order went out as an "interim directive" which the United States is empowered to issue, before the commission was formally notified on December 11.

Contradiction Charged

Panyushkin criticized this as an "evasion" and charged that the directive itself was in "direct contradiction" to existing policies of the commission about demilitarizing the Japanese.

Renewing a frequent charge by Moscow, Panyushkin asserted that "large concerns" which assisted in Japanese wartime aggression "still continue to exist and occupy a dominant position in the economy of Japan." He also complained that the order to MacArthur contained no mention of the commission's stated policy to "strengthen the democratic forces in Japan."

Made Complaint Public

The Soviet complaint was 700 words long. Panyushkin read it to the commission, then immediately made it public.

Panyushkin asserted that the American authority to issue tentative directives to MacArthur does not permit actions independent of the other Allies "which touch upon the vital interest of the Japanese people" and the other Allies.

Calling on the commission to "adopt its own decision" on the issue of restoring Japan, he said the commission should require the United States to report on the manner in which MacArthur already has carried out the commission's policies on economic stabilization and disarming the Japanese.

Honduras Refugee Plan Protested By Guatemala

Guatemala, Guatemala, Friday, Jan. 28 (AP)—Guatemala today protested to the British Government over Britain's reported plan to settle European displaced persons in British Honduras (Belize).

The Foreign Office handed a note to British Minister Wilfred Hansford Gallienne saying "Guatemala declines, as of today, all responsibility for any possible consequence of the attitude assumed by that (British) Government. . . ."

Guatemala has long claimed that the British colony is really part of her territory. Today's note vigorously condemned what it called British plans to "create new interests in the Guatemalan territory of Belize (British Honduras)."

Air Force To Be Given Guam Murder Suspects

Guam, Jan. 27 (AP)—Secretary to the governor of Guam said today the Secretary of the Navy had directed the governor to hand over the Ruth Farnsworth murder suspects to the Air Force for prosecution.

Three Negro enlisted men in the Air Force have been charged with slaying the former San Francisco girl, and their trial had been scheduled for February 10 in the island court of Guam.

Use of a lie detector led to charges against Sergt. Robert W. Burns, 32, of Spokane, Wash.; and Privates Calvin, 26, and Herman T. Dennis, 20, half-brothers from Frederick, Md., and Indianapolis, Ind., respectively.

Fon Of Bikom, 80, Willing To Give Up His 110 Wives

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—The Fon of Bikom has assured the United Nations that his 110 wives can go home to mother—and stay there—for all he cares.

The 80-year-old African tribal headman says he's bored with marriage, anyway. He rules over about 10,000 subjects in the Barmenda division of the British Cameroons.

The Fon became the subject of United Nations debate more than a year ago when a London Catholic organization charged he had 600 wives. This organization, the St. Joan's Social and Political Alliance, claimed a 13-year-old girl had been taken to the Fon as "a piece of cargo."

Not 600 Wives, Only 110

Britain then told the United Nations Trusteeship Council the charges were trumped up. The Fon did not have 600 wives, Britain said, but only 110.

Doyle A. F. Shute, a resident official in the British colonial administrative service of Nigeria, confirmed this today. He told the twelve-nation trusteeship council here he conducted an on-the-spot nose-count and found only 110 wives in the Fon's compound.

"Most of them are old women," Shute said, "and many are over 40 who he inherited from the previous Fon."

The British official explained that in Bikom territory the fertility of the tribe is bound up in the person of the Fon.

"When I saw the old boy last December," Shute said, "he told me 'all I'm waiting for is death.'"

Shute said the Fon told him: "There is no woman in my compound who is not here entirely of her own free will. I will take on no more wives unless they come here of their own free will. All of them are free to leave at anytime to return to their own people."

Charges Denied By Britain

In replying to the Catholic group's charges last year, Britain denied that the Fon had the right to take by force any girl in his tribe. Actually, the British report said, he has the right to claim only the first born daughters and all female twins in certain families.

Last July the Trusteeship Council condemned the Fon's marriage customs. The vote was 9 to 0 with Russia abstaining. The Council then adopted a resolution urging that an effort be made to modify the polygamous practices of the aged tribal chieftain.

At that time, Awni Khaldi, of Iraq, a bachelor, suggested that the United Nations "leave the man to discover the futility of his actions himself."

Man Wanted In Canada As Spy Caught By FBI In New York

New York, Jan. 27 (AP) — Sam Carr, alleged coleader of a one-time Russian spy ring in Canada, was arrested today by the FBI. He is wanted on espionage charges in Canada.

Carr was named by a Royal Espionage Commission three years ago as one of two Canadian ringleaders of a Russian spy ring. He held the post of organizing secretary of the Canadian Communist party.

A Canadian Justice Department official said the 42-year-old Carr probably would be tried in Toronto on accusations he violated the Official Secrets Act.

Arrested In New York

Carr was picked up at a basement apartment on the west side of Manhattan, near Central Park. The FBI said he had occupied the apartment two weeks and had been the object of an intensive hunt since he disappeared from Canada in March, 1946. At one time he was reported living in Mexico.

Fred Rose, former Communist member of Parliament, was the other alleged ringleader in the spy network. He is serving a six-year prison term for violation of the Official Secrets Act.

Igor Gouzenko, Russian Embassy cipher clerk in Canada who disclosed the espionage ring, said Carr recruited Russian agents in Canada.

Nine persons were fined or imprisoned and nine acquitted in the Canadian spy trials.

Was Born In Russia

Carr, whose real name was said by the FBI to be Schmil Kogan, was born in Russia. He entered Canada in 1925 and assisted in organizing the Young Communist League.

Edward Scheidt, chief FBI agent in New York, said Carr would be turned over to the Immigration and Naturalization Service and held at Ellis Island pending deportation proceedings.

Carr and his wife rented the apartment January 10 and had been living there as Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Lewis, Scheidt said. The landlord said Carr had told him he was an engineer from Boston who had come here to get material for a book.

Mrs. Carr was not arrested but voluntarily agreed to be questioned by the FBI, Scheidt said.

RACE PREJUDICE CHARGE IS DENIED BY JUDGE MEDINA

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 — (AP) A charge of prejudice against Negroes was hurled today at the judge presiding over the conspiracy trial of 11 top U. S. Communists, two of whom are Negroes.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, immediately denied the charge, made by Defense Attorney Harry Sacher, and then asked:

"Do you move for my disqualification on that ground?"

"I do, your honor," replied Sacher.

"The motion is denied," Medina said.

All Requests Denied

Since the trial of the 11—all members of the American Party's national committee — began Jan. 17, the defense has made numerous motions seeking Medina's disqualification from the case on the grounds of bias and prejudice. All have been denied by Medina.

But today's accusation was the first specifically accusing the jurist of racial antagonism.

The matter arose over the question of whether defense counsel should continue asking witnesses their race.

It followed shortly after Medina halted, at least temporarily, the parade to the witness stand of prospective trial jurors being staged by the defense lawyers in an effort to prove that the federal jury-picking system here discriminates against the poor and members of minority groups and in favor of the rich.

The charge of prejudice came up when a defense lawyer, Louis McCabe, was about to ask a witness his race.

Medina interrupted:

"I'll put on the record whether the witness is white or Negro. Don't you think that would be a little more sensible?"

McCabe asserted that the question "goes to the very heart of our contention that Negroes were excluded" from the jury panels in this district.

"Well let us suppose," Medina said, "a witness may have a family in which Negro blood goes back four or five generations. Is it necessary to bring up such a sore spot?"

Denies Prejudice Charge

He referred to the first arrival of Spaniards in America and said he was not certain whether "I have Indian blood or not and I might feel a bit resentful if questioned about this."

Sacher then leaped to his feet and said:

"Negro blood is as good as any kind of white blood. The question put by your honor indicates prejudice on your honor's part."

"I fail to see how I have so indicated," said Medina.

The 11 Communists are charged with working for the forcible overthrow of the government. A 12th Communist, William Z. Foster, head of the American party, also was indicted with them but his trial was severed from theirs last week because of his ill health.

Before the exchange over the alleged prejudice, Medina ruled the defense could call no more of the 525 members of the trial jury panel until it had presented other proof of its challenge to the jury system.

The defense had called almost a score of members of the grand jury which indicted the Communists and several members of the trial panel. It contends that the indictment against the Communists should be thrown out because of the alleged discrimination in the jury-picking method.

Calls Procedure Futile

Medina said he made his ruling "because the system of operating the courts will be paralyzed by subpoenaing and calling as witnesses all 525 members of the petit jury panel and because "it seems to be that the procedure is near futility."

McCabe remarked that several days ago Medina told the defense "to get down to business and saw wood." He added that perhaps sawdust had gotten into "somebody's eyes."

"Concealment" Alleged

"But you didn't mean my eyes, did you?" Medina asked. "You can say yes or no."

"When sawdust starts flying around," McCabe said, "I guess it gets in everybody's eyes."

Continuing his attack on the jury-picking methods here, Sacher said some Negroes had been selected for the grand jury to conceal "total exclusion."

"Partial exclusion is more vicious because it cannot be so readily recognized," he added.

He said the only way the defense could prove that Negroes were excluded from jury service was to continue to call petit jurors and to ask them if they were white or Negro.

"There is only one way to prove that Negroes have no lawful representation," he said, "and that is to parade all of the grand and petit jurors to ascertain if they are white or Negro."

He declared it was impossible to determine the race of an individual by looking at him.

PRAVDA MUM ON TRIAL

Moscow, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—Pravda, which had given full treatment to the New York trial of eleven American Communist leaders, has ignored the story for the last four days.

Since January 1, the Communist party newspaper has run nine articles on the trial, but made little editorial comment. Other Soviet publications were more expressive.

The Literary Gazette ran a cartoon depicting Federal Judge Harold R. Medina being advised by the ghosts of Hitler, Goering and Goebbels.

The gazette also ran an article by A. Trainin, Soviet legal light, entitled "Judge Lynch," which said in part:

"Whatever may be the verdict of the New York 'court' the verdict of humanity and history is not subject to doubt; the deathless ideals of Communism which bear for the whole world happiness are inconquerable."

5th Column Of Reds Held Large In U.S.

Los Angeles, Jan. 27 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Ira C. Eaker says Russia has a huge war potential and a fifth column in this country that is "the biggest and most powerful of any place in the world."

The wartime chief of air staff, now retired and living in Beverly Hills, told the Kiwanis Club yesterday that "more Moscow money is being lavished to undermine the American Government than was used in China."

With America's eight-hour, five-day week and 140,000,000 population, it would be difficult to build as much war potential as Russia could with 180,000,000 population, working fifteen hours, six days a week, he said.

"This country," he continued, "should have a sound plan of campaign ready. We would need an overwhelming air power, supplemented by adequate ground and naval forces, and we also would require better-trained leadership than we had in the last war."

Charges That Yugoslavia and Hungary Violate U. N. Charter

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Congress was asked today to approve a resolution declaring that the Yugoslav and Hungarian Governments were violating the United Nations Charter by religious and political "persecutions" in both nations.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Irving M. Ives, Republican, of New York, on behalf of himself and Senator Robert F. Wagner, Democrat, of New York.

Senator Ives said in a statement that the "persecutions" referred to the arrest and imprisonment of Archbishop Aloysius Stepinatz of Yugoslavia in 1946 and the arrest last December of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary. He called the arrests "bitter current examples of authoritarian deprivation of civil and religious liberty."

Axis Sally Hears Nazi Radio

Midge Broadcast Ascribed to Miss Gillars Replayed at Treason Trial.

Washington, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—Axis Sally today listened to herself broadcast for the wartime Nazi radio. Mildred E. Gillars, 48, showed no emotion as the Government began playing recordings of the programs which brought her to trial on a charge of treason.

For his first selection John M. Kelley Jr., chief prosecutor, chose a recording of the Midge at the Mike series. It was beamed to this country by the German overseas radio on May 18, 1943.

Jurors, court officials and news reporters listened through small headphones. Miss Gillars was among the first to put hers on. She rested her chin on folded hands as she listened, expressionless.

The first record opened with the announcer saying that the program was "for our feminine listeners especially." Then Midge—allegedly Miss Gillars—came to the mike.

"This is Berlin calling," she began. "Berlin calling the American mothers, wives and sweethearts.

"There must be some reason for my being in Berlin, some reason why I'm not sitting at home with you at the little sewing bees knitting socks for our men over in French North Africa. It's gecause I'm not on the side of President Roosevelt; I'm not on the side of Roosevelt and his Jewish friends and his British friends because I'm a 100 per cent American girl.

"Girls, watch out. Become American-conscious. Don't forget the beautiful things we have at home which are now in danger of being jeopardized by the Jewish and by the British."

James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars's chief counsel, soon tired of the program. He took off his earphones. Judge Edward M. Curran removed his later but held one phone to an ear.

The record playing began after Miss Gillars made a brief, unexpected appearance on the witness stand in the absence of the jury. Her testimony concerned the seizure of seven records in the basement of a Berlin apartment house.

ROYALL IN FAVOR OF LARGER ARMY

He And Gen. Bradley Indorse 837,000-Man Force

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Kenneth C. Royall, Secretary of the Army, cautioned congressmen today that while war is not imminent, it is "at least a possibility."

Accordingly, he told the House Armed Services Committee, the nation must keep its defenses "adequate for each changing situation."

Royall, together with Gen. Omar Bradley, the Army Chief of Staff, indorsed a proposal pending before the committee to authorize an 837,000-man army.

The same bill would authorize a 70-group air force.

Each proposed limit, however, amounts to little more than a figure on a piece of paper, because of budget limitations.

Army Now Has 690,000

Royall said the Army now has 690,000 officers and men, and plans to go no higher in the next fiscal year which begins July 1. President Truman's 1950 budget would set a 48-group ceiling on the Air Force.

However, if the new authorizations were written into law, all Congress would have to do to make them mean something would be to appropriate more money.

Royall also told the committee the Army wants to keep the peacetime draft law on the statute books until its June 24, 1950, expiration date, even though there is no prospect that the drafting of soldiers will be necessary in the immediate future.

After 1950? The Secretary said that will be determined by future developments.

Considers Nation's Economy

He said:

"There appears little likelihood that for a number of years to come we will be free of an international situation fraught with danger and subject to marked fluctuations."

Royall said he would favor building the Army up to the 837,000-man figure if it were possible to disregard every consideration except national defense. He said, however, that the soundness of the nation's economy also must be given due weight.

Royall Tells House Unit War Is a 'Possibility'

Sees No Imminent Peril, but Warns of Unrest for Years to Come—70-Group Air Force Bill Held Approved.

Washington, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—Secretary of the Army Royall told the House Armed Services Committee today that while war was not imminent, it was "at least a possibility."

And, he added, "there appears little likelihood that for a number of years to come we will be free of an international situation fraught with danger and subject to marked fluctuations."

Under those circumstances, he said, "our military establishment must be an adequate one, adequate for each changing situation."

The committee is holding hearings on legislation to allow the Air Force to have seventy combat groups despite the forty-eight-group ceiling asked by President Truman.

The measure also would set the Army's size by law.

Start On 'Skills' In Foreign Aid Plan Is Asked

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Truman said today that he has asked Secretary of State Acheson to work out preliminary plans for the development of "skills" to improve living standards of the world's underdeveloped areas.

He said such a step in the United States foreign policy program has been in his mind ever since the Marshall plan was inaugurated.

It's a part of the policy of the Administration over the next four years, the President told a news conference.

Puzzled By Confusion

He said that he did not know why there was so much confusion agout Point 4 of his inaugural address—that other countries did not seem to be confused about it.

The Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Agriculture, and all the other departments will work with the State Department on preliminary plans, he said.

As for the ECA, the President said that agency is now doing some of the things he has in mind.

In Dark On Any B-29 Sale

The President said he had never heard of any sale of B-29 bombers to Great Britain. That was his response to a reporter's query on a report from London that 100 such bombers had been sold to the British.

The President's remarks on his project for the world's underdeveloped areas came on the heels of indications that the United States Treasury dors may be less open to foreign nations than they have been.

Instead, private capital is being emphasized as a possible source of aid to friendly countries, in one of two new foreign-policy trends.

The other apparently is aimed at presenting the United States as a rallying point against communism.

Acheson Advances Idea

President Truman struck the keynote in his inaugural address last week with his "bold new program" for developing backward areas of the world by private investment, along with a smashing attack against the "false philosophy" of communism.

And yesterday Secretary Acheson gave emphasis to this apparent change of pace in the nation's foreign policy, in his first important public statement as Mr. Truman's new Secretary of State. He stressed anew that it calls for private investment, and, like Mr. Truman, accompanying that with a sharp rap at communism.

Results May Be Slow

Declaring that the President had made it clear these new developmetns were not to be financed by Government money, Acheson said: "If the proper conditions are created, the reservoirs of private capital are very great indeed."

In any case, he said, such a program would require long years and great effort on the part of the people who would benefit, before it could show any important results.

Acheson gave his explanation a cold-war slant by attacking communism as a "basically reactionary philosophy" under which the individual becomes merely a "cog in a machine."

Freedom Vs. Communism

"The American view of life," he declared, is one "which says that the worth and dignity and freedom of the individual are the objectives of government."

It is this concept of individual freedom, with its promise of better living conditions, that the Truman Administration is now holding out to the world as the alternative to communism.

placed persons." This, it said, would avoid discrimination.

The suggestions were made public by the National Catholic Resettlement Council meeting here to day. The council is the official organization of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, established for the purpose of resettling displaced persons here.

The displaced persons act passed by the last Congress would permit slightly over 200,000 D. P.'s to enter the United States over a period of years. The council wants to boost this to 400,000 for a four-year period.

Representative Celler (D.-N Y.), chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, already has said he will seek amendments doubling the total allowed entry. His measure also would liberalize the act to avoid what some have called discriminatory restrictions.

The Catholic proposal carried five suggestions. In addition to boosting the total, providing transportation from ports of entry to destination and visa distribution in proportion to group, it:

Asked that the present eligibility date of December 22, 1945 be extended to the effective date of the act as amended, or in any case not prior to December 31, 1948.

Urged that provisions for persons of German ethnic origin be retained, and that the numbers now provided for be doubled and extended over a period ending June 30, 1952. Special preference, it said, should be given orphan children.

Would Double Entry of D. P.'s

Catholic Church Proposes Government Pay Their Way to Any Place in Nation.

Washington, Jan. 27 (A. P.).—The Catholic Church today urged the Government to double the number of displaced persons allowed entry into the United States, and to pay their way to any place in the nation.

It also recommended tha "visas issued be made availabl to each group and element of th D. P.'s in the proportion each bears to the over-all total of dis

$90 A Month At 65 Urged Of Congress

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Veterans bonus and pension requests totaling billions were made to Congress today by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The proposals were advanced at the start of hearings by the House Veterans Affairs Committee on pension legislation for all veterans of World Wars I and II.

Omar B. Ketchum, V.F.W. legislative director, laid before the committee a pension program he said was designed to place the veterans of the last two wars on the same footing now enjoyed by Spanish-American War veterans.

$90 A Month

This provides a monthly pension of $90 at age 65, and nonservice connected disability benefits ranging upward from $20 a month according to the degree of disability.

The V.F.W. quotes Veterans Administration figures estimating the cost of the pension proposal at $1,000,000,000 the first year, with a peak of $2,000,000,000 a year at the end of five years.

Ketchum told the committee a service pension "is a tradition of this country." But, he added, the last pension law was enacted in 1921 for veterans of the Spanish-American War.

Traditional Pension

"Thirty years have now elapsed since the close of World War I and the average age of World War I veterans is approximately 55 years," Ketchum testified.

"We strongly feel that the Congress should write into the law this traditional service pension."

The V.F.W's proposal on adjusted service compensation—the bonus—asks $3 a day for service in the United States up to $3,500, and $4 a day for service overseas up to $4,500.

It would cost the nation between $15,000,000,000 and $20,000,000,000 the V.F.W. estimates.

Economic Disparity

The bonus, Ketchum testified, "would tend to alleviate the economic disparity as between the young man who spent the war years in the military or naval services, and the young man who remained at home as part of the civilian war effort."

Any bonus, Ketchum added, would first have deductions made from it equaling prior benefits enjoyed by individual veterans under the GI Bil of Rights. This would include educational allowances.

Other points of the V.F.W. program are cost-of-living increases to 25 per cent in existing disability and pension payments, and revision of income eligibility limitations for pension recipients.

Committee Bill

Chairman Rankin (D.-Miss.) gave top priority to hearings on a committee bill to pay $60 a month to all veterans of World War I and II at the age of 60. The bill also provides additional pensions ranging from $20 to $120 a month for disability not connected with military service.

About 18,000,000 veterans would be eligible, more than 3,500,000 of them within the next ten years, according to Veterans Administration figures.

Estimated Cost

Costs of a pension figured to be somewhere about a billion dollars the first year, and mounting to a peak of nearly three billions after five years.

With the pension proposal leading off, another Rankin bill to pay a bonus to veterans of World War II is still on tap in committee.

Minimum estimates place the proposed bonus payments at $15,000,000,000, with some figures as high as $40,000,000,000.

WAC's Will Make West Point Debut

West Point, N.Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—West Point officials tonight said about 56 members of the Women's Army Corps would arrive at the United States Military Academy starting next Tuesday to take up technical, administrative and ward duties in the Academy Hospital.

It will be the first time since the Academy was founded in 1802 that enlisted women have been assigned to the all-male bastion of future generals.

Officials pointed out that army nurses (commissioned officers) have been stationed at the hospital many years.

One officer said the WAC complement might be increased to about 100 in April, and there is a possibility they may be assigned other post duties—such as handling transportation.

The first group of WAC's, he said, will come from scattered army posts but eventually most of them will be assigned to West Point from Camp Lee, Va.

Government Acts To Aid Foreign Students In U.S.

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Several thousand foreign students in the United States were reported to be in financial difficulties because of inflation and international troubles. The State Department is trying to find some way to help them.

The department wrote today to Dr. Clarence Linton, of New York, president of the National Association of Foreign Student Advisers, inviting him to confer with officials here February 3 on the extent of aid needed.

Linton, a Columbia University professor, had written that about 5,000 students will be forced to withdraw from American colleges and universities next month unless they get Federal aid totaling at least $2,500,000.

WORLD WHEAT PRICE DISPUTED

U.S. And Canada Insist On $2 Maximum, Others Disagree

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Delegates to the World Wheat Conference squared off today in the expected battle over what price scales should be fixed in the proposed stabilization pact.

The United States and Canada—two of the major exporting nations— set off debate by insisting the international agreement should fix maximum prices at $2 a bushel for a five-year period.

This is the same guarantee offered by last year's 36-nation agreement which was never put into effect — principally because the United States failed to ratify it.

Lower Prices Urged

But representatives of the importing nations called for lower price guarantees, because world wheat supplies have been boosted considerably by last season's record crops and wheat prices generally are about 30 per cent lower than when last year's scales were set.

Albert J. Loveland, the United States Under Secretary of Agriculture, told the 53-nation conference that a figure below the $2 maximum would be unacceptable to this country. Even at that scale, he said, the United States would lose a "great amount of money."

Charles F. Wilson, Canada's chief delegate, said Canada will support the price scales previously agreed upon.

Minimum Scale Set

In addition to the $2 maximum, minimum prices were set at $1.50 the first year with a 10-cent-a-bushel decline each succeeding year.

T. Sheed Anderson, the British delegate, said his country would prefer a four-year agreement. He declared the world wheat surplus is ample reason for lowering both the maximum and minimum prices.

Ireland, another big importing country, came out for a "range of prices more favorable to importers." Its representative, Timothy O'Connell, did not say what prices he favored.

UNDER TERMS OF AN AGREEMENT BY THE FOUR-POWER NAVAL COMMISSION (BRITAIN, FRANCE, RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES) IT WAS AGREED THAT RUSSIA WOULD RETURN TO BRITAIN THE SHIP SHE HAD "BORROWED" AT THE SAME TIME SHE RECEIVED THE OTHER SHIP FROM THE DEFEATED ITALIANS.

LONDON, JAN.27-(AP)-POLITICIANS AND NEWSPAPERS SPECULATED GENERALLY TODAY THAT ERNEST BEVIN'S ASSIGNMENT AS FOREIGN SECRETARY IS UNDER STUDY AT A LABOR CABINET INQUEST INTO HIS PALESTINE POLICY.

THE CABINET MET THIS MORNING. BEVIN WAS ABSENT BUT WILLIAM WHITELEY, THE CHIEF GOVERNMENT WHIP, WAS CALLED IN, POSSIBLY TO REPORT ON THE LABOR REVOLT AGAINST BEVIN IN PARLIAMENT LAST NIGHT.

THE HOUSE ENDORSED BEVIN'S POLICY BUT ONLY BY A MARGIN OF 90 VOTES, 283 TO 193. THE LABOR GOVERNMENT HAS 393 SEATS, ABOUT 60 PER CENT OF THE 640 MEMBERS.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE MADE THE VOTE LAST NIGHT ONE OF CONFIDENCE IN HIS GOVERNMENT. DEFEAT WOULD HAVE MEANT THE FALL OF THE LABOR CABINET. EVEN SO, 50 TO 70 LABOR MEMBERS DELIBERATELY ABSTAINED AND ANOTHER 40 WERE ABSENT. THEY MADE UP MORE THAN A FOURTH OF THE PARTY'S STRENGTH IN PARLIAMENT.

TEN NEWSPAPERS SPECULATED ON WHETHER THE VOTE AFFECTS BEVIN'S FUTURE. THEIR COMMENTS CUT ACROSS PARTY LINES.

THE PRO-LABOR MIRROR SAID SOME DEPUTIES FELT IT WILL BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR BEVIN TO REMAIN AS FOREIGN SECRETARY. THE RIGHTIST DAILY EXPRESS SAID HE MAY ASK FOR ANOTHER POST. THE CONSERVATIVE MORNING TELEGRAPH SAID A WEAKER FOREIGN SECRETARY WOULD HAVE QUIT. THE RIGHTIST GRAPHIC SAID MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT ARE SAYING BEVIN'S DAYS ARE NUMBERED. ALL THESE PAPERS USUALLY BACK HIS FOREIGN POLICY.

THE BRITISH PRESS ASSOCIATION DISCUSSED THE REPORTED POSSIBILITY OF A BEVIN RESIGNATION. IT CONCLUDED "IT WOULD BE PREMATURE TO IMAGINE THAT A MAN OF HIS CALIBER WOULD QUIT AFTER LAST NIGHT'S DEMONSTRATION OF THE LACK OF CONFIDENCE IN HIS PALESTINE POLICY." #

NIGHT LEAD PALESTINE (500)

BY HAL COOPER

LONDON, JAN 27-(AP)-BRITAIN'S LABOR CABINET WEIGHED TODAY THE REVOLT WITHIN THE LABOR PARTY AGAINST ITS PALESTINE POLICY, AMID SIGNS FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN IS DETERMINED TO RIDE OUT THE STORM.

A SOURCE CLOSE TO THE CABINET SAID BRITAIN PROBABLY WILL EXTEND RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL BEFORE THE LABORITES HOLD THEIR NEXT PARLIAMENTARY MEETING NEXT WEDNESDAY AND THAT THIS MAY HELP TO KILL OFF THE INTRA-PARTY SQUABBLE.

"WILL BEVIN GO?" ASKED A HEADLINE IN LORD BEAVERBROOK'S DAILY EXPRESS, INDEPENDENT AND IMPERIALIST NEWSPAPER. THE QUESTION WAS ECHOED ELSEWHERE IN THE PRESS AND IN THE LOWER RANKS OF THE GOVERNMENT ITSELF. THE ANSWER SEEMED TO BE: NOT RIGHT NOW, ANYWAY.

BEVIN WAS ABSENT WHEN THE CABINET GATHERED WITH PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE AT NO. 10 DOWNING STREET TO TALK OVER THE FOREIGN SECRETARY'S FUTURE AND THE PARTY'S FUTURE COURSE.

JAN 1949

HE WENT INSTEAD TO A LONDON CONFERENCE OF THE FIVE BRUSSELS PACT POWERS--BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG --WHICH IS EXPECTED TO HELP PAVE THE WAY FOR BRITAIN TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL.

PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE CLOSED A PALESTINE DEBATE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS LAST NIGHT WITH THE DECLARATION BRITAIN "ACCEPTED IN PRINCIPLE" THE RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL. HE SAID SHE WAS WAITING UNTIL AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH THE DOMINIONS AND HER BRUSSELS ALLIES TO ANNOUNCE RECOGNITION. BEVIN HAD SAID SOMEWHAT THE SAME THING.

ONE THE TWO-DAY AGENDA OF THE FIVE FOREIGN MINISTERS WERE TALKS ON WESTERN EUROPEAN UNITY AND THE NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT.

THE UNFINISHED STATE OF THESE TWO PROJECTS IS ONE OF THE MAIN REASONS WHY FEW IN LONDON EXPECT BEVIN TO STEP OUT OF OFFICE NOW.

HE HAS DESCRIBED A REAL UNITED STATES OF EUROPE AS "ONE OF THE OBSESSIONS OF MY LIFE." HE SAID IN A SPEECH TUESDAY HE HOPES TO SEE THE SIGNING OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT, WHICH WOULD LINK THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA WITH WESTERN EUROPEAN DEFENSES, AS THE "CROWNING EVENT" OF HIS CAREER.

THERE STILL WAS SOME TALK THAT HE MIGHT STEP DOWN FOR REASONS OF HEALTH OR TAKE ANOTHER MINISTRY IN A GENERAL RESHUFFLE OF THE CABINET. THIS TALK HAS HAD NO OFFICIAL BACKING.

THE CABINET MEETING WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE CONCERNED ITSELF MAINLY WITH SHORING UP PARTY DISCIPLINE FOR THE 1950 GENERAL ELECTIONS.

ONLY 283 OF THE PARTY'S 393 MEMBERS IN COMMONS STOOD UP TO BE COUNTED LAST NIGHT FOR INDORSEMENT OF THE HANDLING OF BRITISH AFFAIRS IN THE MIDDLE EAST, WHICH ATTLEE HIMSELF PUT FORTH AS A QUESTION OF CONFIDENCE IN HIS GOVERNMENT.

FROM WINSTON CHURCHILL'S CONSERVATIVES AND LESSER PARTIES IN THE 640-MEMBER HOUSE CAME 193 VOTES IN OPPOSITION. THE MARGIN WAS 90 VOTES.

THE LAST TIME A BRITISH GOVERNMENT SURVIVED A TEST IN COMMONS BY APPROXIMATELY SUCH A MARGIN, IT FELL. THAT WAS IN 1940, WHEN PRIME MINISTER NEVILLE CHAMBERLAIN WON A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE BY ONLY 81 VOTES AFTER A DEBATE ON BRITAIN'S FAILURE TO KEEP HITLER OUT OF NORWAY. FACED BY SO MUCH OPPOSITION HE RESIGNED TO MAKE WAY FOR CHURCHILL.

MANY OF THE LABORITES WHO DID BACK THE GOVERNMENT LAST NIGHT SAID PRIVATELY THEY WOULD NOT HAVE DONE SO IF ATTLEE HAD NOT MADE IT A CONFIDENCE ISSUE.
PRESS COMMENT ON THE SITUATION CUT ACROSS PARTY LINES.
THE DAILY EXPRESS SAID BEVIN MAY ASK TO BE ASSIGNED TO SOME OTHER GOVERNMENT POST. IT EDITORIALIZED: "MR.BEVIN HAS LOST HIS HOLD."
THE PRO-LABOR DAILY MIRROR SAID SOME MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT FELT IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR BEVIN TO REMAIN AT THE FOREIGN OFFICE.
THE CONSERVATIVE WING GRAPHIC REPORTED MPS WERE SAYING HIS DAYS AS FOREIGN SECRETARY ARE NUMBERED.
ALL THESE NEWSPAPERS USUALLY BACK BEVIN'S FOREIGN POLICY.

JAN 1949

BY RICHARD KASISCHKE
BERLIN, JAN. 27-(AP)-GERMAN COMMUNIST LEADERS TODAY ACKNOWLEDGED SEVERE SHORTCOMINGS IN INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION IN THE RUSSIAN ZONE OF GERMANY, ESPECIALLY IN THE SOCIALIZED INDUSTRIES.
THEY DEMANDED PROMPT REMEDIES--MORE WORK FROM THE WORKERS AND INCREASED EFFICIENCY FROM PLANT MANAGERS TO CURE "DISINTEREST, SABOTAGE AND RED TAPE" AND TO OVERCOME CRIPPLING EFFECTS OF THE ALLIED COUNTER-BLOCKADE.
THIS PICTURE OF SOVIET-OCCUPIED EASTERN GERMANY'S ECONOMY WAS GIVEN TO THE CONFERENCE OF THE SOCIALIST UNITY (COMMUNIST) PARTY HERE BY WALTER ULBRICHT, DEPUTY PARTY CHAIRMAN. THE MOSCOW-TRAINED ULBRICHT'S CHIEF JOB IS EXECUTION OF THE ZONE' COMMUNIST-PRODUCED TWO-YEAR ECONOMIC PLAN.
ULBRICHT CLAIMED SOME PRODUCTION GAINS IN 1948 OVER THE PREVIOUS YEAR BUT HE REPORTED THAT IN THE HEAVY INDUSTRIES, ESPECIALLY, PRODUCTION FELL SHORT OF TARGETS FROM 15 TO 25 PER CENT.
THIS WAS IN SHARP CONTRAST TO BOOMING WESTERN GERMANY WHICH, AIDED BY THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY PROGRAM, HAS BOOSTED ITS INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION TO 78 PER CENT OF THE 1936 LEVEL AND RECORDED A GAIN OF 26 PER CENT SINCE LAST JUNE'S CURRENCY REFORM.
ULBRICHT BLAMED FOR THE SHORTCOMINGS THE EFFECTS OF THE WESTERN ALLIES' COUNTER-BLOCKADE AGAINST EASTERN GERMANY, WHICH CUT OFF DELIVERIES OF SUCH VITAL PRODUCTS AS RUHR COAL, IRON AND STEEL AND MACHINE PARTS AND CHEMICALS WHICH PREVIOUSLYCAME FROM WESTERN GERMANY.
THE COUNTER-BLOCKADE, ULBRICHT ACKNOWLEDGED, HAD FORCED "WIDESPREAD REVISION" OF THE COMMUNIST ECONOMIC PROGRAM.
BUT SOME OF HIS SHARPEST WORDS WERE RESERVED FOR THE "PEOPLE'S OWNED" (SOCIALIZED) INDUSTRIES, WHICH ORDINARILY ARE THE PRIDE AND JOY OF A COMMUNIST STATE. IN EASTERN GERMANY THESE INDUSTRIES ACCOUNT FOR 45 PERCENT OF PRODUCTION.
ULBRICHT ACKNOWLEDGED BITTERLY THAT IN MANY CASES PRIVATE ENTERPRISES MADE BETTER SHOWINGS THAN THE SOCIALIZED INDUSTRIES. IN THE SECOND HALF OF 1948, HE COMPLAINED, SOCIALIZED ENTERPRISES IN 12 MAJOR CLASSIFICATIONS HAD SHOWN PRODUCTION GAINS OF ONLY ONE PER CENT.
WHAT WAS THE TROUBLE? ULBRICHT GAVE THE COMMUNISTS' ANSWER, DECLARING:
"PARTY INVESTIGATORS STATED THAT FAILURE TO REACH THE PLAN GOALS WAS CAUSED BY RED-TAPE IN MANAGEMENT AND ECONOMIC ORGANIZATIONS RATHER THAN BY REAL DIFFICULTIES."

THREATS ALSO WERE VOICED TO PROSECUTE BERLINERS WHO GET RATION CARDS IN BOTH EASTERN AND WESTERN BERLIN AND SELL FOOD SURPLUSES IN THE BLACK MARKET.

BERLIN, JAN.17-(BY AIR MAIL)-(AP)-A GERMAN TRADE UNION LEADER WHO RECENTLY TOURED THE U.S. AND SAW CONDITIONS THERE AT FIRST HAND, SCOFFS AT COMMUNIST CLAIMS THAT THE AMERICAN CAPITAL IS RUTHLESSLY EXPLOITING THE WORKING CLASSES.

ERNST SCHARNOWSKI, SOCIALIST CHAIRMAN OF WESTERN BERLIN'S INDPENDENT UNIONS, SAID IN AN INTERVIEW:

"I WISH THAT AS MANY GERMANS AS POSSIBLE COULD GO OVER TO THE UNITED STATES TO SEE FOR THEMSELVES WHAT THIS TALK IS WORTH. BROADER CIRCLES IN GERMANY THEN WOULD RECOGNIZE THAT AMERICA'S WEALTH HAS BEEN GAINED BY LABOR."

THE GREY-HAIRED, STOUT UNION LEADER RECENTLY VISITED TEN MAJOR CITIES IN THE U.S. AS GUEST OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR (AFL).

"THE AMERICAN WORKER'S SKILL AND ABILITY IS THE SOURCE OF HIS FAVORABLE POSITION. I ONLY WISH THAT GERMANY HAD REACHED THE POINT WHERE THE AMERICANS NOW ARE, BUT WE HAVE TO GO QUITE A LONG WAY TO REACH ONLY HALF OF IT," SCHARNOWSKI SAID.

HE THINKS THAT THE UNITED STATES ECONOMY IS NOT YET GOING AT FULL SPEED BUT THAT IT WILL "PERFORM FANTASTIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF PRODUCTION IF A REAL CAUSE IS GIVEN."

JAN 1949

SCHARNOWSKI PRAISED THE AMERICAN PRACTICE OF SELF-CRITICISM. "IN AMERICA," HE SAID, "PEOPLE DO NOT TALK ABOUT THEIR SUCCESSES. PAPERS STRESS JUST THE WEAK POINTS AND ABUSES. WE GERMANS SHOULD ALSO ADOPT THIS ATTITUDE."

"IN AMERICA TRADE UNIONS DO NOT TALK ABOUT THE WORKERS' RIGHT OF TAKING PART IN THE MANAGEMENT OF THEIR FACTORIES AS IT IS DONE IN GERMANY.

"THEY HAVE NO WORKERS' COUNCILS BUT THEIR SHOP COMMITTEES VIRTUALLY DETERMINE THE WORKERS' LIVING CONDITIONS," HE ADDED. "IN AMERICA NO THEORETICAL DELIBERATIONS ARE MADE," HE SAID, "BUT THE TRADE UNIONS' POSITION ON HIGHLY POLITICAL ISSUES ARE GIVEN GREATEST ATTENTION IN THE PUBLIC AND BY THE GOVERNMENT."

SCHARNOWSKI BELIEVES THAT THE AMERICAN TRADE UNIONS INITIATIVE WILL ALSO GREATLY INFLUENCE THE FULFILLMENT OF PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S ELECTION PROMISES.

WEEPING, HE RELATED:

"WHEN I SAW THE SERGEANT CHECKING HIS WATCH AGAINST THE CLOCK IN THE KASSEL MAIN STATION, I WAS POSSESSED BY THE DESIRE TO HAVE HIS WATCH. I FOLLOWED THE SOLDIER INTO THE MEN'S ROOM AND STRUCK DOWN WITH AN IRON BAR. I ALSO HIT HIM A SECOND TIME."

POLISH

WARSAW, POLAND, JAN 26-(AP)-THE POLISH GOVERNMENT CHARGES THAT TRADE DISCRIMINATION BY THE UNITED STATES HAS CAUSED A DROP OF 50 PER CENT IN THIS COUNTRY'S EXPORTS.

A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN SAID YESTERDAY AT A NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THIS DROP IN 1948 BELOW THE EXPORT FIGURES OF 1947 WAS DUE TO DISCRIMINATION.

JAN 1949

HE SAID THIS WAS JUSTIFICATION FOR FORMATION EARLIER THIS MONTH BY RUSSIA, POLAND AND FOUR OTHER EASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES OF THE ECONOMIC COUNCIL OF MUTUAL AID (ECMA).

POLISH EXPORTS TO FRANCE AND ITALY, PARTICULARLY OF COAL, COULD BE INCREASED CONSIDERABLY "IF IT WERE NOT FOR THE PRESSURE UPON THESE COUNTRIES BY THE U.S.A.," THE SPOKESMAN CONTINUED.

NATIONS RECEIVING MARSHALL PLAN AID WERE SHOWING A "GROWING TENDENCY" TO DISCRIMINATE AGAINST AND "EVEN BOYCOTT" POLAND AND OTHER COUNTRIES IN RUSSIA'S ORBIT, HE ADDED. ECMA MAY RESULT IN LINKING PRESENT TRADE TREATIES BETWEEN THESE COUNTRIES AND RUSSIA INTO ONE GENERAL MULTILATERAL PACT, HE SAID.

HE DENIED, HOWEVER, THAT POLAND INTENDS TO RETALIATE BY PRACTICING DISCRIMINATION AGAINST THE WEST. HE SAID POLAND WANTS TO DEVELOP HER TRADE WITH ALL COUNTRIES.

RHODES, JAN. 27-(AP)-THE ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR RESUMED TALKS WITH THE JEWS AND EGYPTIANS TODAY, BUT THE DEADLOCK OVER A PROPOSED ARMISTICE IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE REMAINED TIGHTER THAN EVER ISRAELI DELEGATE REAUVAIN SHILOH RETURNED FROM TEL AVIV TO RHODES TODAY WITH INSTRUCTIONS TO TELL DR.RALPH J.BUNCHE, THE MEDIATOR, THAT ISRAEL'S POSITION IS "SUBSTANTIALLY UNALTERED," AN INFORMANT SAID.

AT ISSUE ARE THE BOUNDARIES OF THE NEGEV AND WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM THAT STRATEGIC DESERT AREA IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

BUNCHE HAD CALLED FOR A 48-HOUR RECESS TO GIVE REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH COUNTRIES TIME TO CONSULT WITH THEIR HOME GOVERNMENTS. COL. ISMAIL SHERRINE, EGYPTIAN DELEGATE, RETURNED FROM CAIRO WEDNESDAY.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION OF A CHANGE IN THE EGYPTIAN STAND WHICH DEMANDS A RETURN TO THE OCT. 14 BOUNDARIES, AS ORDERED BY THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL. THAT WOULD WIPE OUT JEWISH GAINS IN TWO OFFENSIVES LAUNCHES SINCE THEN.

AN AUTHORITATIVE JEWISH SOURCE SAID "WE HAVE NO INTENTIONS OF SURRENDERING OUR STRATEGIC POSITIONS IN THE NEGEV."

HE SAID THE MAIN ROAD FROM JERUSALEM THROUGH HEBRON AND BEERSHEBA TO THE EGYPTIAN BORDER IS "ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY FOR OUR SECURITY." X X X

ISRAELI MILITARY LEADERS WERE REPORTED IRKED BY THE EGYPTIAN STAND. THE SOURCE ADDED:

TOKYO, JAN. 27-(AP)-JAPAN'S FIRST LABOR-MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE OPENED TODAY ON A NOTE OF WARNING FROM ALLIED HEADQUARTERS.
MAJOR GEN. WILLIAM F. MARQUAT, CHIEF OF HEADQUARTERS ECONOMIC AND SCIENTIFIC SECTION, TOLD THE DELEGATES THAT JAPANESE LABOR AND MANAGEMENT HAD BETTER WORK TOGETHER IN IMPROVING NIPPON'S ECONOMY.
MARQUAT ASSERTED THERE IS NO ROOM IN JAPAN'S ECONOMIC PROGRAM FOR "EMOTIONAL ECONOMIC THEORIES," NOR FOR "CLASHES OF PHILOSOPHIES." HE SAID PRODUCTION MUST BE INCREASED, AND LABOR AND MANAGEMENT MUST "ACTIVELY COMBAT ANY INFLUENCES THAT TEND TO FRUSTRATE THAT EFFORT."
COMMUNIST PARTY LEADERS SAID YESTERDAY THE PARTY'S 35 NEWLY-ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES IN THE DIET (PARLIAMENT) WOULD "VIGOROUSLY OPPOSE" THE NEW ECONOMIC PROGRAM DIRECTED FOR JAPAN.

MEXICO CITY, JAN.27-(AP)-SOVIET RUSSIA'S SHARP CRITICISMS THREATENED TO BREAK UP THE WORLD RADIO CONFERENCE TODAY.

THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT, BOTH MEXICANS, RESIGNED AFTER A STORMY SESSION LASTING INTO THE EARLY HOURS OF THE MORNING. THE SOVIET BLOC OF 11 NATIONS HAD REFUSED TO JOIN IN A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THEIR MANAGEMENT.

A COMMITTEE, INCLUDING THE U.S.S.R. AND ROUMANIA, WAS NAMED TO ASK THE MEXICANS TO FORGIVE AND COME BACK, BUT THE GROUP HAD FAILED TO FIND THEM BY NOON TODAY.

BELGIUM HAS TAKEN OVER THE CONFERENCE PRESIDENCY TEMPORARILY.

THE WORLD HIGH FREQUENCY BROADCASTING CONFERENCE BEGAN SESSIONS HERE LAST OCTOBER TO TRY TO WORK OUT A FAIR PLAN FOR SHARING THE EIGHT CROWDED SHORTWAVE BROADCAST BANDS BETWEEN 6 AND 26 MEGACYCLES. IT IS CONSIDERING TWO PLANS, ONE OFFERED BY RUSSIA AND THE OTHER BY THE UNITED STATES.

THE RUSSIAN CHIEF DELEGATE, SERGEI STAJANOV, STARTED THE CONFERENCE ROW LAST NIGHT WHEN HE PRESENTED A WRITTEN STATEMENT CRITICISING THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF VICE PRESIDENT LAZARO BARAJAS. THE DOCUMENT INCLUDED THE TERMS "ILLEGAL PROCEDURE" AND "FLAGRANT CONTRADICTION OF RULES OF ORDER."

THE SOVIET STATEMENT REFERRED TO BARAJAS' ACTION LAST FRIDAY WHEN HE PERMITTED DISCUSSION TO CONTINUE AFTER THE MEETING HAD VOTED FAVORABLY ON A SOVIET MOTION TO ADJOURN. AT THAT TIME THE DELEGATES OF THE SOVIET BLOC WALKED OUT IN PROTEST.

THE SESSION TURNED DOWN THE SOVIET STATEMENT AFTER HOT ARGUMENT, AND DELEGATES PROPOSED A UNANIMOUS VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN BARAJAS AND IN MIGUEL PEREYRA, CONFERENCE PRESIDENT.

WHEN THE SOVIET BLOC ABSTAINED FROM VOTING, BARAJAS ANNOUNCED HIS RESIGNATION AND WALKED OUT OF THE CONFERENCE HALL. PEREYRA SAID HE SUPPORTED THE ACTION, RESIGNED, AND FOLLOWED HIS FELLOW COUNTRYMAN OUT.

RENE CORTEIL, HEAD OF THE BELGIAN DELEGATION, TOOK OVER THE PRESIDENCY.

MANY DELEGATES SAID THEY FEARED THE CONFERENCE MIGHT BREAK UP IF THE MEXICANS COULD NOT BE PERSUADED TO RETURN. MEXICO IS HOST TO THE CONFERENCE. A FULL SESSION TONIGHT WILL DISCUSS THE MATTER.

INDONESIAN REPRESENTATIVE L.N.PALAR URGED THE COUNCIL TO STRENGTHEN THE RESOLUTION BY SUBSTITUTING MAJOR PROVISIONS OF THE PROPOSAL ADOPTED LAST WEEK IN NEW DELHI BY 19 EASTERN COUNTRIES.

PALAR CAREFULLY AVOIDED ANY DIRECT REJECTION OF THE PROPOSAL SPONSORED HERE BY THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, CUBA AND NORWAY. HE TOLD THE COUNCIL, HOWEVER, IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT FOR HIS PEOPLE TO ACCEPT A PROPOSAL WHICH DID NOT ORDER A RAPID WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM REPUBLICAN TERRITORY.

HE REFERRED TO DOUBTS EXPRESSED BY CHINA AND CUBA AS TO WHETHER THE FOUR-POWER PLAN WOULD SUCCEED WITHOUT COOPERATION FROM BOTH THE

THE NEW DELHI RESOLUTION WOULD ORDER DUTCH TROOP WITHDRAWALS, WHILE THE FOUR-POWER PROPOSAL HERE PROVIDES THAT A COMMISSION CREATED BY THE COUNCIL WOULD ONLY MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING WITHDRAWAL.

LOS ANGELES, JAN.27-(AP)-ERIC JOHNSTON FAVORS A WORLD ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION TO IMPLEMENT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S PROGRAM FOR UNITED STATES AID TO UNDERDEVELOPED NATIONS.
THE PRESIDENT OF THE MOTION PICTURE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA SUGGESTED THAT AMERICAN CAPITAL AND TECHNIQUE BE COMBINED WITH MANPOWER AND CAPITAL OF OTHER COUNTRIES TO CARRY OUT A WORLD-WIDE INDUSTRIALIZATION PLAN.
IN THE PRINCIPAL ADDRESS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LAST NIGHT, JOHNSTON PROPOSED THAT SUCH A CORPORATION BE BACKED BY A GOVERNMENT FUND OF $1,000,000,000 (B) TO PROTECT AMERICAN INVESTORS AGAINST LOSS THROUGH ANY NATIONALIZATION OR CONFISCATION OF INDUSTRY, BUT NOT AGAINST NORMAL BUSINESS RISKS.
"WHAT I AM ADVOCATING IS NOT ONLY TO THE BENEFIT OF THE FREE DEMOCRATIC WORLD, BUT IS ALSO VITAL TO OUR ECONOMIC FUTURE AS A WORLD LEADER," JOHNSTON SAID.
"THIS PROGRAM IS PARTNERSHIP AND NOT IMPERIALISM; IT IS COOPERATION AND NOT EXPLOITATION. IT IS THE 20TH CENTURY, DEMOCRATIC WAY OF RAISING THE LIVING STANDARDS OF PEOPLES OF THE WORLD.
"EVER SINCE THE WAR WE HAVE BEEN POURING OUT BILLIONS FOR RELIEF AND RECONSTRUCTION. THIS HAS BEEN NECESSARY, BUT WE ALL RECOGNIZE THAT IT IS TEMPORARY. WE CAN'T PURSUE THIS POLICY FOREVER. OUR RESOURCES ARE NOT INEXHAUSTIBLE. X X X
"WHAT WE NEED NOW IS A PERMANENT PROGRAM OF WORLD INDUSTRIALIZATION TO CREATE NEW WEALTH FOR A GREATER SHARING BY THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD, INCLUDING OURSELVES; TO CREATE NEW JOBS; TO STIMULATE NEW TRADE AMONG NATIONS, AND TO ENABLE OTHER COUNTRIES NOT ONLY TO REGAIN THEIR FEET BUT TO MARCH STEADILY FORWARD."

NEW YORK, JAN. 27-(AP)-A VERY SECRET PLACE IN ATOMIC ENERGY, THE INNER FACE OF THE GREAT, NEW REACTOR AT BROOKHAVEN, LONG ISLAND, WAS UNVEILED IN PHOTOS TODAY FOR THE AMERICAN PHYSICAL SOCIETY.

THIS IS THE FIRST BIG ATOMIC OVEN SINCE THE WAR. IT IS TO START WORK NEXT FALL. IT IS A $20,000,000 (M) PROJECT OF THE UNITED STATES ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION.

THIS REACTOR WILL STUDY ATOMIC POWER, BUT PROBABLY NOT PRODUCE ANY. IT WILL STUDY TRANSMUTATION AND THE EFFECTS OF RADIOACTIVITY ON LIFE.

THE PICTURES, ALSO DIAGRAMS AND DIMENSIONS, WERE GIVEN BY DR. CLARK WILLIAMS OF THE BROOKHAVEN NATIONAL LABORATORIES. THE MEETING IS BEING ATTENDED BY MORE THAN 1,500 OF THE WORLD'S TOP-FLIGHT PHYSICISTS SOME THE MEN WHO MADE THE ATOMIC BOMB.

THE PICTURE REVEALS A SOLID CONCRETE WALL, POCKMARKED WITH SQUARE, FLAT PLUGS. THE WALL IS PART OF ONE FACE OF THE GREAT REACTOR. IT IS ABOUT THREE STORIES HIGH, AND LINED WITH TWO MEZZANINE BALCONIES WHERE MEN CAN WORK.

THIS WALL IS PART OF A HUGE CONCRETE BOX, ABOUT THE SIZE OF A THREE STORY HOUSE, BUT BROADER THAN THE ORDINARY DWELLING, BEING 38 FEET FROM OUTSIDE TO OUTSIDE. THE BOX IS ENTIRELY CLOSED, SIDES, TOP AND BOTTOM.

THE CONCRETE IS AT LEAST THREE FEET THICK, TO KEEP RADIOACTIVITY FROM SEEPING THROUGH. INSIDE THIS BOX IS THE REACTOR ITSELF, A HONEYCOMB OF GRAPHITE, ITS HOLES NOW FILLED WITH URANIUM METAL RODS, WHICH WILL SPONTANEOUSLY GET HOT AND START THE "FIRE" WHEN ENOUGH ARE INSERTED. THE DESCRIPTION DID NOT GIVE THE HONEYCOMB'S DIMENSIONS, BUT INDICATED ~~IT IS A GREAT CUBE ABOUT 30 FEET ON A SIDE.~~

THE CONCRETE BOX AND HONEYCOMB ARE PIERCED BY SCORES OF WORKING HOLES, PLACES THROUGH WHICH MEN ON THE BALCONIES CAN SHOVE THINGS INTO THE REACTOR AND TAKE THEM OUT.

THE GOAL IS THE HEART OF THE HONEYCOMB, WHERE THE NEUTRONS FROM ATOM-SPLITTING TRAVEL AT A SPEED OF THOUSANDS OF MILES AN HOUR, AND WHERE FIVE TRILLION OF THEM HIT EVERY SQUARE CENTIMETER EVERY SECOND. THESE NEUTRONS DO THE TRANSMUTATION. THE SPLIT ATOMS MAKE THE HEAT. AHMAN YPGKA SECOND IN THE HEART WOULD BE FATALLY HURT.

THERE ARE 30 FOUR-INCH SQUARE HOLES THROUGH THE HONEYCOMB, AND ABOUT AS MANY PNEUMATIC TUBES, IN SMALLER HOLES, TO CARRY IN AND OUT LITTLE BOXES CALLED RABBITS. A RABBIT WILL BE FILLED WITH MATERIAL FOR TRANSMUTATION. THERE IS A ONE FOOT-SQUARE HOLE DIRECT TO THE HEART.

ON TOP OF THE BOX ARE REMOVABLE BLOCKS TO MAKE A HOLE FOUR FEET SQUARE. UNDER THE BOTTOM ARE TWO OPENINGS CALLED WINDOWS, BIG ENOUGH TO HOLD A LIVE ANIMAL, AND APPARATUS FOR OTHER TESTS.

THE OPENINGS ARE PLACED SO THAT NUMEROUS DIFFERENT ATOMIC EXPERIMENTS CAN BE DONE SIMULTANEOUSLY AND MANY MEN CAN WORK WITHOUT INTERFERING WITH EACH OTHER.

NEW YORK, JAN.27-(AP)-DR.ROSCOE POUND, DEAN EMERITUS OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL, APPEALED TONIGHT FOR STRONGER AMERICAN SUPPORT FOR CHINA'S "CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT."

THE UNITED STATES, HE SAID, CAN'T AFFORD TO ABANDON CHIANG KAI-SHEK'S GOVERNMENT--OR EVEN ITS REMNANTS--BECAUSE OF SUBSEQUENT DEMORALIZING AFFECTS UPON OTHER COMMUNIST-THREATENED AREAS OF THE WORLD.

DR.POUND, A FORMER ADVISER TO CHINA'S MINISTRY OF JUSTICE FOR TWO YEARS, WAS SHARPLY CRITICAL OF U.S.FAR EASTERN POLICY IN A FORUM ADDRESS AT THE WOMEN'S NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CLUB.

HE SAID AMERICAN FAR EASTERN POLICY SHOULD TAKE INTO ACCOUNT NOT ONLY CHINA "BUT KOREA AND JAPAN AS WELL."

"IT SHOULD BE PART OF A WORLD-WIDE POLICY OF AT LEAST RANGING OURSELVES WITH CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENTS WHICH ARE ENDEAVORING TO SET UP DEMOCRACIES OPERATING UNDER LAW," HE DECLARED.

HE CHARGED AMERICAN POLICY "HAS BEEN ON OF CONSISTENT AND INSISTENT PRSSURE UPON THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF CHINA TO COMPROMISE WITH THE COMMUNISTS WHERE NO COMPROMISE IS POSSIBLE."

POINTING OUT ABROGATION OF CHINA'S CONSTITUTION IS A PRIME ITEM OF COMMUNIST DEMANDS, DR.POUND SAID:

"COALITION OF A CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT OPERATING UNDER A BILL OF RIGHTS WITH COMMUNISTS IS IMPOSSIBLE EXCEPT ON TERMS WHICH MARK TWAIN CHARACTERIZED THE BIBLICAL PROPHECY OF THE LION AND THE LAMB LYING DOWN TOGETHER--WITH THE TAMB NSIDEBMZ ZIF WE GIVE CONTINUED AID AND CONFORT TO CHINESE COMMUNISTS BY OUR ATTITUDE TOWARD EVEN A REMNANT OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT," HE WARNED, "WE SHALL BE UNDOING WHAT WE HAVE BEEN STRIVING TO DO TOWARD MAINTAINING DEMOCRATIC CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT IN OTHER PARTS OF THE WORLD."

ANOTHER FORUM SPEAKER, PROF.JOHN KING FAIRBANK, IN CHARGE OF HARVARD'S CHINA PROGRAM, AGREED AMERICAN POLICY TOWARD CHINA "NEEDS TO BE RETHOUGHT AND REVISED". BUT HE ARGUED THIS WAS NECESSARY SOLELY BECAUSE "COMMUNISTS ARE GRADUALLY COMING TO POWER" THERE.

"OUR POLICY OF LIMITED MILITARY AID TO CHIANG KAI-SHEK," PROF. FAIRBANK SAID, "HAS FAILED BECAUSE CHIANG X X X AGAINST OUR ADVICE, HAS PERSISTED IN TRYING TO DESTROY CHINESE COMMUNISM BY FORCE ALONE, INSTEAD OF TRYING TO UNDERCUT IT CHIEFLY BY REFORM, USING FORCE ONLY SECONDARILY."

SECOND LEAD COMMUNISTS (200)

NEW YORK, JAN 27-(AP)-FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA TODAY WAS ACCUSED OF PREJUDICE AGAINST NEGROES BY A DEFENSE ATTORNEY IN THE TRIAL OF 11 TOP U.S. COMMUNISTS.

HE PROMPTLY DENIED IT AND OVERRULED A MOTION FOR HIS DISQUALIFICATION ON THAT GROUND. TWO OF THE DEFENDANTS ARE NEGROES.

THE MATTER CAME UP AFTER JUDGE MEDINA HAD HALTED, AT LEAST TEMPORARILY, THE PARADE TO THE WITNESS STAND OF PROSPECTIVE TRIAL JURORS BEING STAGED BY THE DEFENSE LAWYERS.

THE DEFENSE ATTORNEYS ARE TRYING TO PROVE DISCRIMINATION EXISTS IN THE FEDERAL JURY-PICKING SYSTEM HERE. THEY CONTEND THAT NEGROES, AMONG OTHERS, ARE EXCLUDED FROM THE JURY LISTS AND HAVE BEEN ASKING ALL POTENTIAL JURORS CALLED AS WITNESSES WHETHER OR NOT THEY ARE WHITE.

THE PRESIDING JUDGE SUGGESTED TODAY IT MIGHT "BE A LITTLE MORE SENSIBLE" FOR HE HIMSELF TO PUT IN THE RECORD THE WITNESS'S RACE.

"LET US SUPPOSE," HE SAID, "A WITNESS MAY HAVE A FAMILY IN WHICH NEGRO BLOOD GOES BACK FOUR OR FIVE GENERATIONS. IS IT NECESSARY TO BRING UP SUCH A SORE SPOT?"

HARRY SACHER, A DEFENSE LAWYER, REPLIED: "NEGRO BLOOD IS AS GOOD AS ANY KIND OF WHITE BLOOD. THE QUESTION PUT BY YOUR HONOR INDICATES PREJUDICE YOUR HONOR'S PART."

"I FAIL TO SEE HOW I HAVE SO INDICATED," THE JUDGE DECLARED. "DO YOU MOVE FOR MY DISQUALIFICATION ON THAT GROUND?"

"I DO, YOUR HONOR," SAID SACHER.

"THE MOTION IS DENIED."

MEDINA RULED THE DEFENSE COULD CALL NO MORE MEMBERS OF THE TRIAL JURY PANEL UNTIL IT HAD PRESENTED OTHER PROOF OF ITS CHALLENGE TO THE JURY SYSTEM.

AT THE SAME TIME, DEFENSE ATTORNEYS ANNOUNCED THEY ALREADY HAD SUMMONED AS WITNESSES ALL THE MEMBERS OF A RECENT GRAND JURY THEY COULD FIND.

THIS WAS THE GRAND JURY WHICH INDICTED THE COMMUNIST OFFICIALS ON CHARGES OF WORKING FOR THE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

JUDGE MEDINA'S RULING CAME AFTER 14 GRAND JURORS AND FIVE MEMBERS OF THE CURRENT TRIAL JURY PANEL HAD TESTIFIED UNDER DEFENSE SUBPOENAS.

MEDINA SAID YESTERDAY HE WAS "THINKING OF CUTTING THINGS SHORT" WITH RESPECT TO THE JURY-CHALLENGING MANEUVER.

"IF YOU ARE ALLOWED TO CONTINUE CALLING JURORS," HE TOLD DEFENSE ATTORNEYS, "THE WHOLE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE WILL BE PARALYZED. IF THIS IS CONTINUED, THERE WILL BE A NEW PANEL BEFORE YOU FINISH QUESTIONING THE OLD X X X ."

THE COMMUNISTS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE PARTY'S NATIONAL BOARD, ARE ACCUSED OF CONSPIRACY TO ORGANIZE A PARTY ADVOCATING THE FORCIBLE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT.

THEIR ATTORNEYS CLAIM THE GRAND JURY THAT INDICTED THEM AND THE JURY PANEL TRIAL WERE HAND-PICKED FROM SUCH LISTS AS COLLEGE ALUMNI DIRECTORIES, THE SOCIAL REGISTER AND BUSINESS DIRECTORIES, AND DID NOT REPRESENT A DEMOCRATIC CROSS-SECTION OF THE COMMUNITY.

MOST OF THE JURORS WHO HAVE TESTIFIED ARE PROFESSIONAL OR BUSINESS PEOPLE. TWO ARE LISTED IN THE NEW YORK SOCIAL REGISTER.

ALL TESTIFIED THEY WERE NOT QUESTIONED ABOUT THEIR RACE, RELIGION, POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS, SOCIAL CONNECTIONS OR FINANCIAL WORTH WHEN CALLED FOR JURY DUTY.

ONE OF THE GRAND JURORS YESTERDAY DEMANDED--AND GOT--$3.70 FOR APPEARING AS A DEFENSE WITNESS. D. BENJAMIN BRUSH, OF NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y., AFTER TESTIFYING THAT HE IS A PRINCETON GRADUATE AND AN ENGINEER WITH AN ANNUAL INCOME IN EXCESS OF $5,000, PROTESTED HE HAD NOT BEEN PAID A SUBPOENA FEE. AFTER A HURRIED CONSULTATION, DEFENSE ATTORNEYS HANDED HIM A $2 FEE AND $1.70 FOR TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

ROYALL SAID THE ARMY WANTS THE DRAFT LAW KEPT ON THE STATUTE BOOKS AT LEAST UNTIL ITS JUNE 24, 1950, EXPIRATION DATE "BUT WE DON'T THINK THAT IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE WE ARE GOING TO HAVE TO USE IT."

WHETHER AN EXTENSION BEYOND 1950 WILL BE ASKED, HE SAID, MUST BE DETERMINED BY FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS.

HE SAID THE ARMY HAS 690,000 OFFICERS AND MEN AND THAT PRESENT BUDGET LIMITATIONS KEEPING THE SIZE AT THAT FIGURE HAVE HIS APPROVAL.

HE COMMENTED THAT BY AUTHORIZING A HIGHER FIGURE NOW, CONGRESS MERELY WOULD HAVE TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO BRING IN MORE MEN IF NEEDED. THE AUTHORIZATION WOULD NOT AFFECT THE ARMY'S SIZE UNLESS BACKED UP WITH MONEY.

ROYALL SAID THE ARMY HAD ORIGINALLY PLANNED TO SEEK FINANCING IN THE NEW FISCAL YEAR FOR AN ARMY OF 837,000 OFFICERS AND MEN BUT REVISED THE FIGURE DOWNWARD IN THE LIGHT OF BUDGET LIMITATIONS. THE NEW FISCAL YEAR BEGINS NEXT JULY 1.

VINSON AND OTHER COMMITTEE MEMBERS WERE MUM ON DETAILS OF THEIR LENGTHY CONFERENCE WITH SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FORRESTAL AND TOP ARMY, AIR FORCE AND NAVY LEADERS AT THE PENTAGON YESTERDAY.

SAYING ONLY THAT IT COVERED ALL PHASES OF NATIONAL DEFENSE, THEY INDICATED THAT THE 70-GROUP AIR FORCE ISSUE WAS NOT MENTIONED.

THE COMMITTEE WILL COLLIDE HEAD-ON WITH THE PRESIDENT'S DEFENSE BUDGET FOR 1950 WHEN IT GETS TO THAT POINT. MR.TRUMAN SET A CEILING ON DEFENSE SPENDING FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, AND INCLUDED A 48-GROUP LIMIT ON THE AIR FORCE.

THE COMMITTEE'S BILL WOULD WRITE AUTHORITY FOR THE 70 GROUPS IN -TO PERMANENT LAW. CONGRESS APPROVED THE 70-GROUP PRINCIPLE IN A MONEY BILL LAST YEAR, BUT THIS AUTHORITY EXPIRES WHEN THE MONEY RUNS OUT AT THE CLOSE OF THE PRESENT FISCAL YEAR, JUNE 30.

CONGRESSIONAL SENTIMENT FOR THE 70 GROUPS STILL IS STRONG, VINSON TOLD REPORTERS, AND HE FORECAST HOUSE APPROVAL WITHOUT MUCH DDBATE. HE CONCEDED, HOWEVER, THAT GETTING ENOUGH MONEY TO RAISE THE AIR FORCE TO THAT STRENGTH MAY NOT BE SO EASY.

THE BILL WOULD GIVE THE ARMY 837,000 OFFICERS AND MEN, NOT INCLUDING ONE-YEAR VOLUNTEERS UNDER THE DRAFT LAW, OFFICER CANDIDATES, AND RESERVES ON TEMPORARY ACTIVE DUTY. THESE WOULD BE DIVIDED INTO 12 REGULAR ARMY DIVISIONS AND FIVE COMBAT TEAMS.

THE AIR FORCE WOULD HAVE AN ACTIVE STRENGTH OF 75,300 OFFICERS AND 426,700 ENLISTED PERSONNEL. THESE WOULD NOT INCLUDE ONE-YEAR TRAINEES, AVIATION CADETS, OR RESERVES ON ACTIVE DUTY FOR TRAINING.

MD517AES

BRADLEY, ENDORSING THE AUTHORIZATION, SAID IT IS NEEDED TO ENABLE THE UNITED STATES TO BUILD UP A COMBAT FORCE CAPABLE OF INSTANT DEPLOYMENT AND TO PROVIDE A FOUNDATION UPON WHICH THE ARMY CAN "RAPIDLY CREATE COMBAT CAPABILITIES FOR MINIMUM EMERGENCY MISSIONS."

BRADLEY SAID THAT AN 837,000-MAN AUTHORIZATION "WOULD NOT PRODUCE AN ARMY CAPABLE OF ANYTHING MORE THAN MINIMUM EMERGENCY ONE-SHOT MISSIONS." WASHINGTON — ROYALL — XXX WEIGHT.

AIR SECRETARY SYMINGTON AND GEN.HOYT S.VANDENBERG, AIR FORCE CHIEF OF STAFF, ARE TO BE HEARD TOMORROW ON THE AIR PHASE OF THE PROGRAM.

NOBODY HAS ASKED TO APPEAR AGAINST THE MEASURE AND IT APPEARS HEADED FOR QUICK APPROVAL.

FR313PES

ACHESON SAID THAT TO HIM "THE ESSENTIAL THING" ABOUT THE PRESIDENT'S GLOBAL PROGRAM "IS THE USE OF MATERIAL MEANS TO A NON-MATERIAL END."

"IT IS NOT THAT MATERIAL OBJECTS IN AND OF THEMSELVES MAKE A BETTER OR FULLER LIFE," HE ADDED. WASHINGTON - XXX COMMONISM.

"BUT THEY ARE THE MEANS BY WHICH PEOPLE CAN OBTAIN FREEDOM, NOT ONLY FREEDOM FROM THE PRESSURE OF THOSE OTHER HUMAN BEINGS WHO WOULD RESTRICT THEIR FREEDOM, BUT HELP IN THE ANCIENT STRUGGLE OF MAN TO EARN HIS LIVING AND GET HIS BREAD FROM THE SOIL."

ACHESON SAID THAT THIS WAS A "LONG PROGRAM" ON WHICH MUCH HAS BEEN DONE IN THE PAST AND MORE CAN BE DONE IN THE FUTURE.

HE DISCLOSED THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD DIRECTED THE STATE DEPARTMENT TO DRAW UP A BLUEPRINT FOR THE PROJECT, WHICH IS TO BE HANDLED AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE THROUGH THE UNITED NATIONS AND IN COOPERATION WITH OTHER COUNTRIES. HE SAID THAT AS YET THERE HAS BEEN NO DIRECT CONTACT WITH OTHER COUNTRIES ABOUT THE PROGRAM.

PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD, THE SECRETARY DECLARED, SEEM TO FEEL THAT ALL A COUNTRY NEEDS FOR ITS DEVELOPMENT IS A STEEL MILL OR SOME OTHER KIND OF BASIC INDUSTRIAL OPERATION.

THEY FAIL TO UNDERSTAND, HE SAID, THE NEED FOR THE SLOW DEVELOPMENT OF SKILLS TO OPERATE SUCH PLANTS, AND THEY FAIL TO UNDERSTAND THAT PLANTS MUST BE LOCATED IN CLOSE RELATION TO NATURAL RESOURCES.

FINALLY, SAID ACHESON, THEY FAIL TO UNDERSTAND THAT "UNLESS THE CONDITIONS ARE CREATED BY WHICH INVESTORS MAY FAIRLY PUT THEIR MONEY INTO THAT COUNTRY, THEN THERE IS A GREAT IMPEDIMENT TO DEVELOPMENT.

"IT IS NO SOLUTION," HE ASSERTED, "TO SAY 'WELL, THE PRIVATE INVESTORS WON'T DO IT--THEREFORE GOVERNMENTS MUST.'"

MD230AES

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON IS EXPECTED TO PUT UP TO CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS SHORTLY THE PROPOSED FINAL DRAFT OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY TREATY.

DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES INDICATED TONIGHT THIS IS THE LIKELY NEXT STAGE IN THE LONG NEGOTIATIONS FOR AN AGREEMENT BY THE UNITED STATES, CANADA AND WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS FOR JOINT DEFENSE AGAINST ARMED AGGRESSION.

CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, CHAIRMAN BLOOM (D-NY) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH) AND OTHERS ALREADY HAVE BEEN CONSULTED ON THE ASPECTS OF THE PROPOSED PACT. SOME OFFICIALS EXPECTED IT TO BE READY FOR SIGNING NEXT MONTH PROBABLY IN WASHINGTON. IT MUST BE RATIFIED BY THE SENATE.

TREATY DRAFTS UNDER CONSIDERATION HAVE FOLLOWED IN GENERAL THE PATTERN OF THE 1948 RIO DE JANEIRO TREATY FOR DEFENSE OF THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE. THIS PLEDGES ALL THE NATIONS SIGNING TO TREAT AN ATTACK ON ONE AS AN ATTACK ON ALL BUT OMITS A DEFINITE COMMITMENT TO GO TO WAR AUTOMATICALLY.

AMONG THE MAJOR POINTS OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT STILL UNDECIDED IS HOW LONG IT SHOULD CONTINUE IN EFFECT WITHOUT RENEWAL. DIPLOMATS FAMILIAR WITH NEGOTIATIONS SAID PROPOSALS HAVE RANGED BETWEEN FIVE AND FIFTY YEARS, WITH 15 OR 20 YEARS APPARENTLY FAVORED.

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON,JAN.[illegible]AP)-SENATOR TAFT (R-OHIO) SAID TONIGHT THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S [illegible]W GLOBAL AID PROGRAM FOR UNDEVELOPED AREAS MAY PUT THE UNITED STATES IN THE UNPOPULAR ROLE OF AN "ABSENTEE LANDLORD TRYING TO RUN OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS."

SPEAKING BEFORE A MCKINLEY DAY MEETING OF THE OHIO STATE SOCIETY, TAFT SAID HE BELIEVES MR.TRUMAN IS OVERESTIMATING THE PLAN'S POSSIBLE WORTH.

THE PROGRAM LOOKS TOWARD INVESTMENT OF AMERICAN PRIVATE CAPITAL AND TECHNICAL SKILLS IN PARTS OF THE WORLD NOW LAGGING IN DEVELOPMENT.

"APPARENTLY THE PRESIDENT VIEWS THE PLAN AS SOMETHING WHICH MIGHT SUCCEED THE MARSHALL PLAN," TAFT SAID. "I'M RATHER DOUBTFUL IT WOULD WORK, BECAUSE THE RECORD OF FOREIGN INVESTMENTS BY THIS COUNTRY SHOWS THAT ANY RETURN TO THE INVESTOR IS VERY UNCERTAIN."

TAFT SAID HE WOULD PREFER TO SEE OUTRIGHT GIFTS CONTINUED TO NEEDY LANDS WITHOUT ANY THOUGHT OF RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES.

HE ECHOED A VIEW EXPRESSED THIS WEEK BY SECRETARY OF STATE DEAN ACHESON--THAT IT WOULD BE WRONG TO GIVE PEOPLE IN BACKWARD PARTS OF THE WORLD THE NOTION THE UNITED STATES INTENDS TO LIFT THEM TO ITS OWN STANDARD OF LIVING.

"THEY'RE GOING TO HAVE TO DO THAT JOB THEMSELVES," TAFT ADDED. "WE'D SIMPLY BE FOOLING THE WORLD IF WE GAVE PEOPLE ANY OTHER IMPRESSION."

TAFT SAID AID TO EUROPE UNDER THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION HAS PRODUCED GOOD RESULTS BECAUSE ECA OFFICIALS ARE "NOT A GIVE-AWAY CROWD BUT HARD-HEADED BUSINESSMEN."

BUT HE QUESTIONED WHETHER SUCH ASSISTANCE COULD SOLVE THE LONG-RANGE PROBLEMS OF EUROPEAN NATIONS.

"WITH THE EXCEPTION OF ITALY, NONE OF THE MARSHALL PLAN COUNTRIES IS REALLY DOING ANYTHING TO HELP ITSELF," TAFT SAID.

"THE PEOPLE GENERALLY ARE DEPENDING ON THEIR GOVERNMENTS FOR EVERYTHING. TRAVELING IN EUROPE YOU GET THE FEELING THESE NATIONS ARE COMPLETELY REGULATED. AND WHEN YOU START GOVERNMENT ON A CAREER OF REGULATION YOU GET A CHOKING OFF OF FREE ENTERPRISE."

TAFT SAID HE BELIEVES THE SOLUTION FOR EUROPEAN PEOPLES LIES NOT ONLY IN SELF-HELP BUT IN ECONOMIC AND POSSIBLY POLITICAL UNION.

BY DAVID J.WILKIE

ASSOCIATED PRESS AUTOMOTIVE EDITOR

(ADVANCE)-DETROIT, JAN.29-(AP)-MANY UNCERTAINTIES LIE AHEAD OF THE AUTO INDUSTRY THIS YEAR DESPITE OPTIMISTIC STATEMENTS BY ITS LEADERS.

THERE PROBABLY HAS BEEN NO TIME SINCE THE WAR WHEN YOU COULD HEAR AS MANY DIFFERING OPINIONS ABOUT WHAT MAY HAPPEN BEFORE THE YEAR'S END.

IS THE SELLER'S MARKET ABOUT ENDED? ARE PRICES GOING TO LEVEL OFF OR DECLINE? WILL THE INDUSTRY BUILD 6,000,000 (M) VEHICLES THIS YEAR? CAN THE AUTO DEALERS SELL THAT MANY CARS AND TRUCKS IN 1949?

THESE ARE A FEW OF THE QUESTIONS BEING HEARD WITH INCREASING FREQUENCY IN AUTOMOTIVE CIRCLES. MOST OF THE ANSWERS ARE BEING QUALIFIED.

SOME EXECUTIVES HAVE EMPHASIZED THE CAR INDUSTRY NEVER HAS SOLD AS MANY CARS AND TRUCKS IN JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH AS IT NORMALLY DOES IN APRIL, MAY AND JUNE. THIS IS TRADITIONAL, THEY SAY. YET THE VERY APPEARANCE OF A TAPERING OFF IS EVIDENCE THAT SOMETHING LIKE NORMALCY MAY BE RETURNING TO THE INDUSTRY.

FOR SEVERAL MAKES OF CARS THE SELLER'S MARKET ALREADY HAS GONE. SUPPLY AND DEMAND WILL NOT BE ENTIRELY BALANCED DURING THE YEAR'S SECOND QUARTER, BUT YOU WON'T HAVE MUCH TROUBLE GETTING DELIVERY OF MOST MIDDLE PRICE CARS.

A LOW PRICED CAR WILL NOT BE QUITE AS EASY TO GET. BUT EVEN IN THE POPULAR PRICE FIELD THE DEALERS MAY BE HUNTING CUSTOMERS BY THIS TIME NEXT YEAR.

THERE MAY BE FEWER PRICE HIKES AFTER CHRYSLER ANNOUNCES ITS NEW SCHEDULES IN THE NEXT FEW WEEKS. SUBSTANTIAL WAGE INCREASES AND HIGHER MANUFACTURING COSTS, OF COURSE, WILL BRING FURTHER PRICE

ADVANCES.

IF THE INDUSTRY BUILDS 6,000,000 (M) VEHICLES THIS YEAR, A MUCH GREATER PART OF THE TOTAL WILL BE IN THE LOW PRICED FIELD. THAT IS WHY THE LOWER PRICE CAR MAKERS COULD CATCH UP WITH DEMAND BY THIS YEAR'S END.

CERTAINLY IF THAT MANY CARS AND TRUCKS ARE MADE THIS YEAR, THE MERCHANDISING DIVISION WILL HAVE A SELLING JOB ON ITS HANDS.

B105DT (Q)

JAN 1949

IT HAS BEEN SAID IN SOME AUTOMOTIVE QUARTERS THAT PRESENT STYLING MAY HOLD THROUGH THE NEXT TWO YEARS OR MORE BECAUSE OF THE EXPENSE INVOLVED IN MAKING MORE CHANGES.

YET SEVERAL MANUFACTURERS HAVE HEARD COMPLAINTS OF THE LONGER AND WIDER, POSTWAR STYLING. THE STYLING MAY HAVE MADE FOR MORE RIDING COMFORT, BUT THERE HAVE BEEN CRITICISMS OF DIFFICULT PARKING AND OF THOUSANDS OF GARAGES THAT HAD TO BE REBUILT.

SOME OF THE CAR MAKERS HAVE CUT DOWN OVERALL LENGTH BY SEVERAL INCHES WITHOUT REDUCING WHEELBASE. CHRYSLER AVOIDED INCREASING WIDTH YET PROVIDED MORE ROOMINESS IN ITS SEVERAL NEW MODELS.

THIS UNDOUBTEDLY WILL BE A SALES ARGUMENT FOR CHRYSLER IN THE BUYER'S MARKET.

THE ENTIRE CHRYSLER LINE--CHRYSLER, DE SOTO, DODGE AND PLYMOUTH--SHOULD BE ON SALE SOME TIME IN MARCH. PRESENT PLANNING CALLS FOR EACH DIVISION TO MAKE SEPARATE INTRODUCTIONS. DODGE IS LIKELY TO BE FIRST IN THE DEALER SHOWROOMS.

INDUSTRY QUARTERS STILL ARE SPECULATING ON WHAT INCREASE CHRYSLER WILL MAKE IN THE PRICE OF ITS 1949 MODELS. PRICE TAGS PROBABLY WILL NOT BE DISCLOSED UNTIL THE NEW UNITS GO ON SALE.

HN110AES NM

WASHINGTON,JAN. 27-(AP)-VETERANS ORGANIZATIONS ASKED CONGRESS TODAY TO MAKE 18,000,000 VETERANS OF BOTH WORLD WARS ELIGIBLE FOR $60-A-MONTH PENSIONS WHEN THEY REACH 60.

IN A SEPARATE REQUEST, THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS PROPOSED ENACTMENT OF A WORLD WAR II BONUS LAW COSTING AN ESTIMATED $15,000,000,000 (B) TO $20,000,000,000 (B) IN ADJUSTED SERVICE COMPENSATION.

THE PENSION PROPOSALS WERE PRESENTED BY THE VFW AND THE AMERICAN LEGION TO THE HOUSE VETERANS AFFAIRS COMMITTEE.

THAT COMMITTEE BEGAN HEARINGS TODAY ON A BILL BY ITS CHAIRMAN, REP.RANKIN (D-MISS), TO PAY OLD AGE AND NON-SERVICE CONNECTED DISABILITY PENSIONS TO VETERANS OF THE LAST TWO WARS. THE MINIMUM PENSION TO A VETERAN, SICK OR WELL, WOULD BE $60 A MONTH, BEGINNING AT THE AGE OF 60.

UNOFFICIAL ESTIMATES PLACE THE COST OF THE PROPOSED PENSION AT $2,000,000,000 (B) TO $3,000,000,000 (B) A YEAR. SOME 3,500,000 VETERANS WOULD BE ELIGIBLE WITHIN 10 YEARS, ACCORDING TO FIGURES COMPILED BY THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION.

VETERANS SPOKESMEN SAID THEY WERE UNABLE TO GIVE THE COMMITTEE ANY ESTIMATES NOW OF PEAK PENSION COSTS.

GEN.JOHN THOMAS TAYLOR, APPEARING FOR THE AMERICAN LEGION, SAID THAT AS OF JANUARY 1 THERE WERE 490,839 VETERANS OF WORLD WARS I AND II BETWEEN 60 AND 64 YEARS OF AGE. PENSION COSTS FOR THIS GROUP ALONE WOULD TOTAL $455,814,000 A YEAR, HE SAID.

OMAR B.KETCHUM, VFW SPOKESMAN, SAID THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION ESTIMATED OVERALL PENSIONS COSTS AT MORE THAN $2,000,000,000 (B) ANNUALLY BY 1954. HE SAID HE THOUGHT THIS WAS TOO HIGH.

"BUT I DON'T THINK ANYONE CAN SAY WITH ANY CERTAINTY RIGHT NOW WHAT THE COSTS WILL BE," KETCHUM ADDED.

THE VFW'S BONUS PROPOSAL, ALREADY INTRODUCED IN THE HOUSE BY RANKIN IN A SEPARATE BILL, WOULD PAY WORLD WAR II VETERANS AT THE RATE OF $3 A DAY FOR SERVICE IN THE UNITED STATES BUT NOT TO EXCEED $3,500, AND $4 A DAY FOR SERVICE OVERSEAS AND NOT EXCEEDING $4,500.

THE COST FIGURES OF $15,000,000,000 (B) TO $20,000,000,000 (B) ARE THOSE OF THE VFW.

A79WX

IN ADDITION, IT OFFERS PENSIONS FOR NON-SERVICE CONNECTED DISABILITIES RANGING FROM $20 TO $90 A MONTH, AND $120 A MONTH IN CASES WHERE THE VETERAN REQUIRES AN ATTENDANT BECAUSE OF TOTAL HELPLESSNESS.

LYALL T.BEGGS, VFW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF, TOLD THE COMMITTEE A PENSION LAW WAS "LONG OVER-DUE", AND THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO PENSION LEGISLATION SINCE 1921 WHEN CONGRESS PROVIDED FOR SPANISH AMERICAN WAR VETERANS.

LEGISLATIVE REPRESENTATIVES, IN PRESENTING THE LEGION AND VFW PROGRAMS, BOTH DESCRIBED WAR SERVICE PENSIONS AS "A TRADITION" SINCE THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

CHAIRMAN RANKIN COMMENTED:

"IF THERE EVER WAS A COMMITTEE SYMPATHETIC TO THE VETERANS, IT IS THIS COMMITTEE."

IN RELATED PROPOSALS, BOTH THE LEGION AND VFW ALSO ASKED COST-OF-LIVING INCREASES IN PRESENT GOVERNMENT DISABILITY PAYMENTS TO DISABLED VETERANS, AND LIBERALIZING OF INCOME RESTRICTIONS ON PENSION ELIGIBILITY.

AXIS SALLY

JAN 1949

BY KARL R.BAUMAN

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-"AXIS SALLY" LANDED TODAY ON THE RECEIVING END OF SOME OF HER WARTIME BROADCASTS FROM GERMANY.

THE BROADCASTS BROUGHT MAINE-BORN MILDRED E.GILLARS, 48, TO TRIAL IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT ON A TREASON CHARGE.

THE JURY ALREADY HAS HEARD FOUR WITNESSES FROM GERMANY TESTIFY TO MISS GILLARS' ACTIVITIES FOR THE GERMAN OVERSEAS RADIO DURING THE WAR.

JOHN M.KELLEY,JR., CHIEF GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR, TOLD REPORTERS THAT ONLY ONE MORE WITNESS WILL BE CALLED BEFORE HE BEGINS A JOB OF SEVERAL DAYS DURATION PLAYING RECORDINGS OF MISS GILLARS' PROGRAMS. GI'S FROM AFRICA TO GERMANY CALLED HER BROADCASTS THE "AXIS SALLY" PROGRAM.

KELLEY IDENTIFIED THE WITNESS AS HANS P.WINZEN OF DETROIT. HE SAID WINZEN WAS A COUNTER INTELLIGENCE OFFICER IN GERMANY AND WILL TELL HOW HE CAME INTO POSSESSION OF SEVEN ORIGINAL RECORDS OF A PROGRAM THE GERMANS BILLED AS "MIDGE AT THE MIKE."

IN ADDITION TO THE SEVEN ORIGINALS, KELLEY SAID HE PLANS TO HAVE PLAYED TO THE JURY MORE THAN 20 RECORDINGS MADE IN THIS COUNTRY OF "AXIS SALLY" BROADCASTS.

THE COURTROOM WAS RIGGED UP ELABORATELY FOR THE EVENT. EARPHONES, RATHER THAN A LOUDSPEAKER, WERE PROVIDED THE JURORS, JUDGE EDWARD M. CURRAN, MISS GILLARS, AND PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE ATTORNEYS.

AS A PRELIMINARY FOR THE RECORD PLAYING, KELLEY YESTERDAY PUT THREE GERMANS--TWO MEN AND A WOMAN--ON THE WITNESS STAND. ALL TESTIFIED THAT THEY KNEW MISS GILLARS IN GERMANY AND THAT THEY HAD SEEN HER MAKE RECORDINGS OR LIVE BROADCASTS.

THE MEN, HANS VON RICHTER, 38, AND PAUL NOBACK, 45, SAID THEY HAD

BELONGED TO THE NAZI PARTY, BUT MISS INGE SYLVIA DOMAN SAID SHE NEVER DID. MISS DOMAN, 32, WHO LIVED IN NEW YORK FROM 1924 TO 1932, TESTIFIED THAT SHE ACTED AS ANNOUNCER FOR MANY OF MISS GILLARS' PROGRAMS.

MISS GILLARS ONCE TOLD HER THAT SHE HAD "DIFFICULTY" INTERVIEWING AMERICAN PRISONERS IN A POW CAMP, SHE SAID.

"SHE SAID THE SOLDIERS THREATENED HER," MISS DOMAN RELATED. ASKED HOW THEY THREATENED MISS GILLARS, SHE REPLIED: "WITH WORDS." SHE ADDED: "THEY DIDN'T LIKE TO HAVE HER THERE."

JAMES J.LAUGHLIN, MISS GILLARS' CHIEF ATTORNEY, ASKED MISS DOMAN WHETHER SHE WASN'T "A LITTLE JEALOUS" OF THE DEFENDANT.

"NO, I WASN'T," SHE REPLIED CALMLY. "OUR DUTIES WERE DIFFERENT. I WAS ONLY AN ANNOUNCER AND HAD NO REASON TO BE JEALOUS."

SOLEMN JUDGE CURRAN ALMOST SMILED--JUST ONCE. THAT WAS WHEN MISS DOMAN SAID SHE WAS CALLED "TOOTS" IN ONE BROADCAST. SOME LESS RESTRAINED PERSONS LAUGHED OUT LOUD, BUT MARSHALS ANNOUNCED THAT LAUGHTER IN THE COURT WAS NOT IN ORDER.

MD243AES

WASHINGTON,JAN 27-(AP)-THE SENATE TODAY APPROVED THE NOMINATIONS OF JAMES E.WEBB AS UNDERSECRETARY OF STATE AND ALBERT J.LOVELAND AS UNDERSECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE.

BOTH THE SELECTIONS BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN WERE ACCEPTED WITHOUT DEBATE AFTER THE SENATE HEARD COMMITTEE REPORTS THAT THERE WAS NO OPPOSITION.

WEBB, A NORTH CAROLINIAN, FORMERLY WAS DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET. AS UNDERSECRETARY, HE WILL ASSIST DEAN ACHESON WHO HAS BEEN SWORN IN AS SECRETARY OF STATE TO SUCCEED GENERAL GEORGE C.MARSHALL. THE LATTER RETIRED BECAUSE OF ILL HEALTH.

WEBB TAKES THE PLACE OF FORMER UNDERSECRETARY ROBERT A.LOVETT, WHO RESIGNED WHEN MARSHALL LEFT OFFICE.

LOVELAND, WHO COMES FROM IOWA, WAS NOMINATED BY PRESIDENT TRUMAN DURING THE CONGRESSIONAL RECESS. LIKE WEBB, HE RECEIVED QUICK APPROVAL OF A SENATE COMMITTEE.

THE SENATE ALSO CONFIRMED THE NOMINATIONS OF THREE U.S. ATTORNEYS AND THREE U.S. MARSHALS.

THE MARSHALS: THOMAS N.CURRAN, DISTRICT OF MAINE; PAUL B.MESSICK, DISTRICT OF DELAWARE, AND JACK R.CAUFIELD, DISTRICT OF OREGON.

THE ATTORNEYS: WILLIAM MARVEL, DISTRICT OF DELAWARE; GILMORE S.HAYNIE, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA, AND MILES N.PIKE, DISTRICT OF NEVADA.

..IGHT LEAD AXIS SALLY (400)

BY ROGER D.GREENE

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-THE WARTIME VOICE OF "AXIS SALLY"--BEAMING NAZI PROPAGANDA TO AMERICAN HOMES--ECHOED WITH DRAMATIC IMPACT AT THE TREASON TRIAL OF MILDRED E.GILLARS TODAY.

LISTENING WITH NO OUTWARD SIGN OF EMOTION, THE MAINE-BORN DEFENDANT HEARD A PLAYBACK OF BROADCASTS SHE ALLEGEDLY MADE FROM HITLER GERMANY.

IF CONVICTED, MISS GILLARS FACES A MAXIMUM PENALTY OF DEATH IN THE ELECTRIC CHAIR. SHE HAS PLEADED INNOCENT.

"THIS IS BERLIN CALLING....BERLIN CALLING THE AMERICAN MOTHERS, WIVES AND SWEETHEARTS," THE VOICE BEGAN IN CHEERFUL, INTIMATE TONES AFTER A PRELUDE OF MUSIC.

CHIEF PROSECUTOR JOHN M.KELLEY, JR., SAID THE FIRST BROADCAST PLAYED IN THE CROWDED FEDERAL COURTROOM WAS RECORDED BY U.S. GOVERNMENT MONITORS BETWEEN 9 AND 9:33 P.M., MAY 18, 1943.

THE VOICE--IDENTIFIED BY A GOVERNMENT WITNESS AS THE VOICE OF

MISS GILLARS--WENT ON TO EXPLAIN TO AMERICAN LISTENERS THE "REASON FOR MY BEING HERE IN BERLIN" AND "WHY I'M NOT SITTING AT HOME WITH YOU AT THE LITTLE SEWING BEES KNITTING SOCKS FOR OUR MEN OVER IN FRENCH NORTH AFRICA."

THEN IT SAID:

"YES, GIRLS, THERE IS A REASON, AND IT'S THIS: IT'S BECAUSE I'M NOT ON THE SIDE OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT X X X AND HIS JEWISH FRIENDS AND HIS BRITISH FRIENDS BECAUSE I'VE BEEN BROUGHT UP TO BE A 100 PERCENT AMERICAN GIRL...."

THE VOICE DECLARED THAT DEFEAT FOR GERMANY WOULD MEAN DEFEAT FOR AMERICA AND EXPLAINED THAT THE PURPOSE OF "THESE LITTLE HEART TO HEART TALKS WITH YOU ONCE A WEEK" WAS TO "GET YOU TO SEE THE LIGHT OF DAY AND LET YOU REALIZE THAT YOU'RE ON THE WRONG SIDE OF THE FENCE."

MORE MUSIC WAS FOLLOWED BY THE VOICE SAYING:

"GEE, GIRLS, ISN'T IT A DARN SHAME: ALL THE SWEET OLD AMERICAN SUMMER ATMOSPHERE WHICH THE BOYS ARE MISSING JUST NOW...."

A36WX

MISS GILLARS LISTENED WITHOUT EXPRESSION, RESTING HER CHIN ON FOLDED HANDS AS THE VOICE CONCLUDED THE BROADCAST WITH THESE WORDS:

"DO YOU SAY, 'MY COUNTRY RIGHT OR WRONG?' NO, GIRLS, THAT'S FALSE SENTIMENTALITY AND I DO NOT SAY 'MY COUNTRY, RIGHT OR WRONG.'

"I LOVE AMERICA, BUT I DO NOT LOVE ROOSEVELT AND ALL HIS 'KIKE' BOY FRIENDS."

INTERSPERSED WITH THE SPOKEN MESSAGE, THE BROADCAST PLAYED THE HAUNTING STRAINS OF "LILI MARLENE," THE SONG WHICH AMERICAN SOLDIERS TOOK OVER FROM ROMMEL'S AFRICA CORPS AND MADE THEIR OWN FIGHTING SONG.

UN-AMERICAN

WASHINGTON,JAN 27-(AP)-THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WHICH THE REPUBLICANS CONTROLLED CALLED TODAY FOR AN UNCEASING FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNIST SPIES.

EXTINCT ITSELF, IT SUGGESTED AN EXPANDED STAFF FOR ITS DEMOCRATIC SUCCESSOR.

THE PROPOSAL WAS MADE IN THE FINAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE FOR THE 80TH CONGRESS WHICH WENT OUT OF BUSINESS EARLY THIS MONTH. FIVE OF THE OLD COMMITTEE MEMBERS ARE NOT ON THE NEW GROUP, ONE HAVING BEEN ELECTED TO THE SENATE, TWO HAVING BEEN DEFEATED LAST NOVEMBER, AND TWO, BOTH DEMOCRATS, HAVING BEEN DROPPED WHEN THEIR OWN PARTY TOOK CONTROL.

THE REPORT WAS LARGELY A REVIEW OF WHAT THE COMMITTEE HAD DONE DURING THE TWO YEARS OF THE 80TH CONGRESS AND RELATED THE NATURE OF ITS NUMEROUS INVESTIGATIONS.

IT CONCLUDED WITH PREVIOUSLY-MADE RECOMMENDATIONS THAT THE ESPIONAGE LAWS BE STRENGTHENED, THAT LEGISLATION BE ENACTED TO CURB COMMUNISM, THAT PENALTIES FOR CONTEMPT OF CONGRESS BE MADE MORE SEVERE AND THAT IMMIGRATION AND PASSPORT REGULATIONS BE REVISED.

THE COMMITTEE URGED THE NEW CONGRESS TO "APPROPRIATE ADEQUATE FUNDS FOR EXPANDING THE STAFF" OF THE COMMITTEE "SO IT CAN STEP UP ITS ACTION IN DISCLOSING THE IDENTITY AND FUNCTIONS OF UNAMERICAN ELEMENTS BOTH IN AND OUT OF PUBLIC OFFICE IN THIS COUNTRY."

REITERATING ITS ASSERTION THAT THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES IS "NOT A TRUE POLITICAL PARTY" BUT "A CONSPIRACY IN BEHALF OF THE SOVIET UNION," THE COMMITTEE SAID THE PARTY'S OBJECTIVES ARE:

1. TO ENLIST NEW RECRUITS FOR THE PRIMARY, UNDERGROUND, COMMUNIST APPARATUS.
2. TO LEND "AN IDEALISTIC CAMOUFLAGE TO THIS SINISTER, CONSPIRATORIAL APPARATUS."
3. TO ACT AS "ITS PROTECTIVE DEFENSE MECHANISM."
4. PROVIDE IT WITH FUNDS AND OTHER RESOURCES.

IT CALLED "THE STORM OF OPPOSITION" TO THE COMMITTEE "A TRIBUTE TO ITS ACHIEVEMENTS IN THE FIELD OF EXPOSURE OF THOSE WHO THREATEN OUR NATIONAL SECURITY."

THE COMMITTEE SAID THE RASK OF DRAFTING LEGISLATION TO CURB THE ACTIVITIES OF "THE COMMUNIST FIFTH COLUMN" IS ONE THAT WILL "TAX THE GENIUS OF OUR MOST BRILLIANT LEGAL MINDS IN THE YEARS AHEAD."

"UPON ITS SUCCESSFUL SOLUTION," IT ADDED, "MAY WELL DEPEND OUR PRESERVATION AS A DEMOCRATIC NATION."

WASHINGTON, JAN 27-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION WAS CALLED ON TODAY TO PAY A PRO RATA SHARE OF THE COLUMBIA BASIN IRRIGATION PROJECT FOR ANY LAND IT TAKES FOR ITS RESERVE AT RICHLAND, WASH.

REP.HOLMES (R-WASH) TOLD A REPORTER HE HAS BEEN UNABLE TO ASCERTAIN JUST HOW MUCH LAND THE AEC PLANS TO TAKE FROM WAHLUPE SLOPE, IN THE COLUMBIA BASIN PROJECT ACROSS THE RIVER FROM ITS PLANT.

HE SAID THE COMMISSION HAS ALREADY TAKEN SOME 80,000 ACRES AND HAS RESTRICTED ANOTHER 90,000.

"IN THE FACE OF THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION'S PLAN TO EXPAND ITS ACREAGE ON THE WAHLUPE SLOPE," HOLMES SAID, "THE PHYSICAL FACILITIES OF THE DROP DOWN CANAL OF THE SOUTH IRRIGATION DISTRICT ARE GOING TO BE CONSTRUCTED ACCORDING TO THE PLAN OF THE RECLAMATION BUREAU, IN HOPE THAT SOME DAY THE AEC WILL TURN THE LAND BACK AND IT WILL BE PUT UNDER IRRIGATION.

"IT WOULD BE UNFAIR TO THE WATER USERS OF THIS DISTRICT TO PAY THE ENTIRE COST WHEN THE AEC TAKES ACREAGE AND SOME WAY SHOULD BE FOUND FOR THE COMMISSION TO PAY ITS PRO RATA SHARE OF THE COST OF THE PROJECT."

WASHINGTON, JAN.27-(AP)-SEVEN MONTHS OF THE BERLIN AIRLIFT HAS COST THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY $106,750,000 (M), THE SERVICES REPORTED TODAY.

THIS FIGURE DOES NOT INCLUDE THE COST OF SUPPLIES FLOWN INTO THE BLOCKADED CITY, NOR THOSE OF THE ARMY WHICH PROVIDES GROUND TRANSPORTATION, CARGO HANDLING AND OTHER SERVICES SUPPORTING "OPERATION VITTLES."

THE REPORT, COVERING THE PERIOD FROM JUNE 26 TO YESTERDAY, SAID THAT 651,953 TONS OF FUEL, FOOD AND OTHER SUPPLIES HAD BEEN FLOWN TO BERLIN IN 78,297 FLIGHTS.

IN ADDITION, BRITAIN'S ROYAL AIR FORCE PLANES CARRIED 220,204 TONS OF SUPPLIES.

THE TOTAL COST TO THE AIR FORCE AND NAVY INCLUDED $25,222,000 (M) FOR FUEL, OIL, MAINTENANCE AND SUBSISTENCE AND CLOTHING FOR PERSONNEL; $37,743,000 (M) FOR RECONDITIONING OF PLANES, COMMERCIAL TRUCK AND OTHER TRANSPORTATION AND ENGINEERING SUPPLIES FOR NEW RUNWAYS. ALSO IN THE COST WAS $4,690,000 (M) FOR 19 PLANES WRECKED IN THE OPERATION.

SOVIET-JAPAN

WASHINGTON, JAN.27-(AP)-RUSSIA'S AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN TODAY CHARGED THE UNITED STATES WITH EVADING THE 11-NATION FAR EASTERN COMMISSION IN ORDERING NEW MEASURES FOR BUILDING UP THE JAPANESE ECONOMY.

AB1205PES

A154WX

BULLETIN MATTER

WASHINGTON--1ST ADD SOVIET-JAPAN X X X ECONOMY.

PANYUSHKIN TERMED THE RECOVERY MEASURES "IN DIRECT CONTRADICTION" WITH POLICIES OF THE COMMISSION, THE TOP ALLIED GOVERNING GROUP FOR THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION.

THE SOVIET ENVOY CALLED UPON THE COMMISSION TO "ADOPT ITS OWN DECISION" ON WAYS TO ASSIST JAPAN'S RECOVERY. PANYUSHKIN VOICED HIS CRITICISM IN A STATEMENT SUBMITTED TO THE COMMISSION AT ITS WEEKLY CLOSED-DOOR MEETING. HE LATER MADE PUBLIC THE STATEMENT.

AB1208PES

THE NEW AMERICAN MEASURES AIMED AT STABILIZING THE JAPANESE ECONOMY WERE ISSUED LAST MONTH AS A DIRECTIVE TO GEN.DOUGLAS MACARTHUR, THE SUPREME ALLIED COMMANDER. A COPY OF THE ORDER LATER WAS SUBMITTED TO THE COMMISSION.

PANYUSHKIN CALLED THIS PROCEDURE "INADMISSIBLE" BECAUSE HE SAID IT MADE "FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES" IN THE OCCUPATION AND ANY SUCH ACTION REQUIRED ADVANCE AGREEMENT FROM THE COMMISSION.

THE AMBASSADOR COUPLED HIS COMPLAINT ON THIS POINT WITH ANOTHER IN A LONG SERIES OF RUSSIAN CRITICISMS OF THE MANNER IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS CARRYING OUT THE JAPANESE OCCUPATION.

PANYUSHKIN SAID THE ALLIES' BASIC POST-SURRENDER POLICY CALLED FOR STRENGTHENING DEMOCRATIC FORCES. BUT, HE ADDED, LAST MONTH'S DIRECTIVE CONTAINED "NOT A SINGLE WORD" ABOUT "STRENGTHENING DEMOCRATIC FORCES IN JAPAN."

SPECIFICALLY, PANYUSHKIN CONTENDED THAT THE LATEST STABILIZATION MEASURES ARE IN CONFLICT WITH COMMISSION DECISIONS ON ECONOMIC DEMILITARIZATION, REDUCTION OF JAPANESE INDUSTRIAL WAR POTENTIAL, RESUMPTION OF PEACEFUL ECONOMIC ACTIVITY, FISCAL, MONETARY AND BANKING POLICIES, AND POLICIES ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND FINANCIAL RELATIONS.

IN ESSENCE, THE AMERICAN DIRECTIVE CALLED UPON JAPAN TO ACHIEVE A "TRUE" BUDGET BALANCE, TO INCREASE TAXES AND COLLECTIONS AND TIGHTEN CONTROLS OVER CREDIT, WAGES, PRICES, FOREIGN TRADE, RATIONING AND FOOD COLLECTION.

MADE PUBLIC DECEMBER 17, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THE PERFORMANCE OF THE JAPANESE "WILL BE WEIGHED IN CONNECTION WITH FUTURE REQUESTS" FOR AMERICAN APPROPRIATIONS.

OFFICIALS SAID AT THE TIME THE SUBSTANCE OF THE DIRECTIVE HAD BEEN COMMUNICATED TO THE OTHER TEN MEMBERS OF THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION. THEY CALLED THAT PROCEDURE "PERFECTLY CORRECT," MAINTAINING THAT THIS COUNTRY HAS AUTHORITY TO ISSUE INTERIM ORDERS TO MACARTHUR PRIOR TO FORMAL ACTION BY THE COMMISSION.

THERE WAS NO IMMEDIATE WORD AS TO WHAT ACTION, IF ANY, THE COMMISSION TOOK ON PANYUSHKIN'S DEMAND THAT IT ADOPT "ITS OWN DECISION."

WASHINGTON,JAN 27-(AP)-THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY THAT THE JOINT U.S. MILITARY ADVISORY GROUP IS WITHDRAWING FROM CHINA BECAUSE IT IS NO LONGER ABLE TO PERFORM ITS DUTIES.

MICHAEL MCDERMOTT, DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER, SAID HE DID NOT KNOW WHETHER THE MISSION ACTUALLY HAD LEFT CHINA YET BUT THAT IT CERTAINLY WAS IN PROCESS OF DOING SO.

HE SAID THE GROUP'S JOB WAS "ASSISTING AND ADVISING THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT ON STAFF LEVEL WITH RESPECT TO GENERAL ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS AND PROCEDURE IN SUCH FIELDS AS MILITARY ORGANIZATION, TRAINING AND SUPPLY."

RZ236PES

SECREST ALSO OFFERED A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR A CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY INTO DOWNWARD PRICE ADJUSTMENTS ON CRUDE OIL DURING RECENT MONTHS.

THE RESOLUTION SAID PRICES PAID TO CERTAIN PRODUCERS OF PENNSYLVANIA GRADE CRUDE OIL IN OHIO, WEST VIRGINIA AND PENNSYLVANIA HAD BEEN "ARBITRARILY AND DRASTICALLY" REDUCED FROM $4.79 TO $3.55 A BARREL BY REFINERIES.

SECREST SUGGESTED FINDING OUT WHY THE REDUCTIONS DID NOT BRING LOWER GASOLINE PRICES TO CONSUMERS AND WHETHER ANY VIOLATION OF ANTI-TRUST LAWS IS INVOLVED.

BULLETIN MATTER

WASHINGTON--1ST ADD CARR X X X COMMUNIST PARTY.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID CARR WAS ARRESTED IN NEW YORK.

IT DESCRIBED HIM AS A KEY FIGURE IN SOVIET SPYING IN CANADA.

HE PLAYED AN IMPORTANT PART, THE DEPARTMENT SAID, IN THE SPY NETWORK WHICH WAS EXPOSED IN SEPTEMBER, 1945, AFTER SOME TESTIMONY BY IGOR GOUZENKO, A RUSSIAN EMBASSY CIPHER CLERK.

A175WX

FBI DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER SAID CARR IS WANTED IN CANADA FOR VIOLATION OF THE OFFICIAL SECRETS ACT.

HOOVER SAID THAT A ROYAL COMMISSION, SET UP IN CANADA TO INVESTIGATE SPY RINGS, DECIDED THAT CARR TOOK AN ACTIVE PART IN RECRUITING SOVIET AGENTS.

THE ROYAL COMMISSION, HOOVER ADDED, ALSO SAID THAT CARR ACTED AS A CONTACT MAN FOR RUSSIAN OFFICIALS AND SECURED AND SENT CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION TO THE MOSCOW GOVERNMENT.

ACCORDING TO HOOVER, CARR ALSO ASSISTED IN FAKING A PASSPORT FOR A RUSSIAN AGENT KNOWN AS IGNACY WITCZAK, WHO THEN LIVED IN THE U.S.

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-REP.SECREST (D-OHIO) PROPOSED TODAY IMMEDIATE DEPORTATION OF COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS WHO ARE ALIENS AND THAT ALL MEMBERS BE BARRED FROM SEEKING FEDERAL ELECTIVE OFFICE.

HE INTRODUCED A JOINT RESOLUTION WHICH WOULD PROHIBIT COMMUNISTS FROM FILING AS CANDIDATES ON THEIR OR ANY OTHER PARTY SLATE.

PENALTIES PROPOSED FOR VIOLATION OF SUCH A BAN WOULD BE A MAXIMUM OF $10,000 FINE, 10-YEARS IMPRISONMENT OR BOTH.

SECREST'S RESOLUTION SAID ALIEN COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS SHOULD BE ORDERED OUT OF THE COUNTRY ON PROOF OF PARTY MEMBERSHIP.

CHAIRMAN CELLER (D-NY) OF THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, TO WHICH THE RESOLUTION WAS ASSIGNED, TOLD A REPORTER HE WOULD OPPOSE THE MEASURE ON THE GROUND IT IS THE INDIVIDUAL STATES' FUNCTION TO DECIDE WHAT PARTIES SHALL BE LEGALLY RECOGNIZED.

CHAIRMAN BLOOM (D-NY) OF THE HOUSE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE OBJECTED TO THE PROPOSAL ON THE SAME SCORE, AND ADDED THAT THE CONSIDERS IT UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

REP.RANKIN (D-MISS) SAID "EVERY COMMUNIST SHOULD BE DRIVEN FROM PUBLIC LIFE AND KEPT OUT" NOT ONLY AT THE FEDERAL LEVEL BUT IN BOTH STATE AND MUNICIPAL FIELDS.

WASHINGTON,JAN 27-(AP)-REP.MCCULLOCH (R-OHIO) SAID TODAY HE IS AGAINST THE DEMOCRATIC PROPOSAL TO ADMIT 400,000 DISPLACED EUROPEANS INTO THE UNITED STATES INSTEAD OF THE 200,000 AUTHORIZED BY PRESENT LAW.

MCCULLOCH IS A MEMBER OF THE HOUSE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE WHICH WILL CONSIDER ANY REVISION OF THE DISPLACED PERSONS LAW.

REP.CELLER (D-NY), CHAIRMAN OF THE GROUP, HAS SERVED NOTICE OF INTENT TO SEEK AMENDMENTS DOUBLING THE NUMBER OF DP'S TO BE PERMITTED ENTRY, AND OTHERWISE LIBERALIZING THE ACT.

MCCULLOCH TOLD A REPORTER HE OPPOSES ANY SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN NUMBER OF PROSPECTIVE DP IMMIGRANTS ON THE GROUND THAT THE NATION CANNOT ACCOMMODATE THEM.

HE SAID HE WOULD ALSO OBJECT TO ANY REVISION THAT WOULD ELIMINATE THE EXISTING PROVISION THAT DP'S ENTERING THE COUNTRY MUST SUPPLY GUARANTEES THEY WILL NOT BECOME PUBLIC CHARGES. IN OTHER WORDS, THEY MUST HAVE ASSURANCE OF A JOB, OR OF SPONSORSHIP BY SOME AGENCY UN-TIL THEY CAN FIND WORK.

CELLER AND OTHER DEMOCRATS HAVE ANNOUNCED THEY WANT TO WIPE OUT OTHE FEATURES OF THE PRESENT LAW WHICH THEY DESCRIBE AS "ANTI-SEMITIC" AND "ANTI-CATHOLIC."

SPONSORS OF REVISION CONTEND THAT RESTRICTIONS IN THE PRESENT STATUTE RENDER IT "DISCRIMINATORY." THEY WANT TO BROADEN ITS COVERAGE TO INCLUDE MORE NATIONALITIES AND RELIGIOUS GROUPS.

MCCULLOCH SAID HE IS AGREEABLE TO ANY CHANGES OF THIS SORT.

HE SAID THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE HAS NO IMMEDIATE PLANS FOR HEARINGS ON DP REVISION, BUT THAT HE EXPECTS THE QUESTION TO BE NO. 1 ON THE AGENDA BECAUSE OF CELLER'S KEEN PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE ISSUE.

HIS AND PERHAPS OTHER OPPOSITION NOTWITHSTANDING, MCCULLOCH SAID HE HAS LITTLE DOUBT THE DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY ON THE COMMITTEE WILL STAND SOLIDLY FOR REVISION THAT WILL INCLUDE DOUBLING OF DP QUOTAS FOR THE NATION.

(180) WASHINGTON, JAN.27-(AP)-AMERICAN AID TO CHINA VALUED AT ABOUT $50,000,000 (M) WILL CONTINUE "UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE," A TOP OFFICIAL OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION SAID TONIGHT.

HARLAN CLEVELAND, DIRECTOR OF ECA'S CHINA PROGRAM, SAID THE SHIPMENTS WILL CONSIST OF SO-CALLED "EMERGENCY COMMODITIES" SUCH AS RICE, COTTON, FERTILIZER, PETROLEUM AND SOME COAL.

CLEVELAND REPEATED STATEMENTS MADE EARLIER THIS WEEK THAT ECA WILL CONTINUE DISTRIBUTING THE FOODSTUFFS AND OTHER COMMODITIES VALUED AT ABOUT $4,000,000 (M) WHICH ARE NOW IN THE COMMUNIST-HELD TIENTSIN AND PEIPING. BUT HE EMPHASIZED THAT NONE OF THE NEW SHIPMENTS WILL BE SENT TO OCCUPIED AREAS.

HE LISTED THE FOLLOWING ALLOTMENTS FOR AID WHICH WILL BE CONTINUED TO NATIONALIST CHINA: $21,000,000 FOR RICE TO FEED THE POPULATION OF SHANGHAI AND OTHER LARGE SOUTH CHINA CITIES; $15,090,000 FOR COTTON; $9,000,000 FOR FERTILIZER TO BE USED IN SPRING PLANTING; AND $5,-000,000 FOR FUEL OIL FOR SOUTH CHINA CITIES.

ASKED ABOUT THE FUTURE OF CHINA AID AFTER THE CURRENT ECA APPROPRIATION IS COMMITTED, CLEVELAND SAID: "THAT IS A MATTER TO BE DETERMINED BY THE PRESIDENT, THE CONGRESS, AND THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE."

WASHINGTON,JAN 27-(AP)-SENATOR YOUNG (R-ND) SAID TODAY HE WAS "RELIABLY INFORMED" THAT THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION HAS ADVANCED $55,000,000 (M) TO THE UNITED KINGDOM FOR PURCHASE OF WHEAT IN CANADA.

YOUNG MADE PUBLIC A LETTER OF PROTEST TO PAUL G.HOFFMAN, ECA HEAD, IN WHICH HE SAID:

"SUCH AN AGREEMENT, IN MY OPINION, IS ENTIRELY CONTRARY TO THE PUR-POSE OF THE ECA PROGRAM.

"TO PURCHASE WHEAT IN ANOTHER COUNTRY AT THE SAME TIME THAT WE ARE ACCUMULATING VAST SURPLUSES OF FARM COMMODITIES, AND PARTICULARLY WHEAT, IN THE UNITED STATES--ALL ELIGIBLE FOR PRICE SUPPORT--JUST DOES NOT MAKE SENSE TO ME.

"I UNDERSTAND THAT THE COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION HAS UNDER LOAN OR PURCHASE AGREEMENT APPROXIMATELY 300,000,000 (M) BUSHELS OF WHEAT AND THAT, IN ALL PROBABILITY, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL SUFFER AT LEAS SOME LOSS IN THE OPERATION OF THIS PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM."

YOUNG TOLD HOFFMAN HE HAD VOTED FOR THE FOREIGN AID PROGRAM AND FOR LATER APPROPRIATIONS TO CARRY IT OUT, BUT ADDED:

"IT WAS MY BELIEF THAT THIS APPROPRIATION CONTAINED EVERY NECESSARY SAFEGUARD TO ASSURE THE PURCHASE OF FOOD SUPPLIES IN THE UNITED STATES.

"WHILE CANADA MAY BE DESERVING OF ASSISTANCE, I DID NOT UNDER-STAND THAT THIS COUNTRY WAS CONSIDERED ELIGIBLE UNDER THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR ASSISTANCE."

THE NORTH DAKOTAN ASKED HOFFMAN TO PREPARE FOR THE SENATE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE, OF WHICH HE IS A MEMBER, FIGURES SHOWING ECA PURCHASES OF FOOD WITHIN THE UNITED STATES AND PURCHASES IN OFFSHORE COUNTRIES.

YOUNG SAID FARM SURPLUSES IN THIS COUNTRY ARE BECOMING A PROBLEM.

"I WAS INFORMED," YOUNG SAID, "BY SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE BRANNAN THAT IT IS ENTIRELY POSSIBLE BY NEXT YEAR THAT ALL OF THE $4,750,000,-000 (B) BORROWING AUTHORITY GIVEN TO THE CCC TO SUPPORT FARM COMMODI-TIES WILL BE COMMITTED.

"IN VIEW OF ALL THIS, I HOPE THAT NO FURTHER AGREEMENTS SIMILAR TO THIS ONE WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM AND CANADA WILL BE ENTERED INTO."

WASHINGTON,JAN.27-(AP)-THE AIR FORCE WILL BEGIN ARCTIC TESTS OF RADIO-CONTROLLED BOMBS AND V-1 FLYING BUZZ BOMBS IN ALASKA NEXT MONTH.

IT ANNOUNCED TODAY THAT TESTS AT LADD AIR BASE WILL INVOLVE USE OF THE 12,000 POUND "TARZON," THE 1,000-POUND "RAZON," AND THE AMERICAN MODEL OF THE BUZZ BOMB USED BY THE GERMANS AGAINST LONDON IN WORLD WAR TWO.

THE "TARZON" AND THE "RAZON" ARE DROPPED FROM PLANES IN THE CONVEN-TIONAL MANNER AND ARE CLASSED AS "FREE FALLING." HOWEVER, THROUGH RADIO DEVICES OPERATING THE FINS THEIR FALL CAN BE AFFECTED AND THE BOMB STEERED TOWARD A TARGET.

THE BUZZ BOMB IS POWERED, HAS RUDIMENTARY WINGS AND CAN BE LAUNCHED FROM GROUND INSTALLATIONS, OR FROM A PLANE, AND FLYS TO ITS TARGET.

THE AIR FORCE SAID THAT IN THE ALASKA TESTS THE RADIO-CONTROLLED BOMBS WILL BE DROPPED FROM B-29 BOMBERS AND THE BUZZ BOMBS WILL BE LAUNCHED FROM THE SUPERFORTRESSES.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID:

"INFORMATION GAINED IN THE TESTS WILL BE USED TO DEVELOP TECHNIQUES

FOR COLD WEATHER OPERATION OF THE RADIO-CONTROLLED BOMBS AND THE JB-2 (THE BUZZ BOMB) AND MAY INDICATE MODIFICATIONS THAT WOULD INCREASE THEIR EFFECTIVENESS IN THE ARCTIC."

A FEW OF THE RAZON BOMBS AND THE BUZZ BOMBS WERE TESTED IN ALASKA TWO YEARS AGO.

THE AIR FORCE ALSO IS KNOWN TO HAVE CONDUCTED ALASKAN WINTER EXPERIMENTS IN THE PAST WITH "HOMING" GUIDED MISSLES. ONE OF THESE WAS A BOMB DESIGNED TO SEEK OUT A HEAT-EMITTING TARGET, SUCH AS A STEEL FACTORY.

Britain, 4 Allies Agree To Set Up 'Council Of Europe'; Russia Assails Atlantic Pact As Effort To Wreck U.N

BRITAIN, ALLIES AGREE TO SET UP 'EUROPE COUNCIL'

R. HEWETT

LONDON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Britain and her four Brussels pact allies agreed tonight to set up a "Council of Europe," opening the way ultimately for a single parliament to represent all the European democracies.

The compromise dicision was announced following a conference of the foreign ministers of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. It constitutes a major step toward a full-fledged western European union.

Ends Long Deadlock

By giving the go-ahead signal for establishment of the council, the five ministers ended a deadlock which had extended for months. A communique said the ministers "decided to invite other European countries to take part in the negotiations for the establishment of the Council of Europe."

The council, the communique added, will be divided into two sections—a "ministerial council," which will meet privately and be responsible directly to the various member governments, and an advisory "consultative body," which will debate in public any matters except mutual defense.

Authoritative sources in close touch with the two-day conference here said the council's headquarters would be set up in the French city of Strasbourg, near the German border.

Italy Invited

Italy will be the first country outside the Brussels alliance to be invited to join in the talks to establish the council, one informant said.

The biggest stumbling block to western European unity was shoved aside when the five powers agreed on establishing the "consultative body"—a single chamber in which representatives of the European democracies can air their views.

The compromise agreement gives the consultative body only limited rights of debate, with all final decisions resting with the ministerial council. Diplomatic sources hailed the agreement as the forerunner of a genuine European parliament.

Britain, accused in some quarters of "dragging her feet" in the project, to establish a full western European union, apparently made the greatest concession toward reaching agreement. add

ON JAN. 20 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE BRUSSELS POWERS ANNOUNCED IN PARIS THAT THEY HAD FAILED IN EFFORTS TO DRAFT A PLAN FOR EUROPEAN UNION. BRITAIN AT THE TIME INSISTED THAT MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY BE APPOINTED BY THE VARIOUS GOVERNMENTS AND VOTE IN NATIONAL BLOCS ACCORDING TO THEIR GOVERNMENTS' VIEWS.
FRANCE AND BELGIUM, BACKED BY THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, HAD ARGUED FOR A EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY OF REPRESENTATIVES ELECTED BY THE VARIOUS PARLIAMENTS, REFLECTING ALL SHADES OF POLITICAL OPINION AND VOTING AS THEY CHOSE.
TODAY'S COMMUNIQUE REFLECTED THE COMPROMISE BETWEEN THE PREVIOUSLY CONFLICTING VIEWS.
IT GAVE ONLY THE BARE FACT THAT THE FIVE MINISTERS HAD AGREED ON THE FORMATION OF THE COUNCIL. THE PERMANENT COMMISSION OF THE BRUSSELS POWERS WAS GIVEN THE JOB OF SETTLING MINOR DETAILS AND CONSULTING WITH OTHER COUNTRIES TO BE INVITED TO MEMBERSHIP.
HOWEVER, AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH THE CONFERENCE SAID THE FIVE FOREIGN MINISTERS HAD "FULLY AGREED ON ALL MAJOR PROBLEMS." HE GAVE THESE DETAILS OF THE AGREEMENT:
EACH COUNTRY WILL BE FREE TO CHOOSE ITS REPRESENTATIVES TO THE "CONSULTATIVE BODY"--IT PROBABLY WILL BE OFFICIALLY CALLED AN ASSEMBLY--AS IT SEES FIT. IF BRITAIN, FOR INSTANCE, CONTINUES TO FAVOR BLOC-VOTING, THE GOVERNMENT CAN APPOINT ALL NATIONAL ASSEMBLY REPRESENTATIVES AND INSTRUCT THEM HOW TO VOTE. AGREED IS
FRANCE, ON THE OTHER HAND, WOULD BE FREE TO CHOOSE HER AUTHORITY TO REPRESENTATIVES THROUGH BALLOTING IN THE FRENCH NATIONAL ASSEMBLY. ENTER AN
ONE POINT ON WHICH ALL FIVE POWERS ARE FIRMLY AGREED IS THAT THE CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY WOULD HAVE NO AUTHORITY TO DISCUSS DEFENSE MEASURES. BRITAIN'S RELUCTANCE TO ENTER AN ASSEMBLY HAD BEEN BASED IN PART ON A FEAR THAT COMMUNIST ASSEMBLYMEN MIGHT GAIN ACCESS TO DEFENSE SECRETS.
THE ASSEMBLY WOULD HAVE ONLY ADVISORY POWERS. THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL COULD VETO OR IGNORE ANY ASSEMBLY-APPROVED RESOLUTION. FURTHERMORE, THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL WOULD HAVE THE POWER TO PREVENT A DEBATE ON ANY SUBJECT IN THE ASSEMBLY OF WHICH IT DISAPPROVES.
VOTING IN THE ASSEMBLY WOULD BE ON A SIMPLE MAJORITY RULE. THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL PRESUMABLY COULD CONTINUE THE PRINCIPLE OF THE BRUSSELS PACT THAT UNANIMOUS AGREEMENT BE NECESSARY FOR ANY ACTION.
THE INFORMANT DID NOT DEFINE JUST WHAT POWERS AND FUNCTIONS THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL--THE HEART OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE-- WOULD HAVE. HE INDICATED, HOWEVER, THAT ANY SURRENDERING OF NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY WOULD HAVE TO BE A GRADUAL PROCESS. MOST OBSERVERS BELIEVE IT WILL BE AFTER THE NEXT QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE FIVE FOREIGN MINISTERS IN APRIL, WHEN A PERMANENT COMMISSION OF THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE IS EXPECTED TO HAVE DETAILED PLANS DRAFTED.

Statements on the European Union

LONDON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Following is the text of a joint communiqué issued after today's meeting of the foreign ministers of the Brussels pact nations:

The general secretary of the Brussels Treaty Permanent Commission has issued the following communiqué:

The fourth meeting of the Consultative Council took place in London on Jan. 27 and 28.

The Council took note with satisfaction of the work accomplished under the Brussels Treaty in the social and cultural spheres. A detailed statement on social and cultural matters is attached.

After considering the most valuable preparatory work accomplished in Paris by the Committee for the Study of European Unity, the Council agreed that there should be established a Council of Europe, consisting of a ministerial committee meeting in private and a consultative body meeting in public.

The permanent commission was instructed to study the detailed application of the decisions of principle taken by the Council.

The Council decided to invite other European countries to take part in negotiations for the establishment of the Council of Europe.

The Council also considered a report on matters relating to defense and there was useful interchange of views on certain outstanding political matters.

As regards Palestine, there was general agreement that the stage had now been reached at which de facto recognition could be given the Government of Israel.

Cultural Program

Following is the text of a statement by the Consultative Council on Cooperation between the five countries in cultural matters:

Pending the completion of the task of the national working parties which are dealing with the question of the removal of obstacles to the movement of persons and the flow of cultural material, the Cultural Committee has arranged for the following measures which have been approved by the Consultative Council:

(1) Courses for teachers with the object of bringing about exchanges of views on the subject of "Western Union in schools" will be organized consecutively in each of the five countries, the first taking place in Ashridge, Kent (United Kingdom), from 2d to 11th August, 1949.

Fifty teachers will take part, of whom thirty will be invited from the four other signatory states of the Brussels Treaty. Maintenance costs and organizational costs will be borne by the host Government.

One of the tasks of the course will be the compiling of a manual in the three languages for the guidance of the teachers for the treatment in schools of the problems of Western Union.

(2) An exhibition of educational material will be organized by each country and will be sent on tour of the other four countries. This scheme should come into operation in April, 1949.

(3) The edition in each country of an information pamphlet on the possibilities of travel, reception and lodging for schoolchildren and students. To this end, the Belgian representative will convoke in Brussels in 1949 one delegate from each country to initiate the work. A rapporteur will produce a common plan of the facilities in the five countries.

(4) A list of the best educational films in their countries will be prepared by each of the five.

(5) Visits of educational inspectors will be organized consecutively in each of the five countries, the first taking place in Great Britain in the summer of 1949.

(6) A calendar of congresses to be held in the five countries will be compiled by the British Council on information received from the other four countries by the end of the year.

The next meeting of the Cultural Committee will take place Feb. 17 and following days in The Hague, when the final report of the said working parties will be discussed and recommendations to the Permanent Commission be made.

Five-Power Cooperation

Text of a statement by the Consultative Council on cooperation between the five countries in social matters:

The Consultative Council, at its meeting in London Jan. 27, expressed great satisfaction with the progress made in the course of the last three months in cooperation in the social sphere between the five powers signatory to the Brussels Treaty.

The field of social policy is an extremely wide one. Nevertheless, the work done by the technical committees set up by the Permanent Commission, functioning in a friendly and informal way, has already shown, first, the many common features in the social policies of the five powers, then the possibility of making real progress in developing the social services along corresponding lines in the five countries, and the unanimous desire of the five countries to coordinate their efforts to this end.

The Consultative Council approved in particular the recommendations of a practical kind made by the Public Health and Social Committees with this end in view. It laid a special emphasis on its desire to organize and stimulate not only exchanges of views and information between the five countries, but also to promote on an increasing scale exchanges of medical personnel, workers and student employes; by these means, the links between the peoples would be both continuously and permanently strengthened.

The Consultative Council considered that the useful work that the five powers have already accomplished and will continue to accomplish in the social field constitutes a practical form of international cooperation which will further the work of the existing international organizations, of which the five powers are members, and could be extended in the future to include other countries, so contributing to yet wider social progress throughout the world.

Sforza Expects Italian Unity Role

Rome, Jan. 28 (AP)—Carlo Sforza, Foreign Minister, said today "Italy will be one of the founding states" of the new "Council of Europe."

His brief statement, released by Ansa, semi-official Italian news agency, indicated Italy already has been invited to take part in setting up the council.

"European union is born," Sforza said, "and Italy will be one of the founding states. Italy will give all its efforts with full loyalty to the creation of the Council of Europe."

WEST SEEKING WORLD RULE, MOSCOW SAYS

Kremlin Lays 'Aggressive Course Of Policy' To U.S. And Britain

F. GILMORE

Moscow, Saturday, Jan. 29 (AP)—Russia accused the United States and Great Britain today of trying to undermine the United Nations with a North Atlantic pact.

In a 34-page statement the Ministry of Foreign Affairs declared:

"The U.S.S.R. must take into consideration the fact that ruling circles of the United States and Great Britain have entered upon an openly aggressive course of policy, the final purpose of which is establishment by force of Anglo-American world domination."

Plot Pictured By Russians

"It is apparent to everyone," the ministry continued, "that a plot is presently being carried out against the United Nations inasmuch as it —even though in only a small measure—hinders and holds back aggressors and their policy of aggression and unleashing a new war.

"In view of this situation the Soviet Union must more firmly and more insistently fight against the undermining and wrecking of the United Nations organization by aggressive elements and their followers."

The statement said that Russia must see to it that the United Nations is not "bypassed as so often happened."

Domination Aim Charged

Instead of allowing itself to be bypassed, the United Nations should value its authority more dearly, said the ministry statement, especially when the question arises as to who is "conducting aggressive policy and unleashing new wars."

The statement which Tass made public early this morning was dated January 28 and appeared under the headline.

"Declaration of the Foreign Ministry of the U.S.S.R. on the North Atlantic pact."

The statement said that behind the Western European Union lay "plans for establishing Anglo-American world domination."

Aggression Move Charged

"Under such conditions," it declared, "participation of the U.S.S.R. and countries of the new democracy in the North Atlantic pact or similar alliances of states is, of course, completely out of the question."

In one part of the statement the Ministry said Britain and France with support from the United States have "broken with peace-loving policy and taken the road of preparing for new aggression in Europe."

The declaration said the Western European Union of Britain, France, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg had in view "the possibility of using this group of Western powers . . . against those states which were their allies during the second World War."

Cite Yalta Pact

The Russian statement said creation of the union means the countries in it "reject that democratic and anti-agressive policy regarding Germany which was adopted by the Yalta and Potsdam conferences of the anti-Hitlerite coaliton."

Britain and her western partners se, up their union by a treaty signed in Brussels, Belgium, last March 17. Yesterday the foreign ministers of these states announced an agreement to form a "Council of Europe" to bring in other states.

Talks have been underway with a view to tying these countries in with the United States, Canada and perhaps additional continental countries in a defense alliance—the so-called "Atlantic Pact."

Today's statement by the Soviet foreign ministry said these countries have switched their post-war policy to one "very menacing for the peace-loving peoples" with the "support and encouragement from the ruling circles of the United States."

The statement, broadcast from Moscow and recorded here by the Soviet monitor, added:

Not A Defense Pact

"It is undeniable that the real aims of the Brussels Pact and the creation of the western union have nothing in common with the interests of defense of these states."

"What is in view is taking of military measures and repressions of all kinds against the working class and growing democratic forces within these states, and also against the growing liberation movement of the peoples in colonies and dependent countries."

The statement said the fact that the Brussels Alliance is an alliance of colonial powers "only emphasises the anti-democratic reactionary aggressive character of the western union."

"Western union", it went on, "is a military-political complement to the economic grouping of European countries which was created to carry out the Marshall Plan in Europe."

JAN 1949

A115 (160)
LONDON 2ND ADD FIRST LEAD SOV-WESTERN EUROPE XXX IN EUROPE."
THE STATEMENT SAID THE GROUPINGS OF EUROPEAN COUNTRIES "RECEIVE THEIR DIRECTION FROM THE RULING CIRCLES OF THE ANGLO-AMERICAN BLOC."
THAT BLOC, IT SAID "IS NOT IN THE LEAST INTERESTED IN THE REALIZATION OF REAL NATIONAL-STATE AIMS OR EVEN ECONOMIC AIMS OF ALL THESE COUNTRIES, BUT PURSUES THE AIM OF STRENGTHENING AND FURTHER WIDENING THEIR OWN MILITARY-STRATEGIC AND ECONOMIC POSITION."
--"THE RESULT OF THIS POSITION," THE STATEMENT CONTINUED, "WILL BE INEVITABLE AND IS ALREADY VISIBLE IN A SHARPENING OF CONTRADICTIONS BOTH BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND COUNTRIES OF THE WESTERN BLOC, AND WITHIN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN GROUPING ITSELF."
"AGGRESSIVE AIMS OF THIS GROUPING," IT SAID, "ARE ALSO REFLECTED IN MORE AND MORE NEW DEMANDS FOR INCREASING ARMIES AND MILITARY BUDGETS.
ON THE OTHER HAND, IT SAID, THE "U.S.S.R. AND THE PEOPLES' DEMOCRACIES X X X ARE STEADILY AND QUICKLY RESTORING AND DEVELOPING THEIR ECONOMIES, STRENGTHENING THE DEMOCRATIC BASES AND POLITICALLY UNITING THE PEOPLES FREED FROM REACTIONARY AND REPRESSIVE REGIMES."

THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID THAT THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT ISSUED A STATEMENT JAN.14 ON THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC PACT "UNDER THE RESOUNDING NAME 'BUILDING PEACE' AND 'COLLECTIVE SECURITY IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC REGION'".
IT NOTED THAT PRESIDENT TRUMAN IN HIS INAUGURAL SPEECH PROMISED TO SEND A DRAFT OF THE ATLANTIC PACT TO THE SENATE SOON.
"WHEREAS THE CREATION OF THE WESTERN UNION CORRESPONDS TO THE AIMS OF THE ANGLO-AMERICAN BLOC IN EUROPE," THE MINISTRY SAID, "IT NOW BECOMES CLEAR THAT WESTERN EUROPEAN GROUPING IS ONLY ONE LINK IN A CHAIN OF MEASURES INVOLVED IN PLANS FOR ESTABLISHING ANGLO-AMERICAN WORLD DOMINATION."

THE RUSSIAN STATEMENT ACCUSED BRITAIN AND FRANCE OF HAVING DROPPED A POLICY OF FORESTALLING FUTURE GERMAN AGGRESSION AND ADOPTING A NEW ONE "AIMING AT THEIR DOMINATION OVER OTHER NATIONS OF EUROPE."
THIS NEW POLICY, IT DECLARED, EVEN GOES SO FAR AS TO UTILIZE "THE AGGRESSOR OF YESTERDAY WHO AFTER THE WAR FELL INTO DEPENDENCE ON THEM."
THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY SAID THAT ON THE OTHER HAND THE USSR HAD ENDORSED A POLICY OF "WINNING VICTORY OVER HITLER GERMANY AND FASCISM AND OF PREVENTING GERMAN AGGRESSION" IN 20-YEAR PACTS OF FRIENDSHIP AND MUTUAL ASSISTANCE SIGNED WITH BRITAIN AND FRANCE IN 1942 AND 1944, RESPECTIVELY, AND STILL STICKS BY THAT POLICY.

Five Brussels Alliance Allies (N) Agree On Recognizing Israel

A. GAUSHON

London, Jan. 28 (AP)—Britain and her Brussels alliance partners joined tonight in a decision to recognize Israel. Australia and Switzerland announced recognition earlier.

The actions bring to 29 the number of nations which have taken such a decision. Five more—New Zealand and the Nordic countries of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Iceland—are preparing to grant recognition in the near future.

The recognitions and pending recognitions constitute a major diplomatic triumph for the young Jewish state and are expected to make brighter Israel's chances for membership in the United Nations.

The United States and Russia accorded recognition soon after the Jewish state proclaimed its own existence last May 14.

A General Agreement

France, a member of the Brussels alliance, recognized Israel last Monday. She joined the other four members—Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg—in announcing tonight there was a general agreement that the "stage had now been reached at which de facto recognition could be given to the Government of Israel."

The decision was announced in a communiqué after a meeting of the foreign ministers of the five powers in London.

A Foreign Office spokesman said later Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg would make their own individual announcements of the decision to recognize Israel.

The British announcement is expected tomorrow.

Russ Recognition Unspecified

Russia's recognition was unspecified. The United States and France accorded de facto recognition—the type which Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg as well as Switzerland decided upon.

It recognizes the existence of an operating government in Israel, but falls short of de jure recognition, which classes the government of a state as the legally constituted authority.

Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg co-ordinate their foreign policies with those of Britain and France. The British action was regarded as a major change in policy. Ernest Bevin, Foreign Secretary, has been criticized by members of his own Labor party as well as by the Conservatives for his handling of the Palestine question.

In Canberra, J. B. Chifley, Australian Prime Minister, referred to the fact that Israel had her first national election last Tuesday and said: "It is clear the new state has come to stay."

Foreign Ministers Meet

He added that "when Israel's application for admission to the United Nations comes before the General Assembly, Australia will support it."

The foreign ministers of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Iceland met today in Oslo. They issued a joint communiqué saying they were "prepared to recognize Israel de facto in the near future."

Two British dominions, Canada and the Union of South Africa, already have recognized Israel.

Britain has consulted not only with the Brussels powers but with her dominions on the subject of Israel. A Government informant said the talks with the dominions have now been completed.

There was no indication immediately whether the dominions of India, Pakistan and Ceylon intend to accept the fact of Israel's existence.

Swiss Recognition Expected

Bern, Switzerland, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Swiss Federal Council today empowered the Political Department to accord de facto recognition to Israel.

The Poltical Department is expected to complete the formalities within the next few days. De facto recognition means acknowledgement that the State exists in fact, and differs from full, or de jure, recognition.

Twenty-three nations already have recognized Israel.

Nordic Nations Issue Statement

OSLO, Norway, Jan. 28 (AP)—Foreign Ministers of Denmark, Iceland, Norway and Sweden announced tonight that their countries were "prepared to recognize Israel de facto in the near future." The four Foreign Ministers, meeting here, issued a communiqué containing that statement.

Australia Grants Recognition

CANBERRA, Australia, Jan. 28 (AP)—Australia has decided to give full recognition to Israel, the Government announced tonight.

Prime Minister Joseph B. Chifley said:

"When Israel's application for admission to the United Nations comes before the General Assembly, Australia will support it."

Radio Signals Spur Rescue Units (N) Searching for B-29 off Africa

LONDON, Jan. 28 (AP)—Spurred by a radio signal, air rescue units searching for a missing American B-29 superfortress centered their efforts tonight on an area of the Atlantic 150 miles northeast of the Canary islands.

The signal, in the form of a constant morse code "T", raised hopes that the 15 men aboard the lost B-29 had been able to take to life rafts. G. WILLIAMS

U.S. Third Air division headquarters here said the radio signal came from a position about 29 degrees and 44 minutes north and 15 degrees and 10 minutes west. A French flying boat reported sighting an oil slick about 25 miles farther to the northeast.

The superfortress disappeared yesterday during a training flight from Dakar, French West Africa, to a base at Marham, Eng. American, British and French planes are participating in the widespread search over the eastern Atlantic. Portuguese sea rescue units have been alerted.

Maj. Thomas Corrigan, public information officer at the Air Force headquarters said: "We have strong hopes that all the boys are alive and well."

He said a B-29 ditches well, staying afloat on the sea long enough for a crew to escape. Each man has a "Mae West" life vest and a small life raft. In addition, superfortresses are equipped with portable radio transmitters, food and water purification devices.

As soon as Air Force officers here got a bearing from the radio signal, a superfortress and a B-17 "dumbo" were dispatched to the scene. The "dumbo" carries a motor launch to drop to survivors.

The radio signal was picked up by directional finders at Cabo Yubi, in the Spanish African colony of Rio De Oro, and at Las Palmas, in the Canary islands.

The canaries lie 700 to 900 miles southwest of Gibraltar, off Rio De Oro. The islands are on the route from Dakar to Britain.

American Air Force and Navy, French Navy and RAF planes have fanned out in the search from bases in England, Gibraltar, French Morocco and even from as far away as the Azores.

OIL SLICK ALSO IS SPOTTED

Hopes for Superfortress With 15 Aboard Are Increasing as Search Is Pressed.

London, Jan. 28 (A. P.).—United States Air Force headquarters said today that constant radio signals, coming from an area 150 miles northeast of the Canary Islands, are believed to be from survivors of a missing American Superfortress. The B-29 was lost yesterday with fifteen men aboard on a flight from Dakar, West Africa, to England.

"We have strong hopes that all the boys are alive and well," a spokesman said. An oil slick was sighted by a French flying boat near the spot from which the radio signals are coming, headquarters said.

Signals Co-ordinated.

The radio signal, a constant "T," was picked up by directional finders at Cabo Jubi, Rio de Oro, on the northwestern coast of Africa, and at Las Palmas, in the Canaries, islands 700 to 900 miles southwest of Gibraltar, off Rio de Oro. They are on the route from Dakar to England.

By co-ordinating the signals, headquarters placed the location at about 29 degrees 44 minutes north and 15 degrees 10 minutes west. This is only a few miles from where the oil slick was seen.

A B-17 Flying Fortress and a B-29 Superfortress were sent at once to search the area. British Air Force planes also helped hunt.

Plane Fully Equipped.

The missing plane is equipped fully with escape gear, and every one carried a lifebelt. Fully equipped liferafts have small radio transmitters which emit a signal when cranked. They also have food and portable stills to make salt water palatable.

Four Superfortresses which left England at noon are due at Port Lyautey, French Morocco, early this evening. Three naval Privateers, altered versions of the B-24 bombers, and three Flying Fortresses carrying motor launches for dropping to survivors are over the area. A four-engined French Wellington also is hunting.

The missing plane was on a 3,000-mile flight from Dakar. Its fuel should long since have been exhausted.

The plane made its last flight radio contact shortly after midnight yesterday. At that time a signal put the plane near the Canary Islands.

The staff duty officer at Third Air Division headquarters in England said the plane made its last radio contact with air force control at Frankfurt shortly after midnight yesterday. He said the signal showed the plane then was near the Canary Islands.

14 Aboard Are Named

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 28 (AP)—Officials at Biggs Air Force Base today announced the names of fourteen Americans aboard a B-29 bomber missing on a flight from Dakar, French West Africa, to its base in England.

Brig. Gen. D. W. Hutchison, commanding general of Biggs, said he had been notified the plane was from Biggs and was missing near the Canary Islands. Those aboard:

MAJOR MADISON A. VEAZEY, JR., Biggs.
FIRST LIEUTENANT RICHARD H. SOLT, Des Moines, Iowa.
FIRST LIEUTENANT JACK H. SAYRE, Manhattan, Kan.
FIRST LIEUTENANT J... P. CARDONI, El Paso, Texas.

STAFF SERGEANT JOHN L. LUMADUE, Hastings, Pa.
STAFF SERGEANT SHIRLEY E. WHITE, Darlington, S.C.
STAFF SERGEANT DONALD J. HIGGINS, Hiawatha, Kan.
STAFF SERGEANT RAYMOND F. ... VANA, El Paso, Texas.
STAFF SERGEANT ROLLAND L. GARDNER, Los Angeles, Cal.

All relatives have been notified, Biggs officials said.

B-29 Hunt Spans Route From England To Dakar

Wiesbaden, Germany, Jan. 28 (AP)—American Air Force and Navy planes ranged over wide areas of Europe, Africa and the Atlantic today in search of a missing B-29 Superfortress.

The plane, with fourteen United States airmen aboard, disappeared yesterday on a flight from Dakar to its base in England.

United States airforce headquarters here said two search operation headquarters had been set up—one in England and the other at Port Lyautey, in French Morocco.

Weather Hampers Search

British-based B-29s were ordered to search as far south as the northern coast of Spain but foggy weather restricted their activity.

Three B-17 bombers in the North African area were sent from the airforce base at Tripoli to Port Lyautey. Six B-29s from England also arrived there and were joined by two navy planes stationed in Morocco.

The planes searched an area bounded by Dakar on the south, Northern Spain on the north and the Azores on the west.

Low ceilings and Mediterranean thunderstorms made the search difficult, however.

"Definitely Down Somewhere"

Air force authorities in England said the missing plane should long since have exhausted its fuel and it "definitely is down somewhere."

British, Dutch And U.S. Continue Union Boycott

Paris, Jan. 28 (AP)—British, Dutch and United States Trade Unions today reaffirmed their boycott of the Communist-led World Federation of Trade Unions.

Their representatives failed to appear at a meeting of the 23-member executive committee that opened this afternoon. Louis Saillant, WFTU secretary-general, said all other members were represented.

Leaders of the three western unions walked out of a meeting of the executive bureau last week. The pro-Communist members had refused to vote on a British proposal to suspend the organization's activities for a year.

East Reich Promised New Order

Berlin, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Communists promised eastern Germany a new order today based on "stricter discipline" imposed by a stronger police force.

They charged again that the Western allies are preparing western Germany as a base for war.

The Communist-controlled Social Unity party (SED) wound up its four-day convention on that note.

Wilhelm Pieck, chairman, told the delegates the new form of the SED party would involve the Moscow-approved disciplinary measures. Only a "new type" party can achieve the desired goal in Germany, he said.

Base For World Rule

"The administration machine has to be enlarged and the people's police has to be reinforced," he said.

The party adopted a manifesto asserting:

"The western German colonial state is to become the nucleus of the western European military union by which American imperialism intends to base its rule over Europe and the entire world."

The manifesto said western German heavy industry is being "transformed into the armory of American imperialism and the western occupation zones into an operation field for a new war." It also demanded the withdrawal of all occupation troops and said "these just demands are supported by the Soviet Union."

Pieck said his party is working for withdrawal of Soviet occupation troops "after peace has been established."

Previously there had been suggestions that Soviet troops would be recalled if the Western powers would do likewise. Now separate western and eastern German governments are being formed, and finalized peace involving a German-wide treaty may be years away.

Mario Montagna, a member of the central committee of the Italian Communist party, pledged fraternity with German Communists in the fight against what he called "American imperialism."

British authorities today protested a Russian decision to conduct air-to-air firing practice in the Western Allies' airlift channel. The Soviet warning said the drills would be held for six hours in the Buckeburg corridor, used by both British and American planes returning from Berlin to western Germany.

Radio Station Returned

The big Frankfurt radio station in western Germany was turned over completely to German management by the American commandant, Gen. Lucius D. Clay. Military government authorities, however, warned the Germans that Americans will continue to "watch that no clique or special interests attempt to dominate the radio."

Radio Frankfurt was turned back to the Germans under an American policy to restore press and radio to German hands when circumstances permitted. Radio Munich also has been returned. United States employés of both stations will be retained ... observers and advisers to the G... ans.

Black Day for Red Troops

Dark Fate Looms for Russians Who Molest German Frauleins In Future.

Berlin, Jan. 28 (A. P.).—Ink as a weapon against ill-behaved Russian soldiers was proposed recently by the Russian commandant of a small eastern German town, the British-licensed Telegraf reported today. Some women had come to see the commandant, the newspaper's story says, to complain about the increasing molestation of German women by Russian soldiers.

When the Russian asked the women what he should do about it, they didn't know. So he came up with an idea.

"Always carry some ink with you," he said. "In case of distress, pour it over the soldier's clothes. Since every soldier has but one uniform, I can easily find out the culprits from the ink-blot."

Frauleins Say 'Man Wanted' In Shockingly Frank Ads

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 28 (AP). German girls out to get a man don't beat around the bush in a country where they outnumber men two to one.

They bluntly advertise "man wanted" on the big city billboards which fill the place here of American newspapers want-ad sections.

Ads like this: "Twenty-three-year-old girl, blonde, medium-sized, blue-eyed, wants to spend week ends with wealthy business man. Please forward offers to X."

Or like this one: "I am alone. Good looking and well-shaped 25-year-old girl wants to spend evenings with man not older than 30. Have own apartment."

No Mention Of Marriage

The "love advertising" is a new idea but it's spreading like wild fire. As the samples quoted show, the ads are shockingly frank. Mostly they make no mention of marriage.

Men used the billboards, too. One advertised:

"Fifty-one year old bsuiness man (looking much younger) traveling to Bavarian resort soon. Where is the good-looking girl, not older than 28, who wants to accompany me?"

Ad Brings 50 To 100 Replies

The men who run the billboards say an ad like that will attract 50 to 100 answers.

German men now are offering more competition to American soldiers for the affections of frauleins.

The reason is German men, since last summer's currency reform, are able to buy cigarettes, chocolate and nylons. Before, only the GI, with American dollars, could get them for their German girl friends.

German Is Doomed For Slaying Soldier

Kassel, Germany, Jan. 28 (AP)—August Flamme, German bricklayer, was sentenced to death by an American Military Government court today for murdering Sergt. Raymond Switzer, of Lake Orion, Mich., last May 8.

The court president described Flamme's crime as of "such brutality that every decent human being must be shocked."

The German bricklayer was convicted after a twelve-day trial. He denied his guilt until yesterday, when he broke down and confessed that he killed the American with an iron bar in the men's room of the Kassel main station because "I was possessed by the desire to have his watch."

Progress On Factory Reparations Reported

Hamburg, Germany, Jan. 28 (AP). The British Control Commission today reported "substantial progress" in dismantling German factories for reparations.

The report said this was "despite anti-dismantling propaganda, minor demonstrations, and temporary stoppages of work in a few plants, as well as a declining labor force."

By the end of December, 245 plants had been completely dismantled. Work is being done on another 191, leaving 101 out of the British zone total of 537, where dismantling has yet to start.

Total tonnage dismantled was 592,000, of which nearly 296,000 tons have been dispatched to recipient nations.

Six Disobedient Germans Sentenced

Bochum, Germany, Jan 28 (A. P.).—Six German workers who disobeyed a British order to dismantle the Bochumer Verein Steel Works were sentenced to two months' imprisonment by a British court here today. One was acquitted.

Italy Protests Soviet Gibe

ROME, Jan. 28 (AP).—Italy has protested to Russia over an article in the Soviet humor magazine "Krokodil," the Foreign Office said today. It concerned an article quoted here as saying the way of the Italian Army was "not lighted by military glories but by the shining of heels."

Greece To Ignore (N) Peace Overture

Athens, Jan. 28 (AP)—Greek Government spokesmen said today the Communist guerrillas' peace overture will be ignored.

The peace terms radioed yesterday from the northern front were described as "sheer propaganda."

But at the same time a high Government source said the peace feeler is proof of the weakness of Markos Vafiades, Communist leader, who has proclaimed a separate government in the north.

[The United Nations commission on the Balkans has accused three of Greece's Communist neighbors—Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Albania—of helping the guerrillas. Bulgarian newspapers said today responsibility for the failure of Paris talks last December to restore Bulgarian-Greek relations falls upon the Athens Government, which has not recognized the present frontiers.]

Would End American Aid

Both Foreign Ministry and War Ministry spokesmen said yesterday's broadcast was "part of the guerrilla war tactics and not designed for peace." The idea, they said, was to create confusion.

The guerrilla broadcast demanded that, as a condition for talks, American aid should be shut off by Greece and that Athens set up a new government acceptable to the Communists.

Eighty-four rebels were killed and 23 captured near northern Olympia in the northwestern Peloponnesus, a Government communiqué said. Greek planes strafed rebel forces in the Karpenissi area of northern Greece.

Greece To Ignore Red Peace Offer (D)

Athens, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Greek Government will ignore the Communist guerrillas' so-called peace overtures as nothing more than "sheer propaganda," officials said today.

This was the reaction in Government circles to the broadcast by the self-proclaimed Separatist government of Markos Vafirades, the Communist leader, in which an offer was made to talk peace at the Communists' price.

Both Foreign Ministry and Ministry of War spokesmen said the broadcast was "part of the guerrilla war tactics and not designed for peace."

Aimed At Confusion

The point, they said, is to create confusion, but they said the Government would not take the bait.

The guerrilla broadcast demanded that as a condition for talks, American aid be shut off by Greece and that Athens provide for a new government acceptable to the Communists.

So far as the shutting off of American aid goes, a War Ministry spokesman said the Government will ignore proposals which are "dogmatic and stupid and designed to isolate Greece from the Western democracies and the United States."

Cannot Give Up Aid

"Every citizen in the western democratic countries knows it is impossible for Greece to give up the Marshall plan," he said.

There was little likelihood that any Communist proposals of this sort would be given any consideration at all.

It was noted that the so-called peace offer came at a time when Communists throughout Europe were waging a propaganda offensive picturing Russia and the Communist nations as the champions of peace between the East and the West.

Cardinal's Trial Reported Feb. 4

Budapest, Jan. 28 (AP)—It was reported today without official confirmation that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty will go on trial before a People's Court of Justice during the next week, presumably on February 4.

Dr. Kalman Kicko, a lawyer of high standing, will act as counsel for the Cardinal who has been charged with treason by the Communist-dominated Hungarian Government.

Vishinsky Mission With Czechs Is Reported

A. I. GOLDBERG

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 28 (AP)—Rumors persisted today that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky was in Czechoslovakia on a mission connected with eastern Europe's new Economic Council of Mutual Aid.

The rumors, still unconfirmed, began yesterday when it was whispered that Premier Klement Gottwald had been veering into devtionist ways such as brou- Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia in disgrace with the Cominform.

Statements Reprinted

The Czech press and Government figures preserved a curious silence on the formation of the Economic Council of Mutual Aid. Moscow announced on Tuesday the formation of the council by the Soviet Union, Poland, Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania and Czechoslovakia as an answer to the Marshall plan.

The press here has merely reprinted statements made by the Moscow radio concerning the purposes of the council to foster economic co-operation and technical assistance among the members. It has made no comment on its own.

Delegation Visits Belgrade

Much of the comment printed from surrounding countries, as if to be reassuring, stressed that the council was not intended to be chiefly for the benefit of Moscow.

Meanwhile a Czechoslovak trade delegation left here today for Belgrade to undertake new conversations on renewing the Czech-Yugoslav trade pact. It was headed by Joseph Vejvara.

Cut Yugoslav Trade

Other nations of E.C.M.A. have been cutting their commerce with Yugoslavia. The Soviet Union sliced it by seven eighths because of the fight between Tito and the Cominform.

Dispatches from Belgrade said the Yugoslav press made the briefest possible notice of the formation of E.C.M.A. only today.

The terse statement that finally was published from the Government indicated that Yugoslavia intended to ignore the snub of being left out of the council.

Foreign Ministry Mum

The Foreign Ministry has refused to confirm or deny that Vishinsky is either in Prague or at villas set aside by Czechoslovakia at Karlsbad (Karlovy Vary) for Russians.

Likewise, the ministry would say nothing about the reported presence in this country of M. A. Zorin, another Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, who was Ambassador to Prague just before the Communist coup here last February. The Soviet Embassy also refused to talk.

Vishinsky often has come to Karlsbad, but his previous trips all were in the summertime.

Group Leaves Berlin

On top of this, Deputy Premier Zdenek Fierlinger and other Czechoslovak figures who represented this country at a conference of the German Communists, left Berlin suddenly yesterday. Fierlinger canceled a news conference before he left, explaining there was a rush of other business.

Fierlinger, former Ambassador to Moscow and the man who took the Social Democratic party into the Communist fold, always has wanted to be President, but apparently went along with Gottwald after the death of President Benes.

ISRAEL SAID TO ASK U. S. TO PROD EGYPT

Representative Is Reported to Seek Modification by Cairo of Stand at Rhodes Talks (N)

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 28 (AP)—Israel was reported today to have asked the United States to try to get Egypt to modify her position in the deadlocked Rhodes armistice talks.

A source close to the Israeli Government said the step was urged last night when a Foreign Office representative called on Dr. James G. MacDonald, special United States representative in Tel Aviv.

Meanwhile, it was learned that Jefferson Patterson, United States Charge d'Affaires in Cairo, had discussed Egyptian-Israeli negotiations during a visit to the Egyptian Foreign Office a few days ago.

The Rhodes talks were said today to be near failure. Neither the Egyptian nor the Israeli delegations have shown any sign of modifying their stand on the Negeb question. The Israelis have refused Egyptian demands that Israel give up gains in that southern Palestine desert.

A second relief convoy of eight trucks was sent this morning to the 3,000 Egyptian troops trapped at Faluja, thirty miles south of Tel Aviv. The convoy, under United Nations auspices, carried a cargo of food and medicine. It crossed from Egyptian-held territory near Gaza in mid-morning into Israeli lines and then went safely toward its destination.

The first relief convoy on Jan. 20 brought several score of sick and wounded Egyptians out of Faluja.

The Egyptian garrison there was bottled up last fall during the first Israeli offensive in southern Palestine.

Israel Asks U.S. To Aid (D) Peace Move

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 28 (AP)—A reliable informant said today that Israel urged the United States last night to intervene with Egypt in an effort to get the Cairo Government to soften its stand in armistice talks.

The informant, who is close to the Israeli Government, said a representative of the Foreign Office asked James MacDonald, United States representative here, to intervene.

Jefferson Patterson, of the United States Embassy in Cairo, was reported here to have called on the Egyptian Foreign and War ministries yesterday about the armistice talks.

Relief Convoy Moves

A second relief convoy of eight trucks was sent during the morning to the trapped Egyptian garrison in the northwest Negeb, an official said.

The 2,500 or so Egyptians were trapped at Faluja last fall in the first Jewish offensive in the southern Palestine desert.

The convoy was under United Nations auspices. Trucks were loaded with food and medicine. It crossed from Egyptian-held territory near Gaza in the midmorning into Jewish lines and then went safely toward Faluja.

The first relief convoy, January 20, brought several score of sick and wounded Egyptians out of Faluja.

Egypt - Israeli Peace Talk Failing

L. S. CHARLES

Rhodes, Jan. 28 (AP)—Israeli-Egyptian armistice negotiations were at the edge of failure today.

Failure of both sides to modify their stands appeared likely to wreck the conference very soon. Egypt has demanded the Jews give up gains in the southern desert which the Jews have refused to do.

The two-week-old negotiations resumed yesterday after a two-day recess during which the delegates went home to consult with their governments on the deadlock.

Reuven Shiloah, Israeli delegate, returned from Tel Aviv with the word to acting United Nations mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche, that his Government's position was "substantially unaltered," informed sources reported.

Israel Determined

That meant Israel was determined to hold on to the Negeb Desert.

Nor was there any indication of any alteration in Egypt's stand when Col. Ismail Sherine, returned from Cairo.

Jewish military men in the delegation were beginning to show irritation.

Alluding to the two defeats administered to the Egyptians in the desert since October, one Jewish source said, "They have apparently forgotten what sort of condition they were in when we agreed to a cease-fire order. They are not being very realistic."

"Strategic Positions"

One authoritative Israeli source said, "We have no intention of surrendering our strategic positions in the Negeb."

Efforts have been made to work out a compromise by giving the Jews control of the interior communications in the Negeb and leaving the Gaza coastal strip and its road to the Egyptians.

This source said the main interior road running south from Jerusalem through Hebron to Beersheba was "absolutely necessary for our security. We can not launch an offensive through the desert to Egypt over that road. But an Egyptian attack can be very easily made along that route."

On the other hand, he said, the coastal road through Gaza "could be subject to sea blockade by a strong naval force."

No Compromise

The Egyptians, however, have shown no signs of compromising. They insist on the Jews withdrawing from all the positions they occupied in two offensives beginning October 14.

They point out that the United Nations Security Council repeatedly has called upon Israel to surrender these gains made during the Palestine truce.

Meanwhile, there appeared no likelihood of a change of government at Tel Aviv as a result of last Tuesday's election of a Constituent Assembly. The Tel Aviv newspaper of Menachem Beigin, leader of the Freedom Movement and former leader of the underground Irgun Zvai Leumi, conceded that Premier David Ben-Gurion's Provisional Government had won a victory with about 35 per cent of the recorded vote so far. Beigin's movement was fourth.

The final result was not expected to be known before Sunday, but already preliminary talks were beginning in Tel Aviv on formation of a new coalition Government of several parties based on Ben-Gurion's moderate labor party, Mapai.

SIAM GOVERNMENT QUITS

BANGKOK, (Saturday), Jan. 29—Siam's parliament adopted a new constitution yesterday and the government of Field Marshal Pibul Songgram resigned.

The government of Songgram, Siam's strong man and former dictator, will stay on as a caretaker cabinet until the general elections. The elections will be held three months after the constitution becames effective.

Official copies of the constiution, which is royalist but not so absolute as the old monarchy which ruled up until 1932, will be sent to Switzerland for the signature of young King Phumiphon Aduldet.

The king is studying in Switzerland. The constitution will not be effective until he signs it.

Rebels Pushing (N) Toward Rangoon

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 28 (AP)—Rebel forces have captured three major towns on the railroad to Mandalay and are pushing southward to hem in Rangoon, a Government spokesman said today.

Fighting was reported on a 40-mile front along the rail line while, 100 miles westward, Karen rebels occupied Bassein, second largest port in the Irrawaddy delta.

On the rail line the towns on Toungoo, Tantabin and Pyu have fallen to the Karens, who may have been joined by Communists, the Government spokesman said. He said the entire Toungoo district was a Communist stronghold.

Telegraph Lines Cut

Rangoon is now sealed off from the north. Bridges have been blown up, rail and road traffic blocked, and telephone and telegraph lines severed. D. LACKERSTEEN

It was feared that Rangoon would soon feel the pinch of the latest rebel thrust, for the city depends upon northern Burma for most of its food and fuel.

The Burmese Government has announced counterattacks on the rail front. Observers expect the Government will be formed to postpone its planned large-scale offensive in the Karenni state on the Siam border, announced yesterday. It will need to deploy its forces to stave off a siege of the capital, these observers said.

The offensive was planned to dislodge Karens who seized the British-owned Mawchi mines.

The Karen tribesmen are demanding formation of an independent state of Karenistan, outside the Burma union.

Navy Section Joins Rebels

Loss of the rail towns intensified the crisis facing the year-old Burma Government, which took over after 100 years of British rule. Passenger and freight traffic on the Irrawaddy River has suspended because of constant rebel attacks on shipping.

Parliament meets Monday for the last time before a new national election. Because of the crisis, many quarters are advocating a strong coalition government.

The Karens attacked Bassein early this morning. The Karen section of the Burma Navy joined the rebels to overthrow Government forces guarding the port, a Government spokesman said.

Street fighting continued throughout the day, he said.

The port is in the heart of Burma's rice bowl. British interests own large granaries in the town.

Burmese Rebels (D) Takes 3 Towns

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 28 (AP)—Karen rebels, their war for independence from Burma mounting steadily in fury, seized three important cities in heavy fighting today.

The rebels took Bassein, second largest port of the Irrawaddy Delta, and captured Toungoo and Pyu in an apparent drive to seal off the capital city, Rangoon, from the rest of Burma. The offensive moves gave the rebels a strong grip on the important Rangoon-to-Mandalay railway.

Government troops, fighting against Karen tribesmen who demand an independent state of Karenistan, were reported engaged in heavy fighting on a 40-mile front.

Counterattack Launched

Units of the Burma Rifles, and other Government forces launched an immediate counterattack aimed at recapturing the three towns.

The fall of Toungoo cut Burma into two and cut off all communications between Rangoon and the north. The town is 180 miles north of Rangoon.

A Government spokesman said the Karen plan seems to call for a southward push along the rail line to occupy Pegu, an important junction 50 miles above Rangoon.

A shortage of essential commodities is feared here since Rangoon depends on northern Burma for food and other supplies.

Bridge Blown Up

Railroad service had been suspended earlier after the rebels blew up a bridge.

Loss of Toungoo intensified the crisis facing the year-old Burma Government, which took over after 100 years of British rule.

Parliament meets Monday for the last time before the new national election. Some quarters are campaigning for a stronger coalition government.

REDS SET UP GUNS ON YANGTZE BANK (N)

Reported Able To Cut Nanking Off From Shanghai

1949

Nanking, China, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Chinese Communists were reported mounting artillery on the north bank of the Yangtze today in positions to cut this confused capital's communications with Shanghai.

The news contributed to the prevading gloom of Nanking on this lunar New Year's Eve, ordinarily China's gayest holiday. By the Chinese zodiac, the Year of the Rat is ending and the Year of the Ox beginning. H.K. MILNS

Military reports said the Communist guns were appearing at Icheng. While they apparently had not fired yet, they were capable of commanding traffic on the river and also on the south-bank railway and road.

Yangchow Recovered And Lost

The Government's military spokesman in this half-abandoned capital said Nationalist troops recovered and then lost Yangchow (Chiangtu), 17 miles northeast of Icheng, in an all-night fight. This was the only conflict reported in the civil war.

The Communists' slow maneuvering to isolate Nanking led to a growing conviction of remaining residents that there would be no battle for the city, except for the possibility a few Communist shells might be thrown this way.

Neutral observers said no defense of Nanking or of the north bank of the Yangtze appeared possible even if attempted.

Expected To Be Sacrificed

Some Government troops still were withdrawing to the south bank, and the few thousand still on the north were expected to be sacrificed without hope of evacuation.

Communist troops were 3 or 4 miles from the Yangtze at many points, and the chief speculation in Nanking was whether they would come on down to celebrate the new year or would pause where they were a while longer.

The new Year of the Ox is regarded by astrologers on the Government side as more auspicious than the Year of the Rat which has brought the Communists smashing victory.

Halfhearted Efforts

Nanking attempts to raise the festive spirit on this traditionally foremost Chinese holiday were decidedly halfhearted, however. Peddlers offered paper lanterns, fish, frogs and ducks, but it was just another day to most residents. They were preoccupied with trying to get out to the south or were resigned to staying and awaiting the Communists.

Political developments continued in confused fashion.

There was no known reply to Acting President Li Tsung-jen's appeal to Mao Tse-tung, Communist chief, to name peace negotiators immediately.

[A clue to the Communists' consistently hostile attitude was a broadcast heard in San Francisco, charging that Government planes had bombed Tsinan and two other Communist-held cities as recently as January 13, after the Government had made peace overtures. This broadcast reiterated demands for punishment of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and Acting President Li as "war criminals."]

Some Cabinet ministers joined the general flight from Nanking. Premier Sun Fo and Wu Te-chen, Foreign Minister, were reported in Shanghai, but could not be found there.

Abandonment Speculation

Shanghai speculation was that they had abandoned Li and that the "old guard" might take over a fugitive Canton Government to continue the war. This could not be confirmed, of course.

Chang Chih-chung, Cabinet member whose original peace efforts spurred the Government to try to negotiate a surrender, left by air for Lanchow, his northwestern headquarters. He said he could fly from there to Peiping if the Communists agreed to confer.

Peiping Revolt Reported

Kuomintang (Nationalist party) headquarters was almost deserted and did not even fly its usual Government flag.

Offices of nearly every Government ministry were crowded with shouting, pleading persons seeking money and transportation to get out of Nanking.

Peiping dispatches, meanwhile, reported that a Nationalist regiment had revolted in the southern suburbs against the surrender to the Communists. Nationalist troops obeying the surrender fought the dissidents several hours and claimed to have suppressed them.

These reports also said the censorship ordered by the Nationalist Government January 1 has been ended.

China New Year Augurs Slight Peace Hope (D)

J.D.W. 1/28

Nanking, Jan. 28 (AP)—In the chaos of war China awaited an uncertain New Year tonight amid the roar of guns and waning peace hopes.

The Lunar Year of the Rat expires at midnight and the Year of the Ox begins. The New Year looked dark for the vast country.

A regiment of Peiping Nationalist troops rebelled at an order to move into Communist country and shot it out with fellow Nationalists bent on forcing them to obey a peace agreement. The Nationalist headquarters said the revolt was suppressed.

Appeals To Reds

Acting President Li Tsung-jen appealed to Red Chief Mao Tze-tung to name negotiators and start the year off right with a peace conference.

Two of Li's high Government officials, the Premier and Foreign Minister, may have deserted him to flee southward. They reportely feared detention as "war criminals." There were also rumors of a Kuomintang revolt against Li, with Chiang Kai-shek taking over once more.

Caretaker for a Government deeply distrusted by the Communists, Li urged Mao to name the place and Red negotiators for a peace conference.

Li acted after his old friend, Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, flew in from his Central China command headquarters at Hankow.

To Strengthen Hand

Pai, who with General Li threatened a revolt in 1936 unless Chiang actively fought Japan, was believed strengthening the acting President's hand in the peace move.

Two high Government officials considered to be still taking Chiang orders, Premier Sun Fo and Foreign Minister Wu Te-chen flew off to Shanghai.

There was a growing belief they left because they feared Li and Pai would take action against them. They now are regarded as the chief advocates for fighting on (although Sun recently was supposed to have taken a stand for peace).

"Official" Reason add

The official reason was that Wu and Sun went off to confer with third-party leaders on peace moves. No one believed that. The third-party leaders have already refused to take part.

Nationalists Revolt at Peiping

PEIPING, Jan. 28 (AP).—A regiment of Nationalist troops revolted today when ordered into Communist territory under the Peiping peace pact. Troops loyal to the Nationalist commander, General Fu Tso-yi engaged the rebellious regiment. Fu's headquarters said the revolt was suppressed. The engagement, in the southern suburbs of Peiping, lasted several hours. Peiping residents heard mortar and machine-gun fire during the clash. S. MOOSA

The troops belonged to the 94th Army and were among units under the command of Nationalist General Shih Chueh, bitter opponent of a peaceful settlement of the Peiping siege. General Shih reportedly went south after the Jan. 22 cease-fire order which resulted in handing over this ancient city to the Communists.

Other units of his command are reported to have ignored orders from Fu's headquarters to move into Red territory, as the cease-fire agreement provided. They assertedly demanded that they be sent back to their homes in South China. add

G.I. Riot Casualties Listed

Tokyo, Jan. 28 (AP)—Army headquarters today named Recruit Jose R. Martinez, of San Pedro, Cal., as the soldier shot to death Sunday in a riot at Sapporo Hokkaido.

Five others were injured in the enlisted men's club riot. The two more seriously injured were Recruit Francisco Alivdiez, of El Paso, Texas, gunshot wound in the abdomen, and Private Albert R. Madrid, of Los Angeles, gunshot wound in the chest.

Slightly hurt were Recruit William H. Putt, of Youngstown, Ohio, shot in the left leg; Corporal John M. Leary, of Pedro Valley, Cal., lacerations on the right forearm, and Private Ray Burton, of San Diego, Cal., lacerations on the back.

Three military policemen fired shots that wounded the four enlisted men after the club manager had ordered the men out when they began throwing chairs, bottles and cans.

Air Force Bows to Truman In Row Over 70 Group Plan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 — (AP) The nation's top air leaders endorsed President Truman's 48-group air force program today with little outward show of disappointment at backtracking from their original 70-group goal.

But Air Secretary W. Stuart Symington told the House Armed Services committee, referring to 70-group strength:

"When we can afford it, I think it's essential to the security of the United States."

Both Symington and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, air force chief of staff, said they favor authority for eventually building up to the 70-group figure. Vandenberg said it is necessary for planning purposes.

May Get Increase

A hint that congressional leaders may be maneuvering behind the scenes to give the Air Force more strength than President Truman requested came from Chairman Vinson (D-Ga) of the House group.

Vinson asked Symington how much more money would be needed in fiscal 1950 to carry on the 70-group expansion program if Congress decided to add $600,000,000 to the President's air force budget.

"We'd be about $2,000,000,000 short," Symington replied.

The Republican-controlled 80th Congress last year provided funds to finance the expansion program only for the current fiscal year. Actually, the long-range plan would require four to five years to complete.

Pointing up the need for aerial defenses, Symington told the committee solemnly:

"In the atomic age of lightning attack, air power instantly capable of defense and sustained, effective retaliatory attack is a basic need of the nation.

U. S. Vulnerable

"Without such capacity, when within a few years the one group of countries capable of attacking the United States will possess in quantity the absolute weapon, the lives of our people will be in daily jeopardy."

With diplomatic caution, Symington named no names. But committee members said he obviously referred to Russia and the Soviet satellite countries — and to the atomic bomb as the "absolute" weapon.

Committee members asked Symington if he was familiar with criticism of the Air Force's giant B-36 bomber. He said yes, he was, and he was curious to know the reasons behind it.

"The hatchet job that has been done on the B-36 is the best hatchet job I've ever seen," he said.

The air chief termed the B-36 the longest-ranged and highest-flying plane of its type today. It will be the fastest, he said, "tomorrow".

One example of criticism against the B-36 has developed in a serious of broadcasts by Ray Henle, NBC commentator.

Among other things, Henle has said the Air Force is building a fleet of B-36's at a cost of nearly $750,000,000 and the Air Force high command is "putting pressure on Congress" to cut off all funds for building the Navy's new jet-bomber aircraft carriers.

"If that strategy goes through," Henle said, "it would leave the Air Force with its big slow bombers as the only means of carrying out an atomic attack into enemy territory."

Can't Refuel In Air

Henle asserted that the Air Force admits that "neither its big B-36's nor any other bomber it is now possible to 'build" could carry bombs to Russia and return without refueling. "And the Air Force," he said, "frankly states that refueling in the air can't be done now."

Henle also contended that the B-36 can't land on an ordinary airfield because it would break through the concrete and crack up. He said there are "only three or four places in all of north America" where they could land.

Vandenberg told the House committee that a 48-group air force would cost between $4,500,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 next year, compared with $7,500,000,000 for a 70-group outfit.

For security reasons, Symington declined to say publicly what the difference would be in numerical plane strength between 48 and 70 groups.

ROYALL TO SURVEY JAPAN 'PROBLEMS'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 — (AP) Kenneth Royall, secretary of the Army, left for Japan today on what he termed "a survey seeking the answers to the problems facing that country."

The secretary was accompanied by a group of military and civilian advisers. Among them were:

Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, deputy chief of staff for plans and combat operations; Assistant Secretary of Labor John W. Gibson; Joseph M. Dodge, president of the Detroit Bank and former president of the American Banker's association; Max Bishop, chief of the north-east Asia affairs division, State department, and Robert R. West, assistant to Royall and expert on food programs in the occupied areas.

The group is flying via Alaska and the Aleutian islands and is due in Tokyo Feb. 1. The party expects to return about the middle of February.

Royall and some of his party expect to visit South Korea also.

"We are interested in everything in Japan and expect to visit all occupation installations there," Royall said just prior to leaving.

General Wedemeyer declined to discuss his objectives, except to say, "I am accompanying the secretary to advise him on military matters."

"I am going to study the financial and economic situation," Dodge, the Detroit banker said. "We hope to establish a more stable background of Japanese industry and trade."

U.S. RUSS PRISONER PROTEST REJECTED

Soviet Says It Was Not Obligated To Return Germans

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Russia has rejected an American protest that the Soviets failed to repatriate some 400,000 German war prisoners on schedule, Government officials said tonight.

The Russians, however, indicated they would return the prisoners some time during 1949.

The American authorities said the Russian Foreign Office sent a note to the United States embassy in Moscow, contending that the Soviet Government never was obligated to return the Germans by January 1, as the State Department maintains.

Violation Charged

The United States, in a formal note January 3, accused Moscow of violating a four-power agreement signed by Russia, the United States, France and Britain at Moscow in April, 1947.

The State Department took this action after France and Britain had sent home all their German prisoners except those who voluntarily remained as paid laborers.

The American Government completed its repatriation six months ahead of schedule.

Second Query Ignored

In rejecting the American note, the Russians merely informed the State Department that they would complete repatriating their German war prisoners during 1949. They did not mention any specific date, however.

Government officials said the Russians ignored a second American request for information about the number of German war prisoners who died in Soviet camps.

West Is Winning, Harriman Asserts

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—W. Averell Harriman, the Marshall-plan ambassador, today called the Soviet-sponsored Recovery Council in eastern Europe a further attempt by Moscow to "dominate the eastern countries and exploit them for the benefit of Russia."

Western Europe is "winning the fight for recovery," Harriman said.

He said that area gained "new impetus from President Truman's proposed 'bold new program' for developing underindustrialized areas."

Harriman predicted that American private investment will flow overseas in increasing volume as recovery progresses and "conditions become more settled."

"Private capital comes out when the sun is shining," the diplomat said.

Atlantic Pact Aims Cited

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—The New York Times said today that officials negotiating the North Atlantic security pact have accepted the principle that an armed attack against one signatory nation shall be considered an attack against all of them.

In a dispatch from Washington by James Reston, the Times listed these "important decisions" as having been reached by the officials drawing up the agreement:

1. The treaty will last for sixteen to twenty years, and in any event, will not come up for renewal during a year in which there is a United States presidential election.

2. Foreign secretaries of the United States, Britain, Canada, France, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg will meet in Washington, in Ottawa, or in Bermuda to sign the treaty, probably in mid-March.

Permanent Council

3. The treaty will create a permanent North Atlantic Security Council, which will be authorized to create other permanent committees, including a military staff committee, to carry out the provisions of the pact and study contributions that can be made by each signatory under the pact.

4. The principle of meeting the obligations of the security pact in accordance with each nation's constitutional processes will either be written into the treaty or directly implied.

5. Nations ratifying the treaty will be obligated to take "military or other action forthwith" in the event of an armed attack against one of the signatories.

Freedom To Act

Under the latter principle, the dispatch says, each signatory nation recognizes that an attack against one shall be considered an attack against all.

However, a nation may be free to take action of a nonmilitary nature, such as transferring weapons to an aggrieved nation or declaration of economic sanctions, pending a congressional declaration of war, the agreement is said to provide.

Protection Urged For ECA Investors

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—American business men are showing little interest in investing dollars in Marshall-plan countries.

The joint congressional committee on foreign economic co-operation, reporting this, said that unless Congress offers better guarantees to American investors, "a substantial improvement" will have to occur in European recovery before private investment will assume an important role.

The report was submitted to the Senate yesterday by retiring Chairman Bridges (R., N.H.) at a time when President Truman is calling on American private capital to help develop backward areas of the world.

Ten Problems Outlined

The report outlined ten problems which the committee said should be considered before Congress continues the Marshall plan for another fiscal year.

The Economic Co-Operation Administration will reportedly ask Congress for about $1,250,000,000 to carry on the recovery program during April, May and June, and around $4,300,000,000 more for the year beginning next July 1.

The committee made it clear that currency stabilization is one of the biggest obstacles to western European recovery.

"ECA in considering the 1949-50 assistance program of participating nations should require that each program lay a foundation for a sound currency," the report said.

Importers Reluctant

The committee also noted a reluctance on the part of European importers to buy from the United States.

"The ECA program can be operated," it said, "so as to rebuild the European economy to complement American agriculture and industry or so as to erect a barrier between Europe and the United States."

WEBB TAKES OATH AS ACHESON AIDE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 (AP)—James E. Webb, 42-year-old former U. S. budget director, was sworn in as undersecretary of state today.

Cabinet members, diplomats and congressmen attended the ceremony, which marked the second major change in the State department's high command since President Truman's inauguration.

Succeeds Lovett

Dean Acheson, former under secretary, became Secretary of State last Friday, succeeding Gen. George C. Marshall. Webb takes over from Robert A. Lovett, who resigned, in the No. 2 diplomatic post.

A husky, dark-haired North Carolinian, Webb won unanimous Senate approval to become Acheson's top lieutneant. He had headed the budget bureau—the world's biggest money job—since July, 1946.

Former Lawyer

Prior to that, with time out for war service in Marine Corp aviation; he had been vice president of the Sperry Gyroscope Co. Like Acheson, he is a lawyer.

In his new role, Webb will be responsible for the day-to-day operation of the State department, shouldering full responsibility for carrying out and advising the President on foreign policy in Acheson's absence.

Acheson has announced that one of the first things he will talk over with Webb will be the task of reorganizing the State department.

REUTHER OUTLINES DOUBLE PROGRAM

UAW Head Urges Social And Industrial Expansions

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Walter P. Reuther said tonight the United States "will not win a victory for democracy in the present world crisis with either bullets or bottlenecks."

As a substitute for bullets, the president of the CIO United Automobile Workers proposed an "all-out offensive" at home for civil rights, housing, minimum wage, national health program, and a broadened and expanded social security.

To break what he called "serious bottlenecks in basic materials like steel, fertilizer, power, copper and aluminum," he recalled President Truman's suggestion that the Government might have to step in if private industry refuses to expand its facilities.

Would Be Natural, He Says

Such a step, he said, would be natural if democracy is to survive.

"The steel industry and other like monopolies," he asserted, "have no faith in America's future—they are planning for the next depression. They claim that our steel capacity is adequate today because they base tomorrow's needs on the facts of yesterday."

Reuther spoke at a Roosevelt Day dinner sponsored by the Americans for Democratic Action. It was one of a series planned to observe the late President's birthday—Sunday—and the "resurgence" of Roosevelt principles in the recent election.

Refers To Roosevelt

Senator Kefauver (D., Tenn.), another speaker, said Mr. Truman's plan to help build up backward world areas economically "is the sort of political thinking taught us" by the late President Roosevelt.

He said Mr. Truman "engineered the most startling political upset of our time" last November and added:

"While he deserves the fullest credit, I feel that his grand accomplishment was due in no small measure to the zeal and forthrightness with which he championed the basic tenets of his great predecessor's political philosophies.

"I believe, too, that the public felt this kinship and identity of fundamental purposes between the two Presidents."

'Sally' Trial In Recess After Hearing 5 Records

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—Jurors in the "Axis Sally" treason trial rested their ears today from a barrage of Nazi war propaganda.

The respite lasts until Monday, when they will listen to much more of it—the evidence by which prosecutors hope to convince the jurors that Mildred E. Gillars, 48, betrayed her country for Nazi cash.

United States district courts ordinarily meet here on Friday, but attorneys for both sides told Judge Edward M. Curran they had agreed there should be no court today, because they have work to do before the trial resumes.

If convicted, Maine-born Miss Gillars faces a possible death sentence.

Hears Five Recordings

The jury yesterday listened to playbacks of five recordings of "Axis Sally" programs taken down by Government monitors.

John M. Kelley, Jr., the chief prosecutor, asked a former Nazi radio official whether he recognized any voices. The witness, Adelbert Houben, replied that it was Miss Gillars's voice.

Court officials, jurors, attorneys and reporters put on earphone sets to hear the playbacks and the spectators could not hear them.

At first Miss Gillars listened attentively, but she seemed to lose interest as time went on and she removed her earphones.

"Midge At The Mike"

The first recording the jury heard was called "Midge at the Mike."

In three other recordings Midge gave "medical reports" on "wounded flyers, shot down over Germany and German-occupied territory, and lucky enough to have escaped alive."

Some samples:

"Well, if you folks want to fight, to aid and abet the decline of the West—well, you certainly are taking the right course."

"And so you want to sacrifice your sons to try to destroy that great country, Germany. . . . It's the blackest page in world history."

"They're coming in by the hundreds, these American boys, who day after day are flying over Germany in their terror raids to extinguish a whole race. . . . I ask you American women if you brought up your boys to be murderers."

Mentions 4-F's

Midge also wondered whether the soldier's girl friend back home "isn't sort of running around with one of the 4-F's."

The prosecution beat the defense to the draw with the story of how Miss Gillars, while working for the Nazi radio, wanted no part of an American flyer who deserted to the Germans.

James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars's chief counsel, frequently has mentioned Martin J. Monti, the flyer. Monti pleaded guilty to a treason charge in New York on January 17 and was sentenced to 25 years.

With Houben on the stand, Kelley brought up the Monti matter. Miss Gillars told him that Monti was "a spy or traitor" and she didn't want people like him around her, Houben testified.

U.S. Farm Experts Have Ten Years Of Aid Experience In Hemisphere

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—United States farm experts have ten years of Western Hemisphere experience to throw behind President Truman's "bold new program" to raise living standards abroad.

The Agriculture Department recalled that today in a statement explaining how it plans to aid in carrying out Mr. Truman's program, which calls for wide use of American technical skill to help develop the world's backward areas.

The department noted that in 1939 Congress authorized it to lend technicians to Western Hemisphere countries and to help them set up agricultural stations.

Wide Extension Planned

"The activity has been going forward continuously since that time," the department said, and there are now plans to extend it to such countries as Afghanistan, Iran, the Philippines, Siam and Syria in 1950.

The department is administering joint agricultural programs with other American republics. These programs are aimed at improving or increasing production of crops needed in the United States, but not competing with crops grown here.

The countries include Argentina, Bolivia, Costa Rica, Brazil, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama and Peru, which grow such crops as cocoa, coffee, medium and hard fibers, medicinal plants, tea and rubber.

Pays In Trade

"Since the revenue from such crops buys services and goods from the United States, assistance in improving such crops has been shown to pay out not only through better relations but also through brisker trade," the department said.

These types of aid are being supplied by the department:

Establishment and maintenance of joint co-operative agricultural stations for research and education.

Training of Latin-American specialists for technical leadership in their own countries.

Assisting visitors to the United States in their studies of technical methods.

Sending special advisory missions, upon request, to countries desiring to improve their public services in agriculture.

Initial Leadership

"The common practice has been for the United States to supply the initial leadership, the technical 'know-how' and specialized equipment," the statement said. "The country where the station is located supplies land, buildings, associate technicians, office and service personnel, equipment and supplies available within the country, and funds for operating expenses."

The department said financial support contributed by Latin-American governments has grown from $500,000 in 1943 to $1,178,000 in 1948. On the average, the United States puts up $1 for each $3 supplied by the other countries.

Technical missions have already been sent to such countries outside the Western Hemisphere as China, the Philippines, Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Egypt and Greece.

BURGMAN ON WAY TO U.S. FOR TRIAL

Former U.S. Embassy Employe Faces Treason Charge

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—The Justice Department said tonight that Herbert John Burgman, former employé in the United States Embassy in Berlin, is now being flown across the Atlantic to face a treason charge here.

The department said Burgman was placed aboard an army plane at Frankfurt, Germany, today and is expected to reach Washington about 6 P.M. tomorrow.

Refused Repatriation

The Justice Department announced early this month that Burgman, who has worked for the State Department for twenty years, had been placed under arrest by American Occupation Forces at the department's request.

The department said a treason case will be presented against him before a grand jury here, based on the allegation that he refused repatriation to this country when the war broke out in 1941, and instead took a job with the German short-wave radio and made broadcasts in English to American armed forces.

Is 52 Years Old

Burgman was temporarily detained shortly after the occupation of Berlin, but was released.

In treason cases, the law requires court procedure at the point of landing of the person accused.

Burgman is 52 years old and a native of Hokah, Minn.

To date, 24 Americans have been indicted for treason in World War II—twelve of them for alleged enemy propaganda broadcasts.

Threats Against Judge, 11 Communists Made

'Communications' Sent To Medina's Home; Defense Attorneys In N.Y. Trial Also Warned

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—The conspiracy trial of eleven top United States Communists was jolted today by the disclosure that the presiding jurist, the defendants and their attorneys have received threatening letters.

The disclosure first was made by Federal Judge Harold R. Medina after the court had been called back into session after a luncheon recess.

Addressing the court, Medina announced he had received threatening "communications" at his home and added:

"I don't think I am in any danger, but if I'm wrong, I'll face the risk calmly."

Families Also Threatened

He said he had "no notion" of what inspired the letters.

No sooner did he finish than Harry Sacher, one of the battery of defense lawyers, got to his feet and announced that he, too—along with the defendants, all members of the American Communist party's national committee, and the other defense lawyers—had been threatened by mail. He said there were threats of violence against "ourselves, our wives and children."

The exact contents of the letters were not disclosed.

There was no immediate word as to whether extra police precautions would be taken in behalf of all those threatened.

Medina told the courtroom:

"There is no mystery, no danger. I have felt not the slightest concern about the communications I have been receiving."

Wife Asks Extra Protection

He added he did not think that the letters were "inspired by the defendants or counsel." The defendants are charged with conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the United States Government.

Shortly before his announcement Medina's wife, apparently upset over the letters, had requested extra police protection for the jurist.

Her request was made at the court to a detective to whom she handed a note saying: "Tell Detective Mitchell to guard the judge at the lunch hour." An official said, however, he believed present precautions, as far as the judge was concerned, were sufficient.

Mrs. Medina's request was made after the morning proceedings were interrupted by a young woman who tried to go up to the judge's bench from the spectators' section. She was turned back by attendants but saw Medina in his chambers during the lunch recess, during which she protested court seating arrangements.

Declines To Give Name

She declined to give her name. Her protest was aimed at the press section, which she said had many vacancies while spectators were refused admittance because the seats allotted to them were filled.

Referring to the letters, Medina said it was "apparent" that the character of the accusations against him in the courtroom, "the extravagant charges which have been made repeatedly, emotionally, and loudly, may cause some misguided people to get a wrong impression of the administration of justice."

Defense counsel—since the trial opened January 17—have repeatedly asked Medina to disqualify himself on the grounds of bias and prejudice.

They also have charged he was upholding the system of picking juries in the New York Federal District, a method, they claim, discriminates in favor of the rich and against the poor and members of minority groups, including Jews and Negroes.

Sacher Tells Of Threats

After Medina's announcement, Sacher said:

"We too have received a series of letters with threats of violence against ourselves, our wives and children. When I returned home at 1 A.M. today, my wife greeted me, not with a note from a detective, but with several letters. The defendants have received much more than crank notes."

Pointing to Robert G. Thompson, New York State Communist party chairman and one of the defendants, Sacher said "the defendant Thompson has felt the knife of a felon" and that his daughter had been the subject of "actually perpetrated violence."

Thompson reported to police several months ago that he was assaulted by several men as he returned to his Queens home after attending a meeting.

Last January 13 Robert Burke, a private investigator, was acquitted on charges of indecent exposure and impairing the morals of Thompson's 7-year-old daughter, Ellen.

Refers To Persecution

Sacher told the court:

"It might be well to say here that some of the defendants have already felt the lash of persecution."

Sacher said it was of as much importance that the defendants had been threatened as that Medina had received threats.

"Perhaps we're all drawn into the vortex," Medina commented.

Before revelation of the letters, the defense had called the first of their own witnesses, a Negro teacher in a Marxist school, in their effort to prove discrimination in the Federal jury-picking system here.

PADLOCK LAW INVOKED AFTER POLICE RAID

Communist Leader's Montreal Home And Party Offices Closed

Montreal, Que., Jan. 28 (AP)—A padlock law was invoked today to close the home and offices of a Communist leader after police raiders seized a truckload of documents there.

The Communist, John Switzman, his wife and 20-month-old daughter were ordered out. Under the padlock law, which Premier Maurice L. Duplessis has used a dozen times in the past, the premises will be closed for a year.

Switzman, a former infantry lieutenant, is organizer for the Labor-Progressive party, the name the Communists use in Canada.

Offices In His Home

Four rooms of the house were used as offices of the party, the National Federation of Labor Youth, the Council of Progressive Jewish Organizations and the weekly Communist newspaper Canada Tribune. The law authorizes padlocking of places suspected of Communist activities or disseminating Communist propaganda.

No charges were filed against Switzman or officials of the other organizations. Switzman was fined $5 on a charge of interfering with police after a police raid last August on a tourist camp in the Laurentians, in which Communist literature was seized.

Follows Sam Carr's Arrest

Special Officer Paul Benoit declined to say whether the raid here was connected with the recent arrest of Sam Carr in New York after a three-year hunt on charges that he figured in Canada's atomic spy ring.

"You can draw your own conclusions," he said.

The Labor-Progressive party's national offices in Toronto issued a statement last night saying Carr, former organization secretary for the party, had not been a party member since 1946.

Mr. Duplessis told a news conference at Quebec that "there cannot be any compromise with communism or Communist propagandists."

The Premier said the raid on Mr. Switzman's Montreal quarters was carried out on his instructions as Attorney-General, after he had received "serious reports" that the dwelling was a center for "agencies of Communist propaganda." He added that a request that the house be padlocked also was received from the "highest Montreal authorities."

He reminded newsmen that the throne speech at the opening of the Quebec Provincial Parliament last week had declared "with reason that communism, Communists and subversive propagandists have no place in Quebec. In fact, communism is atheism and our province rightly is irrevocably attached to its national and religious traditions."

Quebec Padlocks Home Of Communist Leader

Montreal, Jan. 28 (AP)—Premier Maurice Depulessis of Quebec today ordered the home of a Communist party official padlocked after police raided the place and seized a truck load of documents.

The home was that of John Switzman, organizer for the Labor-Progressive party, the tag the Communists use in Canada. The propaganda supported a Canadian seamen's union and other causes the Communists back. Switzman, his wife and young daughter were ordered from the house, which will be closed a year under the padlock law.

Four of the seven rooms were offices for the party, the National Federation of Labor Youth, the Council of Progressive Jewish Organization and the weekly Communist newspaper, Canadian Tribune. No charge has been made against Switzman or officials of the organizations.

House Unit May Quiz Canadian Spy Suspect

Washington, Jan. 28 (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee may try to question Sam Carr, alleged central figure in a Soviet atomic spy ring in Canada.

Carr was arrested by the FBI yesterday in New York and held for probable return to Canada for trial.

Representative Nixon (R., Cal.), a committee member, said he certainly would like to have a chance to question Carr. He said he understood Chairman Wood (D., Ga.) also was interested.

Link Is Indicated

Nixon said he had read the testimony in the Canadian spy trials and there were clear indications of connections between the atomic espionage ring in the dominion and one in the United States.

Whether the FBI would allow the committee to question Carr was questionable. It was uncertain, too, Nixon said, whether a hearing would produce any results, since Carr might refuse to answer questions on grounds of self-incrimination.

Even so, he said, the committee should "explore the situation" because the statute of limitations is running out on atomic spying cases in this country.

Carr's Wife Sent To Ellis Island

New York, Jan. 28 (AP)—The FBI said today the wife of Sam Carr, alleged coleader of a one-time Russian spy ring in Canada, had been arrested on a deportation charge and sent to Ellis Island.

Carr was arrested yesterday at a Manhattan apartment he and his wife rented two weeks ago, and his wife submitted voluntarily to questioning by the FBI.

Deportation proceedings have been brought against Carr, for whom a three-year search had been conducted. He is expected to be returned to Canada to face trial on charges of violating the Official Secrets Act of Canada.

The Canadian charge was brought against Carr as an outgrowth of the disclosure of a Russian espionage ring.

The FBI said Mrs. Carr, a native of England, went to Canada with her parents at the age of 3.

Mrs. Carr entered this country without immigration papers after leaving Toronto in December, 1948, the FBI said, and admitted remaining here longer than visitors from Canada are permitted to stay.

In Canada, there has never been any suggestion of charges against her in connection with the espionage case.

U.N. APPROVES U.S. INDONESIAN PLAN (2)

Overrides Dutch Protest On Revival Of Republic

F. W. CARPENTER

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 28 (AP)—The Security Council overrode Dutch protests and approved today an American-backed plan designed to restore the Indonesian Republic.

Key sections of the program barely squeezed through the Council, with seven votes required for passage by the eleven-member Council.

Russia, the Ukraine, France and Argentina abstained on sections setting up a United Nations commission for Indonesia and giving that commission authority to recommend withdrawal of Dutch soldiers from territory of the Indonesian Republic.

Evasion Predicted

The Netherlands told the Council the Dutch would co-operate as far as their responsibilities in Indonesia permitted.

Indonesian Republic spokesmen said their co-operation depended largely on what the Dutch did. They predicted the Dutch would defy or evade the Council orders.

The Council took 28 separate votes on the long resolution sponsored by the United States, Cuba, Norway and China.

In its major actions, the Council:

1. Called on the Dutch to release leaders of the Indonesian Republic immediately and help them get their Government going again. The vote on this paragraph was 10 to 0 with France alone abstaining.

Russ Demand Turned Down

2. Turned down a Soviet proposal demanding immediate withdrawal of Dutch soldiers from territory of the Indonesian Republic. Only Russia, the Ukraine, Cuba and Egypt voted for this demand; the other seven Council members ab-

FIRST LEAD PALESTINE ROUNDUP (A153) 1949

(ADVANCE FOR USE AT 3 P.M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, TODAY, FRIDAY, JAN.28)

(ADVANCE)..LONDON, JAN 28-(AP)-GREAT BRITAIN AND HER WESTERN ALLIANCE PARTNERS ANNOUNCED TONIGHT THEY WILL ACCORD DE FACTO (PARTIAL) RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL.

A JOINT COMMUNIQUE ISSUED AFTER A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG SAID GENERAL AGREEMENT WAS REACHED THAT THE "STAGE HAD NOW BEEN REACHED AT WHICH DE FACTO RECOGNITION COULD BE GIVEN TO THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL."

AUSTRALIA AND SWITZERLAND ANNOUNCED EARLIER THAT THEY WOULD EXTEND RECOGNITION TO THE NEW STATE IN PALESTINE. SWITZERLAND SAID IT WOULD ACCORD DE FACTO RECOGNITION, AUSTRALIA SAID IT WOULD GIVE FULL RECOGNITION.

THE COMMUNIQUE SAID THE FIVE WESTERN ALLIANCE MINISTERS AGREED ALSO TO SET UP A "COUNCIL OF EUROPE." THE BODY WILL CONSIST OF A MINISTERIAL COMMITTEE WHICH WILL MEET IN PRIVATE AND A CONSULTATIVE BODY WHICH WILL MEET IN PUBLIC.

THIS APPEARED TO BE A COMPROMISE BETWEEN PREVIOUSLY CONFLICTING VIEWS BETWEEN BRITAIN ON ONE SIDE AND THE OTHER FOUR ALLIES ON THE OTHER. BRITAIN HAS OPPOSED STRONGLY SETTING UP A WESTERN EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT SUCH AS FRANCE AND BELGIUM HAVE PROPOSED, WITH DUTCH AND LUXEMBOURG SUPPORT.

BRITAIN HAS CALLED INSTEAD FOR A EUROPEAN "COUNCIL OF MINISTERS."

THE MINISTERS DECIDED TO INVITE OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES TO JOIN IN THE NEGOTIATIONS FOR ESTABLISHING A COUNCIL OF EUROPE.

TWENTY-FIVE NATIONS NOW RECOGNIZE THE NEW JEWISH STATE IN PALESTINE, INCLUDING CANADA AND SOUTH AFRICA AMONG THE BRITISH DOMINIONS. A SIMILAR ANNOUNCEMENT BY NEW ZEALAND IS EXPECTED SOON.

IN QUICK ORDER, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, BRITAIN'S ALLIES IN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION, ARE EXPECTED TO ACCORD RECOGNITION. THE FIVE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE UNION HAVE BEEN IN SESSION HERE SINCE YESTERDAY, AND WERE REPORTED TO HAVE AGREED TO GRANTING DE FACTO RECOGNITION TO THE STATE OF ISRAEL.

THIS TYPE OF RECOGNITION IS THE SAME AS ACCORDED BY THE UNITED STATES. IT RECOGNIZES THE EXISTENCE OF ISRAEL AS A STATE BUT FALLS SHORT OF DE JURE RECOGNITION, WHICH RECOGNIZES THE GOVERNMENT OF A STATE AS THE LEGALLY CONSTITUTED AUTHORITY.

FRANCE HAS ACCORDED DE FACTO RECOGNITION, AND THE SOVIET UNION, UNSPECIFIED RECOGNITION OF THE NEW STATE. BRITAIN'S ACTION WILL MEAN THAT ISRAEL IS RECOGNIZED BY ALL THE BIG FOUR POWERS.
PRIME MINISTER J.B.CHIFLEY OF AUSTRALIA, ANNOUNCING THE DECISION, SAID THAT "WHEN ISRAEL'S APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION TO THE UNITED NATIONS COMES BEFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, AUSTRALIA WILL SUPPORT IT."

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, JAN 28-(AP)-THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION LIFTED ITS BAN ON MOVING JEWISH REFUGEES TO PALESTINE AND FREED $4,000,000 TO PAY FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF IMMIGRANTS.
HOWEVER, THE IRO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE DECIDED THAT BEFORE ANY NEW IMMIGRATION COULD START, DIRECTOR GENERAL WILLIAM HALLAM TUCK SHOULD CONSULT WITH THE PALESTINE CONCILIATION COMMISSION.
A COMMITTEE SPOKESMAN SAID THE REASON FOR THIS WAS TO MAKE SURE THE IRO DID NOT START ANYTHING IN THE WAY OF FUTURE IMMIGRATION WHICH MIGHT HINDER THE COMMISSION'S WORK.
THE IRO RESOLUTION ALSO PROVIDES THAT PRIORITY WILL BE GIVEN IN NEW IMMIGRATION TO DISPLACED PERSONS NOW IN IRO CAMPS OR IN TRANSIT CAMPS.

Oslo, Norway, Jan. 28--(AP)---Sweden, Denmark and Norway are opening another meeting here tomorrow to try to decide whether they should form a Scandinavian defense bloc.

Expressed differences indicated they would decide against it. The premiers, foreign ministers and defense ministers will take part. Foreign Minister Oseten Unden of Sweden and Premier hans Hedtoft and Foreign Minister Gustav Rasmussen of Denmark arrived here today for the conference.

Sweden is reported to want a pact based on neutrality and not tied to the proposed North Atlantic alliance, proposed to link the United states and Canada with Britain and other western european nations. Informants said Norway wants a wants a pact which would enable the three countries to obtain weapons and certain guarantees from the western nations.

The rightist newspaper Aftenposten expressed belief Norway will not accept Sweden's neutrality stand and it is unlikely sweden will accept Norway's point of view.

A moscow dispatch said the resumption of the talks was being followed with close attention in the Soviet Capital.

OSLO, NORWAY, JAN 28-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER OESTEN UNDEN OF SWEDEN
AND PRIME MINISTER HANS HEDTOFT AND FOREIGN MINISTER GUSTAV RASMUSSEN OF DENMARK ARRIVED HERE TODAY FOR A RESUMPTION OF TALKS ON A PROPOSED SCANDINAVIAN DEFENSE ALLIANCE.
THE DISCUSSIONS MAY ENTER A DECISIVE STAGE DURING WEEKEND MEETINGS
BETWEEN THE THREE COUNTRIES' PREMIERS AND FOREIGN MINISTERS.
UNDEN SAID THE CHANCES OF A RECONCILIATION BETWEEN NORWEGIAN AND SWEDISH VIEWS SEEMED "UNLIKELY" AT THIS STAGE IN THE DISCUSSIONS.
SWEDEN IS REPORTED TO WANT A SCANDINAVIAN PACT BASED ON NEUTRALITY
AND NOT TIED IN WITH THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE NOW BEING NEGOTIATED IN WASHINGTON.
NORWAY, INFORMANTS SAID, WANTS A SCANDINAVIAN ALLIANCE WHICH WOULD ENABLE THE THREE COUNTRIES, TO SECURE WEAPONS AND CERTAIN GUARANTEES
FROM THE WESTERN NATIONS.
THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE WOULD INCLUDE THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.
THE RIGHT WING NEWSPAPER AFTENPOSTEN TODAY EXPRESSED LITTLE BELIEF
IN THE PROPOSED SCANDINAVIAN UNION.
THE PAPER SAID NORWAY WILL NOT ACCEPT SWEDEN'S NEUTRALITY STAND
AND IT IS VERY UNLIKELY SWEDEN WILL ACCEPT NORWAY'S POINT OF VIEW.
AFTENPOSTEN ADDED THAT THE MEETING VERY PROBABLY WILL LEAD TO A BREAK IN SCANDINAVIAN UNITY. THE NORWEGIAN PARLIAMENT IS WHOLE-HEARTEDLY BEHIND NORWAY'S ATTITUDE, THE NEWSPAPER SAID.

ON THE OTHER HAND, ONE OF THE GOVERNMENT-DESIGNATED PEACE DELEGATES, GEN. CHANG CHIH-CHUNG, FLEW TO LANCHOW IN NORTHWEST CHINA. HE WAS REPORTED PESSIMISTIC ABOUT ANY CHANCE FOR PEACE.

THIS, HOWEVER, WAS BEFORE LI SENT HIS MESSAGE (PRESUMABLY BY RADIO) TO MAO.

A WELL-INFORMED SOURCE, WHO FURNISHED A TRANSLATION OF THE MESSAGE, SAID LI HAD APPEALED TO MAO AS A FELLOW REVOLUTIONARY, SAYING BOTH THE NATIONALISTS AND THE COMMUNISTS HAD WORKED FOR A PEOPLES' REVOLUTION AS ENVISIONED BY DR. SUN YAT-SEN, FOUNDER OF THE REPUBLIC.

LI SAID THAT POLITICAL DIFFERENCES WHICH LED TO THE CIVIL WAR SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO PROLONG THE CONFLICT AND THE SUFFERING OF THE CHINESE PEOPLE.

A29FX add-Nanking-Dang)xxx talks part.

"BOTH SIDES," LI ADDED, "SHOULD ABIDE BY THE PEOPLES' WISHES, FIND A POLITICAL MEANS TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE, AND TAKE NO FURTHER STEPS WHICH WILL MULTIPLY OUR CRIMES A HUNDRED TIMES.

"BOTH YOU AND THE GOVERNMENT HAVE EXPRESSED A DESIRE FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT...I HOPE YOU WILL CONFER WITH YOUR COMRADES AND SPEEDILY PLAN FOR PEACE TALKS, APPOINT REPRESENTATIVES TO A DESIGNATED PLACE AND START NEGOTIATIONS."

LI DECLARED THAT "IF WE CAN MEET IN SINCERITY TOGETHER I AM SURE WE CAN REACH AN AGREEMENT."

THE ACTING PRESIDENT REITERATED THAT "THE GOVERNMENT" HAS ACCEPTED MAO'S EIGHT POINTS AS A BASIS FOR PEACE TALKS. THESE POINTS CALL FOR TEARING UP THE CONSTITUTION AND TRYING GOVERNMENT LEADERS THE REDS CONSIDER "WAR CRIMINALS."

THESE INCLUDE CHIANG, PAI AND LI, BUT THE COMMUNISTS SAID WEDNESDAY THEY WOULD FORGIVE LI IF HE WOULD SHOW HIS SINCERITY FOR PEACE BY "DETAINING" CHIANG AND THE OTHERS.

LI SAID NOTHING ABOUT "DETAINING" ANYONE. INSTEAD HE TOLD MAO THAT UNLESS OLD GRUDGES ARE FORGOTTEN FOR THE COUNTRY'S GOOD "THEN YOU AND I WILL BECOME CRIMINALS OF THE PEOPLE FOR THOUSANDS OF YEARS TO COME."

LI REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN ARGUING THAT THE MOVEMENT OF THE CAPITAL FROM NANKING TO CANTON, SCHEDULED TO TAKE EFFECT FEB. 5, WOULD WRECK HOPES FOR PEACE TALKS.

SHANGHAI, JAN 28-(AP)-EFFORTS TO LOCATE PREMIER SUN FO AND FOREIGN MINISTER WU TE-CHEN HERE TONIGHT PROVED FRUITLESS.

SOME SOURCES SAID BOTH HAD GONE ON TO CANTON. ANOTHER SAID AT LEAST ONE OF THEM HAD GONE TO FENGHWA WHERE RETIRED PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK IS SPENDING THE CHINESE NEW YEAR. ANOTHER SIMPLY SAID THEY WERE "LYING LOW" BECAUSE THEY FEARED ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN MIGHT HOLD THEM AS "WAR CRIMINALS" FOR THE COMMUNISTS.

ONE CHINESE SOURCE SAID THAT THE DEPARTURE OF THE TWO FROM NANKING WAS FURTHER EVIDENCE THAT THE KUOMINTANG OLD GUARD WAS ABANDONING LI AND HEADING SOUTH IN HOPES OF TAKING OVER THE GOVERNMENT BEFORE LI CAN GET TO CANTON TO ASSUME LEADERSHIP. THE CABINET HAS ANNOUNCED CANTON AS SEAT OF THE GOVERNMENT BEGINNING FEB. 5.

IT APPEARED THERE WAS A MOVE ON TO SET UP A FUGITIVE GOVERNMENT IN REVOLT AGAINST THE ACTING PRESIDENT.

THIS WOULD MEAN THAT AT THE PROPER TIME CHIANG MIGHT REAPPEAR AND RESUME HIS POSITION AS LEADER. PARTY LINE FOLLOWERS FEEL THIS WOULD LEAVE LI HOLDING THE BAG ON MEANINGLESS PEACE MOVEMENTS.

OTHER FACTIONS FEEL LI MAY GET STRONGER WHILE THE FUGITIVE GOVERNMENT WITHERS.

CERTAINLY THE REPORTED DECISION OF THE UNITED STATES TO LEAVE AMBASSADOR J. LEIGHTON STUART IN NANKING COULD HARDLY BE CONSTRUED AS AN IMPETUS TO THE REFUGEE GOVERNMENT.

TOKYO,SATURDAY,JAN 29-(AP)-GENERAL MACARTHUR IN STRONG TERMS TODAY BRUSHED ASIDE AS "SOVIET PROPAGANDA" RUSSIA'S LATEST ATTACK ON U.S. PLANS FOR RESTORING JAPAN'S ECONOMY.

MACARTHUR ISSUED A STATEMENT IN RESPONSE TO A REQUEST FOR COMMENT ON SOVIET AMBASSADOR ALEXANDER S.PANYUSHKIN'S CRITICISM OF THE AMERICAN PROGRAM BEFORE THE FAR EASTERN COMMISSION IN WASHINGTON THURSDAY.

PANYUSHKIN CHARGED THE PROGRAM CONTRADICTED EXISTING FEC POLICIES FOR DISARMING JAPAN. HE DEMANDED THAT THE MEASURES BE REVIEWED BY ALL THE WARTIME ALLIES IN THE PACIFIC.

MACARTHUR SAID PANYUSHKIN'S CHARGE "CAN BE REGARDED AS MAINLY A CONTINUATION OF THE EXTRAORDINARY IRRESPONSIBILITY OF SOVIET PROPAGANDA."

THE OCCUPATION COMMANDER DECLARED THE "BASIC CAUSE" OF SUCH PROPAGANDA WAS "THE COMPLETE FRUSTRATION OF THE SOVIET EFFORT TO ABSORB JAPAN WITHIN THE ORBIT OF COMMUNISTIC IDEOLOGY."

"THIS EFFORT," HE CONTINUED, "HAS BEEN INCESSANT AND RELENTLESS FROM THE INCEPTION OF THE OCCUPATION. IT HAS SOUGHT BY EVERY MEANS WITHIN ITS IOAER TO SPREAD DISCORD AND DISSENSION THROUGHOUT THIS COUNTRY, REDUCED BY THE DISASTER OF WAR TO ECONOMIC POVERTY...

"IT HAS HOPED SO TO MUTILATE THE MASSES THAT THERE COULD BE IMPOSED THROUGH THE RESULTING DESPAIR AND MISERY A GODLESS CONCEPT OF ATHEISTIC, TOTALITARIAN ENSLAVEMENT.

"IT HAS FAILED, DUE LARGELY TO THE INNATE COMMON SENSE AND CONSERVATISM OF THE JAPANESE PEOPLE, THE CONCEPTS OF DEMOCRATIC FREEDOM IMPLANTED DURING THE OCCUPATION, AND THE PROGRESSIVE IMPROVEMENT OF LIVING CONDITIONS.

"THE RESULTING RAGE AND FRUSTRATION PRODUCED, AS IN THE PRESENT INSTANCE, AN UNBRIDLED VULGARITY OF EXPRESSION WHICH IS THE SURE HALLMARK OF PROPAGANDA AND FAILURE."

MANILA,JAN 28 (AP)-A DISPUTE BETWEEN THE LEADER OF STATELESS RUSSIANS FROM CHINA AND A FILIPINO OFFICIAL THREATENED FOR A TIME TODAY TO HALT OR DELAY FURTHER ADMITTANCE OF SUCH REFUGEES.

AS AN UPSHOT OF THE DISPUTE, COL.KONSTANTIN I.KLUGE, LEADER OF THE FIRST 492 STATELESS RUSSIANS TO REACH THE PHILIPPINES, WILL BE RETURNED TO SHANGHAI, THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE ANNOUNCED.

WHETHER HE WILL BE ALLOWED TO RETURN APPARENTLY WILL BE UP TO FILIPINO AUTHORITIES IN SHANGHAI.

THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE SAID THE 64-YEAR-OLD FORMER COSSACK COLONEL "DELIBERATELY IGNORED" INSTRUCTIONS FOR LANDING THE REFUGEES AT GUIUAN, ON SAMAR ISLAND IN THE CENTRAL PHILIPPINES, WHERE THE STATELESS HAVE BEEN GIVEN A TEMPORARY HAVEN.

KLUGE REFUSED TO PERMIT THE PASSENGERS TO LEAVE THE CHINESE STEAMER HWA LEIN WHEN ALFRED EUGENIO, A TECHNICAL ASSISTANT OF PRESIDENT ELPIDIO QUIRINO, ASKED THE RUSSIANS TO DISEMBARK.

THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE GAVE NO REASON FOR THE REFUSAL. PRESS REPORTS FROM SAMAR, HOWEVER, INDICATED THE REFUGEES HEARD THE CAMP WAS FILLED WITH SNAKES AND CROCODILES AND DIDN'T WANT TO JOIN THE LABOR GANG ALREADY AT WORK PREPARING THE CAMP.

EUGENIO ACCUSED KLUGE OF "INSOLENCE AND ARROGANCE" AND THREATENED TO RECOMMEND THAT THE 5,000 STATELESS RUSSIANS STILL WAITING IN CHINA BE BARRED FROM ADMITTANCE, THESE REPORTS ADDED.

EDWARD PAPP, OFFICIAL OF THE INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ORGANIZATION WHICH IS SPONSORING THE MOVEMENT OF REFUGEES FROM CHINA, FINALLY SETTLED THE DISPUTE BY APOLOGIZING FOR KLUGE. KLUGE, PROMINENT IN THE SHANGHAI RUSSIAN EMIGRANTS ASSOCIATION, THEN PREPARED TO RETURN TO CHINA ABOARD THE HWA LEIN. THE OTHER REFUGEES WENT ASHORE.

"FUNDAMENTALLY" TO SECTIONS PROVIDING FOR RESTORATION OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO POWER, ENABLING THE THREE-MEMBER COMMISSION TO ACT BY A MAJORITY VOTE, AND TELLING THE COMMISSION TO RECOMMEND WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN SOIL AS THEY WISHED.

HE MADE NO OBJECTIONS TO THE REMAINDER OF THE RESOLUTION AND THEN SAID:

"MY GOVERNMENT WILL CARRY OUT THIS RESOLUTION X X X TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH IT IS COMPATIBLE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE NETHERLANDS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF REAL FREEDOM AND ORDER IN INDONESIA, A RESPONSIBILITY WHICH AT THIS MOMENT NO ONE ELSE CAN TAKE OVER FROM US."

AFTER THE COUNCIL APPROVED THE RESOLUTION, VAN ROYEN TOLD NEWSMEN "IT IS A SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION AND WE ARE BOUND TO DO OUR BEST TO CARRY IT OUT BUT WE MUST ALSO EXAMINE THE CONSEQUENCES."

HE SAID NEGOTIATIONS WOULD BE MUCH MORE DIFFICULT BETWEEN THE DUTCH AND THE INDONESIANS NOW THAN THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN HAD THE RESOLUTION NOT BEEN APPROVED.

VAN ROYEN IN HIS SPEECH TOLD THE COUNCIL THE SECTIONS TO WHICH HE OBJECTED WOULD PUT THE NETHERLANDS UNDER "GUARDIANSHIP OF THE UNITED NATIONS." HE SAID SUCH A SACRIFICE HAD NEVER BEFORE BEEN ASKED OF ANY U.N. MEMBER. HE CALLED THE RESOLUTION AN INVASION OF THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THE NETHERLANDS. HE SAID IT CALLED ON THE NETHERLANDS TO RENOUNCE CERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF SOVEREIGNTY.

L.N.PALAR, INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN IN THE COUNCIL DEBATES, ISSUED A STATEMENT AFTER THE VOTE SAYING ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF THE RESOLUTION BY HIS GOVERNMENT CAN ONLY BE DETERMINED BY THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT AS SOON AS ITS CABINET CAN MEET FREELY.

"THE DUTCH DELEGATE'S STATEMENT THAT HIS 'GOVERNMENT WILL CARRY OUT THIS RESOLUTION X X X TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH IT IS COMPATIBLE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE NETHERLANDS' MEANS THAT THIS RESOLUTION WILL BE TREATED BY THE DUTCH IN THE SAME WAY AS THEY REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH THE COUNCIL'S RECENT RESOLUTIONS FOR A CEASE-FIRE AND A RELEASE OF THE POLITICAL PRISONERS," PALAR SAID.

"THE CONCLUSION TO BE DRAWN IS THAT THE DUTCH WILL DEFY THE COUNCIL TO THE DETRIMENT OF A SPEEDY AND PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IN INDONESIA."

THE PRESENT PHASE OF THE INDONESIAN CASE AROSE IN JULY, 1947, AFTER THE DUTCH STARTED WHAT THEY CALLED POLICE ACTION AGAINST THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. THE COUNCIL CREATED THE GOOD OFFICES COMMISSION WHICH SOUGHT VAINLY IN THE FOLLOWING MONTHS TO OBTAIN A SETTLEMENT. THE DUTCH STARTED "POLICE ACTION" AGAIN LAST DEC. 17. THE COUNCIL HELD URGENT MEETINGS IN PARIS DURING THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS AND CONTINUED THE SESSIONS HERE AFTER THE NEW YEAR. THE QUESTION HAS TAKEN UP VIRTUALLY ALL OF THE COUNCIL'S TIME THIS MONTH.

DR. ALBERTO INOCENTE ALVAREZ, NEW DELEGATE FROM CUBA, AND MAHMOUD BEY FAWZI OF EGYPT VOTED WITH RUSSIA AND THE SOVIET UKRAINE FOR IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF DUTCH TROOPS FROM THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC. IN EARLIER STATEMENTS TO THE COUNCIL THEY HAD CALLED FOR SUCH STRONG ACTION.

DEFEATED ON THAT MOVE, THEY VOTED NEXT WITH THE MAJORITY TO LEAVE IT TO THE COMMISSION WHEN TO RECOMMEND WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS.

ALVAREZ SAID IN AN EARLIER SPEECH THAT HE HAD WANTED A STRONGER RESOLUTION, BUT HE SAID HE AGREED TO BE ONE OF THE FOUR SPONSORS OF THE WATERED-DOWN VERSION IN A SPIRIT OF COMPROMISE.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID THE FINAL VERSION WAS THE ONLY ONE THAT COULD HAVE PASSED THE COUNCIL.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 28-(AP)-FOLLOWING IS THE TEXT OF A STATEMENT BY L.N. PALAR, INDONESIAN REPRESENTATIVE, AFTER THE SECURITY COUNCIL'S ACTION ON THE INDONESIAN QUESTION: (ABOUT 300)

AT THIS STAGE THE INDONESIAN DELEGATION IS NOT IN A POSITION TO COMMENT ON THE SECURITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION BECAUSE THAT IS A MATTER SOLELY FOR THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT. IT GOES WITHOUT SAYING THAT THE DUTCH ACTION OF KEEPING MEMBERS OF MY GOVERNMENT SEPARATED AND INCOMMUNICADO HAS MADE IT EXCEEDINGLY DIFFICULT FOR US TO KNOW, AT ANY GIVEN MOMENT, THE COLLECTIVE OPINION OF MY GOVERNMENT.

THE PRESIDENT AND FOREIGN MINISTER ARE UNDER DUTCH CUSTODY IN PRAPAT (SUMATRA) WHILE THE PREMIER AND OTHER TOP OFFICIALS ARE UNDER SURVEILLANCE AT MUNTOK (BANKA). PART OF THE CABINET IS IN DUTCH-OCCUPIED JOGJAKARTA AND FIVE MINISTERS ARE LEADING THE GUERRILLAS IN SUMATRA AND JAVA.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE RESOLUTION--OR REJECTION--CAN ONLY BE EFFECTED BY THE REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT AS SOON AS IT IS ENABLED TO MEET FREELY AND SPEEDILY IN A CABINET SESSION. IMMEDIATE RETURN TO AND FUNCTIONING OF MY GOVERNMENT IN JOGJAKARTA ARE, THEREFORE, OF THE ESSENCE.

THIS WILL DEPEND, HOWEVER, ON TWO VITAL FACTORS:

(A) IMMEDIATE AND UNQUALIFIED ACCEPTANCE BY THE DUTCH OF THE PRESENT RESOLUTION; AND

(B) GENUINE COOPEATION BY THE DUTCH WITH THE UNITED NATIONS IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE VARIOUS ARTICLES OF THE RESOLUTION.

OUR BITTER EXPERIENCE IN THE PAST HAS BEEN THAT, WHILE PAYING LIP SERVICE TO THE WISHES OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL, THE DUTCH HAVE SYSTEMATICALLY SABOTAGED ALL MOVES BY THE (U.N.) COMMITTEE OF GOOD OFFICES FOR A NEGOTIATED AND PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT. THE SUCCESS OR FAILURE OF THE WHOLE RESOLUTION WILL HINGE UPON THE MANNER IN WHICH THE DUTCH IMPLEMENT IT.

THE DUTCH DELEGATE'S STATEMENT THAT HIS "GOVERNMENT WILL CARRY OUT THIS RESOLUTION--TO THE EXTENT TO WHICH IT IS COMPATIBLE WITH THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE NETHERLANDS"--MEANS THAT THIS RESOLUTION WILL BE TREATED BY THE DUTCH IN THE SAME WAY AS THEY REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH THE COUNCIL'S RECENT RESOLUTIONS FOR A CEASE-FIRE AND A RELEASE OF THE POLITICAL PRISONERS.

THE CONCLUSION TO BE DRAWN IS THAT THE DUTCH WILL DEFY THE COUNCIL TO THE DETRIMENT OF A SPEEDY AND PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IN INDONESIA.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN. 28-(AP)-RUSSIA DEMANDED FORMALLY TODAY THAT THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL ORDER AN IMMEDIATE WITHDRAWAL OF NETHERLANDS TROOPS FROM TERRITORY OF THE INDONESIAN REPUBLIC.

THE DEMAND WAS IN THE FORM OF AN AMENDMENT TO AMERICAN-BACKEJ FOUR-POWER RESOLUTION NOW BEFORE THE COUNCIL. A SIMILAR SOVIET PROPOSAL WAS REJECTED BY THE COUNCIL IN PARIS LAST DECEMBER.

THE NEW SOVIET MOVE CAME SHORTLY AFTER EGYPT ANNOUNCED SHE WOULD SUPPORT THE FOUR-NATION PLAN.

THIS ASSURED THE MEASURE SEVEN AFFIRMATIVE VOTES, THE MINIMUM NEEDED FOR APPROVAL.

THE RESOLUTION IS SPONSORED BY THE UNITED STATES, CHINA, NORWAY AND CUBA. BRITAIN AND CANADA ALREADY HAVE ANNOUNCED THEIR SUPPORT OF THE PROPOSAL.

IT CALLS FOR CREATION OF AN INDEPENDENT UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BY JULY 1, 1950. IT ALSO CALLS ON THE DUTCH TO RELEASE INDONESIAN REPUBLICAN PRISONERS IMMEDIATELY AND TO FACILITATE THE RESTORATION OF THE REPUBLICAN REGIME IN JOGJAKARTA.

NIGHT LEAD CONTROLS

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-ADMINISTRATION SPOKESMEN PUT NEW STRESS TODAY ON ITS ANTI-INFLATION PROGRAM, SAYING THE CONTROL POWERS IT DEMANDS ARE ESSENTIAL TO "NATIONAL SECURITY AND OUR FOREIGN POLICY."

SECRETARY OF COMMERCE CHARLES SAWYER EMPHASIZED THIS POINT IN URGING THE SENATE BANKING COMMITTEE TO APPROVE A 28 MONTH EXTENSION OF THE EXPORT CONTROL LAW WHICH IS DUE TO EXPIRE FEBRUARY 28.

ALTHOUGH HE EXPRESSED HOPES THAT SOME ITEMS--MAYBE GRAINS AND COAL--MAY BE REMOVED FROM THE CONTROL LIST THIS YEAR, SAWYER SAID CLAMPS SHOULD BE CONTINUED ON SUCH KEY PRODUCTS AS STEEL, ALUMINUM, COPPER, MEAT AND SOME FATS AND OILS.

SAWYER, WHO PREVIOUSLY HAS CHAMPIONED "MANDATORY POWERS" TO CHECK INFLATIONARY PRESSURES ON THE HOME FRONT, PLACED LESS EMPHASIS ON THE DOMESTIC ASPECT OF EXPORT CURBS IN TODAY'S TESTIMONY. RATHER, HE STRESSED THE ROLE EXPORT CONTROLS PLAY IN SUPPORT OF THIS NATION'S MILITARY AND FOREIGN POLICY.

HE TOLD THE SENATE COMMITTEE THAT THE EXPORT CHECK-REINS HELP THE GOVERNMENT FULFILL ITS FOREIGN POLICY COMMITMENTS BY DIRECTING THE FLOW OF SCARCE AMERICAN GOODS TO MARSHALL PLAN NATIONS-AND TO KEEP THEM FROM "OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES."

AS FOR DEFENSE, SAUYER SAID "IT IS QUITE CLEAR THAT OUR NATIONAL SECURITY REQUIRES" CONTROLS "OVER SHIPMENTS OF IV

AS FOR DEFENSE, SAWYER SAID "IT IS QUITE CLEAR THAT OUR NATIONAL SECURITY REQUIRES" CONTROLS "OVER SHIPMENTS OF INDUSTRIAL MATERIALS WHICH MAY HAVE DIRECT OR INDIRECT MILITARY SIGNIFICANCE."

THAT WAS A REFERENCE TO THE BAN THIS COUNTRY IMPOSED LAST YEAR ON WHICH MAY HAVE DIRECT OR INDIRECT MILITARY SIGNIFICANCE."

THAT WAS A REFERENCE TO THE BAN THIS COUNTRY IMPOSED LAST YEAR ON SHIPMENT OF WAR-POTENTIAL GOODS TO THE SOVIET UNION AND ITS SATELLITES.

IN THESE VIEWS HE WAS SUPPORTED BY ANOTHER ADMINISTRATION WITNESS, UNDERSECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE A.J.LOVELAND.

"WITHOUT CONTINUING EXPORT CONTROLS," LOVELAND SAID, "IT WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE TO INSURE DISTRIBUTION OF OUR AVAILABLE EXPORT SUPPLIES TO THOSE COUNTRIES WHO ARE COOPERATING WITH US IN THE FIGHT FOR WORLD PEACE AND SECURITY."

THE AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT OFFICIAL, HOWEVER, PRESENTED A LESS FAVORABLE VIEW THAN SAWYER'S ON PROSPECTS FOR RELAXING CONTROLS ON GRAINS AND OTHER FARM PRODUCTS.

SAWYER HAD SAID "COMPLETE DECONTROL OF GRAINS MAY BE POSSIBLE IF FORECASTS OF NEXT YEAR'S DOMESTIC WHEAT ARE REALIZED, AND IF GRAIN HARVESTS IN OTHER AREAS ARE SATISFACTORY."

A179WX

LOVELAND SAID THAT WHILE THE 1949 WHEAT PROSPECTS ARE GOOD IN THIS COUNTRY THEY ARE LESS FAVORABLE IN TWO OTHER MAJOR EXPORTING NATIONS--CANADA AND ARGENTINA.

"REMOVAL OF EXPORT CONTROLS," HE SAID, "COULD TURN LOOSE A DEMAND FOR UNITED STATES COMMODITIES IN SHORT WORLD SUPPLY WHICH, IN TURN, WOULD INFLATE THE PRICES OF THESE COMMODITIES."

THEN, IN A POINTED REFERENCE TO THE VITAL ROLE FOOD PLAYS IN THE COLD WAR, LOVELAND ADDED:

"IN SOME COUNTRIES FOOD SHORTAGES ARE RETARDING ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND PREVENTING STABLE POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT."

ONLY ONE WITNESS APPEARED IN PROTEST AGAINST THE PROPOSED EXPORT CONTROL EXTENSION THROUGH JUNE 30,1951. HE WAS MILTON R.WEXLER, NEW YORK ATTORNEY, WHO SAID HE SPOKE FOR SMALL BUSINESS.

AS REPRESENTATIVE OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF STEEL EXPORTERS, WEXLER URGED THE COMMITTEE TO REVISE THE CONTROL LAW TO GIVE STEEL EXPORT MERCHANTS WHAT HE CALLED A FAIR SHARE OF THE FOREIGN TRADE.

CHAIRMAN MAYBANK (D-SC) ASKED WEXLER TO RETURN LATER TO AMPLIFY HIS COMPLAINT. THE COMMITTEE ADJOURNED HEARINGS UNTIL TUESDAY WHEN IT WILL HEAR A GROUP OF SOYBEAN AND COTTONSEED PRODUCERS WHO HAVE URGED DECONTROL OF THEIR PRODUCTS.

CHINA (256)

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-SENATOR MCCARRAN (D-NEV) SUGGESTED IN A STATEMENT TODAY THAT THE UNITED STATES GIVE $1,500,000,000 (B) CREDIT TO CHINA'S NATIONALIST GOVERNMENT AND PROVIDE AMERICAN MILITARY SUPERVISION FOR ITS ARMIES.

MCCARRAN TOLD REPORTERS HE DID NOT CONTEMPLATE INTRODUCING LEGISLATION OF THAT NATURE AT THIS TIME, BUT MIGHT LATER ON. HE SAID HE WANTS TO SEE FIRST WHAT THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND THE STATE DEPARTMENT MAY DO ABOUT CHINA'S SITUATION.

MCCARRAN IS CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN ECONOMIC COOPERATION. HE SAID IN THE STATEMENT "THE TIME IS HERE FOR US TO TAKE OUR POSITION AGAINST COMMUNISM IN ASIA, AS WE HAVE IN EUROPE."

UNDER HIS PROPOSAL, THE $1,500,000,000(B) CREDIT WOULD BE USED AS FOLLOWS:

$600,000,000 TO $700,000,000 FOR DIRECT MILITARY PURPOSES.

$200,000,000 TO $300,000,000 TO BUY COMMODITIES TO MEET CIVILIAN NEEDS.

THE $500,000,000 TO $700,000,000 BALANCE AS A "STABILIZATION FUND" FOR PURCHASE OF SILVER FROM THE U.S.TREASURY TO BACK CHINA'S CURRENCY.

AS A CONDITION TO THE AID, MCCARRAN WOULD REQUIRE THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT TO MAKE TAX REFORMS AND PLEDGE IMPORT DUTIES TO PAYMENT OF THE CREDIT. HE ALSO WOULD REQUIRE THAT THE CHINESE NATIONALIST ARMY ACCEPT AMERICAN MILITARY SUPERVISION, "FROM THE TOP LEVEL DOWN TO SUCH LOWER ECHELONS AS OUR MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT SHOULD DEEM ADVISABLE XXX."

MC CARRAN ESTIMATED THIS WOULD INVOLVE THE ASSIGNMENT OF 600 TO 700 AMERICAN OFFICERS TO CHINA.

HIS PROPOSALS FOLLOW IN PART RECOMMENDATIONS MADE TO THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE BY D.WORTH CLARK, FORMER IDAHO SENATOR, AND WILLIAM C.BULLITT, A WARTIME U.S. DIPLOMAT. BOTH WENT TO CHINA ON BEHALF OF THE COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-AMERICAN OFFICIALS WERE REPORTED DEEPLY CONCERNED TONIGHT OVER THE POSSIBILITY OF A BREAK-DOWN OF THE JEWISH-ARAB PEACE TALKS BEING HELD AT RHODES UNDER UNITED NATIONS SPONSORSHIP.

AUTHORITIES WERE REPORTED REASONABLY HOPEFUL, HOWEVER, THAT EITHER THROUGH THESE CURRENT TALKS OR SUBSEQUENT FOLLOW UP NEGOTIATIONS REAL PEACE CAN BE ESTABLISHED IN THE HOLY LAND AND STABILITY RESTORED TO THE STRATEGIC MIDDLE EAST THE EARLY PART OF THIS YEAR.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN DISCUSSED THE PALESTINE SITUATION TODAY WITH SECRETARY OF STATE ACHESON AND MARK ETHRIDGE, LOUISVILLE,KY., PUBLISHER AND NEWLY APPOINTED MEMBER OF THE U.N. CONCILIATION COMMISSION NOW BEING ORGANIZED.

THIS COMMISSION WILL TAKE OVER THE WORK OF THE ACTING UNITED NATIONS MEDIATOR, DR.RALPH BUNCHE OF THE UNITED STATES, WHO IS CURRENTLY CONDUCTING THE RHODES TALKS.

ETHRIDGE RECEIVED HIS INSTRUCTIONS FROM MR.TRUMAN AND SECRETARY ACHESON AT THE WHITE HOUSE MEETING. HE WILL LEAVE TOMORROW FOR NEW YORK AND WILL DEPART BY PLANE FROM NEW YORK SUNDAY NOON (EST) FOR ATHENS, GREECE, WHERE HE WILL BOARD A UNITED NATIONS PLANE FOR JERUSALEM.

ETHRIDGE'S ASSIGNMENT IS EXPECTED BY OFFICIALS HERE TO LAST FOR ABOUT THREE MONTHS--AN INDICATION OF THE TIME WHICH SOME OFFICIALS, AT LEAST, BELIEVE MAY BE REQUIRED TO STABILIZE THE PALESTINE SITUATION. THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE THREE-NATION CONCILIATION GROUP ARE FRANCE AND TURKEY.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS APPEAR TO BE PLEASED WITH ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT IN THE PALESTINE SITUATION--THE DECISION OF THE WESTERN UNION POWERS TO RECOGNIZE THE EXISTENCE OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND TO ESTABLISH PRACTICAL WORKING AGREEMENTS WITH ITS GOVERNMENT.

THIS "DE FACTO" RECOGNITION WAS EXTENDED BY THE UNITED STATES LAST MAY IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE NEW STATE WAS PROCLAIMED.

AUTHORITIES HERE PREDICTED THAT NOW THAT THE BRITISH ARE PREPARING TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL, THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY SOON WILL RECOGNIZE THE ARAB STATE OF TRANSJORDAN, WHICH IS CLOSELY ALLIED WITH BRITAIN.

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, COMMENTING ON A DISPATCH FROM TEL AVIV, SAID THEY HAD NOT RECEIVED ANY REQUEST FROM THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT AS YET TO BRING PRESSURE ON EGYPT TO REACH AN EFFECTIVE SETTLEMENT IN THE RHODES CONFERENCE.

INDICATIONS FROM AUTHORITATIVE INFORMANTS HERE WERE THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS USING FRIENDLY PERSUASIONS ON BOTH THE JEWISH AND ARAB GOVERNMENTS TO PREVENT A FAILURE OF THE RHODES NEGOTIATIONS.

EUROPEAN INTERPRETIVE (350)

BY JOHN M.HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-THE DECISION OF WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION POWERS TO FORM A "COUNCIL OF EUROPE" WAS REGARDED BY AMERICAN OFFICIALS TODAY AS HIGHLY PLEASING PROGRESS TOWARD THE ULTIMATE GOAL OF DEVELOPING A NEW POWER CENTER IN EUROPE.

IN ADVANCE OF ANY FORMAL COMMENT BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT, TOP AUTHORITIES POINTED OUT THAT THE PROMOTION OF EUROPEAN UNITY HAS BEEN A FUNDAMENTAL OBJECTIVE OF THE TWO GREAT POLICY MOVES OF THIS GOVERNMENT IN EUROPEAN AFFAIRS RECENTLY.

THOSE MOVES ARE THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY WHICH IS NOW WINDING UP THE FIRST OF ITS SCHEDULED FOUR YEARS, AND THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY ALLIANCE WHICH IS SUPPOSED TO PLEDGE AMERICAN MILITARY POWER TO THE PROTECTION OF WESTERN EUROPE.

WHEN BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG FORMED THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION LAST MARCH 17, PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD CONGRESS IN AN ADDRESS HE DELIVERED THAT DAY:

"IT IS A NOTABLE STEP IN THE DIRECTION OF UNITY IN EUROPE FOR THE PROTECTION AND PRESERVATION OF ITS CIVILIZATION. THIS DEVELOPMENT DESERVES OUR FULL SUPPORT."

EARLIER, AFTER BRITISH FOREIGN MINISTER BEVIN HAD PROPOSED STEPS TOWARD THE UNION, THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THEN UNDER SECRETARY MARSHALL, DECLARED:

"THE UNITED STATES HEARTILY WELCOMES EUROPEAN INITIATIVE IN THIS RESPECT, AND ANY PROPOSAL LOOKING TO A CLOSER MATERIAL AND SPIRITUAL LINK BETWEEN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS WILL SERVE TO REINFORCE THE EFFORTS WHICH OUR TWO COUNTRIES (BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES) HAVE BEEN MAKING TO LAY THE FOUNDATION FOR A FIRM PEACE."

THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAD BEEN KEPT INFORMALLY ADVISED, IT WAS LEARNED, OF THE PROGRESS OF THE FIVE NATION MEETING IN LONDON, AND OFFICIALS HERE WERE NOT SURPRISED AT THE AGREEMENT TO SET UP THE "COUNCIL OF EUROPE."

THE WHOLE THING IS PART OF THE EFFORT TO MAKE THE WORLD REASONABLY SECURE AGAINST INTERNAL OR INTERNAL DISORDERS CAUSED BY SOVIET COMMUNISM.

UNITED STATES POLICY HOLDS THAT NON-COMMUNIST EUROPE CAN BE CONSIDERED RELATIVELY SAFE AGAINST ATTACK ONLY AFTER IT HAS ATTAINED ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL HEALTH AND MILITARY STRENGTH THROUGH INCREASING UNITY.

(375) NIGHT LEAD WHEAT

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-THE UNITED STATES CAUTIONED DELEGATES TO THE 53-NATION WHEAT CONFERENCE TODAY THAT CONGRESS MIGHT BALK AT ABSORBING TOO GREAT A LOSS IN SHIPPING AMERICAN WHEAT TO NON-PRODUCING COUNTRIES.

THE DELEGATES ARE SEEKING TO DRAFT PLANS TO MAKE SURE THAT THE WORLD GETS PLENTY OF WHEAT--PARTICULARLY THE COUNTRIES WHICH DO NOT GROW IT--AT PRICES DEEMED FAIR TO CONSUMERS AND FARMERS ALIKE.

FRED ROSSITER, AMERICAN DELEGATE, AGAIN STRESSED THE U.S. CONTENTION THAT THIS COUNTRY STANDS TO LOSE ABOUT $58,000,000 UNDER THE PROPOSED EXPORTER'S PRICE OF $2 A BUSHEL MAXIMUM AND $1.50-$1.10 MINIMUM.

THE LOSS WOULD RESULT FROM THE PACT PRICES AND THE CURRENT U.S. MARKET PRICE, WHICH IS NOW FLUCTUATING AROUND $2.20 A BUSHEL.

AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES INDICATED THEIR BELIEF THAT CONGRESS WOULD APPROVE A $2 CEILING, BUT MIGHT REJECT A $1.80 TOP AS URGED BY MANY IMPORTING COUNTRIES. THEY SAID A $1.80 CEILING WOULD INVOLVE ANOTHER $50,000,000 LOSS FOR THE UNITED STATES.

ROSSITER ALSO DEMURRED AFTER THE BRITISH DELEGATE, T.SHEED ANDERSON, PROPOSED A SLIDING PRICE SCALE WITH A NARROW RANGE BETWEEN THE MAXIMUM AND THE MINIMUM PRICE.

"I DON'T NEED TO TELL YOU GENTLEMEN WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF NORTH AMERICA HAD A CROP FAILURE," ROSSITER SAID.

THE AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVE SAID THE UNITED STATES CURRENTLY SUPPLIES THE WORLD WITH 60 PERCENT OF ITS WHEAT. PRESUMABLY HE MEANT THE WORLD EXCLUDING RUSSIA AND THE IRON CURTAIN COUNTRIES.

J.A.P.FRANKEN, CHIEF NETHERLANDS DELEGATE, TOLD THE CONFERENCE'S NINE-NATION STEERING COMMITTEE THAT HIS GOVERNMENT CAN PAY $2

J.A.P.FRANKEN, CHIEF NETHERLANDS DELEGATE, TOLD THE CONFERENCE'S NINE-NATION STEERING COMMITTEE THAT HIS GOVERNMENT CAN PAY $2 A BUSHEL FOR ONLY THREE YEARS. FOR THIS REASON, HE SAID, HIS COUNTRY FAVORS A THREE-YEAR AGREEMENT.

BUT J.C.GARSIDE OF AUSTRALIA, ONE OF THE "BIG FIVE" EXPORT NATIONS, TURNED DOWN THE NETHERLANDS SUGGESTION, DECLARING:

"IT IS IMPOSSIBLE TO CONSIDER A THREE-YEAR AGREEMENT."

INDIA'S REPRESENTATIVE, R.L.GUPTA, SAID HIS COUNTRY FAVORS A FOUR-YEAR PACT BUT "WILL NOT RULE OUT" A FIVE-YEAR AGREEMENT. BOTH CANADA AND THE UNITED STATES, TWO OF THE MAJOR EXPORTING COUNTRIES, ARE PRESSING FOR A FIVE-YEAR PACT WITH A $2 CEILING.

COMMITTEES ASSIGNED TO DRAW UP RECOMMENDATIONS ON PRICES AND TO FIX THE DURATION OF THE ACCORD ARE SCHEDULED TO REPORT TO THE FULL CONFERENCE NEXT TUESDAY.

DELEGATES, EXPRESSING PLEASURE AT THE SPEEDY PACE OF PRELIMINARIES, SAID THEY EXPECT TO KNOW WITHIN TWO WEEKS IF AGREEMENT IS POSSIBLE.

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-SENATOR CHAVEZ (D-NM), HOME FROM A TRIP TO ARGENTINA, SAID AT THE WHITE HOUSE TODAY THAT ARGENTINA WANTS TO "GO ALONG" WITH THE UNITED STATES AND THAT PRESIDENT PERON IS A "PRETTY GOOD CITIZEN."

CHAVEZ TOLD REPORTERS, AFTER SEEING PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THAT "ARGENTINA AS A WHOLE IS MOST FRIENDLY TO THE UNITED STATES."

"ARGENTINA REALIZES--AND IS HAPPY ABOUT IT--THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN LEAD THE WORLD," HE SAID.

THE SENATOR TOLD REPORTERS THAT PERON "WANTS A DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION INSTEAD OF A DICTATORSHIP." AS FAR AS PROGRESSIVE LEGISLATION IS CONCERNED, HE SAID, PERON'S POLICIES ARE "LIBERAL."

ASKED ABOUT REPORTS OF PRESS CENSORSHIP, CHAVEZ SAID IF THEY ARE TRUE "I DON'T LIKE IT ANY MORE THAN YOU DO."

HE SAID THE EXPLANATION HE WAS GIVEN IN ARGENTINA WAS THAT A DISPATCH MIGHT BE SLASHED "NOT BECAUSE OF CENSORSHIP" BUT BECAUSE OF COMMUNICATION PROBLEMS.

ON THE SCORE OF NEWSPRINT SUPPLY TROUBLES OF ANTI-PERON NEWSPAPERS, CHAVEZ QUOTED PERON WITH WHOM HE HAD A FIVE-HOUR TALK:

"HE SAYS IT'S NOT A QUESTION OF BEATING A NEWSPAPER OUT OF PRINTING PAPER, BUT OF PREVENTING A POWERFUL NEWSPAPER FROM GETTING ALL THE PAPER AVAILABLE, SO THAT A LITTLE PAPER HAVING TO GET STARTED COULDN'T GET ANY."

DURHAM,N.C., JAN.28-(AP)-ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE V. ALLEN TONIGHT CALLED UPON THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO SUPPORT THE VOICE OF AMERICA.

THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD, HE TOLD THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS INSTITUTE, SHOULD KNOW AT ALL TIMES WHAT THE "REGIONAL" AFFAIRS OF THE COUNTRY ARE, AND HOW THEY MAY BE IMPROVED.

NOT ONLY DO THE NEWSPAPERS AND THE RADIOS INFLUENCE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE PEOPLE ABROAD HAVE OF THE UNITED STATES, ALLEN CONTINUED, "BUT THERE IS A CULTURAL SIDE WHICH INCLUDES THE EXCHANGE OF PERSONS."

ALLEN, A NATIVE NORTH CAROLINIAN WHO HAS MADE THE STATE DEPARTMENT HIS LIFE'S WORK, SAID HE WAS CONFIDENT THAT IF THE TRUE DEMOCRATIC BELIEFS WERE SHOWN TO THE WORLD, THAT PEACE WOULD BE A CLOSE FOLLOWER.

THE VOICE OF AMERICA, HE ADDED, IS NOT BEAMED TO GOVERNMENTS ABROAD BUT TO THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES. THAT, HE EXPLAINED, IS A DEPARTURE FROM THE STAID METHOD OF DOING THINGS THAT HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED WITH INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS FOR YEARS.

ALLEN DESCRIBED COMMUNISM AS AN "OPPONENT OF DEMOCRACY."

HE COMPLIMENTED JOHN A.PARK, PUBLISHER OF THE RALEIGH TIMES, FOR HIS EFFORTS TO GET BOOKS TO GERMAN CHILDREN AND SAID THAT THE REGIONAL RADIO BROADCASTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA WOULD BE MODELED IN THE FUTURE THROUGH THE VOICE OF AMERICA.

(ADVANCE) (WX) BALTIMORE,JAN.28-(AP)-"THE UNITED STATES MUST TAKE ACTION ON THREE FRONTS" IF IT EXPECTS TO WIN THE COLD WAR IN EUROPE, PAUL G.HOFFMAN DECLARED TODAY.

AMERICA MUST KEEP STRONG DEFENSES, ENCOURAGE THE DEVELOPMENT OF FREE GOVERNMENTS AND PROMOTE GLOBAL ECONOMIC RECOVERY, THE HEAD OF THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE BALTIMORE ASSOCIATION OF COMMERCE.

"TO NEGLECT ANY ONE OF THESE WOULD BE DISASTROUS AS LONG AS ANY TOTALITARIAN AGGRESSOR STANDS ON OUR FRONTIERS, WAITING TO TAKE FULL ADVANTAGE OF THE FIRST FINE SIGN OF WEAKNESS IN OUR DEFENSES," HOFFMAN SAID.

THE COMMUNISTS, HE ADDED, "VIEW WITH CYNICAL ENTHUSIASM THE HUNGER, POVERTY, DESPERATION AND CHAOS" WHICH HE SAID WILL RESULT IN EUROPE SHOULD THE MARSHALL PLAN FOR EUROPEAN RECOVERY FAIL.

"THEY KNOW THAT ONLY DESPAIRING, DESPERATE, HUNGRY MEN ABANDON FREEDOM FOR SLAVERY," HOFFMAN DECLARED.

(WX) NEW YORK,JAN.28-(AP)-CHARLES E.BOHLEN, STATE DEPARTMENT COUNSELLOR, SAID TODAY THE SOVIET BLOC'S FAILURE TO KEEP AGREEMENTS RULED OUT CHANCES FOR AN EARLY EAST-WEST SETTLEMENT.

BOHLEN DECLARED RUSSIA LOOKS ON INTERNATIONAL LAW MERELY AS AN INSTRUMENT FOR PROMOTING SOVIET PURPOSES. FOR THIS REASON HE SAID THE PRESENT CLEAVAGE IS "NOT SUSCEPTABLE OF BEING BRIDGED BY THE MAGIC OF AN AGREEMENT."

NEW YORK, JAN. 28-(AP)-THE FRENCH GRATITUDE TRAIN WILL BE SPLIT INTO THREE SECTIONS FOR MOVEMENT TO 48 STATES AND THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA WHEN IT ARRIVES NEXT WEDNESDAY ON THE FREIGHTER MAGELLAN.

THE NATIONAL FRIENDSHIP FOOD TRAIN COMMITTEE SAID THE TRAIN WOULD FOLLOW APPROXIMATELY THE ROUTE TAKEN BY THE AMERICAN FRIENDSHIP TRAIN LAST YEAR.

THE 49 CARS OF THE GRATITUDE TRAIN WERE ORGANIZED LAST YEAR MAINLY BY VETERANS' GROUPS OF THE NATIONALIZED FRENCH RAILROAD SYSTEM TO EXPRESS THE NATION'S THANKS FOR AMERICA'S FRIENDSHIP TRAIN.

MANY OF THE CARS ARE OF THE "40 MEN AND EIGHT HORSES" TYPE FAMILIAR TO AMERICAN VETERANS.

ALTOGETHER THERE ARE ABOUT 1,000,000 GIFTS FOR THE 48 STATES AND THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBUA.

GIFTS INCLUDE SUCH ITEMS AS 49 FACSIMILIES AND TRANSLATIONS OF A PAGE OF THE "COSMOGRAPHIAE INTRODUCTIO" BY MARTIN WALDSEEMULLER, A CANON OF SAINT-DIE IN THE XVI CENTURY.

THIS BOOK, WRITTEN IN LATIN AND PRINTED IN 1507, WAS THE FIRST VOLUME TO MENTION AMERICA BY NAME.

THE ASSOCIATION OF FRENCH WAR BLIND OFFERED BRUSHES MADE BY THE HANDS OF THOSE WHO LOST THEIR SIGHT DURING BOTH WORLD WARS.

FROM PRIVATE COLLECTIONS CAME THE FIRST FLAG GIVEN TO THE SOLDIERS OF VERDUN IN WORLD WAR I, WITH THE MOTTO: "THEY SHALL NOT PASS."

ALSO AMONG THE GIFTS ARE 49 TRICOLOR CORDS WHICH WERE SPUN OUT OF THE AMERICAN AND FRENCH FLAGS FLYING ON TOP OF THE EIFFEL TOWER IN AUGUST, 1944, WHEN THE FRENCH CAPITAL WAS LIBERATED.

ONE SECTION OF 15 CARS, DESTINED FOR SOUTH AND SOUTHEASTERN STATE CAPITALS, IS EXPECTED TO LEAVE JERSEY CITY, N.J. WITH STOPS IN TRENTON, PHILADELPHIA, WILMINGTON, BALTIMORE AND WASHINGTON, ON FEB. 5. LATER STOPS WILL BE MADE IN OTHER CITIES.

A SIX-CAR SECTION FOR NEW ENGLAND AND ANOTHER WITH 27 CARS FOR WESTERN STATES WILL LEAVE FEB. 7.

STOPS LISTED BY THE NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD INCLUDED:

RICHMOND, VA., JAN 28-(AP)-TWO YOUNG RUSSIAN FLYERS WHO SAID THEY WANTED TO VISIT VIRGINIA AND AND THE UNITED STATES AFTER FLEEING THE SOVIET UNION ARE GOING TO SEE THEIR WISH COME TRUE.

THE TWO RUSSIANS, LIEUTENANTS PETER AFANASEVICH PIROGOV AND ANATOL PORFEREVICH BARSOV, WILL TOUR VIRGINIA'S HISTORIC SHRINES AND SEE THE STATE'S "SIGHTS" BEGINNING SOMETIME NEXT WEEK, THE VIRGINIA STATE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SAID TONIGHT.

THE VIRGINIA ORGANIZATION SAID THAT EVERY OPPORTUNITY WOULD BE AFFORDED THE RUSSIANS TO OBTAIN A COMPREHENSIVE, WELL-BALANCED PICTURE OF AMERICAN LIFE.

THE FLYERS DEVELOPED AN INTEREST TO VISIT VIRGINIA AFTER HEARING THE "VOICE OF AMERICA" TALK ABOUT THE OLD DOMINION STATE WHILE THEY WERE STILL IN THE SOVIET UNION.

ACCOMPANIED BY RUSSIAN-SPEAKING AMERICAN INTERPRETERS, THE FLYERS WILL SPEND APPROXIMATELY A WEEK IN VIRGINIA. THEY WILL VISIT THE STATE CAPITOL IN RICHMOND, WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA BEACH, NORFOLK, ROANOKE, LYNCHBURG AND PLACES IN THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY.

THEY WILL ARRIVE IN THE UNITED STATES ON A REGULAR FLIGHT FROM GERMANY AT THE NATIONAL AIRPORT, LOCATED IN VIRGINIA IMMEDIATELY ACROSS THE RIVER FROM THE NATION'S CAPITAL. THE RUSSIANS WILL GO THROUGH THE USUAL IMMIGRATION AND CUSTOMS FORMALITIES.

THE TWO MEN, NAVIGATOR AND PILOT OF A SOVIET AIR FORCE PLANE, DROPPED LIKE A BOMBSHELL OUT OF THE CLOUDS ON CAMP MCCAULEY IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF AUSTRIA LAST OCTOBER.

THEY MAY NOT HAVE KNOWN IT, BUT THEY WERE LANDING--AND IT WAS A CRASH LANDING--AT A CAMP NAMED AFTER A RICHMOND ARMY HERO OF WORLD WAR II.

SINCE THEIR ESCAPE IN A "BORROWED" PLANE WHICH BROUGHT THEM OVER THE IRON CURTAIN, THE RUSSIANS HAVE BEEN LIVING IN A SMALL HOUSE IN THE GERMAN VILLAGE NEAR WIESBADEN. THEIR EXACT ADDRESS WAS KEPT SECRET AS A PROTECTIVE MEASURE.

THE RUSSIANS ARE ENTERING THE UNITED STATES ON VISITORS' VISAS. THEIR STAY IN THE UNITED STATES IS EXPECTED TO LAST ABOUT TWO MONTHS. AFTER THEN, THEY WILL BE RETURNED TO GERMANY.

PIROGOV, 27, IS AN EX-SCHOOL TEACHER. HE HAD BEEN MARRIED ONLY THREE MONTHS WHEN HE FLEW AWAY FROM HIS HOMELAND.

BARSOV, 31, WAS ONCE A STUDENT OF FACTORY MANAGEMENT IN RUSSIA.

HE SAID THE CELLS WERE UNHEATED AND FULL OF RATS AND THAT THE PRISONERS HAD TO SLEEP ON "SMELLY AND MOIST" BEDDING, EAT OUT OF UNSANITARY CONTAINERS AND LIVE IN "INTOLERABLE FILTH."

THE PROSECUTION RECALLED TO THE STAND ONE OF THE THREE PRISONERS WHO CHARGED THEY WERE MISTREATED IN WURZBURG SOLITARY CELLS.

PVT. JOSEPH SUGGS, 28-YEAR-OLD NEGRO AMPUTEE-VETERAN FROM PROCTOR, ARK., REITERATED PREVIOUS TESTIMONY THAT HE WAS NOT GIVEN MEDICAL ATTENTION. HE SAID CAPT. HOLMES NEVER ONCE EXAMINED HIS FROZEN FEET DURING THE WEEK HE WAS IN SOLITARY.

SUGGS WAS LATER RETURNED TO THE UNITED STATES WHERE BOTH OF HIS LEGS WERE AMPUTATED BELOW THE KNEE. HE IS NOW LEARNING TO WALK AGAIN AT THE WALTER REED HOSPITAL IN WASHINGTON.

FITZHUGH ASKED: "HOW CAN WE EXPLAIN TO PARENTS WITH SONS IN THE ARMY THAT A MAN CAN BE SO BADLY INJURED AS TO REQUIRE HIS FEET TO BE AMPUTATED WITHOUT HOLDING SOMEBODY RESPONSIBLE?"

A DEFENSE WITNESS, HOWEVER, TESTIFIED THAT SUGGS" COULD HAVE HAD MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IF HE WANTED IT." HE IS MAJ. JOSEPH W. BURTCHAELL, PRISON BATALLION COMMANDER AT WURZBURG WHO ASSIGNED SUGGS TO SOLITARY.

BURTCHAELL, WHO FLEW HERE FROM CALIFORNIA, SAID SUGGS' INJURIES WERE NOT INCURRED IN THE LINE OF DUTY AND WERE DUE TO HIS OWN MISCONDUCT.

THE OTHER TWO FORMER WURZBURG INMATES WHO TESTIFIED THAT THEY HAD BEEN CRUELLY TREATED ARE HENRY W. MCELROY OF BRONX, N.Y., AND LOUIS HENDERSON OF DUMFRIES, VA.

HIS WORD ON THE INTERIOR SUBCOMMITTEE ALREADY HAS STARTED FOR THAT COMMITTEE BEGAN WORK MONDAY ON APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1.

THE EARLY START, JACKSON SAID WILL PERMIT HOUSE PASSAGE MUCH EARLIER THAN LAST YEAR.

IN 1948 THE MONEY BILL DID NOT REACH THE HOUSE UNTIL NEAR THE END OF CONGRESS AND FINAL APPROVAL BY THE HOUSE AND SENATE CAME ON THE LAST DAY OF THE SESSION.

JACKSON TOLD A REPORTER HE BELIEVES THE SUBCOMMITTEE AND LATER THE HOUSE SHOULD GIVE PRIORITY IN ITS CONSIDERATIONS TO FUNDS INTENDED TO INCREASE POWER IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST.

"WE MUST PROVIDE THE MONEY TO SPEED UP WORK ON THE POWER PROJECTS AND ON THE TRANSMISSION LINES FROM OUR GREAT HYDRO-ELECTRIC PLANTS," JACKSON SAID. "THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST IS IN THE GRIP OF A POWER SHORTAGE AND, IF NECESSARY TO REMEDY THIS SITUATION, I BELIEVE THE COMMITTEE AND CONGRESS SHOULD APPROPRIATE MORE THAN CALLED FOR BY THE PRESIDENT'S BUDGET.

"IMMEDIATE INCREASE OF POWER IN OUR AREA IS IMPERATIVELY NEEDED."

WASHINGTON,JAN.28-(AP)-HAROLD R.CHRISTOFFEL, FORMER MILWAUKEE LABOR LEADER, APPEALED TO THE SUPREME COURT TODAY FROM HIS CONVICTION ON A CHARGE THAT HE COMMITTED PERJURY IN TELLING A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE HE HAD NEVER BEEN A COMMUNIST.

CHRISTOFFEL WAS CONVICTED IN FEDERAL DISTRICT COURT HERE. HE WAS SENTENCED TO SERVE TWO TO SIX YEARS IN PRISON. HIS CONVICTION WAS UNANIMOUSLY UPHELD BY THE U.S.COURT OF APPEALS HERE.

THE LABOR LEADER WAS QUESTIONED BY THE HOUSE LABOR COMMITTEE ON MARCH 1, 1947. AT THE TIME THE UNION WHICH HE HEADED--LOCAL 248 OF THE CIO UNITED AUTOMOBILE WORKERS--WAS CONDUCTING A STRIKE AT THE ALLIS-CHALMERS MANUFACTURING CO. PLANT IN MILWAUKEE. HE LATER WAS OUSTED AS PRESIDENT OF THE LOCAL.

CHRISTOFFEL CONTENDS A MAJORITY OF THE 25-MEMBER COMMITTEE WAS NOT PRESENT WHEN HE TESTIFIED, AND THAT THEREFORE HE COULD NOT HAVE COMMITTED PERJURY WITHIN THE MEANING OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA CRIMINAL CODE.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT HAS ABOUT 30 DAYS IN WHICH TO FILE AN ANSWER OPPOSING CHRISTOFFEL'S APPEAL. THE COURT THEN WILL DECIDE WHETHER TO GRANT HIM A REVIEW.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., JAN. 28-(AP)-"THERE IS SO LITTLE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PEOPLE," EXCLAIMED HANNE THOMSEN, 18-YEAR-OLD DANISH SCHOOL GIRL, WHO ARRIVED TODAY FROM LOS ANGELES ON AN AIR TOUR OF THE UNITED STATES.

"I HAD EXPECTED THERE WOULD BE A MUCH GREATER DIFFERENCE," SAID HANNE IN EXCELLENT ENGLISH.

SHE IS ONE OF 34 STUDENTS FROM 17 EUROPEAN NATIONS ON A WHIRLWIND TOUR THAT STARTED IN NEW YORK LAST SUNDAY. THEY TRAVEL IN TWO DC-3S PROVIDED BY THE CIVIL AIR PATROL. A THIRD TRANSPORT TRAILS ALONG WITH NEWSMEN AND STATE DEPARTMENT REPRESENTATIVES.

"WE HAVE TO SPEAK ENGLISH TO GET ALONG WITH EACH OTHER ON THE TRIP," SAID DARK-EYED TONY DEMETRIADIS, OF GREECE, WHO GETS ALONG VERY QUICKLY IN ANY LANGUAGE. HE ACQUIRED AN ALBUQUERQUE HIGH SCHOOL GIRL ON EACH ARM BEFORE HE LEFT THE AIRPORT LOBBY.

SEVENTEEN ALBUQUERQUE HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS AND 17 BOYS WERE HOSTS TO THE VISITORS.

"WE HAD PLANNED TO PAIR OFF GIRLS WITH GIRLS AND BOYS WITH BOYS," SAID SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT JOHN MILNE WITH AN EYE ON THE GUEST FROM GREECE, "BUT NATURE APPARENTLY IS TAKING ITS COURSE."

NEAR THE DOOR OF THE AIRPORT WAITING ROOM WAS JOHN PFLUEGER, 83-YEAR-OLD SANTA FE,N.M., SHOE MERCHANT. HE WAS RUNNING HIS FINGERS GENTLY OVER THE FACE OF ELFRIEDE KAPP OF FRANKFORT AU MAIN, GERMANY. ELFRIEDE IS THE 18-YEAR OLD DAUGHTER OF HIS SISTER'S SON. IT WAS THEIR FIRST MEETING, BUT THE OLD GENTLEMAN'S FAILING EYESIGHT MADE IT DIFFICULT FOR HIM TO SEE HIS ATTRACTIVE, BROWN-HAIRED GREAT NIECE.

ACROSS THE LOBBY, THERE WAS A SPIRITED CONVERSATION IN FRENCH BETWEEN ROGER DEBECKER OF BELGIUM AND A WAITRESS FROM THE AIRLINE COFFEE SHOP.

"WHY, WE'RE BOTH FROM BRUSSELS," SAID THE GIRL, JENNY BLANCHARD, A WAR BRIDE WHO HAS BEEN HERE TWO YEARS.

DEBECKER PROMISED TO VISIT HER FAMILY WHEN HE GOES HOME.

THE VISITORS ARE FROM NATIONS RECEIVING MARSHALL PLAN AID. THEIR TOUR IS SPONSORED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT, THE NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN SCHOOL STUDY COUNCIL AND THE CAP.

IT TOOK LESS THAN A MINUTE FOR THE EUROPEANS AND THE AMERICANS TO BECOME INDISTINGUISHABLE. ARM-IN-ARM, THEY LEFT THE AIRPORT FOR SUPPER AND AN INDIAN DANCE PROGRAM AT THE ELKS CLUB, THEN BACK TO THEIR PLANES EXPECTING A QUICK TRIP TO DENVER. A LAST MINUTE WEATHER REPORT, HOWEVER, CAUSED POSTPONEMENT OF THEIR FLIGHT. A HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL GAME AND A DANCE WERE INCLUDED IN THE HASTILY REVISED ENTERTAINMENT PROGRAM.

"IT'S BEEN WONDERFUL," SAID HANNE.

BUT ISN'T THERE SOMETHING YOU DON'T LIKE? A REPORTER ASKED.

SHE LOOKED THOUGHTFUL, THEN SAID PLEASANTLY:

"MAYBE THE RADIO COMMERCIALS. THEY'RE SILLY. BUT I LIKE THE PEOPLE.

Reds Tell Li Arrest of Chiang Is First China Peace Essential

Call Seizure of Those on Their 'War Criminal' List First Step.

WARN ON ALLOWING ESCAPES

Nanking Warned By Communists To Arrest Chiang

NANKING, Jan. 29 (AP).—The Chinese Communists coldly told Acting President Li Tsung-jen today he must arrest Chiang Kai-shek as a war criminal or "you will be punished" without mercy. The Reds insisted the arrests must precede any peace talks.

The Communist radio in North China accused Li of "conniving" in the flight of government leaders from Nanking. It wanted all other government officials on the Red list of "war criminals" arrested.

Since Chiang and almost all others on the list long since have gone south, it is impossible for Li to comply, even should he wish.

DEMAND PROMPT REPLY

The Communists demanded a prompt reply, but there was no official public reaction. Li, inside his strongly guarded home, was the only responsible official left in the capital. Not a single Cabinet member could be located.

The victorious Communist armies were idling on or near the north bank of the Yangtze at many points. Coupled with this, the new political demands plunged Nanking hopes of a negotiated settlement to new lows.

The Communist broadcast, by an unidentified spokesman, also angrily demanded rearrest of Lt. Gen. Yasutsugu Okamura, last Japanese commander in China. He was acquitted of war crimes before a Chinese Government military court Wednesday.

RED STATEMENT

The Communist statement declared:

"We hold that your present activities are a scheme to use hypocritical peace negotiations as a cover for regrouping your forces and war preparations, including a plot to bring the Japanese reactionaries to China to join you in butchering the Chinese people."

The statement suggested that the local surrender at Peiping Jan. 22 was a pattern for similar bit-by-bit settlements covering Nanking, Shanghai, Canton and all other government-held territory.

It made clear, however, that the Reds' eight-point surrender demand of Jan. 14 must be met first.

First of these eight points was "punishment of war criminals."

WARN CHIANG MAY FLEE

"Chiang Kai-shek is especially important," said the statement. "The said criminal has now fled to Fenghwa, and may very possibly flee abroad, to hide beneath the cloak of American or British imperialism.

"Therefore you must act swiftly to arrest this criminal and not permit him to escape. You must bear full responsibility for this; if escape occurs, you will be punished as a conniver, with no mercy shown whatsoever."

The broadcast referred to the Dec. 25 list of 43 "war criminals," but said a fuller list was now being discussed with various non-government organizations "in our territory and yours" and would be published soon.

"Nanking will be informed later of the preparatory work that must be carried out by both sides for other points of the eight terms," said the statement.

(This implied that all eight points would have to be met before peace can be "negotiated." Second of the eight points is "abrogate the bogus constitution." Others include "remold all reactionary armies; confiscate bureaucratic capital; reform the land system; and abrogate treaties of national betrayal.")

The broadcast said, "Carrying out these eight terms will be enough and may be more than enough work for you, for us, for all democratic parties and groups, all people's organizations, and people of all circles throughout the country for several months, half a year, a year, several years."

At the same time, Nanking was instructed to hold its peace delegates in readiness to confer in Peiping whenever the pre-conditions should be met.

Another Communist broadcast, presented on a less official basis, accused Chiang Kai-shek of having secretly ordered his followers to "fight to the finish" before he left Jan. 21.

Government representatives in Peiping relayed a Red demand that the government halt its move south to Canton. But this already has gone too far to halt, even if the government agreed. Administrative operations in Canton are scheduled to begin by Feb. 5.

In this connection, unconfirmed reports, said to have originated in the Chinese Foreign Ministry, stated that the Soviet Ambassador would leave for Canton Sunday. Because of the supposed Soviet affinity for the Reds, this injected an unexplained element into the confused situation.

The United States and other Western powers are retaining their embassies in Nanking and sending only second-string diplomatic representatives to Canton.

Reds Insisting Upon Arrest Of Chiang

Nanking, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Communists tonight strongly suggested piece-meal settlement of the civil war, but told the Chinese Government it first must arrest Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other officals on the Red list of "war criminals."

"You must act swiftly to arrest this criminal and not permit him to escape," said a long broadcast by the Communist radio.

"If escape occurs, you will be punished as a conniver, with no mercy shown whatsoever."

Leaders Fled Southward

It is physically impossible for Acting President Li Tsung-Jen to meet this demand—even if he ardently desires to do so—as Chiang and almost all the other 42 persons on the Reds' war-criminal list have fled southward.

The long Communist statement was presented as an explanation of delay in the surrender negotiations which the groggy Government has sought.

It said much "preparatory work" must be done and the Communists "will not permit war criminals to fix the time of negotiations for us."

Peiping Is The Pattern

It pointed to the local settlement in Peiping last Saturday, said work there was continuing, and declared, "this not only prepares the site for peace negotiations, but furthermore sets an example for settling the peace question of Nanking, Shanghai, Wuchang, Hankow, Hanyang, Sian, Taiyuan" and all other Government-held areas.

First, however, it said Chiang and the others must be arrested, and so must Lieut. Gen. Yasutsugu Okamura and other Japanese soldiers still in China. The statement noted with disgust that Okamura had been acquitted of war-crimes charges by a Government court in Shanghai on Wednesday.

These requirements, it said, met the first of the eight surrender points laid down by Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung on January 14.

Cabinet Flees Nanking

After the first point is met, it concluded, "Nanking will be informed later of the preparatory work that must be carried out by both sides for other points of the eight terms."

Earlier, the Communists had demanded that the Government remain in Nanking, but it was too late. A careful check failed to locate a single Cabinet member in the city.

With Communist troops planting artillery on the north bank of the Yangtze, these latest demands depressed Nanking's hopes for peace almost to the vanishing point.

Relayed From Peiping

The latest Communist demand, that the Government remain in Nanking, was telephoned from Red-controlled Peiping by Acting President Li Tsung-jen's special representative. Commenting on the demand, an informed Chinese source observed:

"Li Tsung-jen may find some way out, but we Chinese cannot imagine what it will be."

This source added that the demand places Li "in an impossible position and ostensibly means there will be no peace."

Shanghai Traffic Menaced

The Communists' artillery emplacements are situated so they can shell river, rail and highway traffic to Shanghai, China's industrial and commercial center, 150 miles east by south.

With the Reds hardly 5 miles north of Nanking, and across the Yangtze, this half-abandoned capital all but forgot that today was China's New Year—usually an occasion for celebration.

Nervous Chinese thought the Reds had begun to shell Nanking when some hardy citizens said farewell to the Year of the Rat by firing the traditional fireworks.

Reds May Enter Pukow

Many expected Gen. Chen Yi's Communist Army to mark the event—the first day of the Year of the Ox—by entering Pukow, the railhead city just across the river.

Chinese sources said Food Minister Kwan Chi-yu motored to Shanghai this morning when he was unable to get a plane ticket.

Those sources said Premier Sun Fo and Foreign Minister Wu Techen will not return to Nanking from Shanghai, but will proceed to Canton, where the Cabinet is due to reassemble February 5.

With the Communists reportedly mounting artillery at captured Icheng, 27 miles east of Nanking, new perils faced frantic fugitives attempting to escape the advancing Communists.

Guns Trained On River

From the point where the guns are appearing, even light artillery could hurl shells onto the main highway and railway to Shanghai, which runs near the south bank of the Yangtze. Craft moving up the mile-wide river would be easy targets.

A military spokesman said early Saturday the only fighting reported along the Yangtze was at Yangchow (Kiamgtu), 17 miles northeast of Icheng.

EDGE IN CHINA PUT IN FAST MARCHES

Nationalist Soldier Has Pillbox Complex, U.S. Major Says

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—An American intelligence officer says the Chinese Communist solider is trained for fast marching attacks while the Nationalist Govrenment soldier has a defensive " pillbox complex."

The assessment of the fighting qualities and methods of the Communist soldier in China was given by Maj. Robert B. Riggs, of the Army Intelligence Division, now on dluty with that division here. He was captured by Communist troops near Changchun in 1947 and, with another American officer, held for more than a month.

Some Common Characteristics

Writing for the unofficial service publication, the Infantry Journal, Riggs sets forth these views about the Chinese Communist army:

The general class orogin, physical appearance and intellegence of the Communist soldier are about the same as of the Nationalist soldier. He is usually illiterate though better indoctrinated politically. He is not as well trained as the Nationalist soldier "with one important exception—he can make long, fast marches, and that is a key factor in CCP successes."

The average Communist soldier is not a volunteer, "Red propaganda to the contrary." He is drafted by one of two methods.

Two Conscription Methods

"The first is simply the rounding up from villages and counties of males of military age, which is often done by force. Few escape and the penalty for desertion is so severe that only a few attempt it. The Chnese people tend to accept this form of recruiting from of old. . .

"A more successful conscription results from the CCP's land-division program, and here the recruit does see something to his immediate benefit. When the CCP takes over a new area the well-to-do are purged one way or another, and their land may be divided among the peasants or at least the landlords are made to stop their gouging, and these things, favorably impress them with the Communists.

Family Put In Debt To Party

"This system places the family in debt to the party and the family is told it must furnish one or several sons to the army 'in order to defend its land.' . . . The lond-division program has done much to popularize the Communists and fill the ranks of the Chinese Red Army. . ."

Communist soldiers are not paid, but receive ample food and a good ration of tobocca; from time to time small luxuries are distributed. The Nationalist soldier is paid in cash "but the progressive leaps of China's inflation have his pay practically worthless."

Well-Trained Generals

Red army officers are "die-hard Communists." Red generals are good tacticians and strategists, many of them foreign-trained and graduates of the Chinese Government's military academies.

Some of the older officers are party commisars, their job to keep the army and its personnel in line with party doctrine. The commissars are not permitted to interfere with tactical decisions of company or battalion operation but do influence decisions at higher levels.

"Considerable time is devoted to the political education of the rank and file and anti-Americanism is a much emphasized subject. This propaganda is steadily taking effect not only on the army but among the civilian population."

LONDON HAILS COUNCIL PLAN

Europe Parliament Expected To Take Over Germany's Role

London, Jan. 29 (AP)—The parliament of Europe envisaged by Brussels Treaty powers was hailed in some quarters today as the start of an effort to fill a vacuum created by the disappearance of Germany as a political force.

There was disagreement as to what it will grow to be—a "third force" in the world on a level with the United States and Russia, or merely a broader western European alliance with the function of maintaining defense lines against Russia.

But there seemed to be general agreement the plan for a council of Europe, announced by the five Western foreign ministers last night, was the longest step yet taken toward European unity.

Sharing Of Culture Hailed

It was regarded as significant that, in addition to setting up procedures for military and economic collaboration, the foreign ministers of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg provided for a systematic sharing of the nations' culture and bringing their educational systems into closer harmony.

Western Europe, it was felt, was moving toward unity of spirit and outlook as well as military programs.

Since the elimination of Germany as a continental force, the council was regarded by many observers as a practical effort to re-establish a European balance promising some permanence.

British And French Differ

But a host of difficulties were foreseen. The London Times warned today that the European union will not grow steadily like a tree, which, once planted, "needs little but occasional rain to water it."

One difference marked French and British viewpoints.

The French were inclined to view the European council as being the "third force," which is to wield influence on a world-wide basis. There was a disposition in Paris to believe the Brussels Treaty powers are linked by a special bond of intimacy.

In Britain, however, the intimate bonds with the dominions were being remembered, as was the well-established co-operation with the United States.

Dominions Apprehensive

Here there was a disposition to regard the European council not as a tight and exclusive association, but as one half of the wider Atlantic community. Some persons expressed hope such a community might include South American republics, as well as Canada and the United States.

There appeared to be some apprehension in the dominions that Britain is committing herself in Europe in a manner which might conflict with wider commonwealth interests.

There was some question as to why there should now be a ministerial committee and a consultative body, acting something like a government of western Europe, while there is still no such formal machinery to bind the commonwealth.

Committee To Meet In Secret

As conceived, the consultative body will meet in the open, but will not discuss defense problems. The ministerial committee will meet secretly, and will propose subjects the consultative body may discuss openly.

In this respect the ministerial committee will be like a British Cabinet making proposals to Parliament. But unlike British procedure, the committee will not be responsible to the consultative body.

There was a little apprehension in some quarters that the consultative body might deteriorate into a debating society, without power to enforce any decisions it may reach, and so become just another irritant in international affairs.

Defenders of the plan called it the best agreement that can be reached at this time, and that it may grow in influence as the idea of European unity gains strength.

British Planning Developments In East, Africa

London, Jan. 29 (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Bevin has ordered his own plans for economic development of "backward areas' in the East and Africa, a Government source reported today.

The informant said British representatives in the Middle and Far East have been asked for advice and suggestions.

Bevin's action indicates Britain's desire for a shoulder-to-shoulder British-American approach to President Truman's newly announced policy to improve living standards in the world's underdeveloped areas.

Look For U.S. Aid

Mr. Truman's "bold new program," announced in his inaugural address, has been warmly received by Bevin and his advisers.

British officials say privately they would like the United States to back a mid-Eastern version of the European recovery program.

The British, themselves, already have blueprinted development programs for Iran, Iraq, Egypt and the Sudan. But Britain's lack of resources and political uncertainties in the mid-East have stymied progress.

Seek Communism Curbs

The British think a co-ordinated British-American development program is the best—if not the only—way to curtain off communism both in the Middle and Far East.

Britain's approach to economic development in the Middle East, the Government source said, is in principle similar to its approach to European recovery.

Bevin wants agricultural, scientific and medical services extended. He wants communications of all kinds developed. He wants irrigation and other similar projects launched, the source said.

Truman Asks Plans

Mr. Truman, when he broached his program, said:

"Our aim should be to help the free peoples of the world through their own efforts, to produce more food, more clothing, more materials for housing, and more mechanical power to lighten their burdens. We invite other countries to pool their technological resources in this undertaking."

Since then, the President has asked Secretary of State Acheson to work out preliminary plans.

Bevin and the Foreign Ministers of France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg are said to have discussed Mr. Truman's program in the last few days.

Projects Proposed

A British Foreign Office spokesman said British advisers have worked out several development programs for the Middle East.

Among these, he said, were:

A seven-year, $240,000,000 irrigation, agricultural and social service program for Iran which still awaits approval of the Iran Parliament.

Big irrigation schemes on the Tigris and Euphrates rivers in Iraq which would double the 6,000,000-acre cultivated area in that country. The Iraq Parliament has okayed the smaller of the schemes—on the Tigris.

An extensive irrigation program in Egypt and the Sudan, halted by strained British-Egyptian relations over Egypt's claim of sovereignty over the Sudan.

Clay Acts To Bust Smuggling Racket

Berlin, Jan. 29 (AP)—United States Commander Gen. Lucius D. Clay said today he had assigned Brig. Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, his deputy provost marshal to head a campaign to wipe out western Germany's multimillion-dollar smuggling racket.

Clay said he had given Schwarzkopf, former chief of the New Jersey State police, the job of plugging loopholes which he estimated were illegally draining off about $200,000,000 worth of western Germany's industrial production annually.

This has been going over the border to Czechoslovakia and western European countries, by air as well as road.

Soldiers Involved

American soldiers and civilians as well as Europeans are involved in one big smuggling case recently disclosed by United States Air Force headquarters.

Clay said he had assigned Schwarzkopf to make a broad survey of present border and customs enforcement measures and deliver recommendations on how they can be tightened.

Schwarzkopf has been in Germany about a year. He came here from Iran, where he trained the Iranian police force.

Russian P.W.'s Health Poor, British Say

Berlin, Jan. 29 (AP)—British authorities said today the physical condition of German prisoners of war being repatriated from Russia has deteriorated so badly recently that from one shipment 43.4 per cent had to be hospitalized immediately upon arrival.

The official British statement added there also is a high percentage of hospital cases among prisoners returning from Poland and that a complaint had been lodged with the Poles against their slow repatriation rate.

"Useless" Are Freed

Most of the prisoners returning ill from Russia, the British said, were suffering from malnutrition and cardiac and circulatory disorders.

The average run of hospital cases was reported about 30 per cent, which doubled the rate among last summer's repatriates from the Soviet Union. One reason for this, the British said, may be that the Soviets are "now repatriating those regarded useless for slave labor."

Polish P.W.'s Well Fed

Prisoners returning from Poland were reported well fed, the British report said, "but some transports show a very high percentage of men with fractures and bone disease—no doubt due to the heavy nature of the work they have been called upon to do."

The British said it was probable Poland still held 50,000 to 70,000 Germans. Several months ago the Polish Military Mission here claimed Poland held only about 35,000.

The Yugoslavs are repatriating prisoners at a brisk rate and are expected to complete the job this month. British investigators said those coming from Yugoslavia appeared to be in much better shape, hospitalization cases ranging only from ten to fifteen per cent.

Say Civilians Jailed

The American-licensed newspaper Der Abend claimed the Russians and German Communists were holding about 9,000 German civilians prisoner for political reasons at a former penitentiary in Bautzen, Saxony.

The newspaper called it "the Hell of Bautzen" and claimed the prisoners were crammed in space sufficient only to accommodate about 1,000.

Der Abend said prison conditions were so bad that 40 per cent of those jailed when the Russians entered Saxony in 1945 have died, mainly of tuberculosis. All prisoners able to work were deported to Russia, the paper claimed.

70 CORPSES FOUND ON SUB

Bodies Of German Civilians Discovered In Kiel Bay

Hamburg, Germany, Jan. 29 (AP). The bodies of more than 70 men, women and children have been recovered from the hulk of a sunken German U-boat in Kiel Bay.

The submarine apparently was carrying refugees fleeing before the advancing Russian armies in 1945 when it was trapped on the surface and sunk by Allied aircraft in the bay, known as "the graveyard of the German Navy."

Used To Evacuate Civilians

Most of the people were from Danzig. Bodies of 54 have been identified. Records are being checked to identify the others.

The 1,600-ton submarine, an undersea coffin to these victims, is just one of more than 40 sunk off the German Baltic coast. This is the first grim evidence uncovered by salvage crews, however, that they were used to evacuate civilians.

Hundreds of refugees were known to have died when the German liner Wilhelm Gustloff, 25,000 tons, hit a mine and sank in January, 1945, off Stolpmuende.

Hulks Easily Visible

Thousands of concentration-camp inmates died when they were being moved by sea, with the bombing of the liners Cap Arcona and Deutschland. SS guards shot those who swam ashore.

The overturned hulks are easily visible in Leubeck Bay, where some day salvage men will get to them. A recent survey showed 431 wrecks of German shipping off the North Sea and Baltic coasts.

The vessels are being salvaged, and the scrap metal is exported to Britain by occupation authorities.

Sunday Dismantling Shift

British Act to Speed Work on Steel Plant in Ruhr

HAMBURG, Germany, Jan. 29 (AP).—Impatient at disputes which have held up dismantling of the Bochumer Verein steel plant in the Ruhr, British authorities have ordered sixty extra workmen to do a Sunday shift there tomorrow.

This order, to the Essen German labor office, followed conviction yesterday by a British court of six Germans who had disobeyed an order to dismantle the plant. They were sentenced to two months in jail.

Soldier Killed By Plane Identified

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 29 (AP). The Army today identified one of the American solldiers killed Wednesday by an observation plane as Private John B. Sloan, Texarkana, Ark.

Sloan's address was given last night as Birmingham, Ala. The other soldier was Private John Milton J. Miller, of New Orleans.

Both were killed when the observation plane crashed into a group of soldiers on a highway while attempting a landing.

VISHINSKY ILL AT KARLSBAD

Russian In Sanatorium Suffering From Nervous Disorder

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 29 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, is "gravely ill from a nervous disorder," a staff member of a Russian army sanatorium at Karlsbad said tonight.

"Mr. Vishinsky is unable to concentrate on anything," the staff member said. "He cannot be seen by anyone."

The sanatorium is located in the Hotel Imperial, one of the show places of Karlsbad, an ancient health resort 70 miles west of Prague not far from the German border.

Staff employés and a nurse made no secret of their concern over the condition of Vishinsky, one of the top figures in Soviet diplomacy.

Reports Of Dissension

The statement of his illness was the first official disclosure that Vishinsky was in Czechoslovakia. It was given out after a conference with one of his attendants.

Rumors circulated here Thursday that Vishinsky had been "trouble shooting" in Czechoslovakia.

These rumors stemmed from reports of dissension in the Czechoslovak Government and the Communist party that controls it. They were not confirmed.

There had been mutterings that President Klement Gottwald, dubbed by some Czechoslovak refugees as a "good Czech," had been veering into what Moscow might consider deviationist ways similar to those which brought Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia into Soviet disfavor.

Frequent Visitor At Karlsbad

One story said Gottwald had put his foot down firmly on a Soviet request that Czechoslovakia permit a number of Germans to be settled in Czechoslovakia. The reason for the request was not stated.

Vishinsky has been a frequent visitor at Karlsbad, which before World War I was a favored resort of royalty and international society. Then it was part of the Austro-Hungarian empire. The area is noted for its medicinal springs.

Vishinsky, 66, headed the Soviet delegation at the last meeting of the United Nations General Assembly in Paris. He has been one of the most vigorous defenders of Soviet foreign policy in all international assemblies.

Russians Vacate Hotel

Although Vishinsky's presence in Karlsbad had been rumored for several days, no official quarter would confirm that he was in czechoslovakia.

The Soviet embassy declined to talk about it.

The Hotel Imperial was vacated a week ago by all the Russians who have been living in it since the liberation of Czechoslovakia in 1945. They were moved to the Hotel Richmond.

Ostensibly the Hotel Imperial was undergoing repairs and the story in Karlsbad was that interior remodeling was going on. Two nights ago the building appeared deserted except for lights in the servant quarters on the top floor.

Persons in Karlsbad who should have known about the presence of any important strangers in the resort denied that Vishinsky or any other prominent personage was there.

The hotel, it now appears, has been converted into a "sanatorium of the Red Army." A military commander was in charge there tonight.

Czechs Expect Spur To Trade With West

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Czechoslovak Communist party newspaper asserted today Russia's Economic Council for Mutual Aid would stimulate Czech trade with the West.

The newspaper, Rude Pravo, gave the first authoritative Czech comment on the new plan. This was an article signed by L. Frejka, chairman of the economic section of the office of President Klement Gottwald.

"We want in the first place to speed up our economic progress," Frejka wrote. "Secondly we want to paralyze the discriminative policy of the United States against us.

"This broadened economic cooperation of ours, however, is not in contradiction with further development of economic ties with the West. The quicker our progress in home economy, the greater is the possibility of trade with the West."

JAN 1949

East Council To Spur Trade With West, Reds Say

Prague, Jan. 29 (AP)—Rude Praud said today the new Eastern European Economic Council for Mutual Aid (ECMA) will spur trade with the West.

Rude Pravo is the official daily newspaper of the Czechoslovak Communist party. The writer was L. Frejka, chairman of the economic section of the office of President Klement Gottwald.

First Authoritative Comment

His was the first authoritative comment on ECMA, set up as an answer to the Marshall Plan.

"We want in the first place to speed up our economic progress," he said. "Secondly, we want to paralyze the discriminatory policy of the United States against us.

"This broadened economic co-operation of ours, however, is not in contradiction with further development of economic ties with the West.

Sees 2-Way Progress

"The quicker our progress in home economy, the greater is the possibility of trade with the West."

He said that while trade with the Soviet Union and the "peoples democracies"—Hungary, Poland, Romania and Bulgaria—doubled in 1947 and 1948, trade between these countries and the west increased 30 per cent.

Scandinavians Meet Again

Oslo, Norway, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Scandinavian nations met again today in what looked like a final attempt to bridge their differences and find a basis for a mutual defense treaty.

Previous meetings have ended in stalemate. Sweden has offered Norway and Denmark a mutual assistance pact if they would remain independent of the projected North Atlantic Alliance, which would bring the United States and Canada into the western European defense picture.

While Sweden clung to her traditional policy of neutrality in big-power quarrels, Norway looked westward for assurances against future aggression. Denmark has been described as on the fence.

The foreign ministers of the three nations, flanked by delegations representing the views of the large political sections of their countries, are expected to meet through tomorrow, following which a joint communiqué may be issued.

Greek Insurgents Threatened Anew

Athens, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Greek Government today pledged relentless war on Communist-led rebels until they lay down their arms.

This was the reply of Michael Alianos, Press Minister, at a news conference to reports published abroad that the Greek Government had accepted a cease-fire proposal from the rebels.

"There is only one act which can put an end to the war," said Alianos. "Let the bandits lay down their arms. This is not a condition nor a proposal, but must come from the bandits alone."

[The Government always calls the insurgents "bandits."]

Alianos said the Government "never thought of and is not now considering any counterproposals" to the rebels' broadcast peace terms. He termed the broadcast "obviously a propaganda move."

End To U.S. Aid Demanded

Only when and if the rebels have been crushed or surrender unconditionally will Greece hold normal democratic elections, the Cabinet spokesman said.

The guerrillas demanded an end to American aid to this country and creation of a new government satisfactory to the Communist leaders, as conditions for peace.

Other official Government sources said the proposals were "completely unacceptable" and evidently "designed to isolate Greece from the Western bloc." These sources said the proposals had "no substance" and any reports that they had been accepted were completely unfounded.

The informants said "a rebellious movement to overthrow the legal regime in Greece cannot be considered a government" with which the Nationalists could negotiate.

34 Women Arrested

The Conservative newspaper Estia said the Government has met the people's desires in ignoring the rebels' peace offer. It was the first Greek publication to comment on it.

The Government pressed its campaign to shut off aid to rebels in the field. Piraeus police arrested 34 women in raids against a Communist women's organization and ordered them held for trial by a military tribunal. All were charged with aiding rebels by collecting money for them and distributing Communist leaflets.

Guerrillas raided the American School of Agriculture near Salonika last night, and abducted 36 students and three workers. All of those seized were Greeks. National troops pursued the raiders. The school is American supported.

Guerrillas Raid School In Greece

Salonika, Greece, Jan. 29 (AP)—Guerrillas entered the American School of Agriculture last night and kidnapped 36 students and three workers officials announced today.

The farm school, for Greek boys, is 5 miles from the center of this northern city. National troops pursued the attackers and picked up four students and two workers who escaped.

The school is supported by Americans.

Mindszenty's Trial Scheduled Thursday

Budapest, Jan. 29 (AP)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty goes on trial Thursday on charges of treason, the Hungarian Government announced today.

A brief communiqué said "the public prosecutor has prepared the indictment against Josef Mindszenty and his traitor's accomplices."

[The Catholic primate of Hungary has been held incommunicado since his arrest by the Communist-dominated Government, and has been unable to reply publicly to its charges that he engaged in espionage and black-market currency activities.]

The Cardinal is said by the Government to have confessed activity against the Government.

Atlantic Pact Points To War, Russians Say

Moscow, Jan. 29 (AP)—Russia issued a white paper today to tell the world the projected North Atlantic pact is part of a British-American plan for a new war.

It is a plot against the United Nations and has as its object the establishment of British-American domination of the world by force, said the Soviet Foreign Ministry.

The western European union was declared a link in the plans for world domination by the two powers.

Declaration Of Ministry

The document, one of the longest issued by the Foreign Ministry in months, took up nearly two pages in the Moscow press. It attracted the immediate interest of Moscow's diplomats who at once obtained copies and began translating and analyzing the declaration.

Specifically entitled, "Declaration of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the U.S.S.R. on the North Atlantic Pact," the paper accused Britain and the United States of trying to isolate the Soviet Union, undermine the United Nations, institute an economic boycott on the U.S.S.R. and her friends, trying to start a new war and not wanting to conclude peace treaties for Germany and Japan.

To Fight For U.N.

In short, it summed up the U.S.S.R.'s present view of the entire foreign situation as it has been intensified, in Moscow's opinion, by the projected North Atlantic pact.

It concluded by declaring Russia is going to fight "more firmly and more insistently" against the alleged attempt to wreck the United Nations.

The western European union, the statement said, was a "link in a chain of measures involved in plans for establishing Anglo-American world domination."

Discusses Regional Pacts

This union, it added, was but a "military-political complement to the economic grouping of European countries which was created to carry out the Marshall plan" and both "receive their direction from the ruling circles of the Anglo-U.S.A. bloc."

The statement also dealt in detail with a number of regional agreements and projects for such alliances, including the Western Hemisphere defense pact, a proposed Mediterranean pact and the South Asian Conference on Indonesia held recently in New Delhi, India.

The western European union is composed of Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg who signed the Brussels pact in March, 1948. The five powers yesterday announced they had agreed to organize a "Council of Europe" which may open the way to creation of a single parliament for democratic Europe.

U.S., Canada May Join

President Truman has announced he hopes to submit to Congress soon a North Atlantic pact linking the United States and Canada with the European union in a defense arrangement.

"The U.S.S.R. must take into consideration the fact that ruling circles of the United States and Britain have entered upon an aggressive course of policy the final purpose of which is the establishment by force of Anglo-American world domination," said the Foreign Ministry statement.

Hits U.N. Bypassing

It contained these additional statements:

Russia must see to it that the United Nations is not "bypassed as so often happens," and the United Nations must make its authority respected, especially when there is a question of who is conducting an aggressive policy.

"Under such conditions the participation of the U.S.S.R. and countries of the New Democracy (Soviet satellites) in the North Atlantic pact or similar alliances of states is of course completely out of the question."

Prepare New War

Britain and France have "broken with the peace-loving policy and taken the road of preparing a new aggression in Europe" by forming the European union with the object of using Western powers "against those states which were their allies during the second world war."

This policy is "very menacing for the peace-loving peoples."

The "real aims of the Brussels pact and the western European union have nothing in common with the interests of defense of these states."

Cites Bigger Armies

"What is in view is the taking of military measures and repressions of all kinds against the working class and growing democratic (Communist) forces within these states, and also against the growing liberation movement of the peoples in colonies and dependent countries."

"The aggressive aims of this grouping are also reflected in more and more new demands for increasing armies and military budgets."

The new grouping has not prevented "increasing economic difficulties in a whole series of west European states," on the contrary, the bigger military budgets are preventing economic stability and causing serious internal political difficulties.

Sees Democracies Stronger

"The result of this position will be an inevitable and already visible sharpening of contradictions both between the U.S.A. and the countries of the Western bloc, and within the western European grouping itself."

On the other hand, Russia and the "Peoples Democracies" are steadily "restoring and developing their economies and strengthening democratic bases by politically uniting the peoples freed from reactionary and repressive rule."

RUSSIA ASKS PACT STAND OF NORWAY

Calls Oslo's Attention To Fact Countries Have Common Frontier

London, Sunday, Jan. 30 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Oeslo said today Russia has called on Norway to explai nher attitude tword the projected North Atlantic defense pact.

The dispatch of the official Soviet news agency broadcast from Moscow said the Soviet Government brought to Norway's official attention the fact that the two countries have a common frontier.

Talks Under Way In Oslo

The Soviet Union issued in Moscow yesterday a 34-page white paper asserting the pact was intended to establish British-American domination of the world by force. Russia described the pact as a plot against the United Nations and said she would fight it.

Talks are under way in Oslo between the foreign ministers of Norway, Sweden and Denmark on a proposed Scandinavian defense alliance.

Sweden is reported seeking a Scandinavian pact based on neutrality and not tied in with the North Atlantic alliance, which would embrace the United States, Britain, Canada, France and the Low Countries at the outset.

Norway has been reported wanting a Scandinavian alliance which would enable the three countries to obtain weapons and certain guarantees from the western nations.

Position Reiterated

The Tass dispatch, reiterating the position taken by the Soviet Government, said:

"Athough the initiators of this (Atlantic pact) union declare it aims for defense, the Soviet Union has sufficient grounds for asserting the Atlantic union can not serve to strength universal peace, but on the contrary is a regrouping of powers which pursues aggressive aims, which is also confirmed by the fact the Atlantic Union is being set up outside the framework of the United Nations and is bypassing it."

Tass said the Soviet statement was delivered by the Russian ambassador in Oslo to the general secretary of the Norwegian Foreign Ministry.

Russian Statement

Tass quoted from the statement:

"In connection with reports in the press on the intention of Norway to join the Atlantic union the Soviet Government has instructed me (the ambassador) to make the following statement:

"According to numerous data theer will shortly be created a so-called Atlantic union. Although the initiators of this union declare that teh aims of the Atlantic union are for defense, the Soviet Union has sufficient grounds for asserting that the Atlantic union now in preparation cannot serve to strengthen universal peace, but on the contrary is a groupjing of powers which pursues aggressive aims, which is also confirmed by the fact the Atlantic uinon is being set up outside the framework of the United Nations and bypassing it."

"Theer is also sufficietn grounds for asserting that the initatiors of the Atlantic pact are endeavoring to use the creation of this new international grouping for purposes of laying down air force and naval bases in various parts of the world, and particularly on the territory of states which are close to the frontiers of the Soviet Union, which by no means testifies to the peace-loving aims of this grouping.

A Common Frontier

"In drawing attention of the Norwegian Government to this situation, the Soviet Government considers it necessary to declare it regards the Atlantic union as a group of states which in point of fact is opposed to the United Nations and pursues aims which have nothing in common with the interests of strengthening peace.

"In view of what has been stated, the Soviet Government requests the Norwegian Government to explain the attitude of the Norwegian Government on the question of the Atlantic pact, having particularly in mind the circumstances that Norway has a common frontier with the Soviet Union.

"The Soviet Union asks to be informed whether reports in the press that Norway is joining the Atlantic union correspond to the actual facts, and also to be informed whether the Norwegian Government is undertaking any obligations to the Atlantic union in respect to creation of air force or naval bases on the territory of Norway."

Tass said the official in the Norwegian Foreign Ministry promised to bring the statement to the notice of the Norwegian Government.

Russ, U.S. Ideas On Defense Pact Differ Sharply

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP)—Russia's attack on the North Atlantic security plan runs counter to American claims for that unprecedented project on every important point.

Briefly the American position is that the arrangement will bolster the United Nations and that it is necessary as a means of assuring western Europe against aggression.

The Russians in a White paper issued in Moscow described the project as part of a plot to wreck the United Nations and establish British-American domination over the world.

U.S. Stand Clear

State Deparment officials were studying press reports of the Soviet blast at the proposed alliance between the United States and western Europe. The American stand on the issues the Russians seek to raise, however, has already been made clear by both President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson.

Both the President in his inauguration speech and Acheson at his news conference Wednesday asserted that the proposed treaty would strengthen the United Nations.

Protection For Others

Furthermore, both advocated it as an arrangement, sanctioned by the United Nations Charter, that would enable the United States to protect other countries in the North Atlantic area from aggression.

Previously, the State Department has charged that Russian "obstructionism" in the United Nations has rendered that agency partially ineffective and thereby forced the Western powers to negotiate the military alliance.

In sum, the United States blames Russia for the whole project.

Reassurance Aim

American officials privately say it is required by the need to reassure western Europe against the danger of Russian aggression and also to discourage such aggression. The Soviets contend about this, as they do about the Truman doctrine and the Marshall plan, that it is an instrument of Western imperialism aimed at producing a new war.

Acheson, quoting from Mr. Truman's speech, told his news conference: "We are convinced that we can best contribute to the maintenance of peace by joining with other nations, by making it absolutely clear in advance that any armed attack affecting our national security would be met with overwhelming force."

Further echoing the President, the new Secretary of State described the treaty as "a collective defense arrangement within the framework of the United Nations Charter, designed to strengthen the United Nations by providing for the orderly and co-ordinated fulfillment of the obligations of the participating nations under the "Charter."

Tactical Coup Seen For Israel

Rhodes, Jan. 29 (AP)—Egyptians remained insistent today upon re-establishment of October 14 lines in Palestine, though Israel appeared to have scored a tactical coup on that point in the armistice talks.

High placed United Nations sources said Jewish negotiators gained a significant edge under the cease-fire agreement formally signed here five days ago, because it specifically states no movements of any kind, civilian or military, may be taken by either side.

Jewish delegates, however, minimized the development.

The full implication of the "complete and enduring cease fire" apparently escaped observers at the time of the announcement.

International Agreement

United Nations sources at the highest level said the phrasing highest level said the phrasing projects the cease fire beyond the conference here, regardless of whether an armistice is reached. They said the agreement was an international one, signed at top government level and fully binding.

Since Israel troops hammered Egyptian forces from much of the Negeb to the Egyptian border in drives during October and December, the cease-fire January 7 found them deep in territory allotted the Arabs under the United Nations partition plan.

The signing of the formal cease-fire order means, in effect, they will remain in their positions unless the boundary problem is settled satisfactorily.

Jews Hold Advantage

This would leave the North-South highway from Jerusalem through Hebron and Beersheba under control of the Jews. The same highway forks off westward from Beersheba toward the Mediterranean coast and Gaza. Most of thi ssection of the road also is held by Israeil troops.

Jews hold another advantage in future bargaining if these discussions under Ralph J. Bunche, United Nations mediator, should end in failure. They have an Egyptian brigade estimated at 3,000 men trapped at Faluja "pending evacuation." Any transfer of these troops now to Egyptian territory would appear to come under the cease-fire ban on military movements.

Israel's delegation would not say the agreement was advantageous to Israel, but acknowledged it extends beyond the Rhodes conference if the talks here fail. However, the delegates pointed out that if the conference is successful the cease-fire agreement naturally would be superseded.

A delegation of republicans protested to the United Nations Good Offices Committee that the Dutch, instead, jailed their press officer, W. Latumeten, and an officer of the Republican Information Ministry named Sastrosuwignjo, confiscated documents and office equipment and possibly arrested others. They said the arrests were made yesterday.

The Good Offices Committee met in its new role as the United Nations Commission for Indonesia. A spokesman said T. Elink Schuurman, chairman of the Dutch delegation to the meeting, reported he had no instructions from his government concerning the latest United Nations orders and thus lacked authority to compiy.

The Dutch reported officially they had received a letter from spokesmen for 1,000 Chinese at Bakan Baru, in central Sumatra, thanking Netherlands troops for saving them from "certain death" at the hands of the republicans in December.

cil last night, includes a demand that the Dutch release Indonesian Republican leaders arrested at the mid-December opening of the Dutch "police action" and help these leaders reinstate their government.

The Republican delegation said it now will be impossible to produce the Daily Press Review, an English-language publication of the Information Office.

"This case is brought to your attention," the letter to the committee said, "because it is one of which we have direct knowledge, and because of the official status of the persons concerned."

Committee Changed

The Good Offices Committee met today for the first time as the United Nations' Commission for Indonesia, in line with the Security Council's resolution. A spokesman said the commission conferred with the chairman of the Netherlands delegation, T. Elink Schuurman,

Dutch In Indonesia Assail Plan Of U.N.

Batavia, Java, Jan. 29 (AP)—Indonesian Republicans charged today that the Dutch arrested two of their press officers and possibly many other Republicans in direct defiance of the latest United Nations orders.

The Republic's delegation to the United Nations Good Offices Committee sent a letter to the committee saying that Netherlands officials jailed Press Officer W. Latumeten and an officer of the Republican Ministry of Information, Sastrosuwignjo, in Batavia Friday, and confiscated documents and office equipment.

U.N. Proposal

The United Nations compromise plan for ending the Indonesian crisis, voted by the Security Council last night, includes a demand that the Dutch release Indonesian Republican leaders arrested at the mid-December opening of the Dutch "police action" and help these leaders reinstate their government.

The Republican delegation said it now will be impossible to produce the Daily Press Review, an English-language publication of the Information Office.

"This case is brought to your attention," the letter to the committee said, "because it is one of which we have direct knowledge, and because of the official status of the persons concerned."

Committee Changed

The Good Offices Committee met today for the first time as the United Nations' Commission for Indonesia, in line with the Security Council's resolution. A spokesman said the commission conferred with the chairman of the Netherlands delegation, T. Elink Schuurman, who told the members he had no information from his Government regarding the council resolution and thus was not in a position to act in compliance.

A commission spokesman said Schuurman was notified of the complaint about the arrest of the press officers, and replied he would seek information on the matter.

"Subversive" Suspicion

A Dutch spokesman told newsmen the press officers were arrested on "suspicion they had been contacting subversive groups."

The Dutch Army information office released a letter it said was from a group of Chinese at Pakan Baru in central Sumatra. The letter expressed thanks to Dutch forces for saving them from "certain death" at the hands of Republicans in December. The Army said the latter was signed in behalf of 1,000 persons by "some important Chinese inhabitants."

Dutch political circles called the Security Council resolution "extremely unfortunate." But Republican quarters here expressed satisfaction.

Neutral observers predicted that the Indonesian dispute would drag on for many months, with the Dutch eventually accepting parts of the Security Council plan and ignoring others.

These observers said future Dutch policy and the extent of carrying out the Security Council resolution will depend to a great extent on the attitude of leaders of the non-Republican states. These leaders are scheduled to meet here Monday.

Indonesians Charge Dutch Defy U.N. In New Roundup

Batavia, Java, Jan. 29 (AP)—Indonesian republicans accused the Dutch today of making a new police roundup of republican leaders. They charged the arrests openly defied the United Nations's most recent orders.

The United Nations renewed at Lake Success, N.Y., last night its demand that the Dutch release Indonesian leaders captured in the December military action which toppled the republican government. The demand, part of the new United Nations plan for restoring peace here, directed that the Netherlands assist the leaders to reinstate their Government.

Dutch Airlines Reorganized

The Hague, Jan. 29 (AP)—Royal Dutch Airlines (K.L.M.) officials said today it would undergo a "general personnel reorganization" as an economy move made necessary by the halting of flights to Indonesia.

Eight of K.L.M's long-range Constellation planes have been grounded since India and Pakistan refused to permit Dutch flights over their territory. The nations took the step because of Dutch military actions against the Indonesian republic in December. A K.L.M. spokesman termed the halting of these flights a "heavy blow."

K.L.M. said there would be no mass dismissals, but that some administrative personnel would be dismissed, chiefly from the ranks of those untrained staff members engaged just after the war. K.L.M. employs about 13,500 persons around the world.

Planes Test New Routes

The company sent out one Constellation Wednesday to test a new route to Batavia via Khartoum in the Sudan, Reunion Island and Padang, Sumatra. Another plane is scheduled to try a route by way of Tunis; Sjarjah, Arabia, and Bangkok, Siam. The planes carried mail but no passengers.

Commenting on the latter route, the semi-official Pakistani newspaper Dawn said in Karachi yesterday none of the Asian countries which took part in the recent conference at New Delhi, India, on Indonesia can allow K.L.M. flights until the Dutch act in accordance with the New Delhi resolutions to release captured Indonesian leaders and withdraw troops from Republican territory.

Dutch, Indonese Consider U.N. Proposal

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 29 (AP)—A compromise plan for ending the Indonesian crisis was up to the Netherlands and the Indonesians today. The United Nations watched to see what they would do about it.

Meanwhile, the Dutch Cabinet met in The Hague to consider the Indonesian resolution. It will meet again Monday. First semi-official reaction was that Dutch officialdom feels there is no organization yet capable of taking over the Dutch task in the Indies.

Dutch Position

One official in The Hague said the resolution "really means relinquishing responsibility to an organism (a three-man United Nations commission) which juridically has no right and practically no means to maintain order in Indonesia."

The Security Council in 28 separate votes last night approved the plan.

The Dutch served notice just before it passed they would carry it out to the extent of their responsibilities—as they see them—for maintaining freedom and order in Indonesia.

Defiance Predicted

An Indonesian spokesman answered that this meant clearly the Dutch planned once more to defy the Security Council.

The principal points of the council's plan were:

1. A demand for the Netherlands to release the Indonesian Republican leaders arrested when the Dutch began military action last December and to help these leaders reinstate their government. This was approved, 10 to 0, with France alone abstaining.

2. Creation of a three-nation United Nations commission for Indonesia to recommend as it sees fit the withdrawal of Dutch soldiers from Republican territory.

The vote for this was 7 to 0 with Russia, the Ukraine, France and Argentina abstaining. Seven votes are required to pass any proposal in the council.

3. Orders for the commission to supervise negotiations looking to the creation of an interim government not later than next March 15; elections for a Constituent Assembly by October 1, 1949, and transfer of sovereignty over Indonesia by the Netherlands to the United States of Indonesia not later than July 1, 1950. These sections were approved, 8 to 0, Russia, the Ukraine and France abstained.

The Council has taken all of January to make its decision. It is expected to take up next Tuesday the question of reduction of armaments over the world. The Council must formally pass to the commission for conventional armaments the decision of the Paris General Assembly for the commission to keep working on arms reduction.

Gandhi In Death Wins Peace India Missed In His Life

New Delhi, India, Jan. 29 (AP)—Mohandas K. Gandhi, a kindly little man of peace, has attained in violent death goals he missed with his preaching of love.

He was slain one year ago tomorrow.

His India and Pakistan are learning to dwell as peaceful neighbors. The fanatical religious warring between Hindu and Moslem in the two dominions has largely subsided. And India, as he desired, is building patiently as a democratic secular state instead of the rightist religious government his assassins wanted.

Fate Of 8 Pondered

A court now is pondering the fate of eight men accused of conspiring the assassination of Gandhi, whom the world honored as the mahatma or "great-souled." They are scheduled to be sentenced next month. Narayan Vinayak Godse, confessed trigger man, has suggested the death sentence to the court.

What Gandhi would have said about any effort to punish his slayers will be debated in India for a long time. But the people have raised no question that justice should take its course.

Bloody rioting between the Hindu and Moslem populations of India and Pakistan had become commonplace when Gandhi was shot down. He was walking to his prayer meeting place here to continue his crusade for communal peace, when three shots were fired into his body.

Times Were Critical

The crime occurred as India faced critical times and issues.

There was talk of war between the two new dominions, created when British crown rule of India ended and the country was divided in August, 1947. Refugees crammed the cities, calling for the blood of people of the opposite religion. Hindus had fled Kakistan, and Moslems from India—12,000,000 of them.

The economy was shaken on both sides of the border.

Not all of the headway in the past twelve months came about as Gandhi would have done it. There was more rioting, but it ebbed steadily. The police and military crushed it with their guns, bayonets and clubs. Organizations preaching religious hatred were outlawed and harried out of existence.

The Rastriya Swayam Sewat Sangh, one of the outlawed organizations, tested its comeback powers last December. Its members courted arrest—the old Gandhian technique in his crusade for Indian independence—in an effort to have the ban lifted. The police tear gassed them. The people backed the police.

Under leadership of two staunch friends, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and Governor General C. Rajagopalachari, India has come far to give Gandhi in death a peaceful land.

Fighting Was Stopped

A cease-fire agreement dated January 1, arranged with United Nations assistance, has stopped the fighting of Indian and Pakistan troops in the neighboring state of Kashmir. In conference, leaders of the two countries agreed to strive for amicable settlement of this and other issues.

They had fought for months over which dominion should possess the state. They then agreed to settle it by referendum.

Gandhi would have been proud, too, of India's lead in calling the recent Asian conference, which protested Dutch military action in Indonesia and demanded independence for the Indonesians. He believed no western power had a right to colonial possessions in the East.

The country's Constituent Assembly is drafting the Indian Constitution. It is framing a document calling for a democratic state, where the people can express their will freely at the polls, as Gandhi wanted.

5 NATIONALS SOUGHT BY U.S.

Britons Also Being Hunted For In Burma War Zone

D. MacLEISH

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 29 (AP)—United States and British embassies sought tonight to rescue their nationals, including five Americans, stranded in a civil war battle zone less than 100 miles west of Rangoon.

The Americans are missionaries, whose names are not known here. The number and identity of the Britons was not reported. They were trapped when their plane was grounded by the weather at Bassein, on the Irrawaddy delta. The city fell to Karen rebels yesterday. NIGHT

No word has been received of the foreigners since they landed. Bassein has been cut off from radio contact with other sections.

A Surprise Linkup

A Governemnt spokesman said tonight the Karen thrust apparently followed a surprise linkup with well-armed Communist troops. The Karens and Communists both seek to establish their own independent states, and the Karens also are thirsting for vengeance. They contend Burmese military police massacred 200 Karens in a church last Christmas Eve.

Military observers said the thrust seemed designed to isolate and put the pinch of hunger on Rangoon itself, rather than to storm it. These sources said the city already is cut off from its principal food supply in northern Burma, and that the rebels have seized vantage points from which it will be difficult to drive them.

Rebels Seize Toungoo

They suspected that the Karens are trying to consolidate themselves in position which will break up the Government's administrative efforts, including the holding of elections, and then try for a bargain.

The Government reported fighting along a 40-mile front on the Rangoon-Mandalay railroad. The rebels have seized Toungoo and Pyu on the line.

An official report said other Karen rebels are massing for fresh blows at the Irrawaddy delta, which is the heart of Burma's rice bowl. Strong Karen units were gathering near Maubin, a rice center between Rangoon and Bassein.

The Government said its forces repulsed a Karen attack on the town of Kyaikmaraw, 10 miles south of Moulmein, which is across the Gulf of Martaban east of Rangoon.

Economic Council Created

These actions are interpreted as showing the objective—an offensive perimeter about Rangoon which the rebels hope will force the Government to talk terms.

The Communist forces backing them are the so-called white flag Communists led by Thakin Than Tun, who last year attempted to set up his own government over a part of that area. Burma has several Communist groups, identified variously as white flag, yellow flag and other colors, although they all carry the same hammer-and-sickle banners.

The Government announced creation of a national economic council empowered to draw plans to nationalize private industries. The council also would advise the cabinet on import and export policies. It is headed by Kyaw Myint, Minister of Industries and Mines.

U.S. To Rescue 5 Missionaries In Burma

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 29 (AP)—American and British embassies are seeking to evacuate their nationals, including five American missionaries, who were in Bassein when that Irrawaddy delta port fell to rebel forces yesterday.

The missionaries were on their way to Rangoon by air when their Union of Burma plane was grounded at Bassein, in the heart of Burma's rice bowl.

The Burma Government has been unable to establish radio contact with Bassein since its capture. Britons in the town include employés of British-owned rice mills and warehouses.

Three Towns Seized

Bassein was one of three major towns taken by Karen rebels in a surge toward Rangoon in an attempt to isolate the Burma union capital.

Rangoon is now separated from its food supply in northern Burma.

The Karens are fighting to form their own independent state of Karenistan. Government sources said the Karens may be receiving the help of Communists in their offensive.

Filipinos See Japan Leading In Recovery

S. DAVIS

Manila, Jan. 29 (AP)—An influential group of Filipinos returned from Japan today apparently convinced that the vanquished nation will challenge Asia for economic leadership within a few years.

The group of 36, including Government officials, a legislator and business executives, felt that the Philippines would lose more than it gained if it did not overcome its present aloofness toward the former enemy.

Japan, they said, is speedily developing into the "Ruhr of the Far Pacific."

"Right Kind" Of Trade

The start of weekly flights between Manila and Tokyo by the Philippine Airlines was regarded as an important step in establishing the "right kind" of trade with Japan.

There was no desire to return to the prewar position in which Japanese goods and merchants dominated Philippine markets.

The Philippines industrialization program is still on the blueprints. These plans are almost certain to be affected by a resurgence of Japan.

Sharp Contrast Noted

Tokyo today presents a sharp contrast to Manila, where war damage still is painfully apparent. Tokyo's broad streets in the bustling business district and a welter of housing projects show little evidence of the fire-bomb raids of four years ago.

Concentrated into a smaller, more compact area, Manila's damaged public structures are daily reminders of the fierce liberation campaign of 1945.

Reparations Lacking

Obviously, Japan is far outstripping the Philippines in recovering from the war.

This focuses Filipino attention on another painful development—lack of reparations from the defeated enemy.

Some $100,000,000 in advance reparations payments were expected to help restore the Philippines' wrecked economy. A few shiploads of machine tools worth possibly $10,000,000 have arrived.

Army Seeks Shift Of Reich Rule to State Department

Early Administrative Switch Believed Unlikely Despite Plea Of Gen. Clay for Retirement

JAN 1949

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29 (AP)—The Army, appealing to President Truman, wants the administration of the U. S. zone of Germany turned over to the State Department as soon as possible, it was learned tonight.

Kenneth C. Royall, Army Secretary urged the switch in a formal recommendation to the White House.

Neither the White House nor State Department, however, wants to rush through any quick change in the American setup in Germany, a political and economic battleground in the cold war.

Clay Seeking To Retire

Gen. Lucius D. Clay reportedly again is pressing officials here to be allowed to retire as military governor, but President Truman is represented as eager to keep him on the job a while longer.

Responsible officials said disposition of Royall's proposal would turn largely on the advice to be given President Truman by Dean Acheson, Secretary of State.

Acheson, in office little more than a week, has been swamped with other matters.

Moreover, insiders regard it likely that he would want an exhaustive review made of the whole German problem, including the specific issue of administration.

No New Policy

Royall's recommendation to Mr. Truman, with copies to the Secretary of State and other interested officials, is reported to have been made in mid-January. He returned from a tour of Germany January 3. Yesterday he left Washington for a visit to Japan.

The recommendation does not constitute any new army policy. The Army has made repeated attempts to shift the occupation task to the State Department. It was decided long ago that the start should be made in Germany with the changeover in Japan later.

Some informants said that what lends urgency to the present situation is that Clay has become more emphatic in expressing his desire to retire. This, in Royall's reported opinion, apparently made it timely to raise again the whole problem of civilian versus military control.

Previous Plan Blocked

Any move to replace him, however, will be complicated by Russian propaganda, which has dealt with rumors and reports of his possible retirement as evidence of a change in American policies in Germany. Developments in the conflict with Russia, in fact, blocked the last previous plan for a change from military to civilian control. That was in March last year.

The question of getting the State Department to take over had come up several times during the State Department administration of Secretary James F. Byrnes. It never got anywhere because the prevailing theory then was that State should stick to policy making.

After Gen. George C. Marshall replaced Byrnes as Secretary, the State Department became more receptive to the army plan and finally a year ago this week, on January 27, the Army announced an agreement for the State Department to take over about July 1.

State Plans Drafted

The scheme was washed out March 23 when the announcement was made that "following a review of the present situation" any change had been deemed "inadvisable."

Meanwhile, however, the State Department had sent a special mission to Germany to plan the occupation administration and the organization then laid out is most likely the one that will be followed if and when the State Department does move in.

Army Force Would Stay

This provides for a relatively-small civilian staff to manage occupation policies. The American governor would report directly to the Secretary of State. This would cut out the Army's present middleman position; General Clay currently carries out policies which the State Department transmits through the Army.

The Army's occupation force in Germany would remain undisturbed as far as its garrison and police duties go. It would still stand as a shield, however thin, between Soviet forces and the Western non-Communist countries but the Army commander could stick to military affairs where Clay presently runs the American zone and commands all United States forces in Europe.

The Army high command, here always has taken the position that the Army should be relieved of this dual responsibility as soon as possible after the end of the war.

The argument has been that officers and men should be free to tend to military matters. The Army's requests to Congress each year for money, for example, are complicated by the fact that appropriations have had to include funds for Germany and Japan.

The State Department, on the other hand, has been reluctant to take over the job—officials consider it a "thankless task"—for which it is only partly prepared.

attaining altitudes of more than 100 miles." This, the larger, is thirty-two feet long, compared with the forty-five-foot length of the war-time V-2 rocket of the Germans.

An Air Force spokesman said, "These are true, guided missiles, which can be launched in one direction, then changed in their flight to hit another target."

The announcement referred only to control of the rockets by four movable fins. This did not explain how the fins are guided from the ground. Air Force experts said the degree of control is not great, but it does exist.

(This has been one of the major objectives in the guided-missile program. Neither the V-2 nor the earlier V-1 "buzz bomb," which was not a rocket but a jet-powered flying bomb, could be aimed after launching, except for a device to cut off power and start the missiles into a descending flight pattern.

(Although the Army, Navy and Air Force have been experimenting with rockets of American designs, they so far have failed to reach the 114-mile altitude record established with a German V-2. This rocket, one of a number captured and brought to the United States where improvements were made in fuel and design, was launched at the White Sands, N. M., Proving Ground in December, 1946.)

The other new rocket, called the Nativ, is thirteen feet long. Designed for study of air-foil design, development of control systems and training of rocket-launching crews, the Nativ has an altitude trajectory of ten miles. The Air Force said both rockets had been successfully test-fired but did not disclose the altitudes.

A total of $26,500,000 allocated to the Air Force since last fall will be used to purchase guided missiles and allied equipment for training and experiments, General Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff, said.

The Air Force said both the new rockets "have reached supersonic speeds," the speed of sound is 763 miles an hour at sea level at a temperature of 59 degrees Fahrenheit; at 40,000 feet, 660 miles an hour. Rockets take off at relatively low speed, then go faster as they climb, attaining maximum speed as they plummet downward. The V-2s reach a speed of more than 3,000 miles an hour as they near the earth from high altitude.

The Air Force said liquid-fuel rocket motors are used in both new models. (Experiments with various types of liquid fuel have been made, some of them mixtures of alcohol and liquid oxygen).

The 774 is built at the San Diego, Calif., plant of Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation; the Nativ at the Inglewood, Calif., plant of North American Aviation.

U. S. Develops 2 New Rockets; Aim Can Be Changed in Flight

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Air Force said today it has developed two new high-altitude rocket-guided missiles, with ground controls that can change their aim while in flight.

One of them, the 774, was described as "potentially capable of

B-36 CARRIES 42 TONS OF BOMBS ALOFT

Averages 250 M.P.H. On Nonstop Flight Of 2,900 Miles

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP) — A United States B-36 bomber carried 42 tons of bombs aloft today—greatest bomb load ever lifted—and dropped them on a California bombing range, the Air Force announced.

The bomb load consisted of two [redacted] missiles, GIANT

The two huge bombs, without explosive charges, were dropped separately.

The B-36 took off from Carswell Base, Texas, flew to a bombing range at the Muroc (Cal.) airtest base, and returned to the Texas field, ordinarily a round trip of 2,400 miles. However, additional time over the target and other deviations in the route brought the total distance to 2,900 miles.

Averages 250 Miles An Hour

The weight of the two 42,000 pound bombs lifted by the six-engine Consolidated Vultee plane was equivalent to a wartime B-17 Flying Fortress.

At takeoff the bomber, its bombs and fuel load totaled over 300,000 pounds.

On the nonstop flight of 2,900 miles, the bomber averaged more than 250 miles an hour.

Airspeed of the bomber as it released the missiles was better than 350 miles an hour.

The first bomb was released at over 35,000 feet. The B-36 then climbed to over 40,000 feet and dropped the second missile. The Air Force said that over 40,000 feet is the normal bombing altitude for the B-36.

"A Normal Test Flight"

Both the bombs were carried in normal manner within the huge bomb bays of the B-36, one in each bay. In previous tests the 42,000-pound bombs have been dropped by B-29's, each carrying only one bomb and this shackled to the underside of the airplane because it was too large for the B-29 bomb bay.

The Air Force announcement tonight followed by 24 hours the statement of W. Stuart Symington, Air Secretary, before the congressional committee that critics were trying to do a "hatchet job" on the B-36.

The spectacular feat today was described in the announcement as "a normal test flight required under terms of the Air Force contract with Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation." Preparations for the test were started some time ago, officials said.

World Bank Hunts Hidden Dollars

Washington, Jan. 29 (AP) — The World Bank may make a fresh stab soon at prying loose millions of American dollars from European hiding places so they can be used to help foreign economic recovery.

Officials said the bank hopes to lure the sorely needed United States cash into its coffers with special bond sales. The plan is to try the new method first in Belgium, with a $10,000,000 "pilot issue."

If that succeeds in coaxing the money out of hoarding so it can be added to the bank's loan funds, the project will be repeated in other countries.

Up To Belgian Government

The plan's fate, they said, now rests with the Belgian Government, which first must agree not to penalize bond buyers by taxing them or "freezing" their dollar assets.

Officials said they are confident that Belgium will go along, in which case the bond sale—first of its kind—might go through by this summer.

If it works it will be followed by a similar offering in the Netherlands, and later, probably, in other countries.

Billions Believed Hidden

European governments are expected to co-operate because they are vitally interested in getting hoarded dollars into use—particularly in their own countries—through loans from the bank.

Right now, Belgian industrial interests are negotiating for a bank loan of around $18,000,000 to equip private plants, with the Belgian Government guaranteeing payment.

The 47-nation lending agency is more interested at the moment in putting hoarded funds to work than in raising capital. Estimates of the amount of American money hidden under European mattresses have run into the billions.

The tryout bond issue to be offered to Belgians in exchange for dollars is expected to have a ten-year term and a 2¼ per cent interest rate—the same as the rate on ten-year bonds sold in the United States.

Says Austrian Wed Her To Reach U.S.

Chicago, Jan. 29 (AP)—A WAC officer filed suit today for an annulment of her marriage, charging her Viennese husband wed her for the sole purpose of getting to the United States.

First Lieutenant Margaret Wiesbauer, 30, alleged she became engaged to Johannes Wiesbauer, 30, when she was stationed in Vienna from May, 1946, to July, 1948. After her return to the states, her suit said, she aided Weisbauer in obtaining a three-month temporary visa which allows financés or financees of American service personnel to enter this country to marry their American sweethearts. Under the law, if the marriage takes place they are permitted to remain here permanently.

Lieutenant Wiesbauer said she and Wiesbauer were married at Elkton, Md., August 2, 1948, and separated three weeks later. During that time, the suit stated, Wiesbauer made no attempt to consummate the marriage.

The suit said Wiesbauer now is employed at Marshall Field & Co., Loop department store.

U.S. To Educate Russ Satellites On Atomic Age

Denver, Jan. 29 (AP)—Senator McMahon (D., Conn.), said today Congress plans to tell people behind the Iron Curtain just what atomic energy and the atom bomb could mean to them.

This could bring about new "agreements," he said.

McMahon said "people of Russia and the satellite countries have been deliberately kept in ignorance" by "endless lies" which have made little of the military, economic and social importance of this new force, and have distorted the United States position on international control.

Series Of Hearings Set

He told the Colorado Press Association that once these people learn that atomic energy "used militarily may ruin their country or, used beneficently, may transform their lives," they may change their minds about the United States.

"Education must lead to enlightenment and enlightenment to agreement," he said.

The method to be used to circulate this information, he said, will be a series of public hearings by the joint Congressional Atomic Energy Committee of which he is chairman. The first meeting will be next Wednesday.

Press Asked To Help

He asked newspapers to help "in the supremely important task of piercing . . . the Iron Curtain of public fear, ignorance and apathy" now surrounding the atomic-energy program.

By giving wide publicity both here and abroad to information made public at the hearings, newspapers will have "an unequaled opportunity for patriotic service of the highest order," the Senator continued.

He said it is about time the American people, and people everywhere, knew more about this nation's vast atomic program.

AEC Backs Proposal

The five members of the Atomic Energy Commission, he noted, have advocated many times, a "better public education in the field of atomic energy."

"Only the overriding interests of national security can justify a democratic government having any secrets from its own people," McMahon said.

5 Uranium Plants Due To Operate

Los Angeles, Jan. 29 (AP)—Uranium—basic ingredient of the atom bomb—is scheduled to flow from five plants in Utah and Colorado by the end of this year.

This was disclosed by Philip C. Leahy, manager of the Atomic Energy Commission's branch at Grand Junction, Col. Speaking yesterday at the annual meeting of the Mining Association of the Southwest, Leahy said:

"Contracts for the purchase of uranium production from the two private plants now operating in the Colorado Plateau region have been extended.

To Run At Capacity

"Negotiations are about completed for contracts covering the operations of a plant at Durango, Col., and another at Uravan, Col. The mill the AEC owns at Monticello, Utah, is being readied. All five will be operating to capacity this year."

Leahy said the commission, in addition, has engaged the United States Geological Survey to drill several hundred thousand feet in the Colorado-Utah area. The AEC now pays approximately $3.50 per pound for average-grade uranium ore, the engineer said.

However, he said he knew of no instance in which anyone has yet won the $10,000 bonus offered for the discovery of a new uranium deposit.

16 States List 2 Billion Bonuses For Veterans

Six Study Fund Sources After Approvals In Referenda — Ten Others Make Payments

[By the Associated Press]

Veterans' bonuses totaling $2,085,256,000 are now being paid, or are due to be paid, by sixteen states.

Ten states are paying, or preparing to pay, $1,590,256,000 to World War II vets or their survivors.

Half a dozen states—Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Indiana and Washington—are searching for money to pay veterans' bonuses amounting to about $495,000,000. These six states have approved the bonus proposition in referenda.

A bill introduced in the North Dakota Legislature calls for increases of 8 cents a gallon in the beer tax, 50 cents a gallon in the whisky tax, and 2 cents a pack in the cigarette tax, plus an unspecified hike in the property tax.

Indiana Bans Bonds

A number of suggestions are being considered in Indiana. Among them are proposals to double the gross income tax rate, to tax soft drinks and tobacco, to raise taxes on beer and liquor and to legalize and tax pari-mutuel betting.

The problem of providing a lot of money is complicated by a constitutional ban against State bond issues.

Iowa voters authorized the State to levy an annual tax sufficient to retire bonds issued to pay a cash bonus in 1949. The State Tax Commission has certified the levy for this year as $1.95 per $1,000 valuation on real and personal property.

State May Buy Bonds

The legislators, meanwhile, are considering proposals that the State buy some or all the bonds with surplus funds in the State treasury. Thus the State would save interest money.

Gov. George T. Mickelson's measure in South Dakota would draw $5,000,000 out of the general fund as a starter. It also would increase the State retail sales tax from the current two per cent to three per cent, extend the sales tax to beer, liquor and cigarettes and place a 2-mill levy on property.

Issue Taken To Court

One bill presented in Minnesota would impose a 1.5-mill tax on income over $1,000.

Two others would establish a lottery. A lottery has virtually no chance of adoption. Many lawmakers figure it would not be profitable without use of the mails, and such use of the mails is prohibited by Federal law.

among other things, whether the financing plan is legal.

Beer Tax Imposed

The bonus would be paid with a $100,000,000 bond issue and the bond would be retired by a ten per cent tax on retail tobacco sales.

Pennsylvania has one foot in the bonus parade. The 1947 Legislature approved a $500,000,000 bonus bond issue proposal. But before the program can go into effect it must be approved by the Legislature this year and also in a Statewide vote.

Louisiana is setting up machinery to send checks to veterans. The money will come from a $50,000,000 bond issue. To pay off the debt legislators put an additional tax of about 2½ cents a bottle on beer.

Nine States Already Paying

Nine states — Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Illinois, Michigan, New York, Connecticut and Ohio—are paying bonuses now. Most of the money already has been distributed.

Bonds were issued in all those states except Vermont, where the payments were made from current revenues and surplus funds. The other states are using a variety of means to pay off the debt.

Financing in Massachusetts took the form of a tax of 2 cents a pack on cigarettes, a tax of 45 cents a gallon on liquor and a 1½ per cent tax on net incomes of corporations.

Cigarettes Are Taxed

Illinois boosted the cigarette tax from 2 to 3 cents a pack and increased the State's take from horserace bets made at tracks. The balance of the money needed is obtained by dipping into other revenue, chiefly the sales tax.

A cigarette tax of 3 cents a pack was imposed in Michigan.

New York hiked the State income tax ten per cent and added 1 cent to the cigarette tax.

A sales tax is being used to retire the bonds in Connecticut. The original rate was three per cent, but later it was cut to one. Unless the lawmakers change the plan, it will rise to two per cent next July.

The Washington Sate bonus is stalled, at least temporarily, by a test of its constitutionality. The State Supreme Court must decide, among other things, whether the financing plan is legal.

Beer Tax Imposed

The bonus would be paid with a $100,000,000 bond issue and the bond would be retired by a ten per cent tax on retail tobacco sales.

Ohio Surplus Helps

Ohio decided that the first $1,000,000 received each month in the State general fund would be earmarked for bonus bond retirement. Another $1,000,000 a month was to come from a real estate levy.

But the Legislature averted that tax by applying $45,000,000 from the State surplus to bond retirement. Thus, any real estate tax was delayed for about four years.

Two Have No Special Levy

No new or increased taxes are being collected for the bonus in Rhode Island and New Hampshire.

The bonus boxscore today is this: Sixteen states, excluding Pennsylvania, are paying or seeking money to pay $2,085,256,000 to an estimated 6,058,000 men and women who served in the armed forces.

Destroyers Join Planes Hunting U.S. B-29

London, Jan. 29 (AP)—Two United States destroyers sailed from French ports today to assist an intensive air search for an American B-29 superfortress which disappeared two days ago with fifteen aboard.

The search centered in Atlantic waters off the northwest African coast, where two shore direction-finder stations reported hearing emergency Morse code signals.

The 3d United States Air Division headquarters in London, which commands British-based superforts, said weather in the ocean area where the plane is believed down continued good.

Air Force Is Hopeful

A spokesman said the Air Force is hopeful that survivors of the missing plane will be rescued.

Eight superforts from the Marham (England) B-29 base—to which the missing plane was bound on a training flight from Dakar, French West Africa—winged off today to join the hunt.

Other American, British and French planes are participating in the search from far-flung bases at Gibraltar, French Morocco and the Azores.

To Search Off Canaries

The destroyers are the 2,400-ton Gyatt, which sailed from Cherbourg and is expected to reach the search area Monday, and the 1,700-ton Ellyson, which left Le Havre and should get there tomorrow.

Direction finder stations in the Spanish African colony of Rio de Oro and in the Canary Islands fixed the radio signal at a spot 150 miles northeast of the Canaries.

A B-17 carrying a motor launch and another Superfort scanned this area yesterday but sighted nothing.

Oil Slick Reported

A French flying boat reported seeing an oil slick 25 miles farther to the northeast. These and other planes continued the hunt.

An Air Force spokesman, expressing hope that the crew survived any emergency ocean landing, pointed out a B-29 ditches well and can stay afloat long enough for those aboard to escape. Superforts are equipped with "Mae West" life vests, small life rafts, portable radio transmitters, food and water purification devices.

The radio signal heard may have come from such a portable set.

PEIPING, SUNDAY, JAN. -- (AP)--A REPORTED REVOLT AMONG THE NATIONALIST GARRISON OF PEIPING TURNED OUT TODAY TO HAVE BEEN A SORT OF NEW YEAR'S CELEBRATION.

HEADQUARTERS OF GEN.FU TSO-YI SAID FRIDAY A REGIMENT OF TROOPS REVOLTED WHEN ORDERED INTO COMMUNIST TERRITORY UNDER THE PEACE AGREEMENT WHICH TURNED PEIPING OVER TO THE REDS.

HOURS LATER, THIS IS THE STORY THAT EMERGED:

NATIONALIST TROOPS ASKED THEIR COMMANDERS FOR A SILVER DOLLAR EACH AS A NEW YEAR BONUS. THE CHINESE NEW YEAR BEGAN SATURDAY.

INSTEAD, THE COMMANDERS GAVE EACH SOLDIER ONLY 50 GOVERNMENT YUAN, A TRIFLE COMPARED WITH A SILVER DOLLAR, WHICH NOW IS WORTH 1,100 YUAN.

THE TROOPS WERE ANGRY BECAUSE THEY COULDN'T BUY FIRECRACKERS TO SCARE AWAY THE EVIL SPIRITS, AS THE CHINESE ALWAYS DO ON THEIR NEW YEAR.

SO THE SOLDIERS BEGAN DISCHARGING THEIR RIFLES INTO THE AIR.

WHETHER THIS SCARED THE SPIRITS OR NOT IS UNKNOWN, BUT IT CERTAINLY SCARED THE DAYLIGHTS OUT OF THE TOWNSPEOPLE.

THE MORE EBULLIENT SOLDIERS EVEN FIRED THEIR MACHINEGUNS.

NATIONALIST AUTHORITIES IN THIS RED-CONTROLLED CITY FEARED THIS MIGHT DEVELOP INTO AN OPEN REVOLT. THEY HAD ARMORED CARS PATROL THE CITY. IN SOME AREAS THE CURFEW WAS EXTENDED.

THERE ARE STILL SOME NATIONALIST TROOPS HERE WHO WANT TO GO TO THEIR HOMES IN SOUTH CHINA. THEY DON'T WANT TO GO TO AREAS UNDER ABSOLUTE RED CONTROL FOR "REORGANIZATION," AS THE PEACE TERMS REQUIRE.

MEANWHILE, COMMUNISTS AMONG STUDENTS THREATENED TO TAKE OVER YI YING MIDDLE SCHOOL, THE LARGEST U.S. MISSION-RUN MIDDLE SCHOOL IN ALL CHINA.

THEY ORGANIZED A COMMITTEE OF FIVE TO PROMOTE THE COMMUNIST VIEWPOINT. THE SCHOOL, WITH 2,800 STUDENTS, IS SPONSORED BY THE AMERICAN BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS--A MISSION OF THE CONGREGATIONAL AND CHRISTIAN CHURCHES.

J.F.LEE, A CHINESE, IS PRINCIPAL. THE REV.ERNEST SHAW, TACOMA, WASH., IS VICE-PRINCIPAL. SHAW IS SUPPORTED BY THE PILGRIM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, ST.LOUIS, MO.

THE SCHOOL HAS BEEN IN RECESS SINCE JAN.20 AND IS EXPECTED TO RESUME CLASSES SOON.

MR.SHAW DID NOT APPEAR DISMAYED BY THE DEVELOPMENTS.

"THE STUDENTS," HE TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, "ARE SHOWING A DEGREE OF INITIATIVE NOW WHICH HAS NOT BEEN EVIDENT FOR YEARS. I AM AMAZED AT THE RELEASE OF SPIRIT WHICH HAS COME ABOUT."

HE HASTENED TO ADD, HOWEVER, THAT THIS DID NOT MEAN HE APPROVED COMMUNISM.

PEIPING, SUNDAY, JAN. 30 (AP)--AS EXPECTED, THERE WAS MORE IN THE SUDDEN LIFTING OF PRESS CENSORSHIP IN PEIPING FRIDAY THAN MET THE EYE.

HERE IS WHAT HAPPENED:

THE CENSORS WANTED TO CELEBRATE CHINA'S NEW YEAR, SO THEY LEFT THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS OFFICE BEFORE NOON LEAVING A NOTE AUTHORIZING ACCEPTANCE OF PRESS MESSAGES WITHOUT THE USUAL CENSOR'S SEAL.

THE OFFICE COMPLIED, BUT YESTERDAY IT BECAME WORRIED LEST IT GET INTO TROUBLE, SO IT REFUSED TO ACCEPT ANY PRESS COPY.

A COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN NEWSPAPERMEN CALLED ON THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND PERSUADED HIM TO AUTHORIZE THE TRANSMISSION OF SUCH MESSAGES WITHOUT THE SEAL IF NO CENSOR IS ON DUTY.

THUS THE MATTER NOW STANDS. AFTER LONG DELAYS MESSAGES ARE GOING OUT ONCE MORE. WHETHER THAT WILL HAPPEN WHEN THE CENSORS COME BACK FROM THEIR HOLIDAY IS ANOTHER QUESTION.

WITH CHINESE

NANKING, JAN. 29 (AP) AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT PERSISTED IN NANKING TODAY THAT GEN.CHANG CHIH-CHUNG'S FLIGHT TO HIS NORTHWEST HEADQUARTERS WAS FOR THE PURPOSE OF NEGOTIATING A COMMERCIAL TREATY WITH RUSSIA FOR SINKIANG PROVINCE.

THIS RUMOR WAS FIRST PUBLISHED THURSDAY BY THE KIANGNAN EVENING POST (WHICH HAS NOT PROVED TOO RELIABLE IN THE PAST), AND WAS INFORMALLY DENIED BY A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN. STILL WITHOUT CONFIRMATION, THE RUMOR PERSISTED, HOWEVER.

WHEN CHANG LEFT YESTERDAY FOR HIS LANCHOW HEADQUARTERS, HE SAID HE WAS GOING TO ATTEND TO HIS DUTIES AS COMMANDER OF THE NORTHWEST AREA DURING THE CURRENT "LULL" IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE CHINESE COMMUNISTS.

(WHILE THE SOVIET UNION WOULD NOT BE LIKELY TO WANT TO ADD TO ITS TREATY OBLIGATIONS WITH THE DISINTEGRATING NATIONALIST REGIME, SOME LOCAL AGREEMENT ON SINKIANG IS WITHIN THE REALM OF POSSIBILITY. RUSSIA LONG HAS HAD SPECIAL INTERESTS IN THAT BIG PROVINCE, WHERE NON-CHINESE RESIDENTS UNDER RUSSIAN-TRAINED LEADERS HAVE BEEN IN INTERMITTENT REVOLT AGAINST CHINESE SOVEREIGNTY FOR SEVERAL YEARS.)

~~SHANGHAI, JAN. 29 (AP)~~-TRYING TO FIND CHINA'S PREMIER SUN FO IN SHANGHAI TODAY WAS LIKE HUNTING FOR A BEE-BEE IN A BARREL OF BEANS.

THE ONLY THING WE CAN REPORT AFTER 30 HOURS OF TELEPHONE, FOOT AND MOTOR HUNTING IS THAT, AT NOON TODAY, SUN WAS HERE. I SAW HIM THEN, BUT NOT FOR LONG.

ATTEMPTING TO GET SOME INFORMATION ABOUT THE PREMIER'S PLANS AND MOVEMENTS, I DROVE TO A COUPLE OF HOUSES HE OFTEN USES WHEN IN SHANGHAI BUT WHOSE TELEPHONES HAD BEEN DISCONNECTED.

AS I ARRIVED AT THE SECOND HOUSE, AN IRON DRIVEWAY GATE SWUNG OPEN, MILITARY GUARDS SPRANG TO ATTENTION AND THREE BIG BLACK CARS ROLLED OUT AND AWAY. IN THE BIGGEST AND BLACKEST AND MOST OFFICIAL-LOOKING WAS SUN FO.

I SWUNG AROUND AND TRIED TO FOLOW THEM, BUT BECAME LOST IN THE TRAFFIC.

THEN I WENT TO LUNGHWA AIRFIELD TO SEE IF THE PREMIER WAS ABOUT TO LEAVE.

BUT NO OFFICIAL PLANES WERE THERE, AND THERE WERE NO BOOKINGS ON OUTGOING AIRLINE FLIGHTS. THE PREMIER DIDN'T SHOW UP. HUNGJAO AIRFIELD SAID HE HADN'T ARRIVED THERE.

JAN 1949

THE CHINESE AIR FORCE'S KIANGWAN AIRFIELD SAID NOTHING AND WOULD LET NOBODY IN. GOVERNMENT BIG SHOTS SELDOM USE KIANGWAN, BUT ONE NEVER KNOWS THESE DAYS.

MEANWHILE, RUMORS PERSIST THAT SUN IS LEAVING FOR CANTON, BUT SOME QUARTERS CONTRADICTED THIS STATEMENT. THEY SAID HE WOULD RETURN TO HIS JOB IN NANKING. WITH THE REDS JUST ACROSS THE YANGTZE RIVER, THAT DIDN'T SEEM LIKELY.

HOWEVER, AT LUNGHWA AIRFIELD, I LEARNED THAT A SPECIAL PLANE HAD BEEN CHARTERED TO TAKE A SIZEABLE SOVIET CONSULAR STAFF FROM SHANGHAI TO CANTON. THE RUSSIANS ANNOUNCED RECENTLY THEY ARE INSTALLING A CONSUL IN THE SOUTH CHINA CITY WHERE THEY HAVE NOT BEEN REPRESENTED FOR MANY YEARS.

THE FEW THOUSAND SOLDIERS STILL ON THE NORTH BANK HAVE LITTLE CHANCE OF BEING BROUGHT ACROSS SHOULD THE REDS STRIKE FAST. THUS THEY PROBABLY WILL BE SACRIFICED.

THE BELIEF WAS GROWING THAT THERE WILL BE NO BATTLE FOR NANKING. A FEW SHELLS MAY FALL INSIDE THE CITY, BUT OBSERVERS SAY A MILITARY DEFENSE OF THE CAPITAL WITH THE MEANS AVAILABLE IS IMPOSSIBLE.

"THE NATIONALIST SOLDIERS HAVE HEARD TOO MUCH ABOUT PEACE TALKS," SAID ONE OBSERVER. "THEY ARE EVEN LESS READY TO RISK DEATH OR INJURY NOW THAN BEFORE."

~~NIGHT~~ LEAD ISRAEL

BY TOM WILLIAMS

LONDON, JAN 29-(AP)-BRITAIN RECOGNIZED ISRAEL TODAY, GIVING THE JEWISH STATE THE RECOGNITION OF ALL THE BIG FOUR.

BELGIUM ~~AND~~ THE NETHERLANDS ALSO CLIMBED ABOARD THE BANDWAGON.

THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA RECOGNIZED ISRAEL WHEN THE STATE WAS FORMED LAST MAY. FRANCE EXTENDED RECOGNITION MONDAY.

AMONG THE WORLD'S LARGE POWERS, ONLY CHINA HAS NOT YET RECOGNIZED ISRAEL. + Luxembourg

BRITAIN'S RECOGNITION IS DE FACTO, OR QUALIFIED, AS WAS THAT OF THE UNITED STATES. IT MEANS RECOGNITION OF EXISTENCE OF THE STATE. INDICATIONS ARE THAT BRITAIN WILL NOT GRANT DE JURE RECOGNITION (MEANING ACCEPTANCE OF FULL DIPLOMATIC AND LEGAL STATUS AS A NATION) UNTIL ISRAEL'S BORDERS HAVE BEEN FIXED AND PEACE HAS BEEN RESTORED TO THE MIDDLE EAST.

THE BRITISH ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWED SHORTLY THE DECISION OF THE BRUSSELS PACT POWERS YESTERDAY THAT THE TIME HAD COME TO ACT. IT FOLLOWED MONTHS OF BITTER DEBATE IN BRITAIN OVER THE MIDDLE EAST POLICY OF FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN.

JAN 1949

THE BRUSSELS PACT POWERS ARE BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. [illegible]

JOSEPH LINTON, ACTING REPRESENTATIVE OF THE TEL AVIV GOVERNMENT, CALLED ON FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN SOON AFTER THE BRITISH MOVE WAS ANNOUNCED. HE WAS WITH BEVIN 25 MINUTES. LATER HE DESCRIBED THE MEETING AS VERY CORDIAL.

WELCOMING THE DECISION, LINTON SAID HE TRUSTED THAT "IT MAY LEAD TO THE EARLIEST ESTABLISHMENT OF NORMAL AND FRIENDLY RELATIONS BETWEEN BRITAIN AND ISRAEL."

"I ALSO HOPE," HE SAID, "THAT IT MAY HASTEN THE PROCESS OF BRINGING PEACE AND TRANQUILITY TO THE MIDDLE EAST, TO THE ADVANTAGE OF ALL ITS PEOPLE."

A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN QUOTED BEVIN AS SAYING HE LOOKED FORWARD "TO GOOD RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO GOVERNMENTS."

THE RECOGNITIONS BY BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE EXPECTED TO OPEN THE WAY FOR ISRAEL TO BECOME A MEMBER OF THE UNITED NATIONS, POSSIBLY AT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY MEETING AT LAKE SUCCESS IN APRIL.

JAN 1949

CHINA IS THE ONLY ONE OF THE FIVE POWERS THAT COULD VETO ISRAEL'S APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP, THOUGH SEVEN OF THE 11 VOTES IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL ARE REQUIRED FOR RECOMMENDATION TO THE ASSEMBLY. ISRAEL FAILED TO MAKE IT IN PARIS LAST FALL.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SPECULATED THAT ONE OF THE FIRST RESULTS OF THE BRITISH RECOGNITION WILL BE RESUMPTION OF TRADE WITH JEWS IN THE HOLY LAND. BRITAIN HAS LONG BEEN ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL CUSTOMERS FOR PALESTINE'S CITRUS FRUITS.

DURING THE PERIOD OF DE FACTO RECOGNITION, BRITAIN AND ISRAEL WILL EXCHANGE POLITICAL REPRESENTATIVES INSTEAD OF DIPLOMATS.

~~NEW~~ ZEALAND TONIGHT JOINED THE LIST OF THOSE GRANTING DE FACTO RECOGNITION TO THE NEW STATE.

LONDON, JAN.28-(AP)-BRITAIN, BELGIUM AND THE NETHERLANDS ANNOUNCED TODAY THEY HAD GIVEN DE FACTO RECOGNITION TO THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL.

THEIR SEPARATE ANNOUNCEMENTS WERE MADE AFTER THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE STATED YESTERDAY THEY HAD COME TO A JOINT DECISION TO TENDER RECOGNITION TO THE EIGHT-MONTH-OLD PROVISIONAL JEWISH REGIME.

FRANCE AND LUXEMBOURG ARE THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE ALLIANCE. FRANCE ALREADY HAD ANNOUNCED HER RECOGNITION OF THE STATE.

THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE ANNOUNCEMENT TODAY SAID "HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED KINGDOM HAVE DECIDED TO ACCORD DE FACTO RECOGNITION TO THE GOVERNMENT OF ISRAEL.

"THEY HOPE TO ARRANGE WITH THAT GOVERNMENT FOR THE EARLY EXCHANGE OF REPRESENTATIVES."

THE PRESS ASSOCIATION'S DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT SAID THE RECOGNITION TOOK EFFECT FROM 11 A.M. TODAY.

THE DUTCH ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE HAGUE SAID DR. J.A. NEDERBRAGT, CONSUL GENERAL IN JERUSALEM, HAD BEEN APPOINTED THE NETHERLANDS' REPRESENTATIVE WITH THE ISRAELI GOVERNMENT.

DE FACTO RECOGNITION IS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT THAT AN OPERATING GOVERNMENT IS IN EXISTENCE. IT IS A GRADE BELOW DE JURE RECOGNITION THAT A GOVERNMENT IS LEGALLY CONSTITUTED.

BRITAIN'S ACTION, ENDING A LONG DELAY AFTER THE UNITED STATES TENDERED DE FACTO RECOGNITION AT THE VERY FIRST WHEN THE GOVERNMENT PROCLAIMED ITS EXISTENCE, CAME AS AN ANTI-CLIMAX.

IT WAS FORESHADOWED WEDNESDAY WHEN PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BRITAIN ACCEPTED RECOGNITION IN PRINCIPLE, AND THAT SHE WOULD ACT AS SOON AS SHE HAD CONSULTED WITH HER DOMINIONS AND HER ALLIES IN THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION.

HIS STATEMENT FOLLOWED A DEBATE IN WHICH FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN WAS SEVERELY CRITICISED FOR HIS PALESTINE POLICY. IN THE END, AFTER RECOGNITION HAD BEEN PROMISED, THE GOVERNMENT WON WHAT AMOUNTED TO A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE ON THE ISSUE BY THE MARGIN OF 90 VOTES, WITH MANY SCORE LABORITES ABSTAINING AND CONSERVATIVES AND LIBERALS JOINING THE OPPOSING IN BLOC.

AUSTRALIA, ONE OF THE DOMINIONS, AND SWITZERLAND, ALSO ANNOUNCED THEIR RECOGNITION OF THE JEWISH STATE YESTERDAY.

FIVE MORE NATIONS, NEW ZEALAND, NORWAY, SWEDEN, DENMARK AND ICELAND, ARE PREPARING TO TAKE SIMILAR ACTION SOON.

WITH ALL THE BRUSSELS POWERS IN THE LINEUP, 29 STATES HAVE NOW DECIDED TO RECOGNIZE THE JEWISH STATE.

ANOTHER BRITISH DOMINION, INDIA, INDICATED TODAY, HOWEVER THAT SHE DOES NOT INTEND TO FOLLOW SUIT. A FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN NEW DELHI SAID INDIA HAD NO PLANS TO RECOGNIZE ISRAEL AND THAT THERE WAS MUCH OPPOSITION IN INDIA TO ANY SUCH ACTION. INDIA ALWAYS OPPOSED PARTITION OF PALESTINE.

[redacted] LINTON, TEMPORARY LONDON REPRESENTATIVE OF ISRAEL, [redacted] BEVIN AT THE FOREIGN OFFICE LATER TODAY TO RECEIVE OFFICIAL WORD OF BRITAIN'S ACTION. Joseph Schiko on

CYRIL MARRIOTT, BRITISH CONSUL AT HAIFA, WAS INSTRUCTED TO CONVEY THE NEWS TO MOSHE SHERTOK, ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTER.

BRITAIN'S JUMPING ON THE RECOGNITION BANDWAGON BROUGHT ISRAEL WITHIN SIGHT OF EARLY MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS. ONLY CHINA AMONG THE FIVE POWERS THAT HAVE A VETO IN THE SECURITY COUNCIL HAS YET TO GRANT RECOGNITION.

ISRAEL'S BID FOR MEMBERSHIP WAS TURNED DOWN BY THE SECURITY COUNCIL LAST DECEMBER WHEN SHE FAILED TO GET THE NECESSARY SEVEN VOTES.

THE MOVE WAS EXPECTED TO SOOTH LABORITES WHO REBELLED IN PARLIAMENT THIS WEEK OVER WHAT CONSERVATIVE LEADER WINSTON CHURCHILL HAD CALLED THE "SULKY BOYCOTT" OF THE JEWISH NATION.

LAKE SUCCESS, JAN.29-(AP)-ISRAEL'S DELEGATION AT THE UNITED NATIONS HOPE THE NEW STATE WILL BECOME A FULL U.N. MEMBER BY APRIL. BUT ISRAEL STILL DOES NOT HAVE ENOUGH VOTES DEFINITELY PLEDGED TO PASS THE SECURITY COUNCIL HURDLE.

U.N. DELEGATES SAID TODAY ISRAEL'S ADMISSION WOULD DEPEND IN A LARGE MEASURE ON THE OUTCOME OF THE RHODES ARMISTICE TALKS. IF THEY BREAK DOWN, THESE SOURCES SAID, IT WILL BE MORE DIFFICULT FOR ISRAEL TO OBTAIN THE MAJORITY OF SEVEN VOTES TO PASS THE COUNCIL.

CHINA IS THE LONE MEMBER OF THE BIG FIVE WHICH HAS NOT RECOGNIZED ISRAEL. CHINA PLEDGED AT THE PARIS GENERAL ASSEMBLY NEVER TO USE THE VETO TO PREVENT A NATION FROM BECOMING A U.N. MEMBER. BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES ALSO TOOK THAT PLEDGE. RUSSIA REFUSED TO DO SO.

THUS CHINA, ON THE PRESENT BASIS, IS EXPECTED HERE TO ABSTAIN WHENEVER THE COUNCIL VOTES AGAIN ON ISRAEL.

BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, CANADA AND CHINA ABSTAINED WHEN THE FIRST VOTE WAS TAKEN BY THE COUNCIL IN PARIS. BELGIUM HAS BEEN REPLACED BY NORWAY, WHICH IS REPORTED ON THE VERGE OF RECOGNIZING ISRAEL.

SINCE THAT VOTE BRITAIN, FRANCE AND CANADA HAVE RECOGNIZED ISRAEL. SPOKESMEN FOR THEIR DELEGATIONS SAID SUCH RECOGNITION DOES NOT MEAN THEY WOULD VOTE FOR ISRAEL AT PRESENT. THESE SPOKESMEN SAID THEY WERE AWAITING RESULTS OF PEACE MOVES.

JAN 1949

THE UNITED STATES, RUSSIA, THE SOVIET UKRAINE, COLOMBIA AND ARGENTINA VOTED FOR ISRAEL IN PARIS. THIS WAS TWO VOTES SHORT OF THE REQUIRED SEVEN.

CUBA REPLACED COLOMBIA ON THE COUNCIL THIS MONTH AND RECOGNIZED ISRAEL. U.N. SOURCES PREDICTED CUBA WOULD VOTE FOR ISRAEL ON THE NEXT BALLOT.

SYRIA, THE LONE ARAB STATE ON THE COUNCIL, VOTED AGAINST ISRAEL IN DECEMBER. EGYPT REPLACED SYRIA THIS MONTH AND IS EXPECTED TO MAINTAIN THE ARAB OPPOSITION TO ADMITTING ISRAEL.

ISRAEL IS WORKING HERE FOR A FAVORABLE COUNCIL VOTE BEFORE THE ASSEMBLY MEETS APRIL [redacted] AT FLUSHING MEADOWS, NEW YORK.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN. 29-(AP)-THE ISRAELI PEOPLE HAVE RECEIVED WITH GREAT SATISFACTION THE NEWS OF THE RECENT RECOGNITION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE YOUNG JEWISH STATE BY A NUMBER OF WORLD POWERS.

THE RECOGNITIONS HELPED BALANCE THE DISAPPOINTMENT FELT HERE OVER THE DEADLOCK IN THE ISRAELI-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS ON RHODES.

MOST WELCOME OF ALL WAS THAT OF AUSTRALIA. STATEMENTS OF AUSTRALIAN OFFICIALS WERE INTERPRETED HERE AS IMPLYING THAT AUSTRALIA WOULD GRANT ISRAEL DE JURE STATUS. MOST OF THE OTHER GOVERNMENTS HAVE GIVEN DE FACTO RECOGNIT

WOULD GRANT ISRAEL DE JURE STATUS. MOST OF THE OTHER GOVERNMENTS HAVE GIVEN DE FACTO RECOGNITION.

DE FACTO RECOGUITION IS AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT THAT AN OPERATING GOVERNMENT IS IN EXISTENCE, BUT FALLS SHORT OF DE JURE OR FULL RECOGNITION WITH ALL THE DIPLOMATIC FORMALITIES.

IT WAS GENERALLY FELT HERE THT BRITAIN'S GRANT OF DE FACTO RECOGNITION TODAY WAS DONE GRUDGINGLY AND RELUCTANTLY. OFFICIAL COMMENT WAS UNAVAILABLE BECAUSE THIS IS THE JEWISH SABBATH AND ALL ISRAELI GOVERNMENT OFFICES ARE CLOSED.

THE MAN-ON-THE-STREET REACTION, HOWEVER, APPARENTLY WAS EXPRESSED YESTERDAY BY THE LIBERAL DAILY HAARETZ. THE NEWSPAPER REFERRED TO ERNEST BEVIN'S HOUSE OF COMMONS SPEECH WEDNESDAY IN WHICH THE BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY HINTED THAT BRITAIN MIGHT INTERVENE IF FIGHTING FLARED AGAIN BETWEEN THE JEWS AND ARABS.

JAN 1949

"A FUNDAMENTAL CHANGE OF BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD US IS NEEDED, RATHER THAN THE SETTING UP OF DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIONS HERE, TO IMPROVE OUR RELATIONS WITH HER," THE NEWSPAPER SAID. "BEVIN HAS THE UNUSUAL TALENT OF MAKING EVEN HIS POLITICAL CONCESSIONS LOSE ALL PSYCHOLOGICAL VALUE."

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF JEWS IN THE HOLY LAND STILL DO NOT KNOW OF BRITAIN'S STEP. BECAUSE THIS IS THE SABBATH NO NEWSPAPERS ARE PRINTED AND MANY JEWS FOR RELIGIOUS REASONS DO NOT TURN ON THEIR RADIOS.

CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA, JAN.29-(AP)-FOREIGN MINISTER HERBERT EVATT TOLD REPORTERS TODAY AUSTRALIA'S RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL WAS "AS INEVITABLE AS IT WAS JUST." THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED FULL RECOGNITION OF THE STATE YESTERDAY.

HE SAID THE DISTINCTION "BETWEEN DE FACTO AND DE JURE RECOGNITION WHICH MAY HAVE APPLICATION IN THE CASES OF GOVERNMENTS BROUGHT INTO EXISTENCE AS A RESULT OF INTERNAL REVOLUTION HAS NO APPLICATION IN THE PRESENT CASE."

DE FACTO RECOGNITION IS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT THAT AN OPERATING GOVERNMENT DOES IN FACT EXIST, BUT FALLS SHORT OF DE JURE RECOGNITION THAT A GOVERNMENT IS LEGALLY CONSTITUTED.

THE OFFICIAL SAID INDIA FROM THE BEGINNING OPPOSED THE PARTITION OF PALESTINE.

HE WAS COMMENTING ON THE NEWS THAT THE BRUSSELS ALLIANCE OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG HAD JOINED IN DECIDING TO RECOGNIZE THE JEWISH STATE. COUNCIL (550)

BY WILLIAM OATIS

LONDON, JAN.29-(AP)-A NEW AND HISTORIC "COUNCIL OF EUROPE" WITH A FLEDGLING CABINET AND AN ADVISORY PARLIAMENT EMERGED TODAY AS A MAJOR FACTOR IN THE POST-WAR WORLD.

THE FOREIGN MINISTERS OF THE FIVE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION DEMOCRACIES ANNOUNCED AGREEMENT YESTERDAY TO SET UP THE COUNCIL. AUTHORITATIVE SOURCES SAID HEADQUARTERS WILL BE IN STRASBOURG, FRANCE.

THE FIVE NATIONS REACHING THE AGREEMENT, AFTER MONTHS OF DISCUSSION ON SOME FORM OF EUROPEAN UNITY, ARE BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG.

THEY SAID OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WILL BE ASKED TO HELP SET UP THE COUNCIL. ONE INFORMED SOURCE SAID THE FIRST INVITATION WILL GO TO ITALY. INDICATING ITALY WILL JOIN, ITALIAN FOREIGN MINISTER CARLO SFORZA SAID "EUROPEAN UNION IS BORN AND ITALY WILL BE ONE OF THE FOUNDING STATES."

JAN 1949

THE "COUNCIL OF EUROPE" WILL CONSIST OF A COMMITTEE OF MINISTERS FROM THE MEMBER NATIONS WHICH WILL MEET IN SECRET, AND AN ADVISORY ASSEMBLY COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES FROM EACH COUNTRY. THE ASSEMBLY, EXPECTED TO PAVE THE WAY ULTIMATELY FOR A SINGLE PARLIAMENT TO REPRESENT ALL THE EUROPEAN DEMOCRACIES, WILL MEET IN PUBLIC.

DETAILS ARE TO BE WORKED OUT BY THE PERMANENT COMMISSION OF THE FIVE POWERS OF THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION, SET UP UNDER THE BRUSSELS PACT OF MARCH 17, 1948.

THE "COUNCIL OF EUROPE" IS A STEP TOWARD A LONG-TIME GOAL OF SOME EUROPEAN STATESMEN: A UNITED EUROPE WITH MEMBER NATIONS EVENTUALLY

ERASING GEOGRAPHICAL BOUNDARIES AND OTHER EXISTING BARRIERS, SOMETHING ON THE ORDER OF THE UNITED STATES.

HOWEVER, AN AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH THE MINISTERS INDICATED THAT ANY SURRENDERING OF NATIONAL SOVEREIGNTY TO THE NEW COUNCIL WOULD HAVE TO BE A GRADUAL PROCESS.

TOP WASHINGTON OFFICIALS HAILED THE AGREEMENT AS A STEP TOWARD THE GOAL OF DEVELOPING A NEW POWERE CENTER IN EUROPE, ALREADY DIVIDED SHARPLY INTO A RUSSIAN-BACKED EASTERN BLOC AND A U.S.-BACKED WESTERN GROUP.

THEY SAID PROMOTION OF EUROPEAN UNITY HAS BEEN A MAJOR OBJECTIVE OF AMERICAN POLICY AS EMBODIED IN THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY ALLIANCE.

THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY, WHICH MAY NOT HAVE BEEN AWARE OF ITS TIMING, EARLY TODAY ISSUED A STATEMENT ATTACKING THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION AS BEING UNDER THE THUMB OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN AND HAVING "AGGRESSIVE AIMS."

A36

THIS PICTURE EMERGED FROM WHAT INFORMED SOURCES SAID ABOUT THE TWO BODIES WHICH WILL MAKE UP THE "COUNCIL OF EUROPE."

THE "MINISTERIAL COMMITTEE" WILL BE A KIND OF CABINET WITH LIMITED POWERS. PRESUMABLY IT WILL FOLLOW THE RULE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS IN THEIR PREVIOUS MEETINGS THAT ALL MUST AGREE OR THERE IS NO DECISION.

JAN 1949

A "CONSULTATIVE BODY" WHICH ALSO WOULD BE SET UP WOULD BE A FORM OF PARLIAMENT WITH PURELY ADVISORY AUTHORITY. THIS BODY COULD NOT DISCUSS DEFENSE MEASURES. THE MINISTERIAL COMMITTEE ALSO COULD KEEP IT FROM DEBATING ANY SUBJECT AND VETO OR IGNORE ANYTHING IT DID. ONE OF BRITAIN'S ARGUMENTS AGAINST CREATING AN ASSEMBLY WAS THAT COMMUNIST ASSEMBLYMEN MIGHT DISCLOSE DEFENSE SECRETS.

EACH MEMBER GOVERNMENT WILL HAVE ITS OWN SAY AS TO HOW ITS REPRESENTATIVES TO THE "CONSULTATIVE BODY" WILL BE CHOSEN. THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT THUS MAY CHOOSE ALL BRITAIN'S REPRESENTATIVES AND INSTRUCT THEM TO VOTE IN A NATIONAL BLOC. FRANCE MAY ELECT ITS REPRESENTATIVES FROM SEVERAL PARTIES AND LET THEM VOTE AS THEY PLEASE.

THE ASSEMBLY, AS THIS BODY IS LIKELY TO BE CALLED OFFICIALLY, PROBABLY WILL FOLLOW THE SIMPLE MAJORITY RULE IN VOTING.

THERE WAS NO INDICATION WHEN THE NEW SETUP MIGHT GET ROLLING. OBSERVORS DID NOT EXPECT THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL TO MEET UNTIL AFTER THE FOREIGN MINISTERS GET A REPORT FROM THE PERMANENT COMMISSION, PROBABLY AT ITS APRIL MEETING.

FRANCE AND BELGIUM, WITH DUTCH AND LUXEMBOURG BACKING, HAD PRESSED FOR A EUROPEAN ASSEMBLY OF REPRESENTATIVES CHOSEN BY THE RESPECTIVE NATIONAL LEGISLATURES.

BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY BEVIN HAD BEEN LOATH TO CONSENT TO AN ASSEMBLY. HE FEARED IT WOULD DO NOTHING BUT TALK. BRITAIN PROPOSED A EUROPEAN "COUNCIL OF MINISTERS."

JAN 1949

THE FINAL AGREEMENT REPRESENTS A COMPROMISE.

MEANWHILE PREMIERS, FOREIGN MINISTERS AND DEFENSE MINISTERS OF SWEDEN, NORWAY AND DENMARK MET AGAIN TODAY IN OSLO, NORWAY, TO TALK OVER A PROPOSED SCANDINAVIAN DEFENSE BLOC. INDICATIONS WERE THEY WOULD REACH NO AGREEMENT BECAUSE OF SWEDEN'S INSISTENCE THAT THE PACT NOT BE TIED UP IN ANY WAY WITH THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

THE COUNCIL PROJECT GOT THE COLD SHOULDER FROM THE COMMUNIST PRESS TODAY, WHILE MOST OTHER PAPERS PROCLAIMED IT THE FIRST FOUNDATIONS OF EUROPEAN UNION.

"A PARLIAMENT OF EUROPE," SAID THE LONDON STAR, "AT ONCE LIFTS THE CONCEPTION OF EUROPEAN UNITY TO A PRACTICAL PLANE. X X X THE POLITICAL PLAN IS THE BEGINNING OF A GENUINE UNION OF NATIONS WITH A COMMON OUTLOOK."

IN BERLIN THE AMERICAN-LICENSED DER ABEND HAILED THE PLAN UNDER THE HEADLINE: "EUROPE'S HOUR OF BIRTH: THE WORLD JOYFULLY HAILS THE LONDON DECISION."

RUSSIAN-CONTROLLED PAPERS IN THE GERMAN CAPITAL PAID SCANT NOTICE TO THE NEWS. THEY FEATURED MOSCOW'S CHARGE THAT THE U.S. AND BRITAIN ARE UNDERMINING THE UNITED NATIONS WITH THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

LE MONDE, UNDEPENDENT AND INFLUENTIAL PARIS DAILY, DEVOTED ALMOST HALF ITS FRONT PAGE AND ADDITIONAL SPACE INSIDE TO THE PROJECT.

"IF WE CONSIDER IT AS AN ORGAN OF PUBLIC OPINION, AS A TRIBUNE DESTINED TO SERVE AS A SOUNDING BOARD FOR EUROPEAN IDEAS, ITS EXISTENCE WILL NOT BE SUPERFLUOUS," LE MONDE DECLARED.

"LIKE ALL INSTITUTIONS, THIS ONE WILL BE WHAT MEN MAKE OF IT."

NON-COMMUNIST PAPERS IN ROME PROUDLY REPORTED THAT ITALY HAD BEEN INVITED TO JOIN THE PROPOSED WESTERN ALLIANCE. THEY REGARDED IT AS A SIGN OF ITALIAN RESURGENCE.

BERLIN, JAN. 29-(AP)-BRIG. GEN. H.NORMAN SCHWARZKOPF, FAMOUS POLICE OFFICIAL, LEADS THE CHARGE OF A DRIVE TO CRUSH A SMUGGLING RACKET WHICH HAS MUSHROOMED IN WESTERN GERMANY.

GEN. LUCIUS D.CLAY, U.S. MILITARY GOVERNOR, ANNOUNCED HE HAD ASSIGNED SCHWARZKOPF, HIS DEPUTY PROVOST MARSHAL, TO FIND AND PLUG THE LOOPHOLES THROUGH WHICH $200,000,000 (M) WORTH OF GOODS IS SMUGGLED ACROSS THE BORDER ANNUALLY.

SCHWARZKOPF IS A FORMER HEAD OF THE NEW JERSEY STATE POLICE.

THE U.S. AIR FORCE HAS ANNOUNCED A SERIES OF ARRESTS OF PERSONS OF VARIOUS NATIONALITIES. FRENCH POLICE, IT SAID, ARRESTED THREE AMERICANS IN AUSTRIA YESTERDAY.

THE AMERICANS WERE IDENTIFIED ONLY AS CIVILIAN EMPLOYES OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT, PICKED UP IN INNSBRUCK AFTER DISAPPEARING LAST WEEK FROM THEIR JOBS AT KARLSFELD. THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAID THEY WERE FOUND "IN AN AREA WHERE CIGARETTES WERE BEING UNLOADED FROM A RAIL CAR IN A SMALL TOWN NEAR INNSBRUCK."

CLAY SAID SCHWARZKOPF WOULD STUDY CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT THROUGHOUT THE ZONE, TO LOCATE WEAKNESSES AND RECOMMEND HOW THEY CAN BE STRENGTHENED.

THE SIZE OF HIS TASK IS INDICATED BY THE AIR FORCE DISCLOSURE THAT SMUGGLERS HAVE TAKEN RICH HARVESTS BY SHIPPING GOODS FROM THE COUNTRY BY MOTOR, RAIL AND AIR. IT SAID U.S. MILITARY PERSONNEL WAS INVOLVED, IN ADDITION TO CIVILIANS.

BY THOMAS A.REEDY

BERLIN, JAN. 29-(AP)-COULD GERMAN WOMEN KEEP THEIR COUNTRY ON A PEACEFUL DEMOCRATIC PATH, WITHOUT SLAMBANG WARS EVERY 25 YEARS?

THE AMERICANS PROPOSE TO FIND OUT.

AN EXPERIMENT IS BEING UNDERTAKEN BY THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT AT SOME EXPENSE. EIGHT GERMAN WOMEN WITH RELIABLE BACKGROUNDS ARE BEING SENT TO THE UNITED STATES TO SEE HOW AMERICAN WOMEN LOOK AT GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS.

IT IS HOPED THEY WILL VIEW THE ACTIVITIES OF AMERICAN WOMEN IN EVERY DETAIL OVER A THREE-MONTH PERIOD, STARTING IN FEBRUARY. THEN, IT IS FURTHER HOPED, THEY WILL RETURN AND SPREAD THE GOSPEL THAT AMERICAN WOMEN KEEP A WARY EYE ON THEIR NATION'S AFFAIRS, READY TO LET OUT A SCREECH IF THEY START GOING WRONG.

A LOUD SCREECH FROM THE WOMEN MIGHT HAVE STOPPED EVEN ADOLF HITLER. THAT IS THE BELIEF OF EDWARD H.LITCHFIELD, CHIEF OF MILITARY GOVERNMENT'S CIVIL ADMINISTRATION, AND A NATIVE OF LANSING, MICH.

THAT ISN'T A PARTICULARLY NEW IDEA. PLENTY OF GERMANY'S WOMEN BACKED UP THE NAZIS. BUT CAME THE WAR AND IT WAS THE WOMEN WHO HAD TO BUCKLE DOWN AND HOLD WHAT WAS LEFT OF THE THIRD REICH TOGETHER. EVEN TODAY IT IS THE WOMEN WHO SEEM TO DO THE MOST WORK, MOST OF THE TIME WITH THE LEAST COMPLAINT.

THE TRICK AHEAD IS TO SHOW THEM HOW TO LET OUT A SCREECH IN A LEGAL, EFFECTIVE WAY---BY MIXING IN POLITICS AND CASTING VOTES, THEY AREN'T READY TO BELIEVE THIS, COMING FROM AMERICANS OR ANY OTHER FOREIGNERS. BUT MAYBE THEY'LL GO FOR IT WHEN THEY HEAR THE ADVICE FROM THEIR OWN PEOPLE.

THAT'S WHY THE EIGHT CAREFULLY SELECTED GERMAN WOMEN ARE GOING TO THE U.S. BACK OF THE MOVE ALSO IS THE CARRIE CHAPMAN CATT FOUNDATION IN NEW YORK WHICH HAS LONG PLUGGED WOMEN'S CAUSES IN GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS.

THE FOUNDATION WILL MEET THE GERMANS AND PLAY HOST ON THEIR THREE-MONTHS TOUR OF NEW YORK, WASHINGTON, CHICAGO, SYRACUSE AND ITHACA, N.Y.; BOSTON, MASS. HARTFORD CONN. AND ANN ARBOR, MICH.

B96

THE GROUP CHOSEN IS AN INTERESTING ONE. SEVERAL RAN AFOUL OF THE NAZIS AND WERE IN CONCENTRATION CAMPS BECAUSE THEY WERE OPENLY PRACTICING AND PREACHING THE DOCTRINE OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC OR CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES. ONLY THE NAZI PARTY WAS ALLOWED IN HITLER'S TIME.

TODAY, THE MEMBERS OF THE GROUP ARE OUTSTANDING IN THEIR SPHERES. THEY INCLUDE LISA ALBRECHT, SECOND CHAIRMAN OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATS IN BAVARIA; MARIA PROBST, MEMBER OF THE BAVARIAN LEGISLATURE; JULIANA VON HAMPENHASEN, MEMBER OF THE WUERTTEMBERG-BADEN LEGISLATURE; BERTHA KRAUSE, SCIENCE STUDENT AND WELFARE ORGANIZER; ANNA HAAG, NOVELIST AND POLITICAL WRITER; ELISABETH LEY, TEACHER, AND MEMBER OF THE BREMEN PARLIAMENT; EDITH KRAPPE, AND NORA MELLE, BOTH MEMBERS OF THE CITY ASSEMBLY IN BERLIN, CITY OF BLOCKADE WHERE

EAST AND WEST COLLIDE POLITICALLY.

SAYS LITCHFIELD:

"WOMEN CAN BECOME AN IMPORTANT FORCE FOR DEMOCRACY IN POSTWAR GERMANY ONLY IF THEY ARE SHOWN HOW TO APPLY THEIR ENERGIES TO PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

"GERMANY'S TRAGIC HISTORY OF THE PAST MIGHT HAVE BEEN MUCH DIFFERENT IF AN INFORMED BODY OF WOMEN HAD UNDERSTOOD THE CONNECTION BETWEEN POLITICS AND THEIR HOMES."

SCHACHT IS LIVING IN A SMALL HOTEL AT WINSEN, NEAR HAMBURG IN THE BRITISH ZONE. LUDWIGSBURG IS IN THE AMERICAN ZONE. EFFORTS OF THE GERMAN AUTHORITIES TO EXTRADITE HIM RAN INTO WALLS OF RED TAPE.

DENAZIFICATION OFFICIALS SAID THE COURT MIGHT PROCEED IN ABSENTIA MONDAY, OR IT MIGHT POSTPONE THE TRIAL, OR THE WHOLE AFFAIR MIGHT BE RECONSIDERED.

THE INTERNATIONAL MILITARY TRIBUNAL AT NUERNBERG AQUITTED SCHACHT. A GERMAN DENAZIFICATION COURT THEN CONVICTED HIM AND SENTENCED HIM TO EIGHT YEARS. A GERMAN APPEALS COURT VOIDED THE CONVICTION. BUT THE WUERTEMBERG-BADEN DENAZIFICATION MINISTRY SAID THE COURT ERRED. IT SET THE NEW TRIAL.

UPDATED VISHINSKY

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ANDREI Y.VISHINSKY, FIERY DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER OF THE U.S.S.R. REPORTED SERIOUSLY ILL AT KARLSBAD, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, IS BEST KNOWN TO THE WESTERN WORLD FOR HIS VITRIOLIC ATTACKS ON COUNTRIES AND INDIVIDUALS OPPOSING SOVIET POLICIES.

VISHINSKY WAS A LONG-TIME REBEL AGAINST THE CZARIST REGIME, PARTICIPATED IN THE REVOLT OF 1905 AND SPENT A YEAR IN PRISON IN CONSEQUENCE. IN THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC (LATER COMMUNIST) PARTY HE WAS A MEMBER OF THE MENSHEVIK FACTION, WHICH ULTIMATELY LOST TO THE VOLSHEVIKS. DESPITE HIS EARLY IDENTIFICATION WITH THE LOSING GROUP, HIS RISE TO FAME APPARENTLY WAS NOT SERIOUSLY HAMPERED.

HE TOOK PART IN THE FIGHTING WHICH FOLLOWED THE OCTOBER REVOLUTION IN 1917, LEADING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A COMMUNIST REGIME.

IT WAS AS THE DREADED PROSECUTOR IN THE MOSCOW PURGE TRIALS OF 1936 AND 1937 THAT VISHINSKY FIRST ATTRACTED WORLD ATTENTION. AS THE RESULT OF HIS SPIRITED PROSECUTION, MORE THAN A DOZEN OF THE EARLY REVOLUTIONISTS WHO HAD FOUGHT AT LENIN'S SIDE--SUCH AS GREGOREI ZINOVIEV AND LEO KAMENEV--WERE CONDEMNED.

EVEN BEFORE THESE TRIALS VISHINSKY HAD BEEN ONE OF THE LEADING LAWYERS IN THE U.S.S.R. HE GRADUATED FROM THE COLLEGE OF LAW AT KIEV UNIVERSITY IN 1902 AND HAD BEEN A PROFESSOR OR JURISPRUDENCE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MOSCOW. A HISTORY OF RUSSIAN LAW WRITTEN BY HIM HAS JUST BEEN PUBLISHED IN ENGLISH IN THE UNITED STATES.

VISHINSKY'S ROLE OF INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATOR FOR THE SOVIET UNION, SECOND ONLY TO FOREIGN MINISTER V.M.MOLOTOV, BEGAN WITH HIS APPOINTMENT AS DEPUTY COMMISSAR (LATER CHANGED TO DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER) IN 1940.

SINCE THE OUSTING OF KING MIAHI I OF ROMANIA, DETAILS OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PRO-RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT IN BUCHAREST HAVE COME TO LIGHT. VISHINSKY REPUTEDLY CALLED THE TUNE, GIVING MIHAI AN ULTIMATUM TO MEET SOVIET DEMANDS IN MARCH, 1945, NEARLY SEVEN MONTHS AFTER ROMANIA HAD PULLED AWAY FRM THE AXIS. THE RUSSIAN REASON FOR DEMANDING THEIR FRIENDS BE PUT IN POWER WAS THAT THE SOVIET ARMIES WERE FIGHTING THEIR WAY TO GERMANY AND NEEDED SAFE COMMUNICATIONS IN THEIR REAR.

JAN 1949

AG3

VISHINSKY HAS ATTENDED VIRTUALLY ALL THE IMPORTANT INTER-ALLIED AND UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCES SINCE 1945. HE WAS AT YALTA WHEN ROOSEVELT, STALIN AND CHURCHILL MET. LATER HE WAS AT POTSDAM WHEN PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAD SUCCEEDED ROOSEVELT.

WHEN RUSSIA WAS CHARGED BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS IN LONDON IN JANUARY, 1946, WITH FAILURE TO EVACUATE IRAN ON SCHEDULE AND BRINGING PRESSURE FOR OIL CONCESSIONS IN THAT COUNTRY, VISHINSKY COUNTERED WITH A BITTER ATTACK ON BRITISH POLICIES IN GREECE.

WHEN THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY MET IN NEW YORK IN SEPTEMBER, 1947, VISHINSKY DELIVERED A 92-MINUTE ATTACK ON U.S. FOREIGH POLICY, DENOUNCING THE MARSHALL PLAN AND CALLING SEVERAL LEADING AMERICANS "WARMONGERS."

AT THE BELGRADE CONFERENCE FOR CONTROL OF THE DANUBE IN JULY, 1948-

ONE INTERNATIONAL GATHERING WHERE THE SOVIET BLOC HAD A MAJORITY OF THE VOTES--HE CHALLENGED THE WEST TO ACCEPT EASTERN-POWER CONTROL OR WALK OUT.

AT LAST YEAR'S U.N. SESSION IN PARIS, VISHINSKY IN A MANEUVER PROPOSED THAT THE BIG FIVE POWERS CUT THEIR ARMS BY A THIRD. HE DEMANDED THAT THE BERLIN BLOCKADE DEADLOCK GO TO THE COUNCIL OF FOREIGN MINISTERS--A MOVE IN WHICH HE FAILED--AND LATER REJECTED A PLAN BY SIX NEUTRAL POWERS TO SOLVE THE BERLIN CRISIS.

OUT OF HIS "VISHINSKYISMS" AT THE PARIS MEETING WAS SHOUTED AT AN AMERICAN DELEGATE IN THE 58-NATION POLITICAL COMMITTEE:

"YOU ARE PREPARING A PEARL HARBOR FOR THE SOVIET UNION, ARE YOU?"

FOREIGN MINISTER CONSTANTIN TSALDARIS TOLD CORRESPONDENTS THAT REPORTS IN THE FOREIGN PRESS (NOT CARRIED BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS) THAT THE GREEK GOVERNMENT HAD ACCEPTED A CEASE-FIRE PROPOSAL WERE "COMPLETELY UNFOUNDED."

YESTERDAY GOVERNMENT SPOKESMEN SAID THE PEACE OVERTURES WERE "SHEER PROPAGANDA" AND WOULD BE IGNORED.

NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC

BY EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW, JAN. 29-(AP)-SOVIET RUSSIA DECLARED TODAY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN ARE TRYING TO UNDERMINE THE UNITED NATIONS, ISOLATE RUSSIA AND GIRD FOR A NEW WAR THROUGH THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC PACT.

THE PACT WAS DECLARED TO VIOLATE THE U.N. CHARTER.

THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION LIKEWISE CAME UNDER FIRE OF THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY IN A 34-PAGE WHITE PAPER, DATED JAN. 28, MADE PUBLIC HERE THIS MORNING.

A FEW HOURS EARLIER THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION, MADE UP OF BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG, ANNOUNCED IN LONDON A DECISION TO FORM A COUNCIL OF EUROPE, IN WHICH OTHER NATIONS WILL BE INVITED TO TAKE PART.

THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WAS PROPOSED TO LINK THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA WITH THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION IN DEFENSE. PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS ANNOUNCED HE HOPES TO SUBMIT THE PACT TO CONGRESS SOON.

"THE U.S.S.R. MUST TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION THE FACT THAT RULING CIRCLES OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN HAVE ENTERED UPON AN OPENLY AGGRESSIVE COURSE OF POLICY, THE FINAL PURPOSE OF WHICH IS ESTABLISHMENT BY FORCE OF ANGLO-AMERICAN WORLD DOMINATION," THE WHITE PAPER SAID.

JAN 1949

"IT IS APPARENT TO EVERYONE THAT A PLOT IS BEING CARRIED OUT PRESENTLY AGAINST THE UNITED NATIONS, INASMUCH AS IT--EVEN THOUG IN ONLY A SMALL MEASURE--HINDERS AND HOLDS BACK AGGRESSORS AND THEIR POLICY OF AGGRESSION AND UNLEASHING A NEW WAR.

"IN VIEW OF THIS SITUATION, THE SOVIET UNION MUST MORE FIRMLY AND MORE INSISTENTLY FIGHT AGAINST THE UNDERMINING AND WRECKING OF THE UNITED NATIONS BY AGGRESSIVE ELEMENTS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS."

THE STATEMENT SAID RUSSIA MUST SEE TO IT THAT THE U.N. IS NOT BY-PASSED, "AS SO OFTEN HAPPENS."

THE UNITED NATIONS, IT SAID, SHOULD VALUE ITS AUTHORITY MORE DEARLY WHEN THE QUESTION ARISES AS TO WHO IS "CONDUCTING AN AGGRESSIVE POLICY AND UNLEASHING A NEW WAR."

(THE UNITED STATES, BRITAIN AND FRANCE CHARGED BEFORE THE U.N. SECURITY COUNCIL IN PARIS LAST FALL THAT RUSSIA'S BLOCKADE OF BERLIN MENACED PEACE. DEBATE FAILED TO GET ACTION. THE BIG FOUR FINALLY AGREED TO NEUTRALS' PROPOSALS THAT A NEUTRAL ECONOMIC COMMITTEE STUDY BERLIN'S DUAL CURRENCY SYSTEM, WHICH RUSSIA SAID WAS TO BLAME FOR THE BLOCKADE.)

THE WHITE PAPER, WHICH TOOK UP NEARLY TWO FULL PAGES IN THE MOSCOW PRESS, REPEATED NUMEROUS PAST ACCUSATIONS AGAINST BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES. LEADERS OF BOTH COUNTRIES WERE AGAIN ACCUSED OF TRYING TO START A NEW WAR, OF PRACTICING AN ECONOMIC BOYCOTT OF EASTERN EUROPE AND OF BREAKING TREATIES.

A149

THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, IT SAID, DO NOT WANT TO CONCLUDE PEACE TREATIES WITH GERMANY AND JAPAN.

A QUESTION AMONG DIPLOMATS WHO STUDIED THE DECLARATION WAS:

DOES THIS LAY THE BASIS FOR RUSSIAN CITATION OF THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN BEFORE THE UNITED NATIONS ON CHARGES OF VIOLATING THE U.N. CHARTER?

THE WHITE PAPER ITSELF DID NOT SAY WHETHER THIS WAS PLANNED.

IT TOUCHED UPON SEVERAL REGIONAL AGREEMENTS, ALLIANCES AND WHAT WERE CALLED PROPOSED PROJECTS AND PACTS, WHICH RUSSIA HAS DISAPPROVED IN THE PAST. AMONG THEM WERE THE WESTERN HEMISPHERE DEFENSE TREATY,

THE PROPOSED MEDITERRANEAN PACT AND THE ASIAN CONFERENCE HELD RECENTLY IN NEW DELHI.

BY ROBERT HEWETT

LONDON, JAN. 29-(AP)-THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE REPLIED SHARPLY TO A SOVIET ATTACK ON WESTERN UNITY TODAY, REITERATING THE CHARGE THAT RUSSIAN POLICY HAS SPLIT THE WORLD INTO TWO BLOCS.

A SPOKESMAN MADE THE CHARGE. HE REJECTED A SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY STATEMENT ACCUSING BRITISH AND AMERICAN LEADERS OF SEEKING TO DOMINATE THE WORLD THROUGH WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION AND THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT.

RUSSIA SAID BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES ARE TO BLAME FOR WRECKING WARTIME COOPERATION. BRITAIN REPLIED THE BLAME RESTS WITH RUSSIA. THE SPOKESMAN SAID RUSSIA HAS "RETURNED TO JANUARY 1949 POLICIES WHICH SEE THE WORLD AS DIVIDED INTO TWO BLOCS BETWEEN WHICH FRIGHTFUL CLASHES WERE INEVITABLE."

BRITISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES SAW NO SIGNS OF A SO-CALLED RUSSIAN "PEACE OFFENSIVE" IN THE STRONGLY WORDED SOVIET STATEMENT. BRITISH CIRCLES HAVE BEEN SKEPTICAL REGARDING WIDESPREAD SPECULATION THAT RECENT CONCILIATORY STATEMENTS BY ITALIAN AND FRENCH COMMUNISTS HERALDED A KREMLIN SHIFT TO A "SOFTER" POLICY TOWARD THE WEST.

ONE SOURCE CLOSE TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE CALLED THE SOVIET STATEMENT "JUST A REHASH OF THE SAME OLD PROPAGANDA."

THE FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN, AT HIS DAILY NEWS CONFERENCE, RAPPED THE SOVIET ATTACK ON WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION. HE SAID:

"I WOULD LIKE TO POINT OUT THAT AN EASTERN BLOC EXISTED LONG BEFORE THERE WAS ANY QUESTION OF ESTABLISHING WESTERN UNION.

"SOVIET STATEMENTS ABOUT THEIR DESIRE FOR COOPERATION ARE CURIOUSLY OUT OF HARMONY WITH THEIR INSTITUTION OF A BLOCKADE INTENDED TO ISOLATE BERLIN FROM WESTERN GERMANY AND OTHER JAN COUNTRIES."

THE SPOKESMAN ALSO SAID THAT CHARGES OF IMPERIALISM AGAINST BRITAIN AND AMERICA "COME ODDLY FROM A COUNTRY THAT HAS MADE GREAT ACQUISITIONS OF TERRITORY SINCE THE WAR." HE POINTED OUT THAT BRITAIN HAD GRANTED INDEPENDENCE TO INDIA, PAKISTAN, BURMA AND CEYLON.

LONDON, JAN. 29-(AP)-FOLLOWING ARE THE "MAIN CONCLUSIONS" LISTED TODAY IN AN 8,000-WORD SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY STATEMENT ACCUSING BRITAIN AND THE U.S. OF TRYING TO DOMINATE THE WORLD THROUGH THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT AND WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION. IT WAS DISTRIBUTED BY THE SOVIET MONITOR HERE: (ABOUT 280)

"FIRST CONCLUSION: THE SOVIET UNION IS COMPELLED TO RECKON WITH THE FACT THAT THE RULING CIRCLES OF THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN HAVE ADOPTED AN OPENLY AGGRESSIVE POLITICAL COURSE, THE FINAL AIM OF WHICH IS TO ESTABLISH BY FORCE ANGLO-AMERICAN DOMINATION OVER THE WORLD, A COURSE WHICH IS FULLY IN ACCORD WITH THE POLICY OF AGGRESSION, THE POLICY OF UNLEASHING NEW WAR PURSUED BY THEM.

"IN VIEW OF THIS SITUATION THE SOVIET UNION HAS TO WAGE AN EVEN MORE VIGOROUS AND MORE CONSISTENT STRUGGLE AGAINST EACH AND EVERY WARMONGER, AGAINST THE POLICY OF AGGRESSION AND UNLEASHING OF A NEW WAR, FOR A WORLDWIDE, LASTING, DEMOCRATIC PEACE.

IN THIS STRUGGLE FOR THE CONSOLIDATION OF UNIVERSAL PEACE AND INTERNATIONAL SECURITY THE SOVIET UNION REGARDS AS ITS ALLIES ALL OTHER PEACELOVING STATES AND ALL THOSE NUMBERLESS SUPPORTERS OF UNIVERSAL DEMOCRATIC PEACE WHO VOICE THE GENUINE SENTIMENTS AND ASPIRATIONS OF THE PEOPLES WHO BORE ON THEIR SHOULDERS THE UNBELIEVABLE BURDEN OF THE LAST WORLD WAR AND WHO WITH EVERY JUSTIFICATION REJECT EACH AND EVERY AGGRESSOR AND INSTIGATOR OF A NEW WAR. JAN 1949

SECOND CONCLUSION: EVERYONE SEES THAT THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION IS NOW BEING UNDERMINED, SINCE THIS ORGANIZATION, AT LEAST TO A CERTAIN EXTENT, HAMPERS AND CURBS THE AGGRESSIVE CIRCLES IN THEIR POLICY OF AGGRESSION AND UNLEASHING OF A NEW WAR. IN VIEW OF THIS SITUATION THE SOVIET UNION HAS TO STRUGGLE, WITH EVEN MORE FIRMNESS AND PERSISTENCE, AGAINST THE UNDERMINING AND DESTRUCTION OF THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION BY AGGRESSIVE ELEMENTS AND THEIR ACCOMPLICES, AND MUST SEE TO IT THAT THE UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATION DOES NOT CONNIVE WITH SUCH ELEMENTS AS IS OFTEN THE CASE NOW, THAT IT VALUE ITS AUTHORITY MORE HIGHLY WHEN THE MATTER CONSISTS IN GIVING A REBUFF TO THOSE PURSUING A POLICY OF AGGRESSION AND UNLEASHING OF A NEW WAR."

SECOND NIGHT LEAD ATLANTIC PACT (250)

WASHINGTON, JAN. 29-(AP)-SOVIET RUSSIA APPEARED TONIGHT TO BE PUTTING DIRECT PRESSURE ON THE SCANDINAVIAN NATIONS TO STAY CLEAR OF THE PROPOSED NEW WESTERN SYSTEM.

THAT WAS THE INITIAL REACTION OF DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS HERE TO THE RUSSIAN DENUNCIATION OF THE PROPOSAL, CLOSELY FOLLOWED BY THE DELIVERY OF A STATEMENT SUBSTANTIALLY RESTATING THAT OPPOSITION TO THE NORWEGIAN FOREIGN MINISTRY.

THERE WAS NO QUESTION IN WASHINGTON BUT THAT THE NEW DEVELOPMENT

WAS HIGHLY SIGNIFICANT. STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS, HOWEVER, AWAITED FURTHER INFORMATION AND STUDY BEFORE ATTEMPTING A FULL INTERPRETATION.

THE STATEMENT DELIVERED TO THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT APPEARED TO POINT UP FOR NORWAY THAT IT MUST WEIGHT BOTH SIDES BEFORE IT DECIDES WHETHER TO JOIN THE WEST.

THIS WAS SEEN IN THE SOVIET ASSERTION THAT THE WEST AIMS TO ESTABLISH AIR AND NAVAL BASES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD, AND IN A POINTED REFERENCE TO THE NEARNESS OF NORWAY TO RUSSIA'S BORDERS.

THE FACT THAT THE ORIGINAL SOVIET DENUNCIATION WAS ISSUED AS A FORMAL FOREIGN OFFICE DOCUMENT WAS REGARDED HERE AS EVIDENCE OF THE EXTREME CONCERN WITH WHICH MOSCOW REGARDS THE NORTH ATLANTIC PROJECT AND ALL OTHER DEVELOPMENTS IN THE DIRECTION OF STRENGTHENING AND UNIFYING THE WEST.

THIS INTERPRETATION IS BASED ON A FUNDAMENTAL BELIEF OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND THE WHITE HOUSE THAT THE SOVIETS HAD HOPED TO EXTEND THEIR AREAS OF WORLD CONTROL BY SPREADING COMMUNISM IN DISORGANIZED AND WEAKENED LANDS.

JAN 1949

THEY HAVE CONSISTENTLY FOUGHT THE MARSHALL PLANS AND ALL OTHER MOVES WHICH PROMISED TO REPLACE WEAKNESS IN THE NON-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES WITH ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL STRENGTH.

IN THE CASE OF THE SCANDANAVIANS, SWEDEN, WITH A LONG TRADITION OF NEUTRALITY, HAS OFFERED DENMARK AND NORWAY A MUTUAL ASSISTANCE PACT IF THEY WOULD STAY OUT OF THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE.

THE CHOICE OF SCANDINAVIA ON THAT ISSUE MAY BE DECIDED IN A CONFERENCE OF THE THREE NATIONS IN OSLO THIS WEEK-END. OFFICIALS HERE SAID THAT THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT UNQUESTIONABLY WOULD HOPE THAT ITS STRONG DENUNCIATION OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY AS A BRITISH-AMERICAN STEP TOWARD WAR WOULD SERVE AS A KIND OF INDIRECT WARNING TO THE SCANDINAVIANS THAT THE GREAT POWER TO THEIR EAST WOULD BE VERY DISPLEASED IF ANY OF THEM DECIDED TO JOIN THE WESTERN GROUP.

RUSSIA'S BLAST AT THE NORTH ATLANTIC PROPOSAL RUNS COUNTER TO AMERICAN CLAIMS FOR THAT PROJECT ON EVERY IMPORTANT POINT, MOSCOW SAID IT IS PART OF A PLOT TO WRECK THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN A STATEMENT APPARENTLY PROMPTED BY RUSSIA'S ATTACK, CHAIRMAN CONNALLY (D-TEX) OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID THAT "NOTHING THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS DONE WITH RESPECT TO ITS RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED NATIONS HAS IN ANY WISE WEAKENED THE UNITED NATIONS. WE HAVE CONSTANTLY ENDEAVORED TO STRENGTHEN THAT ORGANIZATION. RUSSIA HAS NOT AIDED THAT OBJECTIVE BY REASON OF HER FLAGRANT VETO AND HER OPPOSITION TO WHAT THE FREEDOM LOVING NATIONS OF THE WORLD HAVE PROPOSED.

"THE UNITED STATES WILL NOT TAKE ANY STEP EITHER IN THE PROPOSED ATLANTIC PACT OR OTHERWISE TO WEAKEN THE UNITED NATIONS. IF RUSSIA WILL JOIN US IN OUR EFFORTS TO STRENGTHEN THE UNITED NATIONS THERE IS FUTURE HOPE OF SUCCESS."

RHODES, JAN.29-(AP)-HIGHLY PLACED SOURCES HERE SAID TODAY EGYPT AND ISRAEL ALREADY ARE BOUND BY A MODIFIED ARMISTICE AGREEMENT WHICH HAS GIVEN THE ISRAELIS A SIGNIFICANT EDGE IN NEGOTIATIONS TO END THE WAR IN SOUTHERN PALESTINE.

THESE SOURCES SAID A REASSESSMENT OF THE CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT SIGNED HERE FIVE DAYS AGO BINDS BOTH SIDES TO HOLD THEIR PRESENT POSITIONS EVEN IF THE TALKS HERE FAIL TO PRODUCE A FULL ARMISTICE AGREEMENT. THE TALKS, REPORTED CLOSE TO FAILURE, HAVE BEEN SNAGGED IN ARGUMENTS OVER BOUNDARIES.

THE CEASE FIRE AGREEMENT CALLED FOR A "COMPLETE AND ENDURING CEASE FIRE." THE SOURCES SAID THE FULL SIGNIFICANCE OF THIS APPARENTLY ESCAPED OBSERVERS AT THE TIME. THE WORDING, THEY SAID, WOULD INDICATE THAT THE CEASE FIRE IS TO BE PROJECTED BEYOND THESE TALKS, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER AN AGREEMENT IS REACHED HERE. SINCE THE AGREEMENT FORBIDS MOVEMENT OF CIVILIAN OR MILITARY PERSONNEL BY EITHER SIDE, THIS IN EFFECT IS A MODIFIED ARMISTICE, THE INFORMANTS ADDED.

JAN 1949

THE SOURCE SAID THE AGREEMENT WAS AN INTERNATIONAL ONE, SIGNED AT TOP GOVERNMENT LEVEL AND FULLY BINDING. IT WAS THE FIRST EVER SIGNED BY AN ARAB STATE WITH THE ISRAELIS. ALL THE PREVIOUS TRUCES AND CEASE FIRES HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE UNITED NATIONS.

IN EFFECT, IT SEEMS TO MEAN, THE SOURCES SAID, THAT THE TERRITORY WON BY THE ISRAELI FORCES IN THE NEGEV DESERT OFFENSIVES OF OCTOBER AND DECEMBER REMAINS IN ISRAELI HANDS UNLESS A SUITABLE BOUNDARY SOLUTION IS FOUND.

THIS WOULD LEAVE THE IMPORTANT NORTH-SOUTH HIGHWAY FROM JERUSALEM THROUGH HEBRON AND BEERSHEBA UNDER ISRAELI CONTROL. THE HIGHWAY FORKS OFF AT THE NEGEV AND SWINGS WEST TOWARD GAZA AND THE COAST, AND MOST OF THIS SECTION NOW IS IN ISRAELI CONTROL.

THE POSITIONS NOW HELD CONSTITUTE THE BULK OF JEWISH DEMANDS ON BOUNDARIES. ISRAEL, SITTING TIGHT IN THE SOUTH, ALREADY HAS WHAT SHE WANTS.

ATOMIC WASTE

BY FRANK E.CAREY

WASHINGTON,JAN. 29-(AP)-ATOMIC CHIEF DAVID E.LILIENTHAL URGES AMERICANS NOT TO GET "HYSTERICAL" OVER THE INCOMPLETELY SOLVED PROBLEM OF GETTING RID OF WASTE MATTER SOMETIMES TEEMING WITH DANGEROUS RADIATION.

GOVERNMENT ATOMIC PLANTS GO TO FANTASTIC LENGTHS--BURIAL IN SPECIAL TANKS, MIXING THEM IN VOLCANIC ASH, OR DUMPING STEEL TANKS OF THEM FAR AT SEA--TO DISPOSE OF THE HAZARDOUS "GARBAGE" OF THE GROWING INDUSTRY. INJURIOUS AND EVEN LETHAL TO MAN IF HE'S OVEREXPOSED, THESE BYPRODUCTS MUST BE HIDDEN FAR FROM HUMAN CONTACT, OR OTHERWISE DISPOSED TO DILUTE OR DISSIPATE THE RADIATIONS.

THERE ARE PROBLEMS OF DISPOSAL INTO THE AIR, THE GROUND AND THE WATER, LILIENTHAL TOLD REPORTERS TODAY BUT--

"THEY ARE PROBLEMS THAT ARE BEING MET OR CAN BE MET AND HAVE NOT REACHED THE STAGE WHERE THERE IS AN ACUTE HAZARD TO LIFE AND HEALTH."

A SEMINAR OF SANITARY AND WATERWORKS ENGINEERS AND ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SCIENTISTS WAS HELD HERE THIS WEEK BY THE AEC TO DISCUSS MEASURES OF DISPOSAL.

IN CONVENING THE SESSION, AEC CHAIRMAN LILIENTHAL SAID THE NATION HAS TO LEARN "HOW TO LIVE WITH RADIATION" --SUCH AS THE PROBLEM OF WASTE DISPOSAL--AND WE MUST "KEEP OUR SHIRTS ON."

"X X X THE WAY WE HAVE LEARNED TO LIVE WITH THINGS BEFORE WAS TO LEARN AS MUCH AS WE COULD ABOUT THEM; TO KEEP OUR SHIRTS ON; NOT TO GET OVERLY EMOTIONAL OR HYSTERICAL; NOT TO ESCAPE FROM THINGS BY EMOTIONAL OUTBURSTS X X X."

AN UNCHALLENGED SUMMARY OF THE SEMINAR NOTED THAT SOME PROBLEMS OF DISPOSAL OF WASTE "ARE QUITE A LONG DISTANCE FROM SOLUTION" THOUGH OTHERS HAVE BEEN OR ARE BEING LICKED.

THE SUMMARY WAS OFFERED BY DR.ABEL WOLMAN, HEAD OF JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY'S SANITARY ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT, AFTER VARIOUS AEC TECHNICIANS HAD PRESENTED THIS PICTURE:

1. PRESENT MEASURES OF DISPOSING OF LIQUID, GASEOUS AND SOLID WASTES OF ATOMIC WORK HAVE "AT LEAST STOOD THE TEST OF TIME," BUT IMPROVEMENTS ARE SOUGHT, PARTICULARLY SINCE THE ATOMIC INDUSTRY IS EXPANDING AND THE WASTE WILL INCREASE.

A57WX

(PRESENT MEASURES INCLUDE BURIAL OF CERTAIN MATERIALS IN SPECIAL CONTAINERS IN THE GROUND OR DUMPING THEM FAR AT SEA; DISSEMINATION OF GASEOUS WASTES INTO THE ATMOSPHERE AFTER PRELIMINARY FILTERING; DISPOSING OF CONTAMINATED WATER AND SOME LIQUID WASTES BY EMPTYING THEM INTO RIVERS AFTER PRELIMINARY TREATMENT; UNDERGROUND "INDEFINITE" STORAGE OF CERTAIN VERY DANGEROUS LIQUID WASTES; AND DISPOSAL OF SOME RADIOACTIVE LIQUIDS BY EMPTYING THEM INTO A LAYER OF VOLCANIC ASH.)

2. THE CHIEF PROBLEM IS DISPOSAL OF "LIQUID" WASTES--FLUIDS CONTAINING HIGHLY ACTIVE RADIOACTIVE SUBSTANCES AS DISTINGUISHED FROM WATER EXPOSED TO RADIOACTIVITY. AND THE PROBLEM IS GREATEST AT THE COMMISSION'S PLUTONIUM WORKS AT HANFORD, WASH., WHERE "LARGE AMOUNTS OF HIGHLY ACTIVE MATERIALS" ARE HANDLED.

THESE WASTES ARE PLACED IN STORAGE TANKS AND STORED UNDERGROUND AT HANFORD, ALTHOUGH SOME OF THE LESS ACTIVE CONSTITUENTS ARE PLACED IN A LAYER OF VOLCANIC ASH THERE.

AT OAK RIDGE, TENN., WHERE THIS PHASE WAS DESCRIBED AS LESS OF A PROBLEM, SOME LIQUID MATERIALS ARE STORED UNDERGROUND IN TANKS. LESS ACTIVE LIQUIDS ARE DILUTED, THEN EMPTIED INTO THE TENNESSEE VALLEY WATER SYSTEM, AT VERY LOW CONCENTRATIONS OF RADIOACTIVITY.

SAID W.A.RODGER OF AEC'S ARGONNE NATIONAL LABORATORY, CHICAGO:

"WHILE THERE IS NO EVIDENCE THAT PRESENT PRACTICES (FOR DISPOSAL OF LIQUID WASTES) CONSTITUTE AN IMMEDIATE HAZARD, SOME OF THEM ARE POTENTIALLY HAZARDOUS AND IT IS DOUBTFUL IF SOME OTHERS SHOULD BE CONTINUED INDEFINITELY OR SHOULD BE SCALED UP BY A VERY LARGE FACTOR."

3. VARIOUS AEC SPEAKERS SAID THE TYPES OF ATOMIC ENERGY OPERATIONS CONDUCTED AT OAK RIDGE RAISE LESS ACUTE PROBLEMS OF WASTE DISPOSAL, AND DR.KARL Z.MORGAN OF THE OAK RIDGE STAFF DECLARED:

"THE MAXIMUM WATER (RADIOACTIVITY) IN CLINCH RIVER (WHERE SOME OF THE OAK RIDGE WASTE IS ULTIMATELY DISPOSED) X X X SEEMS TO BE SAFE."

FOR THE FUTURE, THE AEC MEN SAID, THESE ARE SOME OF THE OBJECTIVES

JAN 1949

FOR RADIOACTIVE WASTE DISPOSAL:

. CONCENTRATION OF LIQUID WASTES, BY EVAPORATION OR OTHER MEANS, SO THAT A SMALL RESIDUE WOULD REMAIN AND BE MORE EASILY AND ECONOMICALLY STORED.

. HUGE INCINERATORS WITH A CLOSED COMBUSTION CYCLE THAT WOULD ADSORB RADIOACTIVITY RATHER THAN PUT IT INTO THE AIR.

. USE OF BACTERIA AND MICROSCOPIC PLANTS TO PRETREAT RADIOACTIVE WATER SO AS TO ABSORB MUCH OF THE RADIOACTIVITY.

WASHINGTON, JAN.29-(AP)-A MILITARY PLANE TODAY CARRIED HERBERT JOHN BURGMAN--FOR 25 YEARS A STATE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYE--BACK TO THE UNITED STATES FROM GERMANY TO FACE TREASON CHARGES.

BURGMAN, A MINNESOTAN WHO WENT TO BERLIN IN 1921 AND WORKED FOR THE AMERICAN EMBASSY AS A CLERK AND STATISTICIAN, HAS BEEN CHARGED BY THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT WITH BROADCASTING NAZI PROPAGANDA DURING THE WAR.

HE WAS ARRESTED IN THE AMERICAN ZONE OF GERMANY SEVERAL WEEKS AGO, AND IS RETURNING TO WASHINGTON TO FACE A FEDERAL GRAND JURY.

THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SAID THAT WHEN THE UNITED STATES WENT TO WAR WITH GERMANY IN 1941 BURGMAN REFUSED TO GO TO A DETENTION CAMP WITH OTHER MEMBERS OF THE EMBASSY STAFF FOR REPATRIATION TO THIS COUNTRY.

INSTEAD, THE DEPARTMENT SAID, HE WENT TO WORK FOR THE GERMAN SHORT WAVE RADIO, FOR WHICH HE MADE ENGLISH BROADCASTS TO THIS COUNTRY AND TO AMERICAN TROOPS IN THE FIELD WHILE THE WAR WAS IN PROGRESS.

THE 52-YEAR-OLD BURGMAN HAS BEEN MAKING HIS LIVING AT VARIOUS ODD JOBS IN OCCUPIED GERMANY SINCE THE WAR ENDED.

HE WAS PICKED UP ONCE BEFORE, SHORTLY AFTER THE OCCUPATION OF BERLIN, THEN WAS RELEASED. BUT THE DEPARTMENT SAID HE HAD BEEN CLOSELY WATCHED WHILE AN INVESTIGATION WAS UNDERWAY INTO THE PARTICIPATION OF AMERICANS IN NAZI BROADCASTING. HIS RE-ARREST WAS ANNOUNCED EARLY THIS MONTH.

BURGMAN WAS PLACED ABOARD AN AIR FORCE PLANE WHICH LEFT FRANKFURT AT 10 A.M. EASTERN STANDARD TIME YESTERDAY. ARRIVAL IN WASHINGTON HAD BEEN PLANNED FOR THIS EVENING BUT THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT RECEIVED WORD THAT THE PLANE HAD BEEN DELAYED BY WEATHER. OFFICIALS DID NOT EXPECT THE PLANE TONIGHT AND SAID THEY DID NOT KNOW WHEN IT WOULD GET HERE.

A ROUND DOZEN AMERICANS HAVE BEEN INDICTED TO DATE FOR ALLEGEDLY BROADCASTING PROPAGANDA FOR THE ENEMY IN WORLD WAR II.

BURGMAN IS BEING BROUGHT UNDER JURISDICTION OF THE SAME FEDERAL COURT WHICH IS TRYING MILDRED ELIZABETH GILLARS ON A TREASON CHARGE IN CONNECTION WITH THE WAR TIME "AXIS SALLY" BROADCASTS FROM GERMANY.

WAR PRISONERS (200)

WASHINGTON, JAN.28-(AP)-RUSSIA HAS REBUFFED A NEW UNITED STATES ATTEMPT TO LEARN HOW MANY THOUSANDS OF GERMAN WAR PRISONERS ARE STILL IN SOVIET HANDS.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS DISCLOSED YESTERDAY THAT THE RUSSIAN FOREIGN OFFICE AT THE SAME TIME TURNED ASIDE AN AMERICAN REQUEST FOR SPECIFIC INFORMATION ABOUT WHEN THE LAST OF THE GERMANS CAPTURED BY THE RED ARMY WILL BE ALLOWED TO GO HOME.

THE UNITED STATES ASKED FOR AN EXACT DATE; THE RUSSIANS SAID ONLY THAT THE PRISONERS WILL BE REPATRIATED SOMETIME IN 1949.

SOME 400,000 PRISONERS OF WAR MAY STILL BE IN SOVIET CAMPS, ALTHOUGH GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAY RELIABLE INFORMATION IS HARD TO GET.

THE STATE DEPARTMENT IN A NOTE JANUARY 3 ACCUSED MOSCOW OF "A BREACH OF FAITH" IN FAILING TO RETURN ALL GERMANS BY THE FIRST OF THIS YEAR. THE NOTE CLAIMED RUSSIA BROKE AN AGREEMENT SIGNED BY FOREIGN MINISTER MOLOTOV IN APRIL, 1947.

IN REPLY, THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT DECLARED THAT IT NEVER DID ACTUALLY AGREE TO RETURN THE PRISONERS BY THAT DATE BECAUSE BERLIN DISCUSSIONS TO WORK OUT DETAILS LATER COLLAPSED.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS SAID FIGURES MADE PUBLIC BY MOLOTOV LAST APRIL INDICATED THE RUSSIANS HAD SOME 445,000 GERMAN PRISONERS IN THEIR POSSESSION AT THAT TIME.

WASHINGTON, JAN.29-(AP)-SPEAKER RAYBURN GAVE A TENTATIVE NOD TODAY TO A PLAN TO GIVE THE AIR FORCE 800 OR SO MORE PLANES THAN PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S 1950 BUDGET CALLS FOR.

REP. CARL VINSON (D-GA), CHAIRMAN OF THE HOUSE ARMED SERVICES COMMITTEE HAS PROPOSED THAT $800,000,000 THAT MR. TRUMAN WANTS SPENT ON UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING BE PUT ON AIR POWER INSTEAD, AND THAT UMT BE DEFERRED FOR A YEAR.

RAYBURN SAID IN AN INTERVIEW THAT THE VINSON PLAN SEEMS TO BE A WORKABLE COMPROMISE.

HE ADDED THAT VINSON HAD CONSULTED HIM ABOUT THE PROPOSAL. BUT RAYBURN SAID THAT HE DID NOT DEFINITELY COMMIT HIMSELF TO SUPPORT IT.

VINSON MEANWHILE PREDICTED THAT THE HOUSE APPROPRIATIONS COMMITTEE WILL GO ALONG WITH HIM ON JUGGLING THE PRESIDENT'S 1950 BUDGET IN ORDER TO MOVE THE AIR FORCE NEARER A GOAL OF 70 COMBAT GROUPS.

THE PRESIDENT HAS RECOMMENDED IN HIS BUDGET FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1 THAT $1,700,000,000 (B) BE APPROPRIATED FOR BUYING MILITARY AIRCRAFT. HE ESTIMATED IT WOULD PAY FOR 1,669 OF THEM.

HE ALSO RECOMMENDED THAT CONGRESS VOTE $800,000,000 (M) TO GET UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING STARTED.

RAYBURN SAID HE HOPES CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT CAN WORK OUT THE AIR POWER DISPUTE WITHOUT AN OPEN FIGHT.

CONGRESS VOTED MONEY LAST YEAR TO START THE AIR FORCE ON A FIVE YEAR BUILDING PROGRAM AIMED AT AN ULTIMATE STRENGTH OF 70 COMBAT GROUPS. THE PRESIDENT HAS ESTIMATED HIS 1950 BUDGET WOULD PROVIDE THE 48 GROUPS.

VINSON'S COMMITTEE WILL RESUME HEARINGS MONDAY ON A BILL TO SET

ARMY AND AIR FORCE STRENGTH AND SPECIFICALLY AUTHORIZE A 70 GROUP AIR FORCE.

ESTIMATING THE COST OF MILITARY PLANES AT APPROXIMATELY $1,000,000 APIECE, VINSON SAID THE UMT MONEY WOULD BUY ABOUT 800 OF THEM. HE SAID HE BASED HIS FIGURES ON THE COST OF PLANES THIS YEAR.

"THAT WOULD AT LEAST KEEP US FROM FALLING BEHIND," HE SAID.

THE $600,000,000 (M) WOULD BRING PLANE PROCUREMENT UP TO ABOUT THE SAME LEVEL AS THIS YEAR, HE ADDED. THE CURRENT BUDGET CARRIES ENOUGH FOR 2,400 PLANES.

(ADV) BALTIMORE, JAN. 29-(AP)-SENATOR LODGE (R-MASS) SAID TONIGHT THAT EUROPEAN GOVERNMENTS MUST TOSS OUT COMMUNISTS AND ATTAIN SOLID MILITARY UNITY BEFORE CONGRESS WILL HELP SET UP A WESTERN EUROPEAN ARMED FORCE.

UNLESS THERE IS UNITY IN EUROPE, THERE IS NOTHING AND ANY HELP WE MAY SEND WILL, IN THE LONG RUN, BE WASTED," LODGE TOLD THE MARYLAND BAR ASSOCIATION IN A PREPARED SPEECH.

LODGE IS A MEMBER OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE AND HAS BEEN AN ACTIVE SUPPORTER OF THE BI-PARTISAN FOREIGN POLICY. HIS VIEWS FREQUENTLY HAVE COINCIDED WITH THOSE OF SENATOR VANDENBERG (R-MICH), GOP SPOKESMAN ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE NEW ENGLAND SENATOR SAID THE MUCH-DISCUSSED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE OR MILITARY PACT AMONG ANTI-COMMUNIST NATIONS IS CERTAIN TO RAISE MANY QUESTIONS IN CONGRESS.

THE OVER-RIDING QUESTION, HE SAID, WILL BE:

"IS THERE ENOUGH UNITY IN EUROPE TO GIVE CONFIDENCE AND FIGHTING SPIRIT TO THE INDIVIDUAL EUROPEAN SOLDIER?"

BASED ON HIS OWN WARTIME EXPERIENCE AS AN ARMY OFFICER, LODGE SAID "A SOLDIER IN THE ARMY OF A SMALL OR MEDIUM-SIZED EUROPEAN COUNTRY IS GENERALLY INTELLIGENT ENOUGH TO REALIZE THAT HIS COUNTRY'S ARMY CAN BE GOBBLED UP QUITE EASILY AND IS THEREFORE GOING TO BE A VERY CAUTIOUS SOLDIER INDEED."

"IF, ON THE OTHER HAND, HE FEELS THAT HE IS PART OF A HUGE UNIFIED WESTERN EUROPEAN FORCE, THE AGGREGATE POPULATION OF WHICH RUNS INTO THE HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS AND THAT HE HAS THAT WHOLE COMPLEX OF PEOPLES AT HIS BACK, HE WILL BE BOLD AND BRAVE AND WILL PUT UP A GOOD FIGHT," HE SAID.

IN LODGE'S OPINION, CONGRESS WILL INSIST THAT GOVERNMENTS TAKING PART IN THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE BE FREE FROM COMMUNISTS "BECAUSE IT IS OBVIOUSLY UNTHINKABLE FOR TOP SECRET MILITARY MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED AMONG NATIONS IF THESE SECRETS ARE TO LEAK RIGHT AWAY TO THOSE WHO HAVE HOSTILE INTENTIONS TOWARD US."

THE AGE OF THE AIRPLANE AND THE ATOM BOMB, HE SAID, HAS RAISED THE QUESTION WHETHER OR NOT A PASSIVE DEMOCRACY CAN SURVIVE IN THE SAME WORLD WITH COMMUNISM.

"THERE CAN BE NO NEUTRALS IN THE STRUGGLE TO ESTABLISH A FREE WORLD," KNOWLAND SAID. "NO MEMBER OF THE WORLD COMMUNITY CAN 'SIT THIS ONE OUT."

HE SAID THE UNITED STATES SHOULD USE ALL THE MEDIA AVAILABLE TO THE FREE WORLD TO GET BEHIND THE IRON CURTAIN WITH THE MEANING OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE AND THE STORY OF THIS NATION'S EFFORTS TO GET FOOD AND FUEL TO THE BELEAGUERED CITY.

"THEN, WITH TIME, WITH THE FREE WORLD OUT-PRODUCING THE COMMUNIST DOMINATED WORLD, THE INEVITABLE PRESSURES WILL CRACK THE IRON CURTAIN WIDE OPEN," KNOWLAND SAID.

HE ASSERTED THERE IS A BASIS UPON WHICH A JUST AND LASTING PEACE CAN BE BUILT.

THE PLAN HE ADVANCED, DEPENDENT UPON RUSSIA ACQUIESENCE, WOULD CALL FOR WITHDRAWAL OF SOVIET TROOPS FROM SATELLITE POWERS AND UNITED NATIONS SUPERVISION OF FREE ELECTIONS AND GUARANTEE OF TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY FOR THEM.

"WHEN THIS HAD BEEN SUCCESSFULLY ACCOMPLISHED," KNOWLAND SAID, "THE WESTERN POWERS AND RUSSIA COULD JOINTLY WITHDRAW THEIR TROOPS FROM AUSTRIA AND GERMANY, LEAVING A JOINT COMMISSION TO SEE THAT THE TERMS OF THE ARMISTICE WERE CARRIED OUT."

Stalin Offers to Meet Truman on Peace Pact And Settle Berlin Issue

Has 'No Objection' to Parley, Russian Premier Tells Interviewer

EDDY GILMORE

STATEMENT STUDIED

Capital Officials Take Cool View of Latest Soviet Pronouncement

MOSCOW, Jan. 30—(AP) Prime Minister Stalin said today he has "no objection" to a meeting with President Truman at some mutually acceptable place to discuss a "peace pact" between the United States and the Soviet Union.

(President Truman has stated frequently he is ready to meet Stalin any time in Washington. But officials in Washington took a cold view today of Stalin's latest pronouncement, pointing out that there has been no official Soviet approach for a Truman-Stalin meeting.

Answers Questionnaire

Replying to a questionnaire, Stalin said the Soviet Union "would be prepared to consider" the issuance of a joint declaration with the United States in which each country would proclaim it had no intention of resorting to war against the other.

Further, the Soviet leader said Moscow was willing to join with Washington in measures leading to "gradual disarmament."

In a reference to the German problem Stalin said Russia "sees no obstacles" to lifting the Berlin blockade if two conditions are met by the western powers. These would require the removal of the west's counter blockade and would require the United States, Britain and France to postpone establishment of a western German state pending a meeting of the big four council of foreign ministers on the entire German issue

(Several attempts have been made by the western powers to compromise the ticklish Berlin situation. The last time was last fall before the United Nations Security Council in Paris. A proposal advanced at that time called on Russia to lift the blockade and for a Big Four foreign ministers' meeting on Germany 10 days later. It was vetoed by Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky).

Stalin's statements were made in reply to four questions submitted to him by Kingsbury Smith, general European director of International News Service.

Follows Other Diplomatic Moves

Stalin's statement closely followed two other important Soviet diplomatic moves. On Friday the Soviet government issued a 34-page white paper asserting that the proposed North Atlantic Pact is intended to establish American-British domination of the world by force. That alliance, now being negotiated in Washington, would include the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg at the outset and possibly other western countries later.

S. A. Afansiev, Soviet ambassador in Oslo, yesterday asked the Norwegian government to say whether it proposes to join the North Atlantic Alliance and whether it plans to grant military bases on Norwegian soil to the western powers.

(The pressure on Norway came at a psychological moment during Scandinavian defense talks in Oslo. Those talks collapsed today on the issue of whether Norway, Sweden and Denmark should definitely throw in their lot with the western powers. Norway wanted a linkup with the west. Sweden wanted the Scandinavian alliance to be based on neutrality.

World Leaders Study Statement

(Stalin's statement also was being studied in world capitals in the light of recent declarations by French and Italian communist leaders which appeared to indicate a more conciliatory communist line toward the west. Some quarters have suggested that Russia now is engaged in a "peace offensive." Officials of the western powers have said that actions speak louder than words and there has been no indication thus far of a change in Communist policy—in Greece, Berlin,—or China, for instance.)

Foreign diplomats in Moscow generally welcomed Stalin's statement. They said his willingness to make a joint declaration with the United States on peace was praiseworthy. They also liked his references to solution of the impasse in Berlin.

There were some skeptics, however. One said he did not believe Stalin's answers would bring forth any immediate east-west meeting. Another said there was not a great deal new in Stalin's replies. He said Stalin had said previously he would meet with Mr. Truman and that the Berlin question could be solved. As for disarmament, he added, Soviet officials have been discussing that question for a long time.

The diplomats who took the more optimistic view said that Stalin's statements, together with Mr. Truman's pledges that he planned to work the next four years to achieve peaceful settlements, constituted a "healthy" outlook.

They viewed the developments as tending to ease the international situation and perhaps lay some basis for progress.

Text of Stalin Interview

LONDON, Jan. 30—(AP) Following is the official text of a question and answer interview with Prime Minister Stalin by International News Service, as translated from the Russian and distributed here':

Text of the translated broadcast broadcast was as follows:

"The following are the answers give by J. V. Stalin to questions put by Mr. Kingsbury Smith, European general manager, International News Service of America, received on Jan. 27, 1949:

"First question. Would the government of the U.S.S.R. be prepared to consider the issuance of a joint declaration with the government of the United States of America asserting that the respective governments have no intention of resorting to war against one another?

"Answer. The Soviet government would be prepared to consider the issurance of such a declaration.

"Second Question. Would the government of the U.S.S.R. be prepared to join with the government of the United States of America in carrying out of measures designed to implement this pact of peace, such as gradual disarmament?

"Answer. Naturally, the government of the U.S.S.R. could cooperate with the government of the United States of America in taking measures designed to implement this pact of peace and leading to gradual disarmament.

"Third question. If the governments of the United States of America, the United Kingdom and France agreed to postpone the establishment of a separate western German state, pending a meeting of the council of foreign ministers to consider the German problems as a whole would the government of the U.S.S.R. be prepared to remove the restrictions which the Soviet authorities have imposed on communications between Berlin and the western zones of Germany?

"Answer. - Provided the United States of America, Great Britain and France observe the conditions set forth in the third question, the Soviet government sees no obstacle to lifting transport restrictions, on the understanding, however, that transport and trade restrictions introduced by the three powers be lifted simultaneously.

"Fourth question. Would your excellency be prepared to confer with President Truman at a mutually suitable place to discuss the possibility of concluding such a pact of peace?

"Answer. I have already stated before that there is no objection to a meeting."

Britain 'Puzzled' By Kremlin Move

LONDON, Jan. 30—(AP) British diplomatic sources said tonight they were puzzled by the latest move from the Kremlin — Prime Minister Stalin's statement that he had no objection to meting President Truman in some mutually acceptable spot.

The Soviet propaganda machinery in Berlin seemed puzzled too.

In Berlin the Russian-licensed ADN news agency filed the account briefly, merely listing four questions submitted to Stalin by Kingsbury Smith, U. S. newsman in Moscow, and the Russian leader's replies to them, including the statement on meeting Mr. Truman.

Discussing Stalin's reploy, a British foreign office spokesman said "any man's guess is as good as another's and all we can do is speculate."

"Stalin's answers," he added, "are obscure as to details and their implications require study."

RUSSIAN AIMS EYED CLOSELY IN WASHINGTON

State Department Notes Soviet Has Made No Overtures

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The State Department and the White House undertook today a detailed study of the latest move in the cold war by Joseph V. Stalin, Soviet Prime Minister.

Officials obviously were concerned to figure out: 1. What objective the Russian leader is driving toward with his answers to questions put by an American reporter, and 2. What attitude the United States ought to take.

Thus authorities were weighing their possible reactions carefully and there was no comment here except on two points.

The State Department said in answer to a question that neither Stalin nor the Soviet Government had made any approach to the American Government for a Truman-Stalin meeting.

Comment Viewed As Negative

In this connection it also was noted here that Stalin's answer on the question of a meeting was more in the form of a negative comment that he had "no objection" than in the manner of a positive and enthusiastic desire for a conference.

In the second place, officials initially referred to the recent record of Soviet cold-war moves and suggested that it would speak for itself.

On Capitol Hill, initial congressional reaction to Stalin's discussion of a possible talk ranged from an attitude of welcome to one of cautious interest.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said:

"The statement of Premier Stalin is a significant development in foreign relations. It holds possibilities for peace and harmony. It will be welcomed by those who are anxious to preserve world peace and to stimulate international harmony."

George Asks Exploration

Senator George (D., Ga.), a member of the same committee, said "it might be explored. It may hold some promise of progress toward a declaration that would reassure the people of the United States, of Russia and the world.

"I do not know what importance can be attached to Stalin's statement, but there is the possibility that exploration might bring some progress toward an understanding."

Senator Vandenberg, leader of the committee's Republican membership, declined comment.

Senator Wiley (R., Wis.) said he saw "no objection to a meeting. I feel that in this age both here and abroad words are cheap. What we want are deeds."

Another committeeman, Senator Elbert Thomas (D., Utah) said:

"Since war everywhere is of concern to all, peace anywhere is of concern to all. Any conversation must be approached in the spirit of making a better world understanding rather than just in the spirit of better understanding between two nations."

Truman Made A Comment

One of the latest American comments in connection with Russia's cold-war moves was made by President Truman, who told a news conference two weeks ago he still was willing, as he had been for several years, to meet Stalin any time Stalin wanted to come to Washington.

On all previous occasions the Russian leader has required that the American President do most of the traveling to meet him. Stalin met the late President Roosevelt at Tehran and Yalta and he met President Truman at Potsdam.

Lovett Comment Recalled

Another comment which officials consider pertinent to the present situation came from Robert A. Lovett, Under Secretary of State, at a press conference just before his retirement. Lovett called for proof of Soviet good faith and suggested that sincere Russian efforts to lift the Berlin blockade and make a treaty restoring Austrian independence would provide the best evidence of a desire for an East-West settlement.

This call for action to back up the words of peace has been voiced frequently by American foreign-policy leaders over many months.

Criticized Soviet Policies

After a lengthy criticism of Russia's policies and a re-emphasis of the American decision to stand firm in opposing those which it does not like, Smith remarked that any time the Russians wanted to start solving outstanding issues the United States always would be willing to do business.

Molotov soon after released a statement that Smith had proposed that Russia and the United States settle their differences and he said the Soviet Union would be glad to do this. Gen. George C. Marshall, former Secretary of State, responded at that time that if the Russians wanted to settle issues they should make constructive suggestions in the United Nations, the Council of Foreign Ministers and other agencies where all the great outstanding issues long have been in negotiation.

No New Suggestions

By previous American policy reaction, therefore, Stalin's comments today fell short of proving "peace proposals" in that they apparently provided no constructive new suggestions and the problems they spotlighted already are under discussion in such agencies as the United Nations.

One thing seemed certain—that is that Stalin had some deliberate purpose in mind when he decided to answer the questions. He receives frequent requests from correspondents for such comments as he gave out today and the conviction among American and other foreign experts on Russia is that he only replied to them when he has some specific objective in mind.

Tactical Maneuver Noted

Frequently, Stalin has used this device to broadcast the impression that he is convinced Russia and the West can live together peacefully. State Department experts long have been convinced that this is a kind of tactical maneuver by Stalin, a use of propaganda to draw the velvet glove over the mailed fist of Communist expansionism.

The other side of Stalin's views has come out in such speeches as he has made to party meetings for consumption inside Russia and such speeches as he has heard from his own associates blasting the West. One of the most recent of these came from the editor of the Communist newspaper Pravda, who bitterly assailed the Western powers.

Speculation Aroused

As far as basic policy goes, American experts speculate that at the moment the Kremlin would like to disrupt plans of the Western powers for unifying and expanding the strength of the West. Specific moves to that end include the European Recovery Program soon to come up in Congress and the projected military alliance and military-aid program for western Europe.

Whether the Soviets would be willing to prove their good will in concrete actions, such as by relaxing the Berlin blockade, to weaken the determination of the West is one of the great sources of speculation here.

Austin Withholds Comment

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 30 (AP). Warren R. Austin, chief United States delegate to the United Nations, said today Joseph V. Stalin's statement apparently was a move in the right direction toward peace. But, he added, he did not know how far it went.

Austin declined formal comment now on the Soviet Prime Minister's latest declaration. He said it contained many provisos which must be carefully studied.

Trygve Lie, United Nations secretary general, refused to comment until he had an opportunity to study the text.

Some United Nations delegates said they had expected such a statement from Stalin before this as part of what they called the Soviet peace offensive.

Flares Sighted at Sea Raise Hopes For Safety of 15 on Missing B-29

LONDON, Jan. 30. — (AP) Flares spotted by a British steamer north of the Canary Islands brought new hope today for the safety of 15 American airmen aboard a B-29 missing in the Atlantic since Thursday.

U. S. Third Air Division headquarters in London said the ship Godfrey B. Holt reported by wireless it sighted Very signal lights approximately 50 miles north of Las Palamas in the Canary Islands late last night. The report was picked up at Port Lyautey on the French Morocco coast, one of the points from which rescue operations are being directed.

The huge bomber disappeared during a training flight from Dakar, on the coast of French West Africa, to an American air force base at Marham, England.

Air force headquarters said it assumed the Godfrey B. Holt proceeded to search the area where flares were sighted although it had no information on that point from Port Lyautey.

Meanwhile, four American Superforts took off again early today from England to press the search. Planes from African bases also were flying over the area for a sign of the missing men. Two U. S. destroyers, the Gyatt and the Ellyson, are due in the Canary Islands area tomorrow.

"We take the latest report of flares being sighted as very encouraging," an airforce spokesman said.

The flares were spotted in the same general area where the search has been concentrated for four days on the basis of radio signals and the sighting of an oil slick.

A B-29 carries a large rubber life raft equipped with a portable radio transmitter, flares, food and water purification devices. Each man carries a "Mae West" life vest.

U. S. HAS 200 A-BOMBS, CULBERTSON DECLARES

PARIS, Jan. 30—(AP) Ely Culbertson, bridge expert and writer on international affairs, said tonight the United States has a reserve stock of 200 atom bombs in the event there is another war.

Culbertson is chairman of the Citizens Committee for United Nations Reform, which he said has 7,000,000 members. The committee is an organization working for reform of the U.N. charter on the grounds it does not give U.N. enough strength to maintain the peace.

Culbertson declined to state the sources of his information on the atom bomb.

"America doesn't have to worry about her atom race with Russia," Culbertson said, "because she already has a couple hundred atom bombs and it will take Russia three years to get into production."

"Neither Russia nor the United States will be destroyed in case of an atomic war, but both France and England will," he added.

E.R.P. Gave Italy 5 Million Tons

ROME, Jan. 30 (AP).—Italy received 5,747,104 tons of European Recovery Program supplies in less than ten months, it was announced last night. Roberto Tremelloni, Italy's E. R. P. Minister, said shipments up to Jan. 20 included 3,500,000 tons of coal, 1,400,000 tons of petroleum and 750,000 tons of cereals.

MILAN RULE TO LEFTISTS

Christian Democrats, Assailing Communists, Quit City Council

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 30 (AP)—Christian Democrats resigned today from Milan's Communist-dominated City Council, leaving the administration of North Italy's industrial metropolis almost completely in Leftist hands.

The Christian Democrats, announcing their decision, said "further collaboration with the Communist and Socialist councilmen is impossible."

They blamed the "anti-democratic" attitude of Communists, Socialists and other Leftist minorities for the "Council crisis." Milan has been the scene of many Communist-led labor strikes. The Christian Democrats' national party head is Premier Alcide de Gasperi.

NORSE TALKS FAIL AFTER SOVIET QUERY

Parley Ends As Russia Asks Intent On North Atlantic Pact

Oslo, Jan. 30 (AP)—Scandinavian defense talks ended in failure here today after Rusisa applied pressure on Norway to make a choice between East and West.

Norway, Sweden and Denmark were divided on whether or not to throw in their lot definitely with the Western powers. Norway wanted a linkup with the West and apparently stuck to it.

The Russian move switched the focus of the cold war to the three Scandinavian countries, which traditionally have sought to follow a policy of neutrality in major world struggles.

Norway Questioned

S. A. Afansiev, Soviet Ambassador, asked Norway yesterday whether she intended to join the projected North Atlantic Alliance and if she planned to grant military bases on her soil to the Western powers.

Delivery of the statement to Norwegian authorities here came only a few hours after the Soviet Government asserted that the North Atlantic pact now being negotiated in Washington is intended to establish American-British domination of the world by force. Russia called the Atlantic alliance a plot against the United Nations and said she would fight it.

The Russian squeeze on Norway was not a complete surprise. It came at a psychological moment in the Scandinavian defense talks.

Communique Issued

After those talks were concluded today the Norwegian, Swedish and Danish foreign ministers issued a communiqué which said that in spite of sincere efforts no basis for a Scandinavian pact could be found.

Specifically the split was over whether or not such a pact should be linked to the more embracing western defense system. Norway took a stand in favor of joining such a system while Sweden clung to the principle of neutrality.

Denmark was said not to have made up her mind definitely which way to go.

Deadlock Remains

All efforts to break the Swedish-Norwegian deadlock proved futile in negotiations which have stretched over months. Norway asserted that her military forces were relatively weak and would have to be strengthened by equipment from the West, since such supplies were not available anywhere else.

It is anticipated that the North Atlantic Alliance will embrace the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg at the outset. Other countries outside the Soviet sphere are expected to be invited later.

The projected system is conceived as a method of preventing further Soviet expansion.

For Bases, Says Soviet

The Soviet note to Norway said the "initiators of the Atlantic Pact are endeavoring to use the creation of this new international grouping for purposes of laying down air force and naval bases in various parts of the world, and particularly on the territory of states which are close to the frontiers of the Soviet Union."

The note called attention to the fact that Norway and the Soviet Union have a common frontier. That ice-covered boundary above the Arctic Circle extends for some 100 miles.

The frontier area is partly wooded on the Norwegian side with tundra on the Russian side. The terrain contains no natural defense possibilities. From Norwegian territory nothing has been observed which indicates that the Russians have built fortifications on their side of the border.

Others Not Approached

Officials in Stockholm and Copenhagen said Russia had made no approach to Sweden and Denmark similar to the one made to Norway.

Meanwhile, Norwegian official sources intimated Norway's answer to Russia will come soon and that it will not be difficult to formulate. The informants did not elaborate.

The terminated Oslo talks will not be followed by new consultations at this stage, it was said. However, the three Scandinavian governments undoubtedly will maintain close liaison as they study international developments.

Einer Gerhardsen, Norwegian Premier, presided over the talks. In a statement issued on behalf of all three governments, he said:

"We felt that we have no right to give the impression, through soft formulations, that unity exists when it does not. We cannot create a defense alliance until it has the inner strength that is needed if it shall be able to solve its task, but no shadow will be cast over Scandinavian co-operation.

"We will always lead a foreign and defense policy that makes it its first aim to secure the independence of each nation. We will never take part in a policy that has aggressive aims."

GERMANS CHARGED WITH SABOTAGE

Soviet Army Paper Terms Production Hindered

Berlin, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Russians charged today that German sabotage is hindering industrial production in their occupation zone.

The complaint was printed in the official Soviet Army newspaper, Taegliche Rundschau.

The Soviet mouthpiece also warned the zone's 17,000,000 Germans that, although some economic gains had been achieved, "further difficulties" still lay ahead.

Counterblockade Blamed

It attributed many of these to the Allied counter blockade, which has deprived the Russian zone of such vital west German products as Ruhr coal and steel and machine parts.

The embargo was imposed by the Western powers in reprisal for the Russian land blockade of Berlin, instituted last June.

"Our obstacles have not been overcome yet," Rundschau said. "The trouble caused by the splitting of Germany will create further difficulties.

"These obstacles . . . are even being increased by sabotage undertaken time and again. . . ."

Claims By Communists

At Glauchau-Meerane in Saxony the Communists claim to have caught German textile mill owners withholding huge stocks of materials and making illegal deliveries to dealers in the American and British occupation zones. Some of these industrialists are now on trial.

Anti-Communists claim the whole action is a frameup to permit the Communists to confiscate the factories for socialization.

In the sulphuric acid industry, Communists have charged factory managers have been lying down on the job. They have been accused of attributing lagging production to lack of materials from western Germany instead of "displaying initiative and devising substitutes."

Stalin Stalling, Russ Flyers Say

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 30 (AP). Two Russian aviators who fled their homeland said tonight that if Prime Minister Stalin is talking peace it is because he is worried about Soviet setbacks in the cold war.

The flyers, due to leave for the United States tomorrow, took the attitude that Stalin's answers in a Moscow interview were a stopgap measure until Russia's position is stronger.

"The cold war is going badly for the Soviets and Stalin wants to smooth things out," said Peter Piragov, navigator of a Soviet plane that landed in an American section of Austria last fall.

"That doesn't mean that Stalin will stop preparing for war," Piragov told a news conference here. The plane's pilot, Anatoly Barsov, nodded assent.

Give Opinion On Interview

They gave their opinion after reading report of the interview.

The former lieutenants of the Red Air Force said they hoped upon their arrival in the United States to broadcast on the "Voice of America" shortwave radio, telling the Russian people about the American way of life.

They also expect, they said, to tell the American people about the Soviet system and why they fled it.

Both Russians will take off from Rheim-Main airport here tomorrow, weather permitting, in a passenger plane of the Military Air Transport Service.

Wish To Visit Virginia

They are due to land at Westover Field, Mass., and from there go to Washington.

The two Russians have visas to stay in the United States for a year. Both said they were particularly anxious to see the State of Virginia. A Chamber of Commerce in Virginia has invited them to spend some time there, they said.

But aside from that, they said, they were impressed with what they had heard about Virginia on the "Voice" broadcasts. They like it also because it is "near" Washington and New York.

Piragov and Barsov said they hoped to become United States citizens. Piragov said he formerly was a teacher, and that he hoped to take a teaching position in the United States. Barsov is undecided about what career he wants to take up in a new land.

German Status Appraised

Leader Says Relations With France Rise, Ebb With Britain

BONN, Germany, Jan. 30 (AP).—A German political laeder said today Germany's relations with France are improving, while relations with Great Britain are deteriorating.

The speaker was Dr. Konrad Adenauer, president of the Parliamentary Council which is drafting a German constitution. He was making a speech at Bonn University.

Dr. Adenauer said the difference between the British and French attitudes "can be explained mainly by commercial competition."

"Cannot Be Seen By Anyone

Officials of the sanatorium last night said he was "gravely ill from a nervous disorder" and "unable to concentrate on anything." They added then: "he cannot be seen by anyone," and gave every indication of concern over his condition.

The Czechoslovak Foreign Ministry continued to profess that it had not knowledge officially of Vishinsky's presence. An attaché expressed surprise at word that he was ill.

"I saw him three months ago and he seemed all right then," the attaché said.

Most high Czech Government officials had gone to the other end of Bohemia to attend a student union winter sports contest. Among them was Premier Antonin Zapotocky and Deputy Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, former Ambassador to Moscow, who had cut short a recent visit with German Communists to return home.

Nobody has explained what brought Vishinsky to Czechoslovakia. There was no confirmation that other high-ranking Russian figures also had come here.

Rumor, however, said Vishinsky came here on a "trouble-shooting" assignment. There had been reports that Czech President Klement Gottwald has veered recently into ways which Moscow felt were not in accord with its policies.

His Tendency To Rages Noted

One story said Gottwald flatly refused a Russian request that his country admit a number of Germans for resettlement.

None of these stories has been confirmed, but they are widely believed.

Vishinsky's Mysterious Illness And Visit Set Czechs Guessing

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 30 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, reported gravely ill at a sanatorium at Karlsbad yesterday, was so much improved today he left the hospital for a while.

There still was a lot of mystery about the nature of the illness, what brought him to Czechoslovakia, and practically everything else related to his visit.

[Moscow dispatches made no mention of Vishinsky's visit to Czechoslovakia or about his illness].

His attendants gave no hint of where he went while out of the hospital for several hours today. They said he had received no visitors.

So, also, with Vishinsky's illness. Its nature is as much a mystery as how he happened to be here when he fell ill.

The one-time purge prosecutor in the trials of anti-Government Russians is subject to rages which may have affected his nervous system.

[Western diplomats have felt these rages in various debates. As international negotiator for the Soviet Union, Vishinsky ranks second only to Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov in the Foreign Office.]

Vishinsky fell ill for three days at Belgrade during the Danube River conference last summer. He was ill on two occasions also during the recent United Nations General Assembly meetings in Paris, but there was no indication any of these illnesses was serious.

NAZI SENTENCED TO DEATH

WARSAW, Poland, Jan. 30—(AP) Former SS (elite guard) commandant Joseph Grzymek was sentenced to death by a district tribunal today for war crimes. Grzymek, 43, was accused of engineering provocations along the Polish-German frontier in 1939, preceding the Nazi attack on Poland. He also was charged with responsibility for the deaths of 80,000 Russian and Polish prisoners in five concentration camps.

CHIANG IS ASSAILED

Moscow Press Says His Agents Round Up Opposing Chinese

MOSCOW, Jan. 30 (AP) — The Moscow press printed articles today contending that President Chiang Kai-shek still ruled China despite his announced retirement. The articles summarized dispatches from the Chinese news agency.

One article said that President Chiang was only playing for time, hoping to gain three months in which to regroup his scattered armies and renew the civil war. The article asserted that his agents were rounding up Chinese who opposed him, and shipping them from Shanghai southward, for execution, if "extreme necessity" arose.

Nanking Like Open City, Its Troops Gone

All Peace Efforts Still Bogged Down

Early Departure of Li Hinted; Soviet Envoy Delays Move to Canton

By The Associated Press

NANKING, Jan. 30.—Vanishing defense forces gave this Chinese capital today the appearance of an open city into which the victorious Communist armies could march almost at will.

The government's efforts to beg a peace settlement were bogged down on all levels, from national to municipal.

There were increasing indications that Acting President Li Tsung-jen—the last high government leader still in Nanking—soon would follow his Cabinet 750 miles southwest to Canton.

Li's closest advisers denied he was preparing to leave, but it was learned from other sources that accommodations had been reserved for his party at Canton.

Canton Session Scheduled

The government has announced that it will be operating at Canton by Feb. 5. The Nanking "Kiangnan Evening Post" reported the Cabinet actually planned a session in Canton Feb. 1, only two days hence.

There has been no official move to declare Nanking an open city, which according to the customs of war would change hands without defense or attack, but it was moving steadily toward that status.

Observers touring the Yangtze River front found no indications of defense preparations. On the contrary, it was obvious that most naval units, which had been guarding the big river against a Red crossing, had already gone.

The 20th Army, best of the units still opposed to the Reds in the Pukow area of the north bank, was quietly withdrawn to the south bank and moved east in the direction of Shanghai.

The Red forces still were sitting about six miles north of Nanking, having made no move for a week.

Reds Cripple Peace Efforts

The government's peace pleas were given a blow by the Communists' broadcast Saturday insisting that arrest of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other Nationalists on the Reds' "war criminals" list must precede negotiations.

Nanking city leaders, who planned to send a delegation across the Yangtze to see about a local surrender deal with the Reds, were unable to muster a quorum. A few of them met informally and talked over their problem inconclusively.

The five-man national peace delegation which Li named after Chiang's equivocal retirement Jan. 21 was widely scattered.

One of its chief members, General Chang Chik-chung, had flown to his Northwest headquarters in Lanchow. Asked why General Chang chose this crucial period to make his first visit in three months, a person close to the Acting President confirmed that General Chang had been authorized to discuss a new commercial treaty with Russia covering Sinkiang Province. This added to the mystery of the Russian attitude toward the government and the Communists.

Soviet Envoy Puts Off Trip

The Soviet Ambassador, N. V. Roschin, had been scheduled to fly today to Canton—the only major foreign diplomat to do so. Instead he postponed his departure at the last minute and sent his embassy counselor. The American and other Western embassies are remaining in Nanking and sending counselors or ministers to the new seat of government at Canton.

Both Soviet Embassy sources and the Chinese Foreign Office said Roschin would go to Canton Tuesday. Should he do so, it would be a diplomatic stroke in favor of the Government.

This has raised speculation in Nanking that the Russians might not be too eager to see a unified China, even under Communist control.

[The Communist radio, meanwhile, was silent on official peace maneuvers and demands, but quoted the non-Communist Marshal Li Chi-shen as telling a Mukden massmeeting the Government's "peace offensive is nothing but a huge fraud instigated by American imperialism."]

The petition, in the form of a 15-page memorandum dated December 15, 1948, assumes that the Israeli Supreme Court, established last September is the direct and legal successor to the Jewish high court under the Romans which sentenced Jesus to die on the cross for blasphemy.

Mysticism And Legal Argument

The appeal is a strange mixture of mysticism and legal argument. It digs back into history as far as 1486 B.C., and brings itself up to date with mention of the United Nations partition decision of November 29, 1947, and establishment of the State of Israel on May 15, 1948.

Reply To Petitioner Indicated

Dr. Moshe Smoira, court president, said it was unfortunate that publicity had been given the petition since there might be an impression, which he said would be wrong, that the court was treating it lightly.

There were indications, however, that the five man court intends to send a reply to the petitioner. Dr. Smoira said the appeal was enclosed in a covering letter signed by H. A. Robbe Groskamp, of Santpoort, Holland. ADD

Officials Reach Canton

CANTON, Monday, Jan. 31 (AP)—Two officials from the United States Embassy in Nanking arrived in this South China city yesterday.

Lewis Clark, Minister Counselor, and L. T. Merchant, Economic Counselor, said other embassy personnel would arrive to set up a branch before Saturday, when the Nationalist Government is scheduled to begin functioning here.

And so what did it get in the way of answers to a questionnaire handed college graduate applicants:

1. That Royall, (who happens to be the U. S. secretary of the army about to visit Japan, as any Tokyo newspaper reader should know) is the Italian news agency.
2. That N.B.C. (which happens to be a U. S. broadcasting company fairly well known to Japanese readers) stood for Nippon Baseball Club.
3. That Koken Hirokawa (and this is the crowning sin since he is strictly Japanese and is secretary of the Democratic Liberals Party) is the priest who presided at the last rites for Hideki Tojo.

Concluded a disillusioned Kyodo: "(Japanese) college students are woefully backward in what is considered to be ordinary knowledge."

War Criminals Sent From China To Japan

Tokyo, Jan. 30 (AP)—Occupation headquarters announced today 260 Japanese war criminals convicted in China were being transferred to Japan for imprisonment at the request of the Chinese Government.

It said the repatriation ship John W. Weeks had reached Shanghai Friday to make the transfer.

[The Chinese Communist radio on Saturday demanded that the Chinese Government detain all Japanese war criminals and hand them over to the Reds.]

Japan Air Base Dead Put at 4

TOKYO, Monday, Jan. 31 (AP)—United States Far East Air Force headquarters here reported today that ten men previously listed as missing in yesterday's fire at the Yokota Air Base had been accounted for. The death toll stands at four, not five as was first reported. Five other men were burned seriously.

Guns blazed in fierce street fighting and fires dotted the town as their plane took off yesterday with the liberated foreigners, three of them American missionaries.

Two Americans were left behind. One of them is Mrs. Charles Conrad, a frail missionary whose husband is in Rangoon. Friendly natives risked their lives to dash through flaming streets and carry her to a near-by village.

Missionary Stays In Bassein

Erville E. Sowards, missionary, of Granville, Ohio, remained in Bassein, about 100 miles west of here on the Irrawaddy River delta.

The story was told by Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Sarjeant, of Oakland, Cal., Seventh Day Adventist missionaries, and by the pilot, Capt. Roy W. Marriott, former Royal Air Force flyer.

Conrad said he has received no word of his wife since the friendly Karens took her away. "I'm worried, as she is in delicate health and not fit to stand a rigorous journey and unpleasant experience," he said in an interview. "But I'm confident our Karen friends will protect her as long as they are able."

Forced Landing Before Fight

The foreign group, which also included a number of Britons, had made a forced landing at Bassein Friday just before Karen rebels and Burmese Communist insurgents captured the town. They were liberated, they said, when Government troops stormed the city yesterday.

A Government communiqué announced the rebels finally have been driven from Bassein, in a powerful offensive in which the nationalists are hitting "with everything we've got."

The communiqué said nationalist columns also were fighting to recapture points on the Rangoon-Mandalay railway which have fallen to the rebels. It described the campaign as progressing "most satisfactorily."

Karens Seek Own State

The Karens, fierce fighters seeking to carve out their own separate state in Burma, caught the Government by surprise when they linked forces with strong Burmese Communists. In a lightning offensive they cut off Rangoon, the capital city, from its main food supplies in the north. Systematically they set about seizing key points in a wide perimeter about the capital.

A Government communiqué announced strong reinforcements have been rushed to the area, but that the fighting has spread. Rebels fired some villages in the Maubin area midway between Bassein and Rangoon, the Government said.

Another official announcement said some strong unidentified rebel groups fought a ten-hour battle at Sinbaungwe, a town south of the Yenangyaung oil fields about 280 miles north of Rangoon.

Some Movements Unrelated

Burma, fighting to consolidate its independence, has been beset by a series of revolutionary movements, some of them entirely unrelated. Several Communist groups, some of them fighting independently and some in collaboration with one another, are among the rebel movements.

New peace talks between Karen and government leaders started here this afternoon. Saw Ba U Gyi, president of the Karen national union, conferred with Premier Thakin Nu and military leaders.

Official sources said the leaders were renewing discussions of a cease-fire agreement between the Government and all of the various rebel groups. Ba U Gyi and possibly other responsible Karens might be offered Cabinet posts, the spokesmen said.

Five Karen Proposals

A Government source said the Karen union proposed these five points:

1. Government recognition of a separate Karen state known as Karenistan within the Burma Union.
2. Recognition of the Karen national defense organization, now fighting the Government in the civil war, as an official military unit of Burma's armed forces, but assigned to Karenistan.
3. Official recognition of the auxiliary union military police.
4. Amnesty for all warring Karrens and other rebel units throughout the country, including Communists and dissident groups of the People's Volunteer Organization.
5. Formation of a coalition government to work for internal peace and enable holding of elections.

The informants said the program would be presented to the full Burma Cabinet before any final decision is taken.

Meanwhile, the Government announced it has disarmed all Karen police in its service and given "one month's vacation" to all except some high-ranking officers.

Pakistan is a Moslem state. Most Arabs are Moslems. Thirty nations now have recognized the new state in Palestine, including the big four powers.

The statement said the Pakistan government considers that recognition, apart from being constitutionally wrong and morally unjust, would amount to placing a premium on armed aggression and use of brute force.

"Such recognition would not only not help finding a just and lasting solution to the Palestine problem but it is likely to have grave consequences affecting the maintenance of international peace," the statement added. ADD

Red Artillery Captain Becomes Barber for Israel Army Officers

TEL AVIV, Israel, Jan. 30—(AP) In the end, the artillery captain the army of Israel got from the Soviet army turned out to be okay.

Casting about among newly arrived refugees several months ago for anyone with military training and experience, recruiters found a young man wearing two Soviet decorations.

"Were you in the red army?" they asked him. He said he had been. "What rank?" Captain. "What branch?" Artillery. "What combat experience?"

"None, really," the young man replied. "I was a political guidance officer. I don't know why, except that I had a little education. I never was a communist."

The military was disappointed but they asked the young man his civilian occupation.

"I was a barber," he said.

So they assigned him to the job he now has in the Israeli army, a job he likes. He cuts hair at the officer's quarters of one of the main army camps.

Israeli Review Of Christ's Trial Regarded As Unlikely

TED LURIE

Jerusalem, Jan. 30 (AP)—A Dutch man who signs himself "H187" has asked the Supreme Court of Israel to review the trial of Jesus Christ.

Judges of the court are reluctant to discuss the petition, and responsible observers in Jerusalem believe it is extremely doubtful that there will be any review of the nearly 2,000-year-old trial at this late date.

Plane Brings Westerners Out Of Burma Town Battle

DOUGLAS LACKERSTEEN

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 30 (AP)—A plane load of American and British subjects told today of their rescue from the town of Bassein, which has become a flaming battleground in Burma's civil war.

Pakistan Regime Bars Its Recognition to Israel

KARACHI, Jan. 30 (AP).—The government of Pakistan issued a statement tonight saying it is not going to recognize Israel. A neighbor diminion, India, made a similar announcement yesterday.

INDIA PAYS TRIBUTE TO GANDHI'S MEMORY

NEW DELHI, Jan. 30 — (AP) India observed this first anniversary of Mohandas K. Gandhi's death with prayers, recitations and spinning today.

Prime Minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, whom Ganhdi named to be his political heir, led prayers at Birla House, where Gandhi was shot down at a prayer meeting just a year ago today. The prayers were said at 3:30 a.m., the hour when Gandhi used to begin his day.

Thousands assembled around the Raj Ghat to place wreaths where Gandhi's remains were cremated. Nehru, members of his government and foreign diplomats participated in that ceremony.

Later, Nehru led a group of 500 persons in spinning for 100 minutes. Spinning was one of Gandhi's favorite pastimes. Nehru received messages of commemoration from many foreign governments. ADD

STRONG PLEDGE SOUGHT IN PACT

Atlantic Defense May Set Off Debate On War Powers

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Despite mounting Russian opposition, Administration officials negotiating the North Atlantic pact have decided to make the strongest possible commitment that the United States will go to the aid of Western Europe if an aggressor attacks.

This means, in the opinion of responsible diplomatic authorities, that the pact will set off a first-class Senate debate over the Government's powers to make war when it is presented for ratification probably in a month or six weeks.

Russia's violent dislike of the North Atlantic security project was brought out in a series of week-end developments.

Denunciation And Queries

First the Kremlin denounced it. Then last night Moscow questioned Norway about her attitude toward the past in an apparent move to keep Scandinavian nations out of it.

It was learned that Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, reviewed basic American policy on the pact yesterday in a lengthy conference with advisers. It is expected that he will meet soon with ambassadors of Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Canada, who are doing the negotiating with the State Department.

Full Publicity Decided On

Moreover it has been decided by the State Department high command—and presumably will be agreed to by the other governments—to begin soon giving the whole project full publicity.

So far, several treaty drafts have been worked out and responsible informants here insist that in none of these is the wording final.

There are agreements on many of the main principles. These include the decision that the signatory countries should make the strongest possible statement of their intention to come to each other's assistance if one is attacked. That is the heart of the whole treaty.

Constitutional Difficulty

For the Truman Administration and Congress it raises a difficult constitutional question and one which usually provokes a fiery debate when it comes up in Congress.

The Constitution specifies that Congress has the power to declare war. At the same time, past Presidents, being charged with direction of the foreign policy and command of the armed forces, have on many occasions employed them in some kind of military action.

Inter-American Formula

State Department officials feel that the Western European nations must be encouraged and any aggressive elements in the Soviet Union must be discouraged by absolute assurances in the treaty that the United States will fight if a treaty member is attacked.

To accomplish this the State Department is relying on the inter-American formula in the treaty signed at Rio de Janeiro in September, 1947.

This states that "an armed attack by any state against an (American) state shall be considered as an attack against all the American states, and, consequently, each one of the said contracting parties undertakes to assist in meeting the attack."

That is approximately the wording expected to come out in the final draft of the North Atlantic treaty.

Military Specification Expected

Following the inter-American pattern, the North Atlantic treaty will then specify that each nation may decide what measure it will take.

The inter-American treaty does not mention military measures specifically in this regard but it now seems likely that the North Atlantic pact will use the word "military" or some such phrase as "armed forces" to make clear that the obligation covers in effect the promise to fight if an attack occurred.

AXIS SALLY BECOMES STAR IN COURTROOM

But It's Prolonged Run In Trial For Treason Against America

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Axis Sally finally has become a star attraction.

Her starring vehicle, however, must be far from the dreams of her younger days. Then she wanted to become a great dramatic actress. Her theatrical career, her attorney says, consisted chiefly of one-night stands and there is no evidence that she attracted many customers.

It's different now.

Not A One-Night Stand

She isn't playing a one-night stand.

Her stage—for a prolonged run—is a United States District courtroom.

Her role: treason detendant.

And they're crowding and waiting in lines for a chance to see her.

But only a few of the thousands who want to see Mildred E. Gillars—Axis Sally to GI's who heard her wartime broadcasts for the Nazis—have managed to get into the courtroom,

Judge Wants Quiet

A solemn, white-haired judge keeps down the fireworks. He is Edward M. Curran, a medium-sized man who wears colorful neckties under his black robes.

The impression he gives is that he wants a quiet, orderly trial. No circus atmosphere, definitely.

"I have rules," he says. He says it calmly, confidently. This is the signal for attorneys to stop talking about some point about which the judge already has made up his mind. They do.

Long before the start of each session, crowds start gathering outside the courtroom. Marshals form them into orderly lines. When the door open marshals admit about 80 on a first-in-line basis. Some stand in line for hours without getting in only to return the next day.

Crowds Want To See Her

Why do they enure it all?

They hope to see Axis Sally, they reply.

Crowds form outside the court building after each session. Some manage to get a fleeting look as she is whisked back to jail.

Even the limited number who manage to get into the courtroom miss a major part of the proceedings. That's the play-back of wartime propaganda broadcasts the Maine-born, 48-year-old defendant made for the Nazis.

Possible Death Sentence

These broadcasts got her indicted for treason, a crime that carries a possible death sentence.

The defense contends that Axis Sally was a loyal American who believed the United States should be kept out of the war. She was pictured as under the hypnotic spell of a German propaganda official and in fear of the Gestapo.

Curious spectators can't hear the Axis Sally play-backs because there is no loudspeaker. The jurors, court officials, reporters are provided with headsets so that they can hear Axis Sally—the Germans called her Midge—say things like this in a well modulated voice some have described as "sultry."

"Germany Has Vision"

"Germany has vision, Germany has culture, Germany has supplied all of Europe, to say nothing of America and other western countries with culture. . . The three things for which you people are known all over the world, money, jazz and Hollywood."

Or:

"After all, let the British get out of their own mess, girls, and let God save the King; if he's worthy of it, I'm sure God can."

And:

"I'm not on the side of President Roosevelt. . . and his Jewish friends and his British friends because I've been brought up to be a 100 per cent American girl."

Witnesses From Germany

When court resumes tomorrow after a three-day recess, John M. Kelley, Jr., chief Government prosecutor, will call more witnesses from Germany to tell of Miss Gillars's propaganda activities for the Nazis.

The jurors, their earphones clamped tightly and following manuscripts at the same time, already have heard play-backs of five Axis Sally broadcasts. Kelley intends to play about twenty others.

The defense has not presented its evidence.

Forrestal Draft Of Services' Pay Bill Given Bureau

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—James Forrestal, Defense Secretary, said tonight he has sent to the Budget Bureau the draft of a bill to provide pay increases for the armed forces.

The bill submitted for Budget Bureau study is based on the report of a special civilian advisory commission, made last month. That report proposed increases which, spread over all ranks and services, would average about fifteen per cent.

President Truman's recently submitted budget contained an item of $400,000,000 for providing the pay increase during the coming fiscal year.

Forrestal made a number of modifications in the original report. Most of them were concerned with retirement provisions.

Senator Smith Says Reds Compel U. S. to Rearm

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP).—Senator Margaret Chase Smith, Republican, of Maine, said in a broadcast today that Russia's attitude has left the United States no other choice but to rearm, even at the risk of economic insecurity.

"We can't bluff the Russians," she said. "Russia must be convinced that we mean what we say. We've got to have what it takes to back up our foreign policy." Mrs. Smith, speaking in a radio interview over WPIK, Alexandria, Va., said the first problem of the Americans is fear of insecurity and "what we fear so much is the possibility of a third World War started by a Russian attack upon us."

Mrs Smith said the United States must keep trying "as long as there is the faintest glimmer of hope" to solve the world's problems through the United Nations. But, she said, all nations must respect "by acts as well as words" the aim of the U. N.

The broadcast was transcribed in advance, so that Mrs. Smith did not know when she spoke of Prime Minister Stalin's statement that he has no objection to a new meeting with President Truman.

WOMAN SAYS RUSSIA FORCES U.S. TO REARM

Maine Senator Calls For Power To Back Up Foreign Policy

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Senator Margaret Chase Smith (R., Maine) said today that Russia's attitude has left the United States not other choice but to rearm, even at the risk of economic insecurity.

"We can't bluff the Russians. Russia must be convinced that we mean what we say. We've got to have what it takes to back up our foreign policy," Mrs. Smith said in an Alexandria (Va.) radio interview.

Unaware Of Stalin Talk

The interview was transcribed in advance of the broadcast. Thus Mrs. Smith did not know when she spoke of Premier Stalin's statement that he has no objection to a new meeting with President Truman.

She said the No. 1 problem of the American people is fear of insecurity and, "what we fear so much is the possibility of a third world war . . . started by a Russian attack upon us." She added:

"In rearming to protect ourselves from the threat of Russia, we are fanning the fire of another fear—the fear of economic insecurity. But there can be no question that risk of economic insecurity is preferable to the risk of military insecurity."

Mrs. Smith said the United States must keep on trying "as long as there is the faintest glimmer of hope" to solve the world's problems through the United Nations. But, she said all nations must respect "by acts as well as words" the aim of the United Nations to settle problems of belligerency.

To Make Peace Attractive

Mrs. Smith, the first woman regularly elected to the Senate, said the purpose of United States foreign policy should be two-fold: "to make aggression as unattractive as possible, and to make cooperative peace as attractive as possible." She added:

"Most of us realize that it is impossible to stop communism from spreading in a highly unstable world without a military force-in-being."

She said the military force should be large enough to carry out these three objectives:

1. Give the greatest reassurance to our present allies.

2. Make it crystal clear to the (Russian) Politburo that we will back our firm talk.

3. Convince all nations that the United States is a reliable and desirable partner in alliances."

Summing up, she said the effect of defense costs on the national economy "boils itself down to the question of how much the American people are willing to pay for national security."

COMMUNIST DENIES TRIAL SLOWDOWN

12 Accused Oppose Hearing In 'Hysteria,' Gates Says

Newark, N.J., Jan. 30 (AP)—John Gates, one of twelve Communist leaders on trial in New York, said today the group opposes trial until "the Communist hysteria dies down."

He denied at a press conference that defense attorneys were maneuvering to prolong the trial, but said they had planned to call 200 jurors to testify about the American jury system. The trial resumes at 10.30 A.M. tomorrow.

Gates, editor of the Daily Worker, Communist party newspaper, said such testimony might take as long as twenty days.

Three-Month Trial Predicted

He predicted that if defense motions to have indictments against the Communists quashed are unsuccessful, the trial will last three months.

He agreed that it may be some time before there is no public opinion against Communism, but said, "That's all right with us."

He said the defense was willing to save time by having testimony of jurors, whom the defense contends are hand picked, taken by a court delegate and the findings reported in open court.

New Jersey Usage Noted

He said the system is used in New Jersey. In New Jersey, complicated testimony sometimes is heard in civil cases by court appointees.

Gates said the defense also was willing to have had the jurors polled in questionnaires. He said the court ruled out either method.

Gates and the eleven others are charged with organizing a party which conspires against the United States Government. Indictments against the twelve individually, not yet up for trial, also charge them with being members of a subversive party.

The editor observed that conviction on either of the indictments would be tantamount to outlawing the Communist party.

Jet Helicopter Outshouts Loudest Army Top Sergeant

Manhattan Beach, Cal., Jan. 30 (AP)—A helicopter, which its makers claim is the first to use buzz-bomb type pulsejet engines, is making flight tests here.

Designed and built by the American Helicopter Company, it is called the XA-5 "Top Sergeant."

Two roaring little pulsejet engines mounted on the tips of its rotor blades give it power—and its name.

Termed Revolutionary

"We believe it can outshout the loudest top sergeant in the Army," Corwin D. Denney, firm president, said today. Denney designed the craft.

Denney said the Top Sergeant is revolutionary in the helicopter industry because it can be assembled, ready for flight, thirty minutes after its separate parts (fuselage, rotor and engines) are delivered to an operating area. It also claims a world record in that its engine can be overhauled in five minutes by one mechanic.

In addition to a pilot, the Sergeant can carry a load of 685 pounds. Cruising range varies from 140 to 200 miles depending on load.

Top Speed Of 75 M.P.H.

It has a top speed of 75 miles an hour.

Denney said it is the first in a line of proposed military pulsejet helicopters, other designs to increase range and lifting capacities.

He added the Sergeant is not intended to compete with traditional type helicopters for long range or endurance. It is intended to lift large payloads and carry them short distances.

ALASKA SEEN DEFENSELESS IN MAJOR WAR

Probably Could Be Reoccupied By U.S. Forces, Says Montgomery

By RALPH DIGHTON

Kodiak, Alaska, Jan. 30 (AP)—Alaska is defenseless against any major attack, the commander of the Alaska sea frontier said today.

Speaking at a press conference, Rear Admiral Alfred E. Montgomery said "Any nation controlling Alaska would have a tremendous advantage in attacking the United States."

"However, Alaska probably could be reoccupied by our forces," the Admiral said. "The enemy would have considerable difficulty in supplying its men."

No Country Named

The commander of this naval sector did not mention any country by name in discussing the territory's defenses, envisioning only a hypothetical "enemy."

But it is obvious that the only nation strong enough to challenge the United States in the North is Russia.

This correspondent's observation is that Russia could seize Kodiak Island any time she wished to throw enough men and planes into the assault. The island is the site of the only major United States naval base in this vital area.

Springboard For Attack

If Kodiak should fall into Russian hands, she would have a springboard for attacking major centers of the United States by air.

The recapture of Kodiak and other points in Alaska open to enemy seizure would be achieved at tremendous cost. Discounting the death and misery entailed, the price in dollars alone likely would far exceed the billion or so it would cost to bring Alaska's meager defenses up to wartime standards.

Admiral Montgomery said it was problematical when, or even if, Alaska's defenses would be improved.

As To Other Areas

"We shouldn't neglect any area situated as this is. Its defense is vital to the security of the country. But there are other areas where defenses need strengthening, too, and it seems there just isn't enough money for all of them."

Montgomery said a possible solution would be to improve defenses only to the point where they could become a nucleus for future expansion.

"Kodiak is not actually in bad shape," he said. "We have permanent buildings and facilities. We would need principally some improvements on our airfields and in quarters for personnel.

Docks Falling Apart

"Adak, some 900 miles west of here in the Aleutian Chain, has only temporary structures, however. The docks are falling apart and the quonset huts are rotting.

"Improvements will have to be made before these installations can even take care of peacetime requirements.

"Then if war should come our way we would be better prepared, and if we should lose Alaska we wouldn't have lost such a tremendous investment as we would if we had brought our installations up to wartime standards. If war doesn't come, we won't have such a huge establishment to keep up over the years."

PRIESTS, NUNS SLAIN BY CHINESE REDS

NEW YORK, Jan. 30—(AP) The auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese of New York said today he had received word that 87 Catholic priests, brothers and nuns had been slain by Chinese communists.

The Most Reverend Thomas J. McDonnell said he was notified by cablegram yesterday that 58 priests, 16 brothers, and 13 nuns had been put to death by Chinese reds. He said the cablegram was sent by Archbishop Riberi, apostolic internuncio in China.

The Catholic churchman made the statement at a Knights of Columbus communion breakfast.

Asserting that Americans should not think of the Chinese communists as any different from those of Soviet Russia, he added:

"Archbishop Riberi has informed me that the communists of China are the same as those of Russia, and that all thier leaders have been trained in the Kremlin."

ETHRIDGE GOES TO PALESTINE

Publisher To Serve On U.N. Conciliation Commission

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—Mark Ethridge left by plane today for Palestine confident that "we can accomplish permanent peace and stability in the Middle East."

Ethridge, publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal and United States representative on the United Nations Conciliation Commission for Palestine, expects to be away from the United States for three months.

He said he planned to reach Athens Monday morning and would board a special United Nations plane for Palestine, arriving there about Monday noon.

Ethridge explained that he could make no extended comment on the Holy Land situation because of conditions there.

Body Created Last December

The United Nations commission was created last December to take over duties assigned to Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator for Palestine, after an armistice has been arranged in the Palestine fighting.

Ethridge said he would meet in Palestine with Turkish and French representatives assigned to the commission.

"We will take up the questions outstanding between Palestine and the Arab states," he said, explaining that these mainly would include the questions of boundaries, Jerusalem and refugees.

The commission is expected to establish its headquarters in Palestine for the time being Ethridge said.

The publisher said he had no immediate plans to go to the Island of Rhodes, where Dr. Bunche now is conducting armistice negotiations.

His Third Foreign Mission

Ethridge was sworn in as United States representative on the commission last Friday in Washington and conferred the same day with President Truman and Dean Acheson, Secretary of State.

This is Ethridge's third foreign mission for the United States Government.

In 1945 he went to Romania, Bulgaria and Russia for the former Secretary of State, James F. Byrnes, and last January he went to Greece as chairman of the United States delegation to the United Nations Balkan Commission.

At LaGuardia Field to see Ethridge off was his daughter, Miss Mary Snow Ethridge, editor of the junior section of Harper's Bazaar magazine.

REDS READY NEW ARMS CUT CALL

FRANCIS CARPENTER

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 30—(AP) Russia will sound shortly a new call for a one-third cut in the armed forces of the five big powers and a ban on atomic bombs.

That was forecast today by persons familiar with Soviet policies. Hot arguments on atomic control and reduction of armaments are slated to begin here this week, perhaps in the Security Council Tuesday.

Jacob A. Malik, Soviet deputy foreign minister, will lay down Russia's demands in a speech to the Security Council, informed sources said.

To Touch Off Debate

This will touch off an arms-atomic debate which will spread to the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission and the United Nations Commission for Conventional Armaments.

Frederick H. Osborn, United States deputy on both commissions, has been busy during January mapping his answers to the expected Russian attack. Osborn spent several days last week in Washington conferring with State department and other officials on the American position.

Malik was second in command of the Russian delegation to tne U. N. assembly in Paris and handled a large part of the arms-atomic debate there. Top pronouncements were made by Soviet vice minister for foreign affairs, Andrei Y. Vishinsky.

Osborn clashed several times in Paris with Malik.

The Russians argued there—and are expected to argue here once more—that the U. S. is out to weaken and destroy the U. N. and they are out to save it.

The Soviet demand for a one-third cut in the total armed strength of the United States, France, China, Britain and Russia and for an immediate ban on the atomic bomb was beaten Nov. 19 in the assembly by a vote of 39 to 6. Only the Russian bloc voted for it.

The assembly then approved a plan backed by the west. By a vote of 43 to 6 (again the Slav bloc) the delegates told the commission for conventional armaments to keep up its study of the regulation and reduction of conventional armaments and armed forces.

The commission first must decide how an international control organ can collect information from all U.N. members on their military strength.

The tip for Malik's speech will come when the Security Council is asked to transmit the assembly instructions to the armaments commission. Malik obtained a delay in council action so he could "reflect" on the matter. It was said here this meant he was preparing his speech for the council.

Delegates on the U. N. Atomic Energy Commission will receive assembly orders through the Security Council telling them to go back to work on plans for atomic control.

The assembly on Nov. 4 approved the plans so far made by the atomic commission majority for atomic controls. The vote was 40 to 6, with the Russian bloc voting against the majority. Russia shows no intention of relaxing her opposition to the majority plan but she is expected here to take part in the dicussions. Despite the general progress made since the commission first began work in June, 1946, the U.N. still is far from agreement on how to harness the atom.

LONDON, JAN. 30-(AP)-BRITISH FEAR OF SOVIET SPYING ON GUARDED INDUSTRIAL PROCESSES HAS PUT A CRIMP IN BRITISH PLANS FOR STEPPING UP TRADE WITH RUSSIA, RESPONSIBLE SOURCES REPORTED TODAY.

BRITISH FACTORY OWNERS AND THE SOVIET TRADE MISSION IN LONDON ARE DEADLOCKED ON THIS QUESTION: WHERE DOES OBSERVANCE OF THE RULE OF "LET THE BUYER BEWARE" LEAVE OFF AND BARE-FACED ESPIONAGE SET IN?

AT THE POINT, SAY THE BRITONS, WHERE RUSSIA DEMANDS PERMISSION FOR ITS ENGINEERS TO INSPECT BRITISH FACTORIES FROM END TO END--WITH A SET OF BLUEPRINTS TO GUIDE THEM.

NOT AT ALL, SAY THE RUSSIANS. IT'S A CUSTOMER'S NORMAL RIGHT, WHICH THE BRITISH GRANTED THE SOVIET UNION FREELY IN WARTIME, TO LOOK OVER A FACTORY WHOSE PRODUCTS HE BUYS.

AN OFFICIAL OF THE ELECTRICAL AND ALLIED MANUFACTURING ASSOCIATION TOLD A REPORTER:

"THE RUSSIANS WANT TO PLACE THAT CONDITION INTO ALL CONTRACTS INVOLVING MANUFACTURING PROCESSES.

"THEY ARGUE THAT AS A MATTER OF FACT THEY WOULD RARELY INSPECT VERY THOROUGHLY. THEY SAY THEY HAVE ONLY ABOUT TEN QUALIFIED ENGINEERS IN BRITAIN AND THAT THEY COULDN'T DO MUCH INSPECTING.

"BUT TEN ENGINEERS IN KEY FACTORIES MIGHT BE QUITE ENOUGH TO MAKE OBSERVATIONS WE REGARD AS UNWARRANTED. THEY HAVE ASKED FOR BLUEPRINTS OF PLANTS AND THE RIGHT TO OBSERVE EVERY MANUFACTURING PROCESS."

THE OFFICIAL ADDED IT IS THE BRITISH VIEWPOINT--"ONE THAT PREVAILS IN OUR TRADE RELATIONS WITH OTHER COUNTRIES"--THAT IT IS ENOUGH FOR THE PURCHASER TO INSPECT THE FINISHED PRODUCT AND REJECT ANYTHING FAULTY.

THE SNAG ARISES BOTH IN GOVERNMENT-LEVEL NEGOTIATIONS FOR A FORMAL TRADE AGREEMENT AND IN NEGOTIATIONS BETWEEN THE SOVIET TRADE MISSION HERE AND BRITISH MANUFACTURERS FOR DEALS OUTSIDE THE SCOPE OF A FORMAL AGREEMENT.

ALTHOUGH EFFORTS TO EXPAND BRITISH-SOVIET TRADE APPEAR TO BE LANGUISHING AT THE MOMENT, A BOARD OF TRADE SPOKESMAN SAID THE TRADE AGREEMENTS OF 1947 HAS BEEN "SUBSTANTIALLY FULFILLED."

UNOFFICIALLY, THE CONSENSUS WAS IT'S THE TIMING OF THE REPLIES--AS WELL AS THAT OF OTHER RECENT SOVIET STATEMENTS--THAT IS SIGNIFICANT.

"IT MAY BE," SAID ONE SOURCE, "THAT THESE REPLIES ARE DESIGNED TO TEMPT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION INTO MAKING ONE MORE BID FOR A DIRECT APPROACH TO MOSCOW, THUS IGNORING BRITAIN AND FRANCE. OR IT MAY BE THAT THE CHIEF PURPOSE IS TO DISTRACT ATTENTION FROM THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WHICH SEEMS TO BE SHAPING UP SO WELL.

"IT IS SURELY NOT WITHOUT SIGNIFICANCE THAT STALIN'S ANSWERS SHOULD BE MADE KNOWN SO SOON AFTER DISCLOSURE THAT RUSSIA HAS SENT A NOTE TO NORWAY ASKING HER INTENTIONS REGARDING THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, AND EMPHASIZING POINTEDLY THAT THE SOVIET UNION AND NORWAY SHARE A COMMON FRONTIER."

Rome, Jan. 30--(AP)--A week-old strike of privately-owned gas plants in Italy was settled tonight, Giorgio La Pira, under secretary for labor, announced.

Workers struck last Sunday, demanding wage contracts similar to those for municipal gas workers. Pending settlement of the strike town councils had taken over operation of the gas works in several places.

Meanwhile, it was announced a first agreement has been reached between industrialists and both pro- and anti-Communist union leaders on evaluating a cost-of-living allowance for workers.

A cost-of-living allowance [redacted] has been part of the salary of all Italian workers since the war. It is determined on the basis of [redacted] the costs [redacted] of certain commodities and varies in different regions.

MUNICH, GERMANY, JAN. 30-(AP)-GERMAN BOBSLED CHAMPION HANS KILIAN SAID TONIGHT HE HAD TURNED DOWN AN INVITATION TO THE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS IN THE UNITED STATES BECAUSE OF THE "COLD ATTITUDE" THERE TOWARDS GERMAN MUSICIANS WALTER GIESEKING AND WILHELM FURTWAENGLER.

THE BOB-SLED CHAMPIONSHIPS ARE TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED FOR FEB. 12-22 AT LAKE PLACID, N.Y.

"I DO NOT WANT TO BE SENT BACK TO AN ISLAND BY SOME CRAZY AMERICANS JUST WHEN I INTEND TO DISEMBARK IN NEW YORK," KILIAN SAID.

HE RECALLED THAT GIESEKING, THE NOTED GERMAN PIANIST, WAS SENT TO ELLIS ISLAND UPON ARRIVAL IN NEW YORK. HE LEFT THE COUNTRY BEFORE BEING ABLE TO GIVE A SCHEDULED CONCERT AT NEW YORK'S CARNEGIE HALL. GIESEKING HAD BEEN GRANTED AN AMERICAN VISA IN GERMANY.

FURTWAENGLER WITHDREW FROM AN ENGAGEMENT AS GUEST CONDUCTOR FOR THE CHICAGO SYMPHONY BECAUSE OF OPPOSITION EXPRESSED BY SOME NOTED MUSICIANS IN THE UNITED STATES. HE DID NOT COME TO THE UNITED STATES AS DID GIESEKING.

KILIAN SAID IT WOULD NOT BE WORTHWHILE TO SPEND THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS TO TAKE HIS TEAM TO LAKE PLACID "JUST FOR THE SLIGHT POSSIBILITY OF AN EVENTUAL START."

IN A TELEGRAM TO THE AMERICAN AMATEUR ATHLETIC UNION IN NEW YORK, HE SAID:

"I DO NOT WISH TO CREATE ANY MORE DIFFICULTIES FOR MY AMERICAN SPORTS FRIENDS.

"I SUGGEST THAT MY AMERICAN FRIENDS BUY CARE (ALL CAPS) PARCELS FOR NEEDY GERMAN CHILDREN WITH THE MONEY THEY WOULD HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO OUR TRIP."

ATHENS, GREECE, JAN. 30-(AP)-TWO GREEK MILITARY TRIBUNALS SENTENCED 21 COMMUNISTS TO DEATH TODAY.

THE GOVERNMENT REPORTED A LULL IN GUERRILLA ACTIVITY IN THE CIVIL WAR FOLLOWING THE REBELS' REJECTED PEACE OVERTURES, BUT NATIONALIST FORCES CONTINUED TO HUNT DOWN INSURGENTS. THE REBELS BROADCAST A PEACE APPEAL THURSDAY, CONDITIONAL UPON REFUSING FURTHER AID FROM THE UNITED STATES.

THE GENERAL STAFF SAID FIVE REBELS WERE KILLED AND 34 CAPTURED IN A CLASH AT TROPAION, 30 MILES NORTHWEST OF TRIPOLIS IN THE PELEPONNESUS. RECONNAISSANCE TROOPS CAPTURED 17 REBELS IN A SKIRMISH IN MACEDONIA.

NINE OF THOUSE SENTENCED TO DEATH BY THE MILITARY COURTS WERE MEMBERS OF A YOUTH ORGANIZATION TRIED AT SALONIKA. TWO OTHERS WERE SENTENCED TO HARD LABOR FOR LIFE, THREE TO SHORT TERMS AT HARD LABOR, SIX TO SIMPLE IMPRISONMENT AND 14 RECEIVED SUSPENDED PRISON SENTENCES.

IN A TRIAL AT PATRAI, ANOTHER TRIBUNAL PRONOUNCED DEATH SENTENCES ON 12 PERSONS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN A TERRORIST ORGANIZZATION, AND SENTENCED SIX TO HARD LABOR FOR LIFE. NINE RECEIVED PRISON SENTENCES RANGING FROM THREE TO 12 YEARS.

THE GENERAL STAFF SAID 28 OF 36 GREEK STUDENTS AND TEACHERS ADDUCTED FROM THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE AT SALONIKA IN A REBEL RAID FRIDAY STILL ARE HELD CAPATIVE. EIGHT HAVE ESCAPED, THE COMMUNIQUE SAID.

MOSCOW, JAN 30-(AP)-RUSSIA TODAY AWAITED A REPLY FROM NORWAY ON WHETHER SHE INTENDS TO JOIN THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT AND IF SHE PLANS TO GRANT MILITARY BASES ON HER SOIL TO WESTERN POWERS.

SOVIET AMBASSADOR S.A.AFANSIEV PUT THESE QUESTIONS FORMALLY TO THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT YESTERDAY IN A VISIT TO THE NORWEGIAN MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

MOSCOW SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS FEATURED A TASS DISPATCH FROM OSLO, NORWAY WHICH TOLD ABOUT AFANSIEV'S ACTION.

THE AMBASSADOR TOLD NORWAY THE SOVIET UNION HAS "SUFFICIENT REASON" TO ASK IF THE NORTH ATLANTIC NATIONS INTEND TO SET UP AIR AND NAVAL BASES IN "VARIOUS PARTS OF THE WORLD, ESPECIALLY ON THE TERRITORY OF STATES IN PROXIMITY TO BOUNDARIES OF THE SOVIET UNION."

HE ASSERTED SUCH STEPS WOULD "BY NO MEANS INDICATE PEACEFUL PURPOSES."

THE NORWEGIAN FRONTIER BORDERS ON RUSSIA ABOVE THE ARCTIC CIRCLE.
AFANSIEV REPEATED, ACCORDING TO REPORTS HERE, THE RUSSIAN OPINION, EXPRESSED YESTERDAY IN A 34-PAGE WHITE PAPER, THAT THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE IS AIMED AT UNDERMINING THE UNITED NATIONS AND NOT AT STRENGTHENING PEACE.
DIPLOMATIC OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON SAID THE SOVIET MOVE APPEARED TO BE AN ATTEMPT TO PUT PRESSURE ON SCANDINAVIAN NATIONS TO STAY OUT OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC TREATY, WHICH WOULD INCLUDE THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, GREAT BRITAIN AND SEVERAL OTHER WESTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.)
SPECIFICALLY, RUSSIA WANTS FROM NORWAY THIS INFORMATION:
1. A STATEMENT OF ITS POSITION ON THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, ESPECIALLY IN VIEW OF THE COMMON BOUNDARY WITH RUSSIA.
2. WHETHER NORWAY IS ASSUMING ANY OBLIGATION CONCERNING MILITARY BASES ON NORWEGIAN TERRITORY.

MOSCOW, AN.30-(AP)-THE NEWSPAPER PRAVDA CHARGED TODAY THAT THE RECENT ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA AT NEW DELHI WAS ONLY A DISGUISED PART OF "ANGLO-AMERICAN" PLANS TO DOMINATE THE WORLD.
(THE CONFERENCE OF 19 ASIAN COUNTRIES DEMANDED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS CALL A HALT ON DUTCH RULE OF INDONESIA, AND COMPEL THE DUTCH TO CEASE MILITARY ACTION THERE.)
PRAVDA, IN AN EDITORIAL, SAID THE CONFERENCE HAD "NOTHING IN COMMON WITH THE STRUGGLE AGAINST COLONIAL RULE OF IMPERIALISTS OR WITH THE REAL INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLES OF ASIA."
BORIS IZAKOV, WHO SIGNED THE ARTICLE, ADVANCED THE SAME THESIS EXPRESSED IN YESTERDAY'S LONG GOVERNMENT DECLARATION ON THE NORTH-ATLANTIC DEFENSE PACT. HE CONTENDED THE CONFERENCE WAS INSPIRED BY COLONIAL POWERS WHICH ATTEMPTED TO STEER IT INTO FORMING A BLOC "AGAINST RUSSIA."
THE CONFEREES, IZAKOV WROTE, ACCEPTED A PLAN WHICH WOULD MAINTAIN COLONIAL RULE OF INDONESIA THROUGH "ARTIFICIAL FORMATION" OF THE PROPOSED UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA.
(THE DELHI CONFERENCE DEMANDED THAT THE UNITED STATES OF INDONESIA BE CREATED AS A SOVEREIGN COUNTRY).

PEIPING, MONDAY, JAN.31-(AP)-FOR SEVERAL ANXIOUS HOURS SUNDAY, PEIPING RESIDENTS THOUGHT FIGHTING BETWEEN THE COMMUNISTS AND THE NATIONALISTS HAD BEEN RESUMED.
BUT IT WAS ONLY SOME TROOPS FIRING RIFLES TO EXPRESS THEIR ANNOYANCE AT NOT RECEIVING ONE SILVER DOLLAR APIECE -- WHICH THEY HAD DEMANDED AS A CHINESE NEW YEAR BONUS.

THERE WERE HEAVY EXPLOSIONS OUTSIDE PEIPING'S MASSIVE WALLS, TOO. THIS TURNED OUT TO BE NATIONALIST SAPPERS CLEARING MINEFIELDS LAID DURING THE 40-DAY SIEGE OF THE ANCIENT CAPITAL, WHICH ENDED IN A GOVERNMENT FACE-SAVING SURRENDER JAN. 22.
GEN. AN CHUN-SHAN, COMMANDER OF THE NATIONALIST 104TH ARMY, TOOK HIS MEN TO TASK FOR FIRING THEIR GUNS. THE GENERAL RAN AN AD IN THE CHINESE PRESS WARNING TROOPS AGAINST THIS PRACTICE AND THREATENING PUNISHMENT FOR ANYONE DISTURBING THE PEACE.

TOKYO, MONDAY, JAN.31-(AP)-MILES W.VAUGHN, 58, UNITED PRESS VICE PRESIDENT FOR ASIA, AND THREE (CORRECT) OTHERS, INCLUDING AN AMERICAN MAJOR, WERE FEARED TODAY TO HAVE DROWNED IN TOKYO BAY WHEN THEIR SMALL BOAT CAPSIZED.

THEIR OVERTURNED 15-FOOT BOAT WAS FOUND LAST NIGHT. BODIES OF AN AMERICAN AND A JAPANESE, BOTH UNIDENTIFIED, WERE PICKED UP TODAY BY A U.S. AIR-SEA RESCUE UNIT CRASH BOAT.

VAUGHN WAS DUCK HUNTING YESTERDAY WITH ANOTHER AMERICAN IDENTIFIED AS MAJ. THOMAS HADDOCK, 35, MEDICAL CORPS DENTIST, AND TWO JAPANESE. THOSE WERE SHIGEO UEDA, 63, JAPANESE RETIRED FORMER PRESIDENT OF A NEWS AGENCY, FORMERLY ALLIED WITH THE UNITED PRESS IN JAPAN, AND AN UNIDENTIFIED BOATMAN.

ANOTHER AMERICAN HUNTER REPORTED HE SAW THE PARTY ABOUT 3 P.M. YESTERDAY AND SAID THEY APPEARED IN NO DIFFICULTY. THE BOAT FAILED TO RETURN TO A LANDING WHERE A CHAUFFEUR WAS WAITING.

THE AIR FORCE REPORTED A STRONG WIND BLEW IN THE BAY AREA LATER IN THE DAY. EARLY TODAY, AN AIR FORCE RESCUE PLANE, ABOUT SIX LIAISON PLANES AND A SCORE OF ARMY AND JAPANESE-OPERATED BOATS SCOURED THE BAY WITHOUT RESULT.

THE OVERTURNED BOAT WAS FOUND A SHORT TIME LATER AND REPORTED BY ERNEST NORTHCHT, UP TOKYO MANAGER WHO WENT TO THE SCENE.

TOKYO, MONDAY, JAN.31-(AP)-JAPANESE SOCIALIST PARTY LEADERS BRUSQUELY REJECTED TODAY A COMMUNIST BID FOR A COALITION AGAINST THE MINORITY-ELECTED CONSERVATIVE PARTY GOVERNMENT.

FOUR SOCIALIST LEADERS CALLED AT COMMUNIST HEADQUARTERS AND TOLD THE REDS THEY WANTED NO PART OF A COMMUNIST POLICY OF "CONFUSION AND DESTRUCTION" IN THE REBUILDING OF JAPAN.

"IN VIEW OF THE FACT YOUR PARTY HAS ALWAYS INDULGED IN YOUR OWN TACTICS AND PROPAGANDA AT THE EXPENSE OF OTHER PARTIES, AND HAS MADE INDEFENSIBLE ACTS, WE REJECT YOUR PARTY'S BID FOR COLLABORATION," SAID THE SOCIALISTS.

A COMMUNIST PARTY SPOKESMAN REPLIED: "THIS REFUSAL ON THE PART OF SOCIALISTS IGNORED THE DESIRES OF THE MASSES AND IS BASED ON MISINTERPRETATION OF THE FACTS."

THE COMMUNISTS WON 35 OF THE 466 SEATS IN THE DIET IN THE ELECTIONS LAST WEEK -- A GAIN OF 31 SEATS. THE SOCIALISTS WON 49 SEATS.

SEOUL, KOREA, JAN. 30-(AP)-THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON KOREA IS BEGINNING TO ASSEMBLE TO TACKLE ITS TOUGH ASSIGNMENT OF TRYING TO UNIFY NORTH AND SOUTH KOREA.

SYRIAN, FRENCH AND CHINESE DELEGATES AND AN ADVANCE PARTY OF THE SECRETARIAT ALREADY ARE IN SEOUL, AND OTHERS ARE EXPECTED SHORTLY. THE FIRST FULL MEETING IS EXPECTED IN MID-FEBRUARY.

THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY ON DEC. 12 RECOGNIZED THE AMERICAN-SPONSORED REPUBLIC OF SOUTH KOREA AS KOREA'S ONLY LEGAL GOVERNMENT. IT DIRECTED THE COMMISSION TO "LEND ITS GOOD OFFICES TO BRING ABOUT UNIFICATION" OF THE SOUTH AND THE SOVIET-SPONSORED COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT OF THE NORTH.

NO CONCRETE PROPOSALS FOR UNIFICATION HAVE BEEN ADVANCED BY ANYONE.

THE 38TH PARALLEL DIVIDING THE TWO REGIMES IS HEAVILY GUARDED AND HAS BEEN THE SCENE OF MINOR CLASHES IN THE PAST TEN DAYS. ON TWO OCCASIONS NORTHERN SOLDIERS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE CROSSED TO THE SOUTH, WOUNDING ONE SOUTHERNER EACH TIME; WHILE ONCE SOUTHERN SOLDIERS WERE REPORTED TO HAVE GONE NORTH AND KILLED FOUR NORTHERNERS.

THERE HAS BEEN NO INDICATION, HOWEVER, THAT EITHER SIDE PLANS AN INVASION OF THE OTHER.

ALREADY HERE ARE Y. V. LIU OF CHINA AND CONSUL HENRI COSTILHES OF FRANCE, WHO HAS BEEN DESIGNATED ACTING DELEGATE.

ANUP SINGH OF INDIA AND RUFINO LUNA OF THE PHILIPPINES ARE EXPECTED LATER THIS WEEK. STILL TO BE HEARD FROM ARE THE SALVADOREAN AND AUSTRALIAN DELEGATES.

THE SOUTHERN KOREAN GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED AS THE ONLY LEGAL GOVERNMENT BY THE U.N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY, WHICH DIRECTED THE COMMISSION TO LEND ITS GOOD OFFICES TO BRING ABOUT UNIFICATION OF THE COMMUNIST-CONTROLLED NORTH WITH THE AMERICAN OCCUPIED SOUTH.

EACH SECTION NOW CLAIMS SOVEREIGNTY OVER THE ENTIRE NATION, WHICH IS DIVIDED BY THE HEAVILY-GUARDED 38TH PARALLEL.

DURING THE PAST 10 DAYS, THERE HAVE BEEN TWO REPORTS OF NORTHERN SOLDIERS CROSSING THE BORDER FOR SKIRMISHES WITH SOUTHERN POLICE WITH ONE SOUTHERNER INJURED EACH TIME. ANOTHER REPORT HAD SOUTHERN SOLDIERS GOING NORTH, KILLING FOUR NORTHERN SOLDIERS AND INJURING TWO.

Arab Democratic Party of Nazareth, three and 7,387.

The "Fighters" Group, composed of many former members of the extremist Stern organization, one and 5,299. If the Constituent Assembly agrees, this might mean Nathan Friedman-Yellin, former Stern leader now on trial in Acre Prison, would become a delegate.

Yemenite Jews, one delegate (vote total not given).

"Wizo", the Jewish Zionist Women's Organization, one delegate.

All other parties, including several Arab groups representing 29 parties, failed to receive the 3,500 minimum votes required for one delegate.

These figures are subject to slight alterations, since some parties agreed before the election to be connected with other groups of similar tenets, which might thus increase the stronger party's representation by one or two delegates. Thus far only 118 assembly members have been accounted for.

STALIN-WITH LONDON
WASHINGTON, JAN 30-(AP)-RUSSIA HAS MADE NO OFFICIAL MOVE TO[illegible]ING ABOUT A MEETING BETWEEN PRIME MINISTER STALIN AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID TODAY.
THE RUSSIAN LEADER MADE THE STATEMENT IN MOSCOW THAT HE IS WILLING TO SEE MR. TRUMAN "IN SOME MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE PEACE" TO CONSIDER A PACT. ASKED WHETHER THE RUSSIANS HAVE SENT ANY COMMUNICATION OR MADE ANY APPROACH TO THIS END, THE STATE DEPARTMENT ANSWER WAS NO.
PRESS OFFICER MICHAEL J.MC DERMOTT SAID THIS GOVERNMENT HAS NOT HAD "ANY REQUEST, COMMUNICATION OR APPROACH OF ANY SORT."

UNDATED STALIN-TRUMAN (350)
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID HE IS WILLING TO SEE PRIME MINISTER STALIN ANY TIME STALIN WANTS TO VISIT WASHINGTON.
PRIME MINISTER STALIN SAID TODAY IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE THAT THERE IS "NO OBJECTION" TO A MEETING WITH MR. TRUMAN "AT A MUTUALLY SUITABLE PLACE."
NOW THE QUESTION IS: WILL THEY MEET? AND IF SO, WHEN -- AND WHERE? IN WASHINGTON, OFFICIALS TOOK A PRETTY DIM VIEW OF THE WHOLE THING TODAY. THEY SAID THERE HAS BEEN NO SOVIET GOVERNMENT APPROACH FOR A BIG TWO MEETING.
STALIN HAS TURNED DOWN AT LEAST TWO INVITATIONS BY MR. TRUMAN TO VISIT AMERICA. BUT THE PRESIDENT'S BID STILL IS OPEN AND TIME THE RUSSIAN LEADER WANTS TO MAKE THE TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES.
IN A SERIES OF INTERVIEWS AND DECLARATIONS SINCE THE END OF WORLD WAR II, STALIN HAS SAID HE IS FOR PEACE. HE ALSO HAS ACCUSED OTHERS, MAINLY THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN, OF FOMENTING A NEW WAR.
THAT HAS BEEN THE THEME OF MANY OF HIS PUBLISHED COMMENTS.
ON MAY 31, 1946, LESS THAN A YEAR AFTER THE POTSDAM CONFERENCE, PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE STALIN HAD TURNED DOWN TWO INVITATIONS TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES. MR. TRUMAN SAID STALIN SENT REGRETS AND TOLD HIM HIS DOCTORS WOULD NOT LET HIM MAKE LONG JOURNEYS.

AT INTERVALS SINCE THEN SEVERAL LEADERS HAVE SUGGESTED A TRUMAN-STALIN MEETING BUT SO FAR TO NO PURPOSE.
ON FEB. 1, 1947, PRESIDENT TRUMAN TOLD HIS NEWS CONFERENCE HE WOULD WELCOME STALIN AND PRIME MINISTER ATTLEE OF BRITAIN IN WASHINGTON AT ANY TIME BUT THAT HE KNEW OF NO NEED FOR A BIG THREE MEETING.
DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN MR. TRUMAN SAID HE LIKES "OLD JOE." HE ALSO SAID STALIN IS A PRISONER OF THE POLITBURO, THE 14-MAN BODY WHICH IS REPUTED TO RULE RUSSIA.
DURING THE LAST WEEKS OF THE CAMPAIGN, IT WAS DISCLOSED MR. TRUMAN PLANNED TO SEND CHIEF JUSTICE FRED B. VINSON TO MOSCOW TO TALK WITH STALIN ABOUT AMERICAN-RUSSIAN TROUBLES. HE GAVE UP THE PROJECT THEN, HOWEVER, ON ADVICE FROM SECRETARY OF STATE GEORGE C. MARSHALL.
STATEMENTS ON A TRUMAN-STALIN MEETING KEEP POPPING UP. BUT SO FAR THE PRESIDENT HAS MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE IS NOT MEETING STALIN OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES, THAT THE TRUMAN LATCH-STRING HANGS ON THE OUTSIDE OF THE DOOR WHENEVER STALIN WANTS TO COME TO THE U.S.
NOW STALIN HAS THE LAST WORD, FOR THE TIME BEING. IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION, HE SAID:
"I HAVE ALREADY STATED BEFORE THAT THERE IS NO OBJECTION TO A MEETING" (WITH TRUMAN).

THAT QUESTION WAS POSED ANEW YESTERDAY (SUN) WITH PRIME MINISTER STALIN'S STATEMENT IN MOSCOW THAT HE HAD [illegible] OBJECTION TO A MEETING WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN AT A MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE PLACE TO DISCUSS A PEACE PACT BETWEEN RUSSIA AND THE UNITED STATES.
RECENT COMMUNIST STATEMENTS AND ACTIONS HAVE CAUSED SPECULATION IN SOME QUARTERS THAT THE SOVIET UNION WAS LAUNCHING A "PEACE OFFENSIVE. OTHERS, NOTING THE CAUSTIC LANGUAGE TOWARD THE UNITED STATES AND BRITAIN WHICH WERE INTERWOVEN WITH THE "PEACE" STATEMENTS, SAW IT AS PROPAGANDA PORTRAYING THE COMMUNISTS AS PEACE LOVERS AND ALL WHO DIFFER WITH THEM AS OPPOSED TO PEACE.
THESE EVENTS COULD BE RECALLED:
LAST JAN.11 MARCEL CACHIN, THE VETERAN FRENCH COMMUNIST LEADER, TOLD THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY THAT THERE WAS NO UNBRIDGEABLE DISCORD BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST. THE SPEECH WAS SO MODERATE IN TONE IT IMPRESSED THE OTHER DEPUTIES.
ON JAN.15 PALMIRO TOGLIATTI, THE ITALIAN COMMUNIST LEADER, SPOKE BEFORE A COMMUNIST MEETING IN MILAN. HE SAID IT WAS POSSIBLE FOR THE COMMUNIST AND NON-COMMUNIST WORLDS TO LIVE PEACEABLY TOGETHER.
THE NEXT DAY CACHIN ADDRESSED THE SAME MEETING AND SAID WAR IS NOT INEVITABLE BETWEEN THE EAST AND WEST. HE MADE SIMILAR STATEMENTS AT OTHER COMMUNIST MEETINGS THROUGHOUT ITALY.
ON JAN.16 THE NEW YORK TIMES, IN A DISPATCH FROM PARIS, SAID A NEW COMMUNIST "PEACE OFFENSIVE" WAS UNDERWAY, INSPIRED BY A TACTICAL SHIFT IN THE SOVIET UNION'S FOREIGN POLICY.
A WEEK AGO TODAY IN ROME TOGLIATTI AND CACHIN ON THE SAME PLATFORM SAID SOVIET RUSSIA WANTS AND NEEDS PEACE. THEY SPOKE TO A COMMUNIST RALLY THERE.

ON THE NEXT DAY THE COMMUNIST LEADERS OF ITALY AND FRANCE ORDERED THEIR 5,000,000 FOLLOWERS IN FRANCE AND ITALY TO WORK IN A "PEACE FRONT" DOMINATED BY THE SOVIET UNION. BUT THERE WERE HOSTILE ACCUSATIONS THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS PREPARING FOR WAR.

OTHER EVENTS IN THIS PERIOD INCLUDED THE GRANTING BY THE SOVIET UNION OF A VISA TO MOSCOW TO A NEW YORK TIMES CORRESPONDENT. THE TIMES HAD BEEN UNABLE TO GET A VISA FOR A MAN IN MOSCOW SINCE THE MIDDLE OF 1947.

THE SOVIET UNION ALSO DECIDED TO SEND A REPRESENTATIVE TO AN INTERNATIONAL WHEAT AGREEMENT CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON AFTER SKIPPING IT THE PREVIOUS YEAR.

MEANWHILE, THE WESTERN POWERS WENT AHEAD WITH THE PLANS TO ESTABLISH A NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT WITH THE UNITED STATES, CANADA, FRANCE, BRITAIN, THE NETHERLANDS, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG AS THE INITIAL MEMBERS.

THE SOVIET UNION ISSUED A WHITE PAPER ASSAILING THE PACT AS VIOLATING THE UNITED NATIONS CHARTER AND CALLING IT A PLOT BY THE BRITISH AND AMERICANS TO ESTABLISH WORLD CONTROL BY FORCE.

RUSSIA DEMANDED TO KNOW NORWAY'S ATTITUDE TOWARD THE PACT AND WHETHER SHE WAS CONTEMPLATING GRANTING THE POWERS ADHERING TO THE PACT MILITARY BASES IN NORWAY.

THE INITIAL REACTION AMONG BRITISH DIPLOMATIC SOURCES IN LONDON WAS PUZZLEMENT OVER THE LATEST MOVE FROM THE KREMLIN--THE STALIN STATEMENT.

Israel Granted Full American Recognition

TRUMAN EXTENDS FULL RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL STATE

Also Grants U. S. Sanction to British-Backed Arab Transjordan

MOVE WINS APPROVAL

Congress Leaders Praise Action; Nations Due to Exchange Ambassadors

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 — (AP) President Truman welcomed Israel into the world family of nations today by granting it full-fledged American recognition.

At the same time, he extended United States recognition to the British-supported Arab kingdom of Transjordan.

The White House made separate announcements of the two actions. This emphasized the official American position there has been no "deal" with the British to trade American recognition of Transjordan for British recognition of Israel.

Britain in effect reversed its policy last Friday by granting Israel limited, or "de facto," recognition. Foreign Minister Bevin told the House of Commons a few days earlier the American decision to recognize Transjordan materially influenced Britain's action.

Fulfills Promise

The American announcement of full, or "de jure," recognition for the new Jewish state fulfilled a promise made by President Truman during the election campaign some three months ago.

On Oct. 24, the President pledged full American recognition of Israel once it held free elections to choose a parliament and establish the provisional regime then in effect as permanent.

The elections were held last Wednesday with nearly 90 percent of those eligible voting. The results assured continuance of the pro-American government headed by Premier David Ben Gurion and President Chaim Weizmann.

U. S. recognition came 263 days after Jewish leaders carved a long-cherished nation out of what had formerly been the British mandate of Palestine. It came as Jewish government officials negotiated for a truce with the Egyptians and other Arab nations which invaded Palestine after the British left last May.

The American government gave Israel a powerful helping hand six days before its elections by granting it a $100,000,000 loan. Some foreign diplomats said this helped swing the election to the incumbent government.

Action Wins Approval

Initial reaction in Congress approved the President's action.

"I'm very delighted to see the President has taken the right course," said Senator Taft (R-Ohio), chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee.

Senator Ives (R-N.Y.) said full recognition of Israel "was long overdue." But Ives said he would "like to know more about" the recognition of Transjordan.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) said "I'm glad to hear it. (Recognition of Israel). I've been for it for a long time."

Senator Myers (D-Pa.) said he was pleased by the action but not surprised, since Mr. Truman "has indicated clearly x x x such recognition would follow the first free elections in Israel."

The present U. S. political representative of Israel, James G. McDonald of New York, probably will be named the American ambassador later, officials said.

Jewish diplomatic officials said Elihu Epstein, head of the Israeli mission here, will undoubtedly be their country's first ambassador to the United States.

Transjordan was set up as an independent country March 22, 1946, and King Abdullah was proclaimed as king two months later. Britain signed a mutual assistance treaty with Transjordan in 1946 to provide arms, money, and military advice to the Transjordan armed forces.

King Abdullah has been urging the other Arab states recently to make peace with Israel on the grounds that a Jewish government exists and that the Arabs must make the best of it. At the same time he has conducted a campaign to annex the Arab portion of Palestine to his country.

GIVES DE JURE STATUS ALSO TO TRANS-JORDAN

James McDonald May Be Our First Ambassador to Tel Aviv.

NEW PROPOSAL BY BUNCHE

Mediator Suggests Boundary Line in Negeb Which He Hopes Will End Deadlock.

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—President Truman today gave full recognition to the governments of Israel and Trans-Jordan. The White House made separate announcements of de jure recognition for each government.

This means that there will be an exchange of ambassadors with the two countries. James McDonald, now special representative to Israel with the rank of ambassador, may be the first ambassador to that country.

De jure recognition means the Government is recognized as the lawful one for that country. The Israeli Government has had de facto recognition, meaning recognition that it is in fact a functioning government.

Text of Announcement.

The announcement on Israel said:

"On October 24, 1948, the President stated that when a parliamentary government was elected in Israel, it would promptly be given de jure recognition. Elections for such a government were held on January 25. The votes have now been counted and this Government has been officially informed on the results. The United States Government is, therefore, pleased to extend de jure recognition to the Government of Israel as of this date."

The announcement on Trans-Jordan said:

"For some time informal and friendly relations have existed between the United States Government and the Government of Trans-Jordan. Consistently with its feeling of friendship for Trans-Jordan, the United States Government has supported that country for membership in the United Nations. Today the United States Government has extended de jure recognition to the Government of Trans-Jordan."

Israeli Flag Hoisted in London

5000 Jews Weep With Joy at Ceremony Marking British Recognition of State.

London, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—Five thousand Jews wept and cheered with joy today as the flag of Israel was formally hoisted over Israel's official office in London. Ruth Liebstadter, 17, pulled the blue and white flag to the top of the mast and said, "It is wonderful that at last, after 2,000 years, we have our own government."

The ceremony followed Saturday's announcement that Britain—which once ruled Palestine under League of Nations mandate—had granted Israel recognition.

Helmeted British bobbies looked on. The crowd prayed aloud while a scroll was carried into the unpretentious building which previously was a private residence.

Ivor J. Linton, Israeli acting chief of mission in Britain, handed the colors over to Miss Liebstadter.

The assembled Jews then sang "Hatikvah," their national anthem. Groups of young people danced the Hora, a national folk dance.

Decision Is Up To Egyptians

Rhodes, Jan. 31 (AP)—Israeli-Egyptian armistice talks were said to have reached a point where the Egyptians have a choice of either making major concessions or taking the responsibility for ending the conference.

The thorny Negeb boundary question has deadlocked the negotiations which now are on the verge of failure.

Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, acting United Nations mediator, has presented several proposals in an attempt to end the stalemate. One informant described the suggestions as constituting a "Bunche line."

Proposals Taken To Cairo

According to this source the position of the Israeli delegation is close enough to Bunche's proposals to make acceptance probable if the Egyptians agree. The Egyptians were said to have been placed in the positoin of having to make a decision.

Within an hour and a half after Bunche brought in his documents, Col. Ismail Sherrine of the Egyptian delegation left by plane to present the proposals to authorities in Cairo.

Bunche said meetings would be resumed here when both delegations are ready with "views and reactions." He added: "It is hoped this procedure will serve to crystallize matters."

Bunche Denies Reports

The mediator's efforts have been directed to keeping the armistice negotiations alive. Thus far neither the Israeli nor the Egyptian delegates have wanted to take the initiative in breaking off the talks although both sides are pessimistic about the chances for agreement.

Bunche denied reports that Trans-Jordan has been invited to take part in the Rhodes talks.

A dispatch from Amman hinted that Trans-Jordan authorities expected to be invited soon to confer with Israeli representatives. If such a bid comes Trans-Jordan most likely will accept, the dispatch continued.

It was felt in Amman that the Arab countries could not fight Israel now that Britain has recognized the young Jewish state. This was thought to apply particularly in the case of Trans-Jordan, Britain's ally.

Position Seems Confused

The Egyptian position seemed somewhat confused.

Their current demand that the Jews retreat to the lines of last October 14 conflicted with their signing of a cease-fire order last week which in effect formally recognized the Jewish victories of October and December.

This cease-fire order was an independent document which would remain binding even if armistice talks failed.

It gave the Jews control of the strategic Jerusalem-Hebron-Beersheba road south to the Egyptian border and west to the outskirts of Gaza.

The Egyptians have now demanded that the armistice agreement supersede the cease-fire of January 24 and move the Jews back to the line of October 14.

Bunche Proposes Negeb Border.

Rhodes, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—A reliable informant said today that the United Nations Palestine mediator has proposed a "Bunche line" as a solution to the Israeli-Egyptian quarrel here over Holy Land boundaries. Such a line might be drawn in the disputed Negeb desert area of south Palestine.

With the armistice talks on the verge of failure, the mediator, Ralph J. Bunche, was said to have forced the Egyptians into the position of making major concessions, or ending this conference. The informant said the Israeli attitude was close enough to the Bunche proposal to make acceptance probable if the Egyptians agree.

The head of the Egyptian delegation, Col. Ismail Sherrine, left for Cairo at once to present the proposals to his Government.

Bunche, meanwhile, denied reports that Trans-Jordan has been invited to take part in the Israeli-Egyptian talks here. ADD

Rationing Of Clothing Eased In Britain After 8 Years

London, Jan. 31 (AP)—Britain virtually ended eight years of clothing rationing today.

Effective tomorrow, any Briton with the money can go into any store and buy a suit of clothes, his wife a dress. And for the first time since January 1, 1940, he won't have to give 26 clothing coupons for the suit, eighteen for his wife's dress.

Board of Trade President Harold Wilson announced the sharp relaxation of the rationing in the House of Commons today.

Gabardines Still Rationed

Off the ration tomorrow, he said, will be suits, jackets, trousers, overcoats, costumes and woven wool dresses. But garments made from gabardines and certain types of utility clothes will still require coupons.

"These changes, together with the removal of footwear and other changes announced late last year mean that we have got rid of rationing over about half the field in the past few months," Wilson told the Commons.

Coupons still will be required for shirts, handkerchiefs, bath towels, infants' clothing, knitted woolen goods and most sheets.

Along with the rationing relaxation the board cut the coupon allocation from 24 during the current six months' period to 17 in the period starting March 1.

22 British Clergy Urge Open Mind on Mindszenty

LONDON, Jan. 31 (AP).—Twenty Church of England clergymen and two Congregational ministers dissented tonight from British criticism of the Hungarian government for the arrest of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty. In a statement they pleaded for restraint, saying "Christians . . . should not make judgment without a careful study of facts beforehand." Among the signers was the "Red" Dean of Canterbury, Dr. Hewlett Johnson.

"We repudiate the widespread denunciation in this country of the government fo Hungary for its arrest of Cardinal Mindszenty at the present stage when nobody has had an opportunity to study the evidence," the twenty-two said in their statement. "In this country we always oppose the making of judgment on cases before the courts until the evidence has been presented."

Russ Oppression Held Like Nazis'

Paris, Jan. 31 (AP)—A French deputy testified in court today that "the people in Soviet Russia are as oppressed as the people who were occupied by the Nazis."

Several exiled Russians also gave grim descriptions of life in the Soviet Union.

Their testimony was given in the trial of Victor A. Kravchenko's $3,000 libel suit against the pro-Communist French weekly newspaper Les Lettres Francaises.

Kravchenko seeks damages for criticisms the paper published of him and his book, "I Chose Freedom," an account of life behind the iron curtain.

The French deputy, Andre Moynet, had served in Russia during World War II. He testified that in his opinion Kravchenko's book did not exaggerate. "I wonder if it wasn't possible for him to have been even more severe" in describing conditions in Russia, Moynet said.

Gabriel Kysilo, a former Russian engineer, testified that Kravchenko's reports of spying and police brutality in Russia are accurate. Kysilo said he was tortured and beaten until he confessed he was a Trotskyite. He added that he was sentenced to eighteen years in a concentration camp, but escaped during the war.

Russ To Repatriate 30,000 Germans In February

Berlin, Jan. 31 (AP)—Taegliche Rundschau, Soviet Army newspaper in Germany, says that about 30,000 German prisoners of war will be repatriated in February.

In a one-paragraph item, the Soviet organ said yesterday that prisoners would arrive aboard several transports at Frankfurt-on-the-Oder, in the Russian occupation zone.

Allied and German sources estimate that the Soviet still holds more than 200,000 German war prisoners.

Early this month the United States, Britain and France asked Russia how many German prisoners she held.

The three powers said they had fulfilled an agreement by the Big Four Foreign Ministers Council to release all German prisoners by last December 31.

Tass, official Russian news agency, said the Soviet was not bound by the 1947 agreement since the December 31 deadline was dependent on a plan of repatriation to be worked out through the four-power Berlin Allied Control Council. Efforts to work out details collapsed in Berlin.

A United States State Department spokesman pointed out, in answer to Tass, that Moscow agreed flatly in an earlier agreement to return P.W.'s by that date.

U. S. Operations Were Curtailed Two Days by Heavy Fog

BERLIN, Jan. 31 (AP).—On its 220th day of operations the Allied air lift roared back to life today after being curtailed for two days by heavy fog.

United States Air Force officials said planes were gliding into Berlin's three airports at three-minute intervals this morning. All loading bases in Western Germany were operating on full schedule.

Fog shut down the American zone loading bases at Frankfurt and Wiesbaden during most of Saturday and yesterday.

Germans Proceed With State Plans

D DOANE

Frankfurt, Germany, Jan. 31 (AP). German politicians, ignoring Soviet Prime Minister Stalin's latest "peace gesture," pushed ahead today with plans for a new western German state.

The Germans asked advice of the British and American military governors on methods of adopting a new constitution. They inquired when the Western Allies will present the occupation statute showing the proposed government's powers.

Stalin's statement that halting of these plans would be one condition for the lifting of the Berlin blockade was not even mentioned in the conference of German ministers-president with the British and American military governors.

The Germans showed their defiance of the blockade by asking what more they could do to support Berlin's strangling economy.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American military governor, told them the British-American airlift already has exceeded earlier hopes with a daily average of 5,600 tons of supplies flown into Berlin during January.

He said this was done despite a shortage of spare parts to maintain the big C-54s (DC6S) and the shortage of skilled air crews. He estimated that when these handicaps were overcome the lift would increase by 1,000 tons a day even without more planes.

Clay declined comment on Stalin's statements of yesterday.

German Police Repel Communists At Trial

DUESSELDORF

Duesseldorf, Germany, Jan. 31 (AP)—German mounted police today drove back leftist demonstrators who had interrupted the trial of Max Reimann, western Germany's No. 1 Communist.

The British trial court reserved until tomorrow its judgment on Reimann. He is accused of threatening reprisals against Germans who co-operate with the Western Allies.

During the demonstration some 300 Communists crashed through police lines and marched almost to the courthouse door, shouting slogans and singing the Internationale. Magistrate H. S. Meech called a short recess while mounted police charged into the crowd. ADD

Police Rout Communists At German Red's Trial

DE LUCE

Duesseldorf, Germany, Jan. 31 (AP)—Mounted police charged into a crowd of Communist demonstrators today and drove them away after the Communists forced a brief recess in the trial of Max Reimann, the Red leader in western Germany.

About 300 Communists had broken through police lines and surged almost to the courthouse door, singing the "Internationale," and shouting slogans. Reimann is on trial before a British court on charges of threatening reprisals against western Germans who cooperate with the Americans, French and British.

Court Recessed

When the Communists began singing outside the courthouse window, Magistrate H. S. Meech declared a five-minute recess. When the Communists fell back court was resumed, but snatches of song and shouted slogans still could be heard from a crowd which paraded up and down a nearby street.

Later, when the court recessed for lunch, some 2,000 Communists broke through the mounted police lines again to cheer Reimann. As the Communist leader emerged to go to lunch, he was hoisted on Communist shoulders and the crowd followed him to a party headquarters a mile away.

Big 3 Staff Officers Confer At Heidelberg

Heidelberg, Germany, Jan. 31 (AP)—French, British and American staff officers began a two-day conference at United States Army headquarters today.

An American spokesman said joint maneuvers are not planned but that the talks concerned making available facilities in any of the three occupation zones for training by any of the forces.

VISHINSKY OUT OF REST CENTER

Departure Of Soviet Diplomat Is Mysterious

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 31 (AP)—Andrei Y. Vishinsky, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, left a Red Army sanatorium at Karlsbad today.

"I don't know how Mr. Minister Vishinsky felt when he left here," an attendant said, "I don't know where he went."

The departure of the Soviet diplomat was as mysterious as his arrival which became known Saturday night.

Disinclination To Talk

At that time an attendant at the rest center set up in the Hotel Imperial at the famous old health resort 70 miles west of Prague, described Vishinsky as suffering from a nervous disorder, "gravely ill and unable to concentrate."

Late Sunday he was reported improved sufficiently to leave the sanatorium during the day.

Today there was a marked disinclination to talk about Vihinsky except to say that he had left.

Many Russians Expect Stalin-Truman Talks

Moscow, Jan. 31 (AP)—Prime Minister Stalin's latest pronouncement has convinced many Russians that their leader is going to meet President Truman.

Foreign diplomats here are much more cautious—even doubtful.

The question "Will Stalin and Truman meet?" is the gambit for many conversations among the Muscovites today and the answers follow the same pattern: "I believe they will."

An American newsman asked Stalin, in writing:

"Would your Excellency be prepared to confer with President Truman at a mutually suitable place to discuss the possibility of concluding such a pact of peace?"

Stalin's reply yesterday was:

"I have already stated before that there is no objection to a meeting."

Diplomat Dubious

One foreign diplomat commented:

"Truman has said he'll be glad to meet Stalin in Washington anytime. Now Stalin says there is no objection to a meeting, but notice the answer is general. It does not specify where or even at a mutually suitable place."

The Russian leader also said the Soviet Government would be willing to discuss a joint declaration of peaceful intentions and gradual disarmament.

[Stalin has said previously that he would be willing to meet with Mr. Truman. The President has offered to meet with Stalin any time the Soviet leader will come to Washington.]

Berlin Blockade Position

In answer to four Berlin questions, Stalin also said Russia "sees no obstacles" to lifting the Berlin blockade if the Western powers meet two conditions.

'45 Answer Is Recalled

Berlin, Jan. 31 (AP)—Would Prime Minister Stalin go to Washington to meet President Truman?

The ever-cryptic Stalin once indicated it was possible, anyway. After the Potsdam conference here in the Summer of 1945, President Truman told Stalin he would like the next Big Three meeting to be held in Washington.

Stalin smiled and replied: "God willing."

CAPITAL LEADERS WEIGH RESPONSE TO STALIN'S 'BID'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 — (AP) Any American answer to Prime Minister Stalin's new "peace" gesture appeared likely today to be a delayed and carefully thought out move.

Administration officials said there probably will be no response until the White House, State department an presumably congressional leaders get together on the best way of countering what the capital generally views as a Soviet tactical maneuver.

One idea reported under consideration is to use the occasion for a review of Russia's postwar dealings with the west, coupling this with a renewed demand for firm evidence that this time Moscow is acting in good faith.

Shy Away from Comment

Meanwhile both the White House and State department shied away from comment on Stalin's press interview statement that he had "no objection" to a meeting with President Truman at some mutually acceptable place.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross noted that Mr. Truman's last word on such a meeting was his restatement this month that he is willing to meet the Soviet leader in Washington.

The President, Ross told reporters, has read newspaper accounts of Stalin's pronouncement that he "would be prepared to consider" a joint Soviet-American no-war declaration.

For a series of reasons, indications were the administration may be unusually wary in deciding on a response. A brusk rejection such as the United States has given some Soviet "peace" gestures might feed Soviet propaganda at a time when the Communists are using every weapon at their command against the Marshall plan and the proposed new North Atlantic alliance.

At home, Stalin's statement was issued at a moment, when the United States has a new Congress, a new secretary of state, Dean Acheson, and just when Mr. Truman has started his new term. Officials suggested privately that under these circumstances extra care would be taken to make the administration attitude toward Russia plain and to avoid offending peace sentiment in Congress or elsewhere.

Moscow's timing deepened official suspicions that the Soviet purpose was propaganda rather than to feel out the American attitude toward some sort of an east-west settlement. Stalin spoke out just a day after Russia put pressure on Norway to stay out of the North Atlantic pact, and the effect was to push the Norwegian development off front pages both within and outside the Soviet bloc.

Truman Willing to Meet Stalin in Washington

White House Says President Has No Word From Moscow—Cites Recent Statement by Chief Executive.

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—The White House repeated today that President Truman is willing to meet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Presidential press secretary Charles G. Ross first told a news conference he had no comment on Stalin's assertion that he had "no objection" to meeting Mr. Truman at some mutually acceptable place.

A reporter than asked if the President's position was unchanged regarding a meeting with Stalin. Ross said the last word on the subject was given by Mr. Truman at a recent presidential news conference. At that time, Mr. Truman repeated what he has said many times—That he would be happy to meet with Premier Stalin in Washington.

No Word from Moscow.

Ross emphasized that there has been no official word from the Russian Government regarding such a meeting.

The President, he said in response to questions, has seen newspaper accounts of Stalin's replies to a newspaperman's questions.

"How could one escape it?" Ross asked. "The President reads the papers."

British Reaction

London, Jan. 31 (AP)—A British source who is in touch with top-level policy makers in the Government said today peace talk by Prime Minister Stalin is "an obvious attempt to torpedo the Atlantic Pact."

The informant said the Soviet leader's statement yesterday dovetails with Russia's week-end broadside against the proposed North Atlantic Security Pact and a Soviet note to Norway demanding to know whether she intends to join the pact.

The British Foreign Office declined to make any official comment. A spokesman said the whole subject is under study.

Stalin's Statement Poses New Puzzle For Diplomats

[By the Associated Press]

Soviet Prime Minister Stalin's answers to an American newsman's questions posed new queries today for diplomats the world over.

Propaganda or a genuine desire for peace?

That was the main question as world capitals studied the Soviet leader's statements yesterday.

Stalin said he had "no objection" to meeting at a mutually acceptable place with President Truman to discuss a "peace pact" and gradual disarmament; that Russia was willing to consider a joint American-Russian declaration-of-peace intentions.

Conditions On Blockade

He said he saw "no obstacle" to lifting of the Russian blockade of Berlin, provided establishment of a separate Western German state was postponed, that the Western powers met with Russia in the Big Four Foreign Ministers Council and the Allied counter-blockade was lifted.

First reaction was one of guarded caution.

One foreign diplomat in Moscow pointed out there was not a great deal new in the statements. Stalin has said before he is willing to meet with President Truman. Mr. Truman, in turn, has offered to meet with Stalin if the Russian leader would come to Washington.

Made Before

Similar Russian offers to lift the blockade have been made before, but always broke down on the question of timing.

Disarmament has been one of Russia's big propaganda guns in the United Nations, but the Soviets have been reluctant to let the world know the size of their armed forces.

Foreign diplomats in Moscow generally welcomed the statements. They said Stalin's avowed willingness to make a joint declaration with the United States on peace was praiseworthy.

These diplomats said the statements, together with Mr. Truman's pledges that he planned to work the next four years to achieve peaceful settlements, made for a "healthy outlook."

U.N. Carefully Weighing Stalin 'Peace' Statement

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 31 (AP)—Western delegates to the United Nations, studying Prime Minister Stalin's week-end utterances, said today they wanted to see how far Russia really would go on the road toward peace.

Top delegates from the West and many neutral countries and United Nations Secretary General Trygve Lie carefully weighed Stalin's words, delivered yesterday in reply to questions from an American newsman.

Warren R. Austin, United States delegate to the United Nations, sounded the views of most Western delegates when he said the Stalin replies must be studied thoroughly. Austin reiterated a statement made recently that he always welcomed moves toward peace but did not know how far the Russians would go.

Russian Sources Silent

Russian sources were silent on the Stalin words, saying they had no information. But it was recalled here that Jakob A. Malik, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, had said recently there is no Russian "peace offensive." Malik said Russia always had wanted peace and co-operation with other countries. He said there had been no change in that policy.

The Stalin pronouncement came as informed sources said Malik was shaping up a new attack on the American defense program.

These quarters said Malik soon would voice a new call for a one-third cut in the armed forces of the five big powers and a ban on atomic bombs. Russia lost this battle in Paris in the United Nations Assembly.

The Security Council is expected to take up the issue this week and to pass on to the Commission for Conventional Armaments an Assembly order to keep working.

The Little Assembly of the United Nations was called to meet today for the first time since the Paris Assembly extended it another year. Austin was designated to sit for the United States. There was no sign that any member of the Russian bloc would be present. Russia fought against creating the Little Assembly and has boycotted it.

The main work of the Little Assembly, made up of every country in the United Nations except the Russian bloc, is to study principles of international co-operation.

Western Diplomats Take Skeptical View

LONDON, Jan. 31—(AP) Western diplomats took a skeptical view tonight of Prime Minister Stalin's cagy "peace" overture. Many quarters thought Stalin was reflecting Russia's shock at the speed with which movements for western unity are taking shape.

Experts in capitals all over the world were studying the answers Stalin gave yesterday to an American newsman's questions. They were trying to determine whether Stalin was engaged in a Soviet propaganda move or was expressing a genuine desire for peace.

Stalin said he had "no objection" to meeting President Truman at a mutually acceptable place to discuss a "peace pact" and gradual disarmament. He also said Russia was willing to consider a joint American-Russian declaration of peace intentions.

A Moscow dispatch said Stalin's statements had convinced many Russians that their leader is going to sit down at a conference table with Mr. Truman. Foreign diplomats in the Soviet capital were doubtful, however.

French Premier Calls For Action On Peace Unity

Paris, Jan. 31 (AP)—Henri Queuille, French Premier, said tonight action, not words, was needed to consolidate the peace.

In the first comment by a Western leader on Stalin's "peace" overture, Queuille said:

"Of course, if we can find in Stalin's statement a point of departure for consolidating the peace, all France would rejoice. If, now, we could reach a solution of the conflict of Berlin, there is no Frenchman who would not be happy.

"But what is really necessary is that such a declaration be translated into facts."

U.N. Facilities Available For Truman And Stalin

Lake Success, N.Y., Jan. 31 (AP) Trygve Lie said today United Nations facilities would be made available for a Truman-Stalin meeting if such facilities were requested by the United States and Russia.

The United Nations secretary-general made his statement in response to a written question submitted by a group of news correspondents.

The question: "Would you make United Nations facilities available as a neutral meeting ground for a conference between President Truman and Premier Stalin if such a meeting were to be arranged?"

Lie's reply: "If a desire to that effect would be expressed to me by the parties concerned, I would be most happy to provide such facilities which are at the disposal of the United Nations."

BURMA REBEL UNIT TRAPPED

Rangoon Reports Surrender Of Karens After Battle

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 31 (AP)—Government sources said a force of entrenched Karen rebels surrendered today after a bitter nine-hour battle with Burmese troops on the outskirts of Rangoon.

Heavy machine guns and mortars blasted the Karens from trenches and concrete buildings in and about the suburban village on Thamaing, only 8 miles north of the capital, the informants said. At times the battle raged at point-blank range.

Residents of the suburbs made a panicky rush toward Rangoon after the shooting stopped. Many Karens were said to have escaped in the confusion.

Peace Talks Delayed

The fighting held up peace talks scheduled here. Saw Ba U Gyi, president of the separatist Karen National Union, was unable to get through the battle area to resume truce conversations started yesterday with Burmese Government leaders. Thamaing straddles the road down which he would have to travel from his home in Insein, another suburban town.

Ba U Gyi has proposed a settlement between the Government and the Karen tribesmen and various other rebelling political factions. Some rebel groups are fighting jointly. Others are conducting their own individual campaigns.

Co-Operation Confused

The Karens seek to carve out of Burma their own independent state of Karenistan. A Communist group also is fighting to set up its own state. Other Communists are fighting to overturn the Government and seize power.

Just who is co-operating with whom in the rebellions is a changing and often confusing question. Britain granted Burma independence a year ago. Internal disorders have swept through Burma since shortly after the end of World War II.

Another major fight between the Karens and Burmese national forces was brewing in the Irrawaddy delta area southwest of Rangoon. Armed Karens were massing on the river bank opposite the town of Maubin, presumably planning an effort to seize it, a Government communiqué said. They were repulsed in an attack on a village flanking Maubin, the Government said.

The Karens are trying to isolate Rangoon in a series of perimeter actions. They already have cut off the city from its main rice supply in the north.

Rebels Surrender, Rangoon Says

Rangoon, Burma, Jan. 31 (AP)—Government sources said today rebel Karen tribesmen have surrendered at Thamaing, northern suburb on the Rangoon-Insein highway, in the civil war raging around Rangoon's northern outskirts.

The informants said many rebels had escaped through the military cordon. They added the highway to Rangoon was jammed with civilian evacuees.

Government sources said reinforcements were being rushed to Thamaing.

Search For Arms

Karen sources said Government forces were making a house-to-house search for arms in the predominantly Karen area. They added that the tribesmen had refused to give up their arms.

These informants added that peace talks between Premier Thakin Nu and Karen National leaders may be suspended today because the fighting had prevented Ba U Gyi, president of the Karen National Union, who lives at Insein, from coming to Rangoon.

Rail service between Rangoon and Instein has been suspended since morning and all motor traffic has been banned fro mthe highway.

HSUEH PLANS FIGHT ON REDS

Kwangtung Governor Says He Is Willing To Be 'Martyr'

Canton, China, Jan. 31 (AP)—China's four southern provinces centered on Canton will make a last-ditch stand againt the Communists, whatever the outcome of peace efforts elsewhere, Gov. Hsueh Yueh declared today

The new Governor of Kwangtung, who reluctantly took over last week after T. V. Soong departed, said in an interview he was "ready to be a martyr" and intended to lead the independent defense of Kwangtung, Kwangsi, Hunan and Fukien provinces.

He predicted Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek would try a comeback from his questionable ten-day-old retirement, but intimated Chiang would get a cool welcome in the south.

As he spoke, the Communists formally took over the old northern capital of Peiping and Government hopes of arranging a general surrender deal seemed fainter than ever.

Visits Premier Sun Fo

Acting President Li Tsung-jen flew from Nanking to Shanghai but returned to the semi-deserted capital after a short stay.

[It was learned later in Shanghai that Li's brief trip resulted in the appointment of a five-member delegation of social and cultural leaders to aid in efforts to help Li's official five-man peace delegation, with whom the Communists have refused to deal unless Chiang Kai-shek and others on their "war criminal" list are detained.

[The additional five envoys—named as Li's personal representatives—are K. T. Chen, banker; Chuang Shi-chao, attorney and former editor of the Shanghai newspaper Shun Pao; W. W. Yen, veteran diplomat and civic leader; Ling Yu-chiu, industrialist, and Kiang Yun, attorney.

[Li visited Premier Sun Fo during his visit. Sun has been in Shanghai several days.]

The Government is in the process of moving from Nanking to Canton, and has announced it will be functioning in Canton by Saturday.

Hsueh, however, said no final decision had been made and the Government "probably will go to Formosa."

Questioned On Split

He said Premier Sun Fo "wants to come to Canton to join us," and added, "Li Tsung-jen would also like to come, but there is no need."

Hsueh, famous as the defender of Changsha against the Japanese, was appointed Governor of Kwangtung by Li on January 21, the same day Chiang retired and Soong resigned.

He said he already had mapped a four-province defense coalition. Asked directly if his action meant a split with the Nanking regime, he replied:

"We are fighting both feudalism and communism. Nanking has failed because they were feudalistic. I include Chiang Kai-shek among the feudalists."

Hsueh acknowledged he had been reluctant to accept the governorship from Nanking because he considered it politically backward.

"I am a progressive," he stated. "As Governor of this province I intend to initiate political and economic reforms heretofore neglected by the Nationalists."

When he predicted Chiang's comeback in the event peace moves broke down, Hsueh was asked if he would oppose Chiang.

"No comment," he rejoined.

He then reiterated the independence of the southern defense stand, however, saying no Nationalist troops now in the north were included in his defense plans.

60,000 Armed Dissidents

Hsueh said he expected support of most of the generals who fought for him against the Japanese and of "all truly revolutionary generals and Yen Hsi-shan, now holding out in besieged Taiyuan." [Yen, in the distant north and entirely surrounded by Communists, is not likely to be of much help.]

The Governor admitted at present his forces are outnumbered in Kwantung province alone by some 60,000 armed dissidents of various hues. He emphasized, however, his fight was a joint four-province effort, not a lone stand.

He said China's fight against communism, and America's in the Pacific, now rested on these four provinces. He said his predecessor, Soong, "should" ask for American aid when he goes to the United States. Soong is now in Hong Kong, where he had obtained police protection for fear of kidnappers.

[From Peiping, Spencer Moosa, Associated Press correspondent, reported 15,000 to 20,000 Communist troops marched in through the Northwest Gate behind two bands.

[He said they were victorious but quiet, while spectators showed no signs of either hostility or joy. Their equipment included bazookas and other American-made weapons captured from the Nationalists.

[Surrender of Peiping by Gen. Fu Tso-yi, Nationalist commander, was arranged January 22, but the Communists had kept in the background for the following nine days.

[The Communist radio said Fu had been arrested as a "war criminal" but after his acceptance of the Peiping settlement "he may hope to obtain the understanding of the people and be permitted to atone for his crimes."

Example For Nanking

[The Communist broadcasts said Tsingtao, Taiyuan and a number of lesser North China cities still in Government hands were being given the choice of following the example of Peiping or Tientsin. It reminded hearers that Tientsin fell January 15 after an assault and that its leaders were being held for "trial and punishment."

[Peiping, it added, also was an example for Nanking, Shanghai and "other places south of the Yangtze River" to heed.

[Harold K. Milks, Associated Press correspondent, reported from Nanking that it had become a capital in name only. Public services still were functioning and the city was quiet, but the Communists camped 6 miles north across the Yangtze could walk in any time they chose, Milks reported.]

4-Province Fight Against China Reds Mapped

JAMES FLOOD

Canton, Jan. 31 (AP)—Gen. Hsueh Yueh, new Governor of Kwangtung province, said today he would lead China's four southern provinces in a last-ditch stand against the Communists.

Hsueh, who succeeded T. V. Soong a few days ago, said that he was ready to lead the people of Kwangtung, Kwangsi, Hunan and Fukien provinces against the Reds regardless of the outcome of peace bids by the National Government.

Assails Nanking

The four-province coalition already has been mapped out by the Chinese war hero, who drove the Japanese off from Changsha on three different occasions.

Asked if an independent southern province fight meant a split with Nanking, General Hsueh said: "We are fighting both feudalism and communism. Nanking has failed because they were feudalistic. I include Chiang Kai-shek among the feudalists."

Hsueh said at first he was reluctant to assume the governorship of Kwangtung because of Nanking's backwardness.

Plans Reforms

"I am a progressive," he said. "As governor of this province I intend to initiate political and economic reforms heretofore neglected by the Nationalists."

He said that Chiang, who is in at least temporary retirement, would try a comeback if peace efforts in Nanking failed.

Asked if he would oppose such a move, Hsueh replied, "No comment."

While no final decision has yet been made, Hsueh said the Nationalist Government "probably would go to Taiwan (Formosa)."

"Independent" Action

He said Premier Sun Fo, however, "wants to come to Canton to join us." He added that the acting president, Li Tsung-jen, "also would like to come, but there is no need." He said he did not know where Li would go if the war continues in China.

Hsueh emphasized the independence of the Southern provinces' stand. He said that no Nationalist troops now in North China were called for in his plans.

He added he expected most of the generals who fought with him during the war with Japan to join him. He said that included "all truly revolutionary generals and Yen Hsis-han, now holding out in besieged Taiyuan."

BRIDGES RAPS CHINA MISSION

Says Marshall 'Did A Miserable Job' At Nanking

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—Senator Bridges (R., N.H.) told the Senate today Gen. George C. Marshall, former Secretary of State, "did a miserable job" in representing this country in China.

Senator Connally (D., Texas), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, immediately came to Marshall's defense. He blamed "corrupt" Chinese officials for the plight that Gen. Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Government finds itself in as the result of Communist military victories.

Bridges, long an advocate of increased aid to Chiang, said "we turned our backs on China, a nation that stood beside us in times of stress." He added:

"Some day that is coming back to haunt the Administration."

Truman Representative

He contended the United States virtually turned China over to the Communists.

"I have a high opinion of General Marshall as chief of staff," Bridges said, "but as an emissary of this Government to China, I think he did a miserable job."

Marshall went to China as a representative of President Truman before becoming Secretary of State.

Senator Knowland (R., Cal.) suggested that Connally examine the directive under which Marshall went to China to see if it stemmed from the Yalta conference.

Connally, his voice heavy with sarcasm, replied: "Oh, we've got to dig up something on a dead president of the United States."

Charged Graft And Corruption

He said when Marshall returned from China he reported that Chiang Kai-shek was "surrounded by officials who had lost the confidence of the people."

"Marshall said that Chiang didn't have the courage to dismiss his old friends who had helped him to power," Connally continued. "Marshall charged there was graft and corruption and that many of our funds never got to the people themselves.

"He came back with sadness and disappointment. He wasn't bitter. But if he was bitter, it was bitterness against officials who had lost the confidence of the people.

"He couldn't wave a wand and bring the Nationalists into a love feast with the Communists."

Acheson's Brother Quoted

Bridges touched off the exchange when he demanded to know whether Dean G. Acheson, Secretary of State, supports the reported views of his brother, Edward C. Acheson, that the United States has "written off" as a loss its expenditures in Greece and China.

Bridges said Edward C. Acheson, a professor at George Washington University here, was quoted as taking "an optimistic view regarding future relations with Russia" in a recent speech here.

Edward C. Acheson said tonight statements attributed to him, and which Bridges quoted, "bore no relationship" to his views.

"Up until this moment I have made no public denial because the statements attributed to me bore no relationship to my own views as was well known by those before whom I spoke," he said in a statement.

Story Killed On Order

"However, these statements have now been directed against the integrity of my brother and I therefore publicly deny them. The views attributed to me in the published report are not my own, much less those of my brother."

The article from which Bridges quoted was a North American Newspaper Alliance dispatch which appeared in the New York Times last Friday.

The New York Times Bureau in Washington said the story appeared only in the first edition and was withdrawn when the syndicate asked that it be killed. Edward C. Acheson said that was also his understanding.

In the Senate, before Edward Acheson's statement was issued, Connally said he does not think Secretary Acheson "should be held responsible for what his professor brother said."

Bridges said he inferred from the account of a speech by Edward Acheson "that he is for a soft policy" toward communism.

Chinese Vessels Crash, Killing 25

Shanghai, Jan. 31 (AP)—The 742-ton coastal freighter Masbate sank today after a collision off the foggy coast 376 miles south of Shanghai. Twenty-five lives were lost.

The vessel's Hong Kong owners said it had a Portuguese captain and a crew of 47 Chinese.

The 1,668-ton Chinese passenger ship Hsianghsing, which was slightly damaged in the collision, reported it had rescued 23 survivors from the Masbate.

There were no casualties aboard the Hsianghsing, which is due in Swatow Tuesday on its regular run from Shanghai.

The Ienyuan and the Taiping, both Chinese, collided and went down at midnight Thursday 100 miles southeast of Shanghai, with loss of more than 600 lives.

Delayed reports today said a young American student, Harry Humphreys, of Atlantic City, N.J., was one of those missing with the Taiping. All others were reported to be Chinese.

Ship Sinks; 24 Feared Lost

Shanghai, Jan. 31 (AP)—At least 24 crewmen were feared lost today in the second collision of Chinese ships in five days off the fogbound coast.

The Masbate, a 742-ton coastal ship, went down 370 miles south of Shanghai after colliding with the steamer Hsianghsing.

The Masbate carried a crew of 47 Chinese plus a Portugese captain, her owners, Jeb Shun Shipping Company, of Hong Kong, reported.

Shaw Shing Company, reported its vessel the 1,668-ton Hsianghsing, rescued 23 survivors from the Masbate. The company had no information on the total number of crewmen aboard the Masbate.

The sunken vessel is a former Philippine-owned ship variously reported flying a Panamanian or Portuguese flag. She was en route from Hong Kong to Communist-held Chefoo, on the Shantung peninsula. The Hsianghsing, with 300 passengers, was bound from Shanghai to Swatow.

American Feared Lost

The owners said the Hsinghsing had a hole in her starboard side above the waterline, but the ship was proceeding to Swatow.

Delayed reports today disclosed that a young American student, Harry Humphreys, of Atlantic City, N.J., was aboard the Chinese vessel Taiping, which sank Thursday after a collision with the collier Kienyuan, off Bonham Light.

So far he has not been listed among the few survivors picked up from the two ship, which went down with a loss of more than 600 lives.

Shanghai Peace Mission Of Li Declared Failure

Nanking, Jan. 31 (AP)—Acting President Li Tsung-jen flew to Shanghai and back today in what appeared to be a futile peace effort.

Li's associates had expected him to remain at least two days in Shanghai with minority leaders discussing peace plans. His early return indicated to some observers he had no success in attempts to get the co-operation of the liberal political group, including the Democratic League, or of Madame Sun Yat-sen, widow of the founder of the Republic.

Li's arrival in Shanghai came after there were strong rumors in Nanking that he would go to Canton shortly.

Most Nations To Send Envoys To Canton

Nanking, Jan. 31 (AP)—A Foreign Office source said today approximately two thirds of the diplomatic missions here had agreed to send representatives to the new seat of the Government at Canton.

Most will send subordinates, he said, with the chiefs of the missions remaining in Nanking.

Philippines 'Boys Town'

MANILA, Jan. 31 (AP).—The United States Army will hand over to the Philippines tomorrow sixteen buildings in the Marikina foothills east of here for creation of a Philippines "Boys Town" modeled on the Nebraska institution of the late Right Rev. Edward J. Flanagan.

Jap Socialists Turn Down Bid From Reds

Tokyo, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—Japanese Socialist party leaders today rejected a Communist bid for a coalition against the recently elected Conservative party Government. Four Socialist leaders called at Communist headquarters and told the Reds they wanted no part of a Communist policy of "confusion and destruction" in the rebuilding of Japan.

MacArthur to Open Japanese Exchange

Tokyo, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—The Japanese Stock Exchange, closed since the war, will be reopened, Gen. MacArthur announced today. No date for the reopening was given.

The exchange will be governed by the Japanese Securities Exchange Commission, copied after the American commission.

An active curb market has been operating for some time.

MILES W. VAUGHN DROWNS IN JAPAN

Tokyo, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—The bodies of Miles W. Vaughn, 58, United Press vice-president for Asia, and Major Thomas R. Haddock of the Army Dental Corps, were brought to the United States Army Forty-ninth General Hospital today.

The two Americans, along with three Japanese, were drowned yesterday when a sampan, in which they were duck hunting, was overturned in Tokyo Bay during a squall. Vaughn had been in the Orient at intervals since 1924. The bodies of two of the three Japanese were recovered.

Haddock lived in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

6 More Security Pact Bids Seen

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—The seven nations negotiating the North Atlantic security pact here expect soon to invite six more countries, including a Soviet-pressured Norway, to become full partners in the project.

This move will probably be the West's most dramatic answer to Russia's one-two punch against the North Atlantic alliance over the week end.

Officials here interpreted the Soviet Foreign Office blast at the alliance Friday night and Generalissimo Stalin's statements yesterday as part of the same pattern of attack on the growing unity of the non-Communist Western World and particularly the North Atlantic treaty.

Stalin "Has No Objection"

Stalin came into the picture this time by saying he would have "no objection" to a meeting with President Truman at a "suitable place." He also talked in surface terms of good will toward peace.

Norway figures as the key country in current talks on Western alliance, largely because it alone, of all the nations in the projected security league, has a common border with the Soviet Union.

The Russians recognized Norway's importance Saturday night by stating their criticisms of the North Atlantic treaty formally and directly to the Foreign Office at Oslo. They apparently made no specific threat or demand, but left no doubt in observers' minds here that they were doing their utmost diplomatically to put Norway on the spot.

Implied Warning

The Norwegians apparently rejected the implied Russian warning and persisted in their intention, even against the advice of Sweden, to line up firmly with the Western league. This was strongly indicated last night when an Oslo announcement said that efforts of the Norwegians, Swedes and Danes to agree upon a common Scandinavian policy had broken down.

Sweden had wanted a three-nation Scandinavian alliance; Norway had wanted a tie-up with the United States and other Western powers through the Atlantic league, and Denmark had tried to develop a middle way.

Collapse of the talks opened the way for the seven-nation group to get on with their next major move. This still has to be formally agreed upon, but persons familiar with the action said there was no doubt that it would be taken within ten days to two weeks.

Position Clarified

The negotiators had not wanted to invite into the project any country not actively interested in joining it. As long as Scandinavian policy was undecided the courses of Norway and Denmark could not be clear. Now that Norway's position presumably is clarified, invitations can go out as quickly as they can be agreed upon to the following nations:

Norway, Iceland, Ireland, Portugal and Italy. In addition, if officials find they are correct in their belief that Denmark is interested in obtaining a bid, Denmark also will be invited.

Secretary of State Acheson began reviewing the North Atlantic security plan last week. He is expected to meet with the other negotiators, the ambassadors of Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg in the immediate future. Diplomats predicted that they would tentatively agree to ask the other countries in.

This move had been planned all along as soon as the Scandinavian situation was cleared up. It took on added significance, however, with:

1. Russia's assault on the North Atlantic project.

2. Her direct pressure on Norway.

3. Stalin's maneuver yesterday to re-emphasize the Soviet contention that the Soviet Union seeks only peace in the world while the Western powers are conspiring to start a war.

The Soviet leader had brought up the problem of suspending the western German Government as a means of settling the Berlin crisis in negotiations last August. The Western powers at that time took the basic position that they would not alter their plans under the pressure of the Berlin blockade.

As for a meeting with Mr. Truman, the general reaction here was that Stalin had put himself about in the position that Mr. Truman has held for many months. The President has told press conferences that he would be glad to see Mr. Stalin in Washington at any time. Diplomats here found it difficult to discover any positive action toward a meeting in the position of either man.

Possible Procedure

Actually, the State Department's line on Stalin's maneuver seems certain to be a continuation of the comment on previous Russian peace talk that actions are more convincing than words.

The basic difficulty, as Mr. Truman practically said in his inauguration speech, is that official Washington no longer has any faith in the Communist high command, its words or its pledges. That is the real reason for the emphasis on action as a proof of good faith.

U. S. Is Making Super A-Bombs, Commission Reveals in Report

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 (AP)—The United States is producing super A-bombs—substantially more powerful than the missiles that blasted Japan during World War II.

The Atomic Energy Commission made this disclosure today for the first time in an official report to congress.

The commission recorded "an expansion of effort in all phases of atomic energy development," both for arms and peaceful pursuits.

Safeguards Tightened

And it announced that emergency defense measures have been taken to safeguard the world's No. 1 secret against sabotage and "against attack."

A major objective, the commission reported, is a greatly stepped-up production of the two atomic fuels—uranium 235, which is found sparsely in raw ore, and the synthetic new element, plutonium.

To this end, officials said there is now under way "the biggest single construction effort in American peacetime history," which will eventually cost more than $700,000,000. It includes construction or major alteration of 20 plants centering around the plutonium plant at Hanford, Wash., where nearly 15,000 workers are now employed.

In its fifth semi-annual report to congress the commission further reported:

1. That the $3,000,000,000 atomic energy program has attained a momentum which, if sustained, the commission believes will maintain and increase the nation's lead in atomic energy development."

2. That a new office of "intelligence" has been set up by the AEC "to correlate and evaluate information on foreign atomic energy developments."

3. That continued efforts are being made to release as much still-secret information as possible without endangering the "common defense and security."

More Publicity Planned

Chairman David Lilienthal at a news conference declared the present report represents a "turning point" towards the increased release of information because, he says, secrecy carried to extremes "could actually blacken out democracy."

He promised a number of additional reports, handbooks and other information material in the next few months including special reports on research on atomic power for industry and aircraft.

He said that these, together with information already released, "should make it possible for most public issues (concerning atomic energy) to be decided in the democratic way."

In the same breath that it said the new and more powerful A-bombs had been developed, the commission declared that "further developments are now in progress."

Lilienthal amplified the "further developments" phase by saying it meant work aimed at developing still newer models.

The already-developed newer weapons referred to were those tested at AEC's super-secret proving grounds on Eniwetok atoll last April and May.

The commission revealed that subsequent analysis of the Eniwetok tests had established the fact "that a substantial gain in (explosive) energy release was obtained" with these bombs—as compared with those dropped on Japan and at Bikini.

(A commission statement that "there are limitations on the size and weight of an atomic weapon if it is to be carried in an airplane" justifies this speculation:

(That the new bombs are not necessarily larger ones than the Model-T varieties previously used, but are weapons that get more explosive effect out of the same—or perhaps less—amount of uranium or plutonium used in the earlier bombs. They might even be smaller-sized bombs than those used on Japan and at Bikini.)

The AEC hinted that its proven super-powered bombs were in production for the nation's stockpile when it declared development and tests on the new designs "pointed the way to production of improved weapons" and—

"In order to take full advantage of these achievements, a considerable expansion of the production program was required."

But the report failed to make clear whether it was talking about the new or old bombs when it said:

"The commission has been cooperating fully with the national military establishment in taking measures to assure a maximum state of readiness in the field of atomic weapons x x x."

AEC Reveals U. S. Has 'A' Bombs of New Power

Tells Congress Eniwetok Test Demonstrated Substantial Gain in Energy Release—Steps Against Sabotage Taken.

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—The United States has new atomic bombs which are much more explosive than the old ones. The Atomic Energy Commission, which has hinted previously that it had developed weapons more powerful than those dropped on Japan or at Bikini, announced it outright today in its fifth semi-annual report to Congress. And it said that "further developments are now in progress."

It related for the first time that the three weapons tested at Eniwetok Atoll last spring demonstrated "a substantial gain in (explosive) energy release" over previous models.

Chairman David Lilienthal made it clear at a news conference that "as used in this report" the term atomic weapon means "bomb." But he declined to comment when asked whether the United States was seeking to obtain atomic weapons other than bombs.

Reports Security Steps Taken.

The commission told Congress it took steps during 1948 to protect its major plans against sabotage and to provide "for the emergency defense of vital facilities against attack." But it said "production and improvement of atomic weapons" has continued to receive its major attention. And in that department it reported "important advances"—in making atomic materials and weapons, as well as in developing new designs.

It said study of the three highly secret atomic tests conducted at Eniwetok in the spring of 1948 "have firmly established that a substantial gain in energy release was obtained." And it indicated that its new designs are in production for the nation's atomic stockpile by noting that the Eniwetok tests "pointed the way to the production of new weapons," then adding:

"In order to take full advantage of these achievements, a considerable expansion of the production program was required."

Reporting an "expansion and improvement all along the atomic energy development chain from the mines to the ultimate use made of fissionable material," the commission said: "By the year's end the United States atomic energy program had attained a momentum which, if sustained, the commission believes will maintain and increase the nation's lead in atomic energy development."

Much Data Remains Secret.

And the commission hinted at details undisclosed in the 212-page report, commenting: ("The report) is prepared against a background of world affairs which makes it necessary for the American people to maintain self-imposed restraints on the dissemination of a vast amount of data acquired since the beginning of the atomic energy enterprise in 1939."

The commission disclosed "increased production of fissionable materials (uranium 235 and plutonium) at lowered cost," and said: "The amount of these materials available is a significant measure of the national wealth. It determines how many atomic weapons the American people can build for defense and the number of power of atomic machines—nuclear reactors — that can be operated for application of the new energy to all parts of our national life."

Size of Weapons Has Limits.

While the report offered no descriptions of the new atomic weapon designs it said: "There are limitations on the size and weight of an atomic weapon if it is to be carried in an airplane and dropped on a target. It must be capable of being produced in quantity. It must be reliable in performance."

The report also disclosed that an Office of the Director of Intelligence has been set up "to correlate and evaluate information on foreign atomic energy developments."

Dr. Walter F. Colby, formerly of the University of Michigan's department of physics, heads the new office, which "maintains close collaboration with other intelligent agencies of the Government." ADD

Better 'A' Bomb Is Revealed

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—The United States has new atomic bombs which have much more explosive energy than the old ones.

The Atomic Energy Commission, which has hinted previously that it had developed more powerful weapons than those dropped on Japan or at Bikini, announced it outright today in its fifth semi-annual report to Congress. And it said "further developments are now in progress."

It related for the first time that the three weapons tested at Eniwetok Atoll last spring demonstrated "a substantial gain in [explosive] energy release" over previous models.

Talking About Bombs

Chairman David Lilienthal made it clear at a news conference that "as used in this report" the term atomic weapon means "bomb."

The commission told Congress it took steps during 1948 to protect its major plants against sabotage and to provide "for the emergency defense of vital facilities against attack."

But it said "production and improvement of atomic weapons" has continued to receive its major attention. And in that department it reported "important advances"—in making atomic materials and weapons, as well as in developing new designs.

1948 Tests Studied

It said study of the three secret atomic tests conducted at Eniwetok in the Spring of 1948 "have firmly established that a substantial gain in energy release was obtained."

And it indicated that its new designs are in production for the nation's atomic stock pile by noting that the Eniwetok tests "pointed the way to the production of new weapons," then adding:

"In order to take full advantage of these achievements, a considerable expansion of the production program was required."

Reporting an "expansion and improvement all along the atomic-energy development chain from the mines to the ultimate use made of fissionable material," the commission said:

And the commission hinted at details undisclosed in the 212-page report, commenting:

"[The report] is prepared against a background of world affairs which makes it necessary for the American people to maintain self-imposed restraints on the dissemination of a vast amount of data acquired since the beginning of the atomic-energy enterprise in 1939."

Production Increased

The commission disclosed "increased production of fissionable materials [uranium 235 and plutonium] at lowered cost," and said:

"The amount of these materials available is a significant measure of the national wealth.

"It determines how many atomic weapons the American people can build for defense and the number and power of atomic machines—nuclear reactors—that can be operated for application of the new energy to all parts of our national life."

U.S. Position Improved

In the commission's last semi-annual report, issued in July, it said the Eniwetok tests had confirmed "the fact that the position of the United States in the field of atomic weapons has been substantially improved."

It recalled that sentence today then said that extensive study and analyses have since shown that the new weapons were much more explosive than old models.

"The measurements made during the tests," added the commission, "have furnished a much sounder basis for the understanding of atomic explosions, which is necessary for the further development of atomic weapons."

While the report offered no descriptions of the new designs, it said:

"There are limitations on the size and weight of an atomic weapon if it is to be carried in an airplane and dropped on a target. It must be capable of being produced in quantity. It must be reliable in performance." ADD

SCIENTISTS CHIDED ON 'GADGET' WARFARE

WHITE OAK, Md., Jan. 31 (AP)—The Assistant Secretary of the Navy for Air, John Nicholas Brown, today chided scientists for spreading the idea that wars might be won easily with gadgets and "extraordinary weapons."

"The ability of a human being to survive the blows of his enemies, in whatever form delivered, is immense," he said in a speech for the dedication of the central unit of a new $35,000,000 Navy Ordnance Laboratory.

"His capacity not only to survive, but his faculty of continuing to fight, is amazing," Mr. Brown continued. "The facility with which he finds means to counter the most highly developed machines of warfare is discouraging.

"The idea of war easily won by means of extraordinary weapons is an old one and very appealing. It is an extremely dangerous concept to propagate. I fear it may tend to give our people an idea of war very far indeed from that justified by the facts as we know them.

"It must be confessed that much of the misapprehension regarding the nature of war stems from commentaries by men whose knowledge of science vastly exceeds their experience in the awful actualities of combat."

Mr. Brown dedicated the main laboratory and administration building for the ordnance research and development center. The front wing is for administration, three others are for workshops and laboratories, and another in the rear contains a cafeteria, an auditorium, an air-conditioning plant and a few offices.

The cornerstone was laid in August, 1946, by the then Secretary of the Navy, James Forrestal. The completed laboratory is expected to be operating next fall.

Among the exhibits on show at today's "Open House" were a captured German supersonic wind tunnel and a 10-million-volt betatron for X-raying up to sixteen inches of steel.

AIR FORCE PUSHES BIG-BOMBER PLAN

35 Or 40 B-36's Sought In Place Of Other Types

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—James Forrestal, Secretary of Defense, sent to the Munitions Board for recommendation today an Air Force proposal to buy 35 or 40 additional B-36 bombers, the world's largest.

The board, composed of heads of six departments, keeps track of the nation's resources for defense and passes on spending for warplanes.

After Forrestal gets the board's recommendation, he will pass it on to the White House.

The money for the new B-36's was made available by canceling orders for other type warplanes totaling $300,000,000. In addition to more huge bombers, 96 of which are on order, the money will be used to modify present B-36 and B-50 bombers.

Indicated Bomber Changes

The Air Force never has said how it proposes to modify the big bombers. However, one type of modification is almost certain to be an arrangement for refueling in flight. Some B-29's and B-50's already have been modified for refueling.

Another change which will be made on the B-36 is the addition of four turbo-jet engines to be used for emergency power. These engines—General Electric J-47 jets capable of more than 6,000 pounds of thrust each—will be hung in pairs under each wing of the B-36. They will approximately double the available power for takeoff emergency use.

Switch In Funds Would Boost Air Force

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—Air Secretary Symington said today that if Congress gives the Air Force $800,000,000 more than President Truman recommended, its strength could be built up to 57 full combat groups.

The $800,000,000 to which Symington referred was proposed by Mr. Truman to start a universal military training program.

Chairman Vinson (D., Ga.) has said he expects his House Armed Services Committee to scrap the U.M.T. plan and shift the money to the Air Force to buy planes.

Okay Expected Tomorrow

Vinson said he expects the committee to approve by tomorrow a bill permitting an army of 837,000 officers and men and a 70-group plane force. That would be more soldiers and planes than Mr. Truman has recommended. The money would have to be voted later by the Appropriations Committee.

The Air Force aim is for a 70-group combat force by 1953. Symington pointed out to the committee that Mr. Truman's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 called for $1,480,000,000 to buy planes.

That much, Symington said, would allow the Air Force to buy 1,668 craft and build up to 48 full groups.

Would Add 702 Planes

With $800,000,000 more, he added, 702 more planes, or a total of 2,370, could be bought to build up to 57 groups. He said the Air Force now operates 59 groups but not all of them are full strength.

The Secretary said the Air Force had $1,545,000,000 this year for purchasing 2,437 planes. They will be delivered this year and during three succeeding years.

Symington estimated it would cost about $6,500,000,000 a year to support a 57-group force and another $1,000,000,000 a year to maintain the full 70-group goal of the air branch.

The President's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 contemplated a 48-group Air Force and 677,000-man Army.

Attitude On Appropriation

Appropriations Committee members have already indicated that they don't propose to boost defense funds, but neither have they claimed that they can make any substantial cuts. Some of them are leaning favorably to the proposal to transfer the U.M.T. money to the Air Force.

Vinson said he hopes to have his bill ready for a House vote this week, and colleagues predicted that the House again would go on record as favoring a 70-group goal, even though it may decline later to vote the money to foot the bill.

The army strength provided in the Vinson bill is already authorized by the draft law, but this expires in June, 1951, and the Army wants a permanent planning statute.

13 VA Branches To Be Reduced

Washington, Jan. 31 (AP)—The Veterans Administration moved today to cut an estimated $10,000,000 a year from its operating costs through a major overhaul of its administrative setup.

Administrator Carl R. Gray, Jr., said the action involves relieving VA's thirteen branch offices of supervisory duties. Instead, they will become district offices limited to the handling of National Service Life Insurance and death claims.

Will Report Direct

Effective tomorrow, he said, the 71 regional offices and all VA hospitals will report directly to headquarters here instead of to branch offices.

Gray told a news conference the aim is to give increased and better service to veterans, along with effecting economies.

He said he would not have approved the reorganization plan for economy's sake, however, unless it resulted in better service.

2,500 Jobs Involved

Gray estimated the net saving at $10,000,000 a year and said liquidation of the branch offices would reduce VA personnel by about 2,500. Many of these, however, may get new jobs, probably in regional offices, he added.

He said the reorganization follows a field study he has been conducting since last May.

To Handle Insurance

Gray said district offices limited to the handling of National Service Life Insurance policies and death claims will be set up in present branch-office locations.

The branch offices affected are in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Richmond, Atlanta, Columbus, Minneapolis, Denver, San Francisco, St. Louis, Seattle and Dallas.

Gray said that the change "means that all supervision of field offices which has heretofore been carried on by the thirteen branches will now be directed from the central office in Washington. The thirteen new district offices (for insurance and death claims) will also be supervised from Washington."

Gray said he believes this will increase efficiency in operation, avoid overlapping of responsibilities and make it possible to use personnel more economically.

Army Getting Tougher to Join

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 — (AP) The Army department said today it intends to set up priorities under which only the best of brain and brawn will be accepted from among would-be recruits.

In this way the number of enlisted men will be kept down to the 605,000 limit permitted by the expected budget appropriaiton for the fiscal year beginning next July.

The Army has stopped enlistment for two-year periods. Men joining up must now sign for three, four, five or six years.

The armed forces have announced that no men will be drafted during February and March, and indications are that nobody will be drafted for 18 months. The draft would be used again, however, if the rate of enlistments falls off materially.

The Army had originally planned on building up to a authorized strength of approximately 937,000 men. That figure was drastically cut, however, when President Truman in his budget message fixed a ceiling of 677,000, including officers.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal announced Jan. 19 that all the armed forces had 1,621,000 men under arms, counting cadets and midshipmen at the military academies. That is all the armed forces will be able to pay for through June 30, 1950, if Congress follows the budget recommendations.

Axis Sally's Invasion Broadcast 'Corny,' Court Spectators Decide

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31 — (AP) The hysterical screams of "Axis Sally," broadcasting a melodramatic warning to American soldiers on the dangers of storming Hitler's Europe, were heard at the treason trial of U. S.-born Mildred E. Gillars today.

The broadcast, entitled "Vision of Invasion," was sent out over the German radio four weeks before D-Day in 1944.

"Corny," Spectators Says

Earphone equipped spectators in the crowded federal courtroom promptly labelled the Nazi wartime production "pure corn."

Miss Gillars herself did not bother to put on her set of earphones to listen to the recorded skit, in which she allegedly played the role of an American mother whose son was killed in the landings on the French coast.

Testifying for the government, Adelbert Houben, 41, manager of the overseas division of the German Broadcasting company during the war, identified the voice of the woman who played the stellar role in the drama as the voice of Miss Gillars.

The 48-year-old defendant, a native of Portland, Me., faces a possible maximum sentence of death if convicted. She has pleaded innocent.

In the radio sketch heard today—one of more than a score of "Axis Sally" broadcasts—Miss Gillars cried out against the then forthcoming invasion in a conversation with her actor "husbands," as follows:

Axis Sally: "Everybody says the invasion is suicide. The simplest persons knows that. Between 70 and 90 per cent of the boys will be killed or crippled for the rest of their lives."

Husband: "What can we do about it?"

Axis Saly: "Bah! We could have done a lot about it. Have we got a government by the people or not? Roosevelt had no right to go to war."

The stage husband then cautions her against making unpatriotic statements, but she retorts that she is an American woman and has a right to say what she thinks.

Later in the skit, Miss Gillars dreams that her son returns to their home in Ohio and tells her that his invasion ship has just sunk, and she screams.

"The dead bells of Europe's bombed cathedrals are tolling the death knell of America's youth," she cries.

The "Vision of Invasion" broadcast is one of 10 overt acts of treason cited in the indictment on which Miss Gillars is being tried.

Houben testified that Miss Gillars' broadcasts were voluntary, because, he said, no foreigners were ever forced to appear on the the Nazi radio.

killed or crippled for the rest of their lives."

Miss Gillars's role in "Vision of Invasion" is one of the ten overt acts set forth in the indictment.

Houben said Miss Gillars participated voluntarily. Foreigners were never forced to appear on the Nazi radio, he added.

Under cross-examination by James J. Laughlin, Miss Gillars's attorney, Houben said he told Department of Justice officials when they first approached him in Germany that it would be a mistake to prosecute Miss Gillars "because she had done no wrong."

COMMUNISTS' MOTION FAILS

For Fifth Time Judge Refuses To Disqualify Self

New York, Jan. 31 (AP)—Counsel for United States Communist leaders suffered a new setback today in their effort to get Judge Harold R. Medina to disqualify himself from hearing their challenge to the Federal jury-picking system.

For the fifth time since the conspiracy trial opened January 17, Medina denied a motion that he disqualify himself and all other jurists in the district from hearing the challenge. The motion had been pending since last week.

The defense contends that the method of selecting jury panels discriminates against the poor and members of minority groups and in favor of the rich. Defense attorneys

Sally's 'Invasion' Disk Reheard

Maine Woman, Accused as Nazi Broadcaster, Ignores Record at Trial.

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—"Vision of Invasion," which the German radio broadcast four weeks before D day in 1944, was replayed today in the "Axis Sally" treason trial.

Adelbert Houben, former broadcast manager of the German overseas radio, identified the voice of the hysterical woman who played a starring role in the drama as that of Mildred E. Gillars, 48.

The gray-haired, Maine-born defendant didn't bother to listen to the recording of the play in which she had taken the part of an American mother whose son was killed in the landing on the French coast.

"Everybody says the invasion is suicide," Miss Gillars broadcast. "The simplest person knows that. Between 70 and 90 per cent of the boys will be claim all judges in the district uphold this system.

Therefore, they argue, the indictment against the eleven Communists, all members of the American party's national committee, should be voided.

The Communists are charged with conspiring to advocate the overthrow of the United States Government.

Residence Map Shown

Today's session was the first since Medina announced Friday he had received threatening letters. Defense counsel also said threats had been mailed to all the defendants and their lawyers. These letters threatened violence against themselves and their wives and children, the lawyers said.

To substantiate their claims of discrimination in the jury-picking methods, the defense introduced as evidence maps showing the residences of jurors on panels of the past several years.

The maps were placed in evidence during the testimony of Professor Doxey A. Wilkerson, Negro director of faculty and curriculum at the Jefferson School for Social Studies, which specializes in Marxist themes. The school is named on the subversive list of Tom Clark, Attorney General.

Wilkerson formerly was the Communist party's educational director for Maryland and the District of Columbia.

"Silk-Stocking" Bias Alleged

The maps were designed to show that members of Federal jury panels were drawn from the city's Seventeenth Congressional district —commonly known as the "silk stocking district"—out of proportion to less wealthy sections.

Wilkerson testified 115 jurors lived in the district at the same time a 1940 panel was chosen, or 49.8 per cent of all the jurors on the panel.

He said only one voter residing in "Harlem or the 'New York city of Negroes'" was represented on the panel. He said this was four-tenths of one per cent of the jurors on the panel.

During Wilkerson's testimony, Medina told Richard J. Gladstein, defense attorney, to continue on other matters until data on neighborhood representation on the panels was supplied to him in tabulated form.

After a luncheon recess the trial-jury panel, totaling 592 persons, was dismissed. Court officials said members of a new panel of 375 talesmen would begin service tomorrow. Panel members, who must report to the court daily for possible selection for actual jury service, are dismissed after a reasonable time unless so chosen.

DEAN RUSK NAMED AS ACHESON AID

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—President Truman today nominated Dean Rusk, director of the State Department's office of United Nations Affairs, for promotion to assistant Secretary of State. He succeeds to a vacancy created by the resignation of Norman Armour last summer.

Prior to assignment to his present post, Rusk was an assistant to the Secretary of War. He lives in Alexandria, Va. After three years as a Rhodes scholar at Oxford University, Rusk attended the University of Berlin in 1934 and later studied at the University of California law school. Prior to the war he was Associate Professor of Government and dean of the faculty at Mills College, Oakland, Cal.

During the war he was Deputy Chief of Staff in the China-Burma-India theater and later served in the operations planning division of the War Department general staff. In 1946, he was appointed assistant chief of the division of International Security in the State Department. Later that same year he became assistant to the Secretary of War.

NEW ECA GRANTS TOTAL $28,757,000

Washington, Jan. 31 (A. P.).—Funds earmarked for purchase of industrial goods by Belgium-Luxemburg accounted for $22,005,000 of a total of $28,757,000 in new foreign aid approved by the Economic Co-operation Administration.

Authorizations brought to $4,450,029,000 the total Marshall plan aid funds so far committed.

Reductions of $3,890,000 and $1,444,000 were made in prior grants to Italy and the Netherlands respectively.

The new authorizations include: Western Germany, $8,805,000 for pulp and paper products and industrial equipment; France, $1,230,000 for lead and lead alloys, fish and fish products and essential oils; Denmark, $840,000 of which $440,000 is for Philippine copra and the rest United States tobacco; Norway, $400,000 for Philippine copra; Trieste, $330,000 for evaporated milk; the United Kingdom, $272,000 for naval stores and alcohol; Iceland, $183,000 for nitrogenous fertilizer; and Ireland, $26,000 for alcohol.

LONDON, JAN. 31-(AP)-FOR THE FIRST TIME IN NEARLY EIGHT YEARS BRITONS WILL BE ALLOWED TOMORROW TO BUY SUCH THINGS AS MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS, CHILDREN'S WEAR AND WOMEN'S DRESSES WITHOUT RATION COUPONS.

HAROLD WILSON, PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY THAT GARMENTS MADE OF WOVEN WOOL AND WOVEN WOOL ITSELF ARE BEING TAKEN OFF THE RATION LIST.

THIS ACTION WAS POSSIBLE, HE ADDED, BECAUSE BRITAIN'S WOOLEN PRODUCTION "HAS GONE UP VERY REMARKABLY." WILSON EXPLAINED HE COULD NOT FREE COTTON GARMENTS RIGHT NOW BECAUSE OF THE DRIVE TO EXPORT COTTON CLOTH.

COUPONS ALSO WILL BE NEEDED TO BUY GARMENTS OF GABARDINE AND MOST OF THOSE IN THE "UTILITY" RANGE. THE PRODUCTION OF UTILITY CLOTHES, MADE MAINLY OF COTTON, CARRIES A GOVERNMENT SUBSIDY, A WARTIME MEASURE TO KEEP PRICES DOWN.

AFTER HIS ANNOUNCEMENT WILSON TOLD REPORTERS THAT BETWEEN TODAY'S CHANGES AND RELAXATION MADE LAST YEAR "WE HAVE GOT RID OF RATIONING OVER ABOUT HALF THE FIELD IN THE PAST FEW MONTHS."

NIGHT LEAD PLANE SEARCH (150)

LONDON, JAN.31-(AP)-PLANES AND SHIPS OF FOUR NATIONS CONTINUED THEIR SEARCH TODAY FOR A U.S. B-29 SUPERFORT MISSING SINCE THURSDAY ON A FLIGHT FROM AFRICA TO ENGLAND.

U.S., BRITISH, FRENCH AND PORTUGUESE AUTHORITIES HAVE SENT 35 PLANES OUT ON THE SEARCH, AND ALL EXCEPT THE PORTUGUESE ALSO HAVE DISPATCHED SURFACE CRAFT.

A STAFF DEPUTY OFFICER AT THE HEADQUARTERS HERE OF THE U.S. THIRD AIR DIVISION SAID NO REPORTS HAD BEEN RECEIVED FROM THE SEARCH AREA DURING THE LATTER PART OF THE DAY.

THE SEARCH HAS CONCENTRATED IN THE ATLANTIC FROM 50 TO 150 MILES NORT OF LAS PALMAS, CANARY ISLANDS, ON THE STRENGTH OF THREE CLUES FROM THAT REGION. LATEST OF THESE, REPORTED SATURDAY NIGHT, WERE THAT RADIO SIGNALS HAD BEEN RECEIVED, AN OIL SLICK AND SIGNAL FLARES OBSERVED.

THE BIG PLANE, WHICH HAD A CREW OF 15, WAS MAKING A TRAINING FLIGHT FROM DAKAR, FRENCH WEST AFRICA, TO ITS BASE AT MARHAM, ENG., WHEN IT DISAPPEARED.

U.S. THIRD AIR DIVISION HEADQUARTERS HERE STILL PROFESSED STRONG HOPES THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THE MEN WILL BE RESCUED, ALTHOUGH THREE HOT CLUES SO FAR FAILED TO LEAD SEARCH PLANES TO THE RIGHT SPOT.

THE LATEST LEAD WAS A REPORT FROM A BRITISH STEAMER THAT IT SIGHTED FLARES FROM A VERY PISTOL SATURDAY NIGHT ABOUT 50 MILES NORTH OF LAS PALMAS IN THE CANARIES.

EARLIER THERE WAS A REPORT AN OIL SLICK WAS SIGHTED 100 MILES NORTH OF WHERE THE FLARES WERE SEEN; AND SHORE-BASED RADIO DIRECTION FINDER STATIONS REPORTED HEARING AN EMERGENCY RADIO SIGNAL FROM ABOUT THE SAME AREA AS THE OIL SLICK.

ALL OF THESE SPOTS WERE ALONG THE PLANNED LINE OF FLIGHT OF THE SUPERFORT, WHICH WAS ON A TRAINING TRIP FROM DAKAR IN FRENCH WEST AFRICA TO ITS MARHAM, ENGLAND, BASE.

BRITISH, FRENCH AND PORTUGUESE PLANES ARE ASSISTING U.S. PLANES IN THE SEARCH AND NAVAL VESSELS FROM BRITAIN AND FRANCE, AS WELL AS TWO AMERICAN DESTROYERS HAVE JOINED IN. THE WEATHER REMAINED GOOD AND THE SEA CLEAR.

AIR FORCE SPOKESMEN SAY THE B-29 CARRIED ADEQUATE EMERGENCY EQUIPMENT. DURING THE PACIFIC WAR SOME FLIERS WERE RESCUED A MONTH AFTER FORCED LANDINGS AT SEA WITH SIMILAR EQUIPMENT.

LONDON, JAN 31-(AP)-JAMES THIGPEN, CHIEF OF THE U.S.DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE'S TOBACCO BRANCH, SAID TODAY HE WAS "OPTIMISTIC" ABOUT 1949 AMERICAN TOBACCO EXPORT PROSPECTS TO WESTERN EUROPE.

A SURVEY OF TOBACCO NEEDS IN BRITAIN AND HALF A DOZEN CONTINENAL COUNTRIES INDICATES AN EXPORT BOOST FOR BRIGHT, OR FLUE CURED, LEAF THIS YEAR OVER LAST YEAR, HE TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE.

HE DECLINED TO COMMENT ON WHETHER HE WILL RECOMMEND AN INCREASE IN 1949 TOBACCO ACREAGE QUOTAS ON HIS RETURN TO WASHINGTON THIS WEEK.

"BUT THE 1949 QUOTAS ANNOUNCED LAST AUGUST CERTAINLY WILL NOT BE REDUCED," HE ADDED.

AFTER INDICATING THAT ANY FURTHER REVISION OF ACREAGE QUOTAS WOULD BE UPWARDS--AND NOT DOWNWARDS--THIGPEN CAUTIOUSLY SAID THAT CONFERENCES WITH GROWERS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WOULD BE HELD THIS MONTH TO "APPRAISE THE SITUATION ON EXPORT DEMAND GENERALLY."

SOME OBSERVERS HERE TOOK THIS TO MEAN THE ACREAGE QUOTAS MAY BE RAISED.

"I CAN ONLY SAY I AM OPTIMISTIC ON THE EXPORT SITUATION," THIGPEN DECLARED. "FROM WHAT WE HAVE SEEN HERE THERE WILL BE A GOOD EXPORT DEMAND FOR AMERICAN TOBACCO IN THE ECA (EUROPEAN COOPERATION ADMINISTRATION) COUNTRIES--BETTER THAN LAST YEAR."

THIGPEN AND OTHER AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS LEAVE FOR THE UNITED STATES TOMORROW AFTER TOBACCO TALKS WITH BRITISH OFFICIALS AND VISITS TO FRANCE, BELGIUM, DENMARK, HOLLAND AND WESTERN GERMANY.

BRITAIN ANNOUNCED LAST WEEK SHE EXPECTED TO IMPORT MORE TOBACCO IN 1949 THAN SHE DID IN 1948, PROVIDED THERE IS NO SETBACK IN GENERAL TRADING WITH THE UNITED STATES. NO FIGURES WERE ANNOUNCED.

THE 1949 ACREAGE QUOTAS PROVISIONALLY ANNOUNCED LAST AUGUST WILL MEAN ABOUT 60 TO 65 MILLION MORE POUNDS OF VIRGINIA TOBACCO WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR EXPORT THIS YEAR THAN LAST YEAR, THIGPEN SAID. HE WOULD NOT SAY WHETHER HE THOUGHT THE INCREASE WOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO MEET THE INCREASED EXPORT DEMAND EXPECTED THIS YEAR.

COMMENTING ON REPORTS IN SOME BRITISH NEWSPAPERS THAT AMERICAN GROWERS ARE WORRIED ABOUT A "SURPLUS CROP", THIGPEN SAID "GROWERS AT HOME ARE NOT LOADED DOWN WITH EXCESS STOCKS."

"THERE IS NO SURPLUS OF BRIGHT FLUE-CURED TOBACCO IN THE ECONOMIC SENSE," HE SAID.

HE ALSO SCOTCHED ANOTHER REPORT CURRENT IN BRITAIN THAT AMERICAN GROWERS WERE SO WORRIED ABOUT BRITAIN'S RESTRICTIONS ON AMERICAN TOBACCO IMPORTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT SELL TO BRITAIN UNDER THE MARKET PRICE.

"THERE'S NOT MUCH LIKELIHOOD OF SUBSIDIZED SHIPMENTS OF TOBACCO," HE COMMENTED.

THIGPEN INDICATED THAT LONG TERM TOBACCO EXPORT PROSPECTS WERE GOOD. HE SAID TOBACCO RESERVE STOCKS IN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES WERE LESS THAN HALF THE PREWAR SIZE, WHILE CONSUMPTION WAS UP 59 PER CENT OVER THE 1930S.

LONDON, JAN.31-(AP)-SECRETARY OF STATE HECTOR MCNEIL TOLD THE HOUSE OF COMMONS TODAY ARGENTINA HAS AGREED TO INCREASE CURRENT MEAT DELIVERIES TO BRITAIN.

IT HAS BEEN REPORTED THAT ARGENTINA WOULD FALL 60,000 POUNDS SHORT OF CONTRACTED DELIVERIES OF 400,000 TONS OF MEAT BY MARCH 31, WHEN THE ONE-YEAR ANDES AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO NATIONS IS DUE TO EXPIRE.

BRITISH MEAT RATIONS RECENTLY WERE REDUCED BY 2 PENCE WORTH A WEK PER PERSON. THE FOOD MINISTRY SAID THIS WAS BECAUSE OF SLACK DELIVERIES FROM ARGENTINA.

MCNEIL SAID FOREIGN SECRETARY ERNEST BEVIN HAD "A NUMBER OF INTERVIEWS" WITH ARGENTINE AMBASSADOR RICARDO DE LABOUGLE TO "EMPHASIZE THE SERIOUS VIEW" THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT TOOK OF "THE PROSPECTIVE SHORTFALL OF MEAT DELIVERIES UNDER THE ANDES AGREEMENT."

IN ADDITION, HE SAID, THE BRITISH AMBASSADOR IN BUENOS AIRES "HAS ALMOST CONTINUOUSLY URGED ON THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT THE NEED FOR INCREASING CURRENT DELIVERIES" AND THAT "IN RESPONSE TO OUR REPRESENTATIONS, THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT HAS UNDERTAKEN TO DO SO."

NO MENTION WAS MADE IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF A NATION-WIDE SLOWDOWN OF MEAT WORKERS IN ARGENTINA THAT BEGAN AT MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT. THE WORKERS ARE DEMANDING IMPROVED CONDITIONS, INCLUDING AN INDUSTRY-WIDE 40 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE.

MEAT WORKERS' UNION OFFICIALS MET TODAY WITH LABOR DEPARTMENT OFFICERS IN BUENOS AIRES, BUT NO AGREEMENT WAS REACHED. THE ISSUES ARE SO COMPLEX THAT THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT ORDERED TO NATIONAL ECONOMIC COUNCIL TO TAKE THEM UP TOMORROW.

LUDWIGSBURG, GERMANY, JAN. 31-(AP)-DR.HJALMAR SCHACHT, WHO WAS HITLER'S FINANCIAL EXPERT, TODAY DEFIED A NEW GERMAN EFFORT TO JAIL HIM AS A NAZI OFFENDER.

HE FAILED TO SHOW UP FOR TRIAL IN A GERMAN COURT IN THE BRITISH ZONE. HE LIVES IN THE AMERICAN ZONE, AND HAD ANNOUNCED HE WOULD NOT HEED THE COURT'S SUMMONS.

THE TRIAL JUDGE, JUSTICE RUDOLF EIGHT, SAID THE TRIAL WOULD PROCEED FEB. 14, AND SCHACHT WOULD BE TRIED IN ABSENTIA IF HE AGAIN FAILED TO APPEAR. A SPOKESMAN FOR THE DEFENDANT SAID SCHACHT WOULD REFUSE TO ATTEND THEN, TOO, SINCE HE FELT THE TRIAL WAS ILLEGAL.

THE CASE IS STRICTLY A GERMAN MATTER. THE U.S. MILITARY GOVERNMENT IS NOT INVOLVED.

SCHACHT WAS ACQUITTED IN THE ORIGINAL WAR CRIMES TRIAL AT NUERNBERG. "THE FOLLOWING ARE THE ANSWERS GIVEN BY J. V. STALIN TO QUESTIONS PUT BY MR. KINGSBURY SMITH, EUROPEAN GENERAL MANAGER, INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE OF AMERICA, RECEIVED ON JAN.27, 1949:

"FIRST QUESTION. WOULD THE GOVERNMENT OF THE U.S.S.R. BE PREPARED TO CONSIDER THE ISSUANCE OF A JOINT DECLARATION WITH THE

STALIN SAID HE HAD "NO OBJECTION" TO MEETING PRESIDENT TRUMAN AT A MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE PLACE TO DISCUSS A "PEACE PACT" AND GRADUAL DISARMAMENT. HE ALSO SAID RUSSIA WAS WILLING TO CONSIDER A JOINT AMERICAN-RUSSIAN DECLARATION OF PEACE INTENTIONS.

A MOSCOW DISPATCH SAID STALIN'S STATEMENTS HAD CONVINCED MANY RUSSIANS THAT THEIR LEADER IS GOING TO SIT DOWN AT A CONFERENCE TABLE WITH MR.TRUMAN. FOREIGN DIPLOMATS IN THE SOVIET CAPITAL WERE DOUBTFUL, HOWEVER.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN HAS SAID REPEATEDLY HE IS WILLING TO MEET STALIN IN WASHINGTON. THE WHITE HOUSE CALLED ATTENTION TO THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT TODAY BUT EMPHASIZED THAT THERE HAS BEEN "NO OFFICIAL WORD FROM THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT" REGARDING SUCH A MEETING.

FRENCH PREMIER HENRI QUEUILLE, IN THE FIRST COMMENT ON THE STALIN STATEMENT BY A WESTERN HEAD OF GOVERNMENT, SAID ACTION, NOT WORDS, WAS NEEDED TO ACHIEVE AN EAST-WEST PEACE.

ITALIAN FOREIGN OFFICE SOURCES IN ROME SAID ITALY WILL CONTINUE TO FOLLOW A POLICY OF "EVER MORE STRICT ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL COLLABORATION AMONG THE EUROPEAN NATIONS AND OF FRIENDSHIP WITH THE UNITED STATES."

IN FRANKFURT GERMAN POLITICIANS WENT AHEAD WITH PLANS FOR A NEW WESTERN GERMAN STATE. RUSSIA WANTS THE WESTERN POWERS TO DROP SUCH PLANS AND CALL A MEETING OF THE FOREIGN MINISTERS' COUNCIL TO DISCUSS THE ENTIRE GERMAN PROBLEM.

AN AMERICAN DIPLOMATIC SOURCE IN LONDON EXPRESSED THE BELIEF THAT RUSSIA WAS "SHOCKED INTO THE NEW STALIN MANEUVER BY THE SPEED WITH WHICH THE WEST IS BUILDING UP ITS POLITICAL DEFENSES AGAINST AGGRESSION."

A SIMILAR VIEW WAS EXPRESSED BY A BRITISH INFORMANT WHO SAID STALIN HAD MADE "AN OBVIOUS ATTEMPT TO TORPEDO" THE PROPOSED NORTH ATLANTIC SECURITY PACT. NEWSPAPERS IN WESTERN EUROPE CARRIED EDITORIALS ALONG THE SAME LINE.

RUSSIA HAS SHOWN DEFINITE SYMPTOMS OF NERVOUSNESS OVER THE PROPOSED

NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE NOW BEING NEGOTIATED IN WASHINGTON. THE SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTRY HAS DESCRIBED THE PACT AS A PLOT TO UNDERMINE THE UNITED NATIONS AND AN ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH AMERICAN-BRITISH WORLD DOMINATION.

RUSSIA ALSO PUT PRESSURE ON NORWAY TO EXPLAIN WHETHER SHE INTENDS TO JOIN THE ATLANTIC DEFENSE SYSTEM AND FURNISH MILITARY BASES TO WESTERN POWERS. YESTERDAY SWEDEN, DENMARK AND NORWAY FAILED TO AGREE ON A PROJECTED SCANDINAVIAN PACT. THIS WAS THE STUMBLING BLOCK: SHOULD THE THREE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES THROW IN THEIR LOT WITH THE WEST OR FOLLOW A TRADITIONAL POLICY OF NEUTRALITY. SWEDEN WAS FOR NEUTRALITY. NORWAY WANTED A LINK UP WITH THE WEST.

STOCKHOLM NEWSPAPERS SUGGESTED TODAY THAT RUSSIA'' NOTE TO NORWAY SIGNIFIES A SHIFTING OF THE EAST-WEST COLD WAR TO THE SCANDINAVIAN PENINSULA. THEY CALLED FOR INCREASED MILITARY PREPAREDNESS.

MOST OF THE PRESS IN THE SWEDISH CAPITAL PREDICTED THE RUSSIAN MOVE WOULD SERVE TO HASTEN RATHER THAN DELAY NORWAY'S ENTRANCE INTO THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

AT THE OUTSET THAT ALLIANCE WOULD LINK THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA WITH THE FIVE BRUSSELS PACT POWERS--BRITAIN, FRANCE, BELGIUM, THE NETHERLANDS AND LUXEMBOURG. ULTIMATELY IT IS EXPECTED THAT OTHER COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE SOVIET SPHERE WOULD BE BROUGHT INTO THE DEFENSE SYSTEM.

DIPLOMATS NOTED THAT STALIN'S "PEACE" FEELER CAME TWO DAYS AFTER THE FIVE BRUSSELS PACT NATIONS AGREED TO SET UP A "COUNCIL OF EUROPE"--AN ACTION THAT WAS HAILED AS THE FORERUNNER OF A GENUINE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT.

EXPERTS IN THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT LONG HAVE BEEN CONVINCED THAT STATEMENTS BY COMMUNISTS WHICH APPEAR TO CALL FOR PEACE ACTUALLY CONSTITUTE A KIND OF TACTICAL MANEUVER. THEY HAVE SPECULATED THAT THE KREMLIN WOULD LIKE VERY MUCH TO DISRUPT THE VARIOUS PLANS FOR THE UNIFICATION AND STRENGTHENING OF THE WEST.

STALIN'S REMARKS WOULD SEEM TO CAP THE RECENT DECLARATIONS BY COMMUNIST STALWARTS IN RUSSIA, FRANCE, ITALY AND GERMANY THAT THE SOVIET UNION WANTS PEACE. BUT THOSE STATEMENTS ALSO HAVE BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY VIOLENT ATTACKS ON THE WESTERN NATIONS, PARTICULARLY THE UNITED STATES.

SPECULATING ON WHAT STALIN HAD IN MIND, ONE BRITISH SOURCE SAID:

"IT MAY BE THAT THESE REPLIES ARE DESIGNED TO TEMPT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION INTO MAKING ONE MORE BID FOR A DIRECT APPROACH TO MOSCOW, THUS IGNORING BRITAIN AND FRANCE."

A SKEPTICAL EDITORIAL IN THE LIBERAL MANCHESTER GUARDIAN SAID: "STALIN'S APPEARANCE AS ORACLE IS A FAMILIAR OCCURRENCE AND IS ALWAYS DESIGNED TO SPREAD CONFUSION."

THE BRUSSELS SOCIALIST NEWSPAPER LE PEUPLE SAID THE STALIN STATEMENTS AND THE SOVIET NOTE TO NORWAY GIVE "THE IMPRESSION OF A VAST MANEUVER DESTINED TO CREATE THE BELIEF THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT IS WITHOUT AN OBJECT, AND IT IS THEREFORE USELESS TO CONCLUDE IT."

IN OSLO, THE LIBERAL NEWSPAPER DAGBLADET EXPRESSED CAUTIOUS OPTIMISM OVER STALIN'S OVERTURE. THIS WAS THE FIRST NEWSPAPER COMMENT IN NORWAY ON THE SUBJECT.

THE PAPER LISTED THESE AS POSSIBLE REASONS FOR THE RUSSIAN LEADER'S ACTION: INCREASING WESTERN EUROPEAN UNITY SINCE THE COMMUNIST COUP IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, THE QUARREL BETWEEN YUGOSLAV PREMIER-MARSHAL TITO AND MOSCOW, AND DEVELOPMENTS IN THE ORIENT.

DAGBLADET SAID IT IS UNLIKELY A MEETING BETWEEN STALIN AND PRESIDENT TRUMAN WOULD FAIL OVER THE QUESTION OF A MEETING PLACE, AS "TRUMAN HAD DECLARED HIS WILLINGNESS TO MEET STALIN IN WASHINGTON."

4781OPES

MOSCOW, JAN 31-(AP)-THE COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER PRAVDA DEVOTED NEARLY TWO COLUMNS TODAY TO REACTIONS FROM ABROAD TO RUSSIA'S WHITE PAPER ON THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

A TASS DISPATCH FROM NEW YORK SAID THE AMERICAN COMMENTS ONLY REFLECT "AN EFFORT TO DENY THE FACT THAT THE AIM OF THE PACT IS THE FORCEFUL ESTABLISHMENT OF ANGLO-AMERICAN WORLD SOVEREIGNTY AND UNDERMINING OF THE UNITED NATIONS."

THE OFFICIAL SOVIET NEWS AGENCY DISPATCH SAID SOME NEWSPAPERS WERE AT THE SAME TIME TRYING TO PROVE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE SOVIET UNION FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT IN THE WORLD OF THE CONDITIONS THAT BROUGHT ABOUT THE WESTERN EUROPEAN UNION.

TASS QUOTED NEWS AGENCIES AS SAYING THE BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE DID NOT ATTEMPT TO DENY "THE ANTI-SOVIET DIRECTION" OF THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE.

UNDATED RUSSIAN

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE COMMUNISTS EAST OF THE IRON CURTAIN HAVE HAD A BUSY WEEK.

THE NET RESULT OF A WEEK OF WEIGHTY PRONOUNCEMENTS FROM THE KREMLIN AND SHADOWY MOVES ELSEWHERE PUZZLED THE WEST.

THE RUSSIANS AND THEIR MALLEABLE NEIGHBORS TALKED OF PEACE AND OF WAR. THEY HESITANTLY EXTENDED AN OLIVE BRANCH AND SLAPPED THE HAND THAT REACHED FOR IT. THE WEEK BURGEONED INTO A GRAND CLIMAX--THE ANNOUNCEMENT BY PRIME MINISTER STALIN THAT HE HAS NO OBJECTION TO MEETING PRESIDENT TRUMAN AT A MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE PLACE.

HOW FAR HAS THIS ADVANCED THE CAUSE OF PEACE? ONE GUESS IS AS GOOD AS ANOTHER, BUT IT IS PERTINENT TO NOTE THAT WITH ALL THE TONS OF WORDS WHICH CASCADED FROM MOSCOW AND HER NEIGHBOR CAPITALS THIS WEEK, LITTLE WAS SAID THAT HAD NOT BEEN SAID BEFORE.

HERE IS HOW THE COMMUNISTS' BUSY WEEK WENT:

MONDAY: THE SOVIET AMBASSADOR TO BRITAIN, GEORGI N.ZARUBIN, WAS RECALLED TO MOSCOW FOR HIGH LEVEL TALKS. IT WAS BELIEVED THESE HAD SOMETHING TO DO WITH SOVIET-BRITISH TRADE AND PROSPECTS FOR TALKS ON AN AUSTRIAN TREATY OF INDEPENDENCE. PRAVDA, THE MOSCOW COMMUNIST NEWSPAPER, ASSAILED THE ASIAN CONFERENCE ON INDONESIA AS A SOUNDING BOARD FOR THE PROPAGANDA OF THE WEST.

TUESDAY: THE SOVIET UNION ANNOUNCED FORMATION OF A SIX-NATION ECONOMIC COUNCIL OF MUTUAL AID (ECMA), OBVIOUSLY AS AN ANSWER TO THE MARSHALL PLAN. IT JOINS THE U.S.S.R., ROMANIA, BULGARIA, POLAND, HUNGARY AND CZECHOSLOVAKIA IN AN ECONOMIC ORGANIZATION, BUT OMITS YUGOSLAVIA, WHOSE COMMUNISTS ARE IN DISGRACE WITH MOSCOW. IT LEAVES THE DOOR OPEN TO OTHER NATIONS TO TAKE PART. IN BERLIN GERMAN COMMUNISTS

SET UP A LITTLE POLITBURO TO RUN THEIR AFFAIRS, PATTERNING THEMSELVES AFTER THE RUSSIAN SETUP AND AIMING AT THE SAME IDEOLOGICAL GOALS. THE RED PRESS HERALDED IT AS DEDICATED TO "PEACE, GERMAN UNITY AND A BETTER LIFE."

WEDNESDAY: MOSCOW OBSERVERS SPECULATED THAT ECMA MIGHT BRING A CURRENCY COMMON TO ALL ITS SIX MEMBER NATIONS, WITH THE SOVIET RUBLE AS THE LIKELY CANDIDATE. IN WARSAW A POLISH GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN PREDICTED TRADE PACTS LINKING EUROPEAN NATIONS WILL BE EMBRACED IN ONE BIG PACT UNDER ECMA, BUT HE SAID POLAND STILL WANTS TO DEVELOP HER BUSINESS RELATIONS WITH THE WEST.

THURSDAY: POLAND COMPLAINED THAT DISCRIMINATION BY THE UNITED STATES CAUSED A 50 PER CENT DROP IN HER EXPORTS, BUT SAID SHE WOULD NOT RETALIATE BY DISCRIMINATING AGAINST WESTERN COUNTRIES. RUSSIA ANNOUNCED QUOTAS FOR INCREASING TRADE BETWEEN HERSELF AND THE ECMA COUNTRIES. IN BERLIN GERMAN COMMUNIST LEADERS ADMITTED BAD SHORTCOMINGS IN INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTION OF RUSSIAN-OCCUPIED EASTERN GERMANY AND DEMANDED STERN MEASURES TO OVERCOME EFFECTS OF THE ALLIED COUNTER BLOCKADE.

SOVIET DEPUTY FOREIGN MINISTER A.I.VISHINSKY WENT TO PRAGUE, POSSIBLY ON AN ECMA MISSION, AND THERE WERE REPORTS HE WAS TROUBLE SHOOTING AGAINST THE TYPE OF COMMUNIST STRAYING WHICH PUT PREMIER-MARSHAL TITO OF YUGOSLAVIA IN THE DOGHOUSE. LATER HE WAS REPORTED ILL AT KARLSBAD. THE RADIO OF GREECE'S COMMUNISTS BROADCAST WHAT IT CALLED A PEACE OFFER TO THE GREEK GOVERNMENT. IT WAS LOOKED ON AS PART OF A COMMUNIST CAMPAIGN TO PICTURE THEMSELVES AS THE CHAMPIONS OF PEACE. THE GOVERNMENT IGNORED IT.

FRIDAY: GERMAN COMMUNISTS PROMISED EASTERN GERMANY A NEW ORDER BASED ON STRICTER DISCIPLINE, AND ASSERTED THE WEST WAS PREPARING WESTERN GERMANY AS A BASE FOR A NEW WAR.

SATURDAY: MOSCOW'S FOREIGN MINISTRY ISSUED A WHITE PAPER ON THE PROJECTED NORTH ATLANTIC DEFENSE ALLIANCE, CALLING IT A PLOT OF THE UNITED STATES TO UNDERMINE THE UNITED NATIONS. THE DOCUMENT, ONE OF THE LONGEST ISSUED BY THE MINISTRY IN MONTHS, SAID BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES WAS ENTERING ON AN "OPENLY AGGRESSIVE COURSE OF POLICY, THE FINAL PURPOSE OF WHICH IS ESTABLISHMENT BY FORCE OF ANGLO-AMERICAN WORLD DOMINATION."

TASS TURNED SOVIET PRESSURE ON NORWAY. THE RUSSIAN NEWS AGENCY DEMANDED THAT NORWAY EXPLAIN WHETHER SHE INTENDS TO JOIN THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT AND FURNISH THE WEST WITH MILITARY BASES.

SUNDAY: THE PROJECTED SCANDINAVIAN PACT OF SWEDEN, DENMARK AND NORWAY FAILED. NORWAY, UNDER PRESSURE FROM THE RUSSIANS NOT TO JOIN THE NORTH ATLANTIC ALLIANCE, SHIED AWAY FROM A REGIONAL ALLIANCE OF THE THREE SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES INDEPENDENT OF THE ATLANTIC PACT. STALIN SAID HE HAD NO OBJECTIONS TO MEETING PRESIDENT TRUMAN AT A MUTUALLY ACCEPTABLE PLACE TO TALK PEACE AND MEASURES LEADING TO GRADUAL DISARMAMENT. AT LAKE SUCCESS IT WAS PREDICTED RUSSIA ONCE AGAIN WOULD BRING OUT HER PROPOSAL FOR A CUT OF ONE THIRD IN THE ARMS OF THE BIG FIVE POWERS AND A BAN ON THE ATOM BOMB.

UMDA D SOVIET REACTION OUTLOOK.

IN WASHINGTON, THE STATE DEPARTMENT SAID NO FORMAL APPROACH FOR A TRUMAN-STALIN MEETING HAD BEEN MADE BY RUSSIA.

NO CHANGE HAS BEEN REPORTED IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S ATTITUDE SINCE FORMER UNDERSECRETARY ROBERT LOVETT SAID RECENTLY THE UNITED STATES WOULD WELCOME ACTIONS TO SUIT THE PEACEFUL WORDS UTTERED BY COMMUNISTS ALL OVER EUROPE IN THE LAST FEW WEEKS.

30.24- 719

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE SAID STALIN'S REMARKS "WILL BE WELCOMED BY THOSE WHO ARE ANXIOUS TO PRESERVE WORLD PEACE AND TO STIMULATE INTERNATIONAL HARMONY."

STATE DEPARTMENT EXPERTS HAVE LONG BEEN CONVINCED, HOWEVER, THAT STATEMENTS SUCH AS YESTERDAY'S BY STALIN ARE A KIND OF TACTICAL MANEUVER ON HIS PART. THEY SPECULATE THAT THE KREMLIN WOULD LIKE VERY MUCH AT PRESENT TO DISRUPT WESTERN POWER PLANS TO UNIFY THE STRENGTH OF THE WEST. JAN 1949

A BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE SPOKESMAN IN LONDON SAID OF THE STALIN REPLIES,

"ANY MAN'S GUESS IS AS GOOD AS ANOTHER'S AND ALL WE CAN DO IS SPECULATE. STALIN'S ANSWERS ARE OBSCURE AS TO DETAILS AND THEIR IMPLICATIONS REQUIRE STUDY." JAN 1949

THE UNOFFICIAL CONSENSUS WAS THAT THE TIMING OF THE REPLIES IN REGA TO OTHER RECENT STATEMENTS BY RUSSIAN AND OTHER EUROPEAN COMMUNIST LEADERS IS SIGNIFICANT.

THE STALIN STATEMENTS WOULD SEEM TO CAP WHAT HAS BEEN TERMED A "PEACE OFFENSIVE." COMMUNIST STALWARTS IN RUSSIA, FRANCE, ITALY AND GERMANY HAVE BEEN ASSERTING RUSSIA WANTS PEACE AND THAT RUSSIA AND THE WEST CAN GET ALONG TOGETHER.

BUT THESE STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY VIOLENT ATTACKS ON THE WESTERN NATIONS, ESPECIALLY THE U.S., AS PLANNERS OF AGGRESSION.

ONE BRITISH SOURCE SAID "IT MAY BE THAT THESE REPLIES ARE DESIGNED TO TEMPT THE TRUMAN ADMINISTRATION INTO MAKING ONE MORE BID FOR A DIRECT APPROACH TO MOSCOW, THUS IGNORING BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

"OR IT MAY BE THAT THE CHIEF PURPOSE IS TO DISTRACT ATTENTION FROM THE NORTH ATLANTIC PACT WHICH SEEMS TO BE SHAPING UP SO WELL."

LONDON NEWSPAPERS EXPRESSED SIMILAR THOUGHTS EDITORIALLY.

1949

MOST SECTIONS OF THE PRESS OF WESTERN EUROPE THOUGHT THE STATEMENT A TRANSPARENT ATTEMPT TO BLUNT ENTHUSIASM FOR THE FAST-SHAPING COMMON FRONT AGAINST RUSSIAN PRESSURE.

NEWSPAPERS OF VARIOUS POLITICAL HUE OTHER THAN RED WARNED THAT THE SOVIET PREMIER'S SOFT TALK CONTRASTS SHARPLY WITH THE BITTER BLAST FROM MOSCOW LAST WEEKEND AGAINST THE DEVELOPING ATLANTIC PACT.

JAN 1949

THAT BLAST WAS AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT FROM THE USSR MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

THE SOVIET UNION FOLLOWED IT UP WITH A NOTE TO NORWAY DEMANDING TO KNOW WHETHER THE SCANDINAVIAN REPUBLIC INTENDS TO JOIN THE ATLANTIC ALLIANCE AND REMARKING POINTEDLY THAT RUSSIA AND NORWAY HAVE A COMMON FRONTIER.

"STALIN'S APPEARANCE AS ORACLE IS A FAMILIAR OCCURRENCE AND IS ALWAYS DESIGNED TO SPREAD CONFUSION," SAID A SKEPTICAL EDITORIAL IN THE LIBERAL MANCHESTER GUARDIAN.

THE CONSERVATIVE DAILY MAIL TOOK MUCH THE SAME VIEW: "MORE THAN ONCE STALIN HAS SPOKEN SOFT WORDS WHILE HIS EMISSARIES HAVE THROWN SPANNERS INTO THE PEACE MACHINERY. HE HAS NOT ALTERED HIS WORDS-- BUT THE SPANNERS ARE STILL THERE."

LORD BEAVERBROOK'S DAILY EXPRESS, TAGGED STALIN'S REMARKS AS "A NEW PROPAGANDA BLITZ."

"IT IS DIRECTED MAINLY AGAINST WESTERN UNION AND ITS LATEST DEVELOPMENT, THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE," THE EXPRESS SAID.

THE LABORITE DAILY HERALD SAID "MR. MOLOTOV PLAYS UPON FEARS. MR. STALIN TRIES TO AROUSE HOPES.

"BUT IT IS NOTICEABLE THAT MR. STALIN IS VERY NON-COMMITTAL."

IN BRUSSELS, THE SOCIALIST LE PEUPLE SAID THE STALIN STATEMENTS AND THE NOTE TO NORWAY GIVE "THE IMPRESSION OF A VAST MANEUVER DESTINED TO CREATE THE BELIEF THAT THE ATLANTIC PACT IS WITHOUT AN OBJECT AND IT IS THEREFORE USELESS TO CONCLUDE IT."

JAN 1949

LA NATION BELGE, BELGIUM'S CATHOLIC-CONSERVATIVE ORGAN, SAID THE DEVELOPMENTS FURNISH NEW PROOF THAT "RUSSIA IS COUNTING ON A THIRD WORLD WAR IN ORDER TO COMPLETE HER CONQUEST OF THE WORLD."

SKEPTICISM WAS UNANIMOUS IN THE PRESS OF WESTERN GERMANY.

"NOBODY IN THE WEST WILL BE SO FOOLISH AS TO BELIEVE IN STALIN'S HONESTY," SAID THE WIESBADENER KURIER. "IF THIS REPRESENTS HIS REAL ATTITUDE, HE WOULD HAVE TRIED FOR AN UNDERSTANDING EARLIER."

IT CALLED HIS MOVE "SLY AND CLUMSY, IF WE INCLUDE THE NOTE TO THE NORWEGIAN GOVERNMENT."

IN PARIS THE MIDDLE-OF-THE-ROAD LE PARISIEN COMMENTED: "IN 48 HOURS MOSCOW ATTACKS... AND HOLDS OUT ITS HAND."

THE COMMUNIST L'HUMANITE POINTED UP THE CONTRAST WITHOUT RESORTING TO EDITORIAL COMMENT. IT FRONTPAGED THE TEXT OF THE STALIN QUESTION-AND ANSWER EXCHANGE-- AND ON PAGES THREE AND FOUR THE TEXT OF MOLOTOV'S STATEMENT ATTACKING THE ATLANTIC PACT AS A SCHEME FOR AMERICAN WORLD DOMINATION.

A TOPRANKING MEMBER OF THE AUSTRIAN GOVERNMENT EXPRESSED HOPE THAT STALIN'S ANSWERS MAY BODE WELL FOR THE LONDON CONFERENCE OF FOREIGN MINISTERS ON A PEACE TREATY FOR AUSTRIA. THESE TALKS ARE SLATED TO BEGIN FEB. 7 OR A LITTLE LATER.

THERE ISN'T A LINE OF CONCRETE EVIDENCE IN ANY OF THE ANSWERS. NOT AN IDEA THAT HE HASN'T EXPRESSED BEFORE. NOR HAS THERE BEEN A SINGLE RUSSIAN ACTION TO RELIEVE THE PRESSURE WHICH CAUSES ALL THE COUNTER-PRESSURE.

STALIN DID DROP THE FALSE FRONT THAT CURRENCY IS THE BASIS OF ALL THE TROUBLE OVER BERLIN AND ADMIT THAT THE BLOCKADE THERE IS DESIGNED TO FORCE THE ALLIES TO HALT THEIR PLANS FOR A WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT.

THESE GYRATIONS ARE PRODUCED BY THE BLOWS WHICH COMMUNIST IMPERIALIST AMBITIONS ARE RECEIVING. THEY ARE NOT PART OF A REAL PEACE MOVE. NOR A THREAT OF ACTUAL WAR. JUST ANOTHER INCIDENT IN THE COLD WAR.

RQ311PES

JAN 1949

KING ABDULLAH'S NATION HAS NOT BEEN INVITED, BUNCHE TOLD A REPORTER, AND "I HAVE NO WORD FROM THEM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER TALKS." HE STRESSED THAT THE TALKS HERE ARE LIMITED TO JEWS AND EGYPTIANS. RHODES - XXX TALKS HERE.

A DISPATCH FROM AMMAN HINTED, HOWEVER, AT AN EXPECTATION THAT TRANS-JORDAN WOULD BE INVITED TO RHODES AND THAT IF A BID CAME SHE WOULD ACCEPT. THE FEELING AT AMMAN WAS THAT SUCH A MOVE WOULD ADVANCE THE CAUSE OF PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND BECAUSE IT WOULD INDUCE OTHER ARAB NATIONS AT WAR WITH ISRAEL TO FALL INTO LINE. WITH THE RECOGNITION OF ISRAEL BY BRITAIN, IT WAS FELT THAT THE ARAB NATIONS, AND PARTICULARLY TRANS-JORDAN, BRITAIN'S ALLY, COULD NOT FIGHT ON AGAINST THE NEW STATE.

TEL AVIV, ISRAEL, JAN. 31-(AP)-PRIME MINISTER DAVID BEN-GURION DECLARED TONIGHT THAT THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE NEW ISRAELI GOVERNMENT WILL AIM AT FRIENDSHIP AND COOPERATION WITH BOTH THE UNITED STATES AND RUSSIA.

(PRESIDENT TRUMAN ANNOUNCED IN WASHINGTON MONDAY THAT THE UNITED STATES HAD NOW GRANTED DE JURE RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL, MEANING THE TWO COUNTRIES WILL EXCHANGE AMBASSADORS. THE U.S.ALSO GRANTED DE JURE RECOGNITION TO TRANS-JORDAN, PREVIOUSLY UNRECOGNIZED.

(THE SOVIET UNION HAD PREVIOUSLY GRANTED FULL RECOGNITION TO ISRAEL. THERE IS AN ISRAELI AMBASSADOR IN MOSCOW AND A SOVIET AMBASSADOR IN TEL AVIV.)

BEN-GURION'S MAPAI PARTY LED ALL OTHERS IN THE VOTING FOR THE CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY LAST TUESDAY. IT IS EXPECTED HE WILL BE ENTRUSTED WITH FORMATION OF A GOVERNMENT TO REPLACE THE PROVISIONAL REGIME. THIS WILL COME AFTER THE ASSEMBLY MEETS FEB. 14 TO BEGIN THE JOB OF DRAFTING A CONSTITUTION.

BEN-GURION SPOKE BY RADIO TO ISRAEL FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE THE ELECTIONS.

HE SAID THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE NEW CABINET WILL ALSO INCLUDE THE SEEKING OF A JEWISH-ARAB ALLIANCE, LOYAL SUPPORT OF THE UNITED NATIONS AND "PROMOTION OF WORLD PEACE."

HE SAID THE POLICY OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT WILL INCLUDE "COMPLETE CIVIC EQUALITY FOR WOMEN--JEWISH, CHRISTIAN AND MOSLEM--ON THE BASIS OF FULL EQUALITY FOR ALL CITIZENS REGARDLESS OF RACE, RELIGION, NATIONALITY AND SEX."

HE ALSO STRESSED THE NEED FOR GOVERNMENT-DIRECTED LARGE SCALE ECONOMIC PLANNING.

BEN-GURION SAID THE GOAL OF ZIONIST-SOCIALIST POLICY IS "THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE IN THEIR OWN LAND INTO A FREE COOPERATIVE COMMONWEALTH OF LABOR, LIBERATED FROM THE CURSE OF MAN'S EXPLOITATION BY MAN."

HE SAID THE NEW GOVERNMENT MUST INCREASE STEADILY THE STANDARD OF LIVING, IMPROVE WORKING CONDITIONS AND PROVIDE EDUCATIONAL AND HEALTH FACILITIES FOR ALL, JEWS AND ARABS ALIKE.

BEN-GURION SAID THE GOVERNMENT MUST INTRODUCE A FAR-REACHING SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM FOR ALL ITS CITIZENS, OUTROOT ILLITERACY, INTRODUCE PROGRESSIVE FARM AND AGRICULTURAL LEGISLATION, FOSTER UNITY OF THE TRADE UNION MOVEMENT, AND ENCOURAGE DEVELOPMENT OF WORKERS' SETTLEMENTS AND LABOR COOPERATIVES OF ALL TYPES.

TEL AVIV,JAN.31-(AP)-AN ASSEMBLY DOMINATED NUMERICALLY BY TWO RIVAL LABOR PARTIES WILL FORM ISRAEL'S FIRST REGULAR GOVERNMENT, PROBABLY WITHIN THE NEXT TWO WEEKS.

JAN 1949

PRESUMABLY THE ASSEMBLY, CHOSEN IN LAST WEEK'S ELECTION, WILL NAME AS THE NEW STATE'S FIRST PRESIDENT DR.CHAIM WEIZMANN, LONG-TIME

ZIONIST LEADER WHO HAS BEEN PRESIDENT OF THE PROVISIONAL COUNCIL OF STATE.

IT IS EXPECTED TO RETURN DAVID BEN-GURION TO THE POST OF PREMIER-DEFENSE MINISTER, THE STRONG MAN POST HE HELD IN THE PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT.

(PESSIMISM DOMINATED TALKS AT RHODES WHERE RALPH BUNCHE, ACTING UNITED NATIONS PALESTINE MEDIATOR, CONTINUED JEWISH-EGYPTIAN ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS. BUNCHE IS EXPECTED TO MEET SEPARATELY TOMORROW WITH BOTH GROUPS AND PRESENT PROPOSALS ON BOUNDARY DISPUTES. BOTH SIDES ARE EXPECTED TO REJECT THE PROPOSALS.

(OBSERVERS SAID BOTH EGYPTIANS AND JEWS BELIEVE FURTHER TALKS WILL NOT BRING THEM ANY CLOSER, BUT NEITHER THEY NOR BUNCHE WANT TO TAKE THE INITIATIVE IN BREAKING OFF THE TALKS.)

BEN-GURION'S CLOSELY-KNIT MAPAI PARTY, A LEFT WING LABOR GROUP, WON 152,972 VOTES, OR SLIGHTLY UNDER 36 PERCENT OF THE TOTAL OF 427,027 VOTES CAST, ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIAL PRELIMINARY TABULATION. MAPAI WILL HOLD 44 OF THE 120 SEATS IN THE ASSEMBLY -- THE LARGEST SINGE BLOC.

MAPAM, THE OTHER LABOR FACTION, FINISHED SECOND TO MAPAI, WINNING JUST UNDER 15 PER CENT OF THE POPULAR VOTE. THIS GAVE IT 18 SEATS IN THE ASSEMBLY.

THIRD IN THE ELECTION WAS A RELIGIOUS BLOC COMPOSED OF FOUR SEPARATE PARTIES WHICH WANT THE JEWISH ORTHODOX TRADITION INSTILLED IN THE NEW GOVERNMENT. THIS GROUP HAD 12 PERCENT OF THE VOTE AND TOOK 15 ASSEMBLY SEATS.

THE GENERAL ZIONISTS, TO WHICH WEIZMANN BELONGS, WERE DOWN THE LIST WITH SEVEN DELEGATES. THE ASSEMBLY WILL DRAFT A CONSTITUTION AND FORM A REGULAR GOVERNMENT. IT WILL ORGANIZE THE SECOND WEEK IN FEBRUARY.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT MAY BE EITHER A COALITION OF TWO OR MORE PARTIES TO FORM A WORKING MAJORITY OR IT MAY BE A UNITED FRONT OF MOST ALL PARTIES.

THE MAPAI PARTY HAS TALKED TO RIVAL MAPAM LEADERS ABOUT A POSSIBLE COALITION, WHICH WOULD PROVIDE A SLIM MAJORITY CONTROL. SO FAR MAPAM HAS NOT AGREED AND MOST OBSERVERS DOUBT IT WILL.

IT IS REGARDED MORE LIKELY MAPAI WILL TURN TO THE UNITED RELIGIOUS GROUPS AND TO ONE OR TWO MINOR CENTER PARTIES FOR ITS WORKING MAJORITY.

OTHERWISE IT WILL FORM A UNITED FRONT GOVERNMENT -- WITHOUT, HOWEVER, INCLUSION OF THE HERUT (FREEDOM) PARTY, A RIGHT WING GROUP FORMED BY EX-MEMBERS OF THE DISBANDED EXTREMIST IRGUN ZVAI LEUMI.

THE HERUT PARTY, HEADED BY MENACHEM BEIGIN, FORMER IRGUN LEADER, FINISHED FOURTH IN THE ELECTIION, WITH 11 1/2 PERCENT OF THE VOTE AND 14 ASSEMBLY SEATS. THIS WAS THE ONLY REAL UPSET IN THE ELECTION. MOST OBSERVERS HAD FIGURED BEIGIN'S GROUP WOULD FINISH A WEAK SECOND TO MAPAI.

THE COMMUNISTS, INCLUDING BOTH JEWS AND ARABS, WOUND UP EIGHTH WITH 3 1/2 PERCENT OF THE POPULAR VOTE. THEY HAVE TWO SEATS IN THE PRESENT PROVISIONAL ASSEMBLY AND WILL HAVE FOUR IN THE NEW ONE. THIS WILL ACTUALLY BE A DECREASE IN COMMUNIST VOTING STRENGTH BECAUSE THE PROVISIONAL ASSEMBLY HAS ONLY 37 MEMBERS.

THE "FIGHTERS" GROUP, COMPOSED OF MANY FORMER MEMBERS OF THE EXTREMIST STERN ORGANIZATION, WON ONE ASSEMBLY SEAT.

TRANS-JORDAN

BY JOHN RODERICK

AMMAN, TRANS-JORDAN, JAN. 31-(AP)-THE RUGGED LITTLE KINGDOM OF TRANS-JORDAN, WHICH THE UNITED STATES RECOGNIZED TODAY, HAS BEEN INDEPENDENT SINCE 1946.

BRITAIN RECOGNIZED HER AS A SOVEREIGN INDEPENDENT STATE IN A TREATY SIGNED MARCH 22, 1946. ON MAY 25 OF THAT YEAR THE ARAB STATE'S RULER CHANGED HIS TITLE FROM EMIR TO KING. THE FOLLOWING MONTH THE NAME OF THE STATE WAS CHANGED TO THE "HASHIMITE KINGDOM OF TRANS-JORDAN."

LAST MAY 15 THE NEW STATE SIGNED A 20-YEAR MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT WITH BRITAIN.

TRANS-JORDAN BECAME A HEREDITARY CONSTITUTIONAL EMIRATE UNDER THE GENERAL SUPERVISION OF THE BRITISH PALESTINE HIGH COMMISSIONER IN 1920.

THE STATE FORMS PART OF THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF THE GREAT ARABIAN PLATEAU. MUCH OF IT IS DESERT.

RULED OVER BY COLORFUL, MOSLEM ABDULLAH, WHOSE FATHER, HUSSEIN, LED AN ARAB REVOLT AGAINST THE TURKS, TRANS-JORDAN OCCUPIES A STRATEGIC PLACE IN THE PRESENT PALESTINE SETTLEMENT.

ANNEXATION OF ARAB AREAS IN PALESTINE IN THE NEAR FUTURE MAY GREATLY ENLARGE HER BORDERS AND PLACE ABDULLAH IN A KEY SPOT IN THE ARAB WORLD.

ALTHOUGH THE UNITED STATES HAS WITHHELD RECOGNITION UNTIL NOW, WASHINGTON HAS BEEN IN UNOFFICIAL TOUCH WITH THE ARAB STATE, THROUGH U.S. VICE CONSUL WELLS STABLER AT JERUSALEM.

IN 1922 TRANS-JORDAN WAS EXCLUDED FROM THE PALESTINE MANDATE CLAUSE PROVIDING FOR A JEWISH NATIONAL HOME. THIS MADE IT VIRTUALLY IMPOSSIBLE FOR JEWS TO ACQUIRE LAND IN TRANS-JORDAN.

AT THE OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR II, ABDULLAH PLACED HIS ARAB LEGION AT THE ALLIES' DISPOSAL. IT HELPED OUST THE VICHY (FRENCH) GOVERNMENT IN SYRIA. DRESSED IN BRITISH BATTLE GARB, WITH COLORFUL HEAD-DRESS, THE LEGION IS CONSIDERED ABOUT THE BEST OF THE ARAB FIGHTING FORCES.

THE BURMA CABINET WOULD HAVE TO RULE ON ANY AGREEMENT, THE INFORMANT SAID.
MEANWHILE FIGHTING CONTINUED AT BASSEIN, IRRAWADDY DELTA PORT ABOUT 100 MILES WEST OF RANGOON, AND THERE WERE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS THAT GOVERNMENT TROOPS HAD RECAPTURED THE RAILROAD TOWN OF TOUNGOO, MID-WAY ON THE RANGOON-TO-MANDALAY LINE.
THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THE REBELS HAD BEEN DRIVEN FROM BASSEIN, IN THE HEART OF BURMA'S RICE BOWL, BUT INDEPENDENT REPORTS TODAY SAID KARENS WERE STILL HOLDING OUT IN A HIGH SCHOOL BUILT BY AN AMERICAN BAPTIST MISSION.
FIRES WERE RAGING AND MORE THAN 3,000 WERE REPORTED HOMELESS.
GOVERNMENT TROOPS SEVERAL DAYS AGO LAUNCHED AN ALL-OUT ASSAULT ON TOUNGOO. KAREN CONTROL OF THAT CITY HAD ISOLATED RANGOON, THE CAPITAL, FROM NORTHERN BURMA.
FIGHTING CONTINUED IN OTHER SCATTERED AREAS.
TWO AMERICAN MISSIONARIES WERE REPORTED STILL IN BASSEIN AFTER THREE OTHERS AND A NUMBER OF BRITISH SUBJECTS WERE FLOWN OUR YESTERDAY. THEY WERE ERVILLE E. SOWARDS, OF GRANVILLE, OHIO, AND MRS. CHARLES CONRAD. MRS. CONRAD'S HOME CITY IN THE UNITED STATES WAS NOT AVAILABLE.

THE BURMESE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY THAT REBELLING KAREN TRIBESMEN HAD BEEN DRIVEN FROM BASSEIN BUT INDEPENDENT REPORTS TODAY SAID KARENS WERE STILL HOLDING OUT IN A HIGH SCHOOL BUILT BY AN AMERICAN BAPTIST MISSION.
THE OTHER MISSIONARY STILL REPORTED IN BASSEIN IS ERVILLE E. SOWARDS, OF GRANVILLE, OHIO.
MRS.FLORENCE HOLBERT, OF (23 BANK ST.) SUSSEX, N.J., DAUGHTER OF MRS.CONRAD OF LOUISVILLE, KY., TOLD THE ASSOCIATED PRESS THAT HER FATHER AND MOTHER HAD SERVED AS MISSIONARIES IN BURMA FOR 30 YEARS.
SHE SAID THE HIGH SCHOOL IN WHICH THE KARENS REPORTEDLY STILL WERE HOLDING OUT PROBABLY WAS BUILT BY HER FATHER.
SHE SAID SHE DID NOT KNOW WHY HER FATHER WAS NOT WITH HER MOTHER. SHE SPECULATED HE EITHER HAD GONE TO RANGOON ON A BUSINESS TRIP FOR THE MISSION OR WAS IN ONE OF THE 100 CHURCHES BUILT IN THE JUNGLES BY THE MISSION.
MRS.HOLBERT SAID THAT DURING THE WAR HER FATHER WAS HEAD OF THE KARACHI OFFICE OF THE OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION.

HSUEH CONFIRMED REPORTS THAT SOONG, A BROTHER-IN-LAW OF CHIANG AND ONE OF THE WORLD'S RICHEST MEN, HAD PROMISED TO DONATE MONEY FOR THE DEFENSE OF KWANGTUNG PROVINCE. HSUEH SAID THAT SOONG "ALSO SHOULD ASK AID WHEN HE GOES TO AMERICA."
AT HONG KONG LAST WEEK SOONG DENIED THAT HE WOULD GO TO THE UNITED STATES, WHERE HIS SISTER, MADAME CHIANG, IS NOW. FRIENDS HAD SAID HE FEARED KIDNAPERS AND PLANNED TO GO THERE QUIETLY IN ABOUT TWO WEEKS.
HSUEH TERMED CHINA'S FIGHT AGAINST COMMUNISM AMERICA'S FIGHT IN THE PACIFIC AND SAID IT NOW CENTERS IN THE SOUTHERN PROVINCES. HE ADDED THAT AT PRESENT HIS FORCES ARE OUTNUMBERED BY 60,000 DISSIDENTS WITHIN KWANGTUNG PROVINCE. CANTON, JAN. 31-(AP)-A NEW ANTI-COMMUNIST FORCE BRISTLED IN SOUTH CHINA TODAY AFTER ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNT-JEN FLEW FROM NANKING TO SHANGHAI IN AN EFFORT TO ORGANIZE MINORITY GROUPS BEHIND HIS PEACE PLANS.
GEN.HSUEH YUEH, HERO OF THE CHINESE-JAPANESE WAR, JUMPED INTO THE BREECH WITH A DECLARATION THAT THE FOUR SOUTHERN PROVINCES OF KWANGTUNG, HUNAN, FUKIEN AND KWANGSI, WOULD FIGHT ON AGAINST THE REDS REGARDLESS OF NANKING'S DECISIONS. HE INTIMATED, TOO, THAT HE WOULD IGNORE CHIANG KAI-SHEK IF THE RETIRED PRESIDENT TRIED A COMEBACK.
LI FLEW TO SHANGHAI AND THEN RETURNED QUICKLY TO NANKING, INDICATING THAT MINORITY LEADERS AND MADAME SUN YAT-SEN, WIDOW OF THE FATHER OF THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA, HAD REFUSED TO JOIN HIM IN TRYING TO BRING PEACE BETWEEN THE NATIONALISTS AND THE COMMUNISTS, WHO WERE CAMPED SIX MILES NORTH OF WIDE OPEN NANKING. THE CAPITAL GAVE THE APPEARANCE THAT IT MIGHT BECOME AN OPEN CITY AS ITS DEFENDERS PULLED OUT AND AWAY BY THE THOUSANDS.
AS THE WAR RUMBLED TOWARD SOUTH CHINA, OLD PEIPING ONCE MORE FELT THE HEEL OF THE CONQUEROR. INTO THE ANCIENT CAPITAL MARCHED 20,000 GRIM, SWEAT STAINED COMMUNIST SOLDIERS BEHIND TWO BANDS. MUTE THRONGS LINED THE STREETS OF THE CITY OVERRUN FREQUENTLY SINCE THE DAYS OF GHENGIS KHAN.
IN THE SOUTH THE FOUR PROVINCE COALITION HAS BEEN MAPPED OUT.

FIRST LEAD PEIPING (140)
BY SPENCER MOOSA.
PEIPING, JAN 31-(AP)-THE CONQUERORS ENTERED PEIPING TODAY.
AN ESTIMATED 15,000 TO 20,000 OF THEM, HEADED BY TWO BANDS, MARCHED IN THROUGH THE CITY'S NORTHWESTERN GATE ON THE ROAD LEADING INTO PEIPING FROM THE SUMMER PALACE.
CROWDS WATCHED THE MARCH OF THE COMMUNISTS WHOSE EQUIPMENT INCLUDED BAZOOKAS AND OTHER AMERICAN WEAPONS CAPTURED FROM THE DEFEATED NATIONALISTS.
THE SPECTATORS SHOWED NO SIGNS OF HOSTILITY NOR DID THEY GIVE VENT TO JOY. THE ONLY EMOTION THEY DISPLAYED OUTWARDLY WAS CURIOSITY. THE REDS, THEMSELVES, WERE SOLEMN, ALMOST GRIM.
THEY DID NOT LOOK LIKE PARADE GROUND TROOPS. THEY WERE SWEATY AND TIRED AND FROM THEIR FACES YOU COULD NOT TELL THEY WERE CONSCIOUS OF ENACTING A FATEFUL DRAMA IN THE HISTORY OF THIS ANCIENT CITY WHOSE MANY VICTORS HAVE INCLUDED GENGHIS KHAN, THE GREAT MONGOL WARRIOR.

UNDER THE LOCAL PEACE AGREEMENT OF JAN. 22, THE COMMUNISTS ARE SCHEDULED TO TAKE OVER THE CITY TOMORROW.
THE PLAN CALLS FOR THE CITY TO BE OPERATED BY A JOINT COMMITTEE, COMPOSED OF FOUR COMMUNISTS AND THREE NATIONALISTS.
NATIONALIST TROOPS HAVE BEEN MARCHED OUT OF THE CITY, EXCEPT FOR PEN LEFT BEHIND TO AID LOCAL POLICE IN KEEPING ORDER.

BY HAROLD K.MILKS
NANKING, JAN.31-(AP)-CHINA'S CIVIL WAR HAS ENTERED ANOTHER OF THOSE STRANGE LULLS WHICH HAVE MARKED ALMOST EVERY IMPORTANT PHASE OF THIS LONG STRUGGLE.
BOTH POLITICAL AND MILITARY ACTIVITIES APPEARED SUSPENDED IN THIS CAPITAL-IN-NAME-ONLY. BEHIND THE SCENES, SOME FORMAL SOLUTION OF THE WAR, AT LEAST FOR THE YANGTZE VALLEY, STILL WAS BEING SOUGHT BUT THE TRIUMPHANT COMMUNISTS HAVE SHOWN MARKED RELUCTANCE TO NEGOTIATE.
THEY APPEAR EQUALLY SHY AT TAKING THE FINAL STEP THAT WILL BRING THEIR ARRMIES TO THE NORTH BANK OF THE YANGTZE FACING NANKING. THEY HAVE DAWDLED ABOUT SIX MILES AWAY FOR MORE THAN A WEEK.
IF ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN LEAVES NANKING--AND IT IS SAID HE WILL JOIN THE REFUGEE GOVERNMENT IN CANTON IF ALL HOPES OF NEGOTIATION FAIL--THERE WILL BE LEFT A POPULARTION OF MORE THAN A MILLION IN A CITY WITHOUT SPECIAL ACTIVITIES OR IMPORTANCE. THE GOVERNMENT MINISTRIES THAT REMAIN ARE MOSTLY SEMI-ABANDONED BUILDINGS FROM WHICH TOP OFFICIALS HAVE LONG SINCE GONE.
EVACUATION OF THOSE WHO FEAR LIFE UNDER THE REDS CONTINUES STEADILY, LONG CARAVANS OF TRUCKS AND CARS ROLL DAILY OUT OF NANKING ON THE ROAD TO SHANGHAI.
ACTING PRESIDENT LI IS MOVING HIS OWN TRUSTED PEOPLE IN SO HE CAN RETAIN SOME CONTROL IN CASE ANY DEAL WITH THE COMMUNISTS PROVES POSSIBLE. HE IS EXPECTED TO NAME GEN.HSIAO WEI AS MAYOR AND GEN.CHANG KAN AS GARRISON COMMANDER OVER THE TROOPS HE BROUGHT UP FROM CENTRAL CHINA.
THE AIR FORCE IS ALL GONE EXCEPT FOR A HALF-DOZEN TRANSPORTS AT THE INNER FIELD AND LESS THAN 20 FIGHTERS AT THE OUTER FIELD WHERE 250 WARPLANES WERE BASED A FORT NIGHT AGO.
ARMY UNITS CONTINUE TO MOVE OUT OF NANKING AND AWAY FROM THE RIVER, LEAVING WOUNDED AND UNARMED STRAGGLERS BEHIND, FORAGING FOR FOOD AND SHELTER.
THE POLICE ARE STILL OPERATING, ALTHOUGH SOME OF THEM HAVE LEFT TOO. ELECTRIC AND WATER SERVICES ARE ACTUALLY BETTER THAN THEY WERE A WEEK AGO, THOUGH RATIONIN CONTINUES.
THE MAILS ARE AS EFFICIENT AS EVER. THIS CORRESPONDENT RECEIVED A LETTER TODAY THAT HAD BEEN POSTMARKED IN THE AMERICAN MIDDLE WEST JAN.24---GOOD TIME UNDER NORMAL CONDITIONS.

XSHANGHAI, JAN. 31-(AP)-ACTING PRESIDENT LI TSUNG-JEN ARRIVED AT SHANGHAI'S LUNGHWA AIRFIELD AT NOON TODAY FROM NANKING. HE WAS ON AN UNDISCLOSED MISSION.
HIS POLITICAL ADVISER KAN CHIEH-HOU, WHO ARRIVED YESTERDAY TO CONTACT "NON-POLITICAL" CIRCLES IN AN EFFORT TO BOLSTER THE NATIONALISTS SAGGING CAMPAIGN FOR PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS, RETURNED TO NANKING THIS MORNING.
IN NANKING SOURCES CLOSE TO THE PRESIDENT'S OFFICE SAID LI FLEW TO SHANGHAI "IN PURSUIT OF EFFORTS TOWARD PEACE WITH THE COMMUNISTS."
THESE SAME SOURCES INSISTED LI WAS NOT LEAVING NANKING PERMANENTLY BUT WOULD GO BACK THERE WITHIN TWO DAYS.
IN SHANGHAI HE WAS EXPECTED TO CONFER WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF MINORITY POLITICAL GROUPS AND TO MAKE A SECOND ATTEMPT TO PERSUADE LIBERAL DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE LEADERS TO LEND THEIR EFFORTS TOWARD A NEGOTIATED PEACE. LI WAS ACCOMPANIED BY TWO MEMBERS OF HIS OFFICIAL PEACE DELEGATION, SHAO LI-TZE, FORMER AMBASSADOR TO MOSCOW, AND WU YU-HOU.
THE ARRIVAL OF LI CAME A SHORT TIME AFTER IT HAD BEEN STRONGLY RUMORED IN NANKING THAT HE PLANNED TO FLEE TO CANTON, WHERE THE GOVERNMENT HAS ANNOUNCED IT WILL BEGIN FUNCTIONING ON FEB. 5.
NANKING ITSELF TODAY APPROACHED THE STRANGE STATE OF BEING NEITHER NATIONALIST NOR RED BUT AN ISLAND BETWEEN THE TWO WARRING GOVERNMENTS.
THERE HAVE BEEN NO INDICATIONS THAT ANY RED OFFICIALS ACTUALLY HAVE ENTERED THE CAPITAL. BUT THEY COULD IF THEY WISHED.
THE CITY IS PRACTICALLY DEFENSELESS. SOLDIERS AND NAVAL UNITS, ONCE TO HAVE BEEN THE DEFENDERS OF NANKING, HAVE PULLED OUT FOR THE SOUTH.
COMMUNIST ARMIES ARE IDLING SIX MILES NORTH OF NANKING, WHERE THEY HAVE BEEN FOR A WEEK. APPARENTLY THEY ARE WAITING FOR ACTION ON THE RED RADIO DEMAND OF SATURDAY THAT RETIRED PRESIDENT CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND OTHER KUOMINTANG OFFICIALS ON THE COMMUNIST "WAR CRIMINALS" LIST BE ARRESTED.
WITH ELECTRIC AND WATER SERVICES CONTINUING, NANKING'S UTILITIES ARE FUNCTIONING BETTER THAN THEY WERE A WEEK AGO. REPORTS FROM THERE TODAY SAID FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THREE YEARS NO MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DR. SUN YAT-SEN, FOUNDER OF THE REPUBLIC, WAS HELD ON MONDAY MORNING.
LI'S ADVISERS IN NANKING DENY THAT THE ACTING PRESIDENT PLANS TO GO TO CANTON. BUT ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENT HAROLD MILKS SAID HE LEARNED FROM OTHER SOURCES THAT LI HAD MADE RESERVATIONS FOR HIS PARTY TO GO TO CANTON.
NANKING APPEARED TO BE MOVING TOWARD THE STATUS OF AN OPEN CITY, ALTHOUGH THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL MOVE TO DECLARE IT SUCH.
ALL ALONG THE LINE PEACE EFFORTS BY THE GOVERNMENT SEEM TO BE BOGGING DOWN. NANKING CITY COUNCILMEN WHO WANT A SEPARATE PEACE FOR THE CITY HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO MUSTER A QUORUM TO CALL ON THE COMMUNISTS ON THE NORTH SIDE OF THE YANGTZE RIVER.
LI'S FIVE PEACE ENVOYS TODAY WERE SCATTERED AND NOT LIKELY TO REASSEMBLE SOON FOR ANY PROJECTED TALKS WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENSE ATTORNEY JAMES J. LAUGHLIN BROUGHT FORTH THIS EXCHANGE:

"YOU MAKE YOUR LIVING BY TESTIFYING AGAINST PEOPLE, DON'T YOU, MR. HOUBEN?"

"WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY THAT?" THE WITNESS DEMANDED ANGRILY.

UNDER QUESTIONING, HOUBEN ACKNOWLEDGED THAT HE HAD RECEIVED BETWEEN $800 AND 900 IN FEES FROM THE GOVERNMMENT FOR TESTIFYING AT THE TREASON TRIALS OF TWO OTHER AMERICANS, DOUGLAS CHANDLER AND ROBERT H. BEST, IN BOSTON. BOTH RECEIVED LIFE SENTENCES.

HOUBEN SAID HE HAD ALSO EARNED $2,400 WORKING AS A LABORER IN PHILADELPHIA.

ALL FIVE RECORDINGS FEATURED "MIDGE." HOUBEN SAID THAT WAS MISS GILLARS. AMERICAN TROOPS WHO LISTENED TO THESE BROADCASTS FROM AFRICA TO GERMANY CALLED HER "AXIS SALLY," INSTEAD OF MIDGE.

INCLUDING MISS GILLARS, KELLEY SAID HE HAD ON HAND THE THREE FEATURED PLAYERS IN "VISION OF INVASION," WHICH THE GERMANS BROADCAST BEFORE THE INVASION.

WITNESSES ALREADY HAVE TESTIFIED THAT MISS GILLARS PLAYED THE ROLE OF AN AMERICAN MOTHER IN THE DRAMA. KELLEY SAID GEORGE HEINRICH SCHNELL, WHO PLAYED THE FATHER, AND ULRICH HAUPT, THE SON, HAVE BEEN BROUGHT HERE TO TESTIFY.

THE JURY HAS HEARD SNATCHES OF "VISION OF INVASION." IT CONCERNED THE DREAM OF AN AMERICAN MOTHER THAT HER SON WAS KILLED IN ATTEMPTING TO INVADE GERMAN-HELD EUROPE.

NEW YORK, JAN. 31-(AP)-THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON SAID TODAY THAT TEACHERS WHO ARE COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERS ARE NOT FREE TO SEEK TRUTH OBJECTIVELY AND HONESTLY.

DR.RAYMOND B.ALLEN MADE THE STATEMENT AT A PRESS CONFERENCE.

THREE PROFESSORS AT THE UNIVERSITY WERE DISMISSED A WEEK AGO FOR PAST OR PRESENT COMMUNIST PARTY MEMBERSHIP, AND THREE OTHERS WERE PLACED ON TWO YEARS' PROBATION.

ALLEN SAID THAT ON THE QUESTION OF ACADEMIC FREEDOM IN THE DISMISSALS, THE MAJOR ISSUE IS NOT WHETHER A PROFESSOR IS A COMMUNIST, BUT THAT HE BE FREE TO SEEK THE TRUTH.

"MEMBERSHIP IN THE COMMUNIST PARTY," HE ADDED, "IMPOSES A DISCIPLINE WHICH WOULD INHIBIT A TEACHER FROM OBJECTIVELY ANALYZING FACTS AND COMING TO AN HONEST CONCLUSION BASED ON THAT EXAMINATION."

THE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY'S BOARD OF REGENTS FIRED THE THREE PROFESSORS ON ALLEN'S RECOMMENDATION.

THE ACCUSATIONS RESULTED FROM A HEARING BY THE STATE LEGISLATIVE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE.

THE DISMISSED PROFESSORS ARE HERBERT J.PHILLIPS, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF PHILOSOPHY; JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH; AND RALPH GUNDLACH, ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF PSYCHOLOGY.

PHILLIPS AND BUTTERWORTH HAVE SAID THEY ARE APPEALING THE DISMISSALS TO THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS.

NEW YORK, JAN 31-(AP)-FEDERAL JUDGE HAROLD R.MEDINA TODAY AGAIN DENIED A MOTION THAT HE DISQUALIFY HIMSELF FROM HEARING A CHALLENGE TO THE JURY-PICKING SYSTEM HERE BY COUNSEL TO 11 INDICTED TOP U.S. COMMUNISTS.

AT THE SAME TIME, MEDINA DENIED A MOTION THAT ALL OTHER JUDGES IN THE SOUTHERN FEDERAL DISTRICT OF NEW YORK BE DISQUALIFIED FROM HEARING THE MOTION. DEFENSE COUNSEL CONTEND THAT THE METHOD OF PICKING JURORS HERE IS DISCRIMINATORY.

MEDINA'S ACTION WAS THE FIFTH TIME SINCE THE TRIAL OPENED JAN. 17 THAT HE HAS REFUSED TO DISQUALIFY HIMSELF OR THE OTHER JURISTS FROM HEARING THE CHALLENGE.

HIS LATEST DENIALCAME AFTER DEFENSE COUNSEL OPENED THE SESSION AFTER A WEEKEND RECESS BY PLACING IN EVIDENCE MAPS PURPORTING TO SUBSTANTIATE THEIR CLAIM OF DISCRIMINATION IN THE JURY-PICKING SYSTEM.

THE MAPS WERE DESIGNED TO SHOW THAT MEMBERS OF FEDERAL JURY PANELS WERE DRAWN FROM THE 17TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT--COMMONLY KNOWN AS THE "SILK STOCKING DISTRICT"--OUT OF PROPORTION TO LESS WEALTHY SECTIONS.

THE DEFENSE CONTENDS THE JURY-PICKING SYSTEM DISCRIMINATES IN FAVOR

OF THE RICH AGAINST THE POOR AND MEMBERS OF MINORITY GROUPS. THEREFORE, THEY CLAIM, THE INDICTMENT AGAINST THE COMMUNISTS, ALL MEMBERS OF THE AMERICAN PARTY'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE, SHOULD BE THROWN OUT.

THE COMMUNISTS ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRING TO ADVOCATE THE OVERTHROW OF THE U.S.GOVERNMENT.

THE MAPS WERE PLACED IN EVIDENCE DURING TESTIMONY BY PROF.DOXEY WILKERSON, NEGRO DIRECTOR OF FACULTY AND CURRICULUM AT THE JEFFERSON SCHOOL FOR SOCIAL STUDIES, WHICH SPECIALIZES IN MARXIST THEMES. THE SCHOOL IS NAMED ON ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK'S SUBVERSIVE LIST.

THE DECISION WAS ANNOUNCED BY CHAIRMAN WOOD (D-GA) AFTER THE FIRST MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE SINCE DEMOCRATS TOOK OVER ITS CONTROL. HE SAID THE VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS.

IN THE PAST, THE COMMITTEE'S HEARING OFTEN HAVE BEEN TELEVISED AND BROADCAST AND DISPLAYED IN THE NEWSREELS.

THE COMMITTEE ALSO DESIGNATED THREE OF ITS MEMBERS TO CONFER WITH ATTORNEY GENERAL TOM CLARK BUT WOOD WOULD NOT EXPLAIN THE NATURE OF THE MISSION. THE THREE ARE REPRESENTATIVES WALTER (D-PA), HARRISON (D-VA) AND NIXON (R-CALIF).

THE COMMITTEE DECIDED TO ASK THE HOUSE FOR $200,000 TO FINANCE ITS ACTIVITIES THIS YEAR.

DOWN THROUGH THE YEARS SINCE IT STARTED A DECADE AGO, THE COMMITTEE HAS BEEN HAVING RUN-INS WITH THE ADMINISTRATION--PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, PRESIDENT TRUMAN, THE COMMERCE DEPARTMENT, THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT.

BUT NOW THERE ARE SOME SIGNS THAT THE FEUDING MAY BE OVER.

WOOD TOLD REPORTERS ALEX M.CAMPBELL, ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL IN CHARGE OF THE CRIMINAL DIVISION, HAS CALLED ON HIM AND SHOWN A DESIRE TO "GET TOGETHER" WITH THE COMMITTEE. CAMPBELL, WHO SCRAPPED WITH THE OLD COMMITTEE IN THE LAST CONGRESS OVER THE WAY IT RAN ITS RED SPY HUNT, MAY COME UP SOON FOR A CHAT WITH THE NEW TEAM.

WOOD SAID THE COMMITTEE IS NOT INTERESTED IN TALKING WITH CAMPBELL ABOUT ANY SPECIFIC CASES.

"SPEAKING FOR MYSELF," HE SAID, "I WANT TO FIND OUT WHETHER WE CAN ESTABLISH A LIAISON BETWEEN OUR ACTIVITIES AND THOSE OF THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT. I HAVE EVERY REASON TO BELIEVE THAT WE CAN WORK IN HARMONY."

PREVIOUSLY THE CHAIRMAN HAD SAID THE COMMITTEE WOULD DECIDE WHETHER IT WOULD TRY TO SUBPOENA SAM CARR, ALLEGED RINGLEADER IN A WARTIME SOVIET ATOMIC SPY RING IN CANADA. THE FBI SEIZED CARR IN NEW YORK LAST WEEK.

WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-THE VAST FACILITIES OF THE VETERANS ADMINISTRATION WERE SHUFFLED TODAY TO HELP VETERANS MORE AND SAVE MONEY.

CARL R.GRAY,JR., ADMINISTRATOR, TOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THE MAJOR REORGANIZATION WOULD CUT OPERATING EXPENSES $10,000,000 A YEAR.

THE REAL AIM, HE SAID, IS TO GIVE INCREASED AND BETTER SERVICE TO VETERANS.

THIRTEEN BRANCH OFFICES WILL BE RELIEVED OF SUPERVISORY WORK. THEY WILL BECOME DISTRICT OFFICES LIMITED TO HANDLING NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE AND DEATH CLAIMS.

ALSO EFFECTIVE TOMORROW, THE 71 REGIONAL OFFICES AS WELL AS VA HOSPITALS WILL REPORT TO THE MAIN OFFICE HERE RATHER THAN TO BRANCH AGENCIES.

THE OVERHAUL WILL ELIMINATE ABOUT 2,500 JOBS, GRAY SAID, BUT HE ADDED THAT NO ONE WILL BE LAID OFF SUDDENLY. MOST OF THE EMPLOYES AFFECTED PROBABLY WILL GET NEW JOBS IN REGIONAL OFFICES, HE SAID.

ACTING AFTER A FIELD SURVEY HE HAS BEEN MAKING SINCE LAST MAY, GRAY SAID THE BRANCH OFFICES WHOSE WORK WILL BE LIGHTENED ARE IN BOSTON, NEW YORK, PHILADELPHIA, CHICAGO, RICHMOND, ATLANTA, COLUMBUS,

MINNEAPOLIS, DENVER, SAN FRANCISCO, ST.LOUIS, SEATTLE AND DALLAS.
DEPUTY ADMINISTRATORS HERE WILL RECEIVE THE REPORTS FROM THE REGIONAL OFFICES AND HOSPITALS. EACH DEPUTY WILL HAVE CHARGE OF ONE OR MORE FUNCTIONS.

WHILE GRAY WAS PLEASED OVER THE PROSPECT OF SAVING MONEY, HE EMPHASIZED THAT HE WOULD NOT HAVE ORDERED THE CHANGES UNLESS HE WAS SURE THAT VETERANS WOULD BENEFIT AT THE SAME TIME.

~~THE VETERAN, HE SAID, WILL NOT NOTICE ANY CHANGE BECAUSE THE~~ INDIVIDUAL VETERAN NOW DEALS WITH REGIONAL OFFICES AND HOSPITALS RATHER THAN THE BRANCH OFFICES.

BESIDES SPEEDING UP SERVICE FOR THE VETERANS, GRAY PREDICTED THAT THE CHANGES WILL MEAN GREATER EFFICIENCY IN GENERAL OPERATION, ELIMINATE OVERLAPPING OF RESPONSIBILITIES AND MAKE IT POSSIBLE TO USE PERSONNEL MORE ECONOMICALLY.

HE SAID PERSONNEL ADJUSTMENTS WILL BE MADE BETWEEN NOW AND JULY 1.

MD1145PESNM

~~THE 13 BRANCH MANAGERS HAVE BEEN NAMED TO HEAD THE DISTRICT OFFICES~~ WHICH REPLACE THEM, GRAY SAID.

IN A LETTER TO THE BRANCH MANAGERS, GRAY SAID:

"WHILE THE ORGANIZATION CHANGE WILL INVOLVE SOME PERSONNEL ADJUSTMENTS, I SINCERELY HOPE THAT WE WILL BE ABLE TO RETAIN OUR MORE VALUABLE PEOPLE IN THE VA."

THE VETERAN WILL NOT REALIZE ANY CHANGE HAS BEEN MADE, GRAY SAID. THE INDIVIDUAL VETERAN HAS DEALT WITH REGIONAL OFFICES AND HOSPITALS, RATHER THAN THE BRANCH OFFICE WHICH SUPERVISED THE REGIONAL OFFICES AND HOSPITALS. WASHINGTON(VA) - ~~HE~~ ECONOMICALLY

HE SAID THE REDUCTION IN PERSONNEL WILL BE MADE GRADUALLY BETWEEN NOW AND JULY 1, AND THAT NO EMPLOYEES WILL BE LAID OFF IMMEDIATELY.

UNDER THE NEW SETUP, GRAY EXPLAINED, REGIONAL OFFICES AND HOSPITALS WILL REPORT TO DEPUTY ADMINISTRATORS IN WASHINGTON. EACH DEPUTY ADMINISTRATOR--GRAY CALLED THEM "VA VICE PRESIDENTS"--WILL HAVE CHARGE OF ONE OR MORE FUNCTIONS.

AFTER THREE YEARS AS A RHODES SCHOLAR AT OXFORD UNIVERSITY, RUSK ATTENDED THE UNIVERSITY OF BERLIN IN 1934 AND LATER STUDIED AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA LAW SCHOOL.

PRIOR TO THE WAR HE WAS ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF GOVERNMENT AND DEAN OF THE FACULTY AT MILLS COLLEGE, OAKLAND, CALIF.

DURING THE WAR HE WAS DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF IN THE CHINA-BURMA-INDIA THEATER AND LATER SERVED IN THE OPERATIONS PLANNING DIVISION OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT GENERAL STAFF.

IN 1946, HE WAS APPOINTED ASSISTANT CHIEF OF THE DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL SECURITY IN THE STATE DEPARTMENT. LATER THAT SAME YEAR HE BECAME ASSISTANT TO THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, JAN 31-(AP)-PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKED CONGRESS TODAY TO APPROPRIATE AN ADDITIONAL $20,000,000 FOR THE PHILIPPINE WAR DAMAGE COMMISSION.

IN A LETTER TO HOUSE SPEAKER RAYBURN, THE PRESIDENT SAID COMMISSION EXPENSES FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1950 WILL HAVE TO BE UPPED FROM $165,000,000 TO $185,000,000 IN ORDER TO PAY WAR DAMAGE CLAIMS AT THE "ACCERATED RATE REQUIRED FOR WINDING UP THE COMMISSION'S AFFAIRS X X X."

THE 1950 FISCAL YEAR IS THE 12 MONTHS ENDING WITH JUNE 30, 1950.

WASHINGTON, JAN 31-(AP)-"THE VERY SURVIVAL OF FREE EUROPE" DEMANDS THE UTMOST IN MUTUAL AID BETWEEN EUROPEAN NATIONS IN ADDITION TO MARSHALL PLAN DOLLARS, PAUL G.HOFFMAN SAID TONIGHT.

AMERICAN AID ALONE WILL NOT ASSURE EUROPEAN RECOVERY, THE ECONOMIC COOPERATION ADMINISTRATOR SAID IN A SPEECH PREPARED FOR THE NATIONAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION.

EUROPE MUST BUILD AMONG ITS OWN COUNTRIES A "VIRILE AND DYNAMIC AND INTEGRATED ECONOMY" IF IT IS TO "ESCAPE ENSLAVEMENT" BY COMMUNISM, HOFFMAN SAID IN ACCEPTING THE ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL GOLD MEDAL AWARD.

A LIKE HONOR WENT TO FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE MARSHALL, NOW RECUPERATING IN PUERTO RICO FROM A KIDNEY OPERATION.

BOTH MEN WERE CITED FOR "OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION THROUGH PLANNING FOR THE BETTER OF HUMAN LIFE." THE AWARD TO MARSHALL WAS ACCEPTED BY WAYNE C.TAYLOR.

"THERE ARE ONLY A FEW IDEAS WHICH IN EACH AGE FUNDAMENTALLY ALTER THE DIRECTION OF HISTORY," HOFFMAN SAID. "THE MARSHALL PLAN IS ONE OF THEM."

ROBERT HELLER, CLEVELAND, OHIO, WAS PRESENTED WITH THE NATIONAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION'S CERTIFICATE OF EXTRAORDINARY ACHIEVEMENT FOR WORK ON A PROGRAM CONNECTED WITH THE REORGANIZATION OF CONGRESS, AS SET OUT IN THE LEGISLATIVE REORGANIZATION ACT OF 1946.

WASHINGTON, JAN.31-(AP)-REP.CASE (R-SD) ASKED CONGRESS TODAY TO LET 500 DISPLACED DOCTORS AND 1,000 DISPLACED NURSES ENTER THE COUNTRY TO TAKE JOBS AT GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS.

HE INTRODUCED A BILL TO AMEND THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT OF 1948. IT WOULD AUTHORIZE ENTRANCE OF ELIGIBLE DISPLACED DOCTORS, NURSES AND THEIR FAMILIES.

ELIGIBILITY WOULD BE DETERMINED BY A FIVE MAN BOARD.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 31-(AP)-J. D. ZELLERBACH, CHIEF OF THE ITALIAN MISSION FOR THE EUROPEAN RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION, SAID TODAY HE WILL RECOMMEND THE ERA SPEND $610,000,000 (M) DURING THE COMING YEAR FOR AID TO ITALY.

ZELLERBACH, PRESIDENT OF A PAPER MANUFACTURING COMPANY HERE, HAS JUST RETURNED FROM SIX MONTHS IN ROME. HE WILL GO TO WASHINGTON SUNDAY TO MAKE HIS RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE HOUSE AND SENATE FOREIGN AFFAIRS COMMITTEE, AND THEN WILL RETURN TO ROME.

HE SAID ITALY HAS MADE "SUBSTANTIAL AND IN SOME RESPECTS REMARKABLE" STRIDES TOWARD RECOVERY SINCE THE END OF THE WAR. BY 1952, WHEN THE MARSHALL PLAN IS DUE TO TERMINATE, "ITALY WILL BE WELL WITHIN THE REACH OF FULL RECOVERY," HE PREDICTED.

WASHINGTON 2ND ADD ATOMIC (ORIGINAL--B21 SATURDAY DAY REPORT)

X X X OF THE GOVERNMENT."

IN A DISCUSSION OF NEW RESEARCH METHODS, THE COMMISSION TOLD OF A PROTON SYNCHROTRON PLANNED FOR THE BROOKHAVEN, L.I., N.Y., NATIONAL LABORATORY.

CALLING THIS A "TRAIL-BLAZING MACHINE," THE REPORT SAID IT IS AN ELTRO-NUCLEAR ACCELERATOR WHICH WILL DEVELOP ENERGIES SEVEN TIMES THOSE PRODUCED BY ANY ACCELERATOR NOW IN USE.

A HUGE OVAL TRACK, 75 FEET ACROSS, AND A MAGNET 70 FEET IN DIAMTER WILL SEND PROTONS RACING AT CLOSE TO THE SPEED OF LIGHT AND WITH ENERGIES OF 3,000,000,000 (B) ELECTRON VOLTS.

THE PROTONS ARE AIMED AT ATOMS, WHOSE NUCLEI ARE TO BE SPLIT.

THE SYNCHROTRON IS AN IMPROVEMENT OVER THE EARLIER CYCLOTRONS.

THE REPORT SAID THE BROOKHAVEN DESIGNERS EXPECT TO HAVE ALL MAJOR PARTS OF THE MACHINE IN PLACE BY THE END OF 1949.

"EVEN THEN, HOWEVER," THE REPORT ADDED, "THEY MAY HAVE A YEAR OF TESTING AND ADJUSTMENTS AHEAD OF THEM BEFORE THEY GET THE MACHINE INTO OPERATION."

SINCE THE ENIWETOK TESTS WERE DESCRIBED AS SUCCESSFUL, THE NEW DESIGNS PRESUMABLY MEET THESE REQUIREMENTS.

"WORK HAS ALSO BEEN DONE," THE REPORT SAID, "ON THE ENGINEERING DEVELOPMENT OF WEAPONS FOR GREATER EASE OF PRODUCTION AND GREATER SERVICEABILITY." WASHINGTON (ATOMIC) XXXperformance

WHILE THE COMMISSION MADE ONLY A BRIEF REFERENCE TO THE PRODUCTION OF INDUSTRIAL POWER FROM ATOMIC ENERGY, IT SAID THE SUBJECT IS SO IMPORTANT THAT IT PLANS TO SEND A SPECIAL REPORT TO CONGRESS TO DEAL WITH IT.

AI PECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY IT HAS REACHED THE LIMIT OF BUILDING SPACE AT THE PRESENT SITE OF ITS LOS ALAMOS,N.M., SCIENTIFIC LABORATORY AND THAT FURTHER CONSTRUCTION MUST BE ELSEWHERE.

IN ITS SEMIANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS, THE COMMISSION SAID THAT STRUCTURES AT THE LOS ALAMOS PROJECT--THE CENTER FOR DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC WEAPONS--ARE NOW "CROWDED INTO A SMALL AREA AND ARE HIGHLY UNSATISFACTORY FROM THE STANDPOINTS OF ECONOMY, EFFICIENCY, SECURITY AND SAFETY."

"THE CONSTRUCTION OF NEW TECHNICAL BUILDINGS AT ANOTHER LOCATION AT LOS ALAMOS IS NEEDED FOR FUTURE PROGRESS AND FLEXIBILITY IN THE ATOMIC WEAPONS PROGRAM AND FOR EVENTUAL DOLLAR ECONOMY," THE REPORT CONTINUED.

"INITIAL CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS OF IMMEDIATE URGENCY HAVE BEEN AUTHORIZED FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1949 (THE CURRENT YEAR ENDING NEXT JULY 1), AND THSE WILL BE INTEGRATED INTO A LONGER RANGE PLAN FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE NEW TECHNICAL AREA."

THE COMMISSION NOTED THAT THE SITE OF LOS ALAMOS "CONTINUES TO BE A GOOD ONE" FOR THE REASONS THAT IT WAS SELECTED--ISOLATION AND SPACE FOR TESTING ATOMIC PRODUCTS.

ABOUT 2,700 PERSONS ARE NOW EMPLOYED AT THE LOS ALAMOS PROJECT, INCLUDING THOSE STATIONED AT THE SANDIA LABORATORY NEAR ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., THE COMMISSION SAID. IT TOLD CONGRESS: "THE HIGH CAPABILITIES OF THE STAFF ARE INDICATED BY THE RECENT SUCCESSES IN WEAPON DEVELOPMENT AND BASIC RESEARCH."

WORK AT LOS ALAMOS INCLUDES RESEARCH ON THE PHYSICAL, CHEMICAL, METALLURGICAL AND NUCLEAR PROPERTIES OF FISSIONABLE MATERIALS AND OTHER MATERIALS OF INTEREST, THE COMMISSION SAID. THE REPORT CONTINUED:

"SUCH RESEARCH LEADS TO THE DISCOVERY AND THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE FUNDAMENTAL FACTS AND PRINCIPLES INVOLVED AND THUS PROVIDES THE BASIS FOR IMMEDIATE DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC WEAPONS AND FOR BROAD ADVANCES IN THE FUTURE ON BOTH THE MILITARY AND THE PEACEFUL APPLICATIONS OF ATOMIC ENERGY X X X RESEARCH AT LOS ALAMOS INCLUDES INVESTIGATIONS OF CERTAIN SUBJECTS OF GENERAL SCIENTIFIC INTEREST, RANGING FROM THE NATURE OF NUCLEAR FORCES TO THE EFFECTS OF RADIATION ON LIVING ORGANISMS."

THE COMMISSION SAID THAT DURING 1948 WORK WAS COMPLETED ON 326 HOUSES, 92 TWO-BEDROOM APARTMENTS, 84 ONE-BEDROOM APARTMENTS AND A PERMANENT TRAILER CAMP AT LOS ALAMOS. CONSTRUCTION ALSO WAS UNDER WAY ON ANOTHER 333 HOUSES AND MORE THAN 100 APARTMENTS.

THE REPORT RECOMMENDED THAT CONGRESS CONSIDER AS SOON AS POSSIBLE A BILL TO GIVE THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF LANDS WITHIN THE LOS ALAMOS AREA.

"EXPERIENCE AT OAK RIDGE AND HANFORD HAS DEMONSTRATED THAT THE PERFORMANCE, PROTECTION, AND SECURITY OF THE COMMISSION'S FUNCTIONS CAN BE ADEQUATELY SAFEGUARDED UNDER STATE JURISDICTION," THE COMMISSION SAID.

HERE'S WHAT THE REPORT HAD TO SAY ABOUT CHEAPER PRODUCTION OF THE ATOMIC MATERIALS (URANIUM-235 AND PLUTONIUM) WHICH CAN BE USED TO MAKE A BOMB, PUBLISH THE WHITEWASH FOR POSSIBLE ATOMIC POWER PLANTS; OR MAKE POSSIBLE THE PRODUCTION OF RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS USED IN MEDICAL AND OTHER RESEARCH: WASHINGTON-XXX WEAPO-4S

"SINCE 1946, THE AEC AND ITS CONTRACTORS HAVE EFFECTED IMPROVEMENTS AND EFFICIENCY THAT HAVE RESULTED IN INCREASED PRODUCTION OF FISSIONABLE MATERIALS AT LOWERED COST X X X

"WITH BETTER FACILITIES AND PROCESS, THE PRODUCTION SYSTEM TURNED OUT MORE FISSIONABLE MATERIALS DURING 1948 THAN IN 1947. IN SPITE OF HIGHER WAGES AND GREATER COSTS OF MATERIALS, THE AVERAGE COST OF THE PRODUCT IS LESS PER POUND TODAY THAN IT WAS A YEAR AGO. THE YIELD OF PRODUCT FROM EACH TON OF RAW MATERIAL CONTINUED TO INCREASE BECAUSE OF A REDUCTION OF THE AMOUNT OF URANIUM LOST IN FACTORY WASTES."

(RAW URANIUM ORE IS REQUIRED TO OBTAIN THE EXPLOSIVE FRACTION--URANIUM-235--AND ALSO THE SIMILARLY-EXPLOSIVE PLUTONIUM WHICH IS MADE FROM NON-EXPLOSIVE URANIUM.)

"THE AMOUNT OF THESE MATERIALS AVAILABLE IS A SIGNIFICANT MEASURE OF THE NATIONAL WEALTH," THE AEC SAID, ADDING:

"IT DETERMINES HOW MANY ATOMIC WEAPONS THE AMERICAN PEOPLE CAN BUILD FOR DEFENSE AND THE NUMBER AND POWER OF ATOMIC MACHINES--NUCLEAR REACTORS--THAT CAN BE OPERATED FOR APPLICATION OF THE NEW ENERGY TO ALL PARTS OF OUR NATIONAL LIFE."

IN THE LINE OF ANTI-SABOTAGE AND DEFENSE-AGAINST-ATTACK MEASURES, THE REPORT GAVE THESE DETAILS:

"X X X A NUMBER OF ADDITIONAL MECHANICAL, ELECTRICAL, AND OTHER PROTECTIVE DEVICES AS WELL AS OTHER SAFEGUARDS HAVE BEEN INSTALLED (AT KEY PLANTS) TO CONTROL AND LIMIT POSSIBLE SABOTAGE DAMAGE."

AND--

"DURING 1948, ALSO, THE COMMISSION HAS TAKEN STEPS FOR THE EMERGENCY DEFENSE OF ITS VITAL FACILITIES AGAINST ATTACK."

IN COLLABORATION WITH THE NATIONAL MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT IN ITS PLANS, THE COMMISSION "HAS OBTAINED FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY WEAPONS, ARMORED VEHICLES, AND COMMUNICATION AND OTHER EQUIPMENT."

"GUARD FORCES AT MAJOR INSTALLATIONS HAVE BEEN TRAINED IN THE USE OF MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND IN OTHER TACTICAL DEFENSE MEASURES IN COOPERATION WITH THE ARMED SERVICES.

"TACTICAL MANEUVERS AND PRACTICE ALERTS IN WHICH BOTH ARMY AND AIR FORCE COMBAT UNITS AND COMMISSION PROTECTIVE FORCES HAVE PARTICIPATED, HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED AT PRINCIPAL SITES."

BUT CHAIRMAN LILIENTHAL DECLARED AT THE NEWS CONFERENCE THAT THESE STEPS OF THE AEC ARE "SIMPLY A FORM OF LOCAL GUARD PROTECTION" AND DO NOT CONSTITUTE "TAKING OVER IN ANY WAY THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE ARMY."

AP SPECIAL WASHINGTON SERVICE

(ADVANCE)-WASHINGTON,JAN.31-(AP)-GUARANTEED PRICES AND BONUSES FOR ORES HAVE "STIMULATED A LARGE PUBLIC INTEREST IN THE SEARCH FOR URANIUM," THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION SAID TODAY.

IT NOTIFIED CONGRESS THAT DURING A THREE-MONTH PERIOD OF 1948 ALONE, PROSPECTORS SENT TO THE COMMISSION FOR EXAMINATION NEARLY 800 ORE SAMPLES.

"SOME OF WHICH," THE COMMISSION ADDED, "CONTAINED ENOUGH URANIUM TO WARRANT FIELD INVESTIGATION."

URANIUM IS ONE OF THE BASIC INGREDIENTS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF ATOMIC ENERGY.

MAJOR EXPLORATIONS FOR URANIUM CONTINUE TO BE CARRIED ON IN THE COLORADO PLATEAU REGION, THE COMMISSION TOLD CONGRESS IN ITS SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT, ALTHOUGH SEVERAL AREAS HAVE BEEN FOUND IN ALASKA THAT WILL BE INVESTIGATED FURTHER.

THE COMMISSION SAID THAT IN THE SEARCH FOR FISSIONABLE MATERIALS THE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY HAS STEPPED UP ITS DIAMOND DRILLING TO A RATE OF 200,000 FEET PER YEAR.

OF THE FIVE VANADIUM PLANTS THAT OPERATED IN THE COLORADO AREA DURING THE WAR, ONLY TWO ARE NOW AT WORK AND ARE SELLING BYPRODUCT URANIUM TO THE GOVERNMENT, THE REPORT STATED. THE COMMISSION SAID IT PLANS TO PUT THE THREE IDLE PLANTS BACK TO WORK "WITH PRODUCTION OF URANIUM AS THEIR PRIMARY PURPOSE."

IN LINE WITH THIS PROGRAM, A PLANT AT MONTICELLO,UTAH, ESPECIALLY REDESIGNED FOR URANIUM EXTRACTION IS EXPECTED TO BE IN OPERATION BY JULY 1949, THE COMMISSION SAID. THE FIRST ORE SHIPMENTS WERE RECEIVED THERE LAST JULY 12.

THE REPORT CONTINUED:

"IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE NEW PRICE SCHEDULE WILL BRING OUT SUFFICIENT ORE TO ENABLE THE FIVE PLANTS IN THE AREA TO OPERATE AT CAPACITY. PRESENT ORE RESERVES DO NOT JUSTIFY ADDITIONAL PLANTS, AND THE EXPLORATION PROGRAM MUST BE VIGOROUSLY PURSUED IN ORDER TO ASSURE A REASONABLY LONG OPERATING PERIOD FOR EXISTING PLANTS. IF SUFFICIENT QUANTITIES OF ADDITIONAL ORE ARE DISCOVERED, EXPANSION OF MILLING OPERATIONS CAN BE CONSIDERED."

WASHINGTON, JAN 31-(AP)-THE ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION GAVE OUT SOME BIG FIGURES TODAY ON ITS HANFORD, WASH., PLUTONIUM PLANT.

IT COST NEARLY $350,000,000 (M) AND WORK IS STILL GOING ON.

THE SIZE OF THE HANFORD RESERVATION IS 400,000 ACRES--MORE THAN HALF THE AREA OF RHODE ISLAND.

WATER DIVERTED FROM THE COLUMBIA RIVER DURING THE WAR TO COOL THE THREE REACTORS ON THE PROJECT (URANIUM AND GRAPHITE PILES USED FOR THE PRODUCTION OF PLUTONIUM) WOULD HAVE EQUALED THE WATER CONSUMPTION OF A CITY WITH 1,000,000 INHABITANTS.

THE TEMPORARY CONSTRUCTION CAMP FOR THE PROJECT HOUSED 60,000 PEOPLE.

THE COMMISSION, IN ITS SEMIANNUAL REPORT TO CONGRESS, SAID THE PROJECT, AS OPERATED DURING THE WAR, CONSISTED OF THE REACTORS, CHEMICAL SEPARATION PLANTS, AND THE COMMUNITY OF RICHLAND, WASH.

SINCE THAT TIME, AN EXTENSIVE RECONDITIONING AND OVERHAUL PROGRAM HAS BEEN UNDER WAY AT HANFORD, THE COMMISSION SAID, WITH THESE OBJECTIVES:

1. REHABILITATING EXISTING EQUIPMENT AND OPERATING IT MORE EFFICIENTLY TO PROLONG ITS USEFUL LIFE AND RAISE THE RATE OF OUTPUT.

2. BUILDING PLANTS TO REPLACE EXISTING FACILITIES PLUS ADDITIONAL PLANTS FOR GREATER PRODUCTION ENERGY.

3. DEVELOPING NEW AND MORE EFFICIENT PROCESSES AND OPERATING TECHNIQUES.

"THE PAST TWO YEARS HAVE SEEN MARKED PROGRESS TOWARD THESE GOALS," THE REPORT SAID.

"LATE IN 1948, THE PRODUCTION RATE OF THE ORIGINAL REACTORS WAS GREATER THAN ANY ACHIEVED IN WARTIME. NEW CHEMICAL PROCESSES THAT SHOULD BRING GREAT SAVINGS IN URANIUM ARE NOW IN THE PILOT-PLANT STAGE.

"THE RESULTING CONSTRUCTION OF NEW PLANTS AND SUPPORTING FACILITIES IS COMPARABLE IN SIZE TO THE ORIGINAL WARTIME PROJECT."

THE COMMISSION DISCLOSED THAT BY LATE 1947 THE ORIGINAL REACTORS HAD DETERIORATED BADLY, AND A MAJOR REPAIR PROGRAM BECAME URGENT. A NEW REACTOR PROGRAM WAS AUTHORIZED LATE IN 1947 TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL CAPACITY, AND MORE THAN 15,000 MEN ARE NOW AT WORK ON THESE AND OTHER FACILITIES.

(ADVANCE)-DETROIT, JAN.31-(AP)-A LEADING CONGRESSIONAL SPOKESMAN ON ATOMIC ENERGY SAID TODAY A "DISASTROUS WAR" MIGHT BE PREVENTED IF THE UNITED STATES TELLS THE WORLD HOW MANY ATOM BOMBS WE HAVE.

SENATOR BRIEN MC MAHON (D-CONN), CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE ON ATOMIC ENERGY, TERMED THE PRESENT SECRECY ABOUT ATOM BOMB PRODUCTION "AN EXTRAORDINARY STATE OF AFFAIRS."

IN AN ADDRESS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY BEFORE THE ECONOMIC CLUB OF DETROIT, MC MAHON SAID "IN THE CASE OF ATOMIC ENERGY CONGRESS HAS PURCHASED A DEFENSE PACKAGE SIGHT UNSEEN."

"HOW CAN CONGRESS AND THE AMERICAN PEOPLE JUDGE DEFENSE NEEDS UNLESS THEY KNOW THE SIZE OF THE ATOMIC STOCKPILE?," HE ASKED. "PERHAPS, IF THAT STOCKPILE IS LARGE, WE DO NOT NEED TO SPEND AS MUCH AS WE HAD SUPPOSED."

DECLARING THAT HE HAD NOT YET MADE UP HIS OWN MIND ON WHETHER PRODUCTION FIGURES SHOULD BE DISCLOSED, MC MAHON SAID, "PERHAPS IF WE DISCLOSED THE FACTS, WE WOULD PREVENT A DISASTROUS WAR STARTED BECAUSE OF THE AGGRESSOR'S MISTAKEN ESTIMATE AS TO OUR ATOMIC STATUS."

THE SOVIET LEADER HAD BROUGHT UP THE PROBLEM OF SUSPENDING THE WESTERN GERMAN GOVERNMENT AS A MEANS OF SETTLING THE BERLIN CRISIS IN NEGOTIATIONS LAST AUGUST. THE WESTERN POWERS AT THAT TIME TOOK THE BASIC POSITION, WHICH THEY HAVE SINCE HELD TO, THAT THEY WOULD NOT ALTER ANY OF THEIR PLANS UNDER THE PRESSURE OF THE BERLIN BLOCKADE

AS FOR A MEETING WITH MR.TRUMAN, THE GENERAL REACTION HERE WAS THAT STALIN HAD PUT HIMSELF ABOUT IN THE POSITION THAT MR.TRUMAN HAS HELD FOR MANY MONTHS. THE PRESIDENT HAS TOLD PRESS CONFERENCES THAT HE WOULD BE GLAD TO SEE MR.STALIN IN WASHINGTON AT ANY TIME. DIPLOMATS WERE FOUND IT DIFFICULT TO DISCOVER ANY POSITIVE ACTION TOWARD A MEETING IN THE POSITION OF EITHER MAN.

ACTUALLY, THE STATE DEPARTMENT'S LINE ON STALIN'S MANEUVER SEEMS CERTAIN TO BE A CONTINUATION OF THE COMMENT ON PREVIOUS RUSSIAN PEACE TALK THAT ACTIONS ARE MORE CONVINCING THAN WORDS.

OFFICIALS ARE MOVING SLOWLY, HOWEVER, BECAUSE THEY DO NOT WANT TO GIVE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE UNITED STATES WOULD EVER REJECT ANY GENUINE RUSSIAN MOVE FROM STALIN OR ANY OTHER OFFICIAL TOWARD A SETTLEMENT WITH THE WEST. WASH.CALLING(*) XXX FAITH.

THE BASIC DIFFICULTY, AS MR.TRUMAN PRACTICALLY SAID IN HIS INAUGURATION SPEECH, IS THAT OFFICIAL WASHINGTON NO LONGER HAS ANY FAITH IN THE COMMUNIST HIGH COMMAND, ITS WORDS OR ITS PLEDGES. THAT IS THE REAL REASON FOR THE EMPHASIS ON ACTION AS A PROOF OF GOOD FAITH.

AT THE SAME TIME OFFICIAL WASHINGTON HAS A PROPAGANDA BATTLE ON ITS HANDS EVERY DAY. OTHER PEOPLE IN CRITICAL COLD WAR AREAS ARE NOT SO CONVINCED AS AMERICAN OFFICIALS ABOUT WHAT THE RUSSIAN GRAND STRATEGY MAY BE.

SENATOR CONNALLY (D-TEX), CHAIRMAN OF THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE, SAW IN STALIN'S STATEMENT "A SIGNIFICANT DEVELOPMENT" WHICH "HOLDS POSSIBILITIES FOR PEACE AND HARMONY." SENATOR GEORGE (D-GA) OF THE SAME COMMITTEE SAID HE DIDN'T KNOW "WHAT IMPORTANCE CAN BE ATTACHED" TO THE STATEMENT BUT "IT MIGHT BE EXPLORED." SENATOR WILEY (R-WIS) SAID HE SAW NO OBJECTION TO A TRUMAN-STALIN MEETING BUT "WORDS ARE CHEAP, WHAT WE WANT ARE DEEDS."

KODIAK,ALASKA,JAN.31-(AP)-ALASKA'S DEFENSE ARE INCAPABLE OF FIGHTING OFF ANY MAJOR ATTACK, THE COMMANDER OF THE ALASKA SEA FRONTIER DECLARED YESTERDAY, AND IT IS PROBLEMATICAL WHEN AND IF THEY WILL BE IMPROVED.

REAR ADM.ALFRED E.MONTGOMERY GAVE A PRESS CONFERENCE THE FOLLOWING ANALYSIS OF THE TERRITORY'S DEFENSES:

"KODIAK IS NOT ACTUALLY IN BAD SHAPE. WE HAVE PERMANENT BUILDINGS AND FACILITIES. WE WOULD NEED PRINCIPALLY SOME IMPROVEMENTS ON OUR AIRFIELDS AND IN QUARTERS FOR PERSONNEL.

"ADAK, SOME 900 MILES WEST OF HERE IN THE ALEUTIAN CHAIN, HAS ONLY TEMPORARY STRUCTURES, HOWEVER. THE DOCKS ARE FALLING APART AND THE QUONSET HUTS ARE ROTTING.

"IMPROVEMENTS SUCH AS THESE WILL HAVE TO BE MADE BEFORE THESE INSTALLATIONS CAN EVEN TAKE CARE OF PEACETIME REQUIREMENTS."

LATER SECRETARY OF THE ARMY KENNETH C.ROYALL SAID HE WOULD RECOMMEND STRENGTHENING ALASKA'S DEFENSES, "BUT THE PRIMARY PROBLEM IS TO PROVIDE HOUSING FOR TROOPS ALREADY SCHEDULED TO COME HERE."

ROYALL AND HIS PARTY INSPECTED ALASKA DEFENSES YESTERDAY ON STOPS EN ROUTE TO JAPAN. ROYALL ARRIVED BY PLANE FROM FAIRBANKS AND AFTER A 45-MINUTE STOP LEFT FOR ANCHORAGE.

LT.GEN.N.F.TWINING, OVERALL CHIEF OF UNIFIED FORCES IN ALASKA, AND LT.GEN.STANLEY SCOTT, COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE ARMY IN ALASKA, JOINED ROYALL'S PARTY FOR A TOUR OF THIS SECTOR.

ANY NATION CONTROLLING ALASKA, ADM.MONTGOMERY SAID, WOULD HAVE A TREMENDOUS ADVANTAGE IN ATTACKING THE UNITED STATES, THOUGH HE SPOKE OF KODIAK ISLAND ITSELF AS BEING OF LITTLE POTENTIAL USE TO AN ENEMY.

NONETHELESS, MILITARY PERSONNEL AT KODIAK GO THROUGH EXTENSIVE DEFENSE DRILLS ONCE A MONTH. WOMEN ARE EVACUATED TO REMOTE BARRACKS

AREAS AND TROOPS CARRY THEIR BATTLE EQUIPMENT.

ALTHOUGH CIVILIANS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO JOIN IN THE DRILLS, SOME DO. THEY DO NOT CARRY ARMS, BUT PERFORM SUCH FUNCTIONS AS DRIVING TRUCKS AND AMBULANCES AS THEY WOULD IN CASE OF ATTACK.

COMMENTING ON THE ATTITUDE OF KODIAK RESIDENTS TO THEIR POSITION, MEL CRAWFORD, EDITOR OF THE KODIAK MIRROR, SAID THEY ARE EXTREMELY CONSCIOUS OF THEIR VULNERABILITY IN CASE OF WAR WITH RUSSIA, BUT THEY DON'T REALLY BELIEVE ANYTHING IS GOING TO HAPPEN TO THEM.
